ICYMI: New Jersey Department of Health Confirms Continued WIC Funding Through November 2025

Posted on - 10/31/2025

TRENTON – Families who rely on the Women, Infants, and Children (WIC) program may be worried that the federal government shutdown could disrupt their ability to use WIC benefits and services. New Jersey Department of Health projects that, based on normal spending habits, funding for WIC benefits and services will continue without interruption through November 2025. Updates will continue to be shared through NJ’s WIC agencies as well as on the Department’s website and social media channels.

Access to nutritious foods, breastfeeding support, and other health resources and services is essential to the well-being of women, infants, and children. We will continue to explore every option available to ensure eligible families and children continue to have access to nutritious foods should the federal shutdown extend beyond November. Our commitment to promoting healthy families and strong communities remains unwavering.
