Governor Teaches Fourth Graders in Pompton Lakes

Gov. Christie Whitman tomorrow will teach fourth graders in Pompton Lakes. The Governor is fulfilling her promise to spend time each month in a classroom sharing her experiences, adding a personal touch to the New Jersey history that is a part of fourth grade curriculum around the state.

The Governor will lead a discussion about the USS New Jersey and will join students in a conference call with a correspondent from the tugboat pulling the battleship back to New Jersey.
