Highlights of Current Program Statistics

AFDC (Tables 1 and 5, Graphs 1 and 4)

121,303 eligible families in New Jersey were receiving AFDC as of the end of April 1995.

108,800 were single head of household families (Regular AFDC, C segment).

Among two-parent families, Unemployed Parents (F Segment) accounted for 3900, and State AFDC (N Segment) for almost 3400. There were more than 5200 Medicaid Only families.

By county, the largest numbers were in Essex with more than 30,300 families, Hudson with 19,000, and Camden County with 13,700. They accounted for 52 percent of all AFDC families.

The other counties ranged from 213 families in Hunterdon to 7,800 in Passaic County.

The number of eligible families in April 1995 is 200 higher than March, the first increase after nine months of decline since the June 1994 peak of over 124,600.

Regular AFDC (C segment) was practically unchanged from March to April 1995. From the peak of nearly 111,800 in June 1994, it declined by about 3000 through April 1995.

F segment families declined from over 4500 in May 1994 to less than 3800 by December 1994. The number was stable, around 3900, in the first four months of 1995.

State AFDC (N segment) grew steadily from 2850 families in April 1993 to 3483 by May 1994 (more than one fifth higher), but has remained almost unchanged since.

Medicaid Only families remained near 5000 over the last two years, but increased by about 400 from 4,834 in April 1994 to 5,209 by April 1995.

FOOD STAMP PROGRAM (Tables 2 and 6, Graphs 2, 5, and 6)

At the end of April 1995, 222,579 households were participating in the Food Stamp Program.

About 113,600 were AFDC households and 109,000 were Other Low Income households.

48 percent of all Food Stamp Households are in Essex (55,067), Hudson (29,376) and Camden (21,987) Counties.

These households included about 524,100 persons, 247,400 adults and 276,700 children.

In seven counties (Bergen, Hunterdon, Monmouth, Morris, Somerset, Sussex, and Warren) the number of adults exceeds the number of children in Food Stamp households.

Food Stamp households in New Jersey remained close to 215,000 families between April 1993 and February 1994, jumped to over 220,000 families in April 1994, and remained above that amount every month since. The April 1995 level was about 2000 below March 1995, and about the same as February.

The convergence of the numbers of AFDC(FS) households and Other Low Income households continues. There were about the same number of AFDC(FS) households in April 1995 as there were in April 1993, around 113,500. The average number of Other Low Income households was 100,000 for all of 1993, and nearly 109,000 for the first four months of 1995.

The decline of 5000 Total Recipients between March and April of 1995 was the greatest single month decline in two years, and totally cancelled out the increase from February to March 1995. The average for the first four months of 1995, 525,000, is about the same as the 1994 average, and 9,000 higher than the 1993 average.

Recipient Adults increased much more than Recipient Children, averaging under 239,000 for 1993 and more than 247,000 for the first four months of 1995. Recipient Children averaged 277,000 in 1993, increased to 279,000 in 1994, and returned to 277,000 for the first four months of 1995.

EMERGENCY ASSISTANCE (Tables 3 and 7, Graphs 3 and 7)

At the end of April 1995, 6840 eligible AFDC families were receiving Emergency Assistance (EA) in New Jersey.

3488 families were receiving Temporary Rental Assistance (TRA).

There were 540 motel placements and 411 emergency shelter placements.

All other AFDC-EA accounted for 2401 families, including either one-time benefits such as back rent, back utilities, security deposits, furnishings, and clothing and food allowance, or shared or transitional housing.

2385 families in Essex County received EA, including 1910 provided TRA. Mercer had 728 EA recipient families, Middlesex had 664, and Passaic had 651 (mostly "Other EA"). All other counties had between 12 and 422 EA recipient families with eight under 100 .

AFDC families receiving Emergency Assistance reached almost 8500 in May 1993, and have generally continued declining, with some fluctuations due to short-term changes in "Other AFDC-EA." The average for 1993 was almost 7900, under 7300 for 1994, and about 6700 for the first four months of 1995.

The decline in the number of families receiving Temporary Rental Assistance accounted for much of the decline in EA. At almost 4900 in May 1993, families receiving TRA declined to less than 3500 by April 1995, the lowest level in the period.

Motel placements were around 700 during most of 1993, and around 600 in late 1993 and the first half of 1994. From a peak of 749 in August 1994, motel placements dropped to only 540 by April 1995, also the lowest in the period.

Emergency shelter placements peaked at 573 in October 1993, and remained under 500 since, with some months around 400.

All Other AFDC-EA fluctuated between a high of 2498 in May 1993 and a low of 1713 in December 1994. There was little change between March and April 1995.

JOBS/FDP PARTICIPATION RATES (Table 8, Graph 8)

Statewide participation in JOBS/FDP reached a new high in April 1995 at 24.5 percent, increasing 0.7 percent over March. The early 1995 pattern was similar to early 1994, with a drop of about 1 percent from December to January, little change from January to February and substantial increases through April. An upward shift can be seen in the statewide rate in the last 18 months.

Most counties have shown gradual upward movement, though participation rates vary widely and some fluctuate markedly. Several experienced declines in Winter 1993/1994, moved up in March 1994, declined from May through August 1994, then turned upward in September and October 1994. Rates remained fairly stable through December 1994, and declined in January 1995. Most have increased strongly from January through April.

Essex county's rate exceeded 10 percent for the first time in March 1995, and increased again into April. Only Cape May remains below 10 percent. In many counties rates have been between 10 and 30 percent. Atlantic, Cumberland, Salem, Somerset, Sussex and Warren are approaching or exceeding 50 percent, while Passaic has exceeded 30 percent since October 1994.

GENERAL ASSISTANCE (Table 9, Graph 9)

For the period January 1993 through November 1994 (the latest available information), the number of GA recipients peaked at about 37,400 in March 1993 and at 38,100 in March 1994. The number declined to 33,400 in November 1994.

During the same period, the number of employable recipients also peaked in March 1993 (25,900) and March 1994 (26,400). The November 1994 level, about 21,400, was the lowest in the period.

The number of Unemployable GA recipients remained between 11,000 and 11,700 from January 1993 through April 1994, and hovered around 12,000 since May 1994.

CHILD SUPPORT AND PATERNITY (Table 10)

Total collections of the Child Support and Paternity Program grew from about $438 million to more than $510 million from FY1993 to FY1994, an increase of 16.6 percent. Total AFDC/Foster Care collections remained almost unchanged at around $92 million. Non-AFDC collections grew from less than $346 million to almost $418 million, or 21 percent.

For the nine months ended March 1995 (three quarters of FY1995), AFDC/Foster Care Collections were up by one percent from a year earlier, led by a 1.7 million dollar increase in income withholdings and about 1.5 million in collections for other states. Non-AFDC collections were up 14 percent, or about $44 million more. Most of the increase was in Income Withholding, Other/Own Behalf, and For Other States.
