Re: Attorney Certification Fee Increase and Annual Fee Collection

On January 15, 2008, the Supreme Court approved the request of the Board on Attorney Certification to increase its annual fee for certified attorneys to $125.00 and late fees to $50.00. The annual fee payment for 2008 at the increased amount of $125.00 is currently due and must be paid by February 29, 2008. The appropriate annual fee notice has been sent to all certified attorneys.

Payments received after the February 29, 2008, postmark deadline will be assessed the $50.00 late fee. Checks or money orders should be made payable to "Secretary, Board on Attorney Certification" and should be mailed to the following address:

The Court also increased the recertification application filing fee to $125.00. That new fee will apply to those seeking recertification beginning in 2009.
