NEW JERSEY SUPREME COURT:

As yet of the Term of July, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and forty seven.

Witness, HENRY W. GREEN, Esq., Chief Justice. JAMES WILSON Clerk.

MIDDLESEX COUNTY, ss.

JOHN DEN puts in his place William H. Leupp, his attorney, against Jeremiah W. Blydenburgh, Julianna Blydenburgh, Eliza Blydenburgh and Julianna Blydenburgh, in a plea of trespass and ejectment.

Middlesex, to wit:—Jeremiah W. Blydenburgh, Julianna Blydenburgh, Eliza Blydenburgh and Julianna Blydenburgh, put in their place Robert Adrian, their attorney, at the suit of John Den, in a plea of trespass and ejectment.

Middlesex County, ss:—John Den complains of Jeremiah W. Blydenburgh, Julianna Blydenburgh, Eliza Blydenburgh and Julianna Blydenburgh, in the custody of the Sheriff of the County of Middlesex, for this, to wit: That, whereas Henry Cotheal and David Cotheal, on the first day of May, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, at South Amboy, in the County of Middlesex, had demised, sett and to farm let to the aforesaid John Den, two messuages, two tenements, two barns, two orchards, one garden, one hundred and fifty acres of arable land, one hundred and fifty acres of pasture land, one hundred and fifty acres of meadow land, and one hundred and fifty acres of wood land, with their appurtenances, situate, lying and being in the township of South Amboy, in the county aforesaid, now or late in the tenure or occupation of Jeremiah W. Blydenburgh and Julianna Blydenburgh, to have and hold the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, unto the said John Den and his assigns, from the first day of May aforesaid, for, during, and until the full end and term of ten years, thence next ensuing, and fully to be completed and ended, by virtue of which demise the said John Den entered into the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, and was thereof possessed until the said Jeremiah W. Blydenburgh, Julianna Blydenburgh, Eliza Blydenburgh and Julianna Blydenburgh, on the second day of the same month of May, with force and arms, &c., entered on the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, in and upon the possession of the said John Den, and ejected, drove out, and removed the said John Den from his said farm, his said term not being yet ended; and kept out and still keeps out the said John Den, so ejected, drove out and removed from his said possession, and then and there did other injuries to the said John Den, against the peace of this State, and to the damage of the said John Den, five hundred dollars; and therefore he brings suit, &c. And the said Jeremiah W., Julianna, Eliza and Julianna Blydenburgh, by R. Adrian, their attorney, come and defend the force and injury, when, &c., and say that they are not guilty of the trespass and ejectment above laid to their charge, in manner and form as the said John Den hath above thereof complained against them; and of this they put themselves upon the country, and the said John Den doth so likewise. Therefore, let a jury thereupon come before the Chief Justice or some other Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of New Jersey, at a Circuit Court to be holden at New Brunswick, in and for the County of Middlesex, on the second Tuesday of December, in the year of our Lord, eighteen hundred and forty-seven, by whom, &c.; and the same day is given to the parties aforesaid, then, &c. And now at this day, to wit, the first Tuesday in January, in the year of our Lord, eighteen hundred and forty-eight, before our said Supreme Court at Trenton, come the plaintiffs by their attorney aforesaid, and the said Justice before whom, &c., having sent hither his record, had before him, in these words to wit:

Afterwards, to wit, on the fourteenth day of December, in the year of our Lord, eighteen hundred and forty-seven, at a Circuit Court held at New Brunswick, in and for the County of Middlesex, by the Hon. James S. Nevius, one of the Justices of the Supreme Court of Judicature of the State of New Jersey, came the said John Den and the said Jeremiah W. Blydenburgh, Julianna Blydenburgh, Eliza Blydenburgh and Julianna Blydenburgh, by their aforesaid respective attorneys, and the jurors of the jury whereof, &c., being summoned, also come, who being duly elected, tried and sworn to speak the truth of the matters within contained, on their oath say, that the said Jeremiah W. Blydenburgh, Julianna Blydenburgh, Eliza Blydenburgh and Julianna Blydenburgh, are guilty of the trespass and ejectment within laid to their charge, in manner and form as the said John Den has within complained against them; and they assess the damages of the said John Den, on occasion of the trespass and ejectment aforesaid, over and above his costs and charges by him about his suit, in this behalf expended, to six cents, and for those costs and charges, to six cents.

Therefore, it is considered that the said John Den do recover against the said Jeremiah W. Blydenburgh, Julianna Blydenburgh, Eliza Blydenburgh and Julianna Blydenburgh, his said term yet to come of and in the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, together with his damages to six cents, by the jurors, in form aforesaid found, and also sixty dollars and eighteen cents for his costs and charges by the said Court, now here adjudged of increase to the said John Den and with his assent; and hereupon the said John Den prays the writ of the State of New Jersey to be directed to the Sheriff of the County of Middlesex aforesaid, to cause him to have possession of his said term yet to come of and in the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, and it is granted to him returnable, &c. Judgment signed this fourth day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight.

HENRY W. GREEN.

I, James Wilson, Clerk of the Supreme Court of New Jersey, do hereby certify, that the foregoing is a true transcript, from the record, of the judgment and proceedings in the above stated cause.

Witness my hand and seal, of the said Court at Trenton, this fifteenth day of (L. S.) January, A. D., eighteen hundred and forty-eight.

J. WILSON, Clerk.

IN THE COURT OF ERRORS AND APPEALS.

JEREMIAH W. BLYDENBURGH, JULIANNA BLYDENBURGH, ELIZABETH R. BLYDENBURGH, JULIANNA BLYDENBURGH, SEN., vs. JOHN DEN, on the demise of HENRY COTHEAL and DAVID COTHEAL.

Afterwards, to wit, on this same term of January, one thousand eight hundred and Forty-eight, before the Justices of the said Court of Errors and Appeals of the State of New Jersey, at the State House in the city of Trenton; come the said Jeremiah W. Blydenburgh, Juliana Blydenburgh, Elizabeth R. Blydenburgh, and Juliana Blydenburgh, Senior, Plaintiffs in Error, in proper person, and say; that in the Record and proceedings aforesaid, and also in giving the judgment aforesaid, there is manifest Error in this, to wit.

That by the Record aforesaid it appears, that the judgment aforesaid, in form aforesaid given, was given for the said John Den on the Demise of the said Henry Cotheal and David Cotheal, against the said Jeremiah W. Blydenburgh, Juliana Blydenburgh, Elizabeth R. Blydenburgh, and Juliana Blydenburgh, senior, whereas, by the law of the land, the said judgment ought to have been given for the said Jeremiah Blydenburgh, Juliana Blydenburgh, Elizabeth R. Blydenburgh, and Juliana Blydenburgh, Senior, against the said John Den on the Demise of the said Henry Cotheal and David Cotheal.

There is also Error in this, to wit, that by the Record aforesaid it appears that on the Trial of the issue joined in this cause at a Circuit Court, held in and for the county of Middlesex, on the 20th day of December, in the year One Thousand Eight Hundred and Forty-seven, a general and absolute verdict was given for the said John Den on the demise aforesaid, against the said Plaintiffs in Error, and that no points were reserved for, and such verdict was in no way taken subject to the opinion of said Supreme Court; nevertheless, in truth and in fact, at the said Trial of the issue aforesaid, the points hereinafter mentioned were taken and said verdict given subject to the opinion of said Supreme Court thereon, and generally the proceedings following were had.

The said John Den on the demise aforesaid, by his said counsel, introduced and offered in evidence.

First. The record of a certain deed, dated the day of A. D., 1847, made by John S. Blauvelt, one of the masters of the Court of Chancery of this State, reciting the decree and execution hereinafter mentioned and the sale made in pursuance thereof to said Henry and David, whereby was granted and conveyed to said Henry and David the premises aforesaid.

Second. The record of the proceedings in a certain suit in the Court of Chancery of the State of New Jersey, wherein said Henry and David were complainants, and said Jeremiah Blydenburgh and Juliana Blydenburgh, Charles Wardsworth, Nathaniel Witheral, Barnaby Hedge, and Obadiah Holmes, were defendants, which record, among other things, recited a decree of foreclosure, made in said last mentioned cause, on the day of September, A. D. 1845, by the Hon. Oliver S. Halstead, Chancellor of the State of New Jersey, and also an order made by the said Chancellor, and dated on the 29th day of January, A. D. 1847, which said order recited a decree made by this Court, on an appeal from the said Chancellor's decree to this Court, by said Jeremiah and Juliana, on the 28th day of said January, 1847, whereby the said Chancellor's decree was in all things affirmed, which said order directed that thereupon execution do issue immediately.

Thirdly. The execution issued by virtue of said order, and an endorsement thereon showing the same to have been issued, and on the 9th day of February, A. D. 1847, to have been received by the said Master in Chancery, to whom the same was directed; and Fourthly. Proved by Samuel Gordon, a witness, that the Plaintiffs in Error herein, were then in possession of the premises aforesaid.

Whereupon said John Den, on the demise aforesaid, without offering or introducing any other evidence, rested his said cause.

Whereupon said defendants, the plaintiffs in error, moved said Circuit Court to nonsuit said plaintiffs, and made in support of their said motion, the points following, to wit:

First Point. That the defendants in error took no title by said Master's Deed, on the sale made, in pursuance of the said execution. Because

Said execution, as appeared by the record and evidence introduced, and the plaintiff's own showing, was issued within the term of ten entire days, exclusive of Sundays, after the rendition of the decree of the Court of Errors, by virtue of which it issued to enforce said Chancellor's decree, thereby affirmed. And further, that it so likewise appeared that said Court of Errors, was the highest court of law and equity, in said State.

For by the twenty-third section of the act of Congress of the United States, entitled "an act to establish the judicial courts of the United States," passed September 24, 1789, it is provided:

That a writ of error, issued out of the Supreme Court of the United States, to any Circuit Court thereof, shall be a supersedeas, and stay execution in cases only where the writ of error shall be served in the manner therein prescribed, within ten days, Sundays exclusive, after rendering the judgment or passing the decree complained of. Until the expiration of which term of ten days, execution shall not issue in any case where a writ of error may be a supersedeas.

That such writ of error may be a supersedeas in all cases in which it can be issued and served, within the time and manner aforesaid.

That such writ may be so issued and served, in all cases in which it may issue at all.

Hence, that it follows in all cases in which a Writ of Error may issue from said Supreme Court of the United States to any Circuit Court thereof, no execution shall issue to enforce the judgment or decree of such Circuit Court complained of, until the expiration of ten days as aforesaid.

That by the twenty-fifth section of the same act, it is further provided, that in the cases therein mentioned, the final judgment or decree in any suit in the highest court of law or equity of a State in which a decision could be had, may be examined and reversed, or affirmed in said Supreme Court of the United States upon a writ of Error, such writ being issued as therein provided, in the same manner and under the same regulation; and such writ shall have the same effect as if the judgment or decree complained of had been rendered or passed in any Circuit Court of the United States.

That said cause, wherein a decree was made as aforesaid in this Court, came within the cases provided in said twenty-fifth section, and that in any case a writ of Error would lie from the Supreme Court of the United States to this Court, to determine whether the judgment or decree complained of came within the cases provided for in said twenty-fifth section or not.

That since no execution could lawfully issue to enforce said decree of this Court, made on the twenty-eighth day of January, 1847, until the expiration of the term of ten days (Sundays exclusive) thereafter, and

That any such execution, and that under the sale made, by virtue whereof the said John Den, on the demise aforesaid claimed, was such execution—was the process of a State Court, which conflicted with a law of the United States, and therefore wholly void.

Second Point.—That even were said execution valid, and did said John Den, on the demise aforesaid, become entitled by virtue of the sale made in pursuance of said execution, to the title, which said Jeremiah W. Blydenburgh, Julianna Blydenburgh, Charles Wardsworth, Nathaniel Wetheral, Barnabas Hedge and Obadiah Holmes, had, on the day of the date of the mortgage in said foreclosure suit, wherein they were defendants mentioned to premises aforesaid: that said defendants would not be entitled to recover against any of the defendants, the plaintiffs in error, herein other than said Jeremiah W. B. and Julianna, the possession of the said premises, because:

The said John Den, on the demise aforesaid, offered no evidence to show, and that it no where appeared that the said Jeremiah, Julianna, Wardsworth, Wetheral, Hedge and Holmes did, at the date of said mortgage, either occupy or hold said premises by good title thereto, or that the defendants, plaintiffs in error, herein other than said Julianna and Jeremiah, that is to say: said Elizabeth R. and Julianna, sen., might not have, and had not entered, or did not then hold said premises by title, paramount to that which said defendants in said foreclosure suit, had at the date of the mortgage aforesaid, or might since then have acquired.

Whereupon said Circuit Judge refused to decide the said points raised by the said defendants, plaintiffs in Error, and the nonsuit moved for thereon, but directed that a verdict be and the same was taken for the said John Den on the said demise subject to the opinion of the said Supreme Court of New Jersey, on the points submitted by the defendants, now plaintiffs in error, with leave to turn the same into a case made, or a bill of exceptions.

Nevertheless, there is no record, minute or reference to said proceedings, evidence, motion, ruling or points on said record; therefore, in that there is manifest error.

There is also error in this, to wit: that upon said points reserved as aforesaid, a motion was made before the justices of said Supreme Court, on the sixth day of January, in the year eighteen hundred and forty-eight, by the plaintiffs in Error herein, for a rule on the said John Den, on the demise aforesaid, to show cause why the judgment of the said Supreme Court should not be rendered for the plaintiffs in Error, notwithstanding the verdict so taken at said Circuit Court. That upon such motion for a rule, the verdict so taken at the Circuit Court was admitted and argued by the counsel for the defendants in Error, as having been taken subject to the opinion of the said Supreme Court, upon such motion for a nonsuit; and the points by said defendants then submitted and reserved, which said points and their reservation, and the fact that motion for a nonsuit was denied as aforesaid, were, on said motion to the Supreme Court for the rule aforesaid, also admitted and argued by the counsel for said defendants in Error, and said motion for a rule was thereupon by said Supreme Court denied.

Yet, nevertheless, neither said points reserved as aforesaid, nor the proceedings at the Circuit aforesaid, nor the said points and proceedings admitted and argued before said Supreme Court, any where appear in the record of said Court, returned to the said writ of Error; nor that said motion for a rule was ever made, argued and admitted to be founded on the said reserved points, and in that there is manifest error. Thereupon said plaintiffs in Error pray a writ of the State of New Jersey to be directed to the Justices of the said Supreme Court, to certify to the Judges of this Court the foregoing facts and proceedings.

And the said plaintiffs in Error pray, that the judgment aforesaid for the errors aforesaid, and other errors in the record and proceedings aforesaid, may be reversed, annulled, and altogether held for nothing; and that the said plaintiffs in Error may be restored to all things which they have lost by occasion of the said judgment.

JOHN DEN, ex. dem. HENRY COTHEAL and DAVID COTHEAL, vs. JEREMIAH W. BLYDENBURGH, JULIANA BLYDENBURGH, ELIZABETH R. BLYDENBURGH, and JULIANA BLYDENBURGH, SEN.

The issue joined in this cause, came on to be tried, before a Circuit Court for the county of Middlesex, on the 20th day of December, 1847. Whereupon:

The said John Den on the demise aforesaid, by his said counsel, introduced and offered in evidence.

First. The record of a certain deed, dated the 1st day of May, A. D., 1847, made by John S. Blauvelt, one of the masters of the Court of Chancery of this State, reciting the decree and execution hereinafter mentioned and the sale made in pursuance thereof to said Henry and David, whereby was granted and conveyed to said Henry and David the premises aforesaid.

Second. The record of the proceedings in a certain suit in the Court of Chancery of the State of New Jersey, wherein said Henry and David were complainants, and said Jeremiah Blydenburgh and Juliana Blydenburgh, Charles Wardsworth, Nathaniel Witheral, Barnaby Hedge, and Obadiah Holmes, were defendants, which record, among other things, recited a decree of foreclosure, made in said last mentioned cause, on the 16th day of September, A. D. 1845, by the Hon. Oliver S. Halstead, Chancellor of the State of New Jersey, and also an order made by the said Chancellor, and dated on the 29th day of January, A. D. 1847, which said order recited a decree made by this Court, on an appeal from the said Chancellor's decree to this Court, by said Jeremiah and Juliana, on the 28th day of said January, 1847, whereby the said Chancellor's decree was in all things affirmed, which said order directed that thereupon execution do issue immediately.

Thirdly. The execution issued by virtue of said order, and an endorsement thereon showing the same to have been issued, and on the 9th day of February, A. D. 1847, to have been received by the said Master in Chancery, to whom the same was directed; and Fourthly. Proved by Samuel Gordon, a witness, that the Plaintiffs in Error herein, were then in possession of the premises aforesaid.

Whereupon said John Den, on the demise aforesaid, without offering or introducing any other evidence, rested his said cause.

Whereupon said defendants, the plaintiffs in error, moved said Circuit Court to nonsuit said plaintiffs, and made in support of their said motion, the points following, to wit:

First Point. That the defendants in error took no title by said Master's Deed, on the sale made, in pursuance of the said execution. Because

Said execution, as appeared by the record and evidence introduced, and the plaintiff's own showing, was issued within the term of ten entire days, exclusive of Sundays, after the rendition of the decree of the Court of Errors, by virtue of which it issued to enforce said Chancellor's decree, thereby affirmed. And further, that it so likewise appeared that said Court of Errors, was the highest court of law and equity, in said State.

For by the twenty-third section of the act of Congress of the United States, entitled "an act to establish the judicial courts of the United States," passed September 24, 1789, it is provided:

That a writ of error, issued out of the Supreme Court of the United States, to any Circuit Court thereof, shall be a supersedeas, and stay execution in cases only where the writ of error shall be served in the manner therein prescribed, within ten days, Sundays exclusive, after rendering the judgment or passing the decree complained of. Until the expiration of which term of ten days, execution shall not issue in any case where a writ of error may be a supersedeas.

That such writ of error may be a supersedeas in all cases in which it can be issued and served, within the time and manner aforesaid.

That such writ may be so issued and served, in all cases in which it may issue at all.

Hence, that it follows in all cases in which a Writ of Error may issue from said Supreme Court of the United States to any Circuit Court thereof, no execution shall issue to enforce the judgment or decree of such Circuit Court complained of, until the expiration of ten days as aforesaid.

That by the twenty-fifth section of the same act, it is further provided, that in the cases therein mentioned, the final judgment or decree in any suit in the highest court of law or equity of a State in which a decision could be had, may be examined and reversed, or affirmed in said Supreme Court of the United States upon a writ of Error, such writ being issued as therein provided, in the same manner and under the same regulation; and such writ shall have the same effect as if the judgment or decree complained of had been rendered or passed in any Circuit Court of the United States.

That said cause, wherein a decree was made as aforesaid in this Court, came within the cases provided in said twenty-fifth section, and that in any case a writ of Error would lie from the Supreme Court of the United States to this Court, to determine whether the judgment or decree complained of came within the cases provided for in said twenty-fifth section or not.

That since no execution could lawfully issue to enforce said decree of this Court, made on the twenty-eighth day of January, 1847, until the expiration of the term of ten days (Sundays exclusive) thereafter, and

That any such execution, and that under the sale made, by virtue whereof the said John Den, on the demise aforesaid claimed, was such execution—was the process of a State Court, which conflicted with a law of the United States, and therefore wholly void.

Blydenburgh, Julianna Blydenburgh, Charles Wardsworth, Nathaniel Wetheral, Barnabas Hedge and Obadiah Holmes, had, on the day of the date of the mortgage in said foreclosure suit, wherein they were defendants mentioned to premises aforesaid: that said defendants would not be entitled to recover against any of the defendants, the plaintiffs in error, herein other than said Jeremiah W. B. and Julianna, the possession of the said premises, because:

The said John Den, on the demise aforesaid, offered no evidence to show, and that it no where appeared that the said Jeremiah, Julianna, Wardsworth, Wetheral, Hedge and Holmes did, at the date of said mortgage, either occupy or hold said premises by good title thereto, or that the defendants, plaintiffs in error, herein other than said Juliana and Jeremiah, that is to say: said Elizabeth R. and Julianna, sen., might not have, and had not entered, or did not then hold said premises by title, paramount to that which said defendants in said foreclosure suit, had at the date of the mortgage aforesaid, or might since then have acquired.

Whereupon the presiding Judge at said Circuit Court, denied the motion for a nonsuit but reserved the points upon which such motion was made, for the consideration of the Supreme Court, on the coming in of the Postea.

JAMES S. NEVIUS.

I, Samuel R. Gummere, Clerk of the Court of Chancery of the State of New Jersey, do hereby certify that the papers used in the Court of Errors and Appeals, of said State, in the case wherein Henry Cotheal and David Cotheal were complainants, and Jeremiah W. Blydenburgh, Juliana Blydenburgh, Charles Wadsworth, Nathaniel Wetherel, Junior, Barnabas Hedge, and Obadiah Holmes, of, in, to and out of the same, as may be needful and necessary for the purpose, be sold to pay and satisfy unto the said complainants the sum of eight thousand and forty-six dollars and ninety-four cents, the principal and interest, secured by a certain mortgage given by Jeremiah W. Blydenburgh to the said complainants, bearing date the eighth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, together with lawful interest thereon, from the twenty-second day of July, eighteen hundred and forty-five, until the same be paid and satisfied; and also the costs of the said complainants, with interest from the date of said decree; and that for that purpose a writ of Fieri Facias should issue, directed to John S. Blauvelt, Master as aforesaid, commanding him to make sale as aforesaid, and that the surplus money arising from such sale, if any there be, should be brought into the said Court, subject to the further order of the said Court, as by the said decree remaining as of record, in our said Court of Chancery, at Trenton, doth and may more fully appear: and whereas the defendants, Jeremiah W. Blydenburgh and Juliana Blydenburgh, appealed from the said decree, and our Court of Errors and Appeals have affirmed the said decree in all things, and ordered their record to be remitted to our said Court of Chancery, to be proceeded in according to law; and our Chancellor has made an order, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of January, A. D. 1847, directing that a writ of Fieri Facias should forthwith issue for the sale of the said premises, according to the aforesaid decree, and directing that the costs of the said order should be included in the said taxed costs of the complainants; and whereas the costs of the said complainants have been duly taxed at one hundred and thirty-seven dollars and ninety-seven cents; therefore, you are hereby commanded, that you cause to be made of the premises aforesaid, by selling so much thereof, as may be needful and necessary for the purpose, the said sum of eight thousand and forty-six dollars and ninety-four cents, together with lawful interest thereon, as aforesaid; and also the said sum of one hundred and thirty-seven dollars and ninety-seven cents of costs, with interest thereon, as aforesaid; and that you have those moneys before our said Chancellor, in our Court of Chancery aforesaid, at Trenton, on the third Tuesday of March next, to render to the said complainants, and also the surplus money, if any there be, to abide the further order of our said Court, according to the decree aforesaid. And you are to make return at the time and place aforesaid by certificate, under your hand, of the manner in which you shall have executed this our writ, together with this writ.

Witness, OLIVER S. HALSTED, Esquire, our Chancellor, at Trenton aforesaid, this ninth day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven.
