Governor Strengthens the New Jersey Parole System

Gov. Christie Whitman today signed a series of parole bills that will toughen standards for inmate release, limit the use of certain credits given to criminals, mandate psychological testing for some inmates eligible for parole and allow crime victims to testify during parole hearings.

"Our new parole laws will better protect our families, give victims more control and keep violent criminals behind bars where they belong," Gov. Whitman said. "These bills will work hand-in-hand with other crime-fighting laws we have put on the books which are helping to tell the right story about crime and punishment: crime is down and punishment is up."

The Governor signed the bills at ceremonies at police headquarters in Jersey City in Hudson County and Washington Township police headquarters in Gloucester County.

"The legislation that I signed today culminates the work that began when I created the Study Commission on Parole two years ago," the Governor said. "In the past, we had a system that better protected lethal felons than it did law-abiding families. Today, we are changing our parole statutes to shift the balance back where it belongs -- on the side of public safety."

The new legislation allows the state Parole Board greater discretion and more control during parole hearings.

For example, the board can now examine an inmate's entire record at all parole hearings to determine whether that person would present a danger to the public's safety. Previously, if an inmate was denied parole during an initial hearing, the only information about that criminal that could be used during subsequent hearings was what the inmate's behavior was since his or her prior hearing. An inmate's full record was not allowed to be considered.

The Governor also established a Parole Advisory Board to review supervision issues, develop and implement drug and alcohol treatment programs and comment on all other inmate issues when requested by the Commissioner of Corrections.

Victims of crime and the families of murder victims now will not only have input into the Parole Board's determination of whether to grant parole, but also into the special conditions of that parole. The board can now impose special conditions to parole based on a victim's request such as prohibiting the parolee from entering the victim's home, school or place of business or placing restraints against the parolee from harrassing or stalking the victim..

Several of the bills being signed today will amend the Parole Act of 1979 by implementing recommendations made in the Governor's Study Commission on Parole.

Throughout her administration Gov. Whitman has enacted strong laws such as: Megan's Law; Three Strikes; Joan's Law; the Law Enforcement Officers' Protection Act; and the No Early Release Act which forces violent criminals to serve at least 85 percent of their sentence.

Attached is a list of bills signed by the Governor today.

Bills Gov. Whitman signed in Jersey City:

- More information available to the Parole Board

The bill changes the standard that the Parole Board uses when determining whether an inmate should be paroled. It allows the Parole Board to weigh information in an inmate's record when considering the inmate's parole eligibility at second and subsequent hearings. It also prohibits the use of good time and work credits to accelerate a future parole eligibility date after an initial denial of parole. The bills A-21 / S-339 were sponsored by Assembly Members James W. Holzapfel (R-Monmouth / Ocean) and Marion Crecco (R-Essex / Passaic) and Senators Robert J. Martin (R- Essex / Morris / Passaic), Raymond J. Zane (D-Salem / Cumberland / Gloucester), Andrew R. Ciesla (R-Monmouth / Ocean) and John J. Matheussen (R-Camden / Gloucester).

- Medical parole

The bill establishes special medical parole for certain inmates who are terminally ill or severely incapacitated. The bills, A-22 / S-2001, were sponsored by Assembly members James W. Holzapfel (R- Monmouth / Ocean) and Charlotte Vandervalk (R-Bergen) and Senators Andrew R. Cisela (R-Monmouth / Ocean) and John J. Matheussen (R- Camden / Gloucester).

The bill establishes a Parole Advisory Board that will be in, but not of, the Bureau of Parole. The board would review and comment on supervision issues, the development and implementation of drug and alcohol treatment programs for parolees, and any issues requested by the Commissioner of Corrections. The advisory board may make recommendations to the Commissioner of Corrections, the Parole Board, the Governor and the Legislature. It will also sponsor conferences with criminal justice administrators and community members. The bills, A-25 / S-2203, were sponsored by Assembly Members Joseph Azzolina (R-Middlesex/Monmouth) and Francis J. Blee (R-Atlantic) and Senator Louis F. Kosco (R- Bergen).

- Criminals' psychological makeup to be evaluated

The bill requires that pre-parole and pre-sentence reports include the disposition of prior charges filed against a potential parolee that were suspended due to mental incompetence. It also requires that some defendants and inmates undergo psychological examinations and permits the state to obtain reimbursement from defendants, inmates and health insurers. The bills, A-489 / 685, were sponsored by Assembly members Joel Weingarten (R-Essex / Union), Kevin J. O'Toole (R-Essex / Union) and Charles Zisa (D- Bergen).

Bills Gov. Whitman signed in Washington Township

- Risk-assessment evaluations enhanced

The bill implements three recommendations of the Governor's Study Commission on Parole by amending three sections of the Parole Act of 1979. It establishes risk assessment evaluations for inmates eligible for parole, allows the boards to mandate in-depth psychological evaluations to assess an inmate's suitability for parole, and requires that all psychological reports are prepared in connection with any court proceeding to be included in the pre- parole report required under current law. The bills, A-23 / S- 2204, were sponsored by Assembly members Carmine DeSopo (R- Burlington/Camden) and Guy F. Talarico (R-Bergen) and Senator Louis F. Kosco (R-Bergen).

- Victims and families of victims to have input

Geist (R-Camden / Gloucester) and Rose Heck (R-Bergen) and Senator John P. Scott (R- Bergen / Essex / Passaic).
