RELEASE: January 26, 1998

MEDIA ADVISORY

Gov. Christie Whitman tomorrow will swear in the 1998 officers of the New Jersey Association of Counties during a ceremony in her Outer Office.

During the ceremony, the Governor will stress the important role that the counties can play in implementing the plans laid out in her State of the State and Inaugural Address - making New Jersey more affordable, strengthening the schools, preserving open space and returning the cities to progress and prosperity.

The Governor will be joined by local and county officials from throughout New Jersey for the ceremony.
