B.E., on behalf of minor child, F.E.,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF PISCATAWAY, MIDDLESEX COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

SYNOPSIS

Petitioner appealed the decision of the respondent Board to suspend F.E. for one year based upon incidents that included cyberbullying and disruption of school activities. Prior to the commencement of the 2018-2019 school year, petitioner withdrew F.E. from Piscataway High School (PHS) and enrolled him in a private school in Edison, New Jersey. The Board filed a motion to dismiss the petition for lack of jurisdiction. Petitioner claimed that he retained standing to challenge the findings of the Board and the discipline imposed, notwithstanding the decision to enroll F.E. in a private school. The Board contended that once F.E. was disenrolled from PHS, the Commissioner and the Office of Administrative Law lost jurisdiction over this matter; therefore, petitioner can no longer challenge the accuracy of F.E.'s disciplinary records using the regulations at N.J.A.C. 6A:32-7.7, but instead must rely on the Destruction of Public Records Law, N.J.S.A. 47:3-15. Petitioner argued that he has not asked for expungement of F.E.'s records, even though the Board has tried to frame the issue herein as a challenge to their accuracy pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:32-7.7; rather, petitioner seeks only a review of the merits of the Board's decision which resulted in F.E.'s suspension.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: the only issue to be determined in this case is whether the Commissioner maintained jurisdiction to hear the appeal after F.E. was disenrolled from PHS; though the within dispute began as a challenge to discipline under the school laws, once F.E. was disenrolled from the Piscataway school district, the Commissioner no longer retained jurisdiction over this matter. In so determining, the ALJ relied upon R.W., on behalf of minor child, A.W. v. Board of Educ. of the Township of Washington, Gloucester County in support of the position that since F.E. is no longer a student in the respondent's school district, the Commissioner is without jurisdiction to adjudicate the controversy. The ALJ granted the Board's motion to dismiss the petition.

Upon comprehensive review and consideration, the Commissioner found, inter alia, that the ALJ erroneously dismissed the petition for lack of jurisdiction and remanded the matter to the OAL for further proceedings. In so finding, the Commissioner noted, inter alia, that F.E.'s disenrollment from the District during these proceedings does not void the Commissioner's jurisdiction to review a challenge to the one-year suspension, and petitioner is entitled to a decision on the merits. Accordingly, the matter was remanded to the OAL for further proceedings consistent with these concerns.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

January 4, 2019

2-19

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 11838-18
AGENCY DKT. NO. 182-7/18

B.E., on behalf of minor child, F.E.,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF PISCATAWAY, MIDDLESEX COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed, as have the exceptions filed pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4 by the petitioner, B.E., and the Piscataway Board of Education's (Board) reply thereto. In this matter, the petitioner is challenging the Board's decision to suspend F.E. for one year, as the result of an incident that occurred in March 2018. After the petition was filed in July 2018, the petitioner withdrew F.E. from the District and enrolled him in private school. The Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) found that because F.E. was disenrolled from the District, the Commissioner no longer has jurisdiction over this matter; consequently, the ALJ granted the Board's motion to dismiss.

Upon a comprehensive review of the record, the Commissioner finds that the ALJ erroneously dismissed the petition of appeal for lack of jurisdiction. It is well established that the Commissioner of Education's jurisdiction extends to controversies and disputes arising under New Jersey school law. N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9. Further, a challenge to a board of education's decision to impose discipline on a student falls squarely within the Commissioner's jurisdiction. Therefore, the Commissioner has jurisdiction to determine whether the Board's decision to impose a one-year suspension on F.E. was arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable. Importantly, the disenrollment of F.E. from the District during these proceedings does not void the Commissioner's jurisdiction to review a challenge to the one-year suspension. See, Destiny Jackson v. Board of Educ. of the Morris School District, Morris County, et al., Commissioner Decision No. 462-14, decided November 20, 2014 (Despite the fact that the petitioner had graduated from high school and was no longer a student in the school district, the petitioner was entitled to a hearing to determine whether the board of education's decision to give her a long term suspension was arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable). [1] Moreover, any impact that a final decision may have on the petitioner's ability to seek the modification of F.S.'s student records would likewise not negate the Commissioner's jurisdiction over the suspension decision itself. The petitioner is entitled to a decision on the merits of the Board's imposition of a one-year suspension on F.E.; thus, this matter should not be dismissed on procedural grounds.[2]

Accordingly, the Commissioner hereby remands this matter to the OAL for further proceedings consistent with the concerns set forth above.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 1/04/19

Date of Mailing: 1/08/19

[1] In the Initial Decision, the ALJ relied on R.W., on behalf of minor child, A.W. v. Board of Educ. of the Township of Washington, Gloucester County, EDU 8073-09, Initial Decision, decided October 21, 2009, affirmed, Commissioner Decision No. 396-08, decided December 2, 2009, in support of the position that, since F.E. is no longer a student in the District, the Commissioner does not have jurisdiction in this matter. The facts and procedural history in R.W., supra, are distinguishable from this matter. The ongoing dispute between R.W. and the Washington Township Board of Education outlined in the Initial Decision indicates that other concerns regarding res judicata and the 90-day rule were also a factor that led to the disposition of that case. The Commissioner's decision in Jackson, supra, is analogous to the circumstances in this case, and is more appropriately applied to support the remand of this matter for a determination as to whether the Board's disciplinary decision was arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable.

[2] It appears from the record that the decision to disenroll F.E. from the District and to place him in a private school was in direct response to the fact that he was suspended from Piscataway High School for one year. The one-year suspension ends in March 2019, and it is possible that F.E. could be reenrolled in the District at some point thereafter. The potential reenrollment of F.E. in the District also accentuates the need for a decision on the merits.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
GRANTING MOTION TO DISMISS
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 11838-18
AGENCY REF. NO. 182-7/18

B.E. O/B/O F.E.,
Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION
OF THE TOWNSHIP OF PISCATAWAY
SCHOOLS, MIDDLESEX COUNTY,
Respondent.

Chinemerem N. Njoku, Esq., for petitioner (C.N. Njoku, LLC, attorneys)

David B. Rubin, Esq., for respondent

Record Closed: October 29, 2018 Decided: November 20, 2018

BEFORE TRICIA M. CALIGUIRE, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF CASE

Petitioner B.E. brings this action on behalf of his son, F.E., to appeal the decision of respondent Board of Education of the Township of Piscataway Schools (BOE) to suspend F.E. for one-year, effective March 29, 2018.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On March 16, 2018, Teresa M. Rafferty (Rafferty), Superintendent of the Piscataway Township Schools, sent written notice to petitioner that F.E. was suspended for ten days as a result of an incident that occurred on March 14, 2018. On March 28, 2018, Rafferty sent written notice to petitioner that F.E.'s suspension was extended for one year, through March 13, 2019. Petitioner appealed this decision to the BOE and on April 12 and 26, 2018, the BOE held a hearing to consider Rafferty's recommendation to suspend F.E. for one year. On May 1, 2018, the BOE issued a decision upholding Rafferty's finding that F.E. engaged in disciplinable conduct but modifying the grounds and terms of the suspension.

On July 30, 2018, petitioner filed an appeal of the Board's decision to issue the suspension with the Commissioner of the New Jersey Department of Education (DOE), which was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) and filed as a contested matter on August 16, 2018. N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15; N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13. During a prehearing telephone conference on September 24, 2018, the parties acknowledged that prior to the commencement of the 2018-2019 school year, petitioner withdrew F.E. from Piscataway High School and enrolled him in a private school. As directed during the conference on October 11, 2018, the BOE filed the present motion to dismiss the petition for lack of jurisdiction or, alternatively, for failure to state a claim upon which relief may be granted. Petitioner filed a response on October 25, 2018. The BOE filed a reply on October 29, 2018, and the motion is now ripe for consideration.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION AND FINDINGS

The facts in this matter are undisputed. Accordingly, I FIND the following FACTS:

1. During the 2017-2018 school year, F.E. was enrolled in Piscataway High School (PSH).

2. Due to an incident or series of incidents that occurred on March 14, 2018, Rafferty suspended F.E. from PSH for ten days. On March 29, 2018, Rafferty sent a letter to petitioner stating that F.E. was guilty of cyberbullying and disruption of school activities and that his suspension was extended for one year, through March 13, 2019.

3. Petitioner appealed Rafferty's decision to the BOE. The BOE modified the grounds and terms of suspension but continued to suspend F.E. from the PSH general education program until the beginning of the third marking period of the 2018-2019 school year.

4. Petitioner appealed the BOE decision to the Commissioner of the DOE.

5. Prior to the commencement of the 2018-2019 school year, petitioner withdrew F.E. from PSH and enrolled him in a private school in Edison, New Jersey.

POSITIONS OF THE PARTIES

The parties agree that petitioner initially appealed the decision of the BOE that F.E. engaged in misconduct and the penalty imposed and sought to have F.E. reinstated at PSH for the 2018-19 school year. Respondent contends, however, that the Commissioner, and the OAL, lost jurisdiction over this matter when F.E. disenrolled from PSH and that petitioner can no longer challenge the accuracy of F.E.'s disciplinary records using the regulations at N.J.A.C. 6A:32-7.7. Respondent states that petitioner must rely on the Destruction of Public Records Law, N.J.S.A. 47:3-15 et seq.

Petitioner claims that he retained standing to challenge the findings of the BOE and the discipline imposed, notwithstanding his decision to enroll his son in a private school. Petitioner has not asked for expungement of his records, even though the Board has tried to frame the issue here as a challenge to their accuracy, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:32-7.7. All petitioner is asking for is a review of the merits of the Board's decision in the underlying case, which resulted in the imposition of discipline.

LEGAL ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSION

"To exercise jurisdiction over a dispute, an administrative agency must have specific legislative authority." Dolan v. Centuolo, Nos. A-2470-10T4, A-2710-10T4, at *11 (App. Div. July 9, 2012), <http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/courts/> (citing Archway Programs, Inc. v. Pemberton Twp. Bd. of Educ., 352 N.J. Super. 420, 426 (App. Div. 2002)). Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9, the Commissioner of Education > shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine, without cost to the parties, all controversies and disputes arising under the school laws, excepting those governing higher education, or under the rules of the State board or of the commissioner . . .

>
> [N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9 (emphasis added).]

Even though this dispute began as a challenge to discipline under the school laws, and despite the arguments made by both parties regarding the legal basis by which petitioner might seek to have F.E.'s records from PSH expunged,[1] the only issue here is whether the Commissioner maintained jurisdiction to hear F.E.'s appeal after F.E. disenrolled from PSH. As the Commissioner succinctly stated in R.W. o/b/o A.W. v. Board of Education of the Township of Washington, Gloucester County, OAL Docket No. EDU 8073-08, Initial Decision (October 21, 2009), affirmed, Commissioner (December 2, 2009):

> As the minor child on whose behalf the case was brought has been disenrolled from respondent's school district, the Commissioner is without jurisdiction to adjudicate the controversy.

Accordingly, I CONCLUDE that petitioner's challenge to the decision of the respondent Board is no longer within the jurisdiction of the Commissioner.

---

[1] The Board concedes that its "research has not disclosed any authority that would confer standing on petitioners to seek expungement of their son's disciplinary records . . . now that he has been disenrolled from [PSH]." Letter Br. of Resp't. (October 10, 2018), p. 4. Such authority is arguably not necessary (even were the Commissioner to maintain jurisdiction) given that petitioners are not seeking to expunge their son's records, they are seeking to challenge the decision of the Board memorialized in those records.

ORDER

It is hereby ORDERED that respondent's Motion to Dismiss is GRANTED and B.E.'s petition is DISMISSED.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

November 20, 2018
DATE

TRICIA M. CALIGUIRE, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: November 20, 2018

Date Mailed to Parties: November 20, 2018

nd

APPENDIX

EXHIBITS

For Petitioner:

P-1 Petitioner B.E. on behalf of F.E.'s Response to Respondent's Motion to Dismiss, dated October 24, 2018

For Respondent:

R-1 Respondent Township of Piscataway Board of Education, Middlesex County, Motion to Dismiss the Petition of Appeal for Lack of Jurisdiction or, Alternatively, for Failure to State a Claim Upon Which Relief May be Granted, dated October 10, 2018

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 09948-17
AGENCY DKT. NO. 81-4/17

STERLING EDUCATION ASSOCIATION	:
PETITIONER,	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
V.	:	DECISION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE STERLING REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT, CAMDEN COUNTY,	:
RESPONDENT.	:

The record of this matter, the proposed stipulation of settlement and release (Agreement), and the Initial Decision issued by the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1.

Upon review, the Commissioner approves the terms of the Agreement and adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter. The case is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the Agreement.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 1/09/19

Date of Mailing: 1/09/19

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SETTLEMENT
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 09948-17
AGENCY DKT. NO. 81-4/17

STERLING EDUCATION ASSOCIATION,
Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE STERLING REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT, CAMDEN COUNTY,
Respondent.

Amy I. Gillette, Esq. for petitioner (Zeller & Wieliczko, LLC, attorneys)

Jeffrey R. Caccese, Esq., for respondent (Comegno Law Group, P.C., attorneys)

Record Closed: November 16, 2018 Decided: November 20, 2018

BEFORE DOROTHY INCARVITO-GARRABRANT, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on July 17, 2017, for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The parties have agreed to a settlement and have filed the executed Stipulation of Settlement and Release, as well as the Board Minutes of the November 1, 2018 meeting approving this settlement, both of which are attached hereto.

I have reviewed the record and the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures.

2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that the Stipulation of Settlement and Release meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. Accordingly, I approve the settlement and ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

November 20, 2018
DATE

DOROTHY INCARVITO-GARRABRANT, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: 11.27.18

Date Mailed to Parties: 11.27.18

tat/lam

NOV 13 2018

ZELLER & WIELICZKO, LLP
Matthew B. Wieliczko, Esquire
Attorney Identification No. 040831989
Amy L. Gillette, Esquire
Attorney Identification No. 014431998

Attorneys for Petitioners,
Sterling Education Association,
Individually and on behalf of members
Dan Riley and John Greener

120 Haddontowne Court
Cherry Hill, New Jersey 08034
Phone: (856) 428-6600

BEFORE THE COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION OF NEW JERSEY
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW
OAL Docket No: EDU 09948-2017 S

STERLING EDUCATION ASSOCIATION,
Individually and on behalf of members
Dan Riley and John Greener,

Petitioner,

vs.

STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE

STERLING REGIONAL BOARD OF EDUCATION,

Respondent

This settlement is made and entered into by and between Sterling Regional High School Board of Education (hereinafter "Board") and the Sterling Education Association, (hereinafter "Association"), Dan Riley (hereinafter "Mr. Riley"), and John Greener (hereinafter "Mr. Greener"). Please note that this settlement will not serve as precedent in any other matter.

WHEREAS, the Association is the exclusive negotiation representative of certain employees employed by the Board; and

WHEREAS, the Board and the Association are parties to a collective negotiation agreement (hereinafter "the CNA"); and

WHEREAS, Mr. Greener and Mr. Riley both applied to the Superintendent for their tuition to be reimbursed by the Board for master's level courses for Spring 2017 courses; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Greener and Mr. Rileys' respective request for tuition reimbursement were denied by the Board; and

WHEREAS, the Board has at all times denied that any tuition reimbursement was owed to Mr. Greener or Mr. Riley;

WHEREAS, the Board, the Association, Mr. Riley, and Mr. Greener wish to avoid the expense and uncertainty of any further proceedings and desire to fully settle any and all claims and issues that were raised or could have been raised in the instant appeal.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the promises hereinafter set forth, the Board, the Association, Mr. Riley, and Mr. Greener hereby agree to settle this controversy upon the following terms and conditions:

1. The respondent Sterling Regional Board of Education will issue a payment of $1,000.00 to petitioner Dan Riley. Petitioners take the position that this payment represents the tuition reimbursement for master's level courses, which Mr. Riley sought approval and reimbursement for during the Spring 2017 semester, and completed during the Spring 2017 semester. The Board takes no position as to whether the payment represents reimbursement available to Mr. Riley in any particular semester/year. The Board only represents that it is making the payment in full and final settlement of the instant dispute.

2. The respondent Sterling Regional Board of Education will issue a payment of $1,000.00 to petitioner John Greener. Petitioners take the position that this payment represents the tuition reimbursement for master's level courses taken at Wilmington University, which Mr. Greener sought approval and reimbursement for during the Spring 2017 semester, and completed between the Spring 2017 semester and Summer 2018 semester. The Board takes no position as to whether the payment represents reimbursement available to Mr. Greener in any particular semester/year. The Board only represents that it is making the payment in full and final settlement of the instant dispute.

3. Each party hereby releases the other from any and all claims, grievances, causes of action, suits, actions at law and in equity, administrative proceedings and judicial or quasi-judicial proceedings of any kind whatsoever, which have been or could have been brought, arising under or relating in any way to the issues which were raised or could have been raised in this or any action arising out of the actions giving rise to the within controversy, except as may be necessary to enforce the terms of this Stipulation.

4. This Stipulation shall not constitute an admission of wrongdoing by any party and no party shall be considered to be a prevailing party for any purpose. Each party shall be responsible for his or its own attorney fees and costs.

5. This Stipulation of Settlement and Release contains the entire agreement between the parties, and all terms of this Stipulation are deemed material. This instrument may not be altered, amended, modified or revoked except by a new instrument executed in writing by the parties.

6. Petitioners, in consideration of this Stipulation of Settlement and Release and in full, final and complete settlement of these matters hereby agree to a dismissal, with prejudice, of their Petition of Appeal in this matter.

7. This Agreement shall be incorporated into an Initial Decision by the Honorable Judge Dorothy Incaravito-Garrabrant, ALJ, which shall be subject to approval and adoption by the Commissioner of Education.

8. The parties to this Settlement Agreement agree not to file Exceptions.

9. The parties agree that this Settlement Agreement shall be deemed non-precedential and may not be used in any future proceedings.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this Stipulation on the dates set forth below.

PETITIONER

Date: _____

DAN RILEY

PETITIONER

Date: 10/30/18

JOHN GREENER

STERLING EDUCATION ASSOCATION

Date: 10/31/18 BY:

JIM BLUMENSTEIN, SEA PRESIDENT

STERLING REGIONAL BOARD OF EDUCATION

Date: 11/1/18 BY:

Paul Simms, Board President

NOV 16 2018

WINTER SPORTS SCHEDULES

c. Approve the 2018-2019 Winter Sports Schedules.

BOYS BASKETBALL DONATION

d. Rescind the approval to accept a $150 donation from Just Glass & Mirror Inc. to the Sterling Boys Basketball Team (10/18/18 BOE meeting). The donation was given to the Boys Basketball Booster Association.

ARC OF NJ PLANNING FOR ADULT LIFE PROJECT

e. Approve the Arc of NJ Planning for Adult Life Project for Individual Educatio students at Sterling HS during the 2018-2019 school year. There is no cost to the district for this program.

EARLY GRADUATION

f. Approve Early Graduation for student #8309762868 during the 2018-2019 school year based on the condition that all graduation requirements are met by the end of the 1st semester.

OCCUPATIONAL & PHYSICAL THERAPY SERVICES

g. Approve Occupational & Physical Therapy services from Virtua Health Inc. during the 2018-2019 school year, as needed, at a cost of $76/hr.

ADDENDUM TO SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

Motion by CONDELL seconded by OKESON-BRANDT that the Board of Education approve the following Education recommendations of the Superintendent.

Roll Call Vote: Badey, Carman, Condell, Hiltner, Miller, Okeson-Brandt, Radcliff, Tolomeo, and Sims voting YES.

MOTION CARRIED

NANCY LEBANO

a. Authorize staff member, Nancy Lebano, to attend the SLPs: Enhance Therapy Effectiveness for Auditory Processing Disorder, Memory Deficits, Attention Deficit Disorder, and Language Processing Workshop on January 9, 2019 in Cherry Hill, NJ at a cost of $269 for the registration fee plus reimbursement for travel/mileage expenses in accordance with district policy/guidelines.

LEAVE REPLACEMENT SUBSTITUTE SCIENCE TEACHER

b. Approve the following individual as a Leave Replacement Substitute Science Teacher effective on/about November 5th, 2018 through January 11th, 2019 at a per diem rate based on Step 1 of the BA salary guide pending completion of all necessary paperwork.

Mary Ann Sandlin

SEA SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT – TUITION REIMBURSEMENT

c. Approve the attached settlement agreement with the SEA regarding Tuition Reimbursement.

SEA AGREEMENT

d. Approve the attached agreement with the Sterling Education Association effective July 1, 2018 through June 30, 2021.

I hereby certify this to be a true and correct copy of minutes from the November 1, 2018 meeting of the Sterling High School Board of Education.

Joanne G. Augustine, Board Secretary

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 16998-18
(EDU 12931-18 ON REMAND)
AGENCY DKT. NO. 206-8/18

L.I.S., ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILD, J.S.,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF PEQUANNOCK, MORRIS COUNTY,	:	DECISION ON REMAND
RESPONDENT.	:

The record, proposed settlement agreement, and Initial Decision issued by the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1, have been reviewed – mindful of the Commissioner's November 8, 2018 determination that the settlement agreement previously submitted did not comply with N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.13, as it was neither signed by the Board's attorney, nor contained a copy of the Board's resolution approving the settlement. Since there is now a Board resolution approving the settlement, the Commissioner can approve the within settlement agreement in its present form.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision recommending approval of the parties' settlement as the final decision in this matter is hereby adopted, and the matter is dismissed subject to compliance with the terms of the settlement.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 1/09/19

Date of Mailing: 1/09/19

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

SETTLEMENT

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 16998-18

AGENCY DKT. NO. 206-8/18

ON REMAND

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 12931-18

L.I.S. ON BEHALF OF MINIOR CHILD, J.S.,

Petitioner,

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF PEQUANNOCK, MORRIS COUNTY,

Respondent.

Jessica Weinberg, Esq., for petitioner (Manes & Weinberg, attorneys)

Amy Canning, Esq., for respondent (Fogarty & Hara, attorneys)

Record Closed: September 24, 2018 Decided: November 29, 2018

BEFORE ELISSA MIZZONE TESTA, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on August 30, 2018 for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The parties have agreed to a settlement and have prepared a Stipulation of Settlement indicating the terms thereof. A copy of the Stipulation of Settlement is attached and fully incorporated herein.

I have reviewed the record and the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures on the attached settlement agreement and the attached Board resolution.

2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

November 29, 2018

DATE

ELISSA MIZZONE TESTA, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: 12/05/2018

Mailed to Parties:
sej

FOGARTY & HARA, ESQS.
21-00 Route 208 South
Fair Lawn, New Jersey 07410
(201) 791-3340
(201) 791-3432 Facsimile
Attorneys for Respondent,
Pequannock Township Board of Education
Our File No.: 8/161

L.I.S. o/b/o J.S.,	:	BEFORE THE COMMISSIONER
	:	OF EDUCATION OF THE
Petitioner	:	STATE OF NEW JERSEY
	:
v.	:
	:	OAL Dkt. No.: EDU 129-31-18
Pequannock Township	:	Agency Ref. No.: 206-8/18
Board of Education,	:
	:	SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT
Respondent	:
	:
	:

This Settlement Agreement (the "Agreement") is entered into by and between the Pequannock Township Board of Education, which has offices located at 538 Newark Pompton Turnpike, Pompton Plains, NJ 07444 (the "Board"), and L.I.S. on behalf of her minor child, J.S., who are domiciled at 24 West Sunset Road, Pompton Plains, New Jersey 07444 (the "Petitioner") (collectively, the "Parties"); and

WHEREAS, Petitioner owns a home within the Pequannock Township School District (the "District"), which Petitioner considers to be her "domicile," as that term is understood under the New Jersey regulations governing school attendance (N.J.A.C. 6A: 22-1 et seq.), and which the Board does not challenge or dispute; and

WHEREAS, J.S. is presently enrolled in the District and eligible to attend Pequannock Township High School as a general education tenth grader; and

WHEREAS, Petitioner recently advised the District that Petitioner and J.S. temporarily relocated to New Orleans, Louisiana on or around August 28, 2018 for approximately three months, in connection with Petitioner's work responsibilities. However, Petitioner further advised that Petitioner and J.S. have every intention of returning to their Pequannock Township home and the Pequannock Township High School during the 2018-2019 school year; and

WHEREAS, Petitioner requested that the Board arrange for and provide online instruction to J.S. during their temporary stay in New Orleans; or, in the alternative, and if Petitioner paid for such online services, that the Board agree to release to the online provider all relevant assessment materials, and subsequently to accept all of the online course work completed by J.S. upon her return to the District; and

WHEREAS, the Board declined to pay for the online services or to release its assessment materials, but advised Petitioner that J.S. remained eligible to attend Pequannock Township High School, and further advised Petitioner that any course work completed through a public school district in New Orleans would be reviewed upon J.S.'s return to the District, with credit assigned accordingly; and

WHEREAS, Petitioner filed a Petition of Appeal with the Commissioner of Education, together with an Application for Emergent Relief, which were assigned Agency Reference No. 206-8/18 and OAL Docket No. EDU 129-31-18; and

WHEREAS, the Parties are desirous of resolving this matter without the time and expense associated with litigation.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises and covenants set forth herein, the Parties agree as follows:

1. J.S. will be withdrawn from the District effective upon the execution of this Agreement by Petitioner because she is temporarily residing in New Orleans, Louisiana, without prejudice to Petitioner's right to re-enroll J.S. in the District after their return to their Pequannock residence. It is expressly understood by the Parties that once J.S. is withdrawn from the District, and until such time as she is re-enrolled by Petitioner, the Board will have no educational responsibility for J.S.

2. Petitioner has advised the Board that she intends to independently contract with the FlexSchool, a private school located in Berkeley Heights, New Jersey that also provides online instruction to qualified students where necessary and appropriate. Petitioner has agreed to assume all financial responsibility for the courses completed by J.S. through the FlexSchool, and the Board will not be required or expected to oversee this program, or to release to Petitioner or the FlexSchool any of its assessment materials, such as tests, quizzes, homework assignments, PowerPoints, etc.

3. However, assuming Petitioner and J.S. return to Pequannock Township and J.S. is re-enrolled in the District, the District expressly agrees to accept all credits completed through the FlexSchool in the same manner it would otherwise accept the online and/or transfer credits of any student entering the District in the middle of a school year. Namely, the credits will be reviewed and, assuming the courses and related work were completed and that the District offers a corresponding course in District, the credits will be accepted. It is understood that if J.S. elects to take any online courses for which the District does not have a corresponding course (such as cooking), the District will be unable to accept or convert the credit.

4. It is expressly acknowledged by the Parties for purposes of this Agreement that the online courses offered by the FlexSchool and delineated in Paragraph 6 below align with the New Jersey Core Curriculum content standards, such that they are consistent with the curriculum of Pequannock Township High School. To that end, should the FlexSchool contact the Board to inquire whether the Board intends to accept the credits J.S. earns for those online courses through the FlexSchool, the Board agrees to confirm that: (1) the credits will be reviewed and, assuming the courses and related work are completed and the District offers a corresponding course in District, the credits will be accepted; and (2) the courses delineated in Paragraph 6, which are to be taken by J.S. during the first semester of the 2018-2019 school year, align with the New Jersey Core Curriculum content standards such that they are consistent with the curriculum of Pequannock Township High School.

5. In addition to accepting the credit for all courses completed through the FlexSchool, the Parties also agree that the District will review the coursework completed by J.S. in order to issue grades for each completed course. It is expressly understood, however, that the grades awarded by the FlexSchool will not necessarily be the grades provided by the District once the credit is reviewed and converted. This means that if J.S. receive an "A" in American Literature from the FlexSchool, there is no guarantee that the District would also award J.S. an "A." However, the District will not unreasonably withhold awarding J.S. an "A" simply because the work was not completed at Pequannock Township High School and will review the coursework completed by J.S. through the FlexSchool in the same manner in which the District would typically review the online coursework of any student entering the District in the middle of a school year. It is expressly understood that Petitioner's right to challenge any converted grade awarded by the District is governed by the procedures set forth in Board Policy 2624, Grading System, which provides that "the final decision on any contested grade will be the responsibility of the Principal."

6. It is understood and agreed by the Parties that J.S. will complete the entire first semester of tenth grade online through the FlexSchool, even if Petitioner and J.S. return to their Pequannock residence during the first semester. Assuming J.S. and Petitioner return to Pequannock Township, J.S. will be re-enrolled in order to begin the second semester of tenth grade on Monday, January 28, 2019. In order to ensure that J.S.'s online credits and grades from the FlexSchool for the first semester will be timely accepted by the District, and in order to facilitate her transition back into Pequannock Township High School for the second semester, it is anticipated that J.S. will complete the following courses online through the FlexSchool:

- First semester of Spanish 3 (2.5 credits)
- First semester of Algebra 2 (2.5 credits)
- First semester of American Literature (2.5 credits)
- First semester of American History 1 (2.5 credits)
- First semester of Chemistry (2.5 credits)
- Health & Physical Education, including Driver's Education (2.5 credits)
- Digital Arts (2.5 credits)
- First semester of Psychology (2.5 credits)

7. Assuming J.S. completes the courses listed in Paragraph 6 above through FlexSchool and is re-enrolled in the District to begin the second semester of tenth grade on January 28, 2019, J.S. will take the following second semester courses at Pequannock Township High School.

- Second semester of Spanish 3 (2.5 credits)
- Second semester of Algebra 2 (2.5 credits)
- Second semester of English 2 (2.5 credits)
- Second semester of U.S. History 1 (2.5 credits)
- Second Semester of Chemistry (2.5 credits)
- Health & P.E. and/or Physical Education (2.5 credits)
- Elective 1 that fits into schedule: Financial Literacy or Criminal Law (2.5 credits)
- Elective 2 that fits into schedule: The District agrees to place J.S. in its second semester Psychology class only if the class fits into her schedule. As the course is only offered to juniors and seniors, there is no guarantee that the District will be able to make the placement work for J.S. If J.S. cannot be placed in Psychology, she will take Financial Literacy, Criminal Law or History of Sports in American Society.

8. It is expressly understood by the Parties that J.S. is required to take Financial Literacy as a sophomore. Therefore, if J.S. elects not to take Financial Literacy through the FlexSchool, she will be required to take it during her second semester at Pequannock Township High School. This may impact her ability to be placed in a Psychology class in the District.

9. It is also expressly understood that if J.S. is unable to complete any of the first semester courses listed in Paragraph 6 above through FlexSchool for any reason, she will be ineligible to proceed into the second semester of any related or corresponding course at Pequannock Township High School.

10. It is also expressly understood that J.S. will not be eligible to take the AP Capstone course, in which she had previously been enrolled at Pequannock Township High School during the 2018-2019 school year, because AP Capstone is a year-long course that is not offered through FlexSchool.

11. Petitioner's signature on this Agreement shall serve as her request to withdraw with prejudice her Petition of Appeal to the Commissioner, and her Application for Emergent Relief, which were assigned Agency Reference No. 206-8/18 and OAL Docket No. EDU 129-31-18. Any Party may submit a fully executed copy of this Agreement to the Commissioner of Education and/or the Office of Administrative Law as notification in accordance with N.J.A.C. 1:1-10.2 that Petitioner withdrew with prejudice her petition of appeal and related emergent relief application. It is expressly understood, however, that the Parties retain the right to enforce any provision of this Agreement, and Petitioner retains the right to challenge any grade awarded to J.S. by the District that differs from the grade awarded to J.S. by FlexSchool, in accordance with Board Policy 2624. Additionally, the parties will submit a fully executed copy of this Agreement to an Administrative Law Judge ("ALJ") for approval, but the parties will perform, implement and adhere to this Agreement immediately upon execution and in advance of ALJ approval.

12. It is understood and agreed that all Parties shall bear their own attorneys' fees and costs in connection with this matter, except that in the event an action is brought to enforce this Agreement, the prevailing Party in the enforcement action shall be entitled to attorneys' fees and costs in connection therewith.

13. The terms of this Agreement represent the compromise of disputed claims between the Parties. This Agreement shall not constitute, be interpreted, construed, or used as evidence of any admission of fact, law, responsibility, or liability on the part of any Party.

14. This Agreement shall be construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of New Jersey.

15. The undersigned represent that they have the requisite authority to sign this Agreement on behalf of the respective Party.

16. The Parties may execute this Agreement via electronic signature and in counterparts, each of which is deemed an original and all of which only constitute one original.

17. This Agreement constitutes the entire understanding of the Parties hereto and shall supersede any prior agreements between the Parties with respect to its subject matter. Further, there are no representations, warranties, covenants or undertakings other than those expressly set forth herein. The Parties acknowledge and agree that they are not relying upon any oral statements, representations, promises, or expectations which are not expressly and explicitly set forth in this Agreement, which alone fully and completely expresses all agreements between the Parties.

18. The terms of this Agreement shall remain strictly confidential and shall not be divulged to any third party, except the Parties' attorneys, unless such disclosure is required under applicable law and/or legal process. In response to any direct inquiry about the outcome of the above-described action, the Parties shall indicate only that the matter has been concluded.

19. The terms and conditions set forth herein shall be deemed severable. If any clause or provision contained herein shall be held unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, it shall not affect the validity of any other clause or provision, all of which shall continue in full force and effect.

20. The Parties recognize that each had the opportunity to be represented by legal counsel if they so choose, that they sign this within Agreement as their own voluntary act and deed, and that they understand the duties and obligations enumerated herein. The Parties further state that if represented by counsel they are fully satisfied with the legal representation provided.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Parties have hereunto set their hands and seals the date and year set forth.

WITNESS:

Kateryna H. Bechtel

KATERYNA BECHTEL
Business Administrator

DATED: 9/24/18

WITNESS:

Kathleen M Gillis

DATED: 9-21-18

O/B/O PEQUANNOCK TOWNSHIP
BOARD OF EDUCATION

BY: Brett Charleston

DR. BRETT CHARLESTON
Superintendent of Schools

DATED: 9/24/18

J.S., Parent of J.S.

DATED: 9-21-18

PEQUANNOCK TOWNSHIP BOARD OF EDUCATION
Pompton Plains, New Jersey

EXTRACT OF MEETING MINUTES

TYPE OF MEETING: (x) Regular ( ) Workshop ( ) Special ( ) Other

DATE OF MEETING: November 26, 2018 CALLED TO ORDER AT: 7:00 pm

PLACE OF MEETING: Pequannock Township High School Auditorium
85 Sunset Road
Pompton Plains, NJ 07444

PRESENT:

Mr. Sam Ciresi	Mrs. Ann Maier
Mrs. Tiffany Osmanski	Mr. Richard Prezioso
Mrs. Cara Shenton	Mr. Leonard Smith
Dr. Richard Thumann	Mr. Vincent Siracusa
Mrs. Kimberley Quigley

AT THE MEETING IDENTIFIED ABOVE, THE FOLLOWING ACTION TRANSPIRED TO WIT:

RESOLUTION NO. CIS-50-19
APPROVAL OF SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

BE IT RESOLVED by the Pequannock Township Board of Education (the "Board") that the terms, stipulations and conditions as established in the Settlement Agreement between the Board and the Parents of a student whose identification number ends in 8476, which Agreement is located in the student's file, is hereby adopted and approved by the Board. The Superintendent of Schools and Business Administrator are hereby authorized and directed to execute the Settlement Agreement, and any other documents necessary to effectuate the settlement.

Motion by: Osmanski	Second by: Siracusa	Roll Call Vote: 9-0-0

CERTIFICATION

The foregoing information is hereby certified to be a true copy of the official records of the Pequannock Township Board of Education, having been extracted from and compared with the contents of the official minutes of the subject meeting.

November 28, 2018
Date

Kateryna W. Bechtel
Kateryna W. Bechtel, CPA
School Business Administrator/Board Secretary

OAL DKT. NOS. EDU 13509-18 and EDU 15231-18 (CONSOLIDATED)
AGENCY DKT. NOS. 199-8/18 and 226-9/18

A.R., ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILDREN, J.R., D.R., D.R., AND T.R.,	:
PETITIONER	:
V.	:
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE MORRIS SCHOOL DISTRICT, MORRIS COUNTY,	:
RESPONDENT,	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
AND	:	DECISION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE MORRIS SCHOOL DISTRICT, MORRIS COUNTY,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:
G.W., ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILDREN [1], J.R., D.J.R., D.R.R., AND T.E.R.,	:
RESPONDENT.	:

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed. The parties did not file exceptions.

Upon such review, the Commissioner is in accord with the ALJ's conclusion that this matter is no longer a contested case before the Commissioner. The Board advised that the minor children are permitted to continue attending school in the District based upon a modified custody order, and withdrew its claim for tuition.

[1] The Initial Decision in this matter incorrectly identified respondent in the second consolidated case, EDU 15231-18, as "A.R." A.R. is the father of the minor children whose residence was at issue in this case; the correct respondent in EDU 15231-18 is G.W., the mother of the minor children.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision is adopted as the final decision in this matter and the petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[3]

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 1/09/19

Date of Mailing: 1/09/19

[3] This decision may be appealed to the Superior Court, Appellate Division, pursuant to P.L. 2008, c. 36 (N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1).

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
DISMISSAL
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 13509-18
AGENCY DKT. NO. 199-8/-18

A.R. ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILDREN
J.R., D.R., D.R, & T.R.,
Petitioners,
v.
TOWNSHIP OF MORRISTOWN BOARD
OF EDUCATION, MORRIS COUNTY,
Respondent.

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 15231-18
AGENCY DKT. NO. 226-9/18

TOWNSHIP OF MORRISTOWN BOARD
OF EDUCATION, MORRIS COUNTY.,
Petitioner,
v.
A.R. ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILDREN
J.R., D.R., D.R, & T.R.,
Respondents.

(CONSOLIDATED)

A.R., on behalf of minor children J.R., D.R., D.R. and T.R.

France L. Febres, Esq. for Morristown Board of Education, Morris County

Record Closed: November 7, 2018 Decided: November 27, 2018

BEFORE: JOANN LASALA CANDIDO, ALAJ

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

A.R. on behalf of minor children J.R., D.R., D.R, and T.R. challenges the residency determination made by the Township of Morristown Board of Education ("Board"). The matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) under OAL Dkt. No. EDU 13509-18 on September 12, 2018. The Board filed a counterclaim seeking tuition which was transmitted to OAL on October 19, 2018, under OAL Dkt. No. EDU 15231-18. The matters were consolidated by Prehearing Order dated October 26, 2018. A hearing was scheduled for December 12, 2018. Prior to the hearing date, the Board's attorney sent correspondence stating:

> ". . . . Please be advised that the Board has approved the students' continued attendance based upon a modified custody order that was recently provided to the Board. . . ."
>
> [Said letter is attached hereto for reference.]

Accordingly, I CONCLUDE that these matters are no longer a contested case before the Office of Administrative Law. It is therefore ORDERED that this matter be and is hereby DISMISSED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

November 27 2018
DATE

JOANN LASALA CANDIDO, ALAJ

Date Received at Agency: Nov. 27, 2018

Date Mailed to Parties: 11/27/2018

ljb

CLEARY | GIACOBBE | ALFIERI | JACOBS LLC

FRANCES L. FEBRES, Partner ffebres@cgajlaw.com

Reply to: Oakland Office

November 7, 2018

Via Facsimile (973) 648-6124) and Regular Mail
Honorable Joann LaSalla Candido, A.L.J.
Office of Administrative Law
33 Washington Street
Newark, NJ 07102

Re: A.R. o/b/o minor children, J.R., D.J.R., D.R.R. and T.E.R. v. Morris Board of Education, Morris County
DKT NO.: EDU 13509-18

and

Morris Board of Education v. G.W.
Agency Reference No. 226-9/18 / OAL DKT No. 15231-18

Dear Judge LaSalla Candido:

Please be reminded that this firm represents the Morris Board of Education ("Board" or "Respondent") in the above-referenced matters. Please be advised that the Board has approved the students' continued attendance based upon a modified custody order that was recently provided to the Board. As such, the Respondent is respectfully withdrawing its Petition for Tuition Assessment in the matter associated with Agency Reference No. 226-9/18.

Thank you for your attention and courtesies.

Respectfully submitted,

Frances L. Febres, Esq.

C: Debora Engelfried, Supervisor of Strategic Planning and Student Information Management (by email)
Mackey Pendergrast, Superintendent of Schools (by email)
G.W. (by email (gwendowski@gmail.com))

sent 12/12

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF MINE HILL, MORRIS COUNTY,	:
PETITIONER,	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
V.	:	DECISION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWN OF DOVER, MORRIS COUNTY,	:
RESPONDENT.	:

SYNOPSIS

Petitioning Mine Hill Board of Education (Mine Hill) sought a limited severance of its sending-receiving relationship with the respondent Dover Board of Education (Dover), such that petitioner's seventh and eighth grade students would be educated in the Mine Hill school district. Petitioner proposed a two-year phase out program, beginning with the seventh grade class in the 2017-2018 school year, followed by the eighth grade class in the 2018-2019 school year. The petitioning Board did not seek any change to the sending-receiving relationship for Mine Hill students in the ninth through twelfth grades. Subsequent to the transmittal of this matter to the OAL, the parties proposed a settlement agreement in which they agreed that petitioner would educate its seventh and eighth grade students in Mine Hill beginning in the 2018-2019 school year; the settlement agreement, however, eliminated the two-year phase out program included in the original proposal. In February 2018, the Commissioner rejected the OAL's Initial Decision approving the settlement, finding that the parties had failed to follow statutory criteria for adjudicating the termination of sending-receiving relationships, which are set forth in N.J.S.A. 18A:38-13, and the procedural requirements for same, which are set forth in N.J.A.C. 6A:3-6.1.

The Commissioner ordered further proceedings in accordance with the procedural rules governing uncontested applications for severance. Subsequently, in accordance with the regulatory provisions, interested parties were given the opportunity to submit written comments for consideration by the Commissioner in determining whether the proposed severance met the statutory standard. Seventeen public comments were received and considered by the Commissioner, along with the proposed settlement agreement, the feasibility study, the parties' submissions, and updated enrollment information.

Upon review, the Commissioner denied the petitioner's application for limited severance of the sending-receiving relationship with Dover as set forth in the parties' proposed settlement agreement. In so doing, the Commissioner found, inter alia, that: the settlement agreement did not include a transitional plan, which would result in a substantial negative impact on the education received by students at Mine Hill, as it would hinder the continuity of education for the affected students; and the proposed limited severance would have a substantial negative effect on the racial composition of Dover.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

January 14, 2019

AGENCY DKT. NO. 60-3/17

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF MINE HILL, MORRIS COUNTY,	:
PETITIONER,	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
V.	:	DECISION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWN OF DOVER, MORRIS COUNTY,	:
RESPONDENT.	:

In this matter, petitioner Mine Hill Board of Education filed a petition seeking a limited severance of the sending-receiving relationship with respondent Dover Board of Education, such that petitioner's seventh and eighth grade students would be educated in Mine Hill. Petitioner proposed a two-year phase out program beginning with the seventh grade class in the 2017-18 school year, followed by the eighth grade class in the 2018-19 school year. Petitioner did not seek to terminate the parties' sending-receiving relationship for Mine Hill's ninth through twelfth grade classes, which would continue to attend school in Dover. After the matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) as a contested case, the parties proposed a settlement agreement in which the parties agreed that petitioner would educate its seventh and eighth grade students in Mine Hill beginning in the 2018-19 school year. In February 2018, the Commissioner rejected the OAL's Initial Decision approving the settlement, thereby declining to permit the proposed severance of the sending-receiving agreement to move forward at that time. The Commissioner based his determination upon the parties' failure to follow the procedural requirements for uncontested severance of a sending-receiving agreement, set forth at N.J.A.C. 6A:3-6.1. The Commissioner directed that if the parties still wished to pursue the proposed limited severance plan, they must meet the established statutory criteria for adjudicating the termination of sending-receiving relationships as enumerated in N.J.S.A. 18A:38-13, and must follow the procedural requirements in N.J.A.C. 6A:3-6.1. Board of Education of the Township of Mine Hill, Morris County v. Board of Education of the Town of Dover, Morris County, Commissioner's Decision No. 27-18, decided February 9, 2018.

Subsequently, the Commissioner received seventeen comments from the public regarding the proposed settlement – fourteen opposing the partial severance of the sending-receiving relationship and three in favor. The opponents primarily argue that the agreed upon transition plan no longer provides a two-year phase out approach, and instead requires all seventh and eighth graders to transition back to Mine Hill for the 2018-19 school year. Consequently, the then-current 2017-18 seventh grade class, which was being educated in Dover, would return to Mine Hill to attend eighth grade, before going back to Dover for ninth grade. Several additional comments opposing the proposed settlement agreement – including some submitted by affected students – argue that Dover offers more educational opportunities, as well as sports and extracurricular activities, which are not available at Mine Hill. The Mine Hill Education Association, although in favor of returning the seventh and eighth grades to Mine Hill, also opposes the transition plan agreed to by the parties in the settlement agreement.

In response, petitioner challenges the merits of the comments opposing the limited severance of the sending-receiving agreement. Petitioner contends that as a whole, citizens overwhelmingly support educating Mine Hill's students in Mine Hill. Petitioner does, however, agree with the comments that a two-year phased transition would be in the best interest of the students. In a second submission, petitioner urges the Commissioner to delay implementation of the settlement agreement until September 2019, rather than September 2018, given that it would not be able to effectively transition prior to the start of the 2018-19 school year.

In its response, respondent points out that most of the comments opposing the plan do not address whether the proposed partial severance will have a substantial negative impact on the districts, as required by N.J.A.C. 6A:3-6.1(c)(1), and instead seek to modify the terms of the settlement with regard to the transition period. Respondent argues that there is no basis upon which to modify the settlement terms, which were the result of negotiations between the parties and counsel.

The record of this matter has been reviewed, including the proposed settlement agreement, the public comments, the parties' submissions, the feasibility study, and the updated enrollment information jointly submitted by the parties at the Commissioner's request.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-8, school districts at the elementary school level that do not have sufficient accommodations may send students to another school district as part of a sending-receiving relationship. In order to withdraw from a sending-receiving relationship, the Commissioner has determined that "the appropriate standards for evaluating requests for withdrawals at the elementary school level are the same standards which are applicable at the high school level." Board of Education of the Township of Mine Hill, Morris County v. Board of Education of the Town of Dover, Morris County, Commissioner's Decision No. 510-04, decided December 15, 2004, at 9, aff'd State Board May 4, 2005. The criteria for withdrawal from a sending-receiving relationship at the high school level is set forth at N.J.S.A. 18A:38-13, and establishes that prior to severance of a relationship, the Commissioner will make an equitable determination based on the circumstances, "including the educational and financial implications for the affected districts, the impact on the quality of education received by pupils, and the effect on the racial composition of the pupil population of the districts." If there is no substantial negative impact, the Commissioner will grant the requested severance. N.J.S.A. 18A:38-13.

Upon review, the Commissioner is satisfied at the outset that the feasibility study established that the withdrawal of Mine Hill's seventh and eighth grade classes from Dover would cause no substantial negative impact on the financial conditions of the two school districts. However, the Commissioner finds that the transition proposed in the settlement agreement, which does not contain a two-year phased approach, would result in a substantial negative impact on the education received by the students at Mine Hill. The original petition of appeal proposed a two-year transition period, but with the abandonment of this approach during settlement negotiations, the agreement now asks the Commissioner to approve a scenario in which Mine Hill seventh graders would be educated in Dover for seventh grade, then return to Mine Hill for eighth grade, before transitioning back to Dover a second time for high school. Such a plan is impractical and would hinder the continuity of education for the affected students.

As such, the Commissioner cannot approve the withdrawal of Mine Hill's seventh and eighth grade classes from Dover as presently set forth in the settlement agreement.

Additionally, the Commissioner cannot approve the limited severance of the sending-receiving agreement because removal of Mine Hill's seventh and eighth grade classes would have a substantial negative effect on the racial composition of Dover. In 2001, the Commissioner denied a previous request from Mine Hill to sever its sending-receiving relationship with Dover in regard to its seventh and eighth grade students, which would have resulted in a 7 to 8 percent reduction in white students attending Dover Middle School. The Commissioner found that "the changes in minority composition which would inure from severance here cannot be termed insignificant from either a statistical or an educational viewpoint. Rather, it is quite evident that permitting severance here would, at a minimum, serve to exacerbate disparity in the national origin/minority groupings in Dover's student population." Board of Education of the Township of Mine Hill, Morris County v. Board of Education of the Town of Dover, Morris County, Commissioner's Decision No. 58-01, decided February 15, 2001, at 81.

In Board of Education of the Borough of Englewood Cliffs, Bergen County v. Board of Education of the City of Englewood, Bergen County, 257 N.J. Super. 413 (App. Div. 1992), severance of Englewood Cliffs' sending-receiving relationship with Englewood – in which Englewood Cliffs sent its high school students to Englewood's high school – was denied because of the substantial negative impact on racial balance and educational quality. Ibid. Had severance been granted in that case, the percentage of white students at Englewood's high school would have decreased by only 1.6 percent – arguably a negligible or de minimis effect on the racial population at Englewood. Id. at 439. However, the loss of those 15 white Englewood Cliffs students – considering that Englewood had only 94 white students in total – represented a 16 percent reduction in the overall white population at Englewood, resulting in a significant impact on the racial balance of Englewood's high school. Ibid. Additionally, given the trend toward a rapid decline in white student enrollment, withdrawal of the Englewood Cliffs students would have a substantial negative impact on the quality of education because it would be seen as a symbolic loss. Id. at 430.

On the other hand, in Board of Education of the Borough of Longport, Atlantic City v. Board of Education of the City of Atlantic City, Atlantic County and Board of Education of the City of Ocean City, Cape May County, Commissioner's Decision No. 238-14, dated June 5, 2014, at 7, the withdrawal of 9 white Longport students from Atlantic City's high school represented a proportional change of 0.4 percent. Those 9 students, in the overall context of Atlantic City's 442 white students, represented a 2 percent change in the gross population of white students in Atlantic City. Id. at 7-8. Considering the circumstances, the Commissioner granted permission for Longport to sever its sending-receiving relationship with Atlantic City, finding that severance would not have a substantial negative impact on the racial composition of Atlantic City's high school. Id. at 8-9.

In the current application, the updated enrollment information provided by the parties shows that if severance of the sending-receiving relationship were granted, the loss of Mine Hill students from Dover would result in a proportional change of only 3 percent in the white population at Dover for the 2017-18 school year, and only 2.6 percent for the 2018-19 school year. Nevertheless, the gross population of white students at Dover would be reduced by 45 percent – a loss of 17 of 38 white students in the 2017-18 school year, and 14 of 31 in 2018-19.[1]

Given that Dover would lose nearly half of the gross population of white students at its middle school if severance were granted, a substantial negative effect on the racial composition of Dover certainly exists. A loss of 45 percent of the white population at Dover is significantly higher in magnitude than the 16 percent loss in the gross population of white students in Englewood Cliffs that resulted in the denial of severance of the sending-receiving relationship. It is also considerably more than the 2 percent gross population loss of white students in Longport that was found to be de minimis. Although the approximately 3 percent proportional reduction in white students at Dover is considerably lower than the 7 to 8 percent reduction when the Commissioner first denied severance of the sending-receiving relationship between Mine Hill and Dover in 2001, the significant impact on the gross population of white students cannot be ignored. As such, the Commissioner cannot approve severance of the sending-receiving agreement.

[1] When the application was initially filed, the feasibility study only included enrollment information for the 2015-16 school year. With respect to that school year, the loss of Mine Hill students from Dover would result in a proportional change of 4.2 percent in the white population in Dover and a 52 percent reduction in the gross population of white students in Dover.

Accordingly, petitioner's application for limited severance of the sending-receiving relationship with Dover, as set forth in the parties' proposed settlement agreement, is denied due to the substantial negative impact severance would have on the racial composition of Dover, and the substantial negative impact that the transition plan would have on the quality of education for Mine Hill's seventh grade class.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[2]

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 1/14/19
Date of Mailing: 1/15/19

[2] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to P.L. 2008, c. 36 (N.J.S.A 18A:6-9.1).

10-19SEC

AGENCY DKT. NO. 288-11/18

IN THE MATTER OF ANDREA HYATT,	:
BURCH CHARTER SCHOOL OF EXCELLENCE,	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
ESSEX COUNTY.	:	DECISION
	:

The Commissioner has reviewed the record of this matter and the decision of the School Ethics Commission (SEC), finding that respondent violated the School Ethics Act for failure to timely complete charter school trustee training in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33, N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1, and N.J.A.C. 6A:11-3.1. The SEC's decision was forwarded to the Commissioner for final determination on the recommended penalty pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c). The SEC advises that respondent ultimately completed the training after the issuance of its October 30, 2018 Order to Show Cause, but prior to the SEC's November 27, 2018 meeting; therefore, the SEC recommends a penalty of reprimand. Respondent has neither filed exceptions to the recommended penalty nor instituted an appeal, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:4-1 et seq., of the SEC's underlying finding of violation.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the penalty recommended by the SEC for respondent's failure to timely honor an obligation placed upon charter school trustees by law. Additionally, respondent is admonished for causing the unnecessary expenditure of administrative and adjudicative resources at both State and local levels.

Accordingly, respondent is hereby reprimanded as a school official found to have violated the School Ethics Act.

IT IS SO ORDERED.*

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 1/14/19
Date of Mailing: 1/15/19

* This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to P.L. 2008, c. 36. (N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1)

IN THE MATTER OF	:	BEFORE THE SCHOOL ETHICS COMMISSION
ANDREA HYATT	:	DECISION FOR FAILURE TO COMPLETE MANDATORY TRAINING REQUIREMENT IN A TIMELY MANNER
BURCH CHARTER SCHOOL OF EXCELLENCE, ESSEX COUNTY	:	DOCKET NO.: T08-18

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

This matter arises from an Order to Show Cause (OTSC) issued by the School Ethics Commission (Commission) at its meeting on October 30, 2018, and mailed on October 31, 2018, via regular and electronic mail, directing Respondent, a "board member" as defined in N.J.S.A. 18A:12-23 of the School Ethics Act (Act), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-21 et seq., to show cause as to why the Commission should not find Respondent in violation of the Act, for failing to complete training as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33, N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1, and N.J.A.C. 6A:11-3.1(a).

In the OTSC mailed on October 31, 2018, the Commission notified Respondent that she had twenty (20) days to respond to the OTSC, and further advised that failure to respond would be deemed an admission of the facts set forth in the OTSC. Respondent was also notified that, upon receipt of the response or upon expiration of the twenty (20) day time period for so filing, the Commission may proceed to a determination of a violation on a summary basis (i.e., without a hearing or further proceedings) in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:28-1.6(c), which so permits when material facts are not in dispute.

ANALYSIS

The Act was enacted by the New Jersey State Legislature to ensure and preserve public confidence in members of local boards of education and in local school administrators. By virtue of N.J.S.A.18A:12-23.1, the breadth of the Act was expanded to include charter school trustees.

Respondent is a trustee of a charter school located in the City of Irvington, County of Essex. Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-23.1, the provisions of the Act were made applicable to administrators and members of a board of trustees of a charter school. As a result of her position as a charter school trustee, Respondent is required, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33, N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1, and N.J.A.C. 6A:11-3.1(a), to complete a training program prepared and offered by the New Jersey School Boards Association (NJSBA) on an annual basis. For convenience and ease, the training is offered online so any charter school trustee may complete it at any time, from anywhere. Respondent was required to complete the Governance 4 training program by June 30, 2018.

On July 2, 2018, the NJSBA provided the Commission with the names of those charter school trustees who failed to complete mandated training by June 30, 2018, and the list provided included Respondent. Prior to this time, multiple communications about mandated training were sent to Respondent from NJSBA through a variety of means, including targeted e-mail messages and postings in School Board Notes regarding scheduled on-site mandated training. More specifically, on March 14, 2018, Respondent was registered to take Governance 4 and an e-mail with the link to complete the training was sent to Respondent's registered e-mail address. In addition, on June 12, 2018, July 11, 2018, August 13, 2018, August 16, 2018, August 23, 2018 and August 29, 2018, additional e-mail notices were sent through the Weekly Program Update to all charter school trustees who had not yet completed training, including Respondent. NJSBA also sent reminder communications to Respondent's Charter Lead on August 20, 2018, and August 29, 2018. Notwithstanding all of these communications, Respondent did not complete mandated training.

In addition to the communication efforts undertaken by the NJSBA, Respondent's County Office of Education (County) also communicated with the Respondent regarding her failure to complete the mandated training requirement. More specifically, in September 2018, the Commission's staff notified the County that the NJSBA had identified Respondent as a school official who failed to complete training by June 30, 2018. As a result, the County sent correspondence to Respondent, with a copy to the Charter Lead, advising that Respondent remained delinquent in completing training. Notwithstanding this correspondence from the County, Respondent did not complete training as directed.

As a final warning, the Commission sent a letter to Respondent dated October 22, 2018, via regular and electronic mail, advising her that the Commission requires completion of the training to avoid the issuance of an OTSC for non-compliance. This final warning letter provided instructions to Respondent on how to complete training. Again, notwithstanding this correspondence, Respondent did not complete the required training. As a result, an OTSC was mailed to Respondent on October 31, 2018.

To date, there is no dispute that Respondent did not complete her required training by June 30, 2018, and did not complete the training prior to the issuance of the Commission's OTSC. After having been served with the OTSC, Respondent completed her training requirement, but did not respond to the Commission's OTSC as to why she did not complete training by June 30, 2018. Importantly, Respondent did not deny that she did not complete training in a timely fashion.

DECISION/PENALTY RECOMMENDATION

N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.2(d) provides that school board members and charter school trustees who fail to comply with their training mandate shall be considered in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33. Based on the record as set forth above, at its meeting on November 27, 2018, the Commission found that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33, as well as N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1 and N.J.A.C. 6A:11-3.1(a). Respondent received repeated notifications of her training requirement, and had ample opportunity to complete the mandated training in a timely fashion; nonetheless, she failed to complete training as required.

Where a violation of the Act is found by the Commission, the Commission may recommend to the Commissioner of Education that a penalty be imposed. The recommended penalty can include a reprimand, censure, suspension or removal of the school official. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-10.12. For the reasons set forth above, the Commission recommends that the Commissioner of Education impose a penalty of reprimand.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c), this decision shall be forwarded to the Commissioner of Education for review of the Commission's recommended penalty. Respondent may either: 1) file exceptions to the recommended sanction; 2) file an appeal of the Commission's finding of a violation; or 3) file both exceptions to the recommended sanction together with an appeal of the finding of a violation.

Parties taking exception to the recommended sanction of the Commission but not disputing the Commission's finding of a violation may file, within thirteen (13) days from the date the Commission's decision is forwarded to the Commissioner, written exceptions regarding the recommended penalty to the Commissioner. The forwarding date shall be the mailing date to the parties, as indicated below. Such exceptions must be forwarded to: Commissioner of Education, c/o Bureau of Controversies and Disputes, P.O. Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Comments on Ethics Commission Sanction." A copy of any comments filed must be sent to the Commission and all other parties.

Parties seeking to appeal the Commission's finding of violation must file an appeal pursuant to the standards set forth at N.J.A.C. 6A:4:1 et seq. within thirty (30) days of the filing date of the decision from which the appeal is taken. The filing date shall be three (3) days after the date of mailing to the parties, as shown below. In such cases, the Commissioner's review of the Commission's recommended sanction will be deferred and incorporated into the Commissioner's review of the finding of violation on appeal. Where a notice of appeal has been filed on or before the due date for exceptions to the Commission's recommended sanction (thirteen (13) days from the date the decision is mailed by the Commission), exceptions need not be filed by that date, but may be incorporated into the appellant's briefs on appeal.

Robert W. Bender

Robert W. Bender, Chairperson

Mailing Date: November 28, 2018

I hereby certify that this decision was duly adopted by the School Ethics Commission at its public meeting on November 27, 2018.

Kathryn A. Whalen

Kathryn A. Whalen, Director

IN THE MATTER OF	:	BEFORE THE SCHOOL ETHICS COMMISSION
ANDREA HYATT	:	RESOLUTION ADOPTING DECISION FOR FAILURE TO COMPLETE MANDATORY TRAINING REQUIREMENT IN A TIMELY MANNER
BURCH CHARTER SCHOOL OF EXCELLENCE*, ESSEX COUNTY	:
	:	DOCKET NO.: T08-18

WHEREAS, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-23.1, all charter school trustees, including Respondent, are subject to the provisions of the School Ethics Act (Act), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-21 et seq.; and

WHEREAS, Andrea Hyatt, Respondent, is a charter school trustee of Burch Charter School of Excellence; and

WHEREAS, the Act requires Respondent to complete a training program prepared and offered by the New Jersey School Boards Association (NJSBA) on an annual basis; and

WHEREAS, Respondent failed to complete her Governance 4 training program by June 30, 2018; and

WHEREAS, at its meeting on October 30, 2018, the School Ethics Commission (Commission) issued an Order to Show Cause (OTSC) directing Respondent to show cause as to why she failed to complete her mandatory training by June 30, 2018 as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33, N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1, and N.J.A.C. 6A:11-3.1(a); and

WHEREAS, after having been served with the OTSC, Respondent completed her training requirement, but did not respond to the Commission's OTSC as to why she did not complete training by June 30, 2018; and

WHEREAS, at its meeting on November 27, 2018, the Commission found that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33, N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1, and N.J.A.C. 6A:11-3.1(a) by failing to complete the training requirement she was obligated to complete; and

WHEREAS, at its meeting on November 27, 2018, the Commission recommended that the Commissioner of Education impose a penalty of reprimand on Respondent; and

WHEREAS, at its meeting on November 27, 2018, the Commission agreed that the within decision accurately memorializes its findings and recommendations; and

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Commission hereby adopts the within decision and directs its staff to notify all parties to this action of the decision.

Robert W. Bender, Chairperson
School Ethics Commission

I certify that the within Resolution was duly adopted by the School Ethics Commission at its public meeting on November 27, 2018.

Kathryn A. Whalen, Director

AGENCY DKT. NO. 285-11/18

IN THE MATTER OF LUNEDAR GIRAULT ALBERT, KIPP TEAM ACADEMY CHARTER SCHOOL, ESSEX COUNTY.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION DECISION

The Commissioner has reviewed the record of this matter and the decision of the School Ethics Commission (SEC) – finding that respondent violated the School Ethics Act for failure to timely complete charter school trustee training in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33, N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1, and N.J.A.C. 6A:11-3.1. The SEC's decision was forwarded to the Commissioner for final determination on the recommended penalty pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c). The SEC advises that respondent ultimately completed the training after the issuance of its October 30, 2018 Order to Show Cause, but prior to the SEC's November 27, 2018 meeting; therefore, the SEC recommends a penalty of reprimand. Respondent has neither filed exceptions to the recommended penalty nor instituted an appeal, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:4-1 et seq., of the SEC's underlying finding of violation.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the penalty recommended by the SEC for respondent's failure to timely honor an obligation placed upon charter school trustees by law. Additionally, respondent is admonished for causing the unnecessary expenditure of administrative and adjudicative resources at both State and local levels.

Accordingly, respondent is hereby reprimanded as a school official found to have violated the School Ethics Act.

IT IS SO ORDERED.*

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 1/14/19

Date of Mailing: 1/15/19

* This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to P.L. 2008, c. 36. (N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1)

IN THE MATTER OF	:	BEFORE THE SCHOOL ETHICS COMMISSION
LUNEDAR GIRAULT ALBERT	:	DECISION FOR FAILURE TO COMPLETE MANDATORY TRAINING REQUIREMENT IN A TIMELY MANNER
KIPP TEAM ACADEMY CHARTER SCHOOL, ESSEX COUNTY	:
	:	DOCKET NO.: T03-18

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

This matter arises from an Order to Show Cause (OTSC) issued by the School Ethics Commission (Commission) at its meeting on October 30, 2018, and mailed on October 31, 2018, via regular and electronic mail directing Respondent, a "board member" as defined in N.J.S.A. 18A:12-23 of the School Ethics Act (Act), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-21 et seq., to show cause as to why the Commission should not find Respondent in violation of the Act, for failing to complete training as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33, N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1, and N.J.A.C. 6A:11-3.1(a).

In the OTSC mailed on October 31, 2018, the Commission notified Respondent that he had twenty (20) days to respond to the OTSC, and further advised that failure to respond would be deemed an admission of the facts set forth in the OTSC. Respondent was also notified that, upon receipt of the response or upon expiration of the twenty (20) day time period for so filing, the Commission may proceed to a determination of a violation on a summary basis (i.e., without a hearing or further proceedings) in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:28-1.6(c), which so permits when material facts are not in dispute.

ANALYSIS

The Act was enacted by the New Jersey State Legislature to ensure and preserve public confidence in members of local boards of education and in local school administrators. By virtue of N.J.S.A.18A:12-23.1, the breadth of the Act was expanded to include charter school trustees.

Respondent is a trustee of a charter school located in the City of Newark, County of Essex. Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-23.1, the provisions of the Act were made applicable to administrators and members of a board of trustees of a charter school. As a result of his position as a charter school trustee, Respondent is required, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33, N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1, and N.J.A.C. 6A:11-3.1(a), to complete a training program prepared and offered by the New Jersey School Boards Association (NJSBA) on an annual basis. For convenience and ease, the training is offered online so any charter school trustee may complete it at any time, from anywhere. Respondent was required to complete the Governance 2 training program by June 30, 2018.

On July 2, 2018, NJSBA provided the Commission with the names of those charter school trustees who failed to complete mandated training by June 30, 2018, and the list provided included Respondent. Prior to this time, multiple communications about mandated training were sent to Respondent from NJSBA through a variety of means, including targeted e-mail messages and postings in School Board Notes regarding scheduled on-site mandated training. More specifically, on June 13, 2018, Respondent was registered to take Governance 2 and an e-mail with the link to complete the training was sent to Respondent's registered e-mail address. In addition, on June 12, 2018, July 11, 2018, August 13, 2018, August 16, 2018, August 23, 2018 and August 29, 2018, additional e-mail notices were sent through the Weekly Program Update to all charter school trustees who had not yet completed training, including Respondent. NJSBA also sent reminder communications to Respondent's Charter Lead on August 20, 2018, and August 29, 2018. Notwithstanding all of these communications, Respondent did not complete mandated training.

In addition to the communication efforts undertaken by the NJSBA, Respondent's County Office of Education (County) also communicated with the Respondent regarding his failure to complete the mandated training requirement. More specifically, in September 2018, the Commission's staff notified the County that the NJSBA had identified Respondent as a school official who failed to complete training by June 30, 2018. As a result, the County sent correspondence to Respondent, with a copy to the Charter Lead, advising that Respondent remained delinquent in completing training. Notwithstanding this correspondence from the County, Respondent did not complete training as directed.

As a final warning, the Commission sent a letter to Respondent dated October 22, 2018, via regular and electronic mail, advising him that the Commission requires completion of the training to avoid the issuance of an OTSC for non-compliance. This final warning letter provided instructions to Respondent on how to complete training. Again, notwithstanding this correspondence, Respondent did not complete the required training. As a result, an OTSC was mailed to Respondent on October 31, 2018.

To date, there is no dispute that Respondent did not complete his required training by June 30, 2018, and did not complete the training prior to the issuance of the Commission's OTSC. After having been served with the OTSC, Respondent completed his training requirement, and also filed a response to the Commission's OTSC, indicating he has "recently been suffering from disabling migraines," one of the symptoms is "sensitivity to light and computer glare," and he "attempted several times to complete [training] before the deadline." Importantly, Respondent did not deny that he did not complete training in a timely fashion.

DECISION/PENALTY RECOMMENDATION

N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.2(d) provides that school board members and charter school trustees who fail to comply with their training mandate shall be considered in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33. Based on the record as set forth above, at its meeting on November 27, 2018, the Commission discussed finding that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33, as well as N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1 and N.J.A.C. 6A:11-3.1(a). Respondent received repeated notifications of his training requirement, and had ample opportunity to complete the mandated training in a timely fashion; nonetheless, he failed to complete training as required.

Where a violation of the Act is found by the Commission, the Commission may recommend to the Commissioner of Education that a penalty be imposed. The recommended penalty can include a reprimand, censure, suspension or removal of the school official. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-10.12. For the reasons set forth above, the Commission recommends that the Commissioner of Education impose a penalty of reprimand.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c), this decision shall be forwarded to the Commissioner of Education for review of the Commission's recommended penalty. Respondent may either: 1) file exceptions to the recommended sanction; 2) file an appeal of the Commission's finding of a violation; or 3) file both exceptions to the recommended sanction together with an appeal of the finding of a violation.

Parties taking exception to the recommended sanction of the Commission but not disputing the Commission's finding of a violation may file, within thirteen (13) days from the date the Commission's decision is forwarded to the Commissioner, written exceptions regarding the recommended penalty to the Commissioner. The forwarding date shall be the mailing date to the parties, as indicated below. Such exceptions must be forwarded to: Commissioner of Education, c/o Bureau of Controversies and Disputes, P.O. Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Comments on Ethics Commission Sanction." A copy of any comments filed must be sent to the Commission and all other parties.

Parties seeking to appeal the Commission's finding of violation must file an appeal pursuant to the standards set forth at N.J.A.C. 6A:4:1 et seq. within thirty (30) days of the filing date of the decision from which the appeal is taken. The filing date shall be three (3) days after the date of mailing to the parties, as shown below. In such cases, the Commissioner's review of the Commission's recommended sanction will be deferred and incorporated into the Commissioner's review of the finding of violation on appeal. Where a notice of appeal has been filed on or before the due date for exceptions to the Commission's recommended sanction (thirteen (13) days from the date the decision is mailed by the Commission), exceptions need not be filed by that date, but may be incorporated into the appellant's briefs on appeal.

Robert W. Bender

Robert W. Bender, Chairperson

Mailing Date: November 28, 2018

I hereby certify that this decision was duly adopted by the School Ethics Commission at its public meeting on November 27, 2018.

Kathryn A. Whalen, Director

IN THE MATTER OF	:	BEFORE THE SCHOOL ETHICS COMMISSION
LUNEDAR GIRAULT ALBERT	:	RESOLUTION ADOPTING DECISION FOR FAILURE TO COMPLETE MANDATORY TRAINING REQUIREMENT IN A TIMELY MANNER
KIPP TEAM ACADEMY CHARTER SCHOOL*, ESSEX COUNTY	:
	:	DOCKET NO.: T03-18

WHEREAS, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-23.1, all charter school trustees, including Respondent, are subject to the provisions of the School Ethics Act (Act), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-21 et seq.; and

WHEREAS, Lunedar Girault Albert, Respondent, is a charter school trustee of KIPP Team Academy Charter School; and

WHEREAS, the Act requires Respondent to complete a training program prepared and offered by the New Jersey School Boards Association (NJSBA) on an annual basis; and

WHEREAS, Respondent failed to complete his Governance 2 training program by June 30, 2018; and

WHEREAS, at its meeting on October 30, 2018, the School Ethics Commission (Commission) issued an Order to Show Cause (OTSC) directing Respondent to show cause as to why he failed to complete his mandatory training by June 30, 2018, as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33, N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1, and N.J.A.C. 6A:11-3.1(a); and

WHEREAS, after having been served with the OTSC, Respondent completed his training requirement, and also filed a response to the Commission's OTSC that did not dispute that he did not complete training in a timely fashion; and

WHEREAS, at its meeting on November 27, 2018, the Commission found that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33, N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1, and N.J.A.C. 6A:11-3.1(a) by failing to complete the training requirement he was obligated to complete; and

WHEREAS, at its meeting on November 27, 2018, the Commission recommended that the Commissioner of Education impose a penalty of reprimand on Respondent; and

WHEREAS, at its meeting on November 27, 2018, the Commission agreed that the within decision accurately memorializes its findings and recommendations; and

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Commission hereby adopts the within decision and directs its staff to notify all parties to this action of the decision.

Robert W. Bender, Chairperson
School Ethics Commission

I certify that the within Resolution was duly adopted by the School Ethics Commission at its public meeting on November 27, 2018.

Kathryn A. Whalen, Director

12-19SEC

AGENCY DKT. NO. 289-11/18

IN THE MATTER OF DANIEL BERLIN,	:
DISCOVERY CHARTER SCHOOL,	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
ESSEX COUNTY.	:	DECISION
	:

The Commissioner has reviewed the record of this matter and the decision of the School Ethics Commission (SEC) – finding that respondent violated the School Ethics Act (SEA) for failure to complete his Governance 3 training program, in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1. The SEC's decision was forwarded to the Commissioner for final determination on the recommended penalty pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c). The SEC advises that as of the date of its decision, respondent had not completed the training as directed. Respondent has not filed exceptions to the recommended penalty, nor has he instituted an appeal of the SEC's underlying finding of violation pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:4-1 et seq.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the penalty recommended by the SEC for respondent's failure to timely honor an obligation placed upon school officials by law. Additionally, respondent is admonished for causing the unnecessary expenditure of administrative and adjudicative resources at both State and local levels.

Accordingly – effective from the date of this decision – respondent is hereby removed as a school official found to have violated the SEA, for failure to complete required training.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 1/14/19

Date of Mailing: 1/15/19

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to P.L. 2008, c. 36 (N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1).

IN THE MATTER OF	:	BEFORE THE SCHOOL ETHICS COMMISSION
DANIEL BERLIN	:	DECISION FOR FAILURE TO COMPLETE MANDATORY TRAINING REQUIREMENT IN A TIMELY MANNER
DISCOVERY CHARTER SCHOOL, ESSEX COUNTY	:
	:	DOCKET NO.: T06-18

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

This matter arises from an Order to Show Cause (OTSC) issued by the School Ethics Commission (Commission) at its meeting on October 30, 2018, and mailed on October 31, 2018, via regular and electronic mail directing Respondent, a "board member" as defined in N.J.S.A. 18A:12-23 of the School Ethics Act (Act), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-21 et seq., to show cause as to why the Commission should not find Respondent in violation of the Act, for failing to complete training as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33, N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1, and N.J.A.C. 6A:11-3.1(a).

In the OTSC mailed on October 31, 2018, the Commission notified Respondent that he had twenty (20) days to respond to the OTSC, and further advised that failure to respond would be deemed an admission of the facts set forth in the OTSC. Respondent was also notified that, upon receipt of the response or upon expiration of the twenty (20) day time period for so filing, the Commission may proceed to a determination of a violation on a summary basis (i.e., without a hearing or further proceedings) in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:28-1.6(c), which so permits when material facts are not in dispute.

ANALYSIS

The Act was enacted by the New Jersey State Legislature to ensure and preserve public confidence in members of local boards of education and in local school administrators. By virtue of N.J.S.A.18A:12-23.1, the breadth of the Act was expanded to include charter school trustees.

Respondent is a trustee of a charter school located in the City of Newark, County of Essex. Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-23.1, the provisions of the Act were made applicable to administrators and members of a board of trustees of a charter school As a result of his position as a charter school trustee, Respondent is required, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33, N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1, and N.J.A.C. 6A:11-3.1(a), to complete a training program prepared and offered by the New Jersey School Boards Association (NJSBA) on an annual basis. For convenience and ease, the training is offered online so any charter school trustee may complete it at any time, from anywhere. Respondent was required to complete the Governance 3 training program by June 30, 2018.

On July 2, 2018, the NJSBA provided the Commission with the names of those charter school trustees who failed to complete mandated training by June 30, 2018, and the list provided included Respondent. Prior to this time, multiple communications about mandated training were sent to Respondent from the NJSBA through a variety of means, including targeted e-mail messages and postings in School Board Notes regarding scheduled on-site mandated training. More specifically, on June 13, 2018, Respondent was registered to take Governance 3 and an e-mail with the link to complete the training was sent to Respondent's registered e-mail address. In addition, on June 12, 2018, July 11, 2018, August 13, 2018, August 16, 2018, August 23, 2018 and August 29, 2018, additional e-mail notices were sent through the Weekly Program Update to all charter school trustees who had not yet completed training, including Respondent. NJSBA also sent reminder communications to Respondent's Charter Lead on August 20, 2018, and August 29, 2018. Notwithstanding all of these communications, Respondent did not complete mandated training.

In addition to the communication efforts undertaken by the NJSBA, Respondent's County Office of Education (County) also communicated with the Respondent regarding his failure to complete the mandated training requirement. More specifically, in September 2018, the Commission's staff notified the County that the NJSBA had identified Respondent as a school official who failed to complete training by June 30, 2018. As a result, the County sent correspondence to Respondent, with a copy to the Charter Lead, advising that Respondent remained delinquent in completing training. Notwithstanding this correspondence from the County, Respondent did not complete training as directed.

As a final warning, the Commission sent a letter to Respondent dated October 22, 2018, via regular and electronic mail, advising him that the Commission requires completion of the training to avoid the issuance of an OTSC for non-compliance. This final warning letter provided instructions to Respondent on how to complete training. Again, notwithstanding this correspondence, Respondent did not complete the required training. As a result, an OTSC was mailed to Respondent on October 31, 2018.

To date, there is no dispute that Respondent did not complete his required training by June 30, 2018, and did not complete the training prior to the issuance of the Commission's OTSC. After having been served with the OTSC, Respondent failed to respond to the Commission's OTSC as to why he did not complete training by June 30, 2018, and also failed to complete training as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33, N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1, and N.J.A.C. 6A:11-3.1(a).

DECISION/PENALTY RECOMMENDATION

N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.2(d) provides that school board members and charter school trustees who fail to comply with their training mandate shall be considered in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33. Based on the record as set forth above, at its meeting on November 27, 2018, the Commission found that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33, as well as N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1 and N.J.A.C. 6A:11-3.1(a). Respondent received repeated notifications of his training requirement, and had ample opportunity to complete the mandated training in a timely fashion; nonetheless, he failed to complete training as required.

Where a violation of the Act is found by the Commission, the Commission may recommend to the Commissioner of Education that a penalty be imposed. The recommended penalty can include a reprimand, censure, suspension or removal of the school official. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-10.12. For the reasons set forth above, the Commission recommends that the Commissioner of Education impose a penalty of removal, with such removal to become effective immediately upon adoption by the Commissioner of Education. However, if Respondent completes training before the Commissioner of Education adopts a final decision (which will be forty-five (45) days after the mailing date of the within decision), then the Commission recommends that the Commissioner of Education, in lieu of removal, impose a thirty (30) day suspension, with such suspension to become effective immediately upon adoption by the Commissioner of Education.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c), this decision shall be forwarded to the Commissioner of Education for review of the Commission's recommended penalty. Respondent may either: 1) file exceptions to the recommended sanction; 2) file an appeal of the Commission's finding of a violation; or 3) file both exceptions to the recommended sanction together with an appeal of the finding of a violation.

Parties taking exception to the recommended sanction of the Commission but not disputing the Commission's finding of a violation may file, within thirteen (13) days from the date the Commission's decision is forwarded to the Commissioner, written exceptions regarding the recommended penalty to the Commissioner. The forwarding date shall be the mailing date to the parties, as indicated below. Such exceptions must be forwarded to: Commissioner of Education, c/o Bureau of Controversies and Disputes, P.O. Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Comments on Ethics Commission Sanction." A copy of any comments filed must be sent to the Commission and all other parties.

Parties seeking to appeal the Commission's finding of violation must file an appeal pursuant to the standards set forth at N.J.A.C. 6A:4:1 et seq. within thirty (30) days of the filing date of the decision from which the appeal is taken. The filing date shall be three (3) days after the date of mailing to the parties, as shown below. In such cases, the Commissioner's review of the Commission's recommended sanction will be deferred and incorporated into the Commissioner's review of the finding of violation on appeal. Where a notice of appeal has been filed on or before the due date for exceptions to the Commission's recommended sanction (thirteen (13) days from the date the decision is mailed by the Commission), exceptions need not be filed by that date, but may be incorporated into the appellant's briefs on appeal.

Robert W. Bender

Robert W. Bender, Chairperson

Mailing Date: November 28, 2018

I hereby certify that this decision was duly adopted by the School Ethics Commission at its public meeting on November 27, 2018.

Kathryn A. Whalen, Director

IN THE MATTER OF	:	BEFORE THE SCHOOL ETHICS COMMISSION
DANIEL BERLIN	:	RESOLUTION ADOPTING DECISION FOR FAILURE TO COMPLETE MANDATORY TRAINING REQUIREMENT IN A TIMELY MANNER
DISCOVERY CHARTER SCHOOL, ESSEX COUNTY	:
	:	DOCKET NO.: T06-18

WHEREAS, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-23.1, all charter school trustees, including Respondent, are subject to the provisions of the School Ethics Act (Act), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-21 et seq.; and

WHEREAS, Daniel Berlin, Respondent, is a charter school trustee of Discovery Charter School; and

WHEREAS, the Act requires Respondent to complete a training program prepared and offered by the New Jersey School Boards Association (NJSBA) on an annual basis; and

WHEREAS, Respondent failed to complete his Governance 3 training program by June 30, 2018; and

WHEREAS, at its meeting on October 30, 2018, the School Ethics Commission (Commission) issued an Order to Show Cause (OTSC) directing Respondent to show cause as to why he failed to complete his mandatory training by June 30, 2018 as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33, N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1, and N.J.A.C. 6A:11-3.1(a); and

WHEREAS, after having been served with the OTSC, Respondent failed to respond to the Commission's OTSC as to why he did not complete training by June 30, 2018, and also failed to complete training as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33, N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1, and N.J.A.C. 6A:11-3.1(a); and

WHEREAS, at its meeting on November 27, 2018, the Commission found that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33, N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1, and N.J.A.C. 6A:11-3.1(a) by failing to complete the training requirement he was obligated to complete; and

WHEREAS, at its meeting on November 27, 2018, the Commission recommended that the Commissioner of Education impose a penalty of removal, with such removal to become effective immediately upon adoption by the Commissioner of Education. However, if Respondent completes training before the Commissioner of Education adopts a final decision (which will be forty-five (45) days after the mailing date of the within decision), then the Commission recommends that the Commissioner of Education, in lieu of removal, impose a thirty (30) day suspension, with such suspension to become effective immediately upon adoption by the Commissioner of Education; and

WHEREAS, at its meeting on November 27, 2018, the Commission agreed that the within decision accurately memorializes its findings and recommendations; and

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Commission hereby adopts the within decision and directs its staff to notify all parties to this action of the decision.

Robert W. Bender, Chairperson
School Ethics Commission

I certify that the within Resolution was duly adopted by the School Ethics Commission at its public meeting on November 27, 2018.

Kathryn A. Whalen, Director

13-19SEC

AGENCY DKT. NO. 287-11/18

IN THE MATTER OF MICHAEL STASI,	:
RED BANK CHARTER SCHOOL,	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
MONMOUTH COUNTY.	:	DECISION
	:

The Commissioner has reviewed the record of this matter and the decision of the School Ethics Commission (SEC) – finding that respondent violated the School Ethics Act for failure to timely complete charter school trustee training in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33, N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1, and N.J.A.C. 6A:11-3.1. The SEC's decision was forwarded to the Commissioner for final determination on the recommended penalty pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c). The SEC advises that respondent ultimately completed the training after the issuance of its October 30, 2018 Order to Show Cause, but prior to the SEC's November 27, 2018 meeting; therefore, the SEC recommends a penalty of reprimand. Respondent filed exceptions to the recommended penalty, apologizing for disregarding the SEC's notices, and explaining that his recent move out of state was likely the reason the SEC's notices went unanswered. Respondent did not institute an appeal, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:4-1 et seq., of the SEC's underlying finding of violation.

Upon review, the Commissioner does not find respondent's exceptions to be persuasive. Instead, the Commissioner concurs with the penalty recommended by the SEC for respondent's failure to timely honor an obligation placed upon charter school trustees by law. Additionally, respondent is admonished for causing the unnecessary expenditure of administrative and adjudicative resources at both State and local levels.

Accordingly, respondent is hereby reprimanded as a school official found to have violated the School Ethics Act.

IT IS SO ORDERED.*

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 1/14/19

Date of Mailing: 1/15/19

* This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to P.L. 2008. c. 36. (N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1)

IN THE MATTER OF	:	BEFORE THE SCHOOL ETHICS COMMISSION
MICHAEL STASI	:	DECISION FOR FAILURE TO COMPLETE MANDATORY
RED BANK CHARTER SCHOOL, MONMOUTH COUNTY	:	TRAINING REQUIREMENT IN A TIMELY MANNER
	:	DOCKET NO.: T10-18

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

This matter arises from an Order to Show Cause (OTSC) issued by the School Ethics Commission (Commission) at its meeting on October 30, 2018, and mailed on October 31, 2018, via regular and electronic mail directing Respondent, a "board member" as defined in N.J.S.A. 18A:12-23 of the School Ethics Act (Act), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-21 et seq., to show cause as to why the Commission should not find Respondent in violation of the Act, for failing to complete training as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33, N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1, and N.J.A.C. 6A:11-3.1(a).

In the OTSC mailed on October 31, 2018, the Commission notified Respondent that he had twenty (20) days to respond to the OTSC, and further advised that failure to respond would be deemed an admission of the facts set forth in the OTSC. Respondent was also notified that, upon receipt of the response or upon expiration of the twenty (20) day time period for so filing, the Commission may proceed to a determination of a violation on a summary basis (i.e., without a hearing or further proceedings) in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:28-1.6(c), which so permits when material facts are not in dispute.

ANALYSIS

The Act was enacted by the New Jersey State Legislature to ensure and preserve public confidence in members of local boards of education and in local school administrators. By virtue of N.J.S.A.18A:12-23.1, the breadth of the Act was expanded to include charter school trustees.

Respondent is a trustee of a charter school located in the City of Red Bank, County of Monmouth. Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-23.1, the provisions of the Act were made applicable to administrators and members of a board of trustees of a charter school. As a result of his position as a charter school trustee, Respondent is required, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33, N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1, and N.J.A.C. 6A:11-3.1(a), to complete a training program prepared and offered by the New Jersey School Boards Association (NJSBA) on an annual basis. For convenience and ease, the training is offered online so any charter school trustee may complete it at any time, from anywhere. Respondent was required to complete the Governance 2 training program by June 30, 2018.

On July 2, 2018, NJSBA provided the Commission with the names of those charter school trustees who failed to complete mandated training by June 30, 2018, and the list provided included Respondent. Prior to this time, multiple communications about mandated training were sent to Respondent from NJSBA through a variety of means, including targeted e-mail messages and postings in School Board Notes regarding scheduled on-site mandated training. More specifically, on May 14, 2018, Respondent was registered to take Governance 2, and an e-mail with the link to complete the training was sent to Respondent's registered e-mail address. In addition, on June 12, 2018, July 11, 2018, August 13, 2018, August 16, 2018, August 23, 2018 and August 29, 2018, additional e-mail notices were sent through the Weekly Program Update to all charter school trustees who had not yet completed training, including Respondent. NJSBA also sent reminder communications to Respondent's Charter Lead on August 20, 2018, and August 29, 2018. Notwithstanding all of these communications, Respondent did not complete mandated training.

In addition to the communication efforts undertaken by the NJSBA, Respondent's County Office of Education (County) also communicated with the Respondent regarding his failure to complete the mandated training requirement. More specifically, in September 2018, the Commission's staff notified the County that the NJSBA had identified Respondent as a school official who failed to complete training by June 30, 2018. As a result, the County sent correspondence to Respondent, with a copy to the Charter Lead, advising that Respondent remained delinquent in completing training. Notwithstanding this correspondence from the County, Respondent did not complete training as directed.

As a final warning, the Commission sent a letter to Respondent dated October 22, 2018, via regular and electronic mail, advising him that the Commission requires completion of the training to avoid the issuance of an OTSC for non-compliance. This final warning letter provided instructions to Respondent on how to complete training. Again, notwithstanding this correspondence, Respondent did not complete the required training. As a result, an OTSC was mailed to Respondent on October 31, 2018.

To date, there is no dispute that Respondent did not complete his required training by June 30, 2018, and did not complete the training prior to the issuance of the Commission's OTSC. After having been served with the OTSC, Respondent completed his training requirement, but did not respond to the Commission's OTSC as to why he did not complete training by June 30, 2018. Importantly, Respondent did not deny that he did not complete training in a timely fashion.

DECISION/PENALTY RECOMMENDATION

N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.2(d) provides that school board members and charter school trustees who fail to comply with their training mandate shall be considered in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33. Based on the record as set forth above, at its meeting on November 27, 2018, the Commission discussed finding that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33, as well as N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1 and N.J.A.C. 6A:11-3.1(a). Respondent received repeated notifications of his training requirement, and had ample opportunity to complete the mandated training in a timely fashion; nonetheless, he failed to complete training as required.

Where a violation of the Act is found by the Commission, the Commission may recommend to the Commissioner of Education that a penalty be imposed. The recommended penalty can include a reprimand, censure, suspension or removal of the school official. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-10.12. For the reasons set forth above, the Commission recommends that the Commissioner of Education impose a penalty of reprimand.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c), this decision shall be forwarded to the Commissioner of Education for review of the Commission's recommended penalty. Respondent may either: 1) file exceptions to the recommended sanction; 2) file an appeal of the Commission's finding of a violation; or 3) file both exceptions to the recommended sanction together with an appeal of the finding of a violation.

Parties taking exception to the recommended sanction of the Commission but not disputing the Commission's finding of a violation may file, within thirteen (13) days from the date the Commission's decision is forwarded to the Commissioner, written exceptions regarding the recommended penalty to the Commissioner. The forwarding date shall be the mailing date to the parties, as indicated below. Such exceptions must be forwarded to: Commissioner of Education, c/o Bureau of Controversies and Disputes, P.O. Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Comments on Ethics Commission Sanction." A copy of any comments filed must be sent to the Commission and all other parties.

Parties seeking to appeal the Commission's finding of violation must file an appeal pursuant to the standards set forth at N.J.A.C. 6A:4:1 et seq. within thirty (30) days of the filing date of the decision from which the appeal is taken. The filing date shall be three (3) days after the date of mailing to the parties, as shown below. In such cases, the Commissioner's review of the Commission's recommended sanction will be deferred and incorporated into the Commissioner's review of the finding of violation on appeal. Where a notice of appeal has been filed on or before the due date for exceptions to the Commission's recommended sanction (thirteen (13) days from the date the decision is mailed by the Commission), exceptions need not be filed by that date, but may be incorporated into the appellant's briefs on appeal.

Robert W. Bender

Robert W. Bender, Chairperson

Mailing Date: November 28, 2018

I hereby certify that this decision was duly adopted by the School Ethics Commission at its public meeting on November 27, 2018.

Kathryn A. Whalen

Kathryn A. Whalen, Director

IN THE MATTER OF	:	BEFORE THE SCHOOL ETHICS COMMISSION
MICHAEL STASI	:	RESOLUTION ADOPTING DECISION FOR FAILURE TO COMPLETE MANDATORY TRAINING REQUIREMENT IN A TIMELY MANNER
RED BANK CHARTER SCHOOL, MONMOUTH COUNTY	:
	:	DOCKET NO.: T10-18

WHEREAS, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-23.1, all charter school trustees, including Respondent, are subject to the provisions of the School Ethics Act (Act), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-21 et seq.; and

WHEREAS, Michael Stasi, Respondent, is a charter school trustee of Red Bank Charter School; and

WHEREAS, the Act requires Respondent to complete a training program prepared and offered by the New Jersey School Boards Association (NJSBA) on an annual basis; and

WHEREAS, Respondent failed to complete his Governance 2 training program by June 30, 2018; and

WHEREAS, at its meeting on October 30, 2018, the School Ethics Commission (Commission) issued an Order to Show Cause (OTSC) directing Respondent to show cause as to why he failed to complete his mandatory training by June 30, 2018, as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33, N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1, and N.J.A.C. 6A:11-3.1(a); and

WHEREAS, after having been served with the OTSC, Respondent completed his training requirement, but did not respond to the Commission's OTSC as to why he did not complete training by June 30, 2018; and

WHEREAS, at its meeting on November 27, 2018, the Commission found that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33, N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1, and N.J.A.C. 6A:11-3.1(a) by failing to complete the training requirement he was obligated to complete; and

WHEREAS, at its meeting on November 27, 2018, the Commission recommended that the Commissioner of Education impose a penalty of reprimand on Respondent; and

WHEREAS, at its meeting on November 27, 2018, the Commission agreed that the within decision accurately memorializes its findings and recommendations; and

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Commission hereby adopts the within decision and directs its staff to notify all parties to this action of the decision.

Robert W. Bender

Robert W. Bender, Chairperson
School Ethics Commission

I certify that the within Resolution was duly adopted by the School Ethics Commission at its public meeting on November 27, 2018.

Kathryn A. Whalen

Kathryn A. Whalen, Director

ASKIAA NASH,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
NEW JERSEY STATE BOARD OF EXAMINERS,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

SYNOPSIS

In December 2016, the New Jersey State Board of Examiners (Board) denied the petitioner's application for a Standard Educational Services Certificate of Eligibility with an Associate School Library Media Specialist (ASLMS) endorsement. Petitioner's application was denied because he had not completed the coherent college program outlined under N.J.A.C 6A:9B-14.15(e)(2), and had not completed a year-long school-based residency program in a school library media center, as required under N.J.A.C 6A:9B-14.15(e)(3). Petitioner argued that the Board should have awarded him the certificate he sought because he completed the required coursework under the prior regulations and was incarcerated when the regulations governing the issuance of the ASLMS endorsement changed. The Board contended that even if petitioner had applied for the ASLMS endorsement when he completed course requirements, he still would not have been eligible for the endorsement under the prior regulations because he did not possess a standard New Jersey teacher's certificate at the time.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: the petitioner received an Alternate Route Provisional Teacher Certificate of Eligibility in 1993, and was hired by the Newark Public Schools as an education media specialist under emergency certificates from September 1993 to September 2000; petitioner completed coursework for his college degree from Montclair State University by August 1995, but never applied for his standard New Jersey teacher's certificate; in January 2001, petitioner was tried and sentenced to twenty-two years in prison, which sentence was overturned in 2013 and his record expunged; subsequently, in 2016, petitioner applied for a Standard Educational Services Certificate of Eligibility with an ASLM endorsement, having previously never applied for this certificate; petitioner's argument that he should have been awarded the Standard Certificate with an ASLMS because he had completed the required college courses under the regulations in effect prior to his incarceration, and therefore the requirement should be waived, is without merit. The ALJ concluded that petitioner is ineligible for a Standard Educational Services Certificate of Eligibility with an ASLMS under both N.J.A.C 6A:9B-14.15(e)(2) and N.J.A.C 6A:9B-14.15(e)(3), and accordingly dismissed the matter.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurred with the ALJ's findings and conclusion; accordingly, the Initial Decision of the OAL was adopted as the final decision in this matter. The petition was dismissed.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

January 14, 2019

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 01135-18
AGENCY DKT. NO. 271-11/17

ASKIAA NASH,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
NEW JERSEY STATE BOARD OF EXAMINERS,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed. The parties did not file exceptions.[1]

Upon review, the Commissioner agrees with the Administrative Law Judge that petitioner does not meet the regulatory requirements for a Standard Educational Services Certificate of Eligibility with an Associate School Library Media Specialist endorsement. As such, respondent did not act in an arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable manner when it denied petitioner's application.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision of the OAL is adopted as the final decision in this matter – for the reasons thoroughly expressed therein – and the petition is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[2]

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: ~~1/14/19~~

Date of Mailing: 1/15/19

[1] The Commissioner was not provided with a copy of the transcript of the October 10, 2018 hearing at the OAL.

[2] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to P.L. 2008. c. 36 (N.J.S.A 18A:6-9.1).

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 01135-18
AGENCY DKT. NO. 271-11/17

ASKIAA NASH,
Petitioner,
v.
NEW JERSEY BOARD OF EXAMINERS,
Respondent.

Askiaa Nash, petitioner, pro se

Geoffrey N. Stark, Deputy Attorney General, for respondent (Gurbir S. Grewal, Attorney General of New Jersey, attorney)

Record Closed: November 13, 2018 Decided: November 29, 2018

BEFORE BARRY E. MOSCOWITZ, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

On December 15, 2016, the State Board of Examiners denied Askiaa Nash's application for a Standard Educational Services Certificate of Eligibility with an Associate School Library Media Specialist (ASLMS) Endorsement. Nash argues that the prior regulations apply and that their certification requirements should be waived. If the prior regulations are applied, can the certification requirements be waived? No. Under N.J.A.C. 6A:5-1.3(a)(1)(i), certification requirements cannot be waived.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On November 1, 2016, Nash applied to the State Board of Examiners for a Standard Educational Services Certificate of Eligibility with an ASLMS Endorsement under N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-14.15(e).

On December 15, 2016, the Board denied the application because Nash had not completed "a coherent college program at a regionally accredited college or university that includes a minimum of nine semester-hour credits in educational theory, curriculum design and integration, teaching methodology, student/learning development, and behavior management" under N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-14.15(e)(2), and he had not completed "a year-long school-based residency program in a school library media center" under N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-14.15(e)(3).

On October 23, 2017, Nash appealed the determination.

On January 22, 2018, the Department of Education transmitted the case to the Office of Administrative Law as a contested case under the Administrative Procedure Act, N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15, and the act establishing the Office of Administrative Law, N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -23, for a hearing under the Uniform Administrative Procedure Rules, N.J.A.C. 1:1-1.1 to -21.6.

FINDINGS OF FACT

Based on the testimony the parties provided, and my assessment of its credibility, together with the documents the parties submitted and my assessment of their sufficiency, I FIND the following as FACT:

In 1993, Nash applied for and received an Alternate Route Provisional Teacher Certificate of Eligibility.

On September 1, 1993, Nash was hired by the Newark Public Schools as an education media specialist. He was issued emergency certificates from September 1993 to September 2000. By August 1, 1995, Nash had completed his coursework at Montclair State University.

Nash, however, never applied for his standard New Jersey teacher's certificate.

Meanwhile, on January 1, 2001, Nash was tried and sentenced to twenty-two years in prison. On January 23, 2013, his conviction was overturned. On May 1, 2013, his record was expunged.

In 2016, Nash applied for but was denied a Standard Educational Services Certificate of Eligibility with an ASLMS Endorsement.

Parenthetically, Nash had never applied for a Standard Educational Services Certificate of Eligibility with an ASLMS Endorsement before 2016.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Nash argues that the Board should have awarded him the Standard Educational Services Certificate of Eligibility with an ASLMS Endorsement because he completed the required courses at Montclair under the prior regulations and was incarcerated when the regulations governing the issuance of the ASLMS endorsement changed.

The Board argues that even if Nash had applied for an ASLMS endorsement when he completed the required courses at Montclair, he still would have been ineligible for the endorsement under the prior regulations because he did not possess a standard New Jersey teacher's certificate at the time.

At that time, the regulations governing the ASLMS endorsement required (1) a bachelor's degree from an accredited college, (2) a standard New Jersey teacher's certificate, and (3) successful completion of a college curriculum approved by the New Jersey Department of Education for issuing the endorsement or a minimum of eighteen semester-hour credits of undergraduate or graduate study in educational media. See N.J.A.C. 6:11-11.18.

As the parties stipulated at the hearing, Nash had a bachelor's degree from an accredited college, and had successfully completed a minimum of eighteen semester-hour credits of undergraduate or graduate study in educational media, but he did not have a standard New Jersey teacher's certificate.

Nash argues that this requirement should be waived. Such waiver, however, is unavailable. As the Board notes, the regulation governing waiver expressly states that certification requirements cannot be waived. See N.J.A.C. 6A:5-1.3(a)(1)(i).

Given this brief discussion, I CONCLUDE that Nash is ineligible for a Standard Educational Services Certificate of Eligibility with an ASLMS endorsement under both N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-14.15(e) and N.J.A.C. 6:11-11.18.

ORDER

Given my findings of fact and conclusions of law, I ORDER that this case be DISMISSED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

11/29/18
DATE

BARRY E. MOSCOWITZ, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: 11/29/18

Date Mailed to Parties:

dr

APPENDIX

Witnesses

For Petitioner:

Askiaa Nash

For Respondent:

Robert Higgins

Documents

For Petitioner:

P-1 Board Decision, dated December 15, 2016

P-2 Not in Evidence

P-3 Excerpt from Course Catalog, undated

For Respondent:

R-1 Printout from Teacher Certification Information System, undated

R-2 Prior regulations, dated September 17, 1996

R-3 Transcript from Bloomfield College, undated

R-4 Transcript from Montclair State University, undated

R-5 Current regulations, undated

15-19L

State of New Jersey
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION
PO BOX 500
TRENTON, NJ 08625-0500

PHILIP D. MURPHY
Governor

SHEILA Y. OLIVER
Lt. Governor

LAMONT O. REPOLLET, ED.D.
Commissioner

January 11, 2019

Isabel Machado, Esq.
Machado Law Group
1 Cleveland Place
Springfield, NJ 07081

John Berger
48 Johnson Avenue
Matawan, NJ 07747

Re: In the Matter of the Tenure Hearing of John Berger, Board of Education for the City of Perth Amboy, Middlesex County, Agency Dkt. No. 281-11/18.

Dear Parties:

I have reviewed the record in the contested case entitled In the Matter of the Tenure Hearing of John Berger, Board of Education for the City of Perth Amboy, Middlesex County, Agency Dkt. No. 281-11/18. The record includes the District's request to withdraw the tenure charges filed in this matter due to Respondent's retirement from his teaching position, filed with the District on December 1, 2018 and accepted by the Board on January 3, 2019. In light of this information, I find that no purpose would be served by further proceedings in this matter.

Accordingly, I approve the dismissal of the tenure charges with prejudice and dismiss the matter as a contested case before me.

Sincerely,

Lamont O. Repollet, Ed.D.
Commissioner

c: County Superintendent
State Law Library

LOR/SLP

16-19

BOROUGH OF SEA BRIGHT, MONMOUTH COUNTY,	:
PETITIONER,	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
V.	:	DECISION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE SHORE REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT, MONMOUTH COUNTY,	:
RESPONDENTS.	:

SYNOPSIS

This case arose out of a dispute between the Shore Regional Board of Education (Board) and one of its constituent members, the Borough of Sea Bright (Sea Bright), over the formula used to apportion the tax burden supporting the regional school district. Sea Bright challenged the action of the Board in declining to place a referendum on the ballot to modify the apportionment method. Specifically, a Sea Bright representative to the Shore Regional school board made a motion to include a referendum on the ballot at its November 2015 meeting, which motion died without a vote after not receiving a second on the motion. Sea Bright alleged that the failure to place the referendum on the ballot was arbitrary, capricious and unreasonable. The parties filed cross motions for summary decision.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: the Shore Regional School District was established in the 1960s on a per-pupil funding basis; subsequently, the funding formula changed in 1975 to equalized valuation, but allowed the voters of each municipality to approve an apportionment method based upon (a) equalized valuation, (b) per pupil basis, or (c) a combination of the two; in April 2015, Sea Bright sought to raise its concerns over the apportionment method with the Board due to a disparity between the percentage of Shore Regional's budget provided by Sea Bright and the percentage of students Sea Bright sent to the regional school district; in November 2015, a Sea Bright Board member made a motion at a public meeting to submit a change to the apportionment method to voters in the next election; no other Board member seconded the motion, and no further vote was taken regarding the request; the decision to place a change to the apportionment method on the ballot is discretionary and, as a result, the Board's decision not to place a referendum on the ballot – in the absence of a second to the motion – was not arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable. Accordingly, the ALJ granted summary decision in favor of the Board.

Upon comprehensive review, the Commissioner concurred with the ALJ that the Board is entitled to summary decision. In so determining, the Commissioner found, inter alia, that this matter is limited to a determination as to whether the Board acted in an arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable manner by failing to place a referendum on the ballot; as the motion in question was never seconded, the Commissioner cannot find that the Board was arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable. Accordingly, the Initial Decision was adopted as the final decision in this matter and the petition was dismissed.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

January 14, 2019

16-19

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 4004-16
AGENCY DKT. NO. 25-2/16

BOROUGH OF SEA BRIGHT, MONMOUTH COUNTY,	:
PETITIONER,	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
V.	:	DECISION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE SHORE REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT, MONMOUTH COUNTY,	:
RESPONDENTS.	:

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed – as have the exceptions filed pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4 by the petitioner, the Borough of Sea Bright (Sea Bright), and the Board of Education of the Shore Regional High School District's (Board) reply thereto. In this case, Sea Bright is challenging the Board's failure to place on the ballot a referendum to modify the method by which taxes are apportioned among the constituent members of the Shore Regional High School District. Sea Bright's representative to the Board made a motion to include a referendum on the ballot to change the apportionment method at its November 2015 meeting; however, the motion was not seconded by any other member of the Board, resulting in no further action. The Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) found that a decision to place such a change on the ballot is discretionary, and as a result, the Board's decision not to place a referendum on the ballot in the absence of a second to the motion was not arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable. Therefore, the ALJ granted summary decision in favor of the Board.

In its exceptions, Sea Bright maintains that the Initial Decision must be rejected because its holding would thwart the Legislature's explicit intent to have voters determine the tax allocation method for regional school districts. Under N.J.S.A. 18A:13-23, the tax levy for regional school districts "shall be apportioned among the municipalities included with the regional district, as may be approved by the voters for each municipality at the annual election or a special school election." Therefore, Sea Bright argues that upon receiving a request from one of the constituent members to revise the tax apportionment method, the Board was required to designate and submit the public question to be voted upon by the constituents of the district. Sea Bright also contends that equitable and remedial principles should be applied in this case to allow the voters of Sea Bright, Monmouth Beach, Oceanport and West Long Branch to weigh in on the allocation method.

Sea Bright also suggests that the Initial Decision is flawed because the ALJ found that an arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable analysis was not necessary since the Board's decision was discretionary, and no formal action was taken. Almost every decision made by a board of education involves some form of discretion; further, a public entity's inaction can be challenged as arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable in the same manner as formal action. Despite clear case law to the contrary, the Initial Decision wrongfully upheld the Board's refusal to certify the referendum and determined that no analysis of whether the decision was arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable was necessary.

Moreover, Sea Bright contends that the only way to determine whether a public entity's decision was arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable is for the public entity to provide an explanation for its decision. Caporusso v. New Jersey Dep't of Health and Senior Services, 434 N.J. Super 88, 109 (App. Div 2014). For years, the Board has continuously refused to provide

Sea Bright's taxpayers, and the taxpayers from the other constituent municipalities, with an explanation of how it reached its determination not to certify the referendum. Importantly, the Board did not have any public discussion or deliberation on placing the referendum on the ballot. Finally, there is no legitimate reason for the Board to deny a constituent's formal request to place a referendum on the ballot as the tax allocation method has no impact on the educational services provided to Shore Regional's students, and there also would be no additional cost to the Board. Each year the Board approves its annual budget based on a myriad of factors that allow it to provide the appropriate educational services to its students. After the budget is formally adopted, the total amount to be collected through local taxes is determined. The tax levy is then divided among the constituent municipalities, and – whether it is calculated through pupil enrollment, equalized property value or some combination thereof – does not affect the Board's annual budget or the amount of taxes it receives. Therefore, the Board's failure to place a referendum to modify the school funding formula on the ballot must be overturned as arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable.

In reply, the Board argues that the statutory scheme and the record on appeal does not support the modification of the Initial Decision. Nowhere in N.J.S.A. 18A:13-23, nor in the case law, is there any suggestion that the Legislature ever contemplated that the placing of such a question on the ballot was automatic. Instead, school law and election law should control regarding how this matter is placed on the ballot. Additionally, the motion made by Sea Bright's representative to the Board was extremely vague, simply stating "...to have a vote on conducting a referendum to change the State funding." (Respondent's Exceptions at 2) There was no indication as to what the proposed change to the tax collection method would be based on the ambiguous motion.

Additionally, in its exceptions, Sea Bright wrongfully contends that the Board was arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable because it failed to offer a reasonable explanation for why the motion died for lack of a second. There is no case law to suggest that any individual board member must discuss his or her reasons for not seconding a motion. Further, there is no case law that would compel the Commissioner to find that every motion made by a board member must be seconded and discussed, or that any request for a public question under the applicable statute must be debated. Therefore, the Initial Decision should be adopted as the final decision in this matter.

Upon a comprehensive review of the record in this matter, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ – for the reasons thoroughly set forth in the Initial Decision – that the Board is entitled to summary decision. Although there may be a longstanding disagreement between the parties regarding the funding formula,[1] this matter is limited to a determination as to whether the Board acted in an arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable manner by failing to place a referendum on the ballot. To that end, Sea Bright has the burden to prove that the Board's inaction was arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable. Kopera v. Board of Education of West Orange, 60 N.J. Super. 288 (App. Div. 1960). The Commissioner cannot find that the Board was arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable in the absence of the motion being seconded. Further, N.J.S.A. 18A:13-23 does not address the Board's obligation to place a referendum on the ballot based on a request by one municipality; rather, it simply states that the tax levy for regional school districts shall be apportioned among the municipalities and approved by the voters for each municipality. Moreover, despite Sea Bright's characterization of the Initial Decision, the ALJ did evaluate the Board's inaction under the arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable standard.

[1] The Initial Decision outlines previous efforts made by Sea Bright to explore the possibility of modifying the funding formula, beginning in 2015.

Finally, the Commissioner is also in accord with the ALJ's determination concerning Sea Bright's claim that the Board violated the Open Public Meetings Act, N.J.S.A. 10:4-6 et seq.[2]

Accordingly, the recommended decision of the ALJ is adopted as the final decision in this matter and the petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[3]

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 1/14/19

Date of Mailing: 1/16/19

[2] Although claims against local school boards that do not arise under school laws are typically adjudicated in Superior Court, it is well established that the Commissioner has additional incidental jurisdiction to determine claims arising under the OPMA as they relate to school law controversies. Sukin v. Northfield Bd. of Educ., 171 N.J. Super. 184, 197 (App. Div. 1979). Here, the incident jurisdiction is broad enough to encompass the claims made by Sea Bright in connection with the Board's decision not to place a referendum on the ballot.

[3] Pursuant to P.L. 2008, c. 36 (N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1), Commissioner decisions are appealable to the Superior Court, Appellate Division.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
OAL DKT. NO.: EDU 04004-16
AGENCY NO.: 25-2/16

BOROUGH OF SEA BRIGHT,
MONMOUTH COUNTY,
Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE SHORE REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT, MONMOUTH COUNTY,
Respondent.

Vito A. Gagliardi, Jr., Esq. and Kerri A. Wright, Esq., for petitioner (Porzio Bromberg and Newman, P.C., attorneys)

Dennis A. Collins, Esq., for respondent (Collins Vella and Casello, LLC, attorneys)

Record Closed: September 6, 2018 Decision: October 15, 2018

BEFORE SARAH G. CROWLEY, ALJ:

PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND STATEMENT OF CASE

This case arises out of a dispute between the Shore Regional Board of Education (Shore Regional or Board) and one of its constituent members, the Borough of Sea Bright (Sea Bright) over the funding formula used to allocate the final burden supporting the regional school district. Sea Bright challenges the action of Shore Regional in declining to place a referendum on the ballot to modify the school funding formula. A Sea Bright board member made a motion to include such a referendum on the ballot at its November 2015, meeting. No member of the Board seconded the motion, and thus, it died without a vote. There was no discussion regarding the motion and/or the reason why no one chose to second the motion.

The petitioner filed the instant action challenging the Board's failure to put the proposed referendum on the ballot. The allege that the decision was arbitrary, capricious and unreasonable. The matter was filed with the Commissioner of Education, who transmitted the matter to the Office of Administrative Law as a contested matter on March 11, 2016. On April 11, 2018, the respondent filed a motion for summary decision. On April 16, 2018, the petitioner filed a cross motion for summary decision. Opposition was filed by the petitioner to the motion of respondent on May 16, 2018. Opposition was filed by the respondent to the petitioner's motion on May 16, 2018. Reply briefs were filed by both parties and oral argument conducted on September 6, 2018, and the record closed at that time.

Issue:

Whether the failure of the Shore Regional Board of Education to place a change in the funding formula for its constituent districts on the ballot was arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable where a Sea Bright's Board member introduced a motion to place that question on the ballot, no other member seconded the motion, and consequently the motion failed?

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

A brief history of the funding mechanism for regional school districts is helpful to contextualize this dispute. Originally, in "1931 the Legislature authorized the establishment of regionalized school districts" with a "per pupil" funding mechanism. Borough of Seaside Park v. Comm'r of New Jersey Dept. of Educ., 432 N.J. Super. 167, 177 (App. Div. 2013). However, the New Jersey Supreme Court "[i]n a series of decisions in the 1970s . . . held the existing system of public school funding in New Jersey unconstitutional[.]" Ibid.

"In response, the Legislature passed an amendment . . . in 1975 that altered the [funding formula] from a per pupil basis to an equalized value of real estate situated in each district[.]" Ibid. "The Legislature also adopted procedures for initiating withdrawal from a limited purpose regional school district[.]" "In 1993, the Legislature again passed an amendment to allow regional districts to choose among equalized valuation, per pupil enrollment, or a combination of the two through voter approval at an annual or special election. Id. at 178. The Legislature also created a procedure allowing regional school districts to dissolve themselves as an alternative to withdrawal.

Shore Regional School District was established in the 1960s on a per-pupil funding basis. The members of Shore Regional are Sea Bright, West Long Branch, Oceanport and Monmouth Beach. Subsequently, Shore Regional's funding formula changed in 1975 to equalized valuation and has not been amended since.[1] In April 2015, Sea Bright sought to raise its concerns over the funding formula with the Board due to a disparity between the percentage of Shore Regional's budget provided by Sea Bright and the percentage of students Sea Bright sent to the regional school district. While the disparity varies somewhat from year to year, the disparity amounts to approximately twenty percent of the budget compared to five percent of the student body.[2]

On July 23, 2015, the Mayor of Sea Bright submitted a letter to Shore Regional requesting that the Board "explore the possibility of modification of the school budget apportionment method." The letter specifically requested an update on the status of the request. On November 19, 2015, the Sea Bright Board member made a motion at the public meeting of the Board to submit a funding formula change to the voters in the next election. Sea Bright, Exh. L, p. 95. It is undisputed that no other Board member seconded the motion. Consequently, no further vote was taken regarding the request to place the funding formula on the ballot, and there was no discussion regarding same.

[1] Sea Bright unsuccessfully challenged the validity of the 1975 amendment. See Borough of Sea Bright v. State, Dep't of Educ., 242 N.J. Super. 225 (App. Div. 1990) (affirming constitutionality of the regional school district funding formula under the New Jersey Constitution).

[2] Monmouth Beach, similarly, sends roughly 15% of the total pupils enrolled at Shore Regional but pays around 25% of the total appropriations. See Pet. Brief, p. 17.

The minutes reflect that the Board went into closed executive session to discuss its response to the Mayor of Sea Bright's July 23, 2015, letter regarding the issue of the funding formula. Ultimately, a response was sent to Sea Bright indicating that Shore Regional Board of Education decided not to explore the possibility of a change in apportionment formula of the Shore Regional High School District. Long Cert., Exh. B. Sea Bright has also argued that the executive session was in violation of the Open Public Meetings Act. However, there was no action taken in the meeting, and even assuming there was a violation, it has no bearing on the failure of the motion for a referendum to carry.

The above facts are undisputed and are, thus, FOUND as FACT.

LEGAL ANALYSIS

Under the Uniform Administrative Procedure Rules, N.J.A.C. 1:1-1.1 to -21.6, "[a] party may move for summary decision upon all or any of the substantive issues in a contested case." N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(a). Summary decision may be granted "if the papers and discovery which have been filed, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact challenged and that the moving party is entitled to prevail as a matter of law." N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(b).

Shore Regional argues that placing the funding formula on the ballot is a discretionary act. Moreover, the Board entertained a motion in an open pubic meeting and no one seconded the motion. There was no discussion on this motion and that after there was no second, the motion died. Sea Bright argues that a discussion regarding the reasons for not seconding the motion were required, and the absence of such a discussion is arbitrary, capricious and unreasonable as a matter of law. The Board maintains that there was no need for any discussion, and assuming a reason is required, there are legitimate non-arbitrary reasons for the Board's rejection of the motion, which are entitled to deference.

Sea Bright argues that a "regional board, upon receipt of [a request to change the funding apportionment], has a duty to submit the question to the voters . . ." Sea Bright Brief, p. 15. However, the statute does not mandate any such action. Moreover, N.J.S.A. 18A:13-23 provides three options for regional school districts to apportion the appropriations from its constituent members. First, a district may utilize a "equalized valuation" method based on property values. N.J.S.A. 18A:13-23(a). Second, a district may now elect to apportion appropriations based on the "proportional number of pupils enrolled." N.J.S.A. 18A:13-23(b). Last, a district may opt for "any combination of apportionment" between equalized valuation and per pupil contribution. N.J.S.A. 18A:13-23(c). In addition, N.J.S.A. 18A:13-23.3 provides that a "regional district may modify [how appropriations] are apportioned" as long as a qualifying event has occurred. Ibid. There is nothing in the statute that mandates the Board to put the referendum on the ballot, in the absence of a vote by the Board.

It is well settled that a modification of the funding formula is a discretionary act by the Board. Moreover, the plain language of N.J.S.A. 18A:13-17 and N.J.S.A. 18A:13-23 to 23.3, reflect that such an act is permissive not mandatory. The School Elections law sets a deadline for the submission of public questions but does not impose additional procedural requirements on the Board's conduct. Under N.J.S.A. 18A:13-23 the role of the voting public is to approve or disapprove of the apportionment method placed on the ballot by the Board. Nothing mandates that a district place such a referendum on the ballot.

The foregoing interpretation is consistent with the provisions concerning withdrawal and dissolution of regional school districts. N.J.S.A. 18A:13-51 provides that the board of education of any . . . district constituting part of a limited purpose regional school district or the governing body of the [district's] municipality . . . may, by resolution, apply to the superintendent . . . [for] an investigation as to the advisability of withdrawal." N.J.S.A. 18A:13-51.

The Legislature also gives individual constituent municipalities the power to begin the withdrawal process. The Executive County Superintendent must then produce a report pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:13-52 and, within thirty days of the issuance of that report, the "municipal governing body or the board of education of the withdrawing district . . . may . . . petition the commissioner [to place the issue on the ballot]." N.J.S.A. 18A:13-23 to 23.3, in contrast, does not require the regional board of education or commissioner to conduct an impact study for modification of the funding formula. Nor does the statute set timelines or other decisional factors for consideration. Essentially, not only is the decision to place a funding formula change on the ballot discretionary, the Legislature did not place limitations on that discretion beyond the qualifying events listed under N.J.S.A. 18A:13-23.3—unlike for withdrawal and dissolution.

In conclusion, a decision to hold a referendum to change the funding formula is a discretionary act within the powers of the regional school board. Moreover, there was no need for a discussion of the reasons for the failure of the motion to receive event a second. Finally, since there was no second on the motion, it clearly failed. There was nothing substantively or procedurally improper regarding the decision of the Board not to place a referendum on the ballot. As to the allegation of a violation of the Open Public Meetings Act, the Board argues that no decision or vote occurred in the closed executive session because no further vote was required after the Sea Bright apportionment motion failed. Board Reply, p. 14. Finally, the Board's closed executive session was entirely proper under the Open Public Meetings Act because the Board was aware of the likelihood of litigation resulting from their decision and went into Executive Session to discuss a response to the letter from the Mayor only. There was no formal action taken in the executive session, as there was no formal action taken on the motion which failed to carry.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, I GRANT the Board's motion for summary decision and DENY Sea Bright's motion for summary decision for the following reasons:

ORDER

I hereby ORDER that the Motion of Sea Bright is hereby DENIED, and the cross-motion of Shore Regional is GRANTED, and the petition of Sea Bright is hereby DISMISSED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

October 15, 2018
DATE

SARAH G. CROWLEY, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: October 15, 2018 (emailed)

Date Mailed to Parties: October 15, 2018 (emailed)

/mel

AGENCY DKT. NO. 286-11/18

IN THE MATTER OF CRAIG WOOLRIDGE,	:
COLLEGE ACHIEVE PATERSON CHARTER	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
SCHOOL, PASSAIC COUNTY.	:	DECISION
	:

The Commissioner has reviewed the record of this matter and the decision of the School Ethics Commission (SEC), finding that respondent violated the School Ethics Act for failure to timely complete charter school trustee training in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33, N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1, and N.J.A.C. 6A:11-3.1. The SEC's decision was forwarded to the Commissioner for final determination on the recommended penalty pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c). The SEC advises that respondent ultimately completed the training after the issuance of its October 30, 2018 Order to Show Cause, but prior to the SEC's November 27, 2018 meeting; therefore, the SEC recommends a penalty of reprimand. Respondent has neither filed exceptions to the recommended penalty nor instituted an appeal, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:4-1 et seq., of the SEC's underlying finding of violation.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the penalty recommended by the SEC for respondent's failure to timely honor an obligation placed upon charter school trustees by law. Additionally, respondent is admonished for causing the unnecessary expenditure of administrative and adjudicative resources at both State and local levels.

Accordingly, respondent is hereby reprimanded as a school official found to have violated the School Ethics Act.

IT IS SO ORDERED.*

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 1/14/19
Date of Mailing: 1/17/19

* This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to P.L. 2008, c. 36. (N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1)

IN THE MATTER OF	:	BEFORE THE SCHOOL ETHICS COMMISSION
CRAIG WOOLRIDGE	:	DECISION FOR FAILURE TO COMPLETE MANDATORY TRAINING REQUIREMENT IN A TIMELY MANNER
COLLEGE ACHIEVE PATERSON CHARTER SCHOOL*, PASSAIC COUNTY	:
	:	DOCKET NO.: T14-18

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

This matter arises from an Order to Show Cause (OTSC) issued by the School Ethics Commission (Commission) at its meeting on October 30, 2018, and mailed on October 31, 2018, via regular and electronic mail directing Respondent, a "board member" as defined in N.J.S.A. 18A:12-23 of the School Ethics Act (Act), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-21 et seq., to show cause as to why the Commission should not find Respondent in violation of the Act, for failing to complete training as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33, N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1, and N.J.A.C. 6A:11-3.1(a).

In the OTSC mailed on October 31, 2018, the Commission notified Respondent that he had twenty (20) days to respond to the OTSC, and further advised that failure to respond would be deemed an admission of the facts set forth in the OTSC. Respondent was also notified that, upon receipt of the response or upon expiration of the twenty (20) day time period for so filing, the Commission may proceed to a determination of a violation on a summary basis (i.e., without a hearing or further proceedings) in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:28-1.6(c), which so permits when material facts are not in dispute.

ANALYSIS

The Act was enacted by the New Jersey State Legislature to ensure and preserve public confidence in members of local boards of education and in local school administrators. By virtue of N.J.S.A.18A:12-23.1, the breadth of the Act was expanded to include charter school trustees.

Respondent is a trustee of a charter school located in the City of Paterson, County of Passaic. Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-23.1, the provisions of the Act were made applicable to administrators and members of a board of trustees of a charter school As a result of his position as a charter school trustee, Respondent is required, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33, N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1, and N.J.A.C. 6A:11-3.1(a), to complete a training program prepared and offered by the New Jersey School Boards Association (NJSBA) on an annual basis. For convenience and ease, the training is offered online so any charter school trustee may complete it at any time, from anywhere. Respondent was required to complete the Governance 1 training program by June 30, 2018.

On July 2, 2018, the NJSBA provided the Commission with the names of those charter school trustees who failed to complete mandated training by June 30, 2018, and the list provided included Respondent. Prior to this time, multiple communications about mandated training were sent to Respondent from NJSBA through a variety of means, including targeted e-mail messages and postings in School Board Notes regarding scheduled on-site mandated training. More specifically, on May 4, 2018, Respondent was registered to take Governance 1 and an e-mail with the link to complete the training was sent to Respondent's registered e-mail address. In addition, on June 12, 2018, July 11, 2018, August 11, 2018, and August 16, 2018, additional e-mail notices were sent through the Weekly Program Update to all charter school trustees who had not yet completed training, including Respondent. NJSBA also sent reminder communications to Respondent's Charter Lead on August 20, 2018, and August 29, 2018. Notwithstanding all of these communications, Respondent did not complete mandated training.

In addition to the communication efforts undertaken by the NJSBA, Respondent's County Office of Education (County) also communicated with the Respondent regarding his failure to complete the mandated training requirement. More specifically, in September 2018, the Commission's staff notified the County that the NJSBA had identified Respondent as a school official who failed to complete training by June 30, 2018. As a result, the County sent correspondence to Respondent, with a copy to the Charter Lead, advising that Respondent remained delinquent in completing training. Notwithstanding this correspondence from the County, Respondent did not complete training as directed.

As a final warning, the Commission sent a letter to Respondent dated October 22, 2018, via regular and electronic mail, advising him that the Commission requires completion of the training to avoid the issuance of an OTSC for non-compliance. This final warning letter provided instructions to Respondent on how to complete training. Again, notwithstanding this correspondence, Respondent did not complete the required training. As a result, an OTSC was mailed to Respondent on October 31, 2018.

To date, there is no dispute that Respondent did not complete his required training by June 30, 2018, and did not complete the training prior to the issuance of the Commission's OTSC. After having been served with the OTSC, Respondent completed his training requirement, but did not respond to the Commission's OTSC as to why he did not complete training by June 30, 2018. Importantly, Respondent did not deny that he did not complete training in a timely fashion.

DECISION/PENALTY RECOMMENDATION

N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.2(d) provides that school board members and charter school trustees who fail to comply with their training mandate shall be considered in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33. Based on the record as set forth above, at its meeting on November 27, 2018, the Commission found that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33, as well as N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1 and N.J.A.C. 6A:11-3.1(a). Respondent received repeated notifications of his training requirement, and had ample opportunity to complete the mandated training in a timely fashion; nonetheless, he failed to complete training as required.

Where a violation of the Act is found by the Commission, the Commission may recommend to the Commissioner of Education that a penalty be imposed. The recommended penalty can include a reprimand, censure, suspension or removal of the school official. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-10.12. For the reasons set forth above, the Commission recommends that the Commissioner of Education impose a penalty of reprimand.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c), this decision shall be forwarded to the Commissioner of Education for review of the Commission's recommended penalty. Respondent may either: 1) file exceptions to the recommended sanction; 2) file an appeal of the Commission's finding of a violation; or 3) file both exceptions to the recommended sanction together with an appeal of the finding of a violation.

Parties taking exception to the recommended sanction of the Commission but not disputing the Commission's finding of a violation may file, within thirteen (13) days from the date the Commission's decision is forwarded to the Commissioner, written exceptions regarding the recommended penalty to the Commissioner. The forwarding date shall be the mailing date to the parties, as indicated below. Such exceptions must be forwarded to: Commissioner of Education, c/o Bureau of Controversies and Disputes, P.O. Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Comments on Ethics Commission Sanction." A copy of any comments filed must be sent to the Commission and all other parties.

Parties seeking to appeal the Commission's finding of violation must file an appeal pursuant to the standards set forth at N.J.A.C. 6A:4:1 et seq. within thirty (30) days of the filing date of the decision from which the appeal is taken. The filing date shall be three (3) days after the date of mailing to the parties, as shown below. In such cases, the Commissioner's review of the Commission's recommended sanction will be deferred and incorporated into the Commissioner's review of the finding of violation on appeal. Where a notice of appeal has been filed on or before the due date for exceptions to the Commission's recommended sanction (thirteen (13) days from the date the decision is mailed by the Commission), exceptions need not be filed by that date, but may be incorporated into the appellant's briefs on appeal.

Robert W. Bender

Robert W. Bender, Chairperson

Mailing Date: November 28, 2018

I hereby certify that this decision was duly adopted by the School Ethics Commission at its public meeting on November 27, 2018.

Kathryn A. Whalen, Director

IN THE MATTER OF	:	BEFORE THE SCHOOL ETHICS COMMISSION
CRAIG WOOLRIDGE	:	RESOLUTION ADOPTING DECISION FOR FAILURE TO COMPLETE MANDATORY TRAINING REQUIREMENT IN A TIMELY MANNER
COLLEGE ACHIEVE PATERSON CHARTER SCHOOL, PASSAIC COUNTY	:
	:	DOCKET NO.: T14-18

WHEREAS, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-23.1, all charter school trustees, including Respondent, are subject to the provisions of the School Ethics Act (Act), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-21 et seq.; and

WHEREAS, Craig Woolridge, Respondent, is a charter school trustee of College Achieve Paterson Charter School; and

WHEREAS, the Act requires Respondent to complete a training program prepared and offered by the New Jersey School Boards Association (NJSBA) on an annual basis; and

WHEREAS, Respondent failed to complete his Governance 1 training program by June 30, 2018; and

WHEREAS, at its meeting on October 30, 2018, the School Ethics Commission (Commission) issued an Order to Show Cause (OTSC) directing Respondent to show cause as to why he failed to complete his mandatory training by June 30, 2018 as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33, N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1, and N.J.A.C. 6A:11-3.1(a); and

WHEREAS, after having been served with the OTSC, Respondent completed his training requirement, but did not respond to the Commission's OTSC as to why he did not complete training by June 30, 2018; and

WHEREAS, at its meeting on November 27, 2018, the Commission found that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33, N.J.A.C. 6A:28-4.1, and N.J.A.C. 6A:11-3.1(a) by failing to complete the training requirement he was obligated to complete; and

WHEREAS, at its meeting on November 27, 2018, the Commission recommended that the Commissioner of Education impose a penalty of reprimand on Respondent; and

WHEREAS, at its meeting on November 27, 2018, the Commission agreed that the within decision accurately memorializes its findings and recommendations; and

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Commission hereby adopts the within decision and directs its staff to notify all parties to this action of the decision.

Robert W. Bender, Chairperson
School Ethics Commission

I certify that the within Resolution was duly adopted by the School Ethics Commission at its public meeting on November 27, 2018.

Kathryn A. Whalen, Director

18-19SEC

AGENCY DKT. NO. 290-11/18
SEC DKT. NO. C08-15

IN THE MATTER OF OBDULIA GONZALEZ, ISRAEL VARELA, MILADY TEJEDA, SAMUEL LEBREAULT, AND KENNETH PUCCIO, BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF PERTH AMBOY, MIDDLESEX COUNTY.	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION DECISION

The record of this matter and the decision of the School Ethics Commission have been reviewed. The Commission found that respondents Gonzalez, Varela and Tejeda[1] violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c) of the School Ethics Act for voting to approve a settlement agreement that resulted in a personal benefit to each respondent – specifically, the dismissal of ethics charges against them – and recommended a 60-day suspension or, to the extent that any of the respondents no longer serve as a board member, the Commission recommended a penalty of censure. The Commission's decision was forwarded pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29 for the Commissioner's final determination on the recommended penalty. Respondents did not file exceptions to the recommended penalty, nor was the Commission's underlying finding of violation appealed to the Commissioner pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:4. Counsel for the respondents did, however, inform the Commissioner that all three respondents had resigned from the Board, so they would only be subject to a censure rather than a suspension.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the penalty recommended by the Commission. Accordingly, respondents Gonzalez, Varela and Tejeda shall each be censured as school officials found to have violated the School Ethics Act.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[2]

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 1/14/19
Date of Mailing: 1/17/19

[1] Respondent Puccio was dismissed from this matter, and Respondent Lebreault accepted a penalty of censure as part of a settlement agreement. Accordingly, this decision only involves respondents Gonzalez, Varela and Tejeda.

[2] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to P.L. 2008, c. 36 (N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1).

IN THE MATTER OF	:	BEFORE THE SCHOOL ETHICS COMMISSION
OBDULIA GONZALEZ, ISRAEL VARELA, MILADY TEJEDA, SAMUEL LEBREAULT, AND KENNETH PUCCIO,	:	SEC DKT. NO.: C08-15
	:	OAL DKT. NO.: EEC-19282-15
PERTH AMBOY BOARD OF EDUCATION,* MIDDLESEX COUNTY	:	FINAL DECISION

I. PROCEDURAL HISTORY

This matter arises from a Complaint filed on February 11, 2015, by Charles Simmons alleging that Obdulia Gonzalez ("Respondent Gonzalez"), Israel Varela ("Respondent Varela"), Milady Tejada ("Respondent Tejada"), Samuel Lebreault ("Respondent Lebreault"), and Kenneth Puccio ("Respondent Puccio") (collectively referred to as "Respondents"), members of the Perth Amboy Board of Education (Board), violated the School Ethics Act (the "Act"), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-21 et seq. By correspondence dated February 27, 2015, and March 26, 2015, Mr. Simmons was notified that his Complaint was deficient, and required amendment before the School Ethics Commission (the "Commission") could accept his filing. On April 15, 2015, Mr. Simmons cured all defects, and filed an Amended Complaint (Complaint) that was deemed compliant with the requirements detailed in N.J.A.C. 6A:28-6.3. The Complaint alleged that Respondents violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-22(a), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(a), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(e), and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(f).

On April 21, 2015, the Complaint was served on Respondents, via regular and certified mail, notifying them that charges had been filed against them with the Commission, and advising that they had twenty (20) days to file a responsive pleading. On June 1, 2015, and after receiving an extension, Respondents filed a Motion to Dismiss in Lieu of Answer ("Motion to Dismiss"). On June 5, 2015, Mr. Simmons filed a Response to the Motion to Dismiss.

By correspondence dated June 3, 2015, the parties were advised that this matter would be placed on the Commission's agenda for its meeting on June 30, 2015, to make a determination regarding the Motion to Dismiss. At its meeting on June 30, 2015, the Commission discussed this matter, and at its meeting on July 28, 2015, the Commission voted to grant the Motion to Dismiss as to the alleged violations of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-22(a) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(a); to deny the Motion to Dismiss as to the alleged violations of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(e), and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(f); and to direct Respondents to file an Answer to the remaining allegations in the Complaint.

On August 28, 2015, and after receiving an extension, Respondents filed an Answer as directed. Following receipt of the Answer, the parties were advised, by correspondence dated September 1, 2015, that this matter would be placed on the Commission's agenda for its meeting on September 22, 2015, to make a determination regarding probable cause on the remaining allegations. At its meeting on September 22, 2015, the Commission discussed this matter, and at its meeting on October 27, 2015, the Commission voted to find probable cause for the alleged violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c); to find no probable cause for the alleged violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(e) or the alleged violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(f); and to transmit the matter to the Office of Administrative Law ("OAL") pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:28-10.7(c)(2).

At the OAL, Respondent Puccio was dismissed from the above-captioned matter with prejudice, and Respondent Lebreault agreed to accept the penalty of a censure as part of a settlement agreement; with the dismissal of Respondent Puccio and the settlement of Respondent Lebreault, only Respondent Gonzalez, Respondent Varela, and Respondent Tejada remain as named Respondents. After stipulating to a set of facts, both parties filed cross-motions for summary decision. Following review of the parties' submissions, on September 11, 2018, Administrative Law Judge Barry E. Moscowitz, ("ALJ Moscowitz") issued an Initial Decision. He concluded that by discussing and then voting to approve a settlement agreement that resulted in a personal benefit(s) to Respondents, they violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c). Based on this legal conclusion, ALJ Moscowitz recommended that the Respondents "be suspended from their positions as members of the" Board.

The Commission acknowledged receipt of ALJ Moscowitz's Initial Decision on September 11, 2018; therefore, the forty-five (45) day statutory period for the Commission to issue a Final Decision was October 26, 2018. Prior to October 26, 2018, the Commission requested a forty-five (45) day extension of time to issue its decision so as to allow the Commission, which only meets monthly, the opportunity to receive and review the full record, including the parties' Exceptions. Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10(c) and N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.8, and for good cause shown, the Commission was granted an extension until December 10, 2018. Respondents filed Exceptions on October 8, 2018, and Complainant filed a Reply to Respondents' Exceptions on October 12, 2018.

The Commission considered the full record in this matter, including the exceptions filed by the parties, at its meeting on October 30, 2018. At its meeting on November 27, 2018, and for the reasons more fully detailed below, the Commission voted to adopt ALJ Moscowitz's findings of fact; to adopt the legal conclusion that Respondents violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c) when they discussed and then voted to approve a settlement agreement that resulted in a personal benefit(s) to each Respondent; to modify the recommended penalty for Respondents from "suspension" to suspension for sixty (60) days; to modify the recommended penalty for any Respondent who is no longer a currently seated Board member from "suspension" to censure; and, in order to avoid disruption of the Perth Amboy School District's operations, and in recognition of the fact that the suspension of multiple Board members may cause hardship to the Board for quorum purposes, to recommend that the Commissioner of Education ("Commissioner") stagger the imposition of the penalties for the remaining Respondents, with Respondent Tejeda serving her suspension first, Respondent Gonzalez serving her suspension second, and Respondent Varela serving his suspension last.

II. INITIAL DECISION

As set forth in ALJ Moscowitz's Initial Decision, the parties stipulated to the following set of facts:

1. In February 2015, the Commission received a complaint alleging that five (5) members of the Board, specifically, Respondents, violated the Act.

2. The Commission subsequently found probable cause to credit the allegation that Respondents violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c), which prohibits school officials from acting in any matter where they have an interest or direct or indirect financial involvement or where they have a personal involvement that is or creates some benefit to themselves. On November 16, 2016, the Commission transferred the matter to the OAL for a hearing, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:28-10.7(c)(2).

3. In 2014, Respondents were potential Defendants in a civil action contemplated by former Perth Amboy Superintendent Janine Caffrey ("Caffrey"). Additionally, Caffrey had brought school-ethics complaints against Respondent Varela (C30-12); Respondents Varela, Lebreault, Gonzalez, and Tejeda (C02-13); and Respondent Varela (C35-13) (collectively referred to as the "Caffrey litigation").

4. Board members are school officials pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-23.

5. N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c) prohibits any school official from acting "in his official capacity in any matter where he, a member of his immediate family, or a business organization in which he has an interest, has direct or indirect financial involvement that might reasonably be expected to impair his objectivity or independence of judgment. No school official shall act in his official capacity in any matter where he or a member of his immediate family has a personal involvement that is or creates some benefit to the school official or member of his immediate family."

6. The Board held a regularly scheduled meeting on June 19, 2014, which lasted until the early morning hours of June 20, 2014 ("June 2014 Meeting").

7. As reflected in its minutes, the Board went into executive session twice during the June 2014 Meeting, with the second session taking place between the hours of 12:00 a.m. and 12:55 a.m.

8. Respondent Gonzalez, Respondent Varela, Respondent Tejeda, and Respondent Lebreault all participated in the second executive session.

9. As reflected in the Board minutes, upon the return to regular session, the Board attorney read a resolution to approve the settlement of the Caffrey litigation.

10. Although not specified in the resolution, the settlement included payment of $184,000 to Caffrey, as well as the withdrawal of the pending ethics charges she had filed against Respondent Varela (C30-12); Respondents Varela, Lebreault, Gonzalez, and Tejeda (C02-13); and Respondent Varela (C35-13).

11. Respondent Gonzalez, Respondent Varela, Respondent Tejeda, and Respondent Lebreault all participated in a discussion of the proposed settlement during the second executive session.

12. Respondent Gonzalez, Respondent Varela, Respondent Tejeda, and Respondent Lebreault all voted in favor of the resolution.

13. The Board did not invoke the doctrine of necessity to approve the resolution.

14. Respondent Gonzalez, Respondent Varela, Respondent Tejeda, and Respondent Lebreault attended the next Board meeting, which was on July 24, 2014, and voted to accept the minutes of the June 19, 2014, meeting.

15. Respondent Gonzalez, Respondent Varela, Respondent Tejeda, and Respondent Lebreault did not contribute any personal funds toward the $184,000 settlement.

16. Respondent Puccio was dismissed from this matter with prejudice on or about January 3, 2017.

17. Respondent Lebreault acknowledged that his conduct violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c) and accepted a censure on February 17, 2018.

18. On April 18, 2018, then Acting Commissioner Lamont O. Repollet executed a Consent Order to effectuate the settlement with Respondent Lebreault.

Based on the stipulated set of facts as set forth above, and following the filing of cross-motions for summary decision, ALJ Moscowitz concluded that Respondents violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c). Initial Decision at 6-7. As noted by ALJ Moscowitz, Respondents "all but acknowledge" they violated the public trust, as they stipulated that they acted in their official capacity when they discussed the settlement agreement regarding the Caffrey litigation and then approved the settlement agreement. Id. at 6. Respondents also stipulated to the terms of the settlement agreement, which, as reasoned by ALJ Moscowitz, "reveals just how [R]espondents violated the public trust." Id. at 6-7. Pursuant to the terms of the settlement agreement, Caffrey agreed not to sue Respondents, not to testify against them, to withdraw the then-pending ethics complaints (C30-12, C02-13, and C35-13), and "never discuss them in any way, shape, or form." Id. at 7. In exchange for the dismissal of her claims and complaints, Caffrey was "to receive $184,000, leave town, and never come back." Id. at 7. Based on these facts, ALJ Moscowitz concluded that Respondents "acted in their official capacity in a matter in which they had personal involvement and in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c). Id. at 7.

ALJ Moscowitz did not find persuasive Respondents' argument that they did not violate N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c) because Caffrey "voluntarily" agreed to dismiss the ethics charges against them, and "it was in the personal interest of Caffrey to do so." Initial Decision at 7. To conclude otherwise would be, according to ALJ Moscowitz, "to lose 'the respect and confidence of the people,' and to create a 'justifiable impression among the public' that their trust had been violated." Id. at 7. By first discussing and then approving a settlement agreement that "would end and forever bar the ethical charges against them," Respondents received a benefit that created a justifiable impression among the public that their trust had been violated." Id. at 7.

Respondents argued that they sought legal advice as to whether they could discuss and then vote on the settlement agreement, and that Board counsel advised them that they could do so. Initial Decision at 7. However, ALJ Moscowitz found that, "[t]he minutes of the meeting...do not document this exchange" and, therefore, "this advice is not a fact...upon which either [R]espondents or [he] could rely." Id. at 7. Even if such advice was given, however, ALJ Moscowitz reasoned that it would not change his conclusion and, instead, would only serve to mitigate the penalty. Id. at 7-8 (citing I/M/O Garcia, Hoboken Board of Education, C41-05). The only advice that could have shielded Respondents from liability for violating N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c) would have been "the invocation of the doctrine of necessity"; however, ALJ Moscowitz found that although the doctrine of necessity was invoked in connection with another agenda item, "the minutes of the meeting do not indicate that this advice was given [relative to the discussion and vote on Caffrey's settlement agreement], and the parties stipulate[d] this doctrine [of necessity] was not invoked." Id. at 8. There is also nothing in the minutes to corroborate that any Respondent expressed concern with discussing and/or voting on the settlement agreement, either before or after the vote occurred. Id. at 8.

Having found that the Respondents violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c), ALJ Moscowitz recommended the penalty of suspension. Initial Decision at 10. He based that recommendation on the following factors: (1) Respondents did not seek or receive legal advice from counsel as to whether they could participate in the discussion and vote on the settlement agreement; (2) they knew of the doctrine of necessity and did not invoke it; (3) they were not new board members; and (4) they twice discussed and then twice voted on a matter with which they had an extremely close connection. In recommending the penalty of suspension, which was for an unspecified duration, ALJ Moscowitz noted that Respondents' involvement in the discussion and vote on a matter involving ethics charges "make this case more disturbing than ironic." Id. at 10.

III. EXCEPTIONS

On October 8, 2018, Respondents filed Exceptions, arguing that ALJ Moscowitz inaccurately focused on the text of the statute and should have considered "interpretative case law" that makes it clear that the Board members' vote in favor of the Caffrey settlement is not actionable under the Act. In support of their argument, Respondents cite I/M/O Rhonda Williams Bembry, Hackensack Board of Education, C49-12 ("Bembry") (quoting Friends Retirement Concepts v. Board of Education of the Borough of Somerville, 356 N.J. Super. 203, 214 (Law Div. 2002) ("Friends"), which states that the question turns on "whether the circumstances could reasonably be interpreted to show that they had the likely capacity to tempt the official to depart from his sworn public duty." In addition, a conflict of interest arises when "the public official has an interest not shared in common with the other members of the public." As applied here, Respondents argue that Caffrey's settlement offer did not tempt them to "depart from their sworn public duties," and that they voted for it because the Board attorney advised them that doing so was in the District's best interest. By approving the settlement agreement, Respondents contend they avoided expensive and protracted litigation with Caffrey, as well as public attention and outcry. Respondents also assert that while they received an incidental benefit, namely dismissal of ethics charges, the dismissal of those charges is insufficient to warrant a finding that they violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c). Finally, Respondents argue that even if the Board members violated the Act, the recommended suspension is "grossly disproportionate" to the violation, as they did not act "outrageously, out of unadulterated selfishness, and with stark disregard for the school district." Instead, Respondents argue that they acted in the best interest of the Perth Amboy School District.

In reply to Respondents' Exceptions filed on October 12, 2018, Complainant argues that ALJ Moscowitz correctly found that the dismissal of personal ethical charges against Respondents (as part of a settlement agreement) resulted in a benefit to them; correctly applied the law in determining that the Respondents took action in a matter where they had a personal involvement that created some benefit to them; and correctly found that school administrators must avoid conduct that creates a justifiable impression among the public that their trust is being violated. Complainant also contends that reliance on Bembry and Friends is misplaced because neither case can be reasonably interpreted to mean what Respondents construe it to mean.

Moreover, Complainant agrees with the recommended penalty of suspension because Respondents were not new board members; they participated in and then voted on a matter with which they were closely connected without invoking the doctrine of necessity; and, most importantly, they received a personal benefit(s) by accepting the settlement agreement, namely the dismissal of multiple ethics complaints. Complainant asserts that Respondents' actions demonstrate a "flagrant disregard" for the public trust and their obligation as Board members to preserve that trust; therefore, their conduct warrants the penalty of suspension.

IV. ANALYSIS

Upon careful and independent review of the record, the Commission adopts ALJ Moscowitz's findings of fact, and also adopts the legal conclusion that Respondents violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c) when they discussed and then voted to approve a settlement agreement that resulted in a personal benefit(s) to Respondents. In adopting ALJ Moscowitz's legal conclusion, the Commission finds wholly unpersuasive any argument that Respondents' involvement in the discussion and vote on the settlement agreement was, somehow, in the best interest of the school district and/or the public. Even if the settlement agreement did avoid protracted, expensive, and potential unsavory or embarrassing litigation between the Board and Caffrey, Respondents conveniently ignore the fact that the approval of the settlement agreement also dismissed multiple ethics charges against each of them – specifically, three (3) cases against Respondent Varela, one case (1) against Respondent Gonzalez, and one (1) case against Respondent Tejeda. The purpose of the Act was to ensure and preserve public confidence in the conduct of school officials, and by voting to approve an agreement that undermined these very principles, Respondents acted in a way that is the antithesis of ethical conduct, and the definition of self-serving behavior. Moreover, by characterizing the dismissal of the ethics charges as "incidental," it is clear that Respondents fail to fully appreciate the importance of the standards to which their conduct as school officials must adhere, or the penalties that can be imposed for failure to comply.

In addition, and as noted by ALJ Moscowitz, there is nothing in the Board's minutes to indicate that Respondents sought, obtained, or relied upon legal advice when they chose to discuss, and then vote upon, the settlement agreement that resulted in the dismissal of ethics charges against each of them. Therefore, the Commission finds this argument equally unpersuasive.

V. DECISION

The Commission determines to adopt the ALJ's Initial Decision finding that Respondents violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c) when they discussed and then voted to approve a settlement agreement that resulted in a personal benefit(s) to each Respondent, namely the dismissal of ethics charges against each Respondent.

VI. PENALTY

Based upon the conclusion that Respondents violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c) when they discussed and then voted to approve a settlement agreement that resulted in a personal benefit(s) to each Respondent, the Commission concurs with ALJ Moscowitz that suspension is the appropriate penalty. As noted by ALJ Moscowitz, this penalty is appropriate because Respondents did not seek or receive legal advice from counsel as to whether they could participate in the discussion and vote on the settlement agreement; they knew of the doctrine of necessity (which would have permitted them to vote) but did not invoke it; they were not new board members; they twice discussed and then twice voted on a matter with which they had an extremely close connection; and they received a personal, and direct, benefit as a result of the settlement agreement.

Notwithstanding its agreement with the recommended penalty of suspension, the Commission modifies the recommended penalty to clarify that the duration of the suspension shall be for sixty (60) days. The Commission further modifies the recommended penalty to note that, to the extent a remaining Respondent may no longer serve as a board member, his or her suspension shall be reduced to a censure, the maximum penalty authorized for individuals who no longer serve as board members. Finally, and in order to avoid disruption of the Perth Amboy School District's operations, and in recognition of the fact that the suspension of multiple Board members may cause hardship to the Board for quorum purposes, the Commission recommends that the Commissioner stagger the imposition of the penalties for the remaining Respondents, with Respondent Tejeda serving her suspension first, Respondent Gonzalez serving her suspension second, and Respondent Varela serving his suspension last.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c), this decision shall be forwarded to the Commissioner for review of the Commission's recommended sanctions. Parties may either: 1) file exceptions to the recommended sanction; 2) file an appeal of the Commission's findings of violations of the Act; or 3) file both exceptions to the recommended sanction and an appeal of the Commission's findings of violations of the Act.

Parties taking exception to the recommended sanctions of the Commission but not disputing the Commission's findings of violations may file, within thirteen (13) days from the date the Commission's decision is forwarded to the Commissioner, written exceptions regarding the recommended sanctions to the Commissioner. The forwarding date shall be the mailing date to the parties, as indicated below. Such exceptions must be forwarded to: Commissioner of Education, c/o Bureau of Controversies and Disputes, P.O. Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Comments on Ethics Commission Sanction." A copy of any comments filed must be sent to the Commission and all other parties.

Parties seeking to appeal the Commission's findings of violations must file an appeal pursuant to the standards set forth at N.J.A.C. 6A:4, et seq. within thirty (30) days of the filing date of the decision from which the appeal is taken. The filing date shall be three (3) days after the mailing date to the parties, as indicated below. In such cases, the Commissioner's review of the Commission's recommended sanctions will be deferred and incorporated into the Commissioner's review of the findings of violations on appeal. Where a notice of appeal has been filed on or before the due date for exceptions to the Commission's recommended sanction (thirteen (13) days from the date the decision is mailed by the Commission), exceptions need not be filed by that date, but may be incorporated into the appellant's brief on appeal.

Robert W. Bender, Chairperson
School Ethics Commission

Mailing Date: November 28, 2018

RESOLUTION ADOPTING DECISION IN CONNECTION WITH C08-15

WHEREAS, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:28-10.7(c)(2), the School Ethics Commission ("Commission") voted to transmit the above matter to the Office of Administrative Law for a hearing; and

WHEREAS, Barry E. Moscowitz, Administrative Law Judge ("ALJ Moscowitz") issued his Initial Decision on September 11, 2018; and

WHEREAS, in his Initial Decision, ALJ Moscowitz noted that the parties stipulated to a set of facts which, ultimately, served as the basis for each party's motion for summary decision; and

WHEREAS, in his Initial Decision, ALJ Moscowitz found that Respondents violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c) when they discussed and then voted to approve a settlement agreement that resulted in a personal benefit(s) to each Respondent, and recommended that Respondents "be suspended from their positions as members of the" Perth Amboy Board of Education; and

WHEREAS, on October 8, 2018, Respondents filed Exceptions to ALJ Moscowitz's Initial Decision; and

WHEREAS, on October 12, 2018, Complainant filed a Reply to Respondents' Exceptions; and

WHEREAS, at its meeting on October 30, 2018, the Commission reviewed and discussed the record, including the Initial Decision, Respondents' Exceptions, and Complainant's Reply to Respondent's Exceptions, and

WHEREAS, at its meeting on October 30, 2018, the Commission discussed adopting the findings of fact from the Initial Decision; adopting the legal conclusion that Respondents violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c) when they discussed and then voted to approve a settlement agreement that resulted in a personal benefit(s) to each Respondent; modifying the recommended penalty for Respondents from "suspension" to suspension for sixty (60) days; modifying the recommended penalty for any Respondent who is no longer a currently seated Board member from "suspension" to censure; and recommending that that the Commissioner of Education stagger the imposition of the suspensions, with Respondent Tejeda serving her suspension first, Respondent Gonzalez serving her suspension second, and Respondent Varela serving his suspension last; and

WHEREAS, at its meeting on November 27, 2018, the Commission reviewed and voted to approve the within decision as accurately memorializing its actions/findings from October 30, 2018; and

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, the Commission hereby adopts the within decision as a Final Decision and directs its staff to notify all parties to this action of its decision herein.

Robert W. Bender

Robert W. Bender, Chairperson

I hereby certify that this Resolution was duly was duly adopted by the School Ethics Commission at its public meeting on November 27, 2018.

Kathryn A. Whalen, Director
School Ethics Commission

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE HEARING :
OF SUSAN JOHNSON, BOARD OF EDUCATION :
OF THE CITY OF TRENTON, MERCER COUNTY. :

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

DECISION

SYNOPSIS

Petitioning Board certified tenure charges of excessive absenteeism, incapacity, conduct unbecoming, abandonment, and other just cause against respondent – a tenured secretary employed by the Board – and sought to terminate her employment with the district. Respondent was provided notice that, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-5.3 and 6A:3-5.4, she had 15 days from the date that the charges were filed with the Commissioner to file a written response to the charges, and that – absent the granting of an extension for good cause – failure to do so would result in the charges being deemed admitted. No reply to the charges was received from or on behalf of the respondent.

The Commissioner concluded that the allegations – which respondent has chosen not to deny – may be deemed admitted and warrant the termination of the respondent from her tenured position. Accordingly, the Commissioner granted summary decision to the petitioner, and dismissed the respondent from her tenured position in petitioner's school district.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

January 17, 2019

AGENCY DKT NO. 291-12/18

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE HEARING :
OF SUSAN JOHNSON, BOARD OF EDUCATION :
OF THE CITY OF TRENTON, MERCER COUNTY. :

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

DECISION

For the Petitioner, Adam S. Herman, Esq.
No appearance by or on behalf of Respondent, Susan Johnson

This matter was opened before the Commissioner of Education on December 3, 2018 through tenure charges of excessive absenteeism, incapacity, conduct unbecoming, abandonment, and other just cause certified by Dr. Shelley Jallow, Chief Schools Officer, Secondary, of the Trenton School District, together with supporting evidence against respondent, Susan Johnson, a tenured secretary in the petitioner's employ. The petitioner provided respondent with written notice of such certification at her last known address – via certified mail, return receipt requested, and regular mail – on October 10, 2018.

On December 3, 2018, the Commissioner directed respondent – via both certified and regular mail – to file an answer to the charges. This communication provided notice to respondent that, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-5.3 and 6A:3-5.4, an individual against whom tenure charges are certified "shall have 15 days from the date such charges are filed with the Commissioner to file a written response to the charges with the Commissioner," and that failure to answer within the prescribed period would – absent granting of an extension for good cause shown – result in the charges being deemed admitted. No reply to the tenure charges was received from, or on behalf of, respondent.

The certified tenure charges and statement of supporting evidence filed by the petitioner in this matter indicate that respondent has engaged in conduct that is unbecoming of a support staff member, including excessive absenteeism, failing to follow basic District procedures and protocols, causing disruption in the work environment, and abandonment of her position. Respondent was out of the office for 27.5 days during the 2010-2011 school year, 16.0 days during the 2011-2012 school year, 60.0 days during the 2012-2013 school year, 62.0 days during the 2013-2014 school year, 113.5 days during the 2014-2015 school year, 121.5 days during the 2015-2016 school year, 38.5 days during the 2016-2017 school year (after utilizing 59.0 accident days), and 112.5 days during the 2017-2018 school year (after utilizing 57 accident days). The respondent has failed to report to work during the 2018-2019 school year and has not attempted to contact the District in any way to discuss her absence. The evidence reflects that respondent's conduct resulted in disruption in the work environment.

Deeming the allegations to be admitted – and noting that respondent has failed to answer the charges certified against her – the Commissioner finds that petitioner's charges of conduct unbecoming have been proven, and warrant the respondent's dismissal from employment.

Accordingly, summary decision is hereby granted to the petitioner, and the respondent is dismissed from her tenured position with the District.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 1/17/19

Date of Mailing: 1/17/19

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to P.L. 2008, c. 36. (N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1)

20-19

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 4373-14
AGENCY DKT. NO. 69-3/14

SANDRA LOPEZ-DONOVAN,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF PLAINFIELD, UNION COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

The record of this matter, the proposed settlement agreement and general release, and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law, have been reviewed pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1.

Upon review, the Commissioner approves the settlement terms and adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter. The case is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the settlement.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 1/17/19

Date of Mailing: 1/17/19

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SETTLEMENT
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 04373-14
AGENCY DKT. NO. 69-3/14

SANDRA LOPEZ-DONOVAN,
Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUATION OF THE CITY OF PLAINFIELD, UNION COUNTY,
Respondent.

Flavio L. Komuves, Esq. for petitioner (Zazzali, Fagella, Nowak, Kleinbaum & Friedman, attorneys)

Phillip Stern, Esq. for respondent (DiFranceso Bateman, attorneys)

Record Closed: December 12, 2018 Decided: December 13, 2018

BEFORE JEFFREY A. GERSON, ALJ (Ret., on recall):

On April 11, 2018 this matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) for hearing as a contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F1 to -13. The matter was scheduled for a telephone conference on November 1, 2018 and during that time, the parties advised the undersigned that the matter was settled.

A signed copy of the Settlement Agreement indicating the terms of settlement was signed by the parties and is attached hereto.

I have reviewed the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures on the attached document.

2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy between them and is consistent with the law.

Therefore, I ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

December 13, 2018

DATE

JEFFREY A. GERSON, ALJ (Ret., on recall)

Date Received at Agency: 12/18/2018

Date Mailed to Parties: 12/14/2018

sej

RECEIVED
2018 DEC 13 A 1:20
STATE OF NEW JERSEY
OFFICE OF ADMIN. LAW

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

THIS SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT ("Agreement") is made and entered into this 7th day of December, 2018 by and between the BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF PLAINFIELD, UNION COUNTY, with administrative offices located at 1200 Myrtle Avenue, Plainfield, NJ 07063 (hereinafter referred to as "the Board"), and MS. SANDRA JACOME, residing in the State of New Jersey (hereinafter referred to as "Ms. Jacome").

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, the Board is a body politic and corporate, organized and existing by virtue of the laws of the State of New Jersey, N.J.S.A. 18A:11-1, which is entrusted with maintaining and conducting the public schools of Plainfield; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Jacome is employed by the Board as a teacher; and

WHEREAS, on or about February 12, 2013, Ms. Jacome sustained injuries from a work-related accident while in the course of her employment with the Board; and

WHEREAS, on or about May 2018, Ms. Jacome received a Settlement for her accident and injuries through the State of New Jersey, Division of Workers' Compensation; and

WHEREAS, the Board is obligated pursuant to the Workers' Compensation Laws, and the Education Laws, N.J.S.A. 18A:30-2.1(a) to pay Ms. Jacome for up to one calendar year from the date of her injury without charging her absences to her annual sick leave allotment; and

WHEREAS, the Board charged Ms. Jacome for thirty-one (31) sick days during her leave period arising out of the aforementioned accident; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Jacome filed a Petition of Appeal to the Commissioner of Education seeking restoration of said thirty-one (31) sick days and retroactive salary payments, captioned Sandra Lopez-Donovan v. Plainfield Board of Education, Agency Docket No. 69-3/14 ("the Litigation"); and

WHEREAS, the Board and Ms. Jacome desire to settle the Litigation;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises contained herein, the legal sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged by the parties, they agree as follows:

1. Restoration of Sick Days

The Board agrees to restore thirty-one (31) sick days to Ms. Jacome's sick leave bank.

2. Pension Service Credit

The Board agrees to remit to Ms. Jacome's PERS account all sums due for service credit earned between March 2013 to September 2014. Proof of this remittance shall be simultaneously sent to Ms. Jacome's counsel. Implementation of this section means that Ms. Jacome will have twenty-one years of service credit arising from service with the Board effective June 30, 2018.

3. Payment

In consideration for the Release set forth below, the Board shall pay Ms. Jacome a total of Thirty-Six Thousand, Four Hundred ($36,400) Dollars. Payment shall be made no earlier than January 1, 2019 and no later than February 1, 2019.

4. Release

In exchange for the above consideration, Ms. Jacome, her heirs and assigns, hereby irrevocably and unconditionally waive, release and forever discharge the Board, personally and officially, individually and collectively, its past and present Board members, all officers and administrators, its attorneys, agents and employees, personally and officially, as well as their successors, and assigns, from any and all claims and rights of any kind that she may have, whether now known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, relating to the Litigation.

5. Withdrawal of the Litigation

Upon proof of the Board's restoration of her thirty-one (31) sick days, Ms. Jacome will withdraw the Litigation, with prejudice.

6. Assent to Terms

Ms. Jacome hereby acknowledges that she entered into this Agreement with a full understanding of her rights and that she was fully informed of the implications of this Agreement by her attorneys, Flavio L. Komuves, Esq. and Alvina Swati, Esq., and she does so without duress of her own free will and volition.

7. Entire Agreement

This Agreement represents the entire understanding of the parties concerning the settlement of the litigation, and may be modified only in a subsequent written instrument, duly executed by the parties. No other representations of any kind concerning the settlement of the Litigation shall be binding upon the parties.

8. Severability

In the event that a court or agency of competent jurisdiction shall deem any part of this Agreement to be contrary to law, then the remaining portions of the Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

9. Governing Law

This Agreement and all provisions hereof shall be governed by and construed under the laws of the State of New Jersey.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the signatures and/or seals of the parties or their duly authorized representatives have been set forth on the dates indicated below:

SANDRA JACOME Date: 12/10/18

WITNESS:

ALVINA SWATI, ESQ. Date: 12/10/18

FOR THE BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF PLAINFIELD:

RICHARD WYATT, BOARD PRESIDENT Date: 12/7/18

J.A., ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILDREN, A.A. AND T.A.,

PETITIONER,

V.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF HAMILTON, MERCER COUNTY,

RESPONDENT.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

DECISION

SYNOPSIS

Pro se petitioner appealed the determination of the respondent Board that her child, A.A., was not entitled to a free public education in Hamilton Township schools. The matter concerning petitioner's other minor child, T.A., was resolved prior to hearing, and is not included herein. Petitioner contended that she is domiciled with her children in Hamilton and is separated from T.A., the children's father, who lives in Trenton. The Board argued that a residency investigation indicated that J.A. is not domiciled in Hamilton Township. Petitioner asserted that she and the children are legally domiciled in Hamilton, but because of her work schedule, she often relies on T.A. to assist with childcare. Petitioner sometimes works night shifts, during which the children sleep at their father's home in Trenton. A hearing in this matter was held in October 2018, and an Initial Decision was issued thereafter.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: petitioner produced substantial evidence of her residence in Hamilton, including government-issued identification and court records; petitioner credibly testified that she relies upon T.A.'s assistance with child care, and during the times that T.A. is caring for his children, they are at T.A.'s house in Trenton; otherwise, J.A. is the primary caretaker of the children; there is no evidence that this child care arrangement alters the domicile of J.A. and her children; the Board's argument that the residency investigation establishes that A.A. resides at the Trenton address rather than the Hamilton address is without merit, as A.A. was seen exiting T.A.'s Trenton house only eleven times over a period of sixty-three school days, and the Hamilton address was surveilled on only two occasions; the evidence is insufficient to support a finding that A.A. resided in Trenton. The ALJ concluded that the petitioner and her children are domiciled in Hamilton Township. Accordingly, A.A. was entitled to a free public education in the District's schools, and ordered that the respondent Board's residency determination in this matter be reversed.

Upon review of the record of this matter, as well as the ALJ's decision, the Commissioner concurred that A.A. was entitled to attend school in Hamilton Township. According, the Initial Decision was adopted as the final decision in this matter, and the Board's counterclaim for tuition was dismissed.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

January 17, 2019

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 13235-18
AGENCY DKT. NO. 201-8/18

J.A., ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILDREN, A.A. AND T.A.,	:
PETITIONER,	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
V.	:	DECISION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF HAMILTON, MERCER COUNTY,	:
RESPONDENT.	:

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed.[1] The parties did not file exceptions.

Upon review, the Commissioner agrees with the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) that petitioner sustained her burden of demonstrating that she was a domiciliary of Hamilton from February 13, 2018 through the end of the 2017-18 school year. Accordingly, the minor child A.A. was entitled to a free public education in the in the District's schools during that time.[2]

Accordingly, the Initial Decision of the OAL is adopted as the final decision in this matter. The Board's counterpetition for tuition is dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[3]

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 1/17/19
Date of Mailing: 1/17/19

[1] The Commissioner was not provided with a transcript of the October 22, 2018 hearing at the OAL.

[2] The matter concerning the minor child T.A. was resolved prior to the hearing. Accordingly, this matter only involves A.A.'s enrollment in the District's schools.

[3] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to P.L. 2008, c. 36 (N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1).

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 13235-18
AGENCY DKT. NO. 201-8/18

J.A., ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILDREN, A.A. AND T.A.,
Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF HAMILTON, MERCER COUNTY,
Respondent.

J.A., on behalf of minor children, A.A. and T.A., petitioner, pro se

Patrick F. Carrigg, Esq., for respondent (Lenox, Socey, Formidoni, Giordano, Cooley, Lang and Casey, attorneys)

Record Closed: October 22, 2018 Decided: December 6, 2018

BEFORE JUDITH LIEBERMAN, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner, J.A., appealed the decision of the Hamilton Township Board of Education (Board or respondent) that her children were ineligible to attend school in Hamilton, New Jersey. The petitioner also appealed the Board's determination that she is responsible for the payment of tuition for the period her children attended school in Hamilton, New Jersey, while they were ineligible.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On July 25, 2018, the Board issued a second notice of ineligibility, for attendance commencing February 13, 2018. The petitioner filed a timely appeal on August 20, 2018. The Board filed an Answer and Counterpetition for an Order Assessing Tuition on September 6, 2018. The Department of Education, Office of Controversies and Disputes transmitted the matter to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), where it was filed September 11, 2018, as a contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13 and N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15. The matter was heard on October 22, 2018. During the hearing, counsel for the Board advised that the only issue to be decided was the petitioner's residency from February 13, 2018, though the end of the 2017-2018 calendar year, with respect to only A.A.'s enrollment. The matter concerning child T.A. had been resolved prior to the hearing date. The record closed October 22, 2018.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION AND FINDINGS

The following is undisputed and I, therefore, find the following as FACT:

1. Petitioner, J.A., had a daughter, A.A., who was registered to attend kindergarten at Greenwood Elementary School (Greenwood) in Hamilton, New Jersey.

2. On February 6, 2017, the Board Residency Committee (Committee) conducted a residency hearing concerning A.A.

3. The Committee determined A.A. resided in Trenton and not in Hamilton.[1] She was therefore ineligible to attend school in Hamilton from November 15, 2016, through December 15, 2016, twenty school days.

4. The Committee determined the petitioner was responsible for the tuition for the twenty school days, at the per diem rate of $64.19. The total amount owed was $1,283.80.

5. The Board subsequently determined that A.A. resided primarily at the Hamilton address.

6. The Board initiated a second investigation on April 6, 2018. It found A.A. resided in Trenton, not Hamilton.

7. A residency hearing was conducted June 21, 2018.

8. On August 3, 2018, the Board determined A.A. resided in Trenton and was ineligible to attend school in the Hamilton Township School District.

Testimony

For the respondent

Michael Celentana, a residency investigator for the respondent, testified an investigation was initiated in response to a call from a "tipster", a private citizen who made a complaint. (R-3 at 5.) A.A., who was in first grade, was registered to attend Greenwood, with the Hamilton address listed as her home address. Celentana testified that A.A.'s parents resided at the Trenton address. The Hamilton and Trenton residences were approximately one-half mile apart.

[1] For ease of reference, the two addresses at issue will be referred to as the "Hamilton address" and "Trenton address" throughout this decision.

As part of his investigation, Celentana surveilled the Hamilton and Trenton addresses. Because school started at 8:50 a.m., he surveilled the residences between 8:00 a.m. and 9:00 a.m. Celentana recorded his observations in an April 6, 2018, "Residency Investigation" report. (R-3 at 2-4.)

Celentana surveilled the Hamilton address on February 13, 2018, between 8:00 a.m. and 9:00 a.m. He did not see A.A. exit the residence. He confirmed that she attended school that day. He was not advised that she arrived late that day.[2]

On February 15, 2018, he surveilled the Trenton address, starting at 7:55 a.m. At approximately 8:32 a.m., he observed A.A. leave the residence and enter a red Cadillac car driven by her mother, J.A. They drove to Greenwood and A.A. exited the car and entered the school building. He confirmed that A.A. attended school that day.

On February 21, 2018, he surveilled the Trenton address, starting at 8:00 a.m. At approximately 8:34 a.m., he observed A.A. exit the residence and she entered the same Cadillac. The petitioner drove the car to Greenwood. A.A. exited the car and entered the school. He confirmed that A.A. attended school that day.

On February 22, 2018, Celentana surveilled the Trenton address, starting at approximately 8:05 a.m. At approximately 8:35 a.m., A.A. exited the residence and entered the Cadillac. The petitioner drove the car to Greenwood; A.A. exited the car and entered the school. Celentana confirmed that A.A. attended school that day.

On February 23, 2018, he surveilled the Hamilton address from 8:05 a.m. to 9:00 a.m. He did not observe A.A. exit the residence. He later confirmed A.A. reported to school late.

On February 26, 2018, he surveilled the Trenton address, starting at approximately 8:06 a.m. A.A. exited the residence at approximately 8:34 a.m. and entered a white

[2] He would have been advised if A.A. had arrived late to school.

Dodge van driven by T.A., her father. Celentana followed the van to Greenwood. A.A. exited the van and entered the school. He confirmed she attended school that day.

On March 14, 2018, he surveilled the Trenton address, starting at approximately 8:05 a.m. A.A. exited the residence at approximately 8:25 a.m. and entered the white van, which was driven by T.A. Celentana followed the van to Greenwood. A.A. exited the van and entered the school. He confirmed she attended school that day.

On March 15, 2018, he surveilled the Trenton address, starting at approximately 8:05 a.m. A.A. exited the residence at approximately 8:30 a.m. and entered the white van. Celentana followed the van to Greenwood. A.A. exited the van and entered the school. He confirmed she attended school that day.

On March 23, 2018, he surveilled the Trenton address, starting at approximately 8:05 a.m. A.A. exited the residence at approximately 8:35 a.m. and entered the red Cadillac, which was driven by J.A. Celentana followed the van to Greenwood. A.A. exited the van and entered the school. He confirmed she attended school that day.

On March 27, 2018, he surveilled the Trenton address, starting at approximately 8:05 a.m. A.A. exited the residence at approximately 8:35 a.m. and entered the red Cadillac, which was driven by J.A. Celentana followed the van to Greenwood. A.A. exited the van and entered the school. He confirmed she attended school that day.

On March 28, 2018, he surveilled the Trenton address, starting at approximately 8:05 a.m. A.A. exited the residence at approximately 8:35 a.m. and entered the red Cadillac, which was driven by J.A. Celentana followed the van to Greenwood. A.A. exited the van and entered the school. He confirmed she attended school that day.

On April 5, 2018, he surveilled the Trenton address, starting at approximately 8:20 a.m. A.A. exited the residence at approximately 8:37 a.m. and entered the white van, which was driven by T.A. Celentana followed the van to Greenwood. A.A. exited the van and entered the school. He confirmed she attended school that day.

On April 6, 2018, he surveilled the Trenton address, starting at approximately 8:15 a.m. A.A. exited the residence at approximately 8:28 a.m. and entered the white van. Celentana followed the van to Greenwood. A.A. exited the van and entered the school. He confirmed she attended school that day.

The Trenton address was approximately two miles from Greenwood. A person leaving the Trenton address at 8:35 a.m. could arrive to Greenwood on time. Celentana did not observe A.A. leave the Hamilton address during his investigation.

Donald Ellison was the Supervisor of Central Registration for the Board since February 2018. He was responsible for supervising investigative staff and overseeing and reviewing cases and investigative reports. He was previously a detective with the Mercer County Prosecutor's Office for twenty-nine years and Mercer County Undersheriff for five years. Ellison spoke with J.A. after he received Celentana's investigation report. He wanted to provide her an opportunity to challenge the observations and ask any questions she might have. She "acknowledged" that A.A. exited the Trenton address and referenced her child care needs. She also stated that her mother owns both properties and paid taxes on both.

Ellison directed investigator Clarence Stockton to investigate, to provide a "fresh" review of the facts. Stockton surveilled the Trenton address and prepared a Residency Investigation report. (R-3 at 15-28.) He wrote that he arrived at the Trenton address on May 16, 2018 "after the . . . family entered a red Cadillac [license plate number], I was unable to get a photograph of them entering or exiting but have one of the vehicle leaving the school[.]" (R-3 at 15.)

On May 18, 2018, he surveilled the Trenton address at 8:00 a.m. At approximately 8:27 a.m., he observed the petitioner, A.A., and a juvenile male exit the residence and get into a red Cadillac with the same license plate as on May 16, 2018. He followed the car to Greenwood. They entered the school. Ibid.

Stockton surveilled the Trenton address on June 5, 2018, June 13, 2018, June 15, 2018, and June 20, 2018. He did not see the petitioner or A.A. exit the home. He learned that A.A. did not attend school those days. Ibid.

Stockton appended to his report photographs taken May 16, 2018, May 18, 2018, June 5, 2018, June 13, 2018, June 15, 2018, and June 20, 2018. (R-3 at 16-28.) Ellison testified that the photographs were compelling evidence that A.A. did not reside in the Hamilton School District. Ellison did not testify concerning the substance of the photographs.

Ellison referenced Stockton's testimony during a June 21, 2018, residency eligibility hearing before a committee of the Board of Education. The petitioner was present during the hearing. Ellison did not refer to specific portions of Stockton's testimony or discuss the contents of the photographs. (P-4.)

Ellison concluded, based on the two investigative reports, that A.A. did not reside in Hamilton Township. He noted there was no evidence of a custody agreement that would impact his assessment. The respondent determined the petitioner owed $14,034 for the 2017-2018 school year.

For the petitioner:

J.A. testified that her children resided with her. Their father, T.A., from whom she was separated, helped her by watching the children when J.A.'s work schedule prevented her from getting them to school. Her job required her to work late nights during its peak seasons.[3]

J.A. and T.A. are not divorced and there was not a consent order governing custody of their children. A restraining order prohibited T.A. from going to J.A.'s home in Hamilton. (P-7.) However, the order permitted him to "have contact with his children at any time at his place of residence." Ibid. T.A. previously owed over $12,000 in child support. Despite this, he had begun to address his problems with addiction and mental health, and "started stepping up" with respect to helping with the children. J.A. reasoned that it would work to her advantage to allow T.A. to provide child care when she needed it, rather than paying a considerable sum of money to a stranger. In exchange, she relinquished her entitlement to the past due child support payments, which T.A. had not paid. (P-4.) She noted that, in addition to providing her with necessary child care, this arrangement helped "keep the drama down" between her and T.A.

[3] At the time of the hearing, she was not working late nights but expected that she would be required to do so in November, when the holiday season began.

J.A.'s mother owned the homes at the Hamilton and Trenton addresses. (P-3, 10, 12.) J.A. rented the Hamilton house from her mother. T.A. and two roommates[4], all of whom were listed on the lease, rented the Trenton house from J.A.'s mother. Ibid.

In addition to both leases, J.A. produced multiple records to document that she resided in Hamilton and T.A. resided in Trenton. They included:

J.A.'s records

- Driver's license
- Medicare Card
- Vehicle registration[5]
- Car insurance
- Car loan
- Banking statements

[4] J.A. produced records documenting that the two roommates resided at the Trenton address. (P-13, 15.)

[5] The registration indicated the vehicle was a Cadillac with same license plate as observed by investigator Celentana.

- Income tax records
- Credit card records
- Investment account statement[6]
  (P-2.)

T.A.'s records

- Court documents
- Board of Social Service records
- Tax records
- Motor Vehicle Commission records
- Utility bills
- Credit card bills
- Employment records
  (P-6, 7, 8, 11, 14, 16-22.)

J.A. produced a September 13, 2018, letter written by T.A. (P-9.) He wrote that he moved to the Trenton address in 2014, after he and J.A. separated. He acknowledged difficulties in their marriage and that law enforcement had become involved and that he is not permitted to visit the Hamilton home. He wrote that the Board "is insisting that I am not allowed to spend parenting time with my children because I reside in the City of Trenton." Ibid.

[6] The above records concern only J.A.; there is no indication that T.A. is registered or otherwise affiliated with these accounts. The records bear varied dates. The driver's license and Medicaid card were issued March 24, 2017, and May 1, 2008, respectively. The other documents are dated from February 22, 2018, through July 13, 2018.

J.A. did not dispute that her children left the Trenton home some mornings. She stressed, however, that they did not live there. Rather, their caretaker, who happened to be their father, watched the children when J.A.'s job required her to work night shifts. She noted that she does not work a regular "9:00 to 5:00 job" and does not have the freedom to make her own work schedule. She must accept the work hours she is assigned, including overnight hours. On those occasions, she would need assistance with child care and her children, including A.A., who would sleep at the Trenton address. She would drive them to school, if she got out of work in time, and then go to her home in Hamilton. Otherwise, T.A. would drive them.

Additional Findings

It is the obligation of the fact finder to weigh the credibility of the witnesses before making a decision. Credibility is the value that a fact finder gives to a witness' testimony. Credibility is best described as that quality of testimony or evidence that makes it worthy of belief. "Testimony to be believed must not only proceed from the mouth of a credible witness but must be credible in itself. It must be such as the common experience and observations of mankind can approve as probable in the circumstances." In re Estate of Perrone, 5 N.J. 514, 522 (1950). To assess credibility, the fact finder should consider the witness' interest in the outcome, motive, or bias. A trier of fact may reject testimony because it is inherently incredible, or because it is inconsistent with other testimony or with common experience, or because it is overborne by other testimony. Congleton v. Pura-Tex Stone Corp, 53 N.J. Super. 282, 287 (App. Div. 1958).

As the fact finder, I had the ability to observe the demeanor, tone, and physical actions of the petitioner during the hearing. She testified calmly and clearly throughout the hearing, while expressing appropriate concern about her circumstances. Her explanation was consistent and comported with the realities associated with having a job that creates child care challenges. Her testimony concerning her difficult history with her spouse and their efforts to improve the relationship bolsters her account further. It is reasonable that she would seek to resolve her child care needs while attempting to improve her relationship. Further, the petitioner provided numerous records documenting that she and T.A. resided separately. T.A,'s letter, although hearsay, corroborated J.A.'s account. He explained that he lived separately from J.A., was prohibited from visiting the Hamilton house, but wanted to spend time with his children. His time with them was necessarily spent in the Trenton house.

Based upon the testimonial and documentary evidence, and having had the opportunity to observe the appearance and demeanor of the witnesses, I FIND the following as FACT:

1. J.A. resided at the Hamilton address with her children, including A.A., during the months at issue.

2. T.A. resided at the Trenton address during the time at issue.

3. The children did not live with T.A.

4. The children stayed with T.A. when J.A. was unable to be with them due to her work schedule.

5. The two Board investigators conducted their investigations over a period of sixty-three school days.[7]

6. Celentana surveilled the Hamilton house twice. A.A. did not exit the house either time. She reported to school late one of those days and was absent the other day.

7. Stockton did not surveil the Hamilton house.

[7] Celentana's investigation was conducted from February 16, 2018, through April 6, 2018. Judicial notice is taken that there were thirty-seven school days during this period, not considering holidays. Stockton's investigation began May 16, 2018, and ended June 20, 2018, during which there were twenty-six school days, not considering holidays. Thus, their combined investigations spanned sixty-three school days.

8. Celentana observed A.A. exit the Trenton house and be driven to Greenwood eleven times.

9. Stockton observed A.A. exit the Trenton house and be driven to Greenwood twice. A.A. did not exit the Trenton house the four other times he observed the house. A.A. did not attend school those days.

10. A.A. exited the Trenton house and was driven to Greenwood a total of thirteen times during the sixty-three-day investigation.

LEGAL ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSIONS

Any child between the ages of five and twenty years old is entitled to a free public education in the district in which he is a resident. N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(a); N.J.A.C. 6A:22-3.1(a). A student is a resident of a school district if his parent or guardian has a permanent home in the district such that "the parent or guardian intends to return to it when absent and has no present intent of moving from it, notwithstanding the existence of homes or residences elsewhere." N.J.A.C. 6A:22-3.1(a)(1). A student may attend school in a district in which he is a non-resident, with or without payment of tuition, at the discretion of the school district. N.J.S.A. 18A:38-3(a); N.J.A.C. 6A:22-2.2.

Domicile has been defined as the place where a person has his true, fixed, permanent home and principal establishment, and to which whenever he is absent he has the intention of returning. State v. Benny, 20 N.J 238, 250 (1955). The domicile of an unemancipated child is that of his or her parent, custodian or guardian. P.B.K. o/b/o minor child E.Y. v. Board of Ed. of Tenafly, 343 N.J. Super 419, 427 (App. Div. 2001). The question of domicile is one of fact and must be determined on a case-by-case basis. Lea v. Lea, 18 N.J. 1, 7 (1955). A person may have multiple residences but may have only one domicile at a time; as such, the residence may coincide with domicile, but does not alone determine domicile. Ibid.

The regulations contemplate that parents may not reside in the same school district. N.J.A.C. 6A:22-3.1(a)1.i provides, "When a student's parents are domiciled in different school districts, and there is no court order or written agreement between the parents designating the school district of attendance, the student's domicile is the school district of the parent or guardian with whom the student lives for the majority of the school year. This subparagraph shall apply regardless of which parent has legal custody." The regulations also contemplate that a student may live with both of his parents an equal amount of time. N.J.A.C. 6A:22-3.1(a)1.ii provides:

> When a student's physical custody is shared on an equal-time, alternating week/month or other similar basis so the student is not living with one parent or guardian for a majority of the school year and there is no court order or written agreement between the parents designating the school district of attendance, the student's domicile is the present domicile of the parent or guardian with whom the student resided on the last school day prior to the October 16 preceding the application date.

Here, the petitioner produced substantial evidence of her residence, including government-issued identification and court records. There is not a consent order or other written agreement designating A.A.'s school district and there is neither an assertion nor evidence suggesting that T.A. shared equal custody or responsibility for A.A. Rather, J.A. credibly testified that she avails herself of T.A.'s assistance with child care. The children are with T.A. at those times. Otherwise, J.A. is their primary caretaker. There is no evidence that this child care arrangement alters their domicile.

The Board argued that the investigators' findings establish that A.A. was not merely visiting the Trenton house but, rather, that she resided there. A.A. exited the house eleven times over a period of sixty-three school days. They surveilled the Hamilton address only two times. The substance of the photographs taken by Stockton was not discussed during the hearing and was not self-explanatory. Given the petitioner's credible testimony about her family needs and caretaking arrangement, I FIND the evidence is insufficient to support a finding that A.A. resided in Trenton.

DECISION AND ORDER

Based on the foregoing, I conclude that the petitioner established that she and her daughter, A.A. were domiciled in Hamilton and that A.A. is eligible to attend school there.

Accordingly, I hereby ORDER that: (1) A.A. was properly enrolled in the Hamilton Township School District for the period commencing February 13, 2018, through the end of the 2017-2018 school year; and (2) the Board's Counterpetition for tuition reimbursement be dismissed.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

December 6, 2018
DATE

Judith Lieberman
JUDITH LIEBERMAN, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: 12/6/18

Date Mailed to Parties: 12/6/18

/vj

APPENDIX

Witnesses

For petitioner:

J.A.

For respondent:

Michael Celentana

Donald Ellison

Exhibits

For petitioner:

P-1 Letter from petitioner to Commissioner of Department of Education

P-2 Copies of petitioner's driver's license, Medicare card, vehicle registration, car insurance, car loan statements, banking statements, income tax records, credit card records, investment account statement

P-3 Rental agreement

P-4 – 8 Court orders

P-9 Letter from T.A.

P-10 Rental agreement

P-13 – 22 Copies of T.A.'s records reflecting his address

For respondent:

R-1 -2 None

R-3 Board investigatory file, including Residency Investigation reports

R-4 Transcript of June 21, 2018 Residency Hearing before Board Committee

STATE OF NEW JERSEY
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

In the Matter of the Tenure Hearing of:

JAMELLE HOSKINS-NNAKWE

and

STATE-OPERATED SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE CITY OF NEWARK, ESSEX COUNTY

Agency Docket #125-6/17

Walt De Treux, Esq., Arbitrator

Hearing Dates: 11/14/17, 3/1/18, 5/10/18, 10/23/18
Briefs Received: 12/7/18
Decision Date: 1/20/19

Appearances: For the School District – Michelle M. Schott, Esq., PURCELL MULCAHY FLANAGAN
For the Respondent – Nicholas Poberezhsky, Esq., CARUSO SMITH PICINI

Introduction and Statement of Relevant Facts

Jamelle Hoskins-Nnakwe has been a teacher in the City of Newark School District since 2001. During the 2015-16 school year, she taught English as a Second Language (ESL) at Barringer High School. In early February 2016, several students in Respondent's Block 2 class complained to school administration that Hoskins-Nnakwe yelled at them after Principal Crystal Breedlove had visited the classroom. They more generally complained about her teaching style and methods. The administration obtained written statements from 9 students in the class, but took no further action at the time.

On March 30, 2016, Larisa Shambaugh, the District's Chief Talent Officer, visited the high school as part of an audit of teacher certifications. Hoskins-Nnakwe was one of the teachers randomly selected for verification. Shambaugh visited Hoskins-Nnakwe's classroom and noticed on the wall Black History Month posters created by the students. Upon closer inspection, she saw that derogatory terms had been written in Spanish on the posters. The writings included terms such as "pendejo", "bobito", "feo," "tonto", and "ugly no bella" -- translated in English, stupid, little fool, ugly, dumb, and ugly not beautiful. At the conclusion of the visit, Principal Breedlove informed Shambaugh that students had complained about the environment in Hoskins-Nnakwe's classroom. At Shambaugh's instruction, Breedlove emailed her the students' written statements as well as written statements on other incidents involving students, staff, and parents. Based on this information, Shambaugh assigned Michelle Takyi, Manager of Compliance and Tenure, to investigate.

During her investigation, Takyi reviewed the written statements submitted to school administration by students, a parent, and a staff member. She interviewed 4 students, three staff members, and Hoskins-Nnakwe. Takyi concluded her investigation with a written report dated January 6, 2017. In that report, she recommended that the District process tenure charges against Hoskins-Nnakwe, based on her finding that "the evidence supports that Ms. Nnakwe, on more than one occasion, made disparaging and hurtful comments to students...used derogatory words like "stupid" while referring to different students, yelled at students, and spoke negatively about their ability to speak English fluently."

Soon after the start of the investigation, the District removed Hoskins-Nnakwe from the classroom and reassigned her to the Virtual Learning Center, derisively referred to as "the rubber room." During her reassignment, Norma Diaz, Coordinator of Human Resources, reported that Hoskins-Nnakwe had been rude and behaved inappropriately with building security and custodial staff.

Based on Hoskins-Nnakwe's alleged conduct in her ESL class, with staff, and in the District building after reassignment, the District filed tenure charges against Respondent seeking her dismissal from employment for Conduct Unbecoming a Teacher. The tenure charges were certified by the NJ Commissioner of Education and referred to this Arbitrator for hearing.

On November 14, 2017, March 1, 2018, May 10, 2018, and October 23, 2018, hearings were held at the District's main offices in Newark, New Jersey, during which time both parties had a full and fair opportunity to present documentary and other evidence, examine and cross-examine witnesses, and offer argument in support of their respective positions. The parties filed post-hearing briefs, and the matter was submitted to the Arbitrator for a decision.

Issue

Has the State-Operated School District of the City of Newark established the allegations of conduct unbecoming against Respondent Jamelle Hoskins-Nnakwe as set forth in the tenure charges? If so, do those charges warrant dismissal? To what remedies are the parties entitled?

Analysis and Decision

The School District has cited to numerous incidents of alleged misconduct by Hoskins-Nnakwe in support of the tenure charge of Conduct Unbecoming a Teacher. At hearing, the District relied primarily on hearsay evidence to carry its burden of proving the charges. It noted in its brief that in arbitration, "conformity to legal rules of evidence shall not be necessary." (citing Rule 27 of the Labor Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association) While the legal rules of evidence need not be strictly applied, evidence in arbitration is not freely admitted and accepted as true. The issues of relevancy, competency, and reliability that form the basis for many of the rules of evidence remain present and paramount in labor arbitration. The District can rest its case on hearsay evidence, but that evidence is only of value if it is deemed relevant, reliable, and competent. Each incident that was alleged in support of the tenure charges will be examined separately, but it will become quickly apparent that the District's dependence on inherently unreliable hearsay evidence worked to its detriment.

Derogatory Words on Posters

The investigation into Hoskins-Nnakwe's conduct began when Shambaugh found derogatory terms written on student's art work hanging in the classroom during the March 30, 2016 audit. The District does not accuse Respondent of writing the comments on the posters, but it faults her for failing to notice the added words and failing to remove the posters.

The District's emphasis at hearing on the marked-up posters is overplayed. Takyi acknowledged that the presence of the posters was not a significant factor in her recommendation of tenure charges and, standing alone, would not warrant tenure charges. Further, Shambaugh saw the posters on March 30, 2016 and made no effort to have them taken down. She did not bring the graffiti to Hoskins-Nnakwe's attention. Respondent did not learn of the posters until after she had been reassigned. The posters remained up at least through Takyi's April 14, 2016 visit to the school. The District's expressed concern about the posters was apparently not shared by those administrators who found or knew of the posters and left them hanging. Further, another teacher shared the classroom with Hoskins-Nnakwe, and he was not disciplined for not noticing the derogatory terms and not removing the posters.

For these reasons, I find that the District has failed to establish the charge of conduct unbecoming against Respondent as it relates to the marked-up posters in her classroom.

February 10, 2016 Principal Visit

Principal Breedlove observed Respondents' classroom on February 10, 2016. According to the students' written statements, Hoskins-Nnakwe was showing a film about Hurricane Katrina. When the principal entered the room, she switched to a lesson she taught the day before and asked the students questions from that lesson. Thinking that their teacher was trying to make herself look good in front of the principal, the students refused to answer. When Breedlove left, Hoskins-Nnakwe allegedly yelled at the students for not responding.

When the students challenged her, she accused them of harassment, threatened to call their parents, and contacted security in an attempt to give the students Saturday detention.

After students complained to the principal that same day, Breedlove had 8 students[1] give written statements. Takyi reviewed those statements as part of her investigation and interviewed two of the students who had given written statements that day and a third who gave a written statement approximately 7 weeks later. The District's reliance on those statements to prove Hoskins-Nnakwe's conduct on February 10, 2016 clearly illustrates the inherent unreliability of hearsay evidence.

Respondent should have the opportunity to cross-examine the students to test the credibility of their statements. The District did not explain why the students were unavailable to testify. If they stayed in the Newark School District, they would have been in their junior year at the time of the first two hearings and presumably available to testify. But in the absence of the students, Respondent should at least have the opportunity to explore how the students came to give the statements and under what conditions. Principal Breedlove instructed the students write statements, but she did not testify. Prior to the hearings, she had resigned her employment, but the District did not explain why she was unavailable to testify. Breedlove's testimony is crucial in determining how the statements were obtained. Did the students write the statements individually or in a group? Were they allowed to consult with each other? Did Breedlove ask them questions or otherwise guide the writing of the statements? These questions and others allow Respondent (and this Arbitrator) to determine the reliability of the statements. DL testified that many of the students had shared with each other their concerns about Hoskins-Nnakwe's classes. That prior conversation raises a question as to whether the students' statements were their own product or the result of a collaborative process. As evidence of that collaboration, DL included in her statement a recounting of the February 10, 2016 incident that occurred in a class that she was not enrolled. She was clearly just repeating what she had been told. Respondent was denied the opportunity to question whether any of the other students were doing the same.

[1] Another student, DL, gave a written statement on the incident on March 31, 2016. Her testimony on this and other issues will be discussed in the next section.

Takyi interviewed two of the students who gave statements that day. She reported those interviews in her investigative report, but again, the hearsay concerns remain. Takyi summarized the students' responses in her report. There is no indication of whether she asked them questions or allowed them to narrate their complaints. Takyi indicated that Breedlove selected the students to be interviewed. Again, Breedlove did not testify and could not be asked the basis for her selection or the nature of any conversations she may have had with the students prior to the interview. Exploration of those issues through cross-examination of the students or Breedlove is necessary to determine the reliability of their statements.

The students' written statements are unreliable hearsay insufficient to prove allegations of Hoskins-Nnakwe's conduct on February 10, 2016.

Compounding the investigatory and evidentiary problems, Breedlove took no action at the time of the incident. She did not talk with Respondent or impose any disciplinary measures. She sat on the allegations for 7 weeks until Shambaugh visited the school. Takyi waited until June 1, 2016 to interview Hoskins-Nnakwe, nearly four months after the alleged occurrence, prejudicing her ability to recall or accurately relate her version of the incident.

It is also noteworthy that the District has filed a tenure charge of conduct unbecoming, not a charge of inefficiency or incapacity. Even if the District's evidence was found credible as to the February 10, 2016 incident, the students' complaints from that day focus mainly on their perception that Hoskins-Nnakwe is an incompetent and unprofessional teacher who does not adequately instruct them or explain the lessons and often loses her composure with the students. Those concerns speak more to alleged inefficiency or incapacity than to conduct unbecoming.

For all these reasons, I find that the District has failed to establish the charge of conduct unbecoming against Respondent as it relates to the February 10, 2016 principal visit.

DL Allegations

Unlike other students who addressed the February 10 incident the same day, DL gave a statement to Breedlove on March 31, 2016, a day after Breedlove expressed concern about Hoskins-Nnakwe to Shambaugh. The timing of DL's statement is suspect, but it is the content that makes her statement and testimony not credible.

DL attributed some egregious and offensive comments to Hoskins-Nnakwe. She claimed that Respondent told her and other students, "You are in my country so you have to learn English" and "You are stupid guys, you don't deserve an A, you are crazy, you need to go to the psychologist." Although these comments were allegedly made in class, no other student reported similar comments except MT.[2] MT was a student selected by Breedlove to be

[2] The District also submitted an undated, handwritten statement from an unidentified "representative" of another student. The statement alleges that Hoskins-Nnakwe was "motivating racism" by making reference to voting for Trump and getting rid of all the immigrants." This unidentified "representative is presumably an adult, who interviewed by Takyi. MT had not given a written statement, and it is unclear how or why she was even brought to Takyi's attention. She did not testify at hearing. Takyi's summary of her interview indicates that MT made the shocking charge that Hoskins-Nnakwe, an African-American, "is racist" and tells the class, "If it was for her, she would vote for Donald Trump" so Donald Trump would send them back to their country.

The District did not explain why MT could not testify, and it did not question Takyi on the MT interview during her direct examination. Such serious allegations deserve to be fully explored at hearing. I find MT's responses to Takyi to be both unreliable hearsay and uncredible.

In Takyi's interview of DL, DL went further than her statement. DL told Takyi that Respondent told a student at the classroom door, "Get out of the fucking door" and called him "a son of a bitch." No other student reported hearing such comments.

At hearing, DL testified at length about Hoskins-Nnakwe's conduct on February 10, 2016 after Breedlove's visit. She had not described that conduct in her written statement or her interview with Takyi. During the course of her testimony, it was established that DL was not in that particular class. The Breedlove visit occurred during Block 2. DL was in Block 4. She was testifying to alleged conduct that she had not witnessed.

DL conceded that she was unhappy with Hoskins-Nnakwe's class because she was getting a "C" and thought she deserved an "A." She wanted to transfer to another classroom.

---

learned this information from a student. Unreliable hearsay abounds with this statement -- a student reportedly told this adult, who told someone in the school, who evidently told Takyi. The adult was not interviewed, he/she did not testify, and the circumstances of his/her production of the statement was not addressed. The statement is unreliable hearsay insufficient to prove the charge of conduct unbecoming.

Whether or not DL fabricated her testimony to force that transfer, the fact is her testimony on the whole is not credible. No other students corroborated her testimony as to the very offensive comments she attributed to Respondent, and she did not witness an incident for which she attempted to give eyewitness testimony. She admitted to discussing with other students some concerns about Hoskins-Nnakwe, further suggesting that she and those students may have collaborated in their complaints to the school administration.

For these reasons, I find that the District has failed to establish the charge of conduct unbecoming against Respondent as it relates to the allegations made by DL regarding use of profanity and other offensive and arguably racist comments.

Breedlove allegations

In her interview with Takyi, Principal Breedlove reported that she observed Respondent yelling at students, that she had received multiple complaints from parents about Respondents' conduct in the classroom, and that she had concerns with Hoskins-Nnakwe's classroom management and performance. Breedlove also reported to Shambaugh by email on a meeting between her, Respondent, and a parent. Breedlove alleged that Hoskins-Nnakwe made several generalizations about Hispanics in the meeting (e.g., "they don't want to learn English") and ignored Breedlove's instructions to cease making such comments.

Breedlove did not testify. Respondent did not have the opportunity to question the veracity of her statements, the context and circumstances of her reported observations, and her overall credibility. Moreover, it does not appear that Takyi interviewed Breedlove on the meeting with the parent. She apparently accepted the complaint as it was reported in the email to Shambaugh. Finally, some of Breedlove's concerns, if accepted as true, relate to classroom management and performance and are more suited to a charge of inefficiency or incapacity than to conduct unbecoming.

For these reasons, I find that Breedlove's statements to Takyi are unreliable hearsay insufficient to support the charge of conduct unbecoming against Respondent.

Nhemi Theodore

Takyi interviewed Nhemi Theodore, the high school's Operations Manager in charge of student discipline. He told Takyi that Hoskins-Nnakwe frequently removes students from her classroom, "seems very unstable," and accuses students and his colleague Jose Diaz of conspiring against her.

Theodore did not testify at hearing, and the District offered no explanation for his absence. As such, the basis for his statements and his observations and the circumstances by which he came to be interviewed by Takyi could not be explored at hearing or evaluated for credibility.

For these reasons, I find that his statements to Takyi constitute unreliable hearsay insufficient to support the tenure charge of conduct unbecoming against Respondent.

Altercation with Another Staff Member

The statement of tenure charges included allegations that Hoskins-Nnakwe had a physical altercation on April 21, 2016 with another staff member regarding remarks to an aide who was crying over the death of another aide. The charges indicate that Principal Deneen Washington completed a report on the incident.

At hearing, neither Washington or any other staff member testified to the incident. The District took no disciplinary action against Respondent at the time of the incident. The incident report without testimony or other additional evidence is insufficient to prove the underlying conduct.

For these reasons, I find that the District failed to establish the charge of unbecoming conduct against Respondent as it relates to this alleged physical altercation.

Norma Diaz

Norma Diaz is the Coordinator of Human Resources at the District's Cedar Street office, the site of Respondent's assignment during the disciplinary investigation. Diaz gave a written statement and reported to Takyi that Hoskins-Nnakwe was involved in two incidents in which she mistreated staff.

On her first day on reassignment, Hoskins-Nnakwe did not have the required Newark School District identification card. Diaz observed Respondents engage in a verbal altercation with the security guards. During the altercation, Diaz heard her call the guards "devils." Hoskins-Nnakwe does not recall using the term "devils." She admits that she was frustrated and upset with her reassignment and her inability to get into the building because of her lack of proper identification. Diaz later assisted Hoskins-Nnakwe in obtaining the proper ID card.

Inexplicably, the District did not interview the security guards as part of their investigation. Nonetheless, I credit Diaz' testimony. She observed the incident and candidly reported her observations. The incident, however, does not warrant Hoskins-Nnakwe's dismissal from employment. At most, it warranted a reprimand for her discourteous treatment of another District employee at the time it occurred. But such discourteous treatment does not equate to conduct unbecoming, a more serious charge signifying conduct that would negatively impact the teacher's ability to perform her job and undermine the public's confidence in the teacher and the District. An argument with security guards on the first day of her reassignment to "the rubber room" does not impact her ability to perform her job or undermine public confidence. It was an unfortunate moment at the start of a bad day for a frustrated and upset teacher.

For these reasons, I find that the District has not established the charge of conduct unbecoming against Respondent as it relates to her encounter with the security guards.

On April 21, 2016, Diaz found a custodial worker, "Ms. Suzette," upset because she felt disrespected by Hoskins-Nnakwe. Ms. Suzette told Diaz that Respondent had entered the restroom on three separate occasions as Ms. Suzette was cleaning it. Diaz witnessed one of those occasions and heard Ms. Suzette and Hoskins-Nnakwe arguing in the bathroom.

Hoskins-Nnakwe testified that she entered the bathroom because she was sick and was pleading with Ms. Suzette to let her use the bathroom. Hoskins-Nnakwe was hospitalized later that day with high blood pressure.

Again, the District inexplicably did not call Ms. Suzette to testify. The allegation that Hoskins-Nnakwe entered the bathroom on three occasions is based on Ms. Suzette's recounting to Diaz. Her statements during her conversation with Diaz are unreliable hearsay because they could not be explored or tested during cross-examination.

As to the occasion witnessed by Diaz, the District has failed to prove any misconduct. Hoskins-Nnakwe did enter a bathroom that was closed for cleaning and was confronted by Ms. Suzette. But Hoskins-Nnakwe was sick and presumably had an urgent need to be in the bathroom. (Diaz confirmed that Respondent sought medical treatment soon after the incident.) Ms. Suzette may have felt disrespected, but she may also have been unaware of Hoskins-Nnakwe's condition. Respondent and Ms. Suzette may have had a disagreement, but Hoskins-Nnakwe's actions were understandable given her illness.

For these reasons, I find that the District failed to establish the charge of conduct unbecoming against Respondent as it relates to the bathroom incident.

Jose Diaz

Jose Diaz works as a School Operations Assistant handling student discipline. On October 27, 2015, he wrote a statement about an encounter he had with Hoskins-Nnakwe in the hallway outside her classroom. He testified at hearing that she was raising her voice to a student and he asked her to lower her voice. Hoskins-Nnakwe refused and loudly challenged his authority to give her such an instruction. Respondent does not recall the incident, but noted that she and Diaz did not have a good rapport.

I credit Diaz' testimony, but the incident is too dated in time to be properly considered for a conduct unbecoming charge. The incident happened on October 27, 2015, yet the school administration and the District took no action to investigate or discipline Hoskins-Nnakwe. The report of the incident presumably was filed away until five months later when the District initiated a broad investigation into Hoskins-Nnakwe's conduct. If the purpose of discipline is to correct unwanted behavior, the District cannot decline to take disciplinary action at the time of an occurrence only to resurrect the incident to build a case for dismissal from employment. Moreover, the incident – a brief tense exchange between co-workers, even if attributable primarily to Hoskins-Nnakwe – would at most warrant a low level of discipline, such as a reprimand.

For these reasons, I find that the District has failed to establish the charge of conduct unbecoming against Respondent as it relates to the incident with Jose Diaz.

Award and Remedy

The District has failed to establish the charge of unbecoming conduct against Respondent for all allegations included in the Statement of Charges. Accordingly, the tenure charges are dismissed.

As a remedy, the District is ordered to remove the dismissal from Hoskins-Nnakwe's record. It is further ordered to immediately reinstate her to her former position, or to a comparable position mutually agreeable to the parties, without loss of seniority. It is further ordered to make Hoskins-Nnakwe whole for losses, if any, incurred as a result of her dismissal.

The Arbitrator shall retain jurisdiction of the case for the sole purpose of resolving any dispute over the implementation of the remedy.

Walt De TReux

WALT De TREUX

STATE OF NEW JERSEY
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

In the Matter of the Tenure Hearing of:

JAMELLE HOSKINS-NNAKWE

Agency Docket #125-6/17

and

STATE-OPERATED SCHOOL DISTRICT
OF THE CITY OF NEWARK,
ESSEX COUNTY

Affirmation

I, Walt De Treux, affirm that I am the individual who executed this Decision and Award.

Walt De Treux

WALT De TREUX 1/20/19

25-19

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 1162-17
AGENCY DKT. NO. 10-1/17

DAVID CILIO,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE SCOTCH PLAINS-FANWOOD SCHOOL DISTRICT, UNION COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

The record of this matter, the proposed settlement agreement and general release, and the Initial Decision, issued by the Office of Administrative Law have been review pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1.

Upon review, the Commissioner approves the settlement terms and adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter. The case is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the settlement.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 1/23/19

Date of Mailing: 1/23/19

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SETTLEMENT
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 01162-17N
AGENCY DOCKET NO. 10-1/17

DAVIS CILIO,

Petitioners,

v.

SCOTCH PLAINS-FANWOOD SCHOOL DISTRICT, BOARD OF EDUCATION, UNION COUNTY,

Respondent.

Randi Doner April, Esq. on behalf of petitioner (Oxfeld Cohen, LLC)

Casper P. Boehm,Jr., Esq., on behalf of respondent

Deborah S. Saridaki, Board Secretary, on behalf of respondent

Record Closed: December 20, 2018 Decided: December 20, 2018

BEFORE JOANN LASALA CANDIDO, ALAJ:

This matter was initially transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) on January 17, 2018, for resolution as a contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F1 to -13. The matter was initially assigned to ALJ Antoniewicz but reassigned to the undersigned on or about October 1, 2018. Several telephone conferences were scheduled, the last conference being December 3, 2018. Prior to that date respondent's counsel advised that the Board approved the settlement agreement and will be signed by the Board Secretary.

On December 7, 2018, respondent's counsel forwarded a copy of the Settlement Agreement and Board Resolution, which is attached hereto for reference. On December 20, 2018 a letter was submitted authorizing the Board Secretary to sign the agreement.

Having reviewed the contents of the attached Settlement Agreement and General Release, I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures and/or the signatures of their representatives.

2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this settlement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the stipulation should be approved. I approve the settlement and, therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with. N.J.S.A 52:14B-10.

December 20, 2018
DATE

/s/ JoAnn Lasala Candido
JOANN LASALA CANDIDO, ALAJ

Date Received at Agency: December 21, 2018

Date Mailed to Parties: December 24, 2018

ljb

RECEIVED
2018 DEC -7 P 7:12
STATE OF NEW JERSEY
OFFICE OF ADMIN. LAW

Oxfeld Cohen, PC
60 Park Place, 6th Floor
Newark, New Jersey 07102-5504
973-642-0161
Attorneys for Petitioner

DAVID CILIO, Petitioner, SCOTCH PLAINS-FANWOOD SCHOOL DISTRICT, BOARD OF EDUCATION, UNION COUNTY Respondent	: : : : : : : :	BEFORE THE COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION OAL DOCKET NO.: EDU 01162-2017 AGENCY REF NO. 10-1/17 STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE

This Settlement Agreement and Mutual Release ("Agreement") is made and entered into by and between petitioner, David Cilio ("Cilio") and respondent, Scotch Plains-Fanwood School District, Board of Education ("Board") for full settlement of all claims,

WHEREAS, on or about January 12, 2017 Cilio filed a Petition of Appeal before the State of New Jersey Commissioner of Education (the "Commissioner"), captioned Cilio v. Board of Education of the Scotch-Plains-Fanwood School District, OAL Docket No. EDU 01162-2017, for the return of one year of salary guide credit for active military service;

WHEREAS, this matter is currently pending before the Honorable Joann LaSala, A.L.J.; and

WHEREAS, the parties to this Agreement desire to amicably resolve their differences and avoid additional expenses of further litigation in connection with the Petition of Appeal.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and for other good and valuable consideration, it is hereby agreed by and between the parties hereto as follows:

1. This Agreement shall not be construed as an admission by the Parties of any acts or omissions alleged or those that could have been alleged by any of the Parties, or of any acts or omissions alleged or which could have been alleged against any of the Parties. Each party to this Agreement specifically denies any liability.

2. In exchange for the valuable consideration set forth herein, the Parties mutually release and give up any and all claims and rights they may have against each other for any damages or injuries claims that could have been alleged by either party in connection with this matter.

The Parties specifically release the following claims as to each other

(a) Any and all claims and. counterclaims that were brought and that could have been brought in the Petition of Appeal bearing OAL Docket No. EDU 01162-2017; and

(b) Any and all claims for attorneys' fees and expert costs, and any other fees and costs.

3. In total and complete settlement of any and all potential claims referred to above, the Board shall:

(a) Provide an additional year of employment credit to Cilio for his military service in compliance with N.J.S.A. 18A:29-11.

(b) Provide monetary credit to Cilio for the period October 12, 2016 through June 30, 2017. The salary adjustment is from BA+30 step 14 ($68,431) to BA+30 step 15 ($70,486), pro-rated.

(c) Confirm that at the conclusion of the 2018-2019 school year Cilio will have 18 years of employment credit in the District.

(d) Confirm that Cilio's salary will increase to the new amount for Step 15 (the top step on the guide) if such an increase is negotiated.

4. The Parties acknowledge that they are fully satisfied with their respective legal representation in this matter and that they have reviewed the terms of this Agreement with their respective counsel.

PETITIONER

David J. Cilio

David Cilio

Dated: 11/7/2018

RESPONDENT

Deborah S Saridakis

Board Secretary/Business Administrator
Scotch Plains-Fanwood Board of Education
Dated:

Scotch Plains-Fanwood Public Schools

Evergreen Avenue and Cedar Street
SCOTCH PLAINS, NEW JERSEY 07076

Deborah S. Saridaki
Business Administrator
Board Secretary

Phone: (908) 232-6161 ext 4013
Fax: (908) 889-0258

December 3, 2018

To Whom It May Concern:

The following resolution was adopted by the Scotch Plains-Fanwood Board of Education at its board meeting on November 29, 2018:

Employee Settlement	Motion by Mr. Murray, seconded by Ms. Brody, that the Board of Education approves the mediated employee settlement agreement between employee #4179 and the Scotch Plains-Fanwood Public School District whereby employee receives an additional year of employment credit and retroactive pay for October 12, 2016 through June 30, 2017.

Carried 9-0-0

RECEIVED
2018 DEC -7 P 1:12
STATE OF NEW JERSEY
OFFICE OF ADMIN. LAW

I, Deborah S. Saridaki, Board Secretary, certify that the information submitted herewith is correct and true to the best of my knowledge.

Casper P. Boehm, Jr.

Counsellor at Law

Phone: 732-257-3339
609-298-3339
FAX: 609-298-3318

Mailing Address and Courier Address: : 155 Harrison Road, Jacobstown, NJ 08562 1913 e-mail: Boehmlaw@live.com
(GPS: North Hanover Township 08562 or Wrightstown, NJ 08562)

December 14, 2018

RECEIVED
2018 DEC 20 A 2:59
STATE OF NEW JERSEY
OFFICE OF ADMIN. LAW

Attn: Latoya J. Bryant
Judicial Assistant
Office of Administrative Law
33 Washington Street, 7th floor
Newark, NJ 07102

Re: David Cilio v. Scotch Plains-Fanwood School District
Docket NO: EDU 01162-2017 N

Dear Ms. Bryant:

As you know, I represent the respondent in the above matter.

I write this letter at your request to state that Deborah S. Saridaki was authorized by the respondent to sign the settlement agreement on behalf of the School District and on my behalf as attorney for the District.

Very truly yours,

Casper P. Boehm, Jr.

CPB:gh
c: Deborah S. Saridaki

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 09745-18
AGENCY DKT. NO. 155-6/18

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF FAIR LAWN, BERGEN COUNTY,	:
PETITIONER,	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
V.	:	DECISION
Y.Z., ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILD, K.Z.,	:
RESPONDENT.	:

The record of this matter, the proposed settlement, and the Initial Decision, issued by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1, have been reviewed.

Upon review, the Commissioner approves the settlement terms and adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter. The case is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the settlement.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 1/23/19

Date of Mailing: 1/23/19

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SETTLEMENT
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 09745-18
AGENCY DKT. NO. 155-6/18

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF FAIR LAWN, BERGEN COUNTY,

Petitioner,

v.

Y.Z. ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILD K.Z.,

Respondent.

Joseph L. Roselle, Esq., for petitioner (Schenck, Price, Smith & King, attorneys)

Y.Z., respondent, pro se

Record Closed: December 18, 2018 Decided: December 18, 2018

BEFORE SUSANA E. GUERRERO, ALJ:

On or about June 26, 2018, petitioner Board of Education of the Borough of Fair Lawn filed a Petition of Appeal with the Commissioner of Education seeking tuition from respondent. The Department of Education transmitted the matter to the Office of Administrative Law, where it was filed on July 9, 2018, for hearing as a contested case.

A telephone prehearing conference was held on August 23, 2018, and a hearing scheduled for November 9, 2018. At the hearing, the parties requested an adjournment to try and resolve the matter. Under cover letter dated December 17, 2018, counsel for petitioner submitted the attached Settlement, along with correspondence from the Board approving the settlement.

I have reviewed the record and the terms of the consent order and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the consent order as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures.

2. The consent order fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and, therefore, ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

12/18/18
DATE

SUSANA E. GUERRERO, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: December 20, 2018

Date Mailed to Parties: December 20, 2018

jb

SCHENCK, PRICE, SMITH & KING, LLP
220 Park Avenue
P.O. Box 991
Florham Park, New Jersey 07932
(973) 539-1000
Attorneys for Petitioner,
Fair Lawn Board of Education

RECEIVED
2018 DEC 18 P 3:33
STATE OF NEW JERSEY
OFFICE OF ADMIN. LAW

FAIR LAWN BOARD OF EDUCATION,

PETITIONER,

V.

YULIA ZHURAVKOVA, ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILDREN, K.Z. AND B.Z.,

RESPONDENT.

STATE OF NEW JERSEY
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

OAL DKT. NO.: EDU 9745-18

AGENCY REF. NO.: 155-6/18

SETTLEMENT

This Agreement is made by and between Petitioner, Fair Lawn Board of Education ("Board"), and the Respondent, Yulia Zhuravkova ("Respondent").

RECITALS

WHEREAS, in or about May of 2018, Petitioner, Fair Lawn Board of Education determined, based on the results of a residency investigation, that minor student K.Z. was not domiciled in the Fair Lawn School District ("District") and thus not entitled to a free, public education in the District. The Board passed a resolution ordering the removal of the student from the District; and

WHEREAS, Respondent did not appeal the Board's determination; and

WHEREAS, the Board thereafter commenced this administrative action to recoup outstanding tuition from Respondent due to K.Z.'s ineligible attendance in the District; pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:22-6.1; and

WHEREAS, this administrative action is captioned Fair Lawn Board of Education v. Y.Z. o/b/o Minor Children K.Z. and B.Z., and is presently pending before the Commissioner of Education in the Office of Administrative Law and docketed as OAL Dkt. No. EDU 9745-18, Agency Dkt. No. 155-6/18 ("the Litigation"), the allegations of which are detailed more fully in the Petition of Appeal served and filed in the Litigation; and

WHEREAS, in order to avoid the expense, inconvenience, distractions and inherent uncertainties associated with continuation of this dispute, and the fees and expenses that inevitably would result therefrom, the Parties, by this Agreement, herein agree to adopt a full and final settlement of any and all claims, lawsuits, complaints, and/or disputes between Petitioner and Respondent in connection with any and all damages and losses arising from the Litigation; and

WHEREAS, by this Agreement, Petitioner will voluntarily dismiss the Litigation with prejudice, without costs to any party as against the other;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of good and valuable consideration, the sufficiency and adequacy of which is acknowledged, the parties to this Agreement agree as follows:

1. The Parties mutually agree that, during the pendency of the residency investigation, K.Z. was found by the Board not to be domiciled in the Fair Lawn School District.
2. Respondent shall pay the Board the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00), representing back tuition due and owing for the period of K.Z.'s ineligible attendance in the District during the 2017-2018 school year, which shall constitute a full and final settlement of the claim for back tuition asserted against Respondent by the Board in the Litigation.

3. The amount of $1,000 is to be paid as follows: Within fifteen (15) days after approval of the Agreement by the Administrative Law Judge and Commissioner of Education, or after adoption by the Board of Education of a resolution accepting this Agreement, whichever is later, Petitioner shall make an initial payment in the amount of Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00), in the form of a check made payable to the "Fair Lawn Board of Education," hand-delivered or mailed to the office of Ms. Brooke Bartley, School Business Administrator/Board Secretary, at the District administrative offices, 37-01 Fair Lawn Avenue, Fair Lawn, New Jersey 07410. The remaining amount of $800.00 shall be paid in four (4) subsequent equal monthly installments of Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00) each, until the full amount has been satisfied. Nothing herein shall prevent Respondent from paying a greater amount than the monthly payment amount, provided that at least the minimum payment of $200.00 is received monthly.

4. Each installment payment is due on the first (1st) day of each Month at the office of the School Business Administrator at the above address, beginning in the month following that in which the initial payment was made. Payments received by the School Business Administrator after the 30th day following the payment due date shall incur a late fee of $10.00. Any payment and late fee not received by the 15th of the then-following month shall constitute a default by Respondent and a breach of this Agreement. Respondent will receive receipts for each payment from the School Business Administrator.

5. Petitioner, in consideration of this Stipulation of Settlement, and in full, final, and complete settlement of the matter, hereby agrees to a withdrawal and/or dismissal, with prejudice, of the Petition of Appeal in this matter.

6. Respondent further understands and agrees that, if she fails to make a payment in accordance with this Agreement, the entire remaining unpaid amount shall immediately become due and owing, payable in a single lump sum.

7. Respondent further agrees to indemnify the Board for any and all costs, including court costs and attorney's fees, associated with any action instituted by the Board to enforce the terms of this Agreement should Respondent breach the Agreement and/or fail to adhere to the agreed-upon payment plan.

8. The terms of this Agreement shall in no way constitute acceptance or assent by the Board that K.Z., nor any other child of Respondent, as may be applicable, is automatically entitled to a free public education in the District at any point in the future, and the Parties understand and agree that Respondent reserves the right to investigate K.Z.'s and/or Respondent's residency status in the District at any time should K.Z. be reenrolled in the District or it otherwise becomes necessary to do so, in order to determine whether or not Petitioner and/or her child(ren) remain domiciled in the District.

9. This Agreement is subject to approval by the Fair Lawn Board of Education. If approved, the Board President and/or Business Administrator is/are fully authorized to execute this Agreement on behalf of the Board.

10. This Agreement shall not constitute an admission of wrongdoing by any party and no party shall be considered to be a prevailing party for any purpose.

11. This Agreement is to be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New Jersey.

12. Petitioner hereby represents that she is freely entering into this Agreement, that she was advised of her right to obtain counsel of her choosing and has knowingly waived that requirement, and that she has read and fully understand the contents and effects of this Agreement.

13. This Settlement may be subject to the approval of the Office of Administrative Law and the Commissioner of Education. In the event that such approval is necessary, the terms of this Agreement shall not be binding until said approvals are received.

14. This Agreement shall be binding upon all parties hereto, and shall inure to the benefit of each of them, as well as their respective estates, heirs, legal representatives, successors, predecessors, parent companies, subsidiaries, affiliates, owners, directors, officers, shareholders, members, employees, agents and assigns.

15. This Agreement constitutes the entire understanding and agreement by the parties with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement, and there are no agreements, undertakings, restrictions, representations or warranties as between the parties other than those set forth herein. This Agreement supersedes all previous arrangements or understandings, whether written or oral, and contains the entire agreement of the parties with respect to its subject matter. This Agreement may be modified or amended only by written agreement jointly executed by the Petitioner and Respondent.

[SIGNATURES ON NEXT PAGE]

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have executed this Agreement, consisting of six pages, effective on the day and year first above written.

RESPONDENT

Date: Dec. 4, 2018

Yulia Zhuravkova, Respondent

FOR PETITIONER,
FAIR LAWN BOARD OF EDUCATION

Date: 12/13/18

Fair Lawn Public Schools

Brooke Bartley
Business Administrator/Board Secretary

37-01 Fair Lawn Avenue
Fair Lawn, New Jersey 07410
Tel: (201)794-5500 x 7091
Fax: (201)703-4630
E-mail:bbartley@fairlawnschools.org

RECEIVED
2018 DEC 18 P 3:33
STATE OF NEW JERSEY
OFFICE OF ADMIN. LAW

Approval of Settlement Agreement

RESOLVED, that the Board approves the settlement attached for Board Members Only in the matter captioned Fair Lawn Board of Education v. Y.Z. o/b/o K.Z. and B.Z, OAL Dkt. No. EDU 9745-18, Agency Dkt. No. 155-6/18, in accordance with the terms and conditions therein, which the Board President is authorized to sign on behalf of the Board.

This is to certify that the resolution listed above is a true and accurate copy of such resolution as it appeared on the December 13, 2018 Public Board Meeting.

Brooke Bartley
Business Administrator/Board Secretary

28-19

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF OCEAN, MONMOUTH COUNTY, PETITIONER, V. BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE VILLAGE OF LOCH ARBOUR, MONMOUTH COUNTY, DR. LESTER RICHENS, AND DAVID JOYE. RESPONDENTS.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION DECISION

SYNOPSIS

This matter arose following the establishment in 2017 of the Loch Arbour School District (Loch Arbour), a non-operating district. The Commissioner approved the application of the Loch Arbour Township Board of Education to withdraw from the Ocean Township School District (OTSD) in December 2016. After the new school district was formed, OTSD challenged, inter alia, the methods by which Loch Arbour adopted its annual budget and performed required criminal background checks of board members, as well as its alleged failure to adopt bylaws. The within action was filed during the pendency of Ocean Township's appeal of the dismissal of its challenge in Superior Court to the Commissioner's approval of the new Loch Arbour district. The matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) for a hearing. OTSD filed a motion to amend its petition, which was opposed by the respondent; Loch Arbour filed a motion for summary decision.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: given the circumstances of this matter, Loch Arbour timely adopted its school budget following the April 2017 referendum vote to establish the new district; the actions taken by the new board of education were valid despite the Board members' failure to complete their criminal history background checks prior to the Board's initial meeting; there was no violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-1.2 because Loch Arbour requested background checks for the newly appointed Board members within the required 30-day timeframe; further, the new appointees submitted affidavits, per guidance from the Department, stating that they had not been convicted of a disqualifying crime; and Loch Arbour properly acted as a school board without first adopting bylaws because N.J.S.A. 18A:11-1 does not require a board to adopt its own rules and bylaws, especially not prior to making decisions as a board. Accordingly, the ALJ denied OTSD's motion to amend its petition, and granted Loch Arbour's motion for summary decision. The petition was dismissed.

The Commissioner found, inter alia, that summary decision was properly granted to Loch Arbour, and he adopted the Initial Decision of the OAL with modification regarding the ALJ's finding that school boards do not need to adopt their own rules, bylaws, and policies. The Commissioner noted that N.J.S.A. 18A:11-1 is abundantly clear that a board of education must make, amend and repeal rules for its governance; however, nothing in the statute requires that such rule making must be a board's first order of business, nor that board actions taken prior to the adoption of such rules are invalid. Accordingly, the Commissioner granted summary decision to Loch Arbour, and dismissed the petition with prejudice.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

January 25, 2019

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 16799-17
AGENCY DKT. NO. 213-9/17

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF OCEAN, MONMOUTH COUNTY,	:
PETITIONER,	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
V.	:	DECISION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE VILLAGE OF LOCH ARBOUR, MONMOUTH COUNTY, DR. LESTER RICHENS, AND DAVID JOYE.	:
RESPONDENTS.	:

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed. The Commissioner has also considered petitioner's exceptions, and respondent Loch Arbour Board of Education's (Loch Arbour) reply thereto, filed pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4.[1] In this matter, petitioner filed a petition of appeal alleging various violations of the school laws of the State, including statutes governing board of education budgets, actions, and operations.[2] Specifically, in Count I, petitioner argues that respondent Loch Arbour violated N.J.S.A. 18A:7F-5, 7F-6, and N.J.S.A. 18A:22-32, by failing to timely adopt its preliminary and final budgets. Petitioner further argues that the New Jersey Department of Education (Department) violated said statutes by approving Loch Arbour's budget. In Count II, petitioner alleges that prior to assuming their roles and taking board action, the Loch Arbour board members failed to complete their criminal history background checks in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-1 et

[1] The Commissioner will not reiterate the procedural and factual history of the case, as the relevant facts and procedural history is set forth in the Initial Decision and supported by the ample record in this matter.

[2] The Commissioner notes that the petition of appeal also included allegations implicating the Open Public Meetings Act (OPMA), which is indisputably beyond the Commissioner's purview.

seq. In Count III, petitioner alleges that the Loch Arbour board members failed to adopt bylaws, policies and regulations before taking action as a board, and therefore violated N.J.S.A. 18A:11-1. In Count IV, petitioner argues that the Department approved budgets for petitioner and Loch Arbour with conflicting tax levies, and therefore Loch Arbour is required to pay its share of school taxes to petitioner for the 2017-2018 school year.

The ALJ found that Loch Arbour timely adopted its school budget in compliance with Title 18A. The ALJ reasoned that Loch Arbour would not have been able to meet the March 20, 2017 deadline – pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:7F-5 – for adopting and submitting its budget to the Commissioner for approval since it did not become an independent, non-operating school district until after the April 4, 2017 referendum vote. The ALJ explained that Loch Arbour adopted its preliminary budget on May 1, 2017, and submitted it to the Department for approval on May 2, 2017, which was approved on May 4, 2017; subsequently, Loch Arbour adopted its final budget at a board meeting on May 8, 2017, prior to the May 14 deadline set forth in N.J.S.A. 18A:22-32.[3]

The ALJ further found that Loch Arbour validly operated as a board despite the new Board members' failure to complete their criminal history background checks prior to its initial meeting. The ALJ reasoned that Loch Arbour did not violate N.J.S.A. 18A:12-1.2 because it requested background checks for its newly appointed Board members within the 30-day timeframe and, based upon guidance from the Department, the newly appointed Board members submitted affidavits stating that they had not been convicted of a disqualifying crime. The ALJ held that board members are not required to complete a background check prior to assuming office because N.J.S.A. 18A:12-2.1 only requires that board members – before entering upon the duties of their office – take an oath that they are not disqualified from serving in the role.

[3] The ALJ noted that the budget submission deadline is "tentative" as evidenced by petitioner's untimely submission and adoption of its own budget.

Lastly, the ALJ found that Loch Arbour properly acted as a school board without first adopting bylaws because N.J.S.A. 18A:11-1 does not require a board to adopt its own rules and bylaws, especially not prior to making decisions as a board.

In its exceptions, petitioner sets forth the following as errors of fact: 1) The ALJ's finding that the Commissioner "changed the budgetary due date" for Loch Arbour; 2) The ALJ's note that even though the May 2017 board meetings were in violation of OPMA, the Superior Court determined that Loch Arbour corrected its mistake at its June 19, 2017 public meeting when it retroactively ratified both the initial and final budgets; 3) The ALJ's reliance on an undated New Jersey School Boards Association press release and an unauthenticated statement of a Department employee that board members were permitted to submit affidavits and take oath of office pending the background checks; and 4) the ALJ's failure to making findings of fact pertaining to Count IV. Petitioner set forth the following as errors of law: 1) The ALJ's interpretation of N.J.S.A. 18A:11-1; and 2) The ALJ's granting of summary decision in favor of respondents when there are material facts in dispute and fact-finding has not been completed.

As a preliminary matter, the Commissioner finds that although the ALJ did not address Count IV in the Initial Decision, further fact-finding is not necessary as the Commissioner is without jurisdiction to grant the relief sought by petitioner in Count IV. The Commissioner further finds that summary decision was properly granted because the material facts relating to Counts I through III are not in dispute, and the issues raised can be decided as a matter to law.

The ALJ's remaining factual "errors" have no impact on the outcome of this matter. First, the Commissioner clarifies that implicit in the Department's acceptance and approval of Loch Arbour's submission of its budget is the fact that the Commissioner extended the deadline for Loch Arbour under the circumstances of the case. Therefore, the ALJ's characterization of the Department allowing Loch Arbour to submit its budget outside of the deadline as "chang[ing] the budgetary due date for [Loch Arbour]," is not an error of fact. Notably, N.J.S.A. 18A:7F-5 allows the Commissioner to adjust the date for the submission of district budgets. In this case – where the district's budget would not have been available by the March 20, 2017 deadline – the Department's acceptance and approval of the budget in May 2017, was proper pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:7F-5.

Second, the ALJ's finding that the Superior Court determined that Loch Arbour corrected its mistake at its June 19, 2017, public meeting when it retroactively ratified both the initial and final budget, is not an "error". The Commissioner clarifies that the Superior Court found that the June 19, 2017 meeting could satisfy the curative provision of OPMA, but opined that the Commissioner has the ultimate authority to accept the June 19, 2017 action or hold Loch Arbour to the "May 20th" [sic] deadline. In other words, the Superior Court's determination is that the June 19, 2017 meeting cures the OPMA violations if the Commissioner waived the May 14, 2017 deadline and accepted Loch Arbour's board action on June 19, 2017. Based on the facts and circumstances of this case and Loch Arbour's curative action, the Commissioner accepts the June 19, 2017 board action.

Third, the ALJ's reliance on alleged unauthenticated documents and statements also has no impact on the outcome of this case because the plain language of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-1.2 and 2.1, read in conjunction with N.J.S.A. 18A:10-3, demonstrates that petitioner's narrow reading of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-1 – that board members must complete a criminal history background check before taking the oath of office and conducting board business – is incorrect. N.J.S.A. 18A:12-

1.2(a) provides in relevant part that within 30 days of election or appointment, each board member "shall undergo a criminal history background investigation for the purpose of ensuring that the member is not disqualified. . . ." Nothing in the statute requires that the board members complete the criminal history background check prior to being sworn in; the statute merely requires that the board member submit to a criminal history background check within 30 days of election or appointment. Significantly, N.J.S.A. 18A:10-3 – which sets forth the requirements for annual reorganization of the boards – requires that the reorganization meeting take place "on any day of the first or second week following the April school election." Therefore, it is not feasible for board members elected or appointed in April to complete background checks within 30 days of being sworn in and conducting the organization meeting. In this matter, the board members submitted background checks within 30 days of appointment and prior to the first Board meeting, and further submitted affidavits to the Department – consistent with the Department's policy and past practice – certifying that they were not convicted of any of the disqualifying crimes enumerated in N.J.S.A. 18A:12-1.[4]

Petitioner's remaining "error" of law pertains to N.J.S.A. 18A:11-1. Petitioner argues that a board of education must adopt bylaws before it can validly act as a board. N.J.S.A. 18A:11-1(c) provides in pertinent part that a board of education shall "make, amend and repeal rules, not inconsistent with this title or with the rules of the state board, for its own government and the transaction of its business and for the government and management of the public schools . . ." The ALJ has interpreted this to mean that a school board is not required to adopt its own rules, and certainly not prior to making decisions as a board. The Commissioner disagrees with the ALJ to the extent that the ALJ held that school boards do not need to adopt their own rules, bylaws and policies. The statute is abundantly clear that the board of education needs to make, amend and repeal rules for governance; however, nothing in the statute requires that making and adopting rules, bylaws and/or policies is the first order of business and that the board cannot act validly without first having done so. It is also simply not logical or reasonable to expect a board of education to refrain from taking any action during its first or second meeting because it has not adopted rules. This does not mean that a board of education should indefinitely operate without rules. In this case, it was necessary for Loch Arbour to take certain actions, i.e., adopt its budget, which could not be delayed. Therefore, while the board of education does not need to adopt rules as its first act of business, as a matter of practice, the board should adopt rules early in its organization and must not operate indefinitely without adopting rules, policies and bylaws.

[4] Submission of affidavits pending the criminal history background check for board members is Department practice and policy for April elections or appointments. This policy was temporarily extended to apply to officials elected in November 2016 for the January 2017 reorganization meeting due to reports of vendor delays in processing the background checks. The temporary application of the policy to the November 2016 election was then rescinded in March 2017 since the delay and the timeframe no longer applied. The Department did not rescind the policy allowing submission of affidavits for April elections/appointments. Petitioner improperly relies on the March 2017 rescission of the temporary application of the policy to the November 2016 elections to argue that the rescission included April, when there is no evidence that the Department changed its policy regarding the April elections.

Accordingly, the Commissioner adopts the Initial Decision – as modified herein – and the petition of appeal is hereby dismissed with prejudice.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[5]

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 1/25/19
Date of Mailing: 1/25/19

[5] Pursuant to P.L. 2008, c 36 (N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1), Commissioner decisions are appealable to the Superior Court, Appellate Division.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION GRANTING RESPONDENT'S MOTION FOR SUMMARY DECISION AND DENYING PETITIONER'S MOTION TO AMEND ITS PETITION

OAL DKT. NO.: EDU 16799-17
AGENCY NO.: 213-9/17

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF OCEAN,

Petitioner,

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE VILLAGE OF LOCH ARBOUR, DR. LESTER RICHENS, ECS, AND DAVID JOYE, ECBA, Respondent.

Michael Gross, Esq., for petitioner Ocean Township Board of Education (Kenny, Gross, Kovats and Parton, attorneys)

James M. Hirshorn, Esq., for respondent Loch Arbour Board of Education (Sills Cummis & Gross, P.C., attorneys)

Record Closed: August 16, 2018 Decision: October 29, 2018

BEFORE SARAH G. CROWLEY, ALJ:

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The Commissioner of Education approved the application of Loch Arbour Township Board of Education (LABOE) to withdrawal from the Ocean Township School District OTSD in December 2016. After the new school district was set up, OTSD filed the instant petition with the Department of Education challenging LABOE's budgetary re-adoption, non-completion of criminal background checks, and failure to adopt bylaws.[1] The Department transmitted the matter to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) as a contested case. OTSD filed a motion to amend it petition, and LABOE filed a cross motion for summary decision and opposition to the motion to amend the petition. Oral Argument was heard by the parties on August 16, 2018, and the record closed at that time.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND AND SUMMARY OF CASE

This case arises out of the LABOE's petition to the Commissioner of Education to withdraw from Ocean Township School District, and its subsequent withdrawal from OTSD. On June 1, 2016, LABOE petitioned the Commissioner to submit to the voters of Loch Arbour the issue of withdrawing from Ocean Township School District. The Commissioner granted the petition on December 22, 2016. OTSD requested a stay in Superior Court, but the request was denied. On March 8, 2017, OTSD filed an emergent motion with the Appellate Division to stay the Commissioner's December 2016 decision, citing irreparable harm concerning the OTSD 2017-2018, budget and students being placed in send/receive relationships with other districts. This motion was also denied.

On April 4, 2017, Loch Arbour residents voted to approve the withdrawal from OTSD. April 10, 2017, a new LABOE was appointed by the Mayor of Loch Arbour. Loch Arbour board members submitted background check applications on April 26, 2017. The New Jersey Department of Education permitted school board members appointed in April to take office on May 1, prior to completing criminal history checks.

[1] The Commissioner approval was challenged in the Superior Court and the dismissal of that action is currently on appeal.

Investigator James Scarangelli of the Department's Criminal History Review Unit informed Loch Arbour Mayor, Paul Fernicola, that members could be sworn into office if each submitted an affidavit stating he/she had not been convicted of any crime enumerated in N.J.S.A. 18A:12-1. Paul Fernicola Cert., ¶ 6. All five members submitted an affidavit, and were sworn in as board members Simons Cert., ¶ 6.

On May 1, 2018, LABOE had its first organizational meeting, during which official positions were appointed, send/receive relationships with West Long Branch and Shore Regional school districts were discussed, and a tentative budget was approved. LABOE did not adopt bylaws, rules, or regulations at this initial meeting. On May 8, 2018, LABOE held a special meeting to finalize the budget. Notice for both meetings was provided to Coaster and Asbury Park Press via e-mail from the board's clerk, Marilyn Simons, stating notice was sent only for informational purposes and was not to be published.

On May 30, 2017, OTSD filed a complaint in Superior Court challenging LABOE's budgetary actions at the two May meetings on the basis that these meetings violated the Open Public Meetings Act (OPMA) because adequate notice was not provided. On June 19, 2017, while the Superior Court case was pending, the LABOE held another meeting to readopt its tentative and final budgets. Notice for this meeting was provided to and published by Asbury Park Press and the Coaster, in compliance with the OPMA. On August 7, 2017, Superior Court Judge Lisa Thorton dismissed OTSD's complaint ruling that LABOE corrected its OPMA violations at the June 19, 2017, meeting when the board retroactively adopted its budgets. Judge Thorton dismissed the remaining counts two-five of the complaint, those dealing with various violations of Title 18A and demanding judgment against the Department of Education, due to lack of jurisdiction.

The above FACTS are undisputed and are FOUND as FACTS.

LEGAL ANALYSIS

Summary decision is the administrative counterpart to summary judgment in the judicial arena. N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5 provides that summary decision should be rendered if the papers and discovery which have been filed, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact challenged and that the moving party is entitled to prevail as a matter of law. To defeat a summary decision motion, the adverse party must respond by affidavits setting forth specific facts showing that there is a genuine issue which can only be determined in an evidentiary hearing. Use of the summary procedure is aimed at the swift uncovering of the merits and either their effective disposition or their advancement toward a prompt resolution by trial. Judson v. Peoples Bank and Trust Co. of Wesfield, 17 N.J. 67, 74 (1954).

The New Jersey Supreme Court encouraged trial-level courts not to refrain from granting summary judgment when the proper circumstances present themselves. Brill v. Guardian Life Ins. Co. of Am., 142 N.J. 520, 541 (1995). While cautioning that a judge should not weigh the truth of the evidence or resolve factual disputes at this early stage of the proceedings, the Court clarified that when the evidence is so one-sided that one party must prevail as a matter of law, the trial court should not hesitate to grant summary judgment. Id. at 540. Appellate courts recognize that "[a]n evidentiary hearing is mandated only when the proposed administrative action is based on disputed adjudicatory facts." Contini v. Bd. of Educ. of Newark, 286 N.J. Super. 106, 120 (App. Div. 1995), certif. denied, 145 N.J. 372 (1996).

OTSD alleges that LABOE failed to comply with the Department of Education's budget submission deadline pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:7F-5(c), which states that each district board of education shall adopt a tentative budget on or before March 4 or March 20, depending on when school elections take place, to submit to the Commissioner for approval. However, the statute further states, "the commissioner may adjust the date for the submission of district budgets if the commissioner determines that the availability of preliminary aid numbers for the subsequent school year warrants such adjustment." Thus, if school aid data is unavailable before tentative budgets are due, the commissioner may change the date of submission to conform with the specific situation.

Ibid.; See, e.g. Abbott v. Burke, 206 N.J. 332, 418 (the Comm'r of Education adjusted budgetary due dates because of the governor's late budget press conference release).

The submission of a tentative budget is the first step in the school budgetary process. The proposed budget is reviewed by the Executive County Superintendent and, if approved, is sent back to the board for final adoption. Abbott, 206 N.J. at 417. Furthermore, N.J.S.A. 18A:22-32(b) permits a type II district that has "no board of school estimate" to determine its school budget by May 14 by a majority vote of its full board membership.[2]

LABOE timely adopted its 2017-2018 school budget by readopting its actions at the June 19, 2017, meeting. As stated above, N.J.S.A. 18A:7F-5(c) allows the Commissioner to adjust budget deadlines when preliminary aid numbers are unavailable. In this instance, LABOE formed its board of education after the March 20 tentative deadline. The vote regarding whether Loch Arbour should form an independent district was not even decided until April 4, 2017, well after the March budgets were due. Therefore, LABOE could not have submitted a tentative budget in compliance with the N.J.S.A. 18A:7F-5 deadlines. Moreover, the tentative budget submission date is not a firm date, as evidenced by the fact that OTSD failed to submit its budget on time and adopted its budget one day after the statutory due date. Here, the Commissioner utilized her power under N.J.S.A. 18A:7F-5(c) and changed the budgetary due date for LABOE, and ultimately approved the board's budget on May 4, 2017.

In accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:22-32(b), LABOE submitted its initial budget to the Executive County Superintendent on May 2, 2017, and he approved the budget on May 4, 2017. LABOE then held a special meeting on May 8, 2017 to adopt its final budget before the May 14 deadline. The Loch Arbour school board retroactively ratified both the initial and final budget on June 19, 2017. Thus, LABOE fully complied with the statutory deadline of May 14, 2017.

[2] Type II districts are classified as a school district "in a municipality other than a city, every consolidated local school district, and every regional school district, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A: 9-3, where board member are elected or appointed by the municipality, as applicable, and where in a school district without a board of school estimate the district board of education issues school bonds for school district capital projects, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:24-12. N.J.A.C. 6A: 26-1.2. Loch Arbour qualifies as a type II district because it is considered a village, rather than a city, and its school board was appointed by the municipality. LABOE was without a board of school estimate until its first meeting on May 1, 2017, after the April tentative budgets were due.

OTSD also argues that LABOE improperly adopted its school budgets because the May 1 and 8, 2017 meetings violated the OPMA, and therefore any actions taken at the meetings are void. Although the May meetings violated the OPMA because adequate notice was not provided to the public, the Superior Court determined that LABOE properly corrected its mistakes at a June 19, 2017 meeting by reviewing at ratifying its prior actions de novo. Thus, the Court determined that the May 1 and May 8, 2017 dates stand as when the initial and final budgets were adopted. As noted above, it was the decision of the Department to approve or reject LABOE's initial budget and the Department approved it. OTSD argues that LABOE did not properly establish its school board because members failed to have completed background checks prior to holding its first meeting on May 1, 2017. N.J.S.A. 18A:12-1 disqualifies from membership on school boards individuals who have committed any crime enumerated in the statute. N.J.S.A. 18A:12-1.2(a) specifically requires newly appointed members to undergo a criminal history background check within thirty days of their election or appointment. However, the statute does not require completion of a background check prior to acting as a school board. Rather, the statute simply requires that new members submit to a background check within thirty days of appointment. The legislature's comment to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-1.2 supports this view. The comment states that a school board member's only requirement prior to assuming office is to take an oath swearing he/she is not disqualified due to a conviction of a disqualifying crime. N.J. Senate Education Comm. Statement to S. 295 (Oct. 14, 2010), emphasis added. The comment further explains that each member must "within 30 days of election or appointment. . . undergo a criminal background check for the purpose of ensuring that member is not disqualified from membership due to a conviction of one of the specified crimes or offenses." Ibid., emphasis added. The legislature clearly differentiated between what is required prior to taking office and what must be completed within a particular time frame after assuming office. Nowhere in the statute nor in the Senate's commentary does it specify that completion of a criminal background check is required prior to taking action as a board member.

The Loch Arbour board was appointed on April 10, 2017. LABOE requested background checks on April 26, 2017 for its newly appointed members. This request was made within thirty days of the Board's appointment and satisfies N.J.S.A. 18A:12-1.2(a). Additionally, each of the five board members submitted affidavits before the initial meeting, certifying that they had not been convicted of any of the crimes enumerated in N.J.S.A. 18A:12-1. Background checks were completed on May 10, 2017 and confirmed the members' affidavits stating that none had been convicted of a disqualifying crime. Each LABOE member substantially complied with both N.J.S.A. 18A:12-1.2(a) and the legislature's purpose for requesting criminal background checks.

In addition to complying with the statute, LABOE acted in accordance with the Department of Education's instructions. On April 28, 2017, James Scarangelli of the Department's Criminal History Review Unit advised the board that certifications affirming members had not been convicted of a disqualifying crime were sufficient for members to hold a meeting on May 1, 2017, prior to background checks being completed. Paul Fernicola Cert. ¶ 6. The New Jersey School Board Association also reported the Department's position, releasing a statement which said,

> School board members elected to office for the first time on April 25 will have thirty days from the certification of election results (May 1) to complete criminal background checks. However, they may be sworn into office at the board's organization meeting, even if their criminal background checks are not completed, according to the New Jersey Department of Education's Criminal History Review Unit. Paul Fernicola Cert., Exh. 4.

LABOE properly followed the Department's instructions regarding criminal history checks.

The requirement for a properly constituted Board of Education are set forth in N.J.S.A. 18A:11-1, which provides as follows:

> The board shall—— > a. Adopt an official seal;

> b. Enforce the rules of the state board;
> c. Make, amend and repeal rules, not inconsistent with this title or with the rules of the state board, for its own government and the transaction of its business and for the government and management of the public schools and public school property of the district and for the employment, regulation of conduct and discharge of its employees, subject, where applicable, to the provisions of Title 11, Civil Service, of the Revised Statutes; and > d. Perform all acts and do all things, consistent with law and the rules of the state board, necessary for the lawful and proper conduct, equipment and maintenance of the public schools of the district.

OTSD argues that N.J.S.A. 18A:11-1(c) requires school boards to adopt bylaws, and a board cannot validly act until it has done so. LABOE argues that N.J.S.A. 18A:11-1(c) does not require a board to adopt bylaws, but rather, permits a board to adopt its own rules not inconsistent with the rules of the state board. The plain language of the statute does not provide sufficient information to determine its exact meaning, rather its ambiguous wording allows N.J.S.A. 18A:11-1(c) to be susceptible to dual meanings – either that a board must adopt its own rules that do not conflict with state regulations or if a board chooses to adopt rules, those rules must not conflict with state regulations. Despite this ambiguity, nowhere in the statutory language of N.J.S.A. 18A:11-1 does it say nor imply that the first thing a school board must do is adopt bylaws.

Both the agency and the legislature have been silent on this particular issue and therefore, provide little guidance as to which interpretation correctly corresponds with the law. Nor has a court specifically addressed whether N.J.S.A. 18A:11-1(c) requires boards to adopt rules or bylaws prior to taking any official action, however, the decisions that are available support local school boards' broad authority to carry out their responsibilities so long as their actions are not inconsistent with statute or state regulations. See e.g. Board of Education v. Union City, 112 N.J. Super. 493 (Law Div. 1970), aff'd, 118 N.J. Super. 435 (App. Div. 1972) ("Board of education is an independent corporate entity which manages the operation of the school system substantially free of control by the local governing body pursuant to N.J. Stat. Ann. §§ 18A:10-1 and 18A:11-1 et seq."); Porcelli v. Titus, 108 N.J. Super. 301 (App. Div. 1969), certif. denied, 55 N.J. 310 (1970) ("the broad discretionary powers vested in such boards with respect to the day-to-day functioning of the schools within their jurisdiction as provided for at N.J. Stat. Ann. § 18A:11-1").

Though the goal of interpreting statutes is to identify the intent of the legislature, rules of statutory construction are subordinate to the proposition that interpretation of a statute should not lead to absurd results. State v. Provenzano, 34 N.J. 318, 322 (1961). The interpretation argued by OTSD would lead to an absurd result. If a school board cannot take any action without first creating bylaws, then it cannot act in accordance with the other provisions of N.J.S.A. 18A: 11-1. Importantly, a board would not be able to "Perform all acts and do all things, consistent with law and the rules of the state board, necessary for the lawful and proper conduct, equipment and maintenance of the public schools of the district", including adopt a budget within statutory deadlines. N.J.S.A. 18A: 11-1(d). There are such situations, as here, where a school board may need to act in a short amount of time due to late elections and instituting its own bylaws prior to taking any other official action does not allow a board to do that. Taken as a whole, the statute supports the view that school boards must comply with the existing state board rules.

LABOE's interpretation of N.J.S.A. 18A:11-1 is consistent with the language in the statute. As Union City and Porcelli convey, boards have broad discretion to manage school affairs consistent with other state law.[3] Union City, 112 N.J. Super. 493; Porcelli, 108 N.J. Super. 301. These cases show that the most important aspect of bylaws is creating regulations consistent with existing laws. While it may be common practice among school boards to adopt its own bylaws, as OTSD asserts, LABOE is correct in stating that adoption of its own rules is not required and is certainly not required prior to making decisions as a board. LABOE's interpretation allows for school boards to obey all sections of N.J.S.A. 18A:11-1 and does not lead to an absurd result.

[3] Other case law addressing issues with N.J.S.A. 18A:11-1 state that once a school board has adopted bylaws, it must adhere to said rules until a quorum has voted to change the bylaws. See e.g., Matawan Regional Teachers Ass'n v. Matawan-Aberdeen Regional School Dist. Bd. of Educ., 223 N.J. Super. 504 (App. Div. 1988). However, that is not the issue in this case, as LABOE has not adopted any bylaws, rules or regulations.

CONCLUSION

Accordingly, I CONCLUDE that the that LABOE timely adopted its school budget in compliance with Title 18A, validly operated as a board despite incomplete criminal background checks prior to its initial meeting, and properly acted as a school board without first adopting bylaws. Therefore, I hereby deny OTSD's motion to amend its petition and grant LABOE's motion for summary decision.

ORDER

I hereby ORDER that LABOE's Motion for Summary Decision is hereby GRANTED and the Petition is hereby DISMISSED. I further ORDER that the motion to amend the petition is DENIED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

10/29/18
DATE

Sarah G. Crowley
SARAH G. CROWLEY, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: October 29, 2018 (emailed)

Date Mailed to Parties: October 30, 2018 (emailed)

SGC/mel

BEFORE THE COMMISSION OF EDUCATION OF NEW JERSEY DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

IN THE MATTER OF TENURE HEARING OF

JILL WEINREB,
Respondent

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF NEWARK, IN THE COUNTY OF ESSEX

Agency Docket No. 212-8/18

RE: SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

Dr. Andrée Y. McKissick
Arbitrator

APPEARANCES:

For the School District:
Arsen Zartarian, Esquire
Deputy General Counsel
The Newark Public Schools
Office of the General Counsel
765 Broad Street
Newark, New Jersey 07102-7139

For the Respondent:
Charles Auffant, Esquire
Stuart Ball, LLC
661 Franklin Avenue
Nutley, New Jersey 07110

BACKGROUND

After a series of conference calls and email correspondences, it was decided that interrogations shall be served by each party no later than September 21, 2018 and answered no later than October 2, 2018. In sum, all discovery shall be exchanged and completed by October 2, 2018. Tentative hearing dates have been scheduled for: October 16, October 29, October 30, November 1 and November 15, 2018. However, new hearing dates were

I, Dr. Andrée McKissick, do hereby affirm that I am the individual described in and who executed this instrument, which is my Opinion and Award.

DATE: January 18, 2019

Dr. Andrée McKissick

ARBITRATOR

C:/Tenured Hearing of Jill Weinreb Stettlement/Tenured Hearing of Jill Weinreb Stettlement.docx

later agreed upon. Those dates were: October 29, December 4, December 5, and December 6, 2018. On October 29, 2018, on our first hearing, it was at this juncture that a settlement was reached at Newark Public Schools, located at 765 Broad Street, Newark, New Jersey 07102-7139.

6A: 3-5.6 WITHDRAWAL, SETTLEMENT, OR MOOTING OF TENURE CHARGES

Pursuant to this provision, settlement requires approval by an arbitrator. The standards established by the State Board of Education in In re Cardonick, April 6, 1983 (1990 School Law Decisions (S.L.D.) 842, 846 are as follows:

1. Accompaniment by documentation as to the nature of the charges;
2. Explication of the circumstances justifying settlement or withdrawal;
3. Consent of both the charged and charging parties;
4. Indication the charged party entered into the agreement with a full understanding of his or her rights;
5. A showing the agreement is in the public interest and
6. If the charged party is a teaching staff member, a showing the teaching staff member has been advised of the Commissioner's duty to refer tenure determinations resulting in loss of position to the State Board of Examiners for possible suspension or revocation of certificate.

Consent of both Parties was freely given, as evidenced in the Settlement, itself. The public interest for this settlement is evidenced by New Jersey's broad and liberal discovery requirements. The acknowledgement of the duty to refer tenure determinations which results in a loss of position to the State Board of Examiners for possible suppression or revocation is also implicit in the Settlement Agreement. As referenced in Frank Cardonick v. Board of Education of the Borough of Brooklawn, Camden County and In the Matter of the Tenure Hearing of Frank Cardonick, School District of the Borough of Brooklawn, Camden County, EDU: 7093-81: 7094-81: 100-82, the New Jersey courts have looked with great favor upon voluntary resolution of litigation through settlement (see Judson v. Peoples Bank & Trust Co., 25 NJ 17 (1957); Honeywell v. Bubb, 130 NJ Super 130 (App. Div. 1974)). Thus, all of the substantive requirements of NJSA 6: A: 3-5-6 were satisfied.

THE SETTLEMENT

The Board of Education of the City of Newark (the "District"), with principal offices located at 765 Broad Street, Newark, New Jersey 07102-7139, and its successors, assigns, officers, employees, agents and representatives (collectively, "School District"), and Jill Weinreb ("Respondent"), (collectively, the "Parties") have voluntarily resolved all disputed matters and enter into the following: Stipulation of Settlement, which fully disposes of all issues in controversy between them in full and complete settlement of all outstanding issues as detailed below.

WHEREAS, Respondent is a tenured teaching staff member employed by the District as a teacher; and

WHEREAS, the Board of Education of the City of Newark ("Board") certified tenure charges of Inefficiency to the Commissioner of Education of the State of New Jersey, captioned In the Matter of Tenure Charges Against Jill Weinreb ("Tenure Charges"), Docket No. 212-8/18; and Respondent filed an Answer opposing the charges; and the Commissioner of Education accordingly referred the matter to Arbitrator A. Y. McKissick ("Arbitrator") for a hearing; and

WHEREAS, the District is concerned with the uncertainty of the outcome of arbitration as well as the expenditure of resources due to multiple days of hearings with numerous witnesses and that school personnel will be removed from their educational duties and responsibilities during that time; and

WHEREAS, the Parties are seeking prompt and final resolution of this matter; and

WHEREAS, Respondent has stated that her record of tardiness in the 2017/2018 academic year was due to a medical condition; and

WHEREAS, the Parties wish to resolve this matter in accordance with the terms set forth herein rather than proceed with arbitration; and

WHEREAS, the proposed Stipulation of Settlement is in the best interest of the Parties and the public because this agreement will avoid an uncertain conclusion after protracted and costly proceedings at the expense of the public;

NOW, THEREFORE, subject to approval by the Arbitrator, the Parties hereby agree as follows:

1. Upon final approval of the signed Stipulation by the District, the District shall and hereby does withdraw the instant Tenure Charges with prejudice.

2. Ms. Weinreb will be returned to work and/or the School District's payroll on Wednesday, October 31, 2018.

3. Ms. Weinreb's family health insurance together with all other benefits and emoluments of employment will be reinstated immediately but no later than Wednesday, October 31, 2018.

4. Ms. Weinreb will be assigned to teaching duties consistent with her educational certification and endorsements.

5. Ms. Weinreb will forego any claim to back pay for the period beginning with the Certification of Charges against her through October 30, 2018.

6. The Board agrees that it will not use Ms. Weinreb's 2017/2018 Annual Summative Evaluation as the basis for Tenure Charges against her.

7. This Stipulation, and all of its terms, are and will remain confidential to the maximum extent permitted by law. The parties understand that this provision is not a simple recital but is an important, integral part of this Stipulation. The District agrees that it will keep this Stipulation confidential to the extent permitted by law.

8. The Parties each acknowledge that counsel has advised them regarding this Stipulation and that each is signing this Stipulation freely and voluntarily, without duress, coercion or pressure from the other party, with full understanding of its terms and conditions and consents to the terms contained herein.

9. Each signatory to this Stipulation understands, acknowledges and agrees that this Stipulation constitutes the full agreement of the parties and may not be altered, amended, modified, or otherwise changed in any respect whatsoever except by a duly executed writing signed on behalf of both Parties.

10. This Stipulation shall be construed and enforced in accordance with New Jersey law. The Commissioner of Education and/or federal and state courts of the State of New Jersey, as applicable in accordance with such law, shall have exclusive jurisdiction over any dispute arising from, in connection with, or related to this Stipulation.

11. This Stipulation may be executed in counterparts with the same effect as if the signatures hereto and thereto were upon the same instrument. Each counterpart will be deemed an original, which taken together shall constitute a single instrument. Facsimile signatures or signatures in electronic Portable Document Format ("PDF") shall be construed and have the same force and effect as original signatures.

12. This Stipulation or any uncertainty or ambiguity therein shall not be construed against any party, but shall be construed as if both Parties to this Stipulation jointly prepared this Agreement.

13. Each party acknowledges that this is the entire agreement of the Parties concerning the subject matter of the foregoing paragraphs, and that there are no written or oral representations, understandings or agreements directly or indirectly connected with this Stipulation.

14. This Settlement shall not constitute a precedent in any matters involving other employees.

15. Except as noted above, Weinreb waives all past or present claims of any nature against the Board with regard to her employment with and/or her reinstatement from the Board including fees or other monetary relief, with the exception of workers' compensation claims.

16. By entering into this Settlement Agreement, and in exchange for good consideration as set forth in this Settlement Agreement, the sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, Weinreb hereby releases and discharges the School District, its Board of Education and its members, the Superintendent, and any and all other School District officers, employees, representatives, agents, successors and assigns (collectively, the "Released Parties") with respect to all claims or rights that she has or may have against the Board of the School District regarding her employment with the School District as of and up to the Effective Date. This includes without limitation, any and all actions, claims, and liabilities of whatsoever kind or character, in law or in equity, directly or indirectly related to Weinreb's employment with the School District and reinstatement to the School District arising out of this claim. It specifically includes, without limitation, all claims arising out of this claim which Weinreb may have regarding tenure, withholding of increment or salary, discrimination on any basis, any federal or state civil rights law, any alleged violation of the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, as amended; the Older Worker Benefits Protection Act; Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended; Sections 1981 through 1988 of Title 42 of the United States Code; the Civil Rights Act of 1991; the Equal Pay Act; the Americans with Disabilities Act; the Rehabilitation Act; the Family and Medical Leave Act; the Fair Labor Standards Act; the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended; the Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification Act; the National Labor Relations Act; the Fair Credit Reporting Act; the Occupational Safety and Health Act; the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Act; the Employee Polygraph Protection Act; the Immigration Reform Control Act; the retaliation provisions of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002; the Federal False Claims Act; the New Jersey Law Against Discrimination; the New Jersey Conscientious Employee Protection Act; the New Jersey Family Leave Act; the New Jersey Wage and Hour Law; the New Jersey Equal Pay Law; the New Jersey Occupational Safety and Health Law; the New Jersey Smokers' Rights Law; the New Jersey Genetic Privacy Act; the New Jersey Fair Credit Reporting Act; New Jersey Wages and Hours Law, unemployment compensations laws, disability benefits laws, the retaliation provisions of the New Jersey Workers' Compensation Law (and including any and all amendments to the above), the United States Constitution, the New Jersey Constitution and/or any other alleged violation of any federal, state or local law, regulation or ordinance, common law and/or contract or implied contract or collective bargaining/contractual claim or tort law or public policy or whistleblower claim which may have arisen out of this claim, including, but not limited to, any claim for wrongful discharge, back pay, front pay, vacation pay, sick pay, wage, commission or bonus payment, attorney's fees, costs, and/or future wage loss, except for workers' compensation claims and for health insurance continuation coverage under and pursuant to ("COBRA"). Weinreb agrees to save, hold harmless and indemnify the Released Parties for any legal costs and attorney's fees associated with the enforcement of the terms of this Settlement Agreement should enforcement become necessary.

17. Notwithstanding the above paragraph, it is understood and agreed that the parties are not prohibited from communicating with or participating in any administrative proceeding before the United States Department of Labor, the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, or any other federal, state or local law agency. Should any entity, agency commission or person file a charge, action, complaint or lawsuit against the Released Parties, or any of them, based upon any of the above-released claims in Paragraph 16, Weinreb agrees not to seek or accept any resulting relief whatsoever.

18. This Stipulation of Settlement is subject to the final approval of the Board of Education of the City of Newark and will only become effective upon the final approval of the Superintendent.

Dated: 11/2/18 (signed)
JILL WEINREB

STUART BALL, LLC

Dated: 11/2/18

(signed)
By: CHARLES AUFFANT, Esq.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF NEWARK, COUNTY OF ESSEX

Dated: 11/13/18

(signed)
By: JOSEPHINE C. GARCIA, Chair

CERTIFICATION OF CONSENT TO SETTLEMENT TERMS PURSUANT TO N.J.A.C. 6a:3-5.6(B):

Dated: 11/14/18

(signed)
Arsen Zartarian, Esq.
Attorney, Board of Education
Of the City of Newark

APPROVED:
Dated: January 18, 2019

A. Y. McKissick, Arbitrator

CERTIFICATION

I, Jill Weinreb, hereby certify that I have reviewed this Agreement and fully understand its meaning and terms. I acknowledge that my attorney questioned my understanding and verified my acceptance of the terms of this Agreement. I am satisfied with my representation and I enter into this Settlement Agreement voluntarily.

I certify that the foregoing statements made by me are true. I am aware that if any of the foregoing statements made by me are willfully false, I am subject to punishment.

DATED: 11/2/18

(signed)
Jill Weinreb

AFFIRMATION

31-19L

State of New Jersey
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION
PO BOX 500
TRENTON, NJ 08625-0500

PHILIP D. MURPHY
Governor

SHEILA Y. OLIVER
Lt. Governor

LAMONT O. REPOLLET, ED.D.
Commissioner

January 29, 2019

Matthew B. Wieliczko, Esq.
Zeller & Wieliczko
120 Haddontowne Court
Cherry Hill, New Jersey 08034

Louis J. Greco, Esq.
800 Route 50, Suite 2B
Mays Landing, New Jersey 08330

Re: Atlantic Cape Community College Organization of Supervisory and/or Administrative Personnel and Linda Desantis v. Atlantic Cape Community College. Agency Dkt. No. 316-12/18.

Dear Counsel:

I have reviewed the materials filed by the petitioners, Atlantic Cape Community College Organization of Supervisory and/or Administrative Personnel and Linda Desantis, and the respondent, the Atlantic Cape Community College (Community College), in the above-captioned matter. The petitioners are seeking an Order declaring that the Community College's decision to deny Linda Desantis her salary increments pursuant to the reclassification process was arbitrary, capricious and unreasonable.

Upon receipt of the petition of appeal, the Office of Controversies and Disputes directed the petitioners to advise the Office of the legal authority that provides the Commissioner of Education with jurisdiction over the Community College. The petitioners maintain that I have jurisdiction over this matter because under N.J.S.A. 18A:64A-13, "administrative officers other than the president of the county college are held to possess all the rights and privileges of teachers employed by local boards of education." As such, if a teacher employed by a local board of education has an avenue of review of arbitrary and capricious decision making of the board to the Commissioner, then an administrative officer of a county college has the same right and privilege.

After review and consideration of the submissions, I find that this matter is not properly before me. It is well settled that the Commissioner of Education's jurisdiction extends to controversies and disputes arising under New Jersey school law, excepting those governing higher education. N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9. Here, it is undisputed that the petitioners are seeking to challenge a decision made by the Community College, an institute of higher education. Despite the petitioners' assertions to the contrary, the statutory provisions they cite in support of their position do not afford me with jurisdiction over this matter. Notably, in their submission, the petitioners cite to case law challenging board action that involves appeals initiated by local board of education employees, not employees of a community college. Moreover, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18:3B-6f, the governing board of each public institute of higher education shall have final authority to determine controversies and disputes concerning personnel matters of employees, and the final administrative decision is appealable to the Superior Court, Appellate Division.[1]

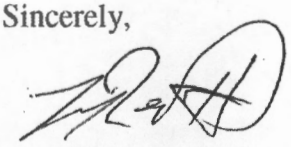
Therefore, I do not have jurisdiction over the dispute in this matter. Accordingly, the petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.[2]

Sincerely,



Lamont O. Repollet, Ed.D
Commissioner

c: County Superintendent
State Law Library

LOR/SLP/JKH

Via Regular Mail

---

[1] N.J.S.A. 18:3B-6f provides a mechanism whereby a dispute between an employee and an institute of higher education can be "assigned to an Administrative Law Judge, an independent hearing officer or to a subcommittee of the governing board for hearing and initial decision." Despite the petitioners' request that I transfer this matter to the Office of Administrative Law, I also have no jurisdiction over the process the governing board engages in when a personnel dispute arises.

[2] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to P.L. 2008, c. 36. (N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1).

KATE ROMEO,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE HIGH POINT REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT, SUSSEX COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

SYNOPSIS

The petitioner – a certified student assistance coordinator (SAC) employed in the respondent Board's school district prior to a Reduction in Force (RIF) – challenged the Board's decision to abolish her position. The petitioner argued that the Board violated N.J.S.A. 18A:40A-18 when it distributed her former duties to other existing staff members and contended that she is entitled to reinstatement as a SAC, with back pay and benefits. Further, petitioner maintained that she is also entitled to reinstatement as a teacher of psychology. The Board contended that its actions were consistent with law and regulations.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: petitioner's contention that N.J.S.A. 18A:40A-18 requires all SAC-related services to be provided only by a certificated SAC whose position is "separate and distinct" from any other positions in the school district is without merit; the legislative history of the statute reveals it was enacted in 1987 as a vehicle through which to pilot the introduction of SAC services to local school districts, and nowhere does the statute preclude a district from providing student assistance services through the use of properly certificated staff; the Board eliminated petitioner's position for legitimate reasons of economy, and distributed her duties among existing staff in a lawful manner; petitioner did not hold tenure as a teacher of psychology, as the record revealed that she did not deliver instruction to students under her certificate during the time she claims to have taught psychology during the 2011-2012 and 2012-2013 school years; and her claim to reinstatement as a teacher of psychology therefore lacks merit. Accordingly, the ALJ dismissed the petition of appeal.

Upon comprehensive review, the Commissioner concurred with the ALJ's findings and conclusions as thoroughly set forth in the Initial Decision. Accordingly, the recommended decision of the OAL was adopted as the final decision in this matter, and the petition of appeal was dismissed.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

January 29, 2019

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 8261-17
AGENCY DKT. NO. 100-5/17

KATE ROMEO,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE HIGH POINT REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT, SUSSEX COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed, as have the exceptions filed pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4 by the petitioner, Kate Romeo.[1]

The petitioner, a certified student assistance coordinator (SAC), is challenging the High Point Regional Board of Education's (Board) decision to abolish her position as a result of a reduction in force (RIF).[2] The petitioner maintains that she is entitled to reinstatement as a SAC because the Board's decision to distribute the duties she performed as a SAC to other existing staff members violates N.J.S.A. 18A:40A-18. Additionally, the petitioner contends that she is also entitled to reinstatement as a teacher of psychology. The Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) found that the Board's decision to abolish the petitioner's SAC position and distribute her duties among existing staff was not unlawful. The ALJ also determined that the petitioner has no right to reinstatement as a teacher of psychology because she did not acquire tenure as a teacher of psychology. As a result, the ALJ dismissed the petition of appeal.

[1] The Board submitted reply exceptions beyond the due date without seeking an extension to file late exceptions, therefore, they were not considered.

[2] The petitioner holds a certificate of eligibility with advance standing as a SAC and a certificate as a teacher of psychology.

In her exceptions, the petitioner argues that the Initial Decision should be rejected because N.J.S.A. 18A:40A-18 mandates that the SAC position must be "separate and distinct from any other employment positions in the District." Moreover, the SAC's duties may not be delegated to "the district guidance counselors, school social workers, and school psychologists." The petitioner stresses that N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-14.2 also states that "the SAC position shall be separate and distinct from any other employment position in the school." Therefore, the Board's decision to abolish the SAC position violated the relevant statutory and regulatory provisions.

Further, the petitioner contends that in reaching her decision, the ALJ ignored the most salient and material language from the lead case on this issue, Maren Bristol v. Northern Valley Reg'l. High School District, Bergen County, EDU 9053-03, Initial Decision, decided July 1, 2004, modified, Commissioner Decision No. 322-04, decided August 4, 2004. The Bristol, supra, decision deals with whether a school district, in the abstract, could subcontract the duties of the SAC to a third-party vendor or whether the duties must be performed in-house by a SAC. The ALJ should not have relied on that case because Bristol, supra, did not deal with the issue presented herein, which is whether employees within the District who do not hold a SAC certificate can perform the SAC duties. The Superintendent himself testified that employees who are not certified SACs are performing SAC duties in the District, including the behaviorist and members of the Child Study Team. This contravenes the statutory scheme and deprived the petitioner of the protection afforded her as a tenured teaching staff member under her SAC certificate. Moreover, the ALJ inappropriately relied on a footnote from the Bristol, supra, decision to support her determination that the programs and services required by statute need not be provided exclusively by a SAC.

The petitioner also alleges that the ALJ erroneously found that she was not entitled to reinstatement as a teacher of psychology. The petitioner acknowledges that she does not have tenure as a teacher of psychology. However, by virtue of the fact that she taught psychology for two years in the District at the alternative program under her teacher of psychology certificate, she has preference to any position that requires a teacher of psychology certificate over a non-tenured employee. The petitioner cites to case law that she contends supports her position and right to reinstatement as a psychology teacher. Therefore, the petitioner states that the Initial Decision should be rejected, and she should be found to have a right to the tenured SAC position and the ability to exercise her rights over a non-tenured teacher of psychology.

Upon a comprehensive review of the record in this matter, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ – for the reasons thoroughly set forth in the Initial Decision – that the Board's decision to abolish the petitioner's SAC position as part of a RIF did not violate N.J.S.A. 18A:40A-18. As the ALJ found, the relevant statutory and regulatory provisions require school districts to provide prevention, intervention and treatment programs and services, but do not require all school districts to employ a SAC. The statutory language requiring that school districts employ a SAC, separate and distinct from other district positions, derived from an optional pilot program that commenced in 1987 to introduce SAC services to local school districts.[3] Moreover, N.J.A.C. 6A9B-14.1 simply discusses the functions that the SAC endorsement authorizes the holder to perform.

Despite the petitioner's assertion to the contrary, the Initial Decision is also consistent with Bristol, supra. In Bristol, supra, the Commissioner found that the board of education violated

[3] In the Initial Decision, the ALJ correctly examined the Legislative History of N.J.S.A. 18A:40A-18 and explained why the petitioner's argument that all school districts must employ a SAC, separate and distinct from any other employment position, is a misinterpretation of the statute.

the SAC's tenure rights because the RIF was not for reasons of economy but rather was based on concerns about the petitioner's ability to provide the appropriate counseling services to students. Importantly, in Bristol, supra, the Commissioner stated:

> Irrespective of whether a local board of education chooses to hire a Substance Awareness Coordinator, all local boards are statutorily obligated to offer the prevention, intervention and treatment-referral programs and services required by N.J.S.A. 18A:40A-1 et seq. Thus, while a Board may be prudent to employ a Substance Awareness Coordinator to assist it in meeting its broad statutory responsibilities, there is presently no requirement for it to do so. Consequently, the programs and services compelled by the imposition of these mandates need not, as petitioner argues, be provided exclusively by a Substance Awareness Coordinator, or, necessarily, a district employee. [Id. at 3]

Here, it is undisputed that the District effectuated a RIF for budgetary concerns and a decline in student enrollment. It is likewise uncontroverted that the employees who are performing the petitioner's prior duties are eligible to provide these services under their respective certificates. Therefore, the Board's decision to abolish the petitioner's SAC position for economic reasons, and to reassign her duties to existing employees, was not a violation of the statutory and regulatory provisions.

The Commissioner is also in accord with the ALJ's determination that the petitioner has no right to reinstatement to a teacher of psychology position.[4] In her exceptions, the petitioner concedes that she does not have tenure under her instructional certificate, and instead appears to argue that since she has worked in the District under her teacher of psychology certificate, she should be entitled to a position over another non-tenured staff member. First, the ALJ properly found that the work performed by the petitioner in the alternative program was actually under her [4] The petitioner's tenure status under her substance awareness coordinator certificate does not entitle her to tenure under her teacher of psychology certificate. See, Dennery v. Passaic City Reg'l High Sch. Dist., 131 N.J. 626 (1993) (Tenure earned under one certificate does not transfer to another certificate; instead the staff member must serve for the requisite time under the certificate in question.).

SAC certificate and constituted group counseling rather than curriculum-based instruction in psychology.[5] Even assuming arguendo, that the petitioner did work in the District under her psychology certificate, her argument that she has a right to a teacher of psychology position is completely inconsistent with the tenets of seniority. "Seniority provides a mechanism for ranking all tenured teaching staff members so that reductions among the tenured force can be effected in an equitable fashion and in accord with sound educational policies." Capodilupo v. West Orange Bd of Educ., 218 N.J. Super. 510, 514 (App Div 1987) certif. denied, 109 N.J. 514 (1987). It is well established that seniority rights are not triggered until tenure is acquired, and the petitioner admits that she does not have tenure as a teacher of psychology. Therefore, the petitioner has no right to reinstatement as a teacher of psychology.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision is adopted as the final decision in this matter and the petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[6]

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 1/29/19

Date of Mailing: 1/29/19

[5] The ALJ heard testimony from the petitioner and the Board's Superintendent regarding the nature of the petitioner's work at the alternative program between 2011 and 2013, and – based on the evidence in the record – determined that the work performed by the petitioner was not under her instructional certificate.

[6] Pursuant to P.L. 2008, c. 36 (N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1), Commissioner decisions are appealable to the Superior Court, Appellate Division.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 08261-17
AGENCY DKT. NO. 100-5/17

KATE ROMEO,
Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE HIGH POINT REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT, SUSSEX COUNTY,
Respondent.

Sanford Oxfeld, Esq., for petitioner (Oxfeld Cohen, attorneys)

Brent Polhman, Esq., for respondent (Methfessel and Werbel, attorneys)

Record Closed: November 26, 2018 Decided: December 17, 2018

BEFORE ELLEN S. BASS, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner, Kate Romeo, is a certificated student assistance coordinator (SAC), and teacher of psychology who was formerly employed by the respondent, High Point Regional Board of Education (the Board).[1] She appeals the action of the Board terminating her employment effective September 2017, pursuant to a reduction in force (RIF), and asserts that she is entitled to reinstatement and back pay. The Board replies that its actions were consistent with law and regulation.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

This matter arose with the filing of a petition of appeal by Romeo on May 25, 2017. The Board filed an answer on June 9, 2017, and the matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law as a contested case on June 12, 2017. The case was initially assigned to Judge Joan Bedrin-Murray; upon her elevation to the Tax Court, the matter was reassigned to me on December 15, 2017. A hearing was conducted on August 8, 2018. Post-hearing submissions were filed on November 21 and 26, 2018, at which time the record closed.

Prior to the August hearing, I conferred several times with counsel via telephone conference. I asked whether the outcome of this case, if favorable to Romeo, could implicate the employment of other school district staff. I was repeatedly advised that it was unnecessary to provide notice to potential intervenors, and that the Board did not anticipate that my decision would affect the jobs of other district employees.

I renewed my concern at the hearing. I was again advised that my decision was unlikely to affect other staff members; and that if it did, the Board could not presently advise who might be affected. Counsel urged that the Board was facing additional budget deficits and could not presently predict how it would juggle staffing if Romeo were to prevail. For this reason, no notice was supplied to potential intervenors, as required by N.J.A.C. 1:1-16.4.

ISSUES PRESENTED

The petition raises the following issues for determination:

[1] Her certificate reads "Substance Awareness Coordinator"; the position's title was changed statutorily, but the work authorized by the certificate remains the same. See: L. 2009, c. 54 §4, eff. May 6, 2009.

1. Whether the duties previously performed by Romeo as an SAC have been distributed among existing staff members, and if so, did the action of the Board in doing so contravene N.J.S.A. 18A:40A-18?

2. If so, is Romeo entitled to reinstatement and back pay?

3. Whether Romeo served during the 2011–2012 and 2012–2013 school years under her Teacher of Psychology certificate, and if so, did she earn tenure and seniority as a teacher of psychology?

4. If so, are there psychology classes presently being taught by less senior teachers to which Romeo should have been assigned?

FINDINGS OF FACT

Stipulated Facts

The parties were able to agree to the following background facts via a joint stipulation. I FIND:

1. The Board operates a comprehensive four-year public high school, which educates students in ninth through twelfth grades, for the following constituent Sussex County school districts: Branchville Borough, Frankford Township, Lafayette Township, Sussex Borough, and Wantage Township. Students from Montague Township also attend High Point pursuant to a sending/receiving agreement.

2. Romeo began her employment with the Board on September 1, 2008, as a substance awareness coordinator, and remained in that position until June 30, 2017.

3. She was employed as a SAC for the Livingston School District during the 2017–2018 school year.

4. Romeo is employed as a SAC for the 2018–2019 school by the Vernon public schools.

5. On June 7, 2013, Romeo filed a grievance seeking compensation for teaching one period weekly in an alternative-education program.

6. On June 17, 2013, Dr. Terrance Brennan denied the grievance.

7. The grievance proceeded to the Personnel and Policy Committee of the Board.

The Testimony

The SAC

It is uncontroverted, and I FIND, that Romeo holds a Certificate of Eligibility with Advanced Standing as a SAC, and a Standard Certificate as a Teacher of Psychology. She held both certificates at the time she commenced her employment with the Board. As a SAC, Romeo supported anyone in the school community who was in crisis, including students and staff. She counseled students on addiction issues and was available to address concerns about student suicide.

Her full-time employment was terminated effective June 30, 2017. In the spring of 2017, Romeo was the president of the local teachers' association, and had been made aware that staff cuts were anticipated in the school district. She was invited in her capacity as president to discuss the impending cuts with the superintendent; Romeo was completely blindsided when the conversation turned to reducing her job as well. She was presented with a letter dated March 8, 2017, indicating that she would be reduced to a 2/5 position. She would no longer be eligible for health benefits. By the time Romeo attended a Board meeting on April 25, 2017, the agenda reflected that the recommendation of the superintendent was to only reduce the SAC position to 3/5, which would have permitted Romeo to maintain her health benefits. After a recess, the Board acted on the staff reductions. To her surprise, the Board cut the SAC position entirely; Romeo learned she would be unemployed simultaneously with the public.

Superintendent of schools Scott Ripley explained that the district was struggling with budget constraints and decreasing enrollments.[2] In 2008, there were 1,469 students in the school district; by 2017 there were only 920. During the intervening years, staff levels had remained static. Ripley and the Board were thus forced to analyze budget figures, enrollments, tax revenues, and staffing needs. A letter from Ripley dated April 28, 2017, appears intended to assuage public concern about the impact the reductions would have on school programs and services. Ripley advised the High Point community that during the 2017–2018 school year, "[a] full-time crisis counselor/behaviorist who has many years of experience working as a counselor, and working with adolescents battling substance abuse," would be employed by the school district. The district would continue to employ "[f]ive exceptional guidance counselors, one of whom is a certified SAC with experience in this field." And the district would have other interventions available to assists students, to include an Intervention and Referral Services Team, a special disciplinary approach known as "restorative practices," and an enhanced Child Study Team that would include two psychologists.

Edward Blevins has been employed by the Board since 1999, in a variety of capacities. For approximately the last three years, he has worked as a behaviorist. He holds certification in Pupil Personnel Services and Elementary Education, and as a Teacher of the Handicapped. Blevins confirmed that some of the duties that were previously performed by Romeo have now fallen on him. He attends monthly County SAC meetings and has referred to himself as a school substance counselor in emails. His business card uses the title "Crisis and Substance Use Counselor"; these clearly, previously, were Romeo's roles. An email discussing abuse of vapes in schools directs concerned individuals to Blevins. And students and staff in crisis, or who have substance or mental-health concerns, come to him for assistance. Guidance performs the prevention components of drug interventions in the school; this too was previously handled by Romeo. Lisa Frisbie is currently employed as a guidance counselor, but had been previously employed by the school district as a SAC.

[2] Ripley has been employed by the district for about twenty-one years, and in a variety of prior roles, to include teacher, assistant principal, and director of curriculum.

Ripley likewise confirmed that although the district no longer employs a full-time SAC, the supportive services typically offered by a SAC remain available in the district. Students or staff can direct crisis or drug and alcohol concerns to case managers, the behaviorist, and five guidance counselors. It is thus uncontroverted, and I FIND, that the interventions offered by Romeo were still available during the 2017–2018 school year, having been distributed among existing staff, none of whom worked exclusively as a SAC.

The Alternative School Program

Romeo contends that she provided instruction to students under her Teacher of Psychology certification during the 2011–2012 and 2012–2013 school years at the High School Alternative School Program. Ripley shared that this program was created to serve special-education students at risk of dropping out; it was a self-contained special-education program and instruction was supplied by a special-education teacher. Eventually the program was expanded to include "push-in" services; these are services integrated into the classroom setting that would aid the students in transitioning post-graduation. While Ripley had limited involvement with the Alternative School Program during the 2011–2012 school year, during the next year he served as director of curriculum and was very well versed in the particulars of the program.

Ripley was quite firm that Romeo's work was a "push-in" service rather than instruction that required that she utilize her Teacher of Psychology certificate. She went into the transitional classroom one period per week to provide life-skills instruction and offer transitional resources to her students. Ripley pointed out, persuasively, that offering a psychology class to students would have required development of a formal curriculum, and formal approval of that curriculum, none of which took place.

Romeo urged that she was indeed teaching psychology during the 2011–2012 and 2012–2013 school years. Romeo shared the history of a grievance filed in 2013, in which she sought additional compensation under a provision of the collective-negotiations agreement that offered such compensation to a teacher who taught a sixth class.[3] She sought remuneration for one-fifth of a sixth period, insofar as she met with the students once per week. On May 24, 2013, director of special services Rosalie Haller advised the superintendent of schools that the work done by Romeo in the alternative program was "counseling," and part of her responsibilities as a SAC. Haller reiterated that view in a June 3, 2013, memorandum. The grievance was denied by the then superintendent of schools, Dr. Terrance Brennan, on June 17, 2013. It was in turn appealed to the Personnel and Policy Committee of the Board, which granted the grievance via letter dated August 28, 2013. Unfortunately, however, that letter offered no insight into the rationale for granting the grievance. But Romeo contends that the grievance result lends clear support to her claims.

She additionally explained that she taught her students about the biology of emotions like sadness or anger and used this as a vehicle for instruction on self-regulation. She taught them about character traits, recalling that the effect of birth order on personality was of interest to the students. She disagreed that the work she performed was counseling. But she also conceded that the work was performed in a rather unstructured environment, and that although she was teaching special-education students she was unware of any IEP goals related to the instruction she offered. And although Romeo indicated that she prepared lesson plans and was observed and evaluated, she produced copies of neither.

Romeo and Ripley thus offered diametrically opposed viewpoints of the nature of Romeo's work during the two school years in question. Both were credible and sincere witnesses. But Ripley's understanding of the parameters of the position simply made more sense. It was compelling that there was no curriculum attached to the position. Equally compelling was the fact that the "class" met only once per week and was part of a self-contained special-education program. Romeo was unaccompanied by any other instructional staff during her time with the students, but does not hold certification as a special-education teacher. For all these reasons, I FIND that the work performed by Romeo in the alternative program was under her SAC certification and constituted group counseling rather than curriculum-based instruction in psychology.

[3] The normal workload for teachers is five instructional periods; if assigned a sixth class, they are entitled to extra compensation.

Jacqueline McCarthy is a non-tenured teacher who holds certification as a Teacher of Social Studies. She utilizes that certificate to teach a course in behavioral science, and a course in honors behavioral science. Because students in the honors class can sit for the AP Psychology examination, McCarthy was sent for training so that she could structure her class presentation to allow her students to properly prepare. Romeo believes that this is a course that she could teach, and that the Board was required to offer these classes to her. The Board contends that McCarthy teaches under her social studies certification, and that these are not courses in psychology. It is unnecessary that I resolve this factual dispute, as Romeo is not entitled to assignment to the classes in question regardless, as will be more fully explained below.

ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Romeo's Entitlement to Reinstatement as a SAC

The prerogative of the Board to reduce force is well established. N.J.S.A. 18A:28-9 provides that > [n]othing in this title or any other law relating to tenure of service shall be held to limit the right of any board of education to reduce the number of teaching staff members, employed in the district whenever, in the judgment of the board, it is advisable to abolish any such positions for reasons of economy or because of reduction in the number of pupils or of change in the administrative or supervisory organization of the district or for other good cause upon compliance with the provisions of this article.

Subsequent to a RIF, a teaching staff member's right to recall is governed by N.J.S.A. 18A:28-11 and N.J.A.C. 6A:32-5.1.

Romeo does not contend that the decision to RIF her was grounded in bad faith, or that the Board continues to employ a SAC who holds less seniority in the school district.[4] Rather, she contends that the statute requires that all SAC-related services in a school district be provided only by a certificated SAC whose position is "separate and distinct from any other employment positions in the District." She thus contends that the action of the Board in redistributing her duties violates the requirements of N.J.S.A. 18A:40A-18 and is ultra vires.

Romeo has misinterpreted the import and meaning of this statute. N.J.S.A. 18A:40-18 was enacted in 1987 as a vehicle through which to pilot the introduction of SAC services in local school districts. The Senate Statement provides that > [u]nder the bill's provisions, a local school board which wants to participate in the pilot program would submit a proposal to the commissioner which outlines the district's plan to provide alcohol and drug abuse prevention, intervention and treatment services to students through the employment of a substance awareness coordinator. The Commissioner is to select 120 school districts to participate in the program and the State will pay the salary of the coordinator for a three-year period.

>
> [Senate Bill No. 2684, October 23, 1986.]

Consistent with the Senate Statement, the statutory language offers districts the option to participate in this program; if they do so, the statute stipulates that a funded SAC position must be separate and distinct from other district positions. The statute reads:

> The Commissioner of Education, in consultation with the Commissioner of Health, shall develop and administer a program which provides for the employment of student assistance coordinators in certain school districts.
>
> a. Within 90 days of the effective date of this act, the Commissioner of Education shall forward to each local > school board a request for a proposal for the employment of a student assistance coordinator. A board which wants to participate in the program shall submit a proposal to the commissioner which outlines the district's plan to provide substance abuse prevention, intervention, and treatment referral services to students through the employment of a student assistance coordinator. Nothing shall preclude a district which employs a student assistance coordinator at the time of the effective date of this act from participating in this program. The commissioner shall select school districts to participate in the program through a competitive grant process. The participating districts shall include urban, suburban, and rural districts from the north, central, and southern geographic regions of the State with at least one school district per county. In addition to all other State aid to which the local district is entitled under the provisions of other pertinent statutes, each board of education participating in the program shall receive from the State, for a three-year period, the amount necessary to pay the salary of its student assistance coordinator.

[4] The parties appear to agree that Romeo was tenured as a SAC, notwithstanding the fact that she did not hold standard certification. In any event, this issue was not raised before me. The focus of Romeo's claim is her interpretation of the Board's obligations under N.J.S.A. 18A:40-18.

>
> b. The position of student assistance coordinator shall be separate and distinct from any other employment position in the district, including, but not limited to district guidance counselors, school social workers, and school psychologists. The State Board of Education shall approve the education and experience criteria necessary for employment as a student assistance coordinator. The criteria shall include a requirement for certification by the State Board of Examiners. In addition to the criteria established by the State board, the Department of Education and the Department of Health shall jointly conduct orientation and training programs for student assistance coordinators and shall also provide for continuing education programs for coordinators.

The statute nowhere precludes a district from providing student-assistance services by using other properly certificated staff. Consistent with the plain statutory language, the Commissioner has held that > assist it in meeting its broad statutory responsibilities, there is presently no requirement for it to do so. Consequently, the programs and services compelled by the imposition of these mandates need not, as petitioner argues, be provided exclusively by a Substance Awareness Coordinator, or, necessarily, a district employee.

> [i]rrespective of whether a local board of education chooses to hire a Substance Awareness Coordinator, all local boards are statutorily obligated to offer the prevention, intervention and treatment-referral programs and services required by N.J.S.A. 18A:40A-1 et seq. Thus, while a Board may be prudent to employ a Substance Awareness Coordinator to

>
> [Maren Bristol v. N. Valley Bd. of Educ., EDU 09053-03, Initial Decision, (July 1, 2004), modified, Comm'r (August 4, 2004), http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/.]

Accordingly, I CONCLUDE that this record reveals nothing improper or illegal about the action of the Board in abolishing Romeo's SAC position. The Board eliminated Romeo's position for legitimate reasons of economy and distributed her duties among existing staff. Its action in doing so was compliant with N.J.S.A. 18A:28-9.[5]

Romeo's Entitlement to Reinstatement as a Teacher of Psychology

Romeo seeks reinstatement to a position as a teacher of psychology. But I CONCLUDE that Romeo did not hold tenure as a teacher of psychology; for this reason, she has no viable claim to reinstatement.[6] N.J.S.A. 18A:28-1 to -18 defines the conditions under which teaching staff members are entitled to the security of tenure. Tenure is a "statutory right imposed upon a teacher's contractual employment status." Zimmerman v. Newark Bd. of Educ., 38 N.J. 65, 72 (1962), cert. den., 371 U.S. 956 (1963). These statutory provisions supersede contractual terms. Spiewak v. Rutherford Bd. of Educ., 90 N.J. 63, 72 (1982). They are "designed to aid in the establishment of a competent and efficient school system by affording to principals and teachers a measure of security in the ranks they hold after years of service." Viemeister v. Prospect Park Bd. of Educ., 5 N.J. Super. 215, 218 (App. Div. 1949).

---

[5] The prerogative of the Board to reassign a "riffed" employee's duties to existing staff is well established. See, e.g., Polaha v. Buena Reg. Bd. of Educ., 85 S.L.D. 1982; Cinnaminson Teachers' Ass'n v Cinnaminson Bd. of Educ., 83 S.L.D. 758, aff'd 84 S.L.D. 1915; Lippincott v. Watchung Hills Reg. Bd. of Educ., 80 S.L.D. 857.

[6] And it is for this reason that the factual question of whether Jacqueline McCarthy teaches psychology, as opposed to social studies, is of no moment. Nor does it matter whether, as the Board contends, it presently offers no classes in the area of psychology. Without tenure, Romeo has no claim regardless.

The "position" in which a teaching staff member achieves tenure is either one of the specifically designated positions in N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5 or other employment for which an appropriate certificate is required. Ellicott v. Frankford Twp. Bd. of Educ., 251 N.J. Super. 342, 347 (App. Div. 1991); Howley v. Ewing Bd. of Educ., 1982 S.L.D. 1328, 1339, aff'd, 1983 S.L.D. 1554; Capodilupo v. W. Orange Bd. of Educ., 218 N.J. Super. 510, 514 (App. Div.), certif. den., 109 N.J. 514 (1987). The system of educational certificates established by the New Jersey Department of Education provides for three distinct types of certificates: the Instructional Certificate, the Educational Services Certificate, and the Administrative Certificate. N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-5.2 et seq. Endorsements on these certificates specify the categories within which an individual is authorized to provide service in a public school. Romeo's service as a SAC was under an Educational Services Certificate. Romeo's Teacher of Psychology credential is an endorsement to an Instructional Certificate.

Our Supreme Court has held that tenure earned under one certificate does not transfer to another; the staff member must serve for the requisite time under the certificate in question. Dennery v. Passaic Cty. Reg'l High Sch. Dist., 131 N.J. 626 (1993). The Court confirmed that tenure protection is earned only if a staff member "works in a position for which a teaching certificate is required; . . . holds the appropriate certificate; and . . . has served the requisite period of time." Id. at 638.

Romeo claims to have taught psychology during the 2011–2012 and 2012–2013 school years only. The record reveals that she did not deliver instruction to students using her instructional certificate during the years in question. I thus CONCLUDE that she could not have earned tenure under her Instructional Certificate, and that her claim to reinstatement lacks merit. But even assuming, for argument's sake, that Romeo did teach psychology at the Alternative School Program, she simply did not serve long enough in that role to earn tenure. The Board correctly points out that her right to tenure would be governed by N.J.S.A. 18A:28-6, which provides that, where a tenured staff member is transferred to another position, tenure is earned after "employment for two academic years in the new position together with employment in the new position at the beginning of the next succeeding academic year."[7] She was not reemployed in the controverted alternative school position for the 2013–2014 year. I thus CONCLUDE that Romeo did not earn tenure in that position, even if it was a Teacher of Psychology position. See King v. Keansburg Bd. of Educ., 84 S.L.D. 922, 927. I moreover CONCLUDE that even if, for argument's sake, the Board is offering its students classes in psychology, Romeo could have no possible claim to assignment to those classes.

ORDER

Based on the foregoing, the petition of appeal is DISMISSED.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

[7] If Romeo was not tenured as a SAC, the time frame for tenure acquisition would have been even longer. See N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, P.O. Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

December 17, 2018

DATE

ELLEN S. BASS, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: December 17, 2018

Date Mailed to Parties: December 19, 2018

sej

APPENDIX

WITNESSES

For Petitioner:

Kate Romeo
Jacqueline McCarthy
Edward Blevins

For Respondent:

Scott Ripley

EXHIBITS

For Petitioner:

P-1 Certificates
P-2 Letter dated March 8, 2017
P-3 Board agenda
P-4 Letter dated April 28, 2017
P-5 Emails dated January 22, 2018
P-6 Board policies
P-7 Grievance packet from 2013
P-8 High Point Employee List
P-9 Professional development activities for Board agenda
P-10 Email to staff
P-11 Business card
P-12 Clarification of P-8

For Respondent:

R-1 Request for Answers to Interrogatories
R-2 Answers to Interrogatories
R-3 Coordinator records

R-4 Memorandum dated April 4, 2017

R-5 Reemployment letter

R-6 Revision to reemployment letter

R-7 Collective Negotiations Agreement

J.H., ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILDREN, J.S. AND Z.H.,

PETITIONER,

V.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF NEPTUNE, MONMOUTH COUNTY,

RESPONDENT.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

DECISION

Synopsis

Petitioner filed a pro se residency appeal on behalf of her children, seeking a determination that J.S. and Z.H. were entitled to a free public education in Neptune schools. The respondent Board contended that a residency investigation indicated that petitioner and her children are not domiciled at the Neptune address provided to the school district, but rather are domiciled out of district, at an address in Brick Township, New Jersey. The Board filed a counterclaim for tuition for the period of the children's ineligible attendance.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b)(2), a petitioner has the burden of proof in a determination of residency ineligibility; in this matter, a hearing was scheduled for September 12, 2018; J.H. subsequently notified the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) that she had moved her children out of the Neptune school district and had withdrawn the petition; petitioner failed to appear at the previously scheduled hearing, wherein Neptune presented proofs relative to its tuition claim; petitioner later contacted the OAL to object to the tuition reimbursement demanded by the Board; the record was reopened to give the petitioner an opportunity to appear and submit opposition to the tuition cost, but petitioner once again failed to appear at a second hearing held on December 5, 2018 and offered no explanation for her nonappearance. The ALJ concluded that the Board's residency determination should be upheld, and the petition of appeal dismissed pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.4. Further, the ALJ concluded that the Board is entitled to tuition reimbursement in the amount of $13,350.25 for the period of J.S. and Z.H.'s ineligible attendance from January 12, 2018 through June 21, 2018. The ALJ recommended dismissal of the petition with prejudice.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurred with the findings and conclusions of the ALJ, and adopted the Initial Decision of the OAL as the final decision in this matter, with minor modification to the amount of tuition due. Petitioner was ordered to reimburse the Board in the amount of $13,350.53. The petition was dismissed with prejudice.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

January 30, 2019

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 06400-18
AGENCY DKT. NO. 86-4/18

J.H., ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILDREN, J.S. AND Z.H.,	:
PETITIONER,	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
V.	:	DECISION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF NEPTUNE, MONMOUTH COUNTY,	:
RESPONDENT.	:

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed.[1] The parties did not file exceptions.

Upon such review, the Commissioner concurs with the Administrative Law Judge's (ALJ) finding that because petitioner failed to appear at the December 5, 2018 OAL hearing without providing an explanation – after the court rescheduled the hearing following petitioner's previous failure to appear on September 12, 2018 – the petition of appeal is dismissed with prejudice.[2]

In accordance with N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.4(d), the ALJ held an ex parte hearing, during which the Board presented proofs relative to its tuition claim. The Commissioner concurs with the ALJ's assessment of tuition – pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1b – against petitioner for the period of ineligible attendance by her minor children in Neptune. Therefore, the Board is entitled to tuition reimbursement in the amount of $13,350.53 [3] ($70.56 per day for 88 days plus $353.09 for summer school for J.S., and $70.71 per day for 96 school days for Z.H.) for the time period from January 12, 2018 through June 21, 2018, during which time the minor children were ineligible to attend school in Neptune.

[1] The Commissioner was not provided with transcripts of the September 12, 2018 or December 5, 2018 hearings at the OAL.

[2] The Commissioner notes that petitioner had previously advised the OAL that although she wanted to withdraw her appeal due to the relocation of her children to another District, she intended to object to the assessment of tuition.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision of the OAL is adopted as the final decision in this matter, as modified herein, and the petition of appeal is hereby dismissed. Petitioner is directed to reimburse the Board in the amount of $13,350.53 for tuition costs incurred during the time period that the minor children were ineligible to attend school in Neptune.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[4]

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 1/30/19

Date of Mailing: 1/30/19

[3] The ALJ found that the petitioner owed the Board $13,350.25 – a difference of $.28 from the Commissioner's calculation – due to the difference in rounding of the daily tuition cost.

[4] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to P.L. 2008, c. 36 (N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1).

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 6400-18
AGENCY DKT. NO. 86-4/18

J.H. ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILDREN, J.S. AND Z.H.,
Petitioners,
v.
TOWNSHIP OF NEPTUNE BOARD OF EDUCATION, MONMOUTH COUNTY,
Respondent.

No appearance by petitioner

Margaret A. Miller, Esq., for respondent (Weiner Law Group LLP, attorneys)

Record Closed: December 5, 2018 Decided: December 19, 2018

BEFORE MARY ANN BOGAN, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner appeals the determination of the respondent, Township of Neptune Board of Education ("the Board"), that J.S. and Z.H. are not domiciled in its district. The Board seeks an order affirming the disenrollment of J.S. and Z.H., and directing all back-tuition charges for the days of attendance from the first day of illegal attendance to the date of actual removal of J.S. and Z.H. The Board further requests all cost of litigation including reasonable attorney's fee.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Petitioner filed an appeal with the Department of Education ("the Department") on April 9, 2018. The Board filed an answer on May 1, 2018. The matter was transmitted and filed at the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) where on May 3, 2018, it was filed as a contested case. N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15; N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13. Subsequently, the petitioner failed to participate in a prescheduled telephone prehearing. Thereafter, petitioner notified the OAL that she removed her children out of district and withdrew her appeal. All parties were served notice of proof hearing date. On September 12, 2018, Board appeared for the proof hearing, and petitioner failed to appear and did not contact the OAL that day to provide a reason for her nonappearance. On September 14, 2018, petitioner contacted the OAL objecting to the tuition cost. The record was reopened to give petitioner an opportunity to submit opposition to the tuition cost and to appear. All parties were served with a new date to appear, but petitioner failed to appear and prosecute her appeal of the Board's demand for tuition and she failed to advise the OAL of the reason for her nonappearance. The record closed on December 5, 2018.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION

At the hearing, the Board offered a packet of documentary evidence (R-1 – R-11), and the testimony of Peter Barlett, Assistant Business Administrator and Board Secretary, in support of its claim to tuition reimbursement. Based on the documentary and testimonial evidence presented to me, I FIND the following FACTS:

1. J.S. was a sixth-grade general education school student and Z.H. was a preschool student in the Neptune schools.

2. The Board determined that J.S. and Z.H. were not domiciled in Neptune commencing January 12, 2018. (R-1.)

3. During the time period from January 12, 2018 through June 21, 2018, the District charged petitioner for the days of attendance, when petitioner's children were not domiciled in Neptune. During this time period, J.S., a sixth grade student attended school for eighty-eight days, and Z.H., a pre-school student attended school for ninety-six days. J.S. also attended summer school.

4. The annual per pupil cost for a general education school student in the same grade as J.S. is $12,700 and for Z.H. is $12,728. (R-10.)

5. The daily tuition rate for a general education school student in the same grade as J.S. is $70.56 and for Z.H. is $70.71. This is calculated by dividing the per pupil cost by 180. (R-10.)

6. J.S. also attended summer school. The tuition for summer school totaled $3,530.92 for ten students. The summer school per pupil cost is $353.09.

7. As of June 3, 2018, the amount of tuition owed to the Board for J.S.'s period of ineligible attendance is $6,208.89 for general education, and $353.09 for summer school. The amount of tuition owed for Z.H.'s period of ineligible attendance is $6,788.27. The Board determined that a total of $13,350.25 is owed by petitioner for tuition. (R-10.)

LEGAL DISCUSSION AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Public schools are required to provide a free education to individuals between the ages of five and twenty years who are domiciled within the school district. N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(a). Domicile has been defined as the place where a person has his true, fixed, permanent home and principal establishment, and to which whenever he is absent he has the intention of returning. State v. Benny, 20 N.J. 238, 250 (1955). The domicile of an unemancipated child is that of her parent, custodian or guardian. P.B.K. o/b/o minor child E.Y. v. Board of Ed. of Tenafly, 343 N.J. Super. 419, 427 (App. Div. 2001).

Where a local board determines that a child is not properly domiciled in its district, N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b)(2) provides a right of appeal to the parents as follows:

> The parent or guardian may contest the Board's decision before the Commissioner within 21 days of the date of the decision and shall be entitled to an expedited hearing before the Commissioner and shall have the burden of proof by a preponderance of the evidence that the child is eligible for a free education under the criteria listed in this section.

Petitioner notified the OAL that she withdrew the petition and moved her children out of district. Thereafter, the parties were notified of a proof hearing. The proof hearing was held on September 12, 2018 and petitioner failed to appear. After the proof hearing, the petitioner contacted the OAL objecting to tuition reimbursement. The record was re-opened. Petitioner was served with a new date to appear but has failed to appear and prosecute her appeal of the Board's demand for tuition and she has failed to advise me of the reason for the nonappearance. Therefore, I CONCLUDE that the determination of the Board that J.S. and Z.H. were not domiciled in Neptune Township during the period of time from January 12, 2018 to June 21, 2018, should be upheld and the petition of appeal dismissed pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.4.

The Board asserts that it is entitled to be reimbursed for tuition for the period of J.S.'s and Z.H.'s ineligible enrollment in its schools. Where, as here, the evidence does not support the claims of the resident, the Commissioner of Education is authorized to assess tuition pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:22-6.2(a), which provides as follows:

> If an appeal to the Commissioner is filed by the parent, guardian, adult student, or school district resident keeping an "affidavit" student and the petitioner does not sustain the burden of demonstrating the student's right to attend the school district, or the petitioner withdraws the appeal, fails to prosecute, or abandons the appeal by any means other than settlement agreeing to waive or reduce tuition, the Commissioner may assess tuition for the period during which the hearing and decision on appeal were pending, and for up to one year of a student's ineligible attendance in a school district prior to the appeal's filing and including the 21-day period to file an appeal.

N.J.S.A. 18A: 38-1(b) likewise requires that tuition be calculated on the basis of 1/180 of the total annual per pupil cost to the district multiplied by the number of days of ineligible attendance.

In accordance with N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.4(d), I accepted ex parte proofs from the Board relative to its tuition claim. The Board's proofs are convincing, and its calculations are consistent with the requirements of N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b) and N.J.A.C. 6A:22-6.2(a). Therefore, I CONCLUDE that the Board has demonstrated an entitlement to tuition reimbursement in the amount of $13,350.25, for eighty-eight days of school attendance for J.S. and ninety-six days of school attendance for Z.H. for the period from January 12, 2018 through June 21, 2018.

ORDER

Based on the foregoing, I ORDER that the petition of appeal be DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE. I further ORDER that the Board's application for tuition reimbursement is GRANTED in the amount of $13,350.25.

The Board's request for all cost of litigation including reasonable attorney's fee is DENIED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

December 19, 2018
DATE

MARY ANN BOGAN, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: December 19, 2018

Date Mailed to Parties: December 19, 2018

MAB/cb

APPENDIX

WITNESSES

For petitioner:

None

For respondent:

Peter I. Barlett, Assistant Business Administrator and Board Secretary

EXHIBITS

For petitioner:

None

For respondent:

R-1 Notice of Final Ineligibility re: J.S., dated January 12, 2018

R-2 Residency Verification Investigation – 2017-2018 School Year

R-3 Notice of Final Ineligibility re: Z.H. and J.S., dated February 28, 2018

R-4 Notice of Final Ineligibility re: J.S. and Z.H., dated March 29, 2018

R-5 Notices of Hearing scheduled for June 20, 2018

R-6 2017-2018 District Calendar

R-7 Board Resolution with certified tuition rates, dated January 25, 2017

R-8 ESY and backup

R-9 Email from Susan J. Green to Peter I. Bartlett and Debra A. Lindblom re: Attendance Audit re: Z.J.H. and J.S., dated September 7, 2018

R-10 Tuition Calculation

R-11 Pre-School Tuition Calculation

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 6664-18
AGENCY DKT. NO. 89-4/18

C.M., on behalf of minor children, J.M., E.M., and E.M. PETITIONER, V. BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF SPRINGFIELD, UNION COUNTY, RESPONDENT.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION ORDER

On November 1, 2018, a final agency decision was rendered in this matter, wherein the Commissioner found C.M. liable for tuition in the amount of Nineteen Thousand-Three Hundred and Sixty-Seven Dollars and Sixty Three Cents ($19,367.63), representing tuition for a period of ineligible attendance by her children, J.M., E.M., and E.M., in the Board's school district between February 27, 2018 and the end of the 2017-2018 school year. The Board subsequently notified the Commissioner that C.M. has not complied with the decision, and requested that the Commissioner seek entry of the assessments on the judgment docket of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2A:58-10. In response to the Board's request, C.M. did not offer any reasons that have not been fully and fairly adjudicated as to why the judgment against her should not be so docketed.

Accordingly, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2A:58-10, Corinne Myers is now subject to entry of a judgment by the court in the amount of $19,367.63, which represents the payment ordered by the Commissioner, with interest to accrue as provided by law.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 1/30/19
Date of Mailing: 1/30/19

C.G., on behalf of minor child, G.G.,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF MORRIS, MORRIS COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

Synopsis

Pro se petitioner challenged the determination of the respondent Board that her daughter was ineligible for a free public education in the Morris Township Schools during the period from January 20, 2017 through February 2, 2018. The respondent Board contended that a residency investigation indicated that petitioner and her daughter are no longer domiciled at the Morristown address provided to the school district, but rather are now domiciled out of district, at an address in Randolph Township, New Jersey. The Board filed a counterclaim for tuition for the period of the children's ineligible attendance.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(a), public schools are free to persons over five and under twenty years of age who are domiciled within the school district, or are kept in the home of another person domiciled in the district and supported by such other person gratis, as if she were such other person's child; here, the evidence shows that the petitioner and her child lived in Morristown until January 2017, when C.G. purchased a home in Randolph; G.G. continued to attend school in Morris Township Schools after the mother and daughter relocated to Randolph; after receiving a notice of ineligibility from the District, C.G. withdrew G.G. for a short period of time, only to re-enroll her after procuring a court order which granted residential custody of G.G. to a friend of C.G.'s who is domiciled in Morristown; the Board once again conducted a residency investigation to find that G.G. was still residing in Randolph with her mother despite the court order; as a result, the District determined that neither C.G. nor G.G. are domiciled within the school district, and therefore G.G is not entitled to a free public education in Morris Township Schools. Accordingly, the school district is entitled to collect tuition from C.G. for the period of G.G..'s ineligible attendance during the period of January 18, 2017 through Febuary 2, 2018 at a rate of $86.02 per day, for a total of 381 days. The ALJ ordered petitioner to reimburse the Board for tuition in the amount of $26,769.81.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurred with the ALJ that G.G. was not domiciled in the District between January 20, 2017 and February 2, 2018. However, the Commissioner found that the amount of tuition owed is not clear from the record or the Initial Decision. Accordingly, the matter is remanded to the OAL for the calculation of tuition costs owed for the period of G.G.'s ineligible attendance.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

January 30, 2019

35-19

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 7231-18
AGENCY DKT. NO. 98-4/18

C.G., on behalf of minor child, G.G.,	:
PETITIONER,	:
V.	:	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF MORRIS, MORRIS COUNTY,	:	DECISION
RESPONDENT.	:

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed.[1] The petitioner, C.G., is challenging the Morris Township Board of Education's (Board) determination that G.G. was not eligible to attend school in the District between January 20, 2017 and February 2, 2018. After a hearing at the OAL, the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) found that G.G. was not domiciled in the District between January 20, 2017 and February 2, 2018 and assessed tuition in the amount of $26,769.81 for G.G.'s ineligible attendance in the District.[2]

Upon a comprehensive review of the record, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ that G.G. was not domiciled in the District between January 20, 2017 and February 2, 2018. With respect to the amount of tuition owed to the District for G.G.'s ineligible attendance, the Commissioner finds that this matter must be remanded to the OAL for the proper development of the record.

The Commissioner of Education is expressly authorized to assess tuition pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A: 38-1b(2) and N.J.A.C. 6A:22-6.2(a), to a parent or guardian for a minor child's ineligible attendance in a school district. Importantly, "tuition shall be computed on the basis of 1/180 of the total annual per pupil cost to the local district multiplied by the number of days of ineligible attendance." Id. In the Initial Decision, the ALJ inexplicably calculated the tuition assessment based on the number of calendar days between January 20, 2017 and February 2, 2018. The ALJ states that the per diem tuition rate is $86.01, and that rate multiplied by 381 days of ineligible attendance amounts to a total of $26,769.81 due to the District.[3]

[1] The record does not include a transcript of the hearing held at the OAL on November 13, 2018.

[2] The petitioner did not appear at the November 13, 2018 hearing.

The only evidence in the record regarding the tuition rate is found in the Board's final letter of ineligibility, dated April 3, 2018, where it states that the tuition rate is $86.01. It is not clear if $86.01 was the tuition rate for the 2017-2018 school year as well as the 2016-2017 school year. There is also nothing in the record that indicates the number of school days between January 20, 2017 and February 2, 2018.[4] The Board's submissions provide no clearer indication as to the accurate amount of tuition that should be assessed to the petitioner. In light of the fact that the Board did not submit an affidavit outlining the tuition costs – and the record does not contain a transcript from the hearing at the OAL – it is impossible to ascertain the correct tuition amount that is owed to the District.

Accordingly, this matter is remanded to the OAL for the calculation of tuition costs owed to the District for G.G.'s ineligible attendance in Morris Township Schools. In reaching a decision on the tuition assessment, the ALJ should be mindful that the Commissioner may only "assess tuition for the period during which the appeal was pending, and for up to one year of a student's ineligible attendance in the district prior to the appeal's filing and including the 21-day period to file an appeal." N.J.A.C. 6A:22-6.2(a).

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 1/30/19
Date of Mailing: 1/30/19

[3] Even if 381 was the correct number of days of G.G.'s ineligible attendance, $86.01 multiplied by 381 would equal $32,769.81, not $26,769.81.

[4] The Board is seeking tuition for two separate school years.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 07231-18
AGENCY REF. NO. 98-4/18

C.G. ON BEHALF OF G.G.,
Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF MORRIS, MORRIS COUNTY,
Respondent.

C.G., Parent of G.G., Petitioner, pro se

Janelle Edwards-Stewart, Esq., for Respondent (Porzio, Bromberg & Newman, attorneys)

Record closed: November 13, 2018 Decided: December 21, 2018

BEFORE JOHN P. SCOLLO, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner C.G. challenges the "Notice of Final Determination of Ineligibility" dated April 3, 2018, (R-12) rendered by the Morris Township School District (Morris Township B.O.E. or Board), which determined that C.G. was ineligible to attend Morris Township Schools during the period from January 20, 2017, through February 2, 2018. Petitioner

C.G. also seeks an Order relieving her from any obligation to pay for tuition for her daughter, G.G., to the Morris Township School District.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On January 24, 2018, the Superintendent of the Morris Township School District (the District) sent a "Notice of Initial Determination of Ineligibility" (R-11) to C.G. advising her that the District determined that she and her daughter, G.G., did not reside in in the District based on its investigation, including an interview of C.G. at her home in Randolph Township. The District offered C.G. the opportunity to appear at a hearing before the Morris Township Board of Education to contest the District's determination. C.G. declined the offer of a hearing and withdrew G.G. A short time later Rosemary Strelec, a friend of C.G. who resided in Morristown (a town within the Morris Township School District) sought and obtained an Order (R-20) from the Superior Court, Chancery Division granting residential custody of G.G. to her with liberal visitation rights for C.G. Strelec re-enrolled G.G. in the District's school. The District conducted a second investigation which confirmed its previous opinion that neither C.G. nor G.G. was domiciled in the District.

C.G. filed a Residency Appeal on April 18, 2018, with the Department of Education, which was transmitted to the OAL on May 17, 2018, and filed on May 18, 2018, under the Administrative Procedure Act, N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and the act establishing the Office of Administrative Law, N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -23 for a hearing under the Uniform Administrative Procedure Rules, N.J.A.C. 1:1-1.1 to -21.6, and the rules of procedure established by the Department of Education to hear and decide controversies and disputes arising under school laws, N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.1 to -1.17. Jurisdiction is conferred under N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.

An initial telephone conference was held on June 29, 2018, and a Pre-Hearing Order was issued on that date. On or about July 20, 2018, the Tribunal received correspondence from C.G. stating that she wished to withdraw her appeal. The Tribunal processed this as a withdrawal, closed the file, and returned the file to the Department of Education. On August 24, 2018, counsel for the Respondent brought the provisions of N.J.A.C. 6A:22-6.2 to the Tribunal's attention and demanded the right to a hearing to present its proofs for the charging of tuition against C.G. On October 18, 2018, the Tribunal held a telephone conference on the record with C.G. and Janelle Edwards-Stewart, Esq., counsel to the District. During that telephone conference the ALJ explained that he had erred when he processed the withdrawal and closed the file. The ALJ set the hearing date for November 13, 2018. The ALJ warned the parties that failure to appear at the hearing on November 13, 2018, would result in an adverse verdict for the non-appearing side, that is, a marking of "Failed to Appear," and that the presentation of proofs by the appearing side would take place. On November 13, 2018, the hearing was held, but neither C.G. nor anyone else appeared for the Petitioner's side. The Respondent presented its proofs at that hearing. On the date of the hearing the Tribunal was not aware of any bankruptcy petitions filed by the Petitioner.

TESTIMONY

The following is not intended to be a verbatim recitation of the testimony, but rather only highlights of the testimony, which the ALJ found especially relevant and important.

Testimony of Debora Engelfried

Debora Engelfried (Engelfried) presented a binder of twenty-two tabbed documents and utilized most of them during her testimony. Engelfried testified that the Morris Township School District contains the towns of Morristown and Morris Plains. Persons between the ages of five and twenty years of age who are domiciled in those towns are eligible to enroll in the District's public schools. The Morris Township Board of Education is the body that presides over and operates the District.

Engelfried testified that when students enroll in one of the District's schools his or her parents or legal guardians are asked to provide various documents which would prove that they are domiciled in the District. These can include documents such as the child's birth certificate, utility bills, leases, deeds, mortgages, etc.

Engelfried testified that there is a recurring problem of people who attempt to enroll their children in the District's schools even though they are not bona fide domiciliaries of the District. She testified that when non-domiciliaries enroll in the District's schools, they use resources that should be utilized for students who are bona fide District domiciliaries. The District's efforts to detect the enrollment of people who are not domiciled in the District often involves utilizing the services of a private detective, named Jeffrey Oster.

In regard to G.G.'s enrollment in one of the District's schools, Engelfried testified that the parent of one of G.G.'s classmates alleged that G.G. and her mother, C.G. were no longer living in the District and provided the address of their actual residence in Randolph Township, which has its own school district. Engelfried testified about social media posts by C.G. (R-17), which demonstrated that C.G. and G.G. moved into their Randolph home on January 18, 2017.

Engelfried testified that the District initiated an investigation. Using the address information supplied by C.G. when she enrolled G.G., the District discovered that they were no longer living in their former apartment on Village Drive in Morristown. A search at the Morris County Registry of Deeds and Mortgages revealed that C.G. purchased a home in Randolph Township on January 18, 2017. (R-22 is a copy of C.G.'s Deed to the Randolph home.) Utilizing the surveillance services of Private Investigator Jeffrey Oster (Oster or the detective), Engelfried testified that the District obtained information from him that C.G. and G.G. resided in Randolph in January 2018. Specifically, on January 23, 2018 C.G. admitted to Oster that she and G.G. resided at the Randolph home. (See R-6.)

Engelfried testified that she communicated with C.G. regarding whether she and G.G. were properly domiciled in the District or whether they had changed their domicile to Randolph Township. In the interim, the Board of Education issued its "Notice of Initial Determination of Ineligibility," dated January 24, 2018 (R-11), in which it informed C.G. that G.G. was improperly enrolled in the District's school and it asked C.G. to either withdraw G.G. from the District's school voluntarily or opt for a hearing before the Board of Education. Engelfried testified that she and C.G. spoke about the investigation and that C.G. decided to withdraw G.G. and enroll her in the Randolph schools on February 2, 2018. However, Engelfried further testified that only a short time later, C.G. asked her how long it would take to re-enroll G.G. in the District's school, an inquiry which Engelfried thought was peculiar. Engelfried testified that shortly thereafter Rosemary Strelec (Strelec), C.G.'s friend, who was domiciled in Morristown, procured an Order from the Morris County Superior Court, Chancery Division on March 19, 2018 (see R-20), which granted residential custody of G.G. to Strelec and granted liberal visitation rights to C.G. On March 19, 2018 Strelec submitted paperwork to re-enroll G.G. in the District's school and G.G. was re-enrolled on April 9, 2018.

Engelfried testified that paperwork from the Randolph Township school system stated that as of February 2, 2018, (the date that C.G. enrolled G.G. in the Randolph School system) C.G. stated that she had sole custody of G.G. She further testified that Strelec gave a copy of the Court Order to the Morris Township School District and informed the District that G.G. has lived with her since March 19, 2018. She testified that the change of custody in such a short time and the statement that G.G. lived with Strelec only since March 19, 2018, were among the circumstances which led her to initiate a second investigation to find out if G.G. was actually residing with Strelec in Morristown or was still residing with her mother in Randolph. Again, Oster's services were utilized. Engelfried testified that Oster's surveillance indicated that G.G. was not residing with Strelec and that G.G. continued to reside with her mother in Randolph. (See R-6, R-7 and R-8.) As a result of this investigation the District decided that neither C.G. nor G.G. were domiciliaries of the District, that G.G. was not entitled to a free public education in the Morris Township School District and that per diem tuition would be sought.

Testimony of Jeffrey Oster, Private Detective

Jeffrey Oster testified that he was a licensed private detective and was a retired detective sergeant from the Mine Hill Police Department.

Oster testified that he went to the Randolph home on January 23, 2018, and spoke with C.G. about the investigation into whether she and G.G. were domiciled in Morris Township. C.G. admitted that she was the owner of the Randolph home and stated that she moved into the home in the Summer of 2017, but that G.G. sometimes stayed overnight with Strelec in Morristown. Oster mentioned that C.G. did not mention anything about sharing custody of G.G. with Strelec. Oster reported this information to the District. (R-6.)

Oster testified that on March 26, 2018, he was asked by the District to conduct a second investigation. He was aware of the Court Order granting residential custody of G.G. to Strelec. He testified that he conducted surveillance of Strelec's home on March 27 and 28, 2018, both of which were school days, and reported that no child came out of Strelec's residence on either day. (R-8.)

Oster testified that he was aware that G.G. was re-enrolled into the District school on April 5, 2018. He testified that he conducted surveillance of the Randolph home on April 11, 12, and 13, 2018, (all of which were school days) and on those dates he observed C.G. and G.G. leave the Randolph home in the early morning (from 6:45 a.m. to 7:15 a.m.) and drive away in C.G.'s car. He also took several photographs of C.G. and G.G. exiting the home and entering C.G.'s car. Oster testified that on each day he contacted the District and learned that G.G. was in school.

Oster testified that he believes that C.G. became aware of his surveillance activities. During surveillance conducted on April 16, 17 and 18, 2018, he did not see G.G. leave the Randolph home. He testified that he had spoken directly with C.G. at her home on January 23, 2018, and so she already knew who he was. Oster testified that he conducted surveillance on April 25 and 26, 2018. Both were school days. He testified that on April 25, 2018, he saw C.G. leave her home with G.G. and enter a new Land Rover car, which was registered to her. On this occasion C.G. stopped her car near Oster's car and looked straight at him. The next morning, April 26, 2018, C.G. left her home without G.G. Oster testified that he spoke with the District and learned that G.G. was in school on both days. (See R-9 and R-10.) In his report to the District dated April 26, 2018, (R-10) he concluded that G.G. was not residing with Strelec in Morristown and that she was residing with her mother, C.G., in the Randolph home.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION

No one appeared at the hearing on behalf of C.G. Therefore, the testimony of the witnesses for the Morris Township Board of Education was received without objection in its entirety, as summarized above.

FINDINGS OF FACT

Having had the opportunity to examine the documents presented and to hear the witnesses and to assess their credibility, I make the following FINDINGS of FACT:

1. C.G. and G.G., formerly of Morristown, moved into their new home in Randolph, NJ on January 18, 2017. (See R-17 and R-22.)

2. C.G.'s social media post of January 18, 2017, (R-17) constitutes an admission that she and her daughter, G.G., resided in the Randolph home from January 18, 2017, forward.

3. G.G. remained enrolled in a Morris Township school after January 18, 2017.

4. Upon information from a school parent, officials from the Morris Township School District conducted an investigation into whether C.G. and G.G. were domiciled in Morris Township. That investigation resulted in the District concluding that C.G. and G.G. were no longer domiciled in Morris Township as of January 18, 2017. (See R-11.)

5. As a result of the District's investigation and of the issuing of the "Notice of Initial Determination of Ineligibility" by the District, C.G. withdrew G.G. from the Morris Township school in which she had been enrolled and registered her in a Randolph Township school.

6. Rosemary Strelec, who is domiciled in Morristown and who is a friend of C.G., initiated an action to obtain residential custody of G.G. On March 19, 2018, the Superior Court of New Jersey, Chancery Division, Morris County issued an Order entered on March 22, 2018, granting residential custody to Strelec and granting liberal visitation rights to C.G.

7. Having been granted residential custody of G.G. by the Chancery Division, Strelec submitted paperwork to re-enroll G.G. in school in Morris Township and G.G. was re-enrolled on April 9, 2018.

8. Due to unsettled facts and apparent inconsistencies in the facts as related by C.G., the District decided to, once again, verify the actual domicile of C.G. and G.G. The District undertook a second investigation which involved surveillance of Strelec's home and C.G.'s home. The testimony of the District's private investigator, Jeffrey Oster, along with clear and convincing photographic evidence, convinces this Tribunal that G.G. resided almost exclusively with her mother, C.G., at the Randolph home and that she did not leave for school on school days from Strelec's home.

9. As a result of the second investigation the District sent a "Notice of Final Determination of Ineligibility" dated April 3, 2018, to C.G. (R-12.)

10. The District proved by a preponderance of the credible evidence that C.G. sent her daughter G.G. to school in Morris Township during period of time, specifically January 18, 2017, through February 2, 2018, when they were not domiciled in Morris Township, a total of 381 days.

11. Several days after the November 13, 2018, hearing the Tribunal received information (a letter from an attorney representing C.G.) that C.G. had filed for bankruptcy.

APPLICABLE LAW

N.J.S.A. 18A:36-19a provides "the school district shall obtain proper identification of any new student such as a certified copy of the student's certificate of birth." N.J.S.A.

18A:36-25.1(a) provides "When a child is enrolled in a school district for the first time, the superintendent shall require the child's parent or legal guardian to provide a certified copy of the child's birth certificate or other proof of the child's identity, within 30 days of enrollment."

Public schools are free to persons over five and under twenty years of age who are domiciled within the school district or are kept in the home of another person domiciled within the school district and supported by such other person gratis as if he were such other person's own child. N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(a). If the school district finds that the parent or guardian of a child who is attending the schools of the district is not domiciled within the district and the child is not kept in the home of another person domiciled within the school district and supported by such person gratis as if the child was the person's own child, the superintendent or administrative principle may apply to the Board of Education for the removal of the child. N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b)(2). The parent or guardian is entitled to a hearing before the board and, if in the judgment of the board, the parent or guardian is not domiciled within the school district or the child is not kept in the home of another person domiciled within the school district and supported gratis, the board may order the transfer or removal of the child from school. Ibid. The parents or guardian may contest the board's decision before the commissioner within 21 days of the date of the decision and is entitled to an expedited hearing. Ibid. The parent or guardian has the burden of proof by a preponderance of the evidence that the child is eligible for a free education under the criteria listed in the statute. Ibid.

Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:22-3(1)(a)(1), a student is eligible to attend a school district if he or she is domiciled within the school district, and a student is domiciled in the school district when he or she is the child of a parent or guardian whose domicile is located within the school district.

"Domicile" is defined as "the place where [a person] has [his or her] true, fixed, permanent home and principal establishment, and to which whenever he is absent, he has an intention of returning." C.B.W. ex rel. A.W. v. Bd. of Ed. of the Township of Belleville, Essex County, 1998 N.J. AGEN. LEXIS 122, Agency Docket number 159-5/96, 1998 WL 668678 (N.J. ADM. JUNE 18, 1998). As the court noted in Collins v.

Yancey, 55 N.J. Super. 514, 520-21 (Law Div. 1959), a person may have several residences or places of abode, but only one domicile at a time. Ibid.; D.L. v. BD. of Educ. of Princeton Reg'l Sch. Dist., 366 NJ Super. 269, 273-74 (App. Div. 2004).]

N.J.A.C. 6A:22-6 governs the tuition rate; and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-2.10 governs the calculation of tuition charged.

CONCLUSIONS

The Tribunal is satisfied that the factual record demonstrates that, during the time period proven by the District, specifically, January 18, 2017, through February 2, 2018, G.G. resided with her mother, C.G. at the Randolph home. Moreover, there was little or no factual evidence presented in support of P=etitioner's allegation that G.G. resided during the school term with Rosemary Strelec in Morristown and/or that Rosemary Strelec supported G.G. gratis as if she were Rosemary Strelec's own child. It follows, and I CONCLUDE that from January 18, 2017, through February 2, 2018, G.C. was domiciled and resided in Randolph Township, which is not within the Morris Township School District. Moreover, I CONCLUDE that C.G. and G.G. did not meet the requirement set forth in N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(a) of G.G. being "kept in the home of another person domiciled within the school district and supported by such other person gratis as if she were such other person's own child." The Petitioner having failed to carry her burden of proving that G.G. was domiciled in the Morris Township School District, I CONCLUDE the Morris Township Board of Education acted properly when it removed G.G. from its school. Moreover, I CONCLUDE that the Morris Township Board of Education has proven by a preponderance of the credible evidence that during the time of G.G.'s attendance in the Morris Township School District, she was not domiciled in the Morris township School District and therefore the school district is entitled to collect from G.G.'s parent, C.G., an amount of per diem tuition, namely $86.01, times the number of days in attendance.

I CONCLUDE that the number of days attended between January 18, 2017, and February 2, 2018, comes to 381 days and that the total due to the District is $26,769.81.

I also CONCLUDE that C.G., by failing to appear at the hearing, failed to prove that she is entitled to an Order relieving her from any obligation to pay for the tuition for G.G.'s attendance in the District's school.

ORDER

It is hereby ORDERED that the action taken by the District to remove G.G. from its school is hereby AFFIRMED. It is hereby ORDERED that C.G. shall pay to the Morris Township Board of Education the sum of $26,769.81, which ORDER shall be stayed under the laws of the United States of America concerning bankruptcy, until the Trustee in Bankruptcy authorizes the payment or until the conclusion of the bankruptcy proceedings.

I hereby FILE this Initial Decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, P.O. Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

John P. Scollo

December 21, 2018
DATE

JOHN P. SCOLLO, ALJ

Date Received at Agency:

Date Mailed to Parties:
db

ADDENDUM

List of Witnesses

For Petitioner:

None

Respondent's Witnesses:

Debora Engelfried, Supervisor of Strategic Planning and Student Information Management

Jeffrey Oster, Private Investigator

List of Exhibits

Tribunal's Exhibit:

C-1 The Tribunal's Letter to the Parties dated October 18, 2018

Petitioner's Exhibits:

None

Respondent's Exhibits:

R-1 through R-5 Not admitted into evidence

R-6 Initial Report of Residency Investigation, dated January 24, 2018

R-7 Initial Report of Residency Investigation, dated 3/29/18

R-8 Report of Residency Investigation, dated April 13, 2018

R-9 Report of Residency Investigation, dated April 18, 2018

R-10 Report of Residency Investigation, dated April 26, 2018

R-11 Notice of Initial Determination of Ineligibility, dated January 24, 2018

R-12 Notice of Final Determination of Ineligibility, dated April 3, 2018

R-13 Not admitted into evidence

R-14 Email chain between C.G. and Engelfried, dated February 1. 2018

R-15 Email chain between C.G. and Engelfried, dated March 28, 2018

R-16 Not admitted into evidence

R-17 Email chain amongst Superintendent Prendergast, Engelfried, Donna Karr, Carla Walker, and Sandra Wall, dated February 2, 2018

R-18 Randolph Township Schools registration forms completed February 2, 2018

R-19 Morris School District registration form completed March 19, 2018

R-20 Court Order entered on March 22, 2018, concerning custody hearing of March 19, 2018

R-21 Not admitted into evidence

R-22 C.G.'s Deed dated January 18, 2017, to her Randolph home

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE CHARGES BROUGHT BY

CLOSTER PUBLIC SCHOOL DISTRICT
BERGEN COUNTY, NEW JERSEY

DOCKET NO. 120/5-18

-AGAINST-

BEFORE JACQUELIN F. DRUCKER, ESQ.
ARBITRATOR

PETER IAPPELLI

AWARD APPROVING SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

FOR THE DISTRICT:

STEPHEN R. FOGARTY, ESQ.
FOGARTY & HARA
21-00 ROUTE 206 NORTH
FAIR LAWN, NEW JERSEY 07410

FOR MR. IAPPELLI:

JEFFREY R. MERLINO, ESQ.
SCIARRILLO, CORNELL, MERLINO,
MCKEEVER & OSBORNE, LLC
239 ST. PAUL STREET
WESTFIELD, NEW JERSEY 07090

The Closter Public School District, Bergen County ("District" or "Employer") initiated, and the State District Superintendent certified to the Commissioner of Education, tenure charges seeking the termination of employment of Peter Iappelli ("Respondent" or "Mr. Iappelli"), who has been employed and tenured as the School Business Administrator/Board Secretary for the District. The Commissioner of Education referred the charges to this Arbitrator pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:5-16 as amended by P.L. 2012, c. 26 and P.L. 2015, c. 109. Preliminary conferences were conducted with counsel, and the hearing was commenced on July 11, 2018, at which time oral argument was held regarding the Respondent's Motion to Dismiss. The Arbitrator issued an Interim Award on August 4, 2018, dismissing the allegations set forth in Paragraph 14 of Charge 2, Paragraph 14, and Charge 3, Paragraphs 6 through 16 and 30 through 34. The Motion to Dismiss was denied as to all other Charges.

Additional hearings were scheduled to be held on September 13, 18, 19, 24, and 25, 2018, in keeping with an extension of time approved by the Office of Controversies and Disputes. During a conference held on September 12, 2018, however, counsel jointly requested, and the Arbitrator approved, a postponement of the hearings in light of the development of proposed settlement terms that had been tentatively accepted by both parties. The parties thereafter conveyed to the Arbitrator a Settlement and Release, executed September 20, 2018, with exhibits. The parties also set forth a detailed statement of the grounds upon which they seek approval, in keeping with N.J.A.C. 6A:3-5.6 and the applicable factors set forth therein and in In Re Cardonick, New Jersey State Board of Education, 1990 School Law Decision 842.

The Arbitrator, being fully familiar with the charges and defenses set forth in this proceeding and being aware of the additional evidence expected to be adduced by the parties, has given full and careful consideration to the proposed terms of settlement. She finds same to be fair, appropriate, proper, and fully consistent with the applicable standards. The Arbitrator thus approves same and incorporates the Settlement and Release, with exhibits thereto, herein as her Award in this matter.

Dated: October 3, 2018

Jacquelin F. Drucker, Esq.
Arbitrator

Attachment, Incorporated by Reference: Settlement Agreement & Release dated September 20, 2018

State of New York)
) SS: County of New York)

On this 3rd day of October, 2018, before me personally came and appeared Jacquelin F. Drucker, Esq., to me known and known to me to be the individual described herein, and who executed the foregoing instrument and acknowledged to me that she executed same.

Notary Public

JOHN H. DRUCKER
Notary Public, State of New York
No. 02DR6018984
Qualified in New York County
Commission Expires February 1, 2019

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

20 This SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT is made and entered into this day of September, 2018, by and between the CLOSTER BOARD OF EDUCATION, with offices located at 340 Homans Avenue, Closter, New Jersey, 07624 (the "Board") and PETER IAPPELLI, whose address is 32 Whitney Street, Closter, New Jersey, 07624 ("Iappelli").

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, the Board currently employs Iappelli as a Business Administrator/Board Secretary and has done so since February 1, 2007; and

WHEREAS, the parties have determined it is in their mutual interests to conclude the employment relationship; and

WHEREAS, Iappelli has indicated a willingness to resign from all employment with the Board, effective at the close of business on January 31, 2019, upon satisfaction of certain terms and conditions to be stipulated in this Separation Agreement (the "Agreement"); and

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the aforementioned mutual premises and promises, and in exchange for the consideration more particularly set forth below, it is hereby agreed:

1. No Admission. This Agreement is the compromise of disputed claims and shall never be treated as an admission of liability or wrongdoing by either party for any purpose. All parties shall bear their own attorney's fees and costs for the entirety of any matter or matters related to the subject matter of this Agreement.

2. Resignation. In return for full compliance with this Agreement, and subject to formal Board approval and ratification of the Agreement, Iappelli agrees to sign a letter of resignation from all employment with the Board, to be effective at the close of business on January 31, 2019, which shall be in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A. The Board shall, by Resolution, accept this resignation at its next regularly scheduled Board meeting. Said resignation is effective only upon the full terms and conditions of the Agreement being accepted by Resolution of the Board, and is only then binding upon the parties and irrevocable and is not subject to modification or rescission. Iappelli agrees that, upon the execution of this Agreement, and as a result of his resignation, he shall forfeit all tenure and seniority rights he has to any position with the Board.

Attachment to Award Approving Settlement Agreement, 30th 2018

3. Settlement Terms. In consideration for Iappelli's resignation as set forth in paragraph 1 of this Agreement and the waiver and release as set forth in paragraph 3 of this Agreement, the Board, by and through this Agreement, shall pay Iappelli for the period of his unpaid suspension from May 10, 2018 through June 30, 2018 in the amount of $24,841.20, plus thirteen months' salary for the period of July 1, 2018 through July 31, 2019. The total payments shall be equal to $213,947.86, less the mandatory taxes, pension, health benefit payment, and/or any other deductions required by his employment with the Board. The payments shall be made as follows:

During the period of Iappelli's personal leave of absence, dating back from July 1, 2018 through January 31, 2019, he shall be paid his regular annual salary less the mandatory taxes, pension, health benefit payment, and/or any other deductions required by his employment at the source of wages.

Iappelli shall also receive a lump sum payment equal to his salary for the period of February 1, 2019 through July 31, 2019, or $87,279.96, less the mandatory taxes and/or any other deductions required by his employment at the source of wages.

4. Leave of Absence. Iappelli shall submit a request for a personal leave of absence from July 1, 2018 through January 31, 2019 which is attached hereto as Exhibit B. Iappelli shall not have any professional responsibilities as an administrative staff member during his paid leave of absence.

5. Mutual Limited Contact Clause. The parties mutually agree that both parties will have limited contact with each other. Effective immediately, Iappelli agrees that he shall not be present on any of the Board's campuses without the express written consent of the Superintendent.

6. Release. Iappelli hereby releases and waives any and all claims he has, or could have, against the Board, its individual members, officers, employees, administrators, agents, servants and representatives, including, but not limited to, claims for discrimination, contract, tort, constitutional violation and/or attorneys' fees. Iappelli shall execute a General Release in favor of the Board, its individual members, officers, employees, administrators, agents, servants, and representatives, releasing them from any and all claims, liabilities or expenses to which they may be subject arising from any claims or rights of Iappelli. The form of this General Release is attached hereto as Exhibit C. Nothing in this Agreement or the documents referenced herein shall preclude either party from bringing an action to enforce performance of any term of this Agreement should there be a default in performance.

Nothing in this Agreement or the documents referenced herein, however, shall preclude Iappelli from bringing an action to enforce performance of any term of this Agreement should there be a default in performance.

7. Medical Insurance. Iappelli shall continue to be eligible to receive health benefits available to any other employee on an annual basis subject to the appropriate payments towards the annual premiums required as an employee of the Board through January 31, 2019 or his date of resignation. However, it is acknowledged that Iappelli is presently on another district's SEHBP plan through his spouse and will only enroll in the Board's dental insurance program. Iappelli will only enroll in the Board's health insurance program if he ceases to have outside health insurance coverage through his spouse.

Nothing contained within this Separation Agreement shall alter Iappelli's rights to continuation of health insurance through Federal law, i.e. the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1986 ("COBRA") upon separation from employment with the Board as of the date which coincides with the date that Iappelli no longer receives health insurance as provided by the Board.

8. No Interference. Iappelli agrees that he will never apply for re-employment with the Board. Each party shall be free from interference, direct or indirect, by the other and neither shall discuss with, disclose to or communicate with anyone, the terms of this Agreement, except their attorneys or accountants who shall hold such communication as confidential, or as may be required by law. The Board shall be required to adopt a public resolution approving this Separation Agreement and each of the documents which are incorporated by reference in said Agreement.

9. Reliance. This Agreement constitutes the entire understanding of the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof, and there are no representations, warranties, covenants or undertakings other than those expressly set forth herein. Each party acknowledges that they are not relying upon any oral statements, representations, promises or expectations which are not expressly and explicitly set forth in this Agreement, which alone fully and completely expresses all agreements between the parties.

10. Full Understanding. The parties acknowledge that they are entering into this Agreement of their own accord and without any undue influence, coercion or pressure of any kind; that all the provisions of this Agreement, as well as all questions pertinent thereto, have been fully and satisfactorily explained to them; that they have given due consideration to such provisions and questions, and understand them clearly; that the provisions embodied in this Agreement are in all respects acceptable to them and that they, therefore, accept these provisions in full and final satisfaction of all claims and demands which have been raised or which could have been raised in any litigation.

11. Representation. Both parties acknowledge that they have consulted with an attorney of their own choosing prior to signing this Agreement, and that they sign this Agreement as their own voluntary act and deed and fully understand the duties and obligations enumerated herein.

12. Severability. If, during the term of this Agreement, a specific clause of the Agreement is determined to be illegal or in violation of any Federal or State law, the remainder of the Agreement shall not be affected by such a ruling and shall remain in full force and effect.

13. Voluntary Agreement. The Parties have entered into this Agreement freely and voluntarily with a full understanding of their rights and the contents of this Agreement. Iappelli further understands that as a result of his resignation, the tenure determination results in the loss of his position and thus notice will be provided to the State Board of Examiners for possible suspension or revocation of his certificate.

14. Opportunity to Consult With Counsel. The Parties acknowledge that each has been given the opportunity to consult with an attorney or a representative of their own choosing with respect to this Agreement and reviewed with their attorney or representative all the terms and conditions of this Agreement prior to executing this Agreement. Each Party signs this Agreement freely and voluntarily and without coercion or duress. The Parties further acknowledge that they fully understand the duties and obligations enumerated herein and have been informed of their legal rights and obligations.

15. Modifications and/or Waivers. A modification or waiver of any of the provisions of this Agreement shall be effective and enforceable only if made in writing and executed with the same formality as this Agreement. The failure of any party to insist upon strict performance of any of the provisions of this Agreement shall not be construed as a waiver of any subsequent default of the same or similar nature or of a continuation of an existing default.

16. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be subject to the laws of the State of New Jersey, without regard to its choice of law principles.

17. Ratification. This Agreement is subject to ratification by the Board, and is without prejudice to any party if the terms are not agreed upon.

18. Subject to Ratification. This Agreement and the resignation of Iappelli shall only become effective upon the ratification and approval by the Board.

19. Section Headings. Section headings are for reference purposes only and shall not in any way affect the meaning or interpretation of any provision of this Agreement.

20. Counterparts. This Settlement Agreement may be signed in counterparts, which, when taken together, shall constitute but a single document when executed by all parties. This Settlement Agreement shall not be effective until such time as it has been duly authorized and executed by all parties.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties set their hands and seals to this Agreement effective on the day and year first written above.

WITNESS:

MICHAEL DONOW
Interim Business Administrator/
Board Secretary

DATED: 9/26/18

WITNESS:

DATED: 9/20/18

CLOSTER BOARD OF EDUCATION

BY:
GREGG LAMBERT
Board President

DATED: 9/26/18

BY:
PETER IAPPELLI

DATED: 09/20/18

EXHIBIT A

Peter Iappelli
32 Whitney Street
Closter, New Jersey, 07624

September 20, 2018

Mr. Gregg Lambert
Board President
Closter Board of Education
145 Spring Valley Road
Closter, New Jersey, 07652

Re: Letter of Resignation

Dear Mr. Lambert:

I hereby submit my irrevocable resignation from all employment with the Closter Board of Education effective at the close of business on January 31, 2019, subject to the terms of the Settlement Agreement executed simultaneously herewith and which are incorporated herein by reference.

Sincerely,

Peter Iappelli

EXHIBIT B

Peter Iappelli
32 Whitney Street
Closter, New Jersey, 07624

September 20, 2018

Mr. Gregg Lambert
Board President
Closter Board of Education
145 Spring Valley Road
Closter, New Jersey, 07652

Re: Request for Personal Leave

Dear Mr. Lambert:

I am requesting a leave of absence for personal reasons, with pay but less any mandatory taxes, pension, health benefit payment, and/or any other deductions required, from to July 1, 2018 through on January 31, 2019. During the period of my personal leave of absence with pay, any personal leave, vacation leave, pay for accumulated sick leave and any other financial remuneration to which I am otherwise entitled under the terms of my employment agreement shall be subsumed during my leave of absence and shall not accrue, nor shall I be entitled to their cash equivalent.

Sincerely,

Peter Iappelli

Exhibit C

RELEASE

This Release, dated September 20, 2018, is given

BY the Releasor(s)

PETER IAPPELLI

referred to as "I" or "Iappelli ",

TO CLOSTER BOARD OF EDUCATION and its members, officers, employees, administrators, agents and servants, referred to as "You" or the "Board".

If more than one person signs this Release, "I" shall mean each person who signs this Release.

1. Release. I release and give up any and all claims and rights which I may have against you. This releases all claims, including those of which I am not aware and those not mentioned in this Release. This Release applies to claims resulting from anything which has happened up to now. I specifically release the following claims:

More particularly, Iappelli knowingly and voluntarily releases, waives, acquits, disclaims and forever discharges the Board from any and all claims which I have or might have against you from any and all lawsuits, charges, claims, complaints, demands, judgments, obligations, causes of action, controversies or any other proceedings with any administrative agency, or court or any other forum, under any federal, state or local laws or regulations, including, but not limited to, claims arising under the Americans with Disabilities Act, the Fair Labor Standards Act, the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Vocational Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967, as amended, and including the Older Worker Benefit Protection Act, the Federal Family Medical Leave Act, the Consolidated Budgetary Reconciliation Act, the New Jersey Law Against Discrimination, the New Jersey Conscientious Employee Protection Act, the New Jersey Family Leave Act, the New Jersey Workers' Compensation Act, New Jersey Wage and Hours law, New Jersey Statutes Title 18A, Education, and/or any other federal, state or local employment, human rights, civil rights, wage hour, tenure, pension or labor law, rule, statute, regulation, constitution or ordinance and/or public policy, contract or tort law, or any claim of retaliation under such law, or any claim of breach of any contract, collective negotiations agreement or promise (whether express, oral, written or implied from any source), or any claim of intentional or negligent infliction of emotional distress, tortuous interference with contractual relations, wrongful or abusive discharge, constructive discharge, common law retaliation, defamation, prima facie tort, fraud, misrepresentation, negligence, estoppel, or any action similar thereto against the Board including any claim for attorneys' fees, that Iappelli, his heirs, executors, administrators, successors, and assigns now have, ever had, or may hereafter have, whether known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, based upon any conduct arising out of Iappelli's employment with the Board. This paragraph is not intended and shall not preclude Iappelli from instituting proceedings seeking to enforce the terms of this Release.

2. Consideration. The Consideration for this Release is specifically set forth in the Separation Agreement, to which this Release is attached.

3. Who is Bound. I am bound by this Release. Anyone who succeeds to my rights and responsibilities, such as my heirs or the executor of my estate, is also bound. This Release is made for your benefit and all who succeed to your rights and responsibilities, such as your heirs or the executor of your estate.

4. Signatures. I understand and agree to the terms of this Release. If this Release is made by a corporation its proper corporate officers sign and its corporate seal is affixed.

Witnessed or Attested by:

Joanne M. Appel
(Seal)
NOTARY PUBLIC

PETER IAPPELLI

JOANNE M. APPEL
NOTARY PUBLIC
STATE OF NEW JERSEY
ID # 2187193
MY COMMISSION EXPIRES MARCH 15, 2021

STATE OF NEW JERSEY :
SS: COUNTY OF :

BE IT REMEMBERED that on this 20th of September, 2018, before me personally appeared PETER IAPPELLI, who I am satisfied is the person mentioned in and who executed the within Agreement and who knows the contents thereof and thereupon I acknowledge that he signed, sealed and delivered the same as his voluntary act and deed for the uses and purposes therein expressed.

Joanne M. Appel
(Seal)
NOTARY PUBLIC

Prepared by:

/s/ Stephen R. Fogarty
Stephen R. Fogarty, Esq.

JOANNE M. APPEL
NOTARY PUBLIC
STATE OF NEW JERSEY
ID # 2187193
MY COMMISSION EXPIRES MARCH 15, 2021

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

A.O., on behalf of minor child, V.M.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Town of Kearny, Hudson County,

Respondent.

Synopsis

This case involves a dispute over whether V.M.'s math grades for the first and second marking periods of the 2017-2018 school year should be changed based on his scores on tests and quizzes that he was allowed to retake later in the year, at his mother's request. V.M., a sixth grader in the respondent Board's school district during the period in question, had received failing grades for the first two marking periods, and was allowed to retake the assessments starting in late February 2018 after his mother expressed concern that V.M. might not be academically prepared for seventh grade. Petitioner contended that there had been an agreement with school officials that V.M.'s first and second marking period grades would be changed based upon his retake scores. The Board asserted that no such agreement had been made, and that its actions in denying petitioner's request to change V.M.'s grades were lawful and in keeping with district policy.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: in addition to petitioner's demand that V.M.'s grades be changed based upon his scores on tests and quizzes that he was allowed to retake at A.O.'s request, petitioner also asked that the New Jersey Department of Education "...investigate the internal administration of the Kearny Board of Education interactions with the internal administration of Garfield Middle School;" as the record offers no evidence of the need for such an investigation, the grading dispute is the only issue to be resolved here; pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:11-1(c), local boards of education make, amend and repeal rules for the government and management of public schools, consistent with state law; allowing a student to repeat entire marking periods months later to earn better grades would compromise the integrity of the grading process and set bad precedent; the testimony of the Board's witnesses that there was no agreement to change V.M.'s first and second marking period grades based on the test retakes was credible, while the testimony of the petitioner was not. The ALJ concluded that there was no evidence that the Board violated any law, and the petitioner failed to demonstrate that the Board's refusal to change V.M.'s grades was arbitrary, capricious, unreasonable or in bad faith. Accordingly, the ALJ ordered that the petition be dismissed with prejudice.

Upon careful and independent review of the record and the ALJ's recommended decision, the Commissioner adopted the Initial Decision of the OAL as the final decision in this case. The petition was dismissed with prejudice.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

February 14, 2019

40-19

OAL Dkt. No. EDU 12379-18
Agency Dkt. No. 162-7/18

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

A.O., on behalf of minor child, V.M.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Town of Kearny, Hudson County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed.[1] The parties did not file exceptions.

Upon such review, the Commissioner agrees with the Administrative Law Judge – for the reasons thoroughly set forth in the Initial Decision – that the Board did not act in an arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable manner in refusing to change V.M's grades.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision of the OAL is adopted as the final decision in this matter and the petition is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[2]

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 2/14/19
Date of Mailing: 2/14/19

[1] The Commissioner was not provided with a transcript of the November 19, 2018 hearing at the OAL.

[2] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to P.L. 2008, c. 36 (N.J.S.A 18A:6-9.1).

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 12379-18
AGENCY DKT. NO. 162-7/18

A.O., ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILD, V.M.,
Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWN OF KEARNY, HUDSON COUNTY,
Respondent.

A.O., petitioner, pro se

Kenneth J. Lindenfelser, Esq., for respondent

Record Closed: November 19, 2018 Decided: January 3, 2019

BEFORE KELLY J. KIRK, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Petitioner A.O. challenges her son's math grades for the first and second marking periods of the 2017-2018 school year.

By letter dated March 29, 2018, petitioner was notified by the Kearny Superintendent of Schools that her appeal was denied and that V.M.'s grades for the first and second marking periods would not be changed. Petitioner thereafter appealed to the Kearny Board of Education. The full Kearny Board of Education voted to deny petitioner's appeal and V.M.'s grades remained unchanged. On July 12, 2018, petitioner filed a Petition of Appeal with the Department of Education. The Petition of Appeal did not include a proof of service, and the Department sent petitioner a Deficiency Notice on August 2, 2018. Mail receipts were submitted to the Department by A.O. on August 3, 2018. The Board filed an answer on August 20, 2018. Thereafter, on August 27, 2018, the Department transmitted the case to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) under the Administrative Procedure Act, N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15, and the act establishing the office, N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -23, for a hearing under the Uniform Administrative Procedure Rules, N.J.A.C. 1:1-1.1 to -21.6, and the rules of procedure established by the Department of Education to hear and decide controversies and disputes arising under school laws, N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.1 to -1.17. Jurisdiction is conferred under N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9. The hearing was held on November 19, 2018, on which date the record closed.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION AND FINDINGS

Petitioner testified on her own behalf. Lyndsay Vitale and Curtis Brack testified on behalf of the respondent.

Preliminary Facts

After due consideration of the testimonial and documentary evidence presented at the hearing, and having had the opportunity to observe the demeanor of the witnesses and assess their credibility, I FIND the following preliminary facts:

V.M. is the son of A.O. V.M. was in sixth grade during the 2017-2018 school year. His math teacher was Lyndsay Vitale. V.M. had not previously had Vitale as a teacher. Vitale has been employed by the Kearny Board of Education as a math teacher for eleven years. Curtis Brack has been employed by the Kearny Board of Education for eighteen years, with this year being his fifth year as principal of V.M.'s school. Patricia Blood was the Superintendent of Schools.

Vitale gave tests and quizzes during the first and second marking periods. V.M.'s June 21, 2018, report card for the 2017-2018 school year reflects his grades in Math 6 as follows: first marking period - 61; second marking period - 60; third marking period - 80; and fourth marking period - 95. The report card comments for Math 6 are "Quality of work shows improvement." (P-1.)

V.M.'s Progress Report for the first marking period reflects an "F" for failing in math and the comments: [i]nteracts well with peers; [h]as a positive attitude; [i]s talkative in class; and [l]ow test scores. (R-1.) V.M.'s Progress Report for the second marking period again reflects an "F" for failing in math and the comments: [a]ccepts teacher guidance; [h]as a positive attitude; [n]eeds to study and prepare better for tests; and [b]ehavior needs improvement. (R-2.)

In late December 2017 or early January 2018, A.O., V.M., Brack, and Vitale had a meeting about V.M.'s first and second marking period grades.

On February 23, 2018, Vitale emailed A.O. and Brack that V.M. would be taking his tests and quizzes on Mondays and Thursdays in Brack's office. (P-6.) Vitale was referring to the first and second and marking period tests and quizzes.

The first marking period was comprised of the following: Quiz 1.1-1.3; Take Home Quiz; Chapter 1 Test; Quiz 2.3; Chapter 2 Test; and Quiz 3.2. The second marking period was comprised of the following: Quiz – Chapter 3; Test – Chapter 3; Quiz 4.1-4.2; Quiz – Equations; Midchapter Test; and Test Chapter 4.[1] V.M.'s grades on the first marking period retakes were 84, 80, 80, 85, and 84.[2] V.M.'s grades on the second marking-period retakes were 50, 91, 90, 100, and 83.[3] Other tests were submitted with Exhibit P-3 not listed by Vitale as part of the second marking period retakes as follows: Chapter 5 Quiz (76); Chapter 5 Test (77/73); Chapter 6 Test (78); and Chapter 7 Mid Chapter Test (60).

---

[1] Vitale's list for the second marking period also reflects the following: "Area of Polygons Test cannot be retaken. It was based on completion of entire unit in ST Math."
[2] Quiz 3.2 was not submitted with Exhibit P-2.
[3] Midchapter Test (Chapter 4) was not submitted with Exhibit P-3.

On February 28, 2018, A.O. emailed Blood regarding points on a test. Blood responded that the issue had been addressed by Brack. (P-4.) Later that day, A.O. emailed Blood, stating that she had been trying to resolve a school issue with V.M. since November, and that she had reached out to the Board of Education, but the Board failed to assist her, and that she was now requesting that Blood assist her. (P-4.)

On February 28, 2018, A.O. filed a harassment, intimidation and bullying (HIB) report. (P-7.) By letter dated March 2, 2018, Brack notified A.O. that the allegations would be investigated within ten days. (P-7.)

On March 5, 2018, A.O emailed Blood, Brack, and Vitale as follows:

> [Garfield School] offered test retake for 1,2 marking period. Today eventually I received a phone call from [Brack] said [V.M.] grade will be the same. But a few days ago he told me after all the test will taking and grade, [V.] grade will be changed. Today Patricia Blood and [Brack] told me if I like I can transfer [V.] to another school. I said [V.] will continue his 4 months left of school year in [Garfield School] I just like to these issue yo be resolved shortly.
>
> [P-5.]

By letter dated March 29, 2018, Blood notified A.O. that after review of V.M.'s records and Vitale's gradebook, she found no reason to make any alterations to V.M.'s grades for the first and second marking periods. Blood's letter further notified A.O. that her appeal was denied, and she could appeal Blood's decision to the Board of Education. (P-8.) A.O. appealed to the Board of Education. By letter dated May 17, 2018, the attorney for the Board of Education notified A.O. that the Board of Education agreed to hear her appeal on May 21, 2018. (P-8.) A committee of the Board of Education heard A.O.'s appeal on March 21, 2018. By letter dated June 19, 2018, the attorney for the Board of Education notified A.O. that the Board voted to deny her appeal at its June 18, 2018, meeting. A.O. thereafter appealed to the Department of Education. (P-8.)

Testimony

A.O.

A.O. first learned of V.M.'s poor performance in math in November 2017 when he came home crying and told her Vitale had been talking about him to another student. He said he did not want to be in school, and that Vitale had said she did not like him and he was a terrible student. He was not comfortable going to school. He had never previously complained about Vitale to her. Maybe he did not say anything prior because he was holding it all in. He did not mention his grades. She checked the parent portal. She was enrolled in school at that time and she had not been checking V.M.'s grades. Maybe it was her fault she did not check the first and second marking period grades from the beginning, but she was able to address it when she found out.

She read the progress reports that were sent home. She had a meeting with Brack and Vitale about V.M.'s grades in December after she received a progress report. Vitale did not have the tests and quizzes. Vitale has her gradebook, but it does not mean anything. As a parent, she has a right to see the tests and quizzes. V.M. never brought any math tests home and she never saw the original tests. She does not know if the grades were good or bad. Vitale should have a folder for the parents to see the grades. If V.M. threw the tests away or did not give them to her he should be able to retake them. Vitale had no way to show her the grades, so she told Vitale to allow him to retake the tests.

On March 5, 2018, she emailed the relevant District employees confirming that V.M.'s grade was supposed to be changed based upon the retakes. She believed the retakes would be substituted for his prior grades because the District did not have the original tests to show her.

V.M. had three points taken off a test for behavior in class, but the points were restored after she questioned it. Points cannot be removed for behavior. It was very difficult for V.M. to be in the class and learn the correct way. After V.M.'s homeroom was changed, everything changed, although Vitale remained his math teacher.

As evidence that V.M.'s grades on the original tests were good, A.O. relies upon the retake grades and that his grades in the third and fourth marking periods were good. If V.M. did not know the first and second marking period material, he would not have been able to do well in the third and fourth marking periods.

The first and second marking period math grades for 2017-2018 should be changed because A.O. does not have any way to see how V.M. did on those tests; his grades for the third and fourth marking periods were good; and his grades on the retakes were also good. If he did not know the material before, he would not know it later. V.M. earned the retake grades because he was able to retake the tests and the teacher cannot show her the original tests.

Lyndsay Vitale

A week to a week and a half prior to a test or quiz, she wrote the date of the test or quiz on the homework board. Thereafter, she daily reminded the students to study. Two days prior she would conduct a review and the students would work either in pairs or individually to try problems in advance and she would help. The following day she would go over every question and answer and ask if the students had any questions. The next day she would give the test or quiz, which would be very similar to the review.

Students had the full period to complete the test. If additional time was needed, it was given to the students. She graded tests either the same day or the following day at the latest so that she was able to put the grades on the parent portal. Parents could call or email her if there were any issues. She returns the tests the day after she enters the grades, if no students were absent. If a student was absent on the day of the test, she waited a day or two, until after the absent student took the test.

At the start of the school year, she instructed the students to get a folder or binder in which they would keep their tests and quizzes. She advised the students that because they were in sixth grade, she would return their tests and quizzes to them to keep so they would learn responsibility and accountability before going to junior high school the following year. She used to keep copies of all tests and quizzes and have the parents sign them, but she discontinued doing so when she began teaching sixth grade. She accurately recorded all the grades in the parent portal prior to returning the tests and quizzes to the students. Parents are able to immediately see the grades.

She noticed that V.M.'s grades were not good. He would get 30's on tests and she would ask him what happened, but he would shrug his shoulders. V.M. fooled around a lot during tests and distracted the other students. Progress reports were generated half-way through each marking period. The progress reports were sent home and parents had to sign them. A.O. never contacted Vitale about V.M.'s progress reports.

The first contact Vitale had with A.O. was in November 2017, when she received an email from A.O. A.O. was upset about certain alleged behavior that Vitale felt was not true, so Vitale spoke to Brack about it. Some time went by and A.O. later advised that she was unhappy with V.M.'s grades. A meeting was set up to discuss it. A.O., V.M., Brack, and Vitale attended the meeting. A.O. was upset that she did not have copies of the tests and quizzes. V.M.'s behavior toward Vitale in a specific class was also discussed. A.O. wanted Vitale to produce the tests and quizzes, but she does not retain a copy of them.

The first and second marking period grades on V.M.'s report card are correct. V.M.'s report card grades were higher than V.M.'s actual grades, because V.M. had 30's on tests and quizzes, but the lowest average grade a student can receive in the computer is 60. Vitale attributed V.M.'s poor performance to not paying attention in class. He started to get better grades after his mother was on top of it, and he started paying attention and his behavior improved. Vitale never made him scared to come to class, and she thought they had a great relationship. He was always smiling, happy, and laughing.

A.O. was very upset that she did not have a copy of the tests and was concerned that V.M. would not be prepared for seventh grade with such low test scores. Brack advised Vitale that V.M. would be allowed to retake the tests and quizzes to allow his mother to see how well he could do, but that it would not change his grades. Vitale spoke to V.M. the following day and explained that he would be allowed to retake the tests and quizzes, but that it would not change his grades. V.M. advised that he knew it would not change his grades, but his mother just wanted him to retake them. Vitale was very clear that his grades would not be changed.

It was agreed upon that the tests would be taken after school hours in Brack's office. Vitale wanted the math coach to correct them. The math coach graded all but one. The grades were much better on the retakes. Based on the retakes, V.M. was prepared for seventh grade math. Vitale never told anyone V.M.'s prior grades would be changed.

The first marking period ends in November, the second marking period ends in January, the third marking period ends in April. The progress reports go out in the middle of a marking period so that a student has time to improve a grade. Progress reports are returned to Vitale. A.O. signed the progress reports for the first and second marking periods. A.O. did not address with Vitale the comments on the progress reports.

Curtis Brack

A.O. approached Brack with an issue about V.M.'s first and second marking period grades. She was concerned based upon V.M.'s grades and wanted to be sure that V.M. would be academically prepared for seventh grade. Brack was aware Vitale did not retain hard copies of the tests and quizzes, so to reassure A.O. that V.M. would be prepared for seventh grade, Brack would allow V.M. to retake the quizzes and his tests in his office. A.O. did not ask Brack to change V.M.'s grades. Changing grades was never a topic of discussion.

V.M. began retaking the tests after school in Brack's office, a neutral location. Another District math employee graded the tests and the tests were given to A.O. Brack became aware that A.O. wanted V.M.'s grades changed around the time that A.O. filed a HIB report. There had been emails about how V.M. was progressing, but there had been no discussion prior about changing grades. Changing a student's grades in this manner would undermine the teacher's professionalism, compromise the integrity of the grading process, and set a bad precedent for the other students. Brack has never changed a student's grades in this manner and he denied A.O.'s request to change V.M.'s grades. At no point did Brack ever indicate to A.O. that the retakes would change V.M.'s first or second marking period grades. He was under the impression that everyone was on the same page about the retakes.

A.O. did not want Vitale to continue as V.M.'s math teacher, but the school has only one sixth-grade math teacher. Several options were considered, including putting V.M. with the fifth-grade math teacher, but Brack did not think was appropriate because the curriculum is different, or having a resource teacher teach him sixth-grade math, but Brack did not think that was appropriate either. The last resort option he discussed with the superintendent was to allow V.M. to switch schools if A.O. really did not want Vitale to be his teacher.

Additional Findings of Fact

A credibility determination requires an "over-all evaluation of the testimony in light of its rationality or internal consistency and the manner in which it hangs together with other evidence." Carbo v. United States, 314 F.2d 718, 749 (9th Cir. 1963). For "testimony to be believed, it must not only proceed from the mouth of a credible witness, but must be credible in itself." Spagnuolo v. Bonnet, 16 N.J. 546, 554-55 (1954). It must be "such as the common experience and observation of mankind can approve as probable in the circumstances." Gallo v. Gallo, 66 N.J. Super. 1, 5 (App. Div. 1961). "'The interest, motive, bias, or prejudice of a witness may affect his credibility and justify the [trier of fact], whose province it is to pass upon the credibility of an interested witness, in disbelieving his testimony.'" State v. Salimone, 19 N.J. Super. 600, 608 (App. Div.) (citation omitted), certif. denied, 10 N.J. 316 (1952).

Petitioner presented no written documentation of an agreement that V.M.'s grades would be changed based upon the retakes. There is an email from Vitale on February 23, 2018 confirming that V.M. would be taking the tests and quizzes in Brack's office after school. However, there was no response to that email from A.O. confirming that grades would be changed based upon the retakes. Vitale and Brack both credibly testified that there was no agreement that V.M.'s grades would be changed based upon the test retakes. Brack explained why he would not have agreed to change V.M.'s grades, and further explained that the retakes were to address A.O.'s concerns about V.M. knowing the material to be prepared for seventh grade. A.O. did not send an email about changing grades until March 5, 2018, which was after she would have been aware that V.M.'s grades on the retakes were significantly higher than his grades on the original tests. Accordingly, I credit the testimony of the Board's witnesses and FIND that there was no agreement that V.M.'s first and second marking period grades would be changed based upon the retakes.

LEGAL ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSION

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9, the commissioner of the Department of Education has jurisdiction to hear and determine, without cost to the parties, all controversies and disputes arising under the school laws. N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.1 et seq. sets forth the rules of procedure for the filing of petitions with the Commissioner of Education to hear and decide controversies and disputes arising under school laws in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9. N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.1(a).

The Petition requests that the Department "intervene in the grade change for [V.M.] as well as investigate the internal administration of the Kearny Board of Education interactions with the internal administration of Garfield Middle School." However, the record is devoid of evidence of the need for an investigation, and petitioner failed to cite to any legal authority to order such investigation. Thus, the sole remaining issue is the grading dispute.

Local boards of education make, amend and repeal rules, consistent with law and the rules of the state board, for the government and management of the public schools. N.J.S.A. 18A:11-1(c).

Petitioner disputes V.M.'s grades primarily because she was not provided with the original graded tests and quizzes. However, she did not request to view the tests or quizzes at any point until late November or December 2017, despite that the grades were available on the parent portal within a day or two of when the test or quiz was taken, and despite that she already had received a report card and progress reports reflecting that V.M. was failing. Vitale testified that it was the student's responsibility to maintain the copies of the tests and quizzes, but V.M. failed to do so. Although there was testimony from A.O. about harassment, intimidation and bullying, there is no evidence of the same in this record. Likewise, there is no evidence in this record that the grades earned by V.M. on the original tests and quizzes were not accurately recorded by Vitale. V.M.'s performance on the retakes, months later and after his mother became involved, does not establish that those were the grades he earned on the original tests and quizzes. I concur with Brack that allowing a student to repeat entire marking periods months later to earn better grades would compromise the integrity of the grading process and set a bad precedent. "School Law vests the management of the public schools in each district in the local boards of education, and unless they violate the law or act in bad faith, the exercise of their discretion in the performance of the duties imposed upon them is not subject to interference or reversal." Kenney v. Bd. of Educ. of the Town of Montclair, Essex County, 938 S.L.D. 647, 653 (1934), aff'd, State Board of Education, 938 S.L.D. 649 (1935). There is no evidence that the Board of Education violated any law, and I CONCLUDE that petitioner has failed to demonstrate that the Board's refusal to change V.M.'s grades was arbitrary, capricious, unreasonable or in bad faith.

ORDER

It is ORDERED that that V.M.'s math grades for the first and second marking periods remain unchanged and that petitioner's Petition be DISMISSED with prejudice.

I hereby FILE this Initial Decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, P.O. Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

January 3, 2019
DATE

KELLY J. KIRK, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: January 3, 2019

Date Mailed to Parties: January 4, 2019

APPENDIX

Witnesses

For Petitioner:

A.O.

For Respondent:

Lyndsay Vitale
Curtis Brack

Exhibits

For Petitioner:

P-1 Report Card 2017-2018
P-2 Tests/Quizzes for Marking Period 1
P-3 Tests/Quizzes for Marking Period 2
P-4 Email, dated February 28, 2018
P-5 Email, dated March 5, 2018
P-6 Email, dated March 6, 2018/February 23, 2018
P-7 HIB Letter, dated March 2, 2018
P-8 Superintendent Letter, dated March 29, 2018; Board Attorney Letters, dated May 17, 2018, and June 19, 2018

For Respondent:

R-1 Progress Report, Marking Period 1
R-2 Progress Report, Marking Period 2

43-19

OAL Dkt. No. EDU 17730-18
Agency Dkt. No. 276-11/18

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

R.C., on behalf of minor child, B.C.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the City of Elizabeth, Union County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, the proposed settlement agreement and release, and the Initial Decision issued by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1, have been reviewed. The Agreement states that the first settlement payment is due on February 1, 2019. This date precedes the consideration of the settlement by the Commissioner of Education. The parties are reminded that a settlement of litigation before the Commissioner is not binding until the Commissioner approves the settlement.

In light of the foregoing, the Commissioner adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter, provided that the parties have already implemented the settlement terms or have agreed upon a mutually satisfactory alternate date for the effectuation of the settlement payment. Assuming same, the matter is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the settlement.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 2/22/19
Date of Mailing: 2/22/19

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SETTLEMENT
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 17730-18
AGENCY DKT. NO. 276-11/18

R.C. ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILD, B.C.,

Petitioner,

v.

CITY OF ELIZABETH BOARD OF EDUCATION, UNION COUNTY,

Respondent.

R.C., Petitioner, pro se

Christina M. DiPalo, Esq., for petitioner (LaCorte, Bundy, Varady & Kinsella, attorneys)

Record Closed: January 10, 2019 Decided: January 14, 2019

BEFORE Carol I. Cohen, ALJ (Ret. on recall):

The Department of Education transmitted the contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to 15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14f-1 TO 13, to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), where it was filed on December 3, 2018.

The parties appeared and voluntarily agreed to resolve all disputed matters and have entered into a settlement as set forth in the attached agreement.

I have reviewed the terms of the settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures and/or the signature of their respective representatives on the attached settlement agreement; and,
2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy between the parties.

ORDER

It is hereby ORDERED that the parties comply with the terms of the settlement agreement; and

It is further ORDERED that petitioner's appeal is withdrawn with prejudice.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

January 14, 2019
DATE

Carol Cohen esb
CAROL I. COHEN, ALJ (Ret. on recall)

Date Received at Agency: 01-18-2019

Date Mailed to Parties: 01-15-2019
db

EDU-17150-18

+B.C. v. Elizabeth Board of Education

The parties agree to mutually dismiss this matter. B.C. agrees to dismiss her appeal and Elizabeth Board of Education agrees to dismiss its counterclaim for tuition; and

In exchange for these dismissals B.C. (Ruth Correa) agrees to pay the sum of $8,457.74, which represents the 06 remaining school days in the 2018-2019 school year. This amount shall be split into five (5) payments amounting to $1,691.55. These payments shall be due on the first of every month, commencing on February 1, 2019. Payments shall be made directly to the law firm of LaCorte, Bundy, Varady & Kinsella, 1999 Bonnel Court, Union NJ 07083.

If BC defaults on the above provision, B.C. is no longer entitled to an education in the Elizabeth school district.

I hereby agree to these terms

Ruth M. Correa
Ruth Correa

Christina M. DiPalo, Esq.
@ Elizabeth Board of Education
1/10/19

45-19

OAL Dkt. No. EDU 13040-18
Agency Dkt. No. 171-7/18

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Phyllis Majewski and Mellk O'Neill,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Franklin, Somerset County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, the proposed settlement agreement and release, and the Initial Decision issued by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1, have been reviewed.

Upon review, the Commissioner[1] approves the settlement terms and adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter. The case is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the settlement.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

ASSISTANT COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 2/25/19

Date of Mailing: 2/26/19

[1] This matter has been delegated to the undersigned Assistant Commissioner pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:4-34.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SETTLEMENT

PHYLLIS MAJEWSKI AND MELLK O'NEILL,
Petitioners,
v.
TOWNSHIP OF FRANKLIN BOARD OF EDUCATION, SOMERSET COUNTY,
Respondent.

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 13040-18
AGENCY DKT. NO. 171-7/18

Edward A. Cridge, Esq., for petitioners (Mellk O'Neill, attorneys)

Robert M. Tosti, Esq., for respondent (Purcell, Mulcahy & Flanagan, LLC, attorneys)

Record Closed: January 7, 2019 Decided: January 9, 2019

BEFORE ELIA A. PELIOS, ALJ:

Petitioners, Phyllis Majewski and Mellk O'Neill seek payment from respondent, Township of Franklin Board of Education, Somerset County, for reasonable costs and attorney's fees pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:16-6.1. The matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) on August 30, 2018, for a hearing.

On January 7, 2019, an executed settlement agreement and Board Resolution authorizing the settlement was received, which is attached and fully incorporated herein.

I have reviewed the record and the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures, and as confirmed by the representations of both counsel.

2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

January 9, 2019
DATE

ELIA A. PELIOS, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: 1-10-19

Date Mailed to Parties: 1-11-19

nd

APPENDIX

LIST OF EXHIBITS

Jointly submitted:

J-1 Settlement Agreement

J-2 Resolution

J-1

RECEIVED

2018 JUN 7 A 3:24

STATE OF NEW JERSEY
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

RELEASE AND SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

WHEREAS, MELLK O'NEILL, having an address at 5 Dutch Lane Street, Hopewell, NJ 08525 ("Releasor") is a New Jersey Law firm; and

WHEREAS, Phyllis Majewski was a teacher employed by the Franklin Township School District Board of Education, Somerset County, New Jersey, having an address at 1755 Amwell Road, Somerset, NJ 08873 (the "Board"); and

WHEREAS, Ms. Majewski was charged with the disorderly persons offense of assault in the matter of State v. Phyllis Majewski, Franklin Township Municipal Court Summons No. SC 2017-018166 (the "Complaint"); and

WHEREAS, The Releasor appeared and defended Ms. Majewski in connection with the aforesaid charge; and

WHEREAS, on April 24, 2018, the aforesaid charge against Ms. Majewski was dismissed; and

WHEREAS, Releasor has demanded that the Board pay to Releasor the costs and fees associated with Ms. Majewski's defense pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:16-6.1, and has filed a Petition with the Commissioner of Education captioned Phyllis Majewski and Mellk O'Neill, Petitioners, v. Franklin Twp. Bd. of Ed., Somerset County, Dept. of Education Agency Dkt. No. 171-7/18, OAL Dkt. No. EDU 13040-2018S (the "Petition") in furtherance of said claim; and,

WHEREAS, in order to avoid expense, expenditure of time, and the uncertainty of litigation, and without admitting any liability whatsoever, both Releasor and the Board wish to fully and finally settle all claims that Releasor may have against the Board, including its predecesors, successors, assigns, and its former and current members, officers, directors, representatives, employees, agents, insurers, and indemnitors, individually, collectively and in their official and individual capacities (hereinafter referred to collectively as the "Releasees");

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the promises and mutual agreements, conditions and covenants contained in this document, and for other good and valuable consideration, the sufficiency of which both parties acknowledge, the Board, and Releasor agree as follows:

1: Upon its receipt of this Agreement, fully executed by Releasor, The Board shall issue payment to Releasor, by way of check payable to MELLK O'NEILL, of in the amount of, Thirty Five Thousand, One Hundred Sixty Five Dollars and Fourteen Cents ($35,165.14) representing $34,982.50 for legal fees, and $182.64 for expenses.

2: Upon receipt of the payment set forth in paragraph 1 above, Releasor, on its behalf and on behalf of its behalf of its partners, shareholders, members, officers, directors, employees, representatives, administrators, successors, successors in interest, and assigns, hereby, freely and unconditionally, waives, releases and forever discharges Releasees from all possible claims, complaints, liabilities, promises, obligations, demands, agreements, damages, debts, dues, sums of money, covenants, and lawsuits, whether presently known or unknown, which may have arisen from the beginning of time through the date of Releasor's signature on this Agreement with respect to the aforesaid costs and fees associated with the defense of Phyllis Majewski in connection with the Complaint. Upon receipt of the payment set forth in paragraph 1 above, Releasor shall further file a Stipulation of Dismissal with Prejudice as to the Petition with the Office of Administrative Law and/or Commissioner of Education, and/or take the action necessary to effectuate the dismissal of same.

3: The signatory below hereby declares and represents that that he is duly authorized and empowered to make this Release; that he has never been declared incompetent by any court or administrative agency; that no representation respecting the nature and extent of any injuries, disabilities, damages, legal liability or financial responsibility made by any representative, attorney, agent or employee of Releasees has induced Releasor to make this settlement; that in determining the sum it has accepted, Releasor has taken into account not only the ascertained injuries, but also unknown and/or unanticipated injuries, disabilities, losses and damages to which it recognizes and agrees this Release shall also apply.

4: It is understood that the parties hereby released admit no liability of any sort, for injury, loss or damage of any kind, incident, act, casualty or event. It is further recognized and understood that this Release constitutes the good faith compromise of disputed claims, and is made in good faith to terminate any further controversy respecting all claims for damages that Releasor may have heretofore asserted or might hereafter assert because of any incidents, acts, casualties, or events, described or alluded to hereinabove.

5: Releasor also covenants and agrees that:

a: This Release may be pleaded as a defense to any action or other proceeding which may be brought or instituted against Releasees in breach hereof.

b: This release will serve to discharge all claims made or claims which could have been made by Phyllis Majewski and the New Jersey Education Association Releasor will hold harmless and indemnify Releasees from and for any and all actions, causes of action, damages and costs, including reasonable attorney's fees, incurred in defense of or in settlement of all actions, causes of action, suit or suits, or demands, third-party or otherwise, which may be brought or made against said Releasees arising out of the matters discharged and released hereby.

6: Releasor agrees and understands that Releasor is solely responsible for any and all tax obligations resulting from payments made pursuant to this Release, if any, including, but not limited to, all reporting and payment obligations which may arise from the payment of the settlement consideration. Releasor further agrees that she will indemnify Releasees from any liability resulting or arising from non-payment of any such tax obligations.

7: This Release contains the entire agreement between the parties hereto, and the terms of this Release and Settlement Agreement are contractual and not a mere recital.

RELEASOR FURTHER STATES that it has carefully read the foregoing Release and Settlement Agreement and knows the contents hereof, and signs the same as its own voluntary free act.

SIGNED AND DATED this 13th day of December 2018.

MELLK O'NEILL

By: Arnold M. Mellk, Esq.
Managing Partner

STATE OF NEW JERSEY)
) ss.:
COUNTY OF MERCER)

On December 13, 2018, before me personally came Arnold M. Mellk, Esq., known to me to be the individual whose signature appears above and who executed the foregoing RELEASE, and duly acknowledged to me that he executed same.

Edward A. Cridge, Esq.
NJ Bar ID No. 026462006

J-2

EXTRACT FROM THE MINUTES OF A MEETING
THE BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF FRANKLIN, NEW JERSEY
AS RECORDED IN THE OFFICIAL MINUTE BOOK

The Board of Education of the Township of Franklin in the County of Somerset, New Jersey convened in Public Session on Thursday, December 20, 2018 at 6:30 pm.

The following members of the board were present: Ms. Danielson, Ms. Merris, Mr. Seamon, Ms. Shelton, Ms. Singh, Dr. Smith, Ms. Steele and Ms. LaCorte.

The following resolution was offered by Ms. Singh, seconded by Ms. Danielsen, and adopted by the Board of Education:

BE IT RESOLVED THAT, upon the recommendation of insurance counsel, that the case of Majewski et al v. Franklin Township BOE, Commissioner of Education, OAL Docket No, EDU 13040-2018S, and in accordance with the indemnification statute, N.J.S.A. 18A:16-6.1, be settled in the total amount of $35,165.14, the District being responsible for the deductible amount of $5,000.00 only;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that insurance counsel be authorized to execute the appropriate documents, closing the case. (CONFIDENTIAL Exhibit A-05)

ROLL CALL: AYES: 8
NOES: 0
ABST: 0

STATE OF NEW JERSEY }
} ss
COUNTY OF SOMERSET }

I, Jonathan Toth, Secretary of the Board of Education of Franklin Township Public Schools, in the County of Somerset, State of New Jersey, hereby certify that the foregoing extract from the minutes of the meeting of the Board of said district, fully called and held on December 20, 2018 at 6:30 pm, has been compared by me with the original minutes as officially recorded in my office in the minute book of said Franklin Township Board of Education, original minutes so far as the same related to the subject matter referred to in said extract, in witness I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the corporate seal of said Board of Education this 21st day of December 2018.

Jonathan Toth, Board Secretary

46-19LM

State of New Jersey
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION
PO Box 500
TRENTON, NJ 08625-0500

PHILIP D. MURPHY
Governor

SHEILA Y. OLIVER
Lt. Governor

LAMONT O. REPOLLET, ED.D.
Commissioner

February 25, 2019

Edward Cridge, Esq.
Mellk O'Neill
51 East Broad Street
Hopewell, New Jersey 08525

Casey P. Acker, Esq.
Lenox, Socey, Formidoni, Giordano, Cooley, Lang & Casey
136 Franklin Corner Road, Unit B2
Lawrenceville, New Jersey 08648

Re: Ann Bull v. Board of Education of the Township of Hamilton, Mercer County, OAL Dkt. No. EDU 10053-18, Agency Dkt. No. 138-6/18

Dear Counsel:

I have reviewed the papers filed in connection with respondent's request for interlocutory review of Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) Tama B. Hughes's order issued February 13, 2019, compelling respondent to disclose – for purposes of the above-referenced Harassment, Intimidation and Bullying (HIB) appeal – the unredacted HIB investigative report, as well as witness statements, attendance records, math grades, and the names and addresses of the individuals interviewed as part of the HIB investigation. Upon full consideration of all of the submitted materials, I have determined not to grant interlocutory review, pursuant to my discretion under N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.10.[1]

Accordingly, respondent's request for interlocutory review is hereby denied.

Sincerely,

Lamont O. Repollet, Ed.D.
Commissioner

LOR/SP/BCM
cc: Tama B. Hughes, Administrative Law Judge
Clerk, Office of Administrative Law

VIA FACSIMILE AND REGULAR MAIL

[1] With respect to the parties' arguments regarding whether minor and student witnesses may be required to testify at a hearing on the merits, such arguments may be raised if, and when, the issue arises.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

ORDER

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 10053-18
AGENCY DKT.. NO. 138-6/18

ANN BULL,
Petitioner,
v.
THE BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THETOWNSHIP OF HAMILTON ,
MERCER COUNTY,
Respondent.

Edward A. Cridge, Esq., for petitioner (Mellk O'Neill, attorneys)

Casey P. Acker, Esq., and Patrick F. Carrigg, Esq., for respondent (Lenox, Socey, Formidoni, Giordano, Cooley, Lang & Casey, LLC, attorney)

BEFORE TAMA B. HUGHES, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Ann Bull (petitioner) appeals the Board of Education of the Township of Hamilton's (respondent) determination that she committed an act of Harassment, Intimidation and Bullying (HIB) in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:37-15 et seq. Petitioner is seeking to compel discovery - the unredacted HIB investigative report, witness interview statements, student records and the home addresses of all those interviewed.

LEGAL ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSIONS

According to N.J.A.C. 1:1-10.1(a), "[t]he purpose of discovery is to facilitate the disposition of cases by streamlining the hearing and enhancing the likelihood of settlement or withdrawal." The discovery rules under the Uniform Administrative Procedure Rules "are designed to achieve this purpose by giving litigants access to facts which tend to support or undermine their position or that of their adversary." N.J.A.C. 1:1-10.1(a). Thus, "[i]t is not ground for denial of a request for discovery that the information to be produced may be inadmissible in evidence if the information sought appears reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence." N.J.A.C. 1:1-10.1(b). N.J.A.C. 1:1-10.1(c) states:

> [i]n considering a discovery motion, the judge shall weigh the specific need for the information, the extent to which the information is within the control of the party and matters of expense, privilege, trade secret and oppressiveness. Except where so proceeding would be unduly prejudicial to the party seeking discovery, discovery shall be ordered on terms least burdensome to the party from whom discovery is sought.

Petitioner asserts that she has the right to meaningfully investigate the charges levied against her and develop her own proofs. This right includes access to the information and/or witnesses which respondent relied upon in reaching its HIB determination and who may be called upon to testify at the hearing. To this end, petitioner seeks the unredacted HIB investigative report, witness statements and the records (i.e. grades, attendance, disciplinary and IEP) of the students who were interviewed as part of the investigation among other things.

Respondent argues that petitioner is not entitled to the unredacted investigative report or the confidential school records of the students who were interviewed as part of the investigation and that the information/records in question are not relevant to the underlying charges.

N.J.S.A. 18A:37-15 provides that each school district shall adopt a policy prohibiting harassment, intimidation or bullying on school property and that a procedure is put in place for a prompt investigation of reports of violations and complaints. The results of the investigation are required to be reported to the superintendent of schools within two school days of the completion of the investigation and reported to the board of education no later than the date of the board of education meeting next following the completion of the investigation.

N.J.S.A. 18A:37-15(b)(6)(d) states in pertinent part:

> [P]arents or guardians of the students who are parties to the investigation shall be entitled to receive information about the investigation, in accordance with federal and State law and regulation, including the nature of the investigation, whether the district found evidence of harassment, intimidation, or bullying, or whether discipline was imposed or services provided to address the incident of harassment, intimidation, or bullying. . . A parent or guardian may request a hearing before the board after receiving the information, and the hearing shall be held within 10 days of the request. The board shall meet in executive session for the hearing to protect the confidentiality of the students. At the hearing the board may hear from the school anti-bullying specialist about the incident, recommendations for discipline or services, and any programs instituted to reduce such incidents.

Staff members are subject to the Anti-Bullying Act and as such, are also entitled to the same procedural protections. See K.T. ex rel. K.H. & T.D. v. Bd. Of Educ. Twp. of Deerfield, EDU 0278-13, final decision (July 30, 2013); S.G. v Board of Education of the Hunterdon Central Regional School District, Hunterdon County (unpublish Docket No. A-5199-15T3).

Here, respondent provided the Tribunal, for in-camera inspection, the unredacted investigative report and student records of those students who were interviewed as part of the investigative process. In looking through the same, I FIND that petitioner is entitled to understand the breath and scope of respondent's investigation and should be provided the opportunity to meaningfully investigate the charges levied against her and prepare her defense. Therefore, I CONCLUDE that petitioner is entitled to the following information: 1) The unredacted HIB investigative report including witness statements; 2) The math grades of all students interviewed; 3) The attendance records of all students interviewed; and 4) The names and addresses of all individuals interviewed as part of the HIB investigation.

Also reviewed were the disciplinary records of the students that were interviewed. I CONCLUDE that such records are not germane to the issue before this Tribunal and therefore should not be disclosed. Last, upon representation of counsel for the respondent, none of the students interviewed as part of the HIB investigation have IEP's therefore this request by petitioner is moot.

ORDER

For the reasons cited above, it is ORDERED that petitioner's request for a copy of the unredacted HIB investigative report and witness statements; the math grades of all students interviewed for the relevant time period in question; the attendance records of all students interviewed for the relevant time period in question; and the names and addresses of all individuals interviewed as part of the HIB investigation is GRANTED. It is further ORDERED that the release of this information shall be in accordance with the requirements of the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) and subject to a Protective Order A fully executed Protective Order shall be provided to the Tribunal within two weeks of the issuance of this Order.

Additionally, it is ORDERED that petitioner's request for the disciplinary and other academic records of the students interviewed as part of the HIB investigation is DENIED.

This order may be reviewed by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, either upon interlocutory review pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.10 or at the end of the contested case, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.6.

February 13, 2019
DATE

TAMA B. HUGHES, ALJ

tat/lam

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

N.S., on behalf of minor child, S.B.-S.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Kingsway Regional High School District, Hudson County, Respondent.

Synopsis

Petitioner appealed the respondent Board's decision to impose discipline upon her minor son for violating the school district's code of conduct after he was involved in an altercation with a classmate, specifically challenging the severity of the punishment imposed. The Board filed a motion for summary decision, contending that the Commissioner does not have jurisdiction to hear the appeal; in the alternative, the Board argued that its decision must be upheld because it was not arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable. The petitioner opposed the motion, arguing that the Student Code of Conduct Tier I penalty of four "administrative lunch detentions" would have been a more appropriate punishment than the Tier II penalty of four extended school days which S.B.-S. was assessed for his infraction.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: there are no genuine issues of material fact in this case, and the matter is ripe for summary decision; pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9, the Commissioner has jurisdiction to hear all controversies and disputes arising under the school laws; the regulations governing pupil discipline, N.J.A.C. 6A:16-7.1-9, specifically address the due process rights of students who are suspended or expelled for code of conduct violations, including the right of appeal to the Commissioner; the regulations do not, however, address this right of appeal for less serious forms of discipline that do not result in removal of the student from the classroom; in the instant case, the Commissioner's enormously broad jurisdiction over school matters extends to disputes arising under the school laws and regulations governing student conduct and discipline; the Board had a reasonable basis for concluding that S.B.-S. committed a Tier II offense, namely violating the rule requiring students to "Respect the Rights of Others"; the proper procedures were followed in reviewing the discipline imposed upon S.B.-S.; and the petitioner failed to raise any genuine issues of fact to show that the Board's disciplinary decision was arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable. Accordingly, the ALJ granted summary decision to the Board, and dismissed the petition.

Upon comprehensive review of the record, and for the reasons stated in the Initial Decision, the Commissioner concurred with the ALJ's determination that the Board did not act in an arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable manner when it imposed a penalty of four extended school days upon S.B.-S. for violation of the Student Code of Conduct. The Commissioner is also in accord with the ALJ's determination that he has jurisdiction over this matter. Accordingly, the Initial Decision was adopted as the final decision in this matter and the petition was dismissed.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

February 25, 2019

OAL Dkt. No. EDU 7378-18
Agency Dkt. No. 90-4/18

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

N.S., on behalf of minor child, S.B.-S.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Kingsway High School District, Gloucester County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed. The parties did not file exceptions to the Initial Decision.

Upon a comprehensive review of the record, and for the reasons stated in the Initial Decision, the Commissioner concurs with the Administrative Law Judge's (ALJ) determination that the Board did not act in an arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable manner when it imposed a penalty of four extended school days upon S.B.-S. as discipline for an incident that involved another student. The Commissioner is also in accord with the ALJ's determination that the Commissioner has jurisdiction over this matter.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision is adopted as the final decision in this matter and the petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 2/25/19
Date of Mailing: 2/27/19

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to P.L. 2008, c. 36 (N.J.S.A 18A:6-9.1).

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SUMMARY DECISION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 07378-18
AGENCY DKT. NO. 90-4/18

N.S. ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILD S.B.-S.,
Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE KINGSWAY REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT, GLOUCESTER COUNTY,
Respondent.

N.S., on behalf of minor child S.B.-S., petitioner, pro se

Allan P. Dzwilewski, Esq., for respondent (Weiner Law Group LLP, attorneys)

Record Closed: December 18, 2018 Decided: January 10, 2019

BEFORE ELIA A. PELIOS, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner N.S., on behalf of her minor son, S.B.-S., appeals respondent, Board of Education of the Kingsway Regional High School District, Gloucester County's (Board) decision to punish him with four extended school days for violating its code of conduct as a result of an altercation he had with a classmate.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On April 16, 2018, N.S. on behalf of minor child S.B.-S. filed a petition with the Commissioner of Education challenging the Board's decision. On May 16, 2018, the Board filed an answer to the petition. The matter was transmitted to the OAL as a contested case on May 18, 2018.[1]

The Board filed a motion for summary decision on September 27, 2018. The Board argues that the Commissioner does not have jurisdiction to hear this appeal. In the alternative, the Board argues that even if this appeal were properly before the Commissioner, the Board's decision must be upheld because it was not arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable. Petitioner opposed the Board's motion on October 9, 2018.[2] Petitioner contends S.B.-S. "could have and should have received" the lesser Tier I (M) offense "General Misconduct" and four "administrative lunch detentions" instead of four extended school days for the Tier II (P) offense. Pet. Brief at p. 2. The Board filed its reply brief on October 22, 2018. Multiple subsequent correspondence was received from both parties and was reviewed, but did not impact the outcome of this decision.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION AND FINDINGS

On January 29, 2018, near the end of drama class at Kingsway Regional High School (Kingsway), the teacher asked S.B.-S., a male student, to collect the props that were used during class. (Informational/Statement form completed by S.B.-S. on January 29, 2018.) A female student was wearing one of those props, a bandana, on her head. S.B.-S. said that when he attempted to remove the bandana, her hair got caught in it. Ibid. He claimed it was accidental, and that he apologized. Ibid. The female student believed that S.B.-S. intentionally pulled her hair. (Disciplinary Referral form). A few minutes later, the female student approached S.B.-S. and slapped him in the face. Ibid. S.B.-S. told her "to get her boyfriend because he wasn't going to fight a girl." Ibid.

---

[1] The transmittal form describes the nature of the case as: "Petitioning parent challenges Board's HIB [Harassment Intimidation and Bullying] determination." There is no indication in the record, however, that this matter implicates the Anti-Bullying Bill of Rights Act, N.J.S.A. 18A:37-13, et seq.

[2] Petitioner did not include an affidavit in her opposition papers.

The teacher, Andrew Young, ordered both students to Kingsway's Assistant Principal's office. (Email from Mr. Young to Ms. Stowman-Burke dated January 31, 2018.) That same day, Assistant Principal Monique Stowman-Burke filled out a "Disciplinary Referral Form" for S.B.-S., charging him with violating the student code of conduct. Kingsway's Code of Conduct, which is part of the Student Handbook, includes a tiered system for imposing discipline (Tiers I, II, III, and IV). Board's Brief, Ex. A. Each Tier lists a number of different offenses (identified by letter) and a corresponding disciplinary action that should be taken (depending on the number of offenses committed). Id. at pp. 41-44.

S.B.-S. was charged with a Tier II (P) offense: "Respect the rights of others [physically, sexually, and verbally (spoken, written or electronic)] including but not limited to hazing, harassment, ridicule, embarrassment, inflammatory statements, slur, and racial/religious comments." Id. at p. 42. For first-time offenders like S.B.-S., the Tier II (P) offense carries discipline of four "extended school days." Ibid. As the name suggests, an "extended school day" means more time in school: instead of being dismissed at regular time, 2:18 p.m., the student must report to a dedicated classroom from 2:30 to 5:30 p.m. Id. at p. 37. This form of discipline is reserved "for students who commit serious infractions" and "for repeat offenders." Ibid.

Assistant Principal Stowman-Burke notified S.B.-S.'s mother (petitioner) of the altercation. The two spoke again by phone the following day, January 30, 2018, and met in person on January 31, 2018. (Letter from petitioner to Dr. Lavender dated February 14, 2018 at pp. 3-4.)

The code of conduct gives students "the right to appeal the discipline decision of a school administrator." Board's Brief, Ex. A at p. 45. The appeal process begins with an informal conference. Ibid. If the matter is not resolved at the conference, the disciplinary decision can be appealed to the assistant principal. Ibid. If the matter remains unresolved, the decision can be appealed to the principal, who must render a written decision. Ibid. The principal's decision can then be appealed to the superintendent, who must also render a written decision. Ibid. Finally, the superintendent's decision can be appealed to the Board, and the Board must "hear the appeal at the next scheduled Board meeting." Ibid.

Petitioner requested a disciplinary appeal hearing, which was held on February 13, 2018. (Letter from petitioner to Mr. Mueller and Ms. Boerlin dated March 11, 2018 at p. 7.) By letter dated February 21, 2018, Kingsway's Principal, Craig Stephenson, upheld the disciplinary decision, finding that S.B.-S. "did commit the violation 'Respecting the Rights of Others' physically when he did pull a hat off another student's head and verbally when he exchanged inappropriate and threatening language with the other student." (Letter from Mr. Stephenson to petitioner dated February 21, 2018.)

Petitioner then appealed that decision to the Superintendent, Dr. James Lavender, who conducted his own investigation, in which he interviewed S.B.-S., the female student, and three other witnesses. (Letter from Dr. Lavender to petitioner dated March 7, 2018.). He found that both students gave "contradictory accounts" of the physical and verbal altercation. Id. at p. 2. S.B.-S. testified that when he removed the bandana from the female student's head, he may have inadvertently pulled her hair. Id. at p. 1. The female student testified that S.B.-S. pulled her hair "so hard that it pulled her over." Ibid. When she confronted S.B.-S. about why he pulled her hair, she said he laughed and she slapped him in the face. Ibid. She also testified that when she turned to walk away, S.B.-S. slapped the back of her head. Ibid.

The Superintendent also found that the witness testimony supported the conclusion that "both students played equal roles in the incident." Id. at p. 2. The first witness testified that S.B.-S. pulled the female student's hair when he grabbed the bandana from her head and she responded by slapping him in the face. Id. at p. 1. That witness also testified that S.B.-S. later pushed and/or grabbed the female student's head. Ibid. The second witness did not see the physical altercation but heard the students yelling at one another. Ibid. The third witness testified that S.B.-S. pulled the female student's hair and she slapped him in response. Ibid. That witness also testified that "both students were loud, disrupted class, and the teacher responded by calling for an administrator to assist." Ibid.

The superintendent also spoke to the school nurse who examined both students. Id. at p. 2. The nurse confirmed the S.B.-S.'s cheek was red from being slapped. Ibid. The nurse also said that although the female student claimed her head hurt and was noticeably upset, she did not sustain any injuries. Ibid. Based on these findings, the superintendent concluded that "the assistant principal, and principal, has administered the code of conduct correctly." Id. at p. 2.

Next, petitioner appealed that decision to the Board. (Letter from the Board to petitioner dated March 26, 2018.) The Board held an executive meeting on March 15, 2018, during which petitioner, S.B.-S.'s grandfather, and the superintendent offered testimony and answered questions. (Transcript of executive meeting transcribed by petitioner). By letter dated March 26, 2018, the Board notified petitioner that it had voted on March 22, 2018 to uphold the superintendent's decision.[3] Ibid.

On April 13, 2018, petitioner filed a juvenile delinquency complaint against the female student for simple assault in Superior Court, Chancery Division, Family Part, County of Gloucester.

On April 16, 2018, N.S. filed a petition with the Commissioner of Education challenging the Board's decision. On May 16, 2018, the Board filed an answer to the petition. The matter was transmitted to the OAL as a contested case on May 18, 2018.

The Board filed a motion for summary decision on September 27, 2018. The Board argues that the Commissioner does not have jurisdiction to hear this appeal. In the alternative, the Board argues that even if this appeal were properly before the Commissioner, the Board's decision must be upheld because it was not arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable. Petitioner opposed the Board's motion on October 9, 2018. Petitioner contends S.B.-S. "could have and should have received" the lesser Tier I (M) offense "General Misconduct" and four "administrative lunch detentions" instead of four extended school days for the Tier II (P) offense. Pet. Brief at p. 2. The Board filed its reply brief on October 22, 2018.

[3] S.B.-S. has served one of the four extended school days.

The factual history for purposes of this motion reflects the procedural history of this matter as described above. To the extent it does not appear to be in dispute, the preceding statements are hereby FOUND as FACT.

LEGAL ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSIONS

Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(b), summary decision "may be rendered if the papers and discovery which have been filed, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact challenged and that the moving party is entitled to prevail as a matter of law." This rule is substantially similar to the summary judgment rule embodied in the New Jersey Court Rules, R. 4:46-2. See, Judson v. Peoples Bank & Trust Co. of Westfield, 17 N.J. 67, 74 (1954). In connection therewith, all inferences of doubt are drawn against the movant and in favor of the party against whom the motion is directed. Id. at 75. In Brill v. Guardian Life Insurance Co., 142 N.J. 520 (1995), the New Jersey Supreme Court addressed the appropriate test to be employed in determining the motion:

> [A] determination whether there exists a 'genuine issue' of material fact that precludes summary judgment requires the motion judge to consider whether the competent evidential materials presented, when viewed in the light most favorable to the non-moving party, are sufficient to permit a rational fact finder to resolve the alleged disputed issue in favor of the non-moving party. The 'judge's function is not . . . to weigh the evidence and determine the truth of the matter but to determine whether there is a genuine issue for trial.'
>
> [Brill, 142 N.J. at 540 (citations omitted).]

The mere existence of disputed facts is not conclusive. An agency must grant a plenary hearing only if material disputed adjudicative facts exist. Bally Mfg. Corp. v. Casino Control Com'n, 85 N.J. 325, 334, 426 A.2d 1000 (1981), App. Div. 454 U.S. 804, 102 S.Ct. 77, 70 L.Ed.2d 74 (1981); Cunningham v. Dept. of Civil Service, 69 N.J. at 24-25, 350 A.2d 58. N.J.S.A. 52:14B-9. Here, the parties do not dispute any material facts. Accordingly, I CONCLUDE, that summary decision as a matter of law is appropriate.

As part of this matter, the Board has filed a motion for summary decision, arguing that the Commissioner lacks jurisdiction to review the Board's decision, and in the alternative, that the Board's decision must be upheld because it was not arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable. In opposition, petitioner does not dispute that S.B.-S. should have been disciplined but argues that he should have received a lesser punishment for his role in the altercation.

Generally, the Commissioner of Education has jurisdiction to hear "all controversies and disputes arising under the school laws . . . or under the rules of the State board or of the commissioner." N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9. Under the school laws, a board of education shall "[p]erform all acts and do all things, consistent with law and the rules of the state board, necessary for the lawful and proper conduct, equipment and maintenance of the public schools of the district." N.J.S.A. 18A:11-1(d). The school laws further provide that "[p]upils in the public schools shall comply with the rules established in pursuance of law for the government of such schools, pursue the prescribed course of study and submit to the authority of the teachers and others in authority over them." N.J.S.A. 18A:37-1.

The regulations governing pupil discipline, N.J.A.C. 6A:16-7.1 to -7.9, require boards of education to adopt a code of conduct "that establishes standards, policies, and procedures for positive student development and student behavioral expectations on school grounds" and that includes "[a] description of school responses to violations of behavioral expectations established by the district board of education that, at a minimum, are graded according to the severity of the offenses, and consider the developmental ages of the student offenders and their histories of inappropriate behaviors[.]" N.J.A.C. 6A:16-7.1(a) and (c)(5). Those regulations specifically address the due process rights of students who are suspended or expelled for code of conduct violations, including the right of appeal to the Commissioner. See, N.J.A.C. 6A:16-7.2(c), Short-term suspensions; N.J.A.C. 6A:16-7.3(b), Long-term suspensions; N.J.A.C. 6A:16-7.4(b), Expulsions. However, those provisions do not address a right of appeal to the Commissioner for less serious forms of discipline that do not result in removing a student from the classroom.

The absence of an explicit right of appeal of minor discipline does not necessarily mean that the Commissioner lacks jurisdiction over a petition alleging that a board of education inappropriately punished a student for violating its code of conduct. Instead, the Commissioner has enormously broad jurisdiction over school matters. To the extent the dispute in this matter arises under the school laws and regulations governing student conduct and discipline, I CONCLUDE that the Commissioner has jurisdiction to hear this matter.

The question then becomes whether the Board improperly imposed four extended school days on S.B.-S. as punishment for violating the code of student conduct. J.D. and E.D. ex rel. B.D. v. Bd. of Educ. Toms River Reg'l Sch. Dist., EDU 6009-97, Initial Decision (December 29, 1997) adopted, Comm'r (July 8, 1998) <https://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/>. Indeed, an action by a board of education "is entitled to a presumption of correctness and will not be upset unless there is an affirmative showing that such decision was arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable." Thomas v. Morris Twp. Bd. of Educ., 89 N.J. Super. 327, 332 (App. Div. 1965).

Turning to the substance of this matter, petitioner does not dispute that S.B.-S. should have been disciplined for his role in the drama class altercation. Rather, petitioner contends that S.B.-S. "could have and should have received" the lesser Tier I (M) offense "General Misconduct" and four "administrative lunch detentions" instead of four extended school days for the Tier II (P) offense "Respect the Rights of Others."[4] Pet. Brief at p. 2.

Despite this contention, the Board had a reasonable basis for concluding that S.B.-S. violated the Tier II (P) offense "Respect the Rights of Others" and therefore, that disciplinary decision should not be disturbed.

---

[4] The Tier I (M) offense is "General misconduct [Including, but no limited to: profanity, loitering, inappropriate physical contact (P.D.A.), disruption to the academic environment and improper use of a hall pass]." Ex. A at p. 41. An "administrative lunch detention" is "typically the primary behavioral intervention used to address most Tier I and Tier II discipline code violations." Id. at p. 36.

Petitioner does not offer much explanation or factual support for her contention. Instead, she primarily argues that the other student in the incident should have been more severely punished. However, parents generally do not have the right to appeal discipline imposed on a student who is not their child. U.K. & G.K. ex rel. D.K. v. Bd. of Educ. of the City of Clifton, 93 N.J.A.R.2d (EDU) 71.

In reviewing the discipline imposed by the Assistant Principal, Kingsway followed the proper procedure outlined in the code of conduct. As mentioned previously, students have "the right to appeal the discipline decision of a school administrator." Board's Brief, Ex. A at p. 45. The appeal process begins with an Informal Conference. Ibid. If the matter is not resolved at the conference, the disciplinary decision can be appealed to the assistant principal. Ibid. If the matter remains unresolved, the decision can be appealed to the principal, who must render a written decision. Ibid. The principal's decision can then be appealed to the superintendent, who must also render a written decision. Ibid. Finally, the superintendent's decision can be appealed to the board of education, and the Board must "hear the appeal at the next scheduled Board meeting." Ibid.

At petitioner's request, a disciplinary appeal hearing was held on February 13, 2018. (Letter from petitioner to Mr. Mueller and Ms. Boerlin dated March 11, 2018 at p. 7.) Following that hearing, the principal upheld the disciplinary decision, finding that S.B.-S. "did commit the violation 'Respecting the Rights of Others' physically when he did pull a hat off another student's head and verbally when he exchanged inappropriate and threatening language with the other student." (Letter from Mr. Stephenson to petitioner dated February 21, 2018.)

Petitioner then requested that the superintendent review the decision. (Letter from Dr. Lavender to petitioner dated March 7, 2018.) The superintendent conducted an independent investigation in which he interviewed S.B.-S., the female student, and three other witnesses. Id. at p. 1. He found that both students gave "contradictory accounts" of the physical and verbal altercation. Id. at p. 2. S.B.-S. testified that when he removed the bandana from the female student's head, he may have inadvertently pulled her hair. Id. at p. 1. The female student testified that S.B.-S. pulled her hair "so hard that it pulled her over." Ibid. When she confronted S.B.-S. about why he pulled her hair, she said he laughed and she slapped him in the face. Ibid. She also testified that when she turned to walk away, S.B.-S. slapped the back of her head. Ibid.

The superintendent also found that the witness testimony supported the conclusion that "both students played equal roles in the incident." Id. at p. 2. The first witness testified that S.B.-S. pulled the female student's hair when he grabbed the bandana from her head and she responded by slapping him in the face. Id. at p. 1. That witness also testified that S.B.-S. later pushed and/or grabbed the female student's head. Ibid. The second witness did not see the physical altercation but heard the students yelling at one another. Ibid. The third witness testified that S.B.-S. pulled the female student's hair and she slapped him in response. Ibid. That witness also testified that "both students were loud, disrupted class, and the teacher responded by calling for an administrator to assist. Ibid.

The superintendent also spoke to the school nurse who examined both students. Id. at p. 2. The nurse confirmed the S.B.-S.'s cheek was red from being slapped. Ibid. The nurse also said that although the female student claimed her head hurt and was noticeably upset, she did not sustain any injuries. Ibid.

Based on these findings, the superintendent concluded that "the assistant principal, and principal, has administered the code of conduct correctly." Id. at p. 2. The Board voted to uphold the superintendent's decision on March 22, 2018 after holding an executive meeting on March 15, 2018, during which petitioner, S.B.-S.'s grandfather, and the superintendent offered testimony and answered questions. (Transcript of executive meeting transcribed by petitioner).

Again, petitioner concedes that S.B.-S. should have been disciplined for his role in the incident but disagrees with the type of discipline imposed. But, as has been held before, "disagreement with the punishment given is not enough to overcome the discretion afforded to the Board, even if the punishment was not the most appropriate or effective means of discipline." T.B.M. ex rel. M.M. v. Moorestown Bd. of Educ., EDU 2780-07, Initial Decision (February 6, 2008) adopted, Comm'r (April 7, 2008) <https://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/>. Here, petitioner has failed to raise any genuine issues of material fact showing that the Board's decision to impose four extended school days on S.B.-S. for violating the code of conduct was arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable.[5] For this reason, I CONCLUDE that the Board's motion for summary decision should be GRANTED.

ORDER

The Board's motion for summary decision is GRANTED. Petitioner's claim is hereby DISMISSED. Hearings in this matter, scheduled for January 14 and 15, 2019, are hereby ADJOURNED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

---

[5] While neither party specifically mentioned the fact that S.B.-S. is a special education student, petitioner included in her papers S.B.-S.' Individualized Education Program (IEP), which indicates that he has been diagnosed with "Adjustment Disorder with Anxiety." Under the State regulations implementing the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, 20 U.S.C. 1400 to -1482, a school district may, for disciplinary reasons, remove a special education student from the classroom for up to ten days without first determining whether the misconduct was a manifestation of the student's disability. N.J.A.C. 6A:14-2.8. The State regulations further provide that "[s]chool district personnel may, on a case-by-case basis, consider any unique circumstances when determining whether or not to impose a disciplinary sanction . . . for a student with a disability who violates a school code of conduct." Ibid. Thus, it does not appear that this matter, which does not involve a removal from the classroom for ten days or more, involves special education issues that are outside of the Commissioner's jurisdiction. Also, while it does not appear that the Board considered S.B.-S.' disability in determining the appropriate punishment, State law provides a school district with discretion to consider a disability in punishing a special education student, and petitioner did not argue here that the Board should have considered S.B.-S' disability.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

January 10, 2019
DATE

ELIA A. PELIOS, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: January 10, 2019

Date Mailed to Parties: January 10, 2019

nd

50-19LM

State of New Jersey
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION
PO BOX 500
TRENTON, NJ 08625-0500

PHILIP D. MURPHY
Governor

SHEILA Y. OLIVER
Lt. Governor

LAMONT O. REPOLLET, ED.D.
Commissioner

February 27, 2019

William S. Donio, Esq.
Cooper Levenson
1125 Atlantic Avenue
Atlantic City, New Jersey 08401

Joseph A. Marrazzo, Jr., Esq.
1010 Haddonfield-Berlin Road
Suite 304
Voorhees, New Jersey 08043

Re: Under the Sun Learning Center of Marlton, Inc., A.M.P. Land Enterprises, L.P., and Thomas A. Petruzzi v. Board of Education of the Township of Evesham, Burlington County, Agency Dkt. No. 256-9/14, Commissioner Decision No. 323-18.

Dear Counsel:

I have reviewed the materials filed by the parties in connection with respondent's Motion to Stay the Commissioner's October 19, 2018 decision ("the Decision").[1]

Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6(b), a motion to stay is considered an extraordinary remedy that may only be granted upon a finding that the moving party has met each prong of the four-part test set forth in Crowe v. DeGioia, 90 N.J. 126 (1982). The movant must establish that: they will suffer irreparable harm without such relief; the legal right underlying their claim is settled; they have a likelihood of prevailing on the merits; and, in the weighing of the equities and interests, they will suffer greater harm if relief is not granted.

The Board argues that it will suffer irreparable harm if the matter is not stayed because it will lose considerable revenues that the District generates and relies on from year-to-year. The Board also argues that the children and parents of Teddy Bear Academy ("TBA"), and the District's high school students receiving credit for working with the child care program, will be adversely impacted if the stay is not granted. Respondent argues that it has a likelihood of prevailing on the merits before the Appellate Division because the Commissioner narrowly interpreted the subject provision of N.J.S.A. 18A:20-34. Respondent contends that it will suffer greater harm if the stay is not granted, as there is no foreseeable, irreparable harm to petitioners since the decision does not impact petitioners' ability to operate their business. Petitioners oppose the motion, arguing that the Board has failed to establish that it will suffer irreparable harm, and has not shown that it will prevail on the merits.

[1] The Decision is presently on appeal at the Superior Court of New Jersey, Appellate Division.

Upon review of the submissions, I find that the Board has failed to meet the standard for granting a stay of the October 19, 2018 decision.[2] The Commissioner is unpersuaded by the Board's arguments, which do not provide any evidence or information that the Commissioner has not already considered in rendering his decision. The present motion substantially relies on the arguments made during the course of the litigation, which were comprehensively addressed in the Decision. The Board does not have a likelihood of success on the merits because the plain language of the statute, coupled with the Assembly Education Committee's Statement on the underlying bill, make it abundantly clear that a school district may only use school facilities for the provision of child care services before or after school hours, and such services are to be available only to school-aged children residing in the district. Furthermore, respondent has failed to demonstrate a likelihood of success on the merits because it has not established that the Commissioner's determination that the Board's operation of TBA violated N.J.S.A. 18A:20-34 was arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable.[3] The Commissioner also disagrees that the Board will suffer irreparable harm. Respondent has failed to demonstrate that the revenue from TBA is necessary for the District's operation and has not presented specific evidence supporting its claim that loss of such revenue will irreparably harm the Board. Moreover, the Board's reliance on the alleged potential impact of the Decision on the parents and children of TBA – and on the high school students involved in its operation – to establish irreparable harm for the Board, is improper and speculative. In rendering the Decision, the Commissioner thoroughly considered the potential impact of the closure of TBA on all stakeholders and permitted the operation of TBA for the remainder of the school year precisely so that the stakeholders are not adversely impacted. The June 30, 2019 deadline – set forth in the Decision as the closing date for TBA – allows the District sufficient time to mitigate any potential impact on the District's operations, and provides the District, parents and students adequate time to make alternate arrangements. Finally, respondent's assertion that it will suffer greater harm if the stay is not granted because the decision does not impact petitioners' ability to operate their business ignores the contention that respondent's operation of TBA impacts petitioners' business; therefore, it is not clear that the Board will suffer greater harm if the stay is not granted.

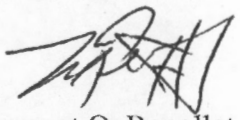
---

[2] The Board has neglected to address whether the legal right underlying its claim is settled. The Commissioner finds that the Board cannot establish that the legal right underlying its claim is settled, and that alone is sufficient to deny the motion to stay as the moving party must satisfy all four prongs of the test. However, for sake of thorough adjudication, the Commissioner will address the merits of the Board's arguments.

[3] The scope of appellate review of a final agency decision is limited; there must be a clear showing that the agency's determination was arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable. In the Matter of the Proposed Quest Academy Charter Sch. of Montclair Founders Group, 216 N.J. 370, 386 (2013) (citation omitted).

Accordingly – as the Board has failed to demonstrate that its legal right is settled; that it is likely to prevail on the merits of its underlying claim; that it will suffer irreparable harm; or that, in weighing of the equities and interests, it will suffer greater harm if the stay is not granted – the Motion to Stay the October 19, 2018 decision is hereby DENIED.[4]

Sincerely,



Lamont O. Repollet, Ed.D.
Commissioner of Education

c: State Law Library

LOR/SLP/ATA

VIA EMAIL & REGULAR MAIL

[4] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to P.L. 2008, c. 36 (N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1).

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

David Moy,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Maple Shade, Burlington County,

Respondent.

Synopsis

Pro se petitioner challenged the attendance and care of school property policies of the respondent Maple Shade Board of Education (Board), and argued that the Superintendent of Schools violated District policy regarding the duties of the superintendent. More specifically, petitioner contended, inter alia, that these Board policies violated N.J.A.C. 6A:32-7.6, and further claimed that the attendance policy conflicted with other Board policies on: promotion and retention; reporting student progress; student discipline and code of conduct; and high school graduation. The Board filed a motion for summary decision.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: the petitioner challenged the District's policies on attendance and care of school property and alleged that the Superintendent violated District policy regarding the Superintendent's duties, but failed to dispute the veracity of the facts as set forth by the Board; nor did petitioner set forth any specific evidence to show that there are material facts in dispute; additionally, aside from invoking various Board policies, the petitioner has set forth no facts explaining the alleged conflicts or showing that any genuine issue of material fact exists; even if petitioner were to set forth evidence supporting a policy, statutory, or regulatory violation by the Superintendent, he would not be entitled to any relief, as evaluation of the superintendent's performance and any action resulting therefrom is governed by contract and statute; accordingly, as there are no real issues of material fact herein, the matter is ripe for summary decision; petitioner's claims regarding the District's attendance policy are moot because, inter alia, the implementing regulation of the attendance policy has been revised to modify or eliminate the challenged provisions; regarding the care of school policy, petitioner has produced no evidence to show that the District has withheld report cards from students with outstanding fines for damage to school property; and it is well settled that decisions of local boards of education are entitled to a presumption of correctness; petitioner has not met his burden to prove that the District's attendance and care of school property policies are arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable. Accordingly, the ALJ granted summary decision to the Board.

Upon comprehensive review of the record, and for the reasons expressed by the ALJ, the Commissioner adopted the Initial Decision of the OAL as the final decision in this case. The petition was dismissed.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

February 27, 2019

OAL Dkt. No. EDU 4389-18
Agency Dkt. No. 36-2/18

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

David Moy,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Maple Shade, Burlington County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed. The parties did not file exceptions to the Initial Decision. In this case, the petitioner is challenging the Maple Shade School District's attendance policy and the care of school property policy. The petitioner further contends that the Superintendent violated District policy.

Upon a comprehensive review of the record, the Commissioner concurs with the Administrative Law Judge – for the reasons thoroughly outlined in the Initial Decision – that Board of Education is entitled to summary decision. Accordingly, the recommended decision of the ALJ is adopted for the reasons expressed therein and the petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 2/27/19
Date of Mailing: 2/27/19

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to P.L. 2008, c. 36 (N.J.S.A 18A:6-9.1).

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SUMMARY DECISION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 04389-18
AGENCY DKT. 36-2/18

DAVID MOY,
Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF MAPLE SHADE, BURLINGTON COUNTY,
Respondent.

David Moy, petitioner, pro se

Victoria S. Beck, Esq., for respondent (Parker McCay, P.A., attorneys)

Record Closed: November 29, 2018 Decided: January 14, 2019

BEFORE SUSAN L. OLGIATI, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

The petitioner, David Moy, challenges the attendance and care of school property policies of the respondent, Maple Shade School District Board of Education1 and argues that the Superintendent of Schools violated the District's policy regarding the duties of the superintendent.

[1] Pled as the Board of Education of the Township of Maple Shade, Burlington County.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On February 12, 2018, petitioner filed a petition with the Department of Education challenging respondent's policies. The Commissioner transmitted the matter to the Office of Administrative Law, where it was filed on March 26, 2018, for determination as a contested case. N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15; N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13. The matter was assigned to this ALJ in July 2018, and multiple status conferences were held with the parties. On November 5, 2018, the Board filed a motion for summary decision[2]. On November 17, 2018, petitioner filed a letter in opposition to the motion and on November 21, 2018, the District filed a letter brief in reply to petitioner's letter.[3] On November 29, 2018, a final status conference regarding the motion for summary decision was held and the record closed on that date.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION AND FINDINGS

In response to the District's motion for summary decision petitioner filed a one paragraph letter stating "...I'm reaffirming that Ms. Beck and the Maple Shade BOE has failed to address ALL items in the original petition. I'm asking that her motion be denied for the above mentioned reasons." Petitioner provided no statement of facts, affidavit, nor certification supporting his opposition to the motion. Nor did he dispute the District's statement of facts or the certification of Superintendent of Schools, Beth Norcia, in support of the District's motion. The below facts are gleaned from the parties' submissions and exhibits attached thereto.

---

[2] On or about March 19, 2018, prior to the matter being transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law for hearing as a contested case, the District filed a motion to dismiss with the Department of Education.

[3] On November 5, 2018, petitioner sent an email advising "I'm reaffirming that Ms. Beck has failed to answer or address items in my original petition and her latest motion also supports my case in regard to policy 5513. I'm asking that her motion be denied." Thereafter, by letter dated November 15, 2018, this ALJ confirmed the briefing schedule in this matter including that petitioner had until November 25, 2018, to file a formal response to the motion.

1. In January 2018, the implementing regulation of the District's attendance policy-5200 was revised. The key revisions related to the "Student Attendance Policy" section of regulation 5200.

2. The definition of the term "Failure Due to Attendance" (FDA) was revised to remove the condition that a student is placed on FDA status when they accumulate a specific number of unexcused absences in one marking period. (Norcia Certification Exhibit A at 9; Exhibit B at 9.)

3. There were also revisions to the "Maintaining Academic Credit as it Pertains to Attendance" provision of the regulation. Students who accumulate greater than four unexcused absences per marking period, no longer receive a grade of "59" for the marking period. Such students will now receive "no credit" for the marking period. Id. (Exhibit A at 10-11; Exhibit B at 10.)

4. The revised regulation allows students to restore their academic credit by attending a Saturday or Wednesday session. It also removes the prior provision regarding "Mandatory Tutoring" sessions. Id.

5. Students are now at risk of earning no credit for the year only if they are on FDA status and exceed sixteen unexcused absences for the year. Id.

6. The revisions address the "Fourth Marking Period" provision of the regulation. Students placed on FDA status during the fourth marking period are now able to make up credit by attending a credit completion program. Id. (Exhibit A at 11; Exhibit B, at 10.)

7. Parents/guardians of students on FDA status receive a notice explaining that their student did not meet the attendance criteria for the marking period and is "in danger of not earning credits for the year due to high absenteeism/lateness." The notice requests parents to schedule a meeting to develop an action plan for improved attendance. Parents are further advised that both they and their student must log into their portal account and acknowledge the attendance document before grades can be viewed. (Exhibit D, Norcia Certification.)

8. On September 30, 2014, the Department of Education issued a memo to Chief School Administrators regarding "Reporting Student Absences." The memo noted in pertinent part that:

> N.J.A.C. 6A: 16-7.6(a) requires each district board of education to "develop, adopt, and implement policies and procedures regarding the attendance of students" and these policies must contain, at a minimum, a "definition of excused absence that count towards truancy..." See N.J.A.C. 6A:16-7.6(a)(3). See Exhibit F, Norcia Certification.

9. The District's care of school property policy-5513 and implementing regulation authorize the imposition of a fine for the loss, damage or defacement of a textbook and reserves the right to withhold a report card or diploma from any pupil whose payment of a fine is in arrears. (Exhibit H, Norcia Certification.) While the policy and implementing regulation-5513 reserve the right to withhold a report card for outstanding fines, it is not the District's practice to do so. Id.

LEGAL ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSION

Legal Analysis

The issue is whether the respondent, District, should be granted summary decision in its favor or whether petitioner is entitled to an evidentiary hearing on his challenge to District policies.

I. Summary Decision Standard

A summary decision may be granted when the papers and discovery that have been filed show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact challenged and the moving party is entitled to prevail as a matter of law. N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(b). "An adverse party in order to prevail must by responding affidavit set forth specific facts showing that there is a genuine issue which can only be determined in an evidentiary proceeding." Ibid. See Brill v. Guardian Life Insurance Company of America, 142 N.J. 520 (1995). The non-moving party has the burden "to make an affirmative demonstration. . . that the facts are not as the movant alleges." Spiotta v. William H. Wilson, Inc., 72 N.J. Super. 572, 581 (App.Div. 1962).

While petitioner challenges the District's policies on attendance and care of school property and alleges that the Superintendent violated the District policy on the Superintendent's duties, he has not made any declaration to this tribunal that the facts are not as the movant alleges or set forth any specific facts showing that there is any material fact in dispute. In addition to claiming that the attendance and the care of school property policies violate N.J.A.C. 6A:32-7.6, petitioner also contends that the attendance policy conflicts with the District's policy on promotion and retention-5410, reporting pupil progress- 5420, student discipline/ code of conduct- 5600, and high school graduation – 5460. Aside from invoking these policies, petitioner sets forth no specific facts explaining the alleged conflicts or showing that a genuine issue of material fact exists.

Similarly, the petitioner claims that the Superintendent violated the District policy regarding the duties of a superintendent as it relates to various state statutes and regulations including "N.J.S.A 18A:7A-11; N.J.S.A 18A:17-17; N.J.S.A 18A:17-18; N.J.S.A 18A:17-20; N.J.S.A 18A:17-21; N.J.S.A 18A:22-8.1; N.J.S.A 18A:27-4.1; N.J.S.A 18A:37-4, N.J.A.C. 6A:8-3.1; N.J.A.C 6A: 32-4.1, and N.J.A.C 6A: 32-12-2." Here too, aside from citing to these various statutes and regulations, petitioner provides no facts explaining how the superintendent's alleged action or inaction, regarding the challenged policies, implicates or violates his duties in refence to the cited statutes and regulations. Finally, even if petitioner were to set forth facts supporting a policy, statutory, or regulatory violation by the Superintendent, he would not be entitled to any relief for same. Evaluation of the superintendent's performance and any action resulting therefrom is governed by contract and statute. As a result, petitioner is not entitled to any relief he may seek regarding the Superintendent's alleged violations, and this tribunal is without authority to grant same.

Further, even accepting petitioner's petition to the Department of Education dated February 12, 2018, as opposition to respondent's motion for summary decision, there too he fails to set out any genuine issue of material fact which might preclude the granting of respondent's motion. Accordingly, petitioner has failed to meet his burden of proof as required by Spiotta and the matter is ripe for summary decision.

II. Mootness

It is well settled law that once a matter becomes moot prior to judicial resolution, it is appropriate to dismiss. Oxfeld v. NJ. State Bd. of Education, 68 N.J. 301 (1975), Nini v. Mercer County Comm. College, 202 N.J. 98, (2010). In Cinque v. New Jersey Dept. of Corrections, 261 N.J. Super. 242 (App Div. 1993) the Appellate Division explained that there are two basic reasons for this doctrine:

> First, for reasons of judicial economy and restraint, courts will not decide cases in which the issue is hypothetical, a judgment cannot grant effective relief, or the parties do not have concrete adversity of interest. Second, it is a premise of the Anglo-American judicial system that a contest engendered by genuinely conflicting self-interests of the parties is best suited to developing all relevant material before the court. (citing to Anderson v. Sills, 143 N.J. Super. (Ch. Div. 1976) 432, 437.) Id.

A. Attendance Policy

Petitioner claims that the District's attendance policy withholds students' unaltered grades in violation of N.J.A.C. 6A:32-7.6 (Conditions for access to student records.) His challenge to the attendance policy, specifically provisions relating to FDA status and maintaining academic credit, are however moot because the implementing regulation of attendance policy-5200 has been revised to modify or eliminate the challenged provisions.[4] [4] If petitioner contends that the revised attendance policy/implementing regulation continues to violate the regulation on access to student grades he may wish to file a new petition.

Additionally, petitioner's claims that the attendance policy/regulation improperly withholds students' grades are moot because grades are available to students and parents/guardians online via their portal accounts.

Finally, petitioner claims that the current version of the attendance policy is not posted on the District's website. Aside from failing to set forth any specific facts opposing the District's claim that the revised attendance policy/regulation have been posted on its website, petitioner fails to cite to any legal authority which requires the District to do so. Thus, petitioner's claims regarding the attendance policy are moot.

B. Care of School Property Policy

Petitioner contends that the District's care of school property policy-5513 violates N.J.A.C. 6A:32-7.6 (Conditions for access to student records.) Pursuant to the District's policy, the board of education authorizes the imposition of a fine for the loss, damage, or defacement of a textbook and reserves the right to withhold a report card or diploma from any pupil whose payment of a fine is in arrears.

Despite petitioner's contentions, he has produced no evidence that the District has engaged in the practice of withholding report cards of students with outstanding fines for damage to school property. Moreover, petitioner did not oppose or otherwise challenge the certification of Superintendent Norcia in which she stated that while the policy reserves the District's right to withhold report cards due to outstanding fines, it is not the District's practice to do so. Thus, petitioner has not demonstrated an adversity of interest between the parties on this issue.

III. Presumption of Correctness

It is well settled in New Jersey that decisions of local boards of education are entitled to a presumption of correctness and are to stand undisturbed unless shown to be "patently arbitrary, without rational basis or induced by improper motives." J. M., by His Guardian, D. M. v. Hunterdon Central Regional High School District, Hunterdon County, 96 N.J.A.R.2d (EDU) 415, 419; R. A. M. and C. A. M. v. Board of Educ. of the Township of Tabernacle, 94 N.J.A.R.2d (EDU) 573, 576 (citing, Kopera v. West Orange Bd. of Educ., 60 N.J. Super. 288 (App. Div. 1960)). See, Boult v. Board of Educ. of Passaic City, 136 N.J.L. 521 (E. & A. 1948); Fraser v. State Bd. of Educ., 133 N.J.L. 15 (Sup. Ct. 1945); Offhouse v. State Bd. of Educ., 131 N.J.L. 391 (Sup. Ct. 1944); Greenway v. Board of Educ. of the City of Camden, 129 N.J.L. 461 (E. & A. 1943). Petitioner bears the burden of proving, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the respondent's action was "arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable." J.M., 96 N.J.A.R.2d at 419.

N.J.A.C 6A:16-7.6 directs that boards of education shall develop policies and procedures regarding student attendance. The District's attendance policy-5200 and its implementing regulation are in keeping with the directive of this regulation.

Similarly, N.J.S.A. 18A:34-2, provides that every board of education shall make rules for the safekeeping and proper care of textbooks, and shall keep an account of all moneys expended for textbooks and supplies. The District's policy on care of school property is consistent with the directive of N.J.S.A. 18A: 34-2. The District's policy is also consistent with case law. In Ballato v. Board of Education of the City of Long Branch, Monmouth County, 1990 S.L.D. 1296, the Commissioner of Education held that it was not arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable for a board to withhold a diploma from a student who is otherwise qualified if financial obligations exist for loss or damage to property. Id. (at 1300.) Even if petitioner had presented evidence that the District was exercising its right to withhold report cards due to outstanding fines for damage to school property, such action would be consistent with applicable statutory and case law.

Thus, petitioner has failed to meet his burden that the attendance and the care of school property policies are arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable.

Conclusions

I CONCLUDE that there exists no genuine issue of material fact. I further CONCLUDE that the District has met its burden of proof that it is entitled to judgment as a matter of law; therefore, its motion for summary decision is GRANTED.

ORDER

It is hereby ORDERED that the District's motion for summary decision is GRANTED and petitioner's appeal is DENIED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

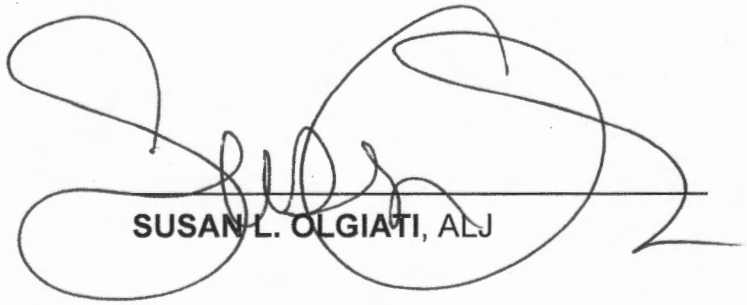
This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.



January 14, 2019
DATE

SUSAN L. OLGIATI, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: 1/14/19

Date Mailed to Parties: 1/14/19

SLO/vj

APPENDIX

EXHIBITS

For petitioner:

Petition of Appeal to the Commissioner of Education of New Jersey, February 12, 2018.

Letter requesting that the Board's motion for summary decision be denied, dated November 17, 2018.

For respondent:

Brief in support of motion for summary decision, dated November 2, 2018

Letter brief in reply to petitioner's opposition to the motion, dated November 21, 2018.

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Valerie Mattes,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Washington, Warren County,

Respondent.

Synopsis

Petitioner – an administrator formerly employed by the respondent Washington Township Board of Education – alleged that the Board wrongfully denied her request for payment for unused sick leave upon her retirement. The Board contended that petitioner did not retire, but rather resigned and pursued employment elsewhere; accordingly, petitioner is not entitled to the payment she sought.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: although it is well established that contractual claims generally do not require an interpretation of the school laws and fall outside of the Commissioner's jurisdiction, the Commissioner does have jurisdiction here, as petitioner's appeal must be examined within the procedural context of this matter; Mattes filed an application for Deferred Retirement Benefits with the Division of Pensions and Benefits, with a deferred retirement date of March 1, 2018; in May 2015, petitioner notified the Board of her retirement, effective June 30, 2015; the Board treated her separation as a resignation, advising her that she was ineligible for payment of accrued sick leave; petitioner appealed in Superior Court in 2016; the Board argued both that petitioner was not entitled to the sick leave payment and, alternatively, that jurisdiction properly lay with the Commissioner; Superior Court dismissed this first appeal and directed that the matter be transferred to the Commissioner; Mattes appealed to the Commissioner in 2017; the ALJ dismissed this appeal as untimely, but found that sick leave entitlement could not be enforced until after the March 2018 deferred retirement date; the instant appeal was filed when the Board again declined to make the sick leave payment after petitioner's deferred retirement date in March 2018. The ALJ concluded that: Mattes relied on past proceedings in filing the within petition; it would be inequitable to dismiss and send her back to a forum that earlier declined jurisdiction; the Commissioner has subject matter jurisdiction here, as the dispute requires analysis of the parties' rights and obligations both under contract and school laws; petitioner's separation from employment constituted retirement because it is the last place Mattes worked as a TPAF member; petitioner is entitled to the sick leave payment promised in her contract because N.J.S.A. 18A:66-113 allows for deferred retirement, her application for which was indisputably approved by the Board of Trustees of TPAF; and the petitioner's appeal was timely, as her cause of action was triggered by her retirement date of March 1, 2018. Accordingly, the ALJ ordered the Board to pay petitioner $15,000 for unused sick leave days, per her contract with the District.

The Commissioner concurred with the findings and determination of the ALJ herein; accordingly, the Initial Decision of the OAL was adopted as the final decision in this matter.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

February 27, 2019

OAL Dkt. No. EDU 06936-18
Agency Dkt. No. 97-4/18

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Valerie Mattes,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Washington, Warren County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed. Respondent's exceptions have also been reviewed and considered by the Commissioner.[1]

Upon such review, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ's determination – for the reasons thoroughly set forth in the Initial Decision – that petitioner is entitled to payment of $15,000 as compensation for her accrued, unused sick leave. Accordingly, the Initial Decision is hereby adopted as the final decision in this matter.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[2]

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 2/27/19
Date of Mailing: 2/27/19

[1] The exceptions – while reflecting the Board's obvious disagreement with the findings and conclusions contained within the Initial Decision – are unpersuasive, and, substantially recast and reiterate the arguments made below, which have been exhaustively addressed by the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) in the Initial Decision.

[2] This decision may be appealed to the Superior Court, Appellate Division, pursuant to P.L. 2008, c. 36 (N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1).

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 06936-18
AGENCY DKT. NO. 97-4/18

VALERIE MATTES,
Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF WASHINGTON, WARREN COUNTY,
Respondent.

Sandford R. Oxfeld, Esq., for petitioner (Oxfeld Cohen, attorneys)

Nathanya Simon, Esq., for respondent (Scarinci Hollenbeck, attorneys)

Record Closed: October 31, 2018 Decided: November 29, 2018

BEFORE ELLEN S. BASS, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Valerie Mattes, an Administrator formerly employed by the Washington Township Board of Education (the Board), alleges that the Board wrongfully denied her request for payment for unused sick leave upon her retirement. The Board replies that she did not retire, but rather resigned and pursued employment elsewhere; accordingly, Mattes has no entitlement to the payment she seeks.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The petition of appeal was filed with the Commissioner of Education (the Commissioner) on April 19, 2018. The Board filed an answer on May 10, 2018. The contested case was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) on May 11, 2018.

The parties agreed that this case presented a purely legal question; accordingly, they filed a comprehensive Joint Stipulation of Fact on October 25, 2018. I received a brief from the Board on October 22, 2018, and from Mattes on October 26, 2018. The Board filed a reply brief on October 30, 2018. Mattes filed a reply brief on October 31, 2018, at which time the record closed.

This appeal comes in the aftermath of an earlier petition, filed in or about January 2017, through which Mattes sought the identical relief. The earlier petition was dismissed as untimely, although both the Administrative Law Judge and the Commissioner left open to Mattes the opportunity to refile her claims, as will be more fully explained below.

FINDINGS OF FACT

The parties stipulated to the salient facts and I FIND as follows:

Mattes' First Request for Sick Leave Payment

Mattes was employed by the Board as a "Principal/Child Study Team Director," pursuant to a contract dated February 27, 2015. That contract had a term of one year, from July 1, 2014 until June 30, 2015. Article 3, Clause B read as follows:

> The Principal/Child Study Team Director shall be allowed twelve (12) days sick leave per year for the term on [sic] this Contract. Unused sick leave days > shall be cumulative in accordance with the provisions of Title 18A. Upon retirement from the Washington Township School District, 30 days of unused sick days will be reimbursed, at the rate of $500 per day. Reimbursement for sick days shall be consistent with the law in effect at the time this Contract is signed. Such payment shall not exceed $15,000. Accumulated unused sick leave compensation shall not be paid to the Principal/Child study Team Director's estate or beneficiaries in the event of death prior to retirement.

This sick leave clause was not included in a prior contract between Mattes and the Board. On February 15, 2013, prior to executing this contract, Mattes had submitted an application for Deferred Retirement Benefits to the Division of Pensions and Benefits, with a deferred retirement date of March 1, 2018.

By letter dated May 26, 2015, Mattes submitted "a notification of retirement from [the] Washington Township School District" to Superintendent of Schools Keith Neuhs, effective June 30, 2015. The Board formally accepted her "resignation" on June 8, 2015. On June 12, 2015, Mattes entered into an employment contract with the Five Town Community School District in Camden, Maine, for a position as Director of Special Education for a one-year term, from July 1, 2015 through June 30, 2016. Mattes continues to be so employed, to date.

Prior to June 29, 2015, Neuhs advised Mattes via text message that the Board did not consider her resignation to be a retirement; he advised via text message on July 8, 2015, that the Board would not be releasing the payment for unused sick leave described in her contract. Mattes asked that he so advise her formally, and in writing. Via letter dated July 15, 2015, Board President Karen Graf explained that the sick leave provision was intended "strictly to entice [Mattes] to stay in the district until she reached age sixty," or until she had accrued twenty-five years of pensionable public service. Since Mattes had resigned outside these parameters, Graf explained that she was not entitled to the payment she sought. Indeed, Graf pointed out that although Mattes was leaving the State, she could return to New Jersey, and re-enroll in the pension system at any time.

By letter dated July 17, 2015, Neuhs again formally denied Mattes' request for the sick leave payment described in her contract.

The First Litigation

On or about April 5, 2016, Mattes filed a Complaint in the Superior Court of New Jersey, Warren County. She sought payment for unused sick leave in the amount of $15,000, contending that she had retired within the meaning of N.J.S.A. 18A: 66-36. In an answer filed on May 13, 2016, the Board raised several defenses, to include lack of subject matter jurisdiction. Via a Motion for Summary Decision filed on July 15, 2016, the Board urged both that Mattes was unentitled to the payment she sought, and alternatively, that jurisdiction properly lay with the Commissioner of Education. Via Order dated August 26, 2016, the Superior Court dismissed Mattes' complaint without prejudice, and directed that the matter by transferred to the Commissioner. Mattes unsuccessfully filed a Motion for Reconsideration on September 2, 2016. She filed a petition before the Commissioner on or about January 25, 2017.

Mattes' January 25, 2017, petition was dismissed by the Honorable Lisa James-Beavers, A.L.J., as untimely under N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3 (i). (Docket Number EDU 02729-17). Judge James-Beavers expressly noted in her June 19, 2017, opinion that the petition had been filed more than ninety days after Mattes had received notice of Board action. But, she also held that since the right to payment for unused sick leave does not arise until retirement, and Mattes had filed for a Deferred Retirement date of March 1, 2018, "any right she had to payment for unused sick time cannot be enforced until then." Judge James-Beaves went on to say that "[i]f petitioner does not receive payment for unused sick leave upon her official retirement date, as recorded by the TPAF, she should be permitted to again file a petition with the Commissioner to enforce the terms of her contract."

A final decision was issued by the Commissioner on September 12, 2017. While agreeing that the challenge to the Board's July 17, 2015, denial of sick leave benefits was untimely filed, the Commissioner likewise agreed that "[a]ny disputes that may arise between the parties that are triggered by the petitioner's Deferred Retirement date of March 1, 2018, are not yet ripe for . . . review."

This Petition of Appeal

On October 5, 2017, the Board of Trustees of the Teachers' Pension and Annuity Fund approved Mattes' application for Deferred Retirement, effective March 1, 2018. She was again notified that on February 1, 2018, the Board of Trustees approved her application for Deferred Retirement effective March 1, 2018; apparently Mattes had changed her option for the type of retirement payments she would receive. She received an Explanation of Retirement Allowances via letter dated March 27, 2018, and her first pension check was dated April 1, 2018. Through counsel, Mattes again asked for the sick leave payment promised by her contract. The Board declined to make that payment, and the present petition of appeal was filed.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Jurisdiction

This case raises thorny questions about jurisdiction; indeed, the transmittal cover sheet notes "jurisdiction is a threshold matter." And upon reviewing the file, I too initially questioned whether this matter arose under the school laws. N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9. Our courts have held that where a controversy does not arise under the school laws, it is outside the jurisdiction of the Commissioner, even if the dispute pertains to school personnel. Bd. of Educ. of East Brunswick Twp. v. Twp. Council of East Brunswick, 48 N.J. 94, 102 (1966). It is well established that contractual claims by school employees do not invoke the Commissioner's jurisdiction, as such claims do not require an interpretation of the school laws. Picogna v. Board of Education of Cherry Hill, 249 N.J. Super. 322, 335 (App. Div. 1991). Demikoff v. Harrington Park Board of Education, 97 N.J.A.R.2d (EDU) 16. Mattes relies heavily on the language of her employment contract in support for her claim to relief.

I nonetheless CONCLUDE that the Commissioner does have jurisdiction to adjudicate Mattes' case for the following reasons. Mattes' petition must be examined in its overall procedural context. Firstly, in its earlier incarnation, this petition was initially filed with the Superior Court; I might have suggested that was the proper forum. But, the Superior Court judge disagreed, and the Commissioner accepted jurisdiction. At no time did the prior A.L.J., or the Commissioner herself, suggest that jurisdiction was improperly laid here. Mattes relied on this procedural history when she filed the petition now before me. She did not repeat "the mistake" she made the first time; she now filed directly with the Department of Education. It would be inequitable to dismiss her case and return her back to a forum that earlier declined jurisdiction. Indeed, were I to do so, Mattes would rightly protest that she surely has a right to be heard somewhere. I CONCLUDE, based on this procedural history, that Mattes' somewhere is here.

Secondly, the Board has persuasively argued in favor of jurisdiction. While conceding that the Commissioner lacks jurisdiction over purely contractual claims, the Board notes that "incidental interpretation of the contract necessary to resolve the educational claims is properly done by the Commissioner." Middletown Bd. of Educ. v. Witmer, 2009 N.J. Super. Unpub. LEXIS 2260 (App. Div., August 17, 2009). And indeed, the contract provision at issue here specifically references Title 18A; providing that any payment for unused sick days "shall be consistent with the law in effect at the time this Contract is signed." The parameters of the Board's ability to make payment for unused sick leave is governed by N.J.S.A. 18A:30-3.5 and N.J.S.A. 18A:30-3.6. Apropos to the issue before me, these statutes provide that payment for unused sick leave is available "only at the time of retirement from a State-administered or locally-administered retirement system based on the leave credited at the time of retirement." This statutory scheme will guide my determination whether Mattes has "retired" within the contemplation of her contract, and my determination whether the relief she seeks is consistent with law, as likewise required by her contract. I accordingly CONCLUDE that the Commissioner has subject matter jurisdiction, as this dispute requires an analysis of the parties' right and obligations both under contract and under the school laws.

Mattes' Entitlement to Reimbursement for Unused Sick Leave

Mattes' contract, and the applicable law, make it plain that Mattes was entitled to payment for unused sick leave only "at the time of retirement." N.J.S.A. 18A:30-3.5; N.J.S.A. 18A:30-3.6. Her contract specifies an additional condition precedent for such payment; that is, that her "retirement" be "from the Washington Township School District."

It is clear from the earlier decision by Judge James-Beavers, as affirmed by the Commissioner, that Mattes had not yet "retired" when she left her employment with Washington Township in 2015. Indeed, Judge James-Beavers held that > ...these statutory provisions [N.J.S.A. 18A:30-3.5, N.J.S.A. 18A:30-3.6] indicate that an individual is typically not entitled to be paid for unused sick time until her date of retirement from a State-administered or locally-administered retirement system. Here it is undisputed that petitioner's deferred retirement date is March 1, 2018. Therefore, any right she has to payment for unused sick time cannot be enforced until then.

>
> [Mattes v. Washington Township Bd. of Educ., EDU 02729-17, Initial Decision, June 19, 2017]

It is also easy to CONCLUDE that Mattes is now "retired," as that term is understood both under her contract and under the school laws. The relevant statutes define "retirement" as "retirement from a State-administered...retirement system." N.J.S.A. 18A:30-3.5; N.J.S.A. 18A:30-3.6. Mattes retired from the TPAF effective March 1, 2018. She did so via the "Deferred Retirement," mechanism, described by statute as when "a member of the pension fund who has 10 years of service credit in the pension fund and who separates voluntarily or involuntarily before attaining the age of 60 years...[elects] to receive a Deferred Retirement Allowance beginning at the age of 60 years..." N.J.S.A. 18A:66-113. The trickier question is whether Mattes' retirement in 2018 constituted retirement "from the Washington Township School District," notwithstanding the fact that she physically left her employment there years earlier.

The Board urges that several concerns militate against granting Mattes the relief she seeks. Its most significant argument, from a public policy standpoint, is that granting this petition would allow "similarly situated employees to collect windfalls from districts across the State..." The Board contends that other TPAF-covered employees with at least ten years of service would be encouraged to resign from their positions; demand their sick leave pay-outs; and then return to a new school district "where they could continue to accumulate sick leave and presumably repeat this cycle." This argument made sense in the context of Mattes' November 2017 petition of appeal, because then, she had not yet retired. Paying her then could have led to the ills the Board describes.

But the Board's argument holds little appeal under facts that reveal that between the date of her resignation from Washington Township, and the date of her Deferred Retirement, Mattes engaged in no TPAF-eligible employment. By determining that Mattes' claims were not ripe until her Deferred Retirement Date, Judge James-Beavers and the Commissioner guaranteed the Board an opportunity to decline payment if Mattes had secured TPAF-eligible employment elsewhere after she had "retired" from Washington Township. And had she done so, the Board's argument that she did not retire from service in its school district would have made perfect sense and would have compelled a denial of Mattes' claim to relief.

But Mattes did not return to employment in a TPAF position at any time after she left Washington Township. I thus CONCLUDE that her separation of employment constituted retirement because Washington Township is the last place Mattes worked while a TPAF member. And she was employed there when she filed for Deferred Retirement. I thus CONCLUDE that Mattes retired from the Washington Township district and is entitled to the sick leave payment promised by her contract.

The Timeliness of This Petition

Finally, the Board urges that this petition, like Mattes' earlier one, should be dismissed as untimely under N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3(i). This argument is a nonstarter. The Board asserts that the time for appeal was triggered in 2015, when the Board initially declined payment. But Judge James-Beavers and the Commissioner both held that a cause of action would accrue anew once Mattes retired in March 2018.

Their holdings constitute the law of the case. The law of the case doctrine generally prohibits a second judge, in the absence of additional developments or proofs, from differing with an earlier ruling. The doctrine is a non-binding rule intended to prevent re-litigation of a previously resolved issue. Lombardi v Masso, 207 N.J. 517, 538 (2011). Our courts have held that "[a] hallmark of the law of the case doctrine is its discretionary nature, calling upon the deciding judge to balance the value of judicial deference for the rulings of a coordinate judge against those factors that bear on the pursuit of justice and, particularly, the search for truth. Little v KIA Motors Am, Inc., 425 N.J. Super 82 (App. Div. 2012). Sound discretion dictates that I defer to these earlier rulings. I CONCLUDE that Mattes' cause of action was triggered by her retirement date of March 1, 2018. Her petition was filed on April 19, 2018, and thus is timely.

ORDER

Based on the foregoing, the Washington Township Board of Education is ORDERED to make payment to Mattes in the sum of $15,000; that sum representing compensation for unused sick leave days per her contract.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, P.O. Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

November 29, 2018

DATE

ELLEN S. BASS, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: November 29, 2018

Date Mailed to Parties:

sej

APPENDIX

EXHIBITS

J-1 Joint Stipulation of Fact with attachments.

STATE OF NEW JERSEY
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

In the Matter of the Tenure Hearing of:

NOEMIA GOMES, BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF ELIZABETH, UNION COUNTY

Agency Docket #69-3/18

Walt De Treux, Esq., Arbitrator

Hearing Date: 11/5/18
Briefs Received: 1/28/19
Decision Date: 3/4/19

Appearances: For Respondent – Paul W. Tyshchenko, Esq., CARUSO SMITH PICINI
For the District – Nishali A. Rose, Esq.; Lester E. Taylor, III, Esq., FLORIO PERRUCCI

Introduction and Statement of Relevant Facts

Respondent Noemia Gomes served as an Administrative Secretary (12 months) for the City of Elizabeth Board of Education since February 25, 2008. During her employment, Gomes had a poor attendance record. She missed 27.38 days in the 2008-09 school year and was on a paid leave of absence for the entire 2009-10 school year. She missed 68.43 days in 2010-11; 112.13 days in 2011-12; 33.93 days in 2012-13; 40.75 days in 2013-14; 47.58 days in 2014-15; 109.05 days in 2015-16; and 74.76 days in 2016-17 with an additional 107 days on leave of absence. In 2017-18, Respondent missed 108.60 days through January 22, 2018. She worked a total of 13 days that school year. Her last day of work was August 23, 2017. Respondent provided medical certification for her absence until October 2017, but provided no other certification or reason for her absence since that time. She was absent from work without any approved leave of absence.

The City of Elizabeth Board of Education certified tenure charges against Respondent on February 22, 2018. The charges sought dismissal from employment for excessive absenteeism, neglect of duty for failing to report to work, abandonment of position, conduct unbecoming, and insubordination and/or other just cause. The Commissioner of Education referred the charges to arbitration. Respondent filed a Motion for Summary Decision, which was denied by Order dated June 25, 2018.

On November 5, 2018, a hearing was held at the Board of Education offices in Elizabeth, New Jersey, during which time both parties had a full and fair opportunity to present documentary and other evidence, examine and cross-examine witnesses, and offer argument in support of their respective positions. The parties filed post-hearing briefs, and the matter was submitted to the Arbitration for a decision.

Issue

Has the City of Elizabeth Board of Education established the allegations against Respondent Noemia Gomes as set forth in the tenure charges? If so, do those charges warrant dismissal? To what remedies are the parties entitled?

Analysis and Decision

The Board of Education (BOE) calculated that Respondent was absent 970.42 days during her 10 years of employment. Remarkably, she faced only minor discipline for such poor attendance. During the 2007-08 and 2008-09 school years, Respondent received several memos admonishing her on her attendance. The BOE withheld her salary increment for the 2010-11 school year after she took a leave of absence during the entire 2009-10 school year. It also withheld a salary increment for the 2012-13 school year. It apparently issued no other disciplinary action other than to advise her to improve her attendance.

Respondent cites to this lack of discipline and the District's failure to place her on an Attendance Improvement Plan as reasons to dismiss the tenure charges. The District's lax approach to Respondent's attendance is troubling. The recitation of absences over a 10-year period rings hollow when the BOE failed to adequately and seriously address those issues during the course of Respondent's employment. The BOE certainly has the right to discipline and discharge an employee who consistently fails to show for work over a period of time, whether or not those absences are excused or justified. It also has an obligation to monitor an employee's attendance and counsel and progressively discipline the employee in an effort to improve that attendance. If this case rested solely on Respondent's past attendance record, the District would have difficulty overcoming the absence of any recent, significant, and progressive discipline. But the resolution of this case is much simpler than assessing Respondent's 10-year attendance record and the BOE's response or lack thereof to that record.

Charges II and III of the tenure charges allege, respectively, Neglect of Duty for Failure to Report for Work and Abandonment of Position. During the 2017-18 school year, Respondent worked a total of 13 days prior to the filing of the tenure charges. She was absent for all but 6 days in July and 5 days in August. Her last day of work was August 23, 2017. As of August 29, 2017, her time off was recorded as "SICK DAY – NO PAY." She provided medical certification for her absences into October 2017, but failed to provide any further medical documentation or give reasons for her continued absence.

BOE Policy No. 4150/4250 defines an unauthorized absence as "a non-approved absence resulting in non-performance of those duties and responsibilities assigned by the district...An employee is deemed to be on unauthorized leave at such time and on such occasions as the employee may absent himself/herself from required duties." The policy further explains, "Unauthorized leave shall constitute a breach of contract, and therefore, may result in the initiation of dismissal procedures, loss of salary or such disciplinary action as may be deemed appropriate."

Respondent has been on an unauthorized leave of absence at least since October 2017, and she has failed to document to the BOE any reasons for that continued absence. She has abandoned her position, and her unauthorized leave constitutes neglect of duty.

In her brief, Respondent attributes the multiple absences through the years of her employment to "acute chronic lumbar pain that includes symptoms of debilitating pain that renders [her] immobile for long periods of time." Presumably, Respondent's absence since August 23, 2017 is due to the same alleged chronic condition. However, Respondent offer no proof at hearing as to any such condition. Respondent, without explanation, did not attend the hearing. She offered no testimony and no explanation for her unauthorized and undocumented absence from work. The only conclusion that can be drawn is that Respondent abandoned her position.

In her brief, Respondent raises several procedural, due process, and substantive defenses to the tenure charges. But those defenses fail to address the most striking and pertinent allegations in the tenure charges, i.e., she abandoned her position by failing to work since August 23, 2017 and failed to provide documentation or reasons for her absence since October 2017.

Respondent's attendance record over her 10 years of employment is dismal, but it need not be considered to resolve the tenure charges. The resolution rests squarely on the fact that Respondent cease working on August 23, 2017 and has failed to provide justification for her absence since October 2017. Her actions are the exact definition of abandonment, and the Board's policy on unauthorized leave allows for dismissal. Respondent's failure to communicate and document the reasons for her absences left the BOE with no choice but to seek dismissal.

For these reasons, I find that Counts II and III of the tenure charges have been established and warrant dismissal.

Award

The City of Elizabeth Board of Education established the allegations of neglect of duty for failure to report to work (Count II) and abandonment of position (Count III) and as set forth in the tenure charges. Those proven charges are sufficient to warrant dismissal.

Walt De TReux

WALT De TREUX

STATE OF NEW JERSEY
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

In the Matter of the Tenure Hearing of:

NOEMIA GOMES, BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF ELIZABETH, UNION COUNTY

Agency Docket #69-3/18

Walt De Treux, Esq., Arbitrator

Affirmation

I, Walt De Treux, affirm that I am the individual who executed this Decision and Award.

Walt De Treux

WALT De TREUX

In the Matter of the TENURE Hearing	)
	)
of	)
	)	OPINION and AWARD
JENNY AN	)
	)
"Respondent"	)
	)
and	)	AGENCY DOCKET NO. 261-10/18
	)
SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE TOWNSHIP OF WAYNE, PASSAIC COUNTY	)
	)
"Petitioner"	)
	)

In accordance with the Teacher Effectiveness and Accountability for Children of New Jersey Act, ("TEACHNJ Act" or "Act") P.L. 2012, Chapter 26 signed into law by Governor Chris Christie on August 6, 2012 the undersigned was appointed as Arbitrator of the dispute described herein.

The hearings were held on December 3, 4 and 20, 2018 at the Board of Education office, Wayne, New Jersey. Both parties were afforded full and fair opportunity to present evidence and argument, to engage in the examination and cross-examination of affirmed witnesses, and otherwise to support their respective positions. A verbatim transcript was made and all witnesses were sworn. Briefs were received on January 18, 2019 as agreed.

BEFORE: Mattye M. Gandel, Arbitrator

APPEARING FOR PETITIONER:

John G. Geppert, Jr., Esq.
Scarinci Hollenbeck

APPEARING FOR RESPONDENT:

Randi April, Esq.
Oxfeld Cohen, P.C.

BACKGROUND:

The matter arose as a result of tenure charges filed against Jenny An, (Respondent) a tenured school psychologist, assigned to a child study team working with Pre-K students since the 2007-2008 school year. Her job description, entered into the record of the hearing as Board Exhibit B-5, indicated that she was a member of the basic Child Study Team (CST) and listed fifteen (15) specific job responsibilities. Amongst other job responsibilities, Respondent was tasked with

- Providing consultation to staff and parents
- Working collaboratively with staff
- Serving as a liaison to classroom teachers
- Providing support to parents, students, teachers

On October 22, 2018, the New Jersey Department of Education received the Board's (District/Board/Employer) Notice of Tenure Charges filed against Respondent, which were also served on Respondent and mailed to Gail Oxfeld Kanef, Esq. at the Law firm of Oxfeld Cohen, P.C. These Tenure Charges were based upon Conduct Unbecoming and Other Just Cause pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-10, N.J.S.A. 18A:6-11, N.J.S.A. 18A:6-16, N.J.S.A. 18A:6-17.1 and N.J.A.C. 6A:3-5.1.

According to a letter dated November 5, 2018 from Samantha L. Price, Director, Office of Controversies and Disputes, Respondent's answer to the charges was received on October 26, 2018. The charges were reviewed and "deemed sufficient, if true, to warrant dismissal or reduction in salary. . . . Additionally, the charges have been referred to Arbitrator Mattye M. Gandel pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-16 as amended by P.L. 2012, c. 26 and P.L. 2015, c. 109."

The Board cited the following District Policies, which it claimed Respondent violated.

Policy No. 3211, Code of Ethics, which in part states that the educator

7. shall not knowingly make false or malicious statements about a colleague.

Policy No. 3212, Attendance, states in part that

A teaching staff member who fails to give prompt notice of an absence, . . . is repeatedly tardy, . . . is absent without authorization, is repeatedly tardy, . . . may be subject to appropriate consequences, . . . which may include . . . dismissal, and/or certification of tenure charges.

Policy No. 3230, Outside Activities, states in part that

. . . staff . . . are advised to refrain from conduct, associations, and speech that, if given publicity, would materially and substantially interfere with the requirements of appropriate discipline in the operation of the school . . . or disrupt the normal activities of the school.

Policy No. 3281, Inappropriate Staff Conduct, states in part that School Staff's conduct in completing their professional responsibilities shall be appropriate at all times. . .

Inappropriate conduct by a school staff member outside their professional responsibilities may be considered conduct unbecoming a staff member. . . such conduct, which may include, . . . communications . . . using e-mails, text-messaging, social networking sites, or any other medium . . .

Policy No. 3321, Acceptable use of Computer Network(s)/Computers and Resources by Teaching Staff Members provides in part that

. . .

Any individual engaging in the following actions declared unethical, unacceptable . . . shall be subject to discipline . . .

1. Using the computer network(s)/computers for . . . inappropriate . . . purposes . . .
2. . . .
3. Using the computer network(s) in a manner that:

   . . .

   k. Engages in other activities that do not advance the educational purposes for which computer network(s)/computers are provided.

Violations:

Individuals violating this policy shall be subject to appropriate disciplinary actions . . but are not limited to:

. . .

7. Dismissal

Policy No. 3351, Healthy Workplace, which states in part that

A significant characteristic of a healthy workplace environment is that employees interact with each other with dignity and respect regardless of an employee's work assignment or position. . . Repeated malicious conduct of an employee . . . is unacceptable. . . This unacceptable conduct may include, but is not limited to, repeated infliction of verbal abuse . . . use of derogatory remarks; insults; verbal or physical conduct that a reasonable person would find threatening, intimidating or humiliating; or the gratuitous sabotage or undermining of a person's work performance. A single act of such conduct shall not constitute the unacceptable conduct prohibited by this policy unless it is especially severe and egregious.

Rather than restate all the charges, the following is a summary of the charges:

Charge One: Conduct Unbecoming

Respondent has created a hostile work environment . . .
Respondent has falsely stated that she was discriminated against . . .
Respondent stated that she intended to fabricate and file a false complaint . .
Respondent attempted to recruit other District employees to falsely testify on her behalf . . .
Respondent engaged in a pattern of conduct comprising a violation of the implicit standard of good behavior.
Respondent knew or should have known her actions were unprofessional . .
Respondent's actions were potentially harmful to the career, dignity . . of the person against whom she sought to file false charges.
Respondent's actions were disruptive of the efficient operation of the District.

Charge Two: Conduct Unbecoming

Created a hostile work environment
Harassed and intimidated co-workers

Charge Three: Conduct Unbecoming

Insubordination
Failed to follow directives

Charge Four: Conduct Unbecoming

Dishonesty and lack of candor regarding interviews, swiping in/out and obstructive actions.

Charge Five: Conduct Unbecoming

Related to the texts at issue
Deleted texts

Charge Six: Conduct Unbecoming

Violated sign-out policy

Charge Seven: Conduct Unbecoming

Theft of time/Attendance Policy No. 3212

Charge Eight: Conduct Unbecoming

Theft of time related to visiting all the schools she was assigned to Charge Nine: Conduct Unbecoming

Theft of time through computer use and violation of District Policy No. 3321

Charge Ten: Other Just Cause

Failed to follow instructions
Violated District policies
Inattentive and ambivalent to her duties, co-workers

POSITIONS OF THE PARTIES:

The School District's position is that Respondent fabricated a claim of discrimination, took steps to carry out the threat of a false claim and upon discovery, engaged in a further course of action to obfuscate her initial intent. Further, Respondent demonstrated a pattern of disregarding District policies, came and went as she pleased, was late and unprepared for meetings and was disrespectful and insubordinate to her superiors. The District cited the legal standard for defining conduct unbecoming and cases in support of that standard. Bases on these recognized standards, such as destroying public respect, her effect on the morale and efficiency of the District and her fitness to discharge her duties, the District contended that Respondent's actions severely disrupted the functions of the District both because she deprived the District of her services as psychologist and because of the chilling effect of her threat on administrators.

Further, it is the position of the District that Respondent's lack of candor during the investigation demonstrated a failure to adhere to the high standards of candidness expected of a public educator; that she violated the trust the District place in traveling teaching staff by regularly violating the District's attendance policy and that she failed to adhere to the District's policies regarding ethical conduct toward colleagues, attendance, behavior and the use of public resources.

Moreover, Respondent's threat to file false charges against the principal was such a flagrant act that it supports dismissal as conduct unbecoming independently and in conjunction with the other charges against her. Even if she never intended to follow through with the threat, which is immaterial, the claim to have been a "joke" is not only a single self-serving statement but also demonstrated such poor judgment as to preclude her from further employment in the District and shows that she is incapable of maintaining a professional relationship with administrators in the future.

Additionally, the District contends that during the interview, Respondent had the opportunity to speak candidly but, by her own admission, she lied almost immediately about speaking to co-workers about the investigation and despite her attempt to come clean, three or four minutes later, she came clean only when confronted with the fact that her interviewers already knew the truth. Her lying means she cannot be trusted to serve any role in the District.

It is the District's position that Respondent was guilty of unbecoming conduct through insubordination by disregarding the Superintendent's directive not to discuss the investigation and by failing to adhere to the District's attendance policy and sign-out and leave policies, of which she was aware through annual training and receipt of the Employee Handbook, though she refused to confirm. Further, testimony was elicited from District witnesses that Respondent violated Board Policies including the Code of Ethics, Inappropriate Staff Conduct, Healthy Workplace Environment and Outside Activities.

Respondent has never expressed a single modicum of responsibility for her actions and this failure compounds the unbecoming conduct and warrants her dismissal. Her defense seems to be that because no supervisor noticed her truancy until she was investigated, she is innocent of any violations but the evidence proved that she violated the system of trust the District must maintain with respect to its traveling employees.

Further, the District asserts that despite the fact that Respondent had no prior discipline, the charge of unbecoming conduct is based on actions sufficiently flagrant to justify tenure revocation, which caused profound disruption in the District and which should lead to dismissal.

Finally, it is the District's position that it met the "seven tests" recognized by arbitrators to prove that it had just cause to terminate Respondent's employment with the District.

Therefore, the District asks this Arbitrator to sustain the charges of Unbecoming Conduct and Other Just Cause and to revoke Respondent's tenure.

Respondent's position is that there is no documented proof to sustain most of the charges; that there is no evidence of online shopping; that there is no evidence of a lunch policy for members of the CST; that there is no evidence that Respondent was informed of any deficiencies with regard to signing-in/signing-out; that there is no evidence that she was informed of any personal deficiencies with her presence in the buildings and that there is no evidence that she was informed of any issues whatsoever with her performance before the Halloween email. Rather, it was only after the text message that the District threw the proverbial "spaghetti to the wall" in the hope that something would stick but conduct unbecoming cannot be proven if the only evidence presented in support of a tenure charges is uncorroborated hearsay.

Further, the Respondent claims that regarding the text exchange, she has taken responsibility for it; that it was foolish, foolhardy and hurtful to Principal Matthew Kriley and that it must be taken within the context of a running group text between colleagues who often blew off steam together. Moreover, it is Respondent's position that all three participants in the text exchange provided inappropriate comments; that none of them disavowed any comments during the exchange; that none of them appeared to be coerced in the exchange and that it was only later that night that Jerry Battifarano, a member of the CST and a participant in the text exchange, believed his job could be in jeopardy so he told Kriley and Rosa Barreira, a friend and colleague, what occurred.

Additionally, while all three disregarded the directive to not discuss the investigation, only Respondent is out of work.

Respondent cited two tenure matters in support of her position that the tenure charges should be dismissed and contends that arbitral law provides that when there is no prior discipline coupled with a single incident of wrongdoing, termination is not the proper punishment. Therefore, Respondent asks this Arbitrator to return her to her former position and, if necessary, to consider progressive discipline in this matter.

OPINION:

On May 10, 2018, the principal of Lafayette school, Matthew Kriley, sent the following email, B-4, to Respondent and copied Patricia Monaco, Respondent's supervisor, and Debra Strauss, a member of the District whose title was not identified during the hearing.

> Jenny,
>
> Please ensure that when you report to Lafayette or any other building for that matter, that you sign in and out in the main office. This is due to matters of security of which I'm sure you're aware.
>
> I see that you signed in today upon your arrival, but noticed that you exited out of the side door.
>
> Thank you for your anticipated cooperation.
>
> Matt

In reaction to that email, the record established that Respondent initiated a text exchange, B-3, between herself and two other members of the Child Study Team (CST), Nancy Linden and Jerry Battifarano, which read as follows:

Respondent: Ducking Matt Kriley
Linden: At Ryerson?
Respondent: Fucking he emailed me and Strauss and patty cuz I went there and signed in and left out the side preK door and didn't sign out. What an ass hat
Linden: Ugh
Respondent: He makes my blood boil. Fucking tiny Napoleon complex on a power trip. Ass Battifarano: Ha ha ha! He's a little bitch I know Linden: Jenny you need some Queen to cool off. Lol. These people are all on power trips.
Battifarano: They are that's why I lay low
Respondent: Seriously makes me so mad and to email those two too. I'm going to hib[1] him and say he is discriminating bc I Asian and you will both concur that you heard him call me egg roll or something to that effect.
Battifarano: What?! Wait! What happened!
Linden: Sashima mama
Battifarano: Haha
Respondent: Lol or that!!!

The facts surrounding this text exchange occurring on May 10 and 11, 2018 are not in dispute.

- Battifarano testified that later the night of May 10, 2018 he sent the text to Matthew Kriley, Principal of Lafayette School, and Rosa Barreira, a learning consultant and a colleague.
- Battifarano called Barreira that evening and she told him not go along with the scheme suggested in the text.
- On the morning of May 11, 20018, Kriley called Battifarano and he went to Kriley's office that afternoon and spoke to Kriley and Paula Clark, Director of Human Resources Compliance and Labor Relations. Battifarano gave Kriley the text.[2] Battifarano was visibly upset because of his involvement in the text and his employment, asked to leave school and was told by Kriley not to speak to anyone about this matter. Battifarano left school thirty minutes before the end of the school day.
- Clark forwarded the text to Superintendent Mark Tobak and he placed Respondent and Linden on leave that afternoon.
- Battifarano went to his car and saw messages from Respondent and Linden. Responded to them. Told them he had given the text to Kriley and drove home. When Battifarano was home, Respondent and Linden called him and told him they were en route to his home which was 30-40 minutes away from school. Battifarano did not tell them not to come. They told him that they had been put on administrative leave.

[1] HIB stands for Harassment, Intimidation and Bullying and is a process whereby someone reports a person for this unacceptable and very serious behavior.
[2] This text exchange was on Battifarano's cell phone.

- Though he was told by Barriera that afternoon, not to let Respondent and Linden into his home, he let them in, served them refreshments and they stayed for about one hour to one and one-half hours discussing what had happened and what could happen to them.
- Respondent deleted the text message "the Friday after the text exchange took place." While at Battifarano's home, because she had deleted it, Respondent made a copy of the text message from Battifarano's phone.
- Respondent called Battifarano again on Saturday, May 12, after which time Battifarano blocked any future calls. All three participants had been told not to discuss this matter.
- An investigation took place and Clark interviewed the following individuals: Kriley, Battifarano and Barreira, Respondent and Linden in that order. Taback sat in on the last two interviews.
- Based on the interviews, the District concluded that Respondent had violated several Board policies and subsequently filed tenure charges.
- Linden was disciplined but Battifarano did not receive any discipline.

During the interviews, the Board learned that, in addition to the full details regarding the text exchange and the policies related to that event, which will be addressed later, Respondent have violated two other Board policies: Policy 3212 – Attendance, B-7, and Policy 3321 – Acceptable Use of Computer, B-10.

Clark testified that employees receive the Employee Handbook, B-35, at the beginning of each year; that each principal reviews the policies with staff members and that they are on the District website. However, Respondent was very evasive about receiving the Handbook and about having read the District's policies although she acknowledged that the District operates under Board policies. Despite being employed by the District for ten years, she recalled getting the Handbook possibly only in the 2016-2017 school year; that she believed that she received a District-wide email of the Handbook and that there were references to specific policies like computers and cell phone use. In response to many questions about seeing polices, Respondent stated that she did not recall. For a ten-year employee these responses were not reasonable.

There were several aspects of the attendance issue. The record established through Board exhibits B-12 through B-34 that Respondent arrived late in the mornings and left early without receiving permission a significant number of times and without signing out. In fact, it was because Kriley was looking for Respondent on May 10, 2018 and could not find her that he wrote the May 10, 2018 email reminding Respondent to sign in and out.[3] Additionally, there was the issue of leaving early to pick up a niece. While Tabak and Clark both testified that Respondent told them during her interviews that she left early fifty times during the school year to pick up her niece, Respondent testified that it was maybe three times and disputed the fact that she told Tabak and Clark it was fifty times.

Regarding the computer policy, which was one of the few policies that Respondent actually acknowledged having been advised of, there was testimony that colleagues saw her using her computer at school for outside purchases. However, there was no documentary evidence of these activities and although Tabak stated that Respondent admitted to shopping on line before the end of the day, Respondent denied the accusation and only admitted to shopping on line for educational materials.

Respondent's position was that no one had advised her that she was violating a policy by not signing out; that she had not been advised that she needed to ask for permission to leave the building early and that, as a member of a traveling team, she could have been in many places or even at the home of students when she either signed in late or left early. In essence her defense was that she did not receive proper notice of the alleged violations and, in fact, this Arbitrator must agree. Under normal circumstances, all employees have to receive notice that they are violating a rule and, if a reasonable rule is violated, notice must be given in the form of a warning, a suspension or some lower level of discipline so that the employee would have an opportunity to correct the inappropriate behavior.

[3] The important factor was that Kriley saw Respondent in the parking lot just after she had left the building without signing out and not whether Kriley actually saw her exit the door.

Further, this Arbitrator agrees with Respondent that administrators and supervisors have a responsibility to monitor staff activities, to properly notify them if they are violating any policy and to counsel them and then impose discipline, if appropriate. Progressive discipline should be corrective, not punitive. Given the safety issue in schools, the rule of signing in and out is very reasonable. Building administrators must know where staff are for many reasons but especially in cases of emergency, all staff members must be accounted for.

Taken in a vacuum, this Arbitrator would agree that a lower level of discipline would have been appropriate for violations of the Attendance and Computer policies. However, the only reason that the District learned about these policy violations was because of the text exchange, and, in the opinion of this Arbitrator, the text message was so egregious and at the heart of these tenure charges allowing the District to impose the strictest of penalties, even for an employee with a good record.

In regard to the text exchange, the District claimed that Respondent violated the following Board policies:

- Policy 3211 – Code of Ethics, B-6, which stated that the educator "shall not knowingly make false or malicious statements about a colleague."
- Policy 3230 – Outside Activities, B-8, which states that "staff are advised to refrain from conduct . . speech that if given publicity, would materially and substantially interfere with the requirements of appropriate discipline in the operation of the school."
- Policy 3281 – Inappropriate Staff Conduct, B-9, which states that inappropriate conduct will not be tolerated; that staff must be appropriate at all times; conduct outside the professional responsibilities may be considered conduct unbecoming and that staff must be concerned with the use of emails and text-messaging.
- Policy 3351 – Healthy Workplace Environment, B-11, which states that staff must interact with others with dignity and respect and that derogatory remarks, insults are unacceptable conduct. Of significance to this Arbitrator was that the Board and Policy 3351 recognized that "[A] single act of such conduct, referring derogatory remarks or insults, shall not constitute the unacceptable conduct prohibited by this policy unless it is especially severe and egregious."

Clark testified, and this Arbitrator must agree, that Kriley's May 10, 2018 email was very reasonable and not threatening and it was appropriate for him to have included Respondent's supervisor in the email to let her know what others had noted, but apparently had not followed through on, that Respondent was violating Board policies by not signing out and that she was hard to find when needed.

Tabak also testified that the May 10th email was the genesis of this issue; that the District must know where Respondent and others are doing during the day and that there is a new level of concern when there are threats to the safety of staff and students. In this day and age of terrorist attacks, administrators, who have the ultimate responsibility for the safety of the staff and students, must be extra vigilant in enforcing rules related to the whereabouts of personnel.

District witnesses recognized that staff sometimes criticize their superiors; that they sometimes make inappropriate comments and that they sometimes blow off steam after a certain event. However, while Respondent claimed that she was just blowing off steam and that the text exchange was a joke, this Arbitrator was not convinced.

When responding to a question about why she sent the May 10th text, she acknowledged that she "was upset . . . a little angry that Mr. Kriley . . . complained about my presence in his building." She was further asked if she had a problem with Mr. Kriley prior to sending this text and she responded,

> Not any specific problem. I don't know if it was just me or the team or, you know, the fact that preschool was suddenly placed in his building for the first time that year . . .

However, the text at issue was written after the May 10th email, which addressed the fact that Respondent did not sign out of the building. It had nothing to do with her "presence in his building" or the fact that there was a preschool in Lafayette for the first time. Rather, it was the October 31st email that addressed the fact that the CST had not been at Lafayette since the beginning of the school year. It appeared that Respondent still harbored hostility toward Kriley for over six months because he had sent that October email, which stated in pertinent part that > [A]s of Tuesday, October 31st, some members of the pre-K CST have not yet visited the classrooms, students, and teachers at Lafayette.

Reading this earlier email and reviewing Kriley's testimony as to why he sent it, this Arbitrator agreed with his testimony that, first of all, it was a friendly reminder and secondly, that as a principal he had a responsibility and an obligation to write to the CST since some of the members of the team had not visited his school during the first two months of the school year.

Respondent acknowledged that she had not visited Lafayette during September or October 2017 and her explanation was that she did not have any students assigned at Lafayette during those first two months. However, Respondent was the only psychologist on the preschool CST and she recognized that the 2017-2018 school year was the first year that there was a Pre-K program at Lafayette school. Despite this knowledge and the fact that there were nineteen students in this new Pre-K program at Lafayette, she contended that she "wasn't concerned" because of the competence of the teachers. Respondent further testified that she was not called to the school regarding a problem with a student but admitted that she did not even stop by the school to see how everything was going with the new program during the first two months of school. Her explanations were unreasonable and unacceptable.

On cross-examination, Respondent was also asked about her reaction to the May 10th email, B-4, and she testified that it made her angry because Kriley chose to include Strauss and Monaco in the email and that it was immediately after receiving this email from Kriley that she texted the CST. As noted above, even if Respondent's supervisor was copied on the email, this Arbitrator could not understand the level of Respondent's reaction to this polite email simply reminding Respondent to sign out from the main office.

Whatever level of shock, dismay and disapproval cited by Board witnesses was completely warranted in the opinion of this Arbitrator. A school district cannot tolerate a staff member threatening to HIB anyone and must be taken very seriously. Respondent claimed it was a joke; that she was blowing off steam but this Arbitrator asks, blowing off steam because she was reminded politely to sign out when she leaves a building, a very reasonable directive? Battifarano and other Board witnesses acknowledged that teachers sometimes get upset with administrators and blow off steam. However, while Battifarano testified that he was not concerned about the first part of the text when Respondent wrote, "Fucking he emailed me . . . ass hat ... fucking tiny Napoleon complex . . . Ass" but that when Respondent wrote that she was going to "hib him" and that she wanted the other members of the CST to support her false allegations, he was shocked. Of course, he was afraid for his job because he himself had made some inappropriate comments but it was noted that after Respondent made those false allegations he wrote, "What?! Wait! What happened!" indicating to this Arbitrator that Battifarano recognized that Respondent had gone over the edge. Therefore, he went to Kriley that afternoon and reported the text exchange initiated by Respondent. Clearly, the full blame for the unacceptable, inappropriate text was Respondent's.

All three members of the text exchange were told not to discuss the matter. Yet, they all disregarded the directive to not discuss this matter with others, which was considered insubordination. Respondent claimed that tenure charges were filed against her, Linden received some level of discipline but Battifarano was not disciplined. Though this Arbitrator was not asked to assess the level of discipline for the other two people on the text, it was clear that Respondent was the initiator/instigator and wanted the others to back up her claim. Further, it was clear that Battifarno was very upset about what Respondent wrote, felt like Respondent was bulling and bossing him and, most importantly, he was the only one of the group who reported this incident to Kriley that afternoon.

One does not know if Respondent would have carried out her threat but that is irrelevant. Rightfully so, the Board did not wait around to see if she would file a HIB complaint but rather placed Respondent on leave and immediately began an investigation to gather the facts before it filed the tenure charges.

Respondent cited a prior tenure matter in support of a lower level of discipline. However, this matter can be distinguished from Orleans Sarmiento and the School District of the Township of Saddle Brook Agency Docket # 79-4/17 in that a full and fair investigation was conducted in this matter and that all persons with knowledge of the incident were interviewed. In contrast, this Arbitrator concluded in Sarmiento > that the Board did not fulfill its responsibility to conduct a fair and through (sic) investigation, did not interview all participants who would have had knowledge of Respondent's behavior in the class, did not give Respondent a copy of the text in question, did not contact Respondent after the investigation was completed as Riscica stated in his November 4, 2016 suspension letter to Respondent, did not select the students to be interviewed in a fair and impartial manner and did not supply the Board (sic) with all the interviews conducted or the evaluations/observations of Respondent with the tenure charges.

Of significance, and another differentiating factor from Sarmiento, was that Respondent's written threat put in jeopardy the reputation, professionalism and livelihood of a school principal and did damage to the District even if Respondent did not have the chance to actually follow through on her threat to HIB him. This in no way could be taken as a joke. To do so would have been irresponsible of the Board.

Finally, Policy 3351 provides that a single act of derogatory remarks would not be unacceptable conduct unless "it is especially severe and egregious." This Arbitrator must conclude that Respondent's behavior involving the text exchange must be considered a severe and egregious act and warrants termination for a single act. To not only threaten to falsely report a principal and to potentially end his career but also to try to coerce coworkers to lie for her and back up her false claim was severe enough on its own for the Board to file tenure charges.

In conclusion, this Arbitrator has reviewed and carefully weighed all the evidence and arguments presented at the hearing and through briefs by both parties even though many facets were not referred to in the Opinion. Considering all the facts, this Arbitrator must decide that Conduct Unbecoming Charges One, Two, Three, Count 1 and c of Four and Five were proven.

In consonance with the proof and upon the foregoing, the undersigned Arbitrator hereby finds, decides, determines and renders the following:

AWARD

The Board has proven Conduct Unbecoming Charges One, Two, Three, Count 1 and c of Four and Five by a preponderance of the evidence warranting tenure revocation and dismissal of Respondent.

Mattye M. Gandel

Mattye M. Gandel

Dated: February 1, 2019

State of New Jersey)
:SS
County of Essex)

On the 1st day of February, 2019 before me personally came and appeared Mattye M. Gandel, to me known and known to me to be the person described herein who executed the foregoing instrument and she acknowledged to me that she executed the same.

Notary Public

MUSARRAT MOGHAL
Notary Public, State of New Jersey
My Commission Expires
January 20 2022

Arnold M. Mellk, Esq. (NJ Bar ID. No 272001971)
MELLK O'NEILL
51 E. Broad Street
Hopewell, NJ 08525
P:(609)-924-0700 / F: (609)-924-4622
Attorneys for Respondent Troy Soto

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE CHARGES AGAINST: TROY SOTO,	STATE OF NEW JERSEY DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION
	Agency Dkt. Docket No. 257-10/18
CITY OF TRENTON BOARD OF EDUCATION, MERCER COUNTY, NEW JERSEY	Before Melissa Biren, Arbitrator
	Administrative Action
	STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT

The Trenton Public Schools (the "Board"), whose principal office is located at 108 N. Clinton Avenue, Trenton, New Jersey, and its successors, assigns, officers, employees, agents and representatives (collectively, "School Board"), and Troy Soto, having an address at 334 Harrison Street, Passaic, NJ 07055 ("Respondent") (collectively, the "Parties") have voluntarily resolved all disputed matters and enter into the following Stipulation of Settlement, which fully disposes of all issues in controversy between them in full and complete settlement of all outstanding issues as detailed below.

WHEREAS Respondent is a tenured teaching staff member employed by the Board as a teacher; and

WHEREAS the Board certified the above-captioned tenure charges regarding excessive absenteeism and incapacity to the Commissioner of Education of the State of New Jersey, and

WHEREAS, Respondent filed an answer opposing the charges; and

WHEREAS the Commissioner of Education, having reviewed the charges and Respondent's answer, determined that the charges were sufficient, if true, to warrant dismissal or reduction in compensation, and accordingly referred the matter to Arbitrator Melissa Biren ("Arbitrator") for a hearing; and

WHEREAS, Respondent has denied the allegations set forth in the tenure charges; and

WHEREAS, the Parties are aware of the uncertainty of the outcome of arbitration; and

WHEREAS, the Board having stringent budget limitations, and due to the expenditure of resources resulting from multiple days of hearings with numerous witnesses, and the concern that school personnel will be removed from their educational duties and responsibilities during that time, the Parties wish to resolve this matter in accordance with the terms set forth herein rather than proceed with arbitration; and

WHEREAS the proposed Stipulation of Settlement is in the best interest of the Parties and the public because Respondent voluntarily resigns from his employment without litigation and avoids an uncertain conclusion after protracted and costly proceedings at the expense of the public;

NOW, THEREFORE, subject to approval by the Arbitrator, the Parties hereby agree as follows:

1. Concurrent with the execution of this Stipulation, Respondent shall submit an irrevocable letter of resignation to the Board, which shall provide for his resignation from the Board effective end of day on May 24, 2019 ("Effective Date"). (See Exhibit "A," to the Stipulation, a copy of Respondent's signed letter of resignation).

2. Upon final approval of the signed Stipulation by the Arbitrator, the Board shall and hereby does withdraw the instant Tenure Charges. The Board agrees to not pursue the subject Tenure Charges against Respondent as long as this Stipulation remains in effect and is not voided by any court or administrative agency of competent jurisdiction. In the event the Stipulation is voided, the Board retains the right to file and consider for certification, tenure charges against Respondent, including those tenure charges which have been previously filed against him by the Board, and Respondent reserves the right to defend same.

3. Upon final approval of the signed Stipulation by the Arbitrator, Respondent will be returned to the payroll (retroactively if necessary) from January 24, 2019, and will remain on the payroll through end of day on May 24, 2019. All salary paid for said period shall be subject to all applicable and mandatory salary withholdings and deductions, including, but not limited to health insurance premium contributions. Respondent will be recorded as an employee on administrative leave with pay between January 24, 2019 and May 24, 2019.

4. The Board shall provide Respondent with health insurance coverage until May 24, 2019. Pursuant to Chapter 78, Respondent shall be responsible for his employee contribution for all health insurance provided pursuant to this Stipulation of Settlement. Respondent's required Chapter 78 contributions shall be deducted from the payments he will receive pursuant to Paragraph 3 of this Stipulation of Settlement.

5. This Stipulation is based upon the understanding that Respondent's separation from employment with the Board, effective May 24, 2019, is and shall be deemed a voluntary resignation-in good standing. Upon inquiry from any third party to authorized employees or representatives of the Board, those employees or representatives will provide no information other than to confirm Respondent's employment, position, salary and dates of employment, and state that the reason for his separation from employment was his voluntary resignation.

6. The Board expressly reserves the right to oppose any application by Respondent for unemployment benefits. Notwithstanding any other term or condition of this Agreement, Respondent does not waive or release his right to seek unemployment compensation, his entitlement to which shall be determined by the State of New Jersey, Department of Labor and Workforce Development.

7. In accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:3-5.6 (a) 6, Respondent has been advised of the Commissioner's duty to refer tenure determinations resulting in loss of position to the State Board of Examiners. The Board acknowledges and represents that the allegations and evidence underlying the subject tenure charges addressed Respondent's alleged incapacity in the form of absenteeism occasioned by medical and/or other legitimate causes, and not any allegation of conduct unbecoming a teaching staff member, or other just cause.

8. As of the Effective Date, all of Respondent's rights of employment with the Board, including but not limited to accrued salary, benefits, tenure and seniority, will permanently end.

9. Respondent will not apply for reemployment with the Board at any time. If Respondent does apply for reemployment with the Board and is approved for employment, the terms of this Agreement shall control and shall be grounds for termination of Respondent's employment.

10. In exchange for the consideration set forth in paragraphs 2, 3, and 4 above, the sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, Respondent, through the date of his resignation, hereby waives, releases and discharges any and all claims or rights that he has or may have against the Board, the Superintendent, its Board of Education and its members, and any and all other Board officers, employees, representatives, agents, successors and assigns (collectively, the "Released Parties") including any claim for attorneys' fees, costs or other monetary relief. This waiver, release and discharge includes, without limitation, any and all actions, claims, and liabilities of whatsoever kind or character, in law or in equity, now known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, directly or indirectly related to Respondent's employment with the Board or separation from employment with the Board. It specifically includes, without limitation, all claims which Respondent may have regarding tenure, withholding of increment, discrimination on any basis, any federal or state civil rights law, any alleged violation of the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, as amended; the Older Worker Benefits Protection Act; Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended; Sections 1981 through 1988 of Title 42 of the United States Code; the Civil Rights Act of 1991; the Equal Pay Act; the Americans with Disabilities Act; the Rehabilitation Act; the Family and Medical Leave Act; the Fair Labor Standards Act; the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended; the Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification Act; the National Labor Relations Act; the Fair Credit Reporting Act; the Occupational Safety and Health Act; the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Act; the Employee Polygraph Protection Act; the Immigration Reform Control Act; the retaliation provisions of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002; the False Claims Act; the New Jersey Law Against Discrimination; the New Jersey Conscientious Employee Protection Act; the New Jersey Family Leave Act; the New Jersey Wage and Hour Law; the New Jersey Equal Pay Law; the New Jersey Occupational Safety and Health Law; the New Jersey Smokers' Rights Law; the New Jersey Genetic Privacy Act; the New Jersey Fair Credit Reporting Act; New Jersey Wages and Hours Law, disability benefits laws, retaliation provisions of the New Jersey Workers' Compensation Law; the United States Constitution, the New Jersey Constitution; and/or any other alleged violation of any federal, state or local law, regulation or ordinance; any claim based on contract, implied contract, collective bargaining agreement, tort law, personal injury, or public policy, having any bearing whatsoever on his employment by and/or termination of her employment with the Board, including but not limited to any claim for wrongful discharge, back pay, vacation pay, sick pay, wages, attorneys' fees, costs, and/or future wage loss. Respondent agrees to withdraw any and all other pending complaints or actions that have been filed against the Board or any of its employees or representatives. This paragraph shall not apply to claims for unemployment compensation, or to claims for Workers' Compensation.

11. To comply with the Older Workers Benefit Protection Act, if applicable, this Stipulation of Settlement advises Respondent of the legal requirements of the Act and fully incorporates the legal requirements by reference into this Stipulation of Settlement. Accordingly, by executing this Stipulation, Respondent acknowledges that he: (i) fully understands the terms and conditions of this Stipulation of Settlement; (ii) has consulted with an attorney to review the Stipulation of Settlement; (iii) specifically waives his right to pursue any current claims he may have under the Age Discrimination in Employment Act; (iv) has been given sufficient time within which to consider this Stipulation of Settlement; and (v) has seven (7) days from the date of the execution of this Stipulation of Settlement to revoke it. Respondent understands that he may rescind this Agreement within seven (7) calendar days of signing it, and such rescission must be in writing and delivered to counsel for the Board either by hand or by certified mail within the seven (7) day period.

12. Respondent warrants that he has not commenced any legal proceedings of any type (including but not limited to charges filed with any governmental agency) against the Board or School Board. Further, Respondent agrees that he will not commence any legal proceedings against the Board or School Board arising from or relating to anything that has happened up to his date of resignation. Should any such legal proceedings be commenced on Respondent's behalf, Respondent agrees that he will not seek or accept any relief or recovery therefrom. In the event of a violation of this paragraph, Respondent agrees that the Board and School Board shall be entitled to immediate dismissal of the legal proceedings, and that he shall be responsible for the Board and School Board's attorneys' fees and costs incurred in connection with those legal proceedings. Should any entity, agency, commission, or person file a charge, action, complaint or lawsuit against the Board or School Board based upon any of the above-released claims in Paragraph 3, Respondent agrees not to seek or accept any resulting relief whatsoever, in accordance with this paragraph. This paragraph shall not apply to claims for unemployment compensation.

13. This Stipulation and all of its terms, are and will remain confidential to the maximum extent permitted by law, including the Open Public Records Act, N.J.S.A. 47:1A-1, et al. Respondent is expressly forbidden from discussing this Stipulation with any person, other than his accountant, tax advisor and attorney ("permitted disclosures") and any other individual or entity as necessary to implement the Stipulation or to which he is legally obligated to respond ("legally-required disclosures"). In making any permitted disclosure, Respondent agrees that he will inform the person to whom it is making the permitted disclosure that the existence and substance of this Stipulation, the settlement giving rise to this Stipulation and the sum of money paid pursuant to this Stipulation are to be held strictly confidential to the fullest extent permitted by law. Respondent specifically agrees not to discuss the nature, terms, conditions of this Stipulation with others, any representative of the media, or any past, present, or prospective employee of the Board, or its agents or attorneys. Respondent understands that this provision is not a simple recital but is an important, integral part of this Stipulation. The Board agrees that it will keep this Stipulation confidential to the extent permitted by law, including the Open Public Records Act, N.J.S.A. 47:1A-1, et seq. ("OPRA"). In the event that the Board receives an OPRA request, for which this Stipulation would be responsive to, the Respondent understands that the Board is legally obligated to disclose same under OPRA and that such disclosure would not be a breach of this Stipulation.

14. This agreement shall not constitute a precedent in any matters involving other Board employees.

15. The Parties each acknowledge that counsel has advised them regarding this Stipulation and that each is signing this Stipulation freely and voluntarily, without duress, coercion or pressure from the other party, with full understanding of its terms and conditions and consents to the terms contained herein.

16. Each signatory to this Stipulation understands, acknowledges and agrees that this Stipulation constitutes the full agreement of the parties and may not be altered, amended, modified, or otherwise changed in any respect whatsoever except by a duly executed writing signed on behalf of both Parties.

17. This Stipulation shall be construed and enforced in accordance with New Jersey law. The Commissioner of Education and/or federal and state courts of the State of New Jersey, as applicable in accordance with such law, shall have exclusive jurisdiction over any dispute arising from, in connection with, or related to this Stipulation.

18. This Stipulation may be executed in counterparts with the same effect as if the signatures hereto and thereto were upon the same instrument. Each counterpart will be deemed an original, which taken together shall constitute a single instrument. Facsimile signatures or signatures in electronic Portable Document Format ("PDF") shall be construed and have the same force and effect as original signatures.

19. This Stipulation or any uncertainty or ambiguity therein shall not be construed against any party, but shall be construed as if both Parties to this Stipulation jointly prepared this Agreement.

20. Each party acknowledges that this is the entire agreement of the Parties concerning the subject matter of the foregoing paragraphs, and that there are no written or oral representations, understandings or agreements directly or indirectly connected with this Stipulation.

21. If any provision of this Stipulation is held by a court of competent jurisdiction or determined under applicable law to be invalid, void, or unenforceable, the remaining provisions will continue and remain in full force and effect.

22. Additionally, this Stipulation is subject to final approval by the Arbitrator pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-5.6(c), and will become effective only upon approval by the Arbitrator. Counsel for the Parties shall jointly request the Arbitrator's approval of this Agreement and each shall take any and all necessary steps to effectuate dismissal of the Tenure Charges.

IT IS SO AGREED

TROY SOTO

Dated: 1.18.19

Troy Soto

TRENTON PUBLIC SCHOOLS
BOARD OF EDUCATION

Dated:_____

By:

Gene Bouie/Board President

Title:_____

CERTIFICATION

I, Troy Soto, hereby certify that I have reviewed this Agreement and fully understand its meaning and terms. I acknowledge that my attorney questioned my understanding and verified my acceptance of the terms of this Agreement. I am satisfied with my representation and I enter into this Agreement voluntarily.

01/18/2019 14:38 9736572282 GARY PHARMACY PAGE 01/03

I certify that the foregoing statements made by me are true. I am aware that if any of the foregoing statements made by me are willfully false, I am subject to punishment.

Dated: 1·18·19

Troy Soto

CERTIFICATION OF CONSENT TO SETTLEMENT TERMS PURSUANT TO N.J.A.C. 6A:3-5.6(b):

Dated: 1/30/19

Adam S. Herman, Esq.
ADAMS GUTIERREZ & LATTIBOUDERE
Attorneys for the Trenton City Public Schools Board of Education

APPROVED:

Dated: 2/9/19

Melissa Biren, Arbitrator

01/18/2019 14:38 9736672282 GARY PHARMACY PAGE 02/03

EXHIBIT "A"

Troy Soto
334 Harrison Street
Passaic, NJ 07055

January 10, 2019

Dr. Frederick McDowell, Superintendent
Trenton Public Schools Board of Education
108 N. Clinton Avenue
Trenton, NJ 08609

Re: Letter of Resignation

Dear Superintendent McDowell:

Please accept this letter as my irrevocable resignation from employment with the Trenton City Public Schools, for personal reasons, effective at the close of business on May 24, 2019.

Very truly yours,

Troy Soto

1-18-19

cc: Arnold Mellk, Esq.

01/18/2019 14:38 9736572282 GARY PHARMACY PAGE 03/03

RESOLUTION AUTHORIZING APPROVAL OF SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT WITH TROY SOTO

WHEREAS, the Trenton Board of Education has reviewed the Settlement Agreement between Troy Soto and the Board of Education in regard to Docket No. 257-10/18 and

WHEREAS, the Board has voted on this date to accept the Settlement Agreement with Troy Soto; and

WHEREAS, the Board designates and authorizes the Board President to execute the Settlement Agreement on the Board's behalf; now therefore be it

RESOLVED that the Trenton Board of Education approves the Settlement Agreement between Troy Soto and the Board of Education

Gene Bouie
Board President

Jayne S Howard
Jayne S. Howard
School Business Administrator/Board Secretary

January 28, 2019
ADOPTED

59-19

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

J.J., on behalf of minor child, C.J.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Manchester Regional High School District, Passaic County,

Respondent.

Synopsis

Petitioner filed a pro se residency appeal on behalf of her child, seeking a determination that C.J. is entitled to a free public education in the Manchester Regional High School District. Petitioner contended that she and her daughter are domiciled within the respondent's school district, but that C.J. had filled out a form relating to school bus pickup that used the address of one of petitioner's other properties located in Paterson, NJ. The Board filed an answer stating that it had acted in accordance with the law in determining that C.J. was not eligible for a free public education in its school district. The matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) as a contested case and a hearing was scheduled.

The ALJ found that: prior to the scheduled hearing date, petitioner sent correspondence stating that she had provided the school district with all of the required paperwork requested by the Board; petitioner also stated that she would like to close the case; the respondent Board subsequently advised the OAL that it will not seek tuition for C.J.'s attendance unless her residency circumstances change. Accordingly, the ALJ concluded that this is no longer a contested case before the OAL, and dismissed the matter.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurred with the findings and conclusions of the ALJ, and adopted the Initial Decision of the OAL as the final decision in this matter.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

March 6, 2019

OAL Dkt. No. EDU 17954-18
Agency Dkt. No. 269-11/18

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

J.J., on behalf of minor child, C.J.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Manchester Regional High School District, Passaic County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed. The parties did not file exceptions to the Initial Decision. In this matter, the petitioner is challenging the Manchester Regional Board of Education's determination that C.J. was not eligible to attend school in the District.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) – for the reasons stated in the Initial Decision – that the petition of appeal should be dismissed. Accordingly, the recommended decision of the ALJ is adopted for the reasons expressed therein.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 3/06/19
Date of Mailing: 3/06/19

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to P.L. 2008, c. 36 (N.J.S.A 18A:6-9.1).

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
DISMISSAL
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 17954-18
AGENCY DKT. NO. 269-11/18

J.J. ON BEHALF OF C.J.,
Petitioner,
v.
MANCHESTER REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT BOARD OF EDUCATION, PASSAIC COUNTY,
Respondent.

J.J., petitioner, pro se

Rodney T. Hara, Esq. for respondent (Fogarty & Hara, attorneys)

Record Closed: January 25, 2019 Decided: January 28, 2019

BEFORE JOANN LASALA CANDIDO, ALAJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner, J.J., filed a residency appeal on behalf of her child, C.J. Shortly thereafter the Board of Education of the Manchester Regional High School District (Respondent) filed an Answer with the State Department of Education. The matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) on December 10, 2018, for determination as a contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13. A hearing was scheduled for April 3, 2018. Prior to the hearing date petitioner sent correspondence stating that C.J. has never missed a day and that she sent the required paperwork respondent requested. She also stated that she would like to close the case. On January 25, 2019, respondent sent correspondence stating that it will not seek tuition for C.J.'s attendance, unless the circumstances involving petitioners' residency subsequently changes. Said correspondence is attached hereto for reference.

Based on the foregoing, I CONCLUDE that this matter is no longer a contested case before the Office of Administrative Law. It is therefore ORDERED that this matter be and is hereby DISMISSED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

January 28, 2019
DATE

JOANN LASALA CANDIDO, ALAJ

Date Received at Agency: January 28, 2019

Date Mailed to Parties:

ljb

FOGARTY & HARA
COUNSELLORS AT LAW

RODNEY T. HARA
STEPHEN R. FOGARTY
VITTORIO S. LAPIRA
STACEY THERESE CHERRY

JANET L. FIKE
AMY E. CANNING
NICHOLAS A. SOTO
ROBERT D. LORFINK
KERRY L. CUNNINGHAM
JOSEPH R. MARSICO

21-00 ROUTE 208 SOUTH
FAIR LAWN, NEW JERSEY 07410

(201) 791-3340
TELECOPIER (201) 791-3432

January 25, 2019

RECEIVED
2019 JAN 25 A 11:30
STATE OF NEW JERSEY
OFFICE OF ADMIN. LAW

Via E-Mail and Regular Mail

Honorable Joann LaSala Candido, A.L.J.
State of New Jersey
Office of Administrative Law
33 Washington Street
Newark, New Jersey 07102

Re: J.J. o/b/o a minor child, C.J. v. Passaic County Manchester Regional High School District Board of Education
OAL Docket No. EDU 17954-2018 N
Agency Ref. No. 269-11/18
Our File No. 73/1407

Dear Judge Candido:

We are in receipt of the petitioner's e-mail which informed the Passaic County Manchester Regional High School District Board of Education and Your Honor that she has decided to "close this case." In response, you had requested us to confirm that respondent will not be pursuing tuition for the student's attendance at Passaic County Manchester Regional High School. Please accept this letter as confirmation that respondent deems the matter resolved and will not seek tuition for C.J.'s attendance, unless the circumstances involving petitioner's residency subsequently changes.

If you should have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Thank you for your courtesies and cooperation.

With kind regards, we are

Respectfully Submitted,

FOGARTY & HARA

By: _____
Rodney T. Hara

RTH:lr
cc: Ms. Jenny Javier (via e-mail and regular mail)
Dr. Miguel Hernandez (via e-mail)
Superintendent of Schools
Mr. John A. Serapiglia, Jr. (via e-mail)
Business Administrator/Board Secretary

OAL Dkt. No. EDU 1517-18
Agency Dkt. No. 5-1/18

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Decision

In the Matter of the Teaching Certificate of Sheila Tabonli, Central Jersey Prep Charter School, Somerset County.

This matter was returned to the Department for disposition as consequence of respondent's failure to appear at a January 28, 2019 telephone prehearing conference. Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.7(a), the Commissioner remands the matter to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) for further action in accordance with N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.4(c), for the reasons stated herein.

In this case, the petitioner is seeking to have the respondent's certificate suspended pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 for resigning without giving the notice required by her contract with petitioner. Notably, the clerk returned this matter to the Department because the respondent did not appear at the scheduled telephone conference. However, the petitioner – Central Jersey Prep Charter School, who was the appearing party – is entitled to a decision on the merits. N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.4(d).

Accordingly, this matter is remanded to the Office of Administrative Law for further action in accordance with N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.4(d).*

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 3/07/19
Date of Mailing: 3/07/19

* If the petitioner no longer wishes to pursue this case, the petitioner should withdraw the matter once it is returned to the OAL.

61-19+

OAL Dkt. No. EDU 1517-18
Agency Dkt. No. 5-1/18

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Corrected Decision

In the Matter of the Teaching Certificate of Sheila Tabanli, Central Jersey Prep Charter School, Somerset County.

This matter was returned to the Department for disposition as consequence of respondent's failure to appear at a January 28, 2019 telephone prehearing conference. Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.7(a), the Commissioner remands the matter to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) for further action in accordance with N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.4(c), for the reasons stated herein.

In this case, the petitioner is seeking to have the respondent's certificate suspended pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:26-10 for resigning without giving the notice required by her contract with petitioner. Notably, the clerk returned this matter to the Department because the respondent did not appear at the scheduled telephone conference. However, the petitioner – Central Jersey Prep Charter School, who was the appearing party – is entitled to a decision on the merits. N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.4(d).

Accordingly, this matter is remanded to the Office of Administrative Law for further action in accordance with N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.4(d).*

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 4/09/19
Date of Mailing: 4/09/19

* If the petitioner no longer wishes to pursue this case, the petitioner should withdraw the matter once it is returned to the OAL.

OAL Dkt. No. EDU 15177-15
Agency Dkt. No. 246-9/15

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Decision

Tom Zoccolo,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the City of Jersey City, Hudson County,

Respondent.

The record, proposed stipulation of settlement and Initial Decision issued by the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1, have been reviewed.

Upon review, the Commissioner observes that the Superintendent of Jersey City Public Schools signed the agreement on behalf of the Board. The file does not contain a copy of the Board's resolution approving the settlement and designating the Superintendent to sign the agreement on its behalf – as required by N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.13 under these circumstances – nor is the resolution attached to the stipulation of settlement itself. In the alternative, the agreement is not signed by the Board attorney, who is the Board's duly authorized representative in litigation. Without either the Board attorney's signature or the appropriate Board resolution designating the Superintendent to sign the agreement on its behalf, the Commissioner cannot approve the within settlement.

Accordingly, the Commissioner hereby remands this matter to the OAL for revision of the settlement agreement consistent with the concerns set forth above. If the parties are unwilling or unable to reach accord on a modified agreement for submission to the Commissioner, the matter shall proceed to hearing.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 3/07/19
Date of Mailing: 3/07/19

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SETTLEMENT
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 15177-15
AGENCY DKT. NO. 246-9/15

TOM ZOCCOLO,
Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF JERSEY CITY, HUDSON COUNTY,
Respondent.

Philip Feintuch, Esq., for petitioner (Feintuch, Porwich & Feintuch, attorney)

John E. Croot, Esq., for respondent (Adams Gutierrez & Lattiboudere, attorneys)

Record Closed: September 12, 2018 Decided: January 18, 2019

BEFORE ANDREW M. BARON, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on May 18, 2005 for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The parties have agreed to a settlement and have prepared a Stipulation of Settlement indicating the terms thereof. A copy of the Stipulation of Settlement is attached and fully incorporated herein.

I have reviewed the record and the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures on the attached settlement agreement and the attached Board resolution.

2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

January 18, 2019
DATE

ANDREW M. BARON, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: _____

Mailed to Parties: _____

/mm

ADAMS GUTIERREZ & LATTIBOUDERE, LLC
The Legal Center
1037 Raymond Blvd, Suite 900
Newark, New Jersey 07102
(973) 735-2742
Attorneys for Respondent,
Jersey City Public Schools

RECEIVED
2019 JAN 17 A 11: 55
STATE OF NEW JERSEY
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

TOM ZOCCOLO, Petitioner, v. JERSEY CITY PUBLIC SCHOOLS, Respondent.	OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW AGENCY REFERENCE NO.: 246-9/15 OAL DOCKET NO.: EDU 15177-2015N STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT

The Jersey City Public Schools (the "District"), whose principal office is located at 346 Claremont Avenue, Jersey City, New Jersey 07305, and its successors, assignees, officers, employees, agents and representatives (collectively, "District"), and Tom Zoccolo ("Petitioner"), residing at 380 Line Road, Holmdel, New Jersey 07733, have voluntarily resolved all disputed matters in controversy between them and enter into the following Stipulation of Settlement in full and complete settlement of all outstanding issues as detailed below:

WHEREAS Petitioner is a tenured teaching staff member employed by the District as a teacher; and

WHEREAS the Parties intend to adopt, by way of compromise and accord, an amicable resolution of the Petition of Appeal; and

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and of the mutual agreements contained herein, and intending to be legally bound, the Parties mutually agree as follows:

1. Upon final approval of the signed Stipulation of Settlement by the Judge, the Petitioner shall and hereby does withdraw the instant Petition of Appeal.
2. The District shall restore Petitioner's increment prospectively, thereby placing Petitioner on his proper step for the 2018-2019 school year as if his increment for the 2015-2016 school year had not been withheld.
3. Petitioner understands and agrees that, since this settlement is prospective, he will not be reimbursed for any salary he did not receive as a result of the increment withholding during the 2015-2016 through 2017-2018 school years.
4. This agreement shall not constitute a precedent in any matters involving other District employees.
5. The Parties each acknowledge that counsel has advised them regarding this Stipulation of Settlement and that each is signing this Stipulation freely and voluntarily, without duress, coercion or pressure from the other party, with full understanding of its terms and conditions and consents to the terms contained herein.
6. Each signatory to this Stipulation understands, acknowledges and agrees that this Stipulation constitutes the full agreement of the parties and may not be altered, amended, modified, or otherwise changed in any respect whatsoever except by a duly executed writing signed on behalf of both Parties.
7. This Stipulation of Settlement shall be construed and enforced in accordance with New Jersey law. The Commissioner of Education shall have exclusive jurisdiction over any dispute arising from, in connection with, or related to this Stipulation of Settlement.

8. This Stipulation of Settlement may be executed in counterparts with the same effect as if the signatures hereto and thereto were upon the same instrument. Each counterpart will be deemed an original, which taken together shall constitute a single instrument. Facsimile signatures or signatures in electronic Portable Document Format ("PDF") shall be construed and have the same force and effect as original signatures.

9. This Stipulation of Settlement or any uncertainty or ambiguity therein shall not be construed against any party, but shall be construed as if both Parties to this Stipulation of Settlement jointly prepared this Agreement.

10. Each party acknowledges that this is the entire agreement of the Parties concerning the subject matter of the foregoing paragraphs, and that there are no written or oral representations, understandings or agreements directly or indirectly connected with this Stipulation of Settlement.

11. If any provision of this Stipulation is held by a court of competent jurisdiction or determined under applicable law to be invalid, void, or unenforceable, the remaining provisions will continue and remain in full force and effect.

12. The parties agree that the terms of the settlement agreement are subject to approval by the Superintendent of Schools of the Jersey City Public Schools pursuant to authority given to her by the Jersey City Board of Education.

13. Additionally, this Stipulation of Settlement is subject to final approval by the Judge pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1, and will become effective only upon approval by the Judge. Counsel for the Parties shall jointly request the Judge's approval of this Agreement and each shall take any and all necessary steps to effectuate dismissal of the Petition of Appeal.

Dated: 10/3/18

TOM ZOCCOLO

Dated: 10/22/18

DR. MARCIA V. LYLES
SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS
JERSEY CITY PUBLIC SCHOOLS

63-19

OAL Dkt. No. EDU 4412-18
Agency Dkt. No. 75-3/18

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Board of Education of the High Point Regional High School District, Sussex County,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Montague, Sussex County; Windsor Learning Center and School, Passaic County; and Willowglen Academy, Sussex County,

Respondents.

The record of this matter, the proposed settlement agreement and general release, and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law, have been reviewed pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1.

Upon review, the Commissioner approves the settlement terms and adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter. The case is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the settlement.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 3/07/19

Date of Mailing: 3/07/19

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SETTLEMENT
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 04412-18
AGENCY DKT. NO. 75-3/18

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE HIGH POINT REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT, SUSSEX COUNTY,

Petitioner,

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF MONTAGUE, SUSSEX COUNTY; WINDSOR LEARNING CENTER AND SCHOOL, PASSAIC COUNTY; WILLOWGLEN ACADEMY, SUSSEX COUNTY,

Respondents.

Douglas M. Silvestro, Esq., for petitioner (Busch Law Group, attorneys)

John B. Comegno, II, Esq., for respondent, BOE of the Twp. of Montague (Comegno Law Group)

Janelle Edwards-Stewart, Esq. for respondent Windsor Learning Center and School (Porzio, Bromberg & Newman, attorneys)

Richard Valenti, Esq., for respondent, Willowglen Academy (Morris, Downing and Sherred, attorneys)

Record Closed: February 11, 2019 Decided: February 14, 2019

BEFORE JUDE-ANTHONY TISCORNIA, ALJ:

On March 27, 2018, the matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law for determination as a contested case.

The parties have agreed to an amicable resolution of the matter and submitted the attached Settlement Agreement and the Board's resolution.

Having reviewed the record and the settlement terms, I FIND as follows:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or the signatures of their representatives.

2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

Alicia D'Anella, Esq., of The Comegno Law Group, P.C. provided a Stipulation of Dismissal with Prejudice for respondent BOE of The Twp. of Montague.

Janelle Edwards-Stewart, Esq., of Prozio Bromberg and Newman, P.C. provided a Stipulation of Dismissal with Prejudice as to respondent, The Windsor Learning Center and School.

Richard Valenti, Esq., of Morris, Downing and Sherred, LLP provided a Stipulation of Dismissal with Prejudice as to Willowglen Academy.

Therefore, I CONCLUDE that the agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. Accordingly, it is ORDERED that the parties comply with the settlement terms, and it is FURTHER ORDERED that the proceedings in this matter be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

2/14/19
DATE

JUDE-ANTHONY TISCORNIA., ALJ

Date Received at Agency: 2/22/19

Date Mailed to Parties: 2/18/19

id

RECEIVED
2019 FEB -5 A 11:0
STATE OF NEW JERSEY
OFFICE OF ADMIN. LAW

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND RELEASE

This Confidential Settlement Agreement and Release (the "Settlement") made this 20th day of November, 2018 by and among, MONTAGUE TOWNSHIP BOARD OF EDUCATION ("MONTAGUE"), together with its respective successors, assigns, attorneys, agents and all other persons or entities acting on its behalf,

and

HIGH POINT REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL BOARD OF EDUCATION ("HIGH POINT"), together with its respective successors, assigns, attorneys, agents and all other persons or entities acting on its behalf. (High Point and Montague are hereinafter referred to as the "Parties".)

RECITALS

WHEREAS, on or about August 13, 2013, the Parties entered into a Sending/Receiving Agreement Contract ("Agreement") commencing with the 2014-2015 school year, and which was intended to run through the 2023-2024 school year, whereby Montague sends its students to High Point pursuant to the terms of the Agreement, and in exchange for the consideration set forth therein; and

WHEREAS, the Agreement provides that Montague will have financial responsibility for its special education students requiring placements outside the High Point Regional School District subject to certain pre-placement notice requirements; and

WHEREAS, a dispute has arisen with respect to whether Montague was responsible for the tuition for two of its students placed by High Point in out of district placements for the 17-18 school year, with one student placed at the Windsor Learning Center & School ("Windsor"), and the other student placed at the Willowglen Academy ("Willowglen"); and

WHEREAS, as a result of the dispute, High Point initiated a petition of appeal before the Commissioner of Education captioned High Point Regional School District Board of Education v. Montague Township School District, the Windsor Learning Center & School, and the Willowglen Academy, under OAL Docket No. EDU 04412-2018N (the "Litigation"); and

WHEREAS, as a result of the Litigation, both cross claims and counter claims have been asserted; and

WHEREAS, in addition to the Litigation, Windsor has brought a suit against High Point alleging breach of contract, and High Point has moved to add Montague to as a third party defendant, which action is presently pending in Superior Court under SSX-L-000379-18 (the "Windsor Litigation"); and

WHEREAS, High Point and Montague desire to amicably resolve the Litigation without further legal proceedings; and

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises and covenants contained herein and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged by the Parties, the Parties agree as follows:

1. Tuition Payment

   A) Montague agrees to pay the 2017-2018 tuition for its student that attended Windsor, in the amount of $63,000.

   B) Montague agrees to pay the 2017-2018 tuition for its student that attended Willowglen, in the amount of $80,175.90.

   C) High Point agrees to pay the July 2018 tuition for Montague's student attendance at Willowglen, in the amount of $6,962.67.

D) Montague agrees to pay any increase in the 2017-2018 tuition amounts set forth herein should the certified tuition rate be determined to be higher than the amounts listed above, which reflect the estimated tuition rates, subject to compliance with the terms set forth in the respective tuition contracts, which are in the form promulgated by the New Jersey Department of Education.

E) Montague is responsible for and will pay the tuition for the student placed at Windsor for the 2018-2019 school year, contingent on the student remaining domiciled within the Montague Public School District. Montague reserves all rights, going forward, to object to the appropriateness of the placement, based on the student's needs in the future. Montague reserves all rights and waives no other claims, including but not limited to, claims arising from compliance with the student's IEP, compliance with the applicable tuition contract, and/or future compliance with the Agreement.

2. Additional Consideration. For the consideration contained herein, High Point Agrees not to oppose, hinder, or in any way obstruct any effort by Montague to terminate, withdraw from and/or not renew the Agreement, subject to the following terms:

A) Any action by Montague to terminate the Agreement shall not seek such termination prior to the end of the 2019-2020 school year.

B) High Point shall not be prohibited from providing data or documentation to the Commissioner of Education, requested as a result of Montague's efforts to terminate, withdraw from and/or not renew the Agreement.

3. Release of Claims. In consideration of the conditions and terms above, the Parties agrees as follows:

a. High Point, on its own behalf and on behalf of its officers, directors, shareholders, stockholders, attorneys, agents, insureds, servants, representatives, employees, subsidiaries, affiliates, partners, executors, administrators, managers, employees, predecessors, successors in interest, and assigns, hereby completely releases and forever discharges Montague, and all of its respective past, present and future board members, officers, directors, attorneys, agents, insureds, servants, representatives, employees, administrators, managers, and assigns, from any and all claims, demands, obligations, actions, causes of action, rights, damages, costs, attorneys' fees, loss of services, loss of earnings, expenses and compensation of any nature whatsoever, whether based on tort, contract (express, implied or otherwise) or any other theory of recovery, and whether for compensatory or punitive damages, arising out of the tuition payments to Willowglen and Windsor for the 2017-2018 school year at issue in the Litigation and the Windsor Litigation.

b. Montague, on its own behalf and on behalf of its officers, directors, shareholders, stockholders, attorneys, agents, insureds, servants, representatives, employees, subsidiaries, affiliates, partners, executors, administrators, managers, employees, predecessors, successors in interest, and assigns, hereby completely releases and forever discharges High Point, and all of its respective past, present and future board members, officers, directors, attorneys, agents, insureds, servants, representatives, employees, administrators, managers, and assigns, from any and all claims, demands, obligations, actions, causes of action, rights, damages, costs, attorneys' fees, loss of services, loss of earnings, expenses and compensation of any nature whatsoever, whether based on tort, contract (express, implied or otherwise) or any other theory of recovery, and whether for compensatory or punitive damages, arising out of the tuition payments to Willowglen and Windsor for the 2017-2018 school year at issue in the Litigation and the Windsor Litigation.

4. Successors and Assigns. This Settlement shall bind and inure to the benefit of each Party, its officers, directors, shareholders, stockholders, attorneys, agents, insureds, servants, representatives, employees, subsidiaries, affiliates, partners, executors, administrators, managers, employees, board members, predecessors, successors in interest, and assigns, separately and collectively.

5. Warranties. The Parties acknowledge, represent, warrant, affirm and confirm the following:

a. Each Party has read and understands the effect and scope of this Settlement, has relied and is relying solely upon its own judgment, belief and knowledge and/or upon the advice of its independent legal counsel as to the nature, extent, effect and consequences relating thereto.

b. This Settlement is being made without reliance upon any statement or representation by any other party hereto, except those expressly set forth herein.

c. No promise, inducement or agreement not herein expressed has been made to any of the Parties hereto.

d. Each individual signing this Settlement on behalf of a Party has the right, power and authority to sign and enter into this agreement on behalf of that Party and is competent to sign and enter into this agreement on behalf of that Party.

e. The Parties each execute and deliver this Settlement as a free and voluntary act, without any duress, coercion or undue influence exerted by or on behalf of any other party.

f. This Settlement is a valid, binding and enforceable agreement and does not violate any law, rule or regulation, or any contract or agreement to which any individual or entity on whose behalf this Settlement is executed is a party.

6. Resolution of Other Claims. The Parties agree that this Settlement is expressly contingent upon each party being able to fully and satisfactorily resolve any claims asserted against it by Willowglen and/or Windsor in the Litigation and/or the Windsor Litigation.

7. Interpretation of Settlement. This Settlement shall not be construed against any party on the basis that it or its attorney drafted it.

8. Entire Agreement / Amendment. This Settlement constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties with respect to its subject matter and there are no representations, warranties or agreements between the Parties not expressed herein. This Settlement supersedes and replaces all prior understandings and agreements between the Parties hereto, whether written or oral, express or implied, with respect to its subject matter. This Settlement may be amended or modified at any time or times only by written agreement of both Parties.

9. Execution in Counterparts. This Settlement may be executed simultaneously in several counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be one and the same instrument.

10. Facsimile/E-mail Signature. Signature by facsimile or electronic mail transmission is acceptable and will be fully enforceable as an original document. Electronic facsimiles of signatures will have the same force and effect as original signatures.

11. Forum Selection. The Parties agree that all claims, disputes, and other matters arising out of or relating to this Settlement, or the breach thereof, will be decided by proceedings instituted and litigated in the Superior Court of the State of New Jersey, Sussex County Vicinage, or by Petition filed with the Commissioner of Education, as appropriate.

12. Necessary Documents. Prior to and at all times following the date of this Settlement, the Parties agree to execute and deliver, or to cause to be executed and delivered, such documents and to do, or cause to be done, such other acts and things as might reasonably be requested by the Parties, to assure that the benefits of this Settlement are realized by the Parties.

13. Agreement Subject to Approval. The Parties agree that this Settlement in contingent upon approval by both High Point and Montague.

14. No Admission. Both parties agree and acknowledge that this Settlement does not constitute an admission of any kind by either party.

[The remainder of this page is intentionally left blank]

THE UNDERSIGNED HAVE CAREFULLY READ THIS "SETTLMENT AGREEMENT AND RELEASE;" THEY HAVE READ, KNOW AND UNDERSTAND ITS CONTENTS; THEY FREELY AND VOLUNTARILY AGREE TO ABIDE BY ITS TERMS, AND ARE FULLY AUTHORIZED TO SO AGREE AND BE BOUND; AND THEY HAVE NOT BEEN COERCED INTO SIGNING THIS AGREEMENT.

MONTAGUE TOWNSHIP SCHOOL DISTRICT

Witness George Hagl
Print or type name:
Acting Bus Adm. /Bd. Secretary

By: Glen A. Piotsky, President

HIGH POINT REGIONAL SCHOOL DISTRICT

Witness JAMES MINKLEWICZ
Print or type name:

By: Kyle Vealey

EXTRACT FROM THE MINUTES OF A MEETING OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION
OF HIGH POINT REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL
COUNTY OF SUSSEX, NEW JERSEY
AS RECORDED IN THE OFFICIAL MINUTE BOOK

The Board of Education of High Point Regional High School in the County of Sussex, NJ, convened in public session on November 20, 2018, in the High School Cafeteria:

Members Present: Mrs. Anderson, Mr. Dunn, Mr. Vealey, Mr. Voitcu, Mr. Notaro, Ms. Kymer
Members Absent: Mr. Miller, Mr. Kehoe, Mr. Antlciff

Board member, Mrs. Anderson made a motion seconded by Mr. Dunn and carried by a unanimous roll call vote, to approve the following:

I. LEGAL

1. BE IT RESOLVED, that the Board hereby approves the settlement agreement in the matter of High Point Regional School District Board of Education v. Montague Township School District, et al, OAL Docket No. EDU 04412-2018N, and authorizes the Board's administration and Board Attorney to take all appropriate steps necessary to carry out this action of the Board.

ROLL CALL VOTE:
AYES: 7
NOES: 0
ABSTENTIONS: 0
ABSENT: 2

STATE OF NEW JERSEY)
) ss.:
COUNTY OF SUSSEX)

RECEIVED
2019 FEB 11 P 3:23
STATE OF NEW JERSEY
OFFICE OF ADMIN. LAW

James Minkewicz, being first duly sworn on oath, deposes and says:
That deponent is the Board Secretary of the Board of Education of High Point Regional High School in the County and State aforesaid and that the annexed extract from the minutes of a meeting of the Board of Education of the School District held on November 20, 2018 at the time and place therein stated has been compared by deponent with the original minutes of the meeting recorded in full in the official Minute Book of the Board and is a true copy thereof and of the whole of the original so far as it relates to the subject matters referred to in this extract.

SEAL

James Minkewicz
Business Administrator/Board Secretary

Sworn by me on this 20th day of November, 2018

STATE OF NEW JERSEY DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION
Agency Docket No.: 216-8/18

In the Matter of the TENURE Hearing between

The BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF CAMDEN, CAMDEN COUNTY, NEW JERSEY

PETITIONER

and

ROXANNE JASTRZEMBSKI,

RESPONDENT

BEFORE: Ira Cure, Esq.
Arbitrator

APPEARANCES

For the Petitioner School District:
Joseph G. Antinori, Esq.
Brown & Connery, LLP

For the Respondent:
Cosmas P. Diamantis, Esq.
Zeller & Wieliczko, LLP

OPINION and AWARD

Pursuant to N.J.S.A., 18A:6-16, as amended by P.L. 2012, c. 26 and P.L. 2015, c. 109 ("TEACHNJ"), the tenure charges alleging inefficiency brought by the Petitioner Board of Education of the City of Camden ("District") against Roxanne Jastrzembski ("Respondent") were referred to me for a hearing and decision. The charges were filed with the New Jersey Department of Education ("DOE") on August 30, 2018. An answer was filed by the Respondent with the DOE on September 11, 2018. On September 17,

2018 Samantha L. Price, the DOE's Director of the Office of Controversies and Disputes, appointed me to hear this dispute. I conducted hearings at the offices of the District's attorneys Brown & Connery, LLP 360 Haddon Avenue, Westmont, New Jersey on October 17, 19, 29, 31, November 2, 6 and December 3, 2018[1]

Both parties were afforded a full opportunity to examine and cross-examine witnesses, submit evidence, and present arguments in support of their respective positions. The parties submitted briefs and the record was closed as of February 11, 2018. The evidence adduced and the positions and arguments set forth by the parties have been fully considered in the preparation and issuance of this Opinion and Award.

Joseph G. Antinori, of the firm of Brown & Connery, LLP represented the District. Cosmas P. Diamantis, Esq., of the firm of Zeller & Wieliczko, LLP represented the Respondent.

RELEVANT STATUTORY PROVISIONS

> N.J.S.A. 18A:6-10. Dismissal and reduction in compensation of persons under tenure in public school system
>
> No person shall be dismissed or reduced in compensation,
>
> (a) if he is or shall be under tenure of office, position or employment during good behavior and efficiency in the public-school system of the state, or
>
> (b) if he is or shall be under tenure of office, position or employment during good behavior and efficiency as a supervisor, teacher or in any other teaching capacity in the Marie H. Katzenbach school for the deaf, or in any other educational institution conducted under the supervision of the commissioner;
>
> except for inefficiency, incapacity, unbecoming conduct, or other just cause, and then only after a hearing held pursuant to this sub-article, by the commissioner, or a person appointed by him to act in his behalf, after a written charge or charges, of the cause or causes of complaint, shall have been preferred against such person, signed by the person or persons making the same, who may or may not be a member or members of a board of education, and filed and proceeded upon as in this subarticle provided.

[1] A hearing scheduled for November 27, 2018 was adjourned at the request of the parties.

Nothing in this section shall prevent the reduction of the number of any such persons holding such offices, positions or employments under the conditions and with the effect provided by law.

N.J.S.A. 1SA:6-17.2. Considerations for arbitrator in rendering decision.

23. a. In the event that the matter before the arbitrator pursuant to section 22 of this act is employee inefficiency pursuant to section 25 of this act, in rendering a decision the arbitrator shall only consider whether or not:

(1) the employee's evaluation failed to adhere substantially to the evaluation process, including, but not limited to providing a corrective action plan;

(2) there is a mistake of fact in the evaluation;

(3) the charges would not have been brought but for considerations of political affiliation, nepotism, union activity, discrimination as prohibited by State or federal law, or other conduct prohibited by State or federal law; or

(4) the district's actions were arbitrary and capricious,

b. In the event that the employee is able to demonstrate that any of the provisions of paragraphs (1) through (4) of subsection a. of this section are applicable, the arbitrator shall then determine if that fact materially affected the outcome of the evaluation. If the arbitrator determines that it did not materially affect the outcome of the evaluation, the arbitrator shall render a decision in favor of the board and the employee shall be dismissed. The evaluator's determination as to the quality of an employee's classroom performance shall not be subject to an arbitrator's review.

c. The board of education shall have the ultimate burden of demonstrating to the arbitrator that the statutory criteria for tenure charges have been met.

d. The hearing shall be held before the arbitrator within 45 days of the assignment of the arbitrator to the case. The arbitrator shall render a written decision within 45 days of the start of the hearing.

N.J.S.A. I 8A:6-I 7.3. Evaluation process, determination of charges.

25. a. Notwithstanding the provisions of N.J.S. I 8A:6-11 or any other section of law to the contrary, in the case of a teacher, principal, assistant principal, and vice-principal:

(1) the superintendent shall promptly file with the secretary of the board of education a charge of inefficiency whenever the employee is rated ineffective or partially effective in an annual summative evaluation and the following year is rated ineffective in the annual summative evaluation;

(2) if the employee is rated partially effective in two consecutive annual summative evaluations or is rated ineffective in an annual summative evaluation and the following year is rated partially effective in the annual summative evaluation, the superintendent shall promptly file with the secretary of the board of education a charge of inefficiency, except that the superintendent upon a written finding of exceptional circumstances may defer the filing of tenure charges until the next annual summative evaluation. If the employee is not rated effective or highly effective on this annual summative evaluation, the superintendent shall promptly file a charge of inefficiency.

b. Within 30 days of the filing, the board of education shall forward a written charge to the commissioner, unless the board determines that the evaluation process has not been followed.

c. Notwithstanding the provisions of N.J.S. 18A:6-16 or any other section of law to the contrary, upon receipt of a charge pursuant to subsection a. of this section, the commissioner shall examine the charge. The individual against whom the charges are filed shall have 10 days to submit a written response to the charges to the commissioner. The commissioner shall, within five days immediately following the period provided for a written response to the charges, refer the case to an arbitrator and appoint an arbitrator to hear the case, unless he determines that the evaluation process has not been followed.

d. The only evaluations which may be used for purposes of this section are those evaluations conducted in accordance with a rubric adopted by the board and approved by the commissioner pursuant to P.L.2012, c.26 (C.I 8A:6-117 et al.).

THE CHARGE

TENURE CHARGE AGAINST ROXANNE JASTRZEMBSKI

I, Katrina T. McCombs, M. Ed., Acting State Superintendent of the Camden City School District ("the District"), charge that Roxanne Jastrzembski ("Jastrzembski"), a tenured teacher, should be dismissed from employment for inefficiency.

Background

1. The Camden City Board of Education entered into a Consent Order with the Commissioner of Education in March of 2013 to allow for full State intervention to begin on the last day of the school year in June 2013. The State of New Jersey began operating the Camden City School District ("the District") on June 26, 2013. In accordance with the newly enacted "Teacher Effectiveness and Accountability for the Children of New Jersey Act" ("TEACHNJ"), one of the critical initiatives upon state intervention was a thorough assessment of all teachers within the District.

Charge: Inefficiency (TEACHNJ N.J.S.A. 18A:6-17.3)

2. The District brings this inefficiency charge against Jastrzembski pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-17.3 based on her two consecutive "partially effective" summative evaluations.

TEACHNJ Legislation

3. Beginning in the 2013-2014 academic year, the TEACHNJ legislation and accompanying regulations (AchieveNJ) were implemented statewide in New Jersey. In part, that law pertains to the evaluation process for tenured teachers and the subsequent process of removal for inefficiency.

4. On January 4, 2017, changes to the AchieveNJ requirements for the evaluation of tenured teachers were adopted for use in the 2016-2017 academic year.

Practical Portion: The Danielson Framework

5. The statute requires that only certain Department of Education approved practice evaluation rubrics be used in the evaluations of teachers. The Camden City School District has opted to use the Charlotte Danielson Framework for Teaching evaluation rubric which has been approved by the NJ State Department of Education.

6. The Charlotte Danielson Evaluation Rubric identifies four (4) domains which are to be evaluated: (1) planning and preparation; (2) classroom environment; (3) instruction; and (4) professional responsibilities. Each of these domains includes a number of subdomains. Under the rubric, employees are scored in each subdomain on a scale of 1 to 4, 1 being "ineffective," 2 being "partially effective," 3 being "effective," and 4 being "highly effective." All subdomain scores within a particular domain are then averaged, yielding the employee's score for that domain. In turn, the scores from each domain are averaged, yielding the employee's overall score for the practical portion of the summative evaluation score (Teacher Practice score). In the Camden City School District, the practical portion of the overall evaluation was weighted at 85% of the total summative rating for the 2016-2017 and 2017-2018 academic years.

7. Teachers and evaluators in the District received training and instruction with regard to the Danielson evaluation rubric.

8. During the 2016-2017 and 2017-2018 academic years, information regarding the evaluation process including observation information, pre- and post-conference information, summative ratings, etc. was recorded and stored in the TeachBoost software program.

9. All teachers and evaluators received training and instruction with regard to the TeachBoost program.

Student Growth Achievement Portion: Student Growth Objectives (SGOs) and Median Student Growth Percentile (mSGP)

10. In addition to the practical portion of the teacher's summative rating, N.J.A.C. 6A:10-4.1(c) and N.J.A.C. 6A:10-4.2 require that each rating also include a measure of student achievement, including mSGP and/or student growth objective(s) ("SGO") scores.

11. In the Camden City School District, the student growth achievement measure was weighted at 20% of the overall score for the 2015-2016 academic year and at 15% of the total rating for the 2016-2017 academic years.

Year 1: The 2016-2017 Evaluation Process and Requirements

Practical Portion

12. During the 2016-2017 academic year, N.J.A.C. 6A:10-4.4(c) required that tenured teachers be observed at least two (2) times in the first year with each observation lasting at least twenty (20) minutes.

13. Jastrzembski was observed two (2) times during the 2016-2017 academic year on the following dates by the following evaluators:

    a. Short Observation #1: 11/29/16 by Jonathan Taylor
    b. Short Observation #2: 5/17/17 by Jonathan Ogbonna

    See attached documents stamped CCSD RJ 000001 through CCSD RJ 0010.

14. Upon information and belief, each observation lasted for at least the required twenty minutes. Id.

15. N.J.A.C. 6A:10-4.4(b) requires that each evaluator conduct a post-observation conference not more than fifteen (15) teaching staff member working days after the observation.

16. It is the practice of District evaluators to conduct post-observation conferences within the timeframe required and, upon information and belief, each evaluator conducted post-observation conferences in accordance with the regulation. Id.

17. N.J.A.C. 6A:10-4.4(c) requires that at least one observation in an academic year be announced and preceded by a pre-observation conference.

18. Upon information and belief, in the 2016-2017 academic year, Jastrzembski participated in a pre-conference which was in compliance with the timing requirements set forth in the regulations.

19. N.J.A.C 6A:10-4.4(c) also requires that at least one teacher observation occur during the first half of the school year and that at least one occur during the second half of the school year.

20. At least one of Jastrzembski's observations occurred in the first half of the school year and at least one occurred in the second half.

21. All of Jastrzembski's evaluators electronically signed the observation reports they completed.

22. Finally, in addition to reviewing each of the observation reports at the post-observation conferences, all the teachers in the District, including Jastrzembski, had access to them as soon as they were uploaded via Teachscape and continued to have such access throughout the remainder of the academic year.

23. Jastrzembski's summative calculation of the practical portion for the 2016-2017 academic year was a "2.36." See attached documents stamped CCSD RJ 0024.

Student Growth Achievement Portion

24. Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:10-4.1(b)-(c) and N.J.A.C. 6A:10-4.2, each teacher shall have a measurement of student growth achievement, including MSGP and/or SGO scores.

25. Jastrzembski's summative calculation of SGO scores for the 2015-2016 academic year were a "3.27" and "2.35." See attached documents stamped CCSD RJ 0020 through 0024.

2016-2017 Summative Rating/Conference

26. After weighing each component of the evaluation, Jastrzembski's summative rating was calculated to be "2.52" which is only "partially effective." See attached documents stamped CCSD RJ 0024.

27. Pursuant to N.J.A.C 6A:10-2.4(f), a summative conference must be held and both the teacher and supervisor must sign the summative evaluation within five (5) days of such conference. In this case, a conference was held on June 20, 2017 and the summative form was signed by Jastrzembski's supervisor that same day.." See attached documents stamped CCSD RJ 0024-25.

Professional Development

28. During the 2016-2017 academic year, and in years prior thereto, all teachers were provided with professional development opportunities both generally and specific to the areas of improvement needed for each teacher individually.

Corrective Action Plan

29. A teacher rated "partially effective" or "ineffective" on his or her summative evaluation during an academic year is required to be placed on a corrective action plan ("CAP") pursuant to N.J.A.C 6A:10-2.5(a). During the 2016-2017 academic year, the CAP was required to be created prior to October 31st of the next academic year. Id.

30. Jastrzembski's CAP was created on June 20, 2017 and, upon information and belief, both the teacher and the supervisor participated in its creation. See attached documents stamped CCSD RJ 0026 through 0032.

Year 2: The 2017-2018 Evaluation Process and Requirements

Practical Portion

31. During the 2017-2018 academic year, N.J.A.C. 6A:10-2.5(h) required that teachers on a CAP be observed at least three (3) times with each observation lasting at least twenty (20) minutes. Additionally, multiple (more than one) evaluators must perform observations of a teacher on a CAP. N.J.A.C. 6A:10-2.5(i).

32. Jastrzembski's was observed three (3) times in the 2017-2018 academic year on the following dates by the following evaluators:

    a. Short Observation #1: 10/23/17 by Nichole Harrington
    b. Short Observation #2: 2/16/18 by Jonathan Taylor
    c. Short Observation #3: 4/11/18 by Lynn Price Jones

See attached documents stamped CCSD RJ 0033 through 0039-72.

33. Upon information and belief, each observation lasted at least the required twenty minutes and Jastrzembski's was evaluated by more than one evaluator during the 2017-2018 academic year. Id.

34. N.J.A.C. 6A:10-4.4(b) requires that each evaluator conduct a post-observation conference not more than fifteen (15) working days after the observation.

35. It is the practice of District evaluators to conduct post-observation conferences within the timeframe required and, upon information and belief, each evaluator conducted such post-observation conferences in accordance with the regulation. Id.

36. N.J.A.C. 6A:10-4.4(c) requires that at least one observation in an academic year be announced and preceded by a pre-observation conference.

37. Upon information and belief, in the 2017-2018 academic year, Jastrzembski's participated in a pre-conference, which was in compliance with the timing requirements set forth in the regulations. See attached documents Bates stamped CCSD RJ 0033 and 39-72.

38. N.J.A.C 6A:10-4.4(c) also requires that at least one teacher observation occur during the first half of the school year and that at least one occur during the second half of the school year.

39. Upon information and belief, at least one of Jastrzembski's observations occurred in the first half of the school year and at least one occurred in the second half.

40. All of Jastrzembski's evaluators electronically signed the observation reports they completed.

41. Finally, in addition to reviewing each of the observation reports at the post-observation conferences, all the teachers in the District, including Jastrzembski, had access to them as soon as they were uploaded via the TeachBoost program and continued to have such access throughout the remainder of the academic year.

42. Jastrzembski's summative calculation of the practical portion for the 2017-2018 academic year was a "2.24." See attached documents stamped CCSD RJ 0077-78.

Student Growth Achievement Portion

43. Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:10-4.1(b)-(c) and N.J.A.C. 6A:10-4.2, each teacher shall have a measurement of student growth achievement, including mSGP and/or SGO scores.

44. Jastrzembski's summative calculation of SGO scores for the 2017-2018 academic year were a "1.87" and a "2.17." See attached documents stamped CCSD RJ 0077-78.

Corrective Action Plan

45. As previously indicated, a teacher who was rated "partially effective" or "ineffective" during an academic year is required to be placed on a corrective action plan ("CAP") pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:10-2.5(a) for the next academic year. During the year for which the CAP applies, the teacher and the supervisor are required to meet midway between the development of the CAP and the expected receipt of the annual summative rating in order to review the teacher's progress toward the goals outlined in the CAP. N.J.A.C. 6A:10-2.5(g).

46. Jastrzembski and her supervisor upon information and belief had a mid-year CAP conference.

Professional Development

47. During the 2016-2017 and 2017-2018 academic years, and in years prior thereto, all teachers were provided with professional development opportunities both generally and specific to the areas of improvement needed for each individual teacher.

2016-2017 Summative Rating/Conference

48. After weighing each component of the evaluation, Jastrzembski's summative rating was calculated to be "2.21," which is partially effective. See attached documents stamped CCSD RJ 0077-78.

49. Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:10-2.4(f), a summative conference must be held and both the teacher and supervisor must sign the summative evaluation within five (5) days of such conference. In this case, a conference was held on 6/18/18 and the summative form was signed by Jastrzembski and her supervisor on that same day. See attached documents stamped CCSD RJ 0077-90.

Conclusion: Inefficiency

50. The District has evaluated Jastrzembski in accordance with the law and provided her with the tools to be successful. Nonetheless, she has shown to be both unable or unwilling to improve.

51. Due to Jastrzembski's two consecutive "partially effective" rating for the 2016-2017 and 2017-2018 academic years, the District must bring this tenure charge against her. Accordingly, the District submits that Jastrzembski should be dismissed for inefficiency.

FACTS

A. Background

In 2012, the New Jersey State Legislature enacted TEACHNJ. N.J.S.A. 18A:6-117. The statute is designed to raise student achievement in part by requiring school districts to adopt evaluative techniques to provide feedback to teachers. N.J.S.A. 18A:6-118(b). Under TEACHNJ the State Board of Education was directed to set standards for the evaluation of teachers and requires boards of education to adopt "evaluation rubrics," for analyzing teacher effectiveness. The statute requires that educators be rated as "ineffective," "partially effective," "effective," or "highly effective." N.J.S.A. 18A:6-123(b)(1) & (c). The statute went into effect in the 2013-2014 school year. N.J.S.A. 18A:6-123(e).

The District adopted the Danielson Framework for evaluating teachers. Under the Danielson Framework, teachers are evaluated in four separate domains, with each domain having sub-domains. (D Ex. 173).[2] The four domains are: Domain 1: Planning and Preparation; Domain 2: The Classroom Environment; Domain 3: Instruction; and [2] District's exhibits are denoted as: (D Ex. #). Respondent's exhibits are denoted as (R Ex. #). However, the "#" sign for the Respondent's exhibits refers to the bate stamp page and not a tab.

Domain 4: Professional Responsibilities. Under the Danielson Framework, teachers are scored in each subdomain on a scale of 1 to 4, 1 being "ineffective," 2 being "partially effective," 3 being "effective," and 4 being "highly effective." All subdomain scores within a particular domain are then averaged, yielding the employee's score for that domain. In turn, the scores from each domain are averaged, yielding the employee's overall score for the practical portion of the summative evaluation score which is generally calculated at the end of the school year.

Nicholas Pillsbury ("Pillsbury") is the District's Implementation Manager for Evaluation. Mr. Pillsbury's duties require him to manage the District's evaluation procedures. (Tr. 11-12). Mr. Pillsbury trains principals and lead educators[3] in the requirements of the Danielson Framework. (Tr. 64; P Ex. 9). There is also a document provided by the District entitled: "Camden City School District Teacher Evaluation Overview." (District Ex. 50). In order to create a certain consistency in scoring under the Danielson Framework, principals and lead educators are required to do two co-observations a year so that they may "norm" their results. (Tr. 97). Observations may be announced or unannounced. Generally, at least one observation must be announced. (Tr. 315).

In addition to the Danielson Framework, teachers are also evaluated on how successful they are in meeting student growth objectives or "SGOs." Teachers are required to create SGOs at the beginning of the school year, and they undergo training in creating the SGOs and in the Danielson Framework. (Tr. 19, 26-27, 62-63). SGOs are in part measured by how well students perform on quizzes ("District Office Quizlets" or [3] Lead educators are similar to vice-principals. (Tr. 203).

"DOQs") and other examinations. (Tr. 17-19). In addition, the District utilizes web-based platforms to store and create evaluation documents. This proceeding concerns the 2016-2017 school year and the 2017-2018 school year. In 2016-2017, the District utilized a web-based platform called Teachscape and in the 2017-2018 school year the District utilized a web-based platform called TeachBoost. (Tr. 13, 24). These platforms were used to keep track of data for students and teachers.

B. The Respondent and the H.B. Wilson School

The Respondent has been employed by the District for 16 years. (Tr. 649). The Respondent has a bachelor's degree in psychology and elementary education and a master's degree in curriculum and instruction. (Tr. 647). The Respondent also holds an elementary education certificate, a middle school social studies certificate, a psychology certificate, and is highly qualified for middle school science. (Tr. 648). Since 2004, the Respondent has taught science to grades 6 through 8. (Tr. 650). Beginning in 2014, and at all times relevant to this proceeding, the Respondent was assigned to the H.B. Wilson School. ("H.B. Wilson"). (Tr. 651). H.B. Wilson is a family school that teaches students from pre-school to the eighth grade. (Tr. 651). H.B. Wilson occupies a two-story building with middle school students located on the second floor. (Tr. 674).

H.B. Wilson has 8 periods per day. There is no transition time between periods, and no bells signify the change of periods. (Tr. 654-655). Teachers are generally required to escort their students from one class to another. (Tr. 658).

During the period relevant to this proceeding, the following individuals had supervisory responsibility over the Respondent at H.B. Wilson: Janna Johnson ("Johnson"), Jonathan Taylor ("Taylor"), Jonathan Ogbonna ("Ogbonna"), Nicole Harrigan ("Harrigan"), and Lynne Price-Jones (Price-Jones). Mr. Taylor had been H.B. Wilson's Operations Manager and in January 2016, Mr. Taylor became a Lead Educator at H.B. Wilson. Mr Taylor observed the Respondent on November 29, 2016 and February 16, 2018. (Tr. 475-476, 488-489, 506). Ms. Harrigan is currently the Principal of H.B. Wilson. Ms. Harrigan observed the Respondent on October 23, 2017. (District Ex. 16). In the Spring of 2017, Ms. Johnson[4] the Principal of H.B. Wilson was on leave and Dr. Ogbonna was temporarily assigned as the Principal of H.B. Wilson from April to June 2017. Dr. Ogbonna observed the Respondent on May 17, 2017. (Tr. 312). Ms. Price-Jones is employed by the District as a Senior Lead-Educator of Math and Science for grades K-8 who observed the Respondent on April 11, 2018. (Tr. 202, 237).

In March of 2016, the Respondent broke her wrist at a school event. This resulted in a successful claim for Worker's Compensation. (Tr. 681). That summer, the Respondent broke her ankle. As a result of this second injury, the Respondent missed the first six weeks of school and did not begin teaching in the 2016-2017 school year until October 10, 2016. (Tr. 662). Also, as a result of this second injury, the Respondent had problems with mobility, and required the use of a knee scooter. (Tr. 671). Because of her injuries and the need for physical accommodations, the Respondent had a "504 Plan" in effect[5]. The Respondent testified that her physical limitations had a negative impact on some of her observations. (Tr. 868, 870-871). These observations are discussed below.

The Respondent is also active in her union, the Camden Education Association ("CEA"). During the 2016-2017 school year, the Respondent was the middle school representative to the CEA'S Executive Council. (Tr. 891). The Respondent was on the [4] None of Ms. Johnson's observations of the Respondent are relevant to this proceeding.

[5] A "504 Plan" is a reference to § 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973.

CEA's negotiating committee, and she took part in a class-wide grievance alleging that the members of the bargaining unit were not getting proper step increases. (Tr. 903-904). Members of the H.B. Wilson administration were aware of the Respondent's union activities. (Tr. 904-905).

C. The 2016-2017 School Year

When the Respondent returned to work on October 10, 2016, she was given a permanent classroom, and she was assigned to teach two fifth grade and two sixth grade science classes. (Tr. 661). Mr. Taylor observed the Respondent on November 29, 2016. Pursuant to the Danielson Framework and as a result of his observation Mr. Taylor gave the Respondent the following scores:

Domain 1: Demonstrating Knowledge of Content and Pedagogy	3
Demonstrating Knowledge of Students	2
Selecting Instructional Outcomes	3
Demonstrating Knowledge of Resources	3
Designing Coherent Instruction	2
Domain 2: Creating an Environment of Respect and Rapport	3
Establishing a Culture for Learning	2
Managing Classroom Procedures	2
Managing Student Behavior	2
Domain 3: Communicating with Students	3
Using Questioning and Discussion Techniques	1
Engaging Students in Learning	3
Using Assessment in Instruction	2

(D Ex. 2). Domain 4 concerns Professional Responsibilities and permits teachers to upload evidence of continued professional development and training. Domain 4 is generally not scored at the time of the observation. (Tr. 761).

The Respondent testified that she thought that her scores were inappropriate, because there was a lack of specified evidence for some of her scores, and that Mr. Taylor ignored the fact that some of the Respondent's students were getting settled when Mr. Taylor began his observation[6]. (Tr. 720, 727-728, 730-731).

On February 21, 2017, Mr. Taylor provided the Respondent with her Domain 4 ratings. Mr. Taylor gave the Respondent the following scores:

Domain 4: Reflecting on Teaching	3
Maintaining Accurate Records	2
Communicating with Families	2
Participating in a Professional Community	3
Growing and Developing Professionally	3

(D Ex. 5 p. CCSD RJ 0016). The Respondent disputes the veracity of the evidence underlying some of these scores and notes that at the time she had not yet been trained on the TeachBoost system, so some documents had not been finalized. (Tr. 761-764).

On May 17, 2017, Dr. Ogbonna observed the Respondent. Pursuant to the Danielson Framework and as a result of his observation, Mr. Ogbonna gave the Respondent the following scores:

Domain 1: Demonstrating Knowledge of Content and Pedagogy	3
Demonstrating Knowledge of Students	3
Selecting Instructional Outcomes	3
Demonstrating Knowledge of Resources	3
Designing Coherent Instruction	3
Domain 2: Creating an Environment of Respect and Rapport	2
Establishing a Culture for Learning	1
Managing Classroom Procedures	1
Managing Student Behavior	1
Domain 3: Communicating with Students	3
Using Questioning and Discussion Techniques	1
Engaging Students in Learning	1
Using Assessment in Instruction	1

(D Ex. 3)

[6] I am aware that under TEACHNJ that I have only limited discretion in analyzing the content of any particular observation, unless there is evidence in support of the enumerated statutory defenses. N.J.S.A. 18a:6-124(b).

The Respondent testified regarding numerous problems concerning Dr. Ogbonna's observation. The Respondent contends that the start of her class was delayed because the teacher in the prior class was occupying the classroom. In addition, a technician was in the classroom repairing one of the computers that was supposed to be used in the lesson. This required the Respondent to reassign seats for her students. Next the Respondent had to hand out materials to some students who had forgotten their binders. Then it became apparent that the materials which were prepared by the District, had been inverted in some of the binders. The Respondent testified that even though she checked that the material was complete, she stated that there was no way that she could have known that certain binders had inverted materials. Within fifteen minutes of the class commencing, a surprise announcement came over the loudspeaker directing honor roll students to attend a special assembly. At that point, one third of the class left the room. The Respondent was required to write a hall pass for each of the students attending the assembly. The Respondent notes that the more computer savvy students were leaving the classroom. Next, the Respondent had to pass out laptop computers to certain students. The laptop computers had to be checked to make sure they were functional. In addition, certain students had difficulty logging in and others who were able to log in had problems with pop-up blockers. The pop-up blockers prevented the students from accessing the material. At this point, the class was almost over, so the Respondent was required to collect the laptops. The Respondent admits that during the twenty minutes that Dr. Ogbonna observed her class, she was unable to effectively teach her lesson and was unable to engage with her students as she intended. (Tr. 736-754).

In her post-observation discussion with Dr. Ogbonna in which she pointed out the difficulties she had in teaching the class Dr. Ogbonna observed, the Respondent asked Dr. Ogbonna to refocus his scores or to provide her with an additional observation. (Tr. 752, 756-757). The Respondent also provided a written rebuttal to Dr. Ogbonna's observation. (D Ex. 4). The Respondent testified that Dr. Ogbonna said he was not permitted to accommodate the Respondent's requests.

In his testimony, Dr. Ogbonna stated that he concluded that, at the time of his May 17, 2017 observation, the Respondent's classroom was disorganized, and that she was essentially unprepared. (Tr. 323-325). Dr. Ogbonna stated that a new observation was inappropriate, and that the reasons for a new observation posited by the Respondent "did not carry weight." Although he acknowledged in his testimony that students did leave the class, and that there was a technician present, Dr. Ogbonna reasoned that the Respondent still should have been able to instruct her class. He concluded that there was no need to change the scores on the observation. (Tr. 330-331). In his testimony Dr. Ogbonna posited that if there is a fire drill or some other emergency, then a re-observation should be conducted. However, Dr. Ogbonna rejected the notion that the interruptions experienced by the Respondent merited a re-observation. (Tr. 354).

On June 13, 2017, Mr. Taylor provided the Respondent with her year ending Domain 4 scores. Mr. Taylor provided these scores instead of H.B. Wilson Principal Janna Johnson ("Johnson") who was on leave. (Tr. 499). The Respondent's Domain 4 scores were:

Domain 4: Reflecting on Teaching	3
Maintaining Accurate Records	3
Communicating with Families	3
Participating in a Professional Community	4
Growing and Developing Professionally	3

(D Ex. 5 p. CCSD RJ 0018).

Regarding the Respondent's SGO's for the 2016-2017 school year, the Respondent was given a weighted score of 3.45 for both her fifth and sixth grade students. (D Ex. 6). The Respondent's SGO scores and her scores under the Danielson Framework are listed in their data form. The form, in turn, indicates the weight given to each piece of data in the calculation of the final rating: 85% for the Teacher Practice scores under the Danielson Framework and 15% for the SGO. Both scores are then combined in a "Summative Report." On June 20, 2017, Mr. Taylor provided the Respondent with her Summative Report which gave the Respondent a score of 2.52. The Summative Report stated in pertinent part:

Student Growth Score
Component	Weight	Score
SGO Scores	100%	3.45
	15% (of total)	3.45
Teacher Practice Score
Component	Weight	Score
Planning and Preparation	30%	2.82
Classroom Environment	20%	1.75
Instruction	30%	1.88
Professional Responsibilities	20%	3.00
	85%	2.36
Final Score-Partially Effective		2.52

(D Ex. 7).

Under TEACHNJ, teachers who are found to be partially effective are placed on a Corrective Action Plan or "CAP." N.J.A.C. 6A: 10-2.5. Had the Respondent scored a 2.65 or higher she would have been deemed effective, and not placed on a CAP. (Tr. 163).

D. The 2017-2018 School Year

The Respondent's CAP was prepared by Mr. Taylor on June 20, 2017. (D Ex. 8). The CAP set forth a number of areas in which the Respondent was required to improve. Throughout the 2017-2018 school year, the Respondent was to be coached by Ms. Harrigan, H.B. Wilson's new principal. In addition, the Respondent was expected to reduce disciplinary referrals. (Tr. 161). The Respondent testified that neither Ms. Harrigan nor Mr. Taylor complied with certain of the CAP requirements.

For example, the Respondent testified that her supervisors were supposed to check each of her lesson plans, and to make sure she provided exit tickets to her students[7]. The Respondent testified that she was supposed to receive a mid-year CAP review before February 15, 2018 in order to make any necessary adjustments in her teaching. She states however, that she did not receive the mid-year CAP review until April 9, 2018. (Tr. 781). The Respondent also testified that, although initially Ms. Harrigan provided weekly coaching sessions at the start of the 2017-2018 school year, these sessions soon stopped and were replaced by passing comments and emails. (Tr. 833-836). Ms. Harrigan testified that she communicated repeatedly with the Respondent, especially to address, the Respondent's classroom management deficiencies. (Tr. 160-162). Ms. Harrigan also testified that she frequently walked through the Respondent's classes. (Tr. 184). In addition, Ms. Harrigan stated that she provided additional professional development to the Respondent, and arranged for the Respondent to observe other teachers, or have other teachers observe the Respondent. (Tr. 172-173, 188-189, 962, 1059, 1066).

[7] Exit tickets are questions for students to determine if they understand the material for a particular lesson. (Tr. 599).

In the 2017-2018 school year, the Respondent only taught two classes of sixth grade students[8]. (Tr. 644). H.B. Wilson's other science teacher taught four or five classes. (Tr. 1119). Respondent and witnesses who testified on behalf of the Respondent stated that the sixth-grade students had behavioral issues, and that behavior problems were in part exacerbated by Ms. Harrigan's apparent intention not to suspend students. (Tr. 697, 1017-1019, 1037-1039, 1061-1062). The Respondent also testified that she was given limited resources and students were unable to effectively access material. (Tr. 864-865).

Supervisors are to observe teachers under a CAP at least three times during the school year. The Respondent's first observation, in the 2017-2018 school year, was conducted by Ms. Harrigan on October 23, 2017. The Respondent testified that her students were not properly equipped for this lesson because they lacked the necessary math skills. In addition, the Respondent testified that the science curriculum was designed for students in the eighth grade not for students in the sixth grade. (Tr. 793-794). The Respondent testified that she informed Ms. Harrigan, Ms. Price-Jones and Mr. Taylor about these issues, but the issues were not addressed. (Tr. 795). In addition, prior to her observation, the Respondent alerted Ms. Harrigan that materials from the District arrived late and that her class was behind as a result. (Tr. 798-799). Pursuant to the Danielson Framework, Ms. Harrigan gave the Respondent the following scores:

[8] During the rest of the school day, Respondent assisted other teachers and ran the robotics club. (Tr. 665).

Domain 1: Demonstrating Knowledge of Content and Pedagogy	3
Demonstrating Knowledge of Students	3
Selecting Instructional Outcomes	3
Demonstrating Knowledge of Resources	3
Designing Coherent Instruction	2
Domain 2: Creating an Environment of Respect and Rapport	3
Establishing a Culture for Learning	2
Managing Classroom Procedures	2
Managing Student Behavior	2
Organizing Physical Space	3
Domain 3: Communicating with Students	2
Using Questioning and Discussion Techniques	2
Engaging Students in Learning	2
Using Assessment in Instruction	2
Demonstrating Flexibility and Responsiveness	2

(D Ex. 16).

Ms. Harrigan was critical of the Respondent's ability to control her class. Ms. Harrigan testified that the Respondent should have been able to correct the behavioral issues, and that the Respondent should have used the classroom strategies recommended by Ms. Harrigan in coaching sessions. (Tr. 409-412).

Mr. Taylor conducted the Respondent's next observation on February 16, 2018. (Tr. 801, D Ex. 18). This observation was unannounced. (Tr. 801). At the time the observation occurred, and as a result of her earlier injury, the Respondent was having difficulty walking up and down stairs. On that date, the Respondent's students had a gym class immediately before Respondent's class. Ms. Harrigan had previously instructed the gym teacher to escort the Respondent's students to the Respondent's classroom. However, on February 16th there was a substitute gym teacher who was apparently unable to or unaware that he was required to escort the students to the Respondent's classroom. After waiting some time for her students to arrive at her classroom, the Respondent took the elevator down to the first floor to the gym where her students were playing. After some difficulty lining the students up, the students finally were transported to the Respondent's classroom. Thus, the class began twenty-two minutes late. Some students were already waiting for the Respondent in the classroom when she arrived with the students she had accompanied from the gym. (Tr. 807-809). The Respondent concedes that she was unable to properly instruct that day. (Tr. 810-811). Although the Respondent gave the class an exit ticket, the exit ticket had nothing to do with the aborted lesson but concerned behavior. (Tr. 811-813).

In response to questions posed during cross-examination, Mr. Taylor described why the class started twenty-two minutes late:

> Q. Was the respondent supposed to escort her students to this class?
>
> A. I have a question before I answer that. Was her 504 in effect during that this time?
>
> Q. I'm not – I can't – answer questions.
>
> A. Okay. So all right that's fine. Usually the gym teacher will walk the students up. So I know during this point in time Ms. J [the Respondent] wasn't picking students up.
>
> Q. So your testimony is she did not pick students up on this day?
>
> A. No in this lesson she did, but she wasn't directed to pick the students up.
>
> Q. Someone else was to bring them to class?
>
> A. Probably the gym [teacher] yes.
>
> Q. Do you know why they didn't bring them to class?
>
> A. I am not sure. I wasn't there.

Q. So the respondent had to go and get the students and bring them back to this class?

A. She went and got them. I don't know if she was directed to do that. But she went and got – she went and picked the students up.

Q. I guess my question is, why is the fact she had to go get her students and is now 20 minutes late to her class evidence of ineffective management procedures?

A. Because if you have students that are already inside the classroom without their teachers, students running in from the hallway, then when you come into the classroom, students not participating or on task, that is ineffective. That is classroom procedure. That's how your students.

Q. How is the fact that she is late to class with her students evidence of ineffectiveness?

A. Because a procedure, if she picked her students up, you have to be able to transport your students in the class. That's part of the procedure. So if its taking you 20 minutes to do that, then you're not, your procedures aren't clear.

Q. Even if it's not her responsibility to do that?

A. As I said, if she picked her students up, then she picked her students up. I can't go back and say I directed her to pick the students up, because that did not occur.

(Tr. 549-552).

Pursuant to the Danielson Framework, Mr. Taylor gave the Respondent the following scores:

Domain 1: Demonstrating Knowledge of Content and Pedagogy	3
Demonstrating Knowledge of Students	2
Selecting Instructional Outcomes	2
Designing Coherent Instruction	1
Designing Student Assessments	1
Domain 2: Creating an Environment of Respect and Rapport	1
Establishing a Culture for Learning	1
Managing Classroom Procedures	1

	Managing Student Behavior	1
	Organizing Physical Space	2
Domain 3:	Communicating with Students	2
	Using Questioning and Discussion Techniques	2
	Engaging Students in Learning	2
	Using Assessment in Instruction	1

(D Ex. 18).

In a post-observation report, Mr. Taylor was extremely critical of the Respondent's management of student behavior. (D Ex. 19). The Respondent testified that Mr. Taylor directed her to change her answers in her response to the post-observation report and threatened to give her an ineffective rating in Domain 4a. (Tr. 819-821; D Ex. 19). Mr. Taylor denies threatening the Respondent. (Tr. 563).

Ms. Price-Jones observed the Respondent on April 11, 2018. The observation was unannounced. At the time, the Respondent's class was split in two because it was easier to control behavior issues. The Respondent testified that on the day before the observation, Mr. Taylor asked her to change her lesson. The Respondent testified that this resulted in lower scores because Ms. Price-Jones determined that the Respondent failed to adhere to her lesson plan. (Tr. 821-824). The Respondent testified regarding certain mistakes of fact concerning complaints by parents that were purportedly contained in Ms. Price-Jones' Domain 4 scoring[9].

Pursuant to the Danielson Framework, Ms. Price-Jones gave the Respondent the following scores:

[9] The Respondent admitted that she had difficulty communicating with one parent. (Tr. 831).

Domain 1:	Demonstrating Knowledge of Content and Pedagogy	2
	Selecting Instructional Outcomes	2
	Designing Coherent Instruction	2
Domain 2:	Creating an Environment of Respect and Rapport	2
	Establishing a Culture for Learning	2
	Managing Classroom Procedures	3
	Managing Student Behavior	2
Domain 3:	Communicating with Students	3
	Using Questioning and Discussion Techniques	2
	Engaging Students in Learning	2
	Using Assessment in Instruction	3

(D Ex. 20).

The Respondent also testified about the measurement of her SGOs for the 2017-2018 school year. The Respondent attended a Professional Development class in which she was instructed in new methods for developing SGOs. The Respondent stated that the calculation of the SGOs was changed to reflect student achievement rather than growth. The Respondent stated that this was inappropriate because students in science classes were not given a base test against which to measure achievement. (Tr. 846). As noted above, SGOs were partially made up of DOQs, which were issued every two to three weeks. The Respondent testified that her class materials arrived late, and that her first DOQ was not issued until October. (Tr. 850). At the beginning of the 2017-2018 school year, the Respondent designed six separate SGOs. The Respondent testified that SGOs should be approved by October 31st of the school year, but that the Respondent did not learn whether her SGOs had been approved until the end of the year. (Tr. 855). However, the District required one simple SGO for the Respondent's classes. Mr. Pillsbury testified that all science teachers were held to the same standard. (Tr. 1070-1078), and that the Respondent refused to adhere to the District's method for calculating SGOs. The District gave the Respondent an SGO score of 2.02. (D Ex. 25).

On June 18, 2018, Ms. Harrigan and Mr. Taylor provided the Respondent with her Summative Report and gave the Respondent a score of 2.21 or partially effective. The Summative Report stated in pertinent part:

Student Growth Score
Component	Weight	Score
SGO Score	33.33%	1.87
SGO Score	33.33%	2.17
SGO Score	33.33%
	15%	2.02
Teacher Practice Score
Component	Weight	Score
Planning and Preparation	30%	2.21
Classroom Environment	20%	1.93
Instruction	30%	2.08
Professional Responsibilities	20%	2.85
	85%	2.24
Final Score	Partially Effective 100%	2.21

The Respondent did not agree with this evaluation and appealed. Nevertheless, because the Respondent was found to be only partially effective as a teacher for two consecutive years on August 16, 2018 the District as required by statute charged the Respondent with Inefficiency. N.J.S.A. 18A: 17.2(a)(1) and (b). (Joint Ex. 1). Respondent timely contested the charge of Inefficiency (Joint Ex. 2). On August 28, 2018, the District filed a Certificate of Determination with the Commissioner of Education crediting the evidence in support of the charge of Inefficiency, and this arbitration followed.

POSITIONS OF THE PARTIES

A. The Respondent's Position

i. General Arguments

The Respondent notes that under TEACHNJ, a pedagogue may challenge inefficiency charges based on whether the:

> (1) the employee's evaluation failed to adhere substantially to the evaluation process, including, but not limited to providing a corrective action plan;
>
> (2) there is a mistake of fact in the evaluation;
>
> (3) the charges would not have been brought but for considerations of political affiliation, nepotism, union activity, discrimination as prohibited by State or federal law, or other conduct prohibited by State or federal law; or
>
> (4) the district's actions were arbitrary and capricious.

N.J.S.A. 18A:6-17.2(A)(1)-(4). The Respondent also notes that in order to succeed under one or more of the statutory defenses, an arbitrator must find that the defenses materially affected the outcome of the evaluation. N.J.S.A. 18A:6-17.2 (b). The standard of proof is a preponderance of the credible evidence. (Respondent's Brief at 56 citing, Pugliese v. State-Operated School District of the City of Newark, Essex County, 2016 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 19).

In her defense, the Respondent emphasizes the "arbitrary and capricious" standard, and notes that the phrase has been defined by the Courts as having no rational basis, evidencing willful and unreasoning action, without consideration and in disregard of the circumstances. (Respondent's Brief at 56 citing, Bayshore Sewage Co. v. Dept. of Envtl. Protection, 122 N.J. Super. 184, 199-200 (Ch. Div. 1973), aff'd 131 N.J. Super. 37 (App. Div. 1974)).

In addition, the Respondent cites three arbitration awards in which arbitrators refused to sustain charges of inefficiency against pedagogues because the employer's actions were arbitrary and capricious. (Respondent's Brief at 56-60 citing, In re Gay Brown v. City of Camden, Agency Docket No. 300-10/14 (Bucheit Arb.) (District did not adhere to its evaluation and support system before bringing tenure charges and evaluators evaluated the teacher "without any serious consideration [of] the context in which the performance occurred."); Patsy Cuntera v. Passaic County Vocational School District, Agency Docket No. 223-8/15 (Gandel Arb.) (District's failure to consider the circumstances underlying a teacher's performance was arbitrary and capricious); Joel Dawkins v. City of Newark, Agency Docket No. 277-9-15 (Bluth, Arb.) (method of observing teacher did not provide the teacher with the opportunity to implement change and was arbitrary and capricious)).

ii. Observations during the 2016-2017 School year

The Respondent next analyzes each of the observations in the 2016-2017 school year. Concerning Mr. Taylor's November 29, 2016 observation of the Respondent, the Respondent contends that the observation was arbitrary and capricious and contained numerous mistakes of fact. In addition, the Respondent contends that Mr. Taylor failed to support certain of his conclusions with any evidence. The Respondent also argues that Mr. Taylor failed to consider the magnitude of behavioral issues that the Respondent faced. The Respondent also asserts that Mr. Taylor failed to participate in the required two co-observations, a process which is designed to promote accuracy in scoring. (Respondent's Brief at 63 citing, N.J.A.C. 6A:10-2.2(B)(4)(i)). As such, the Respondent calls Mr. Taylor's skill as an evaluator into question. Accordingly, the Respondent maintains that she did not receive a fair, accurate or comprehensive evaluation.

Regarding Dr. Ogbonna's May 17, 2017 observation, the Respondent contends it too was arbitrary and capricious because it violated evaluation procedures and contained numerous mistakes of fact. In addition, the Respondent maintains that Dr. Ogbonna "failed to properly consider significant disruptions that were out of Respondent's control and significantly compromised her lesson." (Respondent's Brief at 63). The Respondent notes that she received all effective scores from Dr. Ogbonna in Domain 1 for Planning and Preparation. The Respondent goes on to argue that serious disruptions prevented her from teaching her lesson as planned. These disruptions included: 1) a late start to the class; 2) a technician repairing a computer at a student's desk; 3) students' failure to bring their binders to school; 4) the inversion of the material prepared by the District in the binders; 5) the departure of honor roll students after the class began; 6) difficulties in passing out the laptop computers; and 7) attendant problems with logging in and pop ups. The Respondent contends that Dr. Ogbonna should have taken these issues into account and that he did not, and he refused to give the Respondent another observation. The Respondent also contends that student behavioral issues should have been considered by Dr. Ogbonna. Regarding Domain 3 "Instruction," the Respondent notes that Dr. Ogbonna was critical of the fact that no instruction or discussion occurred in the classroom but contends that Dr. Ogbonna failed to give any consideration to the disruptions in the classroom. The Respondent maintains that Dr. Ogbonna's evaluation was arbitrary and capricious.

As to the Respondent's Domain 4 scores, the Respondent contends that she was treated unfairly. The Respondent notes that, because of her injury, she started school late in the year and was unable to upload documents into TeachBoost. The Respondent disputes some of the factual findings in her 2016-2017 Domain 4 scores.

iii. Observations in the 2017-2018 School Year

The Respondent contends that Ms. Harrigan's October 23, 2017 observation was arbitrary and capricious, violated evaluation procedures and contains mistakes of fact. Respondent contends that Ms. Harrigan did not consider the fact that the students received their materials late, and that the curriculum required Respondent's students to have math skills which they did not possess. The Respondent also maintains that Ms. Harrigan failed to provide evidence for several of her entries in the Danielson Framework.

With respect to Mr. Taylor's February 18, 2018 observation, the Respondent contends that it was arbitrary and capricious. The Respondent contends that Mr. Taylor failed to consider the significant disruptions that occurred during that particular class, and the fact that the class started twenty-minutes late, because the substitute gym teacher failed to transfer the students to the Respondent's classroom. The Respondent notes that Mr. Taylor gave negative Domain scores to the Respondent resulting from the tardy start to the class, even though the late start was not the Respondent's fault. The Respondent maintains that the lateness was caused by the Respondent's inability to use the stairs (as evidenced by the Respondent's 504 Plan), and that Mr. Taylor should have taken that into account. The Respondent also contends that Mr. Taylor relied on several mistakes of fact in analyzing the various Domains under the Danielson Framework. Finally, the Respondent asserts that Mr. Taylor was not properly trained in the Danielson Framework, because he did not partake in two co-observations where he could norm scores with his fellow evaluators.

The Respondent also contends that the observation by Ms. Price-Jones was arbitrary and capricious. The Respondent notes that Ms. Price-Jones' observation was unannounced and that the Respondent had been directed to change her lesson just days prior to Ms. Price-Jones observation. As such, the Respondent's lesson plan did not conform to her lesson and the Respondent contends that this affected her scores. The Respondent also asserts that Ms. Price-Jones should have considered the behavioral problems in the class that Ms. Price-Jones was observing.

Finally, the Respondent contends that her Domain 4 scores for the 2017-2018 school year were based on mistakes of fact regarding the Respondent's interaction with a parent.

iv. The CAP

The Respondent maintains that the CAP was ineffective and was not followed by the administration. The Respondent notes that in the 2016-2017 school year the Respondent was found to be effective in sub-Domains 1E and 1F, and contends that the District required her to improve on this aspect of her CAP. The Respondent also notes that her supervisors in the 2107- 2018 school year – Mr. Taylor and Ms. Harrigan – were required to check each of the lesson plans and to collect exit tickets but failed to do so.

The Respondent also contends that she did not receive the coaching sessions called for under the CAP, and that sometime after October 2016, Ms. Harrigan stopped meeting weekly with the Respondent. In addition, the Respondent notes that under the CAP, she should have undergone a mid-year CAP review by February 15, 2017 but did not receive this review until April 9, 2018. This was just two days before her final observation of the year by Ms. Price-Jones.

The Respondent also notes that she was expected to reduce disciplinary referrals, however, the Respondent contends that her classes had well-documented disciplinary problems. The Respondent maintains that her obligation to reduce disciplinary referrals was an effort to set her up for failure.

Respondent contends that, had she been provided with a meaningful opportunity to improve, she would not have received a partially ineffective score on her 2017-2018 Summative Report. Therefore, the Respondent contends that the application of the CAP was arbitrary and capricious.

v. Lack of Student Discipline

The Respondent also contends that the administration generally, and Ms. Harrigan's policies specifically, undermined her ability to receive higher scores under the Danielson Framework. The Respondent points to the testimony of several witnesses who support her conclusion that the 2017-2018 sixth grade class contained numerous students with discipline problems, and that this contributed to her inability to be scored as effective.

vi. The SGOs in the 2017-2018 School Year

The Respondent maintains that the District's evaluation policy regarding the SGOs in the 2017-2018 school year violated applicable state regulations. The Respondent notes that under N.J.A.C. 6A:10-4.2 (e) (3)-(4): "Each teacher shall develop in consultation with his or her supervisor or a principal's designee, each student growth objective [,] 'which shall be determined, recorded, and retained by the teacher and his or her supervisor by October 31 of each academic year.'" The Respondent contends that nothing limits the teacher's discretion in formulating SGOs when the teacher is working on a CAP. (Respondent's Brief at 82). The Respondent notes that the NJDOE SGO Guidebook provides that multiple measures should be used to determine a student's starting points, and that assessments should be vetted so that students are not improperly advantaged or disadvantaged.

The Respondent contends that the District improperly predetermined the SGO for teachers regardless of grade or subject. The Respondent also contends that the SGOs should be customized to each student and should be adjusted over the course of a school year. The Respondent maintains that Mr. Taylor ignored the SGOs that the Respondent had created for her students and did not speak to the Respondent about the SGOs until the end of the school year.

The Respondent posits that had she been permitted to adopt her SGOs, she would have received higher scores in that category. The Respondent contends that because the District was not in compliance with the DOE guidance regarding SGOs that it acted arbitrarily and capriciously.

vii. Allegations that the Respondent was Terminated for Discriminatory Reasons

The Respondent contends that she was discriminated against because she: 1) successfully claimed Worker's Compensation Benefits; 2) worked under a 504 Plan; and 3) engaged in union activities.

The Respondent contends because of her physical restrictions she was placed on a 504 Plan, and that this directly affected her February 16, 2018 observation by Mr. Taylor. The Respondent contends that Mr. Taylor should have understood that Respondent's inability to escort her class resulted in her class starting twenty-two minutes late. The Respondent also notes that Mr. Taylor was aware that the Respondent had filed a Worker's Compensation claim.

Finally, the Respondent vigorously argues that she is being penalized by Mr. Taylor and Ms. Harrigan for her active involvement in the CEA.

The Respondent contends that she should be reinstated to her position with full back-pay.

B. The District's Position

The District contends that it understood and applied the requirements of TEACHNJ when it made the determination to dismiss the Respondent. The District notes that the Respondent has the burden of proving both her statutory defenses and that any alleged deficiency "materially" affected the outcome of the evaluation process. The District contends that the Respondent is elevating form over substance by resorting to a rigid interpretation of TEACHNJ, that would not permit any deviation by the District. The District maintains that all the administrators who observed the Respondent came to the same conclusion that the Respondent could not manage her classroom and that students were regularly failing.

The District analyzed each of the Respondent's purported defenses.

i. Alleged Failure to Adhere to the Evaluation Process

The District maintains that the Respondent must demonstrate that the District substantially failed to adhere to the evaluation process. (District Brief at 10, citing, N.J.S.A 18a:17.2(b)). The District points to the testimony of each of its witnesses to argue that the District both understood the TEACHNJ evaluation process, and that it properly implemented the evaluation process. In addition, the District contends that it recognized that the CAP is not a punishment for teachers but a tool to identify the support that a teacher requires.

As to the SGOs, the District notes that the Respondent contends that the SGOs: 1) were improperly prepared by the District; 2) were not finalized until the end of the school year; and 3) prohibited her from tiering her students for purposes of measurement. The District contends that the Respondent offered no evidence that the instructions that the District provided violated DOE regulations. The District contends that the Respondent refused to adhere to the instructions given to her at a Professional Development training in the fall of 2017 regarding the calculation of SGOs. Instead the Respondent created six different SGOs - none of which conformed to the instructions she received from the District. The District contends that a school principal has the final word on how SGO scores are calculated. The District notes that under the regulations:

> (e) Student growth objectives shall be developed and measured according to the following procedures:
>
> * * * * * * *
>
> 3. Each teacher shall develop, in consultation with his or her supervisor or a principal's designee, each student growth objective. If the teacher does not agree with the student growth objectives, the principal shall make the final determination.

N.J.A.C. 6A:10-4.2 (e)(3). The District also notes that all science teachers had the same growth objectives. The District relies on an arbitration award concerning this District. In the case cited by the District, a principal had approved a teacher's SGO. After the principal learned that the District had not approved this method for calculating the SGO, the principal began using the approved SGO. Use of the District's SGO resulted in the teacher receiving a partially effective score[10]. The arbitrator found that even though the principal made a mistake in approving the original SGO, he nevertheless held that the District had the final say in determining how to calculate the SGO score. (District's brief at 17 citing, In the Matter of the Proceeding Between Gerri A. Chapman and State Operated School District of the City of Camden, Agency Docket No. 249-9/16 (Dec. 13, 2016) (Zirkel, Arb.)).

As to the CAP, the District contends that Ms. Harrigan in fact completed a mid-year CAP review with the Respondent. The District contends that Ms. Harrigan coached the Respondent both formally and informally. The District also points to certain inconsistencies in the Respondent's position. The District notes that the Respondent claimed that she was not getting enough support, but also complained that she received direction and coaching from Ms. Harrigan and others, and that she could not implement that advice because her students were so badly behaved. The District contends that the Respondent's assertion that she was not coached properly is a red herring.

The District posits that the discipline issues at H.B. Wilson were no more serious than at other Camden schools. The District maintains that it was the Respondent's classroom management that was the source of her problems. The District also notes that teachers who testified in support of the Respondent were able to manage their classes in an effective manner. (Tr. 1120-1122).

The District notes that the Respondent submitted rebuttals to her observations, and the Respondent contends that her rebuttals were not considered by the evaluators. The District contends, however, that this argument is a difference of opinion, and that evaluators took the Respondent's rebuttals seriously, and in fact Ms. Price-Jones changed one of the Respondent's scores. (T. 275). The District maintains that evaluators are not required to agree with the Respondent. The District also notes that the evaluators each gave the Respondent scores of "1" and "2." The District cites TEACHNJ for the proposition that arbitrators are required to defer to the evaluator's opinion. (District's brief at 21 citing, N.J.S.A. 18A: 6-17.2 (c).

[10] Had the teacher been permitted to use the SGO she selected, she would have received an effective score.

The District also maintains that the Respondent received adequate training on TeachBoost. In addition, the District rejects the Respondent's contention that the CAP was insufficiently drafted, and notes that in answers to interrogatories that she submitted that the Respondent never actually identified the deficiencies in the CAP.

The District argues that it substantially adhered to the evaluation process.

ii. Allegations of Mistakes of Fact and Allegations of Arbitrary and Capricious Decision Making

The District denies that the evaluators made mistakes of fact or acted arbitrarily and capriciously. The District characterizes the Respondent's arguments as a kitchen sink approach. The District notes that the Respondent is particularly critical of the observations by Mr. Ogbonna and Mr. Taylor's observation dated February 16, 2018[11]. While conceding that disruptions occurred during their observations, the District notes that both observers concluded that the Respondent did not adequately manage the situation.

The District contends that both observers properly exercised their discretion in refusing to change the Respondent's score or to give her another observation. The District characterizes this as a difference of opinion. The District maintains that under the statutory scheme I am not empowered to dispute the determinations reached by Mr. Ogbonna and Mr. Taylor. The District notes that both Ms. Harrigan and Ms. Price-Jones reached similar conclusions regarding the Respondent's teaching skills.

[11] Mr. Taylor also observed the Respondent on November 29, 2016.

The District also rejects the Respondent's contention that the various observations lacked evidence to support its conclusions. The District contends that the collection of evidence in observation reports is not a statutory or regulatory requirement under TEACHNJ. The District also contends that there is no obligation to present evidence contained in observation reports in a particular format. (District's brief at 24 citing, N.J.A.C. 6A:10-4.1 and N.J.A.C. 6A:10-4.4). The District also cites to testimony by Mr. Pillsbury, in which Mr. Pillsbury said that nothing in the "Camden City School District Teacher Evaluation Overview" for the period 2016-2017 requires the observer to write down evidence in an observation report. The District contends that if the Respondent's position is accepted, evaluators would be required to prepare lengthy evaluation reports, and arbitrators would have to sift through each report and determine if there is evidence to support each score.

The District also rejects the Respondent's argument that her evaluators had to engage in at least two co-observations per year. The District notes that the purpose of the co-observations is to "norm" the observers to prevent substantially different evaluation results and contends that the co-observation has nothing do with the scores of a particular teacher. The District concedes that Mr. Taylor mistakenly thought that he was required to have one co-observation but argues that all four of Respondent's observers came to similar conclusions about Respondent's classroom performance.

The District also notes that the Respondent raised issues concerning Mr.

Ogbonna's evaluation, and the fact that the honor roll students were removed from the class. The District cites testimony by Mr. Taylor who thought the removal of the students would have a positive effect because there were fewer students to teach. (District's brief at 25 citing, Tr. 566-567). The District also cites the testimony of Mr. Pillsbury who stated that the removal of the students midway through a lesson should have no effect on the scores since the Danielson Framework focuses on practice and delivery and not the quality of the student. (District's brief at 25 citing, Tr. 645-646).

iii. Alleged Union Activities and Discrimination

The District characterizes the Respondent's arguments that she was discriminated against because she received an accommodation for her physical condition, or because of her union activities as speculative and frivolous. Regarding her physical condition, the District notes that the Respondent only taught two classes in the 2017-2018 school year so that she could work on her CAP. In addition, the District notes that the Respondent was relieved of her lunchroom duties because of her injuries.

The District also contends that the evaluators were unaware of the Respondent's union activities or of her Worker's Compensation claim.

iv. The District's Conclusion

The District argues that the four evaluators all reached the same conclusion: that the Respondent was not effective in classroom management. The District also points out that the Respondent's students were receiving failing grades on tests and quizzes. The District notes that other teachers did not have the same degree of difficulty with these students. The District also contends that Ms. Harrigan provided the Respondent with support throughout the 2017-2018 school year when the Respondent was on the CAP.

The District maintains that it takes the TEACHNJ mandates seriously, and that it faithfully applied its mandate to the Respondent. Therefore, the District contends that the Respondent should be removed.

DISCUSSION

A. The Legal Standard

The burden in this case is on the District to prove by a preponderance of the evidence that the statutory criteria for the tenure charges have been met. The record evidence reveals that the District has met this burden. Where the District has met its burden, the burden then shifts to the Respondent to affirmatively prove that she has a defense to the Tenure charges brought against her. The Respondent must prove at least one of four defenses to successfully overcome a charge of Inefficiency.

The statute provides:

> 23. a. In the event that the matter before the arbitrator pursuant to section 22 of this act is employee inefficiency pursuant to section 25 of this act, in rendering a decision the arbitrator shall only consider whether or not:
>
> (1) the employee's evaluation failed to adhere substantially to the evaluation process, including, but not limited to providing a corrective action plan;
>
> (2) there is a mistake of fact in the evaluation;
>
> (3) the charges would not have been brought but for considerations of political affiliation, nepotism, union activity, discrimination as prohibited by State or federal law, or other conduct prohibited by State or federal law; or
>
> (4) the district's actions were arbitrary and capricious.

N.J.S.A. 18A:6-17.2(A)(1)-(4).

This is a challenging burden for a Respondent. As the District has argued, an arbitrator's role is limited, and he or she is not empowered to evaluate the quality of the evaluations. Patsy Cuntera v. Passaic County Vocational School District, Agency Docket No. 223-8/15 (Gandel Arb.). In reviewing the record evidence, I conclude that the Respondent has not met her burden and that she is not entitled to the benefit of any of the four statutory defenses. The Defenses raised by the Respondent will be discussed seriatim.

B. The Defense of Failing to Adhere to the Evaluation Plan

This defense fails because the District has convincingly established that it has adhered to the evaluation process mandated by TEACHNJ. The District has adopted the Danielson Framework for evaluating teachers. N.J.S.A 18a:17.2 The District has also established that both teachers and supervisors are trained in the application of the Danielson Framework. In addition, the District has established that, when it placed the Respondent on the CAP, it took its responsibilities seriously and worked with the Respondent to provide coaching and assistance.

Despite the contentions of the Respondent, the District has shown that Ms. Harrigan coached the Respondent during the 2017-2018 school year. In addition, the Respondent was only assigned two classes, instead of the four or five classes that other science teachers were assigned to teach. Ms. Harrigan also arranged for the Respondent to observe other teachers, and have other teachers work with the Respondent to improve the Respondent's performance.

The Respondent also challenged the way SGOs were calculated during the 2017-2018 school year. The Respondent argues that she should have been given flexibility to create her SGOs. The Respondent not unreasonably argues that unlike other subjects there is no base line for measuring student achievement in science. However, as the District has shown, the final decision regarding SGOs rests with the school principal pursuant to guidance from the District. There is no dispute that all of the District's science teachers were given identical guidance for calculating SGOs. Therefore, the Respondent cannot successfully argue that she should have the discretion to create her own SGO. This is especially true because Respondent was working pursuant to a CAP and was required to comply with the requirements imposed by the District.

C. The Defense of Mistake of Fact During the Evaluation

The Respondent argues that her evaluations in both the 2016-2017 and 2017-2018 school years contained mistakes of fact. The burden is on the Respondent to establish that the mistakes of fact had a material impact on the evaluation. N.J.S.A. 18A:6-17.2 (b). Although the Respondent contends that her observers made mistakes of fact regarding her lessons, the Respondent has not shown that these purported mistakes had a material impact on any of her evaluations.

D. The Discrimination Defense

The burden is on the Respondent to show that the charges of Inefficiency would not have been brought but for discriminatory animus or for her union activities. In this case, the Respondent contends that she was discriminated against for: 1) successfully filing a Worker's Compensation claim; 2) exercising her right to seek accommodations and work under a 504 Plan; and 3) union activities.

Although the Respondent has established that she was a union member, and that at least some of her supervisors knew of her union activities, the Respondent has not shown that the District's knowledge of the Respondent's union activities motivated the District to terminate the Respondent. Public sector employees are protected by the New Jersey Employer-Employee Relations Act. N.J.S.A. 34:13A-1 et. seq. Under the Act, it is illegal to discriminate against a public employee for union activities. However, if an employee is to successfully contend that his or termination was for Union activity, he or she must establish that the termination was substantially motivated by anti-union animus. In re Bridgewater Tp., 95 N.J. 235 (1984). (Court adopts the Wright Line test applied under the National Labor Relations Act that employee must show that termination was made more likely than not by anti-union animus).

There is also no evidence that the District discriminated against the Respondent because she successfully brought a Worker's Compensation claim or because she was working under the 504 Plan. Indeed, the record shows a concerted effort by Ms. Harrigan and, to a lesser extent, by Mr. Taylor to accommodate the Respondent's physical limitations.

Accordingly, I conclude that the Respondent has not proved that she was discriminated against in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:6-17.2(3).

E. The Arbitrary and Capricious Defense

As the Respondent notes, in order to meet the arbitrary and capricious standard, the Respondent must prove that the actions of the Department constituted "willful and unreasoning action, without consideration and in disregard of the circumstances." Bayshore Sewage Co. v. Dept. of Envtl. Protection, 122 N.J. Super. 184, 199-200 (Ch. Div. 1973), aff'd 131 N.J. Super 37 (App. Div. 1974). However, "[w]here there is room for two opinions, action is not arbitrary or capricious when exercised honestly and upon due consideration, even though it may be believed that an erroneous conclusion has been reached." Id. citations omitted. As noted above, by statute, I must defer to the conclusions of the evaluators, and I am precluded from substituting my judgment for that of the authors of the evaluations. The statute specifically states: "The evaluator's determination as to the quality of an employee's classroom performance shall not be subject to an arbitrator's review." N.J.S.A. 18a:6-17.2(23) (c).

As the District argues, the purpose of TEACHNJ is "to streamline the cumbersome tenure charge process which previously made it so difficult for school districts to remove non-performing teachers." (District Brief at 1). The District contends that it should not have to justify every decision nor should it have to defend every instance "where the 'i' was purportedly not dotted, or the 't' was supposedly not crossed." Id. The District is not required to create perfect laboratory conditions for each observation. The DOE makes it clear that in analyzing the arbitrary and capricious defense, arbitrators "may only consider . . . whether the charge is arbitrary and capricious." State of New Jersey, Department of Education, Summary of Legal Requirements for Teacher Evaluation and Tenure Cases, (emphasis supplied).

Therefore, although the Respondent has raised concerns regarding her evaluations, especially those conducted by Dr. Ogbonna and the February 16, 2018 evaluation conducted by Mr. Taylor, I am precluded from challenging their conclusions. My analysis is limited to whether the District acted arbitrarily and capriciously, not whether Dr. Ogbonna or Mr. Taylor should have been more reasonable in evaluating the Respondent or in providing the Respondent with another evaluation.

In the arbitration awards cited by the Respondent in which arbitrators found that a district acted arbitrarily and capriciously, the arbitrators avoided discussing the substance of an individual evaluation. Instead, the arbitrators found serious structural problems in the way that a CAP was administered or in the way that the evaluations were structured.

For example, in Patsy Cuntera v. Passaic County Vocational School District, Agency Docket No. 223-8/15 (Gandel Arb.), Arbitrator Gandel found that a district acted arbitrarily and capriciously when it violated procedures by: 1) not having a post-observation conference with the teacher; 2) observing the teacher on the first day back in class following a lengthy illness; 3) failing to accommodate the teacher's medical problems; and 4) observing the teacher on two consecutive days without providing an opportunity for the teacher to improve.

Similarly, in Joel Dawkins v. City of Newark, Agency Docket No. 277-9-15 (Bluth, Arb.), Arbitrator Bluth found that a district acted arbitrarily and capriciously when in one year it observed a teacher on two consecutive days without giving the teacher the opportunity to absorb the lessons of the first evaluation. The arbitrator found that this arbitrary and capricious action was compounded in the second year. In the second year this seriously injured teacher, working under a CAP was supposed to have four evaluations. Arbitrator Bluth determined it was arbitrary and capricious to have two observers conduct the evaluations simultaneously in the same class in order to meet the requirements of the CAP. Arbitrator Bluth made other findings to support his determination that the district acted arbitrarily and capriciously. The district assigned the teacher to a middle school after a lengthy illness, even though the bulk of the teacher's experience was teaching high school. According to Arbitrator Bluth, the district also purposefully assigned the teacher to the most difficult class in a school. Finally, although the teacher taught both ninth and twelfth graders, he was only observed teaching the

of an individual evaluation. Instead, the arbitrators found serious structural problems in the way that a CAP was administered or in the way that the evaluations were structured.

For example, in Patsy Cuntera v. Passaic County Vocational School District, Agency Docket No. 223-8/15 (Gandel Arb.), Arbitrator Gandel found that a district acted arbitrarily and capriciously when it violated procedures by: 1) not having a post-observation conference with the teacher; 2) observing the teacher on the first day back in class following a lengthy illness; 3) failing to accommodate the teacher's medical problems; and 4) observing the teacher on two consecutive days without providing an opportunity for the teacher to improve.

In Joel Dawkins v. City of Newark, Agency Docket No. 277-9-15 (Bluth, Arb.), Arbitrator Bluth found that a district acted arbitrarily and capriciously when in one year it observed a teacher on two consecutive days without giving the teacher the opportunity to absorb the lessons of the first evaluation. The arbitrator found that this arbitrary and capricious action was compounded in the second year. In the second year this seriously injured teacher, working under a CAP was supposed to have four evaluations. Arbitrator Bluth determined it was arbitrary and capricious to have two observers conduct the evaluations simultaneously in the same class in order to meet the requirements of the CAP. Arbitrator Bluth made other findings to support his determination that the district acted arbitrarily and capriciously. The district assigned the teacher to a middle school after a lengthy illness, even though the bulk of the teacher's experience was teaching high school. According to Arbitrator Bluth, once on the CAP and teaching in a high school, the district, purposefully assigned the teacher to the most difficult class in a school. Finally, although the teacher taught both ninth and twelfth graders, he was only observed teaching the ninth-grade class which contained more challenging students. Similarly, Arbitrator Bucheit in In re Gay Brown v. City of Camden, Agency Docket No. 300-10/14 (Bucheit Arb.) found that a district was arbitrary and capricious when it did not adhere to its evaluation and support system before bringing tenure charges and evaluators evaluated the teacher "without any serious consideration [of] the context in which the performance occurred."

None of the procedural problems or the hostility to the individual teachers that were analyzed by Arbitrators Bucheit, Gandel and Bluth are present in this proceeding. The District complied with its obligations to the Respondent. The District placed the Respondent on the CAP, and complied with the terms of the CAP. The District also accommodated the Respondent's medical condition. Principal Harrigan worked with the Respondent while she was on the CAP. Accordingly, I must conclude that the Respondent has not established that the District acted arbitrarily and capriciously.

Based on the above, I render the following:

AWARD

The undersigned Arbitrator having been designated pursuant to N.J.S.A., 18A:6-17.1(c), and AAA Labor Rule no. 27 hereby issues, and AWARDS as follows:

1. For the reasons set forth in this Decision and Award, the Arbitrator finds the District met its burden of proving that the Respondent receive "partially effective" annual summative evaluations for two consecutive school years: 2016-2017 and 2017-2018, and that the evaluations were properly conducted under the applicable laws and regulations. Therefore, the charge of "Inefficiency" is sustained, and the dismissal of the Respondent is upheld.

Dated: March 7, 2019

Ira Cure

State Of New York)
)
County of Kings)

On this 7th day of March 2019 before me personally came and appeared Ira Cure, to me known and known to me to be the individual described herein and who executed the foregoing instrument and he acknowledged that he executed the same.

Notary Public

ELIZABETH ORFAN
Notary Public, State of New York
No. 02OR4976601
Qualified in Kings County
Commission Expires April 23, 2019

68-19

OAL Dkt. No. EDU 12381-18
Agency Dkt. No. 157-6/18

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Denise Petersen,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the City of Newark, Essex County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, the proposed settlement agreement, and the Initial Decision issued by the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1.

Upon review, the Commissioner approves the terms of the Agreement and adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter. The case is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the Agreement.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 3/18/19

Date of Mailing: 3/18/19

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Superior Court, Appellate Division, pursuant to P.L. 2008, c. 36 (N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1).

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SETTLEMENT
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 12381-18
AGENCY DKT. NO. 157-6/18

DENISE PETERSEN,
Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF NEWARK, ESSEX COUNTY,
Respondent.

Denise Petersen petitioner pro se

Bernard Mercado, Esq. (Office of the General Counsel- Newark Public Schools) for respondent.

Record Closed: January 28, 2019 Decided: January 31, 2019

BEFORE ERNEST M. BONGIOVANNI, ALJ:

On August 27, 2018, the matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law for determination as a contested case.

The parties have agreed to an amicable resolution of the matter and submitted the attached Settlement Agreement.

Having reviewed the record and the settlement terms, I FIND as follows:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or the signatures of their representatives.

2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

Therefore, I CONCLUDE that the agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. Accordingly, it is ORDERED that the parties comply with the settlement terms, and it is FURTHER ORDERED that the proceedings in this matter be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

January 31, 2019

DATE

ERNEST M. BONGIOVANNI., ALJ

Date Received at Agency: 2-7-2019

Date Mailed to Parties: 2-4-2019

id

Newark Public Schools

OFFICE OF THE GENERAL COUNSEL
Brenda Liss, Esq. • General Counsel
Bernard Mercado, Esq. • Senior Associate Counsel

2019 JAN 28 P 2:36

A. Robert Gregory
Interim Superintendent

January 24, 2019

VIA CERTIFIED MAIL
Hon. Ernest Bongiovanni, A.L.J.
Office of Administrative Law
33 Washington Street, 7th Floor
Newark, NJ 07102

Re: Petersen v. Newark Public Schools
Agency Ref. No.: 157-6/18

Your Honor:

As you may recall, this office represents the Board of Education of the City of Newark (the "Board") in the above-referenced matter. Pursuant to the last phone conference in this matter, enclosed for filing is an original executed settlement agreement that fully resolves all issues in the above-mentioned matter. As such, the March 11, 2019 plenary hearing date will no longer be necessary.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me. Thank you once again for your attention to this matter.

Respectfully submitted,
The Newark Public Schools

By:_____
Bernard Mercado, Esq.

Encl.
cc: Denise Petersen (w/encl. via certified mail)

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF NEWARK
Office of the General Counsel
765 Broad Street
Newark, New Jersey 07102
(973) 733-7139; Fax (973) 733-8771
Attorneys for Respondent Board of Education of the City of Newark

2017 JUL 28 P 2:36

DENISE PETERSEN, Petitioner, vs. BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF NEWARK, Respondent.	:	OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW OAL DKT. NO. EDU 12381-18 AGENCY REF. NO.: 157-6/18 SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

The parties in this appeal have voluntarily resolved all disputed matters and enter into the following Settlement Agreement that fully disposes of all issues and claims in controversy between Petitioner Denise Petersen ("Petitioner" or "Petersen") and Respondent Board of Education of the City of Newark, Essex County ("Respondent" or the "Board"), and Petitioner and Respondent intending to be legally bound, mutually agree as follows:

1. Petitioner will withdraw, with prejudice so that Petitioner will never be permitted to file again, her appeal and request for a hearing filed under OAL Docket No. EDU 12381-18, Agency Ref. No.: 157-6/18 including all claims which were raised or which could have been raised in relation thereto.

2. Petitioner also agrees to withdraw, with prejudice, any and all other suits or claims that she may have previously filed against the Board that are still pending in any and all courts and/or before any and all agencies with the exception of workers compensation claims. This Settlement is intended to be the final resolution of all of Petitioner's outstanding claims against the Board related to her employment. It is understood by the parties that this Settlement Agreement will serve as a formal letter of withdrawal for any other suits or claims, except for workers compensation claims, should Petitioner fail to submit a formal letter of withdrawal for each suit or claim.

3. In exchange, and for good consideration as hereby acknowledged by the parties, the Board shall permit Petitioner to resign her former position with the Board in good standing so that Petitioner's separation from employment effective June 30, 2017 will be converted to and deemed to be a voluntary and permanent "Resignation in Good Standing."

Petitioner's personnel records will be amended to conform to the terms of the settlement. Other than as required by law, upon inquiry from any third parties, the Board will only confirm Petitioner's employment, position, title, salary and dates of employment.

4. Other than permitting Petitioner to resign her former position, Petitioner will not receive any monies or emoluments from the Board as part of this Settlement Agreement.

5. Petitioner agrees that she will not apply for reemployment with the Board at any time. If Petitioner does apply for reemployment with the Board and is approved for employment, the terms of this Settlement Agreement will control and shall be grounds for immediate termination of Petitioner's employment.

6. As of the date of her resignation, all of Petitioner's employment rights, including, but not limited to salary, insurance coverage, tenure and seniority, will permanently end.

7. Petitioner waives all claims of any nature, either known or unknown, against the Board with regard to this matter including all fees, back pay, front pay or any other monetary relief, except for workers compensation claims.

8. In exchange for the good consideration set forth in Paragraph 3 above, the sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged by the parties, Petitioner releases and discharges the Board, its Board of Education and its Board Members, Superintendent and any and all other officers, employees, agents, representatives, successors and assigns of the Board (the "Released Parties") with respect to all claims or rights that she may have against the Board and the Released Parties relating to her employment with the Board and/or separation from the Board. This includes, without limitation the waiver of any and all claims, charges, or demands, known or unknown, that have arisen or that may arise relating to Petitioner's employment with and separation from the Board, including but not limited to any and all rights or claims she may have regarding discrimination on any basis, or any federal or state civil rights law, or any alleged violation under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended; the Age Discrimination in Employment Act; the Older Workers Benefit Protection Act; the Americans with Disabilities Act; the Equal Pay Act; the Americans with Disabilities Act; the Rehabilitation Act; the Employment Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended; the New Jersey Law Against Discrimination; the Conscientious Employee Protection Act; the Fair Labor Standards Act; the National Labor Relations Act; the Family Leave Act or Family Medical Leave Act; the New Jersey Wage and Hour Law; the retaliation provisions of the New Jersey Workers' Compensation Law (and including any and all amendments to the above), the United States Constitution, the New Jersey Constitution and/or any other federal, state, or local statute or common law relating to employment, wages, hours, or any other terms and conditions of employment and/or termination of employment as well as any other alleged violations of any federal, state or local law, regulation or ordinance, and/or contract or implied contract or collective bargaining/contractual claim or tort law or public policy or whistleblower claim, having any bearing whatsoever on her employment with and separation from the Board, including but not limited to, any claim for wrongful discharge, back pay, front pay, vacation pay, sick pay, wage, commission or bonus payment, attorneys' fees, costs and/or future wage loss, except for workers compensation claims. Petitioner agrees to hold harmless and indemnify the Board and the Released Parties for any costs or expenses associated with the enforcement of this Settlement Agreement and the covenants and representations contained therein should enforcement of this agreement become necessary.

9. Notwithstanding Paragraph 8 of this Settlement Agreement, it is understood by the parties that Petitioner is not waiving her rights to workers compensation claims. Further, it is also understood and agreed that the parties are not prohibited from communicating with or participating in any administrative proceeding before the United States Department of Labor, the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, or any other federal, state or local law agency. Should any entity, agency commission or person file a charge, action, complaint or lawsuit against the Board based upon any of the above-released claims in Paragraph 8, Petitioner agrees not to seek or accept any resulting relief whatsoever.

10. To comply with the Older Workers Benefit Protection Act of 1990, if applicable, this Agreement advises Petitioner of the legal requirements of the Act, and fully incorporates the legal requirements by reference into this Agreement. Accordingly, by executing this Agreement, Petitioner acknowledges that she: (i) fully understands the terms and conditions of this Agreement; (ii) has consulted with an attorney or representative to review the Agreement; (iii) specifically waives her right to pursue any current claims she may have under the Age Discrimination in Employment Act; (iv) has been given sufficient and adequate time within which to consider this Agreement; and (v) has seven (7) days from the date of the execution of this Agreement to revoke it. Petitioner understands that she may rescind this Agreement within seven (7) calendar days of signing it, and such rescission must be in writing and delivered to counsel for the Board either by hand or by certified mail within the seven-day period.

11. Nothing in this Settlement Agreement shall be deemed to be an admission of liability on behalf of either party. This Settlement Agreement shall not constitute a precedent in any matters involving other employees.

12. Petitioner understands, agrees to and acknowledges that she is bound by this Release. Anyone who succeeds to Petitioner's rights and responsibilities, such as Petitioner's heirs or the executors of Petitioner's estate, are also bound. This Settlement Agreement is made for the benefit of the Petitioner and the Board and all who succeed to their rights and responsibilities.

13. If any provision or portion of a provision of this Settlement Agreement is held by the Commissioner of Education or a court of competent jurisdiction or determined under applicable federal or state law to be invalid, void, or unenforceable, the remaining provisions or portions of the affected provision will remain and continue in full force and effect.

14. The parties respectively acknowledge that counsel and/or their representative has advised them regarding this Settlement Agreement and that each is signing this Settlement Agreement freely and voluntarily, without duress, coercion, or pressure from the other party.

15. This Settlement Agreement constitutes the full agreement among the parties and shall be construed and enforced pursuant to New Jersey Law.

16. This Settlement Agreement is subject to the approval of the Board of Education of the City of Newark and will only become effective on the Board upon the execution of the Board. Any disapproval by the Board shall not interfere with the rights of either party to pursue the matter further.

17. This Settlement Agreement is subject to final approval by Commissioner of Education and will only become final and binding on Petitioner and Respondent upon the approval of the Commissioner. Any disapproval by the Commissioner shall not interfere with the rights of either party to pursue the matter further

Dated: 11/8/2018

Denise Petersen
DENISE PETERSEN
Pro Se Petitioner

Dated: 1/23/2019

Josephine C. Garcia
JOSEPHINE GARCIA
Board Chairperson

Dated: 12-27-18

BERNARD MERCADO, ESQ.
Attorney for Respondent

CERTIFICATION

I, DENISE PETERSEN, being the moving party in this matter, hereby certify that I have reviewed this Settlement Agreement and fully understand its meaning and terms. I acknowledge that my attorney/representative questioned my understanding and verified my acceptance of the terms of this Settlement Agreement. I am satisfied with my representation and I enter into this Settlement Agreement voluntarily.

I certify that the foregoing statements made by me are true. I am aware that if any of the foregoing statements made by me are willfully false, I am subject to punishment.

DATED: 11/8/2018

Denise Petersen
DENISE PETERSEN

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Laura Kehoe,

Petitioner,

v.

New Jersey State Board of Examiners,

Respondent.

Synopsis

Pro-se petitioner appealed the determination of the respondent – the State Board of Examiners (SBE) – that she had not met the requirements for issuance of a Teacher of English Certificate of Eligibility (CE). Specifically, petitioner failed to achieve a minimum score on the basic skills test required under N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-8.3(a)(5), which was in effect at the time the SBE received her application. The SBE filed a motion to dismiss and the matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law for hearing. The SBE subsequently filed a motion of summary decision, which was held in abeyance pending the possibility of petitioner qualifying for the CE under an "exception criteria," which ultimately never happened.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: there are no material facts at issue in this case, and the matter is ripe for summary decision; in order for petitioner to succeed in overturning the decision of the SBE, she needed to demonstrate by clear and convincing evidence that she is eligible for the requested CE within the confines of the regulations; petitioner has failed to meet this standard; the material facts in this record show that petitioner's application for the CE was submitted to the Department of Education on September 25, 2015, well after the regulations changed on September 1, 2015; and petitioner was therefore required to pass the mandated basic skills test in order to qualify for the CE, but never took or passed the test. The ALJ concluded that the SBE's decision denying petitioner's request for the CE was correct. Accordingly, the SBE's motion for summary decision was granted.

The Commissioner concurred with the findings and determination of the ALJ herein; accordingly, the Initial Decision of the OAL was adopted as the final decision in this matter. The petition was dismissed.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

March 18, 2019

OAL Dkt. No. EDU 1343-17
Agency Dkt. No. 322-12/16

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Laura Kehoe,

Petitioner,

v.

New Jersey State Board of Examiners,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed. The parties did not file exceptions.

Upon such review, the Commissioner agrees with the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) that the New Jersey State Board of Examiners did not act in an arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable manner when it denied petitioner's application for a Teacher of English Certificate of Eligibility (CE). The Commissioner further concurs with the ALJ that petitioner did not meet the requirements for a CE because she failed to achieve a minimum score on the basic skills test required by N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-8.3(a)(5), which was in effect at the time the New Jersey State Board of Examiners received her application.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision of the OAL is adopted as the final decision in this matter – for the reasons expressed therein – and the petition is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 3/18/19
Date of Mailing: 3/18/19

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to P.L. 2008, c. 36 (N.J.S.A 18A:6-9.1).

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

SUMMARY DECISION

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 01343-17

AGY. REF. NO. 322-12/16

LAURA KEHOE,

Petitioner,

v.

NEW JERSEY STATE BOARD OF EXAMINERS,

Respondent.

Laura Kehoe, Petitioner, pro se

Kerry Soranno, Deputy Attorney General, for Respondent (Gurbir Grewal, Attorney General of New Jersey, attorney)

Record Closed: September 20, 2018 Decided: February 8, 2019

BEFORE JOHN P. SCOLLO, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner, Laura Kehoe seeks an Order compelling the Department of Education (DOE), State Board of Examiners (SBOE or BOE), Office of Certification and Induction (OCI) to issue a Teaching Certificate of Eligibility (CE) to her.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On May 24, 2016 Kehoe submitted a Credentials Review Summary and Narrative Statement with supporting documents to the State Board of Examiners seeking issuance of a CE. On June 23, 2016, the Board of Examiners reviewed Kehoe's application for a CE. On September 16, 2016, the Board of Examiners issued its decision denying the application on the grounds that Kehoe did not pass the basic skills test required by N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-8.3(a)(5). (The requirement of passing the basic skills test went into effect on September 1, 2015, and her application was physically received by the DOE on September 25, 2015.) On November 3, 2016, Kehoe filed an appeal to the Commissioner of Education at the New Jersey Department of Education seeking issuance of the CE and monetary compensation. On January 23, 2017, before the matter was filed with the Office of Administrative Law, the DOE/SBOE filed a Motion to Dismiss Kehoe's appeal by mailing the Motion to the Acting Commissioner of Education. The DOE transmitted the appeal to the Office of Administrative Law on January 26, 2017, where it was filed on January 30, 2017, as a contested case.

On March 28, 2017, an initial telephone conference was held before John P. Scollo, ALJ. A Pre-Hearing Order was issued on March 30, 2017. On April 30, 2017, the DOE withdrew its Motion to Dismiss and filed its Answer. Thereafter, the parties conducted discovery. A series of telephone conferences were held regarding the status of discovery and settlement possibilities. The parties were encouraged to clarify their factual and legal contentions. They responded to the Tribunal with their outlines of facts and legal theories. They were encouraged to seek ways whereby a compromise might be reached.

On August 28, 2017, the Petitioner filed a "Motion For Declaratory Relief," which the Tribunal deemed to be a Motion for Summary Decision. The ALJ and the parties engaged in a telephone conference on September 8, 2017, during which a substantive discussion on the plausibility of an alternative route to the CE was set forth. DAG Lori Prapas made inquiries regarding the possibility of Kehoe qualifying for the CE by means of an "exception criteria" under N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-8.3(a)(5)(i)(1) and (2), which involved Kehoe presenting her old SAT or ACT scores or by re-taking the SAT, ACT, or GRE exams in order to demonstrate that she has achieved high-enough scores to qualify for a CE without having to take the basic skills test that became a requirement on September 1, 2015, under N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-8.3(a)(5). In light of the need for time to explore the "exception criteria," the Tribunal held the pending Motion for Summary Decision in abeyance.

The parties and the Tribunal continued to discuss the alternative to taking the basic skills test during telephone conferences on September 29, 2017, and in October 2017. In November 2017 Kehoe attempted to obtain her old SAT scores from ETS, the official SAT testing service. On or about December 5, 2017, the testing service informed Kehoe that the old scores could not be obtained, but it would continue searching its records. The scores were never found. During a March 6, 2018, telephone conference Kehoe stated that she was considering re-taking the SATs but would require time to prepare for taking the SAT. Ultimately, Kehoe decided that she did not want to re-take the SAT, ACT, or GRE.

On April 20, 2018, Kehoe filed an "Amended Motion For Declaratory Relief" (received April 23, 2018). On May 7, 2018, a telephone conference was held. Following the telephone conference ALJ Scollo wrote a letter in which he stated that the Motion For Declaratory Relief and the Amended Motion For Declaratory Relief would be considered as one Motion for Summary Decision. On May 23, 2018, the DOE filed its Opposition to Kehoe's Motion For Summary Decision and it filed its own Cross-Motion for Summary Decision. On June 13, 2018, the Tribunal received Kehoe's Opposition to the DOE's Cross-Motion. An additional telephone conference was made to obtain clarification of statements within the submissions and to further explore whether there were any further opportunities for settlement. No further responses were received and so the tribunal decided to close the record on September 20, 2018. On October 13, 2018, Lori Prapas, DAG passed away and on October 25, 2018, Kerry Sorrano, DAG took over the handling of the file. The present motions were decided on the papers.

At the request of the undersigned and by previous orders of extension, the time for issuance of the Initial Decision Summary Decision was extended to February 3, 2019.

ISSUES

(1) Was a computer problem or "glitch" in the DOE's TCIS an issue of material fact applicable to the matter at hand?

(2) Can the DOE waive the requirements listed in the applicable regulations and thus issue a CE to Kehoe?

(3) Are there any issues of material fact present that preclude summary decision?

FACTUAL DISCUSSION

An analysis of the parties' submissions reveals that the parties are in agreement on the following facts.

On April 9, 2015 Kehoe registered with the DOE's "Teachers Certification Information System" (TCIS), a computerized system for the taking and processing of applications. On the same date Kehoe submitted required documents to her school, Passaic County Community College (PCCC), which assumed responsibility for the submission of documents to the DOE on behalf of its students. The person at PCCC (Joylynn Parnham) responsible for the submission of Kehoe's documents left her job and Kehoe's documents were not forwarded to the DOE. In July and August 2015 Kehoe tried to check the status of her application by logging-on the TCIS, but each time was informed that the system had no applications matching her social security number. Subsequently, in September 2015 (but after September 1, 2015), Kehoe met with a PCCC official named Andre Seyegh, who informed her that PCCC's Parnham did not submit her application to the DOE. However, in September 2015 (after September 1, 2015) Mr. Seyegh contacted the DOE and on Kehoe's behalf and submitted her application to the DOE.

The DOE received Kehoe's application from Mr. Seyegh on September 25, 2015. However, in the meantime, the requirements for a Certificate of Eligibility (CE) changed on September 1, 2015. As of September 1, 2015, N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-8.3(a)(5) required that all candidates for a CE must pass a Commissioner-approved basic skills test in order to be eligible for certification. Under N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-5.3(a) there is a provision that the issuance of certificates is subject to the candidate completing the certification requirements that are in effect on the date that the Board of Examiners receives the application. Kehoe's application was received by the DOE after September 1, 2015, and so the Board of Examiners, in its decision issued on September 16, 2016, ruled that Kehoe could not be granted the CE unless she passed the now-required basic skills test.

Kehoe believes that the genesis of the credentialing problem was a computer malfunction or "glitch" in the TCIS system. On May 24, 2016, Kehoe submitted a Credentials Review Summary and Narrative Statement with supporting documents to the State Board of Examiners. Kehoe's argument to the Board of Examiners was that she properly put her name, social security number, and other required information into TCIS, but, somehow, TCIS, unbeknownst to her, recorded her name as "5918, Laura" and as "Laura, 5918." Kehoe argued that the recording of her name as "Laura 5918" and/or "5918, Laura" made it impossible for her to discover information about her application and made it impossible for the TCIS system to inform her that there was a problem with her application. On June 23, 2016, the Board of Examiners reviewed Kehoe's application and on September 16, 2016, issued its decision denying Kehoe's application on the grounds that since her application was received after the change in the regulations went into effect on September 1, 2015, she was required to pass the basic skills test and she had not yet done so.

APPLICABLE LAW

Regulations Governing the Issuance of Certificates of Eligibility

N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9 gives to the Commissioner of the Department of Education the jurisdiction to hear and determine all controversies and disputes arising under the school laws.

N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.18 provides that a party may appeal the decision of the Board of Examiners pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A-3.

N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-5.3 uses the word "Office," as defined in N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-2.1, to refer to the office within the Department of Education that is assigned to provide staff support to the Board of Examiners. N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-5.3(a) authorizes the Board of Examiners to issue three categories of educational certificates: Instructional, Administrative, and Educational Services. N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-5.3(b) directs the Board of Examiners to issue certificates upon the candidate's completion of all certification requirements in effect at the time the Office receives the application. N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-5.3(c) requires the Office, in the event of a candidate is not eligible for the certificate he/she seeks, to issue a written evaluation that identifies the deficiency(ies) for certification.

N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.12(a) states that a candidate for certification may appeal to the Board of Examiners an adverse decision of the Office regarding his or her certification eligibility. N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.12(b) states that when a candidate receives an adverse decision, the candidate may provide the Board of Examiners with evidence of alternative education and/or experience that he or she believes is equivalent to the area(s) of deficiency. N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.12 (c) states:

> The Board of Examiners shall not:
>
> 1. waive any test, GPA, degree completion, or approved educator preparation program completion requirements; or

> 2. permit a candidate to substitute education and/or experience for any test, GPA, degree, or approved educator preparation program completion requirements . . . .

N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.12(d) states that upon receipt of a candidate's appeal, the Secretary must provide the candidate with a copy of the appeals procedures, which procedures must include advising the appealing candidate that (1) the appeal must be in the form of a sworn statement attesting to the facts in the appeal. N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.12 goes on to state:

> The candidate shall be responsible for demonstrating by clear and convincing evidence that he or she is eligible for the requested certificate pursuant to this chapter.

N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-8.3(a) sets forth the requirements for a certificate of eligibility. N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-8.3(a)(1) requires that the candidate must hold a bachelor's degree from an accredited college. N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-8.3(a)(2) requires that the candidate must be an American citizen and must meet age and health requirements. N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-8.3(a)(3) sets forth the achievement of certain minimum requirement for the attainment of a satisfactory undergraduate GPA. N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-8.3(a)(4) states that the candidate must satisfy the endorsement requirements and exceptions pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-9 through 11 including, but not limited to passing appropriate subject matter knowledge tests and required subject-area course requirements.

N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-8.3(a)(5)—which went into effect on September 1, 2015—states that the candidate must achieve a minimum score established by the DOE on a Commissioner-approved test of basic reading, writing, and mathematical skills. However, N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-8.3(a)(5) provides that in lieu of a candidate achieving the minimum score on the Commissioner-approved test of basic reading, writing, and mathematical skills, he/she may, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-8.3(a)(5)(i), demonstrate proficiency in the use of the English language and in mathematics by achieving a minimum score on the SAT, ACT, or GRE, as those scores are set forth by the Commissioner on the DOE website, as stated in N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-8.3(a)(5)(i)(1).

The Standard for Summary Decision

Summary decision may be granted "if the papers and discovery which have been filed, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact challenged and that the moving party is entitled to prevail as a matter of law." N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(b). An issue of fact is genuine only if, considering the burden of persuasion at trial, the evidence submitted by the parties on the motion, together with all legitimate inferences therefrom favoring the non-moving party, would require submission of the issues to the trier of fact. R. 4:46-2.

The burden of showing that no genuine of material fact exists rests initially on the moving party. However, this "burden . . . may not be discharged by showing . . . that there is an absence of evidence to support the non-moving party's case." Celotex Corp.v. Catrett, 477 U.S. 317 (1986). Moreover, in order to defeat a properly supported motion for summary judgment, a party may not rely upon self-serving conclusions, unsupported by specific facts in the record. Ibid. Instead, the non-moving party must point to concrete evidence in the record, which supports each essential element of his case. Ibid.

Moving parties in summary judgment motions are required to submit a Statement of Facts that contains a citation to the portion of the motion record establishing the fact or demonstrating that it is uncontroverted. R. 4:46-2(a). A party that opposes a summary judgment motion must submit a responding statement "either admitting or disputing each of the facts in the movant's statement." R. 4:46-2(b). "All material facts in the movant's statement which are sufficiently supported will be deemed admitted for purposes of the motion only, unless specifically disputed by citation conforming to the requirements of paragraph (a) demonstrating the existence of a genuine issue as to the fact." R. 4:46-2(b). Moreover, an adverse party in order to prevail must by responding affidavit set forth specific facts showing that there is a genuine issue which can only be determined in an evidentiary proceeding. N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5.

The standard for granting summary judgment (decision) is found in Brill v. Guardian Life Insurance Company of America, 142 N.J. 520 (1995). In Brill, the Supreme Court adopted a standard that requires the motion judge to engage in an analytical process essentially determining whether the competent evidence presented, when viewed in the light most favorable to the non-moving party, presents a sufficient disagreement to require submission to a jury or whether it is so one-sided that one party must prevail as a matter of law. Id. at 533 (quoting Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, 477 U.S. 477 (1986)). To send a case to trial, knowing that a rational jury can reach but one conclusion, is indeed worthless and will serve no useful purpose." Brill, 142 N.J. at 541.

LEGAL ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSIONS

In regard to the first issue, the petitioner, Laura Kehoe, claims that it is the DOE's fault that her application was not properly received and processed. Kehoe contends that, since she is not responsible for the alleged computer glitch in the DOE's TCIS computer system, she is entitled to a Certificate of Eligibility in accordance with the requirements that were in place at the time when she submitted her credentials to PCCC (April 2015), rather than the date when the DOE actually received her application (September 25, 2015).

There is a critical difference between candidates whose applications were received by the DOE before September 1, 2015, and those whose applications were received by the DOE on or after September 1, 2015. Candidates whose applications were received by DOE on or after September 1, 2015, were subject to a new requirement—the passing of a Commissioner-approved test of basic reading, writing, and mathematical skills. Therefore, I CONCLUDE that the facts that are material to the decision of the motions at bar are facts dealing with what credentials were received and when they were received. See N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-8.3(a) and N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-5.3(b).

I further CONCLUDE that facts which offer an explanation as to why credentials were not submitted or received in a timely fashion are not material to the decision-making process of the SBOE and are not material to the decision-making process of the OAL in the motions at bar.

In this matter, in order to overturn the decision of the SBOE according to N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.12(d), Kehoe is responsible for demonstrating by clear and convincing evidence that she is eligible for the requested CE within the confines of the regulations. In reviewing Kehoe's proofs, the Tribunal observes that Kehoe has not offered evidence proving that a computer error or "glitch" actually existed in TCIS. Kehoe offers no direct proof of a defect in the system either by expert opinion or by other empirical evidence. Kehoe merely offers indirect and immaterial evidence regarding why her application was not received by the DOE until after September 1, 2015. Kehoe points to the fact that the words "Laura, 5918" and "5918, Laura" appear on the TCIS system and argues that she would not have entered her information into the system using only her first name and last four digits of her Social Security Number. In doing so, she asks the Tribunal to accept as fact that she or her school (PCCC) could not possibly have entered her information incorrectly. The Tribunal sees no reason to indulge Kehoe on this point. While it would be likely that Kehoe herself would not likely mis-spell her own name, it does not prove that there was a computer error or computer "glitch." Kehoe has offered mere allegations and conclusory statements as proof that the DOE's TCIS system was malfunctioning. Under the Brill standard, self-serving conclusions, unsupported by facts in the record cannot defeat a motion (here a cross-motion) for summary decision. See Brill at p. 529.

The material facts in the record are (1) that Kehoe's application was submitted to the DOE on September 25, 2015, well after the date that the regulations changed (September 1, 2015) so as to add the requirement that a candidate pass the Commissioner-approved test of basic reading, writing, and mathematical skills; and (2) that Kehoe did not take and pass the now-required test. Here, even viewing the evidence that Kehoe offers (i.e. that somehow the computer system contains the words "Laura 5918" and "5918, Laura") in the light most favorable to her, I CONCLUDE that she has not demonstrated a sufficient disagreement on the material facts to require submission to a trier of fact.

In regard to the timing of the DOE's receipt of Kehoe's application, the applicable regulation (N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-5.3(b)) categorically states:

> The Board of Examiners shall issue the appropriate certification upon the candidate's completion of all certification requirements in effect at the time the Office receives the application.

It is an undisputed material fact that the DOE received Kehoe's application from Mr. Seyegh on September 25, 2015, which was after September 1, 2015. The regulation requires all candidates whose applications are received after September 1, 2015, to pass the Commissioner-approved test. It follows, and I CONCLUDE, that the Board of Examiners' September 16, 2016, decision denying the CE to Kehoe due to the fact that she had not passed the Commissioner-approved test of basic reading, writing, and mathematical skills was a correct decision.

Moving on to the second issue, the applicable regulation (N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.12(c)(1)) categorically states:

> (c) That the Board of Examiners shall not: (1) Waive any test, GPA, degree, or approved educator preparation program completion requirements.

The above-cited regulation contains no exceptions. Therefore, Kehoe's computer-glitch allegations are not material to the issue at hand. I CONCLUDE that the SBOE has no authority to waive any of the requirements governing the issuance of a CE.

Moving-on to the third issue, I CONCLUDE that any factual disagreements that may exist do not pertain to the issue of what credentials were received by the Board of Examiners and when they were received by the Board of Examiners. I CONCLUDE that there are no issues of material fact outstanding in the matter at hand.

ORDER

Based upon the foregoing, I hereby ORDER that respondent's Cross-Motion for Summary Decision seeking to uphold the SBOE's September 16, 2016, decision is GRANTED. I further ORDER that petitioner's Motion for Summary Decision seeking to overturn the SBOE's September 16, 2016, decision is DENIED. I further ORDER that no monetary relief can or should be granted to the petitioner in this forum.

I hereby FILE this Initial Decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, P.O. Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

February 8, 2019

John P. Scollo ALJ

DATE

JOHN P. SCOLLO, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: February 8, 2019

Date Mailed to Parties: February 11, 2019

db

OAL Dkt. No. EDU 17892-17
Agency Dkt. No. 247-10/17

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Lauren Greenfield,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Irvington, Essex County,

Respondent.

The record, proposed settlement agreement and Initial Decision issued by the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1, have been reviewed.

Upon review, the Commissioner observes that the Superintendent of the Irvington School District signed the agreement on behalf of the Board. The file does not contain a copy of the Board's resolution approving the settlement and designating the Superintendent to sign the agreement on its behalf – as required by N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.13 under these circumstances – nor is the resolution attached to the settlement agreement itself. In the alternative, the agreement is not signed by the Board attorney, who is the Board's duly authorized representative in litigation. Without either the Board attorney's signature or the appropriate Board resolution designating the Superintendent to sign the agreement on its behalf, the Commissioner cannot approve the within settlement.

Accordingly, the Commissioner hereby remands this matter to the OAL for revision of the settlement agreement consistent with the concerns set forth above. If the parties are unwilling or unable to reach accord on a modified agreement for submission to the Commissioner, the matter shall proceed to hearing.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 3/18/19
Date of Mailing: 3/18/19

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

DECISION APPROVING SETTLEMENT
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 17892-17
AGENCY DKT. NO. 247-10/17

LAUREN GREENFIELD,

Petitioner,

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF IRVINGTON, ESSEX COUNTY,

Respondent.

Randi Doner April, Esq., for petitioner (Oxfeld Cohen, P.C., attorneys)

Yadira Cristal Duran, Esq., for respondent (Hunt, Hamlin & Ridley, attorneys)

Record Closed: February 7, 2019 Decided: February 7, 2019

BEFORE ELISSA MIZZONE TESTA, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on December 5, 2017 for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

A hearing was scheduled for September 21, 2018 but was adjourned because the parties agreed to settle the matter. The Settlement Agreement indicating the terms of the settlement was signed by the parties and is attached and fully incorporated herein.

I have reviewed the record and the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures on the attached settlement agreement and the attached Board resolution.

2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

February 7, 2019

DATE

ELISSA MIZZONE TESTA, ALJ

Date Received at Agency:

Mailed to Parties:
sej
2/11/2019

HUNT, HAMLIN & RIDLEY
Counselors at Law
Military Park Building
60 Park Place, 16th Floor
Newark, New Jersey 07102
(973) 242-4471 (Tel)
(973) 242-8295 (Fax)
Attorneys for Respondent

LAUREN GREENFIELD,	) BEFORE THE COMMISSION OF
	) EDUCATION OF THE
Petitioner,	) STATE OF NEW JERSEY
	)
	) AGENCY DKT. NO.: 247-10/17
	)
	)
v.	) SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT
	)
	)
IRVINGTON BOARD OF EDUCATION	)
	)
Respondent.	)

This Settlement Agreement ("Agreement") is entered into by the Irvington Board of Education ("Respondent") on the one hand, and Lauren Greenfield ("Petitioner"), on the other hand, (collectively, "Parties") with regard to the above-captioned matter, Agency Docket No.: 247-10/17. The Parties, having agreed to resolve this matter without a hearing, herein agree as follows:

1. Petitioner, a tenured employee of Respondent, will complete training on workmen's compensation policies and procedures no later than December 31, 2018. Training shall be completed during Petitioner's preparation period. Respondent shall provide date and time of training to Petitioner by November 16, 2018.
2. Upon completing training, Petitioner shall sign a Training Acknowledgment Form acknowledging understanding of Respondent's workmen's compensation policies and procedures.

3. Once training is complete Respondent agrees to restore five (5) days to Petitioner's sick bank. Although being restored, Petitioner understands that the five (5) days are not approved workmen's compensation days.
4. Respondent expressly denies any wrongdoing in connection with or relating to Petitioner's employment relationship with Respondent. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall constitute or be treated as an admission that Respondent violated any federal, state or local law, statute, rule or regulation or any common law right sounding in tort, contract or otherwise.
5. Each Party to this Agreement shall cooperate fully in the execution of any and all other documents and the completion of any additional actions that may be necessary or appropriate to give full force and effect to the terms and intent of this Agreement.
6. This Agreement contains the entire Agreement between the Parties, and supersedes all prior negotiations and/or agreements proposed or otherwise, written or oral, concerning the subject matter herein. The terms of this Agreement are fully understood and voluntarily accepted by the Parties, and other than the consideration set forth herein, no promises or representations of any kind have been made by either Party. Furthermore, no modification of this Agreement shall be binding unless in writing and signed by each of the Parties.
7. The Parties agree that a facsimile or electronic signature herein shall be deemed to have the same force and effect of an original.

THE UNDERSIGNED HAVE READ AND AGREE WITH THE ABOVE TERMS:

PETITIONER

Lauren Greenfield

11/12/18
Date

RESPONDENT

Irvington Board of Education

10/30/18
Date

STATE OF NEW JERSEY DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

----------X

In the Matter of Tenure Hearing of Joshua Rosenbaum, Board of Education of the City of East Orange, Essex County.

Agency Docket No. 259-10/18

APPROVAL OF SETTLEMENT

Issued: March 19, 2019

----------X

ARBITRATOR
Joseph Licata, Esq.

FOR THE PETITIONER
Jennifer L. Personette, Esq.
Decotiis, Fitzpatrick, Cole & Giblin, LLP

FOR THE RESPONDENT
William P. Hannan, Esq.
Oxfeld Cohen, P.C.

HEARING INFORMATION
Dates: February 26, 2019
Time: 10:00 a.m.
Location: Law Offices of Decotiis, Fitzpatrick, Cole & Giblin, LLP

INTRODUCTION

On October 18, 2018, Dr. Kevin R. West Superintendent of Schools filed Sworn Tenure Charges, supported by a Sworn Statement of Evidence, on behalf of the East Orange Board of Education, Essex County, New Jersey ("Petitioner") against Joshua Rosenbaum ("Respondent"), a teacher for the District's Sojourner Truth Middle School. The Tenure Charges are set forth verbatim as follows:

CHARGE I

UNBECOMING CONDUCT AND OTHER SUFFICIENT CAUSE

On various occasions while employed as a teacher in the East Orange School District, Rosenbaum violated the public trust by engaging in conduct unbecoming as follows:

Count 1

On or about January 24, 2012, Rosenbaum acted in a manner which is unbecoming of a teacher when he physically assaulted a student in his class.

Count 2

On or about May 13, 2016, Rosenbaum acted in a manner which is unbecoming of a teacher when he physically assaulted a student in his class.

Count 3

On or about June 4, 2018, Rosenbaum acted in a manner which is unbecoming of a teacher when he physically assaulted a student in his class.

CHARGE II

INEFFICIENCY, INEFFECTIVENESS AND INSUBORDINATION

On various occasions while employed as a teacher in the East Orange School District, Rosenbaum has been inefficient and ineffective in performing her duties as follows:

Count 1

On or about September 27, 2012, Rosenbaum was ineffectual in his management of his class when he responded to a student's misbehavior by sending him out of the classroom.

Count 2

In the Fall of 2012, Rosenbaum was reprimanded on three times for his repeated failure to display his student's work on the hallway bulletin board in compliance with the directives of his superiors.

Count 3

In the Fall of 2012, Rosenbaum was twice reprimanded for his repeated failure to submit his parent contact log as required by all teaching staff members.

Count 4

In September 2012, Rosenbaum did not attend a mandatory staff meeting.

CHARGE IV

CHRONIC ABSENTEEISM

Rosenbaum has displayed chronic absenteeism throughout almost the entirety of his employment at the East Orange School District, which has adversely affected the proper operation of the school, summarized as follows:

Count 1

Rosenbaum was reprimanded in 2010 for his Unsatisfactory attendance throughout the preceding three years. Specifically, he had been absent thirty-seven and a half (37.5) days over that period of time, averaging twelve (12) absences per school year.

Count 2

In 2013 Rosenbaum's attendance was deemed unsatisfactory to such an extent that it required a meeting to discuss an attendance improvement plan with Santoro. (Note: Rosembaum ignored Santoro's directive to schedule a meeting).

Count 3

Despite numerous reprimands in the past, Rosenbaum opted to take a three (3) week leave of absence in December 2013.
"In the Fall of 2012, Rosenbaum was twice reprimanded for his repeated failure to submit his"

CHARGE V

SUBSTANDARD TECHER EVALUATIONS

Observations and assessments of Rosenbaum's teaching repeatedly resulted in ratings of "Unsatisfactory".

Count 1

Rosenbaum's performance was rated Unsatisfactory in December 2012.

Count 2

Rosenbaum's performance was rated Unsatisfactory in March 2013.

Count 3

Rosenbaum's performance was rated Unsatisfactory in November 2013.

CHARGE VI

Each of the foregoing allegations, as well as the Sworn Statement of Evidence and all accompanying documents attached thereto, are incorporated by reference, as if fully set forth herein.

All of the foregoing actions and/or inactions as exhibited by Joshua Rosenbaum amount to inefficiency, unbecoming conduct, and/or other sufficient cause for dismissal, including but not necessarily limited to insubordination and chronic absenteeism. By virtue thereof, it is evident that Rosenbaum has been engaged in a course of misconduct extending over a period of time, such that, his pattern of misconduct, jointly and severally, constitutes unbecoming conduct and manifestly demonstrates his unfitness to serve in a position of educational leadership, warranting his dismissal.

On November 2, 2018, Respondent, through his attorneys, filed an Answer to the Tenure Charges with the Office of Controversies and Disputes, New Jersey Department of Education.

On November 9, 2018, Samantha L. Price, Director Office of Controversies and Disputes notified the parties' respective representatives (1) that the Tenure Charges have been reviewed and deemed sufficient, if true, to warrant dismissal or reduction in salary and (2) that the dispute was referred to the undersigned Arbitrator for resolution in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:6-16. A hearing date is currently set for Tuesday, February 26-27, 2019.

On December 20, 2018, Respondent, through his attorneys, filed with the undersigned Arbitrator a motion to dismiss the tenure charges, together with a supporting brief and Certification of Counsel attaching Exhibits 1-21. On January 9, 2019, Petitioner, through its attorneys, filed an opposition to the motion. On January 10, 2019, Respondent, through its attorneys, filed a reply letter, upon which the record for purposes of deciding this Motion was closed.

On January 25, 2019, the undersigned granted Respondent's motion to dismiss the Sworn Tenure Charges, except for Charge I, Count 3 and Charge VI (to the extent it encompassed Charge I, Count 3 of the Charges). The decision was filed with the Bureau of Controversies and Disputes.

On February 26, 2019, the undersigned presided over a hearing in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:6-10 and 18A: 6-117. The hearing was transcribed by a certified court stenographer. The Petitioner completed its case in chief and Respondent, after the undersigned's denial of Respondent's request for judgment in its favor, elected to rest on the record without presenting witness testimony. The record was held open for the purpose of receiving post-hearing briefs. However, prior to the due date for the submission of briefs, the parties' representatives informed the undersigned that on March 12, 2019 they had entered into a settlement agreement resolving all aspects of the instant tenure dismissal dispute (Attached hereto).

DISCUSSION

Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-5.6 and In re Cardonick, State Board (1990 School Law Decisions (S.L.D., 842, 846), the undersigned must consider the following criteria in connection with the approval or denial of a settlement agreement:

> (a) Once tenure charges are certified to the Commissioner, they may be withdrawn or settled only with approval. Any proposed withdrawal or settlement, whether submitted to the Commissioner or to the arbitrator, shall address the following standards established by the State Board of Education in the matter entitled In re Cardonick, State Board decision of April 6, 1983 (1990 School Law Decisions (S.L.D.) 842, 846):

1. Accompaniment by documentation as to the nature of the charges;

2. Explication of the circumstances justifying settlement or withdrawal;

3. Consent of both the charged and charging parties;

4. Indication the charged party entered into the agreement with a full understanding of his or her rights;

5. A showing the agreement is in the public interest; and

6. If the charged party is a teaching staff member, a showing the teaching staff member has been advised of the Commissioner's duty to refer tenure determinations resulting in loss of position to the State Board of Examiners for possible suspension or revocation of certificate.

(b) A settlement agreement shall not propose terms that would restrict access to information or records deemed public by law or result in misrepresentation of the reason for an employee's separation from service. If tenure charges have been certified to the Commissioner by a district board of education, any proposed settlement shall indicate, by signature of the district board of education attorney or inclusion of a district board of education resolution authorizing settlement, that the district board of education has consented to the terms of the settlement.

(c) A proposed withdrawal or settlement of tenure charges shall be submitted to the Commissioner prior to transmittal of such charges to the arbitrator; thereafter, it shall be submitted to the arbitrator.

(d) If tenure proceedings against a teaching staff member are concluded prior to adjudication because the charged party has unilaterally resigned or retired, the Commissioner may refer the matter to the State Board of Examiners for action against the charged party's certificate as it deems appropriate, when such referral is warranted under the provisions governing resignation or retirement prior to conclusion of tenure charges as set forth in N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.3(a).

(e) If a proposed settlement requires the tenured employee to relinquish a certificate issued by the State Board of Examiners, upon approval of the settlement agreement, the Commissioner shall forward the matter to the State Board of Examiners for proceedings in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.11.

In evaluating the terms of the settlement agreement and with due regard for the record evidence, I find and conclude that the nature of the charges filed against Respondent does not warrant a determination on the merits in order to protect the public interest;

I further find and conclude that both parties will mutually benefit from the settlement agreement terms with respect to avoiding additional costs and fees, as well as avoiding the uncertainty of the outcome of the instant tenure dismissal proceeding;

I further find and conclude that the settlement agreement is beneficial to the school district and its' students;

I further find and conclude that the terms of the settlement agreement reflect that both parties fully understood their respective rights and obligations under the settlement and that they voluntarily entered into same;

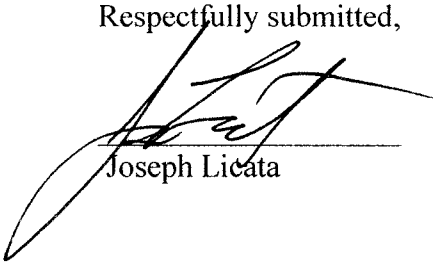
I further find and conclude that the terms of the settlement agreement reflect that Respondent has been advised of the Commissioner's duty to refer tenure determinations resulting in loss of position to the State Board of Examiners for possible suspension or revocation of certificate; and,

Lastly, I find and conclude that the settlement agreement does not propose terms that would restrict access to information or records deemed public by law or result in misrepresentation of the reason for an employee's separation from service.

CONCLUSION

For the reasons set forth more thoroughly herein, I hereby approve the March 12, 2019 settlement agreement in full resolution of the parties' dispute under Agency Docket No. 259-10/18

Respectfully submitted,



Joseph Licata

Dated: March 19, 2019

SEPARATION, SETTLEMENT, AND GENERAL RELEASE AGREEMENT

This Separation, Settlement, and General Release Agreement ("Agreement") is made and entered into by and between Joshua Rosenbaum ("Rosenbaum") and the East Orange Board of Education (the "Board") (collectively, the "Parties").

RECITALS

WHEREAS, on or about June 4, 2018, an incident involving Rosenbaum resulted in an investigation by the Board; and

WHEREAS, as a result of the investigation, on October 18, 2018, the Board filed tenure charges against Rosenbaum, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-11 (the "Charges") and Rosenbaum was suspended without pay pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:14; and

WHEREAS, Rosenbaum contested the Charges and arbitration occurred on February 26, 2019; and

WHEREAS, at the conclusion of the arbitration the parties agreed it was mutually beneficial to amicably resolve the Charges in dispute in order to avoid further protracted adjudication and expense.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the promises and mutual covenants contained herein and for other good and valuable consideration, the sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the Parties agree as follows:

1. The Board shall withdraw the Charges.

2. In response to the Board's withdrawal of the Charges, Rosenbaum shall submit an irrevocable letter of resignation. The Board shall accept Rosenbaum's resignation of employment effective February 26, 2019.

3. The Board shall compensate Rosenbaum in the amount of $29,545.20, reflective of 120 days of back-pay. This payment is subject to regular taxes and withholdings and shall be made within ten (10) days of the Board's approval of this Agreement.

4. Rosenbaum shall waive any and all additional claims to back-pay, front-pay, health benefit coverage, sick leave, and accrued time off terminal payouts, except for the amount required by N.J.S.A. 18A:6-14.

5. Rosenbaum waives all other claims against the Board regarding or arising from this matter, including counsel fees or other monetary relief, except as provided herein.

6. The Parties expressly agree that this Agreement shall have no mitigating precedential effect on any other pending or future disciplinary actions. Rosenbaum, with full understanding of his legal rights, voluntarily and unconditionally releases and forever discharges the Board, as well as the Board's past and present employees, officers, insurers, reinsurers, directors, agents, attorneys, representatives, predecessors, successors and assigns (collectively, the "Releasees") from all contracts, agreements, promises, liabilities, claims, causes of action, charges, complaints, grievances, obligations, costs, losses, damages, injuries, attorneys' fees and other legal responsibilities (collectively, the "Claims") of any form whatsoever arising from the beginning of time through the date Rosenbaum signs this Agreement, whether known, unknown, unforeseen, unanticipated, unsuspected or latent, which Rosenbaum ever had or now has against any of the Releasees.

7. Rosenbaum's release of Claims against the Releasees includes but is not limited to: any and all Claims arising out of and/or related to Rosenbaum's employment with the Board; any and all Claims under any federal, state and/or local statutory, constitutional, common law or tort cause of action for battery, assault, pain and suffering, lost wages, bonus, sick leave, vacation leave and other paid-time-off, intentional or negligent infliction of emotional distress, defamation, breach of collective bargaining agreement, breach of contract or implied contract, breach of public policy, wrongful discharge and/or for benefits owed (except for vested benefits); any and all Claims under the National Labor Relations Act, the Labor Management Relations Act, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Civil Rights Act of 1866 and/or 1991, the federal False Claims Act, the Reconstruction Era Civil Rights Acts, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, the Older Workers Benefit Protection Act, the Americans with Disabilities Act, the Family and Medical Leave Act, the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, the Internal Revenue Code, the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985, the Fair Credit Reporting Act, the Occupational Safety and Health Act, the Immigration Reform and Control Act, the federal Whistleblower Protection Statutes, the Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification Act, the New Jersey Law Against Discrimination, the New Jersey Family Leave Act, the New Jersey Conscientious Employee Protection Act, the New Jersey Constitution, the Millville Dallas Airmotive Plant Job Loss Notification Act, and the New Jersey Wage and Hour Laws and any and all amendments to each of the foregoing laws; and any and all Claims under any other federal, state and/or city laws, codes, rules or regulations. This Agreement applies to all Claims through the date of Rosenbaum's execution of this Agreement and not to Claims arising thereafter. The release of Claims in this Paragraph does not apply to Claims that cannot, as a matter of law, be waived by private agreement.

8. Rosenbaum represents he has not filed any Claims against the Board. To the extent any such Claims have been filed, Rosenbaum agrees to promptly withdraw and/or direct the pertinent court or agency to dismiss their respective matters with prejudice. Nothing in this Agreement is intended to interfere with (a) the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission's ("EEOC") or any comparable state or local agency's ability to enforce any anti-discrimination law within their jurisdiction, or (b) Rosenbaum's ability to participate in an investigation, file a charge, or otherwise communicate with the EEOC or comparable state or local agency responsible for enforcing anti-discrimination laws. Rosenbaum has not filed and shall not hereafter file any claim, charge or complaint of any nature with the New Jersey Public Employment Relations Commission (PERC) or with any Federal, State or local court or agency against the Board or the Releasees.

9. If Rosenbaum violates the General Release detailed herein by filing any claim, charge or complaints as prohibited above, Rosenbaum agrees to pay all costs and expenses of defending against the suit incurred by the Board and/or the Releasees, including reasonable attorney's fees and costs.

10. NON-PRECEDENTIAL. The Parties agree that this Agreement shall be non-precedential, is limited to specific and unique facts and circumstances, and is not intended to create a past practice nor shall it be binding with respect to any other Board employee.

11. MUTUAL NON-DISPARAGEMENT. Rosenbaum agrees that, in any communications with the press, other media or any other individual, he shall not criticize, ridicule or make any statement which disparages or is derogatory of the Board or its employees, elected officials, directors or senior officials. Likewise, the Board and its senior officials shall not criticize, ridicule or make any statement which disparages or is derogatory of Rosenbaum. Nothing herein shall infringe upon the Parties' respective rights to express constitutionally protected-speech.

12. INQUIRES FROM THIRD PARTIES. In the event of any inquiries into this matter, the Parties shall respond that Rosenbaum resigned from his employment, except as otherwise required by law, including but not limited to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.7. Should a prospective employer that is subject to the requirements of N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.7 contact the Board, the Board shall accurately and truthfully fill out any required forms and attach this Agreement thereto in lieu of further explanation. The Board shall advise any prospective employer that is not subject to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.7 that it is the Board's policy to only provide dates of employment, last job title held, and reason for separation, which shall be designated as a resignation.

13. ASSIGNMENT. The Parties shall not assign or transfer any of its rights under this Agreement.

14. SUCCESSORS AND ASSIGNS. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the heirs, assigns, and successors in interests of the Parties hereto.

15. NO ADMISSIONS. The Parties expressly agree that by settling the matter referenced herein neither party admits or accepts any guilt or liability for any claims made or that could have been made by Rosenbaum or the Board arising from their employment relationship. No statement made or agreed to by either Party in this Agreement shall be deemed an admission by said Party. Rosenbaum expressly denies the allegations contained in the Charges.

16. NO WAIVER. No failure or delay on the part of any Party in exercising any right, power, or remedy under this Agreement will operate as a waiver thereof, nor will any single or partial exercise of any such right, power, or remedy preclude any other or further exercise thereof of the exercise of any other right, power or remedy hereunder. The rights and remedies provided in this Agreement are cumulative and are not exclusive of any other rights, powers, or remedies existing in law, in equity or otherwise.

17. CONFIDENTIALITY. The Parties acknowledge that this Agreement is considered a government record subject to the New Jersey Open Public Records Act ("OPRA"), N.J.S.A. 47:1A-1 et seq., and that nothing herein shall exempt this Agreement from being made publicly accessible pursuant to an appropriately filed OPRA request subject to any lawfully permitted redactions.

18. SEVERABILITY. Should any provisions of this Agreement be declared or determined by any court of competent jurisdiction to be illegal, invalid or unenforceable, the legality, validity, and enforceability of the remaining parts, terms, or provisions shall not be affected thereby and said illegal, unenforceable or invalid part, term, or provision shall be deemed not part of this Agreement.

19. GOVERNING LAW. This Agreement has been negotiated and entered into in the State of New Jersey, and shall be governed by the laws of the State of New Jersey, without regard to any principles of choice of law that may otherwise be applicable.

20. VENUE. Any controversies or disagreements arising out of, or relating to this Agreement or breach thereof, shall be resolved in the Essex County Vicinage of the Superior Court of New Jersey.

21. COMPLETE AGREEMENT. This Agreement contains the entire agreement between the Parties with respect to the subject matter referenced herein and supersedes all other prior agreements, understandings, and/or dealings whether written or otherwise with respect to the same subject matter. There is no agreement on the part of the Board to anything other than what is expressly stated in this Agreement. Rosenbaum represents and acknowledges that in executing this Agreement, he has not relied upon any representation or statement made by the Board regarding the subject matter, basis, or effect of this Agreement other than as specifically stated in this Agreement. The terms in this Agreement can only be modified in a written document signed by Rosenbaum and the Board's authorized representative.

22. NEUTRAL CONSTRUCTION. In the event of any dispute concerning the construction or interpretation of this Agreement, this Agreement shall be construed neutrally and without regard to events of authorship or negotiations, each Party having been represented by independent legal counsel.

23. ATTESTATION. The Parties represent and warrant that they have carefully read each and every provision of this Agreement and that they fully understand all of the terms and conditions contained in each provisions of this Agreement. The Parties further represent and warrant that they have entered into this Agreement voluntarily, of their own free will, without any pressure or coercion from any person or entity including, but not limited to, a Party to this Agreement.

24. PRECATORY PHRASES. The precatory phrases ("whereas clauses") are not mere recitals, but are specifically agreed to by the parties and are incorporated herein by reference.

25. HEADINGS. The headings contained in the Agreement are for reference purposes only and shall not in any way affect the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement.

26. CONSULTATION WITH ATTORNEY AND/OR UNION REPRESENTATION. Rosenbaum has consulted with his attorney and/or Union representatives with respect to this Agreement and has reviewed with his attorney and/or Union representatives all of the terms and conditions of this Agreement prior to executing this Agreement.

27. AUTHORIZATION. By executing this Agreement, each signatory represents that she or he is a party or has been duly authorized by a party to sign on that party's behalf.

28. REVOCATION PERIOD. Rosenbaum may revoke this Agreement within seven (7) days after the date this Agreement is signed by Rosenbaum. This revocation must take the form of written notice by Rosenbaum that he intends to revoke this Agreement. This revocation must be provided directly to the Board. This seven (7) day revocation period may not be waived by Rosenbaum.

29. REASONABLE CONSIDERATION PERIOD. Rosenbaum agrees that he has been given a reasonable period of time of at least twenty-one (21) days within which to review and consider this Agreement prior to executing this Agreement, but that he may knowingly and voluntarily waive this twenty-one (21) day period by signing and dating in the space provided at the end of this Agreement.

30. ACKNOWLEDGEMENT. Joshua Rosenbaum affirmatively agrees to and acknowledges the following:

a. I have read this Agreement completely.

b. I have had the opportunity to consider the terms of this Agreement.

c. I agree and acknowledge that I was represented by and consulted with counsel throughout both the negotiation and execution of this Agreement. I further acknowledge and agree that I was given a reasonable and sufficient amount of time within which to consider the Agreement before signing it. Rosenbaum further acknowledges and agrees that he has been fully and fairly represented by counsel in the negotiation of this Agreement.

d. I understand and agree to all of the terms of this Agreement.

e. I have not relied upon any representation, written or oral, not set forth in this Agreement.

f. I have signed this Agreement voluntarily and entirely of my own free will.

g. I represent and agree that I am not under the influence of any illness, including mental or emotional illness, medical condition, disability or impairment, or of prescription or other medication that would affect my ability to review this Agreement in its entirety, understand it and knowingly and voluntarily agree to it.

h. I agree and acknowledge that I have the right to reflect upon this Agreement for a period of twenty-one (21) days before executing it, and I will have an additional period of seven (7) business days after executing this Agreement to revoke it under the terms of the Older Workers Benefit Protection Act by notifying the Board.

i. I understand and acknowledge that if I sign this Agreement, prior to the expiration of the twenty-one (21) day review period, I am voluntarily and knowingly waiving the twenty-one (21) day review period.

31. COUNTERPARTS. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which will be deemed an original, but all of which will constitute one and the same agreement. A signature affixed by a party to a counterpart of this Agreement and delivered by electronic transmission is valid, binding and enforceable against such party.

Date: 3/12/19

By: _____
Joshua Rosenbaum

Date: _____

By: _____
Dr. Kevin West, Superintendent

WAIVER

By signing below, the undersigned hereby irrevocably elects to waive the twenty-one (21) day period referred to in Paragraph 28 of this Agreement.

Date: 3/12/19

By: _____
Joshua Rosenbaum

March 12, 2019

Dr. Kevin R. West, Superintendent
East Orange School District
199 4th Avenue
East Orange, NJ 07017

Re: Resignation from Employment

Dear Dr. West:

I hereby resign my employment as a tenured teaching staff member for the East Orange Board of Education, effective February 26, 2019. I am thankful for the opportunity to have served the students of the East Orange School District.

Joshua Rosenbaum

STATE OF NEW JERSEY
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

In the Matter of Tenure Charges Against
Paul Carratura

SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE TOWN OF KEARNEY, HUDSON COUNTY

Docket #:
205 8-18

Petitioner

Opinion and Award

- and -

PAUL CARRATURA,

Respondent

Before: Deborah M. Gaines, Arbitrator

APPEARANCES:

FOR THE PETITIONER:
Kenneth Lindenfelser, Esq.

FOR THE RESPONDENT:
Oxfeld Cohen, P.C.
By: Jesse Humphries, Esq.

Pursuant to NJSA 18A:6-16, as amended by P.L. 2012, c.26 and P.L. 2015, c. 109("TEACHNJ"), the tenure charges brought by the Town of Kearney ("the District" or "Petitioner") against Paul Carratura ("Carratura" or "Respondent") were referred to me by the Bureau of Controversies and Disputes for a hearing and Decision on September 21, 2018. I conducted hearings at the District's Offices in Kearney, New Jersey on December 14, 2018 and January 14, 2019.

At the hearing, the parties had full and fair opportunity to examine and cross-examine witnesses, introduce documentary evidence and make argument in support of their respective positions. The hearings were transcribed. The parties' written statements were received by the undersigned by February 18, 2019, whereupon the record was closed.

THE CHARGES

Respondent is charged with excessive absenteeism, incapacity, insubordination, conduct unbecoming an employee and other just cause for dismissal pursuant to 18A:6-10 as described in 23 paragraphs in the Board's Sworn Tenure Charges. The substance of these charges allege that, from January 1, 2018 until the date Respondent was charged, he missed 73 days of work (54 sick days and 19 taken as compensatory time) and that he called in only 21 times for all his absences; Respondent failed to respond to written notices and failed to report to work to formulate a corrective action plan; that Respondents actions resulted in work being left undone and endangered the health and safety of the students by preventing the District from being able to fully complete all custodial duties each day.

BACKGROUND

The following summarizes the relevant testimony and facts adduced during the hearing. Respondent began employment with the Kearney School District on May 4, 2000. He was promoted soon thereafter to head custodian of Garfield Elementary School.

The Respondent had no prior disciplinary history. However, for the period beginning January 1, 2018 through July 31, 2018, the Respondent was absent 73 days. Of those days, he called in sick only 21 times. [See Absence Records, District Exhibit E].

The record evidence establishes the District attempted to contact Respondent by phone on numerous occasions. Director of Plant Operations, Mark Bruscino also sent him a letter on May 8, 2018 stating that the letter would serve as "formal written notice and to confirm in writing [his] telephone messages concerning your unacceptable job attendance and absence notifications." [District Exhibit G]. The letter informed Respondent that disciplinary action would follow if he failed to notify the school on a daily basis of his absence and that he needed to provide medical documentation for his absences. [Id.]. A second letter was sent to him by Mr. Bruscino on May 15, 2018. [District Exhibit H]. The letter provided in pertinent part:

> Please provide this office with a doctor's note by Friday, May 18, 2018 for all of the dates you have not been present at your job. If I do not receive a doctor's note by the > above date, it will be determined that you have abandoned your position. [Id.]

Respondent failed to respond to any of the communications. Mr. Bruscino testified that he made numerous phone calls to the Respondent. He testified that from January 1, 2018 to June 18, 2018 the Respondent had no contact with the District. He testified that he sent people to the Respondent's home to try to find out what was wrong. On June 7, 2018 Respondent met with Bruscino and his Union Representative. Bruscino advised Respondent to obtain a doctor's note by Monday. He testified that he never received any notes from Respondent nor did the Respondent call or email the school to advise them he would be out.

Bruscino testified Respondent's absences had a negative impact on the school. He noted he could not hire a new custodian, and, therefore, had to cover the custodial duties with the staff he had and pay others to cover for Respondent. That included overtime and premium pay for the custodian who had to be given a temporary increase in level pay.

The policies introduced into evidence demonstrate that Employees are advised that attendance is essential for the efficient operation of the schools and that it is part of their performance expectations. Policy 4212 also requires employees to provide prompt notice of absence and to verify their absences if excessive. The school also requires medical documentation after three consecutive days of absence for illness.

Respondent acknowledged the absences charged and his failure to properly notify the school. He testified that he was incapacitated by depression beginning in January 2018. He testified three of his friends had recently died and he also found a lump of some kind, and feared he had cancer. He testified that he had never experienced anything similar and did not understand what was happening to him. He could not leave the house and was unable to cope. Eventually he went to therapy and testified he now understands what was wrong and believes such an incident will not reoccur. He testified he does not take any medication for depression, but is continuing in therapy and ,therefore, would be able to recognize the signs in the future. He submitted a note from his social worker from whom he currently sees for counseling. [Respondent Exhibit 1]

Positions of the Parties

Position of the District

The District argues it has proven the charges against Respondent and met the standard for sustaining termination for absenteeism under the applicable statutory framework. It notes Respondents absences are extreme. It argues Respondent missed 73 days of work during the applicable time period and no reasons or medical documentation was provided until well after the charges were served.

The District argues the credible record evidence shows it was required to pay overtime to people to cover Respondent's assignments. In addition, there were times his duties went undone.

The District maintains Respondent was provided notice of discipline and ample opportunity to supply documentation and receive any accommodation he may need.

Position of the Respondent

Respondent acknowledges the absences and his failure to provide timely notification and medical documentation. However, Respondent maintains the absenteeism he experienced was a singular event that has been resolved and is unlikely to occur again. Respondent maintains the mental trauma he experienced has been resolved and, if something similar were to occur in the future, his regular therapy sessions will be able to assist him. Respondent cites the Matter of Leslie Ramos to support his position. Respondent argues the hearing officer in that case provided the teacher who had a longer history of excessive absence another chance after determining that her serious health issues had been resolved. Respondent maintains his mental health issues should be viewed in the same light.

Moreover, Respondent maintains progressive discipline should be applied in this case because Respondent lacks any prior disciplinary record, has a positive employment history, and in fact, had never used any major amount of sick time previously as demonstrated by the fact he accumulated 220 sick days. Respondent argues a suspension would be the appropriate penalty in this case, citing other case law.

Decision

After carefully considering the entire record before me, including my assessment of witness credibility and the probative value of evidence, I find the Board has met its burden under the statute to sustain the charges. My reasons follow.

There is no dispute Respondent was absent from work for 73 days between January 1, 2018 to July 1, 2018 or that he failed to call in or provide any medical documentation in a timely manner. In fact, Respondent acknowledges he violated the District's policies regarding attendance.

Regular and predicable attendance is required for all employees in the District and, certainly, is a critical component of the employment relationship. Respondent's absences were excessive by any measure.

While attendance issues normally require progressive discipline to escalate to termination, in this case, Respondent's absences were so numerous, and his failure to even contact the school, even after he met in person with his supervisor on June 7,2018, demonstrate the ineffectiveness of any corrective measures.

The record evidence demonstrates the school made every effort to retain Respondent. They called, they wrote, and sent people to his home. He failed to communicate with the District, even after they met with him on June 7, 2018. In fact, no one heard from him until the first day of hearing in December.

While Respondent has now, during the instant proceeding, offered a note from the social worker with whom he now receives counseling, it is insufficient to explain why Respondent could not even call in to work. It merely states that it "appears" he could not come work. This practitioner was not involved in his care during the relevant time period.

While I credit Respondent's testimony that he went through a period of depression that he found debilitating beginning in January, it does explain why he could not make a phone call. Moreover, the school provided him the opportunity to resolve the situation and he still failed to obtain medical information to excuse his absence and to call in to inform the school he would be absent. Respondent's situation is distinct from the situation in Ramos. I do not find that case persuasive.

Under these circumstances, I find no reason to disturb the District's judgment regarding penalty in this matter. As a result, I make the following

AWARD

The charges of excessive absenteeism, incapacity, insubordination, conduct unbecoming an employee. The District has demonstrated just cause for termination.

Deborah Gaines

Dated: March 21, 2019

Deborah Gaines, Arbitrator

Affirmation
State of New York }
County of New York } ss:

I, DEBORAH GAINES, do hereby affirm upon my oath as Arbitrator that I am the individual described in and who executed this instrument, which is my award.

Date: March 21, 2019

Deborah Gaines

78-19L

State of New Jersey
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION
PO Box 500
TRENTON, NJ 08625-0500

PHILIP D. MURPHY
Governor

SHEILA Y. OLIVER
Lt. Governor

LAMONT O. REPOLLET, ED.D.
Commissioner

March 27, 2019

Beth L. Finkelstein, Esq.
920 West State Street
Trenton, New Jersey 08618-5328

Daniel H. Long, Esq.
Wade, Long, Wood & Long, LLC
1250 Chews Landing Road, Suite 1
Laurel Springs, New Jersey 08021

Re: Kristen Martello v. Board of Education of the Borough of Berlin, Camden County, Agency Docket No. 43-2/19.

Dear Counsel:

I have reviewed the petition for declaratory ruling in the above-captioned matter, together with the respondent's answer to the petition. Upon such review, I have determined to exercise my discretion to decline the request pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-8 and N.J.A.C. 6A:3-2.1(a)1, and instead direct that the matter shall proceed as a petition of appeal pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.1 et seq.

Accordingly, petitioner's request for declaratory ruling is declined and this matter shall be transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law.

Sincerely,

Lemont O. Repollet, Ed.D.
Commissioner

c: County Superintendent
State Law Library

LOR/SLP/JKH

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

S.H. and C.H., on behalf of minor children, C.H., S.H., and S.H.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Alloway, Salem County,

Respondent.

Synopsis

Petitioners filed an appeal on behalf of their minor children, C.H., S.H., and S.H., challenging the determination of the respondent Board that they did not reside in Alloway Township after August 25, 2017, and that the children were therefore ineligible to attend school in respondent's school district during the 2017-2018 school year. The Board sought payment of tuition for the number of days that the children attended school in Alloway while ineligible to do so.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: petitioners in this matter are in the business of purchasing, renovating and selling or renting properties, and own nineteen properties in total; from 2007 until August 2017, petitioners resided at a home on Neil Court in Alloway; in July 2017, petitioners moved to a larger house in Elmer, but never disenrolled the children from respondent's school district; the children continued to attend school in Alloway; petitioners represented that the move was temporary pending the completion of renovations to one of their properties in Alloway; petitioners did not move back to Alloway until October 2, 2018; it is undisputed that petitioners did not reside in Alloway between August 25, 2017 and October 2, 2018; the testimony and documentary evidence presented by petitioners herein was not credible, while the testimony of representatives of the Board was consistent and credible; petitioner's children attended school in respondent's district during the 2017-2018 school year, and from September 5, 2018 through October 2, 2018, while domiciled outside of the district; pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b)(1), petitioners shall be assessed tuition for the period of ineligible attendance of their children. The ALJ concluded that petitioners failed to satisfy their burden of proving that their children were entitled to a free public education in the respondent's district during the period at issue herein. Accordingly, the ALJ affirmed the Board's residency determination and ordered petitioners to pay the Board tuition in the total amount of $ 36,333.60 for the unauthorized attendance by their children in Alloway Township schools during the 2017-2018 and 2018-2019 school years.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurred with the findings and conclusions of the ALJ, and – finding petitioners' exceptions wholly unpersuasive – adopted the Initial Decision of the OAL as the final decision in this matter.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

March 26, 2019

79-19

OAL Dkt. No. EDU 16589-17
Agency Dkt. No. 241-10/17

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

S.H. and C.H., on behalf of minor children, C.H., S.H., and S.H.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Alloway, Salem County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed, as have the exceptions filed by petitioner pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4, and the Board's reply thereto.

In this matter, petitioners are challenging the Board's determination that they did not reside in Alloway Township after August 25, 2017, and that the minor children were therefore ineligible to attend school in the district. The Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) found that petitioners did not meet their burden of demonstrating that they were residents of Alloway Township during the 2017-18 school year and during the period of September 5, 2018 through October 2, 2018. Accordingly, the ALJ ordered tuition reimbursement in the amount of $36,333.60.

In their exceptions, petitioners argue that the ALJ ordered petitioners to redact personal identification information as part of a protective order, but then held it against them by finding that the redactions were suspect and weighed against their credibility. Petitioners contend that the ALJ's determination that C.H. was not a credible witness was erroneous, not based on any other factor, and should be set aside.

Petitioners also take exception to the ALJ's conclusion that the Board provided petitioners with due process. Petitioners argue that the ALJ did not address the adequacy of the Board's ex parte hearing, in which they failed to call C.H. into a closed session of the Board meeting for the residency hearing. Instead, the ALJ blamed petitioners for not inviting themselves into the closed session and cited no legal support for her conclusion that the Board had provided due process. Petitioners maintain that the Board failed to create a record of the hearing, refused to tell them who was going to testify, and did not permit them to attend, thus violating their due process rights at every juncture. Petitioners urge the Commissioner to therefore reject the Initial Decision because the ALJ disregarded the Board's failure to conduct a proper hearing on the record, as well as the fact that petitioners were not given a chance to present additional evidence.

Additionally, petitioners argue that the ALJ erred in finding that they were not domiciled in Alloway Township. Petitioners maintain that they lived in Alloway Township from 2007 to the present, except for a short period between August 25, 2017 and November 6, 2017. Specifically, petitioners sold their home on Neil Court in Alloway Township on August 25, 2017 and moved into a house that they owned in Elmer. They entered into a contract on September 22, 2017 for another house in Alloway Township but the sale fell through on September 26, 2017. Thereafter, petitioners purchased a house on Aldine Road on November 6, 2017 and another house on Greenwich Street on February 9, 2018, but both Alloway Township properties required extensive renovations. Petitioners moved into the Greenwich house on October 2, 2018. As such, petitioners argue that they paid property and school taxes for the last 12 years, with the exception of the short gap between selling the Neil Court house and purchasing the Aldine Road house. Accordingly, petitioners maintain that their intent was always to live in Alloway Township, not Elmer, but they were unable to move into their Alloway house until renovations were made to make it habitable.

Finally, petitioners contend that the ALJ erred in ordering reimbursement of $36,333.60 in tuition. One of the minor children, C.H., only attended school for half-day prekindergarten, so petitioners argue that they should not be assessed the full $60.56 per day for C.H. Additionally, petitioners are aware of a student who attends the school and pays tuition at a reduced rate, so they question why their tuition assessment should be $10,900 per year rather than $6,500, the amount paid by the other student. Petitioners point out that the Board Secretary who testified regarding the tuition calculation seemed unsure of the tuition policies. Moreover, petitioners contend that the tuition should be reduced to cover the time that the ALJ took to issue an Initial Decision because "the ALJ's untimely decision deprived [petitioners] of the option to send their children to school in Elmer long before the conclusion of the 2017-18 school [year]." (Petitioners' Exceptions at 16[1])

In reply, the Board contends that petitioners' exceptions do not meet the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4(b) as they do not take exception to specific findings of fact or conclusions of law, but rather reiterate the same arguments made before the ALJ. The Board also argues that the ALJ was correct in finding that petitioner's redacted text messages were suspect in that she was purposefully concealing information. Further, the ALJ only used the redacted text messages as one factor when rendering C.H. a non-credible witness.

The Board argues that the residency hearing conducted during the September 26, 2017 Board meeting was proper and did not deprive petitioners of due process.

[1] Citation is to the first set of exceptions filed by petitioners, which were dated February 25, 2019.

The Board explains that extensive testimony was taken at trial regarding the Board meeting, which makes clear that C.H. arrived late to the meeting, sat in the back of the room, and did not sign in until the very end of the meeting when she was leaving. C.H. did not tell anyone she was there, despite numerous opportunities to do so, and did not speak up when the Board announced that it was going into executive session to discuss a student residency matter. The sign in sheet was double checked before executive session, and the Superintendent also came out from executive session to check for petitioners but did not see C.H. in the audience. C.H. did not say anything when the Board announced its decision on the matter after executive session, at the end of the meeting, or in the following days. As such, the Board urges the Commissioner to adopt the ALJ's finding that "C.H.'s refusal to identify her presence at the board meeting resulted in [petitioners'] failing to exercise their due process rights and participate in the hearing." (Initial Decision at 20)

The Board contends that the Initial Decision was well-reasoned and correctly found that petitioners were not domiciled in the district during the dates in question. The Board explains that petitioners are in the business of purchasing investment houses to remodel and either rent or sell, and they have 19 properties. The Board contends that the two foreclosure properties petitioners bought in Alloway Township after selling their Neil Court home were an impractical size for their seven-person family, as they were both significantly smaller than the large house they had moved into in Elmer. Instead, the Board maintains that the Elmer home is where petitioners slept at night, ate their meals, intended to return to when they left, and where they parked their cars and trucks. Accordingly, the Board agrees with the ALJ that petitioners were domiciled in Elmer during the 2017-18 school year and until October 2, 2018.

Finally, the Board contends that the ALJ's assessment of tuition was correct. With respect to petitioners' argument regarding their half-day student being charged for a full day, the Board explains that the Business Administrator testified that the district charges a higher tuition for kindergarten students, whether full day or half day. In this case, the Board instead used the elementary student tuition amount when calculating tuition for petitioners' kindergarten student, so it was assessing a lower amount of tuition than it could have. Further, with respect to the other student who attends school on a tuition contract, the Board argues that petitioners are not privy to the circumstances surrounding that situation, and it is irrelevant to this matter.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ's finding that petitioners failed to sustain their burden of establishing that they were domiciled in Alloway Township during the 2017-18 school year and until October 2, 2018. The Commissioner further concurs with the ALJ's conclusion that the minor children were, therefore, not entitled to a free public education in the District's schools during that time. It is undisputed that petitioners moved out of Alloway Township on August 25, 2017 and into a property that they owned in Elmer. Although petitioners claim they were domiciled again in Alloway Township as of the date they purchased their Aldine Road house on November 6, 2017, there is no evidence in the record that they ever lived in this house; petitioners admit that they could not move in due to the amount of work the property needed. The record makes clear that petitioners' true, fixed and permanent home was in Elmer -- where they ate, slept, and returned each day – until petitioners moved back to Alloway Township and into their Greenwich Street home on October 2, 2018.

In K.L. v. Board of Education of the Borough of Kinnelon, 2010 N.J. Super. Unpub. LEXIS 11 (App Div. January 4, 2010), the Appellate Division found that although the petitioners in that case had purchased a home in Kinnelon, they did not reside in the district as they could not occupy the home during renovations. The court explained:

> We think it obvious from these general principles that petitioners and their children were never domiciled in Kinnelon. While they may have possessed a present intention to reside there when the renovations were complete, it is undisputed that petitioners and their children never did reside in the district during the 2007-2008 school year. As such, their intention to do so is irrelevant. They had never established an "actual and physical . . . abode" in Kinnelon, and therefore they lacked the "necessary concurrence of physical presence and an intention to make that place one's home" upon which the legal concept of domicile rests.
>
> [Id. at *13-14 (quoting In re Unanue, 255 N.J. Supra. 362, 376 (Law. Div. 1991), aff'd, 311 N.J. Super. 589 (App Div.), certif. denied, 157 N.J. 541 (1998), cert. denied, 526 U.S. 1051 (1999)).]

As such, petitioners' argument that they "intended" to live in Alloway Township, while actually living in their Elmer home, lacks merit. Whether or not petitioners hoped to return to Alloway Township does not change the fact that they sold their home and moved out of the school district. The mere purchase of additional houses in the district or the payment of property taxes does not establish domiciliary intent, as petitioners had not taken up an actual and physical abode in those houses. Accordingly, petitioners did not meet their burden of demonstrating that they were domiciled in Alloway Township during the 2017-18 school year and during the period from September 5, 2018 through October 2, 2018.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1b, the Commissioner shall assess tuition against petitioners for the period during which the minor children were ineligible to attend school in Alloway Township. The Board's Business Administrator (BA) testified regarding the tuition rates and indicated that the Board was seeking reimbursement for the minor children in the amount of $60.56 per day, totaling an annual tuition rate of $10,900 each. Evidence in the record shows that the actual annual tuition rate was $11,139 for prekindergarten and kindergarten, $11,216 for grades 1-5, and $10,949 for grades 6-8, and that the minor children were in 7th grade, 2nd grade, and prekindergarten during the 2017-18 school year. (Est. Tuition Calculated Rates for Regular Programs, Exhibit R-15). The BA testified that the Board took the lowest of those rates and "rounded it down" to establish a tuition rate of $10,900. (Testimony of Rebecca Joyce, T2 at 167) Although petitioners argue that the rate for C.H. should be lower because that child was only in half-day prekindergarten, the BA explained that the tuition rates for grades are an established rate and are not broken down by the hours of attendance. (T2 at 186-187) Accordingly, the Board is entitled to tuition reimbursement in the amount of $36,333.60 – $10,900 each for the 2017-18 school year, and $60.56 each for the 20 school days from September 5, 2018 through October 2, 2018, during which time petitioners' minor children were ineligible to attend school in Alloway Township.

The Commissioner does not find petitioners' additional exceptions to be persuasive. The Commissioner notes that the ALJ had the opportunity to assess the credibility of the witnesses who appeared before her and make findings of fact based upon their testimony. In this regard, the clear and unequivocal standard governing the Commissioner's review is:

> The agency head may not reject or modify any findings of fact as to issues of credibility of lay witness testimony unless it is first determined from a review of the record that the findings are arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable or are not supported by sufficient, competent, and credible evidence in the record. [N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10(c)].

As such, the Commissioner finds no basis in the record to disturb the ALJ's credibility assessments. Contrary to petitioners' assertion, the ALJ did not base her finding that C.H. was not credible solely on her unilateral redactions of text messages, but rather on a multitude of reasons that were detailed by the ALJ in the Initial Decision. Additionally, the Commissioner agrees with the ALJ that petitioners were not deprived of their due process rights and instead failed to exercise their rights and participate in the board hearing. With respect to tuition, any arguments regarding the tuition rate another student has contracted to pay are irrelevant. Finally, tuition should not be reduced by the length of time the ALJ took to issue an Initial Decision. Petitioners were not prohibited from removing their children from the district while their appeal was pending.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision of the OAL is adopted as the final decision in this matter. Petitioner is directed to reimburse the Board in the amount of $36,333.60 for tuition costs incurred during the period in which C.H, S.H., and S.H. were ineligible to attend school in Alloway Township. The petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[2]

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 3/26/19
Date of Mailing: 3/26/19

[2] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to P.L. 2008, c. 36 (N.J.S.A 18A:6-9.1).

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 16589-17
AGENCY DKT. NO. 241-10/17

S.H AND C.H. ON BEHALF OF C.H.,
S.H. AND S.H.,
Appellants,
v.
TOWNSHIP OF ALLOWAY BOARD OF EDUCATION, SALEM COUNTY,
Respondent.

Jamie Epstein, Esq., for appellants

Victoria Beck, Esq., for respondent (Parker McCay, P.A., attorneys)

Record Closed: November 13, 2018 Decided: February 11, 2019

BEFORE DOROTHY INCARVITO-GARRABRANT, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Appellants, S.H. and C.H., on behalf of C.H., S.H., and S.H., challenge the determination made by the respondent, Township of Alloway Board of Education, that they did not reside in Alloway Township after August 25, 2017. The respondent seeks

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On September 27, 2017, the respondent, through a Final Notice of Ineligibility, advised the appellants that their children, C.H., S.H., and S.H., were unauthorized to attend school in the Alloway Township School district, due to their non-residency. Appellants appealed the decision on October 18, 2017. The Department of Education Bureau of Controversies and Disputes transmitted this case to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) on November 8, 2017, for a hearing pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 et seq. and N.J.S.A. 52:14 F-1 et seq. On November 3, 2017, respondent filed an answer and cross-petitioner for tuition reimbursement and costs.

On December 22, 2017, respondent filed a Motion for Summary Decision in its favor relative to the residency issue and tuition and costs reimbursement, on the grounds that appellants had sold their home on August 25, 2017, purchased a new home outside respondent's school district, and did not own any property within its district.

On January 8, 2018, a Prehearing Order was entered which established filing deadlines for appellants' Motion for a Protective Order and respondent's opposition to same. On March 28, 2018, an Order was entered denying appellants' Motion for a Protective Order. Pursuant to that Order, appellants' opposition to respondent's December 22, 2017 Summary Decision Motion was filed by May 15, 2018. Respondent's filed a response to the opposition and appellants filed a sur-reply. Respondent's motion for summary decision was denied.

The hearing in this matter was heard on July 24, 2018 and July 31, 2018.

On July 31, 2018, at the beginning of respondent's presentation of their case, a piece of paper with notes written on it dropped out of the exhibit binder that was presented by appellants to the witnesses for their use during their testimony. (D-1.) The paper was given to the undersigned ALJ, when it fell out of the book. The paper appeared to have notes regarding questions and testimony presented at the previous hearing by C.H. The ALJ took testimony from C.H. about the paper and allowed counsel for the parties to question C.H.. She admitted it was hers. She had taken the exhibit binders with her after the last day of hearing.[1] She had written notes on pieces of paper and they must have mixed with the binders in her bag after the hearing. She denied utilizing the notes during her testimony. There was insufficient evidence to conclude that C.H. had acted in an inappropriate manner. As a result, a motion for an adverse inference against appellants and specifically C.H.'s testimony was denied. (T 145:23-25, 146-147:1-20, 155-159:1-10.)

After the July 31, 2018 hearing, the record remained open until September 14, 2018.

By correspondence dated October 9, 2018, appellants provided a certification, dated October 8, 2018, indicating that they moved back to Alloway Township on October 2, 2018. Subsequently, the undersigned re-opened the record to allow respondent thirty days to provide a responsive submission. The undersigned indicated the record would close on November 13, 2018. Respondent provided a responsive certification with supporting documentation on November 13, 2018. The appellants objected indicating that the thirty-day deadline expired on November 12, 2018, and therefore, the respondent's submission was untimely. The thirty-day extension and the November 13, 2018, were inadvertently inconsistent. The extension of time was contemplated to end on November 13, 2018. Therefore, respondent's submission was timely.

Respondent's November 13, 2018 submission includes an investigative report in which the children are shown in a photograph at such great distance that their faces are not recognizable. However, appellants objected to the picture being accepted as part of the record without being redacted. That page of the report is hereby SEALED and has been placed in a separate sealed envelope.

[1] Curiously, C.H. appears to have prepared the exhibit book. Exhibit R in the appellants' exhibit book is labeled as follows: "3 affidavits by mtg (sic) attendees confirming my presence." A review of the exhibit indicates the affiants were confirming C.H.'s presence at the respondent's Board meeting on September 26, 2017. During her testimony about this issue, C.H. stated that she took the exhibit binders home with her after the first day of hearing. While not prohibited, it is odd that C.H. prepared the exhibit book which was utilized on behalf of appellants during trial. This fact coupled with C.H.'s unilateral redaction of content from other evidence admitted during the hearing is troubling.

On December 28, 2018, an Order for Extension was entered extending the time for filing the initial decision until February 11, 2019.

SUMMARY OF TESTIMONY

For Appellant

Courtney Hitchner (Hitchner) is an acquaintance of C.H. Hitchner's son attends respondent's school with C.H.'s children and the children play together. On September 26, 2017, Hitchner attended the respondent's board meeting because she wanted to be active in the community and keep current with changes at the school. Upon her arrival, she walked into the meeting with C.H. and took a seat in the back of the room near C.H. The meeting had already commenced and Hitchner stated that she missed the meeting's beginning formalities. Hitchner testified that she could observe C.H. throughout the meeting, and that C.H. never left her seat. C.H. never told anyone she was present or arrived late. Hitchner testified that she could hear what the Board was saying throughout the meeting.

When the Board went into executive session they did not announce the purpose of the closed session. Hitchner did not know that the closed session involved C.H.'s children. The students involved were referred to by numbers. No one called for C.H. to join the closed session. The closed session lasted about half an hour. When the Board returned from closed session they announced their decision "[d]enying children coming into the school, or staying in the school." C.H. was also present when this decision was announced. Hitchner denied that C.H. ever asked her about their decision because C.H. could not hear the tuition number. C.H. remained in her seat until the end of the meeting. After the meeting, Hitchner and C.H. walked to the front of the room and signed the sign-in sheet. (P-17.) Hitchner then went home.

C.H., testified on her own behalf. The appellants have five children, to wit: C.H. who is seventeen years old and graduated from Woodstown High School in June 2018;[2] S.H. who is thirteen years old; S.H. who is eight years old; C.H. who is five years old; and S.H. who is two years old. The thirteen, eight, and five years old children are the subjects of this appeal.

Appellants resided at XX Neil Court, Alloway Township, (Alloway), New Jersey for approximately ten years prior to August 25, 2017, at which time they moved out of Alloway.[3] The family moved to XXX Woodstown Deer Town Road in Elmer, New Jersey, (Elmer),[4] which was a property they had purchased in November 2016. Appellants purchased the property for investment and development. C.H. insisted that it was never the family's plan to leave Alloway. C.H. testified that appellants moved their personal belongings to the Elmer home. They entertain at the Elmer home. They use the lake on the property. They park their recreational vehicles (RVs) and their other vehicles at the property.

C.H. alleged that at the time of their move, they were in the process of purchasing another property in Alloway on Main Street. They had been negotiating to buy this property since July 2017. However, the sale fell through eventually. (P-N.) Appellants are engaged in the business of purchasing, renovating, and renting or selling properties. They own nineteen properties. C.H. stated that their mailing address, a post office box, remained the same after they moved. (P-A, pp. 1-37.)[5] They obtained a post office box because they had difficulty receiving their mail at the XX Neil Court residence.

---

[2] C.H. was a student at Woodstown High School, which serves as the high school district for Alloway Township. Appellants did not appeal any decision made about C.H. in this matter. However, respondent's business administrator testified that tuition costs were paid by respondent to the high school district for the 2017-2018 school year. (P-U.) Any change in her domicile would result in an adjustment to the number of students sent from Alloway to the high school district and a corresponding change to the number of students sent from C.H.'s new school district to the high school district.

[3] Appellants requested that all address numbers be redacted. Therefore, although public information, the property numbers are not used in this Initial Decision.

[4] This property is designated as being in Elmer but is part of the Upper Pittsgrove school district.

[5] C.H. unilaterally redacted the documents in P-A without the advice of counsel. This made the documents suspect.

C.H. stated that she received a letter from the Alloway superintendent, Kristen Schell, (Schell), on September 5, 2017, two days before the start of the school year, which she understood to say that her children were not allowed to attend respondent's school because they had moved out of the district, although C.H. admitted during cross-examination that this was not stated in that letter. The letter did not advise of a right to appeal this decision or that her children could remain in school while the decision was challenged. When she received the letter, C.H. went to the school and spoke with Schell. C.H. admitted the family had moved out of the district. C.H. stated that she explained that they "had sold their house but were in the process of purchasing a new one with only a couple of days, possibly weeks overlap and that their education shouldn't be disrupted for only a couple of days or a couple of weeks." Schell asked for the address of the property. C.H. refused to provide the address because they were still going through inspections and the contract was not final. C. H. asked to speak with the respondent and Schell said she would check the policy and respond.

On September 6, 2017, Schell responded. C.H. stated that Schell advised her that the children were disenrolled and that their transfer papers were at the school office and ready to be retrieved. C.H. alleged that Schell indicated that if the children showed up to school the next day, then they would be physically removed. Schell did not mention any right to appeal the decision. C.H. immediately contacted her attorney who wrote a letter to the school. (P-G.) Thereafter, C.H. received an email from Schell stating that the children could attend school the next day. C.H. also received a notice of ineligibility from Schell. Appellants requested an appeal hearing from respondent, which was scheduled for the next board hearing on September 26, 2017.

Subsequently, appellants requested a copy of any evidence that the respondent was introducing or considering at the appeal hearing. This information was provided on September 21, 2017. (P-L.) On September 22, 2017, appellants sent a correspondence to each of the board members. (P-M.) Appellants conveyed that they had no desire to leave Alloway. C.H. stated their "house sold quickly" and they temporarily located to another property, which they owned. However, C.H. also testified that their XX Neil Court home had been placed on the market for sale initially in 2007 and continued to be offered in the Multiple Listing Service (MLS) for sale through 2017. C.H. indicated that the "quick sale" reference meant the buyers moved in, in a matter of weeks. They were in the process of purchasing another Alloway property and needed ninety days to complete the purchase. Appellants offered to pay tuition for the time frame during which they did not have a house in Alloway. No response was received from respondent.

On September 26, 2017, C.H. arrived at the board meeting at approximately 6:30 p.m., and waited for Hitchner before entering the meeting. They sat near each other towards the back of the room. C.H. stated that she was present for the roll call at the beginning of the meeting. She heard an award being given to a student for an accomplishment achieved over the summer and the public comment, including a teacher who praised that student.

C.H. texted her husband, S.H., from the meeting. (R-19; P-T.) C.H. printed out the text messages and redacted them before she provided them to her attorney. C.H. alleged she redacted information that did not pertain to the meeting and the names of her children. In this regard, C.H. first blacked out certain information with a black Sharpie marker and then went over it with the redaction produced through the Cute PDF application. C.H. destroyed the paper she marked with the Sharpie. The text messages were deleted by her phone due to storage restrictions without her knowing it would occur.

Thereafter, the board announced their exit to executive session. C.H. heard them read this from the agenda. C.H. alleged that they did not say it related to any student's domicile. Respondent did not invite C.H. into the executive session or call her name. C.H. texted her husband as follows: "Went into executive session as soon as I got here. Not out yet." (R-19.)

When the respondent returned from executive session, C.H. heard the respondent read the resolution regarding the executive session. C.H. testified that the resolution, (P-S), was consistent with what she heard at the meeting, when the board returned from executive session. The respondent's determination was to disenroll four students because they were not domiciled in Alloway. C.H. alleged that she did not think it was her children because there were four students listed and they were only referred to by numbers. Then, she was "shocked" that she was not part of the hearing.

C.H. also testified that at 7:33 p.m., C.H. texted her husband as follows: "[t]hey said I wasn't here and I didn't participate and voted we are not domiciled." She did not present herself to the respondent at this time. At 7:53 p.m., C.H. texted her husband as follows:

> It's in the resolution, they use numbers to represent the kids, so I was trying to write, I think they said $60 a day, but that can't be right. I couldn't hear. I'm in the back of the library. They are in the front.

In response, S.H. texted C.H. at 7:55 p.m. as follows: "[y]ou should make public that you want it on the record you were there," to which C.H. responded, "[m]aybe leave it alone now."

Several other texts were exchanged between C.H. and S.H. At 7:59 p.m., S.H. texted "[p]art of appeal, I guess," to which, C.H. responded, "[y]ep." (R-19.) C.H. acknowledged that they knew on September 8, 2017, that they could appeal the respondent's decision, if they did not agree with it. She testified that she knew her children would remain in the school district during the pendency of this appeal.

C.H. stated that she signed the respondent's sign-in sheet at the end of the meeting. She then approached one of the board members and said "Hi, how are you?" and had a brief conversation. C.H. did not say to that board member, "Hey by the way I was here." That board member also spoke to Hitchner. After the meeting, C.H. never advised the school she was at the meeting and that an error in procedure might have occurred.

C.H. testified that her family had been surveilled by Schell from September 2017 through December 2017. Schell would park outside their residence in Elmer, take pictures, and follow the family on their drive to the respondent's school. C.H. felt harassed. (P-BB.) C.H. stated it upset her children.

Relative to appellants' search for a new Alloway residence, C.H. testified that the Main Street property negotiations ended on the third day of attorney review in September 2017. Subsequently, on November 6, 2017, the appellants purchased a property located at XX Alloway Aldine Road, (Aldine), in Alloway, for which they paid property taxes in 2017 and 2018. The contract to purchase this property was signed in the middle of October 2017. Appellants never advised respondent they had purchased a property in Alloway.

The Aldine property was in foreclosure when it was purchased by appellants. When they began working on the property they found that there were major structural and systemic problems, which they had to correct. C.H. alleged the renovation was delayed by permitting issues, inspections, and utility company issues. Appellants had intended to move into the home by January 1, 2018. At the time of the hearing, they had not moved into the Aldine property because it was "not habitable."

Appellants also purchased a property located at XX North Greenwich Street, (Greenwich), in Alloway on January 23, 2017. (P-CC.) This property was also in foreclosure when appellants purchased it. Appellants intended to move into this property temporarily until the Aldine home was ready. Appellants never advised respondent they had purchased a second property in Alloway. At the time of the hearing, appellants had not moved into the Greenwich property.

In addition to the Elmer, Aldine, and Greenwich properties, appellants own nineteen properties, including a tri-plex in North Wildwood, New Jersey. Their vehicles have Florida license plates.

On cross-examination, C.H. stated that their Elmer home is known as the Seabrook Mansion. It has eight bedrooms and six bathrooms and at the time of the hearing, appellants' seven-person family continued to reside there. The Aldine property had two bedrooms when it was purchased, although appellants' renovation plans include four bedrooms. (R-23.) The Greenwich property has four bedrooms. C.H. acknowledged that the certificate for work at the Greenwich property indicated and use of the property indicated the buyers were S.H. and C.H., "0 children," and "no occupancy." (R-8.)

For Respondent

Kristen Schell, (Schell), is the respondent's chief school administrator, who goes by the title, Superintendent of Schools. Schell testified that she first became aware that the appellants' move out of the school district in the summer when her assistant, Barbara Rishel (Rishel), relayed a couple of conversations and interactions she had relating to the appellants. C.H. advised they had sold their XX Neil Court house. They further indicated that they had purchased a home in Upper Pittsgrove. Rishel said C.H. called the school and said she was changing her mailing address to a post office box because of an issue getting their mail at their XX Neil Court home. Thereafter, C.H. was in the school's main office and was overheard saying the family had outgrown their house and were moving into a new home.

In the Spring of 2017, C.H. registered her pre-K child, at which time Rishel questioned her about the family's move. C.H. denied the move and said, "[w]e have 19 properties and we fix them up and rent them out." In August, a retired teacher shared with Rishel that she had taken a plate of cookies to the appellants' new home in Upper Pittsgove (Elmer property). Then, a district bus driver questioned why the children we on a roster for the bus, despite the fact that they had sold their XX Neil Court property.

To ensure residency, which is one of Schell's duties as superintendent, she wrote a letter to the appellants, dated August 31, 2017, to make an informal attempt to start the transfer process for the appellants' children, so they could start school on the first day in the district in which they live. This is an action the district always takes. In response to this letter, C.H. came into the office and admitted to moving out of Alloway. However, she insisted the move from Alloway was temporary. When Schell asked C.H.

for the address of the property they were purchasing in Alloway, she refused to provide it. C.H. added that their house sold "quickly." Schell stated the real estate sheet indicated the house had been on the market for 427 days. Schell told C.H she would look into the policy and get back to her about the situation.

Schell responded to C.H. and indicated that she would have to provide documentation about their new Alloway purchase. C.H. inquired about what would happen if she had a hardship. Schell indicated that the hardship provisions were inapplicable to the appellants' situation. Schell told C.H. they needed to start the transfer process because it was in the children's best interests to start school on the first day in their new school. (R-I.) Schell advised C.H. that she would pull the children off the rosters, so that no attention would be drawn to the fact that they had moved. Schell advised the appellants that their children could not attend the first day of school. However, Schell never disenrolled the children.

Schell then reversed this decision on September 6, 2017, when she received a letter from appellants' attorney saying they were domiciled in Alloway. (R-2.) At this point, Schell realized her informal attempt to have appellants' transfer their children was not going to occur. As a result, respondent sent the formal notice of ineligibility letter, to Elmer and the appellants' post office box in Alloway, and via email. (R-3.) Schell investigated the appellants' claim of a continuing to be domiciled in Alloway. On the advice of counsel, Schell documented their commute to school from Elmer, on a weekly basis, by observing the family leaving the Elmer residence and driving to school. Schell documented this through photographs. Schell did not park on the appellants' property, and did not photograph the children. Schell explained smaller districts often do this, because they do not have the staff and resources to hire investigator. (R-31.) The respondent then decided to hire an investigator after an uncomfortable incident with S.H. Schell explained a report from Robert Brown, Investigative Services, who was hired to document the fact that the appellants were no longer domiciled in Alloway as they claimed they were.

Schell explained the district's admission policy and what documents are required as proof of eligibility to attend. (R-13 and 14.) Respondent has a policy to accept non-resident tuition students consistent with New Jersey law. (R-32.) Schell explained that domicile is where the family lives, where your children sleep at night and eat their meals, and where they consider their primary residence to be located. Had the appellants had documentation to substantiate their statement that they were moving back to Alloway in days or weeks, Schell would have accepted that they intended to remain domiciled in Alloway.

The appellants asked to postpone the hearing, which was rejected by the respondent. By correspondence, dated September 22, 2017, the appellants made a settlement offer, which included paying tuition until they purchased a home in Alloway. (A-M.) The correspondence stated:

> If the Board gives us the requested reasonable amount of time of 90 days to relocate back into Alloway Township and we do not, then we agree to pay tuition for our three children for the remainder of the school year or until such time as we relocate into a permanent residence in Alloway Township.

On September 26, 2017, the respondent held its board meeting and the residence hearing. Schell testified that she looked for C.H. before the executive session and also asked Becky Joyce, the business administrator, and Cathy Caltabiano, a board member, who is friendly with the appellants, if C.H. was present. That board member replied that C.H. was not present and that C.H. was not coming. Schell checked the sign-in sheet. C.H.'s name was not on it and Schell never saw C.H. enter the meeting.

The closed session began at 6:38 p.m. The board president announced the two matters for executive session. While in executive session, the board's attorney had Schell go out and double check to determine if C.H. had arrived while they were in the session. C.H.'s name was not on the sign-in sheet. The last name was Oliveri and Schell did not see C.H. in the room. After the closed session, respondent took formal action determining that the appellants were no longer domiciled in the district. Schell explained the executive minutes reflect that there was no residency hearing because only Schell presented documents and the appellants did not participate.

After the meeting, Schell and the board president spoke in the parking lot for a "good amount of time." When Schell started her car to leave, the board president advised that the board member who had said C.H. was not attending, had just let him know that C.H. was there at the meeting. Schell denied knowing what time those texts were exchanged. Appellants did not reach out to Schell about the meeting. Her next contact with them was when she received the appeal information. Appellants never advised Schell they had purchased a property in Alloway subsequent to the hearing.

Rebecca Joyce (Joyce) is employed as the respondent's Business Administrator. In August, Joyce sent an email to Alloway Township inquiring, who owned XX Neill Court, and was advised that the appellants sold it on August 25, 2017. (R-6.) Joyce attended the September 26, 2017, board meeting. There is a sign in the meeting room that instructs members of the public to please sign in and take an agenda. The board went into closed session at the beginning of the meeting. Joyce had never seen C.H. before, so she asked board member Caltabiano if C.H. was in attendance. Caltabiano said "She's not here and she will not be coming." Joyce asked Caltabiano to let her know if C.H. did come into the meeting. Caltabiano stated "I know for a fact that she's not coming."[6]

Approximately ten minutes into the meeting, the board went into executive session for the residency hearing and a separate personnel matter. The board solicitor asked Schell to go back into the library and look at the sign-in sheet to verify that C.H. had not appeared. Schell did that, although Joyce acknowledged she did not see Schell actually do that. The solicitor explained the process and prepared the resolution. Joyce explained the document relating to the established tuition rate and the methodology used to determine the tuition rate of $10,900 per pupil. (R-15.) Respondent took the lowest tuition rate and divided it by 180 days to calculate the daily tuition rate that was going to be charged to the appellants. The 6th to 8th grades tuition rate was lower than the elementary school rate and the pre-K rate.

[6] Board Member Caltabiano recused herself from participating in the residency hearing and voting on the issue, because she and the appellants have a personal relationship.

In response to cross-examination, Joyce testified that $10,900 was the certified rate per pupil for the 2017-2018 school year per the budget software. Joyce was only aware of one other voluntary tuition contract in the last twenty-three years. It was in 2015 and the rate charged, as determined by the board in that situation, was $6,500.

Joyce testified that she wrote that the appellants did not attend the hearing and so there was no residency hearing on the minutes. (R-18.) Joyce explained that because the appellants did not participate in the hearing Schell presented the documents relating to the residency investigation and the solicitor had to walk the board through the process and facts as if the parents were there. She wrote no residency hearing occurred because it was not a "two-way" hearing.

Joyce stated that the appellants never reached out to the respondent after the meeting to indicate there was a mistake with what occurred. Appellants never advised they purchased a property in Alloway during the 2017-2018 school year.

Barbara Rishel (Rishel), is employed by respondent as an Administrative Secretary to the Superintendent and is familiar with C.H. In the Spring of 2017, Rishel was in the office where C.H. was telling others that they were moving because they had outgrown their house. In June 2017, C.H. brought in her registration papers for her pre-K student. Rishel asked why she was registering the child because they were moving. C.H. insisted they were not moving. Rishel told C.H. that she remembered C.H. speaking about the move in the office. C.H. said she had rental properties and that this house was not necessarily going to be their residence. Rishel then registered the student. Also, during this June meeting, C.H. stated that she was changing her address from Neil Court to a post office box and that she would not need bus service at Neil Court any longer because she was making other transportation arrangements for her children. In July, a former teacher came to visit the school. She advised that the appellants just became her new neighbors in Upper Pittsgrove, where the Elmer house is located.

After not receiving any additional transfer or moving information, Rishel left the children on the bus roster. The bus driver called Rishel and questioned why the appellants' children were still on the bus runs, because they had moved.

Schell had Rishel mail the Notice of Ineligibility letter, dated September 8, 2017, to the appellant's Elmer property by certified and regular mail, and to their post office box in Alloway by regular mail. (R-3.)

FINDINGS OF FACT

The following facts of this case have been stipulated to by the parties (J-1.) and are not in dispute and as such, I FIND the following facts:

A. On August 25, 2017, appellants sold their home located at XX Neil Court Alloway Township;
B. On August 25, 2018, appellants moved into Elmer property which they own;
C. On November 6, 2017, appellants purchased the Aldine property;
D. On February 9, 2018, appellants purchased a second home in Alloway Township located at XX Greenwich Street;
E. Appellants do not allege that they have moved back into the District and admit that they have nor resided in the District since August 25, 2017.

Based on the law, the credible testimonial and documentary evidence, I FIND the following as FACTS in this matter:

1. Appellants are in the business of purchasing, renovating, and selling or renting properties. They own nineteen properties.

2. Appellants have five children. This seven person family includes three school aged children who attend the respondent's Alloway Township school to wit: S.H. who is thirteen years old; S.H. who is eight years old; C.H. who is five years old.[7]

3. Appellants oldest child, C.H., graduated from Woodstown High School in June, 2018.

4. Appellants resided at XX Neil Court, Alloway Township since 2007.

5. The XX Neil Court property was advertised for sale since 2007, and placed in the MLS.

6. In the Spring of 2017, the appellants' family had admittedly outgrown their home at XX Neil Court, Alloway Township, and had decided to move. C.H. stated this in the school's office in front of Rishel.

7. In June 2017, in contemplation of their move out of the district, appellants changed their mailing address from XX Neil Court to a post office box in Alloway Township and advised they would no longer required school bus transportation from their XX Neil Court address.

8. This was an unsuccessful attempt to maintain the position that they continued to be domiciled in Alloway.

9. In July 2017, appellants moved to Elmer to the Seabrook Mansion property, which has eight bedrooms and six bathrooms, a lake on the property, and grounds large enough to park their vehicles and 2 RVs.

10. In July 2017, a former Alloway teacher told Rishel she had taken cookies to the appellants because they were her new neighbors in Elmer.

11. Appellants sold their XX Neil Court residence on August 25, 2017, having previously moved their personal property and family to the Elmer property.

[7] These were the ages of the children during the 2017-2018 school year.

12. Appellants have resided since at least August 25, 2017 at the Elmer property.

13. Respondent was advised by several independent sources that appellants no longer resided in their district as of August 25, 2017. As a result, Schell and respondent had good cause to initiate a residency investigation.

14. Respondent informally proceeded to determine, through a correspondence to appellants dated August 31, 2017, if appellants had moved out of the district. It was a genuine attempt to ensure that the children could be transferred to their new school district in time for the first day of school. In taking this action, Schell was attempting to act in the best interest of the children, so that their education was not disrupted.

15. In response C.H. admitted they moved out of the district, but refused to transfer her children to the new district. C.H. alleged the move was temporary; however, she refused to produce any documentation substantiating that they were moving back to Alloway in days or weeks or cooperate to provide any documents required by respondent's policies to show they resided in Alloway.

16. When the informal procedure failed to work, Schell followed the formal procedures and conducted a residency investigation, in good faith.

17. Respondent never disenrolled the children from school.

18. Any upset or concern of the children was unnecessarily caused by appellants sharing information about the respondent's position that they had to be enrolled in the Upper Pittsgrove district in which their Elmer home was located.

19. By notice, dated September 8, 2017, respondent initially notified appellants of their ineligibility to continue to enroll their children in Alloway.

20. Appellants requested a hearing before the respondent to contest its residency determination.

21. Schell was directed to document the appellants' commute from their Elmer home to school and continued to do so weekly through the fall of 2017 because C.H. alleged they were moving back into Alloway in days or weeks. Schell did not harass the appellants or their children, and took care to park on the public road, and not appellants' property, and not take photographs of the children.

22. Although they admitted they had moved to Elmer, C.H. put the issue of their relocation back to Alloway in issue, and this necessitated the ongoing residency investigation.

23. Ultimately, respondent hired Investigator Robert Brown to document where appellants resided. The investigation concluded they resided and were domiciled at Elmer.

24. On September 22, 2017, appellants sent correspondence to respondent admitting they no longer resided in Alloway, but arguing that they continued to be and intended to be domiciled in Alloway. Appellants further requested ninety days to move back into Alloway. They offered to pay tuition after the ninety day period, if they had not moved back into Alloway.

25. On September 26,2017, the respondent held its monthly board meeting which included appellants' residency hearing.

26. C.H. knew the appellants' residency hearing was to be conducted at that meeting.

27. Schell asked Joyce and board member Caltabiano to look for C.H. Caltabiano, who is friendly with appellants, indicated before the meeting C.H. was not there and was not coming to the meeting.

28. C.H. is very concerned about protecting the privacy of her children; however, this was not an excuse to fail to identify her presence or to participate in the September 26, 2017 residency hearing.

29. Despite the importance of the meeting, C.H. arrived late to the meeting. Hitchner also separately arrived late. They took seats toward the back of the meeting room. They did not sign in on the sign-in sheet upon entering the meeting.

30. There is a sign in the meeting room that instructs members of the public to please sign in and take an agenda.

31. C.H. did not make her presence known to respondent at any time during the meeting, despite numerous opportunities to do so.

32. There was no issue hearing the board members' announcements or them speaking. C.H. heard the roll call at the beginning of the meeting and an award being given to a student for an accomplishment achieved over the summer. She also heard the public comment, including a teacher who praised that student.

33. C.H. heard the announcement that the board was going into closed session. C.H. did not identify herself to respondent as present.

34. At 7:13 p.m., C.H. texted her husband as follows: "Went into executive session as soon as I got here. Not out yet." (R-19.)

35. Schell left the executive session to double check the sign-in sheet to determine if appellants had come to the meeting late. C.H. did not present herself to Schell and had not signed the sign-in sheet.

36. Based on the evidence presented by Schell and the board's solicitor, the respondent concluded that appellants did not reside and were not domiciled in Alloway and that their children were ineligible to attend the respondent's school.

37. At 7:33 p.m., C.H. texted her husband as follows: "They said I wasn't here and I didn't participate and voted we are not domiciled."

38. C.H. did not present herself to the respondent at this time.

39. At 7:53 p.m., C.H. texted her husband as follows: "It's in the resolution, they use numbers to represent the kids, so I was trying to write, I think they said $60 a day, but that can't be right. I couldn't hear. I'm in the back of the library. They are in the front."

40. Despite this text, C.H. never asked Hitchner about their decision because C.H. could not hear the tuition number. Hitchner expressed no difficulty hearing anything throughout the meeting.

41. In response, S.H. texted C.H. at 7:55 p.m. as follows: "You should make public that you want it on the record you were there," to which C.H. responded, "Maybe leave it alone now."

42. Several other texts were exchanged. At 7:59 p.m., S.H. texted: "[p]art of appeal, I guess," to which, C.H. responded, "[y]ep." (R-19.)

43. C.H. never let respondent or the administrators know she was at the September 26, 2017 meeting, despite her husband even advising her she should. By design, C.H. refused to participate, knowing the children would remain enrolled in respondent's school district pending the outcome of this appeal.

44. On October 18, 2017, petitioner filed an appeal from the respondent's final determination of ineligibility.

45. Respondent provided appellants with their hearing and due process. Appellants' failure to participate and C.H.'s refusal to identify her presence at the board meeting resulted in appellants failing to exercise their due process rights and participate in the hearing. C.H.'s testimony that she was not provided with the required residency hearing is not supported by the facts and is not credible under these circumstances. No pattern of failing to provide due process to appellants or their children existed.

46. Respondent conducted a residency hearing and based on the information presented by Schell appropriately determined that appellants' domicile and residency was at the Elmer property.

47. The documents, including personal bills and mortgage and tax documents, appellants submitted to support their argument that they continued to be domiciled in Alloway Township after their move to Elmer are insignificant because they do not prove actual residency. Moreover, those documents, similar to the text messages, were unilaterally redacted by C.H., without legal advice or direction, and therefore were suspect. No testimony or corroborating information rehabilitated the motive for the redaction or resolved the suspicion.

48. The Elmer property was the property to which appellants intended to return each day, and in which they and their children slept and ate their meals between August 25, 2017 and October 2, 2018. It was their domicile and residence.

49. Consistent with their business, petitioners bought a property with a small two-bedroom house improvement on it which was in foreclosure on Aldine on November 6, 2017.

50. It was not credible that the appellants, who are in the business of purchasing, renovating, and selling or renting the properties, did not know that this property would require extensive renovations to its system and structure. Further it was not credible that the parties intended to move into this home with their family of seven.

51. Appellants purchased the Greenwich property on January 23, 2018. For business purposes they purchased the property, which was also subject to a bank foreclosure. While the Greenwich property has four bedrooms appellant advised Alloway Township that C.H. that they were the buyers and there would be no children inhabiting the residence and no occupancy. Appellants never intended this to be their residence.

52. C.H.'s statements that the family was going to move into the Greenwich property during the 2017-2018 school year was also not credible.

53. C.H. affirmed in an Affidavit, dated October 8, 2018, that the appellants' family moved into the Greenwich property on October 2, 2018. Therefore, C.H. admitted that from at least August 25, 2017 through October 2, 2018, the family did not reside and was not domiciled in Alloway.

54. Appellants were required to enroll their children in the district in which the Elmer property is located for the 2017-2018 school year, because they were ineligible to attend school in respondent's district. Appellants were required to enroll their children in that district for the period of time between September 5, 2018 and October 2, 2018, which totals twenty school days, because they were ineligible to attend school in the respondent's district.

55. After considering respondent's November 13, 2018 submission, insufficient evidence exists to make a determination, at this time, whether appellants became residents and domiciled in Alloway at the Greenwich property after October 2, 2018. Therefore, no conclusions are determined herein for any period past October 2, 2018. The respondent may take any appropriate action and make any determinations relative to the appellant's residency and domicile. Nothing herein shall bar the respondent from instituting an appropriate residency investigation, proceeding, or action, and seeking allowable appropriate relief including, but not limited to, tuition reimbursement against appellants, for the period of time after October 2, 2018.

56. Tuition for the 2017-2018 school year was $60.56 per day for 180 days, equaling $10,900 per annum.

57. Tuition for the period from September 5, 2018 through October 2, 2018, was $60.56 per day for 180 days equaling $1,211.20

58. Appellants must reimburse respondent $32,700 for tuition for the 2017-2018 school year, plus $3,633.60 for tuition for the period between September 5, 2018 through October 2, 2018.

59. Appellants' oldest child, C.H., who graduated from Woodstown High School in June 2018, was domiciled with her family in Elmer during the 2017-2018 school year.

Credibility

Credibility is the value that a finder of the facts gives to a witness's testimony. It requires an overall assessment of the witness's story in light of its rationality, internal consistency and the manner in which it "hangs together" with the other evidence. Carbo v. United States, 314 F.2d 718, 749 (9th Cir. 1963). "Testimony to be believed must not only proceed from the mouth of a credible witness but must be credible in itself," in that "[i]t must be such as the common experience and observation of mankind can approve as probable in the circumstances." In re Perrone, 5 N.J. 514, 522 (1950). A fact finder "is free to weigh the evidence and to reject the testimony of a witness . . . when it is contrary to circumstances given in evidence or contains inherent improbabilities or contradictions which alone or in connection with other circumstances in evidence excite suspicion as to its truth." Id. at 521–22; see D'Amato by McPherson v. D'Amato, 305 N.J. Super. 109, 115 (App. Div. 1997). A trier of fact may reject testimony as "inherently incredible" and may also reject testimony when "it is inconsistent with other testimony or with common experience" or "overborne" by the testimony of other witnesses. Congleton v. Pura-Tex Stone Corp., 53 N.J. Super. 282, 287 (App. Div. 1958). Similarly, "'[t]he interest, motive, bias, or prejudice of a witness may affect his credibility and justify the . . . [trier of fact], whose province it is to pass upon the credibility of an interested witness, in disbelieving his testimony.'" State v. Salimone, 19 N.J. Super. 600, 608 (App. Div.), certif. denied, 10 N.J. 316 (1952) (citation omitted). The choice of rejecting the testimony of a witness, in whole or in part, rests with the trier and finder of the facts and must simply be a reasonable one. Renan Realty Corp. v. Cmty. Affairs Dep't, 182 N.J. Super. 415, 421 (App. Div. 1981).

In judging the strength of the evidence, I FIND as FACT that the testimony presented by Schell, Joyce, and Rishel about their actions, taken in relation to this matter, and their observations of C.H's statements and actions were consistent and credible. Collectively, their testimony of the events and the conclusions and determinations they made sense and hung together to logically describe what occurred. It is undisputed that the appellants did not reside in Alloway Township between August 25, 2017 and October 2, 2018.

Rishel credibly testified relative to her observations about C.H.'s statements about the appellants' family having outgrown their XX Neil Court home and that they were moving in 2017. Rishel credibly testified that C.H. advised she no longer needed bus transportation for the children for the 2017-2018 school year and that the appellants had changed their mailing address in the Spring of 2017 to a post office in Alloway Township from the XX Neil Court residence. Rishel credibly relayed that a former teacher advised her in July 2017 that the appellants had moved to their Elmer residence. Rishel showed no pre-existing issues with or animosity towards C.H. Despite the fact that Rishel, based on the information provided to her, had reason to believe that the appellants no longer resided in Alloway, she took no action to prevent C.H. from registering her child for pre-K in the district. Rishel took no punitive actions against appellants.

Similarly, Joyce and Schell reasonably investigated the issue of the appellants' residency, only after multiple independent sources of information were relayed to them indicating that the appellants had moved from the district. Their version of events relating to the September 26, 2017 board residency hearing were consistent and made sense. Additionally, their rendition of that night's events including their reasonable reliance upon Caltabiano's statement that she knew C.H. was not attending the hearing, the fact that C.H. did not sign the sign-in sheet until after the meeting's conclusion, and the fact that C.H. refused to disclose to them that she was at the hearing, provided a greater "ring of truth" than the scenario offered by C.H., who plainly had a greater interest in the outcome of this proceeding.

I further FIND as FACT that C.H.'s version of the events lacked a ring of truth. C.H.'s statement that her house sold quickly was disingenuous and unsupported by the facts and her actions. The residence had been on the market since 2007. Knowing in the spring of 2017 the appellants were relocating to Elmer, C.H. changed the appellants' address to a post office box. She told others that her seven-person family had outgrown their home and they were moving. She requested the bus service be discontinued for her children, so that the school would not know the location from which they were commuting to school. Consistent with these statements she moved to a larger home in Elmer, which has eight bedrooms and six bathrooms. This was to be the appellants' residence.

The appellants purchase, renovate, and sell or rent properties for a living. They own nineteen rental properties. When they moved to Elmer they had no property in Alloway under contract to purchase and serve as their new residence, contrary to C.H.'s representations to Schell. This was supported by C.H.'s refusal to provide documentation to support her representations that the family would be moving back into Alloway within days or weeks at the most. Moreover, the testimony presented supported a relocation to Elmer on a date in June or July, when the former teacher took cookies to their Elmer home, and not late in August.

The appellants' purchase of the Greenwich property was for their business purposes, although appellants allege post October 2, 2018 they reside in the property. The purchase of the Aldine property as a residence makes little sense. It strains credulity to believe that after broadcasting that her family had outgrown their home and were moving to a larger home, appellants were actually intending to occupy a smaller two bedroom home.[8] It further is not credible that, in light of their business, the appellants were taken by surprise that their Aldine property, a bank foreclosure property, required such extensive work to make it habitable.

Similarly, C.H.'s "shock" that the residency hearing occurred without her participation was not believable. This allegation was undermined by her testimony and her text messages with her husband. C.H. heard the meeting's roll call, the award given by the board to a student and the public comment, during which a teacher praised that student. C.H. knew why she was attending the September 26, 2017 meeting. C.H. heard the board state why they were going into executive session. C.H. heard their decision when then re-entered the meeting after executive session. In fact, Hitchner's testimony contradicted C.H.'s testimony. Hitchner, who was seated next to C.H., could hear the entire meeting. Hitchner denied that C.H. ever asked her about the respondent's decision, because C.H. could not hear the tuition number.

Although C.H.'s text messages are suspect, because she unilaterally redacted parts of them without legal advice to conceal portions of the conversations, the statements she left remaining are inconsistent with her being shocked. There was no such expression of astonishment or startlement that respondent had held the hearing or had rendered a decision without her participation. She chose not to participate or let the respondent know she was at the meeting, even after her husband advised she should make her presence known to them. This created an issue for her appeal and was done so intentionally. C.H.'s actions were calculated and intentional.

Further, C.H.'s positions about what occurred at the meeting showed further inconsistencies in her testimony. First, C.H. indicated that respondent failed to call her into executive session or make clear that the residency hearing was about her children. She believed that was wrong. Later, C.H. indicated that the privacy of her family would have been violated, if they had done that because then everyone there would have known it was about her. That too would have been an issue for C.H. However, C.H. took no actions to rectify this situation. C.H. morphed her testimony as she attempted to cast herself in the best light or predict the line of questioning by respondent.

[8] At this time, insufficient evidence exists to find or conclude that after October 2, 2018, the appellants did not commence residing in the Aldine property. Therefore, no conclusions are determined for any period past October 2, 2018. The respondent may take any appropriate action and make any determinations relative to the appellant's residency and domicile. Nothing herein shall bar the respondent from instituting an appropriate residency investigation, proceeding, or action, and seeking allowable appropriate relief including, but not limited to, tuition reimbursement against appellants, for the period of time after October 2, 2018.

Finally, C.H. redacted information on the documentation she submitted to support the appellants' position that the mailing address on the family's bills, tax information, and financial information demonstrated they had an intention to remain domiciled in Alloway. Her unilateral redaction of this information, without input from legal counsel, made the evidence completely suspect and rendered their weight insignificant. This concealing of information disabled C.H.'s credibility.

Based on the foregoing, I FIND as FACT that C.H.'s testimony and appellants' documentary evidence was not credible.

LEGAL DISCUSSION

At issue is whether appellants children, S.H. who is thirteen years old, S.H. who is eight years old, and C.H. who is five years old, were entitled to a free education under N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1, which provides that public schools shall be free to persons over five and under twenty years of age who are "domiciled within the school district." See V.R. ex rel A.R. v. Hamburg Bd. of Educ., 2 N.J.A.R. 283, 287 (1980), aff'd, State Bd., 1981 S.L.D. 1533, rev'd on other grounds sub nom. Rabinowitz v. N.J. State Bd. of Educ., 550 F. Supp. 481 (D.N.J. 1982) (New Jersey requires local domicile, as opposed to mere residence, in order for a student to receive a free education).

A person who meets age requirements and is domiciled within a school district may attend its public schools free of charge. N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(a). A person may have many residences but only one domicile. Somerville Bd. of Educ. v. Manville Bd. of Educ., 332 N.J. Super. 6, 12 (App. Div. 2000), aff'd, 167 N.J. 55 (2001). A child's domicile is normally that of his or her parents. Ibid. The domicile of a person is the place where he has his true, fixed, permanent home and principal establishment, and to which whenever he is absent, he has the intention of returning, and from which he has no present intention of moving. In re Unanue, 255 N.J. Super. 362, 374 (Law Div. 1991), aff'd, 311 N.J. Super. 589 (App. Div.), certif. denied, 157 N.J. 541 (1998), cert. denied, 526 U.S. 1051, 119 S. Ct. 1357, 143 L. Ed. 2d 518 (1999).

The acts, statements and conduct of the individual, as viewed in the light of all the circumstances, determine a person's true intent. Collins v. Yancey, 55 N.J. Super. 514, 521 (Law Div. 1959). The parent has the burden of proof by a preponderance of the evidence. N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b)(2).

The record reflects that appellants' children attended school within the respondent's district during the 2017-2018 school year and from September 5, 2018 through October 2, 2018, while domiciled outside of the District in Elmer. They were not authorized to attend respondent's school.

C.H.'s statements and actions showed a course of conduct designed and engaged in intentionally to keep her children enrolled in Alloway for its free education, when she knew they no longer resided in the district. In this regard, in contemplation of their move in the summer of 2017, appellants changed their mailing address for their bills to an Alloway Township post office box, in the spring, in an attempt to give the appearance that they still resided in Alloway Township. C.H. misrepresented that the sale of the residence was quick. Appellants also removed their children from the bus transportation roster ahead of time, knowing they did not reside in the district. C.H. refused to participate in the September 26, 2017, residency hearing, knowing that her children would remain enrolled in the district for free pending the resolution of this instant appeal.

Appellants' arguments that they intended to remain domiciled in Alloway Township and that their relocation to their Elmer residence was temporary during the 2017-2018 school year was unpersuasive and unsupported by any credible evidence. Given the appellants' business of purchasing, renovating and either selling or renting the properties, appellants' alleged involuntary delays in relocating to the Aldine property lacked support. The tax payments made by them for properties owned by them within Alloway Township or the bills mailed to a post office box in Alloway were insufficient to establish an intent to remain or be domiciled in Alloway Township.

As indicated above, appellants' arguments that they intended to relocate and reside to the Aldine or Greenwich properties during the 2017-2018 school year were not credible.

The appellants did not reside in the district for the entire 2017-2018 school year. Elmer was their true, fixed, and permanent home. Elmer was the property to which, whenever they were absent, they intended to, and did, return. This is where the family ate, slept, and resided. Elmer was their domicile from which they presented no intention of moving.

Accordingly, in light of all of the facts and circumstances, I CONCLUDE that S.H., S.H., and C.H. were not entitled to a free public education in the respondent's district. Appellants failed to satisfy their burden of proof that respondent acted in an arbitrary and capricious manner.

N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b)(1) provides that when the evidence does not support the claim of the resident, the resident shall be assessed tuition "for the student prorated to the time of the student's ineligible attendance in the school district. Tuition shall be computed on the basis of 1/180 of the total annual per-pupil cost to the local district multiplied by the number of days of ineligible attendance and shall be collected in the manner in which orders of the commissioner are enforced." The record reflects that the actual cost of each of appellants' child's attendance in-district during the 2017-2018 school year was $60.56 per day equaling $10,900 per annum.

Accordingly, I CONCLUDE that the District is entitled to reimbursement for tuition by the appellant in the amount of $10,900 for each of their three children. I CONCLUDE the total reimbursement appellants owe to respondent for the 2017-2018 school year is $32,700. I further CONCLUDE that the respondent is entitled to reimbursement for tuition by the appellant in the sum of $1,211.20 for each of their three children for the period of September 5, 2018 through October 2, 2018. I further CONCLUDE that the total reimbursement appellants owe to respondent for the period between September 5, 2018 and October 2, 2018 is $3,633.60.

I further CONCLUDE that petitioner's appeal should be dismissed.

ORDER

It is ORDERED that the determination of the respondent, Alloway Township Board of Education that S.H., S.H., and C.H. were not domiciled in the Alloway Township School District for the 2017-2018 school year and the period between September 5, 2018 through October 2, 2018, is AFFIRMED.

It is, therefore, ORDERED that appellants pay respondent, Alloway Township Board of Education, tuition in the total amount of $36,333.60 for unauthorized attendance in the District schools for the periods stated above.

It is further ORDERED that appellants' oldest child's, C.H.'s domicile be changed from Alloway Township to Upper Pittsgrove for the 2017-2018 school year, so that the proper adjustment may be made for purposes of the tuition paid for her to attend Woodstown High School during that school year.

Petitioner's appeal is DISMISSED.

I hereby FILE this Initial Decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five (45) days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen (13) days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, P.O. Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

2/11/19 _____
DATE

DOROTHY INCARVITO-GARRABRANT, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: 2/11/19

Date Mailed to Parties: 2/11/19

APPENDIX

WITNESSES

For Appellant:

1. Courtney Hitchner
2. C.H., appellant

For Respondent:

1. Kristen Schell, Superintendent
2. Rebecca Joyce, Business Administrator
3. Barbara Rishel, Administrative Assistant to the Superintendent

EXHIBITS

Joint Exhibits:

J-1 Five stipulated facts

For Appellants:

P-A Redacted Domicile Documents
P-B Email regarding ownership of XX Neil Court
P-C Open House School Letter (Not admitted)
P-D School bag tag for pre-K bus/walker (Not admitted)
P-E Schell Informal eligibility letter, dated August 31, 2017
P-F School policy
P-G Attorney letter, dated September 6, 2017
P-H Schell email, dated September 6, 2017
P-I Second Schell email, dated September 6, 2017
P-J Initial Ineligibility Letter, dated September 8, 2017
P-K Email to Schell requesting disclosure of witnesses
P-L Schell email denying request to postpone the hearing

P-M Appellants letter conveying settlement offer, dated September 22, 2017
P-N Email regarding Aldine property sale, dated September 25, 2017
P-O Email to Joyce, dated September 22, 2017
P-P C.W. email to Joyce, dated September 25, 2017
P-Q September 26, 2017 Board Meeting Sign in Sheet
P-R Three affidavits of meeting attendees
P-S Respondent's meeting minutes and resolution
P-T Redacted text messages
P-U Joyce email regarding Appellants' Woodstown High School student
P-V Final Notice of Ineligibility
P-W Record of Deed Transfer Aldine property
P-X taxes paid record for Aldine property
P-Y post office box receipt
P-Z Alloway Township Resolution 18-45
P-AA Executive Session Minutes from September 26, 2017 board meeting
P-BB Attorney correspondence to V. Beck, Esq., dated December 15, 2017
P-CC Record of Deed Transfer Greenwich property
P-DD Letter from appellants to respondent re: public documents case

For Respondent:

R-1 August 31, 2017 letter to from Schell to appellants
R-2 September 6, 2017 letter from J. Epstein, Esq. to Schell
R-3 September 8, 2017 letter from Schell to appellants regarding hearing
R-4 September 28, 2017 letter regarding Notice of Final Ineligibility
R-5 Coldwell Banker Homes.com Website for Elmer property (not admitted)
R-6 September 13, 2017 email exchange between Assessor and Business Administrator
R-7 November 2, 2017 letter from Zoning, Housing Code Office Alloway Township (not admitted)
R-8 Certificate of Continued Occupancy Greenwich property
R-9 Pre-Occupancy Application Information Greenwich property (not admitted)
R-10 Certificate of Occupancy Application Greenwich property(not admitted)

R-11 Alloway Township Housing Ordinance (not admitted)

R-12 Report of Robert M. Browne, Private Investigative Services

R-13 District Policy 5111-Student Admissions

R-14 District Policy 5118-Nonresident Students

R-15 Est. Tuition Calculated Rates for Regular Programs

R-16 Open Session Minutes Board Meeting September 26, 2017

R-17 September 27, 2017 Board Meeting Sign in sheet

R-18 Executive Session Minutes Board Meeting September 26, 2017

R-19 Redacted text messages

R-20 Photo of Elmer residence (not admitted)

R-21 HUD 1, Tax Assessment, Elmer property (not admitted)

R-22 HUD 1, Tax Assessment, Neil Court property (not admitted)

R-23 HUD 1, Tax Assessment, Aldine property (not admitted)

R-24 Floor Plan Aldine Property (not admitted)

R-25 Aldine Construction permits (not admitted)

R-26 Photographs Aldine property (not admitted)

R-27 2016 Tax Returns (not admitted)

R-28 2017 Tax Returns(not admitted)

R-29 NJ Court Public Access Page—14 suits involving appellants

R-30 Motor Vehicle Change of Address Forms(not admitted)

R-31 Surveillance Report

R-32 Respondent's Non-resident tuition student rules and procedures

R-33 Registration Information Inquiry for Vehicle (not admitted)

R-34 Resume of R. Joyce (not admitted)

R-35 Resume of K. Schell(not admitted)

Court Documents

D-1 C.H.'s note found in the exhibit binder

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

T.W., on behalf of minor child, M.W.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Freehold Regional High School District, Monmouth County,

Respondent.

Synopsis

Petitioner filed an appeal on behalf of her minor child, M.W., seeking a determination that the cost of M.W.'s tuition to attend the Mercer County Technical School's (MCTS) Electrical Construction Program is the responsibility of the Freehold Regional High School District (Board), M.W.'s resident district board of education. M.W. was denied admission to the Monmouth County Vocational School District's (MCVSD) Electricity Program, but was admitted to MCTS's Electrical Construction Program, which has the same classification of instruction program code as MCVSD's Electricity Program. Petitioner alleged that the Board's decision to deny her request for tuition reimbursement under N.J.A.C. 6A:19-2.3(a)2 was arbitrary, capricious and unreasonable. The Board filed a motion for summary decision.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: petitioner's appeal was timely filed under N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3(i); N.J.S.A. 18A:54-1 et seq authorized the creation of local, county and regional vocational schools and set forth funding and enrollment requirements to deliver vocational education to interested students; an examination of the rules and regulations promulgated to foster access to county vocational schools shows that these provisions do not guarantee enrollment or tuition-free attendance; a student's right to attend a county vocational school is subject to admissions standards and available space, and only guarantees equal opportunity for enrollment, not enrollment for all; even if admitted to a county vocational school, a right to tuition-free attendance is not absolute; a county vocational school is permitted to establish admission requirements based on academic qualifications and space considerations; thus, N.J.A.C. 6A:19-2.3(a)2 is appropriately read to absolve a local school board of an obligation to fund a resident student's attendance at a non-resident county vocational school if a resident county vocational school has the same program, whether or not the student has been admitted to the resident county school; under N.J.A.C. 6A:19-2.3(b), every child is assured an equal opportunity to pursue an education at their county vocational school, but not every child is assured admission. The ALJ concluded that the Board is not obligated to pay for M.W.'s attendance at MCTS, and granted its motion for summary decision.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurred with the findings and conclusions of the ALJ, and adopted the Initial Decision of the OAL as the final decision in this matter.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

March 27, 2019

OAL Dkt. No. EDU 11522-18
Agency Dkt. No. 192-8/18

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

T.W., on behalf of minor child, M.W.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Freehold Regional High School District, Monmouth County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed, as have the exceptions filed pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4 by the petitioner, T.W., and the Freehold Regional High School Board of Education's (Board) reply thereto.[1] In this matter, the petitioner alleges that the Board's decision to deny her request for tuition reimbursement under N.J.A.C. 6A:19-2.3(a)2 was arbitrary, capricious and unreasonable. Petitioner's minor child, M.W., is a Monmouth County resident who was denied admission to the Monmouth County Vocational School District's (MCVSD) electrical program; M.W. therefore applied to the Mercer County Technical School's (MCTS) electrical program and was admitted. The petitioner contends that the respondent Board – M.W.'s resident school district – must pay tuition for M.W. to attend MCTS. Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:19-2.3(a)2:

> The resident district board of education shall be responsible for the tuition and transportation costs, and nonresident fee (where applicable) of any resident student admitted to a county vocational school outside the county in which the resident school district is located unless the district board of education maintains a > vocational school pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:54-5 et seq., or the county in which the resident school district is located maintains a county vocational school, and either of these school offers the same program as the non-resident county vocational school where the resident was accepted.

[1] The petitioner submitted a response to the Board's reply exceptions that was not considered because replies to reply exceptions are not permitted.

The petitioner does not appear to dispute the fact that MCVSD has the same electrical program as MCTS, but instead states that MCVSD did not offer its program to M.W.[2] The Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) granted the board's motion for summary decision and recommended that the petition of appeal be dismissed. In so doing, the ALJ found that the Board is not responsible for the cost of M.W.'s attendance at MCTS because MCVSD offers the same electrical program.[3]

The petitioner's exceptions substantially reiterated the substance of her submissions at the OAL, recasting the arguments therein to support the contention that the ALJ erroneously granted summary decision in favor of the Board. Specifically, the petitioner maintains that the ALJ wrongfully applied a strict reading of the word "offer" in N.J.A.C. 6A:19-2.3(a)(2) to find that the Board is not responsible for M.W.'s tuition at MCTS. M.W. was not accepted into MCVSD's program and as such MCVSD's program was not offered or made available to M.W. The ALJ's narrow interpretation of "offer" is inconsistent with public policy that encourages a vocational education.

Petitioner also takes exception to the ALJ's failure to address her argument that the Board has paid for other students' tuition at vocational schools despite the same programs offered through an in-county program. The Board's willingness to pay tuition for other students in similar circumstances demonstrates that there exists a factual issue as to whether the Board's decision was arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable. Accordingly, summary decision was not appropriate, and a hearing is required. Therefore, the Initial Decision should be rejected.

---

[2] The electrician programs at both MCTS and MCVSD have the same classification of instruction program code of 460302.

[3] The ALJ also determined that the petition of appeal was timely filed in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3.

In reply, the Board also reiterated the positions advanced in its submissions at the OAL, maintaining that the ALJ properly granted its motion for summary decision. The ALJ correctly found that the Board has no responsibility to pay for an out-of-district vocational program when an in-county vocational school has the same program. M.W. is free to attend the out-of-county program at MCTS, but the Board has no obligation to pay for M.W.'s tuition. The fact that M.W. did not get accepted into MCVSD is irrelevant for purposes of N.J.A.C. 6A:19-2.3 and does not change the fact that the program was "offered" as envisioned by the regulation. Moreover, the ALJ conducted an extensive examination of the meaning of "offer" before concluding that the Board has no obligation to pay for M.W.'s tuition at MCTS. The Board also stresses that, despite the petitioner's assertion that it paid tuition for other students in circumstances similar to those of M.W., it has never paid for a general education student to attend a vocational program at MCTS where the same program is offered at MCVSD. Finally, the ALJ properly found that there are no material facts in dispute and the Board is entitled to summary decision. Therefore, the Commissioner should adopt the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter.

Upon a comprehensive review of the record in this matter, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ – for the reasons thoroughly stated in the Initial Decision – that the Board's decision to deny the petitioner's request for tuition was not arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable.[4] The ALJ correctly found that, "N.J.A.C. 6A:19-2.3(a)(2) is appropriately read to absolve a local school board of an obligation to fund a resident student's attendance at a non-resident county vocational school if a resident county vocational school has the same program, whether or not the student has also been admitted to the resident county school." Initial Decision at 11. Moreover, the Commissioner does not agree with the petitioner's argument that because T.W. was not admitted into MCVSD's program, the program was not "offered" in accordance with [4] The Commissioner is also in accord with the ALJ's determination that the petition was timely filed.

N.J.A.C. 6A:19-2.3(a)(2). Finally, the Board's placement of certain special education students does not have any impact on this matter nor does it create the existence of material facts in dispute that requires a hearing in this case.

Accordingly, the recommended decision of the ALJ is adopted as the final decision in this matter and the petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[5]

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 3/27/19
Date of Mailing: 3/27/19

[5] Pursuant to P.L. 2008, c. 36 (N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1), Commissioner decisions are appealable to the Superior Court, Appellate Division.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION ON
SUMMARY DECISION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 11522-18
AGENCY DKT. NO. 192-8/18

T.W. on behalf of M.W.,
Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION
OF THE FREEHOLD REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT,
Respondent.

Patrick F. Carrigg, Esquire, for petitioner (Lenox, Socey, Formidoni, Giordano, Cooley, Lang & Casey, attorneys)

Mark G. Toscano, Esquire, for respondent Freehold Regional High School District Board of Education (Comegno Law Group, P.C., attorneys)

Record Closed: February 5, 2019 Decided: February 14, 2019

BEFORE DEAN J. BUONO, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

T.W. (petitioner) on behalf of her minor son, M.W., a Monmouth County resident, was denied admission to Monmouth County Vocational School District's (MCVSD)

Electricity Program but was admitted to Mercer County Technical Schools' (MCTS) Electrical Construction Program, seeks an order requiring respondent Freehold Regional High School District Board of Education (Freehold), which is M.W.'s resident district board of education, to pay for M.W. to attend MCTS pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:19-2.3(a)(2), which states:

> The resident district board of education shall be responsible for the tuition, transportation costs, and nonresident fee (where applicable) of any resident student admitted to a county vocational school outside the county in which the resident school district is located, unless the district board of education maintains a vocational school pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:54-5 et seq., or the county in which the resident school district is located maintains a county vocational school, and either of these schools offers the same program as the non-resident county vocational school where the student has been admitted. A program shall be deemed the same, for purposes of this section, if it is approved by the Department in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:19-3.1 and 3.2, is assigned the same Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) code and meets or exceeds all applicable program performance standards.

T.W. argues that this provision compels Freehold to pay for her son to attend MCTS because, even though MCVSD has the same electrician program as MCTS, M.W. was denied admission to MCVSD's program and, thus, MCVSD did not offer its program specifically to M.W. In opposition, Freehold maintains that N.J.A.C. 6A:19-2.3(a) must be strictly construed, such that Freehold is under no obligation to pay for M.W. to attend MCTS because MCVSD, the resident county vocational school, "offers the same program as the non-resident county vocational school where the student has been admitted."

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On August 9, 2018, petitioner filed a petition for due process with the Office of Controversies and Disputes of the New Jersey Department of Education, along with a request for emergent relief. On August 10, 2018, the emergent matter was filed with the Office of Administrative Law (OAL). The emergent-relief request was scheduled for oral argument, which was held on August 21, 2018. The emergent application was denied, and respondent thereafter filed the within motion for summary decision. Oral argument was requested and heard on December 10, 2018. Petitioner was permitted to supplement the record until February 1, 2019. Respondent replied to petitioner's supplemental submission on February 5, 2019, and the record closed on that date.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION

The following facts are not in dispute and as such I FIND AS FACT that M.W. lives with his mother, T.W., in Howell, which is in Monmouth County. Petition, ¶ 1. He attends Howell High School (HHS), which is within the Freehold's jurisdiction. Id. at ¶ 2.

M.W. applied for admission to the career and technical education (CTE) programs for aspiring electricians at MCVSD and MCTS for the 2018-2019 school year.[1] Id. at ¶¶ 5-9. On April 24, 2018, MCTS informed M.W. that he had been accepted into its Electrical Construction Program. Id. at Ex. B. However, on May 9, 2018, MCVSD informed M.W. that he had been denied admission to its Electricity Program. Id. at Ex. A. The two programs have the same CIP code of 460302.[2] Certification of Michael Dillon, Ex. B; New Jersey Department of Education, Postsecondary Career and Technical Programs, https://homeroom5.doe.state.nj.us/pctep/search.php.

On May 10, 2018, T.W. wrote a letter to Dr. Lester Richens, the Interim Executive County Superintendent for Monmouth County, to inform him that M.W.'s guidance counselors had told her that, despite his admission, M.W. could not attend the MCTS program, and asked Dr. Richens to "resolve this issue." Petition, Ex. C. In her letter, T.W. asserted that N.J.A.C. 6A:19-2.3(a)(2) obligated Freehold Regional to pay for M.W.'s attendance at MCTS since he was denied admission to MCVSD's program. Ibid.

---

[1] Freehold Regional does not operate its own vocational school or offer a CTE program for aspiring electricians. Id. at 3-4.
Several years ago, the State Board of Education generally changed the regulatory terminology from "vocational" to "career and technical" education "to ensure that programs once considered 'vocational' are now given the legitimacy and respect they deserve." 38 N.J.R. 3205(a); 39 N.J.R. 29(a). The term "vocational" is still used if there is a statutory basis. 38 N.J.R. 3205(a).

[2] These programs are known as "shared-time" programs because they allow a student to attend a vocational school for half of each day and the home high school for the other half of the day. MCVSD, "Shared Time Overview," available at https://www.mcvsd.org/sharedTime/shared-time-overview.html.

In a response letter dated May 17, 2018, Dr. Richens notified T.W. that, under N.J.A.C. 6A:19-2.3(a)(2), Freehold Regional "would not be required to pay tuition or provide transportation, despite the fact that [M.W.] was denied admission to [MCVSD's] program" because "[w]e have deemed Monmouth and Mercer to have equivalent electrical programs." Id. at Ex. D.

In an August 7, 2018, letter to T.W., Michael Dillon, Freehold's Director of Guidance and Operations, stated that "[t]his letter serves as formal notice that the Freehold Regional High School District will not pay tuition or transportation to any program at [MCTS] as [M.W.] has access to the Monmouth County Vocational Programs." Dillon Cert., Ex. A. Dillon quoted from N.J.A.C. 6A:19-2.3(a)(2) and concluded that, "[a]s such, you would be solely responsible for the full tuition and transportation costs to [MCTS] should [M.W.] choose to attend their program." Ibid.

On August 9, 2018, T.W. filed a petition of appeal with the Commissioner of Education, seeking an order requiring Freehold to "pay all costs, including transportation, associated with M.W.'s attendance at [MCTS'] Electrician program." T.W. included a separate motion for emergent relief in the form of an order requiring Freehold to pay for M.W.'s attendance at MCTS for the 2018-2019 school year, pending the Commissioner's final decision on the underlying petition of appeal.

On August 9, 2018, the Commissioner transmitted the petition of appeal and motion for emergent relief to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL). On August 22, 2018, I denied T.W.'s motion for emergent relief by order. On September 10, 2018, the Commissioner adopted the emergent relief order and ordered that "[t]his matter shall continue at the OAL with such proceedings as the parties and the ALJ deem necessary to bring it to closure." Commissioner's Decision on Application for Emergent Relief.

Under the Uniform Administrative Procedure Rules, N.J.A.C. 1:1-1.1 to -21.6, "[a] party may move for summary decision upon all or any of the substantive issues in a contested case." N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(a). Such motion "shall be served with briefs and with or without supporting affidavits" and "[t]he decision sought may be rendered if the papers and discovery which have been filed, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact challenged and that the moving party is entitled to prevail as a matter of law." N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(b). When the motion "is made and supported, an adverse party in order to prevail must by responding affidavit set forth specific facts showing that there is a genuine issue which can only be determined in an evidentiary proceeding." Ibid.

On October 1, 2018, Freehold filed with the OAL a "Motion for Summary Decision in Lieu of an Answer."[3] In a supporting brief and certification, Freehold submits that summary decision on T.W.'s petition of appeal is appropriate because there are no genuine issues of material fact and Freehold is entitled to prevail as a matter of law. Specifically, Freehold argues that, under the strict terms of N.J.A.C. 6A:19-2.3(a)(2), Freehold is not obligated to pay for M.W.'s attendance at MCTS, a non-resident county vocational school, because MCVSD, the resident county vocational school, "offers the exact same program" as the electrician program at MCTS. In this regard, Freehold notes that the two programs have the same CIP code, as required by N.J.A.C. 6A:19-2.3(a)(2). Brief, p. 2.

Freehold also argues that summary decision is appropriate because T.W. failed to appeal Dr. Richens' denial of her request for Freehold to pay for M.W.'s attendance at MCTS. According to Freehold, "[t]he 90-day deadline to appeal the Interim Executive Superintendent's determination passed on August 15, 2018, meaning it has now become a final decision, and Petitioners' Petition is now also barred as untimely." Id. at pp. 2-3.

---

[3] This type of motion does not exist under either the procedural rules governing controversies and disputes before the Commissioner, N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.1 to -1.17, or the Uniform Administrative Procedure Rules, N.J.A.C. 1:1-1.1 to 21.6. N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.5(a) generally requires a respondent to file an answer within twenty days after receiving a petition. But see N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.5(g) (stating that "[n]othing in this section precludes the filing of a motion to dismiss in lieu of an answer to a petition, provided that such motion is filed within the time allotted for the filing of an answer"). Here, the Commissioner immediately sent T.W.'s emergent motion, along with the underlying petition, to the OAL without an answer. See N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6. T.W. has not objected to Freehold's motion on the grounds that it is premature without an answer, and the papers submitted by the parties shows that there are no genuine issues of material fact. Thus, Freehold should be allowed to proceed with its motion for summary decision even though it has not filed an answer to T.W.'s petition. See N.J.A.C. 1:1-1.3(b) (providing that procedural rules may be relaxed or disregarded if the judge determines that adherence would result in unfairness or injustice").

On October 18, 2018, T.W. filed a brief in opposition to Freehold's motion. T.W. argues that Freehold's interpretation of N.J.A.C. 6A:19-2.3(a)(2) is too narrow. Instead, T.W. contends that, under that provision, Freehold is responsible to pay for M.W.'s attendance at MCTS because MCVSD failed to "offer" M.W. the same program as MCTS by denying him admission. According to T.W., public policy in favor of access to a vocational education supports a broader reading of N.J.A.C. 6A:19-2.3(a)(2) to include M.W.'s situation.

T.W. also disagrees with Freehold's contention that Dr. Richens' May 17, 2018, letter triggered the ninety-day rule under N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3(i), which provides that "[t]he petitioner shall file a petition no later than the 90th day from the date of receipt of the notice of a final order, ruling, or other action by the district board of education, individual party, or agency, that is the subject of the requested contested case hearing." According to T.W., "[t]he Executive County Superintendent's letter of May 17, 2018 is advisory as [he] has no authority to render an appealable decision." Opposition Brief, p. 10.

On October 31, 2018, Freehold submitted a reply brief in which the board argues that T.W. "continues to intentionally confuse the reference to the program being 'offered' generally, as used in [N.J.A.C. 6A:19-2.3(a)(2)], with an offer of admission specific to M.W., which is not how the regulation reads." Reply Brief, p. 3. Freehold also reiterates its contention that this matter should be dismissed because T.W. failed to timely appeal Dr. Richens' decision regarding Freehold's obligation to pay for M.W.'s attendance at MCTS.

Again, as in the emergent application, it was clear that the parents only have the best interest of their child in pursuing this application and educational pursuit. In fact, the entire presentation by petitioner was appreciated by the court.

Likewise, with the emergent application, the undersigned questioned the logic of the respondent in following the "letter of the law" and not the "spirit of the law." Clearly, the spirit of the law was to prevent forum shopping by residents of a county where a program was offered but they just simply refused to attend. That is not the case here.

Failing to pay for a program in another county simply because it is offered in the home county where the student was rejected not due to academics or disciplinary problems is not the intent of the law. The intent is to encourage education. At the time, there was no indication that he was rejected for anything other than seating availability. However, following oral argument on Freehold's motion on December 10, 2018, the court asked T.W. to supplement the record on January 22, 2019, with information about the reason MCVSD denied M.W. admission to its Electricity Program. According to T.W., MCVSD informed her that "there were 70 applicants to the program and they accepted 20 students" and that "[t]he criteria used for determining which applicants would be accepted was grades and attendance." T.W.'s January 22, 2018, Supplemental Submission. However, "M.W. was not one of the top 20 students based on his grades and attendance" because "he had a cumulative GPA of 1.59 and 11 absences in his 9th grade year and 13 absences in through [sic] his 10th grade year." Ibid. As part of her supplemental submission, T.W. provided MCVSD's admission policy.[4] Ibid.

According to the policy, "[a]ll pupils will be given equal opportunity for enrollment," but "[q]ualified pupils will be accepted into regular vocational programs . . . on a geographic basis based upon the number of applications submitted by the home high schools." Ibid. Under the criteria for "qualified pupils," "[p]upils must have an excellent attendance record (less than fifteen days absent per year)" and "must have a 'C' grade point average." Ibid. The admission policy also states that "[i]f less applications than spaces are received, all qualified pupils will be accepted" and that, "[i]f more applications than spaces are received, pupil selection will be based upon need as established by the number of qualified applications from each school district with all schools being given equal access to all programs." Ibid.

LEGAL DISCUSSION

First, as a threshold matter, Freehold incorrectly argues that T.W.'s petition should be dismissed as untimely. Under N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3(i), otherwise known as the ninety-day rule, "[t]he petitioner shall file a petition no later than the 90th day from the date of receipt of the notice of a final order, ruling, or other action by the district board of education, individual party, or agency, that is the subject of the requested contested case hearing." If a petitioner fails to file his or her petition within this ninety-day period, the petition may be dismissed as untimely.

[4] The policy is publicly available at https://www.mcvsd.org/shared-time-policy.html.

Here, T.W. timely filed her petition in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3(i). On August 7, 2018, Freehold's Director of Guidance and Operations notified T.W. by letter that "[t]his letter serves as formal notice that the Freehold Regional High School District will not pay tuition or transportation to any program at [MCTS] as [M.W.] has access to the Monmouth County Vocational Programs." Two days later, on August 9, 2018, T.W. filed her petition challenging this final ruling by the district Board of Education that is the subject of this contested case. Therefore, T.W. filed a timely appeal. The county superintendent's May 17, 2018, opinion letter is not the triggering event under N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3(i), and even if it were, T.W. still filed her petition questioning Freehold's financial obligation within ninety days. As such, T.W.'s petition will not be dismissed as untimely.

However, for the following reasons, Freehold is not obligated to pay for M.W.'s attendance at MCTS.

In New Jersey, a primary purpose of vocational education is "to fit for profitable employment." N.J.S.A. 18A:54-1. To reach this goal, the Legislature has, through N.J.S.A. 18A:54-1 to -41, authorized the creation of local, county, and regional vocational schools, and set forth funding and enrollment requirements for the delivery of a vocational education to interested students.

If a local board of education does not operate its own vocational school, N.J.S.A. 18A:54-20.1 provides that such board "in any county in which there is a county vocational school district shall send to any of the schools of the county vocational school district each pupil who resides in the school district . . . and who has applied for admission to and has been accepted for attendance at any of the schools of the county vocational school district" and "shall pay tuition for each of these pupils to the county vocational school district." N.J.S.A. 18A:54-20.1(a).

N.J.S.A. 18A:54-20.1 further provides that "[t]he board of education of a county vocational school district shall receive pupils from districts without the county so far as their facilities may permit" and authorizes the non-resident school to collect tuition and a non-resident fee from the sending district. N.J.S.A. 18A:54-20.1(b) and (c). However, N.J.S.A. 18A:54-20.1 does not specifically address the funding requirements for situations in which a resident county has a vocational school, but the resident student wishes to attend a non-resident county vocational school at the expense of his local school district. To fill this statutory void, the State Board of Education and Department of Education promulgated the regulation at issue in this matter, N.J.A.C. 6A:19-2.3(a)(2), which governs non-resident access to county vocational schools. Again, that regulation provides in relevant part:

> The resident district board of education shall be responsible for the tuition, transportation costs, and nonresident fee (where applicable) of any resident student admitted to a county vocational school outside the county in which the resident school district is located, unless . . . the county in which the resident school district is located maintains a county vocational school, and . . . offers the same program as the non-resident county vocational school where the student has been admitted. A program shall be deemed the same, for purposes of this section, if it is approved by the Department in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:19-3.1 and 3.2, is assigned the same Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) code, and meets or exceeds all applicable program performance standards.
>
> [N.J.A.C. 6A:19-2.3(a)(2).]

Also, N.J.A.C. 6A:19-2.3(b) states that "[a] county vocational school district shall admit resident students based on board-approved policies and procedures that ensure equity and access for enrollment that shall be posted on the school district's website" and that "[a] county vocational school district shall similarly admit non-resident students to the extent that space is available, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:54-20.1.b."

Upon a thorough review of prior administrative decisions, it appears that the issue in this matter is one of first impression. Here, the parties dispute the meaning of the word "offers" under N.J.A.C. 6A:19-2.3(a)(2). Freehold strictly reads "offers" to mean that, so long as the resident county school has the same program as the non-resident school, a local school district is under no obligation to fund a resident student's attendance at the non-resident school, regardless of whether the student is denied admission to the resident school. In contrast, T.W. broadly reads "offers" to include the implicit assumption that the resident school admits the resident student; only then has the resident school "offered" the student the same program as the non-resident school. Due to these conflicting views, it is necessary to determine which party's interpretation should prevail.

In interpreting a regulation, the rules of statutory construction apply. US Bank, N.A. v. Hough, 210 N.J. 187, 199 (2012) (citation omitted). As such, "[d]etermining the intent of the drafter is [the] paramount goal," and "[g]enerally, the drafter's intent is found in the actual language of the enactment." Ibid (citing DiProspero v. Penn, 183 N.J. 477, 492 (2005); Bedford v. Riello, 195 N.J. 210, 221 (2008)). Moreover, a "well established rule of statutory construction [is] that a legislative provision should not be read in isolation or in a way which sacrifices what appears to be the scheme of the statute as a whole," but "which harmonizes all of its parts so as to do justice to its overall meaning." Zimmerman v. Mun. Clerk of Berkeley, 201 N.J. Super. 363, 368 (App. Div. 1985) (citing Alexander v. New Jersey Power & Light Co., 21 N.J. 373 (1956)). With these principles in mind, Freehold's interpretation of N.J.A.C. 6A:19-2.3(a)(2) must prevail.

While N.J.S.A. 18A:54-20.1 and N.J.A.C. 6A:19-2.3 are designed to foster access to county vocational schools, these provisions do not guarantee enrollment or tuition-free attendance. First, these provisions recognize that a student's right to attend a county vocational school is subject to admissions standards and available space. Under N.J.S.A. 18A:54-20.1(a), an obvious prerequisite to a local school board's funding obligation is that a resident student "has applied for admission to and has been accepted for attendance . . ." See also N.J.A.C. 6A:19-2.3(a) (stating that "[e]ach resident district board of education shall ensure that resident students may apply to and, if accepted, attend a county vocational school pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:54-20.1").

And N.J.A.C. 6A:19-2.3(b) provides that "[a] county vocational school district shall admit resident students based on board-approved policies and procedures that ensure equity and access for enrollment" and that "[a] county vocational school district shall similarly admit non-resident students to the extent that space is available, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:54-20.1(b) ['The board of education of a county vocational school district shall receive pupils from districts without the county so far as their facilities may permit']." Thus, these provisions only guarantee equal opportunity for enrollment, not enrollment for all.

Second, even if a student is admitted to a county vocational school, his right to tuition-free attendance is not absolute. Under the provision at issue, N.J.A.C. 6A:19-2.3(a)(2), "[t]he existence of the same career and technical education program at the resident district board of education shall not negate a student's right to apply to and, if accepted, attend a county vocational school," but the local school board is not responsible for tuition if the resident district or resident county vocational school "offers the same program as the non-resident county vocational school where the student has been admitted." (Emphasis added).

When this provision is read in conjunction with the language regarding admissions standards and available space under N.J.S.A. 18A:54-20.1 and N.J.A.C. 6A:19-2.3(b), it becomes clear that Freehold's interpretation is correct. Admission is not certain for every student who would like to attend a county vocational school. A county vocational school is permitted to establish admission requirements based on academic qualifications and space considerations. Thus, N.J.A.C. 6A:19-2.3(a)(2) is appropriately read to absolve a local school board of an obligation to fund a resident student's attendance at a non-resident county vocational school if a resident county vocational school has the same program, whether or not the student has also been admitted to the resident county school. Again, under N.J.A.C. 6A:19-2.3(b) every child is assured an equal opportunity to pursue an education at his or her county vocational school, but not every child is assured admission.

The conclusion that "offers" means "has," and cannot be read to imply that a resident county school only "offers" a program to admitted students, is further supported by the presence of both the word "existence" and "offers" in reference to the "same program" under N.J.A.C. 6A:19-2.3(a). Clearly, "existence" and "offers" are synonymous under that provision, and in this context, both words simply mean "has."

As a result of this interpretation, Freehold is not responsible for the cost of M.W.'s attendance at MCTS under N.J.A.C. 6A:19-2.3(a)(2). MCVSD, the resident school, "offers the same program" as MCTS, the non-resident school, because the electrician programs at both schools have a CIP code of 460302. N.J.A.C. 6A:19-2.3(a)(2) does not require Freehold to pay for M.W.'s attendance at MCTS because he was denied admission at MCVSD. The record shows that he had the opportunity to apply for admission to MCVSD, but unfortunately did not meet that school's academic requirements. Fortunately, he was admitted to, and attends, MCTS. However, as a matter of law, Freehold does not have to pay for his attendance.

Also, despite the fact that petitioner did not file a cross-motion for summary decision, it is clear from the papers that there are no genuine issues of material fact requiring a hearing and that T.W. should prevail as a matter of law. As such, and because the UAPR provide that "[t]he judge may render any ruling or order necessary to decide any matter presented to him or her which is within the jurisdiction of the transmitting agency or the agency conducting the hearing" and "[t]he judge may take such other actions as are necessary for the proper, expeditious and fair conduct of the hearing or other proceeding, development of the record and rendering of a decision," N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.6(h) and (p). and I FIND AS FACT that there are no genuine issues of material fact requiring a hearing.

For the foregoing reasons, I CONLUDE Freehold's motion for summary decision is GRANTED even though he did not file a cross-motion for summary decision.

Having CONCLUDED that Freehold's motion for summary decision is GRANTED, it is hereby ORDERED that the petitioner's appeal be DISMISSED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

February 14, 2019
DATE

DEAN J. BUONO, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: 2-14-19

Date Mailed to Parties: 2-14-19

mph

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Morris Lucky,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the City of Englewood, Bergen County,

Respondent.

Synopsis

The petitioner – a tenured Student Assistance Coordinator (SAC) formerly employed in the respondent Board's school district prior to a Reduction in Force (RIF) – alleged that the Board terminated his employment pursuant to the RIF without regard to his tenure and seniority rights. Petitioner sought reinstatement and back pay. The Board contended that its actions were consistent with applicable law and regulation. The parties filed opposing motions for summary decision.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: there are no material facts at issue in this case, and the matter is ripe for summary decision; petitioner holds standard certificates as both a SAC and as a School Social Worker; he has been employed by the Board since 2010 and has worked exclusively as a SAC, and never as a Social Worker; petitioner's RIF at the end of the 2016-2017 school year came in the aftermath of a decision to eliminate the full-time SAC position in favor of a position that combined the SAC with a School Counselor; because petitioner does not hold certification as a School Counselor, the new position was given to an outside candidate with the required dual certification; petitioner contended that the SAC aspects of the new position should have been assigned to him; pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:28-9, the Board has the right to reduce the work force for reasons of economy, reorganization, or for other good cause; petitioner has the burden to prove that the Board's action was arbitrary, capricious or in bad faith; and the Board demonstrated that there were valid educational reasons for combining the two positions. The ALJ concluded that the Board did not violate petitioner's tenure or seniority rights; accordingly, the petition was dismissed.

Upon comprehensive review, the Commissioner concurred with the ALJ's findings and conclusions as thoroughly set forth in the Initial Decision. Accordingly, the recommended decision of the OAL was adopted as the final decision in this matter; summary judgment was granted in favor of the Board, and the petition of appeal was dismissed.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

March 27, 2019

OAL Dkt. No. EDU 13727-17
Agency Dkt. No. 173-8/17

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Morris Lucky,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the City of Englewood, Bergen County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), as well as the exceptions filed by petitioner – and respondent's reply thereto – have been reviewed and considered.[1] Upon review, the Commissioner is in accord with the Administrative Law Judge's (ALJ) findings and determination of the matter.

In this matter, petitioner's contention is that his tenure and seniority rights were violated when the Board eliminated the Student Assistance Coordinator (SAC) position by way of a reduction in force (RIF), and subsequently combined the SAC position with a School Counselor (SC) position. As petitioner does not hold a SC certificate, the new SAC/SC position was offered to a dually certified, non-tenured candidate. Although the petitioner also possesses a School Social Worker (SSW) endorsement, the record establishes that there are currently no non-tenured – or tenured but less senior – SSWs employed by the Board. The ALJ found that the Board presented valid educational reasons for combining the two positions because the Board can offer better integrated counseling services and improve efficiency in the delivery of counseling services to students. The ALJ further found that petitioner's tenure and seniority rights were not violated as he does not possess a SC certificate and there are currently no other positions in the District upon which he can assert such rights.

[1] The Commissioner received, but did not consider, petitioner's filing dated March 8, 2019 and respondent's filing dated March 11, 2019, as said submissions were beyond the scope of N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4.

Petitioner has filed exceptions to the ALJ's determination, stating that the District's decision to combine the SAC and SC positions to defeat petitioner's tenure and seniority rights is arbitrary, capricious, and unreasonable. Petitioner argues that the Board should not be allowed to combine two separate jobs with distinguishable functions into one position as a matter of convenience, resulting in the violation of the rights of tenured teachers. Petitioner further argues that he should have been offered the "part-time" SAC position following the RIF based on his tenure rights and seniority in the SAC position. Lastly, petitioner argues that summary decision is improper because the record is inconclusive as to whether petitioner should have been recalled from the eligibility list to fill positions for which petitioner was qualified by way of his tenure and/or seniority rights.

In its reply, the Board contends that the combined SAC/SC position was not created to defeat petitioner's tenure rights; rather, it was for the benefit of the students as substantiated in the record. Respondent clarifies that there is no "part-time" SAC position because the SAC and SC roles are integrated into a single SAC/SC position, and the individual serving in that position simultaneously provides SAC and SC services to the school community. Respondent reiterates that petitioner's tenure and seniority rights were not violated as a result of the RIF and the subsequent combination of the SAC and the SC positions. Respondent further submits that there are no unresolved issues of fact in this matter with respect to petitioner's entitlement to any other position in the District.

As a preliminary matter, the Commissioner finds that there are no material facts in dispute because it has been established that petitioner possesses an educational services certificate with the SAC and SSW endorsements, he has only served as a SAC in the District, there are currently no non-tenured – or tenured but less senior – SSWs employed by the Board, and there are no other positions in the District upon which petitioner might assert his tenure/seniority rights. Therefore, the ALJ's disposition of this case via summary decision was proper.

With regard to petitioner's remaining contentions, the Commissioner finds his arguments unpersuasive. The Commissioner disagrees that the two positions were combined to "defeat" petitioner's tenure and seniority rights. The Board has clearly established – as detailed in the Initial Decision and supported by the record – that valid educational bases exist for the District's consolidation of the two positions into a single position. The Board's decision, therefore, was not arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable. Moreover, petitioner admittedly does not possess the requisite SC endorsement to serve in the newly created position; therefore, petitioner does not have entitlement over the SAC/SC position and it was properly filled by an individual who holds the required certification and endorsements.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision is hereby adopted as the final decision in this matter; summary judgment is granted in favor of respondent, and the petition of appeal is dismissed with prejudice.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[2]

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 3/27/19
Date of Mailing: 3/27/19

[2] This decision may be appealed to the Superior Court, Appellate Division, pursuant to P.L. 2008, c. 36 (N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1).

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SUMMARY DECISION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 13727-17
AGENCY DKT. NO. 173-8/17

MORRIS LUCKY,
Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF ENGLEWOOD, BERGEN COUNTY,
Respondent.

Alfred Maurice, Esq., for petitioner (Springstead and Maurice, attorneys)

Sandra Varano, Esq., for respondent (Nirenberg and Varano, attorneys)

Record Closed: January 31, 2019 Decided: February 14, 2019

BEFORE ELLEN S. BASS, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Morris Lucky, a tenured Student Assistance Coordinator (SAC) formerly employed by the Englewood Board of Education (the Board), alleges that the Board terminated his employment pursuant to a Reduction-in-Force (RIF) without regard to his tenure and seniority rights. He seeks reinstatement and back pay. The Board replies that its actions were consistent with applicable law and regulation.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The petition of appeal was filed with the Commissioner of Education (the Commissioner) on August 3, 2017. The Board filed an answer on September 12, 2017. The contested case was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) on September 14, 2017.

After completing discovery, the parties determined that the outcome of this matter could impact the employment status of Jalesah Brooks, a school district employee. Accordingly, via letter dated February 27, 2018, she was advised of her right to intervene pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-16.4. Brooks did not reply.

Via letter dated August 23, 2018, the parties jointly asked that this matter be resolved via Cross-Motions for Summary Decision. Motions were filed on or about October 26, 2018. In his brief, Lucky for the first time asserted an entitlement to the position held by School Social Worker Jerome Land. I conferred with counsel to determine if Land now needed to be invited to intervene. Further information was exchanged by the parties, and petitioner's counsel advised via letter dated November 29, 2018, that his client no longer claimed Land's position. It was agreed that Land did not need to be invited to intervene. It was further agreed that now that the issue presented was clearer to the parties, they would file supplemental briefs.

Lucky filed a supplemental brief on December 16, 2018, and the Board filed its supplemental brief on January 31, 2019, at which time the record closed.

ISSUE PRESENTED

The parties agree that the only issue presented is whether the Board's action in abolishing the full-time SAC position; creating a dual SAC/School Counselor position; and appointing a nontenured staff member to fill that position, violated Lucky's tenure and seniority rights.

FINDINGS OF FACT

The salient facts are not in dispute, and I FIND:

Lucky holds a standard New Jersey Educational Services Certificate endorsed as both a Student Assistance Coordinator and as a School Social Worker. He holds no other endorsements on his certificate. Lucky commenced his employment with the Board in September 2010; throughout, he has worked exclusively as a SAC, and never as a Social Worker. In May 2017, Lucky was advised that his employment would be terminated at the end of the 2016-2017 school year due to a staff reorganization. At the time of his RIF, Lucky was the only SAC employed by the school district. Since his RIF, the district has not employed a full-time SAC. There are currently no nontenured Social Workers employed by the school district.

Lucky's RIF came in the aftermath of a decision to eliminate the full-time SAC position in favor of a position that combined a SAC with a School Counselor. Since Lucky does not hold a certification as a School Counselor, the position was given to an outside candidate, Jalesah Brooks. Brooks holds these dual certifications. The rationale for combining the two positions was explained by the Director of Pupil Personnel Services, Jamie Ciofalo, via certification:

> Under the prior system, students in need of SAC counseling would meet with a SAC and then have to meet with a different individual for academic school counseling services. By combining these positions, these students are now able to interact and develop a relationship with one counselor who provides drug, alcohol, social and/or emotional support as well as the services of academic school counseling. The decisions made with respect to school counseling, such as formulating educational and career plans, are informed by the information obtained as a result of the counseling provided as a SAC and vice versa. The further advantage of combining the positions is that the student does not have to schedule two appointments...and miss more class time.

Brooks is assigned a case load that includes students who require SAC services. Ciofalo explained that "Brooks simultaneously provides SAC and [student counseling] services to the students and therefore she integrates the two positions. As such, her duties are not neatly split between these two roles." The school district has developed a job description that is consistent with Ciofalo's description of the goals of this dual position.

Lucky contends that the action of the Board in creating this dual position was inconsistent with his tenure and seniority rights, which are superior to those of Brooks, a newcomer to the school district. He thus contends that the SAC aspects of Brooks' position should have been assigned to him.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The parties seek relief pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5, which provides that summary decision should be rendered "if the papers and discovery which have been filed, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact challenged and that the moving party is entitled to prevail as a matter of law." Our regulation mirrors R. 4:46-2(c), which provides that "[t]he judgment or order sought shall be rendered forthwith if the pleadings, depositions, answers to interrogatories and admissions on file, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact challenged and that the moving party is entitled to a judgment or order as a matter of law."

A determination whether a genuine issue of material fact exists that precludes summary decision requires the judge to consider whether the competent evidential materials presented, when viewed in the light most favorable to the non-moving party, are sufficient to permit a rational fact finder to resolve the allegedly disputed issue in favor of the non-moving party. Our courts have long held that "if the opposing party [in a summary judgment motion] offers . . . only facts which are immaterial or of an insubstantial nature, a mere scintilla, '[f]anciful, frivolous, gauzy or merely suspicious,' he will not be heard to complain if the court grants summary judgment." Brill v.

Guardian Life Ins. Co. of Am., 142 N.J. 520, 529 (1995) (quoting Judson v. Peoples Bank & Trust Co., 17 N.J. 67, 75 (1954)).

The "judge's function is not himself [or herself] to weigh the evidence and determine the truth of the matter but to determine whether there is a genuine issue for trial." Brill, 142 N.J. at 540 (quoting Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, 477 U.S. 242, 249 (1986)). When the evidence "is so one-sided that one party must prevail as a matter of law," the trial court should not hesitate to grant summary judgment. Liberty Lobby, 477 U.S. at 251–52.

I CONCLUDE that this matter is ripe for summary decision. There are no material disputed facts that require a plenary hearing, and the Board is entitled to judgment as a matter of law. Tenure is a legislative status; it is earned by operation of law, and upon meeting the precise requirements of the tenure statute. Spiewak v. Rutherford Bd. of Educ., 90 N.J. 63 (1982); Zimmerman v. Newark Bd. of Educ., 38 N.J. 65 (1962); N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5. Lucky was employed under tenure; accordingly, the RIF that resulted in his termination needed to be made according to standards established by the Commissioner and approved by the State Board. N.J.S.A. 18A:28-10; see N.J.A.C. 6A:32-5.1; Howley v. Ewing Twp. Bd. of Educ., 1982 S.L.D. 1328, 1339, aff'd, 1983 S.L.D. 1554.

Lucky asserts that the Board's action in creating a position that included his prior duties, but incorporated qualifications that he could not meet, was inconsistent with his tenure and seniority rights and thus violative of the school laws.[1] The prerogative of the Board to reduce force is well-established. N.J.S.A. 18A:28-9 provides that

> [n]othing in this title or any other law relating to tenure of service shall be held to limit the right of any board of education to reduce the number of teaching staff members, employed in the district

[1] Because he holds a School Social Worker endorsement, Lucky might have been entitled to social work positions held by nontenured staff. He does not raise this as an issue because discovery revealed neither nontenured Social Workers, nor less senior Social Workers, are currently employed in Englewood. It is for this reason that the parties concluded that Lucky could lay no claim to the position held by Jerome Land, who is a tenured Social Worker with greater years of service in the school district.

> whenever, in the judgment of the board, it is advisable to abolish any such positions for reasons of economy or because of reduction in the number of pupils or of change in the administrative or supervisory organization of the district or for other good cause upon compliance with the provisions of this article.

Pursuant to the statute, the Board may reduce its ranks and/or reorganize the delivery of services to its students. Consolidating positions, as the Board did here, is among the actions within a local board's authority. Francin v Maywood Bd. of Educ., EDU 09131-08, Initial Decision (July 6, 2009), aff'd Commissioner (August 20, 2009), <http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/>, citing Dunellen Bd. of Educ. v Dunellen Ed. Ass'n. 64 N.J. 17, 30 (1973). The burden is on Lucky to demonstrate that the action of the Board in doing so here was arbitrary, unreasonable or implemented in bad faith. Francin, Commissioner's Decision, at page 4.

Lucky cannot meet this burden. The Board has presented valid educational reasons for combining the work of a SAC with that of a student counselor; its actions in doing so promote efficiency and the delivery of better integrated counseling services. Lucky has proffered no facts to contest the Board's assertion that the consolidation of the two positions sprung from a legitimate desire to better deliver services to its students. Lucky lacks the certifications needed to fill this position, and as a result cannot lay claim to it based on his tenure and seniority rights.

Francin presents analogous facts. There, the board determined that it wished to deliver instructional services by staff certificated in both Physical Education and Health. The petitioning teacher was tenured but held an endorsement only as a Teacher of Physical Education. She unsuccessfully challenged the action of the local board in terminating her employment, while retaining nontenured staff in the dual Physical Education and Health role. In upholding the action of the board there, the Commissioner noted that in Dennery v Bd. of Educ., 131 N.J. 626, 638-39 (1993), the Court had determined that it was "unable to conclude...that the requirement of two certificates to qualify for a single education position is anomalous, arbitrary or irrational. Nor is it unlawful or invalid." See also: Martin v. South Amboy Bd. of Educ., EDU

13631-12, Initial Decision (March 28, 2014), aff'd, Commissioner (May 13, 2013), <http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/>.[2]

I CONCLUDE that the Board did not violate Lucky's tenure or seniority rights when it abolished his full-time SAC position; created a dual SAC/school counselor position; and assigned the newly created position to a dually certificated non-tenured staff member. [3]

ORDER

Based on the foregoing, the petition of appeal is DISMISSED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

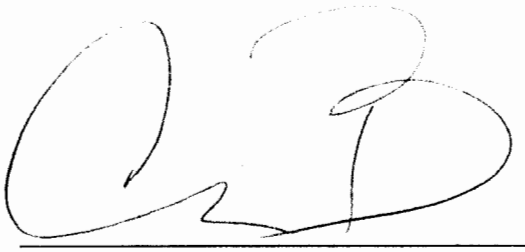
This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

---

[2] Lucky's reliance on cases such as Bednar v Westwood Bd. of Educ., 221 N.J. Super. 239 (App. Div. 1987) is misplaced. The Board rightly points out that Bednar concerned the right of a tenured teacher to a position held by a nontenured colleague, where the petitioning teacher was certificated for the position but had no seniority rights. Lucky lacks the credentials to perform the duties of the combined SAC/School Counselor position.

[3] Lucky's contention that the dual position of SAC/School Counselor was an unrecognized title requiring approval by the County Superintendent of Schools is a nonstarter. While N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-5.5 does require that unrecognized titles receive such approval, both SAC (N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-14.2) and School Counselor (N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-14.8) are recognized titles. The Board and Lucky both shared input from County Superintendent Joseph Zarra regarding the requirement to secure this approval, both generally and in this specific instance. These submissions were uncorroborated hearsay and entitled to no weight. See: N.J.A.C. 1:1-15.5(b).

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, P.O. Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.



February 14, 2019

DATE

ELLEN S. BASS, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: 2/14/19

Date Mailed to Parties: 2/15/19

sej

STATE OF NEW JERSEY COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

IN THE MATTER OF THE ARBITRATION OF THE TENURE CHARGE between SOMERSET COUNTY VOCATIONAL TECHNICAL SCHOOL DISTRICT BOE, Petitioner, -and- JOHN VINGARA, Respondent	DOE DOCKET NO. 121-4/16 CONSENT AWARD

BEFORE: Michael J. Pecklers, Esquire, Arbitrator

DATE OF HEARING: February 19, 2019 (Telephonic)

DATE OF CONSENT AWARD: March 20, 2019

APPEARANCES:

For the Petitioner:

Lisa M. Fittipaldi, Esq., DIFRANCESCO BATEMAN KUNZMAN DAVIS et al.

For the Respondent:

Edward A. Cridge, Esq., MELK O'NEIL
John Vingara

WHEREAS, following the preferring of tenure charges by Petitioner to the Commissioner of Education with the original arbitration award vacated, and the subsequent assignment of the case to the undersigned by the DOE, a pre-hearing motion for the restoration of Respondent's salary pursuant to N.J.S.A.18A:6-14 was filed and granted, with hearing dates established; and

WHEREAS, the parties entered into negotiations, with the STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT resulting inter alia in Respondent's remaining on paid Administrative Leave through June 30, 2019 and irrevocable retirement and Petitioner's withdrawal of the instant tenure charges with Mr. Vingara executing the same; and

WHEREAS, the STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT was duly adopted by the Somerset County Vocational Technical School District Board of Education and executed by the Board President on February 25, 2019, the terms of which are incorporated by reference herein; therefore

BE IT RESOLVED, that the attached STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT is accepted in full and final resolution of the instant tenure charges, with a recommendation made to the DOE that the same be adopted, as it complies with the Cardonick criteria set forth at N.J.A.C. 6A:3-5.6, as applicable.

Dated: March 20, 2019
NORTH BERGEN, N.J.

MICHAEL J. PECKLERS, ESQUIRE
ARBITRATOR

STATE OF NEW JERSEY
SS}
COUNTY OF HUDSON

ON THIS 20TH DAY OF MARCH, 2019, BEFORE ME PERSONALLY CAME AND APPEARED MICHAEL J. PECKLERS, ESQ., TO BE KNOWN TO ME TO BE THE INDIVIDUAL DESCRIBED HEREIN AND WHO EXECUTED THE FOREGOING INSTRUMENT, AND HE DULY ACKNOWLEDGED TO ME THAT HE EXECUTED THE SAME.

NOTARY PUBLIC

OFFICIAL SEAL
ANGELICA SANTOMAURO
NOTARY PUBLIC - NEW JERSEY
My Comm. Expires July 29, 2019

Edward A. Cridge, Esq. (NJ Bar ID No. 02646-2006)
MELLK O'NEILL
51 E. Broad Street
Hopewell, NJ 08525
P: (609)-924-0700 / F: (609)-924-4622 / E: ed@mellk-oneill.com
Attorneys for Respondent John Vingara

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE CHARGES AGAINST JOHN VINGARA,	: STATE OF NEW JERSEY :DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION :BEFORE THE COMM. OF ED.
SOMERSET COUNTY VOCATIONAL TECHNICAL SCHOOL DISTRICT BOARD OF EDUCATION	Agency Dkt. No. 121-4/16 Administrative Action Before Michael J. Pecklers, Esq. Duly Appointed Arbitrator STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT

The Somerset County Vocational and Technical School District Board of Education (the "Board") whose principal office is located at 14 Vogt Drive, Bridgewater, NJ 08807, its successors, assigns, officers, employees, agents and representatives (collectively, the "Board"), and John Vingara, having an address 824 Rhine Boulevard, Raritan, NJ 08869 ("Respondent") have voluntarily resolved all disputed matters and enter into the following Stipulation of Settlement (hereinafter "Agreement") which fully disposes of all issues in controversy between them in full and complete settlement of all outstanding issues as detailed below.

WHEREAS, Respondent is a tenured teaching staff member employed by the Board as a teacher; and

WHEREAS the Board certified the above-captioned tenure charges to the Commissioner of Education of the State of New Jersey, and

WHEREAS, Respondent filed an answer opposing the charges; and

WHEREAS the Commissioner of Education, having reviewed the charges and Respondent's answer, determined that the charges were sufficient, if true, to warrant dismissal or reduction in compensation, and accordingly referred the matter to Arbitrator Robert J. Simmelkjaer, Esq.; and,

WHEREAS, subsequent to Appellate review and remand of the instant matter for further proceedings, the Commissioner of Education referred the within tenure charges to Arbitrator Michael J. Pecklers, Esq. (the "Arbitrator") who currently presides over same; and

WHEREAS, Respondent has denied the allegations set forth in the tenure charges; and

WHEREAS, the Parties are aware of the uncertainty of the outcome of arbitration; and

WHEREAS, the Board having stringent budget limitations, and due to the expenditure of resources resulting from multiple days of hearings with numerous witnesses, and the concern that school personnel will be removed from their educational duties and responsibilities during that time, the Parties wish to resolve this matter in accordance with the terms set forth herein rather than proceed with arbitration; and

WHEREAS the proposed Agreement in the best interest of the Parties and the public because Respondent voluntarily separates from his employment without litigation and avoids an uncertain conclusion after protracted and costly proceedings at the expense of the public;

NOW, THEREFORE, subject to approval by the Arbitrator, the Parties hereby agree as follows:

1: Upon the approval of this Agreement by the Arbitrator, Respondent shall submit an irrevocable letter of retirement to the Board, which shall provide for his retirement from his position with the Board, effective July 1, 2019.

2: Upon final approval of the signed Agreement by the Arbitrator, the Board shall and hereby does withdraw the instant Tenure Charges. The Board agrees to not pursue the subject Tenure Charges against Respondent as long as this Agreement remains in effect and is not voided by any court or administrative agency of competent jurisdiction. In the event the Agreement is voided, the Board retains the right to file and consider for certification, tenure charges against Respondent, including those tenure charges which have been previously filed against him by the Board, and Respondent reserves the right to defend same.

3: From the date of this Agreement through close of business on June 30, 2019, Respondent will remain on paid administrative leave from his position with the Board, during which time he shall have no duties and/or responsibilities vis-à-vis his position, and during which time he shall receive his full salary, together with all other benefits and emoluments of employment, including but not limited to health benefits. During this time, Respondent shall continue to receive his normal payroll checks on the Board's normal salary payment schedule, and shall be recorded as an employee on administrative leave with pay.

4: By June 1, 2019, the Board shall pay to Respondent the lump sum of $17,348.63 representing payment to Respondent for 35 sick days at his current per diem rate of $495.68, by way of contribution into a 403(b) plan. The Board acknowledges and agrees that payment pursuant to this paragraph is made in consideration of Respondent's entering into this Agreement, that it is a condition precedent to this Agreement; and that it is not contingent upon any other matter or proceeding.

5: This Agreement is based upon the understanding that Respondent's separation from employment with the Board, effective close of business on June 30, 2019, is and shall be deemed a voluntary separation. Upon inquiry from any third party to authorized employees or representatives of the Board, those employees or representatives will provide no information other than to confirm Respondent's employment, position, salary and dates of employment, and state that the reason for his separation from employment was his voluntary retirement.

6: The Board expressly reserves the right to oppose any application by Respondent for unemployment benefits. Notwithstanding any other term or condition of this Agreement, Respondent does not waive or release his right to seek unemployment compensation, his entitlement to which shall be determined by the State of New Jersey, Department of Labor and Workforce Development.

7: In accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:3-5.6 (a) 6, Respondent has been advised of the Commissioner's duty to refer tenure determinations resulting in loss of position to the State Board of Examiners.

8: Respondent will not apply for reemployment with the Board at any time. If Respondent does apply for reemployment with the Board and is approved for employment, the terms of this Agreement shall control and shall be grounds for termination of Respondent's employment.

9: In exchange for the consideration set forth above, the sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, Respondent, through the date of his execution of this Agreement, hereby waives, releases and discharges any and all claims or rights that he has or may have against the Board, the Superintendent, its Board of Education and its members, and any and all other Board officers, employees, representatives, agents, successors and assigns (collectively, the "Released Parties") including any claim for attorneys' fees, costs or other monetary relief. This waiver, release and discharge includes, without limitation, any and all actions, claims, and liabilities of whatsoever kind or character, in law or in equity, now known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, directly or indirectly related to Respondent's employment with the Board or separation from employment with the Board. It specifically includes, without limitation, all claims which Respondent may have regarding tenure, withholding of increment, discrimination on any basis, any federal or state civil rights law, any alleged violation of the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, as amended; the Older Worker Benefits Protection Act; Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended; Sections 1981 through 1988 of Title 42 of the United States Code; the Civil Rights Act of 1991; the Equal Pay Act; the Americans with Disabilities Act; the Rehabilitation Act; the Family and Medical Leave Act; the Fair Labor Standards Act; the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended; the Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification Act; the National Labor Relations Act; the Fair Credit Reporting Act; the Occupational Safety and Health Act; the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Act; the Employee Polygraph Protection Act; the Immigration Reform Control Act; the retaliation provisions of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002; the False Claims Act; the New Jersey Law Against Discrimination; the New Jersey Conscientious Employee Protection Act; the New Jersey Family Leave Act; the New Jersey Wage and Hour Law; the New Jersey Equal Pay Law; the New Jersey Occupational Safety and Health Law; the New Jersey Smokers' Rights Law; the New Jersey Genetic Privacy Act; the New Jersey Fair Credit Reporting Act; New Jersey Wages and Hours Law, disability benefits laws, retaliation provisions of the New Jersey Workers' Compensation Law; the United States Constitution, the New Jersey Constitution; and/or any other alleged violation of any federal, state or local law, regulation or ordinance; any claim based on contract, implied contract, collective bargaining agreement, tort law, personal injury, or public policy, having any bearing whatsoever on his employment with the Board, including but not limited to any claim for wrongful discharge, back pay, vacation pay, sick pay, wages, attorneys' fees, costs, and/or future wage loss. Respondent agrees to withdraw any and all other pending complaints or actions that have been filed against the Board or any of its employees or representatives. This paragraph shall not apply to claims for unemployment compensation, or to claims for Workers' Compensation, or to any rights which Respondent may have to continue his health benefits coverage via COBRA.

10: To comply with the Older Workers Benefit Protection Act, if applicable, this Agreement advises Respondent of the legal requirements of the Act and fully incorporates the legal requirements by reference into this Agreement. Accordingly, by executing this Agreement, Respondent acknowledges that he: (i) fully understands the terms and conditions of this Agreement; (ii) has consulted with an attorney to review the Agreement; (iii) specifically waives his right to pursue any current claims he may have under the Age Discrimination in Employment Act; (iv) has been given sufficient time within which to consider this Agreement; and (v) has seven (7) days from the date of the execution of this Agreement to revoke it. Respondent understands that he may rescind this Agreement within seven (7) calendar days of signing it, and such rescission must be in writing and delivered to counsel for the Board either by hand or by certified mail within the seven (7) day period.

11: This agreement shall not constitute a precedent in any matters involving other Board employees.

12: The Parties each acknowledge that counsel has advised them regarding this Agreement and that each is signing this Agreement freely and voluntarily, without duress, coercion or pressure from the other party, with full understanding of its terms and conditions and consents to the terms contained herein.

13: Each signatory to this Agreement understands, acknowledges and agrees that this Agreement constitutes the full agreement of the parties and may not be altered, amended, modified, or otherwise changed in any respect whatsoever except by a duly executed writing signed on behalf of both Parties.

14: The execution of this Agreement does not constitute any admission or acknowledgement by any party as to the nature, quality, veracity, or demonstrability of any claim existing by and between the parties, nor of any wrongful, actionable, or otherwise improper conduct, nor as to the liability of any party.

15: This Agreement shall be construed and enforced in accordance with New Jersey law. The Commissioner of Education and/or federal and state courts of the State of New Jersey, as applicable in accordance with such law, shall have exclusive jurisdiction over any dispute arising from, in connection with, or related to this Agreement.

16: This Agreement may be executed in counterparts with the same effect as if the signatures hereto and thereto were upon the same instrument. Each counterpart will be deemed an original, which taken together shall constitute a single instrument. Facsimile signatures or signatures in electronic Portable Document Format ("PDF") shall be construed and have the same force and effect as original signatures.

17: Respondent and the Board agree that they will not defame or disparage each other either verbally, in any written communications, or on any social media platform. Vingara and the Board understand and agree that violation of this Paragraph would irreparably harm the disparaged / defamed Party, which Party would be entitled to an injunction against the disparaging / defaming Party, including monetary damages, as well as payment of counsel fees for the cost of obtaining any injunction and to litigate a lawsuit to enforce this Agreement. For purposes of the Board, this paragraph shall apply to the Board's members, Superintendent, and administrative personnel. Neither party shall make any public statement regarding this Agreement, or the disposition of these tenure charges, other than to state that the matter "has been settled."

18: This Agreement, or any uncertainty or ambiguity therein shall not be construed against any party, but shall be construed as if both Parties to this Agreement jointly prepared this Agreement.

19: Each party acknowledges that this is the entire agreement of the Parties concerning the subject matter of the foregoing paragraphs, and that there are no written or oral representations, understandings or agreements directly or indirectly connected with this Agreement.

20: Additionally, this Agreement is subject to final approval by the Arbitrator pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-5.6(c), and will become effective only upon approval by the Arbitrator. Counsel for the Parties shall jointly request the Arbitrator's approval of this Agreement and each shall take any and all necessary steps to effectuate dismissal of the Tenure Charges.

IT IS SO AGREED

RESPONDENT JOHN VINGARA

Dated: 2/25/19

SOMERSET COUNTY
VOCATIONAL AND TECHNICAL SCHOOL DISTRICT
BOARD OF EDUCATION

Dated: 2/25/19

By:

Title: President

CERTIFICATION

I, John Vingara, hereby certify that I have reviewed this Agreement and fully understand its meaning and terms. I acknowledge that my attorney questioned my understanding and verified my acceptance of the terms of this Agreement. I am satisfied with my representation and I enter into this Agreement voluntarily.

I certify that the foregoing statements made by me are true. I am aware that if any of the foregoing statements made by me are willfully false, I am subject to punishment.

Dated: 2/25/19

John Vingara

CERTIFICATION OF CONSENT TO SETTLEMENT TERMS PURSUANT TO N.J.A.C. 6A:3-5.6(b):

Dated: 2/25/19

Lisa Fittipaldi, Esq.
DEFRANCESCO BATEMAN
15 Mountain Blvd.
Warren, NJ 07059
Attorneys for Petitioner Somerset County Vocational Technical School District Board of Education

APPROVED:

Dated: 3/19/19

Michael J. Pecklers, Esq.
Arbitrator

OAL Dkt. No. EDU 05972-18
Agency Dkt. No. 71-3/18

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

R.V., on behalf of minor child, S.V.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Robbinsville, Mercer County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, the proposed settlement agreement and general release (Agreement), and the Initial Decision issued by the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1.

Upon review, the Commissioner approves the terms of the Agreement and adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter. The case is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the Agreement.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 3/27/19
Date of Mailing: 3/27/19

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Superior Court, Appellate Division, pursuant to P.L. 2008, c. 36 (N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1).

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

SETTLEMENT

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 05972-18

AGENCY DKT. NO. 71-3/18

R.V. ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILD, S.V.,

Petitioner,

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF ROBBINSVILLE, MERCER COUNTY,

Respondent.

R.V., on behalf of S.V., petitioner, pro se

Jodi S. Howlett, Esq., for respondent (Cleary, Giacobbe, Alfieri, Jacobs, LLC attorneys)

Record Closed: February 22, 2019 Decided: March 4, 2019

BEFORE DAVID M. FRITCH, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) on April 26, 2018, for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

On August 24, 2018, prior to the scheduled hearing dates of August 30, 2018, and September 4, 2018, the parties filed a fully executed Settlement Agreement in this matter. The Board resolution approving the settlement was received on February 22, 2019. The Agreement and Resolution are attached and fully incorporated herein.

I have reviewed the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures.

2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

March 4, 2019
DATE

DAVID M. FRITCH, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: 3.5.19

Date Mailed to Parties: 3519

/dw

RECEIVED

2018 SEP -4 A 11: 26

STATE OF NEW JERSEY
OFFICE OF ADMIN LAW

CLEARY GIACOBBE ALFIERI JACOBS, LLC
955 State Route 34, Suite 200
Matawan, New Jersey 07747
Tel 732.583.7474
Fax 732.566.7687
Attorneys for Respondent
Township of Robbinsville Board of Education

R.V. o/b/o S.V., Petitioner, v. TOWNSHIP OF ROBBINSVILLE BOARD OF EDUCATION, MERCER COUNTY, Respondent.	COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION STATE OF NEW JERSEY Agency Ref. No..: 71-3/18 OAL Dkt. No.: EDU 05972-2018 SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND GENERAL RELEASE

This Settlement Agreement and General Release ("Agreement") is made and entered into by and between the Township of Robbinsville Board of Education ("Board"), having administrative offices at 155 Robbinsville Edinburg Road, Robbinsville, New Jersey 08691, and R.V., on behalf of his minor child, S.V. ("Petitioners"), residing at 6 Banbury Court, Robbinsville, New Jersey, 08691, collectively referred herein as "Parties."

WHEREAS, minor child S.V. is a twelfth (12th) grade student whom previously attended the eleventh (11th) grade at Robbinsville High School; and

WHEREAS, commencing in or around January 2018, the Board conducted an investigation as to whether Petitioners reside within the Township of Robbinsville; and

WHEREAS, on February 14, 2018, the Board notified R.V. of its determination that Petitioners did not reside within the Township of Robbinsville; and

WHEREAS, on February 27, 2018, a residency hearing was held before the Board of Education, which was attended by R.V. and S.V.'s mother, C.V.; and

WHEREAS, on March 5, 2018, the Board issued a Resolution finding S.V. ineligible for tuition-free attendance in the Robbinsville School District and disenrolling S.V. from Robbinsville High School, in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1, et seq. and N.J.A.C. 6A:22-1.1, et seq.; and

WHEREAS, on or about March 20, 2018, Petitioners filed the within Pro Se Residency Appeal ("Residency Appeal") with the Commissioner of Education; and

WHEREAS, on or about April 24, 2018, Respondent filed an Answer and Counterclaim to Petitioners' Residency Appeal; and

WHEREAS, the Parties have negotiated in good faith and have determined to amicably resolve this matter; and

WHEREAS, the Parties now wish to memorialize the terms of the settlement by way of this written Agreement.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the following valuable consideration, it is hereby agreed by and between the Parties as follows:

1. The Board acknowledges that, as of the date of this Agreement, Petitioners are domiciled in the Township of Robbinsville and that S.V. is entitled to tuition-free attendance at Robbinsville High School.

2. Petitioner S.V. acknowledges that his other minor child resides in Bordentown with the child's mother, C.V., and is not entitled to tuition-free attendance in the Robbinsville School District.

3. In the event that, subsequent to this Agreement, Petitioners no longer reside in the Township of Robbinsville, the Board reserves its right to conduct an investigation to determine whether S.V. remains eligible for tuition-free attendance at Robbinsville High School.

4. In consideration of the above, the Parties hereby fully and completely release each other from any and all claims they have or may have accrued against each other as of the date of this Agreement in any forum arising out of or connected with S.V.'s education from the beginning of time through the date this Agreement is executed. Nothing in the release set forth in this paragraph shall be construed as a release or waiver of any claims between the Parties seeking to enforce any term or provision of this Agreement.

5. It is agreed that neither party is a prevailing party for any purpose and that each party hereto will be responsible for bearing the costs of their own fees and costs associated with this matter.

6. This Agreement is to be kept confidential by both parties to the maximum extent permitted by Law and the Parties agree not to share the contents of this Agreement with any entity not party to this Agreement. The fact that S.V. attends Robbinsville High School, however, is not confidential.

7. This Agreement represents the entire Agreement between the Parties, and will not be modified in whole or in part except by a mutual subsequent written and signed agreement.

8. This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State of New Jersey. The Parties agree that the courts of the State or District Court of New Jersey shall be the sole forum in which any legal action concerning or relating to this agreement shall be brought.

9. In the event that any provision of this contract is held to be void or unenforceable by any court or regulatory authority having jurisdiction thereof, such ruling will not affect the validity of this contract; the remaining provisions shall continue to be in full force and effect.

10. This Agreement may be executed in one or more original, emailed or telecopied counterparts, all of which together shall be one instrument, and all of which shall be considered duplicate originals.

The parties hereby acknowledge their agreement to the terms set forth above by signing below.

PETITIONER, FOR HIMSELF AND FOR S.V.:

R.V.

Witness for Petitioner:

Notary or Attorney at Law, State of NJ

SONAL VYAS
Notary Public
State of New Jersey
My Commission Expires Sept. 8, 2019

Dated: 08/30, 2018

FOR THE TOWNSHIP OF ROBBINSVILLE BOARD OF EDUCATION:

Dated: 8-30, 2018

Robbinsville Board of Education
155 Robbinsville Edinburg Road
Robbinsville, NJ 08691
Phone: 609-632-0910 (2201) / Fax: 609-371-7964

CERTIFICATION OF MINUTES
Robbinsville Board of Education Meeting
January 29, 2019

Motion: Mrs. DeVito
Second: Mrs. Temple
Vote: 6-0-1

APPROVE SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

Motion upon recommendation of the Superintendent to approve a settlement agreement regarding a residency matter between the Robbinsville Board of Education and the parents of student #190852.

Yes:	Mrs. Shaina Ciaccio, Mrs. Sharon DeVito, Mr. Vito Galluccio, Mrs. Jane Luciano, Mrs. Lisa Temple, Mr. Scott Veisz, Mr. Richard Young
Nays:	None
Abstentions:	Mr. Richard Young
Absent:	Mr. Thomas Halm, Mr. Craig Heilman

CERTIFICATION

I hereby certify that the within excerpt from the Minutes of the Public Meeting Session of the Robbinsville Board of Education held on the 29th of January, 2019 is a true and exact excerpt of the minutes as recorded.

Beth Brooks
Beth Brooks, School Business Administrator

1/31/19
Date

RECEIVED
2019 FEB 22 A 11:58
STATE OF NEW JERSEY
OFFICE OF ADMIN. LAW

86-19

OAL Dkt. No. EDU 07970-18
Agency Dkt. No. 111-5/18

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Michael Kozak,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Monroe, Middlesex County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, the proposed settlement agreement and general release, and the Initial Decision issued by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 have been reviewed.

Paragraph two (2) of the Agreement stipulates that the settlement payment must be made "within 30 days of approving this Agreement"; further, according to paragraph seventeen (17), the settlement is not "final and binding" until seven calendar days after the petitioner signs the Agreement. Both of these dates have preceded consideration of the settlement by the Commissioner of Education. The parties are reminded that a settlement of litigation before the Commissioner is not binding until the Commissioner approves the settlement.

In light of the foregoing, the Commissioner adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter, provided that the parties have already implemented the settlement terms or have agreed upon a mutually satisfactory alternate date for the effectuation of the settlement payment. Assuming same, the matter is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the settlement.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 3/27/19
Date of Mailing: 3/27/19

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

SETTLEMENT

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 07970-18

AGENCY DKT. NO. 111-5/18

MICHAEL KOZAK,

Petitioner,

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF MONROE, MIDDLESEX COUNTY,

Respondent.

Andrew Babiak, Esq., for petitioner

Patrick F. Carrigg, Esq., for respondent (Lenox Socey Formidoni Giordano Cooley Lang and Casey, attorneys)

Record Closed: March 4, 2019 Decided: March 11, 2019

BEFORE JUDITH LIEBERMAN, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on June 5, 2018, for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The parties have agreed to a settlement and have prepared a Settlement Agreement and General Release indicating the terms thereof, which is attached and fully incorporated herein. This Settlement Agreement resolves all disputes.

I have reviewed the record and the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures on the attached settlement agreement and the attached Board resolution.

2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

March 11, 2019
DATE

JUDITH LIEBERMAN, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: 3-11-19

Date Mailed to Parties: 3-11-19

/vj

MONROE TOWNSHIP BOARD OF EDUCATION
423 Buckelew Avenue
Monroe Township, New Jersey 08831
(732) 521-1500

RECEIVED
2019 MAR -4 P 12: 12
STATE OF NEW JERSEY
OFFICE OF ADMIN. LAW

MICHAEL C. GORSKI, CPA
Business Administrator/Board Secretary

I hereby certify that the following is a true and exact excerpt from the minutes of the Public Board of Education Meeting held on February 13, 2019, at which time a quorum was present.

A motion was made by Ms. DeMaio and seconded by Ms. Lang to approve the following resolution by consent roll call:

It is recommended that the Board of Education approve the previously submitted Settlement Agreement and General Release in the matter entitled Michael G. Kozak, Ed.D. v. Monroe Township Board of Education, before the Commissioner of Education, OAL Docket. No.: EDU 07970-2018 S. the Board President and the Business Administrator/Board Secretary are hereby authorized and directed to take all necessary steps to implement the aforesaid Settlement Agreement. Roll call 10-0-0-0-0. Motion carried.

Respectfully submitted,

Michael C. Gorski, CPA
Business Administrator/Board Secretary

RECEIVED
2019 MAR 12 P 2:12
STATE OF NEW JERSEY
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND GENERAL RELEASE

This SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND GENERAL RELEASE (hereinafter "Agreement", "Settlement" and/or "Release") is being entered into among and between MICHAEL G. KOZAK, ED.D. (hereinafter "Dr. Kozak" or "Releasor") and MONROE TOWNSHIP BOARD OF EDUCATION. MONROE TOWNSHIP BOARD OF EDUCATION shall hereinafter be referred to as the "Releasees". Dr. Kozak and Releasees shall hereinafter collectively be referred to as the "Parties".

WHEREAS, by way of employment contract Dr. Kozak was employed by MONROE TOWNSHIP BOARD OF EDUCATION, as Superintendent of Schools from July 1, 2015 to June 30, 2018 (hereinafter "Employment Contract"); and

WHEREAS, MONROE TOWNSHIP BOARD OF EDUCATION, did not renew Dr. Kozak's Employment Contract; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Kozak initiated litigation against MONROE TOWNSHIP BOARD OF EDUCATION, alleging, among other things, failure to reappoint in violation of Title 18A, in a lawsuit captioned Michael G. Kozak, Ed.D. v. Monroe Township Board of Education, before the Commissioner of Education, OAL Docket. No.: EDU 07970-2018 S; and

WHEREAS, the Parties wish to resolve the litigation initiated by Dr. Kozak in the interest of the public without the need for further litigation, and all of Dr. Kozak's claims and potential claims against Releasees, hereby stipulate to settle same, subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein; and

WHEREAS, the meaning, effect and terms of this Agreement have been fully explained to Dr. Kozak, who understands that this Agreement settles, bars, and waives any and all claims that he could possibly have against Releasees as of the date of this Agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises, covenants, agreements and representations contained herein, the legal sufficiency of which is acknowledged by the Parties, and intending to be legally bound hereby, the Parties agree as follows:

1. Settlement and General Release of Dr. Kozak's Claims. In consideration for Releasees promises and representations made herein, Dr. Kozak, individually and on behalf of his heirs, representatives, immediate family members (including, but not limited to, his spouse and children), agents, successors and assigns, hereby releases Releasees, former and present board members of the MONROE TOWNSHIP BOARD OF EDUCATION, subsidiaries, shareholders, directors, officers, employees, agents, attorneys, insurers, affiliates, predecessors, successors, assigns, heirs, and all persons acting by, through, under or in concert with any of them (hereinafter collectively referred to as "Released Parties"), from any and all charges, complaints, claims, liabilities, obligations, promises, agreements, controversies, damages, actions, causes of action, suits, rights, demands, costs, losses, debts and expenses, and from any claims of any nature whatsoever, known or unknown, which Dr. Kozak now has, claims to have, owns, holds or which Dr. Kozak at any time heretofore had, held, or claimed to have based on events arising out of or relating to his employment with the Monroe Township Board of Education occurring through the date of execution of this Agreement, to the fullest extent allowed by law. This Release includes, without limitation, claims arising under 42 U.S.C. § 1981, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act, the Americans with Disabilities Act, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, the Americans with Disabilities Act, the Family Medical Leave Act, the National Labor Relations Act, the Employee Retirement Income Security Act (save for claims related to vested benefits, which are exempted from this release), the Equal Pay Act, the New Jersey Law Against Discrimination, The New Jersey Conscientious Employee Protection Act, the New Jersey Workers' Compensation Act, as well as any other federal, state, local, or municipal statute, ordinance or regulation that prohibits improper discrimination, harassment or retaliation in the workplace or otherwise relates to or regulates employment relationships. In addition, this Release extends to and covers claims for tortious conduct or breach of express or implied contract, including wrongful discharge, breach of covenant of good faith and fair dealing, intentional or negligent infliction of emotional distress, breach of contract or implied contract, negligence, misrepresentation, fraud, detrimental reliance, promissory estoppel, defamation, invasion of privacy, conspiracy, breach of laws governing safety in the workplace, loss of consortium, or any claims under federal, state, and local statutory and common law relating in any manner whatsoever to his employment with MONROE TOWNSHIP BOARD OF EDUCATION or the termination of that employment relationship. Dr. Kozak represents and warrants that he has not sold, assigned, transferred, conveyed or otherwise disposed of any claim, demand or cause of action, including any claim for attorneys' fees, against Released Parties that relate to the matters stated above.

2. Payment. Releasees, or their agent, shall remit a check to Dr. Kozak, or his attorney, in the sum of $26,000.00 (Twenty-six thousand dollars), in full payment for this Release, inclusive of attorney's fees. Within 30 days of approving this Agreement, the MONROE TOWNSHIP BOARD OF EDUCATION shall issue the check to Dr. Kozak. At Releasor's request, Releasees will issue IRS form 1099, with income listed in Box 3. It is expressly understood and agreed by the Releasor and Releasees that the Releasees do not represent or guarantee that payroll, wage or other income taxes should not be paid on the proceeds of the settlement. The Releasor agrees to indemnify and hold the Releasees harmless for any withholding taxes resulting from the receipt of the settlement payment, as well as for any interest and penalties assessed against and/or paid by the Releasees to any governmental tax entity by virtue of an adjudication by that entity reclassifying all or any portion of this settlement amount as a wage rather than a non-wage payment.

3. Social Media. Dr. Kozak shall remove from all social media and any other Internet site any and all references that state, indicate, or suggest that Dr. Kozak is currently employed by Releasees. Dr. Kozak may indicate dates of employment as Superintendent of Monroe Township Board of Education.

4. Benefits. Dr. Kozak shall be entitled to no further payments, benefits or emoluments of employment from Monroe Township Board of Education.

5. No Admissions. The Parties agree that this Settlement, including the Releasees approval of same, does not constitute an admission of liability or wrongdoing by either party.

6. Liens. It is further understood that as a condition of this Settlement, all claims and/or liens, past, current and/or future arising out of this Settlement or asserted against the proceeds of this Settlement are to be satisfied by Releasor and/or his attorneys, including but not limited to any Child Support Judgment liens, Medicare or Medicaid claims and/or liens, Worker's Compensation claims and/or liens, Social Security claims and/or liens, hospital/healthcare insurer claims and/or liens, physician or attorney claims and/or liens, or any of the statutory, equitable, common law or judgment claims and/or liens, including, but not limited to, claims based on subrogation or any other legal or equitable theory. Releasor therefore agrees, upon prompt presentation of any such claims and/or liens, to defend Releasees against any such claims and/or liens, and to indemnify and hold Releasees harmless against any judgment entered against Releasees based on such claims and/or liens, including the payment of any fines, charges and/or attorney's fees incurred as a result of any such lien. Failure to satisfy any such lien shall be considered a breach of this Agreement and Releasor and his attorney(s) agree to pay all costs, interest and attorney's fees relative to any such lien.

7. Post-Employment Inquiry. MONROE TOWNSHIP BOARD OF EDUCATION agrees, through its administration, to respond to post-employment inquiries regarding Dr. Kozak by providing the information required by N.J.S.A. 47:1A-10. MONROE TOWNSHIP BOARD OF EDUCATION shall also provide fully and truthfully all such information as it may be legally required to provide to any governmental agencies or pursuant to court order.

8. No Rehire. Dr. Kozak understands and agrees that his employment relationship with MONROE TOWNSHIP BOARD OF EDUCATION ended on June 30, 2018. Dr. Kozak understands and agrees that he is no longer entitled to any wages, salary, bonuses, health benefits, emoluments, or any other payments other than those specifically and explicitly set forth in this Agreement. Releasees shall be under no obligation to reinstate, hire, rehire or consider Dr. Kozak for future employment with MONROE TOWNSHIP BOARD OF EDUCATION. Dr. Kozak acknowledges that he will not be eligible for rehire with the Released Parties, including, but not limited to, full-time, part-time, temporary employment, as a non-payroll worker, or any other form of contract work at any time in the future. Accordingly, Dr. Kozak agrees that he will not seek or apply for employment with the Releasees or any successor or assign of the Releasees. Dr. Kozak acknowledges that if he applies for such employment notwithstanding his representations in this paragraph and is rejected, the decision will be based solely on this paragraph and not for some other reason, unlawful or otherwise.

9. Public Interest Served. The within Settlement will serve the public interest, eliminating additional litigation costs.

10. No Other Legal Action by Dr. Kozak. Dr. Kozak confirms that he does not have any charge, complaint or action pending in any forum or form against any of the Released Parties as of the date hereof. Further, Dr. Kozak covenants and agrees not to bring any charge, complaint, action, suit, or administrative proceeding in any forum before any federal, state, or local administrative agency or in any federal, state or local court against any of the Released Parties for any actions that could or did arise or accrue prior to and including the date of this Agreement. This covenant extends to, but is not limited to, proceedings to negate, modify or reform this Agreement, though nothing in this paragraph is intended to limit Dr. Kozak from instituting legal action for the sole purpose of enforcing Releasees' obligations to him under this Agreement. Further, nothing in this paragraph is designed to interfere with or limit Dr. Kozak's protected rights to file a charge with or participate in an investigation by or proceeding before the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission or any similar state or local commission that investigates and enforces anti-discrimination laws. Nonetheless, Dr. Kozak understands that, by signing this Agreement, he waives any rights he may have to recover money or other relief in any lawsuit or proceeding he brings, or that is brought on his behalf, by any agency or third party against any of the Released Parties based on events arising out of or relating to his employment with MONROE TOWNSHIP BOARD OF EDUCATION through the date of this Agreement. Except where otherwise permitted under this paragraph, Dr. Kozak agrees that any action he may file against any of the Released Parties based on events that transpired on or before the effective date hereof for any matter arising out of or relating to his employment with Monroe Township Board of Education shall be dismissed with prejudice upon presentation of this Agreement. Dr. Kozak further agrees that, to the extent allowed by law, he will not participate in any litigation, complaints, or claims brought by other individuals against Released Parties.

11. Assent to Terms. The Parties hereby acknowledge that they have entered into this Agreement with a full understanding of their rights and obligations and that they were fully informed of the implications of this Agreement by their respective attorneys, and they do so without duress, of their own free will and volition.

12. Non-Disparagement. Dr. Kozak and the Releasees agrees not to make, publicly or privately, through any media or medium (including, without limitation, comments on social networking sites), any disparaging or derogatory remarks or otherwise make statements that could injure the business or reputation of each other or any of the Releasees. Dr. Kozak and the Releasees agree not to defame or disparage the other with respect to any matter arising out of the employment relationship or lawsuit in the past and in the future.

13. Entire Agreement. This Agreement sets forth the entire agreement between Dr. Kozak and Releasees. All other prior agreements between the Parties are hereby terminated and shall have no other force or effect. Dr. Kozak acknowledges and agrees that Releasees have not made any promises to him other than those set forth in this Agreement. This Agreement may be modified only upon an express written agreement between the Parties. Because counsel for Dr. Kozak had a full opportunity to review this Agreement with him before he signed it, the language of this Agreement shall in all cases be construed as a whole, according to its fair meaning and not strictly for or against any of the Parties.

14. Disputes. The validity, performance, construction, and effect of this Agreement shall be governed by the substantive laws of the United States and the State of New Jersey. The Superior Court of New Jersey shall retain jurisdiction to implement and enforce this Agreement and its terms.

15. Severability. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this Agreement, whether in whole or in part, shall not in any way affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision contained herein.

16. Counterparts; Exchange by Electronic Means. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, which shall be taken together as the entire agreement of the Parties hereto. This Agreement may also be exchanged by the Parties via electronic mail for the purposes of securing signatures and will be fully enforceable as an original document.

17. Dr. Kozak acknowledges that he has been advised that he has twenty-one (21) calendar days within which to consider this Agreement before signing it and that he may use as much of that twenty-one day period as he considers necessary. After signing the Agreement, Dr. Kozak understands that he may revoke his signature within seven (7) calendar days by providing written notification of his decision to revoke his signature to Patrick F. Carrigg, Esq., Lenox Law Firm, 136 Franklin Corner Road, Lawrenceville, NJ 08648. If Dr. Kozak does not deliver written revocation to Attorney Carrigg within that seven (7) calendar day period, the Agreement becomes final and binding.

DR. KOZAK ACKNOWLEDGES THAT HE HAS READ THIS AGREEMENT, UNDERSTANDS IT AND IS ENTERING INTO IT KNOWINGLY AND VOLUNTARILY AND NOT AS A RESULT OF ANY PRESSURE, COERCION OR DURESS.

DR. KOZAK AGREES THAT HE HAS HAD A REASONABLE AND SUFFICIENT TIME AND OPPORTUNITY TO CONSULT WITH COUNSEL, AND THAT HE HAS FULLY DISCUSSED AND REVIEWED THE TERMS CONTAINED IN THIS AGREEMENT WITH COUNSEL PRIOR TO EXECUTING IT, OR FREELY CHOSEN NOT TO DO SO.

DR. KOZAK FURTHER UNDERSTANDS, ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT THIS AGREEMENT CONTAINS A GENERAL RELEASE OF CLAIMS AS TO ALL RELEASED PARTIES, AND THAT THIS AGREEMENT SETTLES, BARS, AND WAIVES ANY AND ALL CLAIMS THAT HE HAS OR COULD POSSIBLY HAVE AGAINST THE RELEASED PARTIES THROUGH THE DATE OF THIS AGREEMENT.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, and intending to be legally bound, the Parties agree to the terms of this Agreement.

MICHAEL G. KOZAK

Michael G. Kozak

Dated: 2/13/19

WITNESS

Andrew Babiak

Andrew Babiak, Council for Dr. Kozak

Dated: Feb. 13, 2019

MONROE TOWNSHIP BOARD OF EDUCATION

Kathy Kolupanowich

NAME: Kathy Kolupanowich
TITLE: President, M.T. BOE

Dated: 02/14/19

Pursuant to Referral By the Commissioner of Education
State of New Jersey
Before Timothy J. Brown, Esquire

In the matter of:

The Tenure Hearing of Edward J. Furhmeister	:
and	:	Docket No. 305-12/18
Board of Education of the City of Pleasantville, Atlantic County	:

Decision and Award

Appearances:

On behalf of Board of Education of the City of Pleasantville:
Daniel J. Gallagher, Esquire
The Carroll Law Firm, PLC
1 N. New York Rd., Suite 39
Galloway, NJ 08205

On behalf of Edward J. Furhmeister:
Keith Waldman, Esquire
Kathleen L. Kirvan, Esquire
Selikoff & Cohen, PA
700 East Gate Drive
Suite 502
Mount Laurel, NJ 08054-3923

Introduction

This matter arises from tenure charges of; (1) Chronic and Excessive Absenteeism Including Failure to Adhere to Call Out Procedures and Failure to Report to Work in a Timely Manner, (2) Incapacity and (3) Conduct Unbecoming, Unprofessional Activity and Neglect of Duty, against Edward J. Fuhrmeister, (Respondent) by the Pleasantville Board of Education, Atlantic County (the District) and a January 4, 2019 referral of the tenure charges to the undersigned by the New Jersey Department of Education, Office of Controversies and Disputes pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-16 as amended by P.L. 2012, c. 26 and P.L. 2015, c.109.

The hearing in this matter was conducted on February 12 and 14, 2019 in Pleasantville, New Jersey. All parties were afforded the opportunity for argument, examination and cross-examination of witnesses and the introduction of relevant exhibits. Respondent Edward J. Fuhrmeister was present for the entire hearing and testified on his own behalf. At the close of the hearing on February 14, 2019 the parties elected to submit written closing argument, upon the receipt of which by the arbitrator on March 8, 2019 the matter was deemed submitted.

This Award is made following my careful consideration of the entire record in the matter, including the under-sign's observations of the demeanor of all witnesses.

Issues

The issues presented in this matter may be accurately stated as follows:

> Has the District met its burden of establishing the truth of its tenure charges against Respondent, and if so, what is the appropriate penalty, if any?

The Tenure Charges

The tenure charges in this matter were certified by Dr. Clarence Alston, Superintendent of Schools, of the Pleasantville School District on October 26, 2018 and provide:

CHARGE ONE

CHRONIC AND EXCESSIVE ABSENTEEISM INCLUDING FAILURE TO ADHERE TO CALL OUT PROCEDURES And FAILURE TO REPORT TO WORK IN A TIMELY MANNER

Respondent, a teacher employed by the Pleasantville High School, failed to perform his duties in a competent manner by being chronically and excessively absent as follows:

- Present School Year (2018-19) missed 4.5 days of work (as of October 23, 2018) and has been late to work thirteen (13) times.
- School Year 2017-18 missed 27.5 days of work (plus, Respondent missed 12 weeks of school while he was out on Family Medical Leave from October through December 2017) for a total days missed equaling: 82 days

(See attached Exhibit A[1], a copy of Respondent's attendance sheets/print out for school years 2017-18 and Exhibit K, a copy of a memo from Principal Rayna Hendricks to Respondent dated October 22, 2018).

SPECIFICATION: The regular and prompt attendance of employees is an essential element in the efficient operation of the school district.

See PBOE policy #3212- ATTENDANCE which states (a copy of which is attached as Exhibit B):

[1] Exhibits are not quoted herein.

> The regular and prompt attendance of teaching staff members is an essential element of the efficient operation of the school district and the effective conduct of the educational program. Staff member absenteeism disrupts the educational program and the Board of Education considers attendance an important component of a staff member's job performance.
>
> A teaching staff member who fails to give prompt notice of an absence, misuses sick leave, fails to verify an absence in accordance with board Policy, falsifies the reason for an absence, is absent without authorization, is repeatedly tardy, or accumulates an excessive number of absences may be subject to appropriate consequences, which may include the withholding of a salary increment, dismissal, and/or certification of tenure charges.
>
> In accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:30-1, sick leave is defined to mean the absence from work because of a personal disability due to injury or illness or because the staff member has been excluded from school by the school medical authorities on account of contagious disease or of being quarantined for such a disease in the staff member's immediate household. No teaching staff member will be discouraged from the prudent, necessary use of sick leave and any other leave provided for in the collective-bargaining agreement negotiated with the members' majority representative, in an individual employment contract, or provided in the policies of the Board. In accordance with N.J.S.A.18A:30-4, the Superintendent or Board of Education may require a physician's certificate to be filed with the Secretary of the Board in order to obtain sick leave.
>
> The Superintendent, in consultation with administrative staff members, will review the rate of absence among the staff members. The review will include the collection and analysis of attendance data, the training of teaching staff members in their attendance responsibilities, and the counseling of teaching staff members for whom regular and prompt attendance is a problem.

See also N.J.S.A. 18A:27-4; 18A:28-5; 18A:30-1 et seq.

The collective bargaining agreement ("CBA") between the PBOE and the Pleasantville Education Association in effect at all relevant times herein, granted teachers ten (10) sick days per year, three (3) personal days and ten (10) vacation days to be earned pro rata. (See attached Exhibit C, a copy of the relevant portions of the CBA.)

Respondent was hired by the District as a teacher on or about November 26, 2001. (See attached Exhibit D – a copy of letter). Throughout his employment, Respondent was repeatedly warned and reprimanded for: excessive absences; a failure to follow call-out procedures; and a failure to report to work on time. Said documentation further indicates that attempts were made to encourage, assist or instruct Respondent in the importance of maintaining regular attendance and following school procedures.

Please see the attached documentation as follows:

- March 12, 2014 – letter reminding Respondent that he must report to work on time and implementing a 30 day attendance plan.
- April 4, 2014 – letter reprimanding Respondent for his failure to follow the proper call out procedures when he was going to be absent.
- May 23, 2014 – second letter reprimanding Respondent for his failure to follow the proper call out procedures when he was going to be absent.
- October 14, 2015 – letter reprimanding for failing to adhere to procedures for attendance and punctuality.
- December 7, 2015 – letter indicating a meeting was held to develop a plan to improve Respondent's reporting to work in a timely manner.
- November 3, 2016 – letter reprimanding Respondent for his failure to follow the proper call out procedures when he was going to be absent.
- March 14, 2016 – another letter reprimanding Respondent for his failure to follow the proper call out procedures when he was going to be absent.
- November 28, 2017 – letter informing Respondent that to date he had been absent 39.5 days and that the PBOE was considering disciplinary action.
- May 1, 2018 – letter indicating that Respondent met with the Superintendent to develop a plan to improve Respondent's attendance.

(See attached Exhibit E, a copy of the above letters.)

Additionally, more recently, Respondent's attendance record indicates that he was absent from school as follows:

- Present school year (2018-19):

A Corrective Action plan was signed by Respondent in September 2018 (See attached Exhibit M, a copy of the Corrective Action Plan). Since Respondent signed the Corrective Action Plan, Respondent missed (as of October 23, 2018) 4.5 days of work (9/28/18, 10/3/18, 10/9/18 and 10/19/18). Respondent did not notify or request said absences from any of his supervisors. Additionally, two of the days Respondent was absent were personal days and he did not submit any paperwork requesting approval for the same. Finally, the Corrective Action Plan states that unless Respondent received prior approval, he must report to work on time every day. Respondent has been late to work (as of October 23, 2018) 13 days since the start of the school year. (See Exhibit K, a copy of a memo from principal Rayna K. Hendricks to Respondent dated October 22, 2018).

- School year 2017-18

  Respondent missed 27.5 days of work (plus, Respondent missed 12 weeks of school while he was out on Family Medical Leave from October through December 2017) for a total days missed equaling: 82 days. (See attached Exhibit A, a copy of Respondent's attendance sheets/print outs).

All of the above documentation and correspondence indicated that Respondent has engaged in chronic and excessive absenteeism, including a failure to follow call out procedures and repeated tardiness, during his tenure as an employee in the District in violation of PBOE policy, New Jersey statues, and the CBA.

In resolving whether dismissal is warranted based upon allegation of chronic absenteeism, the Court has looked at three factors: 1.) the particular circumstances of the absences and not merely the number of absences; 2.) the impact that the absences had on the continuity of instruction during the period of time the absences occurred; and 3.) whether some warning had been given to the employee that his or her supervisors were dissatisfied with the pattern of absences. See, In the Tenure hearing of Lena White, State Operated school District of Jersey City, Hudson County, 92 N.J.A.R. 2d (EDU) 157; and Kelsey v. board of Education of the City of Trenton, Mercer County, Commissioner Decision No. 127-89, May 11, 1989.

Looking at three factors identified by the Court as applicable to this matter, the District respectfully asserts that Respondent's absences have impacted the District's ability to properly plan the staffing of its schools and its continuity of instruction, and Respondent has been repeatedly clearly warned that his supervisors were dissatisfied with the pattern of absences; his failure to adhere to call out procedures, and his failure to be punctual.

WHEREFORE, Respondent's actions constitute abandonment of her (sic) employment position and Respondent should be terminated for the same.

CHARGE TWO INCAPACITY

Respondent, a teacher employed by the Pleasantville High School, was incapacitated and failed to perform his job in a professional and acceptable manner by being chronically and excessively absent, by failing to follow call out procedures and by being repeatedly late for work during his tenure of employment for the District.

SPECIFICATION: As more particularly outlined above in Count One above and incorporated herein, as a teacher, all of the above documentation and correspondence indicates that Respondent's chronic and excessive absenteeism and failure to follow procedures and failure to be punctual have rendered him incapable of doing his job pursuant to PBOE policy, New Jersey statutes, and the CBA. Therefore, Respondent was incapacitated and failed to perform his duties in a professional acceptable manner.

WHEREFOR, Respondent should be terminated for being incapacitated and failing to perform his duties in a professional and acceptable manner.

CHARGE THREE CONDUCT UNBECOMING
UNPROFESSIONAL ACTIVITY AND NEGLECT OF DUTY

Respondent, a teacher in the Pleasantville School District engaged in conduct unbecoming and in unprofessional activity during his tenure as an employee for the Pleasantville Board of Education which resulted in the neglect of his duties and violations of the policies of the District.

Board Policy #3280 Liability for Pupil Welfare states in relevant part: Teaching staff members are responsible for supervision of pupils and must discharge that responsibility with the highest levels of care and prudent conduct.

Board Policy #3281 Inappropriate Staff Conduct states in relevant part: The Board of Education recognizes its responsibility to protect health, safety and welfare of all pupils within this school district. Furthermore, the Board recognizes there exists a professional responsibility for all school staff to protect pupil's health, safety and welfare. The Board strongly believes that school staff members have the public's trust and confidence to protect the well-being of all pupils attending the school district. In support of the Board's strong commitment to the public's trust and confidence in school staff, the Board of Education holds all school staff to the highest level of professional responsibility in their conduct with all pupils. Inappropriate conduct and conduct unbecoming a school staff member will not be tolerated in this school district.

(See attached Exhibit F, a copy of PBOE #3280 and #3281).

Respondent engaged in unprofessional conduct and conduct unbecoming a teaching staff member by failing to properly discharge his responsibility for the supervision of pupils with the highest level of care and prudent conduct which resulted in a neglect of his duties and a violation of board Policies and Regulations as well as the standards of professional conduct.

SPECIFICATION: Respondent has been employed as a teacher in the District for over seventeen (17) years. Petitioner alleges that Respondent's long term work history and more recent actions occurring in the present school year, have not achieved the high level of professional responsibility that the District demands for all school staff to protect a pupil's health, safety and welfare. Respondent's actions have violated the public's trust and confidence and has negatively impacted his ability to protect the well-being of all pupils attending the school district. Respondent's personnel file consists of the following documentation in support of the above:

1. Respondent was hired as a teacher in the district in 2001 (See attached Exhibit D).
2. Beginning as early as school year 2002-2003, a Professional Improvement Plan (PIP) was instituted for Respondent following observation/evaluation. A PIP was instituted every year thereafter until and including 20008/2009. (See attached Exhibit G, a copy of the PIP plans instituted). A recurring theme of the PIPs was the need for Respondent to incorporate inventive and varied teaching strategies for lesson plans; to submit timely lesson plans; and to actively participate in workshops/in-service trainings.
3. During the course of his tenure as a teacher in the District, Respondent accumulated the following letters of reprimand and/or warnings and/or suspensions:

   - On or about March 18, 2014, Respondent was suspended and placed on administrative leave as a result of alleged improper conduct concerning the management of OnCourse.
   - On or about April 7, 2014, Respondent failed to adhere to his work schedule.
   - On or about May 23,2014, Respondent was accused of leaving school premises for lunch and not returning in a timely manner.

- On or about June 30, 2016, Respondent was placed on paid suspension pending an investigation into an arrest.
- On or about May 4, 2018, Respondent's increment was withheld for school year 2018-19 by the PBOE for excessive absenteeism during the 2017-18 school year.

(See Exhibit H, a copy of the above referenced letters).

4. More recently, during the present school year (2018-19), Respondent has engaged in behaviors that clearly indicate a continued intent by him to neglect his teaching duties in violation of PBOE policies and detrimentally affect students' ability to learn in a positive and supported environment. See as follows:

   - By email dated September 28, 2018, Principal Rayna Hendricks notified Respondent that his lesson plans for the week had not been properly uploaded to the Oncourse. (See attached Exhibit N, a copy of the 8/28/18 email).
   - By letter dated September 14, 2018, Superintendent Dr. Alston informed Respondent that when he and his BA Elisha Thompkins visited Respondent's classroom (A technology class) on September 13, 2018, they observed students seated at their desks with all of the computers turned off, and there was a moving (sic) playing that few students appeared to be engaged in. (See attached Exhibit O), a copy of the 9/14/18 letter).

     In that same letter, Dr. Alston advised Respondent that Mr. Thompkins reported on September 14, 2018 that he heard a loud noise coming from Respondent's classroom. Mr. Thompkins and Dr. Alston went to Respondent's classroom and observed most of the students standing at one end of the classroom conversing and appearing to socialize. Respondent was sitting at his desk and appeared to be viewing his cell phone. Again, the computers were off and there was another, or possibly the same, movie playing from the previous day. In response to Dr. Alston's questioning about the situation, Respondent stated that he did not have "mice" for the computers. Ar. Alston responded that upon speaking to Ms. Rayna Hendricks, the principal, it was asserted that Respondent had lost all the mice for the computers last year.

   - By memo dated October 2, 2018, Principal Rayna Hendricks advised Respondent of the following (See attached Exhibit L, a copy of the 10/2/18 memo):

     - On October 1st he was seen in the back of the building in the bus dismissal area on the way to his vehicle at 2:39p.m. Said departure time is in violation of Respondent's contractual duties.

- On October 2nd a video was brought to Ms. Hendricks' attention which showed two students slap boxing in Respondents classroom as he was sitting on the countertop in the classroom looking at his cell phone. On the video, Respondent can be heard telling the students to stop; however, at no point did Respondent ever attempt to intervene, call security or an administrator to have the students removed. (See attached Exhibit I, a copy of the video).
- Respondent's previous assertion that he did not have any mice for the computers was refuted; Ms. Hendricks' (sic) stated that Respondent had a full set that were replaced last year and now were lost. The memo further stated additional activities that Respondent should be doing until the class receives new "mice."
- Ms. Hendricks stated that there did not appear to be any improvement in Respondent's classroom since he received the letter dated September 14th from the Superintendent.
- Finally, Ms. Hendricks reminded Respondent that he was under a Corrective Action Plan for the 2018-19 school year which directed him to:
  - Arrive to work on time and remain at work until the contractual day ends.
  - Create a classroom management plan and submit a copy of same.
  - Adjust his lesson plans and instructional activities.

- By email and memo dated October 12, 2018, Ms. Hendricks informed Respondent that it was the fourth time that Respondent had failed to submit timely lesson plans and further that Respondent had failed to submit a behavior plan for his classroom by October 1st as he was required to do under his Corrective Action Plan. (See attached Exhibit J, a copy of the 10/12/18 email).

Facts

Respondent's Early Employment History

Respondent has been employed by the District for approximately 18 years. He became certified as a teacher through the then-existing alternative route and began teaching eighth grade math in 2001. He received tenure in or about 2004. He taught eighth grade math for approximately 11 years, was thereafter the District's Data-Base Coordinator, a District test coordinator, worked in an elementary school assisting the third-grade team in math and eventually became the District Technology Coordinator; a position he held for approximately two years. After his first year of teaching eighth grade math (2001-2002) Respondent had Performance Improvement Plans (PIPs) for the remaining years he taught the subject through the 2009-2010 school year. Respondent offered un contradicted testimony that he understood that such was the normal course for teachers certified through the alternative route. Respondent's post-tenure evaluations were positive and consistently rated his performance as Good.

The Illness and Death of Respondent's Wife

In July of 2014 Respondent's wife was diagnosed with cancer and died two years later, in July of 2016. At all times relevant, the controlling collective bargaining agreement has provided for ten days of sick leave per year and allows for the accumulation of unused sick leave from year to year. Prior to his wife's 2014 diagnosis, Respondent had accumulated between 80 and 90 days of sick leave. The illness, treatment and death of Respondent's wife caused significant disruption and emotional challenge to Respondent and his two pre-school age daughters. To assist his wife during treatments. Respondent used intermittent FMLA leave; leave he was told by the District could not legally be the basis for negative employment consequences.

The District's Budget Challenge for the 2017-2018 School Year

Following the state-approval of the District's 2017-2018 budget in March 2017, the state notified the District that the approved budget would be reduced by $832,200.00. In response, the District's State Monitor directed that the District reduce its staff accordingly and advised that the District could not hire new staff. As a result, the District cut between 40 and 50 employees and reassigned various professionals in non-classroom teacher positions (such as academic coaches) to teach in the classroom. Respondent, in the position of District Technology Coordinator was such a professional and was notified that he would be assigned a seventh-grade math classroom teaching position for the 2017-2018 school year.

Upon learning of the reassignment, Respondent expressed his concern to the District's Superintendent Dr. Clarence Alston and his belief that he was of more service to the District in his District Technology Coordinator position, particularly since the District had just recently issued students chrome books. The Superintendent informed Respondent that Respondent was required to teach.

The 2017-2018 School Year

Respondent testified that his wife's diagnosis and death was devastating; an emotional roller coaster, and that after his wife passed, he focused on acclimating to being a single parent and providing support for his two daughters. Respondent testified that for many months after his wife's death he went into "survival mode;" not acknowledging the loss as he tried to focus upon his children. He tried to normalize his daughter's routines, deal with emotional "meltdowns" of his children, learn how to provide the day-to-day care for his children that had previously been provided by their mother and began taking his children, and himself, to weekly Gilda's Club support groups, and he began seeing a psychiatrist (weekly Gilda's Club meetings and psychiatric care that have continued). Only after he was able to realize that he could give his daughters the support they needed, Respondent testified, did he really experience the loss of his wife, and at that time, it hit him "like a ton of bricks." He became devastated and depressed.

By the 2017-2018 school year, with his loss and challenges of his family, the challenge of going into the classroom and the realization that things were all new to him as he had been out of the classroom for so long, he became overwhelmed, he was falling behind at work and struggling to keep up with his girls. Respondent testified that he needed a break from work to regroup and went out on FMLA leave on October 4, 2017. Respondent was later cleared to return to work by his psychiatrist and returned to work on January 3, 2018.

During the school year prior to his going out on FMLA he had been absent 5 and one half days. Upon his return to the District after his FMLA leave, Respondent was assigned to teach technology for the remainder of the school year. From his return on January 3, 2018 through the end of the 2017-2018 school year, Respondent was absent another 23 and a half days.

Respondent's April 30, 2018 Meeting with Superintendent Alston

Both Respondent and Superintendent Alston testified to meeting one another on April 30, 2018. According to Alston, he spoke to Respondent about the teacher's absences and performance in the classroom, and asked Respondent if he would want his children to have such a teacher, and that Respondent answered "no." According to Alston, Respondent told the Superintendent he did not want to teach.

According to Respondent, when he met with Alston, the superintendent informed Respondent that his absenteeism was excessive. Respondent testified that Alston stated the employee had been absent some 82 times during the school year; that Alston repeated the number 82 a number of times during the conversation even though Respondent pointed out that much of his absence was covered by FMLA. Respondent denied that he told Alston, or any other administrator at the District, that he did not want to return for the 2018-2019 school year or that he did not want to teach. Instead, Respondent testified, he expressed to Alston, as well as to Business Administrator Elisha Thompkins and middle school Principal Rayna Hendricks at other times, that he had disaffection for going back into the classroom versus his technical position as he would be able to do so much more for the District in the latter. Respondent believed he could make a much bigger impact in the tech position.

At the end of the April 30 meeting, Superintendent Alston requested that Respondent inform him by the end of the week as to Respondent's intentions for the 2018-2019 school year. Alston followed up the conversation with a May 1, 2018 letter to Respondent providing in relevant part:

> ...This confirms our discussion about your absences during the 2017-2018 school year. We agreed that you would contact me by > Friday, May 4, 2018 to let me know what your plans are for attendance and/or employment for the 2018-2019 school year…

By email of May 4, 2018 to Alston, Respondent wrote, in relevant part:

> …Per out meeting on Monday morning you asked me to reach out to you by today to let you know of future plans as it pertains to the Pleasantville School District.
>
> I am looking forward to being a productive and professional employee, and continuing my career at the district in whatever capacity is asked of me…

Later that day, Alston informed Respondent that the superintendent was recommending to the Board of Education to withhold Respondent's increment for the 2018-2019 school year.

Respondent received an overall evaluation of Ineffective for the 2017-2018 school year.

Increment Withholding

By letter to Respondent dated June 27, 2018 from the District's Human Resources Consultant, The District informed Respondent, in relevant part:

> …Based on numerous factors, the district is compelled to withhold your increment for the 2018-2019 school year. The factors taken into account as it relates to you were administration recommendation due to absentism. (sic) After careful review of all relevant factors, the Superintendent determined that your increment will be withheld for the 2018-2019 school year….

At the hearing in this matter, Superintendent Alston testified that the increment withholding was due to an accumulation of various things over seven years. Alston acknowledged that leave taken pursuant to FMLA could not be used as a basis for discipline. He further testified that based upon Respondent's 82 absences, he could have issued a warning, suspension or recommended tenure charges, but did not and decided upon the withholding of increment in the interest of progressive discipline.

The 2018-2019 School Year

For the 2018-19 school year Respondent was again assigned to teach technology in middle school.

The 2018-2019 CAP

In September 2018 Principal Hendricks placed Respondent on a Corrective Action Plan (CAP) for the 2018-2019 school year with three identified areas for improvement; attendance, tardiness and guidance to students on classroom focus and standards of conduct. In the "Goals and Professional Responsibilities" section of the CAP, Respondent was informed of the following responsibilities:

1. Improve attendance
   -Unless prior approval is obtained from an administrator, ensure that you come to work each day.
2. Arrive at work on time daily
   -Unless you receive prior approval for a late arrival, ensure that you arrive at work on time every day.
3. Improve management of student behavior and peer interaction to ensure students are focused on learning
   - Attend classroom management workshop provided by the district professional development office.
   - Review relevant teacher practice instrument components and discuss strategies for implementation with a coach or administrator

Under the "Supervisor Responsibilities" and corresponding "Completion Date" section of the CAP relating to the third enumerated responsibilities section quoted above, Hendricks wrote:

- Ensure Mr. Fuhrmeister has opportunity to attend the classroom management workshop. 10/02/18
- Ensure Mr. Fuhrmeister has opportunity to observe classes with exceptional classroom management. 01/31/18
- Mr. Fuhrmeister will create a behavior plan for his classes. 10/05/18

The CAP was signed by Respondent and Hendricks on September 24, 2018.

Superintendent Alston testified that Respondent failed to adhere to his CAP. In this regard, Alston testified, Respondent did not complete a behavior plan by October 5, 2018, continued to be tardy and have absences and failed to manage his classroom.

2018/2019 Attendance and Tardiness

Between the date on which Respondent's CAP was signed (September 24, 2018) and the date of the District's tenure charges (October 26, 2018), Respondent took three and one half days of sick leave and one personal day. Although the record does not contain evidence of the manner or means by which the District determines tardiness, the District represented that during that same period Respondent was tardy 13 times.

By memorandum dated October 22, 2018 from Principal Hendricks, Respondent was informed:

> This written communication serves as documentation of concern over your attendance and tardiness.
>
> As you are aware, you are on a Corrective Action Plan. According to the plan you are to report to work each day. It explicitly states,

> "Unless prior approval is obtained from an administrator, ensure that you come to work each day." Since your Corrective Action Plan was signed you have been absent 4.5 days (9/28/18, 10/02/18, 10/16/18, and 10/19/18). You have not reached out to me any of these days to make me aware of your absence. District Policy states that you are to submit a written request for personal days. You have taken two personal days and did not submit any paperwork.
>
> Additionally, your Corrective Action plan states, "Unless you receive prior approval for a late arrival, ensure that you arrive at work on time every day." You have been late 13 days since this plan."
>
> I continue to be deeply concerned about your willingness to come to work each day and to report to work on time. Coming to work each day and on time are part of your professional responsibilities (Danielson Framework Domain 4).
>
> If there is any part of this letter that needs clarification or you have further questions regarding my concerns let me know immediately. This is a formal reprimand and will be documented in your file. (Emphasis added)

No additional 2018-2019 school year days of absence or tardiness were identified in the District's Tenure Charges prior to the date of the District's charges. Respondent testified that he did not contact his principal or other administrator about his absences following the date of his CAP. He testified that he now realizes that according to the CAP he was required to contact an administrator directly, but that he just continued to use the District's electronic reporting process. Respondent submitted evidence showing that when he used that electronic reporting process on the relevant days herein, the program informed that "NO APPROVAL REQUIRED." Respondent also offered uncontracted testimony that the District could have blocked him out of the electronic call-out system or modified the system to inform him that approval was required, but that no such changes were made.

Class Disruptions / Lack of Classroom Management

Screams and the Computer Mice

Both Superintendent Alston and School Business Administrator Elisha Thompkins testified that in or about September 2018 they heard loud noises (screaming) coming from Respondent's classroom on the floor below their offices and both went to investigate. They testified that when they went into the classroom they observed the students were not engaged in learning, were talking in groups and not paying attention to a movie playing and were not using their computers. When the administrators asked Respondent why the students were not engaged with their computers, Respondent answered that there were no "mice" available.

Respondent recalled the incident and testified that the two administrators came down to investigate what they described as screaming and that he told them there had not been any screaming in the classroom. He testified that at the time there were two maintenance workers working in the ceiling of the classroom on the air conditioning and he asked them if they had heard screams and they agreed that they had not. Respondent offered uncontracted evidence that at that time he and the administrators agreed that the noise must have come from the hallway.

Alston testified that he inquired about the computer mice situation with school principal Hendricks and that Hendricks reported that Respondent had been provided with new mice and that Respondent was responsible for their loss. Respondent testified that the school had experienced an issue with computer mice after students were issued their chrome books and that the school's other tech classroom as well as the library had experienced loss of computer mice. Assistant Principal Lapell Chapman testified that lost computer mice had been an issue in the school in the beginning of the 2018-2019 school year including computers in the library.

"Slap Fight"

Superintendent Alston identified two videos of what he referred to as a "slap fight" between two students in Respondent's classroom. The evidence establishes that the incident recorded on the videos occurred prior to October 2, 2018. Alston testified that the video was troubling and that the conduct of the two students could have easily escalated into something more serious, but that Respondent did not intervene and stop the conduct. According to Alston, Respondent should have called security. Alston also testified that Respondent could be seen sitting on a counter looking at his cellphone and that the most disturbing element of the video is that the conduct of the students came about during a period of time during the class when instruction should have been happening. The video is evidence of Respondent's failure to manage his classroom; Alston testified, an issue that has been documented repeatedly in observations of Respondent's classroom by various observers over the course of the 2017-18 and 2018-19 school years. Additionally, in his view, Alston testified, this was further evidence that Respondent did not care about the education of his students, did not want to teach, was not going to comply with the requirements of his CAP and was unwilling to address his performance issues.

Respondent testified that the District provides a cellphone app to take student attendance and that at the time of the video he was taking attendance as students were just coming into the classroom after their lunch period and the two students involved were students Respondent knew for years and were good friends of one another. He testified that the video shows that the two students were smiling at one another as they engaged in friendly horseplay and that he can be heard on the video telling the two boys that the problem with such conduct was that it could quickly and accidentally escalate into something serious, that they should stop and sit down. Respondent testified that the two students then stopped and sat down.

Principal Hendricks testified that when she reviewed the video she reported the matter to the state of New Jersey Institutional Abuse Investigations Unit (IAIU). She testified that neither student was disciplined for the conduct, she did not seek the suspension of Respondent and she did not submit an electronic report of the incident to the state.

The undersigned's review of the videos establishes that Respondent's version of what the videos show is accurate. The two students were engaged in friendly horseplay and Respondent did what Superintendent Alston testified he should have done; told the students such conduct could unintentionally escalate and someone could get hurt and that they students should stop and sit down, and that the students did as instructed without hesitation.

The record also establishes that the IAIU initially found that its investigation of the incident resulted in a finding of "not established" and that on March 18, 2019 (entered into the record by the undersigned upon motion by Respondent after the close of the hearing in this matter) the IAIU modified its finding to "unfounded."

Completion of Workshop

The record reflects that Respondent completed the "Classroom management" workshop required on his CAP on October 2, 2018; a date after the "slap boxing" video incident.

Leaving Early

In partial support of its Tenure Charge Three the District asserted that Respondent was observed outside, in the back of the school at 2:39 p.m. on October 1, 2018; a time prior to his contractual departure time.

Respondent admitted to being outside of the building as reported, and explained that his students had been dismissed for the day and that because he had an appointment to make he hoped to leave the parking lot prior to the busses blocking the lot.

By Memorandum dated Tuesday, October 2, 2018, from Principal Hendricks, Respondent received a formal reprimand relating to his leaving early on October 1, 2018, the slap boxing incident brought to the principal's attention in a video she received on October 2, 2018, his failure to assign students alternative activities in that absence of computer mice in his class room, and his failure to improve his classroom management. He was also reminded of the requirement of his CAP.

Observations

The District submitted two 2017-2018 school year classroom observations and an overall annual evaluation of Respondent in which Respondent was rated "Partially Effective," "Partially Effective," and "Ineffective" respectively. The major recurring issue noted in the observations and evaluation was Respondent's lack of classroom management.

At the hearing, Respondent acknowledged that he was having difficulty with classroom management and that he did not question the soundness of the requirement in his 2018-19 CAP that he attend a classroom management seminar.

Memorandum of October 12, 2018

By memorandum dated October 12, 2018 regarding "Missing Deadlines" from principal Hendricks, Respondent was informed:

> This written communication serves as documentation of concern over your adherence to deadlines.
>
> 1. As you are aware, lesson plans are due each Tuesday. Staff members were notified on September 4th what day plans are to be submitted. This week marks the fourth occurrence this school year that you have failed to submit your lessons. On two of these occasions, you received written warnings via OnCourse (September 17th and October 1st) from Mr. Chapman and me.
>
> 2. You are also aware that per your Corrective Action Plan, you were to submit a behavior plan for your classroom by Friday, October 5, 2018. I have yet to receive this plan. You attended training at ETTC on October 2, 2018, for classroom management to assist you with this area.
>
> I continue to be deeply concerned about your willingness to meet required deadlines so that you have a plan for instruction and classroom management. Lesson planning and meeting required deadlines are both components of the Danielson Framework (Domain 1: Planning and Preparation and Domain 4: Professionalism). As a result of the aforementioned areas, you are being directed to:
>
> - Submit your lesson plans by midnight each Thursday.
> - Submit your detailed classroom behavior plan by Monday, October 15, 2018.
>
> Failure to adhere to deadlines will result in a formal written reprimand from my office and possible action by the Central Administration. If there is any part of this letter that need clarification or you have further questions regarding my concerns, please let me know immediately.

Respondent admitted that he did not submit his behavior plan by the initial deadline established in his CAP. He testified that he initially was not sure how to do the plan, that he was unable to find tutorials or other guidance on the subject. He was able to submit the plan by the October 15 deadline established in Hendricks' memorandum of October 12.

Superintendent Alston's Reasons for Tenure Charges

Alston testified that it was clear to him that notwithstanding the many efforts made by the District to correct Respondent's performance and behavior, Respondent did not want to teach and had no intention of adhering to the District's policies. Respondent's observations reflected Respondent's poor classroom management, poor lesson planning, and lack of engagement with students; notwithstanding his reprimands, Respondent continued to fail to communicate with administration and failed to follow policy relating to tardiness and absence. Even after he signed his CAP, Respondent was absent four and a half days, Respondent left work before the end of his day, and failed to control his classroom as reflected in the slap boxing video.

Superintendent Alston testified on cross examination that the District's process of drafting Tenure Charges against Respondent began sometime in September 2018.

Respondent's Adjustments to his Home Life

At the hearing, Respondent admitted his absences were not good for the education of students and resulted in administrative challenges for the District. He admitted that he had problems with classroom management and that he agreed with the results of his observations. He also admitted that he did not meet lesson plan deadlines in September 2018 explaining that he did not have any curriculum for his classes until the end of September, and even then the curriculum he received was for his sixth grade class but not his seventh and eighth grade classes. He testified that in the early weeks of September 2018, he did not have a curriculum, did not have books, did not have computer log-in information for his students and did not have mice and he was not sure what he was to do about lesson plans; although he further admitted that it would have been better to submit some sort of generalized lesson plans. Respondent offered uncontracted testimony that once he had the curriculum for this classes he submitted lesson plans on time.

Respondent testified that during this period he submitted letters and/or emails to District administrators about his lack of curriculum, about the poor condition of his classroom, including that the air-conditioning did not work, that the classroom stunk of mold, and that the room was so humid as to make the floor slippery; a level of humidity that could harm the electronics in the room.

Respondent testified that contrary to the claims of the District's witnesses, he wants to teach. He has made changes in his personal circumstances to address the demands of his single-parent status and the obligations of his position with the District. In this regard, he has sold his home and moved his family in with his mother and brother and is confident that his mother and brother will be able to meet the transpiration and care needs of Respondent's children when he is working.

Position of the School District

The District asserts that the evidence supports its tenure charges. The District has shown that Respondent's excessive absenteeism constituted incapacity, unbecoming conduct and just cause sufficient to warrant dismissal. As required by case law, the District has shown it considered the number of days Respondent was absent, the impact of the absences on the District and provided Respondent the appropriate warning. Respondent missed 29.5 days in the 2017-2018 school year plus FMLA leave resulting in his being absent for a total of 82 days. In the 2018-2019 school year he continued his failure to meet his obligations relating to attendance missing 14 days from September 10 through November 5, 2018. It is recognized that repeated absences of a teacher from his classroom, however, legitimate, has a negative impact upon instruction and compromises the District's ability to meet its most fundament obligation. Here, the District has additionally shown that there is a likelihood that Respondent will continue his conduct in the future as notwithstanding his having an increment withheld due to his absenteeism during the 2017-2018 school year, Respondent continued his conduct into the 2018-2019 school year.

Respondent's conduct amounted to unbecoming conduct. As a teacher, Respondent holds the public's trust and is subject to the highest standards of conduct. His inability to maintain classroom discipline and inability to be present on a consistent basis fails such standards. His unbecoming conduct resulted in his students believing it was okay to slap box one another during class and have another student videotape the incident. Respondent was derelict in his duty and consistently breached the public's trust as reflected in his consistent partially effective evaluations. He failed to submit lesson plans four weeks in a row at the start of the 2018-2019 school year, failed to submit a classroom management plan as required by this CAP, failed to adhere to his schedule and failed to provide and obtain adequate materials, including computer mice, for his classroom. Respondent showed that he did not want to teach and his refusal to accept his teaching assignment should not be tolerated.

Respondent made it clear to the District's administrators that he did not want to teach. His testimony to the contrary is inconsistent with the testimony of administrators and his own conduct. Respondent's claim that we now wants to teach should be discredited; his conduct shows a pervasive pattern of a teacher that either cannot or will not conform his conduct to the legitimate and reasonable expectations of the District.

Respondent was adequately warned, his conduct was fully investigated and considering his attitude and the recurring nature of his failures, dismissal is a reasonable and proportionate response by the District. The tenure charges should be sustained.

Respondent

Respondent maintained that the District has failed to support its tenure charges. The basis of the charge relating to absenteeism – Respondent's use of FMLA – is impermissible. Notwithstanding the District's counsel and Superintendent Alston representing that the FMLA taken by Respondent is not a basis of the Charge, the Charge itself highlights Respondent's 82 days of absence during the 2017-2018 school year, the large majority of which were FMLA, and Alston repeatedly referenced the 82 days in his April 30, 2018 conversation with Respondent as well as during his testimony at the hearing.

Additionally, in regard to absenteeism, the evidence establishes that Respondent's absenteeism in the 2017-2018 and 2018-2019 was an aberration caused by the illness and passing of his wife and the effects of such on Respondent and his children. In this regard, Respondent has worked for the District for 18 years and prior to his wife's diagnosis, Respondent had accumulated almost 90 days of sick leave. Respondent is not a serial abuser of sick-leave. The evidence also showed that the underlying cause of Respondent's absences has now abated. Respondent's family has undergone difficult adjustments to their lives to compensate for the absence of Respondent's wife and the children's mother and they are now in a circumstance that will assure that Respondent will be able to meet the obligations of his family as well as his position with the District. Moreover, as to Respondent's absences prior to the 2018-2019 school year, Respondent has already received the harsh discipline of an increment withholding relating to them and it is unfair to then punish him a second time for the very same conduct.

The District's claim that the content of a student's video of what the District characterizes as a "slap fight" in Respondent's class shows unprofessional conduct, conduct unbecoming and neglect of duty is shown to be an empty claim by the video itself. Contrary to the District's claims, the video show two students engage in a 30 second horseplay event that was effective stopped by Respondent as he was taking roll at the beginning of his class.

The District's claim that Respondent failed to comply with his 2018-2019 CAP is also not supported by the evidence. In this regard, Superintendent Alston admitted at the hearing that he was actively in the process of framing and drafting tenure charges against Respondent in September 2018. Considering the CAP was signed September 24 2018, it is likely that the District was drafting tenure charges against Respondent event before his CAP began. Although the CAP was to extend for the full school year, the District brought Tenure Charges against Respondent just over a month after his CAP was signed. Respondent was not given a meaningful opportunity to comply with his CAP. Moreover, the District did not give Respondent the tools and resources to comply with his CAP. Although he was to submit lesson plans, the evidence shows that Respondent was not given a curriculum for his classes until after four weeks into the school year. Once he received the curriculum, Respondent submitted his plans as requested. Similarly, Respondent was understandably confused about the CAP requirement that he gain administrative approval for his absences when the District's call off system informed his that his absences did not need approval.

The District also claimed that its Charges are supported by the alleged fact that Respondent told administrators that he did not want to teach. The evidence shows that Respondent expressed his strong preference to remain in his technology administrative position. But the evidence does not show that he did not want to teach.

Finally, as to the Charge of Incapacity, it too should be dismissed as the District failed to show that Respondent had a mental of physical condition that incapacitated Respondent from working. To the contrary, the evidence shows that upon the conclusion of his FMLA leave in 2018, Respondent was cleared to return to work by his mental health provider and the District permitted him to return to work.

Discussion

The District bears the burden of supporting its Tenure Charges. Based upon careful consideration of the record as a whole, including all testimony and other admitted evidence and the arguments of the parties, I find that the District has failed to establish the truth of its Tenure Charges against Respondent.

Charge One - Attendance

At the end of the 2017-2018 school year Respondent was notified that he would be subject to the significant discipline of the withholding of his increment. His written notice from the District concerning the reasons for the discipline references attendance issues. Superintendent Alston testified that he could have issued a warning or a suspension, or recommended tenure charges. He explained that in his deliberations on what to do, he considered all of Respondent's conduct prior to and during the 2017-2018 school year and came to the decision to withhold the teacher's increment.

Notwithstanding that Respondent's pre-2018/2019 school year conduct was already subject to the significant discipline of increment withholding, in its Charge One the District cites Respondent's pre-2018 counseling letters and reprimands and particularly focuses upon the 82 days Respondent was absent during the 2017-2018 school year, the majority of which were covered by FMLA. The parties devoted significant energy and effort in arguing the bona fides of the District citing FMLA leave taken by Respondent during the 2017-2018 school year to support its tenure charges.

Although the record arguably (and even forcefully) supports a finding that the District's withholding of Respondent's increment was based upon inappropriate consideration of Grievant's use of FMLA, I find that consideration of the details of Grievant's 2017-2018 absence record is not appropriate here. In this regard, Respondent's increment was withheld and there is no evidence that Respondent appealed or otherwise challenged that action by the District. As a consequence of such, whether or not the withholding of Respondent's increment by the District was tainted by a reliance on FMLA leave taken or would have otherwise been supported by the employee's non-FMLA related absences during the 2017-2018 school year is not an issue presented here.

The Attendance Issue Here is Limited to the 2018-2019 School Year

Based upon such considerations, I find that the determinative issue presented by the District's Tenure Charge One is whether or not, and within the context of considerations of progressive discipline, Respondent's attendance-related conduct during the 2018-2019 school year establishes as alleged by Charge One that "Respondent's actions constitute abandonment" of his position and warrants his termination. Considering the limited conduct of Respondent during the 2018-2019 school year relied upon by the District as described in its Tenure Charge One, and the fact that the District already chose to issue lesser discipline for the conduct, I find that the answer to such a determinative inquiry is plainly "no."

As admitted by the District and cited in its October 26, 2018 Tenure Charge, Respondent missed 4.5 days during the period at issue and was tardy 13 times. Importantly, those very same 4.5 days of absence and 13 incidents of tardiness were the subject of an October 22, 2018 written "formal Reprimand" issued Respondent by Principal Hendricks. There is no additional conduct evidenced in the record between Respondent's October 22 reprimand and the October 26 Tenure Charge. The District's Tenure Charge One relies upon the very same conduct that had already been the subject of a formal reprimand as a basis for its decision to discharge the employee.

If the District believed Respondent's 4.5 absences and tardiness, together with Respondent's prior attendance-related discipline warranted his dismissal, it should have notified him of tenure charges – particularly where, as here, it had already begun the process of formulating its tenure charges in September 2018. Instead, the District notified Respondent that he was receiving a "formal reprimand." I find that such conduct by the District amounts to an admission that the conduct cited warranted a reprimand not dismissal; an admission that is consistent with progressive discipline.

Respondent's Absences Have Not Been Chronic, They Have Been Situational

In addition, I find the evidence does not support a finding that Respondent's absence was chronic. Respondent has been an employee of the District for approximately 18 years. Respondent's absences have not been chronic as alleged by the District, they have been situational, and the underlying realities of such situation have now changed significantly. In this regard, the evidence established that Respondent earned ten days of sick leave a year and accumulated an amount of sick leave that would take approximately nine years without absence to bank. He only began his use of significant leave due to a tragic loss and adjustment to its aftermath. I am persuaded by the record that the adjustments made by Respondent to his home-life to provide for his children and the continuation of professional mental health support for himself and his children have established that the causes of his attendance challenges have abated. Within such circumstances the District has failed to show that Respondent has abandoned his position or is unlikely to comply with the attendance requirements of his position in the future.

I find the District failed to meet its burden of proving the truth of its allegations in Tenure Charge One.

Charge Two - Incapacity

The District has failed to show that Respondent is incapacitated. The record establishes that he was cleared to return to work by his healthcare professional, and there is no evidence in the record to support a finding that Respondent is not physically or mentally fit. As for the District's reliance upon allegations relating to Respondent's attendance and performance as encompassed by Charges One and Three, I find for the reasons explained in my discussions about those Charges that such is not established by the evidence.

Charge Three – Unbecoming Conduct, Unprofessional Conduct and Neglect of Duty

Here the District alleges Respondent was not competent in his work, put students at risk as a result of his poor classroom management, did not want to teach and consequently neglected his duty, and failed and refused to comply with his CAP requirements.

PIPs

In its charge the District cited Respondent's work history and his receiving PIPs between 2003 and 2009. In this regard, the record establishes that Respondent received PIPs in the ordinary course as an alternative route teacher and that he was rated as Good (the second highest rating in a four-level scale) in his annual evaluations during that period. Contrary to the assertions of the District, I find that Respondent's PIPs do not support the Tenure Charges. The Charge also cites discipline of Respondent in 2014 and 2016 that I find bears no relevance to Charge Three.

Not Wanting to Teach

A major element of the District's theory in support of its Third Charge – and all of its Charges against Respondent – is that Respondent told at least three administrators that he did not want to teach, and that his conduct thereafter was consistent with his declaration and establishes that he was refusing to teach. As a consequence, the District asserted Respondent has engaged in unbecoming and unprofessional conduct and has neglected his duty.

Not wanting to do something and refusing to do something are very different things. A teacher may not want to be in the classroom but may nevertheless be a good teacher, and so too a teacher may want to be in the classroom and yet be a poor teacher. I find that the record establishes that Respondent expressed to District administrators that he preferred to stay in his administration position over returning to the classroom. In that sense of preference, Respondent may not have "wanted" to return to the classroom. However, I do not find sufficient evidence upon which to base a finding that Respondent in any way refused to teach. In contrast to such, the record establishes that in late April / early May of 2018 when asked in writing by the Superintendent what his intentions were for the 2018-2019 school year, an inquiry that came after the conversation in which Superintendent Alston testified Respondent stated that he did not want to teach,

Respondent replied in writing that he wanted to continue with the District "...in whatever capacity is asked of me..."

As for the events during the 2018-2019 school year relied upon by the District to show Respondent's alleged refusal to teach, such as the lack of computer mice, the loud noises coming from his classroom, the slap fight video and Respondent's compliance with his CAP, I find the District's evidence is insufficient to support a finding that Respondent refused to teach or otherwise abandoned his position

The September 14 Loud Nose and Respondent's Lack of Mice

To support its charges of incompetence and inability to manage his classroom, the District offered evidence relating to allegations of screaming coming from his classroom and what administrators observed when they investigated the screams. I find that the evidence is insufficient to establish that the loud noise/scream heard from the administrative offices on September 14, 2018 came from Respondent's classroom. In this regard, neither Superintendent Alston nor administrator Thompkins were present in the classroom at the time of the alleged scream. In contrast, Respondent was in the classroom and testified that the noise did not come from the room. Respondent's testimony was consistent with his statement to the administrators at the time of the incident. Additionally, although the statements reported by Respondent made by maintenance personnel at the time – that the noise did not come from the classroom – is inadmissible hearsay, Respondent's testimony that Respondent had complained about the lack of air conditioning in the room, that maintenance personnel were working on the air conditioning in the classroom ceiling at the time the administrators came down to investigate the noise. and that he and the two administrators agreed that the noise must have come from the hallway is admissible, and are collectively contrary to the allegation of the District or a finding that Respondent was responsible for the noise.

The evidence supports the reports by Superintendent Alston and administrator Thompkins that at the time they visited Respondent's classroom to investigate the noise, a movie was playing, the students did not appear to be engaged and when they asked Respondent why the student were not on computers, Respondent reported that there were no computer mice in the classroom. The District blamed the lack of computer mice and therefore the lack of engagement of the students on Respondent, asserting that he caused the loss of computer mice the year earlier.

I find the evidence fails to show that Grievant was responsible for the loss of mice. He testified that the mice had been lost the year earlier and that the school was experiencing a loss of mice overall, including in the technology rooms and the library. Respondent's testimony in this regard was supported by testimony of Assistant Principal Chapman who confirmed that there was an issue with missing computer mice at the school at the beginning of the year, that the missing mice were also an issue in the school library.

Respondent also testified that in September 2018, not only did the classroom not have computer mice, he did not begin the year with logins for students to use the computers in the classroom (testimony again confirmed by the assistant principal) and did not have a curriculum for any of the three grades he was teaching. I credit Respondent's testimony concerning the lack of mice, logins and curriculum.

Considering the evidence in this regard, I find the District has failed to show that Respondent was responsible for screaming coming from his classroom, the lack of mice for the room's computers, the lack of logins for students or the confusion that would predictably occur in the absence of a curriculum in the classes assigned to Respondent. I find the District has failed to establish the truth of its tenure charges in such regards.

The "Slap Fight"

In support of its charge that Respondent's lack of competence or neglect of duty put students at risk, the District offered evidence of an incident of "slap boxing" or a "slap fight" in Respondent's classroom. When offering the video of the alleged "slap fight" incident into evidence, Superintendent Alton testified that the conduct of the students could have easily escalated into harmful conduct and that Respondent was not paying proper attention as he was sitting on the counter and looking at his cellphone. When asked at the hearing what Respondent should have done, Superintendent Alston testified that Respondent should have stopped the fight immediately and had the students sit down. Consistently with the conduct recommended by the superintendent, the video captures the two students smiling and engaged with one another and Respondent stating that the problem with what they were doing was that it could easily escalate into something more serious and that the students should stop and sit down. The video shows the students then stopping and sitting down. As for Respondent using the cellphone, the record establishes that the District offers a cellphone app for teachers to take attendance, and Respondent offered uncontracted testimony that he was taking attendance on his phone at the time as students came into the classroom.

The District characterizes the 30 seconds of horseplay captured on video by a student in Respondent's classroom as evidence of a "slap fight" or "slap boxing" between students that warranted intervention by Respondent and the calling of security, and that the incident occurred when Respondent was on his cellphone and not paying attention. I find such an exaggerated characterization by the District is evidence of the District's predisposition to terminate Respondent. The video does not show a fight or a dangerous absence of control of the classroom by Respondent. Instead, it shows two apparent friends engaging in horseplay that was stopped by the teacher in a timely manner. The facts that the students were not disciplined by the school and that the principal's referral of the incident to the IAIU resulted in a finding of "unfounded" support my finding herein. I find that the District has failed to establish the truth of its allegation that the slap boxing incident shows neglect of duty or otherwise supports the termination of Respondent.

Formal Reprimand of October 2, 2018

By memorandum dated October 2, 2018, the day Respondent was attending a classroom management seminar, Respondent was formally reprimanded for leaving work early on October 1, allowing a slap fight in his classroom as evidenced by a video reviewed by the principal on October 2, 2018, failing to provide his class computer mice and failing to improve his classroom management skills. Respondent was reminded of the requirements of his CAP, signed the week earlier.

I have found that the District has failed to meet its burden of showing that discipline of Respondent was warranted relating to the "slap fight" or the District's lack of providing its students computer mice.

The CAP

CAPs are typically seen in cases involving Charges of Inefficiency under the Act. Inefficiency is not alleged here. The District offered evidence relating to the 2018-2019

CAP to show that Respondent's failure to comply with the CAP is evidence of his refusal to teach.

The evidence establishes that the CAP was created at the same time that the District was contemplating tenure charges against Respondent; circumstances that place the good faith of the District's collaborative effort to improve Respondent's performance through the CAP into question. The District alleges that in addition to his being absent and tardy (discussed above relating to Charge One) Respondent failed to comply with the requirements of his CAP relating to timely submission of lesson plans, creation of a classroom management plan and gaining the appropriate authorization from administration prior to his being absent or tardy.

In regard to gaining approval for absences, the CAP itself provides; "Unless prior approval is obtained from an administrator, ensure that you come to work each day," and in regard to tardiness; "Unless you receive prior approval for a late arrival, ensure that you arrive at work on time every day." It is undisputed that Respondent did not receive the prior approval required by the CAP. In regard to the approval for absences, Respondent testified that he used the District's electronic attendance system – a system that informed him each time he used it that no approval was required. Considering the circumstances and the ambiguity created by the District's own attendance system, I find that the record does not establish that Respondent's failure to receive in-person approval for his absences and tardiness was an intentional or wanton refusal to comply with the CAP, or otherwise support the allegations of the tenure charge three.

The District also cites Respondent's failure to submit a classroom management plan by October 5, 2018. The requirement for the creation of the plan actually comes under the section of the CAP listing "Supervisor Responsibilities." There is no dispute that Respondent did not complete the plan by the October 5 date. However, the evidence establishes that he did complete the plan by October 15, 2018, a date established by an October 12, 2018 memorandum to Respondent from Principal Hendricks.

In addition to his failing to submit a management plan by October 5, Hendricks' October 12 memorandum also discussed Respondent's failure to submit lesson plans on Tuesdays as required of staff for four weeks in a row. Hendricks expressed her concern and directed Respondent to "Submit your lesson plans by midnight each Thursday." And to Submit your detailed classroom behavior plan by Monday, October 15, 2018."

Respondent offered un-contradicted evidence that he submitted his management plan prior to the October 15 deadline and having received curriculum for his classes, thereafter submitted his lesson plans as directed.

Importantly, the October 12 memorandum from Principal Hendricks concludes by providing:

> Failure to adhere to deadlines will result in a formal written reprimand from my office and possible action by the Central Administration. If there is any part of this letter that need clarification or you have further questions regarding my concerns, please let me know immediately.
>
> (Emphasis added)

The record establishes that Respondent met the deadlines contained in the principal's October 12, 2018 memorandum. Yet, Respondent's pre-October 12 conduct is included in the District's support for its Tenure Charges. I find that the CAP should be considered within its own context; it is meant to be a school-year-long collaborative effort between the administrators and teacher to improve performance. In is not unusual for parties to experience bumps in the road in the early stages of such an effort. Within such a context, I do not find that Respondent's initial struggles to comply with his CAP establish the unbecoming or unprofessional conduct or neglect of duty alleged in the tenure charges.

The Corrective Nature of Discipline/Notions of Fairness and Due Process

In is widely recognized that in all but the most egregious cases, discipline in the employment context is primarily intended to be corrective in nature; discipline is an effort by an employer to correct questionable conduct or poor performance by employees. Only when efforts to correct have failed through reasonable efforts under the circumstances, is discipline justly used to terminate the employment relationship. The TEACHNJ Act recognizes such a corrective-focused paradigm when, for example, it provides that a school district shall not dismiss or reduce the compensation of a tenured teachers except for "inefficiency, incapacity, or conduct unbecoming …or other just cause," (emphasis added) or where the statute requires that school districts provide teachers who have received wanting annual evaluations the opportunity to correct their performance through the collaborative process of implementing a Corrective Action Plan (CAP) (emphasis added).

Necessary to any effort to correct conduct is the understanding that once the employee has received corrective discipline the employee actually be given the opportunity to correct his or her conduct. It is fundamentally contrary to any concept of justice in the workplace for an employee to receive further discipline for conduct before the employee has had a fair opportunity to reform his or her conduct. Similarly, it is fundamentally unfair for an employee: (1) to be placed within a set of circumstances by the employer where the employee does not have the method or means of reforming the conduct at issue; (2) to be warned that further conduct could result in a less severe category of discipline such as a formal reprimand, only to then be terminated for the conduct subject to the warning; (3) be informed that his or her conduct has resulted in a formal written reprimand and thereafter - where no further similar conduct occurs – be subject to termination based upon the very same conduct subject to that reprimand; or (4) to be disciplined for the same conduct more than once.

Here, the District has engaged in each such unfairness toward Respondent. Thus; (1) the District required Respondent to teach 6th, 7th and 8th Grade tech without curricula, logins or computer mice; (2) Respondent was informed that if he did not meet deadlines established in an October 12 memorandum he would be discipline, but notwithstanding that he met such deadlines and remedied the conduct as directed by his principal, the then-remedied conduct was used as a basis for Tenure charges; (3) although Respondent engaged in no further conduct of the nature addressed in his October 22 formal reprimand the District's tenure charges thereafter subjected him to termination based upon the very conduct for which he had already been disciplined; and (4) a substantial portion of the District case was based upon conduct already the subject of Respondent's increment withholding.

Considering the record as a whole, including all documentary and testimonial evidence, and my observations of the demeanor of all witnesses presented, I am persuaded that in September 2018, soon after the start of the 2018-2019 school year, the District had already formed an intention to file tenure charges against Respondent largely based upon Respondent`s absences during the 2017-2018 school year, and that the charges it eventually filed on October 26, 2018 were primarily motivated by those absences.

Respondent's 2017-2018 absences had already been the motivation for the District's withholding of Respondent's increment and the District's rush to judgment to terminate Respondent in the early weeks of the 2018-2019 school year because of his absences in the prior school year is insufficient basis to support the District's Tenure Charges. The Tenure Charges relating to the 2018-2019 school year are largely without substance, and even considering Respondent's disciplinary record and principles of progressive discipline, have not been shown by the District to support termination.

Conclusion

The District has failed to establish the truth of its conduct unbecoming charge against Respondent. The Tenure Charges shall be dismissed.

Award

The subject tenure charges against Respondent Edward J Furhmeister are dismissed.

The District is ordered to:

1. Promptly offer Respondent reinstatement to his former position.

2. Make Respondent whole for any and all losses of pay, seniority and other benefits he may have suffered as a result of his suspension from the date of his suspension to the date of her reinstatement by the District.

Dated: March 28, 2019

Timothy J Brown, Esquire
Arbitrator

I, Timothy J Brown, affirm that I have executed this document as my Award in Agency Docket Case No. 305-12/18 relating to tenure charges against Edward J. Furhmeister on Thursday, March 28, 2019.

Timothy J Brown

STATE OF NEW JERSEY DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

IN THE MATTER OF TENURE CHARGES BY:

SCHOOL DISTRICT OF ROCKAWAY TOWNSHIP
Petitioner

- against -

ENRIQUE VALDEBENITO
Respondent

Agency Docket No. 29-2/19

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5 and 18A:6-10

APPEARANCES:

FOR THE PETITIONER
SCARINCI HOLLENBECK
By: John G. Geppert, Esq.

FOR THE RESPONDENT
CARUSO SMITH PICINI
By: Nicholas Poberezhsky, Esq.

BEFORE:

Perry A. Zirkel, Arbitrator

ARBITRATOR APPROVAL

The School District of Rockaway Township (Petitioner) filed Sworn Tenure Charges against tenured custodian Enrique Valdebenito (Respondent) in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5 and 18A:6-10, and served them on Respondent with notice of opportunity to submit evidence and argument inopposition. Thereafter, the Commissioner of Education, following review of the Charges and Respondent's answer, found the Charges were sufficient for referral to an arbitrator. On March 7, 2019 the Office of Controversies and Disputes appointed me as the arbitrator to hear and decide this tenure dispute. At a status conference with the parties, we agreed on hearing dates of April 18–19, with deadlines of March 18 for the Respondent's motion for partial summary judgment and March 29 for the Petitioner's reply brief. On March 17, based on a joint request of the parties and their assurance that they had settled the matter subject to ratification by the school board scheduled for March 20, I agreed to their request for a one-week extension of the aforementioned briefs. On March 21, the parties submitted to me the ratified settlement agreement, which the Petitioner and Respondent had duly signed.

After a careful review of the Agreement, I hereby conclude that it satisfies the statutory requirements for withdrawal and settlement of tenure charges, as set forth in N.J.A.C. 6A:3-5.6 based on the following findings:

1. The Petitioner specified the charges and provided them to the Respondent with the requisite accompanying documentation.

2. The Agreement incorporates the circumstances justifying the settlement. The Respondent has agreed to resign effective May 6, 2019. The Petitioner has agreed to provide his remaining salary and specified benefits for severance. The parties have agreed to waivers, releases, and confidentiality provisions to bring the matter to closure.

3. The signature pages attest to the consent of both parties.

4. Provisions 7 and 8 of the Agreement assure and confirm that the mutually signing amounts to informed consent, with legal representation on each side.

5. The Agreement is in the public interest by saving the notable transaction costs of the detailed statutory proceedings, while removing the Petitioner from any further conduct that is contrary to the District's effective working and educational environment.

6. The terms of confidentiality (provision 6) , including the specified permitted and required disclosures, are expressly bounded by the law applicable to public access to information and records. Moreover, the Agreement is relatively simple and straightforward, with no misrepresentation.

Thus, I approve the attached Agreement in full resolution of Agency Docket No. 29-2/19.

Perry A. Zirkel, Arbitrator
September 23, 2019

CARUSO SMITH PICINI
A PROFESSIONAL CORPORATION
ATTORNEYS AT LAW
60 Route 46 East, Fairfield, New Jersey 07004
973-667-6000 973-667-1200 facsimile

Nicholas Poberezhsky, Esq.
npoberezhsky@carusosmith.com

March 15, 2019

Via Email to: jgeppert@sh-law.com
& Regular Mail
John G. Geppert, Esq.
Scarinci Hollenbeck
Attorneys at Law
1100 Valley Brook Avenue
P.O. Box 790
Lyndhurst, NJ 07071

Re: I/M/O Enrique Valdebenito; Rockaway Township Bd. of Educ., Morris Co.
Agency Dkt. No.: 29-2/19

Dear Mr. Geppert:

Enclosed herewith, please find the signed / notarized settlement documents in the above-captioned matter, including Stipulation of Settlement and Letter of Resignation. Please be sure to forward a copy of the fully-executed version of the settlement agreement to my office following the Board's ratification of the same. A copy should also be submitted to the arbitrator for approval.

Thank you for your time and attention to this matter. Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions or concerns.

Respectfully,
CARUSO SMITH PICINI, P.C.

By: _____
Nicholas Poberezhsky, Esq.

Enclosure

c: Enrique Valdebenito (via regular mail)
John C. Williams, UniServ Field Representative (via regular mail)
NJEA Legal Department (via e-mail only)

SCARINCI HOLLENBECK
ATTORNEYS AT LAW
1100 VALLEY BROOK AVENUE
P.O. BOX 790
LYNDHURST, NEW JERSEY 07071-0790
Telephone: (201) 896-4100
Attorneys for Rockaway Township School District
Our File No. 13338.1005

In the Matter of	:	AGENCY DKT. NO. 29-2/19
ENRIQUE VALDEBENITO	:	STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT
SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE TOWNSHIP OF ROCKAWAY, IN THE COUNTY OF MORRIS	:

The Board of Education of the Township of Rockaway (the "Board"), whose principal office is located at 16 School Road, Hibernia, New Jersey 07842, and its successors, assigns, officers, employees, agents and representatives (collectively, "School District"), and Enrique Valdebenito, residing at 197 South Main Street, Apt. 3, Wharton, NJ 07885 ("Valdebenito" or "Respondent") (collectively, the "Parties") have voluntarily resolved all disputed matters and enter into the following Stipulation of Settlement, which fully disposes of all issues in controversy between them in full and complete settlement of all outstanding issues as detailed below.

WHEREAS, Respondent is a tenured Custodian employed by the School District; and

WHEREAS, the Superintendent of the School District ("Superintendent") certified tenure charges of conduct unbecoming and other just case to the Commissioner of Education of the State of New Jersey, captioned In the Matter of the Tenure Hearing of Enrique Valdebenito, School District of the Township of Rockaway, Morris County ("Tenure Charges"), primarily based upon allegations that Respondent had engaged in conduct unbecoming and other just cause, and such charges were assigned Docket No. 29-2/19; and Respondent filed an answer opposing the charges; and the Commissioner of Education, having reviewed the charges and Respondent's answer, determined that the charges were sufficient, if true, to warrant dismissal or reduction in compensation, and accordingly referred the matter to Arbitrator Perry A. Zirkel ("Arbitrator") for a hearing; and

WHEREAS, the parties have mutually agreed to resolve the above-referenced tenure charges; and

WHEREAS, the proposed Stipulation of Settlement is in the best interest of the Parties and the public;

NOW, THEREFORE, subject to approval by the Arbitrator, in consideration for the promises and mutual covenants set forth herein, the Parties hereby agree as follows:

1. Upon final approval by the Arbitrator of the signed Stipulation by the District Respondent agrees to resign from his tenured position effective May 6, 2019. Attached is a copy of Respondent's signed Letter of Resignation (Exhibit A). Respondent shall be returned to the payroll through the effective date of resignation, beginning March 6, 2019. The District shall also provide Respondent with three (3) months' health insurance benefits, for which the District shall pay the entire cost without contribution from the Respondent, effective February 6, 2019 through May 6, 2019. Upon resignation, Respondent shall receive any outstanding amounts owed, if any, between his period of suspension and two months' salary as severance pay. These payments will be in full and complete satisfaction of any and all claims due and owing to Respondent from the Board, including but not limited to any and all accrued sick leave and vacation. Upon completion of the three (3) month period during which benefits are paid, Respondent shall be entitled to any benefits to which he may be lawfully entitled under the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act ("COBRA"). Respondent shall have the same COBRA rights as any other former employee and shall be solely responsible for any and all costs associated with said COBRA coverage.

2. In exchange for the consideration set forth in paragraph 1 above, the sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, Respondent hereby waives, releases and discharges any and all claims or rights that he has or may have against the School District, the Superintendent, its Board of Education and its Board members, and any and all other School District officers, employees, representatives, agents, successors and assigns (collectively, the "Released Parties") including any claim for attorneys' fees, costs or other monetary relief. This waiver, release and discharge includes, without limitation, any and all actions, claims, and liabilities of whatsoever kind or character, in law or in equity, now known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, directly or indirectly related to Respondent's employment with the School District or separation from employment with the School District. It specifically includes, without limitation, all claims which Respondent may have regarding tenure, withholding of increment, discrimination on any basis, any federal or state civil rights law, any alleged violation of the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, as amended; the Older Worker Benefits Protection Act; Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended; Sections 1981 through 1988 of Title 42 of the United States Code; the Civil Rights of 1991; the Equal Pay Act; the Americans with Disabilities Act; the Rehabilitation Act; the Family and Medical Leave Act; the Fair Labor Standards Act; the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended; the Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification Act; the National Labor Relations Act; the Fair Credit Reporting Act; the Occupational Safety and Health Act; the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Act; the Employee Polygraph Protection Act; the Immigration Reform Control Act; the retaliation provisions of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002; the False Claims Act; the New Jersey Law Against Discrimination; the New Jersey Conscientious Employee Protection Act; the New Jersey Family Leave Act; the New Jersey Wage and Hour Law; the New Jersey Equal Pay Law; the New Jersey Occupational Safety and Health Law; the New Jersey Smokers' Rights Law; the New Jersey Genetic Privacy Act; the New Jersey Fair Credit Reporting Act; New Jersey Wages and Hours Law, unemployment compensations laws, disability benefits laws, retaliation provisions of the New Jersey Workers' Compensation Law; the United States Constitution, the New Jersey Constitution; and/or any other alleged violation of any federal, state or local law, regulation or ordinance; any claim based on contract, implied contract, collective bargaining agreement, tort law, personal injury, or public policy, having any bearing whatsoever on his employment by and/or termination of his employment with the District, including but not limited to any claim for wrongful discharge, back pay, vacation pay, sick pay, wages, attorneys' fees, costs, and/or future wage loss, except for workers compensation claims.

3. Notwithstanding the terms of Paragraph 2 of this Agreement, it is understood and agreed that the parties are not prohibited from communicating with or participating in any administrative proceeding before the United States Department of Labor, the Equal Employment Opportunity Commissioner, or any other federal, state or local law agency. However, should any entity, agency commission or person file a charge, action, complaint or lawsuit against the School District based upon any of the released claims, Respondent agrees not to seek or accept any resulting relief whatsoever.

4. To comply with the Older Workers Benefit Protection Act, if applicable, this Stipulation of Settlement advises Respondent of the legal requirements of the Act and fully incorporates the legal requirements by reference into this Stipulation of Settlement. Accordingly, by executing this Stipulation, Respondent acknowledges that he: (i) fully understands the terms and conditions of this Stipulation of Settlement; (ii) has consulted with an attorney to review the Stipulation of Settlement; (iii) specifically waives his right to pursue any current claims he may have under the Age Discrimination in Employment Act; (iv) has been given sufficient time within which to consider this Stipulation of Settlement; and (v) has 7 days from the date of the execution of this Stipulation of Settlement to revoke it. Respondent understands that he may rescind this Agreement within 7 calendar days of signing and such rescission must be in writing and delivered to counsel for the School District either by hand or by certified mail within the 7-day period.

5. This Stipulation shall not constitute a precedent in any matters involving other District employees.

6. This Stipulation, and all of its terms, are and will remain confidential to the maximum extent permitted by law. Respondent is expressly forbidden from discussing this Stipulation with any person, other than his accountant, tax advisor and attorney ("permitted disclosures") and any other individual or entity as necessary to implement the Stipulation or to which he is legally obligated to respond ("legally-required disclosures"). In making any permitted disclosure, Respondent agrees that he will inform the person to whom he is making the permitted disclosure that the existence and substance of this Stipulation, the settlement giving rise to this Stipulation and the sum of money paid pursuant to this Stipulation are to be held strictly confidential to the fullest extent permitted by law. Respondent specifically agrees not to discuss the nature, terms, conditions of this Stipulation with others, any representative of the media, or any past, present, or prospective employee of the District, or its agents or attorneys. Respondent understands that this provision is not a simple recital but is an important, integral part of this Stipulation. The District agrees that it will keep this Stipulation confidential to the extent permitted by law.

7. The Parties each acknowledge that counsel has advised them regarding this Stipulation and that each is signing this Stipulation freely and voluntarily, without duress, coercion or pressure from the other party, with full understanding of its terms and conditions and consents to the terms contained herein.

8. Valdebenito agrees that he has been given a reasonable period of time of at least twenty-one (21) days within which to review and consider this Stipulation prior to executing this Stipulation, but Valdebenito may waive this twenty-one (21) day period by signing the space provided at the end of this Stipulation.

9. Each signatory to this Stipulation understands, acknowledges and agrees that this Stipulation constitutes the full agreement of the parties and may not be altered, amended, modified, or otherwise changed in any respect whatsoever except by a duly executed writing signed on behalf of both Parties and there are no written or oral representations, understandings or agreements directly or indirectly connected with this Stipulation.

10. This Stipulation shall be construed and enforced in accordance with New Jersey law. The Commissioner of Education and/or federal and state courts of the State of New Jersey, as applicable, shall have exclusive jurisdiction over any dispute arising from, in connection with, or related to this Stipulation and Respondent consents to both personal and subject matter jurisdiction in the aforementioned courts or before the Commissioner of Education.

11. This Stipulation may be executed in counterparts with the same effect as if the signatures hereto and thereto were upon the same instrument. Each counterpart will be deemed an original, which taken together shall constitute a single instrument. Facsimile signature or signatures in electronic Portable Document Format ("PDF") shall be construed and have the same force and effect as original signatures.

12. This Stipulation or any uncertainty or ambiguity therein shall not be construed against any party, but shall be construed as if both Parties to this Stipulation jointly prepared this Agreement.

13. If any provision of this Stipulation is held by a court of competent jurisdiction or determined under applicable law to be invalid, void, or unenforceable, the remaining provisions will continue and remain in full force and effect.

14. This Stipulation of Settlement is subject to the final approval of the Board and will only become effective upon the final approval of the Board. Any disapproval by the Board shall not interfere with the rights of either party to pursue this matter.

15. This Stipulation is further subject to approval by the Arbitrator pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-5.6(c) and will become effective only upon approval by the Arbitrator. Counsel for the Parties shall request the Arbitrator's approval of this Agreement and each shall take any and all necessary steps to effectuate dismissal of the Tenure Charges.

SIGNATURE PAGE

Dated: 3/15/19

Enrique Valdebenito
ENRIQUE VALDEBENITO

Sworn and Subscribed to before me
this March day of 15, 2019.

Notary Public
State of New Jersey

Jeanette Velez
Notary Public
State of New Jersey
Middlesex County
My Commission Expires September 5, 2022

Dated: 3/20/19

Susan Salny
SUSAN SALNY
Township of Rockaway Board of Education
President

SIGNATURE PAGE

Dated: 3/15/19

Enrique Valdebenito
ENRIQUE VALDEBENITO

Sworn and Subscribed to before me
this March day of 15, 2019.

Notary Public
State of New Jersey

Jeanette Velez
Notary Public
State of New Jersey
Middlesex County
My Commission Expires September 5, 2022

Dated: _____

_____
SUSAN SALNY
Township of Rockaway Board of Education
President

CERTIFICATION OF CONSENT TO SETTLEMENT TERMS PURSUANT TO N.J.A.C. 6A:3-5.6(b):

Dated: _____

JOHN G. GEPPERT, JR.
Attorney for School District of the Township of Rockaway

Dated: 3/15/19

NICHOLAS POBEREZHSKY
Attorney for Enrique Valdebenito

Approved:

Dated: 3/23/19

PERRY A. ZIRKEL
Arbitrator

CERTIFICATION

I ACKNOWLEDGE THAT I HAVE CAREFULLY READ THIS SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE AND UNDERSTAND ALL OF ITS TERMS, INCLUDING THE FULL AND FINAL RELEASE AND WAIVER OF CLAIMS SET FORTH ABOVE. I FURTHER ACKNOWLEDGE THAT I HAVE KNOWLEDGE THAT I HAVE KNOWINGLY AND VOLUNTARILY ENTERED INTO THIS SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND RELEASE, AND THAT I HAVE NOT RELIED UPON ANY REPRESENTATION OR STATEMENT, WRITTEN OR ORAL, NOT SET FORTH IN THIS SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND RELEASE.

Dated: 3/15/19

Enrique Valdebenito

ENRIQUE VALDEBENITO

WAIVER

By signing below, the undersigned hereby irrevocably elects to waive the 21 days period referred to in the 8th recital of this Stipulation.

Enrique Valdebenito
ENRIQUE VALDEBENITO

DATED: 3/15/19

Exhibit A

March 15, 2019

Dr. James McLaughlin, Superintendent
Rockaway Township School District
16 School Road
Hibernia, New Jersey 07842

Dear Superintendent McLaughlin:

I hereby resign from my tenured position as a Custodian in the Rockaway Township School District, effective May 6, 2019. I understand that my resignation is irrevocable, and that as of the Effective Date, all of my rights of employment with the District, including but not limited to accrued salary, benefits and seniority, will permanently end.

Dated: 3/15/19

Enrique Valdebenito

ENRIQUE VALDEBENITO

STATE OF NEW JERSEY
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

In the Matter of the Tenure Hearing of:

JOSEPH DeSHAN, BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF CINNAMINSON, BURLINGTON COUNTY

Agency Docket No. 311-12/18

Walt De Treux, Esq., Arbitrator

DECISION ON RESPONDENT'S MOTION TO DISMISS

Decision Date: 4/2/19

Introduction and Statement of Relevant Facts

Joseph DeShan has been a teacher at Cinnaminson Middle School and Rush Elementary School in the Cinnaminson School District for approximately 22 years. Prior to his employment with the District, DeShan was a Roman Catholic priest in the Bridgeport, Connecticut Diocese. In 1988, he had a sexual relationship with a 14-year old female. A child was born from their relationship in 1990 when the female was 16 years old. DeShan left the priesthood around 1994 and become a Cinnaminson school teacher in 1996.

In 2002, Connecticut newspapers reported on DeShan's relationship with the minor. On April 12, 2002, the Cinnaminson Board of Education (BOE), previously unaware of the relationship and DeShan's former vocation as a priest, placed DeShan on administrative suspension. Three weeks later, he was returned to the classroom with no further discipline or adverse effect on his employment.

On December 20, 2018, the Cinnaminson BOE filed tenure charges against DeShan with the New Jersey Commissioner of Education. The charges moved for DeShan's removal from his position for "Conduct Unbecoming a Staff Member." Specifically, the charges focused on current and past conduct as detailed in the Statement of Evidence, sworn to by Superintendent of Schools Stephen Cappello and stating in relevant part,

> "14. On one recent occasion, it was reported that DeShan told a young female student that, "Look at me. Let me see your pretty green eyes. You don't see them too much anymore." The student reported that the comment made her feel "uncomfortable." The student further noted that DeShan made the comment in a "weird voice."
>
> 15. Many parents have come forward requesting that their children be removed from DeShan's class.
>
> 16. Parents with children in the District came forward at the October 16, 2018 School Board Meeting to express their serious concern with DeShan remaining in the classroom, including: > a. Because of DeShan's prior conduct, students do not trust their teacher, and are talking about their teacher being a "rapist."
>
> b. Wanting their children to feel safe at all times at school, and a person with his history should not be around children. Requests to "please protect our children."
> c. Child finds teacher "creepy" and parent would her child to be removed from his class if he is to remain in school.
> d. Concerns that the child DeShan had a sexual relationship with was the same age as their children that he is currently teaching.
> e. That DeShan should not be teaching their children because he is a "pedophile."

On January 4, 2019, Respondent DeShan filed a Motion to Dismiss Tenure Charges in Lieu of Answer. On January 17, 2019, I was appointed as Arbitrator to decide the Motion and hear the case, if necessary. The BOE filed a Brief in Opposition on January 30, 2019, and Respondent filed a Reply Brief on March 29, 2019. The Motion to Dismiss is ripe for decision.

Issue

Should Respondent's Motion to Dismiss Tenure Charges be granted?

Analysis and Decision

In his Motion to Dismiss, Respondent argues that the tenure charges are procedurally deficient as they are based on "hearsay, rumor, and innuendo without the necessary residuum of legally competent non-hearsay evidence." The BOE counters that the charges "contained enough information and facts in order for Respondent to articulate a response or defense."

The charges focus on both current and past conduct. The current conduct relates to Respondent's alleged comment to a female student regarding her "pretty green eyes." The past conduct refers to Respondent's pre-employment sexual relationship with a minor while he served as a priest in the Bridgeport, CT Diocese.

TEACHNJ regulations, N.J.A.C. 6A:3-5.1(b)(1), require in relevant part,

> 1. Charges shall be stated with specificity as to the action or behavior underlying the charges and shall be filed in writing with the secretary of the district board of education or with the State district superintendent, accompanied by a supporting statement of evidence, both of which will be executed under oath by the person(s) instituting such charges.

In the Matter of Tenure Hearing of Kevin Karp, Board of Education of the Township of Barnegat, Ocean County, Agency Docket #102-4/16 (May 26, 2016), Arbitrator Edmund Gerber dismissed tenure charges against the Respondent because the Superintendent swearing to the Statement of Evidence and certifying the tenure charges did not directly participate in the investigation of the allegations, but instead, relied on unsigned documents from school administrators who conducted the investigation and acted without signed statements from complaining students and parents. He rejected the charges because they were "certified on the basis of double hearsay," citing the ALJ decision In the Matter of the Tenure Hearing of Edwards, East Orange Board of Education, 1982 S.L.D. (2011).

In the present case, Superintendent Cappello certifies in ¶14 of the Statement of Evidence that "it was reported" that Respondent made a comment to a female student regarding her "pretty green eyes." The paragraph also refers that "the student reported" feeling uncomfortable and that Respondent spoke in a "weird voice." The allegation provides no further context. It does not explain who reported the comment or to whom the comment was reported. The allegation does not indicate whether Supt. Cappello had personal knowledge of the alleged comment or whether it was investigated by school administration. There are no statements from the female student or notes/transcripts of interviews with the student or others. The tenure charges in ¶13 allege, "DeShan's prior conduct in addition to present conduct has caused his continued presence in the District to be a substantial disruption to the educational process." In the Statement of Evidence, the alleged comment to the student is not linked in any way to "substantial disruption to the educational process." The Statement does not indicate that parents or others were made aware of the alleged comment.

In short, the evidence in support of the current conduct – the alleged comment is the only incident cited – is clearly based on hearsay. The layers of hearsay are impossible to determine as the allegation does not indicate how and from whom school administration learned of the comment. Supt. Cappello certified the charges at least on the basis of hearsay, if not double or triple hearsay. For this reason alone, the tenure charges are procedurally deficient.

The BOE argues that Respondent had enough information to understand and respond to the allegation. Respondent did, as he provided a narrative of the event in his Motion to Dismiss; but the BOE's argument distracts from the reasons that charges are required to be supported by competent non-hearsay evidence. The procedural protections ensure that charges comply with due process. It is not the comment itself that appears to be the primary basis for the charges, but the student's alleged reaction to the comment. Respondent's proffered context for the comment strips it of any inappropriate interpretation. The BOE, to the contrary, insinuates that the comment was laced with improper intentions and sexual connotations. Yet it provides no non-hearsay evidence of the basis for that implication. A description of the student's reaction (feeling "uncomfortable') without any indication to whom, if anyone, she reported that reaction or to how the alleged comment and reaction came to the Superintendent's attention (i.e., the number of persons the account was passed through before he learned of it) gives Respondent no opportunity to properly respond to the allegation or to rebut those unknown persons that may have reported or passed on the alleged comment and description of the student's reaction.

For all these reasons, I find that the charges as they relate to alleged current conduct, i.e., the one alleged comment to the female student, are based on hearsay, and therefore, are procedurally deficient and must be dismissed.

The BOE first learned of Respondent's prior employment as a priest and his pre-employment sexual relationship with a minor in 2002. After a 3-week administrative suspension, the BOE returned him to the classroom.

In the tenure charges, the BOE is not alleging that Respondent has engaged in any other past conduct other than the pre-employment conduct. It argues that parental and societal views have changed so that the past conduct now renders Respondent unfit for the classroom. The Statement of Evidence cites to parents' comments at a Board meeting, decrying Respondent and questioning the safety of their children. The speakers of those comments are unidentified, and their comments are clearly hearsay. The larger point, however, is that the BOE is relying on the attitudes of some parents toward Respondent's past conduct to support the tenure charges alleging Conduct Unbecoming a Staff Member.

In Bound Brook Board of Education v. Ciripompa, 153 A.2d 931, 228 N.J. 4 (2017), the New Jersey Supreme Court reviewed the standard applied to a claim of unbecoming conduct. As part of a longer discussion, the Court observed,

> "A charge of unbecoming conduct requires only evidence of inappropriate conduct by teaching professionals. It focuses on the morale, efficiency, and public perception of an entity, and how those concerns are harmed by allowing teachers to behave inappropriately while holding public employment." At 938.

The BOE has not alleged that Respondent engaged in any inappropriate conduct while holding public employment. Rather, it cites conduct prior to his employment for the District and for which it had administratively suspended, investigated, and returned him to the classroom more than 16 years ago. The fact that some parents now demand his removal from the classroom does not give the BOE a second opportunity to revisit pre-employment conduct of which it has been long aware. The charges do not cite to inappropriate conduct other than conduct that was already addressed by the Board in 2002 when it learned of the pre-employment conduct.

As the conduct unbecoming charges are based on alleged hearsay complaints from parents and on pre-employment conduct that was addressed by the BOE 16 years ago , I find the tenure charges as to past conduct procedurally deficient and insufficient to support a charge of Conduct Unbecoming a Staff Member.

For these reasons, the charges will be dismissed.

Award and Remedy

Respondent's Motion to Dismiss Tenure Charges is granted, and the tenure charges are dismissed. As remedy, the BOE is ordered to immediately reinstate Respondent to his former position with full backpay, benefits, and all emoluments associated therewith, as required by law and consistent with the operative collective bargaining agreement.

Walt De TReux

WALT De TREUX

Affirmation

I, Walt De Treux, affirm that I am the individual who executed this Decision and Award.

Walt De TReux

WALT De TREUX

OAL Dkt. No. EDU 02624-18
Agency Dkt. No. 15-1/18

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Dolores Abernathy,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Irvington, Essex County,

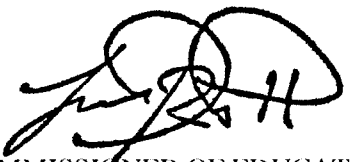
Respondent.

The record of this matter, the proposed settlement agreement (Agreement), and the Initial Decision issued by the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1.

Under the terms of the Agreement, petitioner was to be reimbursed for all pay withheld from her during the pendency of the tenure charges and reinstated to her active work duties by February 19, 2019 – which date has preceded the consideration of the Agreement by the Commissioner of Education. The parties are reminded that a settlement of litigation before the Commissioner is not binding until the Commissioner approves same.

In light of the foregoing, the Commissioner adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter, provided that the parties have already implemented the settlement terms or have agreed upon mutually satisfactory alternate dates for the effectuation of the same. As such, the matter is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the Agreement.

IT IS SO ORDERED.



COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 4/10/19
Date of Mailing: 4/10/19

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SETTLEMENT
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 02624-18
AGY REF NO. 15-1/18

DOLORES ABERNATHY,

Petitioner,

vs.

TOWNSHIP OF IRVINGTON, BOARD OF EDUCATION,
ESSEX COUNTY,

Respondent.

Nicholas Poberezhsky, Esq., for Petitioner (Caruso, Smith, Picini, P.C., attorneys)

Yadira C. Duran, Esq., for Respondent (Hunt, Hamlin and Ridley, attorneys)

Record Closed: February 27, 2019 Decided: March 1, 2019

BEFORE JOHN P. SCOLLO, ALJ:

Petitioner seeks reimbursement for sick time improperly charged by the Board.

The Department of Education transmitted the contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to 15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14f-1 TO 13, to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), where it was filed on February 20, 2018.

The parties have voluntarily agreed to resolve all disputed matters and have entered into a settlement as set forth in the attached settlement agreement.

I have reviewed the terms of the settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures and/or the signature of their respective representatives on the attached settlement agreement; and,
2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy between the parties.

ORDER

It is hereby ORDERED that the parties comply with the terms of the settlement agreement; and

It is further ORDERED that petitioner's appeal is withdrawn with prejudice.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

DATE

JOHN P. SCOLLO, ALJ

Date Received at Agency:

Date Mailed to Parties:
Db

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

Agreement is hereby effective February 11, 2019, by and between Dolores Abernathy (hereinafter "Ms. Abernathy") and the Township of Irvington Board of Education (hereinafter the "Board") (collectively the "Parties" or, individually, "Party") according to the following:

1. PETITION FOR RELIEF: Ms. Abernathy agrees to withdraw, with prejudice, the petition for relief filed against the Board, pending before the Office of Administrative Law, captioned Abernathy, Dolores v. Twp. of Irvington BOE, Essex County, OAL Dkt. No.: EDU 02624-2018 N, Agency Dkt. No.: 15-1/18.

2. TENURE CHARGES: The Board agrees to withdraw, with prejudice, the tenure charges filed against Ms. Abernathy, pending before the Commissioner of Education, captioned I/M/O Tenure Hearing of Dolores Abernathy, School District of the Township of Irvington, Essex County, Agency Dkt. No.: 80-4/18.

3. FITNESS FOR DUTY EXAMINATION: The Board agrees to withdraw its pending directive for Ms. Abernathy to appear for a fitness for duty examination, but reserves the right to issue the directive, in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:16-2, in the future based on incident(s) occurring or 504 request(s) submitted after the date of the execution of this agreement.

4. REIMBURSEMENT OF PAY AND RETURN TO WORK: Upon execution of this agreement, the Board agrees to reimburse Ms. Abernathy for all pay withheld from her during the pendency of the tenure charges. She will also be reinstated to active work duties effective February 19, 2019.

5. AMENDED ACCOMODATIONS REQUEST: Any accommodations requests previously submitted by Ms. Abernathy shall be deemed withdrawn. Ms. Abernathy agrees that future accommodations requests must be made to the 504 Committee.

6. CONFIDENTIALITY: This Agreement shall remain confidential to the maximum extent permitted by law.

7. ENTIRE AGREEMENT: This agreement contains the entire agreement and understanding between the Parties and constitutes a full and final agreement of any and all issues relating to this matter, except that the Parties reserve their right to enforce this agreement, if necessary.

8. CHOICE OF LAW: This agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of New Jersey.

9. SEVERABILITY: If a specific clause of this agreement is determined to be illegal or in violation of any Federal or State laws, the remainder of the agreement shall not be affected by such a determination and shall remain in full force and effect.

10. VOLUNTARY AGREEMENT: The Parties have entered into this agreement freely and voluntarily with a full understanding of their rights and the contents of this Agreement.

11. ADMISSION OF LIABILITY: The Parties' entry into this agreement shall not constitute nor shall it be interpreted as an admission of wrongdoing or guilt, or liability in any manner on either of the Parties' part. Any such obligation or liability on either Party's part is expressly denied. The Parties have entered into this agreement solely to compromise disputed claims.

12. OPPORTUNITY TO CONSULT WITH COUNSEL: The Parties acknowledge that each has been given the opportunity to consult with an attorney or a representative of their own choosing with respect to this Agreement and reviewed with their attorneys or representatives all the terms and conditions of this Agreement prior to executing this Agreement. Each Party signs this Agreement freely and voluntarily and without coercion and duress. The Parties further acknowledge that they fully understand the duties and obligations enumerated herein and have been informed of their legal rights and obligations.

13. MODIFICATIONS: This Agreement may not be altered, amended or modified except in writing, signed and duly authorized by all Parties.

IN WITNESS THEREOF, the Parties hereunder set their hands and seals to this Agreement effective on this 22 day of February 2019.

Dolores Abernathy

Nicholas Poberezhsky, Esq.
Attorney for Dolores Abernathy

Dated: Feb. 18, 2019

On Behalf of the Board:

By: _____

Yadira Duran, Esq.
Attorney for the Board

Dated: February 22, 2019

OAL Dkt. No. EDU 14788-18
Agency Dkt. No. 230-9/18

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

S.G. and C.G. on behalf of minor child, T.G.,

Petitioners,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Colts Neck, Monmouth County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, the proposed settlement agreement, and the Initial Decision issued by the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1.

Upon review, the Commissioner approves the terms of the Agreement and adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter. The case is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the Agreement.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 4/09/19

Date of Mailing: 4/09/19

State of New Jersey

OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SETTLEMENT
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 14788-18
AGENCY DKT. NO. 230-9/18

S.G. AND C.G. ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILD, T.G.,
Petitioners,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF COLTS NECK, MONMOUTH COUNTY,
Respondent.

R. Armen McOmber, Esq., for petitioners (McOmber and McOmber, attorneys)

Douglas J. Kovats, Esq., for respondent (Kenny, Gross, Kovats and Parton, attorneys)

Record Closed: March 14, 2019 Decided: March 19, 2019

BEFORE SUSAN L. OLGIATI, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on October 12, 2018, for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The parties have agreed to a settlement and have prepared a Settlement Agreement indicating the terms thereof. A copy of the settlement agreement is attached and fully incorporated herein. Douglas J. Kovats, Counsel for the respondent, Colts Neck Township Board of Education, has signed the settlement agreement on behalf of the Board.

I have reviewed the record and the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures on the attached settlement agreement.

2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

March 19, 2019
DATE

SUSAN L. OLGIATI, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: 3.20.19

Mailed to Parties: 3.20.19

/vj

KENNEY, GROSS, KOVATS & PARTON
ATTORNEYS AT LAW
The Courts of Red Bank
130 Maple Avenue/Building 8
Red Bank, New Jersey 07701
(732) 530-7500, Telefax: (732) 530-1739
By: Douglas J. Kovats, Esq.
ID#030191983
Attorneys for the Respondent Board

RECEIVED
2019 MAR 14 P 1:09
STATE OF NEW JERSEY
OFFICE OF ADMIN LAW

S.G. and C.G. obo T.G. , Petitioner, vs. BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF COLTS NECK, IN THE COUNTY OF MONMOUTH, Respondent.	NEW JERSEY DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION/OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW OAL DOCKET NO.: EDU 14788-2018 S AGENCY DKT. NO.: 230-9/18 SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

WHEREAS, the parties in this appeal have voluntarily resolved all disputed matters and wish to enter into the following settlement, which fully disposes of all issues in controversy between them; and

WHEREAS, the parties have agreed to the following:

1. Petitioners hereby withdraw their Petition of Appeal.

2. Petitioners shall pay to Respondent the sum of Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000) within 60 days of the date of this agreement.

3. In the event full payment is not made to the Respondent within 60 days of the date of this agreement, notice shall be given to Petitioners of their failure to make payment, affording Petitioners an opportunity to cure within ten (10) days. Thereafter judgment in the full amount of the tuition demand, Fifty-Six Thousand Seen Hundred Seventy-Nine Dollars and twenty cents ($56,779.20), shall be entered against Petitioners.

4. Except as hereinabove set forth, the parties waive all other claims against one another, including any award of counsel fees or other monetary relief.

5. The parties agree that if any portion of this Settlement Agreement is deemed unenforceable, the remainder of the Settlement Agreement shall be fully enforceable.

This Agreement shall be effective on recommendation of the Honorable Susan Olgiati, A.L.J. and approval of the Commissioner of the Department of Education.

3-6-19
Date

Steven Garrett
Petitioner S.G. o/b/o T.G.

3-6-19
Date

Cynthia Garrett
Petitioner C.G. o/b/o T.G.

March 11, 2019
Date

Counsel for Respondent
Colts Neck Township Board of Education

GURBIR S. GREWAL
Attorney General of New Jersey
Attorney for New Jersey Department of Education,
School Ethics Commission
R.J. Hughes Justice Complex
25 Market Street, P.O. Box 112
Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0112

By: James M. Esposito
Deputy Attorney General
(609)376-3100
james.esposito@law.njoag.gov

	:	STATE OF NEW JERSEY
	:	OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW
	:
IN THE MATTER OF	:	OAL DOCKET NO. EEC 06180-2018S
JAMES MUELLER, KINGSWAY	:	AGENCY DOCKET NO. C85-17
REGIONAL BOARD OF EDUCATION	:
	:	CONSENT ORDER

WHEREAS, Petitioner, New Jersey Department of Education, School Ethics Commission ("SEC"), and Respondent, James Mueller ("Respondent"), have mutually agreed to settle the above-captioned matter, with GURBIR S. GREWAL, Attorney General of New Jersey, by James M. Esposito, Deputy Attorney General, appearing on behalf of the SEC, and Joshua I. Savitz, Esq., appearing on behalf of Respondent; and

WHEREAS, this matter arose from the SEC's decision of March 27, 2018, finding probable cause to credit the allegations that Respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b); and

WHEREAS, the settlement of this matter shall not constitute precedent or be considered an admission of guilt in this or other pending or future litigation:

NOW, THEREFORE, the parties hereto agree to settle the above-captioned matter upon the following terms:

1. Respondent acknowledges his actions constitute a violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b).

2. The parties agree that the SEC will recommend that the Commissioner impose the penalty of a reprimand.

3. The Commissioner agrees that he will adopt the SEC's recommendation and impose the penalty of a reprimand for the conduct described in the attached affidavit.

4. By accepting the penalty of a reprimand, Respondent agrees to waive any and all hearings to which he is entitled pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-10.7, and Respondent further agrees that he will not oppose the reprimand.

5. The parties agree that this Consent Order fully resolves all issues between them arising from the SEC's March 27, 2018 Probable Cause Notice.

Joshua I. Savitz, Esq.
Attorney for Respondent

Date: 2/25/19

James M. Esposito
Deputy Attorney General
Attorney for Petitioner

Date: 3/29/2019

Respondent, James Mueller, is hereby reprimanded for the conduct described in the attached affidavit:

Lamont O. Repollet
Commissioner of Education
As to penalty only.

Date: 4/5/19

GURBIR S. GREWAL
Attorney General of New Jersey
Attorney for Petitioner
New Jersey Department of Education,
School Ethics Commission
R.J. Hughes Justice Complex
25 Market Street, P.O. Box 112
Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0112

By: Geoffrey N. Stark
Deputy Attorney General
P: (609) 376-3100
F: (609) 943-5853
Geoffrey.Stark@law.njoag.gov

	STATE OF NEW JERSEY OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW
DREW PACKARD, Petitioner, v. MARTIN MURRAY, CARTERET BOARD OF EDUCATION, MIDDLESEX COUNTY, Respondent.	AGENCY DOCKET NO. C68-17 CONSENT ORDER

WHEREAS, Petitioner, New Jersey Department of Education, School Ethics Commission ("SEC"), and Respondent, Martin Murray ("Respondent"), have mutually agreed to settle the above-captioned matter, with Gurbir S. Grewal, Attorney General of New Jersey, by Geoffrey N. Stark, Deputy Attorney General, appearing on behalf of the SEC, and Jennifer L. Personette, Esq., DeCotiis, FitzPatrick, Cole & Giblin, LLP, appearing on behalf of Respondent; and

WHEREAS, this matter arose from the SEC's letter, dated November 29, 2017, finding probable cause based upon the third-party complainant's allegations to proceed with a plenary hearing on Count 1, Count 2, and Count 4 of the Complaint against Respondent, but dismissing with prejudice Count 3 of the Complaint on the pleadings for lack of probable cause; and

WHEREAS, Respondent contested the allegations in the remaining counts of the Complaint, denied liability as a matter of law and sought a plenary hearing; and

WHEREAS, prior to the plenary hearing or a full airing of the facts and legal defenses, the parties determined to amicably resolve this matter without further litigation.

NOW, THEREFORE, the parties hereto agree to settle the above-captioned matter upon the following terms:

1. Respondent acknowledges that by serving on the Carteret Board of Education's Building and Grounds Committee, Respondent was involved in policy-making and general administrative oversight, together with the other members of the Committee, of the facilities department where his brother works. Respondent took no action whatsoever to directly affect the terms and conditions of his brother's employment, however, Respondent acknowledges that by sitting on the Building and Grounds Committee he created the perception that he had the ability to provide his brother with an unwarranted privilege, advantage, or employment in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b). Respondent has since voluntarily removed himself from the Building and Grounds Committee and is no longer serving the Board in that capacity.

2. The SEC will recommend that the Commissioner impose the penalty of a reprimand for the conduct referenced in Paragraph 1 above, consistent with Count 4 of the Complaint. Counts 1 and 2 of the Complaint will be dismissed with prejudice upon the full execution of this Consent Order.

3. By accepting the penalty of a reprimand, Respondent agrees to waive any and all hearings to which he is entitled pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29 and N.J.A.C. 6A:28-10.7, and that he will not oppose the reprimand.

4. The Parties agree that in the event the Commissioner does not accept the recommendation of the SEC and imposes a different or higher-level reprimand, the Consent Order shall automatically be rendered null and void and Respondent retains his right to a plenary hearing.

5. The settlement of this matter shall not constitute precedent or be considered an admission of guilt in this or any other pending or future litigation

6. The parties agree that this Consent Order fully resolves all issues between them arising from the SEC's November 29, 2017, Probable Cause Notice.

Jennifer L. Personette, Esq.
Attorney for Respondent

Date: 2/28/19

Geoffrey M. Stark, D.A.G.
Attorney for Petitioner

Date: 3/26/19

Respondent Martin Murray is hereby reprimanded for the conduct described in the attached affidavit:

Lamont O. Repollet, Ed.D.
Commissioner of Education
As to penalty only

Date: 4/5/19

96-19E

OAL Dkt. No. EDU 3502-19
Agency Dkt. No. 46-2/19

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Order On Emergent Relief

Jennifer Tambakis,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Boonton, Morris County,

Respondent.

The record of this emergent matter and the recommended Order of the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) have been reviewed. Upon such review, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ – for the reasons set forth in the recommended Order – that Boonton Township Board of Education has failed to demonstrate entitlement to emergent relief pursuant to Crowe v. DeGioia, 90 N.J. 126 (1982), and codified at N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6. Specifically, the Board failed to establish that it would suffer irreparable harm if the emergent application is not granted.[1]

Accordingly, the recommended Order of the OAL denying petitioner's application for emergent relief is adopted for the reasons expressed therein. This matter shall continue at the OAL with such proceedings as the parties and ALJ deem necessary to bring it to closure.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 4/09/19

Date of Mailing: 4/09/19

[1] It appears that the ALJ inadvertently inserted the following sentence on page 5 of the Order. "I CONCLUDE petitioner did not meet all of the criteria of N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6(b) because they have not shown a likelihood of prevailing on the merits."

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

ORDER

EMERGENT RELIEF

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 03502-19
AGENCY DKT. NO. 46-2/19

JENNIFER TAMBAKIS,

Petitioner,

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF BOONTON, MORRIS COUNTY,

Respondents.

Arnold Mellk Esq. for petitioner (Mellk O'Neill)

James Plosia, Jr. Esq., for respondent Township of Booton Board of Education (Plosia Cohen)

BEFORE KIMBERLY A. MOSS, ALJ:

Petitioner, Jennifer Tambakis (Tambakis) challenges the Township of Booton Board of Education's (Board or respondent) right to the results of her drug/alcohol test of February 20, 2019. On March 8, 2019, respondent filed a Motion for Emergent Relief to compel petitioner to provide respondent with the results of her drug/alcohol test of February 20, 2019. The matter was filed with the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) as a contested matter with the March 13, 2019. Oral argument on the motion was held on March 19, 2019.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION

I FIND the following to be the FACTS of this matter.

Tambakis is a tenured teacher employed by the Board. On February 20, 2019, teaching staff Leah Birchler and Robin Schwalb reported to the principal of Boonton Town High School (Boonton), Jason Klebez, that Tambakis "reeked of alcohol." Birchler is the substance abuse counselor at Boonton and is trained in recognizing substance abuse in students. Schwalb is a School Social Worker and has experience recognizing and dealing with students with substance abuse issues.

The School Nurse, Marcia Tucci spoke to Tambakis, at that time, and determined that she should be transported to undergo substance abuse testing. Beven Hugen, the president of the Boonton Education Association was advised and came to Boonton. Hugen meet with Tambakis, who agreed to go for alcohol/substance abuse testing. Tambakis did not sign the release of information, which would allow Boonton to to receive the results of the alcohol/substance abuse testing. Hugen and Tambakis went to Concentra to have the testing done. There was a two hour wait for the testing to be done. Tambakis underwent the alcohol/drug testing at Concentra.

Boonton has not been provided with Tambakis alcohol/substance abuse testing results. Tambakis has not returned to work since February 20, 2019.

Tambakis students would be preparing for state testing which begins in April. Some students can use this time to prepare to qualify for honors English classes during the next school year. Tambakis is presently on administrative leave. Her classes have been covered by High School teachers as well as per diem substitute teachers.

LEGAL DISCUSSION AND CONCLUSIONS

N.J.S.A. 18A:16-2 (a) provides:

> Every board of education may require its employees and shall require any candidate for employment who has received a conditional offer of employment to undergo a physical examination. The board may require individual psychiatric or physical examinations of any employee, whenever, in the judgment of the board, an employee shows evidence of deviation from normal, physical or mental health.
>
> Any such examination may, if the board so requires, include laboratory tests or fluoroscopic or X-ray procedures for the obtaining of additional diagnostic data. Nothing in this section shall be so construed as to affect screening for tuberculosis or fitness examinations for bus drivers as required pursuant to statute, rule or regulation.

N.J.S.A. 18A: 16-5 provides:

> All records and reports relating to any such examination shall be the property of the board and shall be filed with its medical inspector as confidential information but shall be open for inspection by officers of the state department of health and the local board of health.

In this matter Bircher, a substance abuse counselor and Schwalb, a school social worker, who has experience recognizing students with substance abuse issues informed Klebez that Tambakis reeked of alcohol. Tambakis agreed to an alcohol/drug test but refused to sign an authorization for the Board to obtain the results of the test. Reeking of alcohol is a deviation from normal and physical health. Based on that, the Board could require Tambakis to be tested, which it did. The records from the testing are the property of the Board in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A: 16-5.

N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6(b) sets forth the standards governing motions for emergent relief. The regulation instructs in salient part:

> A motion for a stay or emergent relief shall be accompanied by a letter memorandum or brief which shall address the following standards be met for granting such relief pursuant to Crowe v. DeGioia, 90 N.J. 126 (1982):

1. The respondent will suffer irreparable harm if the requested relief is not granted;

2. The legal right underlying respondent's claim is settled;

3. The respondent has the likelihood of prevailing on the merits of the underlying claim; and

4. When the equities and interests of the parties are balanced, the respondent will suffer greater harm than the respondent will suffer if the requested relief is not granted.

Respondent has the burden of establishing each of the above requirements in order to warrant relief in his favor.

It is well settled that relief should not be granted except "when necessary to prevent irreparable harm." Crowe, supra 90 N.J. at 132. In this regard, harm is generally considered irreparable if it cannot be adequately redressed by monetary damages. Id. at 132-33. In other words, it has been described as "'substantial injury to a material degree coupled with the inadequacy of money damages.'" Judice's Sunshine Pontiac, Inc. v. General Motors Corp., 418 F. Supp. 1212, 1218 (D.N.J. 1976) (citation omitted). See New Jersey Dep't of Environmental Protection v. Circle Carting, Inc., 2004 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 968 (April 2, 2004) (finding no irreparable harm in connection with the revocation of respondent's solid waste license in that financial loss is generally insufficient to demonstrate this requirement). The moving party bears the burden of proving irreparable harm. More than a risk of irreparable harm must be demonstrated. Continental Group, Inc. v. Amoco Chemicals Corp., 614 F. 2d 351, 359 (D.N.J. 1980). The requisite for injunctive relief requires a "'clear showing of immediate irreparable injury,'" or a "'presently existing actual threat; (an injunction) may not be used simply to eliminate a possibility of a remote future injury, or a future invasion of rights, be those rights protected by statute or by common law.'" Ibid. (citation omitted.)

In this matter, the respondent will not suffer irreparial harm by not being given Tambakis drug/alchol results. Tambakis is on administrative leave as a result of this matter. Her classes have been covered by High School teachers as well as per diem substitute teachers. Since her classes can be covered by others, I CONCLUDE that respondent will not suffer irrepable harm.

There is a likelihood of prevailing on the merits and the law is well settled. Tambakis evidence a deviation form normal and physical health by coming to work "reeking of alcohol." In addition, she was seen upset and crying by Klebez. The Board could require her to be tested and the results of the test are the property of the Board.

The balancing of the harms in this matter is greater for respondent. Respondent does not know if it has Tambakis has an alcohol or substance abuse problem. They do not want a teacher with an active substance abuse problem or alchol problem to teach until the problem is addressed. Petitoner would only be required to provide the alcohol and drug test results.

All of the criteria of N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6(b) must be met in order for petioner to prevail on a motion for emergent relief. I CONCLUDE petitioner did not meet all of the criteria of N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6(b) because they have not shown a likelihood of prevailing on the merits.

Accordingly, it is ORDERED that petitioner's application for such relief be and hereby is DENIED.

This order on application for emergency relief may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. The final decision shall be issued without undue delay, but no later than forty-five days following the entry of this order. If the Commissioner of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this order within forty-five days, this recommended order shall become a final decision on the issue of emergent relief in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

3-19-19
DATE

KIMBERLY A. MOSS, ALJ

ljb

97-19

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

S.H.P., on behalf of minor children, O.P. and Z.P.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Trustees of the Elysian Charter School, Hudson County,

Respondent.

Synopsis

Petitioner challenged the respondent Board's determination that O.P. and Z.P. were ineligible to attend Elysian Charter School because the family resides out of state. Petitioner traveled to India with the children in February 2008, informing the school that they would return about two weeks later. There were numerous subsequent delays in the family's plans, and petitioner later informed the school that the children were being home-schooled in India. The family continued to represent that the children would be returning to the charter school, but failed to meet the Board's requirement that O.P. and Z.P. return to class by April 30, 2018, and provide proof of residency within the district. The Board filed a motion for summary decision, as well as a counterclaim for tuition for the period of the children's ineligible attendance.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: petitioner failed to sustain her burden of proving that her family was domiciled in New Jersey as of the date of the Board's notice of final ineligibility on April 30, 2018; there was sufficient evidence in the record to support that petitioner and her children were not residing in Hoboken, Jersey City, or the surrounding community at the time that the April 30, 2018 ineligibility letter was drafted; further, as of the date of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) hearing in this matter – in November 2018 – the children were still in India. The ALJ concluded that petitioner failed to satisfy her burden of proving that the children were eligible for a free education at Elysian Charter School as of April 30, 2018; further, the ALJ denied the Board's counterclaim for tuition as no evidence was submitted in support of the claim. The ALJ dismissed the petition.

Upon review, the Commissioner found, inter alia, that: pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1, public school in New Jersey is free to students who are domiciled in a school district; and as of February 2018, petitioner and her children were not domiciled in any school district in the State of New Jersey, as S.H. vacated her apartment and moved the family to India indefinitely. Accordingly, the Commissioner concluded that the minor children are not entitled to a free education in the charter school, or in any other school in New Jersey. With respect to the Board's counterclaim for tuition, the charter school may not seek tuition from petitioner as O.P. and Z.P. were not attending school during the time period at issue. Further, any attempt to recover tuition for a charter school student's period of ineligible attendance must be initiated by the child's district of residence. The Initial Decision was adopted with these modifications, and the petition was dismissed.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

April 9, 2019

97-19

OAL Dkt. No. EDU 09675-18
Agency Dkt. No. 121-5/18

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

S.H.P., on behalf of minor children, O.P. and Z.P.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Trustees of the Elysian Charter School, Hudson County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed.[1]

In this matter, petitioner is challenging the Board's determination that the minor children were ineligible to attend the charter school because the family resides out of state. The Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) found that petitioner traveled with the children to India on or about February 9, 2018, and informed the school that they would return on February 26, 2018. The family's plans were delayed numerous times, but petitioner informed the school that she and her husband were home-schooling the minor children while they were in India. The Board informed petitioner on April 16, 2018 that the children were ineligible to attend the charter school because they did not reside at their former Jersey City address. Petitioner's husband attended the Board hearing on April 23, 2018, and the Board voted to allow the minor children to re-enroll so long as they returned to school by April 30, 2018. When the children did not return by that date, the charter school issued a notice of final ineligibility. Petitioner appealed to the Commissioner and the school filed a motion for summary decision. As of the date of oral argument, November 13, 2018, the minor children were still in India. The ALJ concluded that petitioner had failed to sustain her burden of proving that her family was domiciled within New Jersey as of the Board's notice of final ineligibility on April 30, 2018, and as early as February 9, 2018, and the minor children were therefore ineligible to attend the charter school. The ALJ also denied the Board's request for tuition as no evidence regarding the calculation was presented.

[1] Petitioner's exceptions were not considered for failure to comply with N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4, as petitioner did not serve a copy on the opposing party or the OAL.

Upon review, the Commissioner notes that public school in New Jersey is free to people over 5 and under 20 years of age who are domiciled in a school district. N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1. Petitioner and her minor children were not domiciled in any school district in the State of New Jersey, as she vacated her apartment and moved the family to India indefinitely in February 2018. As such, the minor children are not entitled to a free education in the charter school, or any school in New Jersey for that matter. Any attempt by petitioner to hold open her children's seats at the charter school while home-schooling them in India is inappropriate. With respect to the Board's counterclaim for tuition reimbursement, N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1b provides that tuition shall be assessed for the period of the student's "ineligible attendance" in the district.[2] The Commissioner notes that in this case, the charter school may not seek tuition from petitioner

[2] Although the ALJ dismissed petitioner's counterclaim for failure to present evidence regarding tuition, a dismissal for that reason at this juncture is improper because the matter was decided by way of summary decision. However, the Commissioner agrees, for different reasons, that the counterclaim should be dismissed.

because the minor children were not attending school during the time period at issue and were instead being home-schooled.[3]

Accordingly, the Initial Decision of the OAL is adopted – as modified herein – as the final decision in this matter. The petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[4]

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 4/05/19
Date of Mailing: 4/09/19

[3] The Commissioner further notes that tuition for students at a charter school is paid directly by the school district of residence. N.J.S.A. 18A:36A-12. As such, the appropriate party to seek tuition for a charter school student's period of ineligible attendance is the district of residence that is responsible for tuition.

[4] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to P.L. 2008, c. 36 (N.J.S.A 18A:6-9.1).

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

SUMMARY

INITIAL DECISION

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 09675-18

AGENCY DKT. NO. 156-6/18

S.H.P, ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILDREN,
O.P., AND Z.P.,

Petitioner,

v.

THE ELYSIAN CHARTER SCHOOL BOARD OF TRUSTEES, HUDSON COUNTY,

Respondent.

S.H.P., petitioner, pro se

Jodi S. Howlett, Esq., for respondent (Cleary, Giacobbe, Alfieri & Jacobs attorneys)

Record Closed: December 31, 2018 Decided: February 21, 2018

BEFORE ANDREW M. BARON, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Petitioner S.H.P. challenges the action of the Elysian Charter School Board of Trustees (Board) removing her two children from the Elysian Charter School effective April 30, 2018.

By letter dated April 16,, 2018, the superintendent of schools notified the parents of O.P. and Z.P. that by Notice of Initial Determination of Ineligibility the Board of Trustees of the Elysian Charter School determined that their children were not entitled to attend the school due to excessive absences and the fact that the entire family was no longer living within the geographic area within or surrounding the district, as they were all living in India. On April 23, 2018, the Board conducted a hearing which was attended by the children's father.

On May 18, 2018, petitioner filed a Pro Se Residency Appeal with the Department of Education. The Board filed its answer on July 7, 2018. On July 9, 2018, the Department transmitted the case to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) under the Administrative Procedure Act, N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15, and the act establishing the office, N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -23, for a hearing under the Uniform Administrative Procedure Rules, N.J.A.C. 1:1-1.1 to -21.6, and the rules of procedure established by the Department of Education to hear and decide controversies and disputes arising under school laws, N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.1 to -1.17. Jurisdiction is conferred under N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9. The District filed the within summary proceeding.

Oral argument was held on November 13, 2018. A telephone conference was held on December 28, 2018, to discuss a few remaining questions raised by the undersigned In furtherance of the telephone conference, the petitioner sent some additional documents on December 31, 2018 and the record was again closed.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION AND FINDINGS

Petitioner argued on her own behalf. Jodi Howlett represented the District during argument. The District argues that it extended all courtesies to petitioner and her two children who were matriculated as students in the third and first grades respectively at the Elysian Charter School. The school acknowledged the receipt of communications from petitioner, starting in February 2018 advising the district that due to a family emergency, petitioner was travelling to India to join her husband who was already there and was taking the children with her, with an expected return date some time in March 2018. Petitioner further represented that she and her husband would be responsible for "at home" schooling during this period, so when the children returned, there would be no disruption in what they were being taught in the classroom.

Speaking for the District, Ms. Howlett argued that while the school was initially aware that petitioner had temporarily removed the children and taken them out of the country, it was not the District's understanding this would be a long-term situation.

Ms. Howlett presented correspondence that the District waited two months, until April 16, 2018 before it wrote to petitioner to inform them that the children were no longer entitled to a free education at the Elysian Charter School, and that they had a right to a hearing. (Exhibit A). the letter was preceded by a visit by an investigator for the school to petitioner's former home where the family was no longer residing.

Ms. Howlett also presented correspondence on April 25, 2018 that the Elysian Board met concerning petitioner's family situation and had voted to allow them to remain in the school, provided the children returned to school by April 30, 2018, and petitioner was able to provide proof of residency within the district. (Exhibits B and C).

According to Dr. Laub's affidavit, the children did not return to the school by the deadline, and a Final Notice of Ineligibility was issued. (Exhibit D).

On behalf of her children, petitioner argued that it was always the family's intention to return to reside within the district, but due to circumstances beyond their control, they were unable to return by April 30th. During the course of the oral argument, the children's father was unable to satisfactorily explain why when he returned for the board meeting, he did not bring the children with him to re-enroll in school and finish the academic year.

During her portion of the presentation, petitioner admitted she was unable to provide the District with a copy of a signed lease or mortgage demonstrating proof of continued residency within the District, but it was their intention to temporarily "live with a friend" until a more long-term housing situation could be found. Petitioner did not present an affidavit from anyone to confirm such an arrangement existed, and the District pointed out that several pieces of mail it sent to petitioner's last known address were returned without being forwarded. Despite this, petitioner continued to argue that the family never gave up its status as New Jersey residents, and therefore should still be considered as residing within the District, even if they could not provide a permanent address.

There was a brief discussion about a proposal the District made to petitioner prior to the matter becoming a contested case in the Office of Administrative Law. Essentially, the district proposed allowing the children to return to the District provided residency could be demonstrated before the start of the next school year, with the children repeating the third and first grades respectively. Petitioner explained that this pre-hearing proposal was not agreed to as she and her husband felt that the "home schooling" they gave to the children was sufficient to cover the material that was being taught. The proposal became a moot issue, and it should be noted that as of the date of the oral argument, the entire family still remained in India which was confirmed by petitioner.

The District did not present proof of its tuition costs and reimbursement that it sought pursuant to its Counterclaim for the amount of days the children failed to attend school.

UNDISPUTED FINDINGS OF Facts

After due consideration of the testimonial and documentary evidence presented at the hearing, and having had the opportunity to observe the demeanor of the witnesses and assess their credibility, I FIND the following facts:

1. S.H.P. is the mother of O.P. (grade 3), Z.P. (grade 1) and E.M.

2. At the start of the 2017-2018 school year, petitioners enrolled their two children O.P. and Z.P. in the Elysian Charter School located in Jersey City, New Jersey.

3. The children attended the school until February 8, 2018, at which time petitioner took them to India for family and health reasons. Petitioner's husband who is the father of O.P. and Z.P. had already been in India for several weeks prior to the time petitioner took the children with her. Petitioner advised the school on February 14, 2018 that the children were in India and expected to return to school on February 26, 2018. (Exhibit C). The next day, February 15, 2018, petitioner provided the school with a new home address, specifically, 500 Manila Avenue, Apt. 1M, Jersey City, New Jersey. Mail to this address was returned to sender and petitioner was unable to prove this was a good address. Therefore, most communications between the parties were done by email.

4. On February 26, 2018, the Enrollment Coordinator at the school, Susan Gilbertson, sent a communication to petitioner asking for a definitive date when the children would be returning to school. Responding to this inquiry, petitioner advised Ms. Gilbertson that the family's travel plans were delayed, but they would return before the weekend. (Exhibit E).

5. Thereafter, another communication was sent by Ms. Gilbertson on March 6, 2018 to petitioner, informing her that the children had been absent from school for 12 consecutive days. Hearing nothing, on March 10th, another communication was sent to petitioner asking for information on the children's' whereabouts. Petitioner then responded they would be back in late March "at the earliest."

6. Petitioner further represented that while the children were out of the country and not attending school, she and her husband would continue to be responsible for 'at home' schooling.

7. On April 16, 2016, the District advised petitioner that the children no longer had a right to attend Elysian and they had a right to a hearing before the District board. Prior thereto, an investigator for the District reported that the family no longer resided within the District. Other than email, "snail mail' sent by the district to the family's former address continued to be returned without a forwarding residence.

8. The Board met on April 23, 2018, and petitioner's husband came back and attended the meeting. The Board voted to allow the children to re-enroll, provided they were back by April 30, 2018.

9. Again, the children did not return, and petitioner indicated that due to circumstances beyond the family's control they were unable to return.

10. Petitioner never produced a copy of a lease or deed demonstrating that when they returned, the family had a place to live within the District. Although petitioner stated it was the family's intention to live with a friend while searching for more permanent housing, no affidavit was produced from such an individual to confirm such an arrangement existed.

11. Prior to the matter being forwarded as a contested case to the Office of Administrative Law, the District gave the family an opportunity to re-enroll the children for the next school year, provided they agreed to repeat the grades they were in when they left the country, as well as demonstrating proof of residency within the District.

12. Petitioner did not accept this alternate arrangement as she felt that the "at home" schooling she and her husband provided was sufficient.

13. No evidence was submitted by petitioner that as of April 2018, the family was domiciled within the District.

14. No evidence was submitted by the District in connection with its Counterclaim for tuition reimbursement.

Petitioner presented the following documentation in opposition to the summary application:

Exhibit A- Driver's license

Exhibit B- 2007 Social Security statement

Exhibit C- 2016 Certificate of Naturalization

Exhibit D- 2017 Bank statement

Exhibit E- 2016 Voter registration

Exhibit F- PSE&G bill from 1 River Court, Jersey City

Exhibit G- Indian Tourist Visa

;

Additional Findings of Fact

A credibility determination requires an "over-all evaluation of the testimony in light of its rationality or internal consistency and the manner in which it hangs together with other evidence." Carbo v. United States, 314 F.2d 718, 749 (9th Cir. 1963). For "testimony to be believed, it must not only proceed from the mouth of a credible witness, but must be credible in itself." Spagnuolo v. Bonnet, 16 N.J. 546, 554–55 (1954). It must be "such as the common experience and observation of mankind can approve as probable in the circumstances." Gallo v. Gallo, 66 N.J. Super. 1, 5 (App. Div. 1961). "'The interest, motive, bias, or prejudice of a witness may affect his credibility and justify the [trier of fact], whose province it is to pass upon the credibility of an interested witness, in disbelieving his testimony.'" State v. Salimone, 19 N.J. Super. 600, 608 (App. Div.) (citation omitted), certif. denied, 10 N.J. 316 (1952).

Petitioner and her husband was not forthcoming about the family's residency at the Board hearing on April, 23 2018, or in her Pro Se Residency Appeal. and there was sufficient evidence in the record to support that petitioner and her children were not residing in Hoboken, Jersey City or the surrounding community at the time the April 30th, 2018, ineligibility letter was prepared. Accordingly, I FIND that petitioner and her children were not residing within the District since at least April 30, 2018, and remained out of the District through the time of argument November 13, 2018.

LEGAL ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSION

Schools are free to persons over five and under twenty years of age who are domiciled within the school district or are kept in the home of another person domiciled within the school district and supported by such other person gratis as if he were such other person's own child. N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(a). If the school district finds that the parent or guardian of a child who is attending the schools of the district is not domiciled within the district and the child is not kept in the home of another person domiciled within the school district and supported by such person gratis as if the child was the person's own child, the superintendent or administrative principal may apply to the board of education for the removal of the child. N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b)(2). The parent or guardian is entitled to a hearing before the board and, if in the judgment of the board, the parent or guardian is not domiciled within the district or the child is not kept in the home of another person domiciled within the school district and supported gratis, the board may order the transfer or removal of the child from school. Ibid. The parent or guardian may contest the board's decision before the Commissioner within twenty-one days of the date of the decision and is entitled to an expedited hearing. Ibid. The parent or guardian has the burden of proof by a preponderance of the evidence that the child is eligible for a free education under the criteria listed in the statute. Ibid.

Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:22-3.1(a)(1), a student is eligible to attend a school district if he or she is domiciled within the school district, and a student is domiciled in the school district when he or she is the child of a parent or guardian whose domicile is located within the school district.

> "Domicile" is defined as "the place where [a person] has his [or her] true, fixed, permanent home and principal establishment, and to which whenever he is absent, he has an intention of returning." T.B.W. ex rel. A.W. v. Bd. of Ed. of the Township of Belleville, Essex County, 1998 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 122, Agency Dkt. No.l 159-5/96, 1998 WL 668678 (N.J. Adm. June 18, 1998). As the court noted in Collins v. Yancey, 55 N.J. Super. 514, 520–21, 151 A.2d 68 (Law Div. 1959), a person may have several residences or places of abode, but only one domicile at a time. Id.
>
> [D.L. v. Bd. of Educ. of Princeton Reg'l Sch. Dist., 366 N.J. Super. 269, 273–74 (App. Div. 2004).]

Respondent seeks summary decision. The rules governing summary decision in an OAL matter are embodied in N.J.A.C. 1;1-12.5. These provisions mirror the language of Rule 4:46-2 and the Supreme Court's decision in Judson v. People's Bank and Trust Co. of Westfield, 17 N.J. 67 (1954) Under N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5 (b), the determination to grant summary judgment should be based on papers presented as well as any affidavits, which may have been filed with the application. In order for the non-moving party to prevail in such application, responding affidavits are usually submitted showing there is indeed a genuine issue of fact, which cn only be determined in an evidential proceeding. See also: Brill v. Guardian Life Insurance Co. of America, 142 N.J. 520 (1995).

The record is clear that petitioner's children were not domiciled in the District as of April 30, 2018, and as early as February 9, 2018 due to mail being returned, and an investigator for the District reporting that there was no proof or evidence that the family continued to reside within the District, as well as petitioner's admission that they had no lease or deed to property showing that they still lived within the District. I therefore CONCLUDE that petitioner has failed in her burden to prove by a preponderance of the evidence that her children were domiciled within the District. Accordingly, I further CONCLUDE that petitioner has failed to prove by a preponderance of the evidence that her two children were eligible for a free education at Elysian Charter School as of April 30, 2018.

Tuition is sought by the Board by way of Counterclaim for the period of ineligible attendance. Without evidence to determine and calculate and place a value on this claim, this request is denied

ORDER

It is ORDERED that petitioner's Petition of Appeal be and hereby is DISMISSED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

2/21/19

DATE

ANDREW M. BARON, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: February 21, 2019

Date Mailed to Parties: 2/25/19

mm

APPENDIX

Witnesses

For Petitioner:

None

For Respondent:

None

Exhibits

For Petitioner:

P-1 Packet A-G

For Respondent:

R-1 Packet A-Q

98-19

STATE OF NEW JERSEY
COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE CHARGES AGAINST JESSICA C. SHERWOOD -by- THE LOPATCONG BOARD OF EDUCATION	X X X X X X X X X	Dkt. No. 236-9/18

Before		Patrick R. Westerkamp, Impartial Arbitrator
Appearances	Jessica W. Sherwood	Sanford R. Oxfeld, Esq. Jesse Humphries, Esq.
	The Lopatcong Board Education	John B. Comegno II, Esq. Alexandra A. Stulphin, Esq.
Hearing Dates	January 30, 2019 January 31, 2019

Statement of Approval of Settlement: Based a review of the record the proposed settlement, attached hereto, is consistent with the established standards governing the settlement of tenure matters established by In re Cardonick, decided by the Commissioner April 7, 1982, aff'd, State Board April 6, 1983, 1990 S.L.D. 842, 846.

INTRODUCTION

This matter was brought to arbitration before the undersigned pursuant to P.L. 2012 Chapter 26 of Title 18A N.J.S.A. It involves charges filed on September 14, 2018 against Respondent Jessica W. Sherwood by the Lopatcong Township Board of Education, New Jersey. The charges seek to remove Ms. Sherwood from her position as a tenured member of the School District's faculty. The Statement of Tenure Charges sets forth Unbecoming Conduct (Counts One through Ten), and Incapacity (Count 11.)

BACKGROUND INFORMATION COMMON TO ALL CHARGES

Jessica W. Sherwood was employed by the Board in September 2000, and thereafter taught Fourth Grade at Lopatcong Elementary School. She gained tenure in her teaching position, and continued to teach Fourth Grade at the Elementary School through mid-2017. At all times during this period she was evaluated as "effective," or "highly effective," and did not receive discipline.

In September 2017, Ms. Sherwood was relocated to the District's Middle School and assigned to Special Education. Although she "tried to put on a brave face," Ms. Sherwood missed the elementary school environment, and eventually sought to return. The Board found she publicly lambasted "her colleagues on line, in an effort to demean, humiliate and belittle their professional credibility, [and] eroded all professional boundaries and norms with certain eighth-grade students." Her contacts with these students included use of social media.

On May 24, 2018 Ms. Sherwood received positive news from her school Principal about returning to the Elementary School for the upcoming school year. The next day she posted a lengthy statement on her Facebook page. It began, as follows:

> Change is a good thing, right?
>
> PSA . . . this is an account of my professional experiences this past year. Some readers may take offense. If you do, please take it as an opportunity to change and improve, just as I have this year.

(Statement of Tenure Charges, p. 5.) A fellow teacher took offense, and E-Mailed a complaint to the Administration. This triggered an investigation, which resulted in the submission of the within Statement of Tenure Charges.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY OF ARBITRATION

The undersigned was appointed as Arbitrator, and assisted the parties with several discovery disputes. Hearings were initially scheduled for December 2018, and then were rescheduled for January 30, 2019; January 31, 2019; and February 4, 2019. A full hearing day was held on January 30th. On the afternoon of the next day, the parties entered settlement discussions that lasted for several hours. They reached a resolution toward 5:30pm. Its terms were reviewed on the record with Ms. Sherwood, who gave her consent. See January 31, 2019 Transcript prepared by Mastroianni & Formaroli, Inc.

A formal Separation Agreement was drafted, approved, and signed by both parties. It is attached hereto as Appendix "A."

IN RE CARDONICK REVIEW

Once certified by a board of education the settlement of any tenure charge requires approval by the Commissioner of Education. As a prelude to consideration of approval an arbitrator assigned to the matter is to address the standards established by the State Board of Education. Under In re Cardonick, 1990 S.L.D. 842, 846 those standards:

1) require documentation as to the nature of the charges;
2) include an explanation of the circumstances justifying settlement;
3) evidence of all parties' consent;
4) show the charged party entered into the agreement with a full understanding of her rights;
5) must demonstrate the agreement is in the public interest; and
6) indicate, where the charged party is a teaching staff member, that she has been advised of the Commissioner's duty to refer tenure determinations resulting in loss of position to the State Board of Examiners for possible action against the staff member's certificate.

These standards have been met herein.

The nature of the charges is fully documented in the Certification of Superintendent Roncoroni on file with the Commissioner of Education, while the attached signed, Separation Agreement evidences: the parties mutual consent; Ms. Sherwood's voluntary and knowing entry into the settlement; and the Commissioner's duty to refer the tenure determination to the State Board of Examiners for possible action.

Additionally, the settlement is justified and in the public interest given the uncharacteristic events preceding filing of the tenure charges, and Ms. Sherwood's previously unblemished educational career. For seventeen years she served as a Fourth Grade teacher receiving effective, or highly effective evaluations. Her unbecoming conduct over eight months (October 2017 to May 2018) was atypical, unexpected, and partially the product of untreated anxiety. There is every reason to believe that by allowing her to resign effect January 31, 2019 she will be available to obtain future employment and to serve the educational community with the effectiveness that she demonstrated for 17-years.

Accordingly, based on a review of the record from my vantage as arbitrator, the Separation Agreement--attached hereto--is consistent with the established standards governing settlement of tenure matters as established by In re Cardonick, decided by the Commissioner April 7, 1982, aff'd, State Board April 6, 1983, 1990 S.L.D. 842, 846.

April 10, 2019
Matawan, NJ

Patrick Westerkamp

Digitally signed by Patrick Westerkamp
DN: cn=Patrick Westerkamp, o=Westerkamp ADR Services, LLC, ou, email=mediatorpat@verizon.net, c=US
Date: 2019.04.10 15:27:56 -04'00'

Appendix A

SEPARATION AGREEMENT

THIS SEPARATION AGREEMENT ("Agreement") is made by and between Jessica C. Sherwood, (hereinafter referred to as "Teacher" or "Ms. Sherwood") and the Lopatcong Board of Education 321 Stonehenge Drive, Phillipsburg, NJ, 08865, its predecessors, successors, individual Board members, officers, directors, administrators, representatives, employees, attorneys, agents, and assigns, individually, jointly and severally (hereinafter collectively referred to as "Board") pursuant to the following terms and conditions:

WHEREAS, Teacher is employed as a tenured Teacher by the Board;

WHEREAS, the parties are in the pendency of the matter In the Matter of the Tenure Charges Against Jessica C. Sherwood, Agency Docket No. 236-9/18, seeking her termination, with the Commissioner of Education;

WHEREAS, the parties wish to avoid the further expense and uncertainty of the proceedings and at the express recommendation of the assigned Arbitrator, Mr. Patrick Westerkamp;

WHEREAS, by the terms of this Agreement, the employment of Teacher is to end effective end of business on January 31, 2019;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants herein contained and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, Teacher and the Board hereby agree as follows:

1. Teacher, for and in consideration of the undertakings of the Board as set forth herein, and intending to be legally bound, does hereby remise, release and forever discharge the Board and its officers, members, employees and agents, and their respective successors and assigns, heirs, executors and administrators ("Released Parties"), of and from any and all manner of actions and causes of actions, suits, debts, claims and demands whatsoever in law or in equity, which she ever had, now has, or hereafter may have, known or unknown, or which her heirs, executors or administrators hereafter may have by reason of any actual or perceived disability, any actual or perceived discrimination, her entire employment relationship and/or the termination of her employment relationship and/or affiliation with the Board, including, but not limited to the following:

- All claims of discrimination, harassment and retaliation based upon age, race, color, religion, gender, sex, sexual orientation, handicap, disability, national origin or any other legally protected class, including claims arising under the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, 29 U.S.C. § 621 through 29 U.S.C. § 634, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, 42 U.S.C. §2000e et seq., the Americans with Disabilities Act, 42 U.S.C. §12101, et seq.,the Civil Rights Act of 1866, as amended, 42 U.S.C. §1981, et seq., Executive Order 11246, as amended,, the Older Workers Benefit Protection Act, 29 U.S.C. §626(f), the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, 29 U.S.C. §1002, et seq., the New Jersey Law Against Discrimination, N.J.S.A. 10:5-1, et seq., the New Jersey Conscientious Employee Protection Act, N.J.S.A. 34:19-1, et seq., the New Jersey

Family Leave Act, N.J.S.A. 34:11B, et seq., COBRA, the Federal Family and Medical Leave Act, 29 U.S.C. §2601, et seq. & 5 U.S.C. §6381, et seq., the National Labor Relations Act, as amended, The Equal Pay Act, as amended, the New Jersey Wage and Hour Law, as amended, the New Jersey Worker Health and Safety Act, as amended, as well as any other anti-retaliation provision of any statute or law, and any other applicable federal, state or local, constitutional or statutory provision, order or regulation, arising from any event or act of omission or commission;

- All claims for breach of contract, whether express or implied;
- All tort claims, including claims for libel, slander, negligence, invasion of privacy, intentional or negligent infliction of emotional distress, fraud, interference with actual or prospective contractual rights or relations, and violation of public policy;
- All claims for wrongful discharge or termination;
- All claims under any federal, state and municipal laws, regulations, ordinances or court decisions of any kind;
- All claims for wages and benefits (including bonuses, health and welfare benefits, vacation pay, sick pay and/or any other fringe benefits;
- All claims for any type of monetary damages, including back pay, front or prospective pay, compensatory damages, and punitive damages, except as otherwise provided in this Agreement;
- All claims for equitable relief, including injunctive relief and reinstatement; and
- All claims for attorneys' fees, litigation expenses and costs.

The sole exception to the waivers set forth above are as follows: claims arising under the Workers' Compensation Act, N.J.S.A. 34:15-1 et seq., the Teachers' Pension and Annuity Fund Act, N.J.S.A. 18A:66-1 et seq., the indemnity provisions of N.J.S.A. 18A:16-6 and 6.1 with regard to civil and criminal actions, claims by third parties, as well as claims arising from any breach of this Agreement. The Board does not waive any rights that it may have to oppose indemnification pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:16-6 and 6.1.

This release is not meant to limit Teacher's claim(s) to unemployment compensation or to retirement benefits to which she may be entitled.

2. Teacher confirms that no charge, complaint, action, or grievance is pending in any forum or form. Further, Teacher covenants and agrees not to bring any charge, complaint, action, suit, grievance or administrative proceeding in any forum whatsoever, including before any federal, state, or local administrative agency or in any federal, state or local court against any of the Released Parties for any actions that could or did arise or accrue prior to and including the date of this Agreement or the date of the resignation; provided, however, it does not interfere with or limit either of the Parties protected right to file a charge with or participate in an investigation by or proceeding before the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission or any similar state or local commission that investigates and enforces anti-discrimination laws. Nothing contained herein shall in any manner be deemed a waiver or extension of any applicable statute of limitations, whether administrative or otherwise. Nonetheless, the Parties understand that, by signing this Agreement, they each waive any rights they may have to recover money or other relief in any lawsuit or proceeding they bring or that is brought on his behalf by any agency or third party against any of the Released Parties based on events arising out of Teacher's employment with the Board. Except where otherwise permitted under this paragraph, the Parties agree that any such action shall be dismissed with prejudice upon presentation of this Agreement. Nothing in this paragraph is intended to limit either of the Parties from instituting legal action for the sole purpose of enforcing this Agreement.

3. In consideration of the terms herein, Teacher will, simultaneously with the execution of this Agreement, execute and submit the attached letter of resignation, attached hereto as Exhibit "A," which shall become irrevocable upon the Board's approval of this Agreement, thereby ending tenured employment with the Board as of the end of the day on January 31, 2019. Teacher agrees that her signature on this Agreement constitutes an acknowledgment that her rights to employment, including any and all tenure rights and any and all future rights to employment and/or re-employment with the Board will end as of the end of the day on January 31, 2019. Teacher acknowledges that her employment relationship with the Board is permanently and irrevocably severed. Teacher agrees she shall never again seek employment and/or reemployment with the Board. Teacher waives any and all rights or claim of right to be reinstated to her former or any other position with the Board and agrees that she shall not at any time seek or accept future employment with Board. Teacher acknowledges that Board has no obligation, contractual or otherwise, to re-hire or re-employ her in any capacity. A breach of this paragraph by Teacher will constitute lawful and just cause to refuse to employ her or to terminate her if already employed, and she shall have no cause of action against the Board for such refusal or termination.

4. Upon approval of this agreement by the Board, the Board will notify the Commissioner of the withdrawal of its tenure charges in In the Matter of the Tenure Charges Against Jessica C. Sherwood, Agency Docket No. 236-9/18.

5. It is understood that, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.3, the Board will communicate with the New Jersey State Board of Examiners ("Examiners") with regard to the resignation upon approval of this Separation Agreement by the Board. In that regard, the Board will send the attached correspondence, Exhibit "B" to the Examiners. It is understood that the Board may need to communicate further with the Examiners, or other governmental entity or agent assigned to review the matter. The Board reserves all other rights to provide appropriate information to the Pennsylvania Department of Education, if directed to do so by that entity or the New Jersey State Department of Education. The Board agrees that beyond contacting the Examiners with Exhibit "B" and cooperating with the Examiners or other assigned governmental entity or agent, it will not act on its own initiative to bring about any action with regard to Teacher's certificate. Teacher understands that the Board will have an obligation to cooperate with the Examiners and/or assigned governmental entity or agent in the event of any proceeding. The Board shall provide the Examiners, or other assigned governmental entity or agent, with any information or documentation requested. Teacher disputes any wrongdoing on her part and reserves all rights, if necessary, to assert no action whatsoever should be taken.

6. To the extent applicable, the Board waives any notice of resignation requirements in connection with the January 31, 2019 employment end date or should Teacher tender resignation prior to that date.

7. The Board agrees to the extent it is applicable that Teacher may be entitled to continued health care coverage thereafter under the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act, ("COBRA"), 29 U.S.C. §§1161-1168, should she elect and pay for such coverage. The Board agrees not to oppose any application by Teacher for COBRA benefits. The Board also agrees not to oppose any application by Teacher for or receipt of unemployment compensation benefits in the event she applies for or receives unemployment benefits.

8. Both parties agree and acknowledge that this Agreement does not constitute an admission of any kind by either party.

9. Teacher agrees not to make, publicly or privately, through any media or medium (including, without limitation, comments on social networking sites), any defamatory, disparaging, or derogatory remarks or otherwise make statements that could injure the business or reputation of the Board, Board members, or employees of the Board. In the event that Teacher is alleged to have breached the non-disparagement provision of Agreement, then the Board may commence appropriate legal action and the prevailing party will be responsible for all attorneys' fees and costs associated with the litigation.

10. The Parties mutually understand and agree that the existence of this Agreement, and the terms herein, are completely confidential. The Parties, including their representatives or agents, further agree that they shall not reveal to anyone, other than as may be mutually agreed upon in writing, any information, facts, or terms and conditions concerning this Agreement. This non-disclosure provision does not bar the following disclosures by Releasor: (1) disclosures to members of their immediate family; or (2) disclosures for the purpose of obtaining legal, tax, accounting, or financial advice; or (3) disclosures which may be required by law; or (4) disclosures for the purpose of obtaining or maintaining publicly or privately funded benefits or insurance. This non-disclosure provision does not bar the following disclosures by Releasees: (1) disclosures pursuant to a lawful request under the Open Public Records Act; or (2) disclosures as may otherwise be compelled by law or Court Order. The Parties agree to inform those persons with whom they are permitted to share such information as to the confidentiality of this Agreement, and further agree to require such persons to hold information received by them about this Agreement as confidential pursuant to the terms herein. Upon all other inquiries, the Parties shall only respond that the matter has been resolved to the satisfaction of all those concerned. In the event that a party or parties is alleged to have breached the confidentiality provision of this Agreement, then the other party or parties may commence appropriate legal action.

11. The parties agree that this Agreement may be signed in counterparts and that facsimiles of signatures will have the same force and effect as original signatures.

12. It is understood between the parties that neither party has relied upon any representation, express or implied, made by any other party or their counsel or any of their representatives, and that this Agreement constitutes the entire understanding of the parties and cannot be modified except in writing signed by all of the parties hereto.

TEACHER ACKNOWLEDGES THAT SHE HAS BEEN ADVISED THAT HER LEGAL RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES WILL BE AFFECTED BY EXECUTING THIS AGREEMENT AND SHE ACKNOWLEDGES THAT SHE HAD THE OPPORTUNITY TO BE REPRESENTED BY HER OWN ATTORNEY AND CONSULT WITH HER ATTORNEY PRIOR TO EXECUTING THIS AGREEMENT.

13. In the event that any section or part of this Agreement shall be found to be void or unenforceable, such section or part shall be deemed to be surplusage and the remainder of the Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

14. This Agreement, including the letters attached, respectively, is contingent upon Board approval. In that regard, Teacher waives any rights under the decisions in Rice v. Union County Regional High School Bd. of Education to advanced written notice of the Board's consideration of this Agreement at a public meeting, as well as to request a public discussion of this Agreement at a public meeting.

15. By signing this Agreement, each signatory represents that he or she is a Party or has been duly authorized by a Party to sign on that Party's behalf and that this Agreement is duly authorized, approved and consented to as to terms.

16. Pursuant to the requirement of the Older Workers Benefit Protection Act, 29 U.S.C. § 626 et seq., Teacher acknowledges that she has been given the opportunity, if she so desires, to consider this Agreement for twenty-one (21) days before executing it. In the event that she executes this Agreement within less than twenty-one (21) days of the date of its delivery, Teacher acknowledges that such decision was entirely voluntary and that she had the opportunity, if he had so desired, to consider this Agreement for the entire twenty-one (21) day period. She further acknowledges that for a period of seven (7) days from the date of his execution of this Agreement, she shall retain the right to revoke this Agreement by written notice to Comegno Law Group, PC, 521 Pleasant Valley Avenue, Moorestown, NJ 08057, and that this Agreement shall not become effective or enforceable until the expiration of such revocation period.

17. The Board agrees that it will respond to inquiries regarding Teacher from prospective employers with the written communication on Board letterhead attached as Exhibit "C." No other information is to be provided to prospective employers without the consent of Teacher. An original, fully-executed Exhibit "C" will be provided to Teacher within thirty (30) days of the date of the Board's approval of this Agreement.

Intending to be legally bound hereby, Teacher and the Board execute the foregoing Agreement as indicated below.

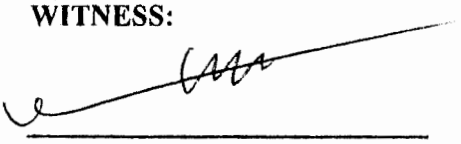
WITNESS:

Stanford R Oxford, Esq
An atty at law of NJ

Jessica C. Sherwood
JESSICA C. SHERWOOD

DATED: 1/31/2019

WITNESS:



BOARD SECRETARY

LOPATCONG BOARD OF EDUCATION

BOARD PRESIDENT

DATED: 2/28/2019

Letter of Resignation

January 31, 2019

To the Lopatcong Board of Education;

Effective January 31, 2019, I hereby irrevocably resign my employment as a tenured teaching staff member.

Jessica C. Sherwood

Jessica C. Sherwood

Rainie Roncoroni, Superintendent

Lopatcong Township Elementary School
Noelle S. Kondikoff, Principal
263 Route 57
Phillipsburg, New Jersey 08865
Phone: 908-859-0800
Fax: 908-213-1339

Lopatcong Township Middle School
Richard A. Bonney, Principal
321 Stonehenge Drive
Phillipsburg, New Jersey 08865
Phone: 908-213-2995
Fax: 908- 213-0373

January 31, 2019

Dear Sir/Madam:

Ms. Jessica C. Sherwood was employed as a Teacher by the Lopatcong Board of Education for approximately nineteen (19) years from September 1, 2000 to January 31, 2019. Her final salary was $74,025.00 per year.

Sincerely,

_____

Rainie Roncoroni,
Superintendent

Agency Dkt. No. 298-11/16

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Order

J.T., on behalf of minor children, J.T., A.T., and B.T.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of South Brunswick, Middlesex County,

Respondent.

On June 19, 2017, a final agency decision was rendered in this matter, wherein the Commissioner found J.T. liable for tuition in the amount of Thirty-Five Thousand Four Hundred Sixty-Two Dollars and Zero Cents ($35,462.00), representing tuition for a period of ineligible attendance by his minor children, J.T., A.T., and B.T., in the Board's school district during the 2016-17 school year. The Board subsequently notified the Commissioner that J.T. has failed to comply with the decision and requested that the Commissioner seek entry of the assessment on the judgment docket of the Superior Court pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2A:58-10. J.T. offered no reasons why the judgment against him should not be so docketed, although given an opportunity by this agency to do so.

Accordingly, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2A:58-10, Jerry Tomaselli is now subject to entry of a judgment by the court in the amount of $35,462.00, which represents the payment ordered at the conclusion of the case before the Commissioner, with interest to accrue as provided by law.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 4/19/19
Date of Mailing: 4/22/19

PHILIP D. MURPHY
Governor

SHEILA Y. OLIVER
Lt. Governor

State of New Jersey
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION
PO BOX 500
TRENTON, NJ 08625-0500

LAMONT O. REPOLLET, ED.D.
Commissioner

April 22, 2019

Michelle M. Smith, Clerk
Superior Court of New Jersey
Hughes Justice Complex
25 W. Market Street
6th Floor, North Wing
P.O. Box 971
Trenton, New Jersey 08625

Re: Request for Docketing of Judgment

Dear Ms. Smith:

In accordance with N.J.S.A. 2A:58-10, I am enclosing the April 19, 2019 Order of the Commissioner of Education finding that Jerry Tomaselli is subject to entry of a judgment on the docket of the court due to his failure to pay the tuition assessment ordered in the matter of J.T., on behalf of minor children, J.T., A.T. and B.T. V. Board Of Education of the Township of South Brunswick, Middlesex County.[1] By copy of this letter, I am advising Mr. Tomaselli, as well as counsel for the South Brunswick Board of Education, of the Commissioner's issuance of the enclosed Order.

If you require anything more, please contact this office at (609) 376-9079.

Very truly yours,

Jennifer Killough-Herrera, Acting-Director
Office of Controversies and Disputes

JKH
Enclosure

c: Jerry Tomaselli (with Order)
Kerri A. Wright, Esq. (with Order)
State Law Library (with Order)

[1] Please note that, although the case caption reflects only Mr. Tomaselli's initials, his full name is included within the body of the Commissioner's Order.

106-19

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

L.R., on behalf of minor child, J.R.,

Petitioner,

v.

New Jersey Department of Education, Office of Special Education,

Respondent.

Synopsis

Petitioner alleged that the respondent, New Jersey Department of Education, Office of Special Education (OSEP), violated her rights under the New Jersey Pupil Public Records Act (NJPRA) for sending electronic correspondence regarding J.R.'s file to a person not involved in this matter. Petitioner demanded an order requiring respondent to: recover or destroy the disclosed records at issue; institute a system-wide investigation into the handling of student records; and review and correct respondent's policy on the dissemination of student records. OSEP filed a motion to dismiss.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: the issue for determination here is whether petitioner is entitled to relief from OSEP under the NJPRA for wrongful dissemination of student records, or whether respondent should be granted summary decision; petitioner claimed that the NJPRA, and specifically N.J.S.A. 18A:36-19, provides him with a cause of action against OSEP due to its inadvertent carbon copying of an unrelated party on an email related to student J.R.; respondent claimed that N.J.S.A. 18A:36-19 gives petitioner a cause of action against the school district, but not against OSEP, and therefore its motion to dismiss should be granted; and N.J.S.A. 18A:36-19 does not provide a private cause of action against the State or OSEP, State v. J.S.G., 456 N.J. Super. 87, 105 (App. Div. 2018). The ALJ concluded that petitioner has failed to state a claim upon which relief can be granted. Accordingly, the ALJ granted respondent's motion to dismiss.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurred with the ALJ's findings and conclusion. Accordingly, the Initial Decision of the OAL was adopted as the final decision in this matter, and the matter was dismissed.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

April 22, 2019

106-19

OAL Dkt. No. EDU 05087-18
Agency Dkt. No. 39-2/18

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

L.R., on behalf of minor child, J.R.,

Petitioner,

v.

New Jersey Department of Education, Office of Special Education,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed. The parties did not file exceptions.

Upon such review, the Commissioner agrees with the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) that the petition fails to state a cause of action upon which relief can be granted against respondent because the New Jersey Pupil Records Act, N.J.S.A. 18A:36-19, does not provide a private right of action. State v. J.S.G., 456 N.J. Super. 87, 105 (App. Div. 2018), certif. denied, ___ N.J. ___ (2019).[1] Accordingly, the Initial Decision of the OAL is adopted as the final decision in this matter – for the reasons expressed therein – and the petition is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[2]

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 4/22/19
Date of Mailing: 4/22/19

[1] This decision denying certification was filed on March 9, 2019, and is therefore not yet published in the New Jersey Supreme Court Reporter.

[2] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to P.L. 2008, c. 36 (N.J.S.A 18A:6-9.1).

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
GRANTING RESPONDENT'S
MOTION TO DISMISS
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 05087-18
AGENCY DKT. NO. 39-2/18

L.R. ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILD, J.R.,
Petitioner,
v.
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION,
OFFICE OF SPECIAL EDUCATION,
Respondent.

Jamie Epstein, Esq., for petitioner

Caroline Jones, Deputy Attorney General, for respondent Department of Education (Gurbir S. Grewal, Attorney General of New Jersey, attorney)

Record closed: January 25, 2019 Decided: March 5, 2019

BEFORE JEFFREY N. RABIN, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner, L.R. on behalf of minor child, J.R., has alleged that respondent, the New Jersey Department of Education, Office of Special Education (OSEP), violated her rights under the New Jersey Pupil Records Act (NJPRA) for sending electronic correspondence regarding J.R.'s file to a person not involved in this matter. Petitioner has requested an order requiring respondent to: recover or destroy the wrongfully disclosed records; institute a system-wide investigation into the handling of student records; and review and correct its policy on the dissemination of student records.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On or about December 6, 2017, petitioner filed a petition with OSEP's Bureau of Controversies and Disputes (BCD), claiming OSEP had wrongfully disseminated electronic correspondence concerning student J.R. On or about February 8, 2018, OSEP requested additional time to investigate petitioner's claim, and petitioner responded by filing a motion with BCD, on or about March 1, 2018, seeking a default judgement for OSEP's failure to respond to his petition. On March 27, 2018, OSEP filed a motion to dismiss with BCD. On April 6, 2018, this matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), where it was filed on April 20, 2018, as a contested case. N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15; N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13. A telephone prehearing was held on June 6, 2018.

Oral argument on the parties' motions was held at OAL on October 24, 2018. Additional information was required and OSEP filed a supplemental letter brief on November 30, 2018. Petitioner did not submit a supplemental brief.[1] A second oral argument was heard at OAL on January 25, 2019, and the record closed on that date.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION AND FINDINGS OF FACT

Based upon the petitioner's filing, respondent's briefs, and the two oral arguments, and for the purpose of deciding the motion for summary decision, I FIND the following:

[1] Respondent's submission of November 30, 2018, reiterated its motion to dismiss from March 27, 2018, and has been treated as if respondent had filed a motion to dismiss with OAL as of November 30, 2018. Petitioner has not filed any motions or briefs with OAL. On January 26, 2018, counsel for petitioner submitted another verified petition seeking relief, with the Commissioner of the Department of Education and not OAL, which was not accompanied by a legal brief setting out the basis for petitioner's claims.

1. Petitioner, L.R., resides in Camden, NJ, with her minor child, student J.R. J.R. attends school in the Camden School District. J.R. has been classified as autistic.

2. On October 31, 2017, respondent sent an email regarding a special education order concerning J.R., to an attorney in Philadelphia, who responded on November 6, 2017, that the email had been inadvertently sent to him.

3. Respondent OSEP had provided no evidence that it had taken any remedial action to protect, secure or destroy the wrongfully disclosed email.

4. Petitioner had provided no evidence that the email of October 31, 2017, was a protected, confidential student record.[2]

LEGAL ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSION OF LAW

The issue is whether petitioner is entitled to relief from respondent OSEP under the NJPRA for a wrongful dissemination of student records, or whether respondent should be granted a summary decision in its favor.

Petitioner has claimed that the New Jersey Pupil Records Act (NJPRA), and specifically N.J.S.A. 18A:36-19, should provide him with a cause of action against OSEP due to its inadvertent carbon copying of an unrelated party on an email related to student J.R. Respondent has claimed that N.J.S.A. 18A:36-19 gave petitioner a cause of action against the school district but not against OSEP, and that therefore its motion to dismiss should be granted.

Summary decision may be granted when the papers and discovery that have been filed show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact challenged and the moving party is entitled to prevail as a matter of law. N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(b). No evidentiary hearing need be held if there are no disputed issues of material fact. Frank v. Ivy Club, 120 N.J. 73, 98, cert. denied, 498 U.S. 1073 (1991). "When the evidence is so one-sided that one party must prevail as a matter of law, the [tribunal] should not hesitate to grant summary [decision]." Della Vella v. Bureau of Homeowner Prot., New Home Warranty Program, CAF 17020-13, Initial Decision (March 31, 2014), adopted, Comm'r (May 12, 2014), http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/ (quoting Brill v. Guardian Life Ins. Co. of Am., 142 N.J. 520, 529 (1995)).

[2] Petitioner has represented to this tribunal that another case filed on behalf of student J.R., L.R. v. Camden City Public School District, 452 N.J.Super. 56 (App.Div. 2017), had been granted certification by the New Jersey Supreme Court, and would further define what is a protected, confidential school record.

Further, the non-moving party has the burden "to make an affirmative demonstration . . . that the facts are not as the movant alleges." Spiotta v. William H. Wilson, Inc., 72 N.J. Super. 572, 581 (App.Div. 1962). This requirement, however, does not relieve the moving party from having to initially establish in its moving papers that there was no genuine issue of fact and that they were entitled to prevail as a matter of law. It is the "movant's burden to exclude any reasonable doubt as to the existence of any genuine issue of fact." Conti v. Board of Education, 286 N.J. Super. 106 (App. Div. 1995) (quoting Judson v. Peoples Bank and Trust Co. of Westfield, 17 N.J. 67, 74 (1954)).

Respondent is considered the moving party in its motion to dismiss. It has asserted that it is entitled to prevail as a matter of law because there is no cause of action under the NJPRA allowing a student to seek relief from the State of New Jersey through OSEP for the wrongful dissemination of records. Petitioner has not provided a legal brief for its position, but in its second petition to the Commissioner of Education, petitioner relied on the NJPRA, N.J.S.A. 18A:36-19. (Petitioner's Verified Petition dated January 26, 2019.)

However, N.J.S.A. 18A:36-19 does not provide a private cause of action against the State or OSEP. Respondent correctly cited to State v. J.S.G., 456 N.J.Super. 87, 105 (App.Div. 2018) for the holding that the NJPRA does not provide a private right of action. ("Like FERPA[3], the NJPRA and its governing regulations merely provide administrative remedies for a violation and do not provide for a private right of action or suppression.") See also L.S. v. Mount Olive Bd. Of Education, 765 F.Supp. 2d 648 (D.NJ. 2011)(holding that "NJPRA, FERPA . . . do not provide for a private right of action.) Rather, the NJPRA permits parents to challenge the content and handling of student records by a school district, allowing them to seek to expunge inaccurate or irrelevant information from or insert additional correct information into student records, or request a stay of disclosure by a school district.

[3] The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act, 20 U.S.C. section 1232g.

The limited administrative remedies available to petitioner under NJPRA are only available against school districts, because school districts are responsible for creating and maintaining student records under NJPRA. See N.J.A.C. 6A:32-7.1, 7.3 and 7.4. In the within matter, the email in question was created by OSEP, not the Camden City School District. Petitioner has not sought to avail itself of any remedies against the school district in this matter.

Further, petitioner has not provided any evidence that the email in question met any existing definition of a protected, confidential student record under NJPRA, nor that the email had any statutory or regulatory protections.

Accordingly, I FIND that petitioner has failed to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, because there is no cause of action against OSEP under NJPRA. This is sufficient to hold that respondent's motion to dismiss must be granted.

It must be noted that petitioner's counsel, in his oral arguments on October 24, 2018, and January 25, 2019, claimed that there were validity problems with how the pertinent statute and regulations regarding student records were written. Petitioner claimed that NJPRA and its associated regulations were in fact written by OSEP, which is why no cause of action was created against OSEP. Petitioner argued for this tribunal to apply a standard of fairness to this issue. Petitioner asked for a finding that, despite the black letter language of NJPRA and the holding of the various courts, respondent be ordered to locate and destroy the email in question, and that OSEP conduct a system-wide investigation into how student records are handled and implement remedial measures to address the problem.

OAL is not the proper forum for a litigant to challenge the validity of a statute or regulation. "The Appellate Division, and not the OAL, is the proper forum in which to challenge the facial validity of an administrative regulation specifically where the matter as here, is purely a question of law." Wendling v. New Jersey Racing Comm'n, 279 N.J. Super 477, 484; [quoting Christian Bros. Inst. v. No. N.J. Interschol. League, 86 N.J. 409, 416, (1981)]. Further, "normally in administrative proceedings, petitioners can attack the constitutionality of rules as applied, but may not mount facial attacks." 37 New Jersey Practice, Admin. Law & Practice, § 3.8 (Steven L. Lefelt, Anthony Miragliotta & Patricia Prunty) (2d ed. 2000).

Petitioner has, in essence, made a facial attack on the constitutionality of both the statute and implementing regulations. These are purely questions of law which should be addressed by the Appellate Division pursuant to the court in Wendling. I therefore CONCLUDE that the OAL is not the proper forum for the consideration of those issues. For the within matter, it must be accepted that NJPRA and the related regulations do not provide petitioner with a cause of action against OSEP.

Accordingly, as petitioner has set forth no cause of action against respondent, this matter is ripe for summary decision.

ORDER

I hereby ORDER that respondent's motion to dismiss is GRANTED, and this matter is hereby DISMISSED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

March 5, 2019
DATE

JEFFREY N. RABIN, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: 3.5.19

Date Mailed to Parties: 3.5.19

JNR/dw

APPENDIX

EXHIBITS

For petitioner:

1. Petitioner's Verified Petition, dated January 26, 2019

For respondent:

1. Motion for Summary Decision and brief, dated March 27, 2018
2. Brief, dated November 30, 2018

107-19

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

L.K. and T.K., on behalf of minor child, A.K.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Mansfield, Burlington County,

Respondent.

Synopsis

Petitioners challenged the determination of the respondent Board that their daughter, A.K., committed an act of harassment, intimidation or bullying (HIB) against an elementary school classmate, N.V., pursuant to the New Jersey Anti-Bullying Bill of Rights Act (the Act), N.J.S.A. 18A:37-13 et seq. Petitioners sought a determination that the Board's decision was arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable, and requested the removal of the HIB finding from A.K.'s student records. The Board contended that its actions were in compliance with the requirements of the Act, and that the HIB investigation was conducted properly. The parties filed cross motions for summary decision.

The ALJ determined that summary decision was not appropriate in this case, as there were material facts in dispute; the legal issues for determination were whether petitioners received adequate procedural due process, and whether petitioners could prove by a preponderance of credible evidence that the Board's determination of HIB was arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable. The ALJ found, inter alia, that: the HIB investigation conducted by the school district was not thorough and complete; despite that, petitioners were provided adequate due process, and failed to meet their burden to prove otherwise; the superintendent violated statute and policy by failing to provide A.K.'s parents with information regarding the nature of the investigation; the Board's decision herein was arbitrary, capricious and unreasonable because the superintendent misstated the law when he directed the Board not to consider A.K.'s age in their determination of HIB; A.K. did not know, nor should have known, that her conduct would have the effect of harming a student, and did not substantially disrupt or interfere with the orderly operation of the school or the rights of other students; and although the Board decision was not made in bad faith, the decision relied on faulty information. The ALJ concluded that A.K.'s conduct did not meet the statutory definition of HIB, and petitioners proved by a preponderance of evidence that the Board's actions were arbitrary, capricious and unreasonable; the ALJ ordered the Board's decision reversed and the finding of HIB removed from A.K.'s student file.

Upon review, the Commissioner disagreed with the ALJ's findings and rejected the ALJ's determination. In so doing, the Commissioner found, inter alia, that: petitioners did not meet their burden of proof to show that the HIB determination was arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable; A.K.'s conduct was clearly motivated by N.V.'s gender identity and expression; and, although the Commissioner is mindful of A.K.'s young age at the time of the incidents, A.K. should have known that her persistent conduct was causing N.V. emotional harm as she was repeatedly counselled that her behavior was not appropriate. Accordingly, the Initial Decision was rejected and the petition was dismissed with prejudice.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

April 22, 2019

OAL Dkt. No. EDU 07067-16
Agency Dkt. No. 82-3/16

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

L.K. and T.K., on behalf of minor child, A.K.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Mansfield, Burlington County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed. The parties' exceptions and replies thereto, filed pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4, have also been reviewed and considered by the Commissioner.[1] In this case, the petitioners are challenging the Board's determination that their minor child, A.K., committed an act of Harassment, Intimidation, and Bullying (HIB) pursuant to the Anti-Bullying Bill of Rights Act (the Act), N.J.S.A. 18A:37-13 et seq., towards her classmate, N.V.[2] Following a hearing in this matter, the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) concluded that the conduct did not meet the statutory

[1] The Parties' sur-replies and subsequent correspondence were not considered by the Commissioner, as such documents do not meet the criteria in N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4; moreover, the parties failed to obtain permission from the Commissioner prior to submitting any additional documents for the Commissioner's review.

[2] The use of N.V. in this decision is based on the initials used in the record. For the purposes of this decision, "N." represents N.V.'s preferred name. The record further uses male gender pronouns when referencing N.V.; therefore, this decision will do the same. The Commissioner notes that N.V. is a gender nonconforming student who was assigned "male" at birth. The record reflects that N.V. dresses in clothes that are typically associated with the female gender and prefers to be called by a name typically associated with the female gender.

definition of HIB and that the Board acted in an arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable manner when it determined that an incident of HIB had occurred.

Upon a comprehensive review of the record, the Commissioner disagrees with the ALJ's findings and rejects the ALJ's determination for the reasons set forth below. The Commissioner restores the Board's finding of HIB, mindful of the standard of review of such matters and the deference granted to a board of education's determination. When a local board of education acts within its discretionary authority, its decision is entitled to a presumption of correctness and will not be disturbed unless there is an affirmative showing that the decision was "patently arbitrary, without rational basis or induced by improper motives." See Kopera v. W. Orange Bd. of Educ., 60 N.J. Super. 288 (App. Div. 1960). Furthermore, "where there is room for two opinions, action is not arbitrary or capricious when exercised honestly and upon due consideration[,]" and the Commissioner will not substitute his judgment for that of the board. Bayshore Sewerage Co. v. Dep't. of Envtl. Prot., 131 N.J. Super. 37 (App. Div. 1974).

Here, the petitioners had the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence that the Board acted in an arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable manner in rendering its HIB determination. See T.B.M on behalf of M.M. v. Moorestown Board of Education, OAL Dkt. No. EDU 12780-07, decided February 6, 2008 (citing Thomas v. Morris Township Board of Education, 89 N.J. Super. 327, 332 (App. Div. 1965), aff'd 46 N.J. 581 (1966)), adopted Commissioner Decision No. 157-14, April 7, 2008. Based on the evidence in the record, including the transcripts of the hearing at the OAL, the Commissioner finds that the petitioners did not meet their burden.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14, harassment, intimidation and bullying is defined as "[A]ny gesture, any written, verbal or physical act, or any electronic communication, whether it be a single incident or a series of incidents, that is reasonably perceived as being motivated either by any actual or perceived characteristic, such as race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, or a mental, physical or sensory disability, or by any other distinguishing characteristic, that takes place on school property, at any school-sponsored function, on a school bus, or off school grounds as provided for in section 16 of P.L. 2010, c.122 (C.18A:37-15.3), that substantially disrupts or interferes with the orderly operation of the school or the rights of other students and that:

> a. a reasonable person should know, under the circumstances, will have the effect of physically or emotionally harming a student or damaging the student's property, or placing a student in reasonable fear of physical or emotional harm to his person or damage to his property;
>
> b. has the effect of insulting or demeaning any student or group of students; or
>
> c. creates a hostile educational environment for the student by interfering with a student's education or by severely or pervasively causing physical or emotional harm to the student.

In the instant case, A.K. admitted that she repeatedly questioned N.V. and made comments to him about his name, his hair, and the clothing that he wore. A.K. persisted despite warnings from school staff that such remarks were unacceptable, and instructions from her mother to discontinue such queries.[3] In addition to her harassment of N.V., A.K. threatened N.V. regarding his reporting of her behavior, which was verified by N.V. during the course of the HIB investigation. It is clear from the record that A.K.'s behavior was motivated by N.V.'s gender identity and expression. Moreover, A.K.'s conduct took place on the school bus and on school grounds, and consequently interfered with N.V.'s rights and the rights of other students. In fact, for a period of time, N.V.'s parent drove him to school because he did not want to ride on the same bus as A.K. A.K.'s behavior was not only demeaning to N.V., but also caused him emotional harm and created a hostile educational environment.[4] Although the Commissioner is mindful that A.K. was only seven years old at the time

[3] T.K.'s testimony also detailed her efforts to address with A.K. the incident(s) and the differences among individuals with regard to their gender identities and expressions.

[4] Petitioners' exceptions substantially recast the arguments made below and reiterate their claim that the Board violated A.K.'s due process rights. A review of the record and the determination set forth in the Initial Decision pertaining to petitioners' due process claims reveal that the Board followed the procedures set forth in the Act and in its policy. The procedures set forth in the Act are sufficient to allow all parties involved adequate notice and due process of the law. Petitioners seek to expand the of the incidents, the Commissioner finds that she should have known that her persistent conduct was causing emotional harm to N.V. given that she was repeatedly counselled that her behavior was not appropriate. Therefore, the Board's determination that A.K. committed an act of HIB was not arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision is rejected and the petition of appeal is hereby dismissed with prejudice.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[5]

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 4/22/19
Date of Mailing: 4/22/19

investigatory process and the HIB determination procedures to mirror discovery and trial-like adversarial proceedings, which is not the intent of the Act. The Commissioner is, therefore, unpersuaded by petitioners' exceptions.

[5] This decision may be appealed to the Superior Court, Appellate Division, pursuant to P.L. 2008, c. 36 (N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1).

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 7067-16
AGENCY DKT. NO. 82-3/16

L.K. AND T.K. ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILD, A.K.,
Petitioners,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF MANSFIELD, BURLINGTON COUNTY,
Respondent.

David R. Giles, Esq., for petitioners

Casey P. Acker, Esq., for respondent (Lenox, Socey, Formidoni, Giordano, Cooley, Lang and Casey, LLP, attorneys)

Record Closed: April 16, 2018 Decided: January 22, 2019

BEFORE LISA JAMES-BEAVERS, Acting Director and Chief ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioners L.K. and T.K. appeal respondent Mansfield Township Board of Education's (the Board) finding that their daughter, A.K., committed an act of harassment, intimidation, or bullying (HIB), N.J.S.A. 18A:37-13 et seq. Petitioners seek a determination that the Board's decision was arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable. The Board seeks affirmance of its decision based on the findings of an investigation.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

By way of petition dated March 14, 2016, petitioners sought to have the Commissioner of Education (Commissioner) remove the HIB determination from A.K.'s student records. Petitioners filed an Amended Petition on or about March 28, 2016. Respondent filed an answer on May 3, 2016. On May 5, 2016, respondent filed an answer to the amended petition. The matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) as a contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13. It was filed at the OAL on May 9, 2016.

On September 7, 2016, respondent moved for summary decision pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5. Petitioners filed an opposition and cross-motion for summary decision on October 11, 2016, and an amended brief was submitted on October 12, 2016. Respondent replied on October 27, 2016. Oral argument was held on January 3, 2017. On March 6, 2017, I issued an Order denying the motion and the cross-motion for summary decision due to there being facts in dispute. A hearing was scheduled for September 18 and 19, 2017. I heard the case on September 18, 2017; however, petitioners were not able to complete their case, and their next witness was unavailable for the second scheduled hearing date of September 19, 2017. New hearing dates were scheduled for September 26, October 11, and November 15, 2017, and February 14, 2018. The record closed after receipt of petitioners' 118-page written summation and respondent's summation on April 16, 2018.

Pursuant to my Order denying summary decision, the issues on which there was a material factual dispute that needed resolution at hearing were: 1) What process were the petitioners afforded with regard to their right to a hearing; and 2) What evidence did respondent consider in making its HIB determination? The legal issue is whether petitioners received adequate procedural due process as afforded by the HIB statute. Last, the ultimate issue is whether petitioners can prove by a preponderance of the credible evidence in the record that the Board's decision was arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable.

STIPULATED FACTS

1) Petitioners' minor child, A.K., was a student at the Mansfield Township Board of Education's (Board) John Hydock Elementary School (JHES) during the 2015–2016 school year;

2) On September 29, 2015, an incident occurred on the morning school bus involving students A.K. and N.V. ("the incident");

3) As a result of the incident, an investigation into harassment, intimidation, or bullying (HIB) was conducted by JHES anti-bullying specialist (ABS) Cheryl Strickland and JHES principal Stacy Cullari;

4) Petitioners were notified of the HIB investigation;

5) An HIB report ("HIB report") was rendered, which found a confirmed incident of bullying by A.K. against N.V.;

6) The HIB report was submitted to the superintendent of the Mansfield Township School District, Tiffany Moutis;

7) During executive session on October 19, 2015, Moutis shared with the Board the HIB report, and the HIB report and incident were discussed;

8) The Board approved the HIB finding from the HIB report;

9) Petitioners were notified that the Board approved the HIB finding from the HIB report;

10) Petitioners were provided with a summary of the HIB investigation;

11) Petitioners requested a hearing before the Mansfield Board to appeal the approval of the HIB finding;

12) The appeal hearing was initially scheduled for November 9, 2015, and, with the consent of petitioners, rescheduled for November 16, 2015;

13) The appeal hearing was placed on the agenda of the November 16, 2015, Board meeting;

14) Petitioners' appeal was heard by the Board in executive session at the November 16, 2015, Board meeting;

15) At its December 14, 2015, meeting, the Board, in public session, approved a resolution to affirm the superintendent's decision, "John Hydock Elementary School HIB case #1"; and

16) Petitioners were notified of the Board's decision on their HIB appeal by way of letter dated December 15, 2015.

Additional Stipulations of Fact were also submitted:

1) Prior to the hearing, petitioners, through counsel, requested that the Board produce records in its possession that would have included any notes related to the investigation of the HIB complaint against A.K. ("HIB complaint") and related meetings or hearings before the Board.

2) The Board produced some notes in response to that request, but handwritten notes taken by Cheryl Strickland and Stacy Cullari, respectively, during their investigation of the HIB complaint were not identified or produced prior to the hearing in this matter before the OAL ("the hearing").

3) During their testimony during the hearing, Strickland and Cullari, respectively, stated that they had taken such notes and that they had provided them to the Board in response to a records request from the petitioners.

4) Thereafter, petitioners' counsel requested copies of those notes.

5) Neither the Board nor Cullari has a copy of her notes or knows what happened to them.

6) The Board did produce on October 5, 2017, a copy of notes which it has identified as all of Cheryl Strickland's handwritten notes related to the HIB investigation in the possession of the Board. A copy of those notes has been admitted into evidence in the hearing as Exhibit J-28.

7) Although Brett Gorman testified that he believed that the Board's business administrator would have taken "meeting notes" for the meeting minutes of executive sessions, Joyce Goode, the Board's business administrator who was present during the executive sessions of October 19, 2015, and November 16, 2015, and during the November 16, 2015, HIB hearing, does not recall taking any notes during those sessions or hearing, and neither she nor the Board has a copy of any such notes.

8) During her testimony, Alison Perrone stated that among other things she reviewed in preparing to testify during the hearing were notes that she had written on a copy of the agenda during the executive session of the Board held on October 19, 2015.

9) Thereafter, petitioners' counsel requested a copy of those notes, but Perrone can no longer locate them and the Board does not have a copy of them.

10) By stipulation to the above facts, the Board does not admit that any of the notes referenced above are "government records" within the meaning of the Open Public Records Act (OPRA), or that there is any legal obligation for such handwritten notes to be maintained by a school district.

11) Petitioners acknowledge that it is the position of the Board that none of the notes referenced above are "government records" within the meaning of OPRA, and there is no legal obligation for such handwritten notes to be maintained by a school district.

12) Petitioners also agree that nothing in the above stipulations or the fact that the Board disclosed the mentioned notes may be used to imply or suggest that the Board concedes that such notes are "government records" or that it was legally obligated to maintain them.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION

Testimony

T.K.

Petitioner T.K., mother of A.K., testified that A.K. was seven years old at the time of this incident. T.K. has another child, who is two years younger. T.K. is a self-employed board-certified behavior analyst (BCBA) who works in homes for families. She has done so for nine years. She also has a teacher-of-the-handicapped certificate and more than twenty years of experience in the school setting. Her husband, L.K., is a federal officer with U.S. Customs. They moved to Columbus, New Jersey, in the Mansfield School District in February 2015, and her children started attending school there after Presidents' Day.

A.K. was seven years old and in the first grade in Ms. Morse's class in JHES with approximately twenty other children. T.K. communicated regularly with Ms. Morse, met with her, and emailed her. A.K. rode the bus to school every day. The typical school bus had forty children on it. The bus driver was the only adult on the bus. T.K. did not hear of student N.V. during the first year of school. A.K. attended the second grade in Ms. Papero's class with approximately twenty other students.

A.K. is a girl who likes to dress up in fancy, nice clothes. Cheryl Strickland was a guidance counselor at JHES during A.K.'s second-grade year. T.K. testified that she received a call on September 29, 2015, at approximately 10:00 a.m. when she was working at a school district. Ms. Strickland called to say that her daughter had a "little situation" with a student. She explained that there is a student in A.K.'s school who went by a male name last year but now wants to be called by a female name.[1] The student now wears clothes associated with girls, and A.K. asked the student many times why he[2] does so, and he did not have an answer. When they got off the bus, both of them were crying. The student was upset because A.K. kept asking, and A.K. was upset because he was going to tell on her.

Ms. Strickland told T.K. that as far as she understood, the situation was worked out. Ms. Strickland explained that it is "difficult for all of us," and more so for a kid. T.K. wanted mostly to talk to her daughter when she got home. She did not hear anything else from the school that day. When T.K. spoke to A.K., A.K. did not know why she got in trouble. T.K. talked to A.K. about differences, and told her there is a child who dresses differently. She talked about the fact that he chooses to dress that way, and A.K. still did not get it. She went out to look for books on the issue, because it was new, and she was able to find children's books about it. T.K. told her daughter not to ask questions of that student anymore, but to talk to T.K. instead. They talked about his name, and said that if he wants to be called by the girl's name N3, then A.K. should call him by that name. A.K. was very confused, even after they spent an hour on it. She likes the student and just wants to be friends. He likes American Girl dolls as much as she does and he likes to shop at Justice like she does.

---

[1] At the hearing, the parties agreed that to protect the identity of the student, we would use N3 to refer to the student's female name; N2 to refer to the old nickname; and N1 to refer to the name given at birth.
[2] During testimony, T.K. referred to the alleged victim as "he" or "him," so I am using that terminology in summarizing her testimony.

A.K. has asked a lot of questions since she could talk. She perseverates about anything in her life she does not understand. There was a child in her class who could not talk and used an augmented-communication device. He had a teacher with him all day long. She knew that the boy could not answer her, so she asked her mother about it and had her questions answered. You must answer her or else the situation will snowball.

When A.K. went to school the next day, nothing happened. T.K. found in her daughter's backpack a sheet of paper on which her daughter was trying to understand that her friend now wants to be called N3 by writing the old name and then the new name. (P-2.) A.K. is a visual learner, and that was her way of trying to understand, by writing a note to herself. Ms. Strickland and principal Stacey Cullari had meetings with A.K. to try to help her understand. Then, on October 1, 2015, T.K. heard from Ms. Cullari that there was another incident with the student. Ms. Cullari said now she needed to investigate it as an incident of HIB. Apparently something happened in the lunchroom with A.K. and the student, but she did not make clear what A.K. had done. Ms. Cullari said that they would have to go through the HIB process with an investigation. A.K. was practically in tears and very upset and confused. Ms. Cullari also said she already had given A.K. detention that day. When T.K. asked A.K. about it, she immediately broke down crying. She had to spend a day in detention in the principal's office. A.K. told her that she did nothing, and was very confused. T.K. wanted to get information from Ms. Cullari as to what exactly her daughter did. Ms. Cullari told A.K. that she may be expelled, and A.K. asked what "expel" means. T.K. tried to tell her, but did not know what to say. She did try to say that Ms. Cullari would never do that, but A.K. still talks about it.

T.K. emailed Ms. Cullari after having spoken to A.K. A.K. denied having said anything to the student, and she was upset that no one believed her. A.K. now hates school. T.K. asked to know exactly what had happened, but was never told. Ms. Cullari wrote her an e-mail reply, but did not answer her question. She basically said that everything was okay, and that A.K. seemed okay as well.

T.K. tried several more times to get a response to her question as to what A.K. did, but did not receive anything. She was just told that she would get a letter in the mail on October 15, 2015. She researched everything regarding HIB—the laws, guidance from the Department of Education, and school guidance—and really thought everything would remain the same regarding her daughter. When she received a letter from Ms. Cullari in October, she questioned the written report that was submitted to the Board. (J-8.) She still was not really concerned. On October 20, 2015, T.K. received the letter from the District and the summary of the investigation. (J-17.) She was shocked, based on all the previous calls with Ms. Cullari and Ms. Strickland, that A.K. had been found guilty of HIB. The summary referenced only an incident date of September 29, 2015. It relied on N3's report that A.K. was mean to him. No one ever said that A.K. had threatened N3, as he alleged. No one ever said that A.K. was being mean to or teasing N3. A.K. admitted to asking questions, but does not see why that was wrong. Apparently the threat was that A.K. said her parents are lawyers, and that if N3 told on her, she would tell on him. As set forth above, neither parent is a lawyer. A.K. admitted that she was asking him questions, and that it was difficult to call him by his new name, but she still did not understand what she had done wrong. T.K. had also never heard that A.K. had made fun of N3. The letter said that the investigation was completed on October 13, 2015. T.K. had no idea what evidence the Board had relevant to her daughter being found guilty of an HIB incident.

T.K. received the letter from Ms. Strickland and Dori Levy, anti-bullying coordinator, informing her that the HIB investigation was presented to the Board on October 19, 2015. Prior to that, she did not know that it had been reported to the Board. (J-17.) Tiffany Moutis, superintendent, sent the report with the results of the HIB investigation under separate letter dated October 20, 2015. It advised that they concluded that an HIB incident had occurred. At that point, T.K. still did not know what A.K. had done that was considered to be HIB. T.K. strongly disagreed, so she did more investigation. She tried to reach out to Ms. Moutis, because she was completely blindsided by the finding. She was supposed to have a meeting with the school staff for them to give her information. However, she received a call from Ms. Moutis saying that if she disagrees with the finding she has to appear before the Board. All Ms. Moutis would say is that it is clear that it is HIB. T.K. requested a hearing after she tried unsuccessfully a few more times to have a meeting with Ms. Moutis. She was given the date of November 16, 2015, to appear before the Board. She expected that it would be the time to get more information and ask questions. She put together a four-page set of notes, statements, and questions for the Board. She talked to the parents of A.K.'s friends. She knew A.K. had trouble with new information, as well as trouble with her social skills. What she heard from parents is that there are a lot of issues on the bus, and that there were other students who picked on N3.

On November 16, 2015, the day of the scheduled hearing, Ms. Moutis introduced herself to petitioners, as they had not met before. Mr. Gorman went into the meeting with the Board members, along with Ms. Cullari, Ms. Strickland, and Ms. Levy, and stayed approximately five minutes. Mr. Gorman then said that the petitioners could go in and present to the Board. However, he said that they would not be allowed to ask questions. T.K. was completely confused, as Ms. Moutis had said that they would get their questions answered. She was a little upset, so she asked for some time to collect herself before presenting to the Board. She had the statement she had prepared for the hearing. (P-7.) She did not see anything, nor was she given anything, that was handed to the Board. When she tried to ask when the alleged harassment was first reported, Mr. Gorman answered for the Board, and no one else could respond. She asked how the team determined that A.K.'s conduct was HIB, and Mr. Gorman gave the textbook definition of HIB and not what A.K. did. Mr. Gorman talked over them. One of the Board members asked if she thinks A.K. knew that what she said to N3 was mean. She said, "No, I don't believe she knew." Ms. Strickland then jumped in and said she disagrees, and that A.K. said that she knew it hurt N3 and she would try to be nicer. T.K. said that A.K. was aware after all this had occurred that she had hurt N3, because adults had told her that she had hurt him. Ms. Cullari tried to talk to T.K., and Mr. Gorman said, "Please don't say anything." Ms. Cullari then said, "I wish I could tell you."

Petitioners were told at the end of the hearing that the Board would make a decision at the next Board meeting, so they left and everyone else remained. At the next Board meeting, the Board agreed to accept the superintendent's recommendation. Although there was miswording in the letter that the Board had not found an HIB violation, T.K. knew that the HIB determination had been upheld. After that, T.K. made an Open Public Records Act (OPRA) request to obtain more information, and the Board provided the records. (J-2.) She requested A.K.'s record and all the information regarding the HIB investigation, including reports and notes.

A.K.'s current relationship with N3 is that they are in the same class, as well as on the same bus. They play together and they are just typical students. A.K. is more nervous and anxious and scared of doing anything wrong. N3 is allowed to bring a friend to his counseling session, and invited A.K.

In the records, other children had reported that other kids were doing things to N3. One student pushed him down on the bus and squeezed his hand really hard. These things were left out of the summary. There were three separate versions of N3's mom's report. Each one was modified, until the last one was just talking about A.K., and the comments about the other students were removed. None of the students interviewed said that T.K.'s daughter was mean, or teased or bullied N3. Two of them said N3 was being mean to A.K. She still has no idea how they looked at the witnesses' reports and concluded that A.K. did something wrong. The other items were never conveyed to the Board, as far as she knows. They were in neither the summary nor the report from Strickland and Levy. When she reviewed N3's mother's email to the school principal dated October 5, 2015 (J-7), the concerns expressed were significantly different than the concerns N3's mother had expressed on September 29, 2015. She never saw any more notes of interviews with A.K. She was never given another opportunity to respond to the mother's email. Also received in her OPRA response was the HIB checklist that was filled out the day she got the call from Ms. Strickland, September 29, 2015. Ms. Strickland never mentioned hurtful teasing, as noted on the second page of the report. No one mentioned insulting remarks or threats. After having read all of it, she does not believe A.K. did anything intentionally. The Bullying Incident Report Form dated October 1, 2015 (J-3) indicates that things were done in a classroom and playground that were never mentioned to her. She still did not see records mentioning a demeaning comment that A.K. made to N3. There were no interviews of teachers, or school staff, or the bus driver, or the aide. The very last page of the report form asks why the harassment occurred, and the "other" box is checked, with a handwritten note saying "gender identity." A.K. has no idea what that is. T.K. went on to say that her husband became a member of the Mansfield Board of Education in 2016, and he had just recently resigned.

T.K. admitted that her daughter has told her things that she later found out were not true but attributed that to her being a kid. She recalled that on September 23, 2015, two parents informed her that her daughter was not very nice. (R-1.) She knows her daughter has social issues, and she has numerous concerns for her daughter dating back to infancy and childhood. The parents did not say she was mean, but said they had to intervene due to conflicts. On September 29, 2015, Ms. Strickland told her the reason why N3 was upset, and it was because of the conflict. When she spoke to A.K. about differences, she believes A.K. understood in a broad sense. A.K. said she would stop the conduct that was bothering N3. When she asked her daughter why she wrote the handwritten note (P-2), A.K. said she wanted to remember to call her friend by the preferred name, N3. On October 1, 2015, Ms. Cullari told her all about the HIB process and investigation, but never specified what occurred that day. It was a twenty-four-minute conversation. After the call with Ms. Cullari, she spoke to her daughter again. However, she never got a number regarding how many times A.K. asked N3 why he dressed as he did. Ms. Cullari did say that A.K. said something to N3 and mentioned something about a threat made and that an investigation was to occur. The nature of the threat was not clear, but there was a reference to the police. Her daughter denied making any threat. Even though T.K. knew an investigation was going to be done, she was still shocked that they found HIB.

T.K. believes that the summary gave new and different information than she had been told, and she wanted to talk about it. Her daughter admitted to asking N3 why he wore a dress, but denied that she was teasing him about it. T.K. never had her questions answered as to what occurred on October 1, 2015. The only threat she heard about was A.K. saying that her parents were lawyers, but she did not think that was HIB. She was aware that when she went to the hearing she could bring evidence, but she did not bring anything other than the documents set forth at Exhibit P-7. She believes that the Board should have looked at environmental factors, developmental age, and assessment of behavior. She brought with her literature consisting of the Department of Education's guidance to schools, but Mr. Gorman said it was not relevant. She left him a copy of the front page of it anyway. She did not have the OPRA documents when she went to the hearing. She received them later. She considered bringing her daughter, but decided against putting her through that. She believed she was before the Board for at least a half hour. To this day, she still does not know what investigation reports the Board considered. She also does not know whether the investigation reports were presented to Ms. Cullari or Ms. Moutis.

Stacy Cullari

Stacy Cullari testified that she has been the principal of JHES since 2014, and was supervisor of curriculum and instruction at the school in the year prior. Every year, all staff must be trained in HIB.

On September 29, 2015, students came up to her in a frenzy as she greeted students in the morning. Student N3 was upset because A.K. was teasing him on the bus. Student A.K. was upset because N3 was going to tattle on her. She let Cheryl Strickland, anti-bullying specialist, know what occurred. N3 said he liked Shopkins and Monster High, and A.K. said, "you can't like those things because you're a boy." Also, N3 said he wanted to wear a dress on picture day, and A.K. said N3 can't wear a dress because he's a boy. Ms. Cullari first spoke to the students individually, and then spoke to them together in the presence of Ms. Strickland. N3 said A.K.'s remarks were upsetting to him. A.K. disagreed, but did not recall exactly what she had said. Ms. Strickland took the lead in the questioning. They had mediation, where they talked about differences. A.K. seemed receptive, and said that she would stop her questions and comments.

Ms. Cullari filled out an HIB checklist. She notified T.K. about the incident by telephone. She also spoke to N3's mother by phone. N3 was born a male. N3 dressed mostly in female clothing and had pierced ears. N3's mother was quite upset. She said that there were prior incidents involving A.K. Ms. Cullari said that if she felt that it was bullying, she had to put it in writing, which she did.

Ms. Cullari believed that A.K. understood that her conduct made N3 upset. The next day she spoke to other students and took their statements. On September 30, 2015, Ms. Cullari interviewed student J. N3 said that he and J. had arguments on the bus, but they are friends. J.'s behavior did not seem to bother N3 the way A.K.'s did. She next interviewed student M., who rode the same bus, and student W., who said that the whole group had issues and could not get along. They are all second graders. After the interviews, she believed that A.K. knew that what she did was wrong, because she said she did not want N3 to tattle on her.

Ms. Cullari filled out the Bullying Incident Report Form (J-3), which then goes to the superintendent. She selected "gender identity" as the distinguishing characteristic for the report. She and Ms. Strickland conducted the investigation and completed the report. On September 30, 2015, other students brought to her attention that A.K. was continuing to bother N3 in the cafeteria. They said that A.K. was threatening that if N3 told on her, she would get her parents on N3. N3 confirmed that she said that. A.K. denied that it happened. N3's mother also reported that N3 told her it happened. Ms. Cullari spoke to A.K.'s parents on October 1, 2015. She and Ms. Strickland deemed it to be an HIB incident. Ms. Strickland authored the HIB report. (J-9.)

There were two ABS reports, one of which was read at the executive-session meeting of the Board. The results of the investigation were presented to the Board. The Board agreed that A.K. committed HIB, and a letter was sent to A.K.'s parents advising of the Board's decision. (J-16.) Ms. Cullari attended the appeal hearing, but not the executive session where the investigation was presented to the Board. She recalled T.K. reading a statement in response to questions.

Ms. Cullari stated that the evidence confirmed the HIB finding, in that the conduct was based on distinguishing characteristics that created a hostile environment that had an emotional effect on the student. A.K. knew that N3 was a boy dressing like a girl, and created a hostile environment for N3 such that N3 was not comfortable riding the bus any longer. Ms. Cullari testified that N3's mother said that student J.T. said things to N3 also, but N3 was not affected by the behavior of J.T. Ms. Cullari did not include in her report N3's references to being teased for liking Monster High and Shopkins and not being able to wear a dress for picture day. She believes that there has to be an intent to harm, and believes that the intent occurred after A.K. was told to stop and she continued. Although Ms. Cullari said that she spoke to N3's mother on the day of the incident, she seemed to already know about the incident with A.K. teasing N3 about wanting to wear a dress to school pictures and being told to wear a suit. She explained that it was not the only time. The cafeteria incident the next day convinced Ms. Cullari that A.K. knew what she was doing.

Ms. Cullari did not talk to N3's teachers, lunch aides, bus driver, or any adults. She only talked to the students. Although student J. admitted to pushing N3 down, and student M. said that student J. teases N3, saying that he is a boy and should not dress like a girl, J. was not investigated for HIB because N3 did not seem to be affected by J.'s behavior. The third student interviewed, W., said that N3 is mean to A.K., and A.K. is not mean to N3. None of the other three students corroborated that A.K. was mean to N3. Ms. Cullari did not believe M. and W. She has three versions of Ms. V.'s statement, the last of which (in the order in the binder) removes any reference to the conduct of J. (J-2.) Ms. Cullari does not know the order in which they were written.

There is no documentation of the threat in the cafeteria incident other than the account by N3's mother. "Students" reported it. Ms. Cullari did not respond to T.K.'s request to be told exactly what the threat was that A.K. was said to have made. (J-6.) She was in the process of conducting the investigation. She told T.K. that the allegations were being investigated in a letter dated October 15, 2015, although the investigation had already occurred. There was no HIB incident between A.K. and N3 after October 1, 2015. The one incident on September 29, 2015, would not constitute HIB, and the only thing after that was A.K.'s threat. A.K. admitted to asking the questions and having a hard time calling N3 by his female name.

Cheryl Strickland

Cheryl Strickland testified that she has been a school social worker in Mansfield for ten years. She has been the anti-bullying specialist since the law came into effect in 2010. She was advised of the incident regarding A.K. and N3 by Ms. Cullari on September 29, 2015. She testified, similar to Ms. Cullari, that they met separately with the students in Ms. Cullari's office. N3 was very upset and said that he tried to get A.K. to stop, but she would say things like he should not like Shopkins, and "you can't dress like a girl." He said A.K. told him that if he tattles on her, her parents are lawyers and they will take him to court, or some threat like that. When they interviewed A.K. she seemed to understand that what she did was hurtful, but she told them that she did not want to call N3 by his female name. They told her not to ask any more questions of N3. They then called the students' parents. N3's mother thought her child was being bullied. They told the parents of A.K. that they would be investigating.

Ms. Strickland and Ms. Cullari authored the report cooperatively. They then met with other students, M. and W. N3 had said that these were the students who witnessed the incident. W. said that there was difficulty with other students on the bus.

The next day there was another incident, where N3 said A.K. was harassing him at lunch, and N3 was upset. A.K. was still bothering him, when she had agreed not to do so anymore. A.K. also accused N3 of tattling on her and told other students. This made him feel bad. When they spoke to A.K., she said she knew she was doing hurtful things, and was trying to be better at saying nice things to N3.

Every year the district trains staff on HIB. Ms. Strickland concluded that the incident met the criteria to be an HIB incident. When they prepared the Bullying Incident Report Form (J-3), she thought the investigation was done, but the process was still ongoing because they had not written the final summary yet. The form added all the actions that were taken. They felt that gender identity was the distinguishing characteristic upon which the bullying was based. Ms. V. wrote a letter to put her concerns in writing, because they felt the parent's point of view was important. A quote from her letter was given to the superintendent. Ms. Strickland drafted the final summary. (J-9.) When she initially met with the students on September 29, 2015, she thought the incident could be an HIB incident based on the criteria and what the students said. A.K. knew her actions could cause harm, and they caused a hostile environment for N3. There were different versions of forms because the required paperwork changed in the middle of the investigation. They used the summary to explain why she and Ms. Cullari felt it was an HIB case. The report went to the Board for review. She was not at that Board meeting. She is required to make a professional judgment based on the law, and that is what she did. Ms. V. said that N3 did not want to take the bus anymore and felt bad. Even second graders have to understand the rules.

She was asked to attend the executive session with petitioners in case there were any questions. Petitioners were given the chance to ask questions and present their case. She does not recall any specific questions asked. She believes that she was asked questions and she answered them. The whole session was with petitioners, so they were given more than just an opportunity to make a statement in the hour or more that they were before the Board. She recalled answering questions of Board members and petitioners.

Ms. Strickland admits to not being present when any of the incidents took place. She does not have her notes from her meetings with the students. She used them to make the summary. She disagrees that A.K. did not continue to bother N3 after they talked on September 29. She bothered N3 and teased him. Students reported to the teacher that A.K. was bothering N3 at lunch. The reason A.K. was concerned about N3 tattling was because she knew her behavior was wrong. There had been incidences of conflict in the past between A.K. and N3, but nothing serious. The reason they did not go after student J., who another student said pushed N3 down, was that N3 was not bothered by J., but by A.K. N3 did not report anything about J. the way he reported the things A.K. did. Ms. Strickland believes the investigation was completed by October 5, 2015. A.K. admitted asking questions about N3's clothes and having trouble calling N3 by the female name, and admitted that she did not want to write the female name on her paper.

Brett Gorman, Esq.

After debate on whether he should be allowed to testify, Brett Gorman testified that he was an attorney from the firm of Parker McKay, which represented the Board in 2015. He recalled a meeting involving the petitioners having to do with an alleged HIB incident. Prior to the meeting before the Board on November 16, 2015, he recalled taking the parents aside and explaining to them the ground rules as to what would take place. They then went into the executive session for hearing. He told the petitioners that they could not ask questions of the Board because the Board was there to make a factual determination. He believes they did ask questions of the administration. He recalled petitioners making a long presentation, and the Board discussing it for a long time, as well. It was longer than the usual HIB hearing. Present at the meeting were the principal, the anti-bullying specialist, the anti-bullying coordinator, and the superintendent.

Mr. Gorman did not recall the petitioners being upset at what he told them. He disputes telling them that they could not ask any questions. The parents' argument was that the child did not understand what she was saying when she made comments to N3. They said that their child is young, so she was just inquisitive. He recalled the parents asking questions of the principal, and the principal and the ABS answering. The parents left when the hearing was over, and the Board continued to discuss the issue. The Board then returned to public session.

Alison Perrone

Alison Perrone testified that she is a current Board member, who served in November 2015. She has been an attorney since 1996. She recalled Ms. Moutis presenting the HIB report at the closed session in October 2015. She recalled receiving the report and reading it at the executive session. They did not get it before. She and the Board members had received training on HIB prior to October 2015.

Ms. Perrone recalled the petitioners addressing the Board at their appeal, along with Ms. Strickland and Ms. Cullari. She recalled Ms. Strickland responding to their questions. The parents said that the alleged bullying incident occurred due to their daughter's curiosity. Ms. Cullari had an exchange with A.K.'s father regarding conversations had with A.K. The parents were present in their meeting for approximately thirty minutes, but she does not recall exactly how long. She knows that the parents asked questions about the investigation and what had been done. After the parents left, the Board stayed in executive session for further discussion. They then went to the public session and voted to uphold the determination of HIB. Ms. Perrone believed that there was a distinguishing characteristic: the incident impacted N3 and it caused emotional harm. She believed that the young age of A.K. was balanced with the fact that the effects of her conduct had been explained to her and she had understood.

Ms. Perrone did not know at the time of the meeting who the involved students were, but she did know by November. The mother of N3 became a member of the Board as of October 2017. Ms. Moutis shared the entire chain of events with the Board. The Board was told that A.K. persisted in making comments to N3 after the bus incident. N3's mother told the HIB investigators that the comments started the previous year, and they continued and made N3 upset. N3 was visibly upset several times in school. Ms. Perrone identified the HIB policy that was in effect until December 2015 (P-10) and the HIB policy that is currently in effect (P-10a). The administrators explained that after A.K. was told the comments upset N3, she continued to ask questions. It would have been a factor if that were not true. The Board members were not provided copies of the interviews, only the report of what N3, A.K., and N3's mom said. The mother conveyed the emotional harm inflicted on N3 and how upset he was, such that he was unable to ride the bus any longer. Perrone was not aware that the parents did not have the superintendent's determination prior to the Board meeting. Ms. Moutis talked to the Board prior to the parents' entry into the meeting. When the parents were there, they asked questions about the investigation.

Tiffany Moutis

Tiffany Moutis testified that she has been the superintendent for the Mansfield School District for approximately two and a half years. Previously she was an assistant superintendent in Kenilworth, and before that she spent nineteen years in the Union School District as a teacher, supervisor, and curriculum director.

Ms. Moutis recalls that she came to know A.K. when she had a meeting with the two building principals and Cheryl Strickland on or about September 29, 2015. Ms. Strickland shared the details of the incident and the investigation. They showed her the district's HIB forms. After the investigation, which she does not participate in, the administrators submit a report, which she then submits to the Board. In the present case, upon her receipt of the report, she read it, copied it, and placed it in the file for the Board meeting on October 19, 2015. The report did not go home with Board members in their packets. After reading the report, she thought it was very clear that there had been an HIB incident based upon gender identity.

Ms. Moutis presented the report in the Board's executive session. She does not recall how long the executive session lasted, but there was a lot of discussion. She wanted to make sure that everyone understood the process before voting. She gave the members time to read the report and gave them time to ask questions. One Board member was interested in knowing the age of the students, but she explained that age of the alleged bully is not a factor; rather, it is what was stated and how it was stated.

The Board voted to support her decision. After the Board vote, she sent a letter to the parents with the decision of the Board and advising of the right to appeal, which they did. On October 23, on her way home from the New Jersey School Boards Association conference, she had a conversation with T.K. about what would take place. T.K. was confused as to why she was receiving the letter and what her child had done. Ms. Moutis explained that it was a finding of bullying, and that she had the right to appeal. On the day of the appeal, she asked the ABS to be there, as well as the attorney, for questions. Mr. and Mrs. K. came in with guns blazing, and the conversation was immediately heated. They explained that their daughter was inquisitive and asks a lot of questions. They said it should not be determined to be an HIB incident. They asked questions like the staff was on the witness stand. It was a very lengthy executive session, where they asked questions like, "Why did you do it this way?" She did not recall Ms. Strickland's responses, but Ms. Strickland was very nervous. Ultimately, after the executive session the Board voted in public to support the decision of the superintendent. A.K. exhibited HIB on the bus and on the playground. It continued after administrators told her to stop. Ms. Moutis did not speak to any students, but spoke with Ms. Strickland and Ms. Cullari.

Ms. Moutis spoke with Ms. Strickland mainly about writing reports and the various incidents. The incidents were asking why N3 dressed like a girl on the bus, continuing to tease N3 on the playground, and not letting N3 write her female name on her paper. The executive session went from 7:00 to 8:25 p.m. The report given to the Board had identification numbers instead of names or initials. (J-12.) N3's mother had said things that A.K. had done to N3 the year before, but they were not presented.

Everything Ms. Moutis knows regarding the investigation is in her report. She does not communicate with the parents before giving her report to the Board. At the appeal hearing, she brought the binder and a copy of the report for those members who were absent for the vote. She recalled Ms. Strickland answering the parents' questions about the process. The administrators stopped answering questions when the questions became accusatory. The attorney conveyed that it was not the place to discuss the administrators' process. The parents were unable to persuade the Board that its decision was incorrect.

FINDINGS OF FACT

The majority of the facts are not in dispute. However, there are some disputed facts that will require a credibility analysis. Where facts are contested, the trier of fact must assess and weigh the credibility of the witnesses for purposes of making factual findings as to the disputed facts. Credibility is the value that a finder of the facts gives to a witness's testimony. It requires an overall assessment of the witness's story in light of its rationality, internal consistency, and the manner in which it "hangs together" with the other evidence. Carbo v. United States, 314 F.2d 718, 749 (9th Cir. 1963). "Testimony to be believed must not only proceed from the mouth of a credible witness but must be credible in itself," in that "[i]t must be such as the common experience and observation of mankind can approve as probable in the circumstances." In re Perrone, 5 N.J. 514, 522 (1950).

T.K. was mostly credible in her testimony; however, her view of the meeting was tainted by the desire to have her daughter exonerated from the bullying charge. For instance, her view that she was prohibited from asking questions was contradicted by her own notes. However, the Board's witnesses often contradicted each other, such that it has been difficult to discern what actually happened between the two students. While I attribute this mostly to the length of time that had passed between the incidents in question and the hearing, the administrators could not agree on the most important fact presented to the Board, which is that the HIB continued after September 29, 2015. They confused information that they received from N3's mother with information they received from students. A.K.'s alleged teasing of N3 that he cannot wear a dress to picture day and A.K.'s alleged threat to N3 were from N3's mother. Ms. Perrone seemed to have the best recollection.

Based on the testimony, the documents in evidence, and my credibility determinations, I FIND the following facts, in addition to the stipulated facts above.

At all relevant times, petitioners' minor child was a student at JHES. On or about September 29, 2015, an incident occurred on the school bus between second graders A.K. and N3. N3, who is biologically male, had begun wearing clothes that are closely associated with female children.[3] A.K. questioned N3 about his choice of clothing. N3 was upset about the questions, and A.K. was upset because N3 was going to tell on her. Later that morning, both children were called into a meeting with principal Stacy Cullari and school ABS Cheryl Strickland to discuss what had happened.

N3 stated that A.K. was "always mean to him" and was asking him questions about why he dressed like a girl. When N3 asked A.K. to stop asking questions, A.K. would not stop. N3 reported that the questioning made him feel "bad." N3 also reported that A.K. makes fun of him for liking Monster High and Shopkins toys. Although Ms. Strickland testified that N3 also said that A.K. threatened him that if he tells on her, she will have her parents (who are lawyers) take his parents to court, that statement is not in her notes of her conversation with N3, but in her notes of her conversation with N3's mother.

---

[3] It is unclear exactly when N3 began dressing in this manner.

A.K. admitted that she was asking N3 questions about the clothes that N3 wore. She also explained that it was difficult for her to remember to call N3 by the preferred female name, N3, as A.K. had always known him as the male names N1 or N2. When asked about an occasion when A.K. told N3 that he could not write the name N3 on a piece of paper, A.K. said that it was her paper and she wanted N3 to write his old name.

After meeting with both children, Strickland called petitioner T.K., A.K.'s mother, to advise her of the incident on the bus and the meeting with A.K. and N3. Strickland told T.K. that A.K. had an issue on the bus with a peer, and recounted the morning's events. That evening, petitioners T.K. and L.K. talked to A.K. about the incident. They explained to her that N3 did not like to answer her questions and told her that she had to stop. A.K. was upset because she felt like she was in trouble.

On September 29, 2015, Cullari talked to N3's mother, who believes that A.K.'s conduct qualifies as bullying. N3's mother reported that another student, J., pushes her son down on the school bus, doesn't like to sit next to him because he is different, and squeezed his hand really hard one day. She also reported that A.K. teased N3 about wanting to wear a dress on picture day, messed up his hair and teased him about it, and threatened that if he tattled on her, she would have her parents (who are lawyers) take his parents to court. Cullari subsequently revised her notes to remove first one reference to student J., then all references to student J., such that only references to A.K.'s conduct were in the report of the interview with N3's mother.

On September 30, 2015, Strickland interviewed three other students about the events of the previous day.[4] None of the other children supported the claims of N3. An interview with one student, M., indicated that another student, J., "teases N., saying that he is a boy and shouldn't dress like a girl." Neither Strickland nor Cullari spoke to the bus driver or any adults who may have witnessed any alleged bullying behavior.

---

[4] Notes from these interviews are not provided in the record. Additionally, they are not mentioned in the HIB investigation report.

On October 1, 2015, Principal Cullari called petitioner T.K. and informed her that A.K. had said something again to N3 and that an HIB investigation would be conducted. Ms. Cullari did not clearly state to T.K. what the allegation was, but indicated that A.K. had said something to friends at lunch about N3 telling on her. There are no notes that support that students came to Ms. Cullari and told her that A.K. threatened or harassed N3. Although she testified that she spoke to N3 about it and he confirmed it happened, there are no notes of that conversation. A.K. denied it. Ms. Cullari gave A.K. recess detention for continuing to harass N3 after she had spoken to her. A.K. was very upset.

N3's mother's October 5, 2015, email to Cullari reported much more than her telephone conversation with Ms. Cullari. The email stated that A.K. had been questioning N3 about his choice of clothing since the previous year. N3 had explained to his mother that A.K. makes fun of him, and when he ignores her she just gets louder. N3's mother also noted that these interactions were having a negative effect on N3 emotionally and academically. N3's mother put in her October 5, 2015, email to Cullari that "A.K. retaliated against N3 the next day and continued her harassment in the cafeteria, telling fellow students that N3 had threatened her." There is no indication in the notes of Ms. Strickland or Ms. Cullari that N3's mother's claim of continued harassment was investigated.

Principal Cullari sent a letter to petitioners dated October 15, 2015, notifying them that she had received a written report on October 5, 2015, which set forth that A.K. had committed an alleged act of HIB and that those allegations were being investigated by ABS Strickland. ABS Strickland provided her report to Superintendent Moutis. Upon her receipt of the report, Moutis read it, copied it, and placed it in the file for the Board meeting on October 19, 2015. The report did not go home with Board members in their packets. The Board members saw the summary for the first time at their meeting on October 19, 2015. They were not advised of the identities of the students. After reading the report, Ms. Moutis thought it was very clear that there had been HIB based upon gender identity.

Ms. Moutis presented the report in the Board's October 19, 2015, executive session. In executive session, the Board discussed the HIB report, the HIB protocol, the rights of the students, and the Board's role. The minutes indicate that the Board convened to executive session at 7:01 p.m. and did not return to open session again until 8:25 p.m. There was a lot of discussion to ensure that the Board members understood the process before voting. Ms. Moutis gave the members time to read the report and gave them time to ask questions. One Board member was interested in knowing the age of the students, but she explained that age of the alleged bully is not a factor; rather, it is what was stated that is important.

The Board then returned to public session. The minutes indicate that a vote was passed in public session with four yes votes and two abstentions to accept Ms. Moutis's recommendation. No other matter was discussed. Ms. Moutis sent a letter to petitioners dated October 20, 2015, stating that the Board had approved the findings of the ABS investigation at a meeting held on October 19, 2015. The letter informed petitioners that they had a right to request a hearing before the Board, and the request must be in writing.

The same day, ABS Strickland and Dori Levy, the District's anti-bullying coordinator, sent a letter to the petitioners, along with a "Summary of the Bullying Investigation," although what was attached was called a report. The report indicates in the first paragraph that the ABS investigator spoke to N3, and sets forth what he said. However, it attributes to N3 remarks actually made by his mother, specifically, the threat that if he told on A.K. she would have her parents take action against him. The second paragraph references what A.K. told the investigator. The third paragraph references the conversation the investigator had with N3's mother. The summary report did not contain information regarding any other aspects of the investigation, any other evidence considered by the ABS, or the findings of fact upon which the conclusion was based. Those findings were in the separate form entitled HIB Investigation ABS Report, which was not provided prior to the Board hearing. The summary indicates that the investigation was completed on October 13, 2015, and that enumerated support services were offered to the student. It also states at the end that student discipline was administered in the form of a recess detention on October 1, 2015.

On October 27, 2015, petitioners called the superintendent's office and scheduled a meeting with Superintendent Moutis, Principal Cullari, and ABS Strickland to discuss the HIB investigation and the Board's HIB determination. The following day, Superintendent Moutis cancelled the meeting with petitioners, explaining that she could not meet with them to discuss or answer any questions about the HIB conclusion. Superintendent Moutis informed petitioners that if they disagreed with the HIB determination, their only recourse was to request a hearing to appeal it before the Board.

Petitioners requested a hearing. The letter advising of their right to a hearing did not advise whether they could bring witnesses or documents. The hearing was scheduled for November 9, 2015, but it was rescheduled to November 16, 2015, when petitioners could not make the meeting and waived the right to have the hearing in ten days. Prior to the hearing, Gorman explained the process to petitioners. During the hearing, no one from the Board or the administration presented anything to the Board in front of petitioners. Petitioner T.K. asked the questions that she had brought with her at the hearing. The list showed she had checked off nearly all of them as having been asked. She has notes of some answers in the margins of her questions. Attorney Brett Gorman responded to most of the questions by reading from the HIB Investigation ABS Report. However, Ms. Cullari responded to a comment by A.K.'s father. Petitioner T.K. presented additional facts about A.K. and her inquisitive personality. Gorman permitted petitioners to ask questions of ABS Strickland, but not about the process they used for the investigation.

Petitioners received a letter dated December 15, 2015, from Joyce A. Goode, secretary of the Board, notifying them that the Board had denied their appeal and affirmed the superintendent's determination. Secretary Goode's letter indicated that the Board had considered petitioners' "appeal of the finding that no HIB violation occurred" (J-25, emphasis added), even though petitioners had appealed the superintendent's finding that A.K. had engaged in HIB.

On February 17, 2016, pursuant to New Jersey's Open Public Records Act, petitioners requested copies of all records pertaining to A.K. The Board complied with the request on February 26, 2016. Petitioners then received copies of the HIB allegations made against A.K. and learned what was entailed in the school's investigation of the HIB allegations, including the notes of the interviews with the students.

A.K.'s current relationship with N3 is that they are in the same class, as well as on the same bus. They play together and they are just typical students. A.K. is more nervous and anxious and scared of doing anything wrong. N3 is allowed to bring a friend to his counseling session, and invited A.K.

LEGAL DISCUSSION

The New Jersey Anti-Bullying Bill of Rights Act (ABA), N.J.S.A. 18A:37-13 to -32, is designed "to strengthen the standards and procedures for preventing, reporting, investigating, and responding to incidents of harassment, intimidation, and bullying of students that occur in school and off school premises." N.J.S.A. 18A:37-13.1(f). Each school district must adopt a policy that prohibits HIB and provides for a prompt response to any alleged HIB incident. N.J.S.A. 18A:37-15. Once an alleged HIB incident is reported to the school principal, the principal must initiate an investigation within one school day of the report. N.J.S.A. 18A:37-15(b)(6)(a). The investigation shall be conducted by a school anti-bullying specialist and shall take no longer than ten school days to be completed. Ibid.

The results of the investigation shall then be quickly reported to the superintendent of schools, who may take certain remedial action. N.J.S.A. 18A:37-15(b)(6)(b). The results shall also be reported to the board of education "no later than the date of the board of education meeting next following the completion of the investigation, along with information on any services provided, training established, discipline imposed, or other action taken or recommended by the superintendent." N.J.S.A. 18A:37-15(b)(6)(c).

The parents of the students involved in any alleged HIB incident are entitled to receive information about the nature of the investigation and the result of the investigation. N.J.S.A. 18A:37-15(b)(6)(d). The parents may request a hearing before the board, and the hearing must be held within ten days of the request. Ibid. Any hearing shall be held in executive session to protect the identity of any students involved. Ibid. The board may hear from the anti-bullying specialist about the incident, recommendations for discipline or services, and any programs instituted to reduce such incidents. Ibid.

The board must issue a decision at the first meeting after its receipt of the investigation report. N.J.S.A. 18A:37-15(b)(6)(e). The board may affirm, reject, or modify the superintendent's decision. Ibid. The board's decision may be appealed to the Commissioner of Education. Ibid.

The Commissioner of Education will not overturn the decision of a local board in the absence of a finding that the action below was arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable. T.B.M. v. Moorestown Bd. of Educ., EDU 2780-07, Initial Decision (February 6, 2008) (citing Thomas v. Morris Twp. Bd. of Educ., 89 N.J. Super. 327, 332 (App. Div. 1965), aff'd, 46 N.J. 581 (1966)), adopted, Comm'r (April 7, 2008), http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/. Further, the Commissioner will not substitute his judgment for that of the board of education, whose exercise of its discretion may not be disturbed unless shown to be "patently arbitrary, without rational basis or induced by improper motives." Kopera v. W. Orange Bd. of Educ., 60 N.J. Super. 288, 294 (App. Div. 1960). New Jersey courts have held that "[w]here there is room for two opinions, action is not arbitrary or capricious when exercised honestly and upon due consideration, even though it may be believed that an erroneous conclusion has been reached." Bayshore Sewerage Co. v. Dep't of Envt'l Prot., 122 N.J. Super. 184, 199–200 (Ch. Div. 1973), aff'd, 131 N.J. Super. 37 (App. Div. 1974). Thus, in order to prevail, the petitioner must demonstrate that the board acted in bad faith, or in utter disregard of the circumstances before it. T.B.M., EDU 2780-07, Initial Decision (February 6, 2008), http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/; see W.C.L. & A.L. ex rel L.L. v. Tenafly Bd. of Educ., EDU 3223-12, Initial Decision (November 26, 2012), aff'd, Comm'r (January 10, 2013), http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/ (The petitioners challenged the school board's decision that a student committed an act of HIB. The administrative law judge (ALJ) found that the board's actions were consistent with the letter and spirit of the law and were not taken in bad faith or in disregard of the circumstances. The ALJ concluded that the petitioners failed to establish that the board's actions were arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable. The Commissioner affirmed the ALJ's decision to dismiss the petition of appeal.); J.M.C. ex rel A.C. v. E. Brunswick Bd. of Educ., EDU 4144-12 (November 27, 2012), adopted, Comm'r (January 9, 2013), http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/ (The petitioner challenged the board's determination that the actions of the petitioner's son constituted HIB. The board found that the student called another student "gay" and said he "danced like a girl." The demeaning remarks constituted HIB.). In both cases, the petitioners failed to satisfy their burden to show that the board's actions were arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable.

Definitions relative to adoption of harassment and bullying prevention policies are found in N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14, which states in part:

> "Harassment, intimidation or bullying" means any gesture, any written, verbal or physical act, or any electronic communication, whether it be a single incident or a series of incidents, that is reasonably perceived as being motivated either by any actual or perceived characteristic, such as race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, or a mental, physical or sensory disability, or by any other distinguishing characteristic, that takes place on school property, at any school-sponsored function, on a school bus, or off school grounds as provided for in section 16 of P.L.2010, c.122 (C.18A:37-15.3), that substantially disrupts or interferes with the orderly operation of the school or the rights of other students and that:
>
> > a. a reasonable person should know, under the circumstances, will have the effect of physically or emotionally harming a student or damaging the student's property, or placing a student in reasonable fear of physical or emotional harm to his person or damage to his property;
> >
> > b. has the effect of insulting or demeaning any student or group of students; or

> c. creates a hostile educational environment for the student by interfering with a student's education or by severely or pervasively causing physical or emotional harm to the student.

Mansfield Township School District's HIB Policy 5131.9, "Harassment, Intimidation and Bullying," mirrors the New Jersey law. P-10; P-11. Additionally, the policy sets forth a detailed process by which complaints are investigated to see whether an action meets the definition of HIB as set forth in the policy and the ABA.

Petitioners' first argument is that the Board's investigation was not complete or properly documented as required by Board policy 5131.9. While it is true that the only source of the allegation of continued harassment in the cafeteria after the bus incident was N3's mother, who was told that by N3, the issue is how much support for the allegation is necessary. N3's mother said in her email that "[A.K.] retaliated against [N3] the next day and continued her harassment in the cafeteria, telling fellow students that [N3] threatened her." If Principal Cullari or ABS Strickland confirmed the remarks with N3 and made a note that they did so, that would be sufficient, but the fact that there are no notes that they interviewed N3 makes it unbelievable that either of them did, as all other interviews are documented. Neither of them testified that they tried to determine who the students were and confirm it with a staff member who was assigned to the cafeteria at that time. Board policy 5131.9 states that the investigation shall include "taking of statements from victims, witnesses and accused." While the ABS and principal can get statements from the mother of the victim, such a statement should not be the sole source of an allegation. They simply took the mother's word as written in the email, which, as petitioners rightly argue, had to be N3's mother's recounting of what N3 had told her, and was thus triple hearsay.

Petitioners also argue that by ABS Strickland and Principal Cullari investigating the allegations together, they contravened the terms of the ABA and the Board's policy. Petitioners argue that Strickland's therapeutic relationship with N3 caused her to focus almost exclusively on the impact on N3 rather than A.K.'s culpability, and that she was biased. The investigation could have been more thorough by interviewing the teacher or the bus driver. ABS Strickland completely ignored the statements of the other students, who refused to corroborate N3's account of what occurred on the bus. She should have disclosed those interviews and indicated why she did not consider those students' statements. She has the right to make credibility determinations, especially when A.K. even admitted to some of the conduct N3 alleged, but the Board should be provided with complete information. By not providing all the information, and attributing statements to N3 that were actually made by his mother, Ms. Strickland made it impossible for the Board to make a truly informed decision. I CONCLUDE that the investigation was neither thorough nor complete, as required by the Board policy, and caused the Board to make a decision based on incomplete and questionable facts.

Petitioners next argue that the Board's decision was arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable because the appeal hearing did not comply with the ABA, the Board's policies, or due process. They argue that implicit in the right to a hearing is the right to an evidentiary hearing. However, the Legislature could have simply added the word "evidentiary" if it intended it to be that type of hearing. Instead, N.J.S.A. 18A:37-15(b)(6)(d) provides that, "[a]t the hearing the board may hear from the school anti-bullying specialist about the incident, recommendations for discipline or services, and any programs instituted to reduce such incidents." Emphasis added. Petitioners state that the student-conduct regulations, N.J.A.C. 6A:16-7.2 and -7.3, which address procedural requirements for student suspensions, should apply to a student engaged in HIB, as it remains in the student's permanent school record. However, the HIB regulations do not set forth such procedural requirements. They allow boards to set rules regarding the conduct of appeal hearings.

Both petitioners and the Board cite the Commissioner's decision in Gibble v. Board of Education of the Hunterdon Central Regional School District, EDU 2767-15, Initial Decision (April 12, 2016), adopted, Comm'r (July 13, 2016), http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/, in support of their positions. Petitioners cite it for the holding that the ABA entitles individuals accused of HIB to due process. The Board cites it for the holding that there is no right to a full adversarial hearing, including the right to call witnesses. Thus, the issue is whether the Board provided petitioners with adequate due process. The Board provided petitioners a separate hearing at which they were allowed to present materials and to ask questions. Petitioners were not provided much information regarding their rights to present evidence at the hearing, but they were not prohibited from bringing witnesses and documents or being represented by counsel. T.K. familiarized herself with the HIB procedures prior to attending the hearing.

The report set forth the factual basis of the HIB finding, although the allegation of harassment after the mediation was vague at best. Petitioners were provided with ample time to present their appeal of the HIB finding, setting forth that A.K. was just curious and that she did not believe that she had done anything wrong to merit the recess detention the day after the bus incident. Petitioners went through all of their comments and questions. The fact that they did not receive answers to their satisfaction does not obviate the fact that they were able to present their case. The hearing was not to cross-examine the ABS or the principal about their process. Petitioners' citations to the rules governing student suspensions are not applicable to HIB hearings. For these reasons, I CONCLUDE that petitioners did not meet their burden of proving that the Board's decision was arbitrary because the hearing deprived petitioners of due process as set forth in the ABA and Board policies. I CONCLUDE, based on my findings of fact, that petitioners were provided adequate due process in the conduct of the Board hearing.

Petitioners also argue that the Board's notice of the specific charges was inadequate, in that neither A.K. nor her parents were allowed to respond to the specific allegations against A.K. before the conclusion of the HIB investigation. Superintendent Moutis canceled a meeting at which the petitioners were seeking to learn the charges against A.K. Petitioners argue that they should have been notified of what was found and the specific factual basis for concluding that A.K. engaged in HIB. Petitioners argue that the report did not so notify them. The report sets forth that the charge of HIB is based on the reports of N3 and N3's mother and the admissions of A.K. when she was first interviewed. It goes on to note that the harassment continued after Principal Cullari and ABS Strickland told A.K. to stop when questioned about the bus incident. This allegation of continuing harassment, upon which the Board heavily relied, was vague and unsupported. The petitioners and the Board should have been advised of all of the aspects of the investigation. As set forth above, the parents of the students involved in any alleged HIB incident are entitled to receive information about the nature of the investigation and the result of the investigation. N.J.S.A. 18A:37-15(b)(6)(d). The parents are to be provided this information within five days after the results of the investigation are reported to the board. If the Board had done so, petitioners would have had it prior to the Board hearing. The letter from the Board secretary after the hearing says that the Board considered "investigation reports, witness statements and other pertinent materials" in addition to petitioners' presentation, but the Board had nothing but the summary report. I CONCLUDE that the failure of the superintendent to provide the parents the information regarding the nature of the investigation was in violation of the statute and Board policy 5131.9.

Petitioners' next argument, that the Board's decision was arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable because it was not supported by substantial evidence, is again based on citations from regulations governing student suspensions, N.J.A.C. 6A:16-7.3. Petitioners note that such regulations can serve as a guide in HIB hearings, but nowhere does it say that the same standard—that the Board's decision must be based on the preponderance of the competent and credible evidence—applies to HIB hearings. However, ABS Strickland relied heavily on the statements of N3's mother, both on the phone and in writing. N3's mother received her information from N3, as she was not present in the school during the incidents, so it was hearsay. ABS Strickland had the right to believe N3, given her knowledge of N3, but N3's mother's statement that A.K. engaged in a pattern of harassment against N3 that continued after ABS Strickland spoke to her needed to be corroborated. Petitioners argue that this shows bias on the part of Strickland. While I disagree with this argument, since the Board policy requires that the investigation include support for the victim, corroboration at least from the victim was needed. I therefore CONCLUDE that the statements set forth in the report presented to the Board were insufficient to sustain the superintendent's recommendation of HIB.

Next, petitioners argue that the Board's decision was clearly erroneous because the superintendent applied the wrong legal standard when she concluded that A.K.'s age did not matter in the analysis of whether she committed HIB. N.J.A.C. 6A:16-7.7(a)(2)(vi)(1) provides that a board's HIB policy must include consequences for a student who commits an act of HIB that are "[v]aried and graded according to the nature of the behavior; the nature of the student's disability, if any, and to the extent relevant; the developmental age of the student; and the student's history of problem behaviors and performance."

The Board's HIB policy states, "The board expects students to conduct themselves, in keeping with their level of maturity, with a proper regard for the rights and welfare of other students . . . ." (P-10 at 1.) It goes on to repeat the standard set forth in the regulations. Petitioners argue that Superintendent Moutis did not take into account A.K.'s developmental age or maturity level, as she believed it was irrelevant. When a Board member asked about A.K.'s age, she insisted that under the law the Board must consider the student's conduct without regard to his or her age. The Board spent more than an hour discussing A.K.'s alleged HIB at its October meeting, and Superintendent Moutis testified that the primary focus of that discussion was the issue of A.K.'s developmental age and the relevance of her age to the question of whether she engaged in HIB. The Superintendent's conclusion was affirmed by a vote of four in favor and two abstaining. The Board discussed the issue again after the November appeal hearing, and the Superintendent's decision was affirmed as part of the Board's consent agenda on December 14, 2015. The Board did not produce any written opinion or decision. Ms. Perrone testified that she considered A.K.'s age, but concluded that A.K. understood that she was upsetting N3 and persisted, and that what really mattered was the impact of her conduct on N3, not her actual intent.

The superintendent was incorrect that A.K.'s developmental age was irrelevant, based on the HIB regulations and the Board's HIB policy. The superintendent's opinion on this point was relevant to the Board members because they asked about it in a lengthy closed-session meeting in October. If Superintendent Moutis had said that A.K.'s young age was not a bar to finding HIB, that would have been correct; however, saying that it had no bearing on the Board's decision was incorrect. The issue is whether the superintendent's misstatement of the law means that the Board was arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable in its decision to uphold the superintendent's conclusion that A.K. committed HIB. I CONCLUDE that it was.

Petitioners argue that A.K.'s developmental age is relevant not just under the regulations and Board policy, but as to whether her behavior can actually be HIB. They cite N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14 for the proposition that the behavior must be "motivated by any actual or perceived characteristic." However, the actual wording of the statute says that HIB means "any gesture, any written, verbal or physical act, . . . that is reasonably perceived as being motivated either by any actual or perceived characteristic, such as . . . gender identity and expression." N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14 (emphasis added). Thus, based on the "reasonably perceived" language, Ms. Perrone was correct that the statute focuses on the impact of A.K.'s conduct on N3 and what N3 reasonably perceived. However, Ms. Perrone's determination of the impact on N3 was made based on the "fact" that A.K.'s conduct persisted. There was no allegation that A.K. continued to question N3 about his choice of clothing after the mediation. The allegation that A.K. continued "harassment" of N3 in the cafeteria the next day was not supported by one person who was there, hence, the vagueness of the charge. T.K. was never told what the harassment consisted of because the allegation was not investigated. Ms. Perrone's decision was also made without knowing that there was at least one other student, J., who harassed N3 on the bus and could have been an additional source of N3 being upset and not wanting to ride the bus. This fact was hidden by the investigators. There is no requirement that the Board find that A.K.'s conduct was actually motivated by the perceived characteristic, because, as petitioners argue, A.K. most likely does not even know what "gender identity" means. However, even under the actual wording of the statute, the only corroborated finding from the investigation was that A.K. asked questions about why N3 dressed like a girl even though N3 asked her to stop. Therefore, the age of A.K. was relevant to whether A.K.'s conduct was motivated by the perceived characteristic or because a seven-year-old would be curious about why a student she knew as a boy was dressing like a girl. The investigators had the time to find and interview someone in the cafeteria who may have heard A.K. continue the "harassment," but they did not. I CONCLUDE that the misstatement of the law that age was not to be a factor in the Board's determination was a major factor in the Board's decision and it made the Board's decision arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable.

Petitioners also argue that the Board's decision was clearly erroneous because the facts do not support the conclusion that A.K. committed HIB, in that they did not show that her conduct "substantially [disrupted or interfered] with the orderly operation of the school or the rights of other students" and that A.K. knew or should have known that it would have the effect of emotionally harming a student. N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14. The Board accepted the superintendent's report that A.K. demonstrated that she knew her conduct would emotionally harm N3 because she was concerned about N3 tattling on her. The superintendent advised the Board that there is no reason for A.K. to fear N3 telling the teacher or principal if she really believed she was just asking a question out of curiosity. When A.K. got off the bus on September 29, 2015, she was upset that N3 would tell on her. A second-grade student knows when she is in trouble, even if she does not necessarily believe that she did anything wrong. Strickland and Cullari told her that she did something wrong by asking N3 so many questions, and there is no allegation that she continued to ask him questions after that. In addition, T.K.'s testimony that A.K.'s current relationship with N3 is that they are in the same class as well as on the same bus was unrefuted. The testimony that they play together and are just typical students also was not disputed by any of the Board witnesses. In fact, the testimony demonstrated that the incident had a more lasting effect on A.K., making her more nervous and scared of doing anything wrong. In addition, N3 chose to bring A.K. as his friend to his counseling session. Therefore, I CONCLUDE that A.K. did not substantially disrupt or interfere with the orderly operation of the school or the rights of other students, and that A.K. neither knew nor should have known that her conduct would have the effect of emotionally harming a student.

Petitioners insist that the Board had to find "malicious intent" in A.K.'s actions; however, that language is not in the statute or regulations governing HIB. The Legislature could have set a higher standard for a finding of HIB, but it did not. As a result, the reasonable perception of motivation by gender identity is sufficient to support a finding of HIB. Here the Board did not have evidence that A.K.'s conduct was motivated by anything other than curiosity, confusion, and being scared that N3 would tell on her. The impact on N3 that he was upset and no longer wanted to ride the bus may not have been solely the fault of A.K. The investigators did not ask about whether the conduct of J. or any other student on the bus made N3 upset. If the Board had the information that other students harassed N3, and still decided that A.K. was the source of the substantial impact on N3, that would have been fine. However, the Board was not provided that information.

Ms. Strickland, Ms. Cullari, and Ms. Moutis concluded that A.K. engaged in HIB based on their findings that A.K. admitted that she asked questions that made N3 uncomfortable and upset, that she knew her actions made N3 uncomfortable and upset, that she was concerned that N3 would tell on her, and that, the next day, she continued to express concern that N3 would tell on her and threatened him if he did. The conclusion was provided to the Board when there was no corroboration for the finding that A.K. expressed a threat to N3 if he told on her. The Board relied heavily on the continuing nature of the conduct, which was not corroborated. The Board accepted the administrators' conclusion that the conduct was reasonably perceived to be motivated by N3's gender identity because they were told that A.K.'s age was not a factor in that determination. The Board accepted the conclusion that A.K.'s conduct substantially interfered with the rights of N3 because information was withheld from them that there was at least one other student who may have contributed to N3 being upset and not wanting to ride the bus. For these reasons, I CONCLUDE that the Board's acceptance of the administrators' determination of HIB was inconsistent with evidence, the law, and Board policy.

Thus, in determining whether A.K. committed HIB pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14, the Board did not have evidence that A.K. knew that her asking questions would have the effect of emotionally harming N3. In fact, there is no evidence that her conduct did emotionally harm N3, other than he was upset when getting off the bus. The Board did not have evidence from the alleged victim, the accused, or any witness that A.K.'s conduct had the effect of insulting or demeaning N3. The only source of such information was N3's mom, and her allegations referenced conduct that occurred prior to the September 29, 2015, bus incident. There were no allegations that A.K. said anything insulting to N3 after the September 29, 2015, incident. Last, the Board had no evidence that A.K.'s conduct created a hostile educational environment. The investigators never talked to N3's teacher or any staff members to determine whether N3 was acting differently in school at that time. For these reasons, I CONCLUDE that A.K.'s conduct did not meet the statutory definition of HIB, N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14.

The Board decision was not made in bad faith; however, it was made with reliance on faulty information of the circumstances that led to the HIB determination and incorrect statements of the law. For the foregoing reasons, I CONCLUDE that the petitioners proved by a preponderance of the credible evidence that the Board's actions were arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable.

ORDER

I ORDER that the decision of the Mansfield Township Board of Education be REVERSED, and that the finding of harassment, intimidation, or bullying be removed from A.K.'s student file.

I hereby FILE my initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

January 22, 2019
DATE

LISA JAMES-BEAVERS
Acting Director and Chief Administrative Law Judge

Date Received at Agency: _____

Date Mailed to Parties: _____

caa

APPENDIX

WITNESSES

For Petitioners:

T.K.

For Respondent:

Stacy Cullari
Cheryl Strickland
Brett Gorman, Esq.
Alison Perrone
Tiffany Moutis

EXHIBITS

Joint:

J-1 Initial HIB report dated September 29, 2015
J-2 Notes from HIB investigation
J-3 Bullying Incident Report Form
J-4 HIB Investigation Form 1 dated October 1, 2015
J-5 HIB Investigation Form 2 dated October 1, 2015
J-6 Email from T.K. to Stacy Cullari dated October 1, 2015
J-7 Email from M.V. to Stacy Cullari dated October 5, 2015
J-8 Letter from Stacy Cullari to petitioners dated October 15, 2015
J-9 HIB report for N.V. and A.K.
J-10 HIB Intervention Plan Documents
J-11 HIB Investigation Anti-Bullying Specialist Report 1 dated October 15, 2015
J-12 HIB Investigation Anti-Bullying Specialist Report 2 dated October 15, 2015
J-13 BOE Meeting Agenda dated October 19, 2015
J-14 BOE Public Meeting Minutes dated October 19, 2015
J-15 BOE Executive Session Meeting Minutes dated October 19, 2015

J-16 Letter from Tiffany Moutis to petitioners dated October 20, 2015

J-17 Letter from Cheryl Strickland and Dori Levy to petitioners dated October 20, 2015, enclosing the Bullying Report

J-18 Letter from Tiffany Moutis to petitioners dated November 2, 2015

J-19 Letter from petitioners to Mansfield Township School District dated November 3, 2015

J-20 BOE Meeting Agency dated November 16, 2015

J-21 BOE Public Meeting Minutes dated November 16, 2015

J-22 BOE Executive Session Meeting Minutes dated November 16, 2015

J-23 BOE Meeting Agenda dated December 14, 2015

J-24 BOE Public Meeting Minutes dated December 14, 2015

J-25 Letter from Joyce Goode to petitioners dated December 15, 2015

J-26 Handwritten notes—bus incident of 9/29/15

J-27 Handwritten notes—Ms. V. and T.K.—dated September 29

J-28 Handwritten notes dated October 5, 2015

For Petitioners:

P-1 Pictures of A.K.

P-2 A.K. note dated September 30, 2015

P-3 Ms. Cullari email to T.K. dated October 7, 2015

P-4 T.K. email to Cullari dated October 7, 2015

P-5 Email exchange between T.K. and Ms. Cullari dated October 15, 2015

P-7 T.K.'s HIB appeal outline/presentation

P-10 Mansfield Township School District HIB Policy 5131.9

P-11 Mansfield Township School District Conduct/Discipline Policy 5131

P-12 Mansfield Township School District Parent/Student Handbook—2015--2016

P-13 N.J. Department of Education Anti-Bullying Bill of Rights Act, Questions and Answers

P-14 N.J. Department of Education Model Policy and Guidance for Prohibiting HIB

P-15 Draft HIB report for review

P-16 Email Cheryl Strickland to T.K.

P-17 Email exchanges re: HIB

P-18 Email exchanges of Stacy Cullari re: HIB report

P-19 N.J. Department of Education Guidance for Schools for the Anti-Bullying Bill of Rights Act

For Respondent:

R-1 Email from T.K. to Cheryl Strickland

108-19

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Sterling Education Association, individually and on behalf of member Simone Colancecco,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Sterling Regional School District, Camden County,

Respondent.

Synopsis

Petitioner Sterling Education Association, on behalf of member Simone Colancecco, challenged the findings of the respondent Board's (Board) Affirmative Action investigation into an alleged violation of the Board's sexual harassment policy. Petitioner complained that the Board's investigation – which did find that a violation of the policy had occurred when Ms. Colancecco's former male supervisor sent her emails and text messages with sexual overtones – failed to substantiate an additional allegation that she had been groped. Further, the investigation found that any conduct with respect to the groping allegation was not gender-based. The Board's investigation resulted in the perpetrator's suspension from employment and subsequent resignation. Here, the petitioner challenged the Board's determination that the alleged groping incident did not amount to sexual harassment. The Board filed a motion to dismiss in lieu of an answer to the petition.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: Ms. Colancecco's claim of sexual harassment was proven through the investigation and accepted by the Board, so there is no actual controversy for the Commissioner to resolve herein; the Commissioner need not consider appeals of a portion of a Board's findings where the overall decision has agreed with the complainant; in this case, the Board determined that petitioner had suffered sexual harassment and sanctioned the perpetrator, who subsequently resigned from the Board's employ; the review requested by petitioner herein would involve the Commissioner and the OAL in proceedings that would have no practical value in regard to school law, and would drain judicial and administrative resources better reserved for controversies that involve actual disputes over outcomes that are meaningful in the administrative context; if petitioners decide to pursue this matter further, they may choose to seek relief from Public Employment Relations Commission and the federal Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC). The ALJ concluded that the within petition before the Commission must be dismissed for failure to state a claim for which any meaningful relief can be granted, and for mootness.

Upon comprehensive review, the Commissioner adopted the Initial Decision of the OAL with modification and dismissed the petition. In so doing, the Commissioner noted, inter alia, that his jurisdiction is limited to controversies and disputes arising under New Jersey school law. Petitioner's contention – that this matter arises out of school law because discrimination based on sex is prohibited by N.J.S.A. 18A:6-6 – is baseless, as this statute does not apply to the sexual harassment alleged in this matter. N.J.S.A. 18A:6-6 prohibits employment discrimination based on sex, and petitioner's allegations do not pertain to her employment. As the Commissioner does not have jurisdiction here, he need not reach the issue of whether an actual controversy exists. Further, the Board's policy prohibiting sexual harassment stipulates that the employee may appeal the Board's action or inaction to the New Jersey Division on Civil Rights or the EEOC; thus, petitioner has recourse to pursue her claim in an appropriate venue.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

April 23, 2019

OAL Dkt. No. EDU 00295-19
Agency Dkt. No. 277-11/18

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Sterling Education Association, individually and on behalf of member Simone Colancecco,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Sterling Regional School District, Camden County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed, as have the exceptions filed by petitioner pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4, and the Board's reply thereto.

In this matter, petitioner challenges the findings of the Board's Affirmative Action investigation regarding an alleged violation of the Board's sexual harassment policy. The investigation found that a violation of the policy had occurred involving inappropriate communications from Simone Colancecco's former male supervisor, including email and text messages with sexual overtones. Petitioner's allegation that she had been groped, however, was not substantiated, and the investigation found that any conduct with respect to that allegation was not gender-based. The perpetrator was suspended from his employment with the District and subsequently resigned from his position. Petitioner challenges the Board's determination that the alleged groping did not amount to sexual harassment. The Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) granted the Board's motion to dismiss the petition. The ALJ concluded that there was no actual controversy for the Commissioner to resolve. Specifically, the ALJ found:

> [I]t is not the case that the Commissioner need consider appeals of a portion of a Board's findings where the Board's overall decision has agreed with the complainant that she suffered sexual harassment in violation of the Policy and the Board has acted to sanction the perpetrator in a manner and to an extent that is not contended to be legally insufficient. A review of this nature would involve both the Commissioner and the OAL in proceedings that would be of no practical value in regard to education law and would involve a drain on judicial and administrative resources better used for controversies that involve actual disputes over outcomes that are, in the administrative context, meaningful.
> (Initial Decision at 8)

In her exceptions, petitioner disagrees with the ALJ's interpretation that the requested relief is not meaningful or of practical value. Petitioner argues that this matter is not moot because "an ultimate finding of sexual harassment on some, but not all, of [petitioner's] complaints does not put beyond review the [Board's] actions, procedures and findings." (Petitioner's exceptions at 6). Petitioner maintains that there is meaningful and practical value in having all of the conduct of her harasser fairly investigated and condemned by her employer. By carving out the alleged groping incident as not being gender-based, and by incorrectly stating that the incident took place at a training, when it actually occurred separately from the training, petitioner contends that the Board violated its own policy and acted arbitrarily and capriciously.

Petitioner also argues that the Commissioner has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9 because it arises under the school laws of this State – specifically under N.J.S.A. 18A:6-6, which provides that "[n]o discrimination based on sex shall be made in the formulation of the scale of wages, compensation, appointment, assignment, promotion, transfer, resignation, dismissal, or other matters pertaining to the employment of teachers in any school . . . in this state." Further, petitioner contends that while the Public Employment Relations Commission (PERC) and the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) can review certain claims and issues, only the Commissioner has the authority to revise the findings of an Affirmative Action Officer. Accordingly, if the Commissioner chooses not to exercise jurisdiction, petitioner would be left without recourse.

Petitioner contends that there is a controversy and conflict about whether the Board complied with its sexual harassment policy with respect to whether the Board provided the applicable regulations to petitioner and complied with the timelines. A conflict also exists regarding the findings and conclusions of the investigation that the groping incident was not "gender based." Finally, petitioner makes the policy argument that the Initial Decision sends the wrong message to victims of sexual harassment.

In reply, the Board contends that the ALJ did not make a specific finding that the matter was moot and instead based his decision on the lack of a controversy or dispute, as the Board did find that petitioner had been sexually harassed. The Board maintains that the Affirmative Action Officer thoroughly investigated the groping allegations, including multiple witness interviews, and found that although it was inappropriate, it was not gender-based. Regardless of the finding on that individual allegation, the overall outcome of the investigation was that a sexual harassment violation had occurred. Accordingly, the outcome of the investigation would not change if the specific finding was amended. Nevertheless, the Board points out that it did allow petitioner to include her factual concerns about the groping allegation in the investigatory file.

The Board argues that petitioner's claim that the Commissioner has sole jurisdiction over amending the Affirmative Action report, and that she otherwise has no recourse, is disingenuous. If the Commissioner had jurisdiction, he would not revise the report but instead make determinations that certain findings were erroneous, which is within the EEOC's purview.

The Board contends that petitioner's argument that it failed to provide policies and follow its own self-imposed timelines is not an issue of school law, so no relief can be granted. Finally, the Board maintains that the Initial Decision is not contrary to public policy, as the Board had already decided in petitioner's favor. Overall, the Board urges the Commissioner to adopt the Initial Decision.

Upon review, the Commissioner notes that he has jurisdiction over controversies and disputes that arise under the school laws of this State. N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9. Petitioner argues that this matter arises out of school law because discrimination based on sex is prohibited by N.J.S.A. 18A:6-6. Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-6:

> No discrimination based on sex shall be made in the formulation of the scale of wages, compensation, appointment, assignment, promotion, transfer, resignation, dismissal, or other matter pertaining to the employment of teachers in any school . . . in this state, supported in whole or in part by public funds unless it is open to members of one sex only, in which case teachers of that sex may be employed exclusively.
> [Emphasis added.]

The Commissioner finds that this statute applies to sexual discrimination in employment but does not apply to sexual harassment, as alleged by petitioner in this matter. It is clear that this statute prohibits discrimination based on sex by a Board when making employment decisions regarding an employee; this matter, however, does not pertain to the employment of petitioner. Further, the alleged harassment did not involve the Board, but rather an individual employee over whom the Commissioner does not have jurisdiction.

The Commissioner may have jurisdiction to the extent that petitioner alleges that the Board violated a Board policy. However, it is undisputed that the Board's Affirmative Action Officer conducted an investigation, as required by the Board's policy prohibiting sexual harassment. Petitioner claims she was not provided with copies of the policies, but no relief can be granted as petitioner has since received them. Petitioner's remaining claims stem from the substance of the investigation and its findings, which are beyond the Commissioner's jurisdiction.[1] Notably, the Board's policy prohibiting sexual harassment indicates that the employee may appeal the Board's action or inaction to the New Jersey Division on Civil Rights or to the United States Equal Employment Opportunity Commission. As such, petitioner is not without recourse to pursue her claim.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision of the OAL is adopted – as modified herein – as the final decision in this matter. The petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[2]

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 4/23/19
Date of Mailing: 4/23/19

[1] As the Commissioner does not have jurisdiction over this matter, he need not reach the issue of whether an actual controversy exists.

[2] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to P.L. 2008, c. 36 (N.J.S.A 18A:6-9.1).

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 295-19
AGENCY DKT. NO. 277-11/18

STERLING EDUCATION ASSOCIATION, INDIVIDUALLY AND ON BEHALF OF MEMBER SIMONE COLANCECCO,

Petitioners,

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE STERLING REGIONAL SCHOOL DISTRICT, CAMDEN COUNTY,

Respondent.

Matthew B. Wieliczko, Esq., for petitioners (Zeller & Wieliczko, attorneys)

Jeffrey R. Caccese, Esq. for respondent (Comegno Law Group, attorneys)

Record Closed: March 1, 2019 Decided: March 14, 2019

BEFORE JEFF S. MASIN, ALJ (Ret., on recall):

The Sterling Education Association and one of its members, Simone Colancecco, filed a Verified Petition of Appeal with the Commissioner of Education, seeking relief from what the Petition describes as improper conduct by the Board in connection with an Affirmative Action investigation of alleged improper conduct by its employee, Michael Eckmeyer, Director of Student and Personnel Services/Special Services. This was conduct directed toward Simone Colancecco, an Instructional Assistant and his subordinate employee. The Affirmative Action Complaint claimed that Colancecco was "continually harassed from the time of her hiring in August 2016 until January 2018." The actions included inappropriate text messages, email and in-person conversations, unwanted sexual advances and sexually offensive groping and speech, and Eckmeyer's "overall attitude towards women."

After Ms. Colancecco filed her complaint, Mr. Eckmeyer was suspended with pay in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:25-6. After his suspension, Eckmeyer did not return to work with the District and resigned his position effective September 1, 2018.

Although the Affirmative Action investigation led to a determination by the Affirmative Action Officer that Eckmeyer did violate the Board's Policy "4352-Sexual Harassment," by means of "inappropriate communication with sexual overtones, via certain email and text messages", the Petition claims that the determination improperly failed to find that a portion of the complained conduct was "gender based." This specifically involved a claim of inappropriate "groping" that Colancecco claimed occurred in December 2017. More specifically, she claimed that this incident took place "outside of any training session" regarding "student restraint technique," but instead during "free time." The Affirmative Action Officer's, May 11, 2018, summary of her findings reports that she found that the allegation that Colancecco was "groped during a restraint training" was unsupported by the evidence adduced. Colancecco contends that this finding is factually and legally false. Further, the Petition contends that the Board failed to provide certain policies when requested and limited, or barred, Association member witnesses, as well as Colancecco, from having legal representation during the investigation. In addition, the Board improperly denied the appeal from the Affirmative Action Officer's findings when it concurred with those findings. The Petition seeks referral to an administrative law judge for a hearing to determine whether the Board improperly refused to revise the findings; to determine that the Board acted arbitrarily and capriciously in denying the appeal at the superintendent and Board level, in violation of applicable laws and in violation of the Collective Bargaining Agreement; and that the Board deprived Colancecco of her right to have counsel to assist her with the filing of the Affirmative Action Complaint and the investigation thereof; as well as directing that the Board post all Board policies and regulations on its website. Finally, it seeks to have the Board found to have deprived Colancecco of her procedural rights by depriving her of all policies and regulations applicable to her complaint, findings and appeal, and such other relief as may be deemed appropriate.

In response to the Petition, the respondent filed a Motion to Dismiss in Lieu of Answer. It notes that the petitioners failed to identify any school law that they assert serves as grounds for invoking the jurisdiction of the Commissioner, in violation of N.J.S.A. 18A-16.9. Further, it points out that the petitioners failed to note that they had filed two other administrative matters, one with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) and the other with the Public Employment Relations Commission (PERC), each involving a "similar issue of both fact and law," in violation of N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.5.[1] Finally, it argues that even if the Petition survives these challenges, the petitioners' claim is moot.

A Motion to Dismiss is recognized in the Administrative Code at N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.5(g). While the Commissioner may dismiss the petition based on such motion prior to referral of the matter to the Office of Administrative Law, it is also the Commissioner's prerogative to transfer determination of the motion to the OAL. Lack of jurisdiction is a classic basis for such a motion, see New Jersey Court Rule, R. 4:6-2(e), as is failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted. In assessing such a motion, the claims made by the party who filed the petition must be deemed to be true and all reasonable inferences such allegations may support must be accepted. The standard utilized by the courts in judging such motion is traditionally quite liberal towards the non-moving party. Green v. Morgan Props., 215 N.J. 431, 451 (2013).

[1] N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.5 provides "[a]ny party to a controversy or dispute before the Commissioner, who is a party to another action before any other administrative agency . . . involving the same or similar issue of fact or law, shall indicate the existence of such action or complaint with the petition of appeal." Further, "[f]ailure to so certify may be deemed sufficient cause for dismissal of the petition of appeal when . . .such failures result in the duplication of administrative procedures for the resolution of a controversy or dispute." According to the respondent, the EEOC matter was initially filed with the United States Department of Education, Office of Civil Rights, and was then transferred by the Office of Civil Rights to the EEOC on August 7, 2018. Thus, that filing involves federal jurisdiction, and there is no indication of any referral to or filing with the New Jersey Division on Civil Rights

As background, in response to Ms. Colancecco's complaint, Vice Principal Curriculum and Affirmative Action Officer Robynn Considine issued a letter to Colancecco, dated May 11, 2018, in which Considine explained that the investigation determined that a violation of Policy 4352-Sexual Harassment had occurred.[2] This was found to include "inappropriate communication with sexual overtones, via certain email and text messages from Mr. Eckmeyer to" Colancecco. Considine continued

> Although you alleged that Mr. Eckmeyer groped your (sic) during a restraint training, the evidence adduced during the investigation did not support that allegation. Although it was evident that the experience was inappropriate and uncomfortable for you and several witnesses, it could not be concluded that the conduct by Mr. Eckmeyer was gender based. Nevertheless, the overall conduct by Mr. Eckmeyer violated the policy as he was your supervisor.

When Ms. Colancecco sought to appeal Considine's findings, Superintendent Mark Napoleon found no grounds for appeal. He noted Considine's findings, including the denial of a gender-based element during what Considine styled as "restraint training." However, given Considine's finding on this element of the complaint, and, to Napoleon, the more significant finding that the Board's sexual harassment policy had been violated and "remedial steps have been taken, there is no grounds for an appeal." However, Napoleon added, "Regardless, after reviewing Ms. Considine's report and your appeal letter, I concur with Ms. Considine's findings." When the Board of Education next considered Colancecco's correspondence appealing the decisions of the Affirmative Action Officer and the Superintendent, Board President Paul Sims wrote, on September 6, 2018, that the Board concurred in those findings, again noting that remedial steps had been taken to address Eckmeyer's conduct which found to have violated the Sexual Harassment policy. President Sims added that Colancecco's appeal of the investigation findings would be included in the investigation file "to note the areas you feel there are discrepancies."

---

[2] The Sexual Harassment policy defines "sexual harassment" as including "all unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors and verbal or physical contacts of a sexual nature that would not have happened but the employee's gender." As such, by definition, a violation of the policy must be "gender based." Here, Colancecco seeks to add to the already determined gender-based harassment an additional episode of physical harassment that she claims was, despite the Board's conclusion to the contrary, also "gender based."

In opposition to the motion to dismiss, counsel for the petitioners argues that the Commissioner has the clear authority to review the "Board's arbitrary and capricious decision in applying its own policies and procedures." He points out that the Commissioner properly conducts such "first instance" review of Board action. Discrimination based on sex is prohibited by N.J.S.A. 18A:6-6, a "school law," which makes such discrimination unlawful in matters "pertaining to the employment of teachers in any school . . . of this state." This Petition is filed pursuant to the general authorization for such appeals under N.J.A.C. 18A:6-9 and N.J.A.C. 6A:7-1.10. The failure of the Board to amend the findings of the Affirmative Action Officer to recognize that the "groping incident" did not occur during "restraint training," as the officer found, and to characterize this incident as "gender based," created a controversy under the school laws and in regard to the proper application of the Sexual Harassment policy, a policy arising out of a school law. As such, jurisdiction is established.

In regard to the separate filings with the Commissioner, EEOC and PERC, counsel contends that the applicable provision of the Administrative Code, N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.4(c) indicates that the existence of other actions involving the same or similar issues of law and fact > shall indicate the existence of such action or complaint within the petition of appeal . . . Failure to so certify may be deemed to be sufficient cause for dismissal of the petition when, in the judgment of the Commissioner and/or ALJ, such failure results in the duplication of administrative procedures for the resolution of a controversy or dispute.

Counsel offers that the several filings in different "alternative venues" were made to ensure that the "claims for relief and remedies sought in each matter can in fact be awarded in a particular venue." While not denying that the Petition failed to identify these "alternative" proceedings, counsel asserts that petitioners are not seeking to have the Commissioner duplicate actions in other administrative proceedings. However, counsel then acknowledges that it might be necessary to consider the issues of consolidation and predominant interest, presumably at least in regard to the current petition and the pending PERC matter, as the EEOC matter lies with federal jurisdiction.

As for the claim that the Petition is moot, counsel points to the superintendent's letter, noting that while it acknowledges the discomfort that Colancecco no doubt experienced, in regard to the "groping," the determination was that it was not gender based and therefore did not violate the sexual harassment policy. Clearly, this position is in direct opposition to Ms. Colancecco's understanding to the timing and nature of the "groping" and thus, whether it somehow avoids the characterization of gender-based sexual harassment or instead falls within that definition. And the various concerns about the Board's alleged failures to make available policies, procedures and to allow representation of Colancecco and other union member witnesses during the investigation are certainly not moot concerns.

In its response brief, the Board reasserts its earlier position. It offers that the Board does not dispute that Ms. Colancecco was indeed a victim of gender-based sexual harassment, and that to the extent she is appealing based upon an alleged violation of the Board's Sexual Harassment Policy, the Board did not deny that Eckmeyer's conduct violated that policy in relation to her, only that a portion of her overall claim was not established as gender-based misconduct.

Discussion

Initially, it is clear that Ms. Colancecco claimed that Mr. Eckmeyer had engaged in conduct that exposed her to inappropriate materials, conversations and communications that were of a sexual nature. The Affirmative Action Officer investigated and concluded that she had indeed been harassed and that the Sexual Harassment Policy-4352 had been violated. That Policy defines "sexual harassment" as "all unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and verbal or physical contacts of a sexual nature that would not have happened but for the employee's gender." By its very wording, as the portion here underlined makes abundantly clear, this Policy defines any conduct found to have violated the Policy as necessarily gender based. The actions violating the Policy must be such as would not have occurred "but for" the victim's gender. Thus, while the decisions of the Affirmative Action Officer, Superintendent and Board all found that one element of the claimed harassment was not proven to be gender based, the overall conclusion was that Eckmeyer engaged in gender-based harassment of Colancecco. In light of the terms of the Policy, there is simply no other way to understand the findings.

As the Board properly noted, Ms. Colancecco, the alleged and, in fact determined, victim of the gender-based sexual harassment, had the right to appeal the decisions of the Affirmative Action Officer and the Superintendent to the Board. In general, decisions made by boards of education regarding violation of school laws are appealable to the Commissioner of Education. Interestingly, the Board's Policy on Sexual Harassment, 5352, explains that an employee may appeal the Board's action or inaction on a claim of a violation of the Policy to "the New Jersey Division on Civil Rights or to the United States Equal Employment Opportunity Commission." There is no mention of any appeal to the Commissioner.

The Board argues that there really is no dispute here for the Commissioner to consider. In summary, Colancecco claimed to have been sexually harassed, the Affirmative Action Officer, Superintendent, and, most importantly, the Board, all agreed that she was. That harassment was by definition, "gender based." That she disputes a portion of the findings does not detract from the fact that all agree that Eckmeyer violated the Policy, and that he sexually harassed her. Thus, what is there for the Commissioner to consider? If the Commissioner were to determine that the "groping" incident was actually gender based, that determination would not change the fact that the Board has already agreed with the complainant that she was sexually harassed and that by definition, that harassment was gender based. From the standpoint of education law, and the role of the Commissioner, it is entirely unclear what the legal significance of such a determination would be. While Ms. Colancecco may desire a finding of gender-based misconduct regarding the "groping" incident for other legal purposes, I fail to see that the Commissioner has anything to review here. And interestingly, the petitioners' requests for relief does not suggest that a finding such as they seek regarding the "groping" incident should result in any additional response by the Board vis-a-vis Eckmeyer. He was suspended while the investigation was conducted, and he resigned his position with the Board without ever resuming his work.

Reading the Petition with the liberality afforded in considering a motion to dismiss, it may be that an appeal of a Board's decision regarding an alleged violation of the Board's Sexual Harassment Policy does lie with the Commissioner. However, it is not the case that the Commissioner need consider appeals of a portion of a Board's findings where the Board's overall decision has agreed with the complainant that she suffered sexual harassment in violation of the Policy and the Board has acted to sanction the perpetrator in a manner and to an extent that is not contended to be legally insufficient. A review of this nature would involve both the Commissioner and the OAL in proceedings that would be of no practical value in regard to education law and would involve a drain on judicial and administrative resources better used for controversies that involve actual disputes over outcomes that are, in the administrative context, meaningful. As such, I CONCLUDE that Ms. Colancecco's claim of sexual harassment by Eckmeyer has been proven and accepted by the Board, and that there is no actual controversy for the Commissioner to resolve. While it may be that portions of the complaint regarding representational rights, and the provision of policies are properly considered by PERC in regard to the parallel Petition filed with it, given that the Commissioner has nothing to resolve regarding the claim that sexual harassment occurred, there is no need to consider consolidation and predominant interest. The Petition filed with the Commissioner is DISMISSED for failure to state a claim for which any meaningful relief can be granted and for mootness. The petitioners may choose to continue to seek relief from PERC and the federal EEOC.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

March 14, 2019
DATE

JEFF S. MASIN, ALJ (Ret., on recall)

Date Received at Agency: 3-14-19

Date Mailed to Parties: 3-14-19

mph

109-19

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Ali Kesim,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Borough of New Providence, Union County,

Respondent.

Synopsis

The petitioner challenged the Board's decision to terminate his employment as a custodian in the school district following a physical altercation with another employee; petitioner had also been involved in other repeated incidents of conduct that resulted in discipline. The petitioner asserted that the Board's action violated the tenure laws, N.J.S.A. 18A:17-3. The Board contended that petitioner's employment was subject to a Custodial Collective Bargaining Agreement (CBA), and that there is no grant of tenure in the CBA of this district. The parties filed cross motions for summary decision.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: there are no genuine issues of material facts in dispute, and the matter is ripe for summary decision; the issue for determination was whether the Board violated the Tenure Act, N.J.S.A. 18A:17-3, and the district's CBA when it terminated petitioner's employment; petitioner was hired by the Board as a custodian in October 1998; in each year of his employment, petitioner received and signed an Employment Contract containing a clause which allows for the termination of the contract by either party with 30 days' notice in writing; all custodians and bus drivers in the district, as tenure ineligible employees, received an employment contract with a fixed term each year; the relevant CBA expired on June 30, 2018, and does not use the word "tenure" in any provision; petitioner received written notice on or about February 8, 2018 that the Board was terminating his employment effective January 24, 2018 because of a physical altercation with another employee on January 18, 2018, as well as prior repeated incidents which resulted in discipline; the notice informed petitioner that he was terminated pursuant to the notice provision in his contract, and that he would be placed on paid leave through his termination date of February 22, 2018; although the relevant CBA stated that "permanent status" was given to all custodians after the beginning of their fourth consecutive year of employment, the CBA also gives the Board the right to relieve employees of their duties for just cause through the notice provision in the annual contract. The ALJ concluded that petitioner was properly terminated on contractual notice for just cause. Accordingly, summary decision was granted in favor of the Board, and petitioner's cross-motion was denied.

Upon comprehensive review, the Commissioner concurred with the findings and conclusions of the ALJ. Accordingly, the Initial Decision of the OAL was adopted as the final decision in this matter, and the petition was dismissed.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

April 23, 2019

OAL Dkt. No. EDU 8311-18
Agency Dkt. No. 122-5/18

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Ali Kesim,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Borough of New Providence, Union County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed, as have the exceptions filed pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4 by the petitioner, Ali Kesim, and the New Providence Board of Education's (Board) reply thereto. In this matter, the petitioner is challenging the Board's decision to terminate his employment as a custodian in the school district.[1] The Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) granted summary decision in favor of the Board and recommended that the petition of appeal be dismissed. In so doing, the ALJ found that the petitioner did not have tenure as a custodian under N.J.S.A. 18A:17-3 because he was appointed for a fixed term for each year of his employment with the District. Additionally, the Board did not violate the Collection Bargaining Agreement (CBA) when it terminated petitioner's employment because the CBA did not provide custodians in the District with tenure.

In his exceptions, the petitioner maintains that the Initial Decision should be rejected because the ALJ failed to apply the plain language of N.J.S.A. 18A:17-3 and misinterpreted the holding in Wright v. Board of Educ. of E. Orange, 99 N.J. 112 (1985). The petitioner argues that he held tenure when he was unilaterally terminated because the CBA that was in effect at the time states, "[w]hen an employee commences his/her fourth year of consecutive employment in the district, that employee shall have permanent status under the agreement." Thus, the CBA effectively accords permanent status to all custodians who are employed by the Board for a period of over three years and these employees are no longer subject to the non-renewal procedures of N.J.S.A. 18A:27-4.1. The petitioner further contends that simply because the agreement in Wright, supra, contained the word "tenure" does not mean that every agreement in every school district throughout the state has to have the word "tenure" in order for custodians to earn it. Accordingly, the Board should be ordered to immediately reinstate the petitioner at a salary level appropriate for the 2018-2019 school year. Finally, if summary decision is not entered in favor of the petitioner based on the relevant case law and plain reading of the CBA, this matter should be remanded to the OAL for a hearing as to all material facts in dispute, including the intent of the parties to the CBA.

[1] The Board acted to terminate the petitioner's employment based on a physical altercation with another employee, as well as other repeated incidents that have resulted in discipline.

In reply, the Board maintains that in the Initial Decision the ALJ properly found that N.J.S.A. 18A:17-3 grants tenure to custodial employees only if such employees are not appointed to fixed terms. When custodial employment is governed by a CBA, the CBA may grant tenure to custodial employees. Despite the petitioner's allegations, the ALJ did not establish a bright line rule requiring all CBAs to contain the word "tenure." Instead, the ALJ reviewed the terms of the CBA in this case and determined that, unlike in Wright, supra, an agreement that contains a clear, express provision granting custodian tenure does not exist in the current CBA. Therefore, the ALJ considered extrinsic evidence including the Board's practice of issuing non-tenured employees Employment Contracts, similar to the contract that was signed annually by the petitioner while tenured employees were issued Salary Statements. Further, the ALJ properly credited petitioner's execution of a fixed term employment contract containing a thirty (30) day notice provision for termination in each of his nearly twenty (20) years of employment as evidence of petitioner's non tenured status. Therefore, the Initial Decision should be adopted as the final decision in this matter.

Upon a comprehensive review of the record in this matter, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ – for the reasons thoroughly set forth in the Initial Decision – that the petitioner did not have tenure as a custodian under N.J.S.A. 18A:17-3, and the Board did not violate the CBA when it terminated petitioner's employment. The Commissioner is also in accord with the ALJ's determination that there are no material facts in dispute prohibiting the dissolution of this matter by summary decision.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:17-3, boards of education have the discretion to deny tenure to custodial staff or to confer that status upon them. In order to exercise the discretion to deny tenure to custodial staff, a board of education must appoint the custodians for a fixed term. Each year of his employment with the Board, the petitioner entered into a fixed employment contract that was effective July 1 through June 30. Therefore, the petitioner did not acquire tenure under N.J.S.A. 18A:17-3. The Commissioner is also not persuaded by the petitioner's assertion that he acquired tenure based on the language in the CBA, which stated "[w]hen an employee commences his/her fourth year of consecutive employment in the district, that employee shall have permanent status under the agreement." As explained by the ALJ, the word "tenure" is not used anywhere in the CBA as opposed to the circumstances in Wright, supra, where the agreement between the board of education and the custodians' union contained a clear, express provision that stated: "[a]ll members of the bargaining unit shall receive tenure after three years of employment." Id. at 184. Based on the evidence in the record related to the nature of the petitioner's employment contracts, coupled with the language of the CBA, the ALJ properly found that the CBA did not grant petitioner tenure. As a result, the manner in which the Board terminated the petitioner's employment was not barred by N.J.S.A. 18A:17-3, nor did it violate the CBA.

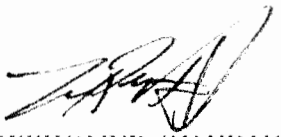
Accordingly, the Initial Decision of the OAL is adopted as the final decision in this matter and the petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[2]



COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 4/23/19

Date of Mailing: 4/23/19

[2] Pursuant to P.L. 2008, c. 36 (N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1). Commissioner decisions are appealable to the Superior Court, Appellate Division.

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SUMMARY DECISION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 08311-18
AGENCY DKT. NO. 122-5/18

ALI O. KESIM,
Petitioner,

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF NEW PROVIDENCE, UNION COUNTY,
Respondent.

Nicholas Poberezhsky, Esq., for petitioner Ali O. Kesim (Caruso Smith Picini, attorneys)

Anthony P. Sciarrillo, Esq., for respondent New Providence Board of Education (Sciarrillo Cornell, attorneys)

Record Closed: February 1, 2019 Decided: March 15, 2019

BEFORE GAIL M. COOKSON, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On or about May 21, 2018, petitioner Ali O. Kesim (petitioner) filed an action with the Commissioner of the Department of Education against respondent New Providence Board of Education (respondent or Board) challenging his termination on or about February 25, 2018, from his position as a custodian employed by the Board for approximately twenty (20) years as violative of the tenure laws. N.J.S.A. 18A:17-3. The Board filed its Answer to the Petition for Relief on or about June 4, 2018.

The matter was transmitted by the Department of Education to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), where it was filed on June 11, 2018, for plenary hearing as a contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13. I convened a telephonic case management conference with the parties on July 2, 2018, to discuss the potential issues in the case, scheduling, and other case management concerns. It became apparent that the matter was amenable to dispositive motion practice and a briefing schedule was agreed upon, as well as plenary hearing dates should those be needed. After some adjustments to the schedule, the Board filed a Motion for Summary Decision on or about November 9, 2018. On or about January 21, 2019, petitioner filed a Cross-Motion for Summary Decision. Responses and replies were thereafter submitted. Those motion submissions having been received, the matter is now ripe for decision.

ISSUE PRESENTED ON THE MOTION

Whether respondent Board violated the Tenure Act, N.J.S.A. 18A:17-3, and the New Providence Education Association – Custodians Unit (Association) Collection Bargaining Agreement when it terminated his employment.

UNDISPUTED MATERIAL FACTS

1. Petitioner was hired as a custodian by the Board on October 5, 1998. See Certification of Dr. David Miceli, ¶ 4 (Miceli Certification). During his employment, petitioner later served as a "custodian/bus driver." See Miceli Certification, ¶ 5.

2. At the end of each school year, the Board is required to inform all employees, tenured or non-tenured, of their status of employment for the following year. See Miceli Certification, ¶ 7. Such notice includes information regarding salary for the following school year. See Miceli Certification, ¶ 8.

3. To distinguish tenured employees from non-tenured employees or employees not eligible to earn tenure ("tenure ineligible employees"), tenured employees receive a "Salary Statement" while non-tenured and tenure ineligible employees receive an "Employment Contract." See Miceli Certification, ¶ 9. Both documents set forth the employee's name and salary, and require the employee to sign the document and return it to the Superintendent's office. See Miceli Certification, ¶ 10.

4. Unlike a Salary Statement, the Employment Contract contains a termination clause which provides:

> It is hereby agreed by the parties hereto that this contract may at any time be terminated by either party's giving to the other 30 days' notice in writing of intention to terminate the same, but that in the absence of any provision herein for a definite number of days' notice, the contract shall run for the full term named above.
>
> See Miceli Certification, ¶ 11.

5. The Employment Contract contains a fixed term, specifying a start and end date. See Miceli Certification, ¶ 12. All custodians and bus drivers, as tenure ineligible employees, receive an "Employment Contract" each year. See Miceli Certification, ¶ 13.

6. District custodians are represented by the New Providence Education Association – Custodians Unit ("Association"). See Miceli Certification, ¶ 21. During his employment with the Board, Petitioner was a member of the Association. See Miceli Certification, ¶ 22. The Board and Association are parties to the Custodial Collective Bargaining Agreement (CCBA). See Miceli Certification, ¶ 23.

7. The relevant CCBA expired on June 30, 2018. The CCBA does not use the word "tenure" in any provision. See Miceli Certification, ¶ 25.

8. In each year of his employment, petitioner received and signed an Employment Contract, containing a thirty-day notice provision. See Miceli Certification, ¶ 14. In advance of the 2017-2018 school year, petitioner received an Employment Contract dated June 29, 2017, for the period of July 1, 2017 through June 30, 2018. See Miceli Certification, ¶ 15. On or about July 21, 2017, petitioner reviewed and signed that Employment Contract. See Miceli Certification, ¶ 16.

9. On or about February 8, 2018, the Board provided written notice to petitioner that the Board took action to terminate his employment effective January 24, 2018. See Miceli Certification, ¶ 18. The reason stated was a physical altercation with another employee on January 18, 2018, as well as prior "repeated incidents that have resulted in discipline." See Miceli Certification, Exhibit 5. The notice also informed petitioner that he was terminated pursuant to the notice provision in his Employment Contract, and that he would be placed on a paid leave of absence through his termination date of February 22, 2018. See Miceli Certification, ¶ 19.

10. From 1998 until June 30, 2018, the CCBA stated that "permanent status" was given to all custodians after the employee began his or her fourth consecutive year of employment. Prior thereto, "[a]ll new employees shall be hired with fixed term contracts." See Certification of Maryanne Rodriguez, ¶¶ 6-8.

11. Specifically, Article V Employee's Rights, Section D.3 of the relevant CCBA sets forth:

> When an employee commences his/her fourth year of consecutive employment in the district, that employee shall have permanent status under the terms of this Agreement and shall not be disciplined, discharged, or not reappointed without just cause. Grievances regarding the above shall be subject to binding arbitration under the terms of this Agreement.
>
> [Miceli Certification, Exhibit 6.]

12. Article VI Board's Rights, Section C.3 of the relevant CCBA sets forth:

> The Board reserves to itself sole jurisdiction and authority over matters of policy and retains the right through the > Administration, in accordance with applicable laws and regulations:

>
> * * *
>
> 3. To relieve employees from duties for just cause.
>
> [Id.]

LEGAL DISCUSSION

It is well-established that if there is no genuine issue as to any material fact, a moving party is entitled to prevail as a matter of law. Brill v. The Guardian Life Insurance Co. of America, 142 N.J. 520, 540 (1995). The purpose of summary decision is to avoid unnecessary hearings and their concomitant burden on public resources. Under the Brill standard, a fact-finding hearing should be avoided "when the evidence is so one-sided that one party must prevail as a matter of law." Brill guides us thusly:

> [A] determination whether there exists a "genuine issue" of material fact that precludes summary judgment requires the motion judge to consider whether the competent evidential materials presented, when viewed in the light most favorable to the non-moving party, are sufficient to permit a rational factfinder to resolve the alleged disputed issue in favor of the non-moving party.
>
> [Id. at 540]

In explaining the standard to be applied in summary motion practice, the Brill Court explained:

> The same standard applies to determine whether a prima facie case has been established by the party bearing the burden of proof in a trial. . . . If a case involves no material factual disputes, the court disposes of it as a matter of law by rendering judgment in favor of the moving or non-moving party.
>
> [Id. at 536-37]

As a result of the undisputed material facts set forth above, I CONCLUDE that the issue of whether petitioner was tenured and thereby protected from termination in the manner in which it was undertaken by the Board can be decided as a matter of law. The assertions by petitioner in the Certification of Marilyn Rodriguez as to what the negotiators "understood" or "meant" by the long-standing phrases used in the CCBA of "fixed term" and "permanent," which pre-dated her involvement in said negotiations, is not sufficient to raise a genuine issue of material fact for this case.

The Tenure Act provides in relevant part:

> Every public school janitor of a school district shall, unless he is appointed for a fixed term, hold his office, position, or employment under tenure during good behavior and efficiency and shall not be dismissed or suspended or reduced in compensation, except as the result of the reduction of the number of janitors in the district made in accordance with the provisions of this title or except for neglect, misbehavior or other offense ....

[N.J.S.A. 18A:17-3 (emphasis added).]

Separately, a board may confer tenure on a custodial employee "by virtue of the express terms of the collective bargaining agreement." Camden Bd. of Educ. v. Alexander, 352 N.J. Super. 422, 447 (App. Div. 2002), rev'd on other grounds by Camden Bd. of Educ. v. Alexander, 181 N.J. 187 (2004), (citing Wright v. Bd. of Educ. of E. Orange, 99 N.J. 112 (1985)).

In Wright, the board provided notice to the custodian that his employment would be terminated. 99 N.J. at 183. The CBA between the custodial union and the board stated: "[a]ll members of the bargaining unit shall receive tenure after three years of employment." Id. at 184. The custodian challenged his termination, arguing that the board permissibly bypassed N.J.S.A. 18A:17-3 when it negotiated a tenure provision. Id. The Supreme Court determined that although the custodian was appointed to a fixed term, the CBA explicitly granted the custodian tenure. 181 N.J. at 184-85. Therefore, the custodian's termination was improper. Id.

I CONCLUDE that the instant matter is distinguishable from Wright. Throughout his employment with the Board, petitioner was employed for one-year, fixed terms from July 1 through June 30. More specifically, for the 2017-2018 school year, petitioner reviewed and signed an Employment Contract for the period of July 1, 2017 through June 30, 2018. In Wright, the Supreme Court noted that the CBA between the board and the custodians' union contained a clear, express provision that stated: "[a]ll members of the bargaining unit shall receive tenure after three years of employment." Id. at 184. In the instant matter, no similar express provision exists. As correctly stated by respondent, the word "tenure" is not used anywhere in the CCBA. Therefore, the CCBA did not grant petitioner tenure.

By way of contrast, the undersigned is aware that some Collective Bargaining Agreements for custodians in other districts specifically state: "Effective July 1, 1998, employees who achieve three (3) consecutive years of employment shall be appointed for an unfixed term and shall acquire tenure in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:17-3." See, e.g., Pagan v. Elizabeth Bd. of Educ., OAL Dkt. EDU-6936-17, Initial Decision (January 2, 2018).

There is no dispute that petitioner was no longer a probationary employee who could be terminated at will but he was nevertheless employed for a fixed term. There is no grant of tenure in the CCBA in this district. In each year of his employment, petitioner was provided with an Employment Contract, which he was required to review, sign, and return to the Superintendent's office. I concur with respondent that each Employment Contract was for a fixed term and contained the following provision:

> It is hereby agreed by the parties hereto that this contract may at any time be terminated by either party's giving to the other 30 days' notice in writing of intention to terminate the same, but that in the absence of any provision herein for a definite number of days' notice, the contract shall run for the full term named above.

On February 8, 2018, the Board provided written notice to Petitioner of its intent to terminate his employment because of a physical altercation with another employee on January 18, 2018, as well as prior "repeated incidents that have resulted in discipline." See Miceli Certification, Exhibit 5. That correspondence explicitly stated that his termination was made in accordance with the notice provision of his Employment Contract. Therefore, Petitioner was placed on a paid administrative leave effective January 24, 2018. That paid administrative leave continued for thirty (30) days, in accordance with his Employment Contract. Petitioner was then terminated effective February 22, 2018.

In sum, this Board did not negotiate tenure rights for custodians but rather was granted sole authority to terminate petitioner for just cause subject to the notice provisions of the annual employment contract. I CONCLUDE that petitioner could be terminated on contractual notice for just cause in the sole authority and jurisdiction of the Board.

ORDER

It is ORDERED that the motion of respondent New Providence Board of Education for an Order Granting Summary decision is hereby GRANTED. It is further ORDERED that the cross-motion of petitioner Ali O. Kesim for an Order Granting Summary Decision is hereby DENIED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

Gail M Cookson

March 15, 2019
DATE

GAIL M. COOKSON, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: MARCH 15, 2019

Date Mailed to Parties: MARCH 18, 2019

id

OAL Dkt. No. 14157-18
Agency Dkt. No. 214-8/18

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

S.K., on behalf of minor children, N.A. and R.A.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Woodbridge, Middlesex County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, the proposed settlement agreement, and the Initial Decision issued by the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1.

Upon review, the Commissioner approves the terms of the Agreement and adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter. The case is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the Agreement.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 4/23/19
Date of Mailing: 4/23/19

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

SETTLEMENT

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 14157-18

AGENCY DKT. NO. 214-8/18

S.K. ON BEHALF OF N.A. AND R.A.,

Petitioner,

v.

WOODBRIDGE TOWNSHIP BOARD OF EDUCATION, MIDDLESEX COUNTY,

Respondent.

George Scott Alevras, Esq., for petitioner (Musto & Alevras, attorneys)

Elizabeth Farley Murphy, Esq., for respondent (Busch Law Group, LLC, attorneys)

Record Closed: March 22, 2019 Decided: March 25, 2019

BEFORE MARY ANN BOGAN, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on September 28, 2018, for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The parties have agreed to a settlement and have prepared a Stipulation of Settlement indicating the terms thereof, which is attached and fully incorporated herein. This Settlement Agreement resolves all disputes.

I have reviewed the record and the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures on the attached settlement agreement and the attached Board resolution.

2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

March 25, 2019
DATE

MARY ANN BOGAN, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: 3-26-19

Date Mailed to Parties: 3-26-19

MAB/cb

ELIZABETH FARLEY MURPHY, ESQ.
THE BUSCH LAW GROUP, LLC
450 Main Street
Metuchen, NJ 08840
(732) 243-9588
emurphy@buschlawgroup.com
Attorneys for Respondent, Woodbridge Township
Board of Education

S.K. o/b/o minor children N.A. and R.A., Petitioner, v. Woodbridge Township Board of Education (Middlesex County), Respondent.	STATE OF NEW JERSEY DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW OAL DOCKET NO. EDU 14157-2018S AGENCY REFERENCE NO. 214-8/18 SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

WHEREAS, Respondent, Woodbridge Township Board of Education ("Board"), is a local educational authority responsible for ensuring that students who attend school in the Woodbridge Township School District ("District") are entitled to do so pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1 et seq.; and

WHEREAS, Petitioner S.K. is the mother of N.A. and R.A.; and

WHEREAS, M.A. is the children's father and, although not a Petitioner herein, has agreed to be bound by this Agreement; and

WHEREAS, Respondent conducted a residency investigation of Petitioner's children and determined that the children were not domiciled in the District; and

WHEREAS, Petitioner requested and was provided a residency hearing before the Board; and

WHEREAS, Respondent provided Petitioner with the opportunity to provide additional information in support of her claim of residency subsequent to the Board hearing and Petitioner failed to do so; and

WHEREAS, Respondent notified Petitioner that the children would be removed from the school rolls; and

WHEREAS, Petitioner filed a petition of appeal before the Commissioner of Education which was transferred to the Office of Administrative Law for a hearing; and

WHEREAS, the parties, each having a desire to amicably settle any and all claims in all jurisdictions, asserted and unasserted, now hereby agree as follows:

1. The parties agree that Petitioner and M.A. will reimburse the Board in the amount of $3,000.00 for tuition costs for the 2017-2018 school year. Payment shall be made in the amount of $150.00 per month for 20 months which shall consist of two payments: $75.00 per month from Petitioner and $75.00 per month from M.A. By signing this agreement, M.A. agrees to be bound by its terms, including, but not limited to, being subject to an enforcement action. Payment shall be due on the first day of each month.

2. Petitioner, on her own behalf and on behalf of her children, and the Board mutually release and forever discharge each other, its/their officers, employees, administrators, agents and servants from any and all past, present or future claims, whether known or unknown, arising out of events that have occurred prior to the date on which this Agreement is signed.

3. The parties agree to refrain from filing any proceeding, action or complaint regarding any claims by or rights of Petitioner or her children from the beginning of time through the date of this Agreement. It is expressly understood and agreed, however, that the parties reserve the right to bring a claim before any tribunal of competent jurisdiction to enforce their rights under this Agreement. Further, the Board reserves its right to conduct a residency investigation and proceed in accordance with the law in the future should it appear that the children no longer reside in the District.

4. The terms of this Agreement represent the compromise of disputed claims between the parties. This Agreement shall not be treated as an admission on the part of the Board of liability, responsibility, or wrongdoing, that any rights of Petitioner or her children were violated at any time, or that either party has failed to act in accordance with any laws, statutes, regulations and/or codes.

5. The drafting and negotiation of this Agreement have been participated in by each of the parties and, for all purposes, this Agreement shall be deemed to have been drafted jointly by each of the parties. No ambiguity shall be resolved against any party based upon authorship. The parties acknowledge that they enter into this Agreement voluntarily and free of coercion.

6. The parties further agree that this Agreement may not be altered, amended, modified, superseded, canceled or terminated except by an express written agreement duly executed by all of the parties which makes specific reference to this Agreement.

7. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of New Jersey and constitutes a complete legal release of any and all claims that were or could have been raised by Petitioner against the Board regarding her children from the beginning of time until execution and/or entry hereof.

8. This Agreement shall be subject to ratification by the Board and is without prejudice to either party if the terms are not ratified. Petitioner and M.A. are not bound by this Agreement until it has been ratified by the Board.

9. This Agreement contains the entire agreement between the parties hereto and is intended to resolve any and all disputes and issues, known or unknown, between them as of the date of execution of this Agreement.

10. This Agreement may be signed in counterparts. However, this Agreement will not be binding among the parties until it has been executed and delivered by and among the parties and M.A.

11. Petitioner and M.A. understand and agree that they will not be considered to be a prevailing party under any statute, common law, or otherwise as a result of this Agreement and they will bear their own attorney's fees and costs.

WITNESS:

DATED: 2-5-19

S Kranzke
SHARON KRANZKE

Woodbridge Township Board of Education

By: _____

DATED: 3-21-19

_____
DATED

STATE OF NEW JERSEY,
COUNTY OF : SS.:

I CERTIFY that on the 5th day of February, 2019, Sharon Kranzke personally came before me and acknowledged under oath, to my satisfaction, that this person:

(a) is named in and personally signed this document; and

(b) signed, sealed and delivered this document as her act and deed.

_____
Notary Public

GEORGE SCOTT ALEVRAS
ATTORNEY AT LAW
STATE OF NEW JERSEY
ATTORNEY ID #040692005

MARC ACOSTA

2/11/19
DATED

STATE OF NEW JERSEY,
COUNTY OF : SS.:

I CERTIFY that on the 11 day of February, 2019, Marc Acosta personally came before me and acknowledged under oath, to my satisfaction, that this person:

(a) is named in and personally signed this document; and

(b) signed, sealed and delivered this document as his act and deed.

Notary Public

AUGUST A. CARLTON
NOTARY PUBLIC OF NEW JERSEY
My Commission Expires 6/13/2022

The Superintendent presented the following recommendations:

8. That the Board of Education approve the previously submitted Settlement Agreement in the matter entitled S.K. o/b/o minor children N.A. and R.A. v. Woodbridge Township Board of Education, Agency Reference No.:214-8/18, and authorize the Board President, the Business Administrator/Board Secretary and the Board attorney to take all necessary and appropriate steps to implement the aforesaid Settlement Agreement.

* *

I, Brian Wolferman, Business Administrator and Secretary of the Board of Education, Township of Woodbridge, hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and exact copy of the Resolution approved at the Board of Education meeting held March 14, 2019.

Brian Wolferman
Business Administrator/Board Secretary

/r

March 15, 2019

112-19

OAL Dkt. No. EDU 04086-19
(EDU 17892-17 On Remand)
Agency Dkt. No. 247-10/17

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Lauren Greenfield,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Irvington, Essex County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, the proposed settlement agreement (Agreement), and the Initial Decision issued by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 have been reviewed.

Under the terms of the Agreement, petitioner was to complete training on workmen's compensation policies and procedures no later than December 31, 2018, the administrative details of which are set out in paragraphs one (1) through three (3) of the Agreement. The date for completion of the training, and presumably the administrative steps that were to follow, have preceded the consideration of the Agreement by the Commissioner of Education. The parties are reminded that a settlement of litigation before the Commissioner is not binding until the Commissioner approves the settlement.

In light of the foregoing, the Commissioner adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter, provided that the parties have already implemented the settlement terms or have agreed upon mutually satisfactory alternate dates for the effectuation of the same. As such, the matter is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the Agreement.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 4/23/19
Date of Mailing: 4/23/19

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

DECISION APPROVING SETTLEMENT

LAUREN GREENFIELD,
Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF IRVINGTON, ESSEX COUNTY,
Respondent.

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 04086-19
AGENCY DKT. NO. 207-10/17

ON REMAND
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 17892-17

Randi Doner April, Esq., for petitioner (Oxfeld Cohen, attorneys)

Yadira Cristal Duran, Esq., for respondent (Hunt, Hamlin & Ridley, attorneys)

Record Closed: March 20, 2019 Decided: March 27, 2019

BEFORE ELISSA MIZZONE TESTA, ALJ:

This matter was remanded to the Office of Administrative Law on March 21, 2019 for revision of the settlement agreement to include the signature of Board attorney pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.13. The Settlement Agreement indicating the terms of settlement has been amended and is attached hereto.

I have reviewed the record and the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures on the attached settlement agreement.

2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

March 27, 2019

DATE

ELISSA MIZZONE TESTA, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: 4/01/2019

Mailed to Parties:
sej

RECEIVED
2019 MAR 27 A 11:00
STATE OF NEW JERSEY
OFFICE OF ADMIN. LAW

HUNT, HAMLIN & RIDLEY
Counselors at Law
Military Park Building
60 Park Place, 16th Floor
Newark, New Jersey 07102
(973) 242-4471 (Tel)
(973) 242-8295 (Fax)
Attorneys for Respondent

LAUREN GREENFIELD,	) BEFORE THE COMMISSION OF
	) EDUCATION OF THE
Petitioner,	) STATE OF NEW JERSEY
	)
	) AGENCY DKT. NO.: 247-10/17
	)
	)
v.	) SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT
	)
	)
IRVINGTON BOARD OF EDUCATION	)
	)
Respondent.	)

This Settlement Agreement ("Agreement") is entered into by the Irvington Board of Education ("Respondent") on the one hand, and Lauren Greenfield ("Petitioner"), on the other hand, (collectively, "Parties") with regard to the above-captioned matter, Agency Docket No.: 247-10/17. The Parties, having agreed to resolve this matter without a hearing, herein agree as follows:

1. Petitioner, a tenured employee of Respondent, will complete training on workmen's compensation policies and procedures no later than December 31, 2018. Training shall be completed during Petitioner's preparation period. Respondent shall provide date and time of training to Petitioner by November 16, 2018.
2. Upon completing training, Petitioner shall sign a Training Acknowledgment Form acknowledging understanding of Respondent's workmen's compensation policies and procedures.

3. Once training is complete Respondent agrees to restore five (5) days to Petitioner's sick bank. Although being restored, Petitioner understands that the five (5) days are not approved workmen's compensation days.
4. Respondent expressly denies any wrongdoing in connection with or relating to Petitioner's employment relationship with Respondent. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall constitute or be treated as an admission that Respondent violated any federal, state or local law, statute, rule or regulation or any common law right sounding in tort, contract or otherwise.
5. Each Party to this Agreement shall cooperate fully in the execution of any and all other documents and the completion of any additional actions that may be necessary or appropriate to give full force and effect to the terms and intent of this Agreement.
6. This Agreement contains the entire Agreement between the Parties, and supersedes all prior negotiations and/or agreements proposed or otherwise, written or oral, concerning the subject matter herein. The terms of this Agreement are fully understood and voluntarily accepted by the Parties, and other than the consideration set forth herein, no promises or representations of any kind have been made by either Party. Furthermore, no modification of this Agreement shall be binding unless in writing and signed by each of the Parties.
7. The Parties agree that a facsimile or electronic signature herein shall be deemed to have the same force and effect of an original.

THE UNDERSIGNED HAVE READ AND AGREE WITH THE ABOVE TERMS:

PETITIONER

Lauren Greenfield

11/12/18
Date

RESPONDENT

Irvington Board of Education

10/30/18
Date

Yadira Cristal Duran, Esq.
Attorney for the Board

3/20/19
Date

STATE OF NEW JERSEY
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION
BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES

In the Matter of the Tenure Hearing of April Lowery

Paulsboro School District,

"Petitioner,"

- and -

April Lowery,

"Respondent."

DECISION APPROVING SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

Agency Docket No. 246-9/18

Before
Robert C. Gifford, Esq.
Arbitrator

Appearances:

For the Petitioner:
Stephen J. Edelstein, Esq.
Lawrence S. Schwartz, Esq.
Weiner Law Group

For the Respondent:
Barbara E. Riefberg. Esq.
Shimberg & Friel

On October 19, 2018, I was assigned as the arbitrator for the above referenced matter. Hearing dates were scheduled, but the parties chose to engage in settlement discussions in lieu of proceeding on the evidentiary record.[1] Settlement conferences took place on November 6, 2018, November 26, 2018, December 17, 2018, April 2, 2019 and April 17, 2019. The discussions finally produced a settlement.

On April 29, 2019, the parties formally executed and adopted the settlement resolving the tenure charges that the Paulsboro Board of Education filed with the State of New Jersey Department of Education on September 26, 2018. The terms of settlement are included in the settlement agreement attached hereto. On April 30, 2019, I conducted a final conference with the parties' Counsel and the Respondent to discuss the terms of settlement.

N.J.A.C. 6A:3-5.6 requires the arbitrator to issue a brief decision approving the settlement of tenure charges and explaining why the arbitrator is approving the terms of settlement.

The parties' settlement agreement expressly details the basis for resolution. I have thoroughly reviewed and considered the parties' reasons for settlement set forth therein. Having considered the stated reasons in conjunction with the issues raised in the Statement of Tenure Charges and the Statement of Evidence filed by the Petitioner and the Response to Tenure Charges filed by the Respondent, I am persuaded that the parties entered the settlement agreement knowingly and willingly and that the terms of the settlement agreement represent a reasonable basis for settlement that will serve the public's interest and are consistent with the public good.

[1] This matter was held in abeyance for a period of time at the Respondent's request due to family/personal medical issues. The District consented to the Respondent's request which was granted by the Director of the Office of Controversies and Disputes.

Accordingly, and based upon the foregoing, I approve the parties' settlement agreement.

Accordingly, and based upon the foregoing, I approve the parties' settlement agreement.

Dated: May 2, 2019
Sea Girt, New Jersey

Robert C. Gifford

State of New Jersey }
County of Monmouth }ss:

On this 2nd day of May, 2019, before me personally came and appeared Robert C. Gifford to me known and known to me to be the individual described in and who executed the foregoing instrument and he acknowledged to me that he executed same.

Linda L Gifford
Notary Public
Expires 1-10-21

WEINER LAW GROUP LLP
629 Parsippany Road
P.O. Box 438
Parsippany, New Jersey 07054-0438
Phone: (973) 403-1100 Fax: (973) 403-0010
Attorneys for the
Paulsboro Board of Education

IN THE MATTER OF THE TENURE CHARGES AGAINST APRIL LOWERY,	BEFORE THE COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION, NEW JERSEY DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION
	AGENCY DKT. NO.: 246-9/18
	BEFORE ROBERT C. GIFFORD, ESQ. ARBITRATOR
BY THE PAULSBORO BOARD OF EDUCATION, GLOUCESTER COUNTY, NEW JERSEY.	TENURE HEARING
	SEPARATION FROM EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT AND RELEASE

This Separation from Employment Agreement and Release ("Agreement") is effective as of the 1st day of May, 2019 (the "Effective Date"), by and between the Paulsboro Board of Education ("Board") and April Lowery ("Ms. Lowery" or "Employee").

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, the Board is a body politic and corporate, organized and existing by virtue of the laws of the State of New Jersey, N.J.S.A. 18A:11-1, which is entrusted with maintaining and conducting the public schools of said school district; and

WHEREAS, the Board has its administrative offices located at 662 N Delaware Street, Paulsboro, New Jersey 08066; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Lowery, a tenured teacher, employed by the Board, has her current address located at 214 Loring Court, Sewell, New Jersey 08080; and

WHEREAS, on or about August 27, 2018, Dr. Laurie Bandlow, Superintendent of Schools, filed Sworn Tenure Charges against Ms. Lowery, together with a Sworn Statement of Evidence in support of the charges, with the Paulsboro Board of Education; and

WHEREAS, on or about September 24, 2018, the Paulsboro Board of Education passed a resolution certifying the Sworn Tenure Charges against Ms. Lowery to the Commissioner of Education; and

WHEREAS, the parties, wishing to resolve the tenure charges presently pending against Ms. Lowery (including all claims for excessive absenteeism and misconduct as set forth herein) without the need for further litigation, hereby stipulate to settle the same, subject to the terms and conditions as set forth herein; and Ms. Lowery intends to, and by executing this Agreement, hereby does irrevocably resign effective June 30, 2019; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Lowery has submitted an irrevocable letter of resignation; and

NOW, THEREFORE, the parties hereby agree, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises contained herein, the legal sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, as follows:

1. IRREVOCABLE RESIGNATION

Ms. Lowery shall be returned to the active payroll effective May 1, 2019 through June 30, 2019, although she will remain on sick leave with pay and medical benefits. Ms. Lowery has tendered her irrevocable resignation effective June 30, 2019, from all employment with the Board, subject only to the Board's fulfillment of its obligations as set forth herein. See Attachment A.

Ms. Lowery agrees that she will not seek any future employment or consultant relationship with the Board in perpetuity and that the Board has no obligation, contractual or otherwise, to re-hire or re-employ her.

If Ms. Lowery decides to apply for a disability retirement, the Board agrees to cooperate with regard to that application. The Board further acknowledges that, while it has alleged that Ms. Lowery had excessive absences, it had not and does not allege that she otherwise misused her sick time.

2. TENURE CHARGES TO BE MOOT/NO FURTHER BOARD ACTION

The Board agrees that upon execution of the within Agreement by the parties and Ms. Lowery's fulfillment of the obligations as set forth herein, that:

(a) the subject tenure charges shall be moot and shall be deemed to be withdrawn, and that no further action shall be initiated by the Board regarding the underlying charges (including all claims for excessive absenteeism).

(b) the Board shall not and would not pursue misconduct charges against Ms. Lowery due to the nature of the IAIU Report, the fact that the student did not exhibit any manifestations of harm, the conclusion of the IAIU report that the allegations of neglect/risk of harm were not established, the inconvenience to students and their families to testify, and disruption to Paulsboro School District operations.

The Board fully reserves all rights in the event this Agreement is breached by Ms. Lowery, as well as with respect to any third party claims that may be made against the Board as a result of any acts and/or omissions by Ms. Lowery during her employment with the Board.

3. RELEASE

In exchange for the above consideration, Ms. Lowery, her heirs and assigns hereby irrevocably and unconditionally waive, release and forever discharge any and all claims or rights, whether known or unknown, which they have or may have against the Board, personally and officially, individually and collectively, its past and present Board members, all officers and administrators, its attorneys, agents and employees, personally and officially, as well as their successors, and assigns, including, but not limited to any and all claims for attorneys' fees, back pay or front pay, any claims for emotional distress or pain and suffering, any and all claims involving tax liability stemming from this Agreement, and any and all claims arising under any federal, state or local ordinance, regulation or law including, but not limited to, the New Jersey and Federal Constitutions; Title VII of the Civil Rights Acts of 1871 and 1991; the Americans with Disabilities Act; the Age Discrimination in Employment Act; the Older Workers Benefit Protection Act of 1990; the Employee Retirement Income Security Act; the Federal Family and Medical Leave Act; the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act; the Fair Labor Standards Act; the Equal Pay Act; the Workers' Adjustment and Retraining Notification Act; the New Jersey Law Against Discrimination; the New Jersey Family Leave Act; the New Jersey Conscientious Employee Protection Act; the New Jersey Wage and Hour Law; the Employer-Employee Relations Act; any collective negotiations agreement; any common law claim and any and all other claims, that could be initiated in any venue, for harassment, discrimination or retaliation of any kind, breach of promise, misrepresentation, negligence, fraud, estoppel, defamation, violation of public policy, wrongful or constructive discharge, or any other tort, contractual or quasi-contractual claim.

Specifically exempted from this release are any claims arising under the Workers' Compensation Act, N.J.S.A. 34:15-1 et seq. Ms. Lowery represents that as of the date of this Agreement, she has not filed and does not intend to file a Workers' Compensation claim.

It is expressly understood that the arrangement herein is predicated exclusively upon the special circumstances of this matter and shall not be construed to represent any policy or procedure of the Board.

4. NO ADMISSIONS

This Agreement is entered into solely for the purpose of resolving certain issues related to Ms. Lowery's employment, and that neither the execution, delivery, nor performance of this Agreement, nor Ms. Lowery's resignation, shall constitute or be construed at any time or for any purpose to be an admission of liability or wrongdoing by any of the parties; and the parties further agree that neither this Agreement nor Ms. Lowery's irrevocable resignation shall be used as evidence in any judicial, administrative, or quasi-judicial proceeding, except to enforce the terms of said Agreement.

5. COMPENSATION/BENEFITS

As set forth in paragraph 1 above, Ms. Lowery shall be returned to the active payroll effective May 1, 2019 through June 30, 2019, although she will remain on sick leave, with pay and medical benefits. However, Ms. Lowery shall be reimbursed by the Board for her out-of-pocket COBRA payments, which she made during the time she was suspended without pay. Ms. Lowery shall also receive back pay from November 15, 2018 through April 30, 2019, subject to normal deductions.

Other than said pay and medical benefits, Ms. Lowery shall be entitled to no further compensation, emolument of employment or fringe benefit of any kind from the Board, including, but not limited to, payment for all other emoluments of employment that otherwise may have been due to her as a result of any collective bargaining agreement, contract or Board Policy.

Ms. Lowery shall be entitled to any benefits to which she may be lawfully entitled to under the Workers' Compensation Act or the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1986 ("COBRA"). Ms. Lowery shall have the same COBRA rights as any other former employee of the Board, and shall be solely responsible for any and all costs associated with said COBRA coverage.

During the period of her leave, the Board, Jennifer Johnson, School Business Administrator/Board Secretary and/or designees, shall provide Ms. Lowery with any and all correspondence relating to her pay and/or medical benefits that Ms. Lowery would normally receive and/or have access to if she was an active employee with normal access to same correspondence and information.

Any monies due to Ms. Lowery pursuant to this Agreement will be paid by direct deposit.

6. INQUIRIES/RECOMMENDATION

The Board agrees, through its Administration, to respond to post-employment inquiries regarding Ms. Lowery by providing basic work history such as confirming the dates of Ms. Lowery's employment within the Paulsboro School District, the amount of Ms. Lowery's salary in the final year of her employment, the positions that Ms. Lowery held within the Paulsboro School District, and the date of Ms. Lowery's resignation. However, nothing herein shall be deemed to limit the Board's actions in compliance with the Open Public Records Act, or its obligation to respond fully and accurately to any and all inquiries from State agencies such as, without limitation, the State Division of Pensions and Benefits, Teachers' Pension and Annuity Fund ("TPAF"); the State Department of Education; and the State Board of Examiners and its agents, for example.

Furthermore, in light of P.L. 2018, c.5 § 2, which has commonly been referred to as the "Pass the Trash" law, this shall confirm that the action and/or inaction for which Ms. Lowery was alleged to have done and/or failed to do does not meet the parameters of the "Pass the Trash" law, and the Board shall respond to any inquiries made pursuant to said law in the negative.

The Board shall provide Ms. Lowery with a "neutral" letter of recommendation, if one is requested.

7. NON-DISPARAGEMENT

The parties and their agents shall refrain from public negative comments regarding each other, and each other's employees and/or agents. However, nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to limit the Board and its agents' obligation to provide accurate information in response to legitimate requests for public information, or to provide information requested by various State Agencies and/or their agents.

8. REQUIREMENTS PURSUANT TO N.J.A.C. 6A:3-5.6

A. Both parties have freely consented to the within Agreement, as evidenced by their respective signatures below.

B. Both parties have had the benefit of independent legal counsel and have been fully apprised of their rights and obligations, and have indicated their full understanding and acceptance of same, by their respective signatures below.

C. The within settlement will serve the public interest by avoiding the cost of further litigation guaranteeing the desired result.

D. Ms. Lowery has been advised by her attorney that the Commissioner of Education may refer the within matter to the State Board of Examiners for possible suspension or revocation of her certification(s).

E. The parties agree that nothing in the within Agreement shall restrict access to information or records deemed public by law or result in misrepresentation of the reason for Ms. Lowery's separation from service. The Paulsboro Board of Education and its agents shall cooperate fully and honestly in responding to requests for information from government agencies and in response to requests from the public for information that it is legally required to provide.

9. NO RETALIATION

Neither party shall take retaliatory action of any kind against the other and/or their agents.

10. SURRENDER OF BOARD PROPERTY

A. Ms. Lowery shall surrender all school keys and property in her possession to the Superintendent of Schools or her designee.

B. The Superintendent of Schools shall arrange an appointment for Ms. Lowery to retrieve her personal property, if any, all lesson plans that have been prepared by Ms. Lowery during her employment with the Board, and to retrieve a copy of the 2018-2019 yearbook, which Ms. Lowery has already purchased.

C. Ms. Lowery shall be permitted to obtain copies of emails within her employment email account subject to the terms agreed upon by the parties herein. Specifically, to effectuate, Ms. Lowery shall provide, through her counsel, a list of search terms and dates for which the custodian(s) of such employment email account shall use to collect corresponding emails from Ms. Lowery's employment email account. Same custodian(s) shall produce the results to Ms. Lowery's counsel. Ms. Lowery understands that she shall not be entitled to receive any confidential student, and/or personnel information as it may relate to other employees.

11. BOARD APPROVAL

This Agreement is subject to Board approval. If approved, the Board President is fully authorized to execute this Agreement on behalf of the Board.

12. ASSENT TO TERMS

A. Ms. Lowery hereby acknowledges that she entered into this Agreement with a full understanding of her rights, and that she does so without duress and of her own free will and volition, and that she has consulted with independent legal counsel prior to executing same.

B. Ms. Lowery further acknowledges that she was given the opportunity to fully consider this Agreement for a period of up to twenty-one (21) days and was given seven (7) days from the execution of this document to revoke this Agreement, by delivering written notification to the Weiner Law Group LLP, 629 Parsippany Road, P.O. Box 438, Parsippany, New Jersey 07054-0438. It is understood that if this Agreement is revoked, it will not be effective or enforceable, and Ms. Lowery will not be entitled to the consideration described herein.

Furthermore, it is understood that if this Agreement is revoked and/or not approved by the Commissioner of Education, the subject/underlying tenure charges shall be reinstated and the Board will not be obligated to re-serve Ms. Lowery and/or her attorney with a copy of same but may consider and certify, if it so chooses, said tenure charges at its next Board of Education meeting following said revocation.

13. SUCCESSORS AND ASSIGNS

This Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the parties and their respective successors and assigns.

14. PUBLIC INTEREST

This proposed settlement will serve the public interest because, as a result of Ms. Lowery having tendered her irrevocable letter of resignation, the Board will not have to engage in litigation related to her employment.

15. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matters herein, and supersedes and integrates any and all prior representations, negotiations, discussions, understandings and agreements, whether oral or written. This Agreement shall not be amended, changed or modified except in a writing signed by all parties. Each party acknowledges that neither the other party nor any agent or attorney of the other party has made any promise, representation or warranty whatsoever, express or implied, not contained in this Agreement to induce it to execute this Agreement.

16. SEVERABILITY

In the event that a court or agency of competent jurisdiction shall deem any part of this Agreement to be contrary to law, then the remaining portions of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect, except that the provisions of Paragraph 1 hereinabove shall be deemed to be material and of the essence of this Agreement. Should the provisions set forth in Paragraph 1 be compromised, then the entire Agreement shall be deemed to be null and void and the Board shall be free to proceed with appropriate disciplinary action, up to and including the further prosecution of Tenure Charges.

17. COUNTERPARTS

This Agreement may be executed simultaneously in two (2) or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original and all of which, when taken together, constitute one and the same document. The signature of any party to any counterpart shall be deemed a signature to, and may be appended to, any other counterpart.

18. GOVERNING LAW

This Agreement and all provisions hereof shall be governed by and construed under the laws of the State of New Jersey.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the signatures and/or seals of the parties or their duly authorized representatives have been set forth on the dates indicated below:

APRIL LOWERY

Dated: April 29, 2019

Witness:

Dated: April 29, 2019

For the Paulsboro Board of Education:

JOSEPH L. LISA
Board President

Dated: April 29, 2019

Witness:

JENNIFER JOHNSON
School Business Admin./Board Secretary

Dated: April 29, 2019

Attachment A

Irrevocable Letter of Resignation

Paulsboro Board of Education
c/o Jennifer Johnson, School Business Administrator/Board Secretary
662 N Delaware Street
Paulsboro, New Jersey 07045

Re: Irrevocable Letter of Resignation

Dear Ladies and Gentlemen:

Subject to the terms and conditions of our Employment Separation Agreement and Release ("Agreement"), and approval of same by the Paulsboro Board of Education ("Board"), I hereby tender my irrevocable letter of resignation effective June 30, 2019 from all employment with the Board.

Very truly yours,

April Lowery

APRIL LOWERY

115-19

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Decision

Antoine Gayles,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Hillside, Union County,

Respondent.

Synopsis

Petitioner – who is currently on involuntary paid administrative leave – sought reinstatement to his position as Superintendent of Schools in the respondent Board's school district. Petitioner initially filed a motion for emergent relief which was denied by the Commissioner on March 18, 2019. The Commissioner's decision denying emergent relief directed that the matter "shall continue at the OAL with such proceedings as the parties and the ALJ deem necessary to bring it to closure."

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: a telephone conference between the parties was convened following the Commissioner's March 18th denial of the motion for emergent relief for the purpose of determining whether further proceedings are necessary to bring this matter to closure; counsel for both parties agreed at that time that the motion for emergent relief was concluded and that the matter was therefore moot. The ALJ concluded in his Initial Decision that the denial of the request for emergent relief rendered the entire matter moot, and recommended dismissal of the petition with prejudice.

Upon review, the Commissioner rejected the Initial Decision and remanded the matter to the OAL for further proceedings. In so doing, the Commissioner noted, inter alia, that the petitioner still appears to have a dispute with the Board as to his entitlement to the position of Superintendent of Schools, and – though relief was not granted in an emergent manner – the claims alleged in the petition should be addressed at a hearing on the merits. Accordingly, the matter cannot be dismissed as moot.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

May 2, 2019

OAL Dkt. No. EDU 02910-19
Agency Dkt. No. 45-2/19

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Decision

Antoine Gayles,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Hillside, Union County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed, as have the exceptions filed by petitioner pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4, and the Board's reply thereto.[1]

In this matter, petitioner seeks reinstatement to his position as Superintendent of Schools in the respondent's District. Petitioner filed a motion for emergent relief, which the Commissioner denied on March 18, 2019. The matter continued at the OAL, and the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) entered an Initial Decision dismissing the matter as moot.

Petitioner's exceptions do not address the ALJ's finding that this matter is moot, and instead seek to overturn the denial of emergent relief. Such arguments will not be considered, as the Commissioner has already issued a decision denying petitioner's application for emergent relief. The Commissioner notes that the petitioner still appears to have a dispute with the Board as to his entitlement to the position of Superintendent of Schools. Although relief was not granted in an emergent manner, the claims alleged in the petition should be addressed at a hearing on the merits. As such, this matter cannot be dismissed as moot.

[1] Petitioner filed a response to the Board's reply. Such a filing is not contemplated by N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4, so it will not be considered by the Commissioner.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision of the OAL is rejected, and this matter is remanded to the OAL for further proceedings.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 5/02/19
Date of Mailing: 5/02/19

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 02910-19
AGY REF NO. 45-2/19

ANTOINE GAYLES,

Petitioner,

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF HILLSIDE,

Respondent.

William F. Koy, Esq., for Petitioner

Allan C. Roth, Esq., for Respondent (Ruderman & Roth, LLC, attorneys)

Record Closed: March 6, 2019 Decided: March 22, 2019

BEFORE THOMAS R. BETANCOURT, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Petitioner filed a motion for Emergent Relief with the Office of Controversies and Disputes in the New Jersey Department of Education (DOE). The contested matter was transferred to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:6A-12.1, where it was filed on February 28, 2019, to be heard on an emergent basis.

Petitioner seeks reinstatement to his position as Superintendent of Schools in the Respondent school district. Petitioner is currently on involuntary paid administrative leave.

The District filed a motion for declaratory ruling with the Commissioner of DOE on March 1, 2019, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-2.1. By letter to the undersigned dated March 5, 2019, counsel for the District requested that declaratory ruling motion be consolidated with the within matter. That request cannot be considered at the present time as the Commissioner has not transferred the matter to the OAL.

The motion for emergent relief was heard on March 6, 2019. By Order dated March 6, 2019, the undersigned denied the motion for emergent relief. The Commissioner of Education issued a Final Decision, adopting the Order entered by the undersigned and stated in said Final Decision: "This matter shall continue at the OAL with such proceedings as the parties and the ALJ deem necessary to bring it to closure."

Accordingly, a telephone conference was convened on March 20, 2019 to discuss what further proceedings, if any, might be necessary. Counsel for Petitioner and Respondent agreed that the motion for emergent relief was concluded and that the matter is now moot.

LEGAL ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSION

In Betancourt v. Trinitas Hosp.,[i] 415 N.J. Super. 301, 08, the New Jersey Supreme Court defines mootness as follows:

"We first set forth the principles that inform a consideration of claims of mootness. Mootness is a threshold justiciability determination rooted in the notion that judicial power is to be exercised only when a party is immediately threatened with harm. Jackson v. Dep't of Corr. 335 N.J. Super. 227, 231, 227, 762 A.2d 255 (App.Div.

[i] The litigants in this matter are not related to the undersigned.

2000), certif. denied, 167 N.J. 630, 772 A.2d 932 (2001). "A case is technically moot when the original issue presented has been resolved, at least concerning the parties who initiated the litigation." DeVesa v. Dorsey, 134 N.J. 420, 428, 634 A.2d 493 (1993) (Pollock, J., concurring) (citing Oxfeld v. N.J. State Bd. of Educ., 68 N.J. 301,303, 344 A.2d. 769 (1975)). To restate, "'an issue is "moot" when the decision sought in a matter, when rendered, can have no practical effect on the existing controversy.'" (citations omitted).

As the denial of the request for relief has rendered the matter moot there is no further proceedings necessary to bring this matter to closure.

Based upon the foregoing, I CONCLUDE that the instant matter is moot and should be DISMISSED with prejudice.

ORDER

It is hereby ORDERED that the above captioned matter is DISMISSED with prejudice.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

March 22, 2019
DATE

THOMAS R. BETANCOURT, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: March 22, 2019

Date Mailed to Parties: March 22, 2019

117-19E

OAL Dkt. No. EDU 10265-15
Agency Dkt. No. 144-6/15

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Order on Emergent Relief

G.S. and C.S., on behalf of minor child, D.S.,

Petitioners,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Holland, Hunterdon County,

Respondent.

The record of this emergent matter, the sound recording of proceedings at the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), and the recommended Order of the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) have been reviewed. Upon such review, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ – for the reasons thoroughly set forth in the recommended Order – that petitioner has failed to demonstrate entitlement to emergent relief pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6 and Crowe v. DeGioia, 90 N.J. 126 (1982).

Accordingly, the recommended Order of the OAL denying petitioner's application for emergent relief is adopted for the reasons expressed therein. This matter shall continue at the OAL with such proceedings as the parties and ALJ deem necessary to bring it to closure.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 5/02/19
Date of Mailing: 5/06/19

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

ORDER ON MOTION
FOR EMERGENT RELIEF
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 10265-15
AGENCY DKT. NO. 144-6/15

G.S. AND C.S., ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILD, D.S.,
Petitioner,
v.
TOWNSHIP OF HOLLAND,
HUNTERDON COUNTY
Respondent.

Philip E. Stern, Esq., for petitioners (DiFrancesco, Bateman, Kunzman, Davis, Lehrer and Flaum, P.C., attorneys)

Stefani C. Schwartz, Esq., for respondent (Weiner Law Group, LLP, attorneys)

BEFORE PATRICIA M. KERINS, ALJ:

In this matter petitioners, G.S. and C.S., on behalf of minor child, D.S., challenge the transportation decision of respondent Holland Township Board of Education (Holland) regarding the bus stop assigned to their daughter. By way of this motion for emergent relief petitioners seek an order for requiring respondents to provide a bus stop at petitioners' home, effective immediately, pending the completion of construction on nearby County Route 519.

The underlying petition in this matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) on July 14, 2015, for hearing as a contested case by the Office of Controversies and Disputes of the New Jersey Department of Education. Testimony was taken on fourteen (14) days and related hearings on legal and evidentiary issues were held on several other days. During most of the litigation petitioners appeared pro se. Post hearing submissions on the case in chief, as well as exhibits, are scheduled to be filed within the next month followed by a closing of the record. This emergent matter was filed with the OAL on April 16, 2019 and oral argument, held on April 18, 2019.

Factual Discussion

G.S. and C.S., along with their adopted granddaughter D.S., reside on Shire Road in the District within a mandatory busing zone. Their home has a turnaround drive in the front of the property. D.S. is currently attending fourth grade at Holland Township School in the respondent's K-8 district. Over twenty years ago petitioners filed a similar petition on behalf of their minor children at that time, seeking a bus stop at their home. In that matter Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) Metzger ruled on behalf of petitioners and made findings regarding safety and the road conditions at issue, a decision upheld by the then State Board of Education after a reversal by the Commissioner of Education. (See Exhibit C-1). In this matter respondents do not challenge ALJ Metzger's findings regarding road conditions[1] but take the position that the District only has the responsibility to provide safe conditions at the assigned bus stop and bears no responsibility for safety considerations from the child's home to the bus stop.

In a factual change from the prior litigation the District now contracts its bus service to the regional high school district to which it sends its students, Delaware Valley Regional (Delaware Valley). Testimony in the case in chief here showed that respondent works with Delaware Valley to determine the routes for its students. Unlike the prior matter, the size of a bus required to navigate Shire Road was not in dispute, as testimony from Delaware Valley showed that it was capable of providing whatever size bus a given route required. Currently respondent has provided a bus stop for D.S. at the intersection of Shire Road and Anderson Road. Her home is approximately a one-half mile from the bus stop, along a stretch of road with no sidewalks or shoulder. The bus stop also serves a number of other children from the area who are provided mandatory bus service. As referenced in ALJ Metzger's opinion, as well as in numerous days of testimony, Shire Road presents significant safety issues for a child walking along it.

[1] The parties were advised that where relevant ALJ Metzger's factual findings regarding the roads at issue would be cited in this matter as the parties agreed that there were no material changes to those roads and their condition.

On March 6, 2019, construction began near petitioners' home on County Route 519, closing it until completion of the project in October 2019. Route 519 is the major north south route through rural Holland Township. Petitioners allege that as a result of this construction, a high volume of traffic has been diverted to Shire Road and D.S. faces increased danger if she is required to walk to and from the bus stop. As set forth in exhibits submitted by the parties, Shire Road is not an approved detour route for the construction, however, the speed limit has been reduced during construction. Although local police are not ticketing motorists for using Shire Road and other local roads as "pass throughs" during construction, they are enforcing the reduced speed limits. Petitioner G.S., through his certification, submits that the increased traffic on Shire Road, including large trucks, has caused Shire Road to be an even more dangerous road for D.S. to navigate, requiring the issuance of emergent relief.

Legal Discussion

The standard for emergent relief is set forth in Crowe v. De Goia, 90 N.J. 126, 132-134 (1982) and codified in N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.6. Emergent relief may be granted if the requesting party demonstrates:

> i. The petitioner will suffer irreparable harm if the requested relief is not granted;
>
> ii. The legal right underlying the petitioner's claim is settled;

> iii. The petitioner has a likelihood of prevailing on the merits of the underlying claim; and
>
> iv. When the equities and interests of the parties are balanced, the petitioner will suffer greater harm than the respondent will suffer if the requested relief is not granted.
>
> [Crowe, 90 N.J. 126 at 132-134.]

Petitioners, as the moving party, bear the burden of proving each of the elements for emergent relief "clearly and convincingly". Waste Management of N.J. v. Union County Util. Auth., 399 N.J. Super. 508, 520 (App. Div. 2008).

I. Irreparable Harm

Harm is considered irreparable if it cannot be redressed adequately by monetary damages. Crowe, 90 N.J. 126 at 132-33. The inadequacy of monetary damages depends on the "nature of the injury or the right affected." Ibid. In certain circumstances, severe personal inconvenience can constitute irreparable harm. Ibid. However, a possibility of a remote future injury or a future invasion of rights will not satisfy the irreparable harm standard. Continental Group, Inc. v. Amoco Chemicals, 614 F.2d 351, 359 (3d Cir. 1980).

In this emergent matter petitioners have not shown that D.S. will suffer irreparable harm if the requested relief is not granted. Petitioners' main argument is that D.S. will face increased danger due to the recent construction if the school continues to force her to walk to and from the bus stop. Specifically, they state that Holland Township acknowledged the increase in danger because officials have reduced the speed limit on Shire Road. In turn, respondent argues that the school district is not "requiring D.S. to walk on Shire Road to get to and from her assigned bus stop . . .[t]here are various ways for D.S. to get to and from her bus stop." Although the construction on County Route 519 has changed traffic conditions on Shire Road, petitioners have not shown that D.S. will suffer irreparable harm as they have not shown that D.S. currently walks the half mile along Shire Road to get to her assigned bus stop. Petitioners' brief consistently implies that D.S. walks to and from the bus stop, but it is never stated that D.S. actually walks to the bus stop. See generally Petitioners' Emergent Motion. Furthermore, speculating that D.S. might face "possible physical harm while walking to and from her assigned bus stop" does not constitute an immediate injury that satisfies the irreparable harm standard. Thus, petitioners have failed to establish irreparable harm.

II. Right to Underlying Claim Must be Settled

Addressing the next prong in the Crowe standard, emergent relief "should be withheld when the legal right underlying plaintiff's claim is unsettled." Crowe, 90 N.J. at 133. A New Jersey school district is responsible for ensuring "the safe and efficient transportation of students to and from school and school-related activities." N.J.A.C. 6A:27-1.2; see also N.J.S.A. 18A:39-1. School districts have broad discretion with respect to selection of bus routes and placement of bus stops, and the Commissioner will not interfere with a district's decision unless it is arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable. Nielson v. Bd. of Educ. of the Morris Hills Regional Sch. Dist., EDU 3936-98, Initial Decision (April 4, 2000), http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/html/initial/edu3936-98_1.html.

Although unsafe conditions, such as the absence of safe walkways, is the responsibility of the municipality, a school district may not "turn a blind eye to such situations when establishing school bus stops." R.D. and V.D. o/b/o C.D. v. Bernards Twp. Bd. of Educ., 96 N.J.A.R.2d (EDU) 481; see also T.F.S. o/b/o J.R.S. v. Bd. of Educ. of South Brunswick Twp., EDU 10118-05, Initial Decision (June 29, 2006), http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/html/initial/edu10118-05_1.html (holding that school districts have a duty to provide its walking students with a safe walk route); Nichols v. Wayne Twp. Bd. of Educ., 93 N.J.A.R.2d (EDU) 701 (Comm'r Sept. 3, 1993), adopted 94 N.J.A.R.2d 277 (St. Bd. Feb. 2, 1994), aff'd 95 N.J.A.R.2d (EDU) 157, No. A-3526-93T5 (N.J. App. Div. March 3, 1995), certif. den. 142 N.J 449 (1995) (the Appellate Division agreed that it was unsafe for a child to be required to walk on the wrong side of the road or to ignore crosswalks.). Student safety is one factor to be considered in assessing whether the Board acted reasonably in selecting a bus stop location, and whether a stop is safe depends upon the surrounding facts of each case. Nielson (citing Wayne Twp. Bd. of Educ. v. Kraft, 139 N.J. 597, 602-604 (1995); see also Shrewsbury v. Holland Twp. Bd. of Educ., 96 N.J.A.R.2d (EDU) 795 (Comm'r June 21, 1996), rev'd 97 N.J.A.R.2d (EDU) 416 (St. Bd. April 2, 1997) (the State Board of Education held that a school board's refusal to extend minibus service to a child's home was arbitrary and capricious under the circumstances because the winding road with no shoulder or sidewalks was dangerous for a child to walk between home and the bus stop, and petitioners had offered to alleviate any financial or safety burden to the district by constructing a turnaround on their property at their own expense.).

As set forth above, case law supports the proposition that a school district is responsible for the safety of its students at both a bus stop and the route taken to get to the stop, and the district must take that into account when establishing bus stop locations.

III. Likelihood of Prevailing on the Merits of the Underlying Claim

Under the third emergent relief standard, "a plaintiff must make a preliminary showing of a reasonable probability of ultimate success on the merits." Crowe, 90 N.J. at 133. This typically "involves a prediction of the probable outcome of the case based on each party's initial proofs, usually limited to documents." Brown v. City of Paterson, 424 N.J. Super. 176, 182-83 (App.Div.2012) (quoting Rinaldo v. RLR Inv., LLC, 387 N.J. Super. 387, 397 (App.Div.2006)).

As stated above, student safety is one factor to be considered in assessing whether a Board of Education acted reasonably in selecting a bus stop location, and whether a stop is safe depends upon the surrounding facts of each individual case. Nielson v. Bd. of Educ. of the Morris Hills Regional Sch. Dist., EDU 3936-98, Initial Decision (April 4, 2000), http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/html/initial/edu3936-98_1.html.

Petitioners previously prevailed in similar litigation challenging the same bus stop and seeking the same relief. As noted earlier, in Shrewsbury v. Holland Twp. Bd. of Educ., 96 N.J.A.R.2d (EDU) 795 (Comm'r June 21, 1996), rev'd 97 N.J.A.R.2d (EDU) 416 (St. Bd. April 2, 1997), the same petitioners argued that Shire Road was dangerous for their two children to navigate to get to the school assigned bus stop located at the intersection of Shire Road and Anderson Road. Petitioners requested the bus stop at their home on Shire Road and even volunteered to construct a turnaround on their property, at their own expense for the minibus. The same respondent argued that it was hazardous for a bus to travel down Shire Road because of the hills and rejected petitioners' offer to construct a turnaround. ALJ Metzger concluded that respondent's decision not to extend service to petitioners' home was arbitrary and capricious because "[it] is undisputed that it is dangerous for children to walk along Shire Road, particularly in the area approaching the crest of the hill . . ."

The likelihood of success on the merits of the present case turns on the petitioners' ability to show that the Board acted arbitrarily, capriciously, or unreasonably. In the underlying case, both parties concede that conditions on Shire Road are the same as described in ALJ Metzger's prior decision. Petitioners have again offered their turnaround if necessary to eliminate the safety hazard of having their granddaughter walk along the road.

Respondent argues that although the conditions on Shire Road have not changed, other factors like the size of the bus currently in use and the identity of the service provider alter the analysis. However, there is nothing in the record to support a finding that a full size bus cannot travel down Shire Road or that it would be overly burdensome to utilize a minibus. In fact, witnesses for respondent testified that a minibus could be assigned to this stop. It should also be noted that while respondent disavows any responsibility for safety issues for children on mandatory busing routes except for the provision of a safe bus stop, it factors safety considerations into the construction of routes for its courtesy busing program. As such, petitioners have established a likelihood of success on the merits of the underlying claim.

IV. Relative Hardship to the Parties

As to the fourth and final Crowe criterion, petitioners argue that the balance of the equities turns in their favor because relocating the bus stop to a safe location for D.S. would not create a financial burden to the Board. Petitioners also state that the increased traffic on Shire Road poses a serious safety threat to D.S. who must walk the "narrow and winding road," with no shoulder or sidewalk, in order to get to the stop. In response respondent argues that the Board would sustain more harm than the petitioners as the bus on the current route is too large to travel to petitioners' home and granting emergent relief would impact other existing bus routes and stops. The Board further argues that granting petitioners' relief would "essentially compel the Board to provide door-to-door service to every parent or guardian who complains they are adversely impacted by the County Route 519 construction project." Since there has been no showing that D.S. currently walks the one-half mile to the assigned bus stop, the hardship of the parties essentially amounts to respondent's inconvenience of sending a bus down Shire Road and petitioners' inconvenience of driving D.S. to the bus stop. As there are merits on both sides, the parties' situations are in equipoise. It is noted however that given changing traffic conditions a review of affected bus routes in conjunction with local polices would be advisable.

CONCLUSION

While petitioners may ultimately succeed on the merits of the underlying case, they are not entitled to emergent relief as they have not met their burden on each of the four Crowe criteria.

ORDER

Based upon the foregoing, it is hereby ORDERED that petitioners' request for emergency relief for a bus stop at their home during the construction on County Route 519 is DENIED.

This order on application for emergency relief may be adopted, modified or rejected by COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who/which by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. The final decision shall be issued without undue delay, but no later than forty-five days following the entry of this order. If COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION does not adopt, modify or reject this order within forty-five days, this recommended order shall become a final decision on the issue of emergent relief in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Patricia M. Kerins

April 26, 2019
DATE

PATRICIA M. KERINS, ALJ

PMK/mel

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Amanda Hersh Luterzo,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Borough of Cresskill, Bergen County,

Respondent.

Synopsis

The petitioner – a tenured teacher employed in the respondent Board's school district prior to a Reduction in Force (RIF) – appealed the determination of the Board not to offer her employment for the 2016-17 school year, alleging that her tenure rights were violated. Petitioner holds a standard New Jersey Instructional Certificate with an endorsement as a Teacher of Business: Finance/ Economics/Law; in addition to teaching high school business, marketing, and business law courses, petitioner had taught Grade 6 Computer Technology during the 2013-14 and 2015-16 school years, and Grade 7 Computer Technology in the 2014-15 school year. In June 2016, petitioner was "bumped" from her high school business teaching position for the 2016-17 school year by a more senior tenured teacher, whose position had been abolished in the RIF; petitioner was terminated as of June 30, 2016, and placed on a preferred eligibility list for reemployment. The controversy herein relates to the assignment of Grades 6 and 8 Computer Technology classes for the 2016-17 school year – to which petitioner claims entitlement – to a non-tenured art teacher, rather than to petitioner. The Board contended that its actions were consistent with applicable law and regulation. The parties filed opposing motions for summary decision.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: there are no material facts at issue in this case, and the matter is ripe for summary decision; petitioner acquired tenure under her standard instructional certificate, and the protections afforded thereby encompass not only those classes she is authorized to teach within the scope of her Teacher of Business endorsement, but also those that she is authorized to teach within the scope of her standard instructional certificate pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-5.17, including the middle school Computer Technology courses she taught prior to the RIF; as such, the Board violated petitioner's tenure rights by failing to employ her to teach those classes during the 2016-17 school year and instead assigning them to a non-tenured art and graphic design teacher. Accordingly, the ALJ granted petitioner's motion for summary decision, denied the Board's cross motion for summary decision, and ordered the Board to compensate petitioner for any salary and benefits lost, and to credit her for any seniority credit lost during the 2016-17 school year.

Upon comprehensive review, the Commissioner concurred with the ALJ's findings and conclusions as thoroughly set forth in the Initial Decision. Accordingly, the recommended decision of the OAL was adopted as the final decision in this matter; summary judgment was granted in favor of the petitioner, and the Board was ordered to compensate petitioner for salary and benefits lost, and credit her for seniority she would have accrued during the 2016-17 school year.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

May 13, 2019

121-19

OAL Dkt. No. EDU 10002-16
Agency Dkt. No. 162-6/16

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Amanda Hersh Luterzo,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Borough of Cresskill, Bergen County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed, as have the exceptions filed by the Board pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4, and the petitioner's reply thereto.

In this matter, petitioner alleges that the Board violated her tenure rights when it did not offer her employment for the 2016-17 school year. Petitioner – who began teaching in the District in 2012 and earned tenure in September 2015 – has a standard New Jersey Instructional Certificate with an endorsement as a Teacher of Business: Finance/Economics/Law. In addition to teaching high school business, marketing, and business law courses, she taught Grade 6 Computer Technology in the 2013-14 and 2015-16 school years and Grade 7 Computer Technology in the 2014-15 school year. In June 2016, the Board abolished the position of School Testing Coordinator and the person vacating that position replaced petitioner as the high school business teacher for the 2016-17 school year. Petitioner was terminated effective June 30, 2016 and placed on a preferred eligibility list. For the 2016-17 school year, a non-tenured art teacher was assigned to teach Computer Technology 6 and 8 in addition to the art classes that she taught.

Petitioner filed an appeal with the Department of Education, alleging that her tenure rights extended to the computer technology classes and that the Board violated her rights by employing a non-tenured teacher to teach those classes. The Administrative Law Judge granted summary decision to petitioner, concluding that petitioner's standard instructional certificate extends to Computer Technology 6 and 8, and therefore the Board violated her tenure rights by failing to employ her to teach those classes during the 2016-17 school year. The ALJ further concluded that the Board should compensate petitioner for any salary and benefits lost, and credit her for any seniority credit lost for the 2016-17 school year.

The Board takes exception to the ALJ's finding that petitioner is afforded tenure protections not only to the classes she is authorized to teach under her Business: Finance/Economics/Law endorsement, but also to those classes she is authorized to teach under the scope of her standard instructional certificate. The Board argues that there is no legal support for the ALJ's expansive view of tenure protections as the cases cited in the Initial Decision only hold that a tenured staff member has tenure protections over any position within the scope of his or her endorsements. As such, the Board contends that tenure only adheres to positions under a teacher's endorsements and not to general positions. The Board explains that otherwise, districts would have to "create a seniority list of every instructional certificated employee and would effectively limit the superintendent's managerial prerogative to determine schedules and assign those teachers he considers more proficient in the use of educational technologies, computers, and other digital tools to teach these courses." (Board's Exceptions at 14) The Board argues that, pursuant to Kathi Savarse v. Board of Education of the Borough of Bernardsville, 1990

S.L.D. 1541, tenure and seniority rights do not attach to courses that do not require a particular endorsement; as no particular endorsement is required to teach middle school computer technology, the superintendent may choose any teacher to teach those courses. Further, the Board contends that it should not be required to create a four-tenth position for a subject that does not require an endorsement, because if an endorsement is not required, then petitioner has no entitlement to teach those courses. As such, the Board finds the ALJ's conclusion that petitioner's instructional certificate authorizes her to teach computer classes to be erroneous.

Additionally, the Board contends that – following amendments to the regulations in December 2015 – N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-5.17(b) no longer permits the chief school administrator to assign petitioner to the computer classes because keyboarding and word processing are not considered "educational technology." Instead, these classes now require an endorsement pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-9.4. As petitioner failed to maintain the appropriate business endorsement under N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-9.4, which would have authorized her to provide keyboarding and word processing instruction, she is no longer qualified to teach these computer courses. The Board also takes exception to the ALJ's interpretation that N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-9.4 only requires endorsements for grade 9-12 CTE programs, arguing that N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-9.4 requires that teachers in K-12 hold one of the business endorsements to teach courses in keyboarding or word processing. The Board argues that the ALJ is also using an erroneous standard in applying the CTE definition in determining that an endorsement is not required to teach middle school computer technology. The ALJ found that the middle school computer technology courses do not meet the CTE definition as they do not reflect "rigorous content", "occupation specific skills", or "relevant technical knowledge and skills needed to prepare for further education and careers in current or emerging professions." (Initial Decision at 21)

However, N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-9.4(a) is not limited to approved CTE programs. Instead, the seven business endorsements listed in N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-9.4(a) require teachers to be authorized in the subject matters – including keyboarding and word processing – when teaching the subjects in grades K-12. As petitioner is not qualified to teach the computer courses, the Board requests that the Commissioner deny petitioner's claim of entitlement for the two middle school computer technology classes in the 2016-17 school year.

In reply, petitioner agrees with the ALJ that tenure rights may extend beyond the scope of a teacher's endorsement and include all courses within a tenured teacher's instructional certificate when a specific endorsement is not mandated to teach the class. Petitioner cites Jane Fox v. Board of Education of the Morris School District, 93 N.J.R. 2d (EDU) 139 (January 11, 1993). In that case, the Commissioner held that a tenured teacher was entitled to teach three class periods of academic support over a non-tenured teacher, "insofar as no particular endorsement was required" for the assignment. Id. at 143. Accordingly, petitioner maintains that her tenure rights entitle her to teach computer technology over a non-tenured teacher, even though no specific instructional endorsement is required to teach it.

Petitioner argues that nothing in N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-9.4 bars the teaching of general computer skills by those without specific computer-related endorsements. Petitioner explains that the endorsements in N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-9.4 qualify teachers to teach highly technical subjects; while those technical endorsements may also include rudimentary subjects, it does not preclude teachers with no specific computer endorsement from also teaching those basic subjects, as N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-5.17 indicates that an endorsement is not required to deliver instruction in educational technology, computers, and other digital tools. Petitioner points out that the purpose of N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-5.17 is to enable more teachers to provide educational technology instruction, as computer literacy is "crucial to modern learning in all disciplines," and there are not enough teachers with computer-specific endorsements to meet the need. If the Board's interpretation were correct, N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-5.17 would be pointless because every basic computer class – like Computer Technology 6 and 8 – would require a teacher with a Business Keyboarding and Data Entry endorsement. Petitioner further contends that the Board's argument is disingenuous as it assigned the computer classes to an Art and Design Teacher who did not have a computer-specific endorsement. (Petitioner's Reply Exceptions at 7).

Petitioner distinguishes the cases cited by the Board by emphasizing that, unlike those cases where regulations required additional qualifications to teach certain classes, there is no such regulation requiring a computer-specific endorsement to teach middle school computer technology. Petitioner contends that the computer classes at issue are basic computer subjects that virtually every middle school student must take – not business courses or technical in nature. The course descriptions make clear that the courses provide an elementary foundation in computers, which is the purpose behind N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-5.17. Petitioner further argues that, contrary to the Board's argument, this case is not about the need for a seniority list. Petitioner explains that this matter involves the rights of a tenured person to be retained over a non-tenured person, so the issue of seniority does not arise. (Ibid. at 11-12) As such, petitioner urges the Commissioner to adopt the Initial Decision.

Upon review, the Commissioner agrees with the ALJ – for the reasons thoroughly explained in the Initial Decision – that the Board violated petitioner's tenure rights by employing a non-tenured teacher, rather than petitioner, to teach Computer Technology 6 and 8 in the 2016-17 school year. The Commissioner further concurs with the ALJ that, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-5.17, no endorsement is required to teach the middle school computer courses as they cover general, basic computer skills. As such, petitioner's tenure allows her to claim the sixth and eighth grade computer classes over a non-tenured teacher because they fall within the scope of her standard instructional certificate and she taught the courses prior to the reduction in force (RIF).

The Commissioner does not find the Board's exceptions to be persuasive. The Tenure Act, N.J.S.A. 18A:28-1 et seq., "should be liberally construed to achieve its beneficent ends." Spiewak v. Board of Education of Rutherford, 90 N.J. 63, 74 (1982). While seniority comes into play when reductions occur among tenured staff members, "[a] tenured teacher, however, is entitled to retention as against a non-tenured teacher under the tenure law. To hold otherwise would be to defeat the purpose of tenure which was to give a measure of security to teachers after the prescribed number of years of service." Capodilupo v. Board of Education of the Township of West Orange, 218 N.J. Super. 510, 515 (App. Div. 1987). In Fox, supra, the Commissioner found that a tenured teacher was entitled to teach three periods of academic support – which only required a valid teaching certificate – over a non-tenured teacher, noting that "Fox, a tenured teacher, was entitled to the position over nontenured Porcelli insofar as no particular endorsement was required for the three periods he was assigned as a teacher on special assignment." 93 N.J.R. 2d (EDU) at 143. Here, petitioner was a tenured teacher who taught middle school computer classes and was replaced by a non-tenured teacher. Given the liberal construal of the Tenure Act cited in Spiewak, supra, petitioner is entitled to teach these computer courses – which she taught prior to the RIF – as they fall within the scope of her instructional certificate, even though a specific endorsement is not required to teach the classes. Further, contrary to the Board's argument, this matter does not involve the creation of a seniority list; seniority does not arise in this case, as the issue of entitlement here is not between two tenured teachers, but rather between a tenured teacher and a non-tenured teacher.

The Commissioner further disagrees with the Board's argument that N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-5.17 and N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-9.4 require a Business: Keyboarding and Data Entry endorsement in order to teach middle school computer technology. When read together, the regulations imply that an endorsement is required to teach computer courses in CTE programs, which are more complex and technical than basic middle school computer technology classes covering introductory Microsoft Office and keyboarding. If a computer-specific endorsement were required to teach middle school computer technology, then N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-5.17 – which allows teachers to teach "educational technology, computers, and other digital tools" without an endorsement – would be rendered meaningless. The fact that the Board replaced petitioner with an art and graphic design teacher to teach the computer classes further undercuts its argument that a computer-specific endorsement is required.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision of the OAL is adopted as the final decision in this matter. The Board is ordered to compensate petitioner for any salary and benefits lost for the 2016-17 school year, and credit petitioner any seniority credit lost for that time period.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 5/13/19
Date of Mailing: 5/14/19

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to P.L. 2008, c. 36 (N.J.S.A 18A:6-9.1).

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SUMMARY DECISION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 10002-16
AGENCY DKT. NO. 162-6/16

AMANDA HERSH LUTERZO,
Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE BOROUGH OF CRESSKILL, BERGEN COUNTY,
Respondent.

Louis P. Bucceri, Esq., for petitioner (Bucceri and Pincus, attorneys)

Carolyn R. Chaudry, Esq., for respondent (Scarinci & Hollenbeck, attorneys)

Alfred F. Maurice, Esq., for intervenor Amy Grossman (Springstead & Maurice, attorneys)

Record Closed: December 13, 2018 Decided: February 13, 2019

BEFORE KELLY J. KIRK, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner Amanda Hersh Luterzo, a teacher, appeals the determination of respondent, the Board of Education of the Borough of Cresskill, Bergen County (Board), that it would not be offering her employment for the 2016–2017 school year, alleging violation of her tenure and seniority rights, and alleging that failure to adopt a resolution terminating petitioner's employment by name renders the termination null and void.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On or about June 15, 2016, Luterzo filed a Verified Petition with the Commissioner of Education. On or about July 1, 2016, the Board filed an Answer and Affirmative Defenses. On July 7, 2016, the Bureau of Controversies and Disputes (Bureau) of the Department of Education (Department) transmitted the contested case to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), where it was filed on July 8, 2016. By letter dated February 1, 2017, the Board notified three employees of their right to file motions to intervene by February 28, 2017. On February 6, 2017, and on February 12, 2017, notices of appearance and letter requests to intervene were filed on behalf of Megan Berlamino and Amy Grossman, respectively. Berlamino and Grossman were granted leave to intervene.

On November 22, 2017, with the intention of filing cross-motions for summary decision, the parties submitted a joint Stipulation of Facts. On January 25, 2018, petitioner and respondent filed cross-motions for summary decision accompanied by briefs. On February 8, 2018, respondent filed a brief in opposition to petitioner's motion. On February 13, 2018, intervenor Grossman filed a brief in support of respondent's motion. Intervenor Berlamino did not file a brief, and petitioner's brief reflects that "[a]s a result of the completion of discovery, Petitioner abandoned all claims to the work performed by Intervenor Berlamino and she is no longer participating as an Intervenor in this matter." On February 14, 2018, petitioner filed a brief in further support of her motion and in opposition to respondent's motion. Oral argument was held on December 12, 2018.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION AND FINDINGS

Respondent's school district consists of three schools, Bryan School (grades K–5), Merritt Memorial School (grades pre-K–5) and Cresskill Middle/High School (grades 6–12). Petitioner was hired by Board Resolution of May 21, 2012 (J-1) and was continuously employed by respondent as a teacher from September 2012 through June 30, 2016, as follows:

a) 2012–2013, full-time teacher assigned to teach high school Marketing, Introduction to Business, and Business Law;

b) 2013–2014, full-time teacher assigned to teach high school Marketing, Introduction to Business, Business Law, and Grade 6 Computer Technology (Computer Tech. 6);

c) 2014–2015, full-time teacher assigned to teach high school Marketing, Introduction to Business, Business Law, and Grade 7 Computer Technology (Computer Tech. 7); and

d) 2015–2016, full-time teacher assigned to teach high school Marketing, Introduction to Business, Business Law, and Computer Tech. 6.

Petitioner was issued a New Jersey provisional certificate as a Teacher of Business in September 2012, and a standard New Jersey Instructional Certificate endorsed as a Teacher of Business: Finance/Economics/Law in August 2013, after completion of her mentorship. (J-2.)

By virtue of the date of her hiring resolution (J-1), certification (J-2), and term of service in respondent's employ, petitioner achieved tenure as a teacher in respondent's school district as of the first day of school in September 2015.

On March 21, 2016, petitioner was verbally advised that her position would be eliminated for economic reasons, effective June 30, 2016, and that she would not be employed by the Board thereafter.

By resolution of June 27, 2016 (J-3), the respondent abolished the position of School Testing Coordinator and assigned the person vacating that position to be a high-school business teacher, replacing petitioner for the 2016–2017 school year on the basis of the former testing coordinator's superior seniority as a secondary teacher of business. That resolution also authorized the termination of petitioner's employment in the district and her placement on a preferred eligibility list.

For the 2016–2017 school year, the respondent employed the following teacher, among others: Amy Grossman.

Amy Grossman was hired as a teacher by respondent effective September 1, 2014, and continues to be employed to the present. Grossman was a full-time, ten-month teacher from September 1, 2014, through January 31, 2016. Grossman was reduced to an eight-tenths, part-time teacher from February 1, 2016, through June 30, 2016. Grossman returned to full-time status from September 1, 2016, through June 30, 2017. Grossman is not tenured.

Grossman held a provisional certificate as a Teacher of Art (J-4) from February 2013 and received a standard certificate as a Teacher of Art (J-5) in January 2015. Grossman held a provisional certificate as a Teacher of Graphic Design (J-6) from March 2014 and received a standard certificate as a Teacher of Graphic Design (J-7) in January 2015.

During the 2016–2017 school year, Grossman was assigned to teach Web Design/Animation, Mosaics/Ceramics, Design Studio, Computer Tech. 6, and Computer Tech. 8.

During the 2015–2016 school year, petitioner earned gross wages of $54,645 from full-time employment with respondent. If petitioner had been employed full time by respondent for the 2016–2017 school year, she would have earned a gross salary of $55,935. If petitioner had been employed for the 2016–2017 school year, petitioner would have had twenty days of sick leave and four days of personal leave available for use in 2016–2017.

Petitioner gave birth on September 16, 2016. The school year for teachers began on September 1, 2016. She would have returned to work from her child-rearing leave as of January 2, 2017, if she had been re-employed for the 2016–2017 school year. If petitioner had been employed in the four-tenths position being claimed in this matter, after allowing for paid and unpaid leaves for child birth and child-rearing, she would have earned $16,448 in salary for the 2016–2017 school year.

The Computer Tech. 6 Course Description is as follows:

> This course will develop proper communication and keyboarding skills when using technology. Computers are one of the ways in which people communicate globally. There are many careers which require proper keyboarding skills. MS Word is a universal tool used in personal, professional and educational settings. MS Word applications, commands and features can be used to generate quality documents involving complex formatting. There are tools in MS Word to assist in creating professional documents.
>
> [J-6.]

The Computer Tech 6. Syllabus is as follows:

> Course Description:
> Computer Technology 6 class is designed to assist students in becoming better Digital Citizens. Each unit throughout this 8-week cycle includes projects/assignments designed for the sixth grade developmental & proficiency levels. Students will be required to practice a minimum of 30 minutes of keyboarding weekly to develop and assess proper keyboarding habits. Class topics covered will include keyboarding and technology basics, introductory word processing skills and internet ethics/safety. Students will also use communication and collaboration tools within class such as Edmodo.com and Typing.com. Students will create various products using the Microsoft Office Word application.

1. Keyboarding Drills (1–2x weekly)
   - Weekly drills on www.typing.com
   - Weekly progress on weekly increase of speed/accuracy is assessed
   - Educational keyboarding games weekly for additional practice

2. Unit 1: KEYBOARDNG (1.5 weeks)
   a. The keyboard and the home row
      - Teacher presentation
      - Individual student activities
   b. Proper keyboarding positioning and techniques
      - Teacher presentation
      - Individual student activities
   c. History of keyboarding
      - Teacher presentation
      - Individual student activities
   d. Keyboarding in Everyday Life
      - Class discussion
      - Group Projects
   e. End of Unit Assessment

3. Unit 2: Technology basics (2 days)
   a. Various skills taught: Navigating through the computer, saving files, saving and inserting images properly, different file formats, citing your sources
      - Teacher-led activities
      - Student activity

4. Unit 3: Introduction to Word Application (4–5 weeks)
   a. Various skills taught: vocabulary, header, footer, document size, document orientation, columns, margins, formatting (fonts, point size, colors), formatting effects, line spacing, watermarks, page color, tabs, tables, text wrap, hyperlinks, columns, clip art, shapes, drawing, photo editing, drop caps, word art, spelling/grammar, symbols
      i. Teacher-led activities
      ii. Individual student activities
      iii. Alphabet Hieroglyphics Project
      iv. Digital Acrostic Poem Project
      v. Seasonal/Holiday Drawing Project
      vi. All About Me Poster Project
      vii. End of Unit digital assessments

5. Unit 4: Internet Ethics and Safety (2–3 days)

a. Teacher presentation including example real-life video scenarios
b. Group discussions on: Online safety, digital etiquette, cyber bullying, appropriate use, protecting your online reputation, social networking, plagiarism, copyright and fair use, how to conduct effective searches, how to evaluate sites for accuracy
c. Group Project

6. Final Projects (1 week)
   a. These projects should showcase students' application skills to be used to create real-world projects.
      i. Mandatory project (1): Creating your own Restaurant Menu in Word ii. Choice Projects (choose 3 out of 4) Cartoon, timeline, 1-month calendar, seating chart

[J-7.]

The Computer Tech. 8 Course Description is as follows:

Enhancing keyboarding skills is a benefit for life, this course will improve your typing skills by committing to daily typing practice. Correct keyboarding techniques increase the ability to complete tasks efficiently and effectively.
The following programs will be taught:

WORD (Microsoft Office [S]uite)
This is a software program that enables you to perform word processing functions. Word has desktop publishing capabilities and is the most widely used word processing program on the market.

EXCEL (Microsoft Office Suite)
Excel is a spreadsheet application. It features calculation, graphing tools, pivot tables, and a macro programming language called Visual Basic for Applications. It has been a very widely applied spreadsheet for these platforms, since 1993. It is the industry standard for spreadsheets.

POWERPOINT (Microsoft Office Suite)
Power[P]oint is a slide show presentation program. It was officially launched in 1990. PowerPoint is well known for helping develop the slide based presentation format, and is currently one of the most commonly-used presentation programs available.

[J-8.]

The Computer Tech 8. Syllabus is as follows:

Course Description:
Computer Technology 8 class is designed to assist students in becoming better Digital Citizens. Each unit throughout this 8-week cycle includes projects/assignments designed for the eighth grade developmental & proficiency levels. Students will be required to practice a minimum of 30 minutes of keyboarding weekly to develop and assess proper keyboarding habits. Class topics covered will include an advanced level of word processing, spreadsheets, and presentation skills. Students will also use communication and collaboration tools within class such as Edmodo.com and Typing.com. Students will create various products using Microsoft Office, Word, Excel, Power[P]oint applications as well as Google Drive documents, spreadsheets, presentations, drawings, forms, etc. . .

1. Keyboarding Drills (1–2x weekly)
   a. Weekly drills
   b. Weekly progress on speed/accuracy is assessed via www.typing.com
   c. Educational keyboarding games weekly for additional practice

2. Unit 1: Review of Word Applications (1.5 weeks)
   a. Various skills taught: header, footer, document size, document orientation, columns, margins, formatting (fonts, point size, colors), formatting effects, line spacing, watermarks, page color, tabs, tables, text wrap, hyperlinks, columns, clip art, shapes, drawing, photo editing, drop caps, word art, spelling/grammar, symbols
   b. Teacher-led activities
   c. Individual student activities
   d. PROJECT: Zodiac Sign Flyer
   e. End of Unit digital assessment

3. Unit 2: Review of Excel Application (1.5 weeks)
   a. Skills taught: inputting data, adjusting cells, formatting, creating spreadsheets, formulas, charts, pictograms
   b. Teacher-led activities
   c. Individual Student Activities
   d. PROJECT: 12 Days of Middle School Group Activity
   e. End of Unit digital assessment

4. Unit 3: Power[P]oint (1.5 weeks)
   a. Skills taught: Basics, Themes, Transitions, Animations
   b. Teacher-led activities
   c. Individual Student Activities
   d. PROJECT: Technology Era Presentations
   e. End of Unit digital assessment

5. Google Drive (2 weeks)
   a. Basics: Introduction to GOOGLE DRIVE, editing/collaborating, sharing, etc. . .
   b. Google docs activity
   c. Google Slides activity
   d. Google Sheets activity
   e. Google Drawing activity
   f. Google Forms activity
   g. Google Survey activity
   h. PROJECT: Student CHOICE Google (Subject proposed to teacher)

6. Final Projects (1.5 weeks)
   a. These projects should showcase students' application skills to be used to create real-world projects.
      i. 1 mandatory project
      ii. Choice Projects (choose 2 out of 3)

[J-9.]

Petitioner stipulated that her claims herein are limited to the 2016–2017 school year.[1]

LEGAL ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSIONS

Tenure and Endorsements

Tenure of educational personnel is authorized by the Tenure Act, N.J.S.A. 18A:28-1 to -18. An employee of a board of education is entitled to tenure if the employee (1) works in a position for which a teaching certificate is required; (2) holds the appropriate certificate; and (3) has served the requisite period of time. N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5; Spiewak v. Bd. of Educ., 90 N.J. 63, 74 (1982). Teaching staff members shall be under tenure during good behavior and efficiency and they shall not be dismissed or reduced in compensation except for inefficiency, incapacity, or conduct unbecoming such a teaching staff member or other just cause and then only in the manner prescribed by subarticle B of article 2 of chapter 6 of Title 18A. N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5; Zimmerman v. Newark Bd. of Educ., 38 N.J. 65, 72 (1962).

[1] See December 12, 2018, letter from Louis P. Bucceri, Esq.

Tenure is acquired in one of the positions specifically enumerated in N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5 only if the individual has served for the requisite statutorily required period of time in that position. See Nelson v. Old Bridge Bd. of Educ., 148 N.J. 358, 368 (1997). Those positions include, inter alia, "teacher, principal, other than administrative principal, assistant principal, vice-principal, assistant superintendent, and all school nurses . . . , school athletic trainer and such other employees as are in positions which require them to hold appropriate certificates issued by the board of examiners." N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5; Nelson, 148 N.J. at 368–69. However, tenure in any of the administrative or supervisory positions so enumerated accrues only by employment in that administrative or supervisory position and does not extend to any other administrative or supervisory position. N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5(c). That however, does not limit or restrict tenure rights which were or may be acquired pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:28-6 in a position in which the individual actually served. Ibid.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:26-2, any person employed as a teaching staff member by a district board of education must hold a valid and appropriate certificate. N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-5.1(a). "Certificate" means a legal document issued by the Board of Examiners that permits an individual to serve as a teaching staff member. N.J.A.C. 6A:9-2.1. The certificate holder shall obtain any license, certificate, or authorization required by State or federal law, a licensing board, or N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-4.1 and -4.2 for the individual to serve in a position. N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-5.1(b). The employing school district must remove from the position any teaching staff member who fails to maintain the mandated license, certificate, or authorization. N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-5.1(c).

The Board of Examiners issues three categories of educational certificates: Instructional, Administrative, and Educational Services. N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-5.3. "Instructional certificate" means the certificate category that permits an individual to serve as a teacher in a classroom setting. N.J.A.C. 6A:9-2.1. Except as indicated in N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-8.8, candidates for a standard instructional certificate first shall obtain a certificate of eligibility with advanced standing (CEAS) or a certificate of eligibility (CE), and then shall obtain a provisional certificate. N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-8.1(a). "Standard certificate" means a permanent certificate issued to a person who has met all certificate requirements. N.J.A.C. 6A:9-2.1. A provisional teacher who meets all other standard-certificate requirements pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-8.7 will earn a standard certificate upon receipt of at least two summative evaluation ratings of effective or highly effective earned within three consecutive years of teaching. N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-8.6(b).

In addition to the foregoing, "the State Board has also designated 'special endorsements' under each type of certificate, which identify the educational subjects or assignments that share common traits." Nelson, 148 N.J. at 363. "Endorsement" means an authorization allowing a certificate holder to teach one or more specific subject area(s) or to serve in one or more specific teaching staff role(s). N.J.A.C. 6A:9-2.1. Each certificate must be issued with at least one endorsement, which shall be considered part of the certificate. N.J.A.C. 6A:9-2.1, "Certificate." Specifically, N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-9.1(a) requires that > [t]o fulfill the endorsement requirements necessary for instructional certification pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-8, the candidate shall:

>
> 1. Complete one or more of the following coursework requirements for the subject area in which the candidate is seeking the endorsement:
>
> i. Complete an undergraduate major in the subject area as documented by an official transcript from a regionally accredited four-year college or university;
>
> ii. Hold a graduate degree in the subject area; or
>
> iii. Complete at least 30 credits in a coherent sequence of courses appropriate to the subject area as documented by an official transcript from a regionally accredited college or > university, of which 12 semester-hour credits must be at the advanced level of study, including junior-, senior-, or graduate-level study as documented by the official transcript of a four-year, regionally accredited college or university;

>
> 2. Pass the appropriate State test(s) of subject matter knowledge. . . .
>
> [. . .]; and
>
> 3. When applicable, complete additional requirements or exceptions pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-11.
>
> (b) Except if certified in an experience-based career and technical education endorsement pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:9[B]-11.3 or military science pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:9[B]-11.8, holders of a CE, CEAS, or standard instructional certificate in one endorsement may obtain the corresponding CE, CEAS, or standard instructional certificate in a different endorsement upon completion of the academic and test requirements listed in (a) above and any additional requirement(s) or exception(s) in N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-10 or 11.

Career and Technical Education (CTE) Endorsements

"Career and technical education" (CTE) means organized educational activities that: offer a sequence of courses that provide individuals with the coherent and rigorous content aligned with challenging academic standards and relevant technical knowledge and skills needed to prepare for further education and careers in current or emerging professions; provides technical skill proficiency, an industry-recognized credential, a certificate, or an associate degree; may include prerequisite courses (other than a remedial course) that meet the requirements of this definition; and include competency-based applied learning that contributes to the academic knowledge, higher-order reasoning and problem-solving skills, work attitudes, general employability skills, technical skills, and occupation-specific skills, and knowledge of all aspects of an industry. N.J.A.C. 6A:19-1.2; N.J.A.C. 6A:9-2.1. N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-11.3(a) provides that candidates for the instructional certificate in a CTE endorsement shall complete:

1. CEAS requirements pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-8.2;

2. CE requirements pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-8.3, except:

i. Candidates do not need to complete the basic skills requirement pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-8.3(a)5 prior to obtaining a CE; and

ii. Candidates shall complete either the experience-based or degree-based requirements pursuant to (b) below;

3. Provisional requirements pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-8.4; and

4. Requirements for the renewal of the provisional certificate, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-8.5, and standard certificate requirements, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-8.7. Candidates who have not yet completed the Department-approved basic skills assessment or achieved a minimum score on an alternate assessment listed in N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-8.3(a)5 shall complete the basic skills assessment prior to becoming eligible for a standard certificate.

According to N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-9.4(a), "21st century life and careers, and [CTE] endorsements and authorizations," the following teaching endorsements "authorize the holder to teach kindergarten through grade 12, including approved [CTE] programs in grades nine through 12 in all public schools":

1. Business education/business-related technologies: The endorsements authorize the holder to teach business education and business-related technologies in all public schools.

i. Comprehensive business: This endorsement authorizes the holder to teach accounting, banking and insurance, business computer applications, business law, business communications, business mathematics, economics and finance, entrepreneurship, international business, keyboarding, business management, business organization, marketing, office administration/office systems technology, and exploration in business-related careers.

ii. Business: accounting: This endorsement authorizes the holder to teach accounting, bookkeeping, finance and investment, business mathematics, and exploration of related careers.

iii. Business: finance/economics/law: This endorsement authorizes the holder to teach finance and investment, economics, law, banking and insurance, business mathematics, business communications, business management, business organization, and exploration of related careers.

iv. Business: keyboarding and data entry: This endorsement authorizes the holder to teach keyboarding, computer data entry, word processing, and exploration of related careers.

v. Business: computer applications and business-related information technology: This endorsement authorizes the holder to teach business-related software applications, safety and security policies pertaining to computer use, emerging hardware and operating systems, file management, legal issues related to computer use, and exploration of related business occupations.

vi. Business: office administration/office systems technology: This endorsement authorizes the holder to teach office organization, word processing, speed writing, business communication, office and administrative support practices and procedures, keyboarding, data entry, and exploration of related business occupations.

vii. Marketing education: This endorsement authorizes the holder to teach marketing occupations including sales, advertising and retailing, global marketing, entrepreneurship, and exploration of related business occupations.

The legislative history of N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-9.4 reflects that it was recodified from N.J.A.C. 6A:9-9.2(a)(9). Initially, N.J.A.C. 6A:9-9.2(a)(9), "Career education and consumer, family and life skills," did not separately list or define the business education/business-related technologies endorsements. It was not until May 15, 2006, that the regulation was amended to add the seven enumerated endorsements.

Specific CTE endorsements are based on a candidate's Department-approved employment or self-employment experience, bachelor's degree, and/or associate degree. N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-9.4(c). Endorsements are organized under career clusters and listed on the Department's website. Ibid. Petitioner's CTE endorsement, "Business: finance/economics/law," is listed on the Department's website under "Business Management and Administration."[2] To meet the endorsement requirements in N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-9.1(a)(1)(iii), as part of the minimum thirty credits in the content area, a candidate for the finance, economics, and law endorsement must complete at a two- or four-year regionally accredited college or university:

1. At least six semester-hour credits in economics;
2. At least three semester-hour credits in finance; and
3. At least three semester-hour credits in business law.

[N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-10.13(a).]

N.J.A.C. 6A:19-1.1 to -7.6 governs the CTE programs and standards. The purpose of the State system of CTE is to (1) support developmental career education designed to provide students opportunities to enhance career awareness, exploration, preparation, and decision-making skills necessary for success in the workplace; (2) provide secondary and postsecondary students with CTE programs and programs of study in Department-recognized Career Clusters that fulfill New Jersey Student Learning Standards; (3) support a comprehensive K–12 career education and counseling system; and (4) support the workforce development system by helping to ensure quality postsecondary educational opportunities for adult students. N.J.A.C. 6A:19-1.1(a). Chapter 19 establishes the general provisions governing CTE, and specifies the standards and procedures regarding CTE in the areas of (1) provision of career and technical education; (2) development, approval, and delivery of career and technical education programs and programs of study; (3) provision of structured learning experiences; (4) implementation of the CTE accountability system; (5) development and implementation of safety and health standards; and (6) contracting of services of career and technical training providers. N.J.A.C. 6A:19-1.1(b).

[2] Available at https://nj.gov/education/license/cte/endorsements.htm (last visited January 30, 2019).

A district board of education may not apply the term "career and technical" to any of its schools, programs, or programs of study unless those schools, programs, or programs of study are approved by the Department and meet the general requirements included in the approved State Plan for CTE. N.J.A.C. 6A:19-2.1(c). A district board of education may establish CTE programs and programs of study approved pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:19-3.1 as part of a separate career and technical high school or as part of a comprehensive high-school curriculum. N.J.A.C. 6A:19-2.1(e). A district board of education operating a CTE program or program of study must comply with all requirements pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:19-6, Safety and Health Standards, in the administration and operation of the programs. N.J.A.C. 6A:19-2.1(i). N.J.A.C. 6A:19-3.1(a) sets forth, at length, the program requirements for a district board of education intending to offer a CTE program or program of study.

Distinction Between Technology Education and Educational Technology

A "technology education" endorsement authorizes the holder to teach technology education in all public schools with the exception of approved CTE programs. N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-9.3(a)(8)(i). Technology education includes content aligned with the NJSLS and the "Standards for Technological Literacy: Content for the Study of Technology" published by the International Technology and Engineering Educators Association (ITEEA), Copyright 2007, incorporated by reference, available at https://www.iteea.org/File.aspx?id=67767&v=b26b7852. Ibid. Examples of the topics that can be taught under the "technology education" endorsement include: technological literacy; the nature of technology; technology and society; the engineering and technological design process; abilities for a technological world; and understanding the designed world, including selecting and using medical technologies, agricultural and related biotechnologies, energy and power technologies; information and communication technologies; transportation technologies, manufacturing technologies, and/or construction technologies. N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-9.3(a)(8)(i)(1). A technology education endorsement is not required to teach educational technology and/or computer and information skills pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-5.18.[3] N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-9.3(a)(8)(ii). The legislative history for N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-9.3 reflects that it was previously codified at N.J.A.C. 6A:9-9.2(a)(8). In 2005 and 2006, the regulation reflected a "technology education" paragraph, but was later amended, effective January 5, 2009, to add the "computer and information literacy" paragraph reflecting that there was no separate endorsement for educational technology and tools or for computer and information literacy, except where career and technical endorsements occur. N.J.A.C. 6A:9-9.2(a)(8)(i).

[3] It appears the correct citation should be N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-5.17, as 5.18 is reserved.

With respect to instruction in "educational technology," computers, and other digital tools, the legislative history of N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-5.17 reflects that subparagraph (b) was added, effective December 7, 2015, to almost identical language previously codified at N.J.A.C. 6A:9-5.20 (effective January 5, 2009), and later codified at N.J.A.C. 6A:9-5.19 (effective July 1, 2013). The Rule Proposal Summary reflects that the Department was proposing amendments "primarily in four areas that are consistent with both the State Board Strategic Plan and the Department's mission statement," including amendments at N.J.A.C. 6A:9-5.20 and elsewhere to address "a more comprehensive authorization for teaching computer literacy, and clarification of the distinction between educational technology and technology education." 40 N.J.R. 4856(a) (September 2, 2008). More specifically,

> N.J.A.C. 6A:9-5.20, Computer literacy, is proposed for repeal and replacement with a new section emphasizing the integration of education technology across the curriculum, per Core Curriculum Content Standard 8.2. The new rule also reflects changes in the Department's understanding of the educational technology responsibilities of teachers, and distinguishes educational technology from technology education.
>
> [Ibid.]

Presently, N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-5.17, "Instruction in educational technology, computers, and other digital tools," provides as follows:

> (a) Every teacher shall demonstrate knowledge and understanding of computers and other educational technology resources and tools as defined by the Professional Standards for Teachers.

> (b) An endorsement shall not be required to deliver instruction in educational technology, computers, and other digital tools, except where career and technical endorsements are required for the related career clusters, career education, and consumer, family, and life skills pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-9.4.
>
> (c) Every teacher shall integrate into the classroom appropriate educational technology resources and digital tools related to the content area being taught.
>
> (d) The chief school administrator or his or her designee may assign an individual to provide instruction in the use of educational technologies, computers, and other digital tools if the individual:
>
> 1. Demonstrates proficiency in the uses of educational technologies, computers, and other digital tools, and understands their common applications in an educational setting;
>
> 2. Demonstrates knowledge and understanding of the integration in the curriculum of such technologies and digital tools;
>
> 3. Demonstrates understanding of the legal and ethical issues surrounding the use of educational technologies and digital tools in preschool through grade 12 schools; and
>
> 4. Holds a CE, CEAS, or standard certificate in an instructional field.

Analysis

In Dennery v. Passaic County Regional High School District #1 Board of Education, 131 N.J. 626, 634 (1993), the Supreme Court opined that a tenured staff member may not be subject to a reduction in force if a nontenured person has been retained in a position within the scope of the tenured staff member's certificate:

> To acquire a particular certificate and endorsement, an educator is also required to fulfill certain academic requirements. N.J.A.C. 6:11-5.1 to 5.2. Those most often include the completion of coursework or the acquisition of a > relevant higher degree. On the satisfactory completion of all requirements, the Division of Teacher Preparation and Certification will certify the educator. N.J.A.C. 6:11-3.19.

>
> An educator who has attained tenure by virtue of the requisite service in a specific position will have tenure with respect to all positions under the particular certificate. Ellicott v. Board of Educ., 251 N.J. Super. 342, 349, 598 A.2d 237 (App. Div. 1991). Tenure under any one endorsement entitles an educator to tenure under all endorsements obtained under his or her certificate. Id. at 350, 598 A.2d 237; Bednar v. Westwood Bd. of Educ., 221 N.J. Super. 239, 534 A.2d 93 (App. Div. 1987) (holding that tenured teacher with instructional certificate and endorsement in art also entitled to tenured post requiring secondary art endorsement), certif. denied, 110 N.J. 512, 541 A.2d 1371 (1988); Capodilupo v. West Orange Township Bd. of Ed., 218 N.J. Super. 510, 528 A.2d 73 (App. Div.) (holding that teacher with both elementary and secondary physical education endorsements was tenured under both endorsements), certif. denied, 109 N.J. 514, 537 A.2d 1300 (1987); Grosso v. Board of Educ., 1990 S.L.D. 1750.

In Bednar, the court opined that seniority does not purport to create employment rights for nontenured employees, and that Chapter 28 surely does not contemplate use of the concept of seniority to justify retaining a nontenured teacher in a position within the certificate of a dismissed tenured teacher. Bednar, 221 N.J. Super. at 242 (citing Capodilupo, 218 N.J. Super. 510). The court continued that N.J.S.A. 18A:28-10 declares only the rights inter sese of tenured teachers in a reduction in force, among whom seniority is determinative, but the statute does not authorize regulatory dilution of tenure rights by affording a nontenured teacher "seniority." Id. at 243.

In Capodilupo, the Appellate Division opined that the "State Board was within its delegated authority when it ruled that a tenured teacher seeking reinstatement within the endorsements on his or her certificate is entitled to preference in a [reduction in force] as against a non-tenured applicant with the same certification." Capodilupo, 218 N.J. Super. at 515. Similarly, in Grosso v. Board of Education, 1990 S.L.D. 1750 (State Board of Education), appeal dismissed, Nos. A-4359-89T5 and A-4360-89T5 (App. Div. 1990), the Commissioner of Education agreed that the petitioner had achieved tenure as a "teacher" by virtue of his service teaching business education for the requisite period of time under N.J.S.A. 10A:28-6, and that the scope of his tenure protection extended to all of the endorsements on his instructional certification. The Commissioner concluded that since the petitioner was authorized and qualified to serve as an elementary teacher by virtue of his elementary education certification, under N.J.A.C. 6:11-6.2(a)(6), he had entitlement as a result of his tenure status to employment as an elementary teacher as against nontenured individuals, regardless of whether he had previously served under that endorsement.

The standards for determining seniority are set forth in N.J.A.C. 6A:32-5.1. Seniority, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:28-13 et seq., is determined according to the number of academic or calendar years of employment, or fraction thereof, as the case may be, in the school district, in specific categories. N.J.A.C. 6A:32-5.1(b). The categories are enumerated in N.J.A.C. 6A:32-5.1(l) and include secondary, elementary and "[a]dditional categories of specific educational service endorsements issued by the State Board of Examiners and listed in N.J.A.C. 6A:9B." N.J.A.C. 6A:32-5.1(l)(17)–(19).

Petitioner holds a standard instruction certification with a Business: Finance/Economics/Law endorsement. She was employed as full-time teacher assigned to teach high school Marketing, Introduction to Business, and Business Law for the 2012–2013 through 2015–2016 school years. By virtue of the date of her hiring resolution (J-1), certification (J-2), and term of service in respondent's employ, petitioner achieved tenure as a teacher in respondent's district as of the first day of school in September 2015 pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:28-5(a)(2) with seniority rights pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:32-5.1, et seq. Petitioner does not dispute that she did not have sufficient seniority to claim the Marketing, Introduction to Business, and Business Law classes, which were assigned to another tenured teacher. However, petitioner argues that her tenure rights extend to the computer technology courses that were assigned to a non-tenured teacher and required her employment in a part-time position for the 2016–2017 school year; that her "tenure rights extend beyond the Business Education classes . . . to include all subjects which can be taught within the scope of her instructional certificate and are being taught by non-tenured teachers"; that she is properly certified to teach the computer technology courses; and that respondent does not have an educational prerogative to ignore tenure laws. Conversely, the Board argues that it properly conducted a reduction in force and that petitioner "is not entitled to restoration to a .040 Full-Time Equivalent (FTE) position solely because she taught miscellaneous computer classes for a few years"; that petitioner did not, and does not, have the appropriate endorsement to teach Computer Tech. 6 or Computer Tech. 8 in the 2016–2017 school year; that even if petitioner could teach the computer technology courses, her tenure and seniority rights do not extend to Computer Tech. 6 or Computer Tech. 8; and that even if petitioner's tenure rights extend to Computer Tech. 6 or Computer Tech. 8, the Board properly exercised its discretion to "efficiently operate its school program by assigning those classes to [Grossman] in order to retain one full-time teacher of graphic design."

N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-5.17 allows every teacher to deliver instruction in educational technology, computers, and other digital tools, "except where career and technical endorsements are required." N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-5.17(b). In part, this regulation was proposed as "a more comprehensive authorization for teaching computer literacy," 40 N.J.R. 4856(a) (September 2, 2008), and section (c) confirms that computers and educational technology are to be incorporated by "every teacher" into the classroom, as appropriate. However, section (d), which allows the chief school administrator or designee to "assign an individual" to provide instruction in the use of educational technologies, computers, and other digital tools if that individual demonstrates the requisite proficiency, knowledge, and understanding of educational technology and computers, makes it evident that such individual is not "every teacher." Additionally, there was no evidence that the District's computer technology courses meet the CTE definition. The course descriptions and syllabi do not reflect "rigorous content," "occupation specific skills," or "relevant technical knowledge and skills needed to prepare for further education and careers in current or emerging professions." N.J.A.C. 6A:19-1.2, "Career and technical education." Inasmuch as Microsoft Office Suite has become ubiquitous in school, home, and work environments, the Computer Tech. 6, Computer Tech. 7, and Computer Tech. 8 courses appear to be general-computer-skills classes.

The District's argument that an endorsement is required to teach the computer technology classes is unavailing. N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-9.4(a) states that "the teaching endorsements . . . authorize the holder to teach "kindergarten through grade 12, including approved [CTE] programs in grades nine through 12." Emphasis added. Further,

N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-9.4(b) states: "[CTE] endorsements authorize the holder to teach approved [CTE] programs in grades nine through 12 in all public schools in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-11.3." Emphasis added. The teaching endorsements referred to are the various business education/business-related technologies endorsements, family and consumer sciences, and agriculture, food, and natural resources. The Department of Education website makes clear that the "approved CTE programs" are, at a minimum, for secondary students, and its CTE program approval process is for secondary programs.[4] The District presented no evidence to establish that any of the computer technology classes in question complied with or were approved in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:19-3.1. Petitioner was not teaching secondary computer technology classes. Rather, the classes were grades six, seven, and eight, and the business education/business-related technologies endorsements identified at N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-9.4(a)(1) require the appropriate endorsement to teach an approved CTE computer technology class in grades nine through twelve only.

There is no dispute that Hersh-Luterzo acquired tenure as to her standard instructional certificate, and the protections afforded thereby encompass not only those classes she is authorized to teach within the scope of her Business: Finance/Economics/Law endorsement, but also those classes she is authorized to teach within the scope of her standard instructional certificate. Although the District argues that it properly exercised its discretion to "efficiently operate its school program" by assigning the computer technology courses to a non-tenured, full-time graphic design teacher, the cases relied upon are distinguishable from this case and insufficient to trump petitioner's tenure rights.

In sum, I CONCLUDE as follows:

The District's Computer Tech. 6, Computer Tech. 7, and Computer Tech. 8 courses are not approved CTE courses. No endorsement is required to teach the District's Computer Tech. 6, Computer Tech. 7, and Computer Tech. 8 courses. Petitioner's standard instructional certificate tenure extends to the Computer Tech. 6, [4] Available at https://www.nj.gov/education/cte/ (last visited January 30, 2019).

Computer Tech. 7, and Computer Tech. 8 courses under N.J.A.C. 6A:9B-5.17. Petitioner's tenure allows her to claim the sixth, seventh, and eighth-grade computer technology classes of a non-tenured teacher.

Termination

The Verified Petition, filed on June 15, 2016, alleged that the failure to adopt a resolution terminating petitioner's employment "by name" rendered the termination null and void. However, petitioner's brief states that "[t]he second count of the petition was later mooted by the Board's adoption of a resolution terminating petitioner on June 27, 2016." Accordingly, the second count of the Verified Petition is not considered herein.

Summary Decision

Applications for summary decision after a matter has been transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law shall be filed with the administrative law judge (ALJ) in accordance with applicable rules of the OAL. N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.12(b). A contested case before the Office of Administrative Law "can be summarily disposed of before an ALJ without a plenary hearing in instances where the undisputed material facts, as developed on motion or otherwise, indicate that a particular disposition is required as a matter of law." In re Robros Recycling Corp., 226 N.J. Super. 343, 350 (App. Div.), certif. denied, 113 N.J. 63 (1988).

N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(b) provides, in pertinent part:

> The motion for summary decision shall be served with briefs and with or without supporting affidavits. The decision sought may be rendered if the papers and discovery which have been filed, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact challenged and that the moving party is entitled to prevail as a matter of law. When a motion for summary decision is made and supported, an adverse party in order to prevail must by responding affidavit set forth specific facts showing that there is a genuine issue which can only be determined in an evidentiary proceeding.

The parties cross-moved for summary decision. Inasmuch as there is no genuine issue as to any material fact challenged, I CONCLUDE that this matter is appropriate for summary decision. Based upon the totality of the facts and circumstances, I CONCLUDE that the Board's failure to employ petitioner for the 2016–2017 school year to teach Computer Tech. 6 and Computer Tech. 8 courses violated petitioner's tenure rights. I further CONCLUDE that the Board should compensate petitioner for any salary and benefits lost and credit petitioner any seniority credit lost for the 2016–2017 school year.

ORDER

I ORDER that petitioner's motion for summary decision be and hereby is GRANTED and respondent's cross-motion for summary decision be and hereby is DENIED. I further ORDER that the Board compensate petitioner for any salary and benefits lost and credit petitioner any seniority credit lost for the 2016–2017 school year.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

February 13, 2019
DATE

KELLY J. KIRK, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: February 13, 2019

Date Mailed to Parties: 2/14/2019

EXHIBITS

Joint:

J-1 Board Resolution (May 21, 2012)

J-2 Standard Certificate and Endorsement

J-3 Board Resolution (June 27, 2016)

J-4 Provisional Certificate (Amy Grossman)

J-5 Standard Certificate (Amy Grossman)

J-6 Computer Tech. 6 Course Description

J-7 Computer Tech. 6 Syllabus

J-8 Computer Tech. 8 Course Description

J-9 Computer Tech. 8 Syllabus

122-19LM

PHILIP D. MURPHY
Governor

SHEILA Y. OLIVER
Lt. Governor

State of New Jersey
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION
PO BOX 500
TRENTON, NJ 08625-0500

LAMONT O. REPOLLET, ED.D.
Commissioner

May 13, 2019

William Acevedo, pro se
201 Fourth Street
Hazlet, New Jersey 07734

Daniel R. Roberts, Esq.
Kenney, Gross, Kovats & Parton
The Courts of Red Bank
130 Maple Avenue, Building 8
Red Bank, New Jersey 07701

Re: William Acevedo v. Board of Education of the Township of Hazlet, Monmouth County,
Agency Dkt. No. 16-1/19

Dear Parties:

I have reviewed the petition of appeal, as well as the materials filed in connection with the Board's motion to dismiss the petition in the above-referenced matter. Upon review of the submissions, I have determined to dismiss this matter as moot.

Petitioner contends that pre-participation physicals should be required for members of the District's high school dance team because the dance team qualifies as an athletic activity. The Board advised that although it classifies the dance team as a co-curricular activity, it nevertheless began requiring pre-participation physicals. As the requested relief has already been granted, this matter is moot.

Accordingly, the Board's motion to dismiss the petition is GRANTED, and the petition is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

Sincerely,

Lamont O. Repollet, Ed.D.
Commissioner of Education

c: County Superintendent
State Law Library

LOR/JKH/BCM

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to P.L. 2008, c. 36, (N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1).

123-19E

OAL Dkt. No. EDU 52628-19
Agency Dkt. No. 82-4/19

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Order on Emergent Relief

T.C., on behalf of minor child, P.S.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Monmouth Regional High School District, Monmouth County,

Respondent.

The record of this emergent matter, the sound recording of proceedings at the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), and the recommended Order of the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) have been reviewed. Upon such review, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ – for the reasons thoroughly set forth in the recommended Order – that petitioner has failed to demonstrate entitlement to emergent relief pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6 and Crowe v. DeGioia, 90 N.J. 126 (1982).

Accordingly, the recommended Order of the OAL denying petitioner's application for emergent relief is adopted for the reasons expressed therein. This matter shall continue at the OAL with such proceedings as the parties and ALJ deem necessary to bring it to closure.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 5/13/19
Date of Mailing: 5/14/19

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

ORDER DENYING
EMERGENT RELIEF
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 05628-19
AGENCY DKT. NO. 82-4/19

T.C. ON BEHALF OF P.S.,
Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE MONMOUTH REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT, MONMOUTH COUNTY,
Respondent.

T.C., petitioner, pro se

Martin Barger, Esq., for respondent (Barger & Gaines, attorneys)

Record Closed: April 30, 2019 Decided: May 1, 2019

BEFORE DAVID M. FRITCH, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

The petitioner, T.C., filed a petition seeking emergent relief on behalf of her son, P.S., who is a student at Monmouth Regional High School (MRHS). P.S. was placed on an out-of-school suspension on March 22, 2019, following an incident where the MRHS Board (Board) alleged he verbally threatened a teacher during class. Following an expulsion hearing before the Board on April 2, 2019, P.S. was expelled from MRHS. He is currently on home instruction pending placement at Class Academy beginning in the fall of 2019. The petitioner seeks an order immediately returning P.S. to MRHS for the remainder of the school year to complete his classes. The school year ends on June 17, 2019.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On April 26, 2019, the New Jersey Department of Education received the petition of appeal and motion for emergent relief. The matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law, where it was filed on April 26, 2019. N.J.S.A. 52:14F-5(e), (f), and (g) and N.J.A.C. 1:6A-1 through 18.5. Oral argument on the motion for emergent relief was held on April 30, 2019, and the record was closed.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION

A summary of the pertinent evidence presented is as follows, and I FIND the following FACTS:

1. P.S. is a student at MRHS where he is currently in the eleventh grade.
2. In April 2018, P.S. was the subject of an expulsion hearing by the Board. (R-3.) That hearing addressed allegations that P.S. struck another student and engaged in cyberbullying activities. (Id.) P.S. denies these charges. The Board sustained the charges; however, the Board allowed P.S. to return to school on April 18, 2018, with conditions of probation. (R-4.) Among the probationary terms imposed was the requirement that "repeat of a similar incident or failure to follow any school rules or terms of this probation may result in reconvening of a Board of Education expulsion hearing." (Id.)
3. Following his probation, it is alleged that P.S. committed other violations of school rules (R-1 at 6-7), however, MRHS did not seek expulsion hearings on these violations.

4. On March 21, 2019, P.S. was involved in an incident with a teacher at MRHS in his child development class. (R-5.) The teacher reported that P.S. came to class wanting to speak with her in the hallway, he then stated to her "I'm not going to drag you out by the chair so get out in the hallway." (Id.) The teacher reported that P.S. "continued saying this in front of my class until I called to have him removed." (Id.)

    a. Following this incident, P.S. was placed on out-of-school suspension pending an expulsion hearing. MRHS provided home-instruction services to P.S. to continue his educational program.

5. The March 21, 2019, incident was the subject of an expulsion hearing before the Board on April 2, 2019. (R-2.) P.S.'s mother was notified of the hearing (Id. at 2), and P.S. and his mother attended and spoke at the hearing. (See R-1.)

6. P.S. denies the allegations addressed in the April 2, 2019, expulsion hearing; however, the Board unanimously voted to expel P.S. from MRHS due to the alleged conduct.

7. The Board recommended transferring P.S. to the CLASS Academy, an alternative high school within the Monmouth Regional School District (District). P.S. can begin classes at the CLASS Academy beginning in the fall 2019, semester.

    a. Although P.S. is currently in the eleventh grade, he currently has only twenty-five credits completed. He needs 120 credits to graduate high school. The CLASS Academy offers a credit recovery program which would allow P.S. to complete the required credits he needs to graduate high school on time. MRHS does not have a credit recovery program to allow P.S. to complete the 120 credits he needs to graduate within the next year.

    b. P.S. and his mother have indicated that they are willing to try CLASS Academy starting in the fall; however, they want P.S. to finish the current school year at MRHS and have him immediately returned to MRHS to finish his classes.

8. P.S. is currently receiving home instruction. This instruction consists of online classes as well as in-person teaching for two of his subjects. MRHS has offered to provide additional in-home one-on-one instruction for the remainder of the school year to augment what is currently being provided, however, P.S. wants to return to MRHS immediately to complete the semester. MRHS has also offered to place P.S. at another alternative high school placement operated by the Monmouth Ocean Educational Services Commission (MOESC) for the remainder of the school year, however, P.S. and his mother are not interested in placement anywhere but MRHS for the remainder of the current school year.

LEGAL DISCUSSION

N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6(b) sets forth the standards governing motions for emergent relief:

> A motion for stay or emergent relief shall be accompanied by a letter memorandum or brief which shall address the following standards to be met for granting such relief pursuant to Crowe v. Degioia, 90 N.J. 126 (1982):
>
> 1. The petitioner will suffer irreparable harm if the requested relief is not granted;
> 2. The legal right underlying petitioner's claim is settled;
> 3. The petitioner has the likelihood of prevailing on the merits of the underlying claim; and
> 4. When the equities and interests of the parties are balanced, the petitioner will suffer greater harm than the respondent will suffer if the requested relief is not granted.

The petitioner has the burden of establishing all of the above requirements in order to warrant relief in her favor and must prove each of these Crowe elements "clearly and convincingly." Waste Mgmt. of N.J. v. Union Cnty. Utils. Auth., 399 N.J. Super. 508, 520 (App. Div. 2008); D.I. and S.I. on behalf of T.I. v. Monroe Township Board of Education, 2017 N.J.Agen LEXIS 814, 7 (October 25, 2017).

Beginning with the first requirement, it is well-settled that relief should not be granted except "when necessary to prevent irreparable harm." Crowe, 90 N.J. at 132-33. In this regard, harm is generally considered irreparable if it cannot be adequately redressed by monetary damages. Id. at 132-33. In other words, it has been described as "substantial injury to a material degree coupled with the inadequacy of money damages." Judice's Sunshine Pontiac v. General Motors Corp., 418 F.Supp. 1212, 1218 (D.N.J. 1976) (citation omitted).

The moving party bears the burden of proving irreparable harm. More than a risk of irreparable harm must be demonstrated. Continental Group v. Amoco Chemicals Corp., 614 F.2d 351, 359 (D.N.J. 1980). The requisite for injunctive relief requires "a 'clear showing of immediate irreparable injury,' or a 'presently existing actual threat; (an injunction) may not be used simply to eliminate the possibility of a remote future injury, or a future invasion of rights, be those rights protected by statute or by common law.'" Id. (citations omitted) (emphasis added). The petitioner has not shown that there is an immediate harm which requires immediate redress through injunctive relief. The petitioner has been out of school since March 22, 2019, and is currently on a program of home instruction being provided by the District. The petitioner asserts that emergent relief is justified on the grounds she wants her son returned to MRHS immediately, because he needs face-to-face instruction and a class environment because "there is no supervision at home where he is all day." (P-1.)

In some cases, a break in services being provided to a student has been found to satisfy the irreparable harm standard under Crowe. See, e.g., River Edge Bd. of Education v. E.F. o/b/o V.F., 2009 N.J.Agen. LEXIS 313, OAL Dkt. No. EDS 05680-09, Final Decision (June 1, 2009); Franklin Twp. Bd. of Education v. N.K. on Behalf of M.M., OAL Dkt. No. EDS 07818-16, Final Decision (June 6, 2016). The petitioner asserts that the home instruction being provided by MRHS is not adequate to maintain P.S.'s educational objectives. The petitioner, however, has refused offers by MRHS to augment P.S.'s current home instruction with additional one-on-one teaching services or have P.S. placed back in a classroom environment at an alternative high school operated by MOESC for the remainder of the school year. The Board's actions, under these circumstances, are not the cause of any break in educational services for P.S. that can satisfy the irreparable harm requirement under Crowe. Therefore, I CONCLUDE that the petitioner has failed to meet their burden of establishing a clear showing that P.S. will suffer immediate irreparable injury unless the requested relief is granted.

Secondly, the petitioners must also demonstrate that the legal right underlying their claim is settled and they must make a preliminary showing of a reasonable probability of success on the merits. Crowe, 90 N.J. at 133. The crux of the petitioner's action is seeking to overturn the disciplinary decision of the Board leading to P.S.' expulsion from MRHS. It is well settled that actions within a school board's authority, including establishing policies for student discipline, are entitled to a presumption of validity and will not be overturned in the absence of an affirmative showing that the decision was arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable. Thomas v. Morris Twp. Board of Education, 89 N.J.Super. 327, 332 (App. Div. 1965), aff'd, 46 N.J. 581 (1966). The arbitrary, capricious and unreasonable standard of review imposes a heavy burden on challengers of board actions. This standard has been defined by New Jersey courts as follows:

> In the law, "arbitrary" and "capricious" means having no rational basis. Arbitrary and capricious action of administrative bodies means willful and unreasoning action, without consideration and in disregard of circumstances. Where there is no room for two opinions, action is not arbitrary or capricious when exercised honestly and upon due consideration, even though it may be believed that an erroneous conclusion has been reached . . . Moreover, the court should not substitute its judgment for that of an administrative or legislative body if there is substantial evidence to support the ruling.
>
> [Piccoli v. Ed. of Educ. of Ramapo Indian Hills Regional School District, EDU 1839-98, Initial Decision, (January 22, 1999) http://lawlibrary.rutgers.edu/oal/search.html (citing Bayshore Sewage Co. v. Dent. of Envir. Protection, 122 N.J. Super. 184, 199-200 (Ch. Div. 1973), aff'd 131 N.J. Super. 37 (App. Div. 1974)).]

The petitioner's legal right to challenge the Board's decision is well-established; therefore, I CONCLUDE that the petitioner has met her burden to show a well-settled legal right underpins her claim. While her right to appeal is well-established, the applicable "arbitrary and capricious" legal standard makes her probability of success on the merits dubious at this time. The petitioner is challenging the Board's actions on the basis that the Board failed to give her son a fair hearing because "there were no African-American teachers, or parents, on the board" and her son cannot be judged by "persons not of their own peers" because she believes it is unfair for "5 white men and 5 white women [to] judge an African American family without one Professional Black man." (P-1 at 6 (April 12, 2019 email from petitioner to Board).) She also claims that the District discriminated against P.S. by "selecting a hearing panel that was not representative by his own peers" (P-1 at 1) despite the Board's membership consisting of duly elected officials from each of the three towns that make up Monmouth Regional School District. The petitioner's assertions, without factual support to demonstrate actual discrimination in the Board's actions, do not sustain her claim that her son was unfairly judged or that his due process rights were violated by the Board's actions. On this record, I CONCLUDE that the petitioner has failed to meet her burden to demonstrate a reasonable probability of success on the merits.

Finally, in balancing the relative equities of the parties' respective positions, the petitioner feels that her son is at home while other children are going to school "and he is going to have mental anguish over that." (P-1 at 6 (April 12, 2019, email to school board).) On the other hand, the Board has a substantial and valid interest in ensuring the safe and orderly operation of the activities of its schools. The balance weighs in favor of the Board over the student because such a ruling to the contrary would amount to an "undermining of authority" that could "have a far reaching effect on the school district in its dealings with its student." L.B. o/b/o S.C. v. Hamilton Township Board of Education, EDS 08561-17, Final Decision, (June 22, 2017) http://lawlibrary.rutgers.edu/oal/search.html. In balancing of the respective equities, I CONCLUDE that the petitioner has failed to meet her burden to demonstrate that P.S. will suffer greater harm than the Board if the requested relief is not granted.

Based upon the foregoing, I CONCLUDE that the petitioner has failed to meet all of the requirements set forth in N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6(b) warranting an order for emergent relief in this matter.

ORDER

Accordingly, I ORDER that the petitioner's application for emergent relief be and hereby is DENIED.

This order on application for emergency relief may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. The final decision shall be issued without undue delay, but no later than forty-five days following the entry of this order. If the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, does not adopt, modify or reject this order within forty-five days, this recommended order shall become a final decision on the issue of emergent relief in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

May 1, 2019
DATE

DAVID M. FRITCH, ALJ

/dw/mph

APPENDIX

WITNESSES

For petitioner:

P.S.

For respondent:

Kathleen Mihalko, Assistant Principal, MRHS
Brian Evans, Principal, MRHS

EXHIBITS

For petitioner:

P-1 Petition of Appeal Packet

For respondent:

R-1 Transcript of MRHS Board of Education, Expulsion Hearing, April 2, 2019
R-2 MRHS Expulsion Hearing Packet, April 2, 2019
R-3 MRHS Expulsion Hearing Packet, April 17, 2018
R-4 MRHS Terms of Probation, April 18, 2018
R-5 MRHS Student Incident Report, March 21, 2019

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Vincenza Olsen-Faivre and Donna Perez,

Petitioners,

v.

Board of Education of the Carlstadt – East Rutherford Regional School District, Bergen County,

Respondent.

Synopsis

Petitioners – tenured secretaries in the respondent Board's school district – challenged the Board's decision to deny their salary increases, and to rescind petitioner Vincenza's Olsen-Faivre's stipend for serving as the district's substitute coordinator, based upon an alleged act of fraud. Specifically, the Board contended that the petitioners conspired to fraudulently deceive the Board in order to receive salary increases.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: petitioner Olsen-Faivre was and continues to be the confidential secretary to the district's Superintendent of Schools; petitioner Perez was formerly employed as confidential payroll clerk and bookkeeper for the district; the allegations herein arose when the Board's Business Administrator reviewed newly approved salary revisions for the 2014-2015 school year, and subsequently accused petitioners of conspiring to include Olsen-Faivre's substitute coordinator stipend in her pensionable salary without obtaining Board approval; both the petitioners and the Board presented credible, competent witness testimony at hearing; based on the totality of the evidence presented, there is no basis to find that petitioners conspired against the Board; the evidence did not support the conclusion that petitioners committed fraud by intentionally disobeying a supervisor's instruction or unilaterally altering Board documents without approval; on the contrary, the testimony showed that the Superintendent at the time of the incident supported the idea of Olsen-Faivre's stipend becoming pensionable. The ALJ concluded that petitioners are entitled to the Board-approved salary increases they were denied in violation of their tenure rights. Accordingly, the ALJ reversed the Board's decision denying said increases and rescinding Olsen-Faivre's stipend.

Upon comprehensive review, the Commissioner concurred with the ALJ that petitioners did not conspire to fraudulently deceive the Board in order to receive salary increases; further, the Board's decision to rescind their salary increases was a violation of their tenure rights. In so deciding, the Commissioner found no basis in the record to reject either the ALJ's recitations of testimony or his determinations of witness credibility. Accordingly, the Commissioner determined that petitioners are entitled to their approved salaries for the 2014-15, 2015-16 and 2016-17 school years, but found that petitioner Olsen-Faivre is not entitled to reimbursement for the stipend she claimed as substitute coordinator because she never obtained tenure in that position.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

May 13, 2019

OAL Dkt. No. EDU 9612-15
Agency Dkt. No. 108-5/15

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Vincenza Olsen-Faivre and Donna Perez,

Petitioners,

v.

Board of Education of the Carlstadt – East Rutherford Regional School District, Bergen County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed. The petitioners, tenured secretaries in the Carlstadt-East Rutherford Regional School District, are challenging the Board's decision to deny their salary increases, and to rescind petitioner Vincenza Olsen-Faivre's stipend for the substitute coordinator position, based upon an alleged act of fraud. Following three days of hearings at the OAL, the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) found that the petitioners did not conspire to fraudulently deceive the Board in order to receive salary increases. The ALJ also found that the Board's decision to rescind their salary increases was a violation of their tenure rights. Therefore, the petitioners were entitled to their Board approved salaries for the 2014-15, 2015-16 and 2016-17 school years. The parties did not file exceptions to the Initial Decision.

Upon a comprehensive review of the record in this matter, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ that the petitioners did not conspire to fraudulently deceive the Board to receive salary increases, and that the Board's decision to rescind their salary increases was a violation of their tenure rights.[1] Importantly, the Commissioner finds no basis in the record to reject either the ALJ's recitations of testimony or his determinations of witness credibility. The ALJ found that the petitioners' testified credibly and that the evidence presented does not support the conclusions that a conspiracy was committed by the petitioners. The ALJ had the opportunity to assess the credibility of the witnesses who appeared before her and made findings of fact based upon their testimony. It is well established that the Commissioner must defer to the credibility findings of the ALJ unless these prove to be arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable or are not supported by sufficient, competent and credible evidence in the record. N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10(c).

Accordingly, the petitioners are entitled to their approved salaries for the 2014-15, 2015-16 and 2016-17 school years.[2]

IT IS SO ORDERED.[3]

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 5/13/19
Date of Mailing: 5/14/19

[1] The ALJ discussed various other potential issues in the Initial Decision, including the fact that the secretaries were given contracts for a three-year term. The facts in this case are extremely case specific and it is not necessary to posture on the length of the petitioners' contracts in order to resolve this matter. The Commissioner is, however, in accord with the ALJ's determination that N.J.S.A. 18A:29-4.1 does not apply to the petitioners because they are not teaching staff members, nor do they hold any certificates.

[2] Petitioner Olsen-Faivre did not obtain tenure in the substitute coordinator position, and as such she is not entitled to reimbursement for the stipend amount.

[3] This decision may be appealed to the Superior Court, Appellate Division, pursuant to P.L. 2008, c. 36 (N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1).

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 09612-15
AGENCY REF. NO. 108-5/15

VINCENZA OLSEN-FAIVRE
AND DONNA PEREZ,
Petitioners,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CALRSTADT-EAST RUTHERFORD
REGIONAL SCHOOL DISTRICT,
BERGEN COUNTY,
Respondent.

Vincenza Olsen-Faivre and Donna Perez, appearing pro

Dennis McKeever, Esq., for Respondent (Sciarrillo, Cornell, Merlino, McKeever & Osborne, LLC, attorneys)

Record Closed: February 15, 2019 Decided: February 19, 2019

BEFORE LELAND S. MCGEE, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

This matter arises from the denial of salary increases to Vincenza Olsen-Faivre (Olsen-Faivre or Faivre) and Donna Perez (Perez), Petitioner employees of the Board of Education of Carlstadt-East Rutherford (Respondent), and rescission of a stipend from Faivre due to an alleged act of fraud committed by Petitioners. Petitioners contend that Respondent violated the Tenure Employees Hearing Law, N.J.S.A. 18A:6-10 and the Teach-NJ Act, N.J.S.A. 18A:17-1.

On April 11, 2015, counsel to Petitioners filed a Petition of Appeal and supporting documents to the Director, Bureau of Controversies and Disputes (Bureau) of the New Jersey State Department of Education. This petition challenged the salary-increase rescission of Olsen-Faivre and Perez and loss of stipend to Olsen-Faivre.

On May 11, 2015, notarized verifications were sent by Petitioners to the Bureau. These verifications were received on May 12, 2015.

On June 30, 2015, Respondent filed a Motion to Dismiss in lieu of an Answer pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.5(g).

On July 2, 2015, this matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law for a hearing pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

On July 13, 2015, Petitioners filed their letter brief opposing Respondent's Motion to Dismiss. On July 20, 2015, Respondent submitted its response to the Motion to Dismiss.

On October 1, 2015, this tribunal denied Respondent's Motion to Dismiss and held that Petitioners had a vested right to receive their salary increases due on December 10, 2014. This tribunal determined that rescission of the salary increases was a prohibited compensation reduction which violated Petitioners' tenure rights pursuant to N.J.A.C. 18A:17.2.

Following a telephone prehearing conference, this tribunal issued an Order requiring Respondent to file its Answer on or before October 30, 2015. The Order specified that discovery be completed by February 1, 2016.

Respondent submitted its Answer on October 27, 2015.

On July 8, 2016, Petitioners filed a Motion for Partial Summary Decision. On July 29, 2016, Respondent filed a letter brief opposing Petitioners' Motion for Partial Summary Decision.

On September 23, 2016, this tribunal denied Petitioners' Motion for Partial Summary Decision because the parties disputed several material facts. These disputes include: 1) whether Petitioners, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:29-4.1, are or were considered "full-time teaching staff members"; 2) whether Petitioners' terms of service expired before the three-year time period stipulated in their contracts; and 3) whether Petitioners are entitled to a salary increase for the first year or subsequent years.

A hearing scheduled for September 26, 2016, and September 27, 2016, was adjourned.

In December 2016, Respondent retained new counsel. On or about April 3, 2017, Petitioners submitted a Notice of Substitution of Attorney confirming that Petitioners would appear pro se and that former counsel withdrew its appearance.

On April 18, 2017, Respondent requested an adjournment of the hearings scheduled in late April. An in-person pre-hearing conference was held on April 24, 2017, and hearings were held on May 4, 2017, May 12, 2017, and June 16, 2017.

Petitioners filed their post-hearing brief and exhibits on September 8, 2017. Respondent filed its reply brief on September 25, 2017.

A copy of Exhibit P-12 was provided on February 15, 2019, in order to complete the record.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

Petitioners are or were employed by Respondent Board of Education of Carlstadt-East Rutherford as tenured administrators employed as confidential secretaries. Perez formerly served as confidential payroll clerk and bookkeeper and Olsen-Faivre served as confidential secretary to the superintendent. Olsen-Faivre is, and Perez was employed under a three-year contract approved by the Board. Petitioners were not and are not union members nor members of an employment association. Therefore, terms and conditions of their employment contracts were not negotiated subject to a collective bargaining agreement. Salaries and employment terms were negotiated on an individual basis.

During the 2013-2014 school year, Perez's contractual salary as payroll clerk and bookkeeper was $79,032 plus additional compensation for longevity. Olsen-Faivre's contractual salary as confidential secretary was $56,787 with additional compensation for longevity plus a stipend for her job duties as substitute coordinator.

Petitioners' contracts expired on June 30, 2014. Contracts for the upcoming years had not yet been fully negotiated by the commencement of the 2014-2015 school year. As such, Petitioners' continued employment in their positions was subject to the contractual terms set forth in the expired employment contract while contract negotiations continued.

The respective salaries of Petitioners remained the same at the start of the 2014-2015 school year as they were during the 2013-2014 school year. The salaries were approved for Petitioners at the Board's meeting of May 7, 2014. Olsen-Faivre's total salary was $60,912 including a base salary of $56,787, plus $1,425 for longevity, and a $2,700 stipend for her substitute coordinator position. The primary function of Olsen-Faivre's job position was to contact substitutes to ensure that the district's classrooms would have adequate personnel coverage. Perez's total salary was $79,507 including a base salary of $79,032, plus $475 for longevity.

The contract negotiations between the Becton Educational Association (BEA) and the Board concluded with the Board meeting of December 10, 2014, and salaries and appointments for faculty and support staff were approved. At the December 10, 2014, meeting, the salaries for its confidential secretaries for the 2014-2015, 2015-2016, and 2016-2017 academic years were approved by Respondent, subject to individual employment contracts for each employee. For the 2014-2015 academic year, Olsen-Faivre's salary was set to be raised to $61,487, plus longevity, and Perez's salary was set to be raised to $81,032 plus longevity.

After this process concluded, District Business Administrator Nicholas Annitti (Annitti) reviewed the Board's payroll records and determined that Olsen-Faivre and Perez had conspired to include Olsen-Faivre's substitute coordinator stipend in her pensionable salary. Annitti determined specifically that Olsen-Faivre and Perez logged into the district's payroll system using Perez's system access as payroll clerk to include Olsen-Faivre's stipend in her base salary as a district confidential secretary. He determined that this occurred despite the fact that Olsen-Faivre's employment contract did not include the amount in her base salary and neither Respondent nor any district administrator authorized this action.

Following Annitti's determination, Respondent held a special meeting on January 21, 2015. At the meeting, Respondent voted to rescind the salary increases granted to Petitioners for the 2014-2015 school year. Additionally, Respondent directed the Superintendent of Schools to issue letters of reprimand to the Petitioners for their actions. Respondent also directed the administration to advertise the substitute coordinator position in which Olsen-Faivre had been employed and for which she received a stipend.

Letters of reprimand were issued on January 26, 2015. The District Superintendent issued a letter to Olsen-Faivre for her actions, and Annitti as District Business Administrator/Board Secretary issued a letter to Perez. They were reprimanded for an alleged conspiracy to roll Olsen-Faivre's stipend into her base salary for pension benefits without obtaining Board approval.

Petitioners appealed Respondent's action.

TESTIMONY

Nicholas Annitti

Nicholas Annitti testified that he was the School Business Administrative Board Secretary of the Carlstadt-East Rutherford Regional Board of Education. During his nineteen years employed by Respondent, his job duties were largely financial. Annitti testified that Perez's position as secretary was not a tenured position, but her position as bookkeeper was a tenured position. Olsen-Faivre's position was a tenured position. Annitti further agreed that, as non-union members, Olsen-Faivre and Perez did not negotiate their contracts subject to a collective-bargaining agreement. Perez and Olsen-Faivre therefore negotiated directly with the Board to create their contract. Annitti outlined the work duties of the substitute coordinator as someone who arranged for substitute teachers when a regular teacher was absent. Annitti did not believe this position to be a "tenure-able" position. Olsen-Faivre held the duty of substitute coordinator as a stipend position.

Annitti further testified that, at the Board meeting in which the three-year contracts for Confidential Secretary was agreed upon, the stipend was not included as part of a pensionable salary.

Annitti outlined the typical procedure taken when a salary is coordinated and calculated by the Superintendent's Office and then sent to the Payroll Department. The Payroll Department then cross-checks the adjustment made and puts the salary adjustment onto the Board agenda. Annitti further testified that the Payroll Department does not change salaries without prior authorization from the Superintendent, and the Superintendent never changes salaries without a resolution passed by the Board of Education.

Annitti further testified that Perez was an efficient employee that knew payroll policies and had a strong knowledge of which compensation was pensionable and which was non-pensionable. Annitti continued that he only experienced a stipend being rolled into an annual salary on one prior occasion. In that instance, a Confidential Secretary's stipend was added to her pensionable salary after she requested that the stipend be added. Following the request, the Board rescinded the Motion which paid her a stipend, withdrew the stipend, and rolled it into her salary.

The increase to Olsen-Faivre's salary was not discovered until after the contract negotiations of the confidential employees had concluded. Annitti discovered the salary increase, and immediately asked Olsen-Faivre about the increase. His recollection was that Olsen-Faivre replied that the Board had negotiated and approved the stipend to be added to her salary, and that Board member, Raymond Muszynksi had approved the action. Annitti reported that Perez also stated that the Board approved of adding the stipend to Olsen-Faivre's salary. Having no recollection of the Board negotiations and action, Annitti questioned his colleagues and brought up the salary increase for discussion at the next Board meeting. None of the other Board members recalled approving or even discussing the salary increase. Annitti stated that after the meeting, Perez was defensive and told Annitti, "You'll be hearing from my attorney."

Raymond Muszynski

Raymond Muszynski testified that he has served on the Board of the Carlstadt-East Rutherford Board of Education for ten years. Muszynski testified that he did not recall the Board discussing Olsen-Faivre's stipend rolling into her pensionable salary at the Board's May 2014 meeting. Muszynski testified that he believed he was the Chairperson of the Negotiations Committee on the date of the Board meeting in question. As the individual that handled negotiations at that time, all compensation issues were brought before him.

Renee Engelhardt

Renee Engelhardt testified that she was employed by the Carlstadt-East Rutherford Regional Board of Education as a Confidential Secretary to the Business Administrator, a position which she held for fifteen years. Engelhardt testified that she was not a member of a collective bargaining unit, and as such, that she was usually subject to three-year contracts. When discussing her duties, Engelhardt stated that she prepares exhibits for Board meetings. When asked about the procedure regarding approval of stipend positions, Engelhardt stated, based upon her recollection, that stipend positions are approved under separate Resolutions. Her job duties included attending all Board meetings and did not recall discussion of Olsen-Faivre's stipend being rolled into her pensionable salary. Engelhardt further testified that the meeting in question was extremely tumultuous.

Engelhardt testified that during her time as an employee with the Board of Education, she received a stipend for attending Board of Education meetings. She stated that her stipend was made pensionable by the Board of Education by rolling her it into her salary. This occurred in November of 2011, when a new contract was negotiated.

Vincenza Olsen-Faivre

Olsen-Faivre testified that she is currently employed as the Superintendent's Secretary for the Carlstadt-East Rutherford Regional Board of Education. She has been employed by the Board since 1997. Olsen-Faivre testified that she worked under a three-year employment contract beginning July 1, 2014. Olsen-Faivre testified that she essentially "took on" the role of substitute coordinator in 2008. As a substitute coordinator, Olsen-Faivre worked outside the Superintendent's office with the Principal's secretary. She called substitute teachers, as a previous outside vendor had done.

Olsen-Faivre testified that she had a discussion with previous Superintendent James Jencarelli, wherein he stated that she would receive payment for coordinating substitute teachers at some point prior to 2008. Olsen-Faivre began performing these duties when the outside vendor stopped performing this function. Olsen-Faivre testified that she wrote a memo to him in which she requested payment for the role of substitute coordinator, and he presented that memo to the Board of Education. She testified that the Board agreed via a resolution to pay a stipend of $2,350 for coordinating the substitutes. She testified that she additionally gave Superintendent Gary Bowen a memo to present to the Board in April of 2014 regarding the stipend. Neither party produced a copy of the memo. She testified that when she handed the memo to Dr. Bowen, he told her to put the stipend in her "pensionable wages" column in the salary resolution chart for the 2014-2015 school year, to be presented to the Board for discussion. Additionally, her role should be changed in her job description for the Board proposal. Olsen-Faivre testified that she does not recall seeing any Board minute meetings that discussed the stipend. She was removed from the position of substitute coordinator following the allegations that are the subject of this hearing.

Olsen-Faivre testified that the allegations that are the subject of this hearing relate to a formal reprimand she received for directing another employee to add a $2,700 stipend to her base salary, making the amount pensionable, without the knowledge of Business Administrator Annitti. She testified that the increase from $2,350 to $2,700 reflected a conversation with a Mr. Mango, Interim Superintendent, about an increase in the stipend. She testified that she did not direct any employee to commit fraud. She testified that since the Board members did not question anything that she put into the resolution, she had no reason to think that her conduct was wrong.

On cross-examination, Olsen-Faivre testified that she did not carbon copy Mr. Annitti or the Board of Education in the memo requesting that her stipend be pensionable. She testified that she has access to the personnel files that the memo was kept in. She testified that Donna Perez implemented the accounting change to make the stipend pensionable. She testified that after the meeting, she did not talk about the stipend being pensionable with any of her superiors. She did not sign a paper that included an altered job description reflecting the new position, which is sometimes the practice of the Board, after the Board meeting.

Donna Perez

Donna Perez testified that she is currently employed by the Hoboken Board of Education. She worked for the Carlstadt-East Rutherford school district for eleven years in the Payroll Department, as a bookkeeper, and in accounts payable. She testified that her supervisor was Nicholas Annitti. Further, that after the Board approved salaries, she would take the approved agenda and put them into the payroll files. If there were changes to be made for longevity, or to a teacher's salary, she would make changes in the payroll accordingly. She also kept track of Board approval of bills. She testified that she was in Mr. Annitti's office when Olsen-Faivre asked him about including her stipend in her base salary so that it would be pensionable prior to the Board of Education meeting. She testified that she did not conspire with Olsen-Faivre to include the stipend in her pensionable salary. Perez testified that she acted in accordance with her duties when she adjusted Ms. Olsen-Faivre's salary, as the increase was approved in Board Minutes.

On cross-examination, Perez testified that she received a stipend for her role as Treasurer for Student Activities and Athletics. However, the stipend did not become pensionable because the school revoked the stipend on January 21, 2015, for disciplinary reasons related to this hearing. When asked if there was typically a signed contract presented to her before making modifications to salaries, she stated that there were plenty of instances that signed contracts were unavailable. In those instances, once the salaries were approved on the agenda, she would look at the Minutes and implement the changes. She testified that since Mr. Annitti, was supposed to review salaries before the agenda was passed on to her, she would have no reason to question the salaries in the Minutes.

Mary Vaccaro

Mary Vaccaro (Vaccaro) testified that she is the school Library Media Specialist, Technology Facilitator, the Virtual High School Site Coordinator, and a Virtual High School Teacher. She receives a pensionable stipend for her role as Technology Facilitator. As a Technology Facilitator, she helps teachers or other employees with technology issues. Vaccaro testified that in April of 2014, she assisted Olsen-Faivre with a memo. She testified she helped create this memo addressed to Dr. Bowen requesting that Olsen-Faivre's stipend be pensionable. She testified that she did not save the memo but printed it.

On cross-examination, Vaccaro testified that she has no knowledge of the Board deliberations or any other discussions regarding stipend positions. She does not know what happened to the memo once she handed it to Olsen-Faivre.

Louise Clarke

Louise Clarke (Clarke) has been the Superintendent of schools since July 1, 2014 and has her office in Becton Regional High School in the Carlstadt-East Rutherford School District. She testified that she has not had a personal conversation with Olsen-Faivre regarding her stipend. Clarke testified that she had a conversation with the prior Superintendent, Dr. Bowen, regarding the stipend. She along with Dr. Bowen and Olsen-Faivre were in Bowen's office at the time of the conversation. Bowen told Clarke that in order to put a stipend into an employee's pension or to roll it into a pension, the best way is to change the job description on a Salary Exhibit for presentation to the Board. Clarke testified that typically, when a Salary Exhibit is created, both the Superintendent and the Business Administrator review them. Once the Business Administrator signs off on the Exhibit, the agendas are sent out in packages to the Board members through his office. Clarke testified that she had a conversation with Dr. Bowen regarding Ms. Olsen-Faivre's pensionable salary, and he did not remember whether he ever discussed it with the Board.

On cross-examination, Clarke testified that according to the letter of reprimand regarding Olsen-Faivre, there was no authority given to put the stipend into the base salary. She testified that she was present at the Board of Education action session on May 7, 2014 and does not recall any discussion regarding Olsen-Faivre's substitute teacher coordinator position. She testified that subsequent to the discovery of the stipend being a part of Olsen-Faivre's salary, she did not have a conversation with Olsen-Faivre or Annitti about resolving the terms of the investigation against Olsen-Faivre. She also testified that the reprimand letter that she passed down to Olsen-Faivre was by Board directive, and she wrote the letter using information received from Mr. Annitti.

Kevin Felten

Kevin Felten testified that he is employed by the Borough of East Rutherford as a police officer, and he began serving as a Trustee to the Board of Education in January of 2016. He testified that for employee stipends, the Superintendent recommends the stipend and Board members vote. Stipends are usually approved once a year. Felten stated that a Settlement, a payment to petitioner, was presented to the Board following the accusations against Olsen-Faivre. He voted "no" to the Settlement because he was concerned about possible fraud and pension fraud. Felten testified that Mr. Zitomer, the school board attorney, went to the Prosecutor's Office concerning Olsen-Faivre's actions and the Office did not prosecute the case. He testified that to the best of his knowledge, stipends are not pensionable, and they do not receive tenure. He does not know of any stipend in the past that has been pensionable for employees. He testified that he would be surprised if that had happened in the school district.

On cross-examination, Felten testified that he was not a Board member at the time that Dr. Bowen was Superintendent. He was not included on any agenda reviews during Dr. Bowen's time as Superintendent. He testified that he was not aware that Engelhardt's stipend became pensionable.

Jeffrey C. Bliss

Jeffrey Bliss testified that he is a partner with Lurch, Vinci, and Higgins, a CPA firm that specializes in governmental and non-profit accounting. He has served as an auditor for the Carlstadt-East Rutherford Board of Education for five years. As an auditor for the district, he is responsible for auditing their financial statements, books, and records. He also reports on compliance with government accounting standards and Department of Education compliance requirements. He testified that he received a phone call from Business Administrator Annitti regarding Olsen-Faivre's case. Upon review, he told Annitti that Olsen-Faivre's stipend had been included as part of her pensionable base wage salary. He testified that in New Jersey, stipends are usually pensionable if the duties concerning the stipend are performed as part of the regular work period, and if the role is part of the employee's normal job duties. If the job is outside the normal duties of the position, it is not pensionable. He testified that to his understanding, the Board approved the substitute coordinator position as a non-pensionable stipend, as the duties were performed outside the normal workday hours of her normal position. Bliss testified that unlike a "salary increase," a stipend does not increase year after year. Rather, it is usually for a term of a contract.

LEGAL DISCUSSION

I. Credibility

Where facts are contested, the trier of fact must assess and weigh the credibility of the witnesses for purposes of making factual findings. Credibility is the value that a finder of fact gives to a witness's testimony. It requires an overall assessment of the witness's story in light of its rationality, its internal consistency, and the manner in which it "hangs together" with the other evidence. Carbo v. United States, 314 F.2d 718, 749 (8th Cir. 1963). There is no mechanical formula for determining the truth, to the extent it can be discerned, and many factors may be considered and weighed. These include the demeanor of the witness and the manner of testifying, the interest a witness may have in the outcome, and the reasonableness and coherence of the testimony. Dawson v. R.W. Vogel, CRT 4501-00, Initial Decision (April 25, 2002), adopted as modified, Dir., Division on Civil Rights (Aug. 28, 2002), <http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/>.

"Credible testimony" must proceed from the mouth of a credible witness and must be such as our common experience, knowledge, and common observation can accept as probable under the circumstances. State v. Taylor, 38 N.J. Super. 6, 24 (App. Div. 1955); see also Gilson v. Gilson, 116 N.J. Eq. 556, 560 (E. & A. 1934). A fact finder is expected to base decisions of credibility on his or her common sense, intuition, or experience. Barnes v. United States, 412 U.S. 837 (1973). The determination of credibility must be made based upon the totality of the evidence, including an assessment of the witnesses by the trial judge who has had the opportunity to see and hear the witnesses at hearing. See, e.g., In re Final Agency Decision of Bd. of Exam'rs of Elec. Contractors, 356 N.J. Super. 42 (App. Div. 2002).

In the present matter, both the petitioners and respondent have presented credible, competent witnesses. Based on the totality of the evidence presented before this Court, there is no basis to find that petitioners conspired against the Board to make Olsen-Faivre's stipend pensionable without approval. Perez, who is responsible for changing employees' salaries once the Board approves, had worked for the Board of Education of Carlstadt-East Rutherford for eleven years without any disciplinary action before this incident. Olsen-Faivre was also highly experienced at her position, having been designated the substitute coordinator when the vendor hired by the school backed out. Notably, as of the date of the hearing Olsen-Faivre was still employed by the Board. The evidence does not support the conclusion that Olsen-Faivre committed fraud by intentionally disobeying her supervisor's instruction or unilaterally altered Board Documents without approval. On the contrary, testimony shows that Dr. Bowen, the Superintendent at the time of the incident, supported the idea of Olsen-Faivre's stipend becoming pensionable.

Mary Vaccaro testified that she helped Olsen-Faivre create a memo addressed to Dr. Bowen to present to the Board, requesting that Olsen-Faivre's pension be pensionable. This evinces Olsen-Faivre's efforts to follow proper protocol, although it may not have been the "best" way to have her concerns addressed. Notably, Kevin Felten testified that the Prosecutor's Office did not find evidence of fraud by petitioners sufficient to pursue a case against them.

Witnesses testified that the Board meeting in question was hectic because of a conflagration that occurred during the meeting. No one can recall, whether or not Olsen-Faivre's pensionable stipend was actually discussed. Perez testified that there were numerous occasions that signed contracts were unavailable when making modifications to salaries. In those instances, once the salaries were approved on the agenda, she would look at the meeting Minutes and implement the changes so employees were paid according to the changes. She testified that since Business Administrator Annitti was supposed to review salaries before the agenda was passed on to her, she would have no reason to question the salaries in the Minutes following the meeting. Ms. Perez was doing her job the same as she had for the past eleven years, and I FIND that there is no evidence of misconduct.

The Board cannot be permitted to hold petitioners accountable for a possible error that resulted from a failure in the checks and balances of the system; particularly where multiple people were responsible for ensuring that appropriate protocols were followed. Ms. Clarke testified that once the Business Administrator signs off on an exhibit, agendas are sent out in packages to the Board members through his office. Annitti, the Superintendent, and the Board members had ample opportunity to discover a "mistake," "error," or "fraud" in the salary proposals presented. Instead, the proposed salary changes were approved. Accordingly, I FIND, that the evidence presented does not support the conclusion that a conspiracy was committed by Olsen-Faivre and Perez.

II. Enforcement of the Contracts

The gravamen of respondent's argument involves petitioners' attempts to enforce their respective three-year-employment contracts approved by the Board on December 10, 2014. Respondent argues that permitting these contracts to be enforced would improperly bind future boards. Multi-year salaries of full-time "teaching staff members" of a Board of Education are governed by N.J.S.A. 18A:29-4.1:

> A board of education of any district may adopt a one, two, three, four, or five year salary policy, including salary schedules for all full-time teaching staff members which shall not be less than those required by law. The policy schedules shall be binding upon the adopting board and upon all future boards in the same district for a period of one, two, three, four, or five years from the effective date of the policy but shall not prohibit the payment of salaries higher than those required by the policy or schedules nor the subsequent adoption of policies or schedules providing for higher salaries, increments, or adjustments.

Furthermore, N.J.S.A. 18A:1-1 defines a teaching staff member as:

> . . . a member of the professional staff of any district or regional board of education, or any board of education of a county vocational school, holding office, position or employment of such character that the qualifications, for such office, position, or employment, require him to hold a valid and effective standard, provisional, or emergency > certificate, appropriate to his office, position or employment, issued by the state board of examiners and includes a school nurse.

Teachers and principals are among the several positions that require certification. N.J.S.A. 18A:1-1. The record indicates that Petitioner Perez was previously employed by the Board as the confidential payroll clerk/bookkeeper. Petitioner Olsen-Faivre is currently employed by the Board as the confidential secretary to the District's Superintendent. No evidence was presented to demonstrate that petitioners are teaching staff members or hold State-issued certificates.

Petitioners argue that past practice has been to enforce three-year contracts for non-certified staff. However, the "past practice" doctrine provides that where "contract terms are unspecific or vague, extrinsic evidence mat be used to shed light on the mutual understanding of the parties." Hall v. Bd. of Educ. of Jefferson, 125 N.J. 299, 301 (1991). The contracts in question are not vague, as they were explicitly for a three-year period.

Since petitioners are not "teaching staff members" as defined by N.J.S.A. 18A:29-4.1, common law rule governs the validity of the contracts. "The common-law rule is that a public body empowered to appoint a public officer 'may not forestall the rights and obligations of [its] successor by making an appointment' where the term of the appointee will not take effect until after the expiration of the term of the appointing [body]." Georgia v. Suruda, 154 N.J. Super. 439, 448 (Law Div. 1977). The Court's analysis of this principal was determined in Gonzalez v. Board of Education of Elizabeth School District, Union County, 325 N.J. Super. 244, 252 (App. Div. 1999). In Gonzalez, the main issue before the Court was whether appellee, a local school board, had the power to appoint a superintendent whose term would begin during the term of office of the succeeding board. Ibid. In its analysis, the Court reasoned that a board of education is a "non-continuous body whose authority is limited to its own official life and whose actions can bind its successors only in those ways and to the extent expressly provided by statute." Id. at 253; see also Skladzien v. Board of Educ., 12 N.J. Misc. 602, 604-05 (Sup. Ct. 1934). Since Appellant appointee's term would not take effect until after the expiration of the term of the Board of Education, the appointment was void. Gonzalez, 325 N.J. Super. at 252.

Notwithstanding the above cases, the doctrine of equitable estoppel is relevant to whether the Board may rescind the approved three-year employment contracts for petitioners. Equitable estoppel embodies the doctrine that "one shall not be permitted to repudiate an act done or position assumed where that course would work injustice to another who, having the right to do so, has detrimentally relied thereon." Anske v. Borough of Palisades Park, 139 N.J. Super. 342, 348 (App. Div. 1976) (citing NJ Suburban Water Co. v. Harrison, 122 N.J.L. 189, 194 (E. & A. 1939)). The test for equitable estoppel requires that the petitioner "show that the alleged conduct was done, or representations made, intentionally or under such circumstances that it was both natural and probable that it would induce action. Further, the conduct must be relied on, and the relying party must act so as to change his or her position to his or her detriment." Miller v. Miller, 97 N.J. 154, 163 (1984). Indeed, equitable estoppel is applied "only in very compelling circumstances." Timber Properties v. Chester Twp., 205 N.J. Super. 273, 278 (Law Div. 1984). Furthermore, in those instances when it is invoked, equitable estoppel is not applied against the State to the same extent that it is applied against private individuals. Garcia v. Snedeker, 199 N.J. Super. 254, 264 (App. Div. 1985) (citing Vogt v. Borough of Belmar, 14 N.J. 195, 205 (1954)). The policy reason behind this is that allowing equitable estoppel against the State may be detrimental to the public interest and could interfere with the performance of essential government functions. O'Malley v. Dep't of Energy, 109 N.J. 309, 317 (1987).

Parties asserting equitable estoppel against the State are, therefore, required to satisfy a higher burden. Thus, in analyzing equitable estoppel claims against the State, "New Jersey state courts [ ] require a showing of intentional misrepresentation or other intentional misconduct—or at least a negligent disregard as to the consequences (detrimental reliance) of the acts—by the government in order for a claimant to be able to assert equitable estoppel against the government." Kane v. Bd. of Tr., Teachers' Pension and Annuity Fund, 96 N.J.A.R.2d (TYP) 25, 29. A party seeking to invoke estoppel against a government entity has the burden of establishing that "an officer of the state, conscious of the State's true interest and the private [party]'s misapprehension, stood by while the private [party] acted in detrimental reliance." Newark v. Nat'l Resource Council, 82 N.J. 530, 545 (1990). Accordingly, the focus is on intent.

In the present case, respondent approved three-year-employment contracts for both petitioners. The contracts included a salary increase for each of the three years. The unambiguous three-year duration of contracts for confidential employee's conflicts with N.J.S.A. 18A:29-4.1 and the principles established in Gonzalez and Skladzien. The Board's successors would be bound to a decision to increase salaries, which would "usurp and limit" their authority. Petitioners' three-year contracts went beyond the term of the Board itself that created them.

The Board argues in its brief, that the three-year contracts that it awarded to petitioners were void ab initio. As such, they acted in bad faith and their conduct might rise to the level of a blatant misrepresentation or conduct beyond the scope of its authority. In either case, respondent's action to award three-year contracts that it believed were void ab initio was an affront to all notions of fundamental fairness. Although there may not have been a clearly defined "detriment" immediately flowing from its actions, equity dictates in favor of petitioners in this case.

Accordingly, I CONCLUDE, that respondent should be estopped from denying petitioners' salary increases for their employment during the three-year contract period.

I further CONCLUDE that petitioners are entitled to the Board-approved salaries for the 2014-2015, 2015-2016, and 2016-2017 school years, or portion thereof.

CONCLUSION

Based on the totality of the circumstances and voluminous testimony, I CONCLUDE that petitioners did not conspire to fraudulently deceive the Board to receive salary increases. Further, since petitioners are not employees requiring certification, like teaching staff, the Board should not have entered into a three-year contract with petitioners. However, past practice appears to have been to the contrary and respondent may have awarded three-year contracts to employees who were not statutorily entitled to contracts of such duration. I am not persuaded by respondent to now deny petitioners compensation that they had reason to believe they were under contract to receive. Respondent's bad faith should not go unrequited.

ORDER

It is hereby ORDERED that respondent's decision to deny salary increases for petitioners and to rescind a stipend from Olsen-Faivre due to an alleged act of fraud is hereby REVERSED.

I hereby FILE this Initial Decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, P.O. Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

February 19, 2019
DATE

LELAND S. MCGEE, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: February 19, 2019

Date Mailed to Parties: 2/21/2019

lr

APPENDIX

WITNESSES

For Petitioners:

Raymond Muszynski
Vincenza Olsen-Faivre
Donna Perez
Loise Clarke
Mary Vaccaro

For Respondent:

Nicholas Annitti
Rene Engelhardt
Kevin Felten
Jeffrey C. Bliss

EXHIBITS

For Petitioners:

P-1 Opening Statement – Olsen-Faivre
P-8 Job Description for Confidential Secretary
P-12 Executive Session Minutes of 1/21/15
P-19 Paycheck for pay period ending 6/15
P-20 District Policy: Discipline

For Respondent:

R-1 Job Description – Confidential Secretary in Superintendent's Office
R-2 6/1/11, Work Session Agenda
R-3 Not admitted
R-4 7/13/11, Work Action Session Minutes
R-5 Olsen-Faivre Contract for period from 7/11-6/30/14

R-6 11/9/1,1 Work Action Session Minutes

R-7 5/7/14, Work Action Session Minutes

R-10 4/4/12, Work Action Session Minutes

R-11 5/8/13, Regular Action Session Minutes

R-12 5/7/14, Work Session Minutes

R-13 2014 PERS Pension Report

R-14 12/10/14, Work Action Session Minutes

R-15 1/21/15, Special Action Minutes

R-16 Olsen-Faivre's Letter of Reprimand

R-17 Perez's Letter of Reprimand

R-18 Not admitted

R-19 6/9/10, Executive Session Minutes

125-19

OAL DKT. No. EDU 06426-18
(EDU 15251-16 On Remand)
Agency DKT. No. 247-9/16

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

M.M., on behalf of minor child, J.M.,

Petitioners,

v.

Board of Education of the City of Bayonne, Hudson County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, the proposed stipulation of settlement and general release (Agreement), and the Initial Decision issued by the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1, have been reviewed – mindful of the Commissioner's March 29, 2018 determination to remand the Agreement as it did not comply with the requirements of N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.13. As the deficiencies noted in the Commissioner's previous decision have been addressed, the Commissioner can approve the within Agreement in its present form.

Accordingly, the Commissioner adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter. The case is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the settlement.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 5/13/19
Date of Mailing: 5/14/19

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

SETTLEMENT

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 06426-18

AGENCY DOCKET NO. 247-9/16

M.M. ON BEHALF OF J.M.,

Petitioners,

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF BAYONNE, HUDSON COUNTY,

Respondents.

Julie Warshaw, Esq. appearing on behalf of petitioners (Warshaw Law Firm, LLC)

Mitchell L. Pascual, Esq., for respondent (Chasan Lyener & Lamparello, P.C.)

Record Closed: April 9, 2019 Decided: April 9, 2019

BEFORE KIMBERLY A. MOSS, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) on May 4, 2019, for resolution as a contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F1 to -13. This matter was initially assigned to the undersigned under OAL Docket Number EDU 15251-16. An Initial Decision approving the settlement agreement was issued on March 29, 2018. However, by Order dated May 3, 2018, the Commissioner remanded the matter to OAL due to the agreement not being signed by the Board's attorney, the agreement not having the appropriate Board resolution and designating the Assistant Superintendent to sign the agreement on its behalf as required under N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.13. Several telephone conferences were conducted. On April 9, 2019, the Board's attorney submitted the Settlement Agreement and Release which authorizes the Board President to execute the agreement on behalf of the Board. A copy of both Settlement Agreements and the Resolution from the June 27, 2018, meeting is attached hereto for reference.

Having reviewed the contents of the attached Settlement Agreement and General Release, I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures and/or the signatures of their representatives.

2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this settlement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the stipulation should be approved. I approve the settlement and, therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

4-9-19
DATE

KIMBERLY A. MOSS, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: 4-12-2019

Date Mailed to Parties: 4-12-2019

ljb

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND RELEASE
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 06426-18

2019 APR -9 A 11:04

THIS SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND RELEASE ("Agreement") is made and entered into this _____day of _____, 2018 in the case of M.M. o/b/o J.M. a minor child, v. Bayonne Public School District Board of Education, in an appeal dated September 23, 2016 before the Commissioner of Education of a Harassment, Intimidation, and Bullying ("HIB") finding against J.M. This settlement agreement ("Agreement") is made by and between M.M. on behalf of J.M., minor child ("Petitioner") and the Bayonne Public School District Board of Education ("District"), hereinafter sometimes referred to collectively as "the Parties."

WHEREAS, M.M., as natural guardian and parent of the minor petitioner, J.M., filed an appeal with the Commissioner of Education on or about September 23, 2016, which sought the following: (1) that the finding of HIB against J.M. from an alleged incident on the field during a game on field day on May 24, 2016 be reversed, (2) that the HIB finding and investigation be removed from his student record, (3) that J.M.'s transfer from the Henry E. Harris School to the Mary J. Donohue School was a form of retaliation and that he must be switched back, (4) that the District would contact the State and to remove the "tag" and identifying marker from J.M.'s student ID number regarding the HIB finding, (5) that J.M.'s IEP shall be modified to include counseling to address the effects of this alleged incident and the transfer to a different school, to address his needs and learning issues, and to hold an IEP meeting to discuss the results of the independent evaluation conducted by Dr. Daniel DaSilva and incorporate those findings in J.M.'s IEP, and (6) attorney's fees.

WHEREAS, J.M. at all relevant times was a classified student;

WHEREAS, the parties both desire to resolve this matter on an amicable basis without the time, costs, and uncertainty of litigation;

NOW, THEREFORE, the parties, in full consideration of the exchange of promises and covenants set forth herein, the sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged and agree as follows:

A. Terms of Agreement:

1. The District has agreed to remove all references to the HIB Complaint(s), investigation, and findings from J.M.'s student records,

2. the District has agreed to contact the State of New Jersey and request in writing to remove all "tags" associated with HIB and an HIB finding from J.M.'s student ID number;

3. The District has agreed to hold an IEP meeting within a reasonable time after receipt, by the District, of Dr. Daniel DaSilva's independent evaluation report in order to discuss the results of the independent evaluation and incorporate those findings in J.M.'s IEP as deemed appropriate and necessary by the District; and

4. The District has agreed to pay attorney's fees in the amount of $3,000.00 within 30 days from the date that the Board of Education approves said settlement agreement.

In exchange for the above terms, Petitioner has agreed to resolve this action and dismiss her appeal with prejudice.

B. No Admission: This Agreement is for the purpose of settling the dispute between the Parties only. This Agreement does not constitute an admission by either party on any of the issues that may have been in dispute between them.

C. Settlement and Release: This Agreement is a full settlement and release of all claims which exist or may exist between the Parties relating to said alleged HIB incident through the date this Agreement is fully executed. The Parties release and forever discharge each other (including with regard to the District its officers, agents, employees, predecessors, assigns, and attorneys) from all existing demands, actions, claims of any kind, nature, and description both in law and in equity which the Parties have or might have, whether known or unknown, against each other through the date of execution of this Agreement, except as may be necessary to enforce the terms of this Agreement. Without limiting the foregoing generalities, the Petitioner specifically acknowledges that she is waiving any rights against the District which may have accrued, or might have accrued, to her and/or to J.M. which she may or may not know about at this time up to the date of execution of this Agreement.

D. Confidentiality: Except as necessary to enforce its terms or as required by law, subpoena, or administrative/judicial order, the Parties agree that the terms of this Agreement will be kept confidential and private between them; that is, neither party will disclose any aspect of it to anyone else. In the event either party is asked about the dispute, they shall tell all others that the dispute was settled in a manner satisfactory to both parties. The Parties may, without breach of this Paragraph or of this Agreement, disclose the terms of the Agreement to their educational, legal, and financial advisors and representatives to the extent necessary for such individuals to perform their professional duties and so long as each individual/entity commits to keeping such terms confidential. In addition, Petitioner may disclose the terms of the Agreement to family members who agree to be bound by the terms of this paragraph. The Parties may, without breach of this Agreement, as they deem necessary or desirable, seek to introduce copies of this Agreement as an exhibit in administrative or judicial proceedings in furtherance of their rights and obligations under this Agreement and the laws as they relate to Petitioner or to J.M.

E. Access to Counsel and Understanding of Agreement: The Parties to this Agreement hereby acknowledge that they had the opportunity to consult with an attorney or other representative of their choice throughout these proceedings, that they have read this entire Agreement, and that they have signed this Agreement, voluntarily with full understanding of its terms and without any other inducements or promises except for those set forth herein. This Agreement shall be executed in duplicate by the Parties. Each executed Agreement shall be considered an original. Petitioner hereby certifies that she is satisfied with the legal services of Julie Warshaw, Esq. of the Warshaw Law Firm, LLC. Petitioner also certifies that she has the legal authority on behalf of herself and her son, J.M., minor child, to enter into this Agreement.

F. Entire Agreement: The Agreement constitutes and contains the entire agreement between the Parties and shall be binding and inure to the benefit of the executors, administrators, personal representatives, heirs, successors and assigns of each. There are no other understandings or agreements, verbal or otherwise, in relation thereto, between the parties except as expressly set forth herein.

G. Governing Law: This Agreement is entered into in the State of New Jersey and shall be construed and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the State of New Jersey.

H. Construction: The language of all parts of the Agreement shall in all cases be construed as a whole, according to its fair meaning, and not strictly for or against any of the parties to the action. In the event that one or more sections of this Agreement are found by a judicial body to be ineffective, the remainder of the Agreement shall remain in full force and effect. This Agreement can be executed in parts and still be considered an original copy. Captions set forth herein shall be for reference purposes only.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF having carefully reviewed this entire Agreement, each party intends to be legally bound to the terms set forth herein, and have executed the foregoing Agreement on the date first above written.

M.M. as parent and natural and legal guardian
of J.M., Minor Child

Bayonne Public School District Board of Education
(Signature)

Joseph T. Broderick, President
Bayonne Public School District Board of Education
(Printed Name)

C-24

BOARD OF EDUCATION / OF THE CITY OF BAYONNE

2019 APR -9 A 11:04

HUDSON COUNTY, NEW JERSEY

June 27, 2018

WHEREAS, the Board of Education held a Board Level Hearing on June 29, 2016, regarding student J.M.; and

WHEREAS, by Resolution dated June 29, 2016, the Board confirmed the HIB findings of the Administration against the student J.M.;

WHEREAS, M.M., as natural guardian and parent of the minor petitioner, J.M., filed an appeal with the Commissioner of Education on or about September 23, 2016, which sought the following: (1) that the finding of HIB against J.M. from an alleged incident on the field during a game on field day on May 24, 2016 be reversed, (2) that the HIB finding and investigation be removed from his student record, (3) that J.M.'s transfer from the Henry E. Harris School to the Mary J. Donohue School was a form of retaliation and that he must be switched back, (4) that the District would contact the State and to remove the "tag" and identifying marker from J.M.'s student ID number regarding the HIB finding, (5) that J.M.'s IEP shall be modified to include counseling to address the effects of this alleged incident and the transfer to a different school, to address his needs and learning issues, and to hold an IEP meeting to discuss the results of the independent evaluation conducted by Dr. Daniel DaSilva and incorporate those findings in J.M.'s IEP, and (6) attorney's fees;

WHEREAS, the parties both desire to resolve this matter on an amicable basis without the time, costs, and uncertainty of litigation;

WHEREAS, the parties have negotiated a mutually acceptable Settlement Agreement and Release;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Board President shall execute the Settlement Agreement and Release in the name and on behalf of this Board and that the Board Counsel approve same as to form; and

FURTHERMORE, written notice shall be provided to student J.M.'s guardian and/or representative by Board counsel.

TRUSTEE

Moved that that the foregoing resolution is adopted.

SECONDED BY TRUSTEE

ADOPTED AT BOARD MEETING HELD June 27, 2018

RECEIVED
2018 JAN 24 A 8:49
Office of

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND RELEASE

THIS SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND RELEASE ("Agreement") is made and entered into this _____ day of _____ 2017, in the case of M.M. o/b/o J.M. a minor child, v. Bayonne Public School District Board of Education, in an appeal dated September 23, 2016 before the Commissioner of Education of a Harassment, Intimidation, and Bullying ("HIB") finding against J.M. This settlement agreement ("Agreement") is made by and between M.M. on behalf of J.M., minor child ("Petitioner") and the Bayonne Township Public School District Board of Education ("District"), hereinafter sometimes referred to collectively as "the Parties."

WHEREAS, M.M., as natural guardian and parent of the minor petitioner, J.M., filed an appeal with the Commissioner of Education on or about September 23, 2016, which sought the following: (1) that the finding of HIB against J.M. from an alleged incident on the field during a game on field day on May 24, 2016 be reversed, (2) that the HIB finding and investigation be removed from his student record, (3) that J.M.'s transfer from the Henry E. Harris School to the Mary J. Donohue School was a form of retaliation and that he must be switched back, (4) that the District would contact the State and to remove the "tag" and identifying marker from J.M.'s student ID number regarding the HIB finding, (5) that J.M.'s IEP shall be modified to include counseling to address the effects of this alleged incident and the transfer to a different school, to address his needs and learning issues, and to hold an IEP meeting to discuss the results of the independent evaluation conducted by Dr. Daniel DaSilva and incorporate those findings in J.M.'s IEP, and (6) attorney's fees.

WHEREAS, J.M. at all relevant times was a classified student;

WHEREAS, the parties both desire to resolve this matter on an amicable basis without the time, costs, and uncertainty of litigation;

NOW, THEREFORE, the parties, in full consideration of the exchange of promises and covenants set forth herein, the sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged and agree as follows:

A. Terms of Agreement:

1. The District has agreed to remove all references to the HIB Complaint(s), investigation, and findings from J.M.'s student records,

2. the District has agreed to contact the State of New Jersey and request in writing to remove all "tags" associated with HIB and an HIB finding from J.M.'s student ID number;

3. The District has agreed to hold an IEP meeting within a reasonable time after receipt, by the District, of Dr. Daniel DaSilva's independent evaluation report in order to discuss the results of the independent evaluation and incorporate those findings in J.M.'s IEP as deemed appropriate and necessary by the District; and

4. The District has agreed to pay attorney's fees in the amount of $3,000.00 within 30 days from the date that the Board of Education approves said settlement agreement.

In exchange for the above terms, Petitioner has agreed to resolve this action and dismiss her appeal with prejudice.

B. No Admission: This Agreement is for the purpose of settling the dispute between the Parties only. This Agreement does not constitute an admission by either party on any of the issues that may have been in dispute between them.

C. Settlement and Release: This Agreement is a full settlement and release of all claims which exist or may exist between the Parties relating to said alleged HIB incident through the date this Agreement is fully executed. The Parties release and forever discharge each other (including with regard to the District its officers, agents, employees, predecessors, assigns, and attorneys) from all existing demands, actions, claims of any kind, nature, and description both in law and in equity which the Parties have or might have, whether known or unknown, against each other through the date of execution of this Agreement, except as may be necessary to enforce the terms of this Agreement. Without limiting the foregoing generalities, the Petitioner specifically acknowledges that she is waiving any rights against the District which may have accrued, or might have accrued, to her and/or to J.M. which she may or may not know about at this time up to the date of execution of this Agreement.

D. Confidentiality: Except as necessary to enforce its terms or as required by law, subpoena, or administrative/judicial order, the Parties agree that the terms of this Agreement will be kept confidential and private between them; that is, neither party will disclose any aspect of it to anyone else. In the event either party is asked about the dispute, they shall tell all others that the dispute was settled in a manner satisfactory to both parties. The Parties may, without breach of this Paragraph or of this Agreement, disclose the terms of the Agreement to their educational, legal, and financial advisors and representatives to the extent necessary for such individuals to perform their professional duties and so long as each individual/entity commits to keeping such terms confidential. In addition, Petitioner may disclose the terms of the Agreement to family members who agree to be bound by the terms of this paragraph. The Parties may, without breach of this Agreement, as they deem necessary or desirable, seek to to introduce copies of this Agreement as an exhibit in administrative or judicial proceedings in furtherance of their rights and obligations under this Agreement and the laws as they relate to Petitioner or to J.M.

E. Access to Counsel and Understanding of Agreement: The Parties to this Agreement hereby acknowledge that they had the opportunity to consult with an attorney or other representative of their choice throughout these proceedings, that they have read this entire Agreement, and that they have signed this Agreement, voluntarily with full understanding of its terms and without any other inducements or promises except for those set forth herein. This Agreement shall be executed in duplicate by the Parties. Each executed Agreement shall be considered an original. Petitioner hereby certifies that she is satisfied with the legal services of Julie Warshaw, Esq. of the Warshaw Law Firm, LLC. Petitioner also certifies that she has the legal authority on behalf of herself and her son, J.M., minor child, to enter into this Agreement.

F. Entire Agreement: The Agreement constitutes and contains the entire agreement between the Parties and shall be binding and inure to the benefit of the executors, administrators, personal representatives, heirs, successors and assigns of each. There are no other understandings or agreements, verbal or otherwise, in relation thereto, between the parties except as expressly set forth herein.

G. Governing Law: This Agreement is entered into in the State of New Jersey and shall be construed and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the State of New Jersey.

H. Construction: The language of all parts of the Agreement shall in all cases be construed as a whole, according to its fair meaning, and not strictly for or against any of the parties to the action. In the event that one or more sections of this Agreement are found by a judicial body to be ineffective, the remainder of the Agreement shall remain in full force and effect. This Agreement can be executed in parts and still be considered an original copy. Captions set forth herein shall be for reference purposes only.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF having carefully reviewed this entire Agreement, each party intends to be legally bound to the terms set forth herein, and have executed the foregoing Agreement on the date first above written.

M.M. as parent and natural and legal guardian
of J.M., Minor Child

Assistant Superintendent

Representative of the Bayonne Township Public School Board of Education

126-19

OAL Dkt. No. EDU 13510-18
Agency Dkt. No. 179-7/18

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

A.V. and P.V., on behalf of minor child, A.V.,

Petitioners,

v.

Board of Education of the West Morris Regional School District, Morris County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, the proposed settlement agreement (Agreement) and the Initial Decision issued by the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1.

Upon review, the Commissioner approves the terms of the Agreement and adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter. The case is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the Agreement.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 5/13/19
Date of Mailing: 5/14/19

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SETTLEMENT
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 13510-18
AGENCY DKT. NO. 179-7/18

A.V. AND P.V. ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILD, A.V.,

Petitioners,

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE WEST MORRIS REGIONAL SCHOOL DISTRICT, MORRIS COUNTY,

Respondent.

Lisa ChadwickThompson, Esq. for petitioners (Mason Thompson, LLC, attorneys)

Jodi S. Howlett, Esq. for respondent (Cleary, Giacobbe, Alfieri , Jacobs, LLC, attorneys)

Record Closed: April 9, 2019 Decided: April 9, 2019

BEFORE ELLEN S. BASS, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on September 17, 2018 for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The parties have agreed to a settlement and have prepared a Settlement Agreement indicating the terms thereof. A copy of the Settlement Agreement is attached and fully incorporated herein.

I have reviewed the record and the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures on the attached settlement agreement.

2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

April 9, 2019
DATE

ELLEN S. BASS, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: April 12, 2019

Mailed to Parties: April 12, 2019

sej

JODI S. HOWLETT, Partner
jhowlett@cgajlaw.com

Reply to: Matawan Office

2019 APR -9 A 9:43

April 8, 2019

Via E-Mail (Sharon.Jeffers@oal.nj.gov) and NJLS
Honorable Ellen Bass, ALJ
State of New Jersey
Office of Administrative Law
33 Washington Street
Newark, New Jersey 07102

Re: A.V. and P.V. o/b/o A.V. v. West Morris Regional High School District Board of Education
OAL Dkt. No.: EDU 13510-18
Agency Dkt. No.: 179-7/18

Dear Judge Bass:

As the Court is aware, this firm represents Respondent West Morris Regional High School District Board of Education ("Board") in the above-referenced matter.

On behalf of the Board, the undersigned respectfully submits the enclosed settlement agreement, fully-executed by the parties. Also enclosed are the certified minutes from the Board's meeting on February 11, 2019, memorializing approval of the settlement.

The parties thank the Court for its continued attention to this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

Jodi S. Howlett
Encl.

cc: Lisa Chadwick Thompson, Esq. – counsel for Petitioners (via e-mail)

2019 APR -9 A 9:43

MASON THOMPSON, LLC
Lisa Chadwick Thompson, Esq. (Atty. ID #009191995)
50 Nelson Street
Dover, New Jersey 07801
973-366-9300
973-366-9301 (facsimile)
Attorneys for Petitioners

A.V. and P.V., on behalf of their minor child A.V Petitioners, vs. West Morris Regional School District Board of Education, Morris County Respondent.	STATE OF NEW JERSEY OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW OAL DOCKET NO.: EDU 13510-2018 N AGENCY REFERENCE NO.: 1799-7/18 SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

This Settlement Agreement ("Agreement") is made effective as of the last date on which it is executed by either party hereto ("Effective Date") and is by and between Petitioners A.V. and P.V., on behalf of A.V. ("Petitioners"), and the West Morris Regional School District Board of Education ("Board"). Petitioners and the Board are each singularly referred to herein as "Party", and collectively referred to herein as "Parties."

WHEREAS, the Board operates the West Morris Regional High School; and

WHEREAS, A.V. is a student at West Morris Regional High School; and

WHEREAS, Petitioners previously initiated a Petition of Appeal against the Board ("Petition"), in response to the Board's determination that there was sufficient evidence to find that A.V. committed an act of harassment, intimidation, and bullying ("HIB"); and

WHEREAS, the Parties amicably settled the disagreements and controversies between them during a settlement conference held on January 23, 2019; and

WHEREAS, the Parties enter into this Agreement for reasons including but not limited to avoiding the expense, time and inconvenience of litigation; and

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the representations set forth hereinbelow, the Parties, intending to be legally bound, agree to:

1. Board shall immediately remove from Student A.V.'s cumulative file or any electronic version thereof, any and all documents, including but not limited to records, emails, letters, reports, statements and the like, related or referring to the alleged HIB.

2. Student A.V.'s cumulative file shall not include any reference to any disciplinary action in any way related to the alleged HIB violation and Student A.V. shall not be required to serve the detention previously imposed.

3. Student A.V.'s cumulative file shall not include any reference to any requirement for counseling in any way related to the alleged HIB violation.

4. Any records, reports, statements or documents prepared on behalf of the Board related to the alleged HIB violation shall be sealed and shall not be disclosed for any reason.

5. Within fifteen (15) calendar days of approval of this Agreement by the Board, the Board shall provide Petitioners with a letter acknowledging that the foregoing items have been completed.

6. The Parties agree and promise that, to the extent permitted by law, they will not disclose, in any manner whatever, any information regarding the existence or terms of this Agreement or the facts and circumstanced giving rise to the claim(s) in the Petition, to any person or organization, public or private, except that the parties may disclose said information to their attorneys, and such information may also be disclosed to member of the Board, the Superintendent, the Business Administrator, and the District/Board Attorney. The Board expressly agrees that prior to disclosure to any member of the Board, the Superintendent, and/or the Business Administrator, that this promise of non-disclosure must be fully explained and agreed upon,

7. The Parties agree that this Agreement shall not be offered, used or considered as evidence in any proceeding of any type against or involving either of the Parties, except to the extend necessary to enforce the terms hereof.

8. As this Agreement resolves the dispute between the Parties, the Petitioner agrees to withdraw the Petition, with prejudice, immediately upon full execution of this Agreement. In light of the Parties' desire for the confidentially of this Agreement, this Agreement shall not be made public in any way, and a copy hereof shall not be included in A.V.'s student file and/or any electronic version thereof.

9. In consideration of the above, and all other terms of this Agreement, the Petitioners hereby waive and release the Board, its employees and agents from all possible claims that have or may have been accrued against the Board relating to anything that has happened until now, regardless of the forum in which such claims may have been pursuable, to the extent permitted by applicable law through the date this Agreement is executed. Nothing in this release set forth in this paragraph shall be construed as a release or waiver of any claims between the Parties seeking to enforce any term or provision of this Agreement.

10. Neither Party shall be considered a "prevailing party" for any purpose, and both Parties shall be responsible for their own counsel fees costs.

11. This Agreement shall be binding upon the Parties, and their respective affiliates.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, each of the Parties hereto, intending to be legal bound hereby, has executed this Agreement under seal on the date indicated below.

FOR PETITIONERS:

3/31/19
Philip Varughese (date)

3/31/19
Andrea Varughese (date)

FOR WEST MORRIS REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT BOARD OF EDUCATION

2/11/19
Michael Ben-David (date)
Superintendent

2/11/19
(date)
Board President

A MEETING OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE WEST MORRIS REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT, MORRIS COUNTY, NEW JERSEY, AS RECORDED

IN THE OFFICIAL MINUTE BOOK

The Board of Education of the West Morris Regional High School District, in the County of Morris, New Jersey, convened into Regular Session, on February 11, 2019 at 6:59 p.m. in the West Morris Mendham High School Library.

The following members of the Board of Education were present:

Thomas Brooks	Marina Kontos	Robert Strobel
Joseph Galayda	James Schulok	Lisa Woodring
David Kennedy	Donald Storms

The following member of the Board of Education was absent: Gary Lakritz

Motion by Mr. Storms, second by Mr. Galayda,

9. That the Board enter into a settlement agreement regarding Student #5940.

Voting YES (8): Mr. Brooks, Mr. Galayda, Mr. Kennedy, Ms. Kontos, Mr. Schulok, Mr. Storms, Mr. Strobel, Mrs. Woodring

Motion APPROVED

I, Denise Zollner, Assistant Secretary of the Board of Education, of the West Morris Regional High School District, in the County of Morris, State of New Jersey, hereby certify that:

(1) the foregoing extract is a true copy and complete copy of a resolution relating to the subject matter referred to in the extract as adopted by the Board of Education and recorded in the official minutes of the February 11, 2019 meeting of the Board of Education of said district; and

(2) that said meeting of the Board of Education was duly noticed and held in conformity with the Open Public Meetings Act, N.J.S.A. 10:4-7 et seq.

(3) I have hereby set my hand this 22nd day of March, 2019.

Denise Zollner, Assistant Board Secretary

2019 APR -9 A 9:44

In the Matter of the Tenure Hearing of

Nikki Vogel,
School District of the Township of Deptford
Gloucester County

Agency Docket No. 14-1/19

Ruling and Opinion on Respondent's Motion to Dismiss

Tia Schneider Denenberg, Arbitrator

APPEARANCES

FOR THE RESPONDENT:

Steven R. Cohen
Hop T. Wechsler
Selikoff & Cohen, P.A.

FOR THE DISTRICT:

Albert K. Marmero
Grace, Marmero & Associates, LLP

I. BACKGROUND

This matter is before the arbitrator for a decision on the motion to dismiss filed by Nikki Vogel (Respondent) on January 31, 2019, along with a letter brief in support of the motion. On February 21, the Director of the Office of Controversies and Disputes granted an extension, making the award due on June 3, 2019. On March 4, 2019, the School District of the Township of Deptford, Gloucester County (District) filed a letter brief in opposition to the motion to dismiss. On March 19, 2019, the Respondent filed a reply brief.

I. Statement of Facts

The Respondent is a tenured teacher employed by the District at the Pine Acres Early Childhood Center since December 22, 2003. On October 17, 2018, she was arrested in Atlantic County, New Jersey, after police observed her car "swerving all over the road" on the Atlantic City Expressway [Arrest Report attached to District's letter of January 9, 2019 to the Commissioner of Education, at 4]. The arrest report stated that her blood alcohol content was 0.00% and that she "was under the influence of a narcotic analgesic and CNS [central nervous system] depressant" [id. at 6]. The police charged the Respondent with violating several New Jersey statutes, including distribution or possession of prescription legend drugs, operation of a motor vehicle with a minor as passenger, and driving while intoxicated [id. at 1-6].

On the following day, the State of New Jersey Department of Education's Criminal History Review Unit (CHRU) sent a letter to the District notifying it that CHRU had forwarded to the Commissioner of Education "information concerning a pending charge against [the Respondent] for a disqualifying crime or offense" [CHRU letter dated October 18, 2018]. The letter stated the date of the arrest (October 17, 2018), the court of jurisdiction (Atlantic County Superior Court), and the court status (pending court adjudication), but did not include the arrest report. The District Superintendent received the letter on October 23, 2018.

On October 29, 2018, the Respondent sent the Superintendent an email setting forth:

> 3 charges:
>
> 1. Failure to make lawful disposition
> 2. Operating under influence of liquor or drugs
> 3. Traffic on marked lanes-unsafe lane change.
>
> My attorney is currently investigating the above charges in an attempt to downgrade or eliminate them.
>
> [Respondent's email of October 29, 2018]

On November 5, 2018, the Superintendent initiated a tenure charge against the Respondent, charging her with conduct unbecoming on the basis of her arrest [Notice of Charge of Conduct Unbecoming, dated November 5, 2018]. His statement included as evidence only the CHRU letter and the Respondent's email to him, and did not include the arrest report [id.]. The Superintendent served the tenure charge on the Respondent the same day [id.].

On November 19, 2018, the Respondent's counsel filed a Statement of Position with the District in opposition to the tenure charge.

At a meeting on December 18, 2018, "after considering the Notice of [Tenure] Charge, Statement of Evidence and Exhibits, and having reviewed the Statement of Position in Opposition to the Tenure Charge," the District "determined that probable cause exists to credit the evidence in support of the charge" [Respondent's Brief, Exhibit B at 3]. At that point, the District did not have before it a copy of the arrest report and the criminal charges had not been adjudicated. At the same meeting, the District also approved the Respondent's "voluntary transfer from Pine Acres Early Childhood Center to Deptford High School for the remainder of the 2018-2019 school year" [Respondent's Brief, Exhibit C].

On December 21, 2018, the District submitted the tenure charge to the Commissioner of Education.

By letter dated January 9, 2019, the District informed the Commissioner that on January 4, 2019, it had received additional documentation related to the Respondent's arrest [Letter of January 9, 2019 from the District to the Commissioner]. In its letter, the District enclosed "a copy of the documentation which supplements the record" and requested "that the additional documentation be considered prior to a decision by the Commissioner" [id.]. The enclosures consisted of the New Jersey State Police Arrest Report, the New Jersey State Police Drinking Driving Report, and accompanying video footage of the arrest [id.].

On January 17, 2019, the District filed a written tenure charge with the Commissioner [see Respondent's brief at 3].

On February 11, 2019, the Director of the Office of Controversies and Disputes sent correspondence acknowledging receipt of the Tenure Charge and referring the matter to arbitration.

On February 12, 2019, the criminal charges against the Respondent were adjudicated by the Township of Hamilton Regional Municipal Court, Atlantic County, New Jersey [Respondent's Reply Brief, Exhibit A (Transcript of Terms of Conditional Discharge and Dismissals)]. The Respondent was admitted into the Municipal Court's Conditional Discharge Program and required to pay fees and court costs, and all other charges against her were dismissed [id.].

II. CONTENTIONS OF THE PARTIES

The Respondent contends:

The Respondent maintains that the tenure charge is procedurally defective because it is not stated with specificity, is not based on competent evidence, and does not support a determination of probable cause. The tenure charge offers no explanation as to why the mere fact of her arrest without the disposition of any criminal charges against her, nor her timely reporting of the arrest to the Superintendent, should constitute conduct unbecoming or relate in any way to her employment as a teacher. Indeed, the nature of the charged conduct is never specified—a procedural deficiency that has proven fatal to other tenure charges.

The accompanying sworn Statement of Evidence from the Superintendent is equally deficient because it does not contain evidence of the Respondent's unbecoming conduct as a teaching staff member of which the Superintendent has the necessary personal knowledge. The District deprived the Respondent of procedural due process when it rubber-stamped the charge the Superintendent initiated, and it compounded its error when it submitted subsequently-obtained evidence—the arrest report and accompanying video footage—directly to the Commissioner to supplement the record, denying the Respondent the opportunity to respond to the evidence and supplement her Statement of Position in return. As the District had no knowledge as to the contents of the arrest report at the time it voted to certify the charge against the Respondent, the arrest report should not be considered as evidence in support of the charge.

In addition to these procedural defects warranting dismissal of the tenure charge, there is another independent basis for dismissing the charge: the Respondent's arrest without a conviction cannot constitute evidence of unbecoming conduct. The Respondent was arrested, but was not indicted, tried, or convicted. Indeed, as a result of the Municipal Court's proceeding on February 12, 2019, her arrest will not be followed by an indictment, trial, or conviction, and, as such, cannot constitute evidence of unbecoming conduct. The District certified a tenure charge based solely on the fact of the Respondent's arrest and her own statement outlining the resulting criminal charges but without any specifics regarding the underlying circumstances of the arrest and without an indictment, trial, or conviction. The exhibits referenced in the Superintendent's Statement of Evidence show only that the Respondent was arrested; they do not establish, or even attempt to establish, that the Respondent engaged in unbecoming conduct as a teaching professional. The District can offer no proof that the mere fact of the Respondent's arrest adversely relates to her employment. To the contrary, by voting to transfer her to Deptford High School for the remainder of the school year at the same meeting in which it certified the charge against the Respondent, the District did not proceed as if her employment was adversely affected by the arrest.

In short, the tenure charge must be dismissed because it is procedurally defective and because it does not prove that the Respondent engaged in conduct unbecoming.

The District contends:

The District asserts that the tenure charge is procedurally effective under N.J.A.C. 6A:3-5.1. That statute does not require that persons initiating tenure charges have first-hand knowledge, but rather that the charge and evidence be executed under oath. Here, although the Superintendent did not have first-hand knowledge about the Respondent's arrest, he did have the October 18th correspondence from the CHRU and the October 29th e-mail from the Respondent, which provided him the necessary information in order to prepare and submit the tenure charge to the District.

The Superintendent's tenure charge and statement of evidence were based on hearsay, which is permissible. The charge was stated with as much specificity as was available to the Superintendent on November 5, 2018, which was clearly enough information and evidence for the District to vote that probable cause existed. Additionally, the Respondent was able to generate a three-page Statement of Position in response to the charge of conduct unbecoming. In short, the Superintendent followed applicable regulations, issued a charge based on competent evidence, and the charge is procedurally effective.

In addition, the charge demonstrates conduct unbecoming by the Respondent. Based on the information received, the Superintendent possessed cause to issue the tenure charge for unbecoming conduct because the arrest clearly has an effect on the morale, efficiency, and public perception of the District. The fact that the criminal charges have not yet been adjudicated[1] is irrelevant; the issue is not whether the teacher is found guilty of the criminal charge, the issue is whether the teacher engaged in conduct unbecoming, which is any conduct that adversely affects the morale or efficiency of the Department of Education. Here, the Respondent, an elementary school teacher, was arrested and charged with various drug and alcohol offenses. Given the totality of the circumstances, the pending tenure charge for unbecoming conduct is warranted.

---

[1] The District's brief, dated March 4, 2019, states: "To date, to the best of our knowledge these charges have not yet been adjudicated" [District's Brief at unnumbered page 6]. The brief also states that, "[d]espite the pending criminal charges not yet being adjudicated, the Charge for Unbecoming Conduct can still be determined and is supported based upon the evidence submitted" [id.]. As noted above, the criminal charges were adjudicated by the Hamilton Municipal Regional Court on February 12, 2019 [see Respondent's reply brief of March 19, 2019, Exhibit A]. Nothing in the record in this arbitration proceeding addresses whether the District became aware of the court's adjudication of the criminal charges after it filed its brief and before the Respondent filed her reply brief.

DISCUSSION

The Respondent has the burden to demonstrate that the motion to dismiss the tenure charge should be granted. The Respondent raises two separate grounds for dismissing the tenure charge. These will be addressed in turn.

First, the Respondent asserts that the tenure charge is procedurally defective because it is not stated with specificity, is not based on competent evidence, and does not support a determination of probable cause. The District counters that the tenure charge is procedurally effective.

The relevant statute provides:

> Charges shall be stated with specificity as to the action or behavior underlying the charges and shall be filed in writing with the secretary of the district board of education . . . accompanied by a supporting statement of evidence, both of which shall be executed under oath by the person(s) instituting such charges. Complete copies of all documents referenced in the statement of evidence shall be attached as part of the statement.
>
> [N.J.A.C. 6A:3-5.1(b)1]

The Superintendent initiated the tenure charge against the Respondent on November 5, 2018, charging her with conduct unbecoming. On that date, the only knowledge he had concerning the Respondent's arrest consisted of two documents: the CHRU letter and the Respondent's email to him. The totality of the information contained in these two documents was that the Respondent had been arrested on October 17, 2018, and that the arrest involved three charges stated in the email. The Superintendent was unaware of the arrest report at this time and had no other evidence surrounding the circumstances of the arrest. Based solely on the two documents submitted as the Statement of Evidence, the Superintendent asserted that the Respondent had engaged in conduct unbecoming.

The reliance on these two documents, without more, is insufficient to meet the procedural safeguards intended by the statute. As the Respondent cogently points out:

> The tenure charges offer no explanation as to why the mere fact of her arrest without the disposition of any criminal charges against her, nor her timely reporting of the arrest to Superintendent Dietz, should constitute conduct unbecoming or relate in any way to her employment as a teacher. Indeed, the nature of the charged conduct is never specified – a procedural deficiency that has proven fatal to other tenure charges.
>
> [Respondent's Brief at 4]

It requires too much of a stretch to conclude from a mere reference to the two documents, without any explanation at all of the relevant circumstances, that they provide probable cause for a determination that the Respondent's actions had any connection to her employment, let alone constitute conduct unbecoming of a teacher.

In this regard, the District's contention--that the tenure charge was "stated with as much specificity as was available to the Superintendent on November 5, 2018 which was clearly enough information and evidence for the Board to decide to vote that probable cause existed"— is conclusory and unsupported [District's brief at unnumbered pages 4-5]. It is undoubtedly true that the tenure charge was stated with as much specificity as was available to the Superintendent on November 5, 2018 (which was not much at all). However, that information was not used by the Superintendent to explain how or why there was a nexus between the facts contained therein and the Respondent's employment as a teacher or how those facts established probable cause to show conduct unbecoming. Nothing required the Superintendent to act on November 5, 2018, prior to his having any knowledge of the arrest report or any other evidence concerning the circumstances of the arrest, and prior to any court adjudication of the criminal charges against the Respondent. Further, the Respondent was deprived of due process when she was not afforded the opportunity to respond to the District's submission of the arrest report, the accompanying video footage of the arrest to the Commissioner, and its request that the Commissioner consider that additional documentation in making a decision on the tenure charge.

In sum, the Respondent was deprived of significant procedural safeguards by the manner in which the tenure charge was processed.

Moreover, even if the processing of the tenure charge were found to comply with all necessary procedural safeguards, the charge nevertheless did not establish probable cause to show that the Respondent engaged in conduct unbecoming.

Under New Jersey law, a teacher may be dismissed for "unbecoming conduct" [N.J.S.A. 18A:6-10]. While that term is not defined in statute, its meaning has been elaborated by the courts. In Bound Brook Board of Education v. Ciripompa, 228 N.J. 4 (2017) (Ciripompa), the court stated that it > has defined unbecoming conduct as conduct "which adversely affects the morale or efficiency of the [department]" or "has a tendency to destroy public respect for [government] employees and confidence in the operation of [public] services." In re Young, 202 N.J. 50, 66, 995 A.2d 826 (2010) (alterations in original) (quoting Karins v. Atl. City, 152 N.J. 532, 554, 706 A.2d 706 (1998)). We have also held that a finding of unbecoming conduct "need not 'be predicated upon the violation of any particular rule or regulation, but may be based merely upon the violation of the implicit standard of good behavior which devolves upon one who stands in the public eye as an upholder of that which is morally and legally correct'." Karins, supra, 152 N.J. at 555, 706 A.2d 706 (quoting Hartmann v. Police Dep't of Ridgewood, 258 N.J. Super. 32, 40, 609 A.2d 61 (App. Div. 1992)).

>
> * * *
>
> A charge of unbecoming conduct requires only evidence of inappropriate conduct by teaching professionals. It focuses on the morale, efficiency, and public perception of an entity, and how those > concerns are harmed by allowing teachers to behave inappropriately while holding public employment.

>
> [Ciripompa at 14]

In the instant case, the parties disagree as to whether the mere fact of an arrest, in the absence of an indictment, trial, or conviction, can constitute evidence of conduct unbecoming. Both parties cite Tharpe v. Newark Police Dep't, 261 N.J. Super. 401 (App. Div. 1992) to support their positions on this issue. In Tharpe, the court addressed whether an arrest unsupported by a conviction disqualifies an individual from obtaining employment as a police officer. The court stated:

> It is apparent to us that the Legislature, by enacting N.J.S.A. 11A:4-10 and by authorizing the promulgation of necessary implementing regulations in N.J.S.A. 11A:2-6(d), envisioned circumstances under which an applicant for a law enforcement or fire fighter position could be disqualified on the basis that he or she had merely been arrested rather than convicted of a crime. The regulation which permits disqualification for "other sufficient reasons" is rooted in the statute and authorizes the removal of an applicant's name based upon his arrest record, at least where he or she seeks employment as a law enforcement officer or a fire fighter.
>
> It is equally clear, however, that the fact of an arrest, standing alone, may have no persuasive force in assessing an applicant's qualifications. For example, an arrest may be based on a misidentification or predicated upon a wholly incorrect apprehension of the relevant facts. In a similar vein, an arrest may relate to a comparatively trivial matter and may constitute an isolated event in an otherwise unblemished life. Clearly, the circumstances surrounding the arrest and other factors should be considered in determining whether an applicant's name ought to be removed from an eligibility list.
>
> An arrest may warrant the removal of an applicant's name particularly where the position sought involves enforcement or administration of the law, but the relevant circumstances should be carefully considered. The appropriate inquiry should be whether the circumstances surrounding the arrest "adversely relate[] to the employment sought." N.J.S.A. 11A:4-11. This is the statutory standard applicable when considering the impact of criminal convictions on public employment and it is equally amenable to the related question concerning the effect of an arrest on the applicant's qualifications. Surely, an arrest should have no greater disabling effect than does a criminal conviction. In both cases, consideration should be given to the nature and seriousness of the offense charged, the surrounding circumstances, the date of the offense and the individual's age at the time, whether the offense alleged was an isolated incident, and any evidence of rehabilitation.
>
> [See N.J.S.A. 11A:4-11; Tharpe, 261 N.J. Super. at 405-06]

Applying the principles of Tharpe to the tenure charge of conduct unbecoming a teacher, it is clear that the mere fact of an arrest, in the absence of an indictment, trial, or conviction, does not by itself answer the question of whether the arrest can constitute evidence of conduct unbecoming. As the court emphasized, the relevant circumstances of the arrest must be carefully considered, and the appropriate inquiry should be whether the circumstances surrounding the arrest adversely relate to the employment position.

Here, both the November 5, 2018 determination by the Superintendent to initiate a tenure charge and the District's December 18, 2018 determination that probable cause exists to credit the evidence in support of the charge are fatally defective because they did not consider the circumstances surrounding the arrest. The reason that the Superintendent and the District did not consider those circumstances is obvious: they were completely unaware when they made their determinations of the circumstances surrounding the arrest because they did not have the arrest report or any other evidence relating to the arrest to consider at that time. For this reason, their determinations that the arrest demonstrated conduct unbecoming by the Respondent are unsupportable and unsustainable.[2]

One additional point should be noted. On the same date that the District certified the charge against the Respondent, it also voted to transfer her from her position in the Early Childhood Center to Deptford High School for the remainder of the 2018-2019 school year. The District offered no explanation at that time, nor did it do so subsequently or in its brief, as to why it was appropriate to transfer the Respondent to another school at the same time that it claimed that she should be dismissed from her then-current position for conduct unbecoming a teacher. As the Respondent's brief aptly points out, by transferring the Respondent the District "did not proceed as if her employment were adversely affected by the arrest..." [Respondent's Brief at 7].

IV. CONCLUSION

For the reasons set forth above, the Respondent's motion to dismiss the tenure charge is granted. The dismissal is without prejudice to the District recertifying the tenure charge against the Respondent with appropriate evidence in support of such a charge. See the undersigned arbitrator's decision in IMO Ebert and SOSD City of Newark, Essex County, Agency Docket No. 267-9/14 (Jan. 30, 2015) (granting respondent's motion to dismiss tenure charges for district's substantial and unexplained failure to comply with statutory timeliness mandate; dismissal is without prejudice to the district's right to file charges again in a manner that fully comports with applicable statutory provisions); IMO Wallwork and School District of Township of Orange, Essex County, 85 SLD 952, 956, aff'g in relevant part 85 SLD 946 (1985) (dismissing tenure charges against respondent as being procedurally defective, but not precluding the board from recertifying the tenure charges against respondent with appropriate evidence in support of such tenure charges).

---

[2] The failure by the Superintendent and the District to consider all relevant circumstances is not cured by the subsequent submission of the arrest report and accompanying video to the Commissioner, since that material was never part of the Superintendent's and the District's consideration to proceed with the tenure charge.

If the District decides to recertify the tenure charge against the Respondent with appropriate evidence in support of such a charge, it must: (1) comply with all applicable procedural requirements; (2) consider and address the Municipal Court's February 12, 2019 disposition of the criminal charges; (3) consider and address its December 18, 2018 decision to transfer the Respondent to Deptford High School for the remainder of the 2018-2019 school year; and (4) consider and address all other relevant circumstances concerning the arrest, consistent with the principles set forth in Tharpe.

Tia Schneider Denenberg
Arbitrator

In the Matter of the Tenure Hearing of

Nikki Vogel,
School District of the Township of Deptford
Gloucester County

Agency Docket No. 14-1/19

Ruling on Respondent's Motion to Dismiss

The undersigned arbitrator, having been appointed, pursuant to P.L 2012, c 26, to hear and decide the above-captioned matter, rules as follows:

The Respondent's motion to dismiss the tenure charge is granted. The dismissal is without prejudice to the District recertifying the tenure charge against the Respondent with appropriate evidence in support of such a charge.

Tia Schneider Denenberg
Arbitrator

Dated: May 13, 2019

State of New York
County of Columbia

On this 13th day of May, 2019, before me personally came and appeared TIA SCHNEIDER DENENBERG, to me known and known to me to be the individual described in and who executed the foregoing instrument and she acknowledged to me that she executed the same.

Kristy Lee Brailey
Notary Public State of New York
No. 01BR6326865
Qualified in Columbia County
Commission Expires June 29, 2019

131-19

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION, State of New Jersey

IN THE MATTER OF THE PROCEEDING BETWEEN:

State Operated School District, City of Newark, Essex County
"Petitioner" or "District"

And

Tenured Teacher LaRhonda Ragland
"Respondent" or "Teacher"

Petition: "Dismissal, Tenured Teacher L. Ragland, by Newark Board of Education"
Agency Docket No: 209-8/18

AWARD and OPINION

Pre-Hearing Conference [Discovery issues]	November 14, 2018
Hearings [Evidentiary] Newark, NJ	November 20, 30, December 4, 2018; January 24, 30, February 14, 15, 2019
D.O.E. Extension(s) granted:	January 17, March 01, 2019
Transcripts received:	January 28, February 06-28, 2019
Briefs, w/ materials:	March 29 - April 10, 2019
Date of Award:	May 15, 2019

Arbitrator Jay David Goldstein

APPEARANCES

For Petitioner [Newark S. D.]
Brenda Liss, Esq.,
Ashley Higginson, Esq.
Yolanda Mendez, H.R. Exec. Dir, (Acting)
Karisa DeSantis, Principal
Regina Sharp, Vice Principal
Najran Cowins, Vice Principal

For Respondent [L. Ragland, Teacher]
Stuart Ball, Esq.,
LaRhonda Ragland

INTRODUCTION

The underlying dispute over this dismissal action by the Newark School District [Petitioner] arose from alleged 'inefficient' and, 'partially inefficient' ratings received by 'Tenured Teacher' Ms. Ragland [hereafter, "Teacher" or "Respondent"] over a two school year period. As a result of the less-than-efficient ratings described herein, many attempts were made to correct the "Teacher's" alleged deficiencies through ongoing, continued efforts by supervisory and/or administrative personnel of the Dr. Everett Horton School ["Horton"] where she had been assigned.

Numerous allegations detailing the above were found in the proceedings raised by "Petitioner" and included in the "Notice of Tenure Charges" filed against "Respondent", wherein her dismissal was sought. These were extensively documented in the record hereunder.

In response to the dismissal proceedings, alleged defenses were raised by Respondent, but in limited fashion. "Respondent" initially answered the charges in an August 17, 2018 position letter wherein Ms. Ragland [By Counsel] contended she was, "...targeted by administrators who had an agenda hostile to her." Later, discovery proceedings in preparation for this arbitration matter showed Respondent's 'Answers to Petitioner's Interrogatories', including the above. [All underlining herein is for emphasis only and by the author unless noted]

Those filings [et al] also make reference to a prior tenure charge and subsequent Arbitration Award involving 'Teacher' [Respondent Exhibit #2; Arbitrator T. Brown] wherein Teacher's Counsel states unequivocally that, "Ms. Ragland will rely on the decision of the Arbitrator in the prior case and on other evaluations ...supplied by the Petitioner as well as on her own testimony." In answer to other Interrogatories [2nd -3rd] posed by the District, Teacher's Counsel also contended that she, "...continued to find success as a dance teacher just as [she had] from 2006-2016"and, "There are so many students, parents and colleagues who could attest to the positive impact [she has] have had on so many students and [her] successes as a dance teacher"

Again by the Teacher's response, "Ms. Ragland has been a dance teacher in the Newark Public schools since 2006. She has received a host of favorable evaluations and commendations from parents and students over those years." Further that, "She has had excellent training in her field and has had an abundance of high level experience. She will also rely on supporting documents...supplied from her files and on her own testimony." [Respondent pleading]

Notwithstanding the above prehearing arguments and similar tenders by each Party at Hearing, that record is devoid of evidence offered by or on behalf of Respondent in support of her prior contentions to contradict Petitioner's evidence in support of its charges. Discussed below, there were minor contradictions on cross-examination of Petitioner witness testimony that, while technically correct, did not alter the overall veracity of any District witness. Moreover, any contradiction found did not substantially affect any evaluation overall.

In a linked procedural matter, Parties' Counsel tacitly agreed that all evidence in this proceeding would be limited to the 2016-17 (and) 2017-18 School Years, as found in the 'charges' against this Tenured Teacher. Notwithstanding this agreed to limitation , Teacher testified to, and her post Hearing Brief raised the prior history of her employment at the Newark School District. [Oct. 29, 2018 Pre-Hearing Conference, Board Brief and Teacher Brief]

Additionally, both sides made reference to that prior employment matter in their respective arguments in this case. Each acknowledged that the prior matter had been adjudicated by another arbitrator, and whose decision has been admitted into this record [R-2]. The consequence(s) of that decision, if any, will be addressed below.

Further chronological background events are summarized here, but are presented in greater detail under the Background, Facts, Party Positions, below this section.

School year 2005; "Respondent LaRhonda Ragland ("Respondent") is a tenured teacher of dance who has been employed by the Newark Board of Education ("Board") since 2005

She received annual summative evaluation ratings of "partially effective" in the 2016-2017 school year and "ineffective" in the 2017-2018 school year, pursuant to the Board's State-approved system of teacher performance evaluation, the Newark Public Schools Framework for Effective Teaching ("Framework")."

[Board's Brief]

2015-2016; in her closing Brief only, the Teacher alleges that the above referenced and current charges, "... brought by Petitioner Board ... "the District" or "Petitioner") should be seen in the context of her many years as a successful teacher[1] (Tr.7,1320:10-13) particularly in School Year 2015-2016 (Exhibits R-3, R-4, R-5, R-6, R-7,and R-8) and in the context of a prior attempt to fire her for inefficiency. That prior attempt was entirely unsuccessful. (Exhibit R-2) [Teacher's Brief]

End of School Year 2018; "...the Superintendent of Schools was required to file a tenure charge of inefficiency against her. Accordingly, he did so at the end of the 2017-2018 school year, and the Board submitted the charge to the Commissioner of Education" [Board Brief]

September 10, 2018; this Arbitrator appointed to the matter by the NJ State Board of Education.

October 29, 2018; pre-Hearing Conference with parties' Counsel and Arbitrator, held in person.

November 20, 30, December 4, 2018; January 24, 30, February 14, 15, 2019; Hearing(s) in the matter occur at the Newark Board of Education offices in Newark, NJ. During the seven (7) evidentiary hearings, each side had full opportunity to present its relevant evidence; including written exhibits, sworn testimony, cross-examination and rebuttal testimony. The Tenured Teacher was present during the entirety of the evidentiary Hearings, given opportunity to and did testify in her own behalf. Each Party agreed to written closings and the protocol for those submissions.

January 28, February 06-28, 2019; the transcribed record of hearing was received in several batches.

March 29–April 10, 2019; by their mutually agreed to schedule the Parties filed closing Briefs electronically with the Arbitrator on March 29th. Thereafter however, the agreed upon submission of same by US 1st Class mail, including cited materials copied to one another and the Arbitrator was only complied with by one side. Noncompliance by Respondent's counsel delayed the closing of the post Hearing process by approx. one week, but both briefs [+ cited materials] were eventually received between the above mentioned dates.

The Hearing record was eventually declared closed at the receipt of all materials on April 10, 2019. Prior, several calendar extensions were granted by the NJ, DOE due to several factors including delay in discovery, protracted hearing schedules, delay in transcript hearing records.

May 15, 2019; decision rendered, filed with the NJ Commissioner of Education.

ISSUE

While the Parties' did not stipulate per se to an issue, the basis for determining whether a dismissal was reasonably taken under all of the attendant circumstances must be determined. Thus in conformity with statutorily mandated principles including limitations or exclusions to them, the following question is deemed relevant and appropriate for the inquiry before this tribunal:

'Has the Board proven the tenure charges by a preponderance of the evidence sufficient to warrant termination of the Tenured Teacher?'

If a termination was deemed 'not warranted', another potentially viable question is: 'what shall be the remedy?'

Additionally, the 'Board' cited the 'Act' as controlling a statement of the issue:

"The Act limits the available defenses to four specifically enumerated potential issues, and it strictly limits the arbitrator's authority to consideration of only those four issues. N.J.S.A. 18A:6-17.2(a)."

The Board also commented on the Respondent's answer to the 'enumerated' issues, being:

"RESPONDENT ASSERTED ALL FOUR STATUTORY DEFENSES IN HER ANSWER TO THE CHARGE, BUT THE EVIDENCE PRESENTED AT THE HEARING SUPPORTED NONE OF THEM. [Board Brief]

As addressed herein and below, the Teacher's Brief did expand on those defenses.

In addition, the Board made two pre-Hearing Motions. The first was for a "Dismissal", rejected out-of- hand as not timely for consideration when made. In lieu thereof, another Motion [in effect, In Liminae] was given full and complete consideration by the Arbitrator and, despite opportunity afforded Respondent for rectification, none was forthcoming.

As for the limitations requested by the 'Board' were deemed persuasive and remained so due to 'Respondent's' failure to complete its statutorily mandated discovery and, to have done so in timely fashion, my ruling follows.. The limitations sought by the Petitioner's motion are granted, i.e., "...to the facts stated in Respondent's answers to interrogatories".

Further, "At an on-the-record conference on October 29, 2018, the Board's counsel requested a ruling that the factual issues to be addressed at the hearing, and evidence to be presented, should be limited to the facts stated in Respondent's answers to interrogatories. See October 29, 2018 Transcript (T) at 16. Respondent's counsel argued that the evidence should not be so limited, and argued further that as a result of procedural flaws the charge should be dismissed in its entirety without regard to the four statutory defenses. (T17.) The arbitrator did not rule as to either party's position, stating, "we'll deal with it" at the hearing, and he suggested the parties submit proposed findings of fact*. (Id.) The Board did so, and Respondent did not.* " [Board Brief, citing Conference and Hearing Transcripts]

In addition to the above statement [attributed to 'Respondent's Counsel', as cited by the Board Brief] the Tenured Teacher's defense to the charges was considerably limited to cross-examination of the 'Board' witness' testimony, 'Teacher's' testimony denying the veracity of the 'Board' witnesses and, the legal argument in Respondent's post-Hearing Brief.

What is more, an additional pre-hearing opportunity in the form of submitting Proposed Findings of Fact were afforded each side to argue for presentation of their respective assertions regarding either limitation (exclusion) or inclusion of, "factual issues' and, 'evidence to be presented'. When the mandated discovery period expired thereafter, the Board had submitted its Proposed Findings of Fact, [cited i.e., reproduced below] and, Counsel for the Tenured Teacher did not summit anything in that regard.

Resultant thereto, certain limitations were placed on the evidence presented by/for the Tenured Teacher's case, as analyzed further below. These procedural limitations are directly attributed to the failure of engagement in the process by Respondent, after both sides were offered opportunity to do so. The Board completed all discovery obligations and the Tenured Teacher did not comply during the discovery process.

Thus the Teacher's failure to comply with 'discovery' and thereafter fail to engage in argument [Propose Findings of Fact] relevant to limitation of evidence thereafter also precludes the Tenured Teacher from arguing certain positions, post-Hearing. The rationale for this ruling is based upon simple fairness inherent to an orderly proceeding which must not allow for even the appearance of disparate treatment in favor of one side.

Allowing only one side to avail itself of the opportunities for the 'discovery' proceedings is to deny the other side fair opportunity to put on and/or defend its position. [Analysis, below] Thus here, Petitioner's Motion to limit Respondent's opportunity to subsequently submit 'Facts and Evidence' not previously and timely submitted according to statutorily mandated guidelines is appropriate and proper. Fuller discussion is in 'Analysis', below.

BACKGROUND, FACTS and PARTY POSITIONS

The discussion above over the "Issue" contents adequately permits each Party Position that was timely and properly presented; and therefore relevant, i.e., as to inclusion or exclusion of evidence. The proper limitation therefore is to: "... the facts stated in Respondent's answers to interrogatories", as stated by the Board. The limitations on evidence and facts are thus defined by what Respondent has presented pre-hearing and, in timely fashion. The following additional background/positions are deemed appropriate for consideration where noted and are gleaned from the Parties respective positions.

Initially, the Board argues its burden of proof by citing a prior Award in this jurisdiction:

"The burden in this case is on the School District to prove by a preponderance of the evidence that the statutory criteria for the tenure charges have been met. Where the School District has met this burden, the burden shifts on Respondent to "affirmatively prove that she has a defense to the Tenure charges brought against her." I/M/O Tenure Hearing of Roxanne Jastrzembski, Agency Ref. No. 216-8/18 (Ira Cure, Arbitrator, March 7, 2019) at 41." [Board Brief]

Also discussed hereunder, the Board likewise addresses the basis for that award by referring to the statutory defenses which an Arbitrator may consider on review:

"TEACHNJ provides only four defenses by Respondent which the arbitrator may consider when reviewing a tenure charge of inefficiency, i.e., whether or not:

(1) the employee's evaluation failed to adhere substantially to the evaluation process, including, but not limited to providing a corrective action plan;

(2) there is a mistake of fact in the evaluation;

(3) the charges would not have been brought but for considerations of political affiliation, nepotism, union activity, discrimination as prohibited by State or federal law, or other conduct prohibited by State or federal law; or

(4) the district's actions were arbitrary and capricious." [Board Brief, citing TEACHNJ]

The Board evaluates the aforementioned TEACHNJ defenses by providing excerpts of testimonial examples, from documents admitted into the record and, from its submission of:

"PROPOSED FINDINGS OF FACT

Based on the evidence presented, the arbitrator should make the following findings of fact:

1. Respondent is a tenured teacher employed by the Board.

2. The Framework is the Board's teacher performance evaluation rubric approved by the New Jersey Commissioner of Education pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-123.

3. In the 2016-2017 and 2017-2018 school years, Respondent's teaching performance was evaluated by the Board in accordance with the Framework. Respondent received annual summative evaluation ratings of "partially effective" for the 2016-2017 school year and "ineffective" for the 2017-2018 school year. Consequently, a tenure charge of inefficiency was filed against Respondent pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-17.3.

4. Respondent's evaluations in the 2016-2017 and 2017-2018 school years adhered substantially to the evaluation process, including but not limited to providing a corrective action plan. Respondent has identified no substantial failure to adhere to the evaluation process.

5. Even if the evaluations on which the Board relies in support of the charge of inefficiency, or either of them, failed to adhere substantially to the evaluation process, that fact did not materially effect the outcome of the evaluation.

6. There was no mistake of fact in Respondent's evaluation for either the 2016-2017 or the 2017-2018 school year.

7. The charge of inefficiency was not brought due to considerations of political affiliation, nepotism, union activity, discrimination as prohibited by State or federal law, or other conduct prohibited by State or federal law.

8. Contrary to Respondent's assertion, the charge was not brought in furtherance of the hostility to Ms. Ragland for standing up to misconduct and successfully defending herself. (Even if proven, this allegation is insufficient to support a finding that the charge of inefficiency against Respondent would not have been brought but for considerations of political affiliation, nepotism, union activity, discrimination as prohibited by State or federal law, or other conduct prohibited by State or federal law. This allegation does not pertain to any such prohibited considerations.)

9. The Board's actions in connection with the charge of inefficiency against Respondent were not arbitrary and capricious.

The above referenced "Proposed Findings Of Fact" are, in effect, the equivalent of an opening statement typically offered at the beginning of a Hearing. In doing either one, each side implies it will prove the proposed facts offered and by an appropriate quantum of the evidence. Respondent did not avail itself of either, an oral opening 'statement' or the opportunity to submit its own Proposed Findings Of Fact.

Moreover, there was no dispute over either Paragraph's 1. or 2. [Petitioner's, above] Indeed, Respondent offered little or no defense to several of the "Proposed Findings". Except for Respondent's general denials of Board evidence/ proof discussed in the Analysis below, there was no further mention of the Teacher's prior claims of discrimination against her by:

"...political affiliation, nepotism, union activity, discrimination as prohibited by State or federal law, or other conduct prohibited by State or federal law" [Board's Brief]

Instead of proofs offered at Hearing, the summary content of Respondent Teacher's Brief consisted of broad legal argument, primarily based upon a theory that this case, "...should be seen in the context of her many years as a successful teacher (Tr.7,1320:10-13) particularly in School Year 2015-2016 (Exhibits R-3, R-4, R-5, R-6, R-7,and R-8) and in the context of a prior attempt to fire her for inefficiency. That prior attempt was entirely unsuccessful. (Exhibit R-2). Indeed, that prior attempt resulted in an extensive decision by Arbitrator Timothy J Brown." [Teacher's Brief]

Respondent did cite text from that prior Arbitrator's decision:

"Arbitrator Brown concluded: I do not question the evaluators determinations as to the quality respondent's classroom performance as reflected in the three observations made respondent thousand 13 14 school year. However, when the District's failures to comply with the provisions of the District's framework are weighed in full along with the considerations I rely upon below finding arbitrary conduct by the district, I find that respondents 2013 14 evaluation "failed to adhere substantially to the [Districts] evaluation process including, but not limited to providing a corrective action plan (Exhibit R-2 at page 37)" [Teacher's Brief]

Given that the Findings in this case [below, Analysis] support the evidence of substantial compliance with the evaluation process, Respondent's premise for the citation was not made clear. The lack of clarity is twofold.

First is that another, prior arbitrator's analysis of facts and pre-decision comments are neither conclusively, nor 'per se', binding upon a subsequent decision maker's view of subjective facts offered in a later case. Despite attempts at comparison, they rarely have identical facts for which the former case is precedent setting.

Accordingly, the Teacher's position in this regard, here, remains unclear. Moreover, in that prior case, except for some similarities as to the 'forms' and formulary used under TeachNJ generally, the final decision in that prior inefficiency case was reached on a set of procedurally deficient grounds clearly distinct from the facts in this case.

Other distinctions between the two cases include that the Teacher –Respondent here was found, by clear and unrefuted evidence, to have been substantially uncooperative with the Supervisory personnel's efforts to rehabilitate her pattern of poor behavior and improper conduct. The evidence points to the resultant effect, either directly or indirectly affecting her peers, superiors, students, and parents. Her contiguous behavior in this case either bordered upon or, clearly rose to the level of insubordination. Further discussion is found in the Analysis below.

Except for the general denial(s) referenced elsewhere herein, there was no evidence presented to refute the allegations made against her. At Hearing before this tribunal, Respondent Teacher testified for only a limited [under two hours] period of time. Moreover, and contrary to information provided in an Answer to Interrogatories provided by Respondent, there were neither ancillary documents to support her view of being an excellent teacher, nor any witnesses made available to testify on her behalf.

Each side submitted post-hearing Briefs containing their significant 'Points' of view. Carrying the burden of proof the District submitted:

" I. THE TENURE CHARGE OF INEFFICIENCY IS PROCEDURALLY VALID.

II. THE TENURE CHARGE OF INEFFICIENCY SHOULD BE UPHELD. [on the basis of]

A. THE ARBITRATOR'S STANDARD OF REVIEW.
B. THE EVIDENCE DEMONSTRATED THAT THE SCHOOL DISTRICT ADHERED SUBSTANTIALLY TO ITS EVALUATION PROCESS.
C. THE EVIDENCE DEMONSTRATED NO MISTAKE OF FACT IN THE EVALUATION.
D. THE SCHOOL DISTRICT DID NOT ACT IN A MANNER THAT WAS ARBITRARY AND CAPRICIOUS.
E. THE EVIDENCE DEMONSTRATED NO RETALLATORY MOTIVE FOR BRINGING THE TENURE CHARGE.
F. RESPONDENT HAS FAILED TO MEET HER BURDEN OF PROVING ANY DEFENSE"

[Board's Brief]

Also, and while not included in the charges per se, the record is replete with District's claims alleging Tenured Teacher was also guilty of insubordination. There were disciplinary actions taken, ostensibly due to her ongoing and continued failure to cooperate with the efforts of administrative and supervisory personnel assigned to meet with her to assist in complying with correction of her deficiencies. [Testimony and documentary evidence; Board's Brief]

In rejoinder to the District's Brief the Teacher's defense(s) rest primarily upon a premise that there was a failure of proof required by the Board. Thus, the Teacher's 'Points' claim, in effect, that the District failed to meet its burden of proof:

I. THE NECESSARY LEGAL PREREQUISITES FOR THE CHARGES HERE ARE ENTIRELY ABSENT FOR BOTH YEARS AND THEREFORE THE CHARGES ARE INVALID.
[School Year 2016-2017 School Year 2017-2018]

II. THE STATUTORY REQUIREMENT THAT AN ARBITRATOR CONSIDER THE MATERIALITY OF A DISTRICT'S FAILURES IS INAPPLICABLE HERE.

III. THE DISTRICT'S FAILURES TO DEVELOP PROPER ASEs ARE NOT EXCUSED BY ANY WAIVER OR EQUIVALENCY

IV. THE DISTRICT'S FAILURES CANNOT BE EXCUSED BY TRYING TO BLAME MS. RAGLAND:

V. FAILURE TO IMPLEMENT THE LEGALLY MANDATED CORRECTIVE ACTION PLAN AND IPDP INVALIDATE THE ASEs AND CHARGES FOR THE BOTH SCHOOL YEARS.
A. THE CAP PROVIDED FOR MS. RAGLND IN THE 2017-2018 SCHOOL YEARWASINADEQUATE B.

THE IDPD PROVIDED FOR MS. RAGLAND IN SCHOOL YEAR 2016-2017 WAS INADEQUATE

VI. THE DISTRICT'S BIAS AGAINST MS. RAGLAND IS REFLECTED IN ITS OVERALL FAILURE TO CONDUCT A FAIR AND LEGALLY PROPER OBSERVATION AND EVALUATION PROCESS.

[Teacher's Brief]

Each Party concluded its views of the matter as follows.

In summary of the Board's Position, at the 'Conclusion' of its Brief:

"For all the reasons set forth herein, the tenure charge of inefficiency against Respondent should be upheld, and Respondent should be dismissed from her employment by the Board."

[Board's Brief]

In summary of the Teacher's Position, at the 'Conclusion' of its Brief,

"For the foregoing reasons, the charges of inefficiency against Ms. LaRhonda Ragland must be dismissed and Ms. Ragland should be restored to full employment by the District with appropriate back pay, benefits and seniority." [Teacher's Brief]

FINDINGS AND OPINION

All arguments, positions and evidence adduced at a pre-hearing Conference and seven (7) evidentiary hearings were taken into careful consideration. Relevant portions of the statutory sections which the Parties mutually acknowledged being bound to were cited by each side and deemed relevant without further recitation here. Those Statues impose a, "just cause" standard for dismissal, also granting a School District the right to issue reasonable rules, orders and regulations which are not conflicting. There has been no challenge to those statutory standards for discipline by either side.

Analysis; overview

The clear evidence shows Respondent-Teacher's uncooperative attitude and behaviors linked with her 'evaluation' process by the District occurred during the period in question. Further, those factors were the primary causes to impede the dynamics of that process.

Therefore, any degradation of the evaluation process as challenged by Respondent was misguided and found wanting for lack of evidence against the Petitioner-District. The blame for Teacher's failure to escape the charges of 'Inefficiency' is not deemed to be the fault of District administration, but instead directly on the Teacher.

The School District seeks to justify its 'Dismissal' action. The Teacher responds by seeking re-instatement, "...with appropriate back pay, benefits and seniority". The Board has justified its Dismissal action and its views of the principles involved are sound. While disputed, the District's views are substantiated by the facts.

At the core of the issue(s) was whether a justifiable dismissal occurred or, whether the penalty was too harsh or unfair pursuant to the guidelines promulgated by authorities cited by both parties. Relevant to the underlying considerations are certain indisputable facts occurring both before disciplinary proceedings had begun at the School District level and, after the matter reached the 'Tenured Teacher' dispute resolution level presided over by the NJ DOE [Office of Controversies and Disputes].

The evidence is convincing that Respondent-Teacher demonstrated a blatant lack of cooperation, inattention or indifference to the necessary protocols of her teaching position, consistently and throughout both levels of the above proceeding(s). The District's evidence was replete with documentation and credible testimony concluding that ongoing and continued efforts over an extended time period attempted to correct the Teacher's deficiencies. Borne out by competent and credible testimony of same, they included both 'formal' and 'informal' observations by school ["Horton"] administration of this Teacher's inappropriate teaching methods, her significant lack of basic professional skills and the Teacher's inability to communicate effectively, both verbally and in-writing; to Students, parents and School Staff.

The District's evidence started with a showing that its charges were procedurally valid. As evidenced herein, Respondent provided no proof to the contrary when necessary to do so at the 'Discovery' stage of this proceeding. Thus, Respondent failed and refused to provide evidence of the procedural deficiencies she alleged but did not prove.

Although Respondent broadly contended that its claim of 'bias' was based upon an, "

"...OVERALL FAILURE TO CONDUCT A FAIR AND LEGALLY PROPER OBSERVATION AND EVALUATION PROCESS"; that general condemnation of the evaluation process did not 'fit' within the scope or totality of the otherwise credible facts presented by the District witnesses. Moreover, the evidence produced at Hearing by Petitioner against Respondent to substantiate its charges overwhelmingly demonstrated that the District adhered substantially to its evaluation process. While disputed by Respondent, the only showing to support her theoretical insinuation and arguments against the validity of District evaluations and observations came in the form of cross examination of District witnesses. The cross examination was insufficient to overcome Petitioner's proof.

Furthermore, it is persuasive that any alleged failures of the District proofs were only tenuous possibilities [and not probabilities]. They were drawn out by Respondent's closing Brief and either unsupported by the transcribed record or, found to be de minimus mistakes in calculation or interpretation of the regulations guiding the 'TeachNJ'. Nonetheless, the alleged discrepancies were determined to actually be based upon the lack of cooperation of the Respondent Teacher. It was the Teacher's responsibility and failure, absolutely, to contribute to creating her CAP, for example, that resulted in that document not being finished and, not done timely. That evidence was not refuted, except for a post-Hearing assertion by Respondent that, "the District was responsible also". Yet the clear evidence showed that the District cannot create something like the CAP without having the Teacher's input to begin that CAP.

Teacher offered no evidence in support of, or even minimal argument to successfully explain why basic teaching-related administrative functions [i.e., process for grading of students found to be another set of deficiencies] were ignored by her. Moreover and despite the school ["Horton"] administration personnel's best efforts to correct deficiencies observed, those efforts were met with both an ostensible inability to perform these functions or, with Ms. Ragland displaying an attitude either approaching, or directly engaging in blatant insubordination toward legitimate and direct orders from her Supervisors.

Paradoxically, a mainstay of Teacher's defense is an onslaught of allegations in the form of complaints/ protests about the District and yet, ignores clear evidence of Teacher's neglect. In lieu of accepting responsibility for her actions, Teacher referred only to allegations in a prior filing:

"Petitioner failed or refused to insure that its administrators comply with regulations...[pre or post observation conferences...and or hold them within the permitted time limit...timely complete Respondent's individual professional development plan (IPDP)...in the development of Respondent's corrective action plan (CAP)...to insure that it's administrator's engage in a collaborative process with the teacher to develop Respondent's IPDP or CAP...specifically set forth...teacher's deficiencies...establish timelines for the correction of alleged deficiencies."] Interrogatory #5

That 'Answer' [to an Interrogatory] was not borne out by any credible testimony to the contrary. Instead, despite Teacher's allegations in defense of the charges against her, the record contains clear and convincing evidence, based upon numerous efforts occurring throughout the period of time spanning these charges consisting of various collaborative attempts to help Teacher Ragland.

These include attempts to hold various meetings and yet, resulted in unsuccessful meetings, conferences, coaching sessions and repeated instructions by and between various administrative personnel and Ms. Ragland. These appeared as genuine efforts to re-educate and rehabilitate certain behaviors and methods engaged in by this Tenured Teacher ["Ragland"]. Yet her closing Brief only argues the District's fault in this regard.

Distressingly, the record shows numerous instances where good faith efforts were attempted to help this Teacher, but rebuffed by her. Unrefuted testimony shows she either openly declined the opportunities offered, failed to agree on suggested dates to meet and did not offer alternative initiatives typically in keeping with commonly accepted educational methods adopted and/ or practiced within a School District.

In addition to clear evidence by Petitioner's witnesses of this Teacher's refusing or ignoring these attempts to assist her, Respondent -Teacher brought forth no evidence to refute the allegations against her negative behaviors and, just as importantly, no witnesses to support her assertions of alleged negative treatment. We are therefore persuaded that despite any of the non-substantial imperfections of her 'evaluation' process, the overriding failure of cooperation by this Teacher forms the basis for her termination.

Even at the beginning point of these proceedings [i.e., appeal of the Board's decision] Respondent could have defended her position but made little effort to provide necessary documentation during discovery [up to and including a failure to offer any Proposed Findings of Fact] and again, at Hearing. Moreover, after 6 ½ days of 'Board' testimony 'Respondent' offered her testimony in approx. 2 ½ hours, offering little more than general denials to what 'Board' witnesses had testified to about her inefficiencies, lack of cooperation and insubordination.

Furthermore, no witnesses were called to testify on her behalf, even though Respondents pre-Hearing pleadings proffered that such evidence in support of her defense was ostensibly available. The prior pleadings of Respondent had claimed:

"There are so many students, parents and colleagues who could attest to the positive impact [she has] have had on so many students and [her] successes as a dance teacher"

Mistake of Fact: Beyond the above, the only conclusion based upon all available and relevant argument and evidence produced determines that the Petitioner School Board must prevail and the Respondent Teacher's position be denied. The Board's burden of proof has been met. There were no mitigating circumstances presented by Respondent Teacher to overcome the credible testimony and other evidence of her inability to perform and her behavioral issues. Thus, there was no mistake of fact demonstrated by Respondent in the evaluations of her.

Discrimination, et al.: When the burden shifted to Respondent, her prior defense(s) to the charges against this Teacher were simply lacking. Not only did Respondent present no proof of affirmative defenses claimed in prehearing pleadings [hostile work environment, anti-union animus, etc.] but she failed and/or refused to participate in mandated 'discovery'. When offered opportunity to argue against a Motion (in liminae) Respondent again failed/ refused to participate. Thus, no proofs of discrimination were ever presented; the complete lack of same demonstrating contempt for this process and appearing only as an aggravating circumstance.

In depth analysis of the above follows.

Burden of Proof

As in any matter involving employee disciplinary action, the burden is upon the Employer [here, Petitioner] to establish it had proper cause to take the action and, that an appropriate penalty was meted out under all attendant circumstances. The Tenured Teacher challenged that the standard was not met, contending that the preponderance of evidence by the District was not conclusive or, that it was found wanting.

The Petitioner's case in the Matter of this Tenured Teacher contained clear evidence to support its overview of the case it presented:

Over seven hearing days ...the Board presented evidence describing the Framework generally and its application specifically to Respondent's teaching performance. The Board's Executive Director of Human Resources explained the Framework, and the four school administrators responsible for evaluating Respondent's performance described their observations and interactions with her, their fidelity to the Framework, Respondent's corrective action plan, the professional development and support provided to her, the opportunities for her to provide data in support of higher ratings and to submit rebuttals to the observations and evaluations, her failure to take advantage of those opportunities, and their calculation of the ratings of "partially effective" in 2016-2017 and "ineffective" in 2017-2018.

[Board Brief]

There was not a scintilla of evidence to demonstrate the District, or any employee, acted in an arbitrary or capricious manner toward this Teacher. Indeed the only argument by Respondent in order to show retaliatory motive, hostility and/or an arbitrary or capricious manner was the alleged improper manner of the evaluation process. Given the conclusions reached hereunder relative to the appropriateness of the evaluation process, none of the discriminatory behavior alleged by Respondent was found. There was nothing in the record to demonstrate any, 'arbitrary and capricious' behavior toward Respondent.

To the contrary and as outlined above by the Petitioner District, all its arguments were directly related to the evidence presented at hearing(s). It concluded with: "For all the reasons set forth herein, the tenure charge of inefficiency against Respondent should be upheld, and Respondent should be dismissed from her employment by the Board." [Board Brief]

Thus the burden of proof was met by the District and, failed to be overcome by Teacher.

Substantial Compliance

Examples of its compliance with 'TeachNJ' were credited by and through testimony and documentary evidence of the District's administrative personnel. One such instance showed a pattern of ongoing and consistent failure(s), to accomplish timely the ordinary administrative functions performed by teachers. For example, timely grading of students or, providing any viable explanation for, i.e., why all students of a certain class received the same ['D'] grade. The Teacher's defense of this example, and other deficient instances, was that she apparently lacked the time required to accomplish the task. Other examples of both, 'Teacher's' alleged inefficient and insubordinate behaviors and her defenses to those charges follow.

The testimony and evidence presented in support of the charges was clear and convincing. There were instances, described below, where cross-examination by Respondent's Counsel revealed minor inconsistencies in statements made or in the computation(s) of points attributed to the Teacher's evaluations. These 'flaws' however were either corrected by re-direct examination or, upon closer scrutiny by this Arbitrator deemed to be irrelevant due to the insubstantial nature of their alleged 'defect'. None of the 'flaws' alleged by Respondent were found to be substantial enough to overcome the basic test for sufficiency of the TeachNJ concept that requires a School District to achieve when evaluating a Teacher's efficiency. Thus, the 'substantial compliance' factor was achieved here.

The intent of that concept by numerous authorities (and not overturned) mandates that a school district is in compliance with the Teach NJ principles when, "...the 'substantial compliance' standard" has been reached. All the evidence presented by Petitioner has met this 'substantial compliance' test. When the burden of proof shifted to Respondent, the insubstantial level of evidence produced by the Teacher was found to be insufficient and lacking.

Except for the cross-examination process described above [minimalistic flaws in the evaluation process] there was no evidence produced to support Respondent's overly simplistic theory of her case, to the effect that the District was engaged in a vendetta against her:

"The point here is that the District was so focused on building its case against Ms. Ragland's teaching and attitude that it disregarded its responsibilities and brought a negative prejudgment to its observation and evaluation process. As noted, this same approach led to prior charges and the Arbitrator there kept his focus on the District's failures. The same result should follow here." [Respondent Brief]

The above theme by Respondent, attempting to invoke a hostile work environment appeared throughout the Teacher's brief and yet failed to overcome the substantial quantum of evidence to the contrary brought by Petitioner.

Respondent did not address any significant or incomplete standard of the evidence presented against her except for oblique reference to one arbitrator's dicta in his decision, arguing that the same result must apply here. Respondent's Brief cited from that decision and then argued that:

[Arbitrator Brown]: 'However, when the District's failures to comply with the provisions of the District's framework are weighed in full along with the considerations I rely upon below finding arbitrary conduct by the district, I find that respondents 2013 – 14 evaluation "failed to adhere substantially to the [Districts] evaluation process including, but not limited to providing a corrective action plan (Exhibit R-2 at page 37)

[Respondent Brief] That statement is completely and precisely applicable here. Indeed, the charges here are clearly part of an ongoing crusade to discredit and fire Ms. Ragland"

Thus Respondent tried to attach or attribute the same rationale by Arbitrator Brown, in a prior matter with differing factual circumstances, to the present case and compare the facts therein to charges against this Teacher several years later.

The Petitioner also cited the 'Brown' decision to distinguish the similarities and yet, also to show how the same or similar facts were found in both cases. It cited:

"In I M O Tenure Hearing of Alexander Gonzalez, Agency Ref. No. 264-9/15 (Timothy Brown, Esq., Arbitrator, March 3, 2016) at 13, the arbitrator found, as here, only the teacher may upload a CAP, and therefore "the teacher subject to the CAP bears significant responsibility to assure that the CAP is completed in full and within the time periods established." Therefore, "when a teacher is claiming a school district failed to substantially comply with the evaluation process," regarding a CAP, "such a claim should be strictly scrutinized to determine whether the District exercised such attention and good faith in the process as to satisfy the 'substantial compliance' standard and/or whether the alleged [issue with] the CAP was caused by the teacher." (Id.) [Board Brief]

The Board also cited specific examples in answer to Respondent's claims of irregularities in the evaluation process.

"Here, Respondent created her CAP document, which was then reviewed together with Ms. Cowins (J-17.) Ms. Cowins provided Respondent with significant feedback, but Respondent did not change the CAP. Instead, Respondent "unshared" the document, so that her administrators did not have access until the deadline by which CAPs needed to be finalized. (6T970.) At the mid-year, again Ms. Cowins stressed that the CAP goals needed to be revised, stating, "It is strongly suggested that student growth goals are revised to be measureable and align with grade-level standards." (6T1014.) Those suggestions were repeatedly relayed to Respondent, but she ignored them. (6T1016-22.)" [Board Brief]

The examples given were deemed credible, and satisfied the Board's burden of proof. The proofs here were clear by the District's evidence. It is insufficient for the challenging party [Respondent Teacher here] to simply deflect that evidence by a show of minimalistic flaws in computing evaluation points, which did not change Teacher's overall ratings of her efficiency.

Moreover, the more relevant aspects of dicta contained within the Arb. Brown decision were references to the shared responsibilities between the Teacher and School District administrators charged with the evaluation process and intended to assist the Teacher in correcting her deficiencies and reaching her goals.

The preponderance of the evidence demonstrates unequivocally that the District met its burden of proving that its actions in seeking termination of this Teacher were for just and proper cause. 'Substantial Compliance' with the Act was demonstrated

This Arbitrator also used other contributing factors to review the evidence.

Credibility

Petitioner-'Board' presented extensive testimony of four (4) eyewitnesses to Respondent's behaviors and actions described herein. Of import here is that each of them testified under a 'Motion of Sequestration', thus insulating that testimony from the taint of improper repetition.

Including other documentary accounts regarding interactions with Respondent 'Teacher', their testimony can only be described, even in broad general terms, as showing uncooperative behavior by this Teacher. Their accounts credibly described actions including 'Teachers' inattention or indifference to the necessary protocols of her teaching position, including failure to adhere to standard protocols of her teaching position and, conduct approaching, or at insubordinate levels. While Respondent Teacher attempted to minimize her culpability [vis. the Petitioner's allegations] by generally denying that the alleged behavioral actions ever occurred, the Petitioner's witnesses clearly contradicted Respondent's general denials. Each of the four (4) witnesses' testimony had the 'ring of truth' to the allegations and, Respondent's denials did not approach that level and, were unsupported by any evidence.

Moreover, Respondent's testimony stood unsupported by a lack of veracity and further damaged by internal and external inconsistencies. One example alone was when Teacher was confronted by a failure to report her grades and in a timely fashion. She alternated between denial of that duty and finally, simply claimed that she had insufficient time to complete that important task. .

Notably, the 'Teacher' could not supply any evidence in rebuttal of 'Board' witness testimony beyond general denials, only supported by theoretical supposition. Nor did Ms. Ragland provide, even circumstantially, anything beyond a pre-hearing statement of the evidence ["...a host of favorable evaluations commendations...parents students over those years...] she purportedly had at her disposal.

Thus credibility was tested by a number of factors, including when the parties' jointly agreed to sequestration. The separation of the witnesses was key, given that the testimony of one could not be influenced by prior testimony of another on similar matters. The joint motion for it was enforced, even over a 'Board' objection to it on the 1st day of evidentiary Hearing and thus, sequestration occurred here for all testifying witnesses.

Accordingly the overwhelming evidence of credible testimony was found to be more than sufficient to satisfy the School Board's burden.

Sufficiency of the Evidence

Despite Teacher's testimonial defense [i. e., general denials] for the events described by District's witnesses, the evidence was overwhelmingly clear to the contrary, thus sufficient. Even using a minimal standard for the degree of evidence necessary, a 'reasonable person' could hardly dispute the veracity and thus the credibility of the District witnesses who testified. Therefore the evidence was deemed sufficient to uphold Petitioner's charges.

Further, several of the witnesses demonstrated more than a modicum of compassion for this Teacher, seemingly in a valiant effort to help Respondent achieve the level of sufficiency necessary to keep her job. Yet, even in that instance, this Teacher did not help herself.

Unsupported vs. Corroborated

There was no basis in fact for the defense's posture that the Board evidence was unsupported by the facts. Thus taking all manner of credible evidence, cited authority and argument into consideration provided a basis for finding that the conduct described in the charges against this Teacher were proven beyond doubt, plainly by a preponderance of the corroborated evidence presented.

Thus the factors analyzed above demonstrate that a preponderance of the evidence found in the charges support a finding that this Teacher was culpable of the charges, including "Inefficiency". Accordingly, the Newark School District has met its burden of proof for this Tenured Teacher's Dismissal.

There were other circumstances addressed, that bear appropriate commentary.

\Aggravating vs. Mitigating Circumstances

The Tenured Teacher's Brief contained several veiled and thus elusive references to factors in mitigation of the charges/ penalty. Although the remedy sought implies that alleged circumstances [i.e., hostile environment, et al] were present in this case. Yet the facts upon review, were not persuasively linked to the record of this Teacher.

While no set rule exists for applying mitigation to a particular set of circumstances any neutral must be mindful of the gravity of charges which could have such a deleterious effect on an employee as found here. Balancing that of course is the potential for returning an employee to a workplace environment where, if the charges are deemed credible, there is a likelihood of ongoing and continued conduct deleterious to the mission of teaching. Those aggravating factors are found here.

This neutral has in past applied mitigation standards generously where an employer was found to have meted out an overly harsh penalty. When a long term employee otherwise having served with distinction is precipitously accused of a relatively minor infraction or one involving a singular incident of wrongdoing appearing to be out-of-character, then it is persuasive to and becomes incumbent upon the neutral to correct an injustice.

The 'mitigating' factors suggested above were not found here and instead, substantial evidence of ongoing and continued resistance to change by this Teacher. Consequently, having determined that the charges filed by the Newark School District were appropriate, we cannot adopt the existence of mitigating factors suggested by the Teacher as warranting invocation of progressive discipline. Therefore, correcting a penalty of termination with a less severe penalty is not warranted here, under all the attendant circumstances.

Retaliation, res judicata and/or collateral estoppel:

Another suggested aggravating circumstance calling for mitigation was alleged, retaliation' as a primary defense. The Teacher's Brief argued that a blatant and veiled motive for the current charges against her by the Newark School District existed. Ostensibly she argued that the current charges were only a 'refiling' of prior charges unsuccessfully brought against her for allegedly the same or similar charges previously raised during a previous school year. Also that her "outspokenness" after being re-instated previously, now provides the basis of her claim for 'retaliation' in this current set of charges. [Teacher's Brief] No other 'proofs' were offered.

Moreover, Respondent's veiled attempts to connect the present and prior arbitrations had the overtones of exploring theories of Res judicata and collateral estoppel as factors against the termination penalty. However, for several reasons clearly evidenced in the record before us it is persuasive that there is no plausible reason to doubt the veracity of the current charges under either of those theories.

Teacher's Brief cites the prior Arbitrator Brown decision for the premise that the current charges filed against Ms. Ragland were simply a, 're-filing' of the prior incident, i.e., implying a, "...negative prejudgment", or, "the District's bias against Ms. Ragland that infected the entire observation process. While not specifically raising the defense of 'res judicata', it is clearly implied here and yet unfounded.

Regardless of the prior charges or arbitration outcome resulting in this Teacher's re-instatement to her tenured position, no one can be immune to or immunized against 'fresh' charges, especially ones involving the nature and seriousness of those found herein. Moreover, we deem these charges to be unconnected, having occurred in/a separate school environment and after having given this Teacher a fresh start within a new environment. A primary requisite of Res judicata is the requirement for an absolute showing that the person is being jeopardized, twice, for the same offense and, under the exact, same circumstances.

Here, there has been no showing of such duplication, but for the theoretical position taken in the post-hearing Brief. Moreover and further to the contrary of either res judicata or collateral estoppel, it was clearly demonstrated by the District that it had an absolute and statutorily mandated legal duty and thus, no choice but to act upon the parent/student complaints due to the nature and timetable of events shown here.

The District had no choice but to act upon the current evaluations, parent/student complaints of inappropriate conduct and/or behavior when brought to its attention. The fact pattern here, despite any ironic similarities to the incidents that this same teacher was accused of in prior litigated matters, involves a fresh set of incidents. Thus, current charges do not fall under the protections afforded by the preclusion theories of Res judicata and collateral estoppel.

Thus, other than veiled, vague but unsubstantiated testimony by the Teacher and theoretical suggestions implied in her brief but also unsubstantiated that by virtue of the Teacher's re-instatement and subsequent complaints about her assigned tasks, there is no finding here that she was the victim of retaliation, due to her prior reinstatement. This Teacher, like any other, had the right to file a 'grievance' or complaint over her concerns with her assignments at any time after her re-instatement, but did not take advantage of that right.

The current circumstances involve factually unconnected incidents occurring in prior school years. Accordingly, no evidence of retaliation has been found here and neither res judicata nor collateral estoppel can apply.

In summation after careful consideration of all evidence and argument in support thereof, it can only be concluded that this Tenured Teacher was properly charged with "inefficiency". Moreover, other conduct-related rules observed by the School District were violated as well.

This Teacher's conduct and behavior when approached to help correct her deficiencies were addressed herein and can only be described as insubordination, by her failing and/or refusing to cooperate with the authority over her granted to the School District. Moreover, her actions and deliberate inaction to avoid helping herself to improve, formed the basis for the disciplinary action taken against her.

The corrective measures adopted and attempted hereunder by the District to assist this Teacher were lawful and proper. To have accomplished these goals would also have benefited the well-being of students, faculty and others who came under this Teacher's far reaching affect.

The preponderance of evidence demonstrates that an evaluation process was in place for teachers in this New Jersey public school system. While a complex and complicated process, the evidence demonstrates the managing authorities of this School ('Horton') administered it in a substantially complete way and did so in a full and fair manner with complete regard for this Teacher's personal rights in efforts to assist her. The process as applied here was more than sufficient to warrant a finding that the charges against this Teacher were proper and that the penalty of termination was just. The Teacher's claims to the contrary were found to be baseless allegations only and, lacking in proof.

Although pre-Hearing allegations by her claimed, 'hostility, anti-union animus' and other forms of discrimination, the Teacher's evidence at Hearing did not follow through to establish proof of any retaliation or other discrimination. While documents containing these allegations by Teacher were a part of the record and, opportunity to hear testimony from others might have supported them, no witnesses were called by the Teacher. No such testimony was heard and thus, the assertions remain as merely ostensible and unproven.

Moreover, the preponderance of evidence against her was substantial. The Teacher's testimony was found wanting, both in its failure to complete the gaps between basic allegations made, the proofs necessary to justify them and also to explain inconsistencies between her views and that of District witnesses against her. Accordingly, the Teacher's credibility suffered.

The evidence is clear as detailed hereunder that all appropriate elements required for a just and proper cause dismissal were present in this case. Thus the burden of proof was met by Petitioner, Newark School District. While the concept of progressive discipline is not a factor here, it is both ironic and noteworthy that a similar tenured teacher action involving this Teacher had been taken before.

Teacher's Counsel attempted to rely upon misquoted assumptions from that prior arbitration, thereafter extensively cited in Respondent's post-Hearing brief in this case. As discussed above here, the rationale by a prior arbitrator to find in the Teacher's favor previously, was not relevant now in this case. The only relevance here is that Teacher Ragland did have the benefit of foreknowledge or cautionary advice to understand what would be expected of her when she was (in effect) placed back to work. Yet she failed to heed that information and to be guided accordingly.

Taking all manner of evidence, argument and positions of the Parties into consideration, the decision in this matter follows.

DECISION

The evidence is clear that all appropriate elements for a just and proper dismissal of Respondent were present in this case. The burden of proof was met by a preponderance of the evidence produced through Petitioner, Newark School District.

Overwhelming and credible testimony from four (4) administrative / supervisory personnel of 'Teacher' was elicited by the District and found to be realistic, accurate and trustworthy, meeting the 'substantial compliance' factors of the Act. Moreover, when given opportunity to refute that evidence, no adequate defenses were raised by the Tenured Teacher to circumvent or contradict, in any substantial manner the District's findings, its rationale for discipline, the charges, or a penalty of dismissal.

The Tenured Teacher's only defense was a general denial of the basic assertions and charges. Further, her initial contentions that she had been a victim of hostility and discrimination lacked any evidence or proof of occurrence.

Taking all manner of evidence and argument by both parties into consideration and deliberation, it is the considered opinion of the undersigned neutral that Petitioner Newark School District had the absolute right to have charged Tenured Teacher LaRhonda Ragland with the offenses stated hereunder and to have sought and caused her dismissal thereafter.

In view of the above, the penalty of dismissal for this Tenured Teacher is upheld. No other remedies apply.

Jay D. Goldstein,

Jay D. Goldstein, Arbitrator

Dated: May 15, 2019, Jenkintown, PA

132-19L

State of New Jersey
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION
PO Box 500
TRENTON, NJ 08625-0500

PHILIP D. MURPHY
Governor

SHEILA Y. OLIVER
Lt. Governor

LAMONT O. REPOLLET, ED.D.
Commissioner

May 22, 2019

Mary Murphy-Maciak, pro se
81 Bald Eagle
Hackettstown, New Jersey 07842

Robert M. Tosti, Esq.
Purcell Mulcahy & Flanagan LLC
One Pluckemin Way
P.O. Box 754
Bedminster, New Jersey 07921

Re: Mary Murphy-Maciak v. Board of Education of the Town of Hackettstown, Warren County; Robert Grauso, Athletic Director; and David Mango, Superintendent, Agency Dkt. No. 310-12/18

Dear Parties:

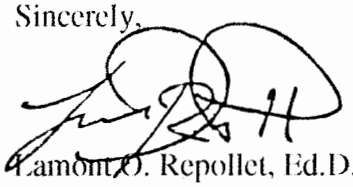
I have reviewed the petition of appeal, as well as the materials filed in connection with the respondents' motion to dismiss the petition in the above-referenced matter. Upon review of the submissions, I have determined that the Commissioner does not have jurisdiction over the claims alleged in the petition.

The petitioner contends that respondent Grauso committed an act of harassment, intimidation, and bullying (HIB) when he berated her during a meeting in January 2018 regarding her son's transfer to another school, and she seeks an investigation into his actions. The purpose of the Anti-Bullying Bill of Rights Act (Act), N.J.S.A. 18A:37-13 et seq., is "to strengthen the standards and procedures for preventing, reporting, investigating, and responding to incidents of harassment, intimidation, and bullying of students that occur in school and off school premises." N.J.S.A. 18A:37-13.1(f). It is clear that the Act only applies when HIB is committed against a student – not against a parent. The petitioner's allegations do not arise out of New Jersey school law, as she is not a student; therefore, the Commissioner is without jurisdiction over the matter, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.

Accordingly, the Board's motion to dismiss the petition is GRANTED, and the petition is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

Sincerely,



Lamont O. Repollet, Ed.D.
Commissioner of Education

c: County Superintendent
State Law Library

LOR/JKH/BCM

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to P.L. 2008, c. 36, (N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1).

133-19

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Board of Education of the Township of East Brunswick, Middlesex County,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the City of Trenton,
Mercer County,

Respondent.

Synopsis

The Board of Education of East Brunswick (East Brunswick) filed a petition of appeal regarding a dispute between petitioner and the respondent Board of Education of Trenton (Trenton) over Trenton's refusal to pay East Brunswick for the provision of extraordinary services to a minor student, S.B., who attends school in East Brunswick, but is a resident of the City of Trenton. The parties filed cross motions for summary decision.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: there are no material facts at issue, and the matter is ripe for summary decision; since June 2016, East Brunswick and Trenton have entered into multiple sending/receiving agreements for tuition and transportation costs relating to the education of S.B., except for the costs of one-on-one aides; it is undisputed that Trenton is the educational agency responsible for creating the Individualized Education Plan (IEP) for S.B., and there is no dispute as to its content and/or appropriateness; East Brunswick, as the receiving district, is responsible for implementing the IEP; the dispute herein relates to the staffing and costs involved in providing the one-on-one aide specified in S.B.'s IEP; pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-17.1(e)(5)(viii), "extraordinary services" such as one-on-one aides are not included in the actual cost per student for tuition purposes, and may be billed directly to the sending district; per regulation, East Brunswick has submitted agreements covering the extraordinary services provided to S.B. since June 2016, as well as invoices for the direct costs of aides; Trenton has argued that it has no obligation to enter into contracts with East Brunswick for S.B.'s one-on-one aides, that it contracts for such services with an outside vendor for purposes of economy, that the tuition agreements between the parties do not bar Trenton from hiring its own aides for S.B., and that Trenton owes East Brunswick only the lower amount that Trenton would have paid for one-on-one aides through its outside vendor, rather than the actual, higher cost of aides that have been provided by East Brunswick. The ALJ concluded that: Trenton is obligated to pay petitioner the direct costs incurred by East Brunswick in providing a one-on-one aide for S.B. from June 2016 to the present, and for as long as S.B. remains in East Brunswick schools and requires an aide; East Brunswick has no obligation to use the services of one-on-one aides provided by Trenton; and Trenton cannot limit its payment to East Brunswick based on the amount that Trenton would have paid its outside vendor for the same services. Accordingly, the ALJ granted summary decision in favor of the petitioner, and ordered Trenton to pay East Brunswick the full direct costs of aides assigned in compliance with S.B.'s IEP.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurred with the findings and conclusions of the ALJ, and adopted the Initial Decision of the OAL as the final decision in this matter for the reasons expressed therein.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

May 22, 2019

133-19

OAL Dkt. No. EDU 18381-17
Agency Dkt. No. 235-9/17

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Board of Education of the Township of East Brunswick, Middlesex County,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the City of Trenton, Mercer County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed, as have the exceptions filed pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4 by the respondent Trenton Board of Education (Trenton). The petitioner, East Brunswick Board of Education (East Brunswick), did not file a reply.

This matter involves a student who is a resident of Trenton, but attends school in East Brunswick. East Brunswick has provided the student with a one-to-one aide, consistent with the terms of his Individualized Education Program (IEP), and has billed Trenton for the cost of the aide. The ALJ found that: Trenton is obligated to pay East Brunswick the direct costs incurred by petitioner to provide the aide; Trenton cannot limit its payment to East Brunswick based on the amount Trenton pays its own aides; and Trenton cannot require East Brunswick to use Trenton's aides for this student.

Trenton argues in its exceptions that it should be permitted to supply individual aides through a contracted vendor to its students who attend school in East Brunswick, rather than be forced to contract with East Brunswick for the individual aides. Trenton contends that the cost of East Brunswick's aides is not reasonable when compared to the lower amount Trenton pays its aides, and that the facts in this case are distinguishable from those in the matter on which the ALJ relied in part, Board of Education of the City of Trenton, Mercer County v. Board of Education of the Mercer County Special Services School District, Mercer County, OAL Dkt. No. EDU 16465-15, decided August 5, 2016, affirmed Commissioner Decision No. 334-16, decided September 20, 2016.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ that Trenton is obligated to pay petitioner the direct costs incurred by East Brunswick to provide the one-to-one aide. The Commissioner finds Trenton's exceptions unpersuasive. Individual aides are "extraordinary services" for which a district board of education may bill directly, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-17.1(e)(5)(viii). As such, while Trenton and East Brunswick enter into tuition agreements for the cost of a student's placement in East Brunswick,[1] Trenton is billed separately by East Brunswick for the cost of individual aides.

East Brunswick retains some autonomy in providing the services and programs that it is charged with administering, including the provision of services required by a student's IEP. Indeed, the legislature has given East Brunswick the power to "make rules . . . governing the employment, terms and tenure of employment, promotion, and dismissal, and salaries and time and mode of payment thereof of teaching staff members . . .". N.J.A.C. 18A:27-4. There is no legal authority for Trenton to unilaterally require East Brunswick to use Trenton's contracted vendor for individual aides when petitioner is otherwise able to provide that service, or to set the terms of compensation for East Brunswick's employees by limiting the amount it pays petitioner for services rendered by those employees.

[1] The parties disagree as to whether the 2016-17 Extended School Year (ESY), 2016-17 school year, and 2017-18 ESY agreements were fully executed. However, East Brunswick agrees that Trenton paid the tuition amounts due for this period in full and, as such, the fact of execution of the agreements is immaterial to the resolution of this matter. Tuition for 2018-19 is addressed separately herein, as it was one of the issues raised in Trenton's exceptions.

By operation of law, East Brunswick is permitted to charge Trenton for the direct cost of the aides. N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-17.1(e)(5)(viii). Trenton's attempts to negotiate a contract whereby it would provide its own aides or pay East Brunswick a lower amount for its aides do not change this result. The obligation to pay arises from the law, not from a contract. Trenton argues in its exceptions that the Initial Decision has forced it to enter into a contract with East Brunswick for the cost of the aide, but no such requirement has been imposed. While N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-17.1 requires a written contractual agreement establishing the tuition charge, extraordinary services may be billed directly without any contract. [2]

Trenton argues that the cost charged by East Brunswick for its aides is excessive, because it exceeds what Trenton would pay for the same services. However, the regulation allowing a receiving district board of education to directly bill the sending district board of education for extraordinary services does not impose a reasonableness requirement. Even if such a requirement were imposed, Trenton has not proffered any evidence that East Brunswick's rate is unreasonable. The fact that East Brunswick's rate exceeds Trenton's rate is not, in and of itself, a basis to conclude that East Brunswick's rate is unreasonable. Moreover, the per diem rate of $181.04 charged by East Brunswick for the aide in this matter is lower than the per diem rate of $195.00 that the Commissioner has previously permitted a receiving district to charge for a one-to-one aide. BOE Trenton, supra. Notably, in that matter, the receiving district was also permitted to charge for days when the student was absent, and so Trenton's exceptions to East Brunswick's charges for days absent are unpersuasive. Ibid.

[2] While a written contractual agreement is not required for extraordinary services, nothing prohibits the districts from entering into such an agreement, either to allow Trenton to provide its own aides, or to agree upon a cost other than the actual cost paid by East Brunswick. The Commissioner notes that should the parties enter into such an agreement, the Commissioner would not have jurisdiction over any dispute between the parties regarding the terms of or compliance with such a contract because it does not arise out of New Jersey school law. N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.

Trenton further contends that the decision in BOE Trenton, supra, is inapposite because Trenton places students in the Mercer County Special Services District by choice and can remove students at its discretion, whereas the student in this matter attends East Brunswick because he was placed in a resource home in that district by the Division of Child Protection & Permanency. However, Trenton does not dispute that it is responsible for providing the student with a Free Appropriate Public Education (FAPE). Trenton's responsibility to provide FAPE continues regardless of the mechanism by which the student is placed in another district. Similarly, the requirements for the billing of extraordinary services by the receiving district are not dependent on whether the student is placed by choice or by another method.

Finally, Trenton argues that summary decision in favor of the petitioner was not warranted because there exists a genuine issue of material fact regarding the amount of money that Trenton owes East Brunswick. Trenton claims that the ALJ failed to deduct money already paid by Trenton for the 2018-19 school year. However, the decision clearly indicates that "Trenton is obligated to pay the amount claimed by East Brunswick, $157,052.39, reduced by the amount paid by Trenton toward invoices for the 2018-19 school year." As the ALJ's award explicitly reflects that payments have been made for the 2018-19 year and deducts those amounts from the amount that Trenton was ordered to pay, there is no remaining issue of material fact that must be decided. Trenton's remaining arguments on the topic of material fact merely repeat its other arguments regarding payments for the aide more generally, and those issues have been resolved as a matter of law as indicated in the Initial Decision and herein.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision is hereby adopted as the final decision in this matter. Summary judgment is granted in favor of East Brunswick. Trenton is ordered to pay the full direct cost of the aides retained by East Brunswick in compliance with S.B.'s IEP for the period in question, and for as long as S.B. remains in East Brunswick schools and requires the services of a one-to-one aide.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[3]

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 5/22/19
Date of Mailing: 5/24/19

[3] This decision may be appealed to the Superior Court, Appellate Division, pursuant to P.L. 2008, c. 36 (N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1).

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

SUMMARY DECISION

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF EAST BRUNSWICK, MIDDLESEX COUNTY, Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF TRENTON, MERCER COUNTY,
Respondent.

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 18381-17
AGENCY DKT. NO. 235-9/17

Micci J. Weiss, Esq. for petitioner (Cleary Giacobbe Alfieri Jacobs, LLC, attorneys)

Audra Pondish, Esq., for respondent (Adams Gutierrez & Lattiboudere, LLC, attorneys)

Record Closed: March 29, 2019 Decided: April 9, 2019

BEFORE TRICIA M. CALIGUIRE, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner Board of Education of the Township of East Brunswick, Middlesex County (East Brunswick), as the receiving school, seeks $157,052.39, from respondent Board of Education of the City of Trenton, Mercer County (Trenton), the sending school, for extraordinary services provided to minor student S.B. for school years 2015 through 2019. N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-17.1(e)(5)(viii).

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On September 29, 2017, East Brunswick filed a petition of appeal to the Department of Education (DOE) asserting that a dispute had arisen between East Brunswick and respondent Trenton over Trenton's refusal to pay East Brunswick for the provision of special education and extraordinary services for S.B. On December 1, 2017, following three notices from the DOE, Trenton filed its answer to the petition.

The matter was transmitted by the DOE to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), where it was filed on December 7, 2017, for hearing as a contested case pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13. The matter was assigned to the Honorable Joseph A. Ascione, Administrative Law Judge (ALJ), on December 27, 2017. Judge Ascione convened telephonic case management conferences with counsel on February 21, 2018, and April 4, 2018, to discuss the potential issues in the case and a discovery schedule, and to schedule the matter for hearings. A telephonic status conference scheduled for July 18, 2018, was adjourned at the request of the parties, and a telephonic status conference scheduled for September 4, 2018, was adjourned as Judge Ascione was on medical leave. On September 5, 2018, East Brunswick filed a request to amend its petition, which was reviewed and granted on September 17, 2018, by the Honorable Edward J. Delanoy, Jr., Administrative Law Assignment Judge. On September 19, 2018, East Brunswick filed an amended petition.

On October 4, 2018, this matter was reassigned to the undersigned and scheduled for a telephonic case management conference on October 12, 2018. During this conference, it was agreed that Trenton would file its answer to the amended complaint on or before October 19, 2018, the plenary hearing would be held on April 2, 2019, and the deadline for the parties to file dispositive motions was March 1, 2019. On February 27, 2019, East Brunswick filed a motion for summary decision in its favor. I notified the parties that the hearing was rescheduled for May 15, 2019, to allow time to consider the motion. On March 19, 2019, Trenton filed its response in opposition to East Brunswick's motion and cross-motion for summary decision in its favor. East Brunswick replied on March 29, 2019, and the matter is now ripe for decision.

STATEMENT OF UNDISPUTED MATERIAL FACTS

1. East Brunswick is a local school district in Middlesex County, New Jersey. Trenton is a local school district in Mercer County, New Jersey.

2. S.B. is a resident of Trenton. As such, Trenton is the district responsible to provide S.B. a Free and Appropriate Public Education (FAPE), pursuant to 20 U.S.C.A. 1400(d)(1)(A).

3. While attending school in Trenton, S.B. received special education services under an Individual Education Program (IEP) developed pursuant to the requirements of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, 20 U.S.C.A. 1401 et seq. (IDEA), and New Jersey regulations. In accordance with his IEP, S.B. received extraordinary service, a one-to-one aide. N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-18.2.

4. Prior to June 6, 2016, the Division of Child Protection and Permanency (DCP&P) removed S.B. from his home in Trenton and placed him in a resource family home located in East Brunswick. On or about June 6, 2016, S.B. began attending school in East Brunswick. S.B. has remained at East Brunswick for each subsequent school year, including the current one.

5. Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-17(f), Trenton and East Brunswick entered into a sending/receiving agreement for School Year Behavior Disability Tuition and Transportation for the remainder of the 2015-2016 school year, covering June 6, 2016 through June 30, 2016 (2015-2016 Tuition Agreement). Trenton executed the 2015-2016 Tuition Agreement on or about July 3, 2016, and paid East Brunswick the amount due under this agreement in full.[1]

6. East Brunswick provided a sending/receiving agreement to Trenton for a one-to-one aide for S.B. for the remainder of the 2015-2016 school year, covering

[1] See, Summary Chart, ¶ 20.

June 6, 2016 through June 30, 2016 (2015-2016 Aide Agreement). East Brunswick claims to have received the fully-executed 2015-2016 Aide Agreement from Trenton on or about July 3, 2016. Trenton claims it did not execute the 2015-2016 Aide Agreement. Trenton paid only a portion of the $2,135.34, due under this agreement.

7. S.B.'s IEP provides him with an extended school year (ESY) program and with a one-to-one aide for his ESY program.

8. East Brunswick provided Trenton a sending/receiving agreement for ESY Program and Transportation for the 2016-2017 school year, covering July 6, 2016 through August 9, 2016 (2016-2017 ESY Tuition Agreement). East Brunswick claims to have received the fully-executed 2016-2017 ESY Tuition Agreement on or about July 3, 2016. Trenton claims it did not execute the 2016-2017 ESY Tuition Agreement. Trenton paid East Brunswick the amount due under this agreement in full.

9. East Brunswick sent Trenton a sending/receiving agreement for a one-to-one aide for S.B. for the 2016-2017 ESY Program, covering July 6, 2016 through August 9, 2016 (2016-2017 ESY Aide Agreement). Trenton did not return the 2016-2017 ESY Aide Agreement. East Brunswick billed Trenton for $6,382.50, the cost of providing S.B. with a one-to-one aide for the 2016-2017 ESY Program; Trenton has not paid this invoice.

10. East Brunswick provided Trenton a sending/receiving agreement for School Year Behavior Disability Tuition and Transportation for the 2016-2017 school year, covering September 6, 2016 through June 30, 2017 (2016-2017 Tuition Agreement). East Brunswick claims to have received the fully-executed 2016-2017 Tuition Agreement on or about July 3, 2016. Trenton claims it did not execute the 2016-2017 Tuition Agreement. Trenton paid East Brunswick the amount due under this agreement in full.

11. East Brunswick sent Trenton a sending/receiving agreement for a one-to-one aide for S.B. for the 2016-2017 school year, covering September 6, 2016 through June 30, 2017 (2016-2017 Aide Agreement). Trenton did not return the 2016-2017 Aide Agreement. East Brunswick billed Trenton for $45,954.00, the cost of providing S.B. with a one-to-one aide for the 2016-2017 school year; Trenton paid $17,500.00, of this invoice.

12. East Brunswick provided Trenton a sending/receiving agreement for ESY Program and Transportation for the 2017-2018 school year, covering July 6, 2017 through August 9, 2017 (2017-2018 ESY Tuition Agreement). East Brunswick claims that on or about October 11, 2017, Trenton executed the 2017-2018 ESY Tuition Agreement. Trenton does not admit or deny executing this contract; Trenton paid East Brunswick the amount due under this agreement in full.

13. East Brunswick sent Trenton a sending/receiving agreement for a one-to-one aide for S.B. for the 2017-2018 ESY Program, covering July 6, 2017 through August 9, 2017 (2017-2018 ESY Aide Agreement). Trenton did not return the 2017-2018 ESY Aide Agreement. East Brunswick billed Trenton $6,719.25, for the cost of providing S.B. with a one-to-one aide for the 2017-2018 ESY Program; Trenton has not paid this invoice.

14. Trenton and East Brunswick entered into a sending/receiving agreement for School Year Behavior Disability Tuition and Transportation for the 2017-2018 school year, covering September 6, 2017 through June 30, 2018 (2017-2018 Tuition Agreement). On or about July 3, 2017, Trenton executed the 2017-2018 Tuition Agreement and paid East Brunswick the amount due under this agreement in full.

15. East Brunswick sent Trenton a sending/receiving agreement for a one-to-one aide for S.B. for the 2017-2018 school year, covering September 6, 2017 through June 30, 2018 (2017-2018 Aide Agreement). Trenton did not return the 2017-2018 Aide Agreement. East Brunswick billed Trenton $48,378.60, for the cost of providing S.B. with a one-to-one aide for the 2017-2018 school year; Trenton paid only $17,500.00, of this invoice.

16. East Brunswick sent Trenton a sending/receiving agreement for ESY Program and Transportation for the 2018-2019 school year, covering July 3, 2018 through August 7, 2018 (2018-2019 ESY Tuition Agreement). Trenton did not return the 2018-2019 ESY Tuition Agreement; the parties dispute whether Trenton has paid East Brunswick any amount of the $5,608.50, due under this agreement.

17. East Brunswick sent Trenton a sending/receiving agreement for a one-to-one aide for S.B. for the 2018-2019 ESY Program, covering July 3, 2018 through August 7, 2018 (2018-2019 ESY Aide Agreement). Trenton did not return the 2018-2019 ESY Aide Agreement; the parties dispute whether Trenton has paid East Brunswick any amount of the $4,526.00, due under this agreement.

18. East Brunswick sent Trenton a sending/receiving agreement for School Year Behavior Disability Tuition and Transportation for the 2018-2019 school year, covering September 5, 2018 through June 30, 2019 (2018-2019 Tuition Agreement). Trenton did not return the 2018-2019 Tuition Agreement; the parties dispute whether Trenton has paid East Brunswick any amount of the $40,636.00, due under this agreement.

19. East Brunswick sent Trenton a sending/receiving agreement for a one-to-one aide for S.B. for the 2018-2019 school year, covering September 5, 2018 through June 30, 2019 (2018-2019 Aide Agreement). Trenton did not return the 2018-2019 Aide Agreement; the parties dispute whether Trenton has paid East Brunswick any amount of the $32,587.20, due under this agreement.

20. In summary, East Brunswick contends that Trenton owes a balance of $157,052.39, to East Brunswick as shown below:

Contract	Billed	Paid	Owing
15/16 Tuition*	$ 1,655.42	$ 1,655.42	$ 0.00
15/16 Aide	2,135.34	875.00	1,260.00
16/17 ESY	6,329.00	6,329.00	0.00
16/17 ESY Aide	6382.50	0.00	6,382.50
16/17 Tuition	46,175.20	46,175.20	0.00
16/17 Aide	45,954.00	17,500.00	28,454.00
17/18 ESY	11,990.25	11,990.25	0.00
17/18 ESY Aide	6,719.25	0.00	6,719.25
17/18 Tuition*	86,329.00	86,329.00	0.00
17/18 Aide	48,378.60	17,500.00	30,878.60
18/19 ESY	5,608.50	0.00	5,608.50
18/19 ESY Aide	4,526.00	0.00	4,526.00
18/19 Tuition	40,636.00	0.00	40,636.00
18/19 Aide	32,587.20	0.00	32,587.20

*Indicates that parties agree that the contract was fully-executed.

21. Although petitioner contends that Trenton has failed to pay any of the costs incurred by East Brunswick to educate S.B. during the 2018-2019 school year, Trenton claims that it has paid $34,676.50, of the total owed, and will continue to make incremental payments throughout the 2018-2019 school year. Resp't Br. in Support of its Cross Motion for Summary Decision and in Opposition to Petit'r Motion for Summary Decision (March 19, 2019), p. 12; Certification of Jayne Howard (undated), ¶ 30 and Ex. 14.

DISPUTED FACTS

1. There is no dispute that East Brunswick provided a sending/receiving agreement to Trenton for a one-to-one aide for S.B. covering June 6, 2016 through June 30, 2016 (2015-2016 Aide Agreement), but there is a dispute regarding whether this contract was executed. East Brunswick claims to have received the fully-executed 2015-2016 Aide Agreement from Trenton on or about July 3, 2016. See, Br. in Support of Petit'r Motion for Summary Decision (February 27, 2019), p. 4, ¶ 10. In its answers to the initial and amended petitions, Trenton admitted "that it entered into a sending/receiving agreement for a one-to-one paraprofessional commencing on June 6, 2016 and ending on June 30, 2016." Resp't Trenton Board of Education's Answer to Amended Petition of Appeal and Affirmative Defenses (October 18, 2018), p. 2, ¶ 10. Trenton claims, however, that it did not execute the 2015-2016 Aide Agreement and in support, provided a copy of this contract that is signed only by East Brunswick. Howard Cert., Ex. 7. East Brunswick did not provide a copy of this contract, signed or unsigned. As explained below, East Brunswick's claim for payment of the amount owed under the 2015-2016 Aide Agreement is not dependent on a fully-executed contract, making this dispute one of an immaterial fact.

2. There is no dispute that East Brunswick transmitted Tuition Agreements to Trenton for the 2016-2017 ESY, the 2016-2017 regular school year, and the 2017-2018 ESY. With respect to each of these contracts, however, the parties disagree as to whether they were fully-executed. East Brunswick did not provide copies of the fully-executed contracts but since there is no dispute with respect to the amounts owed under these contracts, the fact of execution is immaterial.

3. Trenton claims that it never agreed to pay East Brunswick more than $17,500.00, on an annual (or pro-rated) basis for a one-to-one aide for S.B. In fact, Trenton refers to discussions with East Brunswick in which Trenton offered to provide an aide for S.B. and then refused to pay more than the amount Trenton pays for its own aides. Howard Cert., ¶ 20. East Brunswick does not affirmatively deny that such discussions took place; neither party contends that any agreement was reached. As explained more fully below, these facts too are immaterial.

ARGUMENT ON THE MOTIONS

East Brunswick argues that, consistent with New Jersey regulations, it has implemented S.B.'s IEP from June 6, 2016, to the present, including providing S.B. with extraordinary services, a one-to-one aide. Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-17.1(e)(5)(viii), extraordinary services provided to special education students are not included "in the cost per student for tuition purposes." Therefore, as permitted by regulation, in each billing cycle, East Brunswick has billed Trenton for S.B.'s tuition and transportation and sent Trenton a separate bill for the additional direct cost of the one-to-one aide. Trenton has failed to pay the full invoiced costs for these extraordinary services.

Trenton argues that it had no obligation to enter into contracts with East Brunswick for the one-to-one aides, and the tuition contracts Trenton did sign do not bar Trenton from hiring its own aides for S.B. Trenton further claims that it never agreed to pay East Brunswick more than $17,500.00, on an annual (or pro-rated) basis for a one-to-one aide for S.B. Proof of this is that during the fall of 2016, after S.B. had been attending school in East Brunswick for approximately four months, the Districts "engaged in conversations and exchanged correspondence" regarding the decision made by Trenton to contract with an independent agency to provide one-to-one aides for its students. Resp't Br., p. 8. At that time, Trenton advised East Brunswick that this independent agency would supply an aide for S.B.; if, however, East Brunswick chose to use its own aide for S.B., Trenton only agreed to pay East Brunswick the capped amount of $17,500.00, on an annual (or pro-rated) basis for that aide.

Trenton also argues that in an attempt to save money, the District's contract with the independent agency provides that if a student is absent, there is no charge to the District for his or her aide. East Brunswick acknowledges that on days when S.B. was absent (thirty times to date), his aide was reassigned to tasks unrelated to S.B. and Trenton received no credit.

Finally, Trenton argues that the aides it uses are well-trained and qualified to serve special education students and the failure of East Brunswick to use these aides places a tremendous financial burden on Trenton, an underfunded school district.

LEGAL ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSIONS

It is well-established that if there is no genuine issue as to any material fact, a moving party is entitled to prevail as a matter of law. Brill v. The Guardian Life Insurance Co. of America, 142 N.J. 520, 540 (1995). The purpose of summary decision is to avoid unnecessary hearings and their concomitant burden on public resources. Under the Brill standard, a fact-finding hearing should be avoided "when the evidence is so one-sided that one party must prevail as a matter of law." Brill guides us thusly:

> [A] determination whether there exists a "genuine issue" of material fact that precludes summary judgment requires the motion judge to consider whether the competent evidential materials presented, when viewed in the light most favorable to the non-moving party, are sufficient to permit a rational factfinder to resolve the alleged disputed issue in favor of the non-moving party.
>
> [Id. at 540.]

In explaining the standard to be applied in summary motion practice, the Brill Court explained:

> The same standard applies to determine whether a prima facie case has been established by the party bearing the burden of proof in a trial. . . . If a case involves no material factual disputes, the court disposes of it as a matter of law by rendering judgment in favor of the moving or non-moving party.
>
> [Id. at 536-3.7.]

As discussed above, I CONCLUDE that the parties raise no dispute with respect to material facts and the following issues can be decided as a matter of law:

1. Whether Trenton is obligated to pay East Brunswick the direct costs for the one-to-one aide retained by East Brunswick for S.B. between June 6, 2016, and the present;

2. Whether East Brunswick is obligated to accept a one-to-one aide for S.B. supplied by Trenton; and

3. Whether Trenton owes East Brunswick for S.B.'s one-to-one aides only the lower amount that Trenton would have paid had it supplied the aides.

The primary purpose of the IDEA is to ensure that all disabled children will be provided a FAPE. 20 U.S.C. 1400(d)(1)(A). New Jersey has also enacted legislation and adopted regulations that assure all disabled children the right to a FAPE. N.J.S.A. 18A:46-1 to -46; N.J.A.C. 6A:14-1.1 et seq. Under the IDEA, a FAPE requires special education and related services that "(a) have been provided at public expense, under public supervision and direction, and without charge; (b) meet the standards of the State educational agency; (c) include an appropriate preschool, elementary, or secondary education in the State involved; and (d) are provided in conformity with the IEP required under Sec. 614." 20 U.S.C. 1401(9).

"At the beginning of each school year, each local educational agency . . . shall have in effect, for each child with a disability in the agency's jurisdiction, an [IEP]." 20 U.S.C. 1414(d)(2)(A). The IEP is the "'centerpiece' of the IDEA's system for delivering education to disabled children," ensuring that each child receives a "basic floor of opportunity." D.S. v. Bayonne Bd. of Educ., 602 F.3d 553, 557 (3d Cir. 2010); see also, N.J.A.C. 6A:14-3.7.

The parties agree that Trenton, as S.B.'s home District, is the educational agency responsible for creating the IEP for S.B. and that East Brunswick, as the District in which S.B. was placed by DCP&P, is the educational agency responsible for implementing S.B.'s IEP. An IEP must be accessible to each "regular education teacher, special education teacher, related services provider, and other service provider who is responsible for its implementation." N.J.A.C. 6A:14-3.7(a)(2). There is no dispute as to the content and/or appropriateness of S.B.'s IEP; the parties merely disagree as to their respective responsibilities and obligations for the staffing and costs of implementation of the IEP.

"Any board of education . . . which receives pupils from a sending district under this chapter shall determine a tuition rate to be paid by the sending board of education." N.J.S.A. 18A:46-21. "This tuition rate may not exceed the actual cost per pupil as determined under rules prescribed by the commissioner and approved by the State Board of Education." Id. However, "extraordinary service," which includes "the services of a one-to-one aide for a student,"[2] are not included in the actual cost per student for tuition purposes and may be billed directly to the sending district. N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-17.1(e)(5)(viii).

Since June 2016, consistent with the regulations, East Brunswick and Trenton have entered into multiple sending/receiving agreements for School Year Behavior Disability Tuition and Transportation covering the actual costs to East Brunswick of educating S.B., except for the costs of the one-to-one aides. As detailed above, Trenton has (for the most part) paid those invoices. As permitted by the regulations, East Brunswick has prepared agreements covering the extraordinary services provided to S.B. during the same period and has sent those agreements to Trenton as well as invoices for the direct costs of the aides.

Trenton argues that it had no obligation to enter into contracts with East Brunswick for the one-to-one aides, and the tuition contracts Trenton did sign do not bar Trenton from hiring its own aides for S.B. Trenton is correct in that it had no obligation to sign contracts for extraordinary services, but that does not mean that Trenton can use the absence of a contract to get out of paying for those services. Trenton's obligation to pay comes from the regulations, not from contracts. While the Tuition Agreements that Trenton entered with East Brunswick for S.B. do not specifically prevent Trenton from hiring its own aides for S.B., neither do those contracts specifically obligate East Brunswick to use, or pay for, aides hired by Trenton.[3]

---

[2] N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-18.2.

[3] The tuition contracts provided by Trenton (most of which are not fully-executed) appear to be a standard form in which there is no mention of extraordinary services. Howard Cert., Exs. 7 through 13.

To support its claim for payment, East Brunswick cites an earlier case, the facts of which almost replicate this one, in which Trenton unsuccessfully challenged the refusal of a receiving district to accept aides supplied by Trenton for the special education students sent to that district by Trenton. Bd. of Educ. of the City of Trenton v. Bd. of Educ. of the Mercer Cty. Spec. Servs. Sch. Dist. (MCSSSD), OAL Docket No. EDU 16465-15 (Initial Decision, August 5, 2016), aff'd., Commr. of Educ. (Final Decision, September 20, 2016). In 2015, in an attempt to balance its budget, Trenton eliminated hundreds of full-time positions, including one-to-one aides assigned to students with disabilities, and contracted with an outside agency for those aides. Id., at 2. Trenton had placed a number of special education students in the Mercer County Special Services School District (MCSSSD) and entered into contracts with MCSSSD for the costs of tuition and transportation. Similar to the present case, Trenton wanted to use aides supplied by the outside agency for those students in the MCSSSD, "rather than paying [MCSSSD] separately for services of an individual aide." Ibid. The Honorable Dean Buono, ALJ, found, and the Commissioner agreed, that the Legislature granted the receiving school control over its employment decisions and, although Trenton and the MCSSSD are free to reach agreement as to the use of aides provided by Trenton, or as to the costs of the aides, "there is no authority that states that Trenton may unilaterally force [the receiving district] to accept Trenton's preferred individual aides." Id., at 7.

Trenton now argues that the earlier case should be given limited weight as Judge Buono did not consider whether Trenton should be forced to pay an excessive amount for the out-of-district aides or to enter into a contract for the extraordinary services. As with East Brunswick, Trenton tried to convince MCSSSD to use the outside vendor of Trenton's choice for one-to-one aides and then stated its intention to only reimburse MCSSSD for the cost Trenton would have paid if it had hired the aides. The failure of the parties to reach agreement on these issues led Trenton to file the earlier lawsuit. Id., at 2-3. In the absence of an agreement otherwise, Judge Buono relied on N.J.A.C. 6A:23A-17.1(e)(5)(viii), which provides that one-to-one aides are an extraordinary service that may be billed directly by the receiving district to the sending district.

Contrary to Trenton's claim, the failure of Judge Buono to consider whether Trenton could be forced to enter into a contract for extraordinary services has no impact on the application of his ruling here. East Brunswick prepared contracts for extraordinary services for S.B. but did not force Trenton to sign them. East Brunswick hired and paid one-to-one aides for S.B. from June 2016 to the present in the absence of both valid contracts and full payment from Trenton.

Similarly, the dearth of discussion by Judge Buono as to the rate charged by MCSSSD for the one-to-one aides is of no impact here. As explained above, the regulations permit the receiving district to bill the sending district for the direct cost of the extraordinary service. In other words, East Brunswick is permitted to bill Trenton for aides in the amount that East Brunswick pays to the aides. East Brunswick states that it charges Trenton the exact cost that it incurs for S.B.'s aide. Reply Br. of Petit'r (March 29, 2019), at p. 1. Trenton has not alleged, or provided evidence, otherwise. The amount that East Brunswick pays S.B.'s aide is not necessarily excessive simply because Trenton would be able to obtain the same service at a lower cost.[4]

Trenton also contends that Judge Buono did not address the practice of the receiving district of billing Trenton for services when students are absent. Though he did not appear to directly address this question, Judge Buono stressed that the Legislature granted MCSSSD "control over its employment decisions," similar to that granted to local school boards. City of Trenton v. MCSSSD, at 7, citing N.J.S.A. 18A:46-38 and 18A:11-1(c). A school board may "make, amend and repeal rules . . . for the employment, regulation of conduct and discharge of its employees." N.J.S.A. 18A:11-1(c). Additionally, "[e]ach board of education may make rules . . . governing the employment, terms and tenure of employment, promotion and dismissal, and salaries and time and mode of payment thereof of teaching staff members for the district[.]" N.J.S.A. 18A:27-4. The duties of staff, including one-to-one aides, are certainly within the scope of authority granted to school boards by the Legislature and it seems [4] Although Trenton may not have argued that MCSSSD was charging an excessive rate, East Brunswick noted that in 2015, MCSSSD was charging Trenton more for aides than East Brunswick has charged. Reply Br. of Petit'r, at p. 5.

reasonable for East Brunswick to reassign these full-time employees when the students to whom they are assigned fail to show up for school.[5]

Trenton also argues that the aides it uses are well-trained and qualified to serve special education students and the failure of East Brunswick to use these aides places a tremendous financial burden on Trenton, an underfunded school district. Despite the validity of these arguments, the Legislature has not recognized either as an exception to the obligation of a sending district to pay for the extraordinary services provided to its special education students.

For the reasons described above, I CONCLUDE that Trenton is obligated to pay to East Brunswick the direct costs incurred by East Brunswick to provide a one-to-one aide for S.B. from June 2016, when S.B. first enrolled in the East Brunswick District, through the present, and for as long as S.B. remains in the East Brunswick schools and his IEP requires the services of a one-to-one aide. I CONCLUDE that East Brunswick has no obligation to use the services of one-to-one aides provided by Trenton and that Trenton cannot limit its payment to East Brunswick for one-to one aides provided to S.B. to the amount that Trenton would have paid its outside vendors for the same services for S.B. Finally, I remind the parties that there is nothing that prohibits them from reaching agreement to modify their respective obligations under applicable law and regulations.

ORDER

It is ORDERED that the motion for summary decision of petitioner East Brunswick for an order granting summary decision in its favor is hereby GRANTED. It is further ORDERED that the cross-motion of respondent Trenton for an order granting summary decision in its favor is hereby DENIED. Trenton is HEREBY ORDERED to pay East Brunswick the full direct costs of the aides retained by East Brunswick in compliance with S.B.'s IEP between [5] This is not to say that the parties cannot agree to some form of credit in such an instance, but here they did not so agree.

June 6, 2016 through June 30, 2019,[6] and for as long as S.B. remains in the East Brunswick schools and his IEP requires the services of a one-to-one aide.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

April 9, 2019
DATE

Tricia M. Caliguire
TRICIA M. CALIGUIRE, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: April 9, 2019

Date Mailed to Parties: April 9, 2019

/nd

[6] Trenton is obligated to pay the amount claimed by East Brunswick, $157,052.39, reduced by the amount paid by Trenton toward invoices for the 2018-2019 school year.

134-19E

OAL Dkt. No. EDU 5627-19
Agency Dkt. No. 83-4/19

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Order on Emergent Relief

Courtney Hambrecht,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the City of Atlantic City, Atlantic County,

Respondent.

The record of this emergent matter, the sound recording of proceedings at the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), and the recommended Order of the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) have been reviewed. Upon such review, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ – for the reasons thoroughly set forth in the recommended Order – that petitioner has failed to demonstrate entitlement to emergent relief pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6 and Crowe v. DeGioia, 90 N.J. 126 (1982).

Accordingly, the recommended Order of the OAL, denying petitioner's application for emergent relief, is adopted for the reasons expressed therein. This matter shall continue at the OAL with such proceedings as the parties and ALJ deem necessary to bring it to closure.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 5/22/19
Date of Mailing: 5/24/19

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

ORDER
EMERGENT RELIEF
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 05627-19
AGENCY DKT. NO. 83-4/19

COURTNEY HAMBRECHT,
Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF ATLANTIC CITY, ATLANTIC COUNTY,
Respondent.

Michael A. Armstrong, Esq., appearing for petitioner (Michael A. Armstrong & Associates, LLC, attorneys)

Michael E. Riley, Esq., appearing for respondent (Riley & Riley, attorneys)

BEFORE KATHLEEN M. CALEMMO, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

The petitioner Courtney Hambrecht (Hambrecht) seeks an emergent order for injunctive relief requiring respondent, Board of Education of the City of Atlantic City (Board), to correct all its files to reflect Hambrecht's voluntary resignation as of January 29, 2019. The Board maintains that there is no imminent threat of harm from an event that occurred over three months ago. The Board further maintains that any damage to Hambrecht by the Board's action is purely speculative.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On April 26, 2019, the petitioner filed a notice of motion for emergent relief, verified petition, and brief with the Office of the Commissioner of Education. The Commissioner of Education transmitted the matter to the Office of Administration Law (OAL) where it was filed the same day, April 26, 2019. Oral argument on the motion was scheduled for May 1, 2019. Due to a conflicting trial schedule by respondent's attorney, oral argument was adjourned until May 9, 2019. Respondent filed its opposition brief on May 8, 2019. I heard oral argument on May 9, 2019.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION

Hambrecht is a certified life guard. She was hired by the Board in October 2016. As part of her employment duties, Hambrecht was responsible for the safety of the students participating in the swimming program as part of the physical education curriculum.

On January 29, 2019, Hambrecht sent a letter to the Superintendent of the Atlantic City School District, Barry Caldwell, resigning her position as full-time lifeguard effective as of 12:00 p.m. on January 29, 2019.

On January 29, 2019, there was a regularly scheduled meeting of the Board.

In the verified petition, it is alleged that at the Board's regular meeting on January 29, 2019, during its open public meeting, the Board accepted Hambrecht's resignation. Immediately, thereafter, the Board went into closed session. When the Board emerged from its closed session, it rescinded its earlier acceptance of Hambrecht's voluntary resignation and moved to terminate Hambrecht's employment, instead. On January 30, 2019, the Director of Human Resources, Diane M. Saunders, sent Hambrecht a letter informing her of the Board's decision to terminate her employment contract effective January 29, 2019.

Hambrecht's position is that the Board's action to terminate her employment was invalid because she had already resigned. She filed her motion for emergent relief to prevent the Board from disseminating any information suggesting that she had been terminated from her employment as wrongful and damaging to her future career. Hambrecht is seeking injunctive relief requiring the Board to correct its files to reflect her voluntary resignation.

LEGAL ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSION

Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6(b), an application for emergent relief shall not be granted unless it satisfies the following four standards:

1. The petitioner will suffer irreparable harm if the requested relief is not granted;

2. The legal right underlying petitioner's claim is settled;

3. The petitioner has a likelihood of prevailing on the merits of the underlying claim; and

4. When the equities and interests of the parties are balanced, the petitioner will suffer greater harm than the respondent will suffer if the requested relief is not granted.

[See Crowe v. DeGioia, 90 N.J. 126, 132–34 (1982).]

The petitioner must meet all four criteria to prevail on her motion. See Crowe, 90 N.J. 126; DEC Electric, Inc. v. Bd. of Educ. of the S. Gloucester Cnty. Reg'l High Sch. Dist. and USA Elec. Contractors, Inc., 96 N.J.A.R.2d (EDU) 789, 790 (citing DEC Electric, Inc. v. S. Gloucester Cnty. Reg'l High Sch. Dist. Bd. of Educ. and USA Elec. Contractors, Inc., EDU 10833-95, Order Denying Emergent Relief (Dec. 6, 1995), adopted, Comm'r (Dec. 26, 1995) (denied unsuccessful bidder's request for emergent relief because it was unable to establish that it would suffer immediate and irreparable harm, although it was able to establish a reasonable likelihood of success on the merits and that the parties opposing the motion would not suffer undue harm). The moving party bears the burden of proving each of the Crowe elements "clearly and convincingly." Waste Mgmt. of N.J. v. Union Cnty. Utils. Auth., 399 N.J. Super. 508, 520 (App. Div. 2008).

Accordingly, each prong of the test must be analyzed:

1. Whether petitioner will suffer irreparable harm if Hambrecht's files are not corrected to reflect voluntary resignation as opposed to termination as of January 29, 2019.

One of the principles for emergent relief is that relief should only be ordered to prevent irreparable harm to the petitioners. Crowe, 90 N.J. at 132–33. Harm is irreparable when it cannot be addressed with monetary damages. Ibid. This standard contemplates that the harm also be both substantial and immediate. Subcarrier Commc'ns, Inc. v. Day, 299 N.J. Super. 634, 638 (App. Div. 1997). "In certain circumstances, severe personal inconvenience can constitute irreparable injury justifying issuance of injunctive relief." Crowe, 90 N.J. at 133. "Pecuniary damages may be inadequate because of the nature of the injury or of the right affected." Ibid.

Here, petitioner claims that she is suffering irreparable harm because if news of her termination circulates through social media, the damage to her reputation will forever affect her ability to gain employment in her field. Petitioner argued that even a printed retraction would not undo the damage that social media inflicts on a person's image or reputation. Consequently, petitioner's harm cannot be adequately redressed by monetary damages because petitioner's motivation is not financial. She is seeking to preserve the accuracy of her employment record and protect her good name.

In opposition, the Board maintains that there is no harm and no immediacy. In support of its position, the Board submitted that Hambrecht's three-month delay in filing this petition is proof of the lack of immediacy. The Board terminated Hambrecht on January 29, 2019. Hambrecht waited until the end of April before she filed her motion for emergent relief.

The Board further maintains that petitioner's harm, even three months after the board meeting, is purely speculative. There are no facts before this tribunal that Hambrecht has suffered any loss to her reputation or future job prospects because of the Board's actions on January 29, 2019. Hambrecht submitted in her petition that she is prevented from completing job applications due to her fear of misrepresenting her past work history. It is unknown whether Hambrecht has been rejected from employment or whether Hambrecht has even filed applications for employment in her field.

Hambrecht's past employment will always be relevant to her future endeavors. It is also well known that social media cannot be controlled or sanitized.

Accordingly, I FIND that petitioner has not shown any harm to her reputation that is imminent based on the Board's action. The issue of damages remains speculative and therefore does not satisfy the first prong of the four-prong test under N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6(b).

2. Whether the legal right underlying petitioner's claim is well settled.

Petitioner claims that the legal right underlying her claim is well settled because once an employee resigns from employment, she cannot be terminated. Upon resignation, she was no longer an employee and therefore, not subject to termination.

As further support, petitioner relies on N.J.S.A. 18A:27-4.1(a) for its requirement that the chief school administrator must recommend removal before the Board can vote to remove an employee. Petitioner submits that the superintendent accepted her resignation; therefore, he could not have recommended her removal. Therefore, petitioner maintains that the Board's action to terminate her violated the statute.

In support of her position, petitioner submitted her letter of resignation which was stamped and acknowledged as received by the superintendent's office at 1:17 p.m. on January 29, 2019.

Respondent claims that the Board's earlier action in accepting the resignation was unwitting. It was not until the Board retreated to closed session, where it viewed a videotape of an incident involving a near drowning, that caused the Board to take corrective action.

The claim before me is unique with sparse reference to settled legal principles. Petitioner submitted that the superintendent did not recommend her termination, but I do not have an affidavit or certification from the superintendent from which to draw that conclusion. I do not have minutes from the meeting to show what action was taken by the Board. Therefore, I FIND that the legal issue cannot be settled as a matter of law and the disputed facts cannot be determined in a summary fashion.

3. Whether petitioner is likely to be successful on the merits of its claim.

Petitioner's moving papers combined the second and third prongs of Crowe. Respondent claims that the Board's action was justified due to petitioner's grossly negligent conduct. For the reasons set forth above, I FIND that these issues cannot be determined summarily.

4. Whether petitioner will suffer greater harm than respondent if emergent relief is not granted.

Petitioner claims that she will suffer greater harm than respondent if the requested relief is not granted. She is merely asking respondent to correct her personnel file to accurately reflect petitioner's resignation from employment. Respondent maintains that petitioner is attempting to scrub her record to keep future employers in the dark about her past employment.

A preliminary injunction is an extraordinary remedy. Petitioner has not shown that she will suffer greater hardship than respondent. Each side has a compelling interest in making sure that petitioner's record accurately reflects her departure from employment. While I agree that petitioner has a compelling interest to ensure that her employment records are accurate, I cannot FIND that such a correction can be made in this instance by way of injunctive relief.

CONCLUSION

Petitioner has not satisfied the four prongs required to obtain emergent relief. She has not shown imminent and irreparable harm. Due to disputed issues of material fact, the claim presented herein cannot be determined summarily. The petitioner has advised me that she intends to pursue the issues in her verified petition through a due process hearing.

ORDER

The application for emergent relief is DENIED. The parties will participate in a telephone conference call with the undersigned to be scheduled within the next ten days.

This order on application for emergency relief may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. The final decision shall be issued without undue delay, but no later than forty-five days following the entry of this order. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this order within forty-five days, this recommended order shall become a final decision on the issue of emergent relief in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Kathleen M. Calemmo

May 10, 2019
DATE

KATHLEEN M. CALEMMO, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: May 10, 2019

Date Mailed to Parties: May 10, 2019

tat/lam

135-19

OAL Dkt. No. EDU 03502-19
Agency Dkt. No. 46-2/19

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Jennifer Tambakis,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Boonton, Morris County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed. The parties did not file exceptions.

Upon such review, the Commissioner agrees with the Administrative Law Judge that the petitioner intends to withdraw this matter; it is therefore no longer a contested case. Accordingly, the Initial Decision of the OAL is adopted as the final decision in this matter, and the petition is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 5/22/19
Date of Mailing: 5/24/19

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to P.L. 2008, c. 36 (N.J.S.A 18A:6-9.1).

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

DISMISSAL

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 03502-19
AGENCY DKT. NO. 46-2/19

JENNIFER TAMBAKIS,

Petitioner,

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF BOONTON, MORRIS COUNTY,

Respondents.

Arnold Mellk Esq. for petitioner (Mellk O'Neill)

James Plosia, Jr. Esq., for respondent Township of Booton Board of Education (Plosia Cohen)

Record Closed: April 16, 2019 Decided: April 16, 2019

BEFORE KIMBERLY A. MOSS, ALJ:

Petitioner, Jennifer Tambakis (Tambakis) challenges the Township of Booton Board of Education's (Board or respondent) right to the results of her drug/alcohol test of February 20, 2019. On March 8, 2019, respondent filed a Motion for Emergent Relief to compel petitioner to provide respondent with the results of her drug/alcohol test of February 20, 2019. The matter was filed with the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) as a contested matter with the March 13, 2019. Oral argument on the motion was held on March 19, 2019. An Order denying Emergent Relief was issued on March 19, 2019, by the undersigned. By Order dated April 9, 2019, the Commissioner of Education adopted the Order and stated that the matter shall continue at the OAL with such proceedings as the parties and the undersigned deems necessary to bring closure.

A telephone prehearing was scheduled for April 30, 2019. However, on April 16, 2019, petitioner's counsel sent correspondence stating that the parties have settled and requested, on behalf of petitioner, to withdraw and dismiss the petition in this matter, with prejudice and close the file.

I CONCLUDE that this matter is no longer a contested case at OAL. I further CONCLUDE that this matter should be dismissed and returned to the agency.

ORDER

Based on the foregoing, it is hereby ORDERED that the request for the petition to be dismissed is GRANTED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

4-16-19

DATE

KIMBERLY A. MOSS, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: April 16, 2019

Date Mailed to Parties: April 16, 2019

ljb

DOCUMENTS RELIED ON

- Commissioner's Order, dated April 9, 2019
- Letter from Edward Cridge, dated April 16, 2019

MELLK O'NEILL
ATTORNEYS AT LAW
51 EAST BROAD STREET
HOPEWELL, NEW JERSEY 08525

Telephone (609)-924-0700
Telecopier: (609)-924-4622

Arnold M. Mellk

Edward A. Cridge

Gidian R. Mellk, Of Counsel

RECEIVED
2019 APR 16 P 2:21

By Electronic Mail:

April 16, 2019

Hon. Kimberly Moss, ALJ
State of New Jersey
Office of Administrative Law
33 Washington Street
Newark, NJ 07102

Re: Jennifer Tambakis v. Boonton Public Schools Bd. of Education.
Agency Dkt. No. 46-2/19
OAL Dkt. No. 03502-2019N
Notice of Withdrawal of Case

Dear Judge Moss:

We represent Petitioner Jennifer Tambakis. Please be advised that the parties have settled the above-captioned matter. Accordingly, consistent with that agreement, kindly accept this request on behalf of Petitioner to withdraw and dismiss the Petition in this matter, with prejudice. Kindly close the file.

Should any further action or information be necessary, please let me know.

Thank you.

Respectfully submitted,

MELLK O'NEILL

Edward Cridge

Cc: James Plosia, Esq.
Jennifer Tambakis

96-19E

OAL Dkt. No. EDU 3502-19
Agency Dkt. No. 46-2/19

2019 APR 11 P 3:13

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Order On Emergent Relief

Jennifer Tambakis,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Boonton, Morris County,

Respondent.

The record of this emergent matter and the recommended Order of the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) have been reviewed. Upon such review, the Commissioner concurs with the ALJ – for the reasons set forth in the recommended Order – that Boonton Township Board of Education has failed to demonstrate entitlement to emergent relief pursuant to Crowe v. DeGioia, 90 N.J. 126 (1982), and codified at N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6. Specifically, the Board failed to establish that it would suffer irreparable harm if the emergent application is not granted.[1]

Accordingly, the recommended Order of the OAL denying petitioner's application for emergent relief is adopted for the reasons expressed therein. This matter shall continue at the OAL with such proceedings as the parties and ALJ deem necessary to bring it to closure.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 4/09/19

Date of Mailing: 4/09/19

[1] It appears that the ALJ inadvertently inserted the following sentence on page 5 of the Order, "I CONCLUDE petitioner did not meet all of the criteria of N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6(b) because they have not shown a likelihood of prevailing on the merits."

136-19

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Passaic County Technical Institute,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the City of Paterson, Passaic County, and Board of Education of the Manchester Regional School District, Passaic County, Respondents.

Synopsis

Passaic County Technical Institute (PCTI) filed a petition of appeal seeking an order requiring the respondent boards of education to provide transportation for its non-remote students – those who reside within 2.5 miles of the school – or, in the alternative, requiring the Boards of Education of the City of Paterson (Paterson) and the Manchester Regional School District (Manchester) to pay the costs of transportation provided by PCTI for those students. PCTI argued that it is hazardous for students from Manchester and Paterson to walk to the school because of the heavily trafficked roads that they must traverse. Paterson previously provided courtesy transportation for non-remote students to PCTI, but ceased this practice in June 2017; Manchester has never provided courtesy transportation for non-remote student to PCTI. The respondents filed a motion for summary decision, contending that students who reside within 2.5 miles of their high school are not provided transportation to and from that school.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: there are no material facts at issue, and the matter is ripe for summary decision; the issues of law for determination here are whether respondents are required to provide transportation for non-remote students to PCTI, and whether petitioner's appeal was timely filed; relevant transportation regulations make clear that the meaning of the "resident district board of education shall be responsible for the... transportation costs of any resident student admitted to the county vocational school" in N.J.A.C. 6A:19-2.3 means transportation in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:27-1.4(a), i.e. transportation "shall be provided to public school students who reside remote from their assigned school of attendance..."; any other reading would give vocational school students preferential treatment regarding transportation that is not available to other high school students; N.J.A.C. 6A:27-1.5 stipulates that districts may choose to provide transportation for non-remote students in accordance with their own policies, but does not require a school district to provide courtesy transportation, nor does it require a district that has previously provided courtesy transportation to continue to provide it; and, as to the issue of timeliness, PCTI knew in June 2017 that Paterson was no longer providing courtesy transportation for non-remote students – and likewise knew that Manchester had never provided such service, in the 2017-18 school year or before – yet did not file its petition until September 2018. The ALJ concluded that Paterson and Manchester are not required to provide transportation costs for non-remote students to PCTI; further, petition was untimely filed. Accordingly, the ALJ granted the respondents' motion for summary decision.

Upon review, the Commissioner adopted the Initial Decision of the OAL with the modification that the 90-day rule did not preclude the filing of the within petition. The petition of appeal was dismissed.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

May 22, 2019

136-19

OAL Dkt. No. EDU 14296-18
Agency Dkt. No. 227-9/18

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Passaic County Technical Institute,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the City of Paterson, Passaic County, and Board of Education of the Manchester Regional School District, Passaic County,

Respondents.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed, as have the exceptions filed by petitioner Passaic County Technical Institute (PCTI) pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4, and the replies thereto filed by the Paterson Board of Education (Paterson) and the Manchester Regional Board of Education (Manchester).

In this matter, PCTI seeks an order requiring Paterson and Manchester to provide transportation for its non-remote students – those who reside within 2.5 miles of the school – or requiring Paterson and Manchester to pay the costs of transportation provided by PCTI to those students. Paterson stopped providing courtesy transportation for non-remote students attending PCTI in June 2017, while Manchester never provided courtesy transportation to PCTI students. Paterson filed an appeal with the Commissioner on September 6, 2018. Following motions for summary decision filed by Paterson and Manchester, the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) found that Paterson and Manchester are not required to provide transportation of non-remote students to PCTI. The ALJ also found that the petition was not timely filed under the 90-day rule, because Paterson terminated its courtesy transportation more than a year before the petition was filed, and its request for reimbursement from Manchester for the 2017-18 school year was not filed within 90-days.

PCTI takes exception to the ALJ's dismissing of this matter without the opportunity to complete discovery. PCTI argues that there are disputed material facts, which should have precluded summary decision, specifically whether Manchester or Paterson has adopted a hazardous bus policy. PCTI contends that this disputed fact implicates N.J.S.A. 18A:39-1.5, which requires school districts that provide courtesy busing to adopt a policy for students who walk to and from school along hazardous routes. Without discovery, PCTI claims that it cannot determine if Paterson previously designated the roads near PCTI as hazardous routes. As nothing has changed on these routes to make them less hazardous, this information could enable PCTI to prove whether Paterson or Manchester have designated routes as hazardous, which then require them to provide courtesy busing services pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:39-1.5.

PCTI contends that the ALJ failed to consider the "long history of school districts using obstructionist means to deter students from attending vocational schools." (PCTI Exceptions at 8). PCTI maintains that Paterson and Manchester are refusing to provide courtesy transportation solely to prevent students from accessing vocational schools, contrary to N.J.A.C. 6A:19-2.3 – which requires boards of education to ensure that students may apply to and attend county vocational schools. Further, PCTI believes educational policy also imposes upon districts a duty of care toward students, which would require the courtesy transportation of students who otherwise must walk on hazardous routes.

Finally, PCTI contends that this matter is not barred by the 90-day rule. PCTI points out that, contrary to the ALJ's finding that the petition needed to be filed within 90 days of the last day Paterson provided courtesy transportation in 2017, "each month that Paterson failed (and continues to fail) to transport, or pay the transportation costs for Paterson resident students to attend PCTI, constitutes a separate cause of action." (PCTI Exceptions at 10). With respect to Manchester, PCTI contends that it never provided courtesy transportation of non-remote students, so no occurrence exists to trigger the 90-day requirement. Alternatively, a relaxation of the rules is warranted, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.16, because strict adherence would result in injustice, as ongoing discussions occurred with both districts through the fall of 2017.

In reply, Paterson argues that PCTI's exceptions do not comply with the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4. PCTI cites no case law, statutes, or regulations for its argument that the ALJ's conclusions were in plain error. Additionally, Paterson points out that PCTI seeks to include evidence and arguments that were not presented to the ALJ, in violation of N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4(c).

Paterson disagrees with PCTI's argument that it was prevented from completing discovery. Even so, discovery and a hearing were not necessary in this case because the issues are purely legal, and none of PCTI's assertions, even if true, would require Paterson to provide courtesy busing for non-remote students. PCTI relies on N.J.S.A. 18A:39-1.5 for the proposition that Paterson should be compelled to provide courtesy busing. As that regulation only applies to "[a] school district that provides courtesy busing," it does not apply here, as Paterson does not provide courtesy busing.

Paterson contends that whether the ALJ ignored policy concerns that Paterson was being obstructionist is irrelevant as there are clear and unambiguous statutes and regulations that govern this matter. It is unambiguous that N.J.A.C. 6A:27-1.4(a) and N.J.S.A. 18A:39-1.5 provide that there is no legal obligation to transport students who live within 2.5 miles of school.

Paterson argues that the ALJ did not err in dismissing the petition as untimely. PCTI never raised the argument that the limitations period should be extended by a year due to ongoing negotiations. Furthermore, Paterson maintains that there is no support for PCTI's contention that each month could constitute a new cause of action.

In reply to PCTI's exceptions, Manchester argues that the ALJ appropriately decided this matter on summary decision. Contrary to PCTI's argument, there are no disputes of material fact regarding Manchester, as PCTI does not contend that Manchester adopted a hazardous bus policy. Additionally, Manchester maintains that PCTI had a meaningful opportunity for discovery, during which time Manchester provided responses to PCTI's interrogatories and requests for production of documents.

Manchester contends that instead of focusing on the law, PCTI focuses on whether Manchester had "obstructionist motives" in not providing transportation and whether public policy requires Manchester to protect students from harm by providing transportation. Manchester notes that it could not possibly have bad motives or be attempting to dissuade students from attending vocational schools, because it has never provided courtesy transportation to any student, whether they attend PCTI or remain at Manchester Regional High School. Furthermore, Manchester students have walked on the routes to PCTI for years, and PCTI admits that the routes have not become more or less hazardous.

Manchester emphasizes that the ALJ carefully reviewed the transportation laws, appropriately applied the remoteness test applicable to all other school districts to vocational schools, and correctly found that there is no right to transportation for PCTI's non-remote students. Manchester also maintains that it was not required to adopt a hazardous route policy because N.J.S.A. 18A:39-1.5 only applies to districts that provide transportation to non-remote students.

Manchester further argues that the ALJ correctly found that PCTI's request for reimbursement for the 2017-18 school year was untimely. PCTI should have been aware by October 2017 that Manchester was not paying for transportation of non-remote students, but it did not file a petition until September 2018, well outside of the 90-day limitations period. Moreover, Manchester contends that PCTI's exceptions do not provide a justifiable reason why the 90-day period should be relaxed, as there were no negotiations between Manchester and PCTI regarding transportation.

As a preliminary matter, the Commissioner notes that the 90-day rule does not preclude the filing of this petition. PCTI could seek an order requiring Paterson and Manchester to provide courtesy transportation of non-remote students at any time. The fact that Paterson stopped providing courtesy transportation a year before the petition was filed does not prohibit PCTI from asking the Commissioner for relief in connection with the current school year. With respect to PCTI's request that Paterson and Manchester pay the costs of transportation, this request is not limited to the 2017-18 school year; it appears that PCTI is seeking reimbursement of the transportation cost going forward as an alternative if Paterson and Manchester do not actually provide the transportation.

Upon further review, the Commissioner agrees with the ALJ that Paterson and Manchester are not required to provide transportation costs of non-remote students to PCTI. As thoroughly set forth in the Initial Decision, the relevant regulations provide that transportation is only required when a high school student lives more than 2.5 miles from school. There is no statutory or regulatory provision that requires courtesy transportation be provided for non-remote students.

The Commissioner also does not find petitioner's exceptions to be persuasive. This matter was ripe for summary decision as the only issues were those of law. There is no evidence that Paterson or Manchester are being obstructionist or attempting to deter students from attending PCTI. Even so, such a public policy argument does not create a legal obligation for Paterson and Manchester to provide courtesy transportation to non-remote students. N.J.S.A. 18A:39-1.5 indicates that "[a] school district that provides courtesy busing services shall adopt a policy regarding the transportation of students who must walk to and from school along hazardous routes." It is clear and unambiguous that the statute does not require school districts to adopt a hazardous route policy, but rather only requires these policies of school districts that provide courtesy busing services. Here, Paterson and Manchester do not provide courtesy transportation, so the statute does not apply to them.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision of the OAL is adopted – as modified herein – as the final decision in this matter. The petition of appeal is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 5/22/19
Date of Mailing: 5/24/19

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to P.L. 2008, c. 36 (N.J.S.A 18A:6-9.1).

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

SUMMARY DECISION

OAL DKT.NO. EDU 14296-18

AGENCY DKT. NO. 227-9/18

PASSAIC COUNTY TECHNICAL INSTITUTE,

Petitioner,

v.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF PATERSON, PASSAIC COUNTY AND THE BOARD OF EDUCATION FOR THE MANCHESTER REGIONAL SCHOOL DISTRICT,

Respondents.

Melanie D. Lipomanis, Esq., for petitioner Passaic County Technical Institute (Porzio, Bromberg & Newman, P.C., attorneys)

Joseph M. Franck, Esq., for respondent, Paterson Board of Education (Ingelsino, Webster, Wyciskala Taylor, LLC, attorneys)

Rodney T. Hara, Esq. for respondent, Passaic County Manchester Regional High School (Fogarty & Hara, attorneys)

Record Closed: February 22, 2019 Decided: February 28, 2019

BEFORE KIMBERLY A. MOSS, ALJ:

Passaic County Technical Institute (PCTI or petitioner) seeks an Order requiring respondents to provide transportation for non-remote students attending its school. Respondents moves for summary decision, based on a contention that if you live 2.5 miles or less from your high school, you will not be provided transportation to and from that school.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

A petition was filed by PTCI requesting that the Paterson Board of Education (Paterson) and Passaic County Manchester Regional High School District (Manchester) pay for transportation of non-remote students in each district who attended PTCI with the Office of Administrative Law on October 1, 2018. Respondents filed motions for summary decision on January 11, 2019. Petitioner filed a reply to that motion on February 8, 2019. Respondents replied to the opposition on February 22, 2019, on which date the record closed.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION

Having reviewed the motions in support of and in opposition to summary decision, I FIND the following FACTS:

PTCI is a county vocational school located in Wayne, New Jersey. Students in Manchester and Paterson can attend PTCI. Paterson stopped providing courtesy transportation for non-remote students to PCTI, (non-remote students are students who reside more than 2.5 miles from PCTI) in June 2017. Manchester never provided courtesy transportation for non-remote students to PCTI. Since June 2017, PCTI has provided transportation to non-remote students from Paterson. In the 2017-2018 and 2018-2019 school years PCTI provided transportation for non-remote students in Manchester. On June 1, 2018, PCTI made a demand upon Manchester to pay transportation for non- remote students in its district. In a letter dated June 8, 2018, Miguel Hernandez, Superintendent of Manchester, stated that Manchester would not provide transportation for non-remote students. On August 24, 2018, PCTI sent Manchester a bill in the amount of $28,833.95 for transportation of non-remote students from Manchester's district to PCTI. PCTI sent Manchester a subsequent bill for transportation of non-remote students to PCTI through January 2019.

PCTI states that it is hazardous for the students from Manchester and Paterson to walk to PCTI. There are two heavily trafficked roads that they must traverse. Neither Paterson nor Manchester has not designated any routes as hazardous. PCTI filed a verified petition to order Paterson and Manchester to provide transportation to PCTI for non-remote students on September 6, 2018.

LEGAL ANALYSIS AND DISCUSSION

Both respondents are requesting summary decision. The rules governing motions for summary decision in an OAL matter are embodied N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5. These provisions mirror the language of Rule 4:46-2 and the New Jersey Supreme Court's decision in Judson v. Peoples Bank and Trust Company of Westfield, 17 N.J. 67 (1954). Under N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(b), the determination to grant summary judgment should be based on the papers presented as well as any affidavits, which may have been filed with the application. In order for the adverse, i.e., the non-moving party to prevail in such an application, responding affidavits must be submitted showing that there is indeed a genuine issue of fact, which can only be determined in an evidentiary proceeding. The Court in Brill v. Guardian Life Insurance Company of America, 142 N.J. 520, 523 (1995), set the standard to be applied when deciding a motion for summary judgment. Therein the Court stated:

> The determination whether there exists a genuine issue with respect to a material fact challenged requires the Motion Judge to consider whether the competent evidential materials presented, when viewed in the light most favorable to the non-moving party . . . are sufficient to permit a rational > materials presented, when viewed in the light most favorable to the non-moving party . . . are sufficient to permit a rational fact finder to resolve the alleged disputed issue in favor of the non-moving party.

In Martin v. Rutgers Cas. Ins Co 346 N.J. Super 320, 323 (App. Div. 202) The Court stated "The record is barren of any evidence that plaintiff had such a license other than her own self-serving assertion to that effect. That is clearly insufficient to create a question of material fact for purposes of a summary judgment motion."

In this matter there is no material issue of fact. There are issues of law. Whether respondents are required to provide transportation for non-remote students to PCTI, whether petitioner's petition was timely filed.

N.J.A.C. 6A:27-1.4 (a) 1 provides:

> (a) Transportation shall be provided to public school students who reside remote from their assigned school of attendance, nonpublic school students who reside remote from their school of attendance and meet the eligibility criteria of N.J.A.C. 6A:27-2.2, and special education students who reside remote from their assigned school or who require transportation services in accordance with their individualized education program (IEP). Transportation shall also be provided to preschool students who live remote from their school of attendance and either are enrolled in a universal preschool program or meet the age and income eligibility requirements of and are enrolled in a targeted preschool program pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:7F-43 et seq.
>
> 1. The words "remote from the school of attendance" shall mean beyond two and one-half miles for high school students (grades nine through 12) and beyond two miles for elementary school students (grades preschool through eight).

N.J.A.C. 6A:27-2.2(a) regarding non-public-school students' eligibility for the District to provide transportation provides:

> Elementary school students shall reside more than two miles from their nonpublic school and secondary school students shall reside more than two and one-half miles from their nonpublic school to be eligible for transportation services.

N.J.A.C. 6A:27-3.2(a) regarding charter and renaissance schools provides:

Students in kindergarten through grade eight and preschool students who meet the eligibility requirements defined in N.J.A.C. 6A:27-1.4(a) who reside more than two miles and students in grades nine through 12 who reside more than two and one-half miles from the charter or renaissance school that they attend are eligible for transportation services

N.J.A.C. 6A:27-4.2 (a) regarding interdistrict public school choice programs provides:

Students in kindergarten through grade eight and preschool students who meet the eligibility requirements defined in N.J.A.C. 6A:27-1.2(a) who reside more than two miles and students in grades nine through 12 who reside more than two and one-half miles from the choice school that they attend, and provided that the choice school is not more than 20 miles from the student's residence, are eligible for transportation services, unless the cost of such services exceeds the annual maximum statutorily established amount per student for nonpublic school transportation.

N.J.A.C. 6A: 19-2.3 provides:

Each resident district board of education shall ensure that resident students may apply to and, if accepted, attend a county vocational school pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:54-20.1. The existence of the same career and technical education program at the resident district board of education shall not negate a student's right to apply to and, if accepted, attend a county vocational school, subject to the following limitations:

1. The resident district board of education shall be responsible for the tuition and transportation costs of any resident student admitted to the county vocational school in which the school district is located, unless the resident district board of education maintains a vocational school pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:54-5 et seq., and such school offers the same program as the county vocational school where the student has been admitted. A program shall be deemed the same, for purposes of this section, if it is approved by the Department in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:19-3.1 and 3.2, is assigned the same Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) code, and meets or exceeds all applicable program performance standards; and

> 2. The resident district board of education shall be responsible for the tuition, transportation costs, and nonresident fee (where applicable) of any resident student admitted to a county vocational school outside the county in which the resident school district is located, unless the district board of education maintains a vocational school pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:54-5 et seq., or the county in which the resident school district is located maintains a county vocational school, and either of these schools offers the same program as the non-resident county vocational school where the student has been admitted. A program shall be deemed the same, for purposes of this section, if it is approved by the Department in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:19-3.1 and 3.2, is assigned the same Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) code and meets or exceeds all applicable program performance standards.

In this matter, when reading the transportation regulations, it is clear that the meaning of the "resident district shall be responsible for transportation costs of students in vocational school" in N.J.A.C. 6A: 19-2.3 means transportation in accordance with the N.J.A.C. 6A:27-1.4 (a). Any other reading would lead to results where a student who lived next door or across the street from PCTI would have to be transported to PCTI. In addition, other regulations that address transportation of students to non-public schools, inter-district schools, charter and renaissance schools, list one criteria eligibility for transportation of high school students as they have to live more than 2.5 miles from the high school. Any other reading of N.J.A.C. 6A: 19-2.3 would give students at vocational high school preferential treatment regarding transportation not available to other high school students.

N.J.A.C. 6A: 27-1.5 provides:

> (a) District boards of education may provide for the transportation of students who reside less than remote from their school in accordance with their local policies and at their own expense.
>
> 1. District boards of education may elect to charge the parent or legal guardian for all or part of the cost of this service in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:39-1.3.
>
> (b) District boards of education that provide for the transportation of students pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:39-1 or a cooperative transportation services agency (CTSA) may provide for the transportation of resident and nonresident students who are not otherwise eligible for transportation services by any other law and charge the parent or legal guardian for all or part of the cost of this transportation in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:39-1.3.

1. The parent or legal guardian of a nonpublic school student who receives aid in lieu of transportation from their resident district board of education may purchase transportation services from another district board of education or CTSA.

(c) Whenever a district board of education agrees to provide nonmandated transportation to and from school for reasons of hazard, the board shall adopt a hazardous busing policy in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:39-1.5.

(d) When the parent or legal guardian elects to have transportation provided for their child pursuant to this section, the district board of education or CTSA may elect to charge the parent or legal guardian for all or part of the cost. However, the cost of the transportation paid by the parent or legal guardian shall be no more than the per student cost of the route and shall be paid at the time and in the manner determined by the district board of education or CTSA.

(e) Municipal governments may elect to pay the cost of transportation for students who live less than remote from their school through an interlocal agreement with the district board of education in accordance with N.J.S.A. 18A:39-1.2. Municipalities may elect to charge the parent or legal guardian for all or part of the cost of this service.

(f) Students who are unable to pay because of financial hardship may not be excluded from receiving services described under this section. The criteria used to determine financial hardship shall be the same as the Statewide eligibility standards established for free and reduced-price meals under the State school lunch program.

(g) District boards of education shall notify the Department on the Commissioner-prescribed form when transportation is provided for students pursuant to this section.

Manchester has never provided courtesy transportation to non-remote students attending PCTI. Paterson stopped providing courtesy transportation to students attending PCTI in June 2017. Neither Manchester or Paterson has adopted a hazardous bus policy. The regulation does not require a school district to provide courtesy transportation. The regulation does not require a district that has previously provided courtesy transportation to continue to provide it.

I CONCLUDE Paterson and Manchester are not required to provide transportation costs of non-remote students to PCTI.

The next issue is whether PCTI's petition was timely filed. N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1(i) provides:

> The petitioner shall file a petition no later than the 90th day from the date of receipt of the notice of a final order, ruling, or other action by the district board of education, individual party, or agency, that is the subject of the requested contested case hearing. This rule shall not apply in instances where a specific statute, regulation, or court order provides for a period of limitation shorter than 90 days for the filing of a particular type of appeal.
>
> Such a rule represents a fair and reasonably necessary requirement for the proper and efficient resolution of disputes under the school laws and falls within the scope of authority granted to the Commissioner. Kaprow v. Bd. of Educ. of Berkeley Twp., 131 N.J. 572, 582 (1993). The limitation period gives school districts the security of knowing that administrative decisions regarding the operation of the school cannot be challenged after ninety days. Ibid. Its purposes are to stimulate litigants to pursue a right of action within a reasonable time so that the opposing party may have a fair opportunity to defend and to penalize dilatoriness and serve as a measure of repose by giving security and stability to human affairs. Id. at 587.
>
> The ninety-day requirement is to be strictly construed and is mandatory. Wise v. Bd. of Educ. of the City of Trenton, EDU 160-00, Comm'r (September 11, 2000), aff'd, State Bd. of Educ. (January 3, 2001), <http://lawlibrary.rutgers.edu/oal/search.html>. A petitioner must file a petition within ninety days from a notice of adverse action and not within ninety days of her exhaustion of other avenues and mechanisms she might have employed in seeking renewal of employment. Id. Informal attempts to resolve a dispute do not serve to toll the statute of limitations. See Kaprow supra at 588. Also, the ninety-day period for filing a petition of appeal commences when a petitioner learns of facts that would enable her to file a timely claim. Id. at 587. "Adequate notice must be sufficient to inform an individual of some fact that he or she has a right to know and that the communicating party has a duty to communicate." Ibid. (citation omitted).

PCTI knew in June 2017 that Paterson was no longer providing courtesy transportation for non-remote students. Ninety day from June 30, 2017, would be September 30, 2017. PCTI filed the petition in this matter on September 5, 2018, over a year after it knew that Paterson was not providing transportation for non-remote students. PCTI cites the cases of Lavin v. Hackensack Board of Education 90 N.J.145 for the proposition that that ninety-day rule does not apply when a statutory right is at stake. However, there is no statutory right of transportation provided by the residents' district for non-remote students. In addition, Lavin was regarding a N.J.S.A. 2A14-1 statute of limitations and not N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3(i) ninety-day rule.

PCTI knew that Manchester did not provide transportation for non-resident students in the 2017-2018 school year, it never provided transportation for non-remote students. Again, PCTI did not file this petition until September 5, 2018.

I CONCLUDE that PCTI did not file its petition against Paterson within ninety day of Paterson's termination of courtesy transportation for non-remote students. I further CONCLUDE that PCTI did not file its petition against Manchester for the 2017-2018 school year within ninety day against Manchester for the 2017-2018 school year.

Since I have CONCLUDED that respondents are not required to provide transportation to non-remote students and that petitioner did not file its petition within the ninety-day rule, I will not address the other matters in the motion because it will not affect the outcome of my decision.

ORDER

Based on the foregoing, it is ORDERED that respondents motions for summary decision be and is hereby GRANTED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

2-28-19

DATE

KIMBERLY A. MOSS, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: 2-28-2019

Date Mailed to Parties: 2-28-2019

ljb

DOCUMENTS RELIED UPON

- Petitioner and Respondents motions, briefs and exhibits.

137-19

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

East Greenwich Education Association,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of East Greenwich, Gloucester County,

Respondent.

Synopsis

The petitioner, the East Greenwich Education Association (Association), alleged that the East Greenwich Board of Education (Board) violated N.J.S.A. 18A:6-119 and N.J.A.C. 6A:10-1.2 when it hired a part-time (not more than 6 days per month) Interim Coordinator of Special Projects to conduct teacher observations. The Association contended that the person hired for this position, Terry Van Zoeren (Van Zoeren), is not eligible to conduct formal observations of the teaching staff members because he is not "employed in the district in a supervisory role and capacity," as required in the above statute and regulation. The Board maintained that Van Zoeren is acting in a supervisory role and capacity because he performs teacher observations as part of his duties and possesses all of the credentials required to do so. The Board filed a motion for summary decision.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: there are no genuine issues of material fact in this case, and the matter is ripe for summary decision; the Board hired Van Zoeren as the part-time Interim Coordinator of Special Projects, commencing in the 2016-2017 school year and continuing to the present; there is no dispute as to whether Van Zoeren is properly certified; the issue herein is whether Van Zoeren is employed by the Board in a "supervisory role and capacity"; the Association maintained that Van Zoeren's job description does not confer or assign him any supervisory duties and he is only employed on a part-time basis; Van Zoeren should therefore be prohibited from conducting teacher observations; however, Van Zoeren is in fact acting in the role and capacity of a supervisor when he performs observations of teaching staff; he is not assisting the Superintendent or the Director of Curriculum, but is rather hired to perform teacher observations, conduct post-observation meetings with teachers, and prepare the required reports. The ALJ concluded that Van Zoeren is acting in a supervisory role and capacity in his position as Interim Coordinator of Special Projects. Accordingly, the ALJ granted the Board's motion for summary decision and dismissed the Association's appeal.

Upon comprehensive review, the Commissioner remanded the matter to the OAL for further fact finding to to determine whether Van Zoeren is serving in a "supervisory role and capacity" that comports with the definition of "Supervisor" under N.J.A.C. 6A:32-2.1. In so doing, the Commissioner noted that throughout the record, the parties and the ALJ have incorrectly cited to N.J.A.C. 6A:9-2.1 for a definition of "Observation." The correct citation is N.J.A.C. 6A:10-1.2.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

May 22, 2019

137-19

OAL Dkt. No. EDU 14585-18
Agency Dkt. No. 223-8/18

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

East Greenwich Education Association,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of East Greenwich, Gloucester County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed, as have the exceptions filed pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4 by the petitioner, East Greenwich Education Association (Association), and the East Greenwich Board of Education's (Board) reply thereto. In this case, the Association claims that the Board violated N.J.S.A. 18A:6-119 and N.J.A.C. 6A:10-1.2[*] by hiring Terry Van Zoeren on a part-time basis to conduct teacher observations under the title of Interim Coordinator of Special Projects. The Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) found that there were no material facts in dispute and granted summary decision in favor of the Board. In so doing, the ALJ determined that the Board did not violate N.J.S.A. 18A:6-119 or N.J.A.C. 6A:10-1.2 because Van Zoeren is acting in a "supervisory role and capacity" when he performs the duties assigned to his job description.

[*] In the petition and the Initial Decision, this reference to New Jersey Administrative Code was improperly cited as N.J.A.C. 6A:9-2.1. The proper citation – N.J.A.C. 6A:10-1.2 – will be used herein.

Upon a comprehensive review of the record, the Commissioner finds that additional fact finding is necessary to reach a determination as to whether Van Zoeren is acting in a "supervisory role and capacity." Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-119, the term "Evaluation" is defined as:

> ...a process based on the individual's job description, professional standards and Statewide evaluation criteria that incorporates analysis of multiple measures of student progress and multiple data sources. Such evaluation shall include formal observations, as well as post conferences, conducted and prepared by an individual employed in the district in a supervisory role and capacity and possessing a school administrator certificate, principal certificate, or supervisor certificate. (emphasis added).

This definition is echoed in the administrative code, as N.J.A.C. 6A:10-1.2 defines "Observation" as:

> ...a method of collecting data on the performance of a teaching staff member's assigned duties and responsibilities. An observation for the purpose of evaluation will be included in the determination of the annual summative evaluation rating and shall be conducted by an individual employed in the school district in a supervisory role and capacity and possessing a school administrator, principal, or supervisor endorsement ... (emphasis added).

Moreover, because "supervisory role" and "supervisory capacity" are not defined in the code, it is helpful to consider the definition of "Supervisor" found in N.J.A.C. 6A:32-2.1, i.e.: "any appropriately certified individual assigned with the responsibility for the direction and guidance of the work of teaching staff members."

In this case, it is undisputed that Van Zoeren possesses the requisite certificates to conduct evaluations; however, it is not clear from the current record if Van Zoeren is, in fact, acting in a "supervisory role and capacity" while performing the duties of the Interim Coordinator of Special Projects. The job description states that Van Zoeren is responsible for performing teacher observations, conducting post-observation meetings, and writing reports. Yet, there is no additional information in the record to indicate the nature of the post-observation meetings, the type of information that is provided in the written reports, or the number of observations of specific teachers that Van Zoeren performs. The record is also silent regarding whether Van Zoeren provides direction and guidance to the teachers he observes and evaluates. The extent of Van Zoeren's role in the district is simply not ascertainable based on the facts before the Commissioner; thus, a determination as to whether Van Zoeren is acting in a "supervisory role and capacity" in his position as Interim Coordinator of Special Projects cannot be made on the current record.

Accordingly, this matter is remanded to the OAL for the additional fact finding necessary to determine whether Van Zoeren is acting in a "supervisory role and capacity" pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-119 that also comports with the definition of "supervisor" contained in N.J.A.C. 6A:32-2.1.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 5/22/19
Date of Mailing: 5/24/19

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION GRANTING MOTION FOR SUMMARY DECISION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 14585-18
AGENCY DKT. NO. 233-8/18

EAST GREENWICH EDUCATION ASSOCIATION,
Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF EAST GREENWICH
Respondent.

Cosmas P. Diamantis, Esq., for petitioner (Zeller & Wieliczko, LLP, attorneys)

Stephen J. Edelstein, Esq., for respondent (Weiner Law Group, LLP, attorneys)

Record Closed: January 22, 2019 Decided: March 7, 2019

BEFORE KATHLEEN M. CALEMMO, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

The petition filed by East Greenwich Education Association (Association) alleges that East Greenwich Board of Education (Board) violated N.J.S.A. 18A:6-119 and N.J.A.C. 6A:9-2.1 by hiring a part-time Interim Coordinator of Special Projects to conduct teacher observations. The Association contends that Terry Van Zoeren (Van Zoeren) is statute and regulation. The Board maintains that because Van Zoeren possesses all the required credentials and he performs teacher observations as part of his duties, he is acting in a supervisory role and capacity. His status as part-time is irrelevant under the above statute and regulation.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On August 31, 2018, the Association filed its Petition of Appeal pursuant to a Consent Order[1] transferring the dispute to the New Jersey Commissioner of Education. On October 5, 2018, the Board filed its Answer to the Petition of Appeal and a Notice of Motion for Summary Decision with supporting brief and Certification of Dr. James Lynch with supporting exhibits. (R-1.) The matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) on October 9, 2018. On November 5, 2018, the Association filed its brief in opposition to the motion with a Certification from Cosmas P. Diamantis, Esq. with supporting exhibits (P-1), and an Affidavit from Joy Strehle with supporting exhibits (P-2). On November 16, 2018, the Board filed its reply brief. I scheduled oral argument for December 19, 2018, but that date was adjourned at the request of the Board with consent from the Association. Oral argument was rescheduled for January 22, 2019 and the record closed on that day.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION AND FINDINGS

Based upon the parties' responses to the Statement of Material Facts and Counterstatement of Material Facts contained within the briefs, I FIND the following FACTS, which are not disputed:

[1] The Consent Order was entered in the Superior Court of New Jersey, Gloucester County, by the Honorable Anne McDonnell, P.J.Ch. As this Consent Order, transferred the dispute between the parties to the New Jersey Commissioner of Education, I will not consider the Board's request for dismissal under N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1 on the grounds that the Association's filing was untimely. A true copy of the Consent Order was attached to the Certification of Cosmas P. Diamantis, Esq. (P-1 at A.)

1. The Board is a public employer within the meaning of the Employer-Employee Relations Act (Act), N.J.S.A. 34:31A-1 et. seq., and is statutorily empowered to operate and supervise the East Greenwich School District (District).

2. The Association is a duly organized employee representative under the Act, and is the exclusive negotiations representative for all regularly employed non-administrative, non-supervisory, and non-confidential certificated professional employees, support and custodial staff.

3. The Board and the Association are parties to a collective bargaining agreement (CBA) which was effective July 1, 2014 through June 30, 2017 and are currently in negotiations for a successor to that agreement. (R-1 at A.)

4. Commencing with the 2016-2017 school year, the District employed Van Zoeren, on a part-time basis (not more than six days per month), as an Interim Coordinator for Special Projects, reporting to the Superintendent. (R-1 at B and C.)

5. Van Zoeren began conducting teacher observations on a part-time basis in September 2016 and continues in that position until the present date.

ADDITIONAL FACTUAL FINDINGS

Summary Decision may be rendered in an administrative proceeding if the pleadings, discovery, and affidavits "show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact challenged and that the moving party is entitled to prevail as a matter of law." N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(b). The standard to be applied in deciding a motion pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(b) is essentially the same as that governing a motion under R. 4:46-2 for summary judgment in civil litigation. Contini v. Bd. of Educ. of Newark, 286 N.J. Super. 106, 121, (App. Div. 1995), certif. denied, 145 N.J. 372 (1996).

A court should grant summary judgment when the pleadings, depositions, answers to interrogatories and admissions on file, together with the affidavits, show that there is no genuine issue of material fact and that the moving party is entitled to a judgment as a matter of law. Brill v. Guardian Life Ins. Co. of Am., 142 N.J. 520, 528-529 (1995). The Supreme Court of New Jersey has adopted a standard that requires judges to "engage in an analytical process to decide whether the evidence presents a sufficient disagreement to require submission to a jury or whether it is so one-sided that one party must prevail as a matter of law." Id. at 533.

A court should deny a motion for summary decision when the party opposing the motion has produced evidence that creates a genuine issue as to any material fact challenged. Brill, 142 N.J. at 528-29. When making a summary decision, the "judge's function is not to weigh the evidence and determine the truth of the matter but to determine whether there is a genuine issue for trial." Id. at 540.

Based upon a review of the documentary evidence, including the Certification of Dr. James Lynch and the exhibits attached thereto (R-1) submitted in support of the motion and the Affidavit of Joy Strehle, President of the Association and the exhibits attached thereto (P-2) submitted in opposition, I FIND the following FACTS, upon which there are no genuine issues:

1. Van Zoeren's job duties described in his Agreement (R-1 at B) with the Board are as follows:

> The Interim Coordinator of Special Projects duties include observations of teaching staff. Each day worked will include completing both "short" and "long" observations along with completing reports for each observation and post conference meeting with teachers. (allotted time is approximately 1½ hours for "short" and 2½ hours for "long" observations.) Other tasks may be assigned by the Superintendent or Director of Curriculum. Position reports directly to the Director of Curriculum.

2. The qualifications for the Interim Coordinator for Special Projects were listed in the Job Description (R-1 at D) as follows:

> Previous experience as a Supervisor, Principal, Assistant Superintendent, or Superintendent; > NJ Supervisor Certificate or higher; and > Understanding and/or training in one of the Teacher for NJ observation/evaluation instruments.

3. Superintendent Lynch stated in his Certification that "Van Zoeren is a former superintendent who meets all the criteria set out in the Job Description for the position, is properly certified, and is trained in the evaluation model used by the district." (R-1 at par.7.) Van Zoeren has the following Certificates: Teacher, Principal, and School Administrator. (R1 at E.)

4. On January 3, 2018, respondent's Superintendent of Schools, Dr. Lynch, contacted the Interim Executive County Superintendent, Ave Altersitz, by email to inquire whether the District could utilize a part-time administrator to conduct observations.

5. On January 16, 2018, the Association submitted a written grievance (R-1 at G) wherein it contended as follows:

> The Association contends that teachers should be evaluated by a trained evaluator who is employed in a daily supervisory capacity. At this time, the part-time employee works six days a month to conduct teacher evaluations and coordinate grants. This part-time employee is in a supervisory role, however not in a supervisory capacity. The association believes this is a violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:6-119.

6. Van Zoeren remains employed as the Interim Coordinator for Special Projects for the 2018-2019 school year.

As there is no dispute to the material facts, I FIND that this matter is ripe for summary decision.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Board argues that its motion for summary decision to dismiss the grievance should be granted because the Association is incorrect in its interpretation of N.J.S.A. 18A:6-119 and N.J.A.C. 6A:9-2.1. The Association maintains that the statutes require that any individual that performs observations and evaluations of teaching professionals be employed by the District in a "supervisory role and supervisory capacity."

N.J.S.A. 18A:6-119 defines terms relative to the Teacher Effectiveness and Accountability for the Children of New Jersey (TEACHNJ) Act. The term "evaluation" is defined as follows:

> "Evaluation" means a process based on the individual's job description, professional standards and statewide evaluation criteria that incorporates analysis of multiple measures of student progress and multiple data sources. Such evaluation shall include formal observations, as well as post conferences, conducted and prepared by an individual employed in the district in a supervisory role and capacity and possessing a school administrator certificate, principal certificate, or supervisor certificate. (emphasis added)

Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:9-2.1, the term "supervisor" is defined as follows:

> "Supervisor" means an appropriately certified teaching staff member, as defined in N.J.S.A. 18A:1-1, employed by a school district in a supervisory role and capacity, and possessing a school administrator, principal, or supervisor endorsement. (emphasis added)

There is no dispute between the parties that Van Zoeren is appropriately certified. The issue framed by the Association is whether Van Zoeren is employed by the District in a supervisory role and capacity, thereby, allowing him to perform teacher observations in accordance with the language set forth above. The Association maintains that the regulation requires satisfaction of a two-prong test. The first prong, being "appropriately certified," is satisfied. However, the second prong, employment "in a supervisory role and capacity" cannot be met by Van Zoeren. In support of its position, the Association argued that Van Zoeren's Job Description does not confer or assign him any supervisory duties and he is only employed on a part-time basis. Therefore, the legislative intent of N.J.A.C. 6A:9-2.1 cannot be satisfied and Van Zoeren should be prohibited from conducting teacher observations.

To illustrate its point, the Association offered the following definitions: "supervision" is defined as "the act of managing, directing, or overseeing persons or projects." Black's Law Dictionary 1576 (9th ed. 2009). Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:32-2.1, "supervisor" is defined as "any appropriately certified individual assigned with the responsibility for the direction and guidance of the work of teaching staff members."

The Association further argued that Van Zoeren's role is primarily to assist the administrative staff in conducting teacher observations or grant writing and that assisting is not managing.

The Board's position is that when an employee is hired to observe and/or evaluate employees, he is acting in a supervisory role and capacity. The Board cites In the Matter of Cliffside Park Board of Education and Cliffside Park Supervisors Association, 1982 NJ PERC LEXIS 442 (September 3, 1982) for the position that Van Zoeren is in a supervisory role and capacity because he is employed to perform observations and make recommendations. The issue in Cliffside Park Board of Education was whether teachers, who were also department heads, participating in the observation, evaluation, and recommendation process could remain in a negotiation's unit for purpose of collective bargaining with teaching staff members whom they supervise under the New Jersey Employer-Employee Relations Act, N.J.S.A. 34:13A-1. The decision is illustrative because the Director determined that department heads were supervisors based on the functions they performed. Namely, the department heads were deemed to be supervisors because they were involved in the observation/evaluation/recommendation process. An employee involved in the observation and evaluation process has substantial power to affect the careers of the teachers whom he evaluates. For that reason, the Hearing Officer and the Director both determined that it would be a conflict of interest if the department heads remained in the same negotiation unit with the teachers whom they observe.

Likewise, Van Zoeren is acting in the role and capacity of a supervisor when he is performing the duties assigned in his job description, namely, observations of the teaching staff. Van Zoeren in not merely assisting the Superintendent or the Director of Curriculum. He was hired to perform teacher observations, conduct post-observation meetings with the teachers, and prepare the required reports. I CONCLUDE that Van Zoeren is acting in a supervisory role and capacity when he is performing these functions.

I further CONCLUDE that because Van Zoeren contains the required certifications and is acting in a supervisory role and capacity when conducting teacher observations, the Board is entitled to summary decision dismissing the Association's petition of appeal.

ORDER

Based upon the Board's moving papers, including the Certification of Dr. Lynch and its supporting exhibits, I GRANT the Board's motion for summary decision and dismiss the Association's appeal.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

March 7, 2019
DATE

Kathleen M Calemmo
KATHLEEN M. CALEMMO, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: March 7, 2019

Date Mailed to Parties: March 7, 2019

tat/mph

APPENDIX

LIST OF EXHIBITS

For petitioner:

P-1 Exhibit A - Consent Order

P-2 Exhibit A - Van Zoeren's Agreement

Exhibit B - Job Description

For respondent:

R-1 Exhibit A - Agreement between Association and Board

Exhibit B - Van Zoeren's Agreement – 2016

Exhibit C - Van Zoeren's Agreement – 2017

Exhibit D - Job Description

Exhibit E - Certifications

Exhibit F - Emails

Exhibit G - January 16, 2018, Association Grievance Letter

Exhibit H - Arbitration Demand

Exhibit I - Grievance Withdrawal Letter

138-19

OAL Dkt. No. EDU 17356-15
Agency Dkt. No. 298-9/15

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

C.F.W., on behalf of minor child, J.W.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Pemberton, Burlington County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, which was transmitted to the Commissioner by the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.4 and includes an advisement of petitioner's failure to appear at the scheduled April 25, 2019 OAL hearing, has been reviewed. Petitioner did not file an explanation for her failure to appear, notwithstanding the opportunity to do so. Accordingly, this matter is no longer deemed to be a contested case before the Commissioner and is hereby dismissed with prejudice.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 6/07/19
Date of Mailing: 6/07/19

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to P.L. 2008, c. 36 (N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1).

139-19

Agency Dkt. No. 44-2/19

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Decision

In the Matter of the Tenure Hearing of Patrice O'Keefe, Morris County
Vocational School District,
Morris County.

The record of this matter and the proposed settlement agreement and general release have been reviewed. Upon such review, the Commissioner finds that the proposed settlement is consistent with established standards governing settlement of tenure matters. In re Cardonick, decided by the Commissioner April 7, 1982, aff'd State Board April 6, 1983, 1990 S.L.D. 842, 846. Accordingly, the settlement is hereby approved, and the tenure charges are dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the settlement.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 6/07/19
Date of Mailing: 6/07/19

140-19

OAL Dkt. No. EDU 02970-18
Agency Dkt. No. 29-1/18

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Board of Education of the City of Burlington, Burlington County, Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Edgewater Park, Burlington County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter, the proposed settlement agreement and release (Agreement), and the Initial Decision issued by the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1.

Upon review, the Commissioner approves the terms of the Agreement and adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter. The case is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the Agreement.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 6/07/19

Date of Mailing: 6/07/19

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION

SETTLEMENT

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 2970-18

AGENCY DKT. NO. 29-1/18

CITY OF BURLINGTON BOARD OF EDUCATION,

Petitioner,

v.

TOWNSHIP OF EDGEWATER PARK BOARD OF EDUCATION,

Respondent.

Alicia D'Anella, Esq., for petitioner (Comegno Law Group, P.C., attorneys)

Amy R. Guerin, Esq., for respondent (Parker McCay, P.A., attorneys)

Record Closed: April 22, 2019 Decided: May 3, 2019

BEFORE SUSAN M. SCAROLA, ALJ (Ret., on recall):

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on February 26, 2018, for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The parties have agreed to a settlement and have prepared a Settlement Agreement indicating the terms thereof, which is attached and fully incorporated herein.

I have reviewed the record and the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures.

2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE my initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

May 3, 2019
DATE

SUSAN M. SCAROLA, ALJ
(Ret., on recall)

Date Received at Agency: 5.8.19

Date Mailed to Parties: 5.8.19

/cb

COMEGNO LAW GROUP, P.C.
521 Pleasant Valley Avenue
Moorestown, New Jersey 08057
(856) 234-4114
(856) 234-4262 Fax #
Attorneys for Petitioner,
City of Burlington Public School District Board of Education

RECEIVED
2019 APR 23 P 3:42
STATE OF NEW JERSEY
OFFICE OF ADMIN LAW

BY: ALICIA D'ANELLA, ESQUIRE (Attorney ID # 22652008)

CITY OF BURLINGTON PUBLIC SCHOOL DISTRICT BOARD OF EDUCATION, Petitioner, v. THE BOARD OF EDUCATION OF EDGEWATER PARK TOWNSHIP IN THE COUNTY OF BURLINGTON, Respondent.	BEFORE THE COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION OF NEW JERSEY AGENCY REF No.: 29-1/18 DOCKET No.: EDU-02970-2018 STIPULATION OF DISMISSAL

IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED by and between Petitioner, CITY OF BURLINGTON PUBLIC SCHOOL DISTRICT BOARD OF EDUCATION and the Respondent, BOARD OF EDUCATION OF EDGEWATER PARK TOWNSHIP that any and all claims and counterclaims asserted herein are dismissed with prejudice and without costs.

By: _____ Dated: 4/15/19
Victoria S. Beck, Esq.
PARKER MCCAY P.A.
9000 Midlantic Dr #300
Mount Laurel, New Jersey 08054
Attorney for Petitioner, Board of Education of Edgewater Park Township

By: _____ Dated: 4/16/19
Alicia D'Anella, Esq.
COMEGNO LAW GROUP, P.C.
521 Pleasant Valley Avenue
Moorestown, New Jersey 08057
Attorney for Respondent, Montague Township Board of Education

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND RELEASE

RECEIVED
2019 APR 23 P 3:42
STATE OF NEW JERSEY
OFFICE OF ADMIN LAW

This Settlement Agreement and Release (the "Agreement") made this _____ day of January, 2019 by and among, the CITY OF BURLINGTON PUBLIC SCHOOL DISTRICT BOARD OF EDUCATION ("BURLINGTON CITY"), together with its respective successors, assigns, attorneys, agents and all other persons or entities acting on its behalf,

and

The BOARD OF EDUCATION OF EDGEWATER PARK TOWNSHIP ("EDGEWATER PARK"), together with its respective successors, assigns, attorneys, agents and all other persons or entities acting on its behalf. (Edgewater Park and Burlington City are hereinafter referred to as the "Parties".)

RECITALS

WHEREAS, the Parties have a long standing send-receive relationship whereby Edgewater Park sends its students in grades 9 through 12 to Burlington City's schools; and

WHEREAS, each year the Parties memorialize the tentative tuition charged by Burlington City for Edgewater Park students through a signed Tuition Contract Agreement, which is in the form prepared by the Department of Education; and

WHEREAS, N.J.A.C. 6A:23a-17.1(f) provides a mechanism to reconcile the tentative tuition rate charged with the actual tuition rate, subsequently certified by the Commission of Education; and

WHEREAS, a dispute has arisen with respect to the difference between the tentative tuition rate and the certified tuition rate for the years 2013-2014, 2014-2015, 2015-2016, and;

WHEREAS, as a result of the dispute, Burlington City initiated a petition of appeal before the Commissioner of Education captioned City of Burlington Public School District Board of Education v. Board of Education of Edgewater Park Township, under OAL Docket No. EDU 02970-2018 (the "Litigation"); and

WHEREAS, during the pendency of the Litigation, the Parties determined that there is also a dispute regarding the difference between the tentative tuition rate and the certified tuition rate for the years 2016-2017 and 2017-2018 (together with the Litigation hereinafter referred to as "Tuition Disputes"); and

WHEREAS, Edgewater Park and Burlington City desire to amicably resolve all presently known Tuition Disputes without further legal proceedings; and

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises and covenants contained herein and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged by the Parties, the Parties agree as follows:

1. Tuition Repayment Schedule. Subject to the terms and conditions herein, Edgewater Park agrees to pay Burlington City as follows:

   A) By no later than June 30, 2019, Edgewater Park shall pay Burlington City $219,591.20.

   B) By no later than July 30, 2019, Edgewater Park shall pay Burlington City $219,591.20.

   C) By no later than June 30, 2020, Edgewater Park shall pay Burlington City twenty five percent (25%) of the tuition adjustment for the 2017-2018 school year. For purposes of this Agreement, "tuition adjustment" shall be defined as the difference between the total amount of tuition paid by Edgewater Park in a given school year based on the tentative tuition rate calculated by Burlington City, and the actual amount owed to Burlington

City for the same school year, based on the certified tuition rate as calculated by the Commissioner of Education.

D) By no later than June 30, 2021, Edgewater Park shall pay Burlington City $65,204.40, plus twenty five percent (25%) of the tuition adjustment for the 2017-2018 school year, plus the tuition adjustment, if any, for the 2018-2019 school year.

E) By no later than June 30, 2022, Edgewater Park shall pay Burlington City $65,204.40, plus twenty five percent (25%) of the tuition adjustment for the 2017-2018 school year, plus the tuition adjustment, if any, for the 2019-2020 school year.

F) By no later than June 30, 2023, Edgewater Park shall pay Burlington City $65,204.40, plus twenty five percent (25%) of the tuition adjustment for the 2017-2018 school year, plus the tuition adjustment, if any, for the 2020-2021 school year.

G) By no later than June 30, 2024, Edgewater Park shall pay Burlington City $65,204.40, plus the tuition adjustment, if any, for the 2021-2022 school year.

2. Credit for Prior Years. In the event that the tuition adjustment for the 2018-2019, 2019-2020, 2020-2021, 2021-2022, 2022-2023, or 2023-2024 school years result in an overpayment by Edgewater Park, Edgewater Park agrees not to seek reimbursement, or a credit, from Burlington City.

3. Additional Consideration. For the consideration contained herein, Burlington City and Edgewater Park agree to the following non-financial terms, which shall govern the send-receive relationship going forward:

A) Unless otherwise agreed to in writing, Burlington City shall establish its tentative tuition rate by using a calculation method provided for by law or regulation. If Burlington City fails to use a calculation method provided for by law, Edgewater Park shall only be obligated to pay 1.5% of the tuition adjustment for that year.

B) Edgewater Park shall provide Burlington City with its prospective enrollment numbers by the date provided for by law, which is presently December 15th. Edgewater Park acknowledges that the accuracy of its estimated enrollment numbers will ultimately impact the certified rate, and when the estimated enrollment is greater than the actual enrollment, causing the certified rate to be higher, as a result, this will not form the basis for limiting Edgewater Park's responsibility to pay the tuition adjustment, provided the tentative rate was calculated as set forth herein.

C) Burlington City shall provide Edgewater Park with its tentative tuition rate, and underlying calculation method, by the date provided for by law, which is presently February 4th. Edgewater Park shall review Burlington City's calculation method, and if Edgewater Park believes that the tentative tuition rate was not calculated using a method provided for by law or regulation, Edgewater Park shall notify Burlington City, in writing, of its objections by no later than ten (10) days prior to the deadline for submission of budgets to the County Office. This provision shall not limit either Party's ability to later raise an objection, in good faith, based on information not available at the time the calculation was performed by Burlington City and/or reviewed by Edgewater Park

4. Release of Claims. In consideration of the conditions and terms above, the Parties agrees as follows:

a. Edgewater Park, on its own behalf and on behalf of its officers, directors, shareholders, stockholders, attorneys, agents, insureds, servants, representatives, employees, subsidiaries, affiliates, partners, executors, administrators, managers, employees, predecessors, successors in interest, and assigns, hereby completely releases and forever discharges Burlington City, and all of its respective past, present and future board members, officers, directors, attorneys, agents, insureds, servants, representatives, employees, administrators, managers, and assigns, from any and all claims, demands, obligations, actions, causes of action, rights, damages, costs, attorneys' fees, loss of services, loss of earnings, expenses and compensation of any nature whatsoever, whether based on tort, contract (express, implied or otherwise) or any other theory of recovery, and whether for compensatory or punitive damages, arising out of the Tuition Disputes.

b. Burlington City, on its own behalf and on behalf of its officers, directors, shareholders, stockholders, attorneys, agents, insureds, servants, representatives, employees, subsidiaries, affiliates, partners, executors, administrators, managers, employees, predecessors, successors in interest, and assigns, hereby completely releases and forever discharges Edgewater Park, and all of its respective past, present and future board members, officers, directors, attorneys, agents, insureds, servants, representatives, employees, administrators, managers, and assigns, from any and all claims, demands, obligations, actions, causes of action, rights, damages, costs, attorneys' fees, loss of services, loss of earnings, expenses and compensation of any nature whatsoever, whether based on tort, contract (express, implied or otherwise) or any other theory of recovery, and whether for compensatory or punitive damages, arising out of the Tuition Disputes.

4. Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall bind and inure to the benefit of each Party, its officers, directors, shareholders, stockholders, attorneys, agents, insureds, servants, representatives, employees, subsidiaries, affiliates, partners, executors, administrators, managers, employees, board members, predecessors, successors in interest, and assigns, separately and collectively. Without limitation, it is expressly understood that this Agreement shall not be impacted in the event Edgewater Park successfully severs the send-receive relationship with Burlington City, merges and/or consolidates with another District, and/or otherwise ceases to exist in its present configuration.

5. Warranties. The Parties acknowledge, represent, warrant, affirm and confirm the following:

a. Each Party has read and understands the effect and scope of this Agreement, has relied and is relying solely upon its own judgment, belief and knowledge and/or upon the advice of its independent legal counsel as to the nature, extent, effect and consequences relating thereto.

b. This Agreement is being made without reliance upon any statement or representation by any other party hereto, except those expressly set forth herein.

c. No promise, inducement or agreement not herein expressed has been made to any of the Parties hereto.

d. Each individual signing this Agreement on behalf of a Party has the right, power and authority to sign and enter into this agreement on behalf of that Party and is competent to sign and enter into this agreement on behalf of that Party.

e. The Parties each execute and deliver this Agreement as a free and voluntary act, without any duress, coercion or undue influence exerted by or on behalf of any other party.

f. This Agreement is a valid, binding and enforceable agreement and does not violate any law, rule or regulation, or any contract or agreement to which any individual or entity on whose behalf this Agreement is executed is a party.

6. Interpretation of Agreement. This Agreement shall not be construed against any party on the basis that it or its attorney drafted it.

7. Entire Agreement / Amendment. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties with respect to its subject matter and there are no representations, warranties or agreements between the Parties not expressed herein. This Agreement supersedes and replaces all prior understandings and agreements between the Parties hereto, whether written or oral, express or implied, with respect to its subject matter. This Agreement may be amended or modified at any time or times only by written agreement of both Parties.

9. Execution in Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed simultaneously in several counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be one and the same instrument.

10. Facsimile/E-mail Signature. Signature by facsimile or electronic mail transmission is acceptable and will be fully enforceable as an original document. Electronic facsimiles of signatures will have the same force and effect as original signatures.

11. Forum Selection. The Parties agree that all claims, disputes, and other matters arising out of or relating to this Agreement, or the breach thereof, will be decided by proceedings instituted and litigated in the Superior Court of the State of New Jersey, Burlington County Vicinage, or by Petition filed with the Commissioner of Education, as appropriate.

12. Necessary Documents. Prior to and at all times following the date of this Agreement, the Parties agree to execute and deliver, or to cause to be executed and delivered, such documents and to do, or cause to be done, such other acts and things as might reasonably be requested by the Parties, to assure that the benefits of this Agreement are realized by the Parties.

13. Agreement Subject to Approval. The Parties agree that this Agreement is contingent upon approval by both Edgewater Park and Burlington City.

14. No Admission. Both parties agree and acknowledge that this Agreement does not constitute an admission of any kind by either party.

[The remainder of this page is intentionally left blank]

THE UNDERSIGNED HAVE CAREFULLY READ THIS "SETTLMENT AGREEMENT AND RELEASE;" THEY HAVE READ, KNOW AND UNDERSTAND ITS CONTENTS; THEY FREELY AND VOLUNTARILY AGREE TO ABIDE BY ITS TERMS, AND ARE FULLY AUTHORIZED TO SO AGREE AND BE BOUND; AND THEY HAVE NOT BEEN COERCED INTO SIGNING THIS AGREEMENT.

CITY OF BURLINGTON PUBLIC SCHOOL DISTRICT BOARD OF EDUCATION

By: _____
Jennifer Mentus, Board President

_____
Witness
Print or type name: Raymond Cexe, Board Secretary

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF EDGEWATER PARK TOWNSHIP

By: _____

_____
Witness
Print or type name:

141-19

OAL Dkt. No. EDU 00244-19
Agency Dkt. No. 298-12/18

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

In the Matter of the Suspension of the Teaching Certificates of Susan Alswang, Freehold Regional High School District, Monmouth County.

The record of this matter, the parties' proposed settlement agreement and general release (Agreement), and the Initial Decision issued by the Office of Administrative Law have been reviewed pursuant to N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1.

Upon review, the Commissioner approves the terms of the Agreement and adopts the Initial Decision as the final decision in this matter. The case is hereby dismissed, subject to compliance with the terms of the Agreement.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 6/07/19
Date of Mailing: 6/07/19

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SETTLEMENT
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 244-19
AGENCY DKT. NO. 298-12/18

IN THE MATTER OF THE SUSPENSION OF THE TEACHING CERTIFICATES OF SUSAN ALSWANG, FREEHOLD REGIONAL HIGH BOARD OF EDUCATION, MONMOUTH COUNTY.

Mark G. Toscano, Esquire, for petitioner Freehold Regional Board of Education (Comegno Law Group, P.C., attorneys)

Jerry L. Tanenbaum, Esquire, for respondent Susan Alswang (Mattleman, Weinroth & Miller, P.C., attorneys)

Record Closed: May 2, 2019 Decided: May 7, 2019

BEFORE DEAN J. BUONO, ALJ:

This matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on January 4, 2019, for determination as a contested case, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 to -15 and N.J.S.A. 52:14F-1 to -13.

The parties have agreed to a settlement and have prepared a Settlement Agreement indicating the terms thereof, which is attached and fully incorporated herein. This Settlement Agreement resolves all disputes.

I have reviewed the record and the terms of settlement and I FIND:

1. The parties have voluntarily agreed to the settlement as evidenced by their signatures or their representatives' signatures on the attached settlement agreement and the attached Board resolution.

2. The settlement fully disposes of all issues in controversy and is consistent with the law.

I CONCLUDE that this agreement meets the requirements of N.J.A.C. 1:1-19.1 and that the settlement should be approved. I approve the settlement and therefore ORDER that the parties comply with the settlement terms and that these proceedings be concluded.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

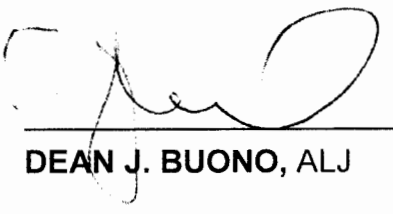
This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.



May 7, 2019
DATE

DEAN J. BUONO, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: 5.8.19

Date Mailed to Parties: 5.8.19

mph

RECEIVED
2019 MAY -2 P 12:03
STATE OF NEW JERSEY
OFFICE OF ADMIN. LAW

COMEGNO LAW GROUP, P.C.
521 Pleasant Valley Avenue
Moorestown, New Jersey 08057
T: (856) 234-4114
F: (856) 234-4262
Attorneys for Petitioner, Freehold Regional High School District Board of Education

BY: MARK G. TOSANCO, ESQUIRE
DANIEL F. THORNTON, ESQUIRE

IN THE MATTER OF THE SUSPENSION OF THE TEACHING CERTIFICATE OF SUSAN ALSWANG, FREEHOLD REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT, MONMOUTH COUNTY	BEFORE THE COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION OF NEW JERSEY OAL Dkt.: EDU 00244-2019 Agency Ref.: 298-12/18

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND GENERAL RELEASE

WHEREAS, the Freehold Regional High School District Board of Education ("Board"), previously requested that the Commissioner of Education issue an Order to Show Cause concerning an alleged failure by Susan Alswang ("Ms. Alswang") to provide proper notice of her separation from employment with the District.;

WHEREAS, on December 27, 2018, Ms. Alswang denies any and all wrongdoing;

WHEREAS, the Parties having a desire to settle the above matters in an amicable way, hereby agree in this Settlement Agreement and General Release ("Agreement") as follows:

1. In exchange for the mutual covenants set forth herein, the Board shall take whatever action is required to withdraw with prejudice its Request for an Order of Suspension of Ms. Alswang's New Jersey Standard Teaching Certificate.

2. Ms. Alswang agrees to provide a check made payable to the Board in the amount of $1,126.96, which is the equivalent of one week's net salary for Ms. Alswang during her employment with the Board.

3. Ms. Alswang, for and in consideration of the undertakings of the Board as set forth herein, and intending to be legally bound, does hereby remise, release and forever discharge the Board and its officers, members, employees and agents, and their respective successors and assigns, heirs, executors and administrators, of and from any and all manner of actions and causes of actions, suits, debts, claims and demands whatsoever in law or in equity, which she ever had, now has, or hereafter may have, known or unknown, or which her heirs, executors or administrators hereafter may have by reason of any actual or perceived disability, any actual or perceived discrimination, her entire employment relationship and/or the termination of her employment relationship and/or affiliation with the Board, including, but not limited to the following:

- All claims of discrimination, harassment and retaliation based upon age, race, color, religion, gender, sex, sexual orientation, handicap, disability, national origin or any other legally protected class, including claims arising under the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, 29 U.S.C. § 621 through 29 U.S.C. § 634, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, 42 U.S.C. §2000e et seq., the Americans with Disabilities Act, 42 U.S.C. §12101, et seq., the Civil Rights Act of 1866, as amended, 42 U.S.C. §1981, et seq., Executive Order 11246, as amended,, the Older Workers Benefit Protection Act, 29 U.S.C. §626(f), the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, 29 U.S.C. §1002, et seq., the New Jersey Law Against Discrimination, N.J.S.A. 10:5-1, et seq., the New Jersey Conscientious Employee Protection Act, N.J.S.A. 34:19-1, et seq., the New Jersey Family Leave Act, N.J.S.A. 34:11B, et seq., COBRA, the Federal Family and Medical Leave Act, 29 U.S.C. §2601, et seq. & 5 U.S.C. §6381, et seq., the National Labor Relations Act, as amended, The Equal Pay Act, as amended, the New Jersey Wage and Hour Law, as amended, the New Jersey Worker Health and Safety Act, as amended, as well as any other anti-retaliation provision of any statute or law, and any other applicable federal, state or local, constitutional or statutory provision, order or regulation, arising from any event or act of omission or commission;

- All claims for breach of contract, whether express or implied, as well as all claims for wrongful discharge or termination;
- All tort claims, including claims for libel, slander, negligence, invasion of privacy, intentional or negligent infliction of emotional distress, fraud, interference with actual or prospective contractual rights or relations, and violation of public policy;
- All claims under any federal, state and municipal laws, regulations, ordinances or court decisions of any kind;
- All claims for wages and benefits (including bonuses, health and welfare benefits, vacation pay, sick pay and/or any other fringe benefits;
- All claims for any type of monetary damages, including back pay, front or prospective pay, compensatory damages, and punitive damages, except as otherwise provided in this Agreement;
- All claims for equitable relief, including injunctive relief and reinstatement; and
- All claims for attorneys' fees, litigation expenses and costs.

The sole exception to the waivers set forth above are as follows: claims arising under the Workers' Compensation Act, N.J.S.A. 34:15-1 et seq., the Teachers' Pension and Annuity Fund Act, N.J.S.A. 18A:66-1 et seq., the indemnity provisions of N.J.S.A. 18A:16-6 and 6.1 with regard to civil and criminal actions, claims by third parties, as well as claims arising from any breach of this Agreement. The Board does not waive any rights that it may have to oppose indemnification pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:16-6 and 6.1.

4. Ms. Alswang confirms that no charge, complaint, action, or grievance is pending in any forum or form. Further, Ms. Alswang covenants and agrees not to bring any charge, complaint, action, suit, grievance or administrative proceeding in any forum whatsoever, including before any federal, state, or local administrative agency or in any federal, state or local court against any of the Released Parties for any actions that could or did arise or accrue prior to and including the date of this Agreement or the date of Ms. Alswang's resignation; provided, however, it does not interfere with or limit either of the Parties protected right to file a charge with or participate in an investigation by or proceeding before the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission or any similar state or local commission that investigates and enforces anti-discrimination laws. Nothing contained herein shall in any manner be deemed a waiver or extension of any applicable statute of limitations, whether administrative or otherwise. Nonetheless, the Parties understand that, by signing this Agreement, they each waive any rights they may have to recover money or other relief in any lawsuit or proceeding they bring or that is brought on his behalf by any agency or third party against any of the Released Parties based on events arising out of Ms. Alswang's employment with the Board. Except where otherwise permitted under this paragraph, the Parties agree that any such action shall be dismissed with prejudice upon presentation of this Agreement. Nothing in this paragraph is intended to limit either of the Parties from instituting legal action for the sole purpose of enforcing this Agreement.

5. Each Party shall be responsible for their own attorneys' fees and expert costs incurred in connection with the matter presently pending in the Office of Administrative Law.

6. The Board and Ms. Alswang each hereby verify, affirm and represent that they have each had the opportunity to discuss the terms of this Agreement with counsel, that they understand its contents and are entering into this Agreement voluntarily and with a full understanding of its meaning. The parties further expressly state that they are fully satisfied with the representation provided by their legal counsel

7. Both Parties agree and acknowledge that this Agreement does not constitute an admission of any kind by either party. The Parties also agree and acknowledge that this Agreement is subject to approval by the Board during its next regularly scheduled meeting following the execution of this Agreement.

8. This Agreement contains the entire agreement between the Parties and is intended to resolve all disputes and issues between them as of the date of execution of this Agreement. It is understood between the Parties that neither party has relied upon any representation, express or implied, made by any other party or their counsel or any of their representatives, and that this Agreement constitutes the entire understanding of the parties and cannot be modified except in writing signed by all of the parties hereto.

9. The Parties mutually understand and agree that the terms of this Agreement are completely confidential. The Parties, including their representatives or agents, further agree that they shall not reveal to anyone, other than as may be mutually agreed upon in writing, any information, facts, or terms and conditions concerning this Agreement. This non-disclosure provision does not bar the following disclosures by Ms. Alswang: (1) disclosures to members of Ms. Alswang's immediate family; or (2) disclosures for purpose of obtaining legal, tax, accounting, or financial advice; or (3) disclosures which may be required by law; or (4) disclosures for the purpose of obtaining or maintaining publicly or privately funded benefits or insurance. This non-disclosure provision also does not bar the following: (1) disclosures pursuant to a lawful request under the Open Public Records Act; or (2) disclosures as may otherwise be compelled by law, regulation or Court Order. The Parties agree to inform those persons with whom they are permitted to share such information as to the confidentiality of this Agreement, and further agree to require such persons to hold information received by them about this Agreement as confidential pursuant to the terms herein. In the event that a party or parties is alleged to have breached the confidentiality provision of this Agreement, then the other party or parties may commence appropriate legal action.

10. In the event that any section or part of this Agreement shall be found to be void or unenforceable, such section or part shall be deemed to be surplusage and the remainder of the Agreement shall remain in full force and effect

11. The parties agree that this Agreement shall be interpreted in accordance with the laws of the State of New Jersey. All disputes arising under or relating to this Agreement or the breach of this Agreement shall be brought exclusively in the State courts of the State of New Jersey.

12. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, which shall be taken together as the entire agreement of the Parties hereto. This Agreement may also be exchanged by the Parties via electronic mail for the purposes of securing signatures and will be fully enforceable as an original document.

13. By signing this Agreement, each signatory represents that he or she is a Party or has been duly authorized by a Party to sign on that Party's behalf and that this Agreement is duly authorized, approved and consented to as to terms.

14. Pursuant to the requirement of the Older Workers Benefit Protection Act, 29 U.S.C. § 626 et seq., Ms. Alswang acknowledges that she has been given the opportunity, if she so desires, to consider this Agreement for twenty-one (21) days before executing it. In the event that Ms. Alswang executes this Agreement within less than twenty-one (21) days of the date of its delivery to her, Ms. Alswang acknowledges that such decision was entirely voluntary and that she had the opportunity, if she had so desired, to consider this Agreement for the entire twenty-one (21) day period. Ms. Alswang further acknowledges that for a period of seven (7) days from the date of her execution of this Agreement, she shall retain the right to revoke this Agreement by written notice to Mark G. Toscano, Esquire, Comegno Law Group, PC, 521 Pleasant Valley Avenue, Moorestown, NJ 08057, and that this Agreement shall not become effective or enforceable until the expiration of such revocation period.

Intending to be legally bound hereby, Mr. Birkhead and the Board execute the foregoing Agreement as indicated below.

WITNESS:

_____

Susan Alswang
SUSAN ALSWANG

DATED: 4/3/2019

WITNESS:

SEAN BOYCE
BOARD SECRETARY

FREEHOLD REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT BOARD OF EDUCATION

Carl Accetola
CARL ACCETOLA
BOARD PRESIDENT

DATED: 4-15-19

FREEHOLD REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT

Sean P. Boyce, CPA
Assistant Superintendent for Business Administration/
Board Secretary

11 Pine Street
Englishtown, NJ 07726
(732) 792-7300 ext. 8519
Fax: (732) 446-5192

May 2, 2019

Comegno Law Group, PC
521 Pleasant Valley Avenue
Moorestown, New Jersey 08057

Dear Mr. Toscano:

At a meeting of the Freehold Regional High School District Board of Education, the below listed motion was adopted and is referred to you for your information and/or action:

4. Personnel & Negotiations

Motion by A. Fankhauser, seconded by P. Bruno and carried by unanimous roll call vote to adopt the following resolution:

12. Approval of Settlement Agreement

BE IT RESOLVED, that upon recommendation of the Superintendent, the Freehold Regional High School District Board of Education, approves the Settlement Agreement on file with the Board Secretary with employee #12025 effective April 15, 2019.

I, Sean P. Boyce, Board Secretary of the Freehold Regional High School District Board of Education in the county of Monmouth, State of New Jersey, HEREBY CERTIFY that the foregoing is a complete and correct copy of the original minutes of a meeting of the Board held on May 2, 2019.

SPB/CC
cc:
4/15/19 Agenda Folder

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

K.B., on behalf of minor children, L.P., K.P. and J.P.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of South Harrison, Gloucester County,

Respondent.

Synopsis

Petitioner filed a pro se residency appeal challenging the respondent Board's determination that her minor children are not eligible to receive a free public education in the South Harrison School District. The Board filed a motion to dismiss the petition as untimely.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: petitioner's appeal was untimely filed; further, by petitioner's own admission, the children are not domiciled within the South Harrison School District as required under N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1 and N.J.A.C. 6A:22-3.1. The ALJ concluded that petitioner's claims against the respondent Board are without merit; accordingly, the ALJ ordered the petition dismissed.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurred, inter alia, that the Board's motion to dismiss the petition for untimeliness is appropriately granted. Accordingly, the Initial Decision of the OAL was adopted as the final decision in this matter, and the petition was dismissed.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

June 18, 2019

146-19

OAL Dkt. No. EDU 00790-19
Agency Dkt. No. 308-12/18

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

K.B., on behalf of minor children, L.P., K.P. and J.P.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of South Harrison, Gloucester County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed. The parties did not file exceptions.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) that the Board's Motion to Dismiss for untimeliness of the petition is appropriately granted. Moreover, even assuming, arguendo, that petitioner had timely filed her appeal, the Commissioner further concurs that petitioner has not sustained her burden of demonstrating that her children are domiciliaries of South Harrison so as to entitle them to a free public education in the District's schools.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision of the OAL is adopted as the final decision in this matter and the instant Petition of Appeal is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 6/18/19
Date of Mailing: 6/19/19

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Superior Court, Appellate Division, pursuant to P.L. 2008, c. 36 (N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1).

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
GRANTING MOTION TO DISMISS
PETITIONER'S APPEAL
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 00790-19
AGENCY DKT. NO. 308-12/18

K.B. ON BEHALF OF MINOR CHILDREN, L.P., K.P. AND J.P., Petitioner,
v.
SOUTH HARRISON BOARD OF EDUCATION, GLOUCESTER COUNTY,
Respondent.

K.B., petitioner, pro se

Daniel F. Thornton, Esq. for respondent, South Harrison Board of Education (Comegno Law Group, P.C., attorneys)

Record Closed: April 1, 2019 Decided: May 10, 2019

BEFORE CARL V. BUCK III, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The petition in this matter was filed on January 14, 2019. Petitioner K.B. is the mother of the minor children L.P., K.P. and J.P. who attended schools within the purview of the South Harrison Township Board of Education in November of 2018.

Respondent South Harrison Township Board of Education filed a Motion for Dismissal of the petition on January 7, 2019.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION

K.B. ("petitioner") filed this petition on behalf of her minor children L.P., K.P. and J.P., students who attended schools within the purview of the South Harrison Township Board of Education in November of 2018.

During prehearing conferences held with the parties, the petitioner admitted that her children stayed with their grandparents during the week due to the petitioner's work schedule. The children then attended school in the grandparents' school district, that being Mullica Hill. The children were residents of Piles Grove Township which is the address of the petitioner and is outside of the South Harrison School District.

Subsequent to the conference in this matter, counsel for the school board provided to the court a copy of a of an order entered by the Hon. John Tomasello, JSC on March 22, 2019. Judge Tomasello's order granting custody of the three children in question to their father who is a resident of Pennsylvania. The order further authorizes and grants the father's application to relocate the children to Pennsylvania. Petitioner did not respond to counsel's submission. Nor did petitioner appear for an in-person settlement conference scheduled for March 22, 2019. No explanation for non-appearance was received by the petitioner and the record closed on April 1, 2019. In the event that relocation of the children has not yet occurred, this Initial Decision granting respondent's Motion for Summary Decision (R-1) shall resolve this matter.

LEGAL DISCUSSION

Petitioner lists two causes of action for their motion. The first is that petitioner's filing is untimely under N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b)(2). The second that petitioner's children, by her own admission, do not reside in the district; thus a violation under N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1 and N.J.A.C. 6A:22-3.1.

The date of the appeal evidences the untimely filing. The petitioner's own admission evidences the children are not residents and imaged municipality under the South Harrison Board of Education jurisdiction. In light of this information I FIND that any claims petitioner might have against the South Harrison School Board that are subject to the jurisdiction of the Commissioner of Education are plainly time-barred by N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.3(i) and I CONCLUDE therefore that they should be dismissed.

I further FIND, that the children of the petitioner are not residents of Mullica Hill Township and are therefore not residents entitled to educational benefits within the South Harrison School District and are therefore not under the jurisdiction of the South Harrison Board of Education.

Therefore, I CONCLUDE that all of petitioner's claims against the South Harrison Board of Education and should be DISMISSED.

CONCLUSION

The petition warrants dismissal on two counts:

1. Petitioner admits that the children are not residents of the district governed by the South Harrison Board of Education. She freely stated that the children reside with her parents (in Mullica Hill) during the week as a convenience to accommodate her work schedule – therefore they go to school in the South Harrison District. She also admits that she resides in Woodstown – not in an area under the jurisdiction of the South Harrison District and that is where her children reside; and

2. Petitioner failed to file an appeal within the appropriate time frame as detailed under R. 4:6-2(e) and N.J.A.C. 1:1.3(a).

The claim must be dismissed under the dictates of both.

For the reasons stated herein, I FIND that the petition filed by petitioner does not comply with the appropriate rules and administrative guidelines, nor are the children residents of the South Harrison District. Therefore, I CONCLUDE that petitioner's claims should be DISMISSED.

ORDER

Based upon all of the foregoing, it is hereby ORDERED that the petition in this matter be and hereby is DISMISSED.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

May 10, 2019
DATE

CARL V. BUCK III, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: 5/10/19

Date Mailed to Parties: 5-13-19

/lam

LIST OF EXHIBITS

For petitioner:

None

For the respondent:

R-1 Motion for Dismissal

R-2 Letter, dated March 14, 2019

R-3 March 25, 2019 letter

147-19E

OAL Dkt. No. EDU 4272-19
Agency Dkt. No. 62-3/19

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Order on Emergent Relief

Board of Education of the Borough of Butler, Morris County, Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Borough of Bloomingdale, Passaic County and Board of Education of the Township of Pequannock, Passaic County,

Respondents.

The record of this emergent matter and the recommended Order of the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) have been reviewed. During the emergent proceedings, the parties agreed to enter into a Consent Order pending a final decision on the underlying appeal. Pursuant to the Consent Order, the petitioner agreed to withdraw the application for emergent relief. Accordingly, the petitioner's application for emergent relief is deemed withdrawn. This matter shall continue at the Office of Administrative Law with such proceedings as the parties and ALJ deem necessary to bring it to closure.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 6/18/19
Date of Mailing: 6/19/19

149-19L

State of New Jersey
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION
PO BOX 500
TRENTON, NJ 08625-0500

PHILIP D. MURPHY
Governor

SHEILA Y. OLIVER
Lt. Governor

LAMONT O. REPOLLET, ED.D.
Commissioner

June 19, 2019

Samuel Wenocur, Esq.
Oxfeld Cohen, P.C.
60 Park Place, Suite 600
Newark, New Jersey 07102

Lauren Jensen, DAG
Office of the Attorney General
Department of Law and Public Safety
Division of Law
25 Market Street, P.O. Box 112
Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0112

Re: In the Matter of the Certificates of Gail Wunsch, State Board of Examiners, Agency Dkt. No. 3-5/19A

Dear Parties,

I have considered the papers filed in connection with the petitioner's request for interlocutory review of the State Board of Examiners' Order dated April 16, 2019 in the above-captioned matter. Upon full consideration of all of the submitted materials, I have determined not to grant interlocutory review, pursuant to my discretion under N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.10.

Accordingly, the petitioner's request for interlocutory review is hereby denied.[1]

Sincerely,

Dr. Lamont O. Repollet
Commissioner of Education

c: Honorable Leslie Z. Celentano, A.L.J.
Rani Singh, Acting Secretary, Board of Examiners

LOR/JKH/JS
Via Facsimile and Regular Mail

[1] Pursuant to P.L. 2008, c. 36 (N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1), Commissioner decisions are appealable to the Superior Court, Appellate Division.

150-19A

State Board of Examiners Dkt. No. 1617-240
Agency Dkt. No. 1-1/19A

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Decision

In the Matter of the Revocation of the Certificates of John P. McCabe by the State Board of Examiners.

Order of Revocation by the State Board of Examiners, December 21, 2018

For the Respondent-Appellant, Kevin Sisco, Esq.

For the Petitioner-Respondent, State Board of Examiners, Jennifer Hoff, Deputy Attorney General (Gubrir S Grewal, Attorney General of New Jersey)

Appellant filed an appeal with the Commissioner of Education on January 24, 2019, challenging the determination of the New Jersey State Board of Examiners (Board) that his actions warranted the revocation of his Teacher of Health and Physical Education Certificate of Eligibility with Advanced Standing and his Teacher of Health and Physical Education and Teacher of Driver Education certificates.

On February 13, 2019, the Office of Controversies and Disputes (Office) directed the appellant to file a brief in support of his appeal by March 5, 2019. The Office also set forth a briefing schedule for the Board's answer brief and appellant's reply brief, and instructed the Board to certify the record and submit it to the Commissioner, along with the statement of items comprising the record on appeal (SICRA).

Thereafter, by letter dated February 28, 2019, the Board requested a 10-day extension of time by which to certify the record and to file the SICRA, and also requested that the deadline for both parties' briefs be extended by ten days. The Office granted the extension, thereby extending the deadline for appellant's brief to March 15, 2019. The Board subsequently filed the certification of the record and SICRA, but no brief in support of the appeal was filed by, or on behalf of, the appellant.

On April 11, 2019, the Office directed appellant – via certified mail, regular mail, and facsimile – to file a brief in support of the Notice of Appeal by April 22, 2019. The letter advised appellant that if his brief was not received by that date, the appeal would be dismissed for failure to perfect the appeal, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:4-2.7(c). On April 22, 2019, counsel for appellant requested a 30-day extension of time to file his brief because he needed appellant to confirm whether he desired to proceed with the appeal. The Office granted the extension of time to May 22, 2019. To date, the appellant has not filed a brief in support of his appeal.

Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:4-2.7(c), "[f]ailure to meet the filing deadline for an appeal brief or brief in support of a cross appeal may be viewed as a failure to perfect the appeal or cross appeal and may result in dismissal of the appeal or cross appeal." Appellant failed to file his appeal brief, which was originally due on March 5, 2019, despite receiving two extensions. As such, the Commissioner finds that appellant has failed to perfect the appeal.

Accordingly, the appeal is dismissed, and the decision of the State Board of Examiners revoking appellant's certificates is affirmed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 6/18/19
Date of Mailing: 6/19/19

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to P.L. 2008, c. 36 (N.J.S.A 18A:6-9.1).

151-19

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

L.M., on behalf of minor children, J.M. and J.M.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Allamuchy, Warren County,

Respondent.

Synopsis

This case involves a dispute over summer homework in reading and mathematics, assigned to all students in the Allamuchy School District for completion during the summer of 2018. Petitioner, the mother of minor children J.M. and J.M., challenged the respondent Board's Homework Policy 2330, and sought to remove summer homework grades from her older child's overall average. Petitioner contended that she sent several notifications to the school district stating that her children would not be participating in summer homework, and asserted that her children should not be "punished" for a parental decision that she made. The Board filed a motion for summary decision.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: there are no genuine issues of material fact in dispute in this case, and the matter is ripe for summary decision; petitioner sought to have certain zeros removed from her older child's average, asserting that the Board does not have a written policy addressing summer homework and that the Board lacks authority to require students to complete any assignments outside of the 180-day school year; the Board interprets its homework policy to support its practice/policy of assigning grade-appropriate math and reading over the summer; the Board's policy is entitled to a presumption of correctness, and should not be disturbed unless the policy or its implementation, with respect to petitioner's children, is arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable; and the Board has a long-standing practice of assigning summer homework which is intended to reinforce the school learning experience and help students prepare for the coming school year. The ALJ concluded that the Board did not exceed the scope of its authority, nor has it violated any of its policies or any law, by supporting the assignment of summer homework; such practice/policy is not arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable; and the grades of zero that were given to J.M. when he failed to complete summer homework assignments did not reflect any arbitrary, discriminatory or unreasonable action taken by the Board. Accordingly, the ALJ granted the Board's motion for summary decision.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurred with the ALJ's findings and conclusion. Accordingly, the Initial Decision of the OAL was adopted as the final decision in this case.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

June 18, 2019

151-19

OAL Dkt. No. EDU 17944-18
Agency Dkt. No. 271-11/18

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

L.M., on behalf of minor children, J.M. and J.M.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Allamuchy, Warren County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the Initial Decision of the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) have been reviewed. The parties did not file exceptions.

Upon such review, the Commissioner agrees with the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) that the Board's practice of assigning summer homework is not arbitrary, capricious, unreasonable, or contrary to law. The Commissioner further concurs that the Board did not act in an arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable manner by implementing grading consequences for the failure to complete summer homework assignments.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision of the OAL is adopted as the final decision in this matter – for the reasons thoroughly expressed therein – and the petition is hereby dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 6/18/19
Date of Mailing: 6/19/19

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to P.L. 2008, c. 36 (N.J.S.A 18A:6-9.1).

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

INITIAL DECISION
SUMMARY DECISION
OAL DKT. NO. EDU 17944-18
AGENCY DKT. NO. 271-11/18

L.M. ON BEHALF OF J.M. AND J.M.,
Petitioners,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF ALLAMUCHY, WARREN COUNTY,
Respondent.

L.M., petitioner, pro se

Caitlin W. Lundquist, Esq., for respondent (Busch Law Group, LLC, attorneys)

Record Closed: April 1, 2019 Decided: May 15, 2019

BEFORE SUSANA E. GUERRERO, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On or around November 14, 2018, L.M., parent of minor children J.M. and J.M., (petitioner) filed a Petition of Appeal with the Commissioner of Education seeking to remove certain grades from her minor child's average, and challenging the Allamuchy Board of Education's (Board or respondent) Homework Policy. The Bureau of Controversies and Disputes transmitted the matter to the Office of Administrative Law as a contested case on December 5, 2018.

The Board filed a motion for summary decision, which was opposed by petitioner. After final submission on the motion was received, the record closed.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION

Based on the submissions presented, including a Joint Stipulation of Facts, I rely on the following FINDINGS of FACT in deciding this motion:

L.M. is the mother of two students who attend the Allamuchy Township Schools. During the 2017–2018 school year, J.M. was a sixth-grade student and J.M.'s younger sibling, J.M., was a third-grade student. They are currently in seventh and fourth grade, respectively.

Towards the end of the 2017–2018 academic year, students in the Allamuchy School District, including rising seventh-graders and rising fourth-graders, were assigned summer homework in the areas of reading and mathematics to be completed during the summer of 2018.

Petitioner's rising fourth-grade student, J.M., did not complete any of the summer homework assignments during the summer of 2018, and no academic consequences were imposed as a result of his non-completion of these assignments.

For students in the District who were rising seventh-graders during the summer of 2018, the summer reading homework consisted of an assignment to read two books and to complete a writing assignment for each book. The students were permitted to read two books of their choice, provided that the books were of an age-appropriate reading level and had not been made into a movie.

Rising seventh-grade students, including J.M., were required to complete a writing assignment relating to one book during the summer of 2018. This writing assignment was due on the first day of school in September 2018 and was graded, with the grade factoring into each student's overall first marking period grade as a homework assignment. With respect to the second book, students were required to complete an in-school writing assignment on the first day of school in September 2018. This in-school writing assignment was graded, with the grade factoring into each student's overall first-marking-period grade as a homework assignment. Petitioner's seventh-grade child, J.M., completed the in-school writing assignment and received a grade of 100 percent. J.M. did not complete the writing assignment that was due on the first day of school in September 2018.

The summer mathematics homework for rising third- through eighth-grade students in the District consisted of a math practice assignment to be completed using an online computer program. Students were required to complete the math practice assignment to minimal mastery for their grade level, as indicated by a "SmartScore" of 70, for several types of math skills. J.M., petitioner's rising seventh-grader, did not complete the summer mathematics homework.

On June 21, 2018, petitioner sent an e-mail to Allamuchy superintendent of schools, Mr. Flynn, advising that her children "will not be participating in summer homework." This was the third e-mail petitioner had sent regarding the issue of summer homework that month.

As a consequence of J.M. not completing one of the two writing assignments over the summer and the mathematics summer homework, J.M. received a grade of "zero" for one homework-assignment grade in his seventh-grade literature class for the first marking period of the 2018–2019 school year, and a "zero" for one homework-assignment grade in his seventh-grade mathematics class for the marking period.

On October 17, 2018, petitioner sent an e-mail to a member of the Allamuchy Board of Education with a "Formal complaint," requesting a closed-session meeting before the Board at the suggestion of the executive county superintendent (ECS). In her e-mail, petitioner indicates that she had contacted the ECS concerning the "ongoing issue" regarding petitioner's decision to not have her children participate in summer work,

"as it is summer and it is [her] decision to make, not the Board's." This issue, petitioner asserts, had now affected her "honor roll son who received zeros for the summer assignments, which has now brought his average down to Bs." In her e-mail, petitioner also suggests that her children are being "punished" for something she decided to do, and which she believes is "well within [her] parental authority to do."

At all times relevant, Board Policy 2330 titled "Homework" was in effect. This Policy does not expressly reference "summer homework." The Board has maintained a long-standing practice of assigning and grading grade-appropriate summer homework.

On October 22, 2018, petitioner and her husband appeared before the Board, in closed executive session, for an informal hearing in response to the petitioner's complaint regarding the District's handling of the aforementioned homework assignments, and Policy 2330. Following the hearing, the Board issued a written decision and response to petitioner on October 30, 2018, addressing the statements petitioner had made during the hearing. In its letter to petitioner, the Board wrote, regarding Policy 2330, that "Homework is a means of reinforcing the learning experience of the school," and having students perform academic work during the summer reinforces the prior year's learning and helps students to prepare for the upcoming school year. Also, while the Policy does not expressly authorize "summer" homework, it also does not limit when and/or how homework can be assigned. The Board also explained that assigning students homework in the summer is not "punitive," but a benefit to student learning, and a student's failure to complete the work does not make the assignment punitive. Finally, the Board writes that there is no basis for petitioner's assertion that the Board has exceeded its authority by continuing its long-standing practice and policy of having students complete homework over the summer. The Board is not aware of any limitations imposed by law or policy that would restrict the Board in its use of work assigned over the summer to support student learning.

Following the receipt of the Board's written decision, petitioner sent a letter to the Board expressing her disagreement with the Board's decision and informing the Board that a complaint had been filed with the New Jersey Department of Education, Bureau of Controversies and Disputes. In her letter to the Board, petitioner first argues that the policy referenced by the Board does not apply to summer work and that the Board is acting beyond its authority in assigning work over the summer. Second, petitioner asserts that respondent acted punitively in giving her son zeros for not completing the assignments when she, as a parent acting within her right, instructed the child not to complete the assignments. The Board, she asserts, acted contrary to its policy when it gave her child a "zero" for not completing an assignment that the Board had no right to assign. Third, petitioner again challenges the Board's authority to "dictate to our children what they can and can not do when school is not in session," and asserts that simply because the District has a long-standing practice and policy of assigning summer homework, it does not mean that the Board has not exceeded its authority.

Respondent's Motion for Summary Decision

Respondent asserts that the Board is entitled to summary decision because there are no material facts in dispute and petitioner has failed to show any action by the Board that should be overturned as arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable.

Local boards of education are vested with broad authority and discretion to develop and adopt educational policies and practices as they deem appropriate, based upon the unique needs and characteristics of the students, parents, and members of the community who are served by the district. Unless the decision made by the board of education clearly violates the law or was arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable, the board's discretionary actions are entitled to deference and a presumption of validity. Here, the Board properly determined to exercise its educational decision-making authority by adopting a general policy governing the ability to assign homework to students, which describes the pedagogical rationales for and purposes of homework, and does not prohibit or limit any teaching staff members from assigning homework in the areas of reading and mathematics over the summer. In compliance with Policy 2330, the Board has determined that assigning homework during the summer months is appropriate to serve the academic needs of the students in the District, reinforce their learning during the summer breaks, and sufficiently prepare them to transition back into their regular educational programing each September.

There is nothing "punitive" about the Board's policy and practice with regard to assigning summer homework. The Board did not act arbitrarily, capriciously, or unreasonably in upholding and adhering to its long-standing policy and practice of assigning summer homework to its students, and in grading the summer homework assignments for seventh-grade students.

N.J.S.A. 18A:11-1(d) provides that boards of education shall "[p]erform all acts and do all things, consistent with law and the rules of the state board, necessary for the lawful and proper conduct, equipment and maintenance of the public schools of the district." When a local board acts within its legal authority, its actions carry a presumption of validity and will not be disturbed, absent an affirmative showing that its judgment was arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable. Moreover, academic grading policies and systems that may be adopted and implemented by a board of education or the school district are merely required to be reasonable and non-discriminatory. Academic issues relating to students' grades and how they are determined or calculated fall well within the board's educational decision-making authority. Here, the Board's general policy concerning homework, Policy 2330, does not preclude assigning academic work to students during the summer months, nor does it restrict or limit the District in assigning any type of homework deemed necessary, reasonable, and appropriate to adhere to the policy's goals and purposes. The Policy itself, as well as the Board's interpretation and application of the Policy, is entitled to a presumption of validity and should not be disturbed since neither the Policy nor its implementation by the Board with respect to J.M. and J.M. was arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable.

Pursuant to New Jersey law, the Board is permitted to determine, as an exercise of its discretionary authority, that the educational needs of the students in the District are properly served by assigning summer reading and math homework, and grading that homework during the first marking period of the school year for seventh-graders. The Board's actions in assigning and grading summer homework are based upon legitimate and reasonable educational-policy rationales and the academic needs of the District's students, including: (1) the need for reinforcement of the material each student has learned during the prior school year; (2) the need for adequately preparing students to transition back into the regular educational program each September, following the extended summer break; and (3) the differences in academic standards, demands, and expectations for students entering seventh grade as opposed to those entering fourth grade.

Petitioner's Response to the Motion for Summary Decision

Petitioner opposes the motion for summary decision by asserting that there are material facts in dispute.

Petitioner argues that Policy 2330 does not mention "summer" or "summer homework," and therefore does not apply to homework assigned outside the 180-day academic year. Policy 2330 mentions homework as it relates to a "marking period" or "school days," and therefore only applies to homework given during the school year. Petitioner asserts that the Board does not have authority over her children outside the 180-day school year, and the Board cannot unilaterally impose its authority when school is not in session. Simply because the Board claims that it has a long-standing practice of assigning summer work does not mean that it has not exceeded its authority.

Petitioner challenges statements made by superintendent Joseph Flynn in his certification, and specifically his statements regarding the Board's policy and practice of assigning summer work and the different academic demands and standards that apply to middle-school versus elementary-school students. Petitioner argues that there is no written policy to support what he asserts, including no written policy addressing the consequences of not completing summer homework by seventh-graders versus fourth-graders. She argues that her seventh-grader received zeros for partially completing summer homework, while her fourth-grade child suffered no consequence, and this inconsistency is arbitrary since Flynn's explanation for treating these students differently cannot be verified. Petitioner also claims that the Board is acting arbitrarily by not giving petitioner the option to opt out of summer homework assignments while parents of children with individualized education program (IEPs) are able to opt out of an extended school year program.

Finally, petitioner asserts that neighboring districts do not have mandatory summer-homework policies, and that the Board has ignored evidence to support that summer homework does not carry the benefits that it claims. According to petitioner, the Board is choosing to punish J.M. for doing what petitioner instructed him to do, as she felt it was best for their family.

Respondent's Reply to Petitioner's Opposition

In response to petitioner's opposition to the motion for summary decision, respondent points out that petitioner failed to cite any statute, regulation, or caselaw in support of her argument that the Board has no authority to require students to complete graded homework over the summer. Also, nothing in the Policy negates the Board's right to exercise its discretionary authority to determine that the educational needs of the District's students are properly served by assigning summer homework. Consistent with the Policy's statement that homework is intended to extend learning beyond the limited hours of school attendance, and support lessons learned in the curriculum, the Board's stated rationales for its practice of assigning summer homework include reinforcement of the prior year's learning and helping students to prepare for the upcoming school year. The Policy states that "homework is a means of reinforcing the learning experience of the school," and requires the assessment and evaluation of homework in order to "underscore the value of homework as an evaluation tool." The Policy does not limit such assessment and evaluation to homework completed during non-summer months.

Respondent stresses that a local board of education's authority is limited by its obligation to refrain from arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable decision making, and that petitioner's efforts to show arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable action by the Board are meritless and should be rejected.

Petitioner's disagreement with the District's approach to grading summer homework assignments of seventh vis-à-vis fourth-graders does not make it arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable and does not warrant judicial intervention. Also, the absence of any formal or written Board policy or regulation specifying that students may be subject to different grading consequences for not completing homework does not constitute arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable action by the Board. Fourth-graders and seventh-graders are not similarly situated with respect to their education, and implementing different academic standards for these students is not inappropriate. With respect to grading, respondent cites to several cases to support its position that it is the prerogative of a local board of education, which need not be formally codified in any written policy, that an academic grading system and its implementation is the prerogative of a local board of education. The Board is not required by law to enact a formal written policy describing its grading system or to explicitly authorize the assignment of summer homework.

In response to petitioner's claim that the District is arbitrarily picking and choosing who is required to complete summer work because some students with IEPs are not required to do summer work, respondent explains that the mere fact that an IEP team may determine that a student will not participate in a summer program that may be offered, or that a student with an IEP should have modified homework requirements, does not constitute an arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable Board action.

Finally, respondent cites to J.L. & J.E.H. ex rel T.H.L. v. Hopewell Valley, EDU 2658-99, Initial Decision (September 2, 1999), aff'd, Comm'r (October 8, 1999), aff'd, State Bd. (February 2, 2000), http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/, to support its argument that a grade of "zero" for non-compliance of homework is purely an academic consequence and does not constitute discipline or punitive action.

Petitioner's Sur-reply

Petitioner submitted a sur-reply which was considered over the Board's objection. In the sur-reply, petitioner repeats her position that there is no written policy governing summer homework, and that the Board lacks authority to "mandate what children must do when school is not in session." Petitioner states that the Board is engaging in unreasonable decision-making with its refusal to accept that its authority does not exist when school is not in session, and its refusal to accept the limitation on its authority, and that results in arbitrary, capricious, and unreasonable decision making.

LEGAL DISCUSSION AND CONCLUSIONS

The Summary Decision Standard

As the moving party, respondent Board carries the burden of proof to demonstrate, by a preponderance of the credible evidence, that summary decision should be entered in favor of respondent. Summary decision may be granted "if the papers and discovery which have been filed, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact challenged and that the moving party is entitled to prevail as a matter of law." N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(b). To survive a summary decision motion, the opposing party must show that "there is a genuine issue which can only be determined in an evidentiary proceeding." Ibid. Failure to do so entitles the moving party to summary judgment/decision. Brill v. Guardian Life Ins. Co. of Am., 142 N.J. 520, 529 (1995).

The pivotal issues in this matter are whether the Board or its agents were authorized to assign and grade summer homework, and whether the grades given to J.M. when he did not complete two summer homework assignments should be removed.

In petitioner's opposition to the Board's motion for summary decision, she argues that there are material issues of fact in dispute. She asserts that these include, for example, statements allegedly made by the superintendent to petitioner in a June 2018 e-mail concerning homework and summer work, and whether Policy 2330 applies to summer homework. In carefully considering the issues of fact raised by petitioner, I am not convinced that any of the factual issues raised are material to the disposition of this matter and must be determined at an evidentiary proceeding. Based on my consideration of the facts as presented in the Joint Stipulation, and the parties' submissions, I CONCLUDE that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact and the matter is ripe for summary decision.

Authority of the Board to Require Summer Homework

Petitioner seeks to have certain zeros removed from her minor child's average because, she asserts, the Board does not have a written policy addressing summer homework and the Board lacks the authority to require her children to complete any assignments outside the 180-day school year.

To support her position, petitioner argues that Policy 2330, on "Homework," does not refer to "summer homework," and therefore does not apply to the assignment of summer work in the District. Petitioner is correct, and respondent does not dispute, that Policy 2330 does not expressly refer to "summer homework." However, it also does not preclude the assignment of summer work. In fact, there is no law in New Jersey that expressly precludes a board, or its agents, from assigning summer work.

The Board interprets Policy 2330 to support its practice/policy of assigning grade-appropriate reading and math homework over the summer. Policy 2330, as well as the Board's interpretation and application of the Policy to include summer homework, is entitled to a presumption of validity. Boards of education have wide policymaking discretion and their decisions may not be disturbed unless there is an affirmative showing that the decision was arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable. Thomas v. Morris Bd. of Educ., 89 N.J. Super. 327, 332 (App. Div. 1965), Kopera v. W. Orange Bd. of Educ., 60 N.J. Super. 288, 294 (App. Div. 1960). The management prerogative of boards of education cannot be usurped or assumed by the Commissioner of Education absent a definitive showing of bad faith or arbitrary actions taken in bad faith without a rational basis. G.M. v. Roselle Park Borough Bd. of Educ., 95 N.J.A.R. 2d (EDU) 107, 109 (citing Paddock v. Bd. of Educ. of Demarest, 1974 S.L.D. 435).

Even assuming arguendo that Policy 2330 does not apply to summer homework, the absence of a written policy explicitly addressing summer homework does not preclude the Board or its agents from maintaining a practice (or unwritten policy) supporting the assignment of grade-appropriate summer work. This practice/policy should not be disturbed unless the policy or its implementation with respect to J.M. or J.M. is arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable. Here, it is undisputed that the Board has maintained a long-standing practice supporting the assignment of summer homework in the District. The Board asserts that this practice/policy is a means of reinforcing the learning experience of the school and helps students to prepare for the upcoming school year. While petitioner may not agree with the Board's position, there is clearly a nexus between the assigning of grade-appropriate summer homework and the Board's stated purpose for assigning this work. While petitioner argues that the Board's authority does not extend beyond the school year, there is no legal authority that restricts its authority in this fashion. Rather, boards are restricted generally by their obligation to refrain from actions or decisions that are arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable.

Petitioner fails to make a viable argument that the Board's practice or policy (even if unwritten) supporting the assignment of summer homework is in any way arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable. Petitioner's argument that the Board violated its own policy by assigning summer homework is also entirely without merit. Simply because petitioner does not agree with the assigning of summer homework, and some neighboring districts may not require summer homework, does not make the Board's practice/policy arbitrary or unreasonable.

I CONCLUDE, therefore, that neither the Board nor its agents here have exceeded the scope of their legal authority by adopting and maintaining a practice/policy of assigning summer homework, nor has the Board violated any of its policies, or any law, by supporting the assignment of summer homework. I also CONCLUDE that the Board's general practice/policy supporting the assigning and grading of summer homework is not arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable.

J.M.'s Grades

The Board's written decision references its expectation that all students complete their assigned work in a timely manner, and that consequences result if a student fails to complete the assigned work. There is no evidence, and petitioner does not assert, that her children were treated any differently from other similarly situated students. Petitioner's seventh-grader received zeros for not completing two summer assignments while her fourth-grader was not graded on his summer homework assignment. It is, however, a valid and reasonable exercise of the Board's authority to maintain different grading practices for middle- and elementary-school students. It is well settled that "[t]he grading system is the prerogative of local school boards and need not be formally codified, although it must be reasonable and nondiscriminating." M.M. v. Demers, et al., 92

N.J.A.R. 2d (EDU) 525, 526 (citing Dooner v. Bd. of Educ. of Toms River, 1976 S.L.D. 619; Tarlarsky v. Edison Twp. Bd. of Educ., 1977 S.L.D. 862). There is nothing in petitioner's moving papers or the record in general to suggest that the two zeros given to petitioner's older child for failing to complete the summer homework were in any way "punitive" or discriminatory. There is nothing in the record to suggest that the grades given to J.M. were anything other than a consequence of his failure to complete the work assigned to the students in his grade.

There is also no requirement that the Board maintain a formal or written policy addressing how these assignments are graded, and there is no indication that the grading practices for summer homework here constitute a violation of any rule, policy, law, or that they are in any way unreasonable or discriminatory.

Petitioner argues that the Board/administration is acting in an arbitrary manner because it did not give her the option of having her children opt out of summer homework without any consequences, while the parents of children with IEPs have the option not to participate in the extended-year program without consequence. Petitioner's strained comparison of the Board's handling of this matter with accommodation provided to students with special needs in the District is entirely misguided, meritless, and does not support her argument that the Board acted in an arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable manner.

For the reasons set forth above, I CONCLUDE that petitioner has identified no basis upon which this tribunal could conclude that the Board acted in an arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable manner with regard to the grading consequences imposed upon J.M. and/or J.M. I also CONCLUDE that the grades of "zero" given to J.M. when he failed to complete the summer homework assignments did not reflect any arbitrary, discriminatory, or unreasonable action taken by the Board or its agents.

Even when considering all of the facts presented in the light most favorable to the petitioner, petitioner cannot demonstrate that the Board's actions should be reversed as arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable. The Board was acting within its legal authority when it adopted its practice/policy of supporting the assigning and grading of summer homework, and the Board's assigning and grading of summer homework is based upon legitimate and reasonable educational-policy rationales. Absent any showing that the Board's judgment was arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable, the Board's action is presumed to be valid and will not be disturbed. Nothing in the petition or petitioner's opposition to the motion for summary decision can support overturning the Board's action here as arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable. Therefore, the Board's action must stand. Based on the foregoing, I CONCLUDE that the respondent's motion for summary decision should be GRANTED.

ORDER

It is ORDERED that the motion for summary decision filed by the respondent, the Allamuchy Township Board of Education, is GRANTED for the reasons stated herein.

I hereby FILE this initial decision with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION for consideration.

This recommended decision may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

Within thirteen days from the date on which this recommended decision was mailed to the parties, any party may file written exceptions with the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, ATTN: BUREAU OF CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES, 100 Riverview Plaza, 4th Floor, PO Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625-0500, marked "Attention: Exceptions." A copy of any exceptions must be sent to the judge and to the other parties.

May 15, 2019
DATE

SUSANA E. GUERRERO, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: May 16, 2019

Date Mailed to Parties:

jb

152-19SEC

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Anthony M. Fleres,

Complainant,

v.

Yu Taylor Zhong, West Windsor-Plainsboro Board of Education, Mercer County,

Respondent.

Synopsis

Petitioner, a member of the Board of Education of the West Windsor-Plainsboro Board of Education, alleged that respondent, a fellow Board member, violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(g) of the School Ethics Act when he forwarded a message to members of his immediate family about an incident involving a student that resulted in discipline. The matter was heard in the Office of Administrative Law in December 2018, and the ALJ issued an Initial Decision concluding that the respondent's actions violated the confidentiality provision of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(g), and that a penalty of reprimand was warranted. The School Ethics Commission (SEC) adopted the findings of fact and conclusions of the ALJ, but rejected the ALJ's penalty recommendation, determining instead that censure is the appropriate penalty in this case.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurred with the penalty recommendation of the SEC. Accordingly, the respondent shall be censured as a school official found to have violated the School Ethics Act.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

June 18, 2019

152-19SEC

Agency Dkt. No. 105-5/19
SEC Dkt. No. C17-18

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

Anthony M. Fleres,

Complainant,

v.

Yu Taylor Zhong, West Windsor-Plainsboro Board of Education, Mercer County,

Respondent.

The record of this matter and the decision of the School Ethics Commission (SEC) have been reviewed. The SEC found that respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(g) when he forwarded a message to members of his immediate family about an incident involving a student that resulted in discipline (which was subsequently shared by a family member with countless others), and recommended a penalty of censure. The SEC's decision was forwarded pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29 for the Commissioner's final determination on the recommended penalty. Respondent did not file exceptions to the recommended penalty, nor was the SEC's underlying finding of a violation appealed to the Commissioner pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:4.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the penalty recommended by the SEC. Accordingly, the respondent shall be censured as a school official found to have violated the School Ethics Act.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[1]

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 6/18/19
Date of Mailing: 6/19/19

[1] This decision may be appealed to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court pursuant to P.L. 2008, c. 36 (N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1).

153-19SEC

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

In the Matter of Israel Varela and Kenneth Puccio, Perth Amboy Board of Education, Middlesex County.

Synopsis

The School Ethics Commission (Commission) found that respondent Israel Varela – a member of the Perth Amboy Board of Education (Board) – violated several provisions of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1, the Code of Ethics for School Board Members (Code), when he failed on multiple occasions to comply with the procedures detailed in the school district's Visitor Policy, thereby persistently ignoring mandated school security practices. Additionally, the Commission found that Mr. Varela also violated several provisions of the Code when – in regard to improper meetings with Hector Muniz, a school secretary – he became involved in the day-to-day functions and responsibilities of school personnel, conducted a private and unauthorized investigation, made promises to employees, and sought to obtain information in a private setting with the purpose of undermining school personnel. As Mr. Varela is no longer a member of the Board, the Commission recommended a penalty of censure in this matter.

Upon review, the Commissioner preliminarily found that the consolidated matter concerning Kenneth Puccio has been appealed, and will therefore be the subject of a separate decision to be issued under Agency Docket No. 4/4-19A at a later date. In regard to the matter concerning Israel Varela, the Commissioner concurred that censure is the appropriate penalty for the violation found. Accordingly, the Commissioner directed that respondent be censured as a school official found to have violated the School Ethics Act.

This synopsis is not part of the Commissioner's decision. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader. It has been neither reviewed nor approved by the Commissioner.

June 18, 2019

153-19SEC

SEC Dkt Nos. C17-12, C18-12, and C21-12 (Consolidated)
OAL Dkt. Nos. EEC 13642-12, EEC 13643-12, and EEC 13644-12
Agency Dkt. No. 106-5/19

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

In the Matter of Israel Varela and Kenneth Puccio, Perth Amboy Board of Education, Middlesex County.

The Commissioner has reviewed the record of this matter and the May 2, 2019 decision of the School Ethics Commission (Commission). The Commission found that respondent Israel Varela, a member of the Perth Amboy Board of Education, violated the following provisions of the Code of Ethics for School Board Members: N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(d), and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(i) in connection with violations of the district's visitor policy; and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(d), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(i), and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(j) in connection with improper interference relating to meetings with Hector Muniz.[1] The Commission recommended a penalty of censure for the violation. The Commission's decision was forwarded to the Commissioner for final determination on the recommended penalty pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c). Respondent Israel Varela has neither filed exceptions to the recommended penalty nor instituted an appeal, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:4-1 et seq., of the Commission's underlying finding of violation.

[1] The Commission's May 2, 2019 decision also contains findings of fact and legal conclusions regarding Respondent Kenneth Puccio, whose matter was consolidated with Mr. Varela's due to the similarity of the legal issues and evidence. Mr. Puccio has appealed the Commission's decision pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:4-1 et seq.; therefore, this decision only pertains to respondent Israel Varela (SEC Docket Nos. C17-12 and C18-12; OAL Docket. Nos. EEC 13462-12 and EEC 13463-12). The Commissioner will issue a separate decision regarding Mr. Puccio's appeal under Agency Docket No. 4/5-19A.

Upon review, the Commissioner concurs with the penalty recommended by the Commission for respondent's failure to comply with the district's visitor policy and for his improper interference in the day to day functions of school personnel.

Accordingly, respondent is hereby censured as a school official found to have violated the School Ethics Act.

IT IS SO ORDERED.[2]

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 6/18/19
Date of Mailing: 6/19/19

[2] This decision may be appealed to the Superior Court, Appellate Division, pursuant to P.L. 2008, c. 36 (N.J.S.A. 18A:6-9.1).

Before the School Ethics Commission
OAL Docket No.: EEC-13642-12, EEC-13643-12, and EEC-13644-12
SEC Docket No.: C17-12, C18-12, and C21-12
(Consolidated)

Final Decision

In the Matter of Israel Varela and Kenneth Puccio, Perth Amboy Board of Education,
Middlesex County

I. Procedural History

This consolidated matter arises from three (3) separate but related Complaints filed with the School Ethics Commission (Commission). On April 24, 2012, Janine Walker Caffrey, then Superintendent of the Perth Amboy School District (District) filed a Complaint against Israel Varela, a member of the Perth Amboy Board of Education (Board), and alleged violations of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(a), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(d), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(f), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(h), and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(i). At its meeting on September 25, 2012, the Commission adopted a decision finding probable cause to credit the allegations that Respondent Varela violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) (in Count 1 and Count 2), and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(d), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e), and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(h) (in Count 1). The Commission dismissed all other allegations and voted, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:28-10.7(c)(2), to transmit the matter docketed as C17-12 to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) on or about September 28, 2012.

On April 25, 2012, Alvaro Cores, then Principal of the Dr. Herbert N. Richardson Elementary School (Richardson School) in the District, also filed a Complaint against Israel Varela, and alleged violations of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(c), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(d), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(f), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(g), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(i), and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(j). At its meeting on September 25, 2012, the Commission adopted a decision finding probable cause to credit the allegations that Respondent Varela violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) (in Count 3); N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(d), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(i), and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(j) (in Count 1, Count 2, and Count 4); and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(d), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e), and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(i) (in Count 3). The Commission dismissed all other allegations and voted, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:28-10.7(c)(2), to transmit the matter docketed as C18-12 to the OAL on or about September 28, 2012.

On May 24, 2012, Dr. Caffrey filed a Complaint against Kenneth Puccio, a member of the Board, and alleged violations of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(g), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(d), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(f), and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(i). At its meeting on September 25, 2012, the Commission adopted a decision finding probable cause to credit the allegations that Respondent Puccio violated N.J.S.A.

18A:12-24(c) (in Count 1); N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(d), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e), and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(f) (in Count 1); and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(d), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e), and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(i) (in Count 2). The Commission dismissed all other allegations and voted, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:28-10.7(c)(2), to transmit the matter docketed as C21-12 to the OAL on or about September 28, 2012.

At the OAL, the matters were consolidated, and hearings were conducted by Michael Antoniewicz, Administrative Law Judge (ALJ Antoniewicz), on August 7, 2015, August 14, 2015, September 11, 2015, November 12, 2015, April 30, 2016, September 1, 2017, April 6, 2018, and May 22, 2018. Following the completion of the hearings, but prior to the filing of briefs, ALJ Antoniewicz was appointed to the Superior Court. In accordance with N.J.A.C. 1:1-14.13, the matters were transferred to Jeff S. Masin, Administrative Law Judge (ALJ Masin) retired on recall, on October 30, 2018. After ALJ Masin was afforded time to review the transcript of the proceedings (with consent of the parties), the parties filed briefs and the record closed on December 27, 2018. ALJ Masin requested an extension to file his Initial Decision with the Commission, and same was granted until February 22, 2019.

On February 19, 2019, ALJ Masin issued his Initial Decision. After review of the record, ALJ Masin concluded that Respondent Varela violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(d), and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(i) in connection with the visitor policy; Respondent Varela violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(d), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(i), and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(j) in relation to the meetings with Hector Muniz; and Respondent Puccio violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(d) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) when he attended a meeting of the local American Federation of Teachers (AFT). Based on his findings of fact and legal conclusions, ALJ Masin recommended that Respondent Varela be censured, and that Respondent Puccio be suspended for sixty days or, in lieu of suspension (or of some portion thereof), Respondent Puccio be replaced as Board president by another member chosen by the county superintendent.

The Commission acknowledged receipt of ALJ Masin's Initial Decision on February 19, 2019; therefore, the forty-five (45) day statutory period for the Commission to issue a Final Decision was April 5, 2019. Prior to April 5, 2019, the Commission requested a forty-five (45) day extension of time to issue its decision so as to allow the Commission, which only meets monthly, the opportunity to receive and review the full record, including the parties' Exceptions. Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10(c) and N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.8, and for good cause shown, the Commission was granted an extension until May 20, 2019. Respondents filed Exceptions in correspondence dated March 5, 2019, and Complainant filed Exceptions in correspondence dated March 6, 2019.

The Commission considered the full record in this matter, including the Exceptions filed by the parties, at its meeting on March 26, 2019. At a special meeting on May 2, 2019, and for the reasons more fully detailed below, the Commission voted to adopt ALJ Masin's findings of fact; adopt the legal conclusion that Respondent Varela violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(d), and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(i) in connection with the visitor policy; to adopt the legal conclusion that Respondent Varela violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(d), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(i), and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(j) in relation to the meetings with Mr. Muniz; and to adopt the legal conclusion that Respondent Puccio violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-

24.1(d) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) when he attended a meeting of the local AFT. The Commission also voted to adopt the recommended penalty of censure for Respondent Varela, but voted to modify the recommended penalty of suspension for sixty (60) days for Respondent Puccio to suspension for one (1) year. Finally, the Commission voted to reject ALJ Masin's recommendation that, in lieu of suspension, Respondent Puccio should be removed as Board President.

II. Initial Decision

In his Initial Decision, ALJ Masin summarized the pertinent witness testimony, issued factual findings, and rendered legal conclusions as to the alleged conduct of both Respondent Varela and Respondent Puccio.

Respondent Varela

As to the "Alleged Violations of the Visitor Policy," ALJ Masin noted that Mr. Cores (the Complainant in C18-12), served as the Principal of the Richardson School from September 2011 to July 2012. Initial Decision at 5. Mr. Cores' employment contract was not renewed by the Board after July 2012 despite Dr. Caffrey's positive evaluation of his performance, and her recommendation that he be renewed. Id. Among the teaching staff at the Richardson School was Anna Varela, the spouse of Respondent Varela. Id. Respondent Varela operated an auto body shop located near the Richardson School, and entered the Richardson School regularly. Id. The District and the Richardson School each had policies/procedures regarding visitors to the school. Id. The District Policy was issued January 12, 2006, and the definition of "visitor" includes "members of the Board." Id. The District Policy requires that any "visitor" register in the school office, provides that a logbook be maintained, requires each visitor to enter his/her name and to detail the purpose of his/her visit. Id. The District Policy requires every "visitor" to be given an identification tag or badge, to be escorted to his/her destination (with limited exception), and to return to the school office before leaving the building. Id.

In September 2011, the Richardson School issued "School Visitor Procedures" (Procedures) at the request of Dr. Caffrey. Initial Decision at 5-6. The Procedures reflected the District's definition of "visitor," and included Board members. Id. at 6. The Procedures required that visitors enter the Richardson School by the main entry doorway, and specified that "Board members must have prior superintendent approval." Id. The Procedures further detailed that visitors were to be greeted by the security officer or a secretary, were to be instructed to sign in at the main office in visitor's logbook, were to note the purpose of the visit, and were to be provided with an identification tag and escorted in the building. Id. When the visit was complete, the visitor was to be escorted back to the main office, where he/she was to record their time out of the building. Id. As Principal of the Richardson School, and as reflected in his job description, one of Mr. Cores' primary job responsibilities and obligations was to safeguard the health and welfare of children and staff. Initial Decision at 6.

During his testimony, Respondent Varela readily admitted that he would come to the Richardson School to bring lunch to his spouse, and would also exchange keys with staff members whose cars he was repairing at his shop. Initial Decision at 6. Between October 2011 and April 2012, Mr. Cores compiled data showing fifteen (15) dates when Respondent Varela did sign in at the main office, and that on seven (7) of these occasions, he did not sign out as required. Id. at 6-7.

By its specific wording, the District's Policy, issued long before Dr. Caffrey became the Superintendent and Mr. Cores became the Principal of the Richardson School, applied to Board members visiting the school. Initial Decision at 14. The Procedures, which were issued while Dr. Caffrey was the Superintendent and Mr. Cores the Principal of the Richardson School, also clearly applied to "members of the Board." Id. Therefore, ALJ Masin found that Respondent Varela was certainly on notice that the written policies and procedures of the District and the school stated, unequivocally, that as a Board member he had the obligation when visiting the school to sign in, note the purpose of the visit, be escorted, and sign out when leaving. Id. Testimony from Mr. Cores, the security officer, and Respondent Varela's previous admissions and testimony demonstrate that he did not comply "with the policy every time he came to the Richardson School." Id. at 14-15 (emphasis added). ALJ Masin found that Respondent Varela came to the Richardson School for different reasons – as a husband (to visit his spouse), as a business man (to obtain or return keys to clients – i.e., District personnel), and as a Board member (to inspect conditions). Id. at 15.

While ALJ Masin noted that Respondent Varela's visits on some occasions were for benign reasons and presented no actual security concern, as a Board member, Respondent Varela had no right to ignore mandated security procedures. Initial Decision at 15. As stated by ALJ Masin, "it must not be overlooked that especially in this era, the need for compliance with such procedures is vital," and knowing "who is in the school, when and for what purpose is an altogether legitimate and substantial concern for those charged with protecting the health and safety of students entrusted to their care." Id. In addition, and regardless of past practice, ALJ Masin found that the credible evidence is that once Dr. Caffrey and Mr. Cores were in charge, they sought to have visitors, including Respondent Varela, comply with the visitor policies and procedures. Id. Nonetheless, multiple attempts, conversations, and instructions failed to obtain complete compliance from Respondent Varela. Id.

Based on the foregoing facts, namely Respondent Varela's repeated failure to comply with the visitor policies and procedures on multiple occasions despite multiple requests that he do so, ALJ Masin concluded that Respondent Varela violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(i) because he failed to support the school's personnel in their important task of assuring that, through the use and enforcement of written policy and procedure, they had a complete handle on what was going on in the building, who was there, when, and why. Initial Decision at 16. ALJ Masin further concluded that, by undermining the authority of the school's personnel charged with the day-to-day task of managing the building to assure its safety and orderly conduct, Respondent Varela violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(d). Id. However, ALJ Masin dismissed the alleged violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) because "there is no evidence that appears to support this charge in relation to the visitor policy." Id.

Regarding his "Alleged Interference in the Hiring Process," ALJ Masin noted that, in the fall of 2011, there was an opening for "a couple of bus driver positions." Initial Decision at 18. Two of the applicants were Eddie Suriel and Beverly Williams. Id. After going through the process, Dr. Caffrey recommended that Ms. Williams be hired. Id. When Mr. Suriel learned that he had not been hired, he spoke with Dr. Caffrey to express his unhappiness with not being recommended for the position. Id. According to Dr. Caffrey, Mr. Suriel stated, "I know how this works. I'll get a Board member to tell you to hire me." Id.

Although the Board was scheduled to vote on the appointment of Ms. Williams at a Board meeting in December 2011, Respondent Varela and another former Board member (Samuel Lebreault (Lebreault)) expressed concerns about the appointment and indicated that they did not feel Ms. Williams was the best candidate. Initial Decision at 18-19. Despite Dr. Caffrey's insistence that Ms. Williams was the best candidate, the recommendation to appoint her (Ms. Williams) was tabled on a motion made by Respondent Varela, and seconded by Respondent Puccio. Id. at 19. Ultimately, Ms. Williams was hired at a Board meeting in early 2012, and Mr. Suriel was also hired in the spring or summer of 2012. Id.

The allegation is that Respondent Varela voted to table the appointment of Ms. Williams "specifically" to favor another candidate, namely Mr. Suriel. Initial Decision at 20. However, based on the facts, ALJ Masin found that the record does not support a finding that Respondent Varela's conduct regarding the vote to table the recommended hiring of Ms. Williams violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e), or N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(h). Id. at 20-22. In reaching this decision, ALJ Masin noted that there "is no inherent problem with a board member questioning a hiring recommendation made by the administrative officer," and it is "certainly within a board member's rights and responsibility to request additional information before voting on such a recommendation." Id. at 21. Notwithstanding this right, it must be done for legitimate, and not nefarious reasons. Id. In this regard, ALJ Masin noted that there is absolutely no evidence to demonstrate that Mr. Suriel ever acted on his "threat" by actually speaking to or otherwise communicating with any Board member and, more specifically, with Respondent Varela. Id. at 22. As a result, Dr. Caffrey "could do no more than speculate as to the alleged discriminatory character of [Respondent] Varela's conduct, and speculation is not evidence and is not a basis for finding that the motivation was illegitimate." Id. Therefore, the charges regarding the vote to table the recommended hiring of Ms. Williams are dismissed. Id.

By way of background for the "Alleged Improper Interference Relating to the Meetings with Mr. Muniz," ALJ Masin noted that several employees at the Richardson School received Summative Memorandums in April 2012 for an unrelated incident. Initial Decision at 22. Following the issuance of these Memorandums, another unrelated incident - the sale of coquito in December 2011 - resurfaced. Id. It is alleged that Respondent Varela, acting alone and without Board permission, sought to encourage Mr. Muniz, a secretary at the Richardson School, to make a statement that employees, including himself (Mr. Muniz) and another secretary (Susan Nieves), were being blackmailed by Mr. Cores and Karen Moffatt, the Vice Principal of the Richardson School, "in order to keep the coquito incident hidden." Id. at 22-23.

As for the facts related to these allegations, both Mr. Muniz and Respondent Varela agree that they met and had a conversation – outside their respective homes - on April 21, 2012, and April 22, 2012. Initial Decision at 33. The two men also agree that the conversation involved comments about cooperating with the Board. Id. Respondent Varela agrees that before April 21, 2012, he already knew about the coquito incident, and also acknowledges he knew, based on conversations with his spouse, about Ms. Nieves' complaints about blackmail. Id. At the time that these conversations occurred, Respondent Varela was certainly not well disposed towards either the superintendent or the principal of Richardson School. Id. It would not be at all surprising if Respondent Varela saw an opportunity to obtain evidence of wrongdoing on the part of these persons from an alleged victim of the blackmail. Id. Respondent Varela's own description of Mr. Muniz as a very young, scared, "ignorant" kid lends credence to the prospect that he, as an older person, known to Mr. Muniz for years, and an authority figure with a prominent position in the very district employing him, would attempt to convince Mr. Muniz to come forward with damaging information against Mr. Cores and Dr. Caffrey, while also seeking to induce such cooperation with talk of trust, caring and security for the cooperating witness. Id.

Whether Mr. Muniz actually heard the word "protection" about his job, or merely understood all the talk about not hurting people and trust, coming from a neighbor and Board member, as meaning that his job position would not suffer, ALJ Masin found that Respondent Varela, a Board member who was not charged with the day-to-day supervision of the District and its personnel, essentially became an investigator, trying to induce an individual to provide damaging evidence against persons towards whom he had clear, work-related animus. Initial Decision at 33-34. Although acknowledging that Mr. Muniz's credibility is not without flaw, ALJ Masin found that the preponderance of the evidence is that Mr. Muniz's version of the events, including that Respondent Varela spoke specifically about "blackmail," is the more convincing account. Id. at 34.

According to ALJ Masin, it is clear that it was not Respondent Varela's job as a Board member to take it upon himself to conduct an unauthorized, private investigation of personnel, nor to even suggest to a potential witness how the Board would treat him or his job situation. Initial Decision at 34. Thus, even under Respondent Varela's "benign" version of the conversations, he overstepped his boundaries. Id. According to ALJ Masin, he should have, at most, assured Mr. Muniz that he would discuss the allegations of blackmail and of other possible improper activity by senior administrators with the Board attorney so that properly authorized and legally appropriate decisions could be made on how to proceed to determine if any wrongdoing had occurred. Id. Beyond that he should have avoided further discussion, promises, inducements, encouragements and the like. Id.

Because Respondent Varela became involved in the day-to-day functions and responsibilities of school personnel, conducted a private, unauthorized investigation, made promises, and sought, without authorization, to obtain information in a private setting with purpose to undermine school personnel, ALJ Masin determined that Respondent Varela violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(d), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(i), and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(j). Initial Decision at 34.

As a result of the legal conclusions reached regarding Respondent Varela's conduct (in Sections A, B, and C infra), and while noting that Respondent Varela is no longer a member of the Board, ALJ Masin recommended the penalty of censure. Initial Decision at 35.

Respondent Puccio

As for the "February 22, 2012, Meeting," Respondent Puccio addressed Dr. Caffrey after the conclusion of a Board personnel committee meeting, and mentioned his concern that two administrators - Dr. Morgan and Dr. Garcia - had approached his superior officer about his presence in their schools. Initial Decision at 39. Respondent Puccio and Dr. Caffrey differ over the intensity of Respondent Puccio's remarks, and their content. Id. Dr. Caffrey described him as irate, red in the face and screaming, claiming that he would "get" them, "if it's the last thing I do" and that is was "personal." Id. Respondent Puccio denies that he was so intense, denies that he demanded that they be fired, and denies that he wanted Dr. Caffrey to discipline them. Id. Both Dr. Caffrey and Respondent Puccio agree that following this event, shortly thereafter, whatever problem might have existed involving the principals and Respondent Puccio was worked out satisfactorily. Id.

As for the others alleged to have been present during the post-meeting encounter, the Board attorney denied any recollection of such an intense encounter, and noted that had one erupted, she would have stopped it. Initial Decision at 39. As to Respondent Puccio's suggestion that the principals' raising of the issue of confusion as to his role when in their schools to his police superior was an attempt to undermine him in regard to negotiations, there is no evidence in the record to support that supposition. Id. at 39-40.

The crux of this allegation is that Respondent Puccio's conduct was done to further his personal interest or perhaps to obtain a benefit for himself. Initial Decision at 40. However, ALJ Masin was "not convinced by a preponderance of the credible evidence that [Respondent] Puccio's conduct after the meeting was as intense and threatening as [Dr.] Caffrey claimed." Id. Although ALJ Masin acknowledges that Respondent Puccio was unhappy that the principals spoke to his superior rather than bring their concern to the attention of Dr. Caffrey, it was not out of line for Respondent Puccio to raise the issue of their action with Dr. Caffrey. Id. While it is possible, and even likely, that Respondent Puccio spoke loudly, ALJ Masin credits testimony from the Board attorney that if Respondent Puccio had been as forceful as claimed, she (the Board attorney) would have calmed the situation and, moreover, remembered it. Id.

Finding nothing improper in Respondent Puccio telling Dr. Caffrey that the principals appeared to have acted out of step with the proper procedure, ALJ Masin found that while Respondent Puccio was no doubt upset, he did not "threaten" to get them, or "demand" they be fired or disciplined. Initial Decision at 40. Therefore, ALJ Masin dismissed the charges related to the February 22, 2012, post-meeting encounter, namely the alleged violations of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(d), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e), and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(f). Id.

Regarding his "Attendance at the AFT Meeting," Respondent Puccio, along with Lebreault (then Vice President), attended a local AFT meeting on May 9, 2012, which was after the Board suspended Dr. Caffrey, and the Commissioner of Education (Commissioner) ordered her reinstatement to the position because of a flaw in the Board's voting process. Initial Decision at 40-41. It is alleged that, at this meeting, Respondent Puccio assisted the local AFT

President in obtaining a vote of "no confidence" in Dr. Caffrey from those (members of the association) who attended the meeting. Id. at 40.

Donna Chiera, the President of the local AFT as of May 9, 2012, testified that after Dr. Caffrey was reinstated by the Commissioner, it was decided that a meeting with the local AFT building representatives and officers would be scheduled. Initial Decision at 41. According to Ms. Chiera, only the building representatives received notice of the meeting. Id. Ms. Chiera testified that a Board member (Obdulia Gonzalez) contacted her and asked if Board members could attend the meeting, and the Board member was advised, after Ms. Chiera consulted with counsel, that Board members could talk to the group only after the business meeting ended. Id. Ms. Chiera also recommended to Gonzalez that she (Gonzalez) should check with the Board's attorney about whether attendance by Board members was permissible. Id. Ms. Chiera testified that, while at the meeting, Respondent Puccio expressed how committed he was to the District, and stated, he "was out there fighting for us. People were saying this was personal. Well, this was personal for him. I have skin in the game." Id. at 42.

Respondent Puccio testified that he thought the AFT had reached out to the Board, indicated that Lebreault told him (Respondent Puccio) that the Union had concerns it wanted to "air out," stated that Lebreault told him (Respondent Puccio) that the Board attorney had said they could attend the AFT meeting, testified that the majority of the Board wanted him and Lebreault to attend the meeting, but confirmed that "there was no official Board action to authorize attendance at the meeting." Initial Decision at 42.

In his discussion, ALJ Masin noted that Respondent Puccio admitted he attended the emergency local AFT meeting which was called, according to its then president, for the purpose of discussing the ongoing concerns of the members, or at least the leadership of the AFT, about Dr. Caffrey. Initial Decision at 44. The emergency local AFT meeting was called in the wake of Dr. Caffrey's suspension by the Board and reinstatement by the Commissioner, and there is no question that the AFT had significant issues with Dr. Caffrey's leadership. Id. It was also obvious that the Board, or at least its majority, had significant problems with Dr. Caffrey's leadership. Id. With this as the background for the meeting, ALJ Masin stated, "it is impossible not to recognize that [Respondent] Puccio, as well as Lebreault, knew exactly what that situation was when they chose to attend the meeting." Id.

In discussing the facts, ALJ Masin found it significant that no formal Board action had been proffered approving of their attendance, and found it even more significant that the Board attorney did not offer that she had been consulted by Lebreault or had indeed approved Respondent Puccio's and Lebreault's attendance at the emergency local AFT meeting. Id. at 44-45. As such, ALJ Masin found that there is no credible or competent evidence to support any claim that the Board or the Board's attorney had in fact authorized attendance. Id. In addition, Respondent Puccio met with the AFT leadership without any notice whatsoever to Dr. Caffrey, who at that time had been reinstated and was thus the person responsible for the day-to-day operation of the schools and the day-to-day interaction with the AFT and its members. Id. ALJ Masin also found that there is no evidence that, after the meeting, Respondent Puccio shared with Dr. Caffrey what he said at the meeting, or shared any other information or conversation that might have taken place regarding his/her employment. Id. In effect, ALJ Masin found that Respondent Puccio, and also Lebreault, took it upon themselves to become involved in the administration of the schools. Id.

Although Respondent Puccio attempted to couch his actions as a benign attempt to display support for the teachers, "it was not appropriate for board members to meet privately with Union leadership in what could only be seen, given that context and the positions taken by [Respondent] Puccio and Lebreault in support of suspension, as a show of support for the Union and its own goals, opposed as they were to [Dr. Caffrey]." Initial Decision at 45. As such, ALJ Masin found that this was conduct beyond the scope of Respondent Puccio's duties as a Board member which had the potential to undermine Dr. Caffrey's authority as Superintendent - a position she held at the time of the meeting and, as far as anyone then knew, might continue to hold for some time. Id. ALJ Masin further found that Respondent Puccio attended the AFT meeting without any formal Board approval; without, based on the record, any proven informal consent; without informing Dr. Caffrey; and without any actual knowledge that the rest of the Board or its counsel had knowledge of his attendance. Id. at 46. ALJ Masin concluded that by facilitating this informal contact through an unauthorized, private meeting, Respondent Puccio failed to carry out his responsibility not to administer the schools and to work with his fellow Board members to see that the schools are well run. Id. ALJ Masin further concluded that Respondent Puccio acted beyond the scope of his duties in a manner that had the potential to compromise the Board, and that he involved himself in the day-to-day administration of the schools by placing himself in a compromising situation/position between the AFT (the local Union) and Dr. Caffrey (the Superintendent). Id. As such, ALJ Masin found that Respondent Puccio violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(d) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e). Id.

In light of the legal conclusions as set forth above, ALJ Masin agreed that "the circumstances involved, with the violations involving the Board member effectively providing the Union with support for its, and his, goal of ousting the superintendent, would warrant serious sanction," he also noted that the events occurred "nearly seven years ago" and, since that time, Respondent Puccio's service as a Board member has been characterized as exemplary. Initial Decision at 47. Therefore, ALJ Masin recommended a suspension of sixty (60) days, but in lieu of suspension, or of some portion thereof, ALJ Masin recommended that Respondent Puccio be replaced as Board President by another member of the Board that is chosen by the county superintendent. Id.

III. Exceptions

In their Exceptions, Respondents agree that ALJ Masin correctly analyzes the lack of first-hand personal knowledge and utter speculation on the part of the party's witnesses against Respondent Varela and Respondent Puccio. ALJ Masin indicated that "speculation is not evidence and is not a basis for finding that the [action] was illegitimate." However, Respondents argue that ALJ Masin relied upon that same speculative testimony when finding that Respondent Varela failed to sign in or out on occasion, regarding Respondent Varela's meeting with Mr. Muniz and when Respondent Puccio attended the AFT meeting. In this regard, the ALJ's determination should likewise be dismissed. Furthermore, the penalty of a sixty (60) day suspension for Respondent Puccio is unwarranted and Respondents contend that a reprimand or censure would be sufficient.

Respondents argue that there is no evidence that during his visits to the school, Respondent Varela gave staff any direct orders or became directly involved in the day-to-day activities of the school; therefore, a violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(d) (C18-12 Count 3) should be dismissed. Furthermore, Respondent Varela's failure to sign out on occasion was not found to be direct, confrontational or intimidating and, therefore, not a violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(i) (C18-12 Count 3) and should similarly be dismissed. Regarding Respondent Varela's meeting with Mr. Muniz, Respondent Varela did not make a personal promise to Mr. Muniz nor did he take personal action that could be considered undermining and the Commission failed to meet its burden of proof that the conversation between the two rose to the level of a violation of the Code (C18-12 Counts 1 and 2).

Regarding Respondent Puccio, Respondents argue that the ALJ's reliance on Gartland is misplaced and the recommended penalty is not consistent with other Commission decisions where a board member was found to have violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e). Respondents contend suspension cases generally involve more than taking action beyond the scope of authority, as was found with Respondent Puccio and, therefore, Respondent Puccio's conduct should be reduced to a reprimand or censure.

Respondent Varela and Respondent Puccio request that all claims against them be dismissed with prejudice because the Commission has failed to meet its burden of proof demonstrating that either Respondent has violated the Act as alleged.

In general, Complainant (the Commission) agrees with ALJ Masin's decision that Respondent Varela should be censured and Respondent Puccio should receive a sixty (60) day suspension. More specifically, regarding Respondent Puccio, Petitioner agrees that his actions "warrant serious sanction" because his intent to undermine the superintendent was explicit, and, therefore, recommended suspension, as a minimum sanction, but noted removal would be more appropriate. However, ALJ Masin recommended a sixty (60) day suspension and then suggested that in lieu of that, the Commissioner should consider demoting Respondent Puccio from his role as Board President, which raises two concerns: the duration of the suspension and the appropriateness of removing Respondent Puccio as Board President. Respondent Puccio's actions as stated above, had the intent to undermine the superintendent's authority which would have impacted her ability to properly administer the district. Therefore, the Commission should reconsider the ALJ's penalty against Respondent Puccio, and due to the severity of his actions removal from the Board would be a more appropriate sanction. Regarding the ALJ's recommendation that Respondent Puccio be demoted from his position as Board President, the Commission does not have the authority to order such a sanction. The Commission's authority is limited to the reprimand, censure, suspension or removal of a board member and, therefore, the ALJ's recommendation of a demotion should be rejected.

Finally, the evidence in the record was sufficient to support a finding that Respondent Varela inappropriately interfered with the hiring of a candidate and Dr. Caffrey's testimony was sufficient to support a finding that Respondent Puccio threatened job action against two principals for questioning his purpose in entering their schools. Despite ALJ Masin's finding that Petitioner did not prove these claims and dismissing them, Petitioner requests that the ALJ's dismissal of these claims be reversed.

IV. Analysis

Upon careful and independent review of the extensive facts and evidence set forth in the record, the Commission adopts ALJ Masin's findings of fact with regard to the actions/conduct of both Respondent Varela and Respondent Puccio, as well as the legal conclusions set forth in the Initial Decision. More specifically, and regarding Respondent Varela, the Commission adopts the legal conclusion that, with regard to the "Alleged Violations of the Visitor Policy," Respondent Varela violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(i) because he failed to support the school's personnel in their important task of assuring that, through the use and enforcement of written policy and procedure, they had a complete handle on what was going on in the building, who was there, when, and why, and also violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(d) because he undermined the authority of the school personnel charged with the day-to-day task of managing the building to assure its safety and orderly conduct; and adopts the legal conclusion that, regarding the "Alleged Improper Interference Relating to the Meetings with Mr. Muniz," Respondent Varela violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(d), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(i), and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(j) because he became involved in the day-to-day functions and responsibilities of school personnel, conducted a private, unauthorized investigation, made promises, and sought, without authorization, to obtain information in a private setting with the purpose to undermine school personnel.

The Commission additionally adopts the legal conclusion that, with respect to Respondent Varela's "Alleged Violations of the Visitor Policy," there was insufficient evidence to establish that he (Respondent Varela) violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e); and adopts the legal conclusion that, with regard to Respondent Varela's "Alleged Interference in the Hiring Process" of Ms. Williams, there was insufficient evidence to establish that he (Respondent Varela) violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e), or N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(h).

As for Respondent Puccio, the Commission adopts the legal conclusion that, with regard to his "Attendance at the AFT Meeting," Respondent Puccio violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(d) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) because, by attending an emergency local AFT meeting without authorization from the Board, the Board's attorney, and without the knowledge of the Superintendent, he (Respondent Puccio) engaged in conduct beyond the scope of his duties as a Board member which had the potential to undermine Dr. Caffrey's authority as Superintendent, and failed to carry out his responsibility not to administer the schools and to work with his fellow Board members to see that the schools are well run. The Commission also adopts the legal conclusion that, regarding the "February 22, 2012, Meeting," there was insufficient evidence to establish that he (Respondent Puccio) violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(c), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(d), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e), or N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(f).

V. Decision

The Commission determines to adopt the ALJ Masin's Initial Decision finding that Respondent Varela violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(d), and N.J.S.A.

18A:12-24.1(i) in connection with the visitor policy; Respondent Varela violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(d), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(i), and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(j) in relation to the meetings with Mr. Muniz; and Respondent Puccio violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(d) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) when he attended the local AFT meeting.

VI. Penalty

Based upon the conclusion that Respondent Varela violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(d), and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(i) in connection with the visitor policy, and violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(d), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(i), and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(j) in relation to the meetings with Mr. Muniz, and only because he is no longer a member of the Board, the Commission concurs with ALJ Masin that censure is the appropriate penalty. If Respondent Varela was still a member of the Board, and because on his flagrant (and repeated) disregard of the ethics rules governing his behavior, the Commission would have recommended a far greater penalty.

Regarding Respondent Puccio, and based upon the conclusion that he violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(d) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) when he attended the local AFT meeting, ALJ Masin recommended "a suspension of sixty days...but in lieu of suspension, or of some portion thereof...[Respondent] Puccio be replaced as Board president by another member chosen by the county superintendent." Initial Decision at 47. As an initial matter, the Commission notes that, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c), it may, following the finding of a violation of the Act, recommend to the Commissioner the "reprimand, censure, suspension, or removal of the school official found to have violated this act, or in the case of a board member, this act or the code of ethics." Based on its statutory authority for recommending an appropriate penalty to the Commissioner, the Commission does not have the authority, as recommended by ALJ Masin, to remove Respondent Puccio as President of the Board. As such, the Commission rejects this recommended penalty.

Although the Commission does not have the authority to unseat Respondent Puccio as Board President, it concurs with ALJ Masin that suspension is the appropriate penalty. However, the Commission modifies the recommended duration of suspension from sixty (60) days to one (1) year, because it does not believe that sixty (60) days is of sufficient duration to impress upon Respondent Puccio the seriousness of his violations.

As noted by Complainant, in an analogous case, I/M/O Colleen Gartland and Carmine Picardo, West Essex Board of Education, C44-05 (March 28, 2006) (I/M/O Gartland and Picardo), the Commission recommended a one (1) month suspension for a seasoned Board member (Respondent Gartland) when she, along with another less-experienced Board member (Respondent Picardo), met with the local union – at the Union's invitation – to discuss enhancing educational opportunities in the school district. Based on its determination that Respondent Gartland and Respondent Picardo violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(c) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(d), the Commission recommended a one (1) month suspension for Respondent Gartland, and a censure for Respondent Picardo. The Commissioner concurred with the Commission's recommended penalties.

Unlike in I/M/O Gartland and Picardo, Respondent Puccio was not invited by the local AFT to attend its meeting, and Respondent Puccio did not discuss (generally) how to enhance or improve educational opportunities in the District. Instead, Respondent Puccio and then Board Vice-President (Lebreault) invited themselves to the emergency local AFT meeting in order to specifically discuss the employment of Dr. Caffrey, and did so without her knowledge. Initial Decision at 43-45. At the time that Respondent Puccio and Lebreault made this conscious decision, the majority of the Board also had "significant problems" with Dr. Caffrey's leadership. Initial Decision at 44. As noted by ALJ Masin, "it is impossible not to recognize that [Respondent Puccio], as well as Lebreault, knew exactly what that situation was when they chose to attend the [AFT] meeting." Initial Decision at 44. After this meeting occurred, Respondent Puccio also failed to share with Dr. Caffrey what he said at the meeting, or what others said about her or her employment. Initial Decision at 45.

Furthermore, and despite Respondent Puccio's representations, there was no evidence presented which established that the other members of the Board had approved of his (and Lebreault's) attendance at the local AFT meeting, and also no testimony from the Board's attorney that she had, as claimed, been consulted by Lebreault about his and Respondent Puccio's attendance at the local AFT meeting, and/or that she had approved of their attendance at the meeting. Initial Decision at 45. As stated by ALJ Masin, "there is no credible or competent evidence to support any claim that the Board or the Board's attorney had in fact authorized attendance." Initial Decision at 45.

In essence, Respondent Puccio's attendance at the local AFT meeting was far more than benign, and he consciously inserted himself into a hostile and volatile situation that involved the employment of Dr. Caffrey. While in this meeting, without Board or attorney authorization or approval, the record supports the finding that he was more than a passive listener. At the time Respondent Puccio attended this meeting, Dr. Caffrey was, without equivocation, serving in this capacity. Initial Decision at 45-46. ALJ Masin most aptly characterized Respondent Puccio and Lebreault's actions as, "lone wolf intruders in between the teaching staff and the chief administrator." Initial Decision at 46.

The Commission finds another matter, I/M/O Julia Hankerson, Woodbine Board of Education, C36-02 (June 24, 2003) (I/M/O Hankerson), to be of some import to its recommended penalty in this case. In I/M/O Hankerson, the Commission found that Respondent violated (1) N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(h) when she ignored the recommendation of the superintendent and allowed a business administrator to be hired without any recommendation; (2) N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(c) when she gave orders to a District employee to perform tasks for her; (3) N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(c) when she had Rice notices sent to employees proposing the termination of two employees without consulting the superintendent; (4) N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(h) when she hired a technology specialist contrary to the superintendent's recommendation; (5) N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(c) when she created the position of Behavior Specialist and had a candidate appointed to the position without recommendation from the superintendent; (6) N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(d) when she interviewed and hired a teacher and a nurse for the 2002-03 school year without the superintendent's recommendation; (7) N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) when she removed the superintendent from the agenda of the teacher in-service orientation and directed him to conduct interviews; and (8) N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(g) when she advised the President of the WEA and an administrator that the contract of the superintendent would not be renewed. I/M/O Hankerson at 15. Based on the multitude of violations committed by Respondent Hankerson, the Commission stated:

> ...the Commission...recommends that the Commissioner...impose a penalty of removal from her position as a Board member for these violations. The Commission finds that [Respondent] Hankerson continued to act in blatant disregard of the Code...even after she had been trained as to its provisions.... [Respondent] Hankerson's submission of false revised minutes...undermined her credibility. Further, the Commission heard testimony that the positions of employees who testified against her in the first hearing...were terminated.... Because the Commission finds [Respondent] Hankerson's conduct to be so egregious, if the Commission had the authority to do so, it would further recommend that [Respondent] Hankerson be barred from holding a position on a school board in the future.
>
> I/M/O Hankerson at 16.

Because the Commission finds that Respondent Puccio's actions were far more egregious than those in I/M/O Gartland and Picardo, but not as egregious as those in I/M/O Hankerson, the Commission recommends suspension for one (1) year. Although Respondent Puccio did not commit the series of violations committed by the Respondent in I/M/O Hankerson, the timing of his unsanctioned attendance at the local AFT meeting was a flagrant violation of the Code, and must receive serious sanction. The importance of the relationship between the Superintendent and teaching staff members, as well as the relationship between the Board and the Superintendent, cannot be overstated. As a result, there is never an appropriate time for a member of the Board to unilaterally align himself (in his capacity as a Board member) with the local education association in a conscious and deliberate effort to undermine the authority and employment of the Superintendent. If the Board, as the Superintendent's employer, feels that a Superintendent is no longer effective in his or her position, there are mechanisms in place to address these issues.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(c), this decision shall be forwarded to the Commissioner for review of the Commission's recommended sanctions. Parties may either: 1) file exceptions to the recommended sanction; 2) file an appeal of the Commission's findings of violations of the Act; or 3) file both exceptions to the recommended sanction and an appeal of the Commission's findings of violations of the Act.

Parties taking exception to the recommended sanctions of the Commission but not disputing the Commission's findings of violations may file, within thirteen (13) days from the date the Commission's decision is forwarded to the Commissioner, written exceptions regarding the recommended sanctions to the Commissioner. The forwarding date shall be the mailing date to the parties, as indicated below. Such exceptions must be forwarded to: Commissioner of Education, c/o Bureau of Controversies and Disputes, P.O. Box 500, Trenton, New Jersey 08625, marked "Attention: Comments on Ethics Commission Sanction." A copy of any comments filed must be sent to the Commission and all other parties.

Parties seeking to appeal the Commission's findings of violations must file an appeal pursuant to the standards set forth at N.J.A.C. 6A:4, et seq. within thirty (30) days of the filing date of the decision from which the appeal is taken. The filing date shall be three (3) days after the mailing date to the parties, as indicated below. In such cases, the Commissioner's review of the Commission's recommended sanctions will be deferred and incorporated into the Commissioner's review of the findings of violations on appeal. Where a notice of appeal has been filed on or before the due date for exceptions to the Commission's recommended sanction (thirteen (13) days from the date the decision is mailed by the Commission), exceptions need not be filed by that date, but may be incorporated into the appellant's brief on appeal.

Robert W. Bender

Robert W. Bender, Chairperson
School Ethics Commission

Mailing Date: May 3, 2019

Resolution Adopting Decision
In Connection With C17-12, C18-12, and C21-12 (Consolidated)

Whereas, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:28-10.7(b), the School Ethics Commission (Commission) voted to separately transmit the above matters to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) for plenary hearings; and

Whereas, while at the OAL, the above matters were consolidated; and

Whereas, Jeff S. Masin, Administrative Law Judge (ALJ Masin), issued his Initial Decision on February 19, 2019; and

Whereas, the issuance of ALJ Masin's Initial Decision followed multiple days of hearings and the submission of post hearing filings by the parties; and

Whereas, and for the reasons set forth in his Initial Decision, ALJ Masin found that Respondent Varela violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(d), and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(i) in connection with the visitor policy; Respondent Varela violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(d), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(i), and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(j) in relation to the meetings with Mr. Muniz; and Respondent Puccio violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(d) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) when he attended a meeting of the local American Federation of Teachers (AFT); and

Whereas, based on his findings of fact and legal conclusions, ALJ Masin recommended that Respondent Varela be censured, and that Respondent Puccio be suspended for sixty days or, in lieu of suspension (or of some portion thereof), Respondent Puccio be replaced as Board president by another member chosen by the county superintendent; and

Whereas, the Commission received an extension to file its Final Decision until May 20, 2019; and

Whereas, by correspondence dated March 5, 2019, Respondents filed Exceptions to ALJ Masin's Initial Decision; and

Whereas, by correspondence dated March 6, 2019, Complainant filed Exceptions to ALJ Masin's Initial Decision; and

Whereas, at its meeting on March 26, 2019, the Commission reviewed and discussed the record, including the Initial Decision, Respondents' Exceptions, and Complainant's Exceptions, and

Whereas, at its meeting on March 26, 2019, the Commission discussed adopting the findings of fact from the Initial Decision; adopting the legal conclusion that Respondent Varela violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(d), and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(i) in connection with the visitor policy; adopting the legal conclusion that Respondent Varela violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(d), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(i), and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-

24.1(j) in relation to the meetings with Mr. Muniz; and adopting the legal conclusion that Respondent Puccio violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(d) and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) when he attended the local AFT meeting; adopting the recommended penalty of censure for Respondent Varela; and rejecting the recommended penalty of removing Respondent Puccio from his position as Board President; modifying the recommended penalty of suspension for sixty (60) days for Respondent Puccio to suspension for one (1) year; and rejecting the recommendation that, in lieu of suspension, Respondent Puccio should be removed as Board President; and

Whereas, at a special meeting on May 2, 2019, the Commission reviewed and voted to approve the within decision as accurately memorializing its actions/findings from March 26, 2019; and

Now Therefore Be It Resolved, the Commission hereby adopts the within decision as a Final Decision and directs its staff to notify all parties to this action of its decision herein.

Robert W. Bender

Robert W. Bender, Chairperson

I hereby certify that this Resolution was duly adopted by the School Ethics Commission at a special meeting on May 2, 2019.

Kathryn A. Whalen, Director
School Ethics Commission

OAL Dkt. No. EDU 05847-19
Agency Dkt. No. 84-4/19

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Order on Emergent Relief

R.V., on behalf of minor children, D.C., Y.C., and R.O.,

Petitioner,

v.

Board of Education of the Borough of Middlesex, Middlesex County,

Respondent.

The record of this emergent matter, the sound recording of proceedings at the Office of Administrative Law (OAL), and the recommended Order of the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) have been reviewed.[1] In this matter, the petitioner submitted a residency petition challenging the Board's determination that the minor children were ineligible to attend school in the district. The petitioner admitted that she resides in North Plainfield, outside of the Middlesex School District, arguing instead that she does not want her children walking on a dangerous highway to school in North Plainfield. She further explained that given the distance she commutes for work, her mother and brother – who live in Middlesex – serve as emergency contacts while her children are in school. As the petitioner did not allege that she lived in the district, the Department did not accept her petition as a residency appeal, and instead required that she submit a regular petition. The petitioner did so, along with a motion for emergent relief seeking to keep her children in school during the pendency of the proceedings. The ALJ found that the petitioner was entitled to emergent relief.

[1] The Board filed exceptions to the Order on Emergent Relief. However, as N.J.A.C. 1:1-18.4 does not permit exceptions on an Order of Emergent Relief, the Commissioner will not consider the Board's submission.

Upon review, the Commissioner disagrees with the ALJ and finds that the petitioner has failed to demonstrate entitlement to emergent relief pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6 and Crowe v. DeGioia, 90 N.J. 126 (1982). Pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6(b), a grant of emergent relief can only be issued upon a finding that petitioner has met the four-pronged standard set forth in Crowe v. DeGioia, 90 N.J. 126 (1982). Specifically, the party seeking such relief must demonstrate the existence of each of the following: 1) the movant will suffer irreparable harm if the requested relief is not granted; 2) the legal right underlying the movant's claim is settled; 3) the movant has a likelihood of prevailing on the merits of the underlying claim; and 4) when the equities and interests of the parties are balanced, the movant will suffer greater harm than the other party if the requested relief is not granted. N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6(b).

In this matter, the petitioner cannot demonstrate that she has a likelihood of success on the merits. Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1, public school in New Jersey is free to people over 5 and under 20 years of age who are domiciled in a school district. The petitioner openly admitted in the petition and at oral argument that she lives in North Plainfield; therefore, she cannot meet her burden of demonstrating that she is domiciled in Middlesex. As the petitioner must demonstrate all four Crowe factors in order to warrant emergent relief, the Commissioner need not make a determination on the remaining three factors.

Accordingly, the recommended Order of the OAL is rejected, and the petitioner's application for emergent relief is denied. This matter shall continue at the OAL with such proceedings as the parties and ALJ deem necessary to bring it to closure.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

Date of Decision: 6/18/19
Date of Mailing: 6/19/19

State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

ORDER ON EMERGENT RELIEF

R.V., ON BEHALF OF,
MINOR CHILDREN, D.C., Y.C., AND R.O.,
Petitioner,
v.
BOARD OF EDUCATION, BOROUGH OF MIDDLESEX, MIDDLESEX COUNTY,
Respondent.

OAL DKT. NO. EDU 05847-19
AGENCY DKT. NO. 84-4/19

R.V., petitioner, pro se

Anthony P. Sciarrillo, Esq., and Scott D. Zucker, Esq., for respondent (Sciarrillo, Cornell, Merlino, McKeever & Osborne, LLC, attorneys)

BEFORE TRICIA M. CALIGUIRE, ALJ:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner R.V., on behalf of minor children, D.C., Y.C. and R.O., challenges the decision of respondent Board of Education of the Borough of Middlesex, Middlesex County (Board), that her children are not domiciled in the Borough of Middlesex school district (District) and, therefore, must be transferred to the North Plainfield school district, and to assess R.V. tuition for the period of time the children attended District schools but were not domiciled in the District, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b)(2). In the current proceeding, petitioner seeks an order for emergent relief from the Board's decision, permitting the children to remain in the District schools for the remainder of the 2018-2019 school year.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On April 3, 2019, petitioner filed a pro se residency appeal with the Office of Controversies and Disputes of the New Jersey Department of Education (Department). This appeal was returned to petitioner by the Department because her children do not live in the District. Accordingly, pursuant to the directions provided by the Department, petitioner filed petitions of appeal on April 22 and 29, 2019, along with a request for emergent relief. On April 29, 2019, the emergent matter along with the petition of appeal was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law (OAL). The emergent relief request was scheduled for oral argument, which was held on May 8, 2019.[1] The motion for emergent relief is now ripe for consideration.

FACTUAL DISCUSSION

Most of the pertinent facts in this case are not in dispute. R.V. and her three children lived with R.V.'s mother within the District at the beginning of the 2018-2019 school year. Two of the three are general education students; D.C. is in the eighth grade and R.O. is in the first grade. The third child, Y.C., is in the sixth grade and receives special education services.

On or about November 2018, R.V. signed a lease on an apartment in North Plainfield. On or about January 29, 2019, a District staff member reported that R.O. stated that he no longer lived in the District and, as a result, Mathew Benderoth (Benderoth), residency investigator for the Borough of Middlesex, was assigned to investigate whether R.V.'s three children are residents of the Borough. Certification of Mathew J. Benderoth (May 6, 2019). Based on the surveillance he conducted at the family's address of record, a February 14, 2019, discussion with R.V., and an email R.V. sent to Benderoth on February 22, 2019, Benderoth concluded that the family no longer resided in the Borough of Middlesex. Id., Exs. A and B.

Following written notices to petitioner that her children were not eligible to attend the District schools due to her change of residency from Middlesex Borough to North Plainfield, the Board conducted a residency hearing on March 25, 2019. Certification of [1] Following oral argument, the parties engaged in limited and unsuccessful settlement discussions.

Linda A. Madison, Ed.D. (Madison) (May 6, 2019), Exs. B, C and D. On March 28, 2019, the Board sent written notice to petitioner of its determination that her children are ineligible to attend the District schools. Id., Ex. F. In this letter, the Board stated that petitioner had twenty-one days (by April 18, 2019) to appeal the decision of the Board, and should she so appeal, her children would be permitted to remain in the District schools during the pendency of the appeal. Ibid.

Petitioner's first attempt to appeal the Board's decision, filed on April 3, 2019, was returned by the Department, as described above. Petitioner's appeal was accepted by the Department on April 29, 2019, and received by the Board on April 30, 2019. On April 29, 2019, the Board refused to allow petitioner's children to attend school; the respective schools contacted petitioner to pick up her children. She did so and as of May 8, 2019, the children had not been permitted to return to the District schools.[2]

Petitioner has not yet enrolled her children in the North Plainfield schools, nor has she formally dis-enrolled them from the District. Since April 29, 2019, the children have been spending school days with their grandmother.

The preceding is not in dispute; accordingly, I FIND the preceding as FACTS.

Based on the documentary evidence and oral arguments, I FIND that petitioner raised some dispute as to R.V.'s subsequent address(es) and the date on which the children no longer resided in the Borough of Middlesex. She disputes the January 2019, statements attributed to her son, R.O., about moving to a new apartment. She stated that on or about February 2019, she had moved her children from her mother's apartment to live with her brother in a separate apartment in the Borough of Middlesex. Yet, in an e-mail dated February 22, 2019, R.V. stated that her children were living in North Plainfield. See, Madison Cert., Ex. A. Finally, at oral argument, R.V. confirmed that she drives her children to school each day on her way to a job in the Borough of Middlesex.

[2] On May 8, 2019, Madison sent written notice to R.V. that her children would be permitted to attend school on May 9, 2019, pending this decision and/or a settlement. E-mail from Madison to R.V. (May 8, 2019, at 4:16 p.m.). R.V. chose not to send her children to school on May 9, 2019.

LEGAL ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSIONS

The standards which must be met by the moving party in an application for emergent relief are embodied in N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6(b), and Crowe v. DeGoia, 90 N.J. 126, 132-34 (1982). Emergency relief may only be granted if the judge determines that petitioner has proved all of the following:

1. The petitioner will suffer irreparable harm if the relief is not granted;

2. The legal right underlying the petitioner's claim is settled;

3. The petitioner has a likelihood of prevailing on the merits of the underlying claim; and

4. When the equities and interests of the parties are balanced, the petitioner will suffer greater harm than the respondent will suffer if the requested relief is not granted.

Regarding the requirement that the petitioner must show that irreparable harm will result if emergent relief is not granted, "irreparable harm" is defined as the type of harm "that cannot be redressed adequately by monetary damages." Crowe, 90 N.J. at 132-33. In addition, the irreparable harm standard contemplates that the harm be both substantial and immediate. Subcarrier Communications v. Day, 229 N.J. Super. 634, 638 (App. Div. 1977). The threshold standard for irreparable harm in education is showing that once something is lost, it cannot be regained. M.L. ex rel. S.L. v. Bd. of Educ. of Ewing, EDU 4949-09, Initial Decision (June 15, 2009), modified, Acting Comm'r (June 15, 2009), http://njlaw.rutgers.edu/collections/oal/. Since money damages are not available in education cases, and compensatory education is the only relief available, the analysis to be used is that if compensatory education, provided at a later date, cannot remedy the situation, then the harm is irreparable. Howell Twp. Bd. of Educ. v. A.I. & J.I. ex rel. S.I., EDU 5433-12, Order Granting Emergent Relief (May 2, 2012).

In her petition of appeal, R.V. described the irreparable harm that could result should her children be forced to enroll in the North Plainfield schools. Should an emergency situation arise during the school day, R.V. posits that the children will be in danger because she works some distance from the schools in North Plainfield (but close to the Borough of Middlesex schools) and the children will be left on their own as R.V.'s mother and brother (her emergency contacts) live in Middlesex. Although I disagree that this speculative event satisfies the irreparable harm standard, I note that the action taken by the Board may in fact result in irreparable harm as the children are currently not in school.

In New Jersey, the obligation of each school district to provide free and appropriate public education generally extends only to those children domiciled within the district and, therefore:

> [I]f in the judgment of the board the parent or guardian is not domiciled within the district or the child is not kept in the home of another person domiciled within the school district and supported by him gratis as if the child was the person's own child . . . the board may order the transfer or removal of the child from school. The parent or guardian may contest the board's decision before the commissioner within 21 days of the date of the decision and shall be entitled to an expedited hearing before the commissioner and shall have the burden of proof by a preponderance of the evidence that the child is eligible for a free education under the criteria listed in this subsection. The board of education shall, at the time of its decision, notify the parent or guardian in writing of his right to contest the decision within 21 days. No child shall be removed from school during the 21-day period in which the parent may contest the board's decision or during the pendency of the proceedings before the commissioner.
>
> [N.J.S.A. § 18A:38-1 (emphasis added).]

As petitioner stated, the Board "kicked the kids out" of school on April 29, 2019. Even if we concede that the Board acted appropriately given that it did not have notice of petitioner's appeal until the next day, the Board received notice of petitioner's appeal the next day and only after questioning at oral argument did the Board notify petitioner that her children are welcome back into their respective classrooms. The intent of the law is to prevent the exact situation that has resulted here: three children, one of whom receives special education services, are not in school anywhere. The Board has ignored the procedure the Legislature established to protect children from losing academic ground during the course of a residency dispute.

I CONCLUDE that the action of the Board to refuse entry to D.C., Y.C. and R.O. during the pendency of petitioner's appeal is a violation of N.J.S.A. § 18A:38-1, will result in irreparable harm to D.C., Y.C. and R.O., and must be reversed immediately.

To grant a motion for emergent relief in advance of a plenary hearing, a judge also must be satisfied that "[t]he legal right underlying petitioner's claim is settled [and] that petitioner has a likelihood of prevailing on the merits of the underlying claims." N.J.A.C. 6A:3-1.6(b)(2), (3). As stated above, children have the right to a free and appropriate public education in the district in which they are domiciled. N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(a). If, however, R.V. cannot produce evidence to prove that her children actually remained in the District, she will be responsible to pay "the resident tuition for the student prorated to the time of [each] student's ineligible attendance in the school district." N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1(b)(1).

Petitioner claims that she did not move the children to North Plainfield on a permanent basis ever and, therefore, never changed their permanent residence. She claims to have taken a lease on an apartment in North Plainfield in November 2018, and shortly thereafter began the process of moving her belongings from her mother's overcrowded apartment. Prior to taking this apartment, R.V. stated that she had to rent a storage unit and was therefore able to save on that expense. On or about February 2019, the landlord threatened R.V.'s mother with eviction and, therefore, R.V. moved her children to her brother's apartment, also in the Borough of Middlesex.

Despite this explanation given by petitioner at oral argument, the fact remains that she documented that her address is now in North Plainfield and that she is trying to save money so that she can rent her own place in the Borough of Middlesex. In her April 29, 2019, petition to the Department, R.V. stated that "we live on Route 22" in North Plainfield. Petitioner may provide evidence in the plenary hearing that her children remained in the Borough of Middlesex with family members during the entirety of the 2018-2019 school year (to date), such as notices sent regarding a change of address to her brother's apartment, or that she has been homeless during this time; I am not able to conclude that petitioner has not demonstrated a likelihood of prevailing on the merits.

The final prong of the above test is whether the equities and interests of the parties weigh in favor of granting the requested relief. The petitioner argues that her older son will suffer by missing out on the graduation ceremony planned for eighth graders, but the Board conceded at oral argument that D.C. would in fact be permitted to participated in the "promotion ceremony." Most significant is that R.V.'s daughter, Y.C., receives special education services under an Individual Education Program and, according to R.V., had recently begun to show progress.

Respondent spoke of the harm to the taxpayers of the Borough of Middlesex, who would essentially be funding the education of three children who do not live in the District. This is a strong argument; the taxpayers trust the Board to make fiscally responsible decisions, to keep costs as low as possible, and to ensure continued strong academic performance by the students.

It is not lost on me that R.V. has, at best, trouble keeping her story straight. In the end, though, her three children are most likely to suffer. Of course, as a parent R.V. wants her children in the strongest academic environment that she can find. But, she seems not to understand that academic performance is enhanced by a stable home environment. Moving multiple times during the school year from one overcrowded place to another, commuting long distances and being warned not to disclose their address to peers and teachers cannot be good for these children. However, given that the school year ends in just six weeks, and enrolling in a new district will introduce a whole new set of challenges to D.C., Y.C. and R.O., I CONCLUDE that the children will suffer greater harm should emergent relief not be granted than the Board will suffer if the requested relief is granted.

Therefore, I CONCLUDE that petitioner has shown that her children will be irreparably harmed by the continuing loss of academic instruction if emergent relief is not granted and that the legal rights underlying this claim are settled. I further CONCLUDE that there is an

APPENDIX

LIST OF EXHIBITS

For Petitioner:

None

For Respondent:

R-1 Respondent's Letter Brief in Opposition to Petitioner's Application for Emergent Relief, dated May 6, 2019

R-2 Certification of Scott D. Zucker, Esq., dated May 9, 2019

open question as to whether petitioner will prevail on the merits. Finally, I CONCLUDE that when the equities and interests of the parties are balanced, the petitioner's children will suffer greater harm should emergent relief not be granted than the respondent will suffer if the requested relief is granted. I therefore CONCLUDE that petitioner's request for emergency relief must be GRANTED.

ORDER

Based upon the foregoing, it is hereby ORDERED that respondent shall permit D.C., Y.C., and R.O. to immediately rejoin their respective classrooms in the District schools pending a final decision by the Commissioner of the Department of Education on petitioner's underlying appeal of the Board's decision that her children are not eligible to attend the Borough of Middlesex schools, and assessing her tuition for each child from the date on which they moved from the Borough of Middlesex to North Plainfield.

This order on application for emergency relief may be adopted, modified or rejected by the COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, who by law is authorized to make a final decision in this matter. The final decision shall be issued without undue delay, but no later than forty-five days following the entry of this order. If the Commissioner of the Department of Education does not adopt, modify or reject this decision within forty-five days and unless such time limit is otherwise extended, this recommended decision shall become a final decision in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-10.

May 9, 2019
DATE

TRICIA M. CALIGUIRE, ALJ

Date Received at Agency: May 9, 2019

Date Mailed to Parties: May 9, 2019
TMC/nd

155-19

New Jersey Commissioner of Education

Final Decision

M.S. and N.S., on behalf of minor child, J.S.,

Petitioners,

v.

Board of Education of the Township of Hainesport, Burlington County,

Respondent,

and

J.M. and D.M., on behalf of minor child, J.M.,

Intervenors.

Synopsis

Petitioners challenged the finding of the respondent Board that their son, J.S., engaged in conduct against a fellow student, J.M., that violated the New Jersey Anti-Bullying Bill of Rights Act (the Act), N.J.S.A. 18A:37-13 et seq. The Act prohibits harassment, intimidation and bullying (HIB) arising from certain defined motivations. Petitioners sought a determination that the Board's decision was arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable, contending that the conduct at issue was part of a longstanding and ongoing conflict between J.S. and J.M., and did not constitute an instance of bullying within the statutory definition of HIB. The respondent Board filed a motion for summary decision; opposing motions for summary decision were filed by the petitioners and the intervenors.

The ALJ found, inter alia, that: there are no material facts in dispute here, and the matter is ripe for summary decision; the record establishes that J.S. and J.M. have had conflicts with each other since the first grade; ongoing unresolved conflict between two students does not necessarily fall within the statutory definition of HIB; however, a backdrop of such ongoing conflict does not insulate the conduct under review from being properly determined to be in violation of the Act; in the instant matter, J.S. admitted that he called J.M. "weak", and student witnesses corroborated that J.S. also referred to J.M. as a "weakling," during an incident in seventh grade wherein J.S. tried to slam down the lid of J.M.'s Chromebook during class; such a comment, especially during a physical confrontation, could reasonably cause embarrassment to the recipient of the remarks. The ALJ concluded that the Board was not arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable in determining that J.S. engaged in conduct that violated the Act, nor were the sanctions imposed upon J.S. for his behavior inappropriate. Accordingly, the ALJ ordered that petitioners' appeal be denied.

