Governor Nominates Rohde of Clifton as Superior Court Judge

Gov. Christie Whitman has submitted to the State Senate her notice of intention to nominate George F. Rohde, Jr. of Clifton as a Superior Court Judge.

Rohde, a certified civil trial attorney, is in the private practice of law in Clifton. Prior to starting his own firm, he practiced with the Rosner & Feltman law firm in Hackensack and the firm of Stanley J. Gulkin in Cedar Grove. Rohde also served as an assistant prosecutor in the Passaic County Prosecutor's Office from 1982-86.

He received his law degree in 1981 from Seton Hall Law School and his undergraduate degree from Fairleigh Dickinson University.
