Happy Birthday, Saul!

Saul Gerson, a U.S. Coast Guard WWII veteran, celebrates his 100th birthday April 13 at the New Jersey Veterans Memorial Home at Paramus amid family and friends. For his longevity, Gerson received birthday letters from President Obama and First Lady Michelle Obama, the governor of New Jersey and the Adjutant General of New Jersey, Brig. Gen. Michael L. Cunniff. To view more photos of Gerson's birthday celebration visit our Facebook page by clicking on this link: Saul's Birthday Party. (Photo by Staff Sgt. Armando Vasquez, DMAVA/PA)

Veterans civil rights seminar

The New Jersey Attorney General's Office in partnership with The American Legion will conduct a regional Veterans' Civil Rights seminar, on May 19, from 1- 3 p.m., at the New Jersey Veterans Memorial Home at Paramus.

All veterans, family members, and veteran service organizations are invited to attend. There will be other veteran-related support groups present to provide information and services. Light refreshments will be provided by The American Legion of Bergen County.

The event is part of a continuing Division on Civil Rights initiative designed to help those who have served in the military, and upon returning to civilian life, encountered discrimination in the workplace and elsewhere.

If you have any general questions pertaining to this seminar, please call Bob Looby, The American Legion's Coordinator, on 908-894-0746. You may also contact the Newark Attorney General's office at 973- 648-4826.

The New Jersey Veterans Memorial Home is located at One Veterans Drive in Paramus.

Veterans Remembrance Day event

The New Jersey Vietnam Veterans' Memorial Foundation will hold its annual New Jersey Vietnam Veterans Remembrance Day ceremony Monday, May 7 at 11 a.m.

Created by legislation in 1991, May 7 is a unique day in New Jersey to honor all those who served in the military during the Vietnam Era from 1959 to 1975. More than 200,000 New Jersey residents served in the armed forces during that time.

In addition to being this year's keynote speaker, Brig. Gen. Michael L. Cunniff, The Adjutant General, New Jersey Department of Military and Veterans Affairs, will honor numerous veterans for their service by presenting New Jersey state military awards.

Admission is free for all visitors on May 7, and the Vietnam Era Museum & Educational Center will open from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. The museum is located adjacent to the New Jersey Vietnam Veterans' Memorial off the Garden State Parkway at exit 116 in Holmdel. The Memorial is open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. The Vietnam Era Museum & Educational Center is open Tuesday through Saturday, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.
