He or she can receive additional membership credit for the period of military leave if he or she redeposits the amount of employer contributions, plus regular interest to the date of his or her authorization of such purchase.

17:2-5.4 Compulsory purchase

(a) An employee who was required to enroll and whose application was filed beyond his or her compulsory date of enrollment, will be required to purchase membership credit retroactive to the date of compulsory enrollment. Purchases will be calculated on the basis of the member's current salary at the full pension rate of contribution assigned as of his or her compulsory date of enrollment with regular interest.

(b) Veterans, who were ineligible to establish membership in a local contributory pension fund and who elect to enroll in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 71, P.L. 1966, must agree, prior to their enrollment, to purchase all continuous public employment with the same employer since January 1, 1955, or the date of their regular appointment. The purchase of service will be calculated on the basis of their current salary multiplied by the actuarial factor established for the member's age at the time of purchases.

(a) Members, who purchase temporary service, must purchase all such service immediately preceding enrollment. The purchase will be calculated on the basis of the member's current salary times the full percentage rate of contribution assigned at enrollment.

(b) The types of purchases indicated below will be calculated on the basis of the actuarial factor established for the member's age at the time of the purchase times his or her current salary:

1. All former membership credit with another State-administered retirement system;
2. All former service with any other employer which was not certified for membership but which would have qualified on a compulsory basis at the time the service was rendered;
3. Leaves of absence:
 - i. All of the period of the leave for personal reasons which does not exceed two months;
 - ii. All of the period of the leave up to two years for personal illness or maternity.
4. Non-veterans may purchase all continuous service subsequent to the date their employer adopted the retirement system, provided the service was with the same employer to the date of enrollment;
5. Non-veterans, hired prior to July 1, 1966, whose employers have not adopted the retirement system, may enroll any time and purchase all continuous service retroactive to July 1, 1966, provided the service was with the same employer to the date of enrollment;

6. Members who purchase all or a portion of their eligible out-of-state service.

(c) Rules concerning the purchase and/or conversion of Class A credit include the following:

1. The cost of Class B service credit is based on the actuarial factors and such factors provide a retirement benefit which is one-sixth greater than service credited as Class A. If Class A credit is purchased, the cost will be six-sevenths of the amount computed for a Class B purchase. The computation is based on the member's present salary multiplied by the actuarial factor for the member's age at the time of purchase with regular interest.

2. If a Class A member converts to Class B, he or she will contribute an additional one-sixth of the total contributions that would have been payable based on his or her full Class A contribution rate with regular interest.

SUBCHAPTER 6. RETIREMENT

17:2-6.1 Applications

(a) Applications for retirement must be made on forms prescribed by the system. Such forms must be completed in all respects and filed with the system before the requested date of retirement.

Repayment options clarified. Provisions of (a) deleted. New (a) added to permit repayment in full before retirement allowance is drawn, or repayment by retention of the benefits until the balance with interest is paid. New (b) added to permit members retiring on disability to follow (a) or continue the deductions in effect immediately before retirement. New (c) added, with conditions, to permit members to convert to disability retirement. Old (b) recodified to (d) and amended to clarify repayment upon death of retiree.

17:2-6.5 Willful negligence

2. Such conduct as evidences reckless indifference to safety; or,
3. Intoxication, operating as the proximate cause of injury.

17:2-6.6 Retirement credit

(a) A member shall receive credit toward retirement for any month or biweekly pay period in which a full normal deduction is received by the system.

(b) A member who appeals the suspension or termination of his or her employment and is awarded back pay for all or a portion of his or her employment for the period of such suspension or termination shall receive retirement credit for the period covered by the award, regardless of the amount of the back pay awarded, provided a full normal pension contribution is received from the member or deducted from the value of the award. The amount of the pension contribution will be determined by the provisions of the award. If the member receives full back pay, including normal salary increases, then the contribution will be computed on the base salaries that the employee would have earned for the reinstated suspended or terminated period. When the settlement is less than the full back pay, the pension contribution will be based upon the salary that the member was receiving for pension purposes prior to the suspension or termination of employment. In the event that the amount of back payment is insufficient to deduct the value of the normal pension contributions due, such contribution shall be paid by the member.

(c) It is the responsibility of the certifying officer to provide a letter attesting to the base salary or salaries to be used to compute pension contributions and to provide a copy of the resolution or legal document that details the terms of the settlement.
