RULES GOVERNING EVENING SCHOOLS FOR FOREIGN-BORN RESIDENTS

(Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18:15-96 to 103)

MANAGEMENT

These classes shall be separate and distinct from other evening school classes. They may be held in the same building with other classes, but they must be maintained in separate rooms. Classes maintained under the provisions of Sections 18:15-96 to 103 of the New Jersey Revised Statutes must be held in the evening. Courses of study may be organized on the unit plan and must be approved by the State Board of Education.

COURSES OF STUDY

The subjects taught in evening schools for foreign-born residents shall include those specified in the statutes referred to, namely:

- a. The English language
- b. Local and State government and laws of New Jersey
- c. The form of government and laws of the United States
- d. Problems in American Democracy

INSPECTION

The Commissioner of Education shall designate such of his assistants as he deems necessary to carry on the proper inspection of these classes. He may also call upon the county superintendents of the several counties to assist in this matter.
