Mr. McDermott was declared elected President of the Senate for the legislative year, and was escorted to the chair, by Messrs. DelTufo and Hauser.

The oath of office was administered to President McDermott by Chief Justice Weintraub, who was escorted to the rostrum by Messrs. Woodcock and Lynch. President McDermott introduced his family and delivered the following address:

Today we mark the start of the 193rd Session of the Legislature of the State of New Jersey. This new beginning reaffirms the strength and vitality of this body and of our representative form of government. The past 193 years have brought many changes, political and social and frequently these changes have tested the fiber of the Garden State and its political institutions. That we have come this far is due in no small measure to the ability of previous Legislatures to recognize these changes and to enact laws accordingly. Thus, the 1968 session of the New Jersey Legislature has been one of the most productive in history. It proved to be responsive to the needs of New Jersey's citizens and responsible in formulating effective programs to meet these needs.

In addition to authorizing $990 million in bond issues, it provided over $100 million in annual appropriations to aid New Jersey's hard-pressed counties and municipalities through a variety of programs. The Legislature accomplished this without the imposition of an income tax or an increase in the State sales tax. Thus, a massive program was authorized to meet our State's critical needs, but without overburdening new broad-base taxes.

The 3 major aid programs, the $25 per pupil across the board school aid increase, the State assumption of 75% of non-Federal welfare costs and the 10% of the sales tax for municipal aid, will make available over $91 million to the counties and municipalities in the first full year. In accordance with sound fiscal procedure, these programs become effective at the most appropriate times for inclusion in the respective county, municipal and school district budgets.

Additionally, in our 1968 session, we passed important legislation for Medicaid; the Crime Commission; the Meadowlands Bill; and the Banking Reform Bills.

But the past and our previous efforts irrespective of their success are no longer adequate for the future because we are at the threshold and amidst more dramatic change, far more threatening than ever before. Today's changes come with the violence of a thousand angry voices shouting in the streets and with the swiftness of an assassin's bullet striking down a national leader. This speed and the intensity of our modern society has caused much concern and confusion among the people because they feel that the institutions and laws that served them so well in the past are inadequate today. And despite the density of our population, people feel more separated than ever from their government, their communities and their fellow man.

Perhaps there is no greater symbol of this estrangement in our society than that collection of social, economic and political problems that we call the Urban Crisis.

Best typified by an unemployed urban resident, housed in a rat-infested tenement, and living in subsistence style on doles from the local welfare agency, the Urban Crisis has become the symbol of our failure as a nation to bridge the gaps between prosperity and poverty, knowledge and ignorance, opportunity and despair.

But we cannot accept the fact that the people who live in these tenements, who queue up at welfare centers and who gather in idle groups on street corners must be part of our times. This is the day of high speed transportation, the high-rise luxury apartment, suburban shopping centers, instant TV replay and man's voyage to the moon; an era of people on the move, creating, exploring, working and playing ever in search of the better life. Yet the ghetto presents a picture of an eighteenth century penal colony so vividly described in our history books!

As President-elect Nixon has said, urban problems "have now become so urgent to the American scene that they require the same kind of direction that we give problems that confront us internationally." This legislature must give direction to solving our urban problems, if it is to meet the challenge of today.

Do we have the resolve?

Many of you have stood before this body and asked the same question. And as all of you are well aware, many promises have been made but, when the oratory is done, the real test of our resolve begins. And action is required.

As we seek to find solutions to this urban question, let us not overlook past experience. Much has been tried but much has failed. This is our greatest advantage, the benefit of hindsight to learn from past mistakes.

For over thirty years, since the days of the Depression, the most consistent form of governmental response to urban problems has been government spending. This approach has formed a whole new system that one economist has called a "grants economy" since it represents a one-way flow of money from the government to the various recipients. For state governments, this has meant the necessity for more and more taxation and for borrowing in anticipation of future revenues. For over thirty years states and the national government have waited for some magical economic moment when this use of public funds would cause the unemployment rolls to disappear, cause wages and prices to stabilize and allow governments to provide only those services appropriate to the public sector of the economy. If the performance criteria for public spending had been results and not the number of dollars spent, we probably would have modified this public approach years ago. Instead of ridding our midst of slums and giving new hope and fruitful lives to people, our welfare economy has developed a new class of citizen within our economic structure—the functional poor. They are the object of a whole bevy of clerks and other functionaries who minister to their misery but who do not have the solution for lifting them up to the level of full citizenship. Make no mistake about it, public bureaucracies do not provide jobs for the poor.

By contrast, the most successful economic performers in the history of the world has been American Labor and industry and I believe that the real hope of today's economically deprived citizen lies within this known potential, our private enterprise system.

And in the Urban Crisis more and better jobs are the fuel that's needed. A better trained working force with more jobs will add to the productivity of this nation and create the new income needed in our inner cities.

This is the answer to our problem, not bigger welfare roles that sap our tax dollars and degrade rather than uplift.

Economic hardship and frustration spawn further problems that know no economic boundaries for with them they bring dire social consequences. And these can be even more devastating. Thus, in our industrial society, employment is the key. It is the job that brings security, growth a measure of prestige and independence. Unemployment is separation from the mainstream. Though hundreds of programs have been initiated and millions of dollars have been spent on poverty; failures abound because there has been an emphasis only on the material aspects of being poor, while the psychological aspects of being unemployed have been ignored.

Government hand-outs and give-away programs are only concessions to poverty, only temporary pacifiers for the underprivileged, only partial appeasements to help "cool it". These are not solutions or preventatives so that tomorrow's problems will not be "today's problems grown worse".

We can give away better housing, better schools, and increased welfare benefits but, we cannot give away a sense of accomplishment, self-respect, or initiative. We have so focused in on only the physical needs, we have forgotten the crying need of the soul—for dignity and status. Only a job can impart dignity, pride in one's self, status and income. Only a job can turn a welfare recipient into a full fledged adult member of society who can afford luxuries, buy homes, invest capital, save money, pay taxes and make his presence felt as an economic force.

What is needed, therefore, is a redefinition of the roles of the private and public sectors of the economy in solving the problems that affect all of us—particularly those problems critical to the urban areas. Here again, we can learn from history.

Many people have commented on the similarity of the ghettos to the cities of western Europe after World War II: Unemployed people, uninhabitable housing, poor nutrition, and a lack of essential services characterize the comparison. As all of you are well aware, that while America's initial effort in Europe was in the form of aid, our long term approach was in the form of re-establishing the development of capital so that private enterprise could flourish. Anyone who has seen post-war Europe can testify to the results of our plan.

Our successful economic efforts in post-war Europe were recently studied by a French editor, Jean-Jacques Servan-Schreiber, in a book about American business in Europe called The American Challenge. In this book the author notes the impact of American business on the European economy. In fact, he says that "fifteen years from now it is quite possible that the world's third greatest industrial power, just after the United States and Russia, will not be Europe, but American industry in Europe." One of the reasons that Servan-Schreiber gives for this impact is the unique ability of the United States to bring together government, labor, business, economics, science and engineering in a co-ordinated fashion for the success of this endeavor.

If our country can produce such an unique alliance for the development of Europe's economy—a continent devastated far beyond the disfiguration done by our riots—then what prevents it from producing a similar alliance for the development of the center cities' economies. This is the real American challenge.

Let us urge the rebuilding and redevelopment of our State's blighted areas by comprehensive legislative programs designed to accomplish this. It is the urgent business of our times.

Thus, in some measure we must redefine the role that the private and public sectors should play in developing New Jersey's total economy. We must create an environment for business that is conducive for capital investment in areas of high unemployment. This will provide the jobs for people who are willing to work and show others the need to work. When this group is back to work, they will constitute a market for goods and services that will have a favorable impact on our economy. We must encourage business to invest run-down urban and rural housing in this State into planned communities that are economically viable in their own right, with their own sources of capital. We can then divert the savings in public expenditures for unemployment payments into the improvement of essential services for all communities in the State, and particularly in these neglected areas.

We must write the legislation that will permit our business community to consider the ghetto and other high unemployment areas as acceptable and reasonable areas to expend capital. We must create the environment that will favor employment, private housing, education and essential services.

Yes, this is today's challenge and, gentlemen, we shall fall far short of our mark if we do not maintain public confidence in our ability to do the job. Moreover, we must have respect for law and constituted authority, and we must demonstrate our regard for same. No law—however good—is self-enforcing. Ultimately, it is our collective responsibility to see to its proper discharge. Have we succeeded? It is open to question, and we must question it.

Like it or not, we would be remiss not to recognize that our State stands accused in the public press, national media and in the minds of many of our citizens as a haven for crime. We cannot and must not allow this state of affairs to exist. It profits us little to say that this is not so, when screaming headlines and national magazines persist in making the point. Therefore, we must not merely eliminate crime but the suspicion of crime. Surely, our public trust requires no less. Criminal elements must be given no quarter. They must be routed out whenever and wherever they exist, among the poor, the affluent, and in government at all levels.

Suffice it to say—no program for our center cities or otherwise can succeed without effective, scrupulously honest and responsible government. And this problem again is particularly acute in our inner cities—a breeding ground for crime.

As was so well put by Edmund Burke—“All it takes for the forces of evil to triumph is for enough good men to do nothing.”

Let us be sensitive to the danger signals all around us that crime may indeed not be under control in our State.

With new resolve, therefore, I am confident we can meet this challenge or any beyond, and together bring credit to this body and our form of government.

SEVENTH ANNUAL MESSAGE

Mr. President, Mr. Speaker and Members of the Senate and General Assembly:

There is a mysterious but wonderful force in our lives that somehow sees to it that at the very moment of our deepest discouragement, something happens to inspire in us new hope and renewed faith in ourselves, our capacity, and our direction. So it was at the end of 1968, when America—frustrated by war and an elusive peace, conscious of poverty in the midst of material prosperity, burdened with racial and ideological dissension, uneasy with the threat of rising crime and unrest, afflicted by doubts as to long-standing values and institutions—came suddenly and joyously to life.

The flight of Apollo 8 not only pierced the universe but thrilled the innermost heart of America. Three courageous young men—taught in our schools, raised in our country, molded by the strengths and weaknesses of our world, supported by thousands of dedicated Americans and a proud technology—did what no men had ever done before. This great deed taught us a crucial lesson—one that we should never again forget—that we have the ability to solve our toughest problems if only we have the will—that we can overcome the most difficult obstacles if only we are determined to do so.

This lesson should have special meaning for those of us in whom our friends and neighbors have vested another demanding mission—to operate productively the engine of State government. And what a challenging mission this is, embracing as it does the most pressing concerns of our seven million people and their basic right to be free of such evils as crime, poor education, wretched housing, inadequate transportation, spiraling local taxation, pollution, and other threats to their health and well-being—threats not only to our cities but, in growing measure, to every one of our communities.

In short, this mission of ours is as tough as can be. Yet I am convinced that we can overcome the problems before us, for the same hard work and determination that have already brought us so remarkably far can, if we so decide, help us achieve still more.

To those who may be tired or unconcerned I therefore say that you are out of step. For the future belongs to those who are ready to proceed with the strength and vigor that launched Apollo 8. The proposals that I shall set before you today are in precisely this spirit—bold yet carefully conceived, far-reaching yet clearly essential.

Let us then come together in that American spirit of Apollo 8 to press on with the tasks entrusted to us by the people of New Jersey.

LAW ENFORCEMENT AND CRIME CONTROL

The drive against crime in all its forms, whether organized or not, must be unremitting. Progress in our continuing battle against crime results not from partisan or sensational actions but from sheer hard work and determination on the part of government at every level.

Indeed, it is such determined effort, on a bi-partisan basis, by the executive and legislative branches of this State government that each year has made possible some major advances in our war on crime. Last year I recommended, and you enacted, a witness immunity law, a statewide grand jury bill, a measure to provide the most severe penalties against loansharking, and other laws to attack the roots of organized crime. I also signed into law a bill creating the State Investigations Commission, which will provide another powerful weapon with which to fight organized crime.

Prompt Action on Unfinished Business

This Legislature has not yet acted, however, on several other measures that I consider essential to the prosecution of our war on crime. You have not yet taken action on two extremely important measures that I requested in my annual message of last year: (1) an intrastate anti-trust law to protect honest businessmen against the intrusion of organized crime into legitimate business through extortion, intimidation, monopolization, or collusion; and (2) the creation of a Mid-Atlantic States Law Enforcement Compact which would establish a centralized criminal intelligence unit among the State Police agencies of New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, and Delaware to enhance interstate cooperation in the struggle against organized crime.

Furthermore, in my Special Message on Public Protection of last September, I reiterated these urgent requests and requested in addition two other measures of importance: (1) passage of a wiretapping law which, with proper judicial safeguards, could be the most effective weapon yet devised against organized criminal activity; and (2) appropriation of $25 million to improve local police salaries and law enforcement techniques to raise the effectiveness of local efforts against crime in all its forms.

As yet you have taken action on none of these measures, and I call on you today, in the interest of our continued strong and bi-partisan attack on crime, to act on them at the earliest possible moment.

Loanshark Law—A Needed Correction

At the same time I ask you to correct a serious mistake that you made in overriding my veto of a bill that has the purported effect of inhibiting loanshark activity. This measure instead has the unintended but nevertheless real and dangerous effect of giving to loansharks a virtual license to charge up to 50% interest. I ask you to correct this serious oversight as soon as possible.

Further Proposals for Improvement

Last year, after eight days of hearings, the Joint Legislative Committee to Study Crime and the System of Criminal Justice in New Jersey recommended the creation of a new Department of State government, a Department of Criminal Justice. I stated then, and I believe now, that this proposal, in its present form, holds no promise of making more effective our fight against organized crime.

Indeed, public hearings on this measure, which followed its announcement, have revealed several shortcomings in the bill upon which there is now widespread agreement. It is agreed, for example, that the section on rehabilitation, which would substantially dismantle the Department of Institutions and Agencies and the unselfish and dedicated citizen boards that now guide our institutions, is not advisable. Similarly, the section that would place all youth training and social development programs within this new departmental framework—and thus label all young people participating in these programs as criminal or potentially criminal—is unwise.

Moreover, a section providing for massive civil commitment of narcotics addicts cannot possibly be established with the $1 million appropriation contemplated by the Committee bill—the true cost in fact being monumental, perhaps as much as $50 million, in view of the fact that no facilities are now available for a mammoth effort of this kind. Finally, the section that would create a Division of Planning would merely duplicate or destroy the work of the bi-partisan State Law Enforcement Planning Agency, which already has made outstanding initial efforts in planning for a comprehensive State and local law enforcement program under the federal Safe Streets Act.

In short, it has become clear that the Committee bill proposed last year, S-802, contains several weak, even harmful, provisions that serve no useful purpose. On the other hand, it does contain several substantial proposals that could indeed help to heighten the effectiveness of law enforcement programs. I have reviewed with great care S-802 and its companion measure, S-803, and I have discussed them in detail with their principal sponsor, Senator Forsythe, who has served with great distinction as Senate President during this past year. I have reached the following conclusions:

1. The time has now arrived when full-time prosecutors and full-time assistant prosecutors, with compensation sufficient to attract high quality attorneys on a full-time basis, should be established. I say this not in criticism of the efforts of those many fine and dedicated men who serve now, and have served in the past, in the county prosecutor's office, but rather in recognition of the growing demands on all of our law enforcement agencies. I do not believe that the required additional cost of such a change can fairly be cast on the several counties, and I therefore feel that a program of State support, as contemplated in S-803, is in order.

2. In the fight against organized crime there is need for a greater State orientation of the prosecutorial system, as projected in S-802. A more highly State-oriented system is an essential counterpart to the recently authorized statewide grand jury, which is designed to investigate organized crime and to indict persons engaged in organized criminal activity in any part of the State. Such State direction of prosecutions in cases that have a multi-county or statewide impact would not, in my opinion, collide with the tradition of home rule since the county prosecutor would continue to exercise control over criminal prosecutions involving matters other than organized crime.

3. The State should establish, within its law enforcement framework, a program of assistance to local police departments in the planning of consolidated services.

Division of Criminal Justice

On all of these points, which I consider to be the soundest provisions of S-802 and S-803, I have advised the principal sponsor of these measures of my views. I believe that new legislation should be introduced on a bi-partisan basis to further these important objectives. Such a bill should, of course, avoid the shortcomings of the original measures. That is, rehabilitation efforts, youth programs, narcotics control programs, and comprehensive law enforcement planning should remain with those agencies now responsible for them—as public hearings have made entirely clear. Given this fact, it is unnecessary—and indeed it would be wasteful in the extreme—to create a new Department of State government to accomplish those useful and meritorious provisions of S-802 and S-803 with which I concur.

I therefore recommend the establishment within the Department of Law and Public Safety of a Division of Criminal Justice, that will be effectively financed and equipped and that will be headed by a Director, who shall be appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate, and who shall be directly responsible to the Attorney General. This Division will contain the recently formed Organized Crime Unit, and will be manned with Deputy Attorneys General in tenure positions and with accountants, tax experts, and other specialists trained to combat the sophisticated activities of organized crime.

This Unit, which will coordinate its efforts with the State Police Intelligence Unit and with State and federal strike forces on a day-to-day basis, will assist the State Police in their ongoing investigation of the activities of organized crime in New Jersey. The relationship between the Division of Criminal Justice and the Division of State Police will be equivalent to that between the United States Attorney's office and the FBI. The Division's primary responsibility will be to bring the results of completed investigations before the statewide grand jury, which I would hope will be sitting on a year-round basis, for appropriate indictments and prosecution.

The Department of Law and Public Safety, through the Division of Criminal Justice, should also have the power to intervene in the prosecution of any criminal case—a power that does not now substantially inhere in the State. The Department should have the further power, in cooperation with the Supreme Court through the Administrator of the Courts, to assign prosecutors and assistant prosecutors to handle prosecutions in any county. Thus able prosecutors or assistants from rural or less burdened counties, for example, could from time to time assist in overcoming the backlog of criminal caseloads in other counties.

Furthermore, the Department should have the power to intervene and handle any appeal from a criminal conviction in order that the maximum possible expertise may be made available on such appeals, the argument of which is obviously as important as the trial conviction of a given defendant.

In addition, through a Bureau of Local Police Assistance, the Department would have the responsibility to supervise ongoing police training programs, and to provide assistance in planning for joint local police services in a regional attack on organized crime.

Information and Crime Control

In 1966, after several years of frustrating delay, the Legislature authorized a mandatory Uniform Crime Reporting System for New Jersey. This State thus became the first in the nation to establish such a program. Law enforcement agencies throughout the country hailed this action as a major step forward and because of it the FBI was immediately able to enter into cooperative information sharing with the State Police on a basis not available to any other police agency in the country. In 1968 alone, 5,000 separate identifications of wanted persons and stolen property, including many firearms, were made possible by this cooperative information sharing.

Last year, I asked this Legislature for a supplemental appropriation for fiscal year 1969 in the amount of $112,000 to enhance this excellent reporting system through the establishment of a Court Disposition Reporting System. This new system will provide a fingertip investigative aid to all law enforcement agencies in the State with a fully computerized criminal history of arrested persons, and will further provide essential information for New Jersey's full and effective participation in the proposed expansion of the FBI's National Crime Information Center.

The Court Disposition Reporting System which I describe is the result of one year's study conducted jointly by the State Police and the Administrative Director of the Courts and is based on the favorable experience of a pilot program conducted in Mercer County. It is essential for us to seize on this effective mechanism in the war on crime, and I therefore urge you once again to appropriate the required funds.

The Fight Against Narcotics

Last November, in praising State Police efforts in a series of major narcotics raids, I said that I am determined to take every possible step to rid New Jersey of the narcotics evil. I have previously placed before you, in my Moral Recommitment message of last April, a clear and comprehensive program to attack narcotics traffic, to prevent narcotics addiction, and to rehabilitate present addicts. I requested several essential measures—on none of which you took action—and I call on you today once again to move for their adoption at the earliest possible moment. They include:

1. Authorization of sixty additional State Policemen, thirty to perform undercover work in locating and apprehending drug pushers and thirty to be assigned to the Organized Crime Unit. Undercover efforts in 1968 alone yielded nearly 1,500 separate arrests of narcotics law violators and about $13 million in confiscated illegal drugs. I ask you to let us improve on this record.

2. Statutory authorization for a mandatory minimum confinement period of six months, with a mandatory probation period of five years, for addicts who opt for medical commitment under Chapter 226 of the Laws of 1964.

3. Authorization to establish a cadre of specially trained and carefully selected parole-probation officers to supervise addicts upon their discharge from rehabilitation centers.

4. Appropriation of funds to establish additional after-care clinics for the testing and supervision of addicts on parole.

A further request included in my Moral Recommitment message—that you appropriate funds for narcotics rehabilitation centers for the reception and housing of addicts confined for the six-month minimum period under Chapter 226—can be accommodated in view of the passage of the 1968 bond issues, which include $6 million for this and related purposes.

Narcotics Education Program

I am pleased to report that a narcotics education program for teachers was successfully launched last summer. The Commissioner of Education has in addition circulated a comprehensive 65-page reference book on drugs for teachers in our schools. Moreover, in response to a suggestion by Senator McDermott, a speakers bureau composed of doctors, law enforcement officials, and rehabilitation experts has been formed to make appearances at local schools to discuss the dangers of drug addiction with teachers and students. Further efforts of this kind—such as, for example, a continuing seminar for physicians that could be set up by the State and local medical societies in conjunction with pharmaceutical firms to provide advice on the handling of medications containing narcotics—are essential.

A Civil Commitment Program

The intensification of these education efforts for our young people is especially crucial, for they must realize that experimentation with drugs can easily cause enormous problems and end in disaster. Consider, for example, the heart-rending tragedy of parents who find their child addicted to narcotics. All too often the child will refuse to submit himself voluntarily to treatment, and parents must choose between the self-destruction of their child and the almost impossible task of turning him over to the police.

In view of this serious and, most unfortunately, increasing problem, I am asking you to authorize a civil commitment program for persons under twenty-one years of age provided that parental consent, and certification by two physicians that the young person is addicted, have been obtained.

Experimental Use of Methadone

The Columbia University School of Public Health and Administrative Medicine has submitted to the Narcotics Addiction Control Commission of the State of New York a highly favorable report on the use of methadone to treat heroin addicts. This report describes the successful treatment of 750 criminal addicts by means of methadone. Experts in the field of drug addiction do not all agree on the conclusion of this report, but because efforts to rehabilitate addicts yield in general such meager results, it is essential that the methadone maintenance program, for which such success has been claimed by its proponents, be examined with great care.

Accordingly, I have requested the Commissioner of Institutions and Agencies to establish such a program on an experimental basis, and under strict medical control, and to submit his findings and recommendations for possible expansion of this program, at the earliest possible date.

The magnitude of our narcotics problems, and the extensive efforts that we have made to overcome them, are clearly detailed in the Final Report of the Narcotic Drug Study Commission, which, under the leadership of Congressman Charles W. Sandman, has devoted intense energy to this problem. I ask you today to build upon these past efforts and to authorize the crucial measures that I have proposed to help New Jersey overcome the narcotics evil.

A Stronger Rehabilitation Effort

It is a sad fact that all too many convicted offenders only return to a life of crime after their release from prison or discharge from probation.

It is essential that we build upon and strengthen our present programs for the education, training, and rehabilitation of such offenders. The financial imperative for such action is clear, for the State spends approximately $2,100 per year for each inmate at the State Prison, $2,900 for each inmate at the Annandale Reformatory, and $4,900 for each inmate at the State Home for Girls, while the average annual cost of probation is estimated at approximately $300 per probationer. And the burden on taxpayers is increased when, as is often the case, the family of a prison inmate is added to the welfare rolls.

Accordingly, I call on you today to enact three measures—two of which I have asked for previously—to impel criminal offenders toward a constructive and contributing role in society:

1. Establishment of a probation aide system within the several county probation departments. This program, which I set forth in my Moral Recommitment message of last year, would develop a cadre of probation aides, who would work under supervision of professionally trained probation officers to bridge the gap that now exists between such officers—who must have a college education—and probationers in disadvantaged communities. On a cost-benefit basis this program represents an extremely sound investment for society.

2. Establishment of an urban parole corps of parole aides who would function under the supervision of officers in the Bureau of Parole and would likewise be extremely helpful in the proper guidance of persons released from prison.

3. Extension of the work-release program, which now applies to county institutions, to State institutions as well. This program permits certain incarcerated persons, under appropriate and carefully defined conditions, to work in gainful occupations during the day and thereby to defray the cost to the taxpayers of his keep, to help support his family, and to acquire job experience necessary for a successful adjustment upon release from prison.

In addition, we must face the fact that despite the favorable employment records of many parolees in this State, significant numbers confront formidable obstacles to gainful employment upon their release from prison. Such obstacles only make recidivism more likely. To alleviate them I shall request committees from the State Chamber of Commerce and the State AFL-CIO to develop with the State Youth Advisory Council and the State Board of Control additional behind-the-wall training programs to increase employment opportunities for released convicts. I shall also request the New Jersey Alliance of Businessmen, which has worked with such success in obtaining jobs for the hard-core unemployed, to give priority attention to the employment problems of those who have been released from prison.

A Stronger Youth Program

Among the most alarming statistics of those compiled by law enforcement agencies are those that demonstrate the increase in crimes committed by young persons. The rate of their involvement in criminal activities is estimated to be rising more than three times as quickly as the increase in population. We must therefore strengthen our efforts to reach the pre-delinquent and delinquent before he settles into a lifetime pattern of criminal behavior.

This administration has constructed programs to achieve this purpose. Above and beyond the probation and parole recommendations that I have advanced, the following measures are noteworthy:

1. The creation of neighborhood education centers, or street academies, as authorized under Chapter 182 of the Laws of 1968.

These centers provide high school dropouts with a meaningful second chance to complete their high school education and perhaps to go still further.

2. A major expansion of our vocational education program with the help of the 1968 bond issues.

3. The Youth in Community Service Act and Youth Conservation and Recreational Development Act of 1968, which together make available to disadvantaged youth new work and recreation opportunities in the summer months.

I recommend today that the State, through the Division of Youth, undertake a program of assistance to municipalities and school districts to enable them to deal more effectively with youth problems through youth guidance commissions, a number of which are already in operation throughout the State. A modest State investment, which could be matched by federal money to become available for juvenile delinquency programs, will help establish effective programs in these local commissions to engage youth counselors where they are needed; to provide training and job placement for youths that require it; and to perform other important functions that the commissions themselves designate as useful in their fight against delinquency.

The Drive Against Gambling

According to the President's Commission on Law Enforcement and Administration of Justice, illegal gambling activities provide the greatest single source of revenue for organized crime. Here, as in so many areas of law enforcement, local government must be vigilant in its efforts to curb gambling. The State Police reinforce local efforts with continuous raids throughout the State—more than 200 separate raids resulting in 667 separate arrests in 1968 alone. These efforts will become still more effective if and when you approve my long-standing request for sixty additional State Troopers, half of whom will be assigned to the Organized Crime Unit.

I shall also request the State Investigations Commission to probe gambling activities in this State and to make recommendations as to additional methods by which such activities, and the revenue they provide for organized crime, can be dried up.

Order and Justice: The Twin Goals

Pursuit of the twin goals of order and justice is no less important today than it was at the time of my Moral Recommitment message last year. I therefore request you once again to adopt several important proposals in this sphere on which you have failed to take action, including a scholarship program for the State Police to improve police professionalism; a police cadet program; nationwide police recruitment; and attitudinal testing of policemen.

In addition, I urge you once again, in the strongest terms, to enact a measure I proposed last year to prohibit the activities of vigilante and terrorist organizations. I urge you to make it perfectly clear to any extremist groups, whether black or white, that their illegal activity will simply not be tolerated.

HELP FOR OUR COMMUNITIES

Last year you and I joined to enact a number of important programs to provide greater State financial assistance to our communities. The need for such increased State aid is clear to every local property taxpayer in New Jersey, for the rising costs of county and local governments, and the growing burdens that they are being called upon to bear, simply cannot be accommodated without a significant increment in State aid.

For the hard and unvarnished truth is that local government must increasingly pay more even to stand still, and if local property tax rates are not to become confiscatory, other sources of revenue for local government simply must be provided. I am hopeful that a responsible plan of federal revenue sharing with state and local governments, which I have long advocated, will be adopted following the end of the war in Vietnam. But this is a hope, not an accomplished fact, and we cannot escape the clear need for action on the part of State government if we are to save our local property taxpayers.

In short, to finance the services of local government the people of this State, as of every state, must choose between spiraling local property taxes, on the one hand, or increased State aid to help abate the rise in property taxes, on the other. I have long believed that this second alternative would serve the people of New Jersey far better than the first. For high local property taxes hurt most those who can afford them least. Moreover, they distort patterns of sound and orderly growth by inhibiting business activity and driving out ratables that are essential to community progress.

I am not suggesting that increased State aid is by contrast a totally painless solution to our problems, for additional assistance to municipalities will require additional revenues. But I am convinced that the State is in a far better position at this time than our local governments to develop sources of revenue that are fairer and more equitable to the people-at-large and that do not have the serious distorting effects of high local property taxes that I have described.

Cities and Suburbs—A Common Problem

Let us make no mistake about it. The problem to which I refer faces virtually every community in this State. Although it varies in intensity from place to place, it has nevertheless become so widespread a concern that very few, if any, local governing bodies consider it anything less than a matter of the highest urgency.

The communities involved here are not merely our older cities, although they have long been severely affected by this tight financial squeeze. A large and growing number of our suburban and rural communities are rapidly running into many of the same problems. Indeed, as a distinguished Presidential panel has recently pointed out, the quality of life in our suburbs is threatened with many of the same stresses and strains—in transportation, pollution control, education, and other governmental services—that have long afflicted our cities.

We must therefore come to grips with the clear and growing need for decisive action by the State. I have expressed these views to you on many occasions, and you will have no choice but to confront them responsibly and soon.

A Continuing Moral Recommitment

Last April I delivered to you a special message on the needs of our most overburdened communities and asked you to lead a moral recommitment to respond to them. You enacted a number of my proposals in such fields as education, law enforcement, insurance, employment, and public assistance, and I expect that you will continue to support these programs in 1969.

At the same time you ignored some of my most important recommendations for urban revitalization, including certain of my key proposals in health, housing, and education. These proposals were sound, and the need for them was well documented last year. So it is this year as well, and I ask you to reconsider these essential programs promptly.

New Proposals

My recommendations in this message in such fields as transportation, health, education, and consumer protection include a number of proposals to help fulfill the moral recommitment that I called for last April, and I urge you to examine these proposals with special care.

In addition, I ask you to consider a number of new proposals for action to revitalize our cities.

State Urban Development Bank

If the decline of our cities is to be halted, and indeed reversed, the increased participation of minority group members in the management and ownership of business is essential. Today in New Jersey, as across the nation, our white citizens are twenty times more likely to manage or own a business than our black or Spanish-speaking citizens. There must be greater participation in business activity by these citizens, based on a drive for self-help, if the revitalization of our cities, and especially the most severely depressed areas within them, is to occur.

Accordingly, I propose the establishment of a New Jersey State Urban Development Bank that with the help of an initial State appropriation will provide long-term loans and guarantees, under appropriate conditions, to minority group businessmen who seek to become a productive force in the community but are unable to obtain loans from existing sources and programs. Loans from this Bank will have a multiplier effect in attracting further funds from conventional sources of capital, and the Bank will back up its loans with technical assistance to businessmen who have received them during the developmental stage of their enterprise.

The Bank will also create a system of local development corporations for inner-city areas throughout the State and will provide seed capital and technical assistance to help support such corporations. To effect this program, and to develop further important plans in this vital sector, I propose to appoint as trustees of the Bank some of our top-ranking business leaders.

New Advances in Housing

In the past two years the State has taken major steps to overcome the problem of substandard housing. Ordinarily housing is a field in which it takes years to see results. But in the space of only a few months we have seen completed housing rehabilitation projects in Newark, Hoboken and Camden. The State Housing Finance Agency, through the use of revenue bonds at no cost to the taxpayers, already has 270 dwelling units ready for occupancy, 1,134 units under construction in Newark and West New York, and more than 5,000 units in planning or financing stages. The approval of the 1968 housing assistance bond issue will make possible further progress along these lines.

But we must take further steps to eliminate slum conditions in New Jersey. State and federal housing programs have properly begun to place greater emphasis on home ownership, but these programs have encountered difficulty with the insurance of mortgages in slum areas and the availability of down-payment funds. Accordingly, I shall recommend a Home-ownership and Mortgage Guaranty Act, based on S-818 of the 1968 session, to create a State guaranty fund that will increase the resources available to low-income persons who seek to own their own home.

The improvement of substandard housing is a major objective of our housing policy. Yet a homeowner who proceeds to improve his property is penalized by an increased assessment and a higher tax. Moreover, home-improvement loans are not readily available in high risk areas of our cities. I shall therefore propose legislation granting a five-year exemption from property taxes for improvements made to bring substandard housing into conformity with the minimum standards of our housing codes.

This exemption will be added to a list of exemptions that have already been granted to various kinds of low- and moderate-income housing projects. I propose as well that you authorize adequate payments in lieu of taxes for such new housing and home improvement activities as are possible under these laws. It is unfair to penalize municipalities that are actively seeking to improve their housing situation by depriving them of a growth potential. Under this program the State would make up the difference between such in lieu of tax payments as are presently authorized by law and what would be the normal tax yield of residential property of the same kind.

New Neighborhood Developments

The federal Housing and Urban Development Act of 1968, which I consider a landmark bill, authorizes federal insurance for planned comprehensive developments on the scale of neighborhoods, or even small communities within a municipality. We in New Jersey, with the passage of a Planned Unit Development Law, already authorize municipalities to permit such developments, which may include not only housing but also the schools, roads, and community services that are required to support a complete neighborhood. These developments, which some call "new towns," will pay their own way and may well help us resolve some of the most serious problems of overcrowding and growth in our central cities.

I have requested the Housing Finance Agency to advise me of such legislation, if any, that will permit New Jersey to take full advantage of these federally insured developments. The State, of course, would assume no risk in such developments, but substantial benefits to many citizens may well accrue from them.

Housing With Dignity

Later in this message I shall request you to enact a Bill of Rights for New Jersey Consumers. Here I ask you to protect low-income tenants from unfair treatment by a small group of unscrupulous or insensitive landlords. I shall propose legislation to encourage tenants to join together in cooperatives and to buy and repair substandard housing.

In addition, I shall request legislation to clarify for tenants their rights in public housing, as the Michigan legislature has recently done. A tenant should have the right to know, for example, the reasons for his eviction from public housing, and I propose that you ensure that right.

Finally, I propose that we reconstitute the Mobile Homes Commission so that it may continue the work in this sector that it began some years ago. Recent advances in the construction of prefabricated housing and mobile homes have made necessary a review of both the laws governing them and the needs of those residing in them.

A State Land Use Act

With the enormous pressures of urbanization in this State—the most heavily urbanized state in the nation—it is essential that we wisely control land development in our communities. More than 90% of our communities now employ local planning and zoning controls, but some planning experts argue nevertheless that we are “zoning unborn generations into the Atlantic Ocean.”

The Regional Plan Association, for example, has observed that “present zoning policies are the major block to a free housing market and the main cause of the unnecessary spread of the Region.” Our present land use laws are sorely in need of revision, and I shall therefore send to you a proposed new State Land Use Act to ensure, through improved balance in land development and renewal, that we will benefit from growth rather than be victimized by it. This measure has been drafted by the Department of Community Affairs with the widest possible consultation with local officials and private groups. It merits your most serious consideration.

Welfare—Past and Needed Improvements

In enacting my welfare proposals last year you increased to 75% the State share of county and local welfare costs and thereby greatly assisted these governments. Your adoption of federal welfare amendments, including the work incentive program, will be useful in our efforts to restore the family unit and break the welfare cycle.

But the welfare burden continues to grow heavier, and strong remedial action is essential. I have long held the view that payment of welfare costs should be a federal responsibility, but federal assumption of the full welfare burden is not now in prospect. What is clear is that the present welfare system satisfies no one—neither taxpayers nor recipients. Indeed, it is a system that cries out for change.

To determine what constructive change is possible in the public assistance program, I shall shortly appoint a distinguished Task Force on Welfare Management. I shall instruct this body to examine modifications in the present welfare system now being tested in various parts of the country and to recommend any possible improvements in the management and administration of our present welfare system. I shall consider their mission a crucially important one for the people of this State.

EDUCATION—THE NEED TO PRESS ON

The past year has seen decisive State action toward the goal of excellence in education at all levels. Funds from the 1968 bond issues will make possible dramatic advances in both higher education and vocational education and will enable New Jersey to become a dynamic force in the field of public and instructional television under the direction of the new Public Broadcasting Authority. Exciting progress and vigorous activity are the order of the day for the entire range of educational problems with which the State Board of Education, the Board of Higher Education, and the individual boards of trustees at Rutgers, Newark College of Engineering, the State Colleges, and the College of Medicine and Dentistry are concerned.

Progress in Urban Education

The past year has seen especially important progress with regard to the overwhelming problems of schools in our hard-pressed cities and suburbs. The historic Educational Opportunity Fund, through which thirty institutions of higher learning in this State have already provided some 1,600 students of exceptional financial need and high potential an unprecedented chance to attend college, has compiled an outstanding record, and I shall request you to expand its appropriation. Other educational programs that you enacted following my Moral Recommitment message of last April—such as the Project Head Start supplement, the expansion of the Newark Skill Center, the enlargement of the school lunch program, the establishment of neighborhood education centers, and expansion of the Urban Education Corps—are proceeding with effectiveness and merit your continued support.

Emergency School Building Aid

Last year you also enacted one-half of my proposed emergency school building aid program, which authorizes the State to amortize over a 35-year period local school construction bonds to meet the immediate building needs of the struggling rural community, the fast growing suburb, and the old central city—in short, all those communities which find themselves unable alone to relieve obsolete and overcrowded conditions that make first-rate education simply impossible. My original request that you authorize such school construction in the amount of $180 million has been vindicated by detailed requests for assistance totaling slightly more than $200 million from 60 local school districts throughout the State. The $90 million construction program that you enacted has already been fully committed to those districts that have the most serious problems—indeed, only 60% of their request levels could be accommodated—and I request you today to authorize the balance of the construction program so that these further emergency school building needs can be met.

Regional Research Centers

Last year as well I requested you to authorize the gradual establishment of regional research and demonstration centers to operate in conjunction with local school systems, and where possible, with institutions of higher education, to test new approaches and new technologies in actual classroom situations. Functioning in association with the Regional Educational Laboratory of the U. S. Office of Education but addressed specifically to the special needs of New Jersey's own urban, suburban, and rural schools, these centers would be designed to apply to the enterprise of public education in this State the same research and demonstration techniques that have enabled private industry to register unparalleled achievements in efficiency and improved performance in so many fields.

I am convinced that these regional educational centers, in the same fashion, will be able to join with any local school district that expresses interest to develop improved educational programs for its children and to insure full value for every educational dollar spent by its taxpayers. Moreover, these centers would make possible a fruitful exchange of the best ideas of individual school districts. I therefore ask you once again to initiate this regional centers program.

Autonomy for State Colleges

By virtue of the historic Higher Education Act of 1966, the six State colleges—soon to become eight—have begun the challenging process of transformation into multi-purpose institutions of arts and sciences. This transformation has been guided by boards of trustees responsible by law for the governance, control, conduct, management, and administration of the colleges. These boards are composed of distinguished citizens of great capacity and integrity who are dedicated to providing leadership of a high order.

Notwithstanding the important fact that these institutions are almost wholly supported by New Jersey taxpayers—whose interests must be protected—they should nevertheless exercise that autonomy which traditionally has been the source of vigor and progress in American higher education and without which trustees and administrators cannot effectively discharge their responsibilities. I therefore support the extensive and responsible efforts now being made by Chancellor Dungan, the Board of Higher Education, and the Department of the Treasury to work for administrative changes that will secure a higher degree of autonomy for State colleges. Moreover, should it be necessary, I shall propose legislation to help achieve this purpose.

Student Aid—A Realignment and Major Expansion

We in New Jersey, like all other states, have experienced a tremendous growth in the demand for educational opportunity beyond high school—and this demand will grow, not slacken. Coupled with this demand is a rapid rise in the cost of attending college, in both public and private institutions.

Our student aid programs—the State scholarships, Guaranteed Student Loans, and Educational Opportunity Fund grants—have functioned well in the past to lighten the burden for many deserving students and their families. But we must be vigilant to ensure that no student is denied access to higher education because of his financial circumstances.

Accordingly, on the basis of recommendations of the Board of Higher Education and the Scholarship Commission, I shall submit to you a plan to rationalize and expand our student aid programs. This plan will entail both a major increase in the student loan program and a greater degree of flexibility in the scholarship program. I shall request your prompt action on my proposals in this crucial field.

The Bateman Commission Report

Less than one month ago the State Aid to School Districts Study Commission released its long-awaited report.

The objective of the new incentive equalization program recommended by the Commission—to enable all local school districts, regardless of their wealth, to provide educational programs of high quality without confiscatory local property tax rates—is articulated in compelling fashion in this report. I am fully prepared to work with you in a strong bipartisan manner to support the program advanced by this report.

The distinguished chairman of the Commission, Senator Bateman, has properly called for public hearings on this revised State support program. I am especially concerned that such hearings will pay particular attention to the effect of municipal "overloads" upon the ability of a local district to finance its educational program. All school districts in New Jersey require a major increase in State aid, but any formula revision simply must take into full account the special burdens of our hardest pressed communities.

The State Board of Education will receive shortly the report of a distinguished committee which has been examining for two years the status of school district organization in New Jersey. That Board is properly concerned that quality education is not possible where a district must limit services and opportunities to students because of its uneconomical size. I urge you to give careful consideration to the recommendations to be made on this important subject by the State Board of Education.

I also expect the Bateman Commission hearings to explore the question of incentives for the consolidation of small and uneconomical school districts—a goal strongly advocated by such groups as the New Jersey Taxpayers' Association. Such incentives and efforts by school districts would have two purposes: first, to ensure education of high quality in all school districts; and second, to guarantee to overburdened local property taxpayers throughout the State a maximum return on their local school tax dollars.

A BILL OF RIGHTS FOR NEW JERSEY CONSUMERS

"Cheaters never win!" All of us can remember this stern admonition from our childhood. And yet, at the edge of our great private enterprise system, cheaters today all too often do win, and their triumphs come at the expense of those among us who can least afford it. The housewife, the working man, the poor, the elderly, and the legitimate businessman himself—all are daily victims of a small but efficient group of specialists in fraud and sharp dealing.

The loss to any citizen of $100 because of fraud is no less outrageous than burglary from him of that same sum. In the interest of both consumers and the overwhelming majority of honorable businessmen, I believe that we must act firmly and promptly.

Accordingly, I request you today to enact a Bill of Rights for New Jersey Consumers. The first ten articles of this Bill of Rights are measures that I have recommended to you without success on previous occasions and upon which I trust that you will now act. These measures would:

The First Ten Articles

1. Guarantee that an innocent buyer will not be forced to pay full value for defective merchandise or incomplete repairs merely because his installment debt has been transferred to a third person. This unfair condition can be remedied by a modification of the present "holder in due course" rule.
2. Guarantee the presence of public members on all professional boards so that the voice of the public may be heard and the concerns of the consumer presented in connection with the regulation of professions and businesses which provide vital and essential services to our citizens.
3. Guarantee the workingman that he will not be abandoned when he is most in need of help by providing that he may not be fired from his employment solely because his wages have been garnisheed.
4. Guarantee that the amount of wages exempt from garnishment reflects the economic standards of 1969, rather than those of 1915, as required by present law. Specifically, I ask you to raise the weekly exemption from $18 to $68 and the yearly exemption from $2,500 to $5,000.
5. Guarantee that the innocent consumer will be fully assured by a clear and legible label that any rebuilt or reconditioned appliance is so designated.
6. Guarantee that our elderly and retired citizens will not be left penniless or homeless because of an ill-advised or uninformed investment in a dishonest "retirement community" or other such development. This purpose can be achieved by requiring full disclosure of the financial resources of developers dealing in this type of facilities and the approval of such projects by the State Bureau of Housing. Such legislation will be hailed by the vast majority of honest developers who now suffer from the unscrupulous practices of a few.

7. Guarantee our citizens that any door-to-door salesman who calls at their homes will have been licensed either by individual municipalities—which now have the power to so license—or by the State.
8. Guarantee that bereaved citizens will receive from morticians an itemized list of services, and charges therefor, to be included in the price of the funeral.
9. Guarantee that those seeking to borrow money on a second mortgage will not be tricked by one who, while holding himself out to be a lender, is merely a broker for a finance company located in another State, which does not meet our high standards of examination, regulation, and licensure.
10. Guarantee, by prohibiting the sending of unsolicited credit cards, that our citizens will not be forced into involuntary contracts or thereby be jeopardized by potential litigation.

Further Articles for the Bill of Rights

Above and beyond these measures, I ask you to add to this Bill of Rights for New Jersey Consumers the following articles, which would:

1. Guarantee that those of our citizens who buy on credit, especially those who are poor and uneducated, will be given true and honest information as to what their loan is costing them.

To this end, I propose that New Jersey adopt a truth-in-lending law requiring all credit merchants to set forth the true annual interest rate.

Truth in lending will enable our citizens to make more informed credit decisions. At present, New Jersey residents owe approximately $5 billion in short-term consumer debt. It is estimated that the annual interest paid on this debt is approximately $750 million. Should credit costs decline by even one percent as a result of this legislation, our citizens would realize a savings of $50 million. I caution you that this is a savings that the people of this State will not allow us to ignore.

2. Guarantee that the proposed revisions in the Weights and Measures Law, which are clearly in the public interest, be promptly enacted.

3. Guarantee that any merchandise sent to a consumer without his prior consent is a "gift" which he may dispose of in any way he sees fit without being liable for payment.

4. Guarantee the expansion and clarification of the recently enacted 48 Hour Cooling Off Period Act so that cash as well as installment transactions will be covered if they are made door-to-door. Moreover, the time frame of this Act should be amended to 72 hours so that it will conform with recently passed federal legislation.

5. Guarantee that our citizens shall not be victimized by so-called "non-performance penalties" by prohibiting them. At present, purchasers are on occasion required to pay as much as 50% on a cancelled contract when no work whatsoever has taken place.

6. Guarantee our citizens protection from unethical or high-pressure tactics while providing full opportunities for legitimate debts to be recovered by providing for the licensing of all collection agencies by the Department of Banking and Insurance.

7. Guarantee to every owner of a television or radio that he will receive fair and competent repair work by requiring the licensing and bonding of all television and radio repair mechanics by the Office of Consumer Protection.

8. Guarantee the protection of every car owner in the State by requiring that all auto mechanics be examined and certified by the Office of Consumer Protection and that they provide security bonds.

9. Guarantee the full protection of every homeowner by requiring the furnishing of security bonds by all persons, firms, or corporations holding themselves out as doing home repair or home improvement work.

10. Guarantee protection of all drivers by requiring the clear, legible, and proper labeling of all reconditioned, recapped, or re-treaded tires.

11. Guarantee that all citizens will be protected from the harsh and unjust application of our present lien laws. All too often homeowners have been forced to pay twice for the same home repairs or improvement work. Amendments to our present lien laws to remedy this unjust condition have long been warranted.

12. Guarantee that in all civil cases involving fraud in a sales transaction, the aggrieved party shall be allowed to recover punitive damages.

13. Guarantee that every effort will be made to safeguard the public from inadvertent damage to gas pipelines by requiring contractors or other persons to notify gas companies when excavating in the vicinity of gas pipes.

14. Guarantee that the public interest will be protected in all proceedings for general insurance rate increases which, in the opinion of the Commissioner of Banking and Insurance, have sufficient impact on a substantial number of the premium-paying public, by formalizing the appointment of a rate counsel to defend the public in insurance rate increase cases. The cost of the defender should be paid by the industries requesting the rate increase in a manner similar to the present practice in public utility rate applications. The potential benefit of such a public rate counsel has been demonstrated conclusively in connection with applications for increased Blue Shield rates and, most recently, for automobile insurance rate increases, the latter case having already yielded a saving of $42 million to New Jersey motorists.

15. Guarantee that penalties imposed by the Office of Consumer Protection serve as an effective deterrent to sharp business practices by increasing the present maximum fine from $100 per offense to $1,000.

Divisional Status for Consumer Protection

The Office of Consumer Protection has performed its crucial function with great distinction. During the past fiscal year the Office processed to completion nearly 6,000 complaints that were brought to its attention by New Jersey consumers, and recovered approximately $400,000 on their behalf. At present, the Office, although working at full capacity, has a backlog of some 6,000 cases, and the number is growing larger every day.

Moreover, the Office properly seeks to expand its role in consumer education programs in our schools and for the public-at-large. Furthermore, new responsibilities will devolve upon the Office in connection with the Bill of Rights for Consumers that I have placed before you.

Accordingly, I ask you to provide new strength for the Office by formalizing it as a Division of Consumer Protection within the Department of Law and Public Safety. Such action would enable the Office to build upon its impressive record of achievement to date and to ensure that the rights of New Jersey consumers will be fully protected.

HEALTH—THE BIRTHRIGHT OF OUR CITIZENS

Throughout my administration I have held the strong conviction that of all of my responsibilities as Governor, the protection and support of the health of the people of this State is among the very highest. With the cooperation of the Legislature, this administration has registered a long series of notable achievements in the health field, and their successful implementation has been made possible because of the deep concern and full dedication of the thousands of men and women in New Jersey whose principal concern is the health of our fellow citizens.

I have in mind not only the doctors and nurses, scientists and technicians, and all other professionals in the health field, but also the hundreds of selfless private citizens who serve as trustees of our hospitals, managers of our institutional boards, members of distinguished boards and councils, and leaders in fund-raising drives for so many worthy health purposes. Together these people have compiled a proud record in many spheres of health activity—a record for which we have reason to be grateful.

New Problems and New Solutions

Notwithstanding these great assets, it is clear that our health system in all its parts is confronted with problems of the highest magnitude. Rapidly rising costs and severe shortages of manpower, for example, are the rule rather than the exception in many sectors of the health field. In addition, new federal programs addressed to the training of health personnel and the delivery of health services have placed on State government, as well as private institutions, new and extraordinary opportunities—and burdens as well. Those of us who do not administer but receive health care know full well—sometimes all too well—how considerable these problems really are. And we have become increasingly aware that the outstanding medical care that our health system is capable of providing simply does not reach a large number of our people.

These thorny new problems require firm and decisive action by private citizens and government alike, for we have no more precious birthright to safeguard than the health of our people. During the past year this administration has examined with care a range of possible actions to improve our performance in the health field. With the help of both State authorities and many private groups and individuals, such as the Roundtable on Health Policies of the Woodrow Wilson School of Princeton University, I have decided upon a program of essential action. The measures to which I now direct your earnest attention—and which I shall submit to you promptly in extensive detail in a special message—are as follows:

1. An increase in State aid to local health agencies effective January 1, 1970, to $1.80 per capita in order to strengthen the effectiveness of these agencies.
2. A bill to facilitate the establishment, on a permissive basis, of county health departments and consolidated health districts in order to realize the full benefits of regional health services.
3. The expansion of the Crippled Children's program, which provides assistance to families whose children are afflicted with crippling diseases, in order to treat a greater range of these tragic illnesses.

4. The establishment of a chronic kidney disease program to provide lifesaving dialysis services to persons afflicted with this grave condition. Without such services those who suffer from this disease will die; but because of their high cost these services are at present unavailable to many persons who would otherwise be able to live a full and productive life.

5. The establishment of a series of maternal and infant care projects, to be administered by the Department of Health, to reduce the tragically high level of infant mortality in a number of our cities.

6. The extension of the highly successful recruitment and re-training program for inactive nurses.

7. The initiation of a health services research and demonstration program by the Department of Health to develop improved methods for the delivery of health care, particularly for low-income persons, by means of neighborhood health centers and other mechanisms.

8. The creation of a War Veterans Commission within the Department of Institutions and Agencies to improve the entire range of institutional services to disabled veterans.

9. The establishment of a Health Economics Unit within the new Division of Medical Assistance and Health Services in the Department of Institutions and Agencies, which will administer the Medicaid program. This Unit will evaluate the reimbursement structure for health services and, with the approval of the State Treasurer, set rates to be paid by all State agencies.

10. The passage of a Laboratory Improvement Act to ensure the high quality of work performed by clinical laboratories.

11. Consideration by the Legislature of the advisability of a program of State support for the construction and rehabilitation of hospitals and health facilities throughout the State.

12. The requirement of a certificate of need for any proposed expansion or change in physical facilities which significantly affects the program of any health care institution.

13. The extension of the Medicaid program to include, at moderate cost, those persons who should be included even in a modest Medicaid program, namely, children under twenty-one in families that are made medically needy by virtue of catastrophic illness; persons who would otherwise qualify for federal public assistance programs and whose income has fallen below assistance levels by virtue of illness; and recipients of general assistance.

14. Redesignation of the Commission for the Blind—which, like so many health agencies of State government performs outstanding but largely unsung services—as the Commission for the Blind and Visually Handicapped, to reflect its true role.

I shall detail these proposals—and my further ideas for action in such crucial areas as mental health, mental retardation, vocational rehabilitation, and comprehensive health planning—in my forthcoming special message.

TRANSPORTATION—A TIME FOR RAPID ADVANCE

In its first two years of operation the Department of Transportation has amply justified its creation. The Department has organized its complex programs into an overall master plan that charts the way to essential improvements in New Jersey's entire transportation network. The overwhelming public approval of the 1968 transportation bond issue testifies to public confidence in the Department's planning and objectives. Its passage will now enable the State to carry out a major highway construction program and an equally important public transportation program, particularly with regard to our commuter railroads.

Immediate Action on Bond Issue Appropriations

The Department is fully prepared to move ahead on these vital programs with dispatch. But as yet you have not appropriated any bond issue funds for this purpose. The people's vote on the transportation bond issue was a clear indication of their desire for prompt and decisive action. I therefore trust that you will proceed immediately with this program, especially in view of the fact that every working day you delay will mean a loss of $1 million in highway construction output.

If you take prompt action—and if the present freeze on federal highway funds does not extend beyond June 30—the Department should be able to achieve in 1969 an all-time highway construction record of $250 million—$175 million in actual construction contracts and the balance in right-of-way acquisition and engineering. In view of the tragic death and injury toll on our highways and the need to complete such long-delayed facilities as Interstate 80 and 280, the Department must have your full and immediate support in its drive to move forward.

Progress in Public Transit

The transportation bond issue will also enable the Department to carry out its comprehensive program to rehabilitate and re-equip the commuter rail service to our metropolitan centers. In 1969 the Department plans to order some new equipment for these lines and to start on station and parking improvements. Construction of the new high speed station on the Penn Central line at the Garden State Parkway will be started this spring. Upon its completion in less than a year, it will provide improved services for commuters and those who utilize high speed service in the New York to Washington corridor.

Improved Commuter Service

Critical policy problems, however, with regard to the State's relationship with the carriers that provide this essential rail service will have to be resolved in 1969. The Department has already conferred with these carriers to ensure that the State's investment in these facilities will in fact produce the improvements in service to which our citizens are entitled. To this end the Department will keep close watch on the management and operation of these lines, and will advise you should any legislative adjustments in this sphere be required.

Rail Link to Newark Airport

I call your attention as well to the vital question of improved access to Newark Airport. I have requested the Port of New York Authority to reexamine its position on the construction of a rail link to the airport in view of several material factors, including the passage of the Meadowlands redevelopment bill, the approval of the transportation bond issue, and the major expansion of Newark Airport itself. In view of the great new demands on Newark Airport that will be associated with these developments, the question of improved access to the airport must have the highest priority.

More Than Rails

Since 1959 the State's commitment to public transportation has been limited largely to the preservation of suburban rail service. This emphasis stems from threatened loss of this service when Congress relieved rail carriers of most of their financial responsibilities for passenger operations. The vital nature of this service—which affects twelve counties and provides critical relief to our highways during peak traffic hours in our most urbanized centers—has justified this attention. We must nonetheless realize that other public transportation services are also vital and merit our serious concern.

Last year, for example, the serious financial problems of local bus carriers in two counties impelled the passage of a measure to permit counties to ensure the preservation of critical bus service. It is unlikely that this action will eliminate the need for further governmental concern in the bus sector. We know, for example, that the Lindenwold line, which has just commenced service, will have a pronounced effect on the viability of bus service in the Camden area even though there is a compelling need to ensure the continuation of bus service compatible with the high speed line. The bankruptcy of the Inter-City Transportation Company in northern New Jersey; the threatened abandonment of the city subway service now operated by Public Service Coordinated Transport Company; and the interest of Public Service Electric and Gas Company in relinquishing its bus operations—all these cases are dramatic evidence of how quickly conditions in this sector are changing.

The Importance of Buses

The importance of bus transportation to this State is clear from the fact that Public Service Coordinated Transport Company alone carries about 700,000 riders per day in comparison with 125,000 daily trips provided by all of our rail carriers other than PATH. It is no exaggeration to state that the economic survival of many of our urban centers depends directly on the preservation of this service.

The Department has placed our urban transportation requirements under careful review so that you and I will be able to consider in an orderly fashion what action, if any, may be advisable in this sector. I have requested the Department to complete work on the urban transportation survey at the earliest possible date, and I shall transmit it to you for your consideration as soon as it is available.

An Area for Prompt Action

In one aspect of bus transportation I have asked the Department to act in advance of the completion of its report. I refer to the provision of improved public transportation facilities for low-income urban dwellers who are seeking employment in suburban locations. The Department, in conjunction with other public agencies and employer groups, has initiated the first demonstration program to provide transportation for North Jersey residents to employment centers in the Meadowlands. I have directed the Department to explore further ways to improve the transportation of low-income urban residents to employment locations.

Regional Planning Agencies

In recent years the federal government has conditioned its grants on the existence of an adequate and comprehensive regional planning effort. Long before such planning activities were so mandated, this State moved to develop a regional planning effort to help ensure coordination of governmental actions both within New Jersey and with our neighboring states. The Tri-State Transportation Commission was created in 1961 and pre-dates even the earliest federal efforts in this sphere.

The legislation creating this Commission, however, provides for its termination on March 1, 1969, unless it is continued by action of the three member states. In conjunction with representatives of these states we have prepared an extender bill to continue the agency for another five years and broaden its scope so that it satisfies more recent federal requirements for regional planning. I request your immediate action on this bill to ensure the continued qualification of State and local governments for numerous federal aid programs.

There is a similar situation in respect of the Delaware Valley Regional Planning Commission, and I request extender legislation for this important Commission as well.

Action Against Traffic Congestion and Hazard

With funds from the Federal Highway Act of 1968, the Department has moved vigorously in cooperation with urban municipalities to develop programs to alleviate severe traffic congestion and hazard by means of modern traffic engineering concepts and devices. Under this program the Department has recommended that 70% of the federal funds—$6 million—be assigned to local governments, with the remainder going for improvement of traffic control devices on the many State highways that now serve as city streets.

At present, authority over traffic control devices on county and municipal roads is vested in the Division of Motor Vehicles. But because the federal act places responsibility for approving use of federal funds in the Transportation Department, it would be advisable, in the interest of processing local projects with the maximum possible speed, to transfer approval authority for such traffic control devices to the Department, which now exercises this authority on State roads. I ask you to authorize this transfer of authority at an early moment.

Vigorous Action for Greater Highway Safety

In recognition of the frightening carnage on our highways, the federal government established a sweeping highway safety program in 1966. Through the State Highway Safety Program Liaison Office, which I created by executive order, New Jersey has moved rapidly to obtain a number of significant grants to improve highway safety. These grants will make possible projects ranging from the purchase of helicopters for State Police patrol of our Interstate highways, to the purchase of driver simulator devices for a local school district. These efforts, which extend as well to such important fields as emergency medical services, complement the work of outstanding volunteer ambulance and rescue squads and other groups devoted to the safety of the motoring public.

This Office has evaluated the State's highway safety program in relation to federal standards issued last year. This evaluation has revealed almost total compliance with these standards in such areas as motor vehicle inspection, registration, driver licensing, and highway design.

But at the same time there are significant gaps in important fields such as driver education. New Jersey does not at present ensure that every youth of driver age has available to him a driver education course administered by State education officials, as federal standards require, and I commend your attention to this problem. Similarly, you should examine the question of periodic driver re-examination and classified licenses, with which federal standards also deal.

The Highway Safety Office has performed its critical mission with great effectiveness during its short tenure. To date it has functioned under executive order, and I shall ask you to formalize its role in State government with appropriate legislation.

A Strengthened Division of Motor Vehicles

New Jersey's motor vehicle inspection system is widely regarded as one of the nation's best and most effective. But the enormous growth in motor vehicles in this State—more than three million vehicles are now registered—has outstripped the capacity of our present inspection facilities.

State government must always be alert to the concerns of the average citizen, and when State operations do not fully serve him, we must act with determination and dispatch.

Accordingly, I ask you to strengthen the operations of the Division of Motor Vehicles by authorizing the immediate construction of ten additional vehicle inspection facilities at critical locations throughout the State. A number of these facilities, which have been programmed in the Division's capital plan, will be multi-purpose in nature. That is, they will incorporate facilities for inspection, licensing, and driver testing under one roof in order to deliver the most effective possible service to motorists.

I believe these new facilities should be made available to the motoring public at the earliest possible date. Only a small portion of their cost, however, has been appropriated, and to finance their full and immediate construction, I ask you to authorize a loan from the Public Employees' Retirement System pension fund. This loan would be amortized over a twenty-year period at a fair and reasonable interest rate. I do not believe that this fund should become available at any time for general State construction purposes. But on an emergency basis such as here, I consider such use justified. Certainly if you intend to finance the construction of a new legislative office building by means of the pension fund, you will be prepared to utilize the fund in the interest of New Jersey's suffering motorists.

Furthermore, I shall request your full support of my budget recommendations for the Division so that the necessary additional personnel for the improved inspection and other services that I seek will be available. Those personnel are essential if present facilities, as well as new stations, are to operate at full capacity. Moreover, they will help relieve the present delay in driver testing—and this relief is another important objective of the Division. I consider these improvements in service to our motorists of top priority, and I trust that you will support my recommendations to achieve this purpose.

The Jetport—Balancing People and Progress

As New Jersey enters 1969, we are still confronted by the difficult problem of providing adequate airport facilities for our State and region. The jetport problem extends back an entire decade and presents one of the most difficult transportation problems this region must resolve. In a day and age when aviation represents the fastest growing sector of transportation, in terms of passengers and goods, we cannot afford to risk the economic consequences of inadequate facilities in this critical area.

A resolution of this problem, however, requires more than the selection of a site which is technically and economically suitable for development. It requires a recognition that these major projects, symbols of the interaction between rapidly growing technology and a rapidly expanding population, must be undertaken in a manner that is responsive as well to other equally important social needs, especially those of the residents of potentially affected areas. The enormous difficulty involved in striking this balance is clear to everyone who has studied the jetport question in any depth.

My desire to minimize the impact of such a major new facility on the surrounding population has prompted me to lead the efforts to locate a new jetport at McGuire, surrounded and insulated as it is by a vast military reservation, or in the Pinelands, which is also relatively free of residential concentrations. To date these efforts have encountered the obstacles of conflicting military requirements and the need that a jetport be largely or fully self-supporting. Emphasis on this latter point—economic self-sufficiency for a jetport—stems from general agreement that the taxpaying public would properly oppose underwriting the cost of any such facility if there is any possible alternative.

During the past year we received the extremely useful and comprehensive report prepared by the Economic Evaluation Committee chaired by J. Seward Johnson. I have requested the U. S. Secretary of Transportation, through the Federal Aviation Administration, to undertake an up-to-date simulation study of air space and attendant problems in view of the data in this report. I have also requested the State Department of Transportation to review and evaluate the report, and I am advised that this document should be available shortly.

Last year I asked you to authorize the establishment of a New Jersey Jetport Authority that would serve as a focal point for all the State's efforts to resolve this problem. I call on you again today to establish this Authority, which would be charged with the resolution of the jetport question, subject to the action of the Legislature. If you adopt this recommendation, I shall direct to the Authority the forthcoming reports from the State and federal Transportation Departments to help this body break the long-standing deadlock on this matter and bring it to final resolution.

NATURAL RESOURCES—A TIME FOR FIRM ACTION

Water Policy

The past year has demonstrated anew the need for the unified management of New Jersey's water resources. At present more than 300 agencies are responsible for delivery of water to the ultimate consumer. As the distinguished Capital Needs Commission has pointed out, no one company or supplier has either the capacity or the responsibility to develop and finance a statewide plan to protect and utilize the water resources that our people require now and in the future.

In 1958, in conjunction with the development of the Round Valley-Spruce Run reservoir system, my predecessor, Governor Meyner, recommended that the State be responsible for the development of transmission lines from those facilities to the ultimate users. The Legislature rejected this approach, and responsibility for such water transmission was later vested in the North Jersey District Water Supply Commission.

In the protracted and frustrating legal battles between the Commission and the City of Newark that have stemmed from this legislative decision, we have seen further evidence that strong water management by impartial experts who represent the interests of all the people of New Jersey is required. In recent months four bodies have examined this question in detail. The Department of Conservation and Economic Development, the Commission on Efficiency and Economy in State Government, the Capital Needs Commission, and a special bipartisan legislative committee ably chaired by Assemblyman Rinaldi have all examined this difficult problem with great care.

While the legislative committee has not yet reported, and while there are reasonable differences among the views of these other groups, there is one unifying theme on water policy to which I adhere completely :

The State should assume responsibility for the protection of existing reservoir sites and acquisition of new sites, and ultimate responsibility for the allocation of water to all of our citizens.

The Need to Harmonize Interests

Water resources cannot be allowed to become the subject of petty squabbles among competing entities. Ultimate responsibility for the development and implementation of a master plan for water supply must be the State's. Any such plan must obviously be the product of full and objective consultation with all interested parties. It must also protect the huge financial investments and programs of the many agencies, both public and private, which have been supplying water to our citizens for many years. But in the final analysis, the State must ensure that all individual interests are welded together to preserve the larger interest of the entire State.

Accordingly, I shall present to you a water program with the following objectives :

A Water Referendum

1. Acquisition of additional reservoir sites, as proposed by the Department of Conservation and Economic Development and recommended by the Capital Needs Commission. As the Commission pointed out :

“In the past, procrastination in acquiring reservoir sites has led to the loss of sites as the land has been used for either residential or industrial purposes, and it is all too obvious that delay has increased acquisition costs tremendously. Reservoir sites are unique in that only certain areas are suitable because of their peculiar terrain. Even if we were to discount the economic effect of rising land costs, we cannot overlook the result of losing a good potential site.”

These sites should be acquired with general obligation bonds authorized by referendum.

The Capital Needs Commission recommended such action, as well as action on the critical question of water pollution control. Last year you deferred my request to place a referendum on water pollution control and water supply before the people, but many of you expressed a strong desire to act on this urgent matter this year.

My position on this measure remains unchanged. And if you are prepared to proceed now in the same outstanding bipartisan manner that yielded such excellent results in the 1968 bond issues, I shall work with you for the passage of a single bond issue, of modest size, for these essential joint water purposes.

A reservoir site acquisition program should provide for payments in lieu of taxes to communities and counties, as with the Round Valley and Spruce Run reservoirs. Moreover, such sites should be planned and developed for multi-purpose recreational use, as contemplated by the outdoor recreation plan of the Department of Conservation and Economic Development.

Interconnection

2. Construction of major aqueducts and distribution trunk lines to interconnect existing water systems with projected new systems. As a minimum, this should include interconnection of our river basins with a pipeline from the Delaware to the Raritan and from the Passaic to the Hackensack. Such action will provide maximum flexibility in serving every area of the State and, in effect, establish a positive safeguard against drought. The cost of this distribution system can be borne either through general obligation bonds or revenue bonds issued by a State agency.

Water Plan Development Board

3. Formation of a Water Plan Development Board in the Department of Conservation and Economic Development, composed of the Commissioner of that Department as well as the Commissioners of Health and Community Affairs, the Secretary of Agriculture, and the President of the Public Utilities Commission. The Board will be charged with preparing long-term plans to ensure an adequate water supply system for all of our citizens. It will also submit an annual comprehensive water development and management program statement. Staff work for this Board will be provided chiefly by the Division of Water Supply and Control in the Department of Conservation and Economic Development and the Division of State and Regional Planning in the Department of Community Affairs, with further assistance from other departments represented on the Board.

In passing on the diversion of water, the Water Policy and Supply Council will be guided by the Board's master plan and annual reports.

Water Board of Arbitration

4. Establishment of a permanent standing Water Board of Arbitration, an administrative agency with authority to hear and adjudicate disputes having to do with the allocation or construction of water facilities. The right of appeal to our courts would, of course, continue, but this Board can significantly increase the speed with which such disputes are settled.

I shall also submit legislation requesting extraordinary powers for the Department of Conservation and Economic Development in the event of a water emergency.

Desalinization

I am hopeful that a strong bi-partisan effort to achieve these objectives will permit us to say that this administration and this Legislature have joined together to preserve New Jersey's water assets for untold future generations. It should be noted that the State is making every possible effort to utilize desalinization processes and thus develop additional water resources. Initial studies have indicated that the cost of desalting at this time is considerably more expensive than the developing of our present water resources. By the year 2000, however, some method of reusing or desalting water may well be essential. To this end the State is engaged in joint pilot efforts with the Office of Saline Water of the U. S. Department of Interior and with the Public Service Electric and Gas Company.

Construction of the Pipeline

One immediate problem must be resolved: construction of a water transmission line from Spruce Run and Round Valley. As I have indicated, the Legislature in 1962 mandated this task to the North Jersey District Water Supply Commission but did not provide for any State financial support. Although the City of Newark is now reappraising the feasibility and costs of its water supply authority, and although the City's position in its dispute with the Commission has consistently been found without merit by the courts, nevertheless protracted litigation threatens a further delay in construction.

Despite our statistics on projected rainfall levels, none of us can firmly guarantee that an act of God will not put our water resources in peril. We therefore cannot permit any further delay in pipeline construction. If reason cannot prevail and an end to this litigation is not immediately in sight, I shall ask you by new legislative action to provide for a prompt beginning of pipeline construction.

Wild Rivers

The State will move this year, as provided by federal law, to designate specific rivers for preservation of scenic, historic, or recreational sites. The Department of Conservation and Economic Development will include this program in the State outdoor recreation plan, and I shall ask you for legislation to provide further protection for such rivers.

Skylands

During the next decade, the need for recreational resources will increase enormously. Expanded opportunities for fishing, boating, hunting, and camping must be provided for our growing population.

I therefore call your attention once again to the Skylands plan, which I commended to you last year. Much of the land in question has already been purchased under the Green Acres program. Only the additional protection of a Skylands bill will preserve this investment and secure to our citizens these invaluable open spaces, public forests, and woodlands.

AIR AND WATER POLLUTION CONTROL— A DYNAMIC RECORD

New Jersey has rightly earned national recognition for having enacted in 1967 the country's strongest pollution control statutes, and for the fair but firm enforcement of those statutes. The Division of Clean Air and Water in the Department of Health, with substantial assistance from a pollution control task force designated by the Attorney General, has moved vigorously to prevent and abate the contamination of our environment.

In 1968 alone, the Department issued more than 750 administrative orders to persons, firms, and municipalities for the abatement of air and water pollution, and 170 penalty actions were undertaken in cases where violations were repeated or control efforts dilatory. In addition, the Attorney General, on behalf of the Department, successfully moved 48 injunctive proceedings in cases against substantial, continuing sources of air and water pollution. Upon application of the State, the court ordered nine municipalities in Morris County to cease the issuance of building permits until adequate facilities were provided to dispose of liquid wastes generated in these communities.

Improved Air Quality

Last year New Jersey adopted the first statewide regulation of the sulfur content of fuel. It is estimated that conformity with this regulation has already achieved a reduction of more than 280,000 tons per year, or 41%, of sulfur dioxide entering our northern metropolitan atmosphere. Last year as well the more than 6,000 incinerators operating in the State were brought under air pollution regulation.

In cooperation with the Department, industry in New Jersey last year implemented air pollution control devices that will prevent the emission into our atmosphere of 380,000 tons per year of solid particulates, more than 158,000 tons of sulfur compounds, and more than 25,000 tons of solvents, vapors, acids, and other contaminants. This outstanding progress must and shall continue.

Water Pollution Control

Last year the State's new water quality standards were approved by the U. S. Secretary of Interior. The key issues in water pollution control are now the regionalization of treatment facilities and the funding of capital needs. Last year the courts upheld the Department's authority to require municipalities to join together for the construction and operation of regional sewage treatment plants, rather than have each provide its own. The Department has funded and completed engineering studies for most of the State's drainage basins and has produced a plan for regionalization based on topography, population, growth trends, and costs.

As the distinguished Capital Needs Commission observed last year, the State must help defray the cost of these essential treatment facilities. This State contribution, which means so much to communities throughout the State, would be included in a water supply and pollution control bond issue, which, as I have said above, I believe you should authorize this year. Your choice is to permit water pollution in New Jersey to grow still worse, or to act now to end this scourge on our communities.

BUSINESS AND GOVERNMENT—A PRODUCTIVE PARTNERSHIP

The past year has seen dramatic evidence of the highly productive partnership between New Jersey's great business community and State government. The enactment of revisions in the corporation law has ushered in a new era of promise and progress for business in New Jersey. And other efforts by State government in such fields as transportation, education, and urban redevelopment will have enormous significance for a thriving and concerned business community. The forthcoming development of the Hackensack Meadowlands, the South Jersey Port area, and other crucial projects that resulted from our joint action last year will accrue to the benefit of business and government alike.

Landmark Measures in Banking and Insurance

You have passed the so-called branch banking bills, which are designed to provide new avenues of progress to New Jersey's financial community. I have now completed my review of the three banking bills, and I shall sign them into law shortly at a public ceremony.

The past year has also seen New Jersey become the first State in the nation to implement a property insurance plan for urban areas in accordance with the recommendations of the President's National Advisory Panel on Insurance, of which I served as chairman. This essential program will enable homeowners and businessmen alike in our urban areas to obtain property insurance without which their economic survival would be gravely jeopardized.

Last year as well, in a landmark decision, the Commissioner of Banking and Insurance denied a request for an increase in automobile insurance rates after a vigorous and expertly litigated contest. This decision has already saved the motorists of this State some $42 million. But severe problems in this field remain, as the increase in automobile policy cancellations has demonstrated. The Commissioner of Banking and Insurance has made it clear that he will not countenance any arbitrary cancellations. But at the root of this problem are structural pressures having to do with the nature of automobile insurance itself. This question merits your serious attention.

I also ask you to vest the Commissioner with discretionary authority to determine the frequency of State examination of insurance companies in New Jersey, while maintaining a requirement for at least one examination every five years. Present law calls for a lengthy examination every three years but fails to recognize variations among insurance companies in reliability and stability. Such legislation will enhance the Commissioner's capacity to perform his regulatory function in the public interest.

Reclaiming the Meadowlands—An Historic Start

One of our finest joint achievements in 1968 was the passage of the Hackensack Meadowlands Reclamation and Development Act, which I proudly signed into law yesterday. The Commission created by this Act can now begin to handle the enormous financial, engineering, planning, and jurisdictional problems that Meadowlands redevelopment will entail.

This Act was passed notwithstanding numerous objections by parties at interest. Indeed, the last-minute insertion into the Meadowlands bill of critically damaging amendments prompted by such objections impelled me to veto this measure conditionally, and you thereupon agreed to return to S-477. I stated at that time, however, and again yesterday, that I am prepared to consider remedial legislation to cure harmful inequities occasioned by this Act, provided that the integrity of the Act, and the capacity of the Commission to perform its duties, will not thereby be inhibited. Today I repeat that pledge.

The Act also contains provisions for the prompt and equitable determination of the State's interest in meadowlands throughout the State. The fair and reasonable process set forth in the Act will permit the settlement of this troublesome problem, which in the past has adversely affected the development of these meadowlands, and will also assure crucial revenues to the School Fund, as provided for in the New Jersey Constitution.

International Trade Corporation

The Department of Conservation and Economic Development and the State Economic Development Council have in the past initiated trade missions to help develop an international market for the businesses of this State. Nevertheless, the complex procedures and trade requirements associated with international commerce have reduced the participation of some of our businesses in this dynamic market.

I am therefore pleased to report that the State, in cooperation with the New Jersey Manufacturers Association, is moving to create a statewide international trade corporation to promote interest in overseas markets and to serve as a clearing house for licensure, documentation, and other information that will be helpful to our business community in its efforts to expand international trade.

Development of Marine Resources

I am also pleased to report that the Department is embarking on a program of oceanographic research and development to help preserve and develop our invaluable marine resources.

TO GUARANTEE OUR PEOPLE'S RIGHTS

You are well aware of the many legislative milestones we have passed on the road to the elimination of discrimination in this State. Last year I urged an accelerated shift in emphasis from legislative to programmatic attacks on the problems that beset our various racial, ethnic, and religious minorities. My proposals in the fields of education, employment opportunity, urban revitalization, and other areas all reflected this purpose—and they do again this year. These proposals require your prompt attention.

Affirmative Action

In addition, within the Division on Civil Rights itself, you authorized the creation last year of an Affirmative Action unit to promote the ability of individual citizens successfully to assert their own full rights. This year I ask you to enact a measure to eliminate the exclusive nature of Division proceedings on behalf of persons whose civil rights have been violated. While the criminal penalties provided by the Law Against Discrimination would remain exclusive of all other criminal remedies, a person whose civil rights have been violated would be free to pursue his own civil remedies or to have the Division proceed in his behalf. This measure will enhance the Division's capacity to carry out its full mandate.

I also recommend that the Law Against Discrimination be amended to authorize the Director of the Division to order reimbursement to complainants who incur provable out-of-pocket loss as the proximate result of violations of this Law. This measure would apply to the inequitable situation, for example, in which a person is denied an apartment on the grounds of race and creed and is compelled to rent other quarters at a premium over the rent he would otherwise have paid. Simple justice demands that such a person be reimbursed to the extent that violation of the Law Against Discrimination has caused him provable out-of-pocket loss.

At present the Division has no jurisdiction to deal with complaints of discrimination on the basis of sex or age. These two omissions of jurisdiction have put our Law Against Discrimination out of step with the federal Civil Rights Act and also with the realities of the world in which we live. Accordingly, I ask you to amend the Law to correct these omissions.

Migrant Workers—The Need for Decisive Action

This administration has taken a number of important steps to improve the lives of the migrant workers who contribute so heavily to New Jersey's rich agricultural harvest. Legislation enacted in the recent past has mandated minimum wage coverage for agricultural workers, increased floor space in living quarters, pre-certification of migrant housing, and modern sanitation and sewerage facilities for farm workers.

But as the Task Force on Migrant Labor has made clear, further decisive action is essential. To coordinate and make more effective the efforts of all concerned State agencies in this field, I have created an interdepartmental cabinet committee on migrant problems consisting of the Commissioners of Labor and Industry, Education, Health, Institutions and Agencies, and Community Affairs, as well as the Secretary of Agriculture. This administration will also pay close attention to the forthcoming Atlantic Coast Interstate Migrant Panel meeting, which has stemmed from an exchange of views on this matter between the Governor of Florida and myself. Representatives of the Governors of all states in the Atlantic Coast migrant stream will come together for the first time to discuss, from an interstate perspective, the problems of migrant labor. These problems recognize no state boundary lines, and I am hopeful that this conference may impel the states involved to develop a more highly coordinated and effective attack on them.

Legislative Action Required Now

But there are three measures upon which I ask you to act during the present session :

1. Every citizen has the right to expect that the common carrier that transports him to and from work will be adequately maintained and rigorously inspected. As far as vehicles that transport migrant workers are concerned, however, as some tragic accidents have made clear, this right is not adequately guaranteed. I shall ask you for legislation to improve this condition.

2. The New Jersey Constitution states and preserves the right of persons in private employment to organize for the purpose of collective bargaining with their employers. No distinction is made in this constitutional language between farm and non-farm workers. It is clear that, as a matter of law, seasonal farm workers in New Jersey have a constitutional right to form labor unions and to bargain with their employers. Moreover, this right exists notwithstanding the refusal of Congress to extend the protections of the National Labor Relations Act to seasonal farm workers.

I shall submit to you a proposal to ensure this right in two ways: first, by making willful interference with the exercise of rights guaranteed to seasonal farm workers by Article I, Section 19, of the New Jersey Constitution a misdemeanor; and second, by authorizing the Attorney General, upon request of the Commissioner of Labor and Industry, to seek an injunction against threatened or actual interference with the exercise of rights protected under this section. These measures will ensure that the guaranty of the highest law of our State, the Constitution, will extend to seasonal farm workers.

3. The existence of legal questions as to the status of seasonal farm workers has often served to deny these workers rights enjoyed by their non-farm fellow workingmen. There is legal question, for example, as to whether a migrant worker who lives in a camp provided by his employer during the harvest season is a tenant for a period, a tenant at will, or a mere licensee.

The unhappy consequence of these questions is that farm workers are often denied the simple right to have visitors in reasonable numbers and at reasonable hours.

I therefore ask you to grant a statutory right of reasonable visitation to seasonal farm workers. Similar legislation was enacted a year ago in Massachusetts.

I also call your attention to Senate Bill No. 553 of 1968, which would have required employers of migrant workers to insure their potential liability under the Workmen's Compensation Act. After the Senate passed this measure, the Assembly declined to take action notwithstanding expressions of support from the growers of this State. I ask your prompt attention to this measure in 1969.

EFFICIENCY AND ECONOMY IN GOVERNMENT

I ask you to consider today the adoption for our State government of the federal practice regarding organization and reorganization of the structure of principal executive departments. Under federal practice, the President submits to Congress a plan specifying needed changes in the organizational structure of executive programs. Congress may veto the plan within 60 days of its submission. Otherwise it becomes law.

The tradition in New Jersey of creating by legislation even small State administrative units has led to a certain inflexibility in our executive structure. Adoption of the federal procedure will enable the executive branch, beginning in 1970, to respond quickly to new responsibilities, but will preserve for the Legislature full control over the structure of government. I urge you to take this action.

Funds for the Administrative Procedures Act

Last year you adopted, and I approved in principle, a major revision of the administrative procedures of State government. This measure will enhance the public interest in all administrative actions of State government officials. You have failed, however, to provide necessary funds with which to implement this important program. I urge your prompt action on this matter.

Savings for Local Government

During the past year, the Division of Local Finance in the Department of Community Affairs has helped many municipalities maintain and improve their bond rating. Subsequent bond sales under the newly adjusted ratings have resulted in verified savings of over $2 million in the last six months alone.

To save further local costs you should consider a measure to authorize, on an optional basis, the combination of State and local orders for equipment, books, or other materials on which bulk rate discounts can bring savings. This concept has been tested successfully in Bergen County, and you should consider authorizing the Division of Purchase and Property to promote State and local cost savings in this manner.

New Jersey Public Service Education Act

The growing responsibilities of State government require expert personnel, many of them in technical fields in which there is a shortage of manpower and strong competition for able professionals. For this reason, and in view of our pressing need for outstanding personnel to administer our air and water pollution control program, we established the Clean Air and Water Scholarship program.

This plan, which offers scholarship assistance to outstanding young students in the growing field of pollution control in return for work on their part in the Division of Clean Air and Water, is highly promising. Today I ask you to adopt a New Jersey Public Service Education Act that, by means of scholarship and loan assistance programs to excellent students, will extend this valuable concept to other areas of critical manpower need in State and local government. This Act will also enable professional State employees in critical fields to pursue advanced study in their field of expertise.

Commission on Efficiency and Economy

Last year you failed to provide normal appropriations for the Commission on Efficiency and Economy in State Government. This Commission has completed a number of highly useful reports on methods to improve the operations of State government. I trust that you will reconstitute the Commission and enable it to continue its important mission.

JUDICIAL ADMINISTRATION

The judicial system created by Article VI of the 1947 Constitution continues to be one which has flexibility and capacity to meet the problems of a growing burden of litigation. The streamlined procedures incident to that system, our competent bench, and the effective work of the Administrative Office of the Courts have combined to stand as a credit to the reputation of the State of New Jersey.

There is, nevertheless, still room for innovation and change in order to secure that flexibility and growth needed to meet unprecedented pressures from increased caseloads. At this time last year I suggested that the Legislature "consider the possibility of initiating a constitutional amendment to permit the merger of the county and superior courts, bearing in mind that the judges of those two courts already exercise parallel jurisdiction in a number of areas." I renew this request even more forcefully in view of the diminishing difference in the practical exercise of jurisdiction by these two categories of courts.

In April 1968, I recommended that the functions of the present municipal court system be merged into our unified State court system. Recognizing that many practical problems were presented by this proposal, I asked the creation of a commission to study the proposed transfer and recommend the best and most effective course of action. I renew this request.

To the credit of the Legislature, it has increased the levels of judicial compensation to enable the attraction to the bench of many fine and distinguished lawyers. This process of improvement could be completed by overhauling our judicial pension system, and I recommend that course of action at the earliest possible time.

TO INCREASE PUBLIC CONFIDENCE IN GOVERNMENT

It is the public's legitimate expectation that those elected or selected to do the work of government will do so with only a single thought—the public interest. It is the unquestioned obligation of everyone in public service to conduct himself in such a manner as to justify that expectation. As a much-needed and too-long delayed reform of the governmental process, I am strongly recommending that Conflicts of Interest laws be improved.

In 1967 I signed into law Chapter 229. I stated then that this measure was no more than a meaningful first step. I now propose that we complete that journey. Chapter 229 should be amended so as to require that all legislators and all members of the Executive Branch of government having Division-head status or above, disclose for the public record the names of any and all businesses in which they have a proprietary or substantial financial interest. This amendment would, of course, be an addition to, not a substitute for, existing requirements of disclosure for State employees or members of the Legislature who either deal directly with the State or represent other persons having interests adverse to those of the State.

Code of Ethics

In addition to the necessary improvement of the disclosure law, serious consideration should be given to the enactment of a legislative code of ethics, the violation of which would result in sanctions imposed by an impartial agency. As a minimum, such a code should include a bar against such actions by a member of the Legislature as:

1. Accepting outside employment which he has reason to believe would impair his independence of judgment as to official duties;
or

2. Wilfully or knowingly disclosing for pecuniary gain, confidential information acquired in the course of his official duties;
or

3. Participating by voting, or other action, in the enactment or defeat of legislation in which he has a personal interest, unless he makes that interest known to the Speaker of the Assembly or the President of the Senate, as the case may be, and certifies that in his opinion he can vote on the measure fairly and objectively and notwithstanding his personal interest.

Further, I would urge you to consider the adoption of a code of ethics which should be binding upon local officials. Manifestly, justice requires that the same norms of ethical conduct apply to these various categories of public officers.

Control of Lobbying Activities

Another matter deserving of immediate legislative attention is the strengthening of the Legislative Activities Disclosure Act. The legislative agent often provides valuable information and assistance to the busy legislator, but the public should know who approaches elected representatives for the purpose of influencing the course of legislation. Under the existing law, not all persons who engage in lobbying activities are required to register, nor are required reports sufficiently complete. The gaps in the existing law must be closed immediately in the public interest.

I also wish to draw your attention to the fact that under existing law many of the steadily growing number of agencies and commissions at the local government level are not required to file financial reports with the Division of Local Finance. I recommend legislation to provide the needed oversight so that the taxpayers of this State can be assured that their tax dollars are being spent in the most productive and economical way possible.

Other important matters which warrant your prompt action :

1. A return to the 60-day Rule of the Senate requiring that all gubernatorial nominations be acted upon either affirmatively or negatively within that period. No reasonable interpretation of the Senate's Constitutional responsibility to "advise and consent" can be made to justify the inexcusable burden placed upon our judicial system and many administrative agencies when important nominations are permitted to lie dormant for extended periods of time.

2. Adoption of a rule allowing the release from committee of any bill upon petition of one-third of the respective House. The public welfare demands an open and informed dialogue on the questions of the day, and worthwhile legislation should not be bottled up in committees that all too frequently fail to meet. The view that I express here was shared by Governor Alfred Driscoll, who called for a similar Rule in his Annual Message of 1953.

3. The final interment of the caucus system and all that it has come to mean in the eyes of the people of this State, who expect their laws to be written not in secret, but in full public view.

Public Employee Relations—A New Era

Last year, with the adoption of the Public Employees' Relations Act, a significant step was taken toward the establishment of a fair and equitable procedure for the resolution of legitimate public employee grievances. The Public Employees' Relations Commission (PERC) created by this act will provide a long-needed forum for open discussion and mutually respectful dialogue between government employers and employees. PERC is reporting today to this Legislature on its progress to date, and I know that you will find this report good reason for trust and confidence in this body.

Amendments Needed

I must point out, however, that the Public Employees' Relations Act is sorely in need of amendments to facilitate its administration and to unravel certain conceptual problems that result from unclear language. I outlined many of these defects last year in my conditional veto message, and I shall now forward for your consideration a bill that will substantially improve the law.

Against Destruction of Government

But one matter cannot wait, and I respectfully point out to you today that it requires your immediate action. In my conditional veto, which you chose to ignore, I asked this Legislature to disclaim publicly any intention on its part to permit work stoppages by public employees. In light of a recent judicial development, such a statement is even more essential today. In the opinion of the New Jersey Supreme Court (Union Beach Bd. of Ed. v. N.J.E.A., 53 N.J. 29), the court rebutted the longstanding belief held by many persons, including myself, that Article I, par. 19, of the New Jersey Constitution inhibits strikes by public employees. It went on to point out that while there is a common law bar to such strikes, it is clear that the Legislature has it within its power to grant such a right. The court's opinion, however, cannot be construed as encouraging such a legislative grant of authority, for it pointed out, inter alia, that:

“* * * Unlike the private employer, a public agency may not retire. The public demand for services which makes illegal a strike against government inveighs against any other concerted action designed to deny government the necessary manpower, whether by terminating existing employments in any mode or by obstructing access to the labor market. Government may not be brought to a halt. * * *

“* * * Hence, although the right of an individual to resign or to refuse public employment is undeniable, yet two or more may not agree to follow a common course to the end that an agency of government shall be unable to function.
* * *”

To reassure the public and to remove all doubt, I urge, in the strongest possible terms, that this Legislature immediately declare solemnly and finally that the public employees of this State enjoy no right to strike. It is a manifest truth that the public, which is the ultimate employer of all of us, is entitled to uninterrupted service from its governmental employees, especially when one considers such vital public needs as police and fire protection, education, institutional care, and public transportation. We must exert every possible and legally permissible effort in defense of that public right, that is, the right of the government to exist at all. The establishment of PERC is clear proof that there exists an alternative means by which employees in public service can express and achieve their lawful and rightful objectives without bringing essential government services to a halt.

Fair Settlement of Claims Against the State

I must point out at this time my concern about the present procedure for processing claims against the State. Only today I found it necessary to use my constitutional powers to line item veto certain contested items in the Supplemental Appropriations Bill.

It seems clear that the present system of considering such claims is not fair to the claimant, to the public agency involved, to the Legislature, or to the State itself. Because of the great demand on each legislator's time, few can be involved in a claims procedure, and even these few find it difficult to devote the time and attention that some of these more complicated issues deserve.

For example, one claim approved by the Legislature which I found necessary to veto today involved nine days of hearings before the Appropriations Subcommittee on Claims, with only two members, and often just one member, regularly in attendance. No finding of component facts was made by the Subcommittee, aside from its eventual conclusion, and its report to the general Appropriations Committee does not contain any statement of findings of fact such as would justify, for instance, a review by any appellate court.

Unlike other items of legislation, the decision by the Claims Committee is more nearly comparable to the verdict of a court than it is to the adoption of ordinary legislation. For the fulfillment of the Governor's constitutional duty he, in fact, must agree or disagree with the judgment of the Legislature in such regard.

It is hardly possible, as in the case of one item in the present veto, to judge the merits of such a complex issue. I feel that a minimal requirement would be the recitation of factual findings which would enable the executive to understand the reasoning under which the Legislature has approved the whole or a large portion of a substantial, complicated claim. Otherwise, it is virtually impossible to fulfill the executive function of approval or disagreement with the terminal conclusion of the Legislature, as in the case of the veto to which I refer. Under present law I have no choice but to reject the issue, for the executive cannot act capriciously with $1 million of public money.

As another example of the ineffectiveness of the present system, the claims bill to which I refer passed the Senate by a bare majority of one vote, many Senators abstaining on the issue. It is impossible to tell how the members of the Legislature would have voted on each of the unrelated items of the bill had they the full record and findings before them in the same manner that we would expect of any court or arbitration proceeding.

The courts of this State have been expressing more and more concern over the absolute sovereign immunity which now inheres in the State, no matter how much at fault it may be in any transaction.

I therefore urge you not to let another session go by without establishing an adequate claims procedure. It may be that after investigation you will decide that some type of Court of Claims or reliance upon recognized mediation or arbitration machinery is the best approach.

I pledge my full cooperation to find a just solution which will not put the Legislature or the executive in the position of judging claims on an inadequate basis and which will not use the power of the State to abuse the just claims before it, nor to hastily grant such claims regardless of their merit.

BROADENING POLITICAL PARTICIPATION

The New Jersey Constitution states clearly that "all political power is inherent in the people." Yet certain provisions of our present election law actually have the effect of restraining our citizens from full participation in the election process and thus from exercising the power which is rightfully theirs.

It is therefore time to eliminate shortcomings in our election system in order to ensure the broadest participation of our citizens in the political process. This action is especially important in view of the fact that the last revision of our election law occurred in 1930, in the different world of nearly four decades ago. I ask your prompt action on the following measures :

1. Voting machines should be required in all counties. The inconvenience, abuse, and waste of time, money, and manpower associated with the use of paper ballots are well documented and can no longer be tolerated.

2. Mobile neighborhood registration—a system that can help encourage political participation—should be not merely permitted, as under present law, but required in all counties.

3. Registration rolls should not be closed until three weeks before election day, as is the case in New York, rather than the forty-day period that now obtains here. This change will help attract still wider participation in each and every election.

4. The unsound and unjust double standard that permits our youth to die in battle in defense of our country but denies them the privilege of voting if they are between eighteen and twenty-one should be rectified. Our young citizens today are better educated, more highly motivated, and more generously concerned than ever before, and they should have the right to vote.

5. Absentee voting requirements for those confined to hospitals or absent from the State because of college, business, or other commitments should be further simplified.

6. Permanent absentee voting privileges should be granted to all those certified by their physicians to be chronically ill, totally disabled, or permanently bedridden.

7. The burdensome statute requiring all signatures on a petition to be witnessed by five individuals should be corrected. All too often in the past, this requirement has been used to discourage those seeking broader participation within their chosen party and to discriminate against those whose political orthodoxy is questioned.

8. We must eliminate the lack of uniformity in registration and voting standards and procedures from county to county and, indeed, from community to community. To this end I urge you to establish the office of State Supervisor of Elections. I am convinced that considerable economies—and increased equities—can be realized if you will create a State office responsible for the unification, standardization, correlation, and coordination of our entire election law.

CONCLUSION

There are those who suggest that during this year, in which New Jersey will be electing a new Governor and House of Assembly, there should be a pause, a period of watching and waiting, in order not to “stir things up” lest some political advantage be lost or some political risk incurred which will manifest itself at the polls in November. These observers advise us to turn away from our problems, to maintain the status quo, and to put aside for these ten months not just our proper hopes and dreams for New Jersey, but even our plain duty and responsibility to the people. We must pretend, say these counselors, that we have done enough, that all our problems are solved or are not really pressing, that everything is all right, and that the people can be lulled into believing so.

I firmly reject this false and shallow view, and I hope that you will join me in rejecting it. For it grossly underestimates both the intelligence and the needs of our people, and it is degrading in the extreme to any public official with an ounce of self-respect. We are not somehow magically absolved of responsibility during an election year; our oaths of office contain no such special exception in small print.

On the contrary, I am convinced that it is the performance, not the evasion of clear duty that the people will reward at the polls in any election—including the election this November. My seven years in this State House, which many of you have shared with me, have taught me one lesson above all others—that the people of New Jersey expect their elected representatives to stand up for their rights—to stand up and be counted on the side of principle, courage, and sometimes even sacrifice.

I therefore trust that you will press ahead with me, vigorously and proudly, to do the work that we know we must do for the people of New Jersey.

The following communication was received and filed:

Supplemental Report of the Special Legislative Committee to investigate certain allegations affecting the Legislature and its members, created by Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 70, adopted December 27, 1968.

Pursuant to paragraph 7, page 10 of the January 14, 1969, report of this Committee, copies of which have been filed with both houses of the Legislature and distributed to the members of the Legislature and the public, this supplemental report concerning the matter of Senator Sido L. Ridolfi is submitted.

The Committee has examined an area map of Mercer County supplied to the Committee by the Commissioner of Transportation showing the proposed State highway system in that county and the locations of tracts of land known to the Committee to be owned by Senator Ridolfi and Edward and Raymond Bralynski as tenants in common. In addition, the Committee has received two letters from the Commissioner of Transportation, copies of which are appended hereto. The area map of Mercer County and copies of communications between the Committee and the Commissioner of Transportation are available for inspection in the office of the secretary of the Committee (Room 30, State House).

The Committee finds that there is no evidence to substantiate a conclusion that Senator Ridolfi had obtained "inside" information from the State Department of Transportation relative to the location of Interstate Route I-295 or any other highway, nor is there anything to show that Senator Ridolfi in any way influenced the decisions of the Department of Transportation in this respect. In fact, it appears that Senator Ridolfi attempted to persuade the Department not to acquire for highway purposes several acres of land owned by Edward and Raymond Bralynski.

The Committee concludes that Senator Ridolfi did not have any information regarding the proposed locations of new highways in Mercer County other than that information available to the general public and did not act improperly with respect to the land transactions described in the testimony received by this Committee and outlined in its report of January 14, 1969.

The Committee recommends that no further action by the Legislature be taken with respect to this aspect of its investigation.

Mr. McDermott offered the following resolution, which was read and adopted:

WHEREAS, The production and marketing of asparagus is an important segment of the agricultural industry of New Jersey, affecting some 800 growers who produce some 23,000 acres of asparagus, worth some eight million dollars; and

WHEREAS, About seventy percent of the annual production is purchased by less than ten buyers through contracts with individual growers; and

WHEREAS, These same growers are faced with increased costs of labor, machinery, taxes, social security, interest, land, and most other costs of production; and

WHEREAS, The growers have this year been forced to accept a reduced price for asparagus by all of the major buyers; and

WHEREAS, The growers have not found it possible to create enough bargaining power among themselves to deal more effectively with the economic power of the buyers; and

WHEREAS, The current situation in the production and marketing of asparagus may well lead to a significant reduction in the growing of this crop in New Jersey; and

WHEREAS, It is in the interest of the people of New Jersey, in terms of the availability of this highly desirable food, and in terms of the hundreds of jobs provided in the production, processing and marketing of asparagus, that workable solutions be found to alleviate the current situation;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of New Jersey:

1. That the Senate Committee on Agriculture, Conservation and Natural Resources make a full and thorough investigation of the serious problems involved in the production, marketing and pricing of asparagus in New Jersey, and to report to this House its findings and recommendations on these problems and any legislation or other steps that might be taken to remedy the situation.

2. The Committee is authorized to accept the assistance and services of such employees of any State, county or municipal board, bureau, commission or agency as may be made available to it, and to employ such legal, actuarial, stenographic, technical and clerical assistance, and incur such traveling and other miscellaneous expenses as it may deem necessary in order to perform its duties and as may be within the limits of funds appropriated or otherwise made available to it for said purposes.

3. The Department of Agriculture and the College of Agriculture and Environmental Science, Rutgers—The State University, shall furnish to the Committee all such records, data and information as the said Committee shall require.

4. The Committee may hold public hearings for the purpose of receiving the views of all interested and affected persons involved in the production, processing, marketing and consumption of asparagus.

5. The Committee shall report to the Senate as soon as possible, setting forth its findings and recommendations as provided in this resolution.

STATE OF NEW JERSEY,	}
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
August 6, 1969.

SENATE BILL No. 287 (1969)

To the Senate:

Pursuant to Article V. Section I, Paragraph 14 (b) of the Constitution, I herewith return Senate Bill No. 287, with my objections, for reconsideration.

This bill would create an incentive loan authority within the Department of Conservation and Economic Development. The authority from an appropriation of $2 million, would be allowed to insure or guarantee loans made by banks to "qualified persons" for the purpose of allowing them to establish themselves in a business or profession in loan amounts not exceeding $25,000. In theory, the insurance or guarantee fund would induce banks to make loans in amounts of up to $10 million in the aggregate. In practice, at this point in time, no loans could be reasonably expected.

There is among professional journalists a phrase which is especially pertinent here—when a story which would have been timely and appropriate is dated or made inaccurate by subsequent occurrences, journalists say that the story has been "overtaken by events". Unfortunately, the same has happened to this bill. It was originally introduced as Senate Bill No. 608 in April of 1968. In fact, its antecedents are much older, as the bill is modeled on the provisions of the Veterans Loan Act of 1944 (NJSA 38:23B-1 et seq.). One can look back with nostalgia to the days in which a statute could state, as the Veterans Loan Act could, that no loan under the Act would bear an interest rate in excess of 4%.

The very financial crisis which recently required us to raise the maximum interest rate at which governments could borrow, has also made Senate Bill No. 287 unworkable. In particular, it should be noted that under the terms of Section 11 of Senate Bill No. 287, a loan must be secured "only by the personal liability of the maker", and must bear an interest rate "not exceeding the maximum legal rate". At the present time, the maximum legal rate applicable to individuals under Title 31 of the Revised Statutes, regarding usury, is set at 7½% per annum. Since the prime lending rate—the rate at which banks lend to their best credit risks—is presently at 8½% per annum, it is unreasonable to expect banks to make loans, whether guaranteed or not, to borrowers under Senate Bill No. 287 at a loss to themselves of at least one percentage point and, in most cases, much more.

I do feel, however, that Senate Bill No. 287 could be amended so as to make possible a comprehensive program of economic development for all of the depressed areas of our cities and state, regardless of race. Let me briefly discuss here the changes that should be made:

1. The lending agency should have the freedom to choose the most effective means of making its loans, either directly, or through the banks, depending on economic circumstances.
2. The loans should be such as may qualify for purposes of "matching" federal loan and guarantee programs and not competing with them.
3. The loan should be of sufficient magnitude to insure some lasting effect, not just for the individual receiving the loan, but for the community in which he lives and works.
4. A comprehensive program of technical assistance should be provided—lack of management and business help has been one of the main reasons of the failure of the Small Business Administration to reach into the inner-city areas.

5. Assistance should be provided to have borrowers qualify to bid on public projects.

6. Monies should be available to allow the borrower to purchase patent licenses or franchise rights.

7. The State should be able to subsidize the interest charges which are paid during the first years of a business enterprise—while it is just getting established—and then, when its role of “lender of last resort” is exhausted, be able to guarantee onto a second phase, borrowing from commercial banks. This two-phase approach will allow for a simpler transition from public to private capital.

8. The State should be able to sell participations—shares—in the loans made to these businesses so as to allow private industry to share in providing for funds lent.

9. A stronger conflicts of interest provision should be built into the law to protect the public from any double-dealing.

10. Finally, we cannot simply lend this money out on faith. Every year a lending agency should submit a report to the Governor and to the Legislature on the effectiveness of the loan program in meeting the goals of the law which authorized it.

We are presently in a situation in which the State must become—in effect—a lender of last resort. Interest rates are so high; capital funds so scarce, that there is little hope for continuing some enterprises, much less embarking on new ones. Senate Bill No. 287, if amended to include the changes I have recommended, will provide for a sensible two-phase program in which the borrower can move from dependence on subsidized government loans to dealing directly with the commercial market, as any other borrower. For example, although under present market circumstances, an interest subsidy may be necessary and justified, eventually it can be assumed that borrowing costs will drop. At that time, the borrower can turn to normal channels of financing and rely, perhaps, only on a guarantee. Eventually, of course, he will not even need the guarantee.

If these changes are made, I believe New Jersey will step into the forefront of those states making full-fledged and sincere attempts to restore life to our older cities and opportunity to our underprivileged citizens.

The changes that I suggest are attached hereto.

The changes which should be made are:

1. In the title, insert after the word "professions", the following: "and to promote the development of urban areas through the provision of capital loans to qualified businessmen in depressed areas".

2. Page 1, Section 1, Lines 1 through 4: Delete the present language and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"1. The Legislature hereby finds that a serious public emergency exists affecting and threatening the welfare, comfort, health, safety and prosperity of the people of the State and resulting from the fact that there exist in this State certain areas in which employment and other opportunities are lacking because of the absence of an adequate supply of commercial capital loans to businessmen, and that this inadequate supply of capital loans makes it impossible for citizens of this State to engage in occupations which will increase employment opportunities and service to the public and expand the economy of the State. The Legislature further finds that, unless the supply of commercial capital loans is increased, many citizens of the State will remain unemployed and under-employed and will lack opportunities for advancement; that to increase the supply of capital loans in these areas it is necessary to create a public agency authorized to make or guarantee subordinate equity capital loans and to provide expertise and assistance in the development of managerial skills; that such loans and the provision of such assistance are a public purpose for which public moneys may be expended, advanced, loaned, or granted; and that the enactment of the provisions hereinafter set forth is in the public interest."

3. Pages 1 & 2, Section 2, Lines 1 through 7: Delete Section 2 in its entirety and substitute in lieu thereof the following:

"2. The following terms whenever used or referred to in this act shall have the following respective meanings for the purposes of this act, except in those instances where the context clearly indicates otherwise:

(a) "Act" shall mean this act and any amendments and supplements thereto and any rules and regulations promulgated thereunder.

(3) Either:

(a) a resident of a qualified loan area, or the majority ownership of which is vested in residents of the qualified loan area, or

(i) "Security" means an instrument subject to the provisions of article 8 of Title 12A of the New Jersey Statutes.

(j) "Urban Loan Fund" shall mean the Revolving Urban Loan Fund created by this act."

4. Page 2, Section 3, Lines 1 through 6: Delete the present language and substitute in lieu thereof the following:

"3. (a) There is hereby established in the Department of Community Affairs a body corporate and politic, with corporate succession, to be known as the New Jersey Urban Loan Authority. The authority shall consist of 3 members, all ex officio, who shall be the Commissioner of the Department of Banking and Insurance, the State Treasurer, and the Commissioner of Community Affairs, who shall be the chairman. The functions, powers and duties of the authority may be exercised only upon a vote of a majority of its members. The authority shall be exempt from the provisions of Title 17 of the Revised Statutes and any regulations thereunder.

It shall be the duty of the council to consult with and advise the authority in the performance of its functions under this act."

5. Page 2, Section 5, Lines 1 through 10: Delete the present language and substitute in lieu thereof the following:

“5. The authority shall be authorized to perform the following functions and exercise the following powers, in addition to other functions, powers, and duties vested in it by this act or by any other provision of law:

/s/ ALAN J. KARCHER,

Acting Secretary to the Governor.

/s/ RICHARD J. HUGHES,

Governor.

On motion of Mr. Bateman,

Senate Bill No. 287, entitled "An act to provide for guaranteed or insured bank loans to certain qualified persons for the purposes of establishing or re-establishing themselves in small businesses or professions, and providing appropriations therefor,"

Was read for the first time for the purpose of reenactment.

Mr. Bateman offered the following Senate amendments to Senate Bill No. 287 :

Amend page 1, title, insert after the word "professions", the following: "and to promote the development of urban areas through the provision of capital loans to qualified businessmen in depressed areas".

Amend page 1, section 1, lines 1 through 4, delete the present language and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"1. The Legislature hereby finds that a serious public emergency exists affecting and threatening the welfare, comfort, health, safety and prosperity of the people of the State and resulting from the fact that there exist in this State certain areas in which employment and other opportunities are lacking because of the absence of an adequate supply of commercial capital loans to businessmen, and that this inadequate supply of capital loans makes it impossible for citizens of this State to engage in occupations which will increase employment opportunities and service to the public and expand the economy of the State. The Legislature further finds that, unless the supply of commercial capital loans is increased, many citizens of the State will remain unemployed and under-employed and will lack opportunities for advancement; that to increase the supply of capital loans in these areas it is necessary to create a public agency authorized to make or guarantee subordinate equity capital loans and to provide expertise and assistance in the development of managerial skills; that such loans and the provision of such assistance are a public purpose for which public moneys may be expended, advanced, loaned, or granted; and that the enactment of the provisions hereinafter set forth is in the public interest."

WHEREAS, Several New Jersey agencies, including counties and municipalities, have made requests to the New Jersey Association, which cannot serve these bodies because of the prescribed AAU boundaries, and thus cannot meet their amateur athletic needs; and

WHEREAS, There are existing State agencies governing certain other amateur and professional sports and athletics that include or are confined to the political boundaries of the sovereign State of New Jersey; and

WHEREAS, It is desirable to have all New Jersey citizens served by a single state agency, whose needs can best be met by an organization headquartered in, and operated under the corporate laws of the State of New Jersey; and

WHEREAS, The New Jersey Association of the AAU is headquartered in Rahway, New Jersey, and staffed by a professional municipal administrator who serves as Secretary-Treasurer; and

WHEREAS, The New Jersey Association has recorded the desire to service the young people throughout the political boundaries of this sovereign State of New Jersey; and

SENATE BILL No. 42

To the Senate:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14 (a) of the Constitution, I herewith return Senate Bill No. 42, without my approval.

N. J. S. 2A:157-5 presently limits counties of the third class in the number of county detectives it may have and their ranks. Presently, there may be no more than nine county detectives, of whom one shall be chief, one shall be captain, and one shall be a lieutenant. This leaves six “enlisted men.”

Senate Bill No. 42 would allow counties of the third class with populations over 140,000 but less than 200,000, to have two lieutenants at a salary not exceeding $6,000. This would leave five county detectives under the orders of four officers, with nine county detectives in all.

The bill is clearly in violation of N. J. Const., Article IV, Section VII, Paragraph 9 (13), which prohibits special legislation dealing with the internal affairs of counties and municipalities. In determining whether a law is a special law, what is excluded from a classification is as significant as what is included, Budd v. Hancock, 6 N. J. L. 133, 135-136 (Sup. Ct. 1901). The vice of special laws "is that they do not embrace all the class to which they are naturally related; they create preference and establish inequalities; they apply to persons, things or places possessed of certain qualities or situations, and exclude from their effect other persons, things or places which are not dissimilar in these respects". Van Riper v. Parsons, 40: N. J. L. 1, 9 (Sup. Ct. 1878).

Counties of the third class are those counties not bordering on the Atlantic Ocean having populations of not less than 50,000 nor more than 200,000 (NJSA 40:17-2). As the law regarding county detectives now stands, third class counties having populations under 75,000 (Hunterdon, Salem and Warren) may not have more than two county detectives, with no lieutenants (NJS 2A:157-6). Under Senate Bill No. 42, third class counties with populations between 75,000 and 140,000 (Gloucester and Cumberland) would have one lieutenant, whereas third class counties with populations between 140,000 and 200,000 (Somerset) would have two lieutenants. However, in second class counties with a population of less than 400,000, only one lieutenant is authorized while in counties with populations in excess of 400,000, two lieutenants are again authorized. Increased population, therefore, is not applied as a consistent standard of need for the extra lieutenant. Nor is administrative need, since the excluded counties have 12 county detectives, 3 more than the included counties.

Since I can see no reason why counties of the second class having a population between 200,000 and 400,000 should be excluded from the scope of this legislation, I must consider it to be in violation of the constitutional provisions, Smith v. Board of Chosen Freeholders of Monmouth, 5 N. J. Misc. 153, aff'd. per curiam, 104 N. J. L. 185 (E & A 1927).

Respectfully,

/s/ RICHARD J. HUGHES,

Governor.

SENATE BILL NO. 44

To the Senate:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14(b) of the Constitution, I herewith return Senate Bill No. 44, with may objections, for reconsideration.

Senate Bill No. 44 would allow a municipal utilities authority to charge, in addition to the usual service charges, a connection or "tapping" fee when new service is provided to any property. The bill provides further that the charges "shall be uniform within each class of users", but that the amount of the charges shall be "entirely within the discretion of the authority". Similar language was approved by me last year with regard to sewerage authorities (which are different from municipal utilities authorities, although both are financed by revenue bonds and neither are public utilities) in P. L. 1968, c. 317. A close review of the law in this area has recently been undertaken in connection with the Water Pollution Bond Issue. It has brought to light factors which make me believe that this bill should be modified and that P. L. 1968, c. 317 should be amended.

It must first be noted that both sewerage authorities, under NJSA 40:14A-1 et seq., and municipal utilities authorities, under NJSA 40:14B-1 et seq., are excluded from the regulation of the Public Utilities Commission by statute, NJSA 40:14A-35 and NJSA 40:14B-68. There is, of course, review by the courts of decisions by such authorities which might be arbitrary, see Kline v. Bellmawr Sewerage Authority, 55 N. J. Super. 153 (1959), aff'd. per curiam sub nom, Landy v. Bellmawr Sewerage Authority, 61 N. J. Super. 396 (App. Div. 1960). Moreover, in certain cases municipal utilities and authorities operating beyond municipal boundaries are subjected to the regulation of the Public Utilities Commission, In re Morris Township, 49 N. J. 194 (1967).

My problem with Senate Bill No. 44, and with P. L. 1968, c. 317 on further reflection, is that the discretion afforded the authority to set fees "entirely within the discretion of the authority" is too broad.

As in the case of P. L. 1968, c. 317, where the threat of abuse is small and the issue narrow, I have preferred to err on the side of getting the job done; of building to meet our citizens needs. When one is dealing with "connection fees" and "small" issues, it is difficult to raise the broader issues related to the question of public control of public bodies. Yet, it is a problem we must face.

Certainly, as here, when authorities of this type are not subject to the electorate, as is the case when a municipality levies a special assessment or creates a special taxing district, their actions should be limited by clear standards which the courts may interpret consistently with their concern for the fair treatment of our citizens. This is the minimum safeguard we should provide. Senate Bill No. 44 does not provide the safeguards of clear statutory standard.

Therefore, I do respectfully recommend changes in Senate Bill No. 44, which should also be made in P. L. 1968, c. 317, which would limit any such connection fees to the actual cost of the connection, and require that the fee be computed so as to be uniform throughout the district for the same type, class and amount of use or service provided.

Delete "shall otherwise be entirely within the discretion of the authority", and insert in lieu thereof "shall not exceed the cost of installation of necessary physical properties, including costs necessary and incidental thereto, and shall be uniform throughout the district for the same type, class and amount of service and determined by the authority"

I would also urge the Legislature to consider in future instances whether authorities of this type should not be subject to the jurisdiction of the Public Utilities Commission in their rate setting and other functions. I consider that problem beyond the narrow scope of this bill. So are the larger questions to which I refer. I will make my views on these questions known shortly through a more appropriate vehicle.

Respectfully,

/s/ RICHARD J. HUGHES,

Governor.

SENATE BILL No. 282

To the Senate:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14 (b) of the Constitution, I herewith return Senate Bill No. 282, with my objections, for reconsideration.

Senate Bill No. 282 would bring together various provisions presently scattered about the statutes relating to the creation and powers of county and local authorities. It would prescribe the manner in which every local authority of every type hereafter created would be formed and remove the need for anything more than a simple authorizing act whenever the Legislature wanted to create a new type of authority. Presently, New Jersey has authorized local authorities to operate in the areas of housing, urban renewal, water supply, sewage disposal, county parks and improvements, the building and maintenance of parking lots, seaquariums, incinerators, port facilities, and in some instances, public transportation systems. Senate Bill No. 282 would make common to all of these activities one basic set of ground rules.

There is also presently before me another bill, Assembly Bill No. 767, which takes another tack and would allow counties and municipalities to issue revenue bonds. It states as among its purposes the need to limit the proliferation of special purpose authorities, such as those subject to Senate Bill No. 282. This would give local government some of the virtues of authorities without many of their defects. As such, Assembly Bill No. 767, which I expect to comment on more fully in the near future, raises some basic questions about how we should proceed with Senate Bill No. 282. Some of these questions are presently also being studied by the Autonomous Authorities Committee created by ACR 9 (1968).

Although these basic questions—of responsiveness to public needs, of single-minded pursuit of limited objectives, of lack of public control over what are meant to be public bodies—are often raised only with regard to the giant authorities that straddle the State, local authorities are even more important to the daily services our citizens expect from government. Under the circumstances, therefore, I would have preferred further time for comparison and study of the merits of the two approaches. Although I cannot comment here on my final conclusions regarding Assembly Bill No. 767, some preliminary observations are in order and can be implemented by means of amendments to Senate Bill No. 282.

First, local authorities should as a minimum be fiscally accountable to the public. Their audits and budgets should be subject to uniform standards, which will make intelligent analysis and comparison of their operations possible. This is especially true when, as is too often the case, tax revenues may be used to aid authority operations, a practice continued under Senate Bill No. 282.

Second, the rate and fees charged by authorities should be subject to regulation by the Public Utilities Commission when the services provided by an authority are the same as those furnished by utilities. This is already the case when municipally-owned utilities cross municipal boundaries, and such oversight should be expanded.

Third, appropriate State representation should exist on each authority. We can no longer afford to have sewerage authorities, for instance, operating in a vacuum with regard to regional and State needs. If we are to deal with the many problems which extend across the boundaries of many authorities, there should be at least an effort made at insuring a voice for the broader interests of the State and region as a whole.

For the moment I must also ask that housing and re-development authorities be excluded from the terms of Senate Bill No. 282. These authorities rely heavily on Federal funds and must operate within the framework of Federal laws. Senate Bill No. 282 does not meet the special needs of the Federal requirements. Further study is needed before we act in this area.

Finally, conflicts of interest and public bidding provisions should be tightened.

I must stress that these changes would only apply to new authorities, not to those already in existence. If the Legislature feels, as I do, that these are sound first steps, I would urge their extension to those authorities already constituted.

I, therefore, respectfully recommend the following amendments to Senate Bill No. 282:

1. Page 2, Section 40A:26-2, Line 4: Delete the “.” after the word “authority” and before the word “The” insert the phrase “, except for authorities heretofore or hereafter created pursuant to the Local Housing Authorities Law (C. 55:14A-1 et seq.) and the Redevelopment Agencies Law (C. 40:55C-1 et seq.).”

- (c) For the purposes of this section “proprietary or financial interest, either direct or indirect in the real property, capital improvement or personal property” means any form of ownership of or interest in the real property, capital improvement or personal property or of the firm or corporation owning or having interest in the real property, capital improvement or personal property whereby the member or employee would or could receive economic gain as a result of dealing with the real property, capital improvement or personal property or the improvements thereon and whether such ownership or interest is held by the member, officer or employee or by his spouse or by his minor natural, adopted, or step-children or by any other relations of the member resident in his home or by his private business firm; provided, however, that the member, officer or employee or his immediate family shall not be considered to have a proprietary or financial interest if such interest is represented by ownership of less than 10% of the authorized and issued stocks or bonds of any particular class of a corporation that owns or has an interest in the real property, capital improvement or personal property.

- (d) For the purposes of this section, "business or financial relationship" shall mean any form of contractual, financial or economic relationship based upon an agreement enforceable at law or in equity between the member, officer or employee, or a member of his immediate family, or his private business firm and the owner, contract purchaser, or leases of such real property, capital improvement or personal property, provided however, that business or financial relationship shall not include ordinary contractual relationship between the member, officer or employee and a public utility for the provision of utility services or between the member, officer or employee and a retail establishment relating to customary credit, time purchase or charge account transactions, nor shall include agreements between the member, officer or employee and any party that are fully executed and complete.
- (e) This section shall not be construed to in any way repeal, modify, or prevent the application of existing statutes, ordinances or decisions of general application prohibiting or regulating conflicts of interest of public officials.
- (f) The governing body may, by ordinance, adopt additional or supplementary conflict of interest rules not inconsistent with this section. Any person who violates the provisions of this section or of any ordinance or resolution adopted under this section shall be subject to immediate removal from office and shall be punishable by fine not to exceed $1,000.00.

- (g) The violation of this section by a member shall not be grounds for setting aside any action of the authority, unless (1) a contrary decision would have been reached without the vote of such member, and (2) written notice of such violation is given to the municipal or county clerk, as appropriate, within two years of such decision. Any acquisition, sale, lease or exchange made in violation of this section may be set aside by the authority of the county or municipality if it determines that such an action would be in the best interest of the authority, and the real property, capital improvement or personal property which was the subject of the acquisition, sale, lease or exchange has not subsequently been sold, leased or exchanged to any person not a party to the original transaction and not having notice of any violation of this section at the time it was committed.
- (h) "Member of his immediate family" means (1) the spouse and all minor natural, adopted, and stepchildren of the person, and (2) all other relatives by blood, marriage or adoption if such relatives reside with the person in his home or in one of his houses.
- (i) When any real property, capital improvements or personal property shall have been acquired, sold, leased or exchanged by any authority pursuant to this act, and the grand jury sitting in the county shall have presented to the court that there is evidence of failure to fulfill specifications, enforce or impose conditions, restrictions or limitations required herein, or unwarranted preferences in any of the said transactions, which is not sufficient for indictment pursuant to Chapter 135 of Title 2A of the New Jersey Statutes, the authority or the governing body of the county or municipality shall present to a judge of the Superior Court a request to make a summary investigation into said transactions. The judge may, in his discretion, make such an investigation. The said judge may, in his discretion, appoint experts to prosecute the investigation and cause the result to be published in such manner as he may deem proper. All members, officers, employees and agents of the board, commission, committee or other body making the acquisition, sale, lease or exchange, shall obey the orders of such judge for facilitating the investigation, and any failure or refusal to obey such orders may be punished by the judge as for contempt. The costs incurred under this section shall be fixed by the judge, and his order be paid by the disbursing officers of the board, commission, committee or other body whose expenditures have been investigated.

- (j) Nothing herein shall in any way limit the power, duty or authority of the Director of the Division of Local Finance from undertaking such investigations, inquiries, or holding of such hearings with regard to any acquisition, sale, lease or exchange pursuant to this act as may be authorized pursuant to the "Local Government Supervision Act (1947)", P. L. 1947, c. 151 (C. 52:27BB-1 to 52:27BB-100), as amended and supplemented. The Director shall present any evidence of any violation of this act, or of Chapter 135 of Title 2A of the New Jersey Statutes, or any other act resulting from a transaction pursuant to this act to the prosecutor of the county in which the violation occurred or to the Attorney General forthwith.

SENATE BILL No 283

To the Senate:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14 (b) of the Constitution, I herewith return Senate Bill No. 283, with my objections, for reconsideration.

Senate Bill No. 283 is a revision of those portions of Title 40 affecting the manner in which counties and municipalities may buy and sell interests in lands and buildings. As a revision, its purpose is to simplify the existing law and remove from the present body of the law anachronisms and inconsistencies. It is a companion to two other measures also presently before me, Senate Bills No. 282 and 284. It deals with a varied number of topics.

As a revision, it also deals with those dry and dreary areas of the law that fail to excite the public imagination or stir continued interests. Nonetheless, these three bills deal with the very bases of the day-to-day operations of government. In 1967, municipalities alone spent almost $100 million for capital improvements and debt service. Counties spent over $42 million. Much of this money was spent under the terms of the act which Senate Bill No. 283 revises.

I have therefore paid very close and scrupulous attention to both the details and the concepts of the bill. After full consideration of its terms, I recommend extensive revisions in the language of Senate Bill No. 283, some of them technical, some going to the very core of public purchasing policy. I have made similar recommendations with regard to Senate Bill No. 284. In summary, they may be stated as follows.

—First, it is my recommendation that the number of private transactions not subject to public bidding be severely limited. While it is true that there cannot be competitive bidding as regards purchases of land or capital improvements because of their unique nature and location, most sales of public lands or improvements should be fully revealed to public scrutiny by public sale. Moreover, counties and municipalities should receive the benefits that usually arise from competitive bidding.

—Second, even in the area of county and municipal purchases of land, standards can be established which ensure that the public will receive its money's worth and that favoritism on the part of public officials is limited or eliminated. In particular, I have long been struck by the disparity which often appears between the value of land when assessed for tax purposes and its value when purchased by a public agency. The contrast is all the more striking, since both standards are meant to reflect the real market value of the property. Either the public agency is paying too much for the land it is buying, or the property in question has benefited from underassessment and a "tax break" at the expense of the municipality's other homeowners. Indeed, there may be instances in which there has been favoritism in determining the assessed value for tax purposes, a favoritism which may be compounded by the subsequent purchase of the property by the county or municipality at an inflated price. It seems to me that our local taxpayers will be better served by a requirement that either the land not be purchased at a price higher than its assessed value, or that the owner should pay his fair share of back taxes which would have been paid if the land had been properly assessed at its true market value. I have therefore recommended changes to that effect in both Title 40 and Title 20.

—Third, I have added a strong conflicts of interest provision. No public official should benefit from his interest or ownership, direct or indirect, in any lands or buildings which the county or municipality may choose to buy or sell.

—Fourth, instead of simply “donating”, in effect, county and municipal lands to public purpose non-profit corporations, longterm leases should be used. From their viewpoint, such a lease allows for adequate capital financing, since most mortgages would expire long before the lease. From the public viewpoint, leases allow the county or municipality to reconsider, from time to time, whether the best interests of the locality continue to be served by the lease. Times change and so do public needs. In addition, outright conveyances of land often go astray, as when a local hospital moves to another area, leaving a limited or inadequate facility behind to service the city’s needs—or worse, when some way is found to sell the land. Nonetheless, when the public interest is strong enough to warrant an outright conveyance, the governing body is given the option of granting title, but subject to voter approval by referendum. These changes appear both sensible and necessary in light of Article VIII, Section 3, Paragraphs 2 and 3 of the Constitution. Roe v. Kervick, 42 N. J. 193 (1964), decided since many of the statutes being revised by Senate Bill No. 283 were enacted, casts a shadow over some of them, which should be dispelled by adoption of the changes I have proposed.

—Fifth, I have included in the definition of real property what are commonly known as “air rights”. Counties and municipalities have, without a clear statutory basis, already sold “aerial easements” on some occasions. Other interest in the space over real property are possible to, however, and local government should have a clear basis for buying or selling them. Housing over roads or schools, businesses over municipal parking lots, roads over factories, are all possibilities that should be explored in a State as crowded as ours.

—Finally, I have tried to carry forward the spirit of the revision by eliminating as many special or specific authorizations for county and municipal acquisition or sale of lands and buildings. In their stead, I have inserted general authorizations for purchases or sales, to be tested against a common standard of whether they serve a public purpose. It is to be hoped that both the courts, counties and the municipalities will interpret this language broadly so as to forestall the need for the endless list of amendments, bills and counter-amendments that are introduced each year for narrow and often conflicting purposes.

It is similarly hoped that the draftsmen of this bill will continue their efforts in related areas which are not covered by the Senate Bill No. 283. There is no reason apparent to me why park commissions, county or municipal authorities and similar agencies should not be made subject either to the terms of this act or to similar provisions. For the time being, however, I recommend the following changes:

1. Page 1, Section 2, Lines 1 to 11: Delete the present language and insert in lieu thereof the following:

2. Definitions. The following words shall have the following meanings, unless the context clearly indicates the contrary:

- (a) "Acquire" shall include acquisition by gift, devise, purchase, lease or condemnation unless otherwise indicated.
- (b) "Buildings" shall include any building or buildings and any structures, improvements, ingress or egress, grounds or plazas, necessary and incidental to the purpose of the building and the safety, comfort and well-being of its occupants.
- (c) "Capital improvements" shall include, in addition to buildings, any structures, fixtures, edifices, byways, parking lots, service facilities, and any other facility necessary and incidental to the

In any case in which a resolution or ordinance authorizing the expenditure of public moneys is required to be approved by any other board, body or commission of the State, county or municipality, "resolution" or "ordinance" shall mean also adopted or approved by the board, body or commission authorized to take such action on behalf of the State, county or municipality.
- (i) "Sale" shall include the conveyance of any estate, interest, easement or title to, or the waiver, release, or modification of any conditions, restrictions or limitations on any real property, capital improvement or personal property of the county or municipality, but shall not include any lease or exchange of such property.

8. Procedure for Acquisition. A county or municipality may acquire any real property, capital improvement or personal property only in accordance with the provisions of this act and only in the manner provided by this section.

- (a) In the case of an acquisition by gift or devise, a county or municipality shall only accept title to such gift or devise by an ordinance in the case of a municipality, or by resolution, in the case of a county, setting out therein (1) the use or purpose to which the acquisition by gift or devise shall be applied, and (2) the name of the donor or devisor, and (3) any conditions, restrictions or limitations imposed upon, or estate or interest retained in the acquisition, and the acceptance by the governing body of said limitations or conditions, and (4) an estimate by the fiscal officer of the municipality of the present and foreseeable benefits and costs, and the net benefit or cost of the acquisition to the county or municipality in operating revenues or expenses, maintenance, depreciation or other costs, including potential tax revenues.

- (b) In the case of an acquisition by purchase or lease, a county or municipality shall make such acquisition by an ordinance, in the case of a municipality, or by resolution, in the case of a county, setting out therein (1) the use or purpose to which the acquisition shall be put or applied, and (2) the name of the vendor or lessor, and (3) any conditions, restrictions or limitations imposed on, or estate or interest retained in the acquisition, and the acceptance by the governing body of said conditions or limitations, and (4) the price to be paid by the county or municipality. In such a case, the county or municipality shall determine the price to be paid at an amount not in excess of the "full and fair value of the real property or capital improvement, as determined by the assessor of the municipality in which the real property or capital improvement is located for the then current tax year pursuant to Section 54:4-23 of the Revised Statutes. In making a determination of the "Full and fair value" pursuant to this section a county or municipality may, in any case where the real property or capital improvement to be purchased or leased is less than a full parcel, apportion the value of the property on a pro-rata basis, and the value of a lease by capitalization.

A county or municipality may determine and pay a higher price upon agreement by the vendor or lessor to pay to the collector of taxes in the municipality in which the real property or capital improvement is located, the difference between the real property taxes paid on the land or other property and the amount which would have been payable had the value of the real or other property been determined at the amount to be paid by the county or municipality and entered as the "full and fair value" determined by the assessor pursuant to Section 54:4-23 of the Revised Statutes for each of the 10 preceding tax years; and such back taxes due and payable as so recomputed are paid pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 4 of Title 54 of the Revised Statutes.

- (c) In the case of acquisition by condemnation, the acquisition shall be made in the manner provided by Title 20 of the Revised Statutes.
- (d) Section 20:1-9 of the Revised Statutes is amended to read as follows:

20:1-9. The commissioners shall take and subscribe an oath faithfully and impartially to examine the matter in question and make a true report according to the best of their skill and understanding. Thereafter they shall meet at the time and place appointed and proceed to view and examine the land or other property and make a just and equitable appraisal of the value of the same, and an assessment of the amount to be paid by the petitioner for the land or other property and damage as aforesaid, as of the date of the commencement of the act for condemnation or, if the land or other property is being acquired in connection with development or redemption of a blighted area, then in that event, the value of any property sought to be acquired shall be fixed and deemed to be no less than the value as of the date of the declaration of blight by the governing body upon a report by a planning board. In the event that the commissioners shall determine upon the evidence before them a value of any land or other property, in excess of the "full and fair value" or, in the case of a partial taking, the pro-rata share of the "full and fair value" of any parcel, determined by the assessor of the municipality in which the land or other property is located for the then current tax year pursuant to Section 54:4-23 of the Revised Statutes, the commissioners shall deduct from the award an amount equal to the difference between the real property taxes paid on the real or other property and the amount which would have been payable had the value determined by the commissioners been used by the assessor as the "full and fair value" of the land or other property pursuant to Section 54:4-23 of the Revised Statutes for each of the preceding 10 tax years. For purposes of this computation, the commissioners may take into account any increase or decrease in value as they have determined it during the period in question, or may assume a constant ratio between the "full and fair value" as determined by the assessor and the value determined by the commissioners. The commissioners shall then direct that the amount determined pursuant to this paragraph be paid to the collector of taxes of the municipality in which the land or other property is located along with such interest or costs as shall be payable pursuant to Chapter 4 of Title 54 of the Revised Statutes.

Such conditions shall be included in the advertisement, as well as the nature of the interest retained by the county or municipality. In any case in which a county or municipality intends to retain an estate or interest in any real property, capital improvement or personal property, in the nature of an easement, contingent or reversionary, the invitation to bid and the advertisements required herein shall require each bidder to submit one bid under each Option A and Option B below.

- (b) At private sale when authorized by resolution, in the case of a county, or by ordinance, in the case of a municipality, in the following cases:
  - (1) A sale to any political subdivision, agency, department, commission, board or body corporate and politic of the State of New Jersey or to an interstate agency or body of which the State of New Jersey is a member or to the United States of America or any department or agency thereof.
  - (2) A sale to a person submitting a bid pursuant to subsection (a) of Section 15 of this act where all bids have been rejected, provided that the terms and price agreed to shall in no event be less than the highest bid rejected and provided further that the terms and conditions of sale shall remain identical.
  - (3) A sale by any county or municipality when it has or shall have conveyed its right, title and interest in any real property, capital improvement or personal property not needed for public use, and it was assumed and intended that there should be conveyed a good and sufficient title in fee simple to said real property, capital improvement or personal property, free of all incumbrances and the full consideration has been paid therefor, and it shall thereafter appear that the title conveyed was insufficient or that said county or municipality at the time of said conveyance was not the owner of some estate or interest in said real property, capital improvement or personal property or of some encumbrances thereon and the county or municipality shall thereafter acquire a good and sufficient title in fee simple, free of all encumbrances of said real property, capital improvement or personal property or shall acquire such outstanding estate or interest thereon or outstanding encumbrance thereon and said county or municipality, by resolution of the governing body and without the payment of any additional consideration, has deemed to convey or otherwise transfer to said purchaser, his heirs or assigns, such after-acquired title, or estate or interest in, or encumbrance upon, such real property, capital improvement or personal property to perfect the title or interest previously conveyed.

- (4) A sale of an easement upon any real property previously conveyed by any county or municipality, when the governing body of any county by resolution, or any municipality, by ordinance, has elected to release the public rights in the nature of easements, in, on, over or under any real property within the county or the municipality, as the case may be, upon such terms as shall be agreed upon with the owner of such lands, if the use of such rights is no longer desirable, necessary or required for public purposes.

In the case of any sale of real property hereafter made pursuant to this subsection (b) of Section 15 of this act, in no event shall the price agreed upon with the owner be less than the difference between the highest bid accepted for the real property subject to easements (Option A) and the highest bid rejected for the real property not subject to easements (Option B). After the adoption of the resolution or ordinance, and compliance by the owner of said real property with the terms thereof, said real property shall be free, and entirely discharged of and from such rights of the public and of the county or municipality, as the case may be, but no such release shall affect the right of lawful occupancy or use of any such real property by any municipal or private utility to occupy or use any such real property lawfully occupied or used by it.

A list of the property so authorized to be sold, pursuant to this subsection (b) of Section 15 of this act, together with the minimum prices respectively, as determined by the governing body, shall be included in the resolution or ordinance authorizing the sale, and said list shall be posted on the bulletin board or other conspicuous space in the building which the governing body usually holds its regular meetings, and advertisement thereof made in a newspaper circulating in the municipality or municipalities in which the real property, capital improvement or personal property is situated within five days following enactment of said resolution or ordinance. Offers for any or all properties so listed may thereafter be made to the governing body or its designee for a period of 20 days following the advertisement herein required, at not less than said minimum prices, by any prospective purchaser, real estate broker, or other authorized representative. In any such case, the governing body may reconsider its resolution or ordinance, not later than 30 days after its enactment, and advertise the real property, capital improvement, or personal property in question for public sale pursuant to subsection (a) of this Section 15.

Any county or municipality selling any real property, capital improvement or personal property pursuant to this subsection (b) of Section 15 of this act shall file with the Director of the Division of Local Finance in the Department of Community Affairs, sworn affidavits verifying the publication of advertisements as required by this subsection.

All sales either public or private may be made for cash or upon credit. A deposit not exceeding 1 per centum of the minimum price or value of the property to be sold may be required of all bidders. When made upon credit, the county or municipality may accept a purchase-money mortgage, upon terms and conditions which shall be fixed by the resolution of the governing body; provided, however, that when such mortgage shall be fully payable within 5 years from the date of the sale and shall bear interest at a rate equal to that authorized under Title 31 of the Revised Statutes, as amended and supplemented, and the regulations issued pursuant thereto, or the rate last paid by the county or municipality upon any issue of notes pursuant to the Local Bond Law (Chapter 2 of Title 40A of the New Jersey Statutes), whichever is highest. The governing body may, by resolution, fix the time for closing of title and payment of the consideration.

In all sales made pursuant to this section, the governing body of any county or municipality may provide for the payment of a commission to any real estate broker, or authorized representative other than the purchaser actually consummating such sale, but said commissions shall not exceed, in the aggregate, 5% of the sale price, and be paid, where there has been a public sale, only in the event that the sum of the commission and the highest bid price does not exceed the next highest bid price (exclusive of any realtor's commission).

Notice of such reservation shall be included in the advertisement of the letting of the lease and public notice thereof shall be given of the time of the letting of the lease. EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,

SENATE BILL No. 284 (2ND OCR)

To the Senate:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14 (b) of the Constitution, I herewith return Senate Bill No. 284, with my objections, for reconsideration.

Senate Bill No. 284 is a revision of the law relating to the purchase of work, materials and supplies by units of local government. Generally speaking, it represents a considerable step forward in clarifying the law which regulates the law under which such purchases are made. Among other things, it adds a new provision relating to the sale of public property, which previously had only been required by judicial construction, and thereby clarifies the standards for such sales.

The bill strives, as I have in reviewing it, to strike a careful balance between two conflicting interests. On the one hand, our units of local government should be given as much flexibility as possible in meeting their operating and purchasing needs. The conditions of purchase and sale should be realistically adapted to the practicalities of day-to-day transactions. On the other hand, there is the interest of the public, and the taxpayer in particular, in securing the lowest possible prices for local government purchases. In addition, such prices should be the result of open and competitive bidding wherever possible in order to remove even the appearance of favoritism or unwanted preferences in public purchasing.

As I commented in my conditional veto of Senate Bill No. 283, the subject matter of these bills is dry and uninspiring. Only their failure to secure the efficient and economic operation of government arouses the public's ire. That is all the more reason, as in the case of Senate Bill No. 283, for careful review.

I am hereby recommending a number of changes which are totally consistent with the spirit of the draftsmen of the bill, but which would appear to make it more capable of obtaining its objectives. In summary they are:

—In the last few years the Legislature has enacted two bills which allow a county or the State to make purchases on behalf of units of local government. Their purpose was to pass on to counties and municipalities the savings that result from bulk buying and quantity discounts. I believe we should take advantage of the success that this legislation has had in passing on considerable savings to local taxpayers. Two changes, in particular, in Senate Bill No. 284 seem reasonable. First, in those cases in which public bidding has failed to produce any bids or bids have been rejected because they are unreasonably high, the contracting unit should be required to determine whether he can purchase his needs from the State or the county through their contracts prior to entering into private negotiations. If the contracting unit's needs can be met in this way, there would appear to be no reason to allow it to negotiate privately a higher price at greater costs to the taxpayer. The same is true for the series of small purchases under $2,500, for which no public bidding is required. They are usually the very type of purchases where combined buying power of the State and our counties and municipalities can result in substantial savings. This requirement should not only result in lower operating costs to local government, but also limit the potential for favoritism inherent in any private negotiations.

—At the other end of the spectrum is the inflexibility of the present bidding laws, which fail to make clear the procedure to be followed when no bids are received, or when the lowest bid received is unreasonably high, or has been arrived at through collusive bidding tactics. The latter case was recently highlighted by the Report of the State Committee on Investigations regarding the bidding for garbage collection and disposal services. I have suggested language which should allow local government the flexibility of rejecting such bids while protecting the public from unscrupulous dealings. A private purchase in such circumstances will be made only on the approval of two-thirds of the governing body and after notice of the alleged collusive practices to the county prosecutor and Attorney General.

—Often, however, local government has been guilty of unnecessarily restricting the number of persons which could bid on public contracts through overly strict specifications or standards for the pre-qualification of bidders. I am therefore recommending a change in Senate Bill No. 284, which will require that such standards or specifications promote free, open and competitive bidding, rather than discourage it. In particular, standards for qualification of bidders should be rejected if they make it possible for small businesses to compete or ensure that only one bidder will be qualified. They should also be adopted after adequate public hearings.

I have also recommended numerous other changes of lesser scope. For instance, I see no reason why there cannot be competitive bidding for the purchasing of automobiles. In addition, purchases by local government units in amounts of more than $2,500 should be made only through a contract or agreement, and not through more informal purchasing procedures.

On the other hand, I have not suggested changes in areas that also merit consideration. I am not recommending, for instance, a conflicts of interest provision with this bill because I expect to present shortly to the Legislature a general local conflicts of interest bill. Nor have I tried to expand the coverage of this bill to include local agencies which are not encompassed by its terms. It would also appear prudent for the State of New Jersey to determine the flexibility of providing for independent laboratory and field testing of those products used by both State and local government, so that we may be sure that we are getting our money's worth. It hardly seems appropriate that the billions of dollars spent by both State and local government should go into purchasing materials which we are not sure meet rigid standards of performance and reliability. It is my sincere hope that the draftsmen of this bill will carry their work further into this area.

All in all, Senate Bill No. 284, with the changes I have recommended, represents a constructive attempt to provide a realistic framework for local purchasing policies. I therefor respectfully recommend the following changes in Senate Bill No. 284:

- (a) Notification of the intention to negotiate and a reasonable opportunity to negotiate shall have been given by the contracting unit to each responsible bidder, and

SENATE BILL No. 288

To the Senate:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, paragraph 14 (b) of the Constitution, I herewith return Senate Bill No. 288, with my objections, for reconsideration.

Senate Bill No. 288 would amend Chapter 67 of the Laws of 1946 for the purpose of clarifying the right of policemen or firemen to have all necessary legal aid provided them when they are defendants in any lawsuit or other legal proceeding arising out of the discharge of their duties. Clarification of this right is both well-intentioned and desirable, for the text of the present law has given rise to numerous questions of interpretation and construction. Our policemen and firemen—most of whom are already underpaid—should not be expected to bear the expense of providing their own defense in proceedings that grow out of the proper discharge of their duties. Accordingly, I welcome this occasion to resolve any doubts concerning the statutory right of policemen and firemen to have legal representation provided for them by their respective municipalities.

It is my opinion however, that the present text of Senate Bill No. 288 might compound existing questions concerning the meaning of Chapter 67 of the Laws of 1946. My opinion is shared fully by the sponsor of this measure, who suggests that I return S-288 (1969) with suggested amendments.

Accordingly, I herewith return Senate Bill No. 288 for reconsideration and with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

On page 1, section 1, line 8, insert “.” after “proceeding.”

On page 1, section 1, after line 8, delete lines 9-16 in their entirety.

Respectfully,

SENATE BILL No. 303

To the Senate:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14 (a) of the Constitution I herewith return Senate Bill No. 303, without my approval.

Senate Bill No. 303 would expand the membership of a local housing authority from six to seven members in the case of a municipality with a population of not less than 100,000 nor more than 110,000 inhabitants, according to the 1960 census. Elizabeth is the only city to which the bill applies. The additional member would be appointed by the mayor for a term of five years. Presently, five members are appointed by the governing body and one is a representative of the State.

The bill is special legislation in violation of Article IV, Section VII, Paragraph 9, Clause 13, which prohibits the enactment of special laws regulating the internal affairs of municipalities. While the classification of municipalities on the basis of population is constitutional, the classification must have some relation to the purposes of the law.

The purpose of local housing authorities is to construct and operate low-cost housing for persons of limited means, NJSA 55:14A-2. There is nothing peculiar to the nature of a municipality with a population between 100,000 and 110,000 which would make the addition of one new commissioner to the housing authority relevant to obtaining the purposes of the Local Housing Authorities Law. There are presently seventy-one county and municipal housing authorities operating throughout the State of New Jersey. All of them operate with six members. There would appear to be no reason for classifying the Local Housing Authority of Elizabeth differently from any others. In any case, if special legislation is necessary, the procedure exists under the terms of N. J. Const., Article IV, Section VII, Paragraph 10 for the enactment of private or special laws governing the internal affairs of the municipality, see Van Riper v. Parsons, 40 N.J.L. 1 (Sup. Ct. 1878); Wilson v.

Mc Guinness, 78 N. J. L. 346 (Ct. Err. & App. 1910); Sarner v. Union Township, 55 N. J. Super, 523 (1959).

In addition, the use for purposes of classification of a particular census, such as is done in this bill with the 1960 census, constitutes an illusory classification, unconstitutional under the same provisions of the State Constitution, Carter v. Somerset County, 17 N. J. Misc. 133, rev'd. on other grounds, 123 N.J.L. 407 (Ct. Err. & App. 1939), and Dickinson v. Freeholders of Hudson County, 71 N.J.L. 589 (1904).

For these reasons, I must return this bill without my approval.

Respectfully,

/s/ RICHARD J. HUGHES,
Governor.

SENATE BILL No. 308

To the Senate:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14(a) of the Constitution, I herewith return Senate Bill No. 308, without my approval.

Senate Bill No. 308 would mandatorily increase the term of a mayor elected in a borough from two to four years. It would also repeal the provisions presently in the law allowing a borough to adopt this option on its own initiative by referendum. The increase in the term of office would take effect immediately and would have included mayors elected this November.

The borough form of government, however, is not based on a strong executive, but rather reflects the decision of the community to govern its affairs through a council in which the mayor is little more than first among equals. 226 municipalities in New Jersey have chosen this form of government. While no data is available from the Division of Local

Finance, the League of Municipalities or the New Jersey Taxpayers Association on how many of these municipalities have elected to provide a four-year term for their mayor under the terms of P. L. 1952, c. 148, it is consistent with New Jersey's philosophy of local government that the option should be exercised by the voters of each municipality wherever possible. In effect, this bill would deny the residents of New Jersey's 226 boroughs that option and impose upon them the decision of this Legislature that a four-year term for a mayor is preferable.

The New Jersey Commission on Municipal Government, which wrote the Faulkner Act itself, had strong opinions about the defects of "weak-mayor" forms of government, to which the borough's governmental structure may be most closely analogized. It stated:

The Commission has . . . dropped the weak-mayor council plan from its optional charter forms. The characteristics of this plan—the 'long ballot' of recommended administrative officers, and the futile position that the mayor must occupy as the responsible head of the municipality—has long been outmoded in municipal thinking and is highly inadequate to modern municipal requirements. N. J. Commission on Municipal Government, Local Self-Government in New Jersey: A Proposed Optional Charter Plan, 21 (February, 1949).

Nonetheless, in its Second Report, after further consideration, it recognized the need for providing even those options which it had recommended not be adopted. They are now included among the small municipality plans provided by the Faulkner Act. In doing so, it accepted these changes as part of its original intent of permitting "complete freedom of choice for all municipalities". This is the pattern which this bill seeks to change.

I cannot join in such an action. If, in fact, what is needed is a strong mayor in these municipalities, then they may select one of the other options available under the Faulkner Act. If that provides more than they need, then they can elect, under the provisions of P. L. 1952, c. 148, which would be repealed by this act, to lengthen the term their mayor serves. Perhaps we should also create another option extending the term of the mayor to three years so that it would be equal to the term served by councilmen. In any case, power of the Authority to fix, charge and collect tolls, Section 11 of Chapter 16 of the Laws of 1952 (N. J. S. A. 27:12B-11) contains the following pledge :

“The State of New Jersey does pledge to and agree with the holders of the bonds or notes issued pursuant to authority contained in this act, that the State will not limit or restrict the rights hereby vested in the Authority to maintain, acquire, construct, reconstruct and operate any project as defined in this act or to establish and collect such tolls or other charges as may be convenient or necessary to produce sufficient revenues to meet the expenses of maintenance and operation thereof and to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the holders of bonds or notes authorized by this act or in any way impair the rights or remedies of the holders of such bonds or notes until the bonds and notes, together with interest thereon, are fully paid and discharged. L. 1952, c. 16, p. 82, § 11.” (Emphasis added)

This pledge of the State is a representation which any holder of the bonds or notes of the Authority—issued under either the first General Bond Resolution or any subsequent Bond Resolution—can consider as having been extended to him for his protection.

It surely takes no great knowledge of law to realize that the provisions of Senate Bill No. 309 violate both the letter and spirit of the pledge made by the State of New Jersey in 1952. The Authority has determined that its present toll structure—which makes no provision for the sale at discount of books of toll tickets—is, in the language of the statutory pledge, “. . . necessary to produce sufficient revenues to meet the expenses of maintenance and operation . . .” of the Garden State Parkway. Notwithstanding this determination, however, the Legislature would order the Authority to offer discounts of up to 50% from its present toll structure. Since this mandate of the Legislature—contrary to the pledge contained in Section 11 of Chapter 16 of the Laws of 1952—patently limits and restricts the power of the Authority to charge and collect tolls sufficient to pay its bonded indebtedness, I must withhold my approval of Senate Bill No. 309.

Moreover, contemplation of some of the possible consequences of my approval of S-309 (1969) makes all the more resolute my determination not to renege on the pledge made by the State in 1952. It should be remembered that the people of the State of New Jersey, by referendum, authorized a pledge of the credit of the State to guarantee the payment of bonds issued by the Authority. Were I to approve S-309, and should the resulting discounted toll structure cause a net loss of toll revenues, the Authority might well default in the payment of the principal of and interest on outstanding bonds. In the event of any such default, the trustee of the various bond issues of the Authority, as well as the holders of the bonds and notes issued by the Authority, would exercise their legal right to call upon the State to meet the principal and interest payments upon bonds guaranteed by the State. The State could meet its obligation in such an instance only by the appropriation and expenditure of millions of dollars from its operating budget.

The comments made herein were foreshadowed by similar statements made one year ago concerning Senate Bill No. 185 (1968) and Assembly Bill No. 400 (1968). Those bills granted a right of free passage over all toll facilities in New Jersey to members of the New Jersey National Guard and the Reserve Components of the Armed Forces, respectively. The Legislature chose to ignore my comments on those two bills, and enacted them over my veto as Chapters 352 and 414 of the Laws of 1968. The Authority has already initiated litigation challenging the legality of Chapters 352 and 414 of the Laws of 1968. (N. J. Hwy. Auth. v. Sills, Super. Ct., Ch. Div., Essex Co., Doc. No. C-1284-68). Since that litigation will be dispositive of the issues presented by Senate Bill No. 309, I am further constrained to withhold my approval from S-309 in the face of that litigation.

For these reasons, then, I return herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 309.

Respectfully,

STATE OF NEW JERSEY,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
November 17, 1969. }

SENATE BILL NO. 311

To the Senate:

I herewith return Senate Bill No. 311, without my approval, for the following reasons:

Senate Bill No. 311 would amend the law which created the New Jersey Expressway Authority to limit the types of projects which might be undertaken lawfully by the Expressway Authority.

In creating the Expressway Authority, the State made the following statutory pledge to the holders of any bonds issued by the Authority:

"The State of New Jersey does hereby pledge to and covenant and agree with the holders of any bonds or notes issued pursuant to authority of this act that the State will not limit or alter the rights or powers hereby vested in the authority to acquire, construct, maintain, improve, repair and operate any project, or to perform and fulfill the terms of any agreement made with the holders of such bonds or notes, or to fix, establish, charge and collect such tolls or other charges as may be convenient or necessary to produce sufficient revenues to meet all expenses of the authority and fulfill the terms of any agreement made with the holders of such bonds or notes, and that the State will not in any way impair the rights or remedies of such holders or modify in any way the exemptions from taxation provided for in this act, until such bonds and notes, together with interest thereon, with interest or any unpaid installments of interest, and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceedings by or on behalf of such holders, are fully met and discharge or provided for. L. 1962, c. 10, § 41." (Emphasis Added)

Since there are outstanding bonds (the principal thereof and interest thereon not yet fully paid and discharged), the limitation of authorized projects sought to be imposed by Senate Bill No. 311 would appear to violate the specific covenant of the State with the Expressway Authority's bondholders, and may possibly be open to question as an unconstitutional impairment of the obligation of contracts.

Furthermore, the inflexible restriction contained in S-311 (1969) would be unnecessary if the Governor were accorded the power to veto actions of the Expressway Authority. I invite the Legislature to consider this alternative proposal, for there can be no doubts as to its legality or constitutionality.

For these reasons I am returning herewith Senate Bill No. 311.

Respectfully,

/s/ RICHARD J. HUGHES,

Governor.

SENATE BILL No 312

To the Senate:

I herewith return Senate Bill No. 312, without my approval, for the following reasons:

Senate Bill No. 312 would amend the law which created the New Jersey Turnpike Authority to limit the types of projects which might be undertaken lawfully by the Turnpike Authority.

In creating the Turnpike Authority, the State made the following statutory pledge to the holders of any bonds issued by the Authority:

“The State of New Jersey does pledge to and agree with the holders of the bonds issued pursuant to authority contained in this act, that the State will not limit or restrict the rights hereby vested in the Au- thority to maintain, construct, reconstruct, and operate any project as defined in this act, or to establish and collect such charges and tolls as may be convenient or necessary to produce sufficient revenue to meet the expenses of maintenance and operation thereof and to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the holders of bonds authorized by this act or in any way impair the rights or remedies of the holders of such bonds until, the bonds, together with interest thereon, are fully paid and discharged. L. 1948, c. 454, p. 1864, § 7, as amended L. 1950, c. 1, p. 20, § 6." (Emphasis Added)

Since there are outstanding bonds (the principal thereof and interest thereon not yet fully paid and discharged), the limitation of authorized projects sought to be imposed by Senate Bill No. 312 would violate clearly the specific covenant of the State with the Turnpike Authority's bondholders, and may possibly be open to question as an unconstitutional impairment of the obligation of contracts.

For these reasons I am returning herewith Senate Bill No. 312.

SENATE BILL No. 364

To the Senate:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14(a) of the Constitution, I herewith return Senate Bill No. 364, without my approval.

Senate Bill No. 364 would authorize a municipality to treat preliminary engineering studies for the construction of a sanitary sewer system as the subject of a special emergency appropriation and allow financing through five-year emergency notes rather than current operating expenses.

Earlier this year, I signed Senate Bill No. 225, which became P. L. 1969, c. 38, which would authorize the same type of appropriation. Senate Bill No. 364 is therefore rendered superfluous. Accordingly, I return Senate Bill No. 364 to the Senate without my approval.

SENATE BILL No. 480

To the Senate:

I am herewith returning Senate Bill No. 480 without my approval for the following reasons:

Senate 480 would permit the parents of a mentally deficient or mentally retarded individual who is over twenty-one and receiving residential functional services to move in Superior Court for a judgment designating them as the legal guardians of the individual's person. The bill is specifically not intended to affect the determination of a guardian of the individual's estate.

Senate 480 was introduced to alleviate a situation created in part by enactment of P. L. 1965, c. 59, § 88. Under this provision, if the Commissioner of Institutions & Agencies determines that an individual receiving residential functional services is incapable of managing himself and his affairs upon attaining his majority, the Division of Mental Retardation is to perform guardianship services for the mentally deficient adult, should the parents not choose to seek appointment. Senate 480 is urged on the basis that even in the most obvious cases of incompetency, the parents of an apparently incompetent adult find existing court procedures for appointment as guardian a costly and complex process. Senate 480 is intended to simplify the present process for individuals over 21, mentally deficient or mentally retarded, and in need of continued functional services.

I accept Senate 480's premise that the relatively difficult and elaborate procedures set forth by the Court to protect adult individuals from ill-motivated or unsubstantiated allegations of incompetency are less relevant where the individual has been institutionalized and the guardianship would extend only to the person, not the estate. It is also accepted as desirable that guardianship by private parties be encouraged and the Division's substitution made necessary in only a limited number of cases. However, relatively minor adjustments in the applicable Rules of Court to conform to those cases created by the institutionalized minor attaining his majority would appear to be a preferable alternative to enactment of Senate 480.

Consistent with the N. J. Constitutional provision, Article I, Par. 9, which permitted the Legislature to statutorily provide for the determination of incompetency without a jury, P. L. 1948, c. 388, provides that ". . . the issue of mental incompetency may be had without a jury pursuant to rules of the Supreme Court . . .". The current Supreme Court Rules responsive to this responsibility are Rules 4:83-1 through 4:83-8. Although S-480 is proposed to relieve the need for patients and Divisional staff to appear in court, Rule 4:8-36 already provides that "if the alleged incompetent has been continuously confined in a public institution because of chronic mental retardation for a period of not less than two years prior to the commencement of the action, the courts may determine the issue of competency on the affidavits prescribed by R.4:83-2(b)", (one from a reputable physician, and one from the institution's chief executive officer or medical director).

If it becomes clear that the Court is unwilling to close whatever gap exists between implementation of the present rules and the legitimate concerns of the Division of Mental Retardation, legislation similar to Senate 480 can be entertained by the Legislature.

As a legislative alternative to a modification in the Rules, Senate 480 is deficient and would confuse rather than expedite current practices:

- 1) Both by statute and by Rule, county courts as well as the Superior Court may now entertain actions for incompetency and appointment. S-480 would eliminate the county court as a possible Forum.

- 2) A significant deficiency is S-480's lack of any definition of the nature of the mental condition which is to be affected by the new procedure. Though "mentally retarded", "mentally deficient", and "mentally ill" have been defined institutional terms since 1965 (P. L. 1965, c. 59), these terms are used interchangeably and misused in view of the act's intent in both the title and the body of the bill.
- 3) To be acceptable as a deviation from the more stringent court review, the class of individuals should be limited to those receiving residential functional services from the Department of Institutions & Agencies.
- 4) In addition, although the earlier statute which dealt with institutional guardianship services attempted to alert any parent or guardian of the minor to the need for a court appointment, Senate 480 would seem to allow only both parents of a mentally deficient individual to utilize the new procedure.
- 5) The introduction of the county surrogate as a necessary party to all actions created by Senate 480 is firmly resisted as inappropriate by the Administrative Office of the Courts.

In sum, major revisions of S-480 would be required in order to better represent the intent of the drafters and conform to acceptable court procedures. On balance, seeking modifications in the relevant Rules of Court remains a more expeditious means of achieving the desired result.

SENATE BILL No. 534

To the Senate:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14 (b) of the Constitution, I herewith return Senate Bill No. 534, with my objections, for reconsideration.

The Commissioner of Transportation has had, since 1942, the authority to replace or reconstruct a well on private property destroyed by highway construction (P. L. 1942, c. 22). In 1966, he was given the option to connect the property to the line of any nearby water company, instead of reconstructing the well. Senate Bill No. 305 of this year, approved as P. L. 1969, c. 39, was intended to deal with cases in which the well was contaminated, although not destroyed, and no longer produced potable water. Senate Bill No. 305 also inadvertently introduced a problem of interpretation, since it allowed the Commissioner of Transportation to pay for a well destroyed or contaminated by "Construction of maintenance heretofore undertaken" (emphasis added). This could be read to limit compensation under the act to cases arising before its date of approval, March 12, 1969. Moreover, although the doctrine of implied repeal is not favored by the courts, the language of Senate Bill No. 305 casts a cloud on the ability of the Commissioner to exercise the powers conferred upon him in 1942 to compensate for a destroyed well.

The bill presently before me, Senate Bill No. 534, would make some additional changes. First, it would allow compensation for the destruction or contamination of the water supply of a school district, as well as that of private parties. Second, it would require that the construction or maintenance activities of the Department of Transportation only be a primary cause, not the sole cause for the damage. Third, the options of the Commissioner would be expanded to allow him to provide a "substitute water supply", not necessarily limiting him to digging a new well or connecting a line to an existing water company outlet. Finally, in the case of emergencies where health was threatened, in his discretion, he could provide the alternate water supply without regard to public bidding.

All of these changes are desirable. The Commissioner of Transportation should certainly have the power to compensate persons for harm done. Moreover, since such payments are entirely within his discretion, the public is protected from unreasonable and unlimited claims or expenditures.

However, it would appear both desirable and prudent to correct the defects of P. L. 1969, c. 39. As Senate Bill No. 534 would confer on the Commissioner of Transportation all of the powers of P. L. 1969, c. 39, the latter should be repealed.

Furthermore, it is not apparent to me why compensation should be limited to school districts. It would appear that if the water supply of any public body is contaminated or destroyed, an equitable distribution of the cost of public activity between the State and any other public body would require that compensation be paid by the State when the State is at the cause of the damage.

With these factors in mind, I respectfully recommend the following changes in Senate Bill No. 534:

1. Amend the title so that it shall read "An act concerning the State Department of Transportation's responsibility with respect to the destruction or contamination of wells used for a potable water supply and to amend 'An act concerning the State Highway Department,' approved March 16, 1942 (P. L. 1942, c. 22), and to repeal 'An act concerning the State Department of Transportation's responsibility with respect to the destruction of wells used for a potable water supply,' approved March 12, 1969 (P. L. 1969, c. 39)."
2. Page 1, Section 1, Line 4: Omit "taken" and substitute in lieu thereof the word "undertaken".
3. Page 1, Section 1, Lines 8 and 9: Omit "or property owned by any school district", and substitute in lieu thereof "or public".
4. Page 2, Section 1, Line 28: Insert after the word "constructed" and before the word "and", the phrase "or otherwise secured".
5. Page 2, Section 1, Line 30: Add "or otherwise securing a substitute potable water supply".
6. Page 2—Add a new Section 3 as follows:
 "3. Chapter 39 of the Laws of 1969 is hereby repealed, except that any actions taken or payments made pursuant to said act prior to the effective date of this act are herewith validated, approved and confirmed."

Respectfully,

SENATE BILL No. 668

To the Senate:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14(b) of the Constitution, I herewith return Senate Bill No. 668, with my objections, for reconsideration.

Senate Bill No. 668 would allow a public housing authority acting as a redevelopment agency in urban renewal to include as part of its costs the cost of the relocation of the facilities of a public utility displaced as a result of a redevelopment plan. Presently, the cost of relocating such a public utility facility must be paid by the developer. This bill would allow the public housing authority, acting as a redevelopment agency, at its option, to absorb such a cost as an additional incentive to attract developers.

Although I find the intent of the bill acceptable, there are some technical errors which should be corrected in order to avoid any misunderstanding.

I therefore recommend the following changes:

1. Page 2, Section 1, Line 44: Insert after the word "of" and before the word "expense" the phrase "public utilities relocation" and after the word "described" delete the word "therein"; and insert in lieu thereof the phrase "in section 9 (C. 55:14A-39) and in (4) of this section (C. 55:14A-41) the responsibility".
2. Page 2, Section 1, Lines 46 and 47: Delete after the word "project" on line 46 the phrase "are included in the cost of the redevelopment project", and insert in lieu thereof the phrase "and has not assumed in any agreement with the purchaser or lessee".

SENATE BILL No. 707

To the Senate:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, paragraph 14(b) of the Constitution, I herewith return Senate Bill No. 707, with my objections, for reconsideration.

This bill would repeal the "New Jersey Conflicts of Interest Law" and would substitute therefor a new set of standards against which the conduct of members of the Legislature and State officers and employees might be measured. The new set of standards has been characterized by the proponents of this bill as a major improvement over those of present law, hence meriting my approval. I find it impossible to concur in that characterization, and, for the reasons cited below, must return S-707 (1969) with recommendations for amendment.

I.

I believe it would be instructive at the outset to recall the history of our present "conflicts of interest" legislation for S-707, no less than any other bill, cannot be considered in a vacuum. In 1964 I felt constrained to veto conditionally Senate Bill No. 40 (1964), which contained many of the features I today find objectionable in S-707 (1969). Although the enactment of S-40 (1964) represented the first response of the Legislature to the conflict of interests problem, I concluded that ". . . not even the most minimal standards which reasonable men might expect of a workable conflicts of interest law . . ." has been met. That conclusion appeared valid even though I knew ". . . that it would be pointless to insist upon perfection in this highly sensitive area," and that ". . . in some instances, a hesitant first step into unchartered territory may be preferable to nothing at all."

Although the 1964 Legislature refused to concur in the recommendations I had made with regard to S-40 (1964), the 1965 Legislature enacted Senate Bill No. 81 (1965), which incorporated some of the suggestions I had put forth previously. However, S-81 (1965) retained intact the feature I found most objectionable — self-policing by the members of the Legislature of their own conduct. In 1965, as previously in 1964, I restated my willingness to consider any reasonable approach to the problem:

“As much as I desire the enactment of a viable conflicts of interest law, I cannot and will not be a party to the enactment of a measure which may delay the adoption of a meaningful conflicts law for many years. As I said last year, I am well aware that it would be pointless to insist upon perfection in this highly sensitive area. At the same time, the people of this State are entitled to at least a minimal showing of good faith, characterized by legislation which does not insult their intelligence.”

As was the case in 1964, the 1965 Legislature refused to reenact S-81 (1965) amended in accordance with my recommendations.

It was not until 1967 that the Legislature again enacted a conflicts of interest bill — Senate Bill No. 493 (1967). Inasmuch as S-493 (1967) adopted a wholly new approach to the “conflicts” problem, I approved it as Chapter 229 of the Laws of 1967. At the time I approved S-493 (1967) I noted that its emphasis was disclosure, not prohibition; public opinion and knowledge, not punishment:

“In point of fact, the measure which I have signed today is totally different in concept and design than either of the other bills which have been before me. It is not a code of ethics measure, rather it is a disclosure act. It does not purport to itemize all of the things which a legislator should not do, instead it tells him to make public everything which he does do when doing business with the State or representing persons before a State agency. Its efficacy, in the final analysis, does not depend upon governmental investigation, but rather upon knowledge in the hands of the people, which knowledge can be translated into ballots. The force of public opinion and the threat of political reprisal would serve as a deterrent to those few who might otherwise seek to use their public position for private gain.”

Having drawn this distinction between S-493 (1967) and its precursors — and notwithstanding its continued reliance upon self-scrutiny by members of the Legislature — I approved S-493 (1967) as a “. . . significant breakthrough upon which even more effective legislation can be premised.”

As I noted in my conditional veto message concerning Senate Bill No. 40 (1964), “For good cause or not, public attention to the subject of conflicts of interest long has been focused primarily upon the activities of the Legislature.” It was my hope — shared by many others of course— that the public demand would be met by the enactment of conflicts of interest legislation untainted by the imperfections I note below. It was also equally clear, notwithstanding renewed public interest, that the enactment of any conflicts legislation was not a foregone conclusion.

II.

No one feature of Senate Bill No. 707 (1969) is more objectionable than its provision for legislative consideration and determination of complaints of conflicts of interest on the part of members of the Legislature. As I noted in my conditional veto message concerning S-40 (1964):

“. . . I cannot agree that the members of the Legislature generally should be shouldered with the distasteful assignment of passing upon charges against their colleagues. No man should be asked to act as his own judge.

“It would be unwise to vest in the Legislature the responsibility for enforcement of its code of conduct for another equally important reason. . . . In order to assure the confidence of our citizens in their government, it is imperative that no suspicion concerning the bona fides of the Legislature be given a basis for existence. In a society which derives its order from the consent of the governed, men in public office not only should do justice but also should satisfy the people that justice has in fact been done . . . . It is not difficult to forecast that the exoneration of an accused legislator by the membership of his House would be attended by suspicion that the charge was neither diligently investigated nor disposed of on its merits.”

I do not believe that the passage of a mere five years has weakened the validity of that conclusion, particularly in view of the controversy surrounding the Legislature earlier this year.

It is indeed true that our present conflict of interest law — which I reluctantly approved — does provide for the same self-policing to which I object. Yet, it is also true that my reservations with regard to that feature were stated fully in 1964, 1965 and 1967, and that the disclosure provisions of Chapter 229 were appealing counterweights. Now that the Legislature has set for itself the task of replacing Chapter 229 with a stronger version, however, I see no need to compound — a lesser evil I was willing to accept in 1967.

It is in the transaction of the public business that the potential for conflict of interest occurs, and the disposition of complaints of conflict of interest is clearly the business of the public. I am therefor persuaded that the general public should be represented on any panel constituted to hear and determine complaints of conflict of interest.

Accordingly, I propose that Senate Bill No. 707 (1969) be amended to provide for the creation of a Commission on Legislative and Executive Ethical Standards. The Commission would be composed of the President of the Senate, the Speaker of the General Assembly, the President of the Civil Service Commission, the Governor, and five citizens appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate for terms of five years. No more than three of the five citizens to be appointed by the Governor should be members of the same political party. The commission would hear and determine complaints against members of the Legislature and State officers and employees, render advisory opinions when advisable, and suggest further changes in the law if necessary. Adoption of this recommendation will prove the intention of the Legislature to vindicate the public trust.

III

Considerable attention has been given to the representation by members of the Legislature and State officers and employees, of parties other than the State before various agencies of State government. Such practice most certainly creates the potential — if not the fact — of conflict of interest. Section 6 of Senate Bill No. 707 (1969) would curtail partially such representation by prohibiting members of the Legislature and State officers and employees from representing parties other than the State before State agencies in matters “. . . whereof the State has a direct financial interest, when the final disposition or determination thereof is contested by the State . . . .”. While this provision of S-707 (1969) may eliminate some questionable practices, other equally questionable situations continue to be beyond the reach of the law.

For example, numerous agencies of State Government deal in matters of vital public interest without asserting a direct financial interest of the State. These agencies include: the Department of Banking and Insurance; the Department of Public Utilities; the Department of Civil Service; the Divisions of Alcoholic Beverage Control, Weights and Measures, Motor Vehicles, and Professional Boards in the Department of Law and Public Safety; the Divisions of Local Finance and Housing and Urban Renewal in the Department of Community Affairs; the Divisions of Investment, Taxation, Tax Appeals and Racing of the Department of the Treasury; the Office of Milk Industry in the Department of Agriculture; the State Parole Board in the Department of Institutions and Agencies; the Bureaus of Wages and Hours and Engineering and Safety in the Department of Labor and Industry; and the Division of Water Policy and Supply in the Department of Conservation and Economic Development. Although this listing is by no means exhaustive, it is indicative of the range of interests asserted by the State which are rarely adverse to a financial interest asserted by parties appearing before these agencies. These non-monetary interests — no less than direct financial interests asserted by the State — deserve insulation from both the appearance and fact of conflict of interest.

Moreover, as presently worded, the prohibition of Section 6 of S-707 would not attach until the State agency involved “contested” the final disposition of a matter before a State agency. Consequently, a legislator would be free to represent a private party before, and to bring his influence to bear upon, the agency until such time as the agency hands down a ruling or determination. Needless to say, such opportunity for “influence peddling” may well resolve the matter in favor of the party represented by the legislator, thereby mooting the prohibition of Section 6. I do not believe that the activities permitted by the present text of Section 6 of S-707 fully secure the public interest in both the appearance and the fact of impartial, objective administration.

Accordingly, it is my recommendation that S-707 be amended to prohibit unconditionally the appearance before all State agencies of legislators and State officers and employees on behalf of any party other than the State. I note parenthetically that the recommendation made herein will obviate the need for the exceptions grafted onto Section 6 by the General Assembly. Those exceptions, in my opinion, represent no reasoned resolution of an issue but merely bear witness to the lobbying "muscle" of their respective proponents.

IV

There are numerous ways in which the over-reaching legislator or State officer or employee may attempt to use his public office for private gain. One such way is for the legislator or State officer, upon leaving his public office, to attempt to trade upon either "insider" knowledge acquired through his former official position, or upon personal relationships with those who remained in official positions. Such ploys are exceedingly difficult to prevent, and have become an item of increasing concern to interested citizens. The only defense offered in support of such strategy is that some persons accept public office or employment solely for the purpose of gaining "expertise" with which they hope to earn a living subsequently in private employment. This argument is obviously self-defeating, for it admits the possibility that the holder of public office or public employment, in order not to offend potential future employers or associates, will not act aggressively to protect the public interest. Yet, on the other hand, it is equally clear that some restraints are highly desirable in order to (1) promote equal treatment of equal claims on the merits; (2) lessen the possibility of decision-making predicated upon "cronyism" rather than the public interest; and (3) eliminate the practice of rewarding biased treatment through promised employment or other gains deferred until the termination of the public office or employment.

Against this analysis, then, I see no reason whatsoever to approve the present text of Section 7 of Senate Bill No. 707 (1969). In the first instance, Section 7 is rendered completely inadequate by its failure to impose any restraints whatsoever on former legislators. For example, the present text of Section 7 would permit a member of the subcommittee on Claims of the Joint Appropriations Committee of the Legislature, upon termination of his elective office, to appear before the Claims Subcommittee on behalf of a claimant whose demand had previously been rejected. For that matter, S-707 would even permit a member of the Claims subcommittee, having voted to satisfy the demand of a claimant, to accept employment with the claimant subsequent to the termination of his elected office. The latitude permitted former legislators by Section 7 of S-707 is wholly out of step with the restraints imposed upon former officers and employees in the Executive Branch, and can only serve to justify the widely held suspicion—justifiable or not—that the members of the Legislature merely pay lip-service to the nature of their public trust. I propose that this suspicion be eliminated by amending Section 7 of S-707 to include former members of the Legislature.

Section 7 of Senate Bill No. 707 is deficient for a second reason—it permits former State officers or employees to render services to parties other than the State in matters in which they were directly involved—provided that two years have passed since the former officer or employee terminated his service to the State. I find this provision inadequate on two grounds. First, there is no justification whatsoever for granting a State officer or employee—merely because he has terminated his office or employment—a legal right to “jump to the other side of the fence” and to represent a private party in any particular matter in which he was directly and intimately concerned while he enjoyed public trust. Such a provision permits the most pernicious form of “insider dealing” and “influence peddling” conceivable. Secondly, and beyond that objection, it is not inconceivable that particular matters may stretch in duration well beyond the two year period of abstinence contemplated by Section 7. In particular, consider, for example, complicated proceedings initiated by the Division of Taxation in the Department of Treasury which, during the course of protracted litigation, are often remanded to the agency for further administrative action. I hold nothing sacred about the mere passage of 2 years, and accordingly urge the adoption of permanent prohibitions against the practice noted here.

A third reason merits objection to the present wording of Section 7 of Senate Bill No. 707. In its present form, Section 7 would permit former State officers or employees to appear without limitation before the agency within which they previously held office or employment, so long as they do not render services to private parties in particular matters with which they were directly concerned while employed. Such a provision may restrict somewhat the extent to which "insider" knowledge of particular matters—gained by virtue of public employment—may be used to further the interest of the former officer or employee and private parties. However, this provision—by permitting the former officer or employee to appear before his old agency—poses little obstacle to subtle trading on personal relationships established while the former officer or employee represented the State. Provisions of federal law answer this shortcoming of Section 7 of S-707 by prohibiting certain former federal employees from appearing before their old agencies—in no matter what capacity—for two years subsequent to the termination of their federal employment. I propose that such a provision—aimed at curbing "influence peddling"—be incorporated in Section 7 along with any other recommendations concerning that section—aimed at curbing improper use of "insider knowledge".

I am confident the merits of these recommendations will be readily grasped and adopted by the Legislature, in order that public confidence in our government of laws—and not men—may be maintained.

V.

I am concerned that the present wording of Section 2 of S-707 may have the effect—probably unintended—of depriving the State of the counsel of numerous public-spirited citizens who serve without compensation on various boards and commissions. I draw this conclusion because Section 2, when read in conjunction with other provisions of S-707, subjects these citizen-advisors to all the restrictions and limitations of the bill. In fact, some of those restrictions and limitations would be applicable not only to those citizen-participants, but also to all of their partners and associates.

Should S-707 become law in its present form, these citizen-advisors must then decide whether to continue advisory service to the State (with resulting limitations on the professional activities of themselves and their associates), or to terminate their citizen-participation (thereby freeing themselves and their associates from the restrictions of the bill). There is little need for such a forced choice, for the nature of the boards and commissions on which these citizen-advisors sit are such that their members are rarely in a position, merely by virtue of their respective offices, to exercise any influence over any other agency of the State. Indeed, as I noted five years ago in my conditional veto message concerning S-40 (1964):

“ . . . public-spirited citizens who undertake to serve without compensation on governmental boards and commissions should be excluded from the general definitional sections, and should be covered only by those provisions of the bill which are pertinent to their situations. Such persons function in a narrow sphere, usually on a part-time basis, and should not be disqualified from dealing with the State in areas which have no connection with their public activities and do not in fact involve conflicts of interest.”

In order that the State may continue to enjoy the counsel of public-spirited citizen-advisors, S-707 should be amended to restrict only the dealings of those persons with the board or commission on which they serve. The amendments set out below will accomplish that suggestion.

VI.

Three other deficiencies of Senate Bill No. 707 (1969) should be called to the attention of the Legislature and promptly cured in order that the bill might achieve its stated purpose.

First, a serious oversight in draftsmanship permits Senate Bill No. 707 (1969) to be permeated by a crippling loophole—the failure of most provisions of the bill to apply to members of the immediate families of the legislators and State officers or employees subject to the provisions of the bill. Consequently, the purpose of the bill can be subverted without difficulty by the spouse or children of a legislator or State officer subject to the bill.

Example: Pursuant to Section 3, no “State officer or employee or member of the Legislature shall accept from any person any gift, favor or service . . . offered to him with intent to influence him . . . .” A mink coat is given to the wife of a legislator; Section 3 has not been violated.

Example: Under Section 8, no State officer or employee or member of the Legislature may contract with the State through a corporation he controls or in which he owns more than 10% of the stock. Senator X and Sons, Inc. may well become "Sons Inc." as the ownership interests are transferred to members of the immediate family.

I have suggested below amendatory language amply sufficient to close this glaring loophole.

Second, I am troubled by the provisions of Section 4 of Senate Bill No. 707 (1969) on three grounds. In the first place, the prohibition of Section 4 attaches only to the purchase of land by the State. Excluded from its coverage are sales of the State's interest in real property. Such sales include riparian grants and sales of land resulting from excess condemnation or the abandonment of State facilities. Secondly, Section 4 by its terms does not apply to the sale or purchase by the State of either personal property, or intangible property. Thus, the prohibitions of Section 4 will not attach to the sale of used central motor pool cars by the Division of Purchase and Property, nor to sales by the Division of Investments to banks and underwriters of bonds and notes and money in the form of deposits. Lastly, the prohibitions of Section 4 are inapplicable to a legislator or State officer or employee unless he acts "knowingly." Although it may be assumed that reasonable knowledge will be imputed in some cases to the self-dealing legislator or State employee, the requirement of scienter invites the "ignorant" conduct of otherwise prohibited business—as through the use of unconsolidated subsidiaries of parent corporations.

I have suggested below corrective amendments intended to remedy these three defects.

VII

Apart from the inadequacies and deficiencies I have noted with respect to the provisions of S-707 (1969), it is also my opinion that three glaring omissions must also be corrected. Those omissions are as follows:

- (1) Senate Bill No. 707 does not prohibit a member of the Legislature from participating, whether by voting or any other action, on the floor of either House or in committee or elsewhere, in the enactment or defeat of legislation in which the legislator has a direct, personal interest.

- (2) Senate Bill No. 707 does not prohibit a member of the Legislature or a State officer or employee from disclosing for gain or using for the purpose of gain, whether directly or indirectly, confidential information acquired by him in the course of and by virtue of his official capacity.
- (3) Senate Bill No. 707 does not prohibit any person from inducing or seeking to induce any member of the Legislature or any State officer or employee to violate the provisions of the bill or of any rules or codes of ethics promulgated thereunder.

Below are presented the amendments I recommend for the purpose of correcting these three omissions from the version of Senate Bill No. 707 (1969) presently before me.

VIII.

Although the remainder of my objections to Senate Bill No. 707 (1969) are relatively minor in nature, some of them technical, two factors deserve mention at this point.

First, my suggested amendments include language sufficient to appropriate to the Commission on Legislative and Executive Ethical Standards for the balance of this fiscal year the sum of $25,000. for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this act. Without such financial support, the Commission would be totally unable to discharge meaningfully the duties imposed on it. I urge the Legislature to provide this modicum of support for a Commission charged with so extensive and sensitive a function.

Second, I note that Section 16 of Senate Bill No. 707 (1969) provides that the act shall take effect upon my approval thereof. I believe that the effective date of the act should be postponed until January 20, 1970—the date stipulated by law for the convention and organization of the 1970 Legislature and the inauguration of the Governor. Honest men made honest arrangements and took office or accepted employment on the strength of those arrangements more than one and three-quarter years ago. I do not believe that they should be penalized, in effect, by retroactive application to them of standards which were not applicable at the time they took office or accepted employment. Since the reorganization of the Legislature and the inauguration of the Governor would offer a natural "breaking point," I would urge the Legislature to adopt January 20, 1970 as the effective date of the act.

These and other minor features of Senate Bill No. 707 (1969) to which I object will be corrected by the amendatory language set out below.

IX

I would think it wise at this point to review the basic assumptions upon which, in my opinion, meaningful conflicts of interest legislation should be predicated:

1. Public powers should not be used for personal advantage.
2. Majority rule should not be subverted by the exercise of influence on behalf of a tiny minority.
3. Continued existence of conflicts of interest will reduce efficiency and economy in government.
4. Government should be of just laws, rather than of men whose influence can bend the laws.
5. Public objectives cannot be achieved if conflicting private interests become paramount.

The obvious thrust of these principles is the maintenance of public confidence in the integrity of their government, which can exist only by virtue of the continued consent of the public. The spectacle of public officers rewarding themselves or their families, or using their public offices for private gain, or compromising their obligations to preserve the public interest, has already resulted in increased disrespect and skepticism—not only for the processes of government, but for law itself. Honest and meaningful steps must be taken by the holders of public trust to reverse that tide of disrespect and skepticism.

“8. Procedure for Acquisition. A county or municipality may acquire any real property, capital improvement or personal property only in accordance with the provisions of this act and only in the manner provided by this section.

(a) In the case of an acquisition by gift or devise, a county or municipality shall only accept title to such gift or devise by an ordinance in the case of a municipality, or by resolution, in the case of a county, setting out therein (1) the use or purpose to which the acquisition by gift or devise shall be applied, and (2) the name of the donor or devisor, and (3) any conditions, restrictions or limitations imposed upon, or estate or interest retained in the acquisition, and the acceptance by the governing body of said limitations or conditions, and (4) an estimate by the fiscal officer of the municipality of the present and foreseeable benefits and costs, and the net benefit or cost of the acquisition to the county or municipality in operating revenues or expenses, maintenance, depreciation or other costs, including potential tax revenues.

(b) In the case of an acquisition by purchase or lease, a county or municipality shall make such acquisition by an ordinance, in the case of a municipality, or by resolution, in the case of a county, setting out therein (1) the use or purpose to which the acquisition shall be put or applied, and (2) the name of the vendor or lessor, and (3) any conditions, restrictions or limitations imposed on, or estate or interest retained in the acquisition, and the acceptance by the governing body of said conditions or limitations, and

(4) the price to be paid by the county or municipality. In such a case, the county or municipality shall determine the price to be paid at an amount not in excess of the 'full and fair value' of the real property or capital improvement, as determined by the assessor of the municipality in which the real property or capital improvement is located for the then current tax year pursuant to section 54:4-23 of the Revised Statutes. In making a determination of the 'full and fair value' pursuant to this section a county or municipality may, in any case where the real property or capital improvement to be purchased or leased is less than a full parcel, apportion the value of the property on a pro-rata basis, and the value of a lease by capitalization.

A county or municipality may determine and pay a higher price upon agreement by the vendor or lessor to pay to the collector of taxes in the municipality in which the real property or capital improvement is located, the difference between the real property taxes paid on the land or other property and the amount which would have been payable had the value of the real or other property been determined at the amount to be paid by the county or municipality and entered as the 'full and fair value' determined by the assessor pursuant to section 54:4-23 of the Revised Statutes for each of the 10 preceding tax years; and such back taxes due and payable as so recomputed are paid pursuant to the provisions of chapter 4 of Title 54 of the Revised Statutes.

(c) In the case of acquisition by condemnation, the acquisition shall be made in the manner provided by Title 20 of the Revised Statutes.

(d) Section 20:1-9 of the Revised Statutes is amended to read as follows:

"29:1-9. The commissioners shall take and subscribe an oath faithfully and impartially to examine the matter in question and make a true report according to the best of their skill and understanding. Thereafter they shall meet at the time and place appointed and proceed to view and examine the land or other property and make a just and equitable appraisalment of the value of the same, and an assessment of the amount to be paid by the petitioner for the land or other property and damage as aforesaid, as of the date of the commencement of the act for condemnation or, if the land or other property is being acquired in connection with development or redemption of a blighted area, then in that event, the value of any property sought to be acquired shall be fixed and deemed to be no less than the value as of the date of the declaration of blight by the governing body upon a report by a planning board.

In the event that the commissioners shall determine upon the evidence before them a value of any land or other property, in excess of the 'full and fair value' or, in the case of a partial taking, the pro-rata share of the 'full and fair value' of any parcel, determined by the assessor of the municipality in which the land or other property is located for the then current tax year pursuant to section 54:4-23 of the Revised Statutes, the commissioners shall deduct from the award an amount equal to the difference between the real property taxes paid on the real or other property and the amount which would have been payable had the value determined by the commissioners been used by the assessor as the 'full and fair value' of the land or other property pursuant to section 54:4-23 of the Revised Statutes for each of the preceding 10 tax years. For purposes of this computation, the commissioners may take into account any increase or decrease in value as they have determined it during the period in question, or may assume a constant ratio between the 'full and fair value' as determined by the assessor and the value determined by the commissioners. The commissioners shall then direct that the amount determined pursuant to this paragraph be paid to the collector of taxes of the municipality in which the land or other property is located along with such interest or costs as shall be payable pursuant to chapter 4 of Title 54 of the Revised Statutes."

(4) A sale of an easement upon any real property previously conveyed by any county or municipality, when the governing body of any county by resolution, or any municipality, by ordinance, has elected to release the public rights in the nature of easements, in, on, over or under any real property within the county or the municipality, as the case may be, upon such terms as shall be agreed upon with the owner of such lands, if the use of such rights is no longer desirable, necessary or required for public purposes.

In the case of any sale of real property hereafter made pursuant to this subsection (b) of section 15 of this act, in no event shall the price agreed upon with the owner be less than the difference between the highest bid accepted for the real property subject to easements (Option A) and the highest bid rejected for the real property not subject to easements (Option B). After the adoption of the resolution or ordinance, and compliance by the owner of said real property with the terms thereof, said real property shall be free, and entirely discharged of and from such rights of the public and of the county or municipality, as the case may be, but no such release shall affect the right of lawful occupancy or use of any such real property by any municipal or private utility to occupy or use any such real property lawfully occupied or used by it.

A list of the property so authorized to be sold, pursuant to this subsection (b) of section 15 of this act, together with the minimum prices respectively, as determined by the governing body, shall be included in the resolution or ordinance authorizing the sale, and said list shall be posted on the bulletin board or other conspicuous space in the building which the governing body usually holds its regular meetings, and advertisement thereof made in a newspaper circulating in the municipality or municipalities in which the real property, capital improvement or personal property is situated within 5 days following enactment of said resolution or ordinance. Offers for any or all properties so listed may thereafter be made to the governing body or its designee for a period of 20 days following the advertisement herein required, at not less than said minimum prices, by any prospective purchaser, real estate broker, or other authorized representative. In any such case, the governing body may reconsider its resolution or ordinance, not later than 30 days after its enactment, and advertise the real property, capital improvement, or personal property in question for public sale pursuant to subsection (a) of this section 15.

Any county or municipality selling any real property, capital improvement or personal property pursuant to this subsection (b) of section 15 of this act shall file with the Director of the Division of Local Finance in the Department of Community Affairs, sworn affidavits verifying the publication of advertisements as required by this subsection.

All sales either public or private may be made for cash or upon credit. A deposit not exceeding 1% of the minimum price or value of the property to be sold may be required of all bidders. When made upon credit, the county or municipality may accept a purchase-money mortgage, upon terms and conditions which shall be fixed by the resolution of the governing body; provided, however, that when such mortgage shall be fully payable within 5 years from the date of the sale and shall bear interest at a rate equal to that authorized under Title 31 of the Revised Statutes, as amended and supplemented, and the regulations issued pursuant thereto, or the rate last paid by the county or municipality upon any issue of notes pursuant to the Local Bond Law (chapter 2 of Title 40A of the New Jersey Statutes), whichever is highest. The governing body may, by resolution, fix the time for closing of title and payment of the consideration.

In all sales made pursuant to this section, the governing body of any county or municipality may provide for the payment of a commission to any real estate broker, or authorized representative other than the purchaser actually consummating such sale, but said commissions shall not exceed, in the aggregate, 5% of the sale price, and be paid, where there has been a public sale, only in the event that the sum of the commission and the highest bid price does not exceed the next highest bid price (exclusive of any realtor's commission).

The following message was received from the Governor:

STATE OF NEW JERSEY,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
December 1, 1969. }

SENATE BILL No. 777

To the Senate:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14(b) of the Constitution, I herewith return Senate Bill No. 777, with my objections, for reconsideration.

This bill supplements the noncontributory pension legislation for County Court judges, in order to permit a judge who has served two years on the bench and who has attained the age of 60 and who has served at least 25 years in the aggregate in State, county, or municipal office, including election to the Legislature, and his surviving widow, to qualify for these benefits. In addition, the bill permits a judge who is eligible for pension benefits under the non-contributory act or under any other act to elect the benefits of this supplementary bill within 90 days of the effective date hereof, but does not permit him to qualify for both.

I have several objections of a technical nature with this bill. Accordingly, I recommend the following changes:

1. Page 1, section 1, line 2, delete "2" and add "9".
2. Page 1, section 1, line 2, delete "60" and add "70".
3. Page 1, section 1, line 3, delete "25" and add "30".
4. Page 1, section 1, line 5, after the word "Legislature" add "for at least 3 terms".

Respectfully,

/s/ RICHARD J. HUGHES,

Was taken up and read for the first time for the purpose of reenactment.

SENATE BILL No. 495

To the Senate:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14(a) of the Constitution, I herewith return Senate Bill No. 495, without my approval.

Senate Bill No. 495 would allow the governing body of a municipality to convey any land owned by the municipality to a non-profit hospital association for nominal consideration for use by the non-profit hospital association for the construction of hospital buildings and related facilities. It also provides that in the event the land shall cease to be used for the purposes for which it was conveyed, title shall revert back to the municipality, but not after five years. In other words, if the lands were to be used for purposes other than the operation and maintenance of a hospital after the first five years, title to the land would remain with the hospital, despite any breach of the conditions upon which the land was conveyed.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 1, 1969

Although the bill is well intentioned, its purpose is presently served by an existing provision of the New Jersey statutes, P. L. 1957, c. 148 (C. 40:60-51.6). The main differences between Senate Bill No. 495 and the present law are that under the terms of Senate Bill No. 495: (a) consideration paid for the land could be nominal; (b) the hospital need not be a "general hospital"; (c) no specific authority to impose conditions upon the use of the land is granted; and (d) no reversion of the land, if used for purposes other than those for which it was conveyed, would occur after the first five years.

I have no objection to the first two of these changes, although I note in passing, that it would be more appropriate to amend P. L. 1957, c. 148 than to enact an entirely new law. I note also that the approach I have suggested in my conditional veto of Senate Bill No. 283 is more preferable still. I do object strenuously, however, to the omission of the right of the municipality to impose conditions on the use of the land and the removal of the sanction that failure to use the land as originally intended would cause the title to revert to the municipality. When public lands are conveyed to private parties—even non-profit charitable institutions—the public should be sure that it is receiving the benefits to which it is entitled in exchange for the land conveyed. Such transactions are already an inefficient and antiquated way of subsidizing the public's health needs, compared, for instance, to direct subsidies with appropriate controls and evaluations of effectiveness, as I suggested on signing Assembly Bill No. 20 into law. Removal of the conditions imposed by municipalities would make this form of subsidy even more questionable. See Roe v. Kervick, 42 N. J. 193 (1964).

Therefore, I must return this bill without my approval.

Respectfully,

/s/ RICHARD J. HUGHES,

Governor.

SENATE BILL No. 607

To the Senate:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14(a) of the Constitution, I herewith return Senate Bill No. 607, without my approval.

Pursuant to the provisions of P. L. 1948, c. 199, specifying the manner in which a special law shall be enacted, Senate Bill No. 607 has passed both Houses of the Legislature. It authorizes the Town of Hackettstown to make permanent the appointments of three named individuals, Frederick Ainsworth, Edward Wisniewski and Lester Snyder to the police department of the town, despite the fact that they exceed the maximum age limit or are under the minimum height required of police officers. In addition, it entitles them to benefits under the Police and Firemen's Retirement System.

Article IV, Section VII, Paragraph 9 of the N. J. Constitution states:

The Legislature shall not pass any private, special or local laws . . . (5) Creating, increasing, or decreasing the emoluments, term or tenure rights of any public officers or employees.

Senate Bill No. 607 is a special law "creating, increasing or decreasing the emoluments, term or tenure rights" of three named public employees. It therefore violates the provision of N. J. Const., Article IV, Section VII, Paragraph 9, Clause 5, and I must return it without my approval. Gibbs v. Morgan, 39 N. J. Eq. 126 (1884).

The same is true of Assembly Bill No. 845, which I am also returning today without my approval. I return these bills with a great amount of reluctance, but feel constrained by the language of the Constitution. I have every certainty that the individuals involved are worthy men deserving of the special consideration they are receiving. Whenever I have been able to find any reasonable basis for aiding such men and municipalities in the past, I have done so. But the case here is too patent to ignore. The line must eventually be drawn in favor of a better solution.

The constant need to enact bills relating to age or height requirements in this area would appear to indicate a need for a revision of the general law which regulates these matters. I have, in fact, at other times urged legislation lowering the height requirements for police, for instance. We should look at age as well. Both of these factors may not be relevant to certain limited functions of police officers, such as duty at a station house or traffic control. Fairness to them requires standards of eligibility relevant to their duties. Fairness to the municipality, on the other hand, requires access to an ample labor supply. I have, therefore, sought to allow nationwide recruitment so that municipalities such as those which seek to employ these policemen on a permanent basis could have a broader pool of manpower from which to draw.

These are far better means of dealing with this problem, and I sincerely urge the Legislature to consider them, rather than to constantly present the Chief Executive of this State with the difficult task of deciding between a desirable objective and unconstitutional means.

Respectfully,

/s/ RICHARD J. HUGHES,

Governor.

[SEAL]

Attest:

/s/ ALAN J. KARCHER,

Acting Secretary to the Governor.

SENATE COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE FOR
SENATE BILL NO. 43

To the Senate:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14(a) of the Constitution, I herewith return Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 43, without my approval.

This bill would amend Section 18A:56-8 of the New Jersey Statutes and mandate the investment of monies belonging to the school fund by the Director of the Division of Investments up to $15 million in evidences of indebtedness guaranteed or insured pursuant to Chapter 72 of Title 18A of the New Jersey Statutes, the Higher Education Assistance Authority Act. The bill has as its broad object the encouragement of the making of student loans by various lenders by providing a secondary market for notes evidencing a student loan. The provision of a secondary market is desirable. Nevertheless, I am constrained to return this bill for two very compelling reasons.

In the first place, serious questions have been raised as to the constitutionality of the program contemplated by Senate Bill No. 43. The school fund is established by the New Jersey Constitution. The uses to which monies belonging to the school fund can be put are governed by the provisions of Article VIII, Section IV, Paragraph 2 of the Constitution, as follows:

“2. The fund for the support of free public schools, and all money, stock and other property, which may hereafter be appropriated for that purpose, or received into the treasury under the provisions of any law heretofore passed to augment the said fund, shall be securely invested, and remain a perpetual fund; and the income thereof, except so much as it may be judged expedient to apply to an increase of the capital, shall be annually appropriated to the support of free public schools, and for the equal benefit of all the people of the State; and it shall not be competent, except as hereinafter provided, for the Legislature to borrow, appropriate or use the said fund or any part thereof for any other purpose, under any pretense whatever. The bonds of any school district of this State, issued according to law, shall be proper and secure investments for the said fund and, in addition, said fund, including the income therefrom and any other moneys duly appropriated to the support of free public schools may be used in such manner as the Legislature may provide by law to secure the payment of the principal of or interest on bonds or notes issued for school purposes by counties, municipalities or school districts or for the payment or purchase of any such bonds or notes or any claims for interest thereon.”

Thus, two fundamental constitutional requirements must be met with regard to monies belonging to the school fund: (1) The fund itself must be “securely invested”; and (2) The income from that investment must be used to support the free public schools. The trustees who administer the school fund are the Governor and various Cabinet officials, NJS 18A :56-1, are the custodians of the fund and are free in this regard from normal legislative control. American Dock and Improvement Company v. Trustees for Support of Public Schools, 35 NJ Eq. 181 (1882). They have the ultimate responsibility for determining the security of investments to be made. Assuming, arguendo, that the investment of monies belonging to the school fund in these student loan notes rises to the constitutional standards mandated, there is a serious question concerning the Legislature’s power to abrogate or modify the trustees’ judgment with regard to investments in view of the American Dock case.

Furthermore, the Constitution requires that the income, other than that used to increase the capital, be used for the support of the free public schools. NJ Const., Art. VIII, Sec. IV, Para. 2. This requirement has been strictly construed in our courts. Trustees of Public Schools v. City of Trenton, 30 NJ Eq. 667 (1879). Since a constitutional amendment was required in 1958 in order to allow the fund to be used to purchase school district bonds and other local bonds issued for school purposes, it is unlikely that the words "support of free public schools" could be flexible enough to include the purchase of student loan notes without a further constitutional amendment. In any event, the income of the fund is already being used up for the transportation aid for pupils. Senate Bill No. 43 does not deal with the income of the fund, but with the fund itself. In addition, there is some question as to the division between principal and income of the fund, and thus doubt as to the amount available for investment in the student loan notes. In my view, the trustees of the fund would have a constitutional and legal responsibility to challenge Senate Bill No. 43, and thus this bill would not provide the speedy relief sought by its sponsors.

Finally, Assembly Bill No. 598 (1969) which I approved on July 3rd of this year is now beginning to be implemented as Chapter 135 of the Laws of 1969. Chapter 135 provides the Higher Education Assistance Authority with the power to issue bonds and bond anticipation notes, the revenue from which is to be used to purchase student loan notes. This much needed and much sought secondary market for these notes has thus been provided. There are now before you a series of technical amendments to Chapter 135 of the Laws of 1969, which I urge you to adopt and thus speed the implementation of this worthwhile program. The full implementation of the revenue bond program contemplated by Chapter 135, with its amendments, must render Senate Bill No. 43 unnecessary.

Accordingly, I herewith return Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 43, without my approval.

Respectfully,

/s/ RICHARD J. HUGHES,

Governor.

Attest:

/s/ ALAN J. KARCHER,

Acting Secretary to the Governor.

SENATE BILL No. 228

To the Senate:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14(a) of the Constitution, I herewith return Senate Bill No. 228 without my approval.

Senate Bill No. 228 is a supplement to Chapter 169 of the Laws of 1945 which as amended gives municipalities the authority to establish local commissions of Civil Rights. S-228 would permit any person appointed as executive director or deputy executive director of such a commission on civil rights to be appointed for a fixed term or at the discretion of the appointing authority.

Neither the position of executive director or deputy executive director of a municipal civil rights commission, at present, is governed by Civil Service regulation or examination. As such appointments could be responsive to critical situations, it is the opinion of the Civil Service Commission that if such positions exist, they should be unclassified. However, it should be noted that there is no authority under P.L. 1945, c. 169, as amended and supplemented, which authorizes governing bodies to appoint any staff to their local commissions, whether such staff be classified or unclassified. Therefore, any attempt to formalize by statute the status of directors or deputy executive directors of local commissions on civil rights must first remedy this omission.

I therefore, return S-228 without my approval.

SENATE BILL No. 356

To the Senate:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14(a) of the Constitution, I herewith return Senate Bill No. 356 without my approval.

Section 39:4-50 of the Revised Statutes, concerns penalties for those persons who operate a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or a narcotic or habit-producing drug. Senate Bill No. 356 would amend Section 39:4-50 by specifying marijuana as a narcotic within the meaning of the Act.

Although I would be strongly supportive of any legislation which would discourage the use of drugs or beverages which impair the ability to operate a motor vehicle safely, I cannot lend such support to Senate Bill No. 356. Unlike the balloon or drunkometer tests which can establish that an individual is in fact driving under the influence of alcohol, there is at present no reliable test for determining that anyone was operating a motor vehicle under the influence of marijuana. Even urinalysis, which can identify a hard narcotic in the system, cannot so establish the presence of marijuana.

The penalties which Title 39:4-50 imposes upon anyone who is found to have been under the influence of the prohibited items are intentionally severe so as to be a significant deterrent to their use. In addition to the possibility of fine and imprisonment, no one found guilty under this statute is permitted to operate a motor vehicle within this state for a period of two years from the date of his conviction or until he reaches the age of twenty-one years, whichever is the greater period of time. If the rules of evidence and proof are properly applied under this statute, it would prove ineffective in terms of discouraging the use of marijuana, as few if any convictions would be possible. On the other hand, the lack of responsible or accurate tests for detection could lead to convictions which are unfounded in fact. Either result can only create contempt for our laws rather than encourage adherence to them.

Until such time as tests are developed which will permit law enforcement officers to establish that a vehicle has been driven while under the influence of marijuana, this legislation is premature and in its implementation can only be ineffective or abused. I am therefore, returning this bill without my approval.

SENATE BILL No. 391

To the Senate:

Senate Bill No. 391 would confer on public employees retired by reason of disability the right to collect workmen's compensation payments for the same disability although no retirants shall be entitled to compensation for temporary disability.

An employee who is retired on disability is presently barred from the receipt of workmen's compensation benefits primarily because he is no longer in the status of an employee. S-391 would remove this bar.

It has been argued that the enactment of S-391 would result in unjustified double benefits for certain retired public employees. Whether or not permitting both payments is unjustified depends largely on one's philosophy of workmen's compensation, i.e., whether it is one unit of an over-all system of wage loss protection or rather as compensation resembling a recovery in tort. Presumably if the former characterization of workmen's compensation prevails, the existence of retirement disability benefits, assuming their adequacy, supports the present bar to duplication of payments.

Even if one concludes, as I do, that any public employee who is injured seriously while performing his duties should be entitled to compensation for such injuries in addition to his retirement allowances, the projected costs which enactment of this measure would impose on state and local governments are prohibitive.

Of the 800 public employees retired each year for disability, it is estimated that at least one half of these retirants would also be eligible for workmen's compensation benefits. In determining any cost estimate of S-391, the assumption must be made that all four hundred eligible retirants who are permanently and totally disabled would seek compensation benefits upon removal of the bar. Presently, the maximum of compensation awards for permanently and totally disabled employees is $86.00 per week for a period of 450 weeks, assuming no extension. Thus, the annual cost, considering one year's retirants alone, could be as high as 1.8 million dollars. It must be remembered that such costs would be cumulative as the $86.00 per week is granted for 450 weeks and in those cases where the disability is truly permanent, continues for life. Complicating and increasing any cost estimate is the provision of S-391 which would permit "any former employee" to seek compensation. Thus, in addition to 1970's retirants, it could be argued that the statutory limitation on the filing of claims within 2 years from the date of accident does not apply in this instance. At the very least, those individuals retired during the past two years would now be eligible to seek payments previously denied them.

At a time when municipal governments are already desperate for revenues I cannot impose upon them a system which, even if the maximum cost projection is not reached, will nonetheless, necessitate unexpected and crippling expenditures.

Nor can I burden the incoming state officials with new and significant demands on their already critically underfinanced administration, despite the appealing nature of this bill.

I, therefore, must return Senate Bill No. 391 without my approval.

SENATE BILL No. 431

To the Senate:

I am returning Senate Bill No. 431 without my approval for the following reasons:

Senate Bill No. 431 would amend Section 2A:3-61 of the New Jersey Statutes which establishes procedures for the commencement of a wrongful death action by an administrator ad prosequendum.

Under present law, no payment in settlement or satisfaction of judgment in an action brought by an administrator ad prosequendum can be made to him but must be made to the duly appointed administrator of the decedent's estate. Senate Bill No. 431 would permit payment in such actions to also be made to "the executor named in the will of the decedent and qualifying thereunder or the administrator with the will annexed".

In considering the wisdom or need for Senate Bill No. 431, it must be remembered that under NJSA 2A:30-2, a wrongful death action is commenced by an administrator ad prosequendum only where the decedent dies intestate and there is no executor named in a will or an administrator with the will annexed. In those cases where such parties have been identified and do exist, it is their responsibility to institute the wrongful death action and NJSA 2A:31-6 is not operative.

Although it is possible to conceive of instances where the will is probated and either the executor or an administrator with the will affixed is identified subsequent to the initiation of an action by an administrator ad prosequendum, substitution of such individuals for the administrator ad prosequendum as party in the action would effect payment to them rather than to a general administrator.

As the only intent which can be read into Senate Bill No. 431 can be achieved by an acceptable existing court process, the amendment to 2A:31-6 which will inevitably lead to confusion and misinterpretation should not be enacted.

I therefore return Senate Bill No. 431 without my approval.

SENATE BILL No. 486

To the Senate:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14(a) of the Constitution, I herewith return Senate Bill No. 486, without my approval.

Senate Bill No. 486 provides that of the $50.00 paid to the Clerk of the Superior Court upon the filing or entering of the first paper in any action or proceeding in the Law Division thereof, $15.00 should be paid over by him to the County Clerk of the county in which venue is laid for the use of the county. Under existing law, these monies are to be paid over to the County Treasurer.

In April of 1969 the County and Municipal Government Study Commission issued its second report in which it recommended the centralization of county government under the control of elected officials who have the legal power, the fiscal resources, and structural flexibility, and the administrative staff to meet the challenges facing local government today. I fully subscribe to this conclusion of the distinguished Musto Commission. And because this legislation works against the principle of fiscal and budgetary centralization, I cannot approve.

Accordingly, I herewith return Senate Bill No. 486, without my approval.

SENATE BILL No. 496

To the Senate:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14(a) of the Constitution, I herewith return Senate Bill No. 496, without my approval.

Senate Bill No. 496 deals with the taxes payable by certain insurance companies pursuant to P. L. 1950, c. 101. In order to fully understand its effect, a little legislative history is necessary. In 1945, the State of New Jersey imposed a tax on insurance companies of 2% of the taxable premiums received by the company (P. L. 1945, c. 132). Then in 1950, the State of New Jersey, in effect, embarked on a form of State aid by tax credit. A franchise tax was imposed by P. L. 1950, c. 101 on New Jersey-based insurance companies, with two separate tax rates. In the case of companies with capital and surplus of less than $15,000,000, the rate was set at 1.75% of taxable premiums. If the company had capital and surplus in excess of $15,000,000 then, it would pay a tax of 1.75% of taxable premiums, plus $500,000. The entire proceeds of the franchise tax are payable to the county and municipality in which the insurance company is located.

The insurance companies with under $15,000,000 in capital and surplus at no point would pay more than 2% of taxable premiums in combined State and "local" franchise taxes, because the amount paid under the franchise tax established by P.L. 1950, c. 101, was deducted from the amount the company had to pay to the State for State taxes under P.L. 1945, c. 132. Those over the $15,000,000 mark received the same deduction for the 1.75% of premiums, but not for the $200,000. Only companies with capital and surplus over $15,000,000 therefore paid a combined State and "local" tax under the 1945 and 1950 laws of 2% of taxable premiums plus $200,000.

In effect then, the State rate became the difference between the local franchise tax paid and the 2% of premiums. Thus, in the case of insurance companies located in New Jersey, the State received the difference between the 2% State rate and the 1.75% franchise rate, i.e., 0.25% of taxable premiums. By foregoing this revenue the State in effect provided a subsidy by tax credit to local government. Thus, in 1968, the State tax on domestic insurers, yielded only $725,000.

P.L. 1950, c. 101, however, provided considerably more revenue for local government. In 1968, $4,500,000 were derived from insurance companies for local government. This was divided with 87.5% to the municipality and 12.5% to the county in which the insurance company is located. This included the extra $200,000 paid by any company with capital and surplus over $15,000,000. In practice, this applied only to two insurance companies, located in Newark. Their capital and surplus has now grown to be in excess of $25,000,000. Therefore, increasing the cut-off line from $15,000,000 to $25,000,000 will allow Newark to continue receiving the payments it presently received from these two companies. However, raising the $15,000,000 limit also precludes other counties and municipalities which might have insurance companies approaching $15,000,000 in capital and surplus from receiving the $200,000 flat payment required of the top bracket companies. This would appear to be contrary to the original intent of the legislation, and the need to provide new revenue to our municipalities.

It represents a cut in the revenues which will be available to local government at a time when all of us are concerned about providing additional monies to meet the urban crisis. In particular, the bill is applicable to two companies which are approaching the $15,000,000 capital and surplus bracket. They are expected to exceed $15,000,000 in capital and surplus during calendar 1970. In that event, they will be required to pay the $200,000 in question to the county and municipality in which they are located, in this case, $175,000 annually to the cities of East Orange and Verona, and $50,000 annually to the county of Essex.

In addition, due to a lag between the allowance of the deduction and payment of the State tax, the State will lose $100,000 during the first year only.

I have considerable sympathy for this measure. It is clear to me that the original intent of the surtax imposed by P.L. 1950, c. 101 was to benefit Newark. It is now apparent that other companies will be affected by the impact of Senate Bill No. 496, companies which are not necessarily as easily able to bear the burden of increased taxation as the larger companies based in Newark are. The basis for computing the tax is a questionable one, since it bears no relation to income or profits. The distribution of the proceeds is not necessarily correlated to the areas of greatest need.

Nonetheless, I feel constrained to veto Senate Bill No. 496 because it provides that additional margin of revenue which many of our units of local government require. Had the Legislature enacted the bank stock tax proposals I made earlier this year, or developed some other form of urban aid, I would have been more easily able to accept the terms of Senate Bill No. 496. As the matter now stands, however, I am forced to choose between denying some measure of fiscal relief to two of our municipalities, or denying that margin of growth which will allow companies subject to this tax to employ more persons and participate more fully in the betterment of their community. It is not a choice I relish, but, on balance, I must favor providing added assistance to the harried local homeowner.

I must therefore return Senate Bill No. 496 without my approval.

SENATE BILL No. 619

To the Senate:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14(a) of the Constitution, I herewith return Senate Bill No. 619, without my approval, for the following reasons:

This bill was introduced to amend a provision of an act providing greater protection for the victims of uninsured motorists, which I approved January 2, 1969 as Chapter 385, of the Laws of 1968, and which had an effective date of 90 days after its enactment. This bill provides that the offer of coverage required pursuant to Section 2 of Chapter 385 of the Laws of 1968, would be permissive until July 1, 1969, and mandatory thereafter.

In my view, the provisions of Section 2 should have been mandatory on the effective date of the act, and in addition since the date contemplated by this bill has already passed, I am returning it without my approval.

SENATE BILL No. 732

To the Senate:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14(a) of the Constitution, I herewith return Senate Bill No. 732, without my approval.

Senate Bill No. 732 authorizes boroughs having a population of not less than 2,500 persons and not more than 7,500 persons located in counties of the sixth class (Cape May), and which have adopted the commission form of government, pursuant to Chapters 70 to 76 of Title 40 to pay a salary not in excess of $3,000 per annum to the mayor and not exceeding $2,500 to each commissioner.

Generally speaking, salaries under the commission form of government are regulated by the terms of R.S. 40:72-21. That section contains a classification of municipalities which have adopted the commission form of government by population, although it excludes fourth-class cities. With the exception of this exclusion, the classification is rational, in that it is based on identical duties which must be performed by mayors and commissioners under the commission form of government, varied by population, which is an accepted index of increased responsibility.

Classification by the county in which the city is located, however, would appear to bear no relationship to the performance of the duties of these public servants. Moreover, it is not clear why boroughs with less than 2,500 persons or more than 7,500 persons should not also be excepted from the applicability of NJSA 40:72-21 of the borough form of government imposed some unusual burdens. These considerations lead me to believe that Senate Bill No. 732 is in violation of N.J. Const., Art. IV, Sec. VII, Par. 9(5), which prohibits the enactment of any special or local laws creating, increasing or decreasing the emoluments of any public officers or employees, Gibbs v. Morgan, 39 N.J. Eq. 126 (1884); Goldberg v. Dorland, 56 N.J.L. 364 (Sup. Ct. 1894).

I am therefore constrained to return this bill without my approval.

SENATE BILL No. 733

To the Senate:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14(a) of the Constitution, I herewith return Senate Bill No. 733, without my approval.

Senate Bill No. 733 authorizes cities of the fourth class governed by the commission form of government to pay a mayor's annual salary not in excess of $6,000, and a commissioner's salary not in excess of $5,000 if such a city has a population between 2,500 and 7,500 persons. In the case of cities of the fourth class having a population between 7,500 and 10,000, the maximum salary payable to the mayor is $8,000 per annum, and to each commissioner, $7,000.

Senate Bill No. 733 adds to an already complex maze of classification a new category of cities of the fourth class with populations between 7,500 and 10,000. Generally speaking, the salaries of the elected officials of municipalities under the commission form of government are regulated by the terms of NJSA 40:72-21, which classifies such municipalities by population. However, cities of the fourth class are excluded from the terms of NJSA 40:72-21 and separately dealt with by the terms of NJSA 40:72-22. Even this separate classification apparently has not been sufficient to deal with the specialized problems of cities of the fourth class under the commission form of government, and separate classifications have been created by the act to be amended by Senate Bill No. 733 and for such cities with populations of more than 50,000 inhabitants (NJSA 40:72-24.1a).

It is apparent that there is a point where classification becomes so specialized and minute that it can serve no reasonable purpose other than to enact special legislation under the guise of general legislation. Art. IV, Sec. VII, Par. 9(5) of the N.J. Constitution provides that the Legislature shall enact no special or local laws "increasing or decreasing the emoluments" of any public officer or employee. Senate Bill No. 733 seeks to do by indirection what cannot be done directly, Sarner v. Union Township, 55 N.J. Super. 523 (1959); Koons v. Board of Commissioners of Atlantic City, 134 N.J.L. 329 (Sup. Ct. 1946), aff'd. per curiam 135 N.J.L. 204 (E & A 1947).

I am therefore constrained to return this bill without my approval.

SENATE BILL No. 61

To the Senate:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, paragraph 14(b) of the Constitution, I herewith return Senate Bill No. 61, with my objections, for reconsideration.

Senate Bill No. 61 would amend the Workmen's Compensation Act to provide that appeals from judgments rendered in the Division of Workmen's Compensation shall be taken to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court, instead of to the County Court as presently provided by law. In addition, S-61 would authorize the Appellate Division to award a reasonable attorney's fee to the party who prevails on any such appeal. Furthermore, this bill would amend other provisions of law which provide for the entrance, docketing and enforcement of judgments rendered on such appeals.

As noted above, present law provides that appeals from judgments rendered in the Division of Workmen's Compensation shall be taken to the County Court. However, present law also provides judgments of any County Court on such appeals may be appealed further to the Appellate Division. Since Senate Bill No. 61 would end this duplicative appeal process, I am generally supportive of the purpose of the bill. Nevertheless, four objections to the present version of the bill lead me to suggest that it be amended as suggested below.

First, Section 1 of S-61 amends Section 34:15-66 of the Revised Statutes to provide that appeals from workmen's compensation judgments may be made ". . . by filing in duplicate with the secretary of the Division of Workmen's Compensation, a Notice of Appeal within 45 days of the filing of the judgment with the secretary of the division in Trenton." Since the Division of Workmen's Compensation is not a court, S-61 would present an unusual situation — an appeal could be instituted in the courts without a single legal document having been filed in the courts. Accordingly, and consistent with other comparable provisions of law authorizing appeals, Section 1 of S-61 should be revised to provide that an appeal is taken from the Division of Workmen's Compensation to the Appellate Division of the Superior Court in accordance with the rules of court.

Second, Section 1 of S-61 would also amend Section 34:15-66 of the Revised Statutes to provide that the Appellate Division, when hearing any appeal from the Division of Workmen's Compensation, may ". . . allow a reasonable attorney's fee to the prevailing party on appeal for his services in the Appellate Division of the Superior Court, the Supreme Court of New Jersey and any Federal Court." I am concerned that this proposed amendment may discourage injured employees from appealing judgments of compensation because such an appellant, should he lose his appeal, may have to pay the reasonable attorney's fee of the respondent. I see little reason to saddle an employee-appellant with this added burden merely because the law and facts do not sustain his contentions on appeal. Moreover, it would seem most inappropriate to authorize the Appellate Division to allow a counsel fee for services subsequently rendered in our Supreme Court or in any Federal Court. I have suggested below amendments which will correct these mistakes of draftsmanship.

Third, Sections 2 and 3 of Senate Bill No. 61 would amend the law to provide that judgments of the Appellate Division on any appeal from the Division of Workmen's Compensation may be entered in the Appellate Division, and that supplementary proceedings may be had in the Appellate Division in aid of execution upon such judgments. These amendments are not desirable, because many judgments are not entered in the Appellate Division and because the Appellate Division is not adapted to supplementary proceedings in aid of execution upon judgments. Accordingly, Sections 2 and 3 of the bill should be amended to provide that judgments of the Appellate Division on appeals from the Division of Workmen's Compensation may be entered and docketed in the Law Division of the Superior Court, where supplementary proceedings in aid of execution of judgment may be had readily.

Fourth, and most importantly, it should be made clear that the enactment of approval of S-61 would increase greatly the work load of the Appellate Division. During the last full court year ending August 31, 1968, there were 206 workmen's compensation appeals taken to the County Courts and only 27 appeals in workmen's compensation matters taken from the County Courts to the Appellate Division. If projected into the future, last year's figures alone would indicate that the case load of the Appellate Division — already more than it can handle — would increase by 179 matters. Moreover, there is every indication that the volume of appeals in workmen's compensation matters, as in all other areas, can be expected to increase significantly. I am advised that the additional number of appeals to the Appellate Division that can be expected to result from the enactment and approval of S-61 will require virtually the full attention of one Part of the Appellate Division. Moreover, since the Appellate Division has already a case load of appeals far beyond its capacity, the enactment and approval of S-61 mandates the creation of an additional Part of the Appellate Division.

Present budget limitations for the current fiscal year will not permit the establishment of an additional Part of the Appellate Division — the cost of which includes not only salaries of judges, but also judge's staff, chambers, libraries and materials. S-61, notwithstanding the absence of sufficient appropriations to underwrite its costs, would be effective immediately if I were to approve it in its present form. Accordingly, I recommend that S-61 be amended so that it will take effect July 1, 1970. This delayed effective date will afford the Legislature ample opportunity to assess fully the costs of creating an additional Part of the Appellate Division, and to appropriate funds sufficient to pay those costs.

For these reasons, then, I herewith return Senate Bill No. 61 for reconsideration, with the recommendation that it be amended as follows:

On page 1, section 1, line 10, after "compensation" delete " ,".

On page 1, section 1, line 10, before "Superior" insert "Appellate Division of the".

On page 1, section 1, line 10, after "Court" insert " , which appeal shall be taken in accordance with the rules of court."

On page 1, section 1, line 14, delete "tary of the division in Trenton."

On page 2, section 1, line 27, after "taken." delete "The Superior Court, Appellate Division may,"

On page 2, section 1, line 28, delete lines 28-30 in their entirety.

On page 2, section 1, line 31, delete "Court."

On page 2, section 2, line 5, after "Title" insert "may be entered and docketed in the Law Division of the Superior Court,"

On page 2, section 2, line 7, after "court" insert "as in any other case".

SENATE BILL No. 250

To the Senate:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14(b) of the Constitution, I herewith return Senate Bill No. 250, for re-consideration.

Senate Bill No. 250 redefines the rights of veterans of the Viet Nam conflict for purposes of veterans' preference under Civil Service, pension rights under the Teachers' Pension and Annuity Fund and the Public Employees' Retirement System and for purposes of the veterans' tax deduction. Presently, in order to qualify as a "Viet Nam veteran" a person must have served abroad for 180 days in active service at some time following December 31, 1960. Senate Bill No. 250 also provides that veterans of the Viet Nam conflict which have received an actual service-incurred injury need not have completed their term aboard.

It also changes present law, in that after August 5, 1964, a veteran need only have served 90 days and need not have served abroad. I find this change to be objectionable in that I can find no basis for distinguishing between those who served in Viet Nam before 1964 and those who served after that date. Moreover, the deletion of the requirement that service be abroad represents a considerable change in the law.

Nonetheless, the bill makes several necessary and useful changes which I support. I would find it a desirable measure with appropriate changes. I therefore recommend the following changes:

1. Title: Amend the title so that it shall read "An Act to define the term 'Viet Nam conflict' with respect to the civil service veterans' preference law, Teachers' Pension and Annuity Fund law, the Public Employees' Retirement System law, and the veterans' tax deduction law, and amending Revised Statutes 11:27-1, N.J.S. 18A:66-2, P.L. 1954, chapter 84, section 5, P.L. 1963, chapter 171, section 1, and repealing P.L. 1965, chapter 165, section 1."

2. Page 3, Section 1, Line 82: After the word "conflict" and before the word "after" delete the word "either".

3. Page 3, Section 1, Line 83: After the word "to" and before the word "the" delete "[ ]"; after the word "the" and before the word "President" insert "[ ]"; after the word "President" delete the word "August" and insert in lieu thereof the word "Governor".

4. Page 3, Section 1, Line 84: Delete the numerals "5, 1964,"; after the word "who" and before the word "shall" delete "(a)".

5. Page 3, Section 1, Lines 85 to 88: After the word "duty" and before the word "exclusive" delete all of the italicized language.

6. Page 3, Section 1, Line 94: After the figure "180" and before the word "was" delete "or 90 days, as the case may be" and insert in lieu thereof the word "days".

7. Page 3, Section 1, Line 102: After the figure "180" and before the word "days" delete "or 90".

8. Page 7, Section 2, Line 143: After the word "conflict" and before the word "after" delete the word "either".

SENATE BILL NO. 259

To the Senate:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14(b) of the Constitution, I herewith return Senate Bill No. 259, with my objections, for reconsideration.

This bill would amend Section 18A:14-13 of the New Jersey Statutes and permit the secretary of the board of education of a school district to designate an hour between 4:00 p.m. and 8:00 p.m. as the time for which the drawing of names of candidates for the annual school election shall take place. The existing law mandates the drawing at 8:00 p.m. This legislation has as its obvious purpose the addition of a greater degree of flexibility with regard to the selection of the time for the drawing of candidates' names for school elections. While I support the concept which underlies this bill, I am concerned that 4:00 p.m. may be set arbitrarily, thus eliminating the opportunity for many people who work beyond 4:00 p.m. to be present at the drawing of the candidates' names. A more suitable time frame would be, in my opinion, 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.

Accordingly, I herewith return Senate Bill No. 259 without my approval, with the following recommendation:

Page 1, Section 1, Line 8: Delete "4:00" and add "6:00".

SENATE BILL No. 263

To the Senate:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14(b) of the Constitution, I herewith return Senate Bill No. 263, with my objections, for reconsideration.

This bill requires that when a County Court or County District Court judgment docketed in the Superior Court is satisfied, notice of the entry of the satisfaction of that judgment be sent to the County Clerk so that he, in turn, can mark his copy of the judgment satisfied.

When a judgment of a County Court or a County District Court is docketed in the Superior Court, it becomes the same as a Superior Court judgment, NJS 2A:16-36; 2A:18-38. The lower court cannot issue execution on a judgment once it has been so docketed, NJS 2A:16-37; 2A:18-41. When the transcript of a lower court judgment is sent for docketing in the Superior Court, the County Clerk or the Clerk of the County District Court, as the case may be, notes this on his judgment record, and for all purposes, no longer considers it a judgment in his Court. The purpose of this bill appears to have been the removal of the necessity for a search of the Superior Court Clerk's records at Trenton.

The addition of another notation on his record to show that entry of the satisfaction of judgment was made at the Office of the Clerk of the Superior Court at Trenton would not save a search of the records of that office, since there may be other liens against the same party also recorded at the Superior Court Clerk's Office at Trenton.

In my view, if some lawyers believe that it is necessary to mark the lower court record satisfied even if it has been so marked at Trenton, a better practice would be to simply provide that, upon presentation of a certified copy of the warrant of satisfaction or execution, the County Clerk or the County District Court Clerk, as the case may be, should mark his record accordingly. This procedure should be employed only when attorneys ask for it and would thus save the State and County governments the substantial additional cost of sending thousands of such notices each year when in the vast majority of these cases there is no reason for such concern.

Accordingly, I herewith return Senate Bill No. 263 without my approval, with the following recommendation:

Section 1, Lines 5 through 10: Delete the present language in its entirety and in lieu thereof substitute the following: "satisfied, the County Clerk or the Clerk of the County District Court, as the case may be, shall mark his record accordingly, upon presentation of a certified copy of the warrant of satisfaction or execution by any party to the cause in which such judgment was rendered."

SENATE BILL No. 302

To the Senate:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14(b) of the Constitution, I herewith return Senate Bill No. 302, with my objections, for reconsideration.

This bill is intended to provide for the future employment of municipal welfare department employees who may be demoted, laid off, discharged, or separated from the municipal service solely by reason of a reduction in the municipal welfare workload which results from the operation of Chapters 138 and 139 of the Laws of 1968. Chapters 138 and 139 of the Laws of 1968 provided for the assumption of 75% of the costs of aid to dependent children and public assistance by the State.

While I wholeheartedly endorse the concept of the bill, I must withhold my approval because of some glaring technical defects. In addition, a major substantive change in existing law contemplated by Senate Bill No. 302 may seriously jeopardize our welfare programs which depend upon Federal monies for their existence.

Section 1 of this bill appears to mandate the placing of any employee discharged from the municipal service because of the operation of Chapters 138 and 139 of the Laws of 1968 upon special lists of the appropriate county welfare board without competitive examination. The applicant need only meet "the minimum requirements of experience and working conditions otherwise established." Employees of county welfare boards participating in Federal assistance programs may have to, in addition to these requirements, meet certain educational standards set forth in regulations of the United States Department of Health, Education, and Welfare. Provision for the incorporation of these educational standards is not contained in this bill.

Accordingly, I am returning this bill without my approval, with the following recommendations:

1. Page 1, Section 1: Delete the present language and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"1. Any employee of any municipal welfare department who, on the effective date of this act, holds or has held permanent status in the classified service pursuant to Title 11 of the Revised Statutes and who has been demoted, suspended, laid off, discharged, or otherwise separated from the municipal service solely by reason of any reduction of workload for such municipal welfare department that may result from the operation of Chapters 138 and 139 of the Laws of 1968, may apply to the Department of Civil Service to be placed on an employment list or lists, the establishment of which by such department is hereby authorized and directed. Any such applicant shall be placed, without competitive examination on a list or lists, for each class title within the authorized table of organization of the county welfare board in the county within which such municipality is located and for which the applicant meets the minimum requirements of education and/or experience established by the Department of Civil Service. Such lists shall have priority over open competitive or promotional lists and shall be used to make certifications to fill current or future vacancies in the county welfare board.

SENATE BILL No. 304 (ACS)

To the Senate:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14(b) of the Constitution, I herewith return Senate Bill No. 304 (ACS), with my objections, for reconsideration.

Senate Bill No. 304 (ACS) substantially revises the Realty Transfer Fee Law of 1968 (P.L. 1968, c. 49; C. 46:15-5) by adding several clarifying amendments. One valuable change, in particular, is made with respect to gifts to certain members of the transferor's family where in spite of the existence of a mortgage on the property transferred, the unpaid amount would not be included in the term "consideration" as defined in the law. This is no doubt in conformity with the intent of the sponsors of the original legislation.

The bill does contain one amendment which is cause for serious concern. This is the provision set forth in Section 5 of the bill which would amend Section 7 of P.L. 1968, c. 49; (C. 46:15-11). This Section as originally enacted empowered the Division of Taxation to prescribe necessary rules and regulations to carry out the purposes of the law. The amendment is designed to provide that the rules and regulations shall include a method by which disclosure of the consideration in a real estate transaction may be made in a separate affidavit and filed with the Division of Taxation. The amendment further provides that such consideration shall be kept confidential except with respect to its use in the preparation of the Table of Equalized Valuations and for other statistical purposes, and without disclosure in any event on the records of deeds. The amendment also provides that regulations should be adopted to assure the county recording officer that the consideration has been disclosed and the proper fee paid to the Division of Taxation.

The enactment of the Realty Transfer Fee constituted a vast improvement over the Documentary Stamp Tax Law as administered by the Federal Government prior to 1968. The requirement in our law that the consideration be stated in the deed or in an accompanying affidavit is of considerable value to the state and to the counties in their equalization procedures for the purposes of distributing state school aid, and apportioning county costs of government, respectively. Further, the disclosure of consideration enables property owners to determine whether they are being discriminated against in the assessment of their properties as against comparable properties. Senate Bill No. 304 which would require the consideration to be confidential would thwart the beneficial provisions of the realty transfer fee law as originally enacted. It would seriously interfere with the sales ratio studies now used to ascertain average assessment ratios for each municipality in the state. A taxing district would have no way of learning whether the sale of property, the consideration of which is regarded as confidential, would aid or injure it financially. Also, it should be pointed out that no limitation is placed upon the period of time during which the transaction is to remain confidential.

In short, the amendment also constitutes a substantial departure from the policy contained in the original enactment of the law, namely, full disclosure of consideration. While there are some valid arguments for confidentiality, generally connected to the need to assemble large parcels of land, I believe they are outweighed by the arguments for disclosure.

Moreover, it should be noted that any purchaser of real estate who desires to assemble various properties for a specific purpose and who is fearful that disclosure of the consideration would inflate the price to be paid for other properties to be included in such assemblage may, nevertheless, acquire such additional parcels by taking an option with respect to their purchase. An option requires no disclosure under this act. This procedure is in common use today.

In view of the fact that the amendment to this section would cause serious dislocations and impede and interfere with established procedures which directly or indirectly affect the distribution of over $200 million on state school aid and in excess of $330 million in county tax apportionments, I am recommending that this section be deleted.

I believe that all the changes which I have recommended represent a constructive effort to retain the salutary provisions of the bill and, at the same time, assure that the administration of the law and the derivation of sales assessments ratios will not be impaired.

I therefore am returning this bill and respectfully recommend the following changes:

1. Page 1, Section 1, Lines 11 and 12: Omit in their entirety.

2. Page 1, Section 1, Line 13: Omit "without an annual or other periodic rental,".

3. Page 1, Section 1, Line 14: After "act." omit remainder of line.

4. Page 1, Section 1, Lines 15 and 16: Omit in their entirety.

5. Page 1, Section 1, Line 17: Omit "for the purposes of this act.".

6. Page 1, Section 1, Line 19: Omit "boundaries," insert "or".

7. Page 1, Section 1, Line 20: After "for" insert "utility service lines such as".

8. Page 1, Section 1, Line 21: After "other" insert "such".

9. Page 2, Section 1, Lines 36 to 40: Omit in their entirety and insert a new sentence and paragraph as follows:

"The amount of liens for real property taxes, water or sewerage charges for the current or any subsequent year, or by way of added assessment or other adjustment, as well as of other like liens or encumbrances of a current and continuing nature ordinarily adjusted between the parties according to the period of ownership shall be excluded as an element in determining the consideration, notwithstanding that such amount is to be paid by the grantee.

"In any case where there is no specific dollar consideration agreed upon, or where the consideration as agreed upon cannot feasibly be expressed as a single sum at the time of recording, there shall be a prima facie presumption that the consideration is in the amount of the assessed value of the property for the purpose of levying local real property taxes adjusted to reflect the effect of local assessment levels as determined by the Director of the Division of Taxation according to the tables thereof available at the time of recording."

10. Page 2, Section 2, Line 7: Omit "is submitted".

11. Page 2, Section 2, Line 8: Omit "therewith".

12. Page 2, Section 2, Lines 9 and 10: After "therefor" insert "is annexed thereto for recording with the deed".

13. Page 2, Section 2, Line 10: Omit "or (c) proof of the disclosure of the consideration therefor to the Division of Taxation as may be authorized pursuant to the provisions of section 7 of this act (C. 46:15-11) is submitted to the county recording officer."

14. Page 3, Section 4, Line 18: Omit "providing" insert "proving".

- 15. Page 3, Section 4, Line 20: Omit in its entirety.
- 16. Page 3, Section 4, Line 22: Omit “, including but not limited to a deed”.

- 19. Page 4, Section 5, Lines 1 to 20: Omit in their entirety.

SENATE BILL No. 482

To the Senate:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14(b) of the Constitution, I herewith return Senate Bill No. 482, for re-consideration.

Senate Bill No. 482 would permit a National Guard technician who elects to terminate his participation in the Public Employees’ Retirement System to receive all of the accumulated deductions standing to his credit in the annuity savings fund, plus regular interest at not less than 3%, less any outstanding loan.

This bill is intended to implement the provisions of Chapter 354 of the Laws of 1968 which permits a National Guard technician to leave the Public Employees’ Retirement System in order to join the Social Security System. There are approximately 1,400 National Guard technicians who were originally not covered by the Federal Social Security System. New Jersey provided that they could join the Public Employees’ Retirement System, which they amendment would allow the pension plans themselves to set forth the appropriate required periods of service rather than the statute. This amendment would provide greater flexibility in the adoption and administration of pension plans, which some experience in the industry has shown is apparently needed.

Nevertheless, I am constrained to withhold my approval in the belief that the savings and loan association depositors, as well as the general public would be better served by the adoption of the recommendations which follow.

Accordingly, I herewith return Senate Bill No. 521, without my approval, and with the following recommendations:

1. Section 2, Line 1: Delete the present language in its entirety and in lieu thereof substitute the following:

2. Section 57 of the act of which this act is amendatory (C. 17:12B-57) is amended to read as follows:

57. Every pension plan adopted or altered for a State association shall before it is placed in operation, be submitted to the Commissioner for his approval. The Commissioner shall not approve such plan or alterations thereof unless he [shall find:] makes the following affirmative, written, findings:

(a) It does [not] conform to law, [or]

(b) Its adoption or alteration [would be hazardous to the State association, or] is in the best interests of the members of the State association

(c) Its provisions are [unfair or inequitable.] fair and equitable, and

SENATE BILL No. 522

To the Senate:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14(b) of the Constitution, I herewith return Senate Bill No. 522, for reconsideration.

Senate Bill No. 522 contains two amendments to the Savings and Loan Act of 1963. The section which provides specifically for a "chairman of the board" for a savings and loan association is unobjectionable. The second section of this bill, however, which provides for the indemnification of officers, directors and employees of savings and loan associations would be more suited to the public interest if it were modeled more closely upon the Banking Act of 1948 provisions with regard to actions against bank directors, managers, officers or employees.

Accordingly, I am herewith returning Senate Bill No. 522, without my approval, and with the following recommendation:

Pages 2 and 3, Section 2, Lines 24 through 56: Delete the present language and in lieu thereof substitute the following:

B. Indemnification of officers, directors and employees. Any person made a party to any civil action or proceeding by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer or employee of a savings and loan association, shall be indemnified by the savings and loan association against reasonable costs, expenses and counsel fees paid or incurred in connection with such civil action or proceeding, or in connection with any appeal therein and against all sums paid, other than to the savings and loan association, in settlement or compromise of such civil action or proceeding, provided that

(1) the action or proceeding, insofar as it affects such person, is abandoned, settled or compromised or is prosecuted to a final determination wherein it shall not be finally adjudged that such person was derelict in the performance of his duties, and

(2) a majority of all the members of the board of directors shall (a) determine that such person was not derelict in any substantial way as charged in the civil action or proceeding, and (b) fix the amount, if any, for which such person shall be indemnified.

No director of a savings and loan association shall vote for indemnification of any person, as provided in this section, if such director shall have been a party to the civil action or proceeding. If a majority of the board of directors shall be so disqualified, a majority in number of the members of the savings and loan association present in person or by proxy at a meeting called upon ten days' notice addressed to each member at his address as it appears upon the records of the savings and loan association, shall determine whether such person has been so derelict, and shall fix the amount of the indemnity, if any, to be paid to such person. Notwithstanding that a majority of such board of directors shall not be so disqualified, such board may delegate to the members of the savings and loan association, at a meeting of such members called as herein before in this subsection provided, the power (1) to determine whether such person or such decedent was so derelict and (2) to fix the amount of indemnity, if any, to be paid to such person.

SENATE BILL NO. 533

To the Senate:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14(b) of the Constitution, I herewith return Senate Bill No. 533, for reconsideration.

Senate Bill No. 533 amends the absentee voting law in order to require any public question to be voted on in the municipality be included on the absentee ballot to be received by the voter. It also deletes a requirement that a list of any candidates whose names are known on the 34th day before the election, but for some reason not printed on the ballot, be forwarded along with the absentee ballot to the voter. Both of these changes are amendments to NJSA 19:57-14.

Certainly, an absentee voter should be entitled to vote on a municipal question along with every other voter in this community. The deletion of the list of candidates raises some questions, however. Title 19 provides that on the 34th day prior to an election, all challenges to the nomination of a candidate must be resolved (NJSA 19:13-11 and 13). Therefore, the final list of candidates is available at that time. Senate Bill No. 533 amends a portion of the law which, however, implies that the names of candidates which are already ascertained can be left off the printed ballot. In the past, in fact, some names have been omitted and accompanied by the list required by NJSA 19:57-14. The result is often considerable confusion, since the voter receives two documents, one of which is not clearly related to the other. In fact, in one case, use of a list such as is required by NJSA 19:57-14 caused a number of votes to be ruled invalid and the outcome of an election to be determined by litigation, In re application of Sweetwood, 91 N.J. Super. 496 (1966).

Removal of the provision allowing for the use of such a list of candidates should make it clear that the names of all candidates should be printed on the absentee ballot. There is no reason why this cannot be done. Ordinary ballots are printed three days before a primary (NJSA 19:23-27) and sent to the printer at least 17 days before a general election (NJSA 19:14-1). It would therefore appear that there is no reason why on the 34th day prior to an election the names of all of the candidates should not be included on an absentee ballot.

There is an additional technical problem, namely, that the changes made in the same section by P.L. 1969, c. 35, have not been incorporated in the bill.

I am therefore returning Senate Bill No. 533 for reconsideration and respectfully recommend the following changes:

1. Page 1, Section 1, Line 4: After the word "effect" and before the word "shall" insert the following phrase "shall be printed entirely in black ink and".

2. Page 1, Section 1, Lines 8A and 9: After the word "the" and before the word "in" delete the phrase "county or of the municipality" and insert in lieu thereof the phrase "political subdivision".

3. Page 1, Section 1, Line 19: After "ballot.]" insert the following sentence "Every such candidate and public question to be voted upon shall be included in and printed upon the absentee ballot."

SENATE BILL No. 659

To the Senate:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14(b) of the Constitution, I herewith return Senate Bill No. 659, with my objections, for reconsideration.

Senate Bill No. 659 would permit any person not less than 21 nor more than 45 years of age, who is otherwise qualified, to be appointed as a Sheriff's Officer or County Correction Officer.

Although introduced to circumvent the age eligibility qualifications established by the Civil Service Commission by regulations for these offices, (21 to 40 years), this measure would in fact create a statutory maximum age limitation which, at present, does not exist in practice. Recognizing the importance of recruiting adequate qualified personnel for the positions of County Correction Officers and Sheriffs' Officers, Civil Service policies now permit the age requirement of 21 to 40 to be broadened where its imposition is a deterrent to recruitment. Consequently, the majority of New Jersey counties are now permitted to open their examinations for County Correction Officers and Sheriffs' Officers to individuals not only beyond the age of 40 but beyond the age of 45. To enact Senate Bill No. 659 would therefore reduce rather than expand the class of eligibles for these necessary offices, contrary to the intended purpose of this bill.

I therefore, return S-659 for reconsideration and respectfully recommend that it be amended to read as follows:

1. Page 1, § 2, Lines 4, 5 and 6: Delete lines 4, 5 and 6 in their entirety and insert in lieu thereof:

such age limits may be waived upon a written determination by the Commission that they are a deterrent to recruitment within any county subject to the provisions of Title 11 of the Revised Statutes. Such a determination must be based on a showing within the individual county that adequate qualified personnel can only be secured by so waiving the age qualification.
