Statement by Governor Murphy on the Passing of Monroe Mayor Gerald Tamburro

12/31/2020

"Mayor Gerald Tamburro was an example of the right person going into public service for the right reasons. Instead of spending his retirement from the private sector in quiet pursuits, Jerry dedicated his last two decades to the people of Monroe, his adopted hometown, which responded by electing him to township council and twice as their mayor.

Jerry's legacy of service will be his tireless work to protect Monroe's taxpayers and their quality of life, and the pride he took in never having let a developer pull a fast one against the township.

More than anything, however, Jerry was a friend to many and a loving family man. He lost his wife of 60 years, Carole, last year and I take some solace in knowing he and Carole are now reunited. He was a good and unwavering personal friend, even in those early days when he didn't have to be, and his support was always truly meaningful. Tammy and I send our most heartfelt condolences to his and Carole's six children and many grandchildren and great-grandchildren."
