

Darius S. Written Upload Transcribed:

What surprised me the most about this pandemic was the amount of security measures that were taken. The change from masks not being allowed in stores to not being allowed in without one, to not being allowed on public transportation without a mask.

One of the key pieces to safety measures that also should have been taken is the mandation of glove wearing. It should be enforced as well because the mask prevent airborne strains. Gloves protect you from contracting the physical strains you get by touch.

Darius S.

