NEWS RELEASE

Governor Christie Whitman today submitted to the State Senate a notice of her intention to nominate Jamie S. Perri of Loch Arbour, as a Superior Court Judge.

Perri received her law degree from Villanova University after graduating magna cum laude from Muhlenberg College. Perri also participated in the Honors Program at the University of Edinburgh in Scotland. She is a member of the bar in New Jersey and Pennsylvania.

Perri is currently a partner in the law firm of Marriott Casagrande Callahan & Perri, P.C., located in Sea Girt. In addition, Perri serves as an arbitrator for the Monmouth County Voluntary Binding Arbitration Program and the Monmouth County Mandatory Non-Binding Arbitration Program.

Perri is a member of the Monmouth Bar Association and served as its president from 1998 to 1999. Perri is also a member of the Monmouth Bar Foundation, the District IX Ethics Committee of the Supreme Court of New Jersey, the New Jersey State Bar Association, the New Jersey Defense Association and the Association of County Bar Presidents.
