Transcript

Governor Christie: I'm just grateful to be here. I'm grateful to be able to see folks who know struggle and who are trying to deal with it and so the way it strikes me is that it shows me that what I feel in my heart is true. Sometimes we feel things in our heart and we don't know if it's true or it's not, you feel it. When you see it, then feeling becomes reality, and I see it this morning. And so while I always believed in my heart it was real and the right thing to do, now my brain knows it too. And that makes me a very dangerous person. My brain and my heart agree, it makes me a very dangerous person, so that's how I saw it this morning, Brian. And I'm just really indebted to these woman for their willingness to meet with me and to share so honestly and emotionally with me, especially with all these cameras sitting behind them. You know this is not the normal act here.
