MEDIA ADVISORY

Gov. Christie Whitman tomorrow will continue her efforts to bring more business and jobs to New Jersey by signing a package of bills providing tax incentives to encourage the development and expansion of high-technology companies in the state.

The Governor will be joined at the ceremony by business leaders and legislative sponsors of the bills, including Senator Robert Singer (R-Burlington/Monmouth/Ocean), Assembly Member Nicholas R. Felice (R-Bergen/Passaic), State Treasurer James DiEleuterio and Commissioner Gil Medina of the Department of Commerce and Economic Development.
