

Multilingual Public Notice: State of Emergency Declared Ahead of Nor'easter

Posted on 09/26/2026

Trenton - In compliance with New Jersey Language Access Law (P.L. 2023, c. 263), the Governor's Office is providing this notice in multiple languages following the announcement that Governor Sherrill has declared a State of Emergency across eight counties ahead of a powerful nor'easter storm expected to impact New Jersey through Sunday.

For more information on the State of Emergency, please click here to view the full release. You can click the translate button at the top-center of the page to your preferred language. Please see image below for reference:

