Governor Celebrates Dome Dedication, Addresses Governor's Council on NJ Outdoors

Gov. Christie Whitman tomorrow will celebrate the dedication of the newly renovated statehouse dome. The celebration will take place outside the Statehouse and will include tours of the dome and rotunda, music by the 63rd Army Band and the official lighting of the dome.

The Governor will begin by taking a tour of the renovations. The tour will begin at the front of the Statehouse. The Governor will then address attendees at the celebration.

Earlier in the day the Governor will highlight New Jersey's bold open space preservation plan at the Governor's Council on NJ Outdoors Conference.

The Governor will also give remarks prior to the 26th Annual Governor's Invitational Tennis Tournament. The tournament has raised more than $2 million in support of the fine and performing arts statewide.
