SUBCHAPTER 1. PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE

13:75-1.1 Scope of rules

The following rules shall constitute the practice to be followed in all proceedings before the Victims of Crime Compensation Board.

Administrative change.
See: 27 N.J.R. 4441(a).

Changed the name of the board.

Case Notes

In a declaratory judgment action brought by a crime victim against the State of New Jersey, two agencies that processed restitution payments, and its directors, the system of paying restitution on a first-in-time, rather than automatic pro-rata basis, was upheld as valid. The trial court properly dismissed the victim’s complaint, rejecting his multi-faceted challenge, finding the method of distribution violated neither his substantive due process nor equal protection rights under the federal and New Jersey constitutions; nor his State constitutional rights under the Victims Rights Amendment, N.J. Const. art. I, para. 22; nor his statutory rights under New Jersey’s Crime Victim’s Bill of Rights, N.J.S.A. 52:4B-34 to -70; nor the Civil Rights Act, N.J.S.A. 10:6-1 to -2. Felicioni v. Administrative Office of the Courts, 404 N.J. Super. 382, 961 A.2d 1207, 2008 N.J. Super. LEXIS 263 (App.Div. 2008).

13:75-1.2 Liberal construction of provisions

These rules shall be liberally construed by the Board to permit it to discharge its statutory function and secure equitable determinations in all matters before the Board.

13:75-1.3 Practice where rules do not govern

The Board may rescind, amend or expand these rules from time to time, provided the same is effected in accordance with the provisions of the New Jersey Administrative Procedure Act, and N.J.S.A. 52:4B-1 et seq. In any manner not expressly governed by these rules or by statute, the Board shall exercise its discretion.

13:75-1.4 Definitions

The definitions set forth in N.J.S.A. 52:4B-2 are hereby adopted by this Board and incorporated by reference in these rules.

Violent Crimes Compensation Bd.*, 76 N.J. 368, 388 A.2d 206 (1978).

13:75-1.6 Eligibility of claims

(a) The Board shall make an award solely to eligible victims of violent crimes as said crimes are defined by N.J.S.A. 52:4B-11.

(b) In instances where the victim of the crime has died as a direct result thereof, the Board may award compensation to the following persons:

1. A surviving spouse, parent, or child of the deceased victim who has suffered economic loss;

2. Any relative of the deceased victim as defined in N.J.S.A. 52:4B-2 who was dependent upon the victim for support, or any person who has cohabitated with the victim/decedent and who can establish by a preponderance of evidence that a dependency existed at the time of death of the victim. In examining the issue of loss of support as it relates to this paragraph, the Board shall consider any factor it deems relevant;

3. The relative, estate of, or other natural persons who have demonstrated out-of-pocket unreimbursed and unreimbursable medical and funeral expenses for which they have become responsible on behalf of the decedent due to the incident upon which the claim is based.

(c) For all incidents occurring on or after January 1, 1999, the Board may award compensation for loss of support to any victim or claimant who can establish by a preponderance of the evidence that, at the time of the incident, a dependency existed, upon the income or other economic contributions of the victim's assailant or offender, and which is no longer available to or accessible by the victim.

1. In computing the loss of support of the victim or claimant dependent, the Board shall only consider the assailant/offender's earnings and/or the amount of money or economic contributions the assailant/offender was actually contributing to the victim and victim's household at the time of the injury of the victim.

2. Where the dependents have received or are receiving a greater sum of money from other sources by reason of the incident giving rise to the claim for compensation than
