Trenton, NJ – The Office of the Governor today released the following statement on Hudson County Superior Court Ruling On Jersey City Revaluations:

“We note with great interest the decision of Judge Schultz that Jersey City and its mayor acted in bad faith when canceling the previous revaluation of Jersey City. We agree with the Court that Mayor Fulop is presiding over ‘one of the most unfair’ tax systems in the state of New Jersey. That is why the State has ordered a revaluation to be done. The recent actions by the court and the state government prove that tax fairness can prevail in Jersey City.”
