SUBCHAPTER 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS*10:46-1.1 Purpose; authority

(a) Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 30:1-12, 30:4-27.2, 30:4-25.2, Application for determination of eligibility, N.J.S.A. 30:4-25.9, 30:6D-1 et seq. (P.L. 1985, c.145) and 30:4-60 et seq. (P.L. 1995, c.155), the Division of Developmental Disabilities, Department of Human Services (Division), intends this chapter to establish guidelines and criteria for determination of eligibility for services, to individuals with developmental disabilities. The applicant shall apply for all benefits for which he or she may be eligible. The Division shall not provide services when those services may be available through other sources. Before the Division offers services covered under the waiver, the individual and/or representative payee is responsible to apply through the Division for the Medicaid DDD Community Care Waiver and comply with all the requirements of eligibility for these benefits. The individual is also responsible to maintain eligibility for those benefits by ensuring they have no more than $2,000 in cash assets. All other eligibility criteria in this chapter remain the same.

(b) When an individual receives residential services from the Division, they are required to contribute to the cost of care and maintenance. The requirements and financial ability of the individual and that of their legally responsible relatives to contribute to the cost of care and maintenance are set forth in N.J.A.C. 10:46D, Contributions for Care.

(c) The availability of services shall be limited to the Division's funding in a given fiscal year.

(d) When a person is determined eligible for services, he or she may receive those State-funded services that are available at that time.

(e) The eligible person shall be notified by the Division of the availability of waiver services. At that time, the Division will provide the application for the Medicaid DDD Community Care Waiver.

(f) Any person under the age of 18 who is determined by the Division to be eligible for ICF/MR services may be found eligible for the Medicaid DDD Community Care Waiver without deeming of the family's income. The eligible person shall be notified by the Division of the availability of waiver services. At that time, the Division will provide the application for the Medicaid DDD Community Care Waiver. The individual shall meet all other eligibility requirements.

(g) To the extent practicable, written material shall be provided in the individual's primary language and in alternate formats as needed.

“Waiver services” means those services not usually provided under the Medicaid program as long as these services are required to keep a person from being institutionalized. Under Federal law, Home and Community Based Services waivers (HCBS), also known as 1915(c) waivers for the section of the Social Security Act, allow states the flexibility to develop and implement alternatives to placing Medicaid eligible individuals in hospitals, nursing facilities and Intermediate Care Facilities for the Mentally Retarded (ICF/MR). In New Jersey, the HCBS waiver for people with developmental disabilities is called the Community Care Waiver. The Community Care Waiver allows the Division of Developmental Disabilities to provide services to an individual who, but for the provision of community services, would require the level of care in an Intermediate Care Facility for the Mentally Retarded/Developmentally Disabled (ICF/MR-DD). This ICF/MR-DD level of care is generally defined to mean that the individual is substantially functionally limited in three of six major life areas—also known as Activities of Daily Living (ADL)—one of which must be self-care. New Jersey has also chosen to use the higher income standard of institutionalized individuals for those who also receive services in the community, under the Community Care Waiver. This higher income standard of 300 percent of the Federal Benefit Rate for SSI allows individuals in the community with that income to receive waiver services. An individual must maintain their resources (assets) within the Medicaid eligibility limits, as of December 15, 2003, $2,000 for an individual. Waiver services may include any of the following or any other services covered under the application of the Community Care Waiver to the Federal government:

1. Case Management;
2. Individual Supports;
3. Habilitation;

4. Respite Care;
5. Integrated Therapeutic Network; and
6. Environmental/Vehicle Accessibility Adaptations.

Case Notes

When denying application for services, Department of Human Services, Division of Developmental Disabilities, improperly interpreted "mental impairment" component of "developmental disability" as requiring proof of a neurological injury or mental retardation; such a view was too cramped in light of regulation's expansive definition that focused on the impact of the condition upon the applicant. D.D. v. New Jersey Div. of Disabilities, 351 N.J.Super. 308, 798 A.2d 148.

Applicant for services from the Department of Human Services, Division of Developmental Disabilities, does not have the burden of proving a definitive cause or source of "mental impairment," which is component of "developmental disability" required for services eligibility. D.D. v. New Jersey Div. of Disabilities, 351 N.J.Super. 308, 798 A.2d 148.

Division of Developmental Disabilities should have promulgated a rule about eligibility standards before using the standards. T.L. v. Division of Developmental Disabilities, Dept. of Human Services, 243 N.J.Super. 476, 580 A.2d 272 (A.D.1990).

Disability was "chronic" despite the fact that the question about the man's ability was recent. T.L. v. Division of Developmental Disabilities, Dept. of Human Services, 243 N.J.Super. 476, 580 A.2d 272 (A.D.1990).

Initial Decision (2007 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 575) accepted, which concluded that petitioner was not eligible for services because he was not substantially functionally limited in three of six major life areas as the result of his disability. As to "learning," although petitioner had some limitations in the area of learning, he had demonstrated the capacity to learn academic skills with specialized supports and functional skills without such supports. M.R. v. Div. of Developmental Disabilities, OAL Dkt. No. HDD 04483-2006S, 2007 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 1010, Final Decision (November 5, 2007).

Initial Decision (2007 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 575) accepted, which concluded that petitioner was not eligible for services because he was not substantially functionally limited in three of six major life areas as the result of his disability. As to "expressive and receptive language," petitioner spoke fluently and was able to understand and appropriately respond to questions under a variety of circumstances and he was able to pass the oral and road tests required to obtain his driver's license; although petitioner's vocabulary was below age-level expectations, it was sufficient for functional communication, and perceived deficits in abstract reasoning skills, although possibly affecting an individual's ability to understand complex directions, were not necessarily indicative of a substantial functional limitation in receptive and expressive language. M.R. v. Div. of Developmental Disabilities, OAL Dkt. No. HDD 04483-2006S, 2007 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 1010, Final Decision (November 5, 2007).

Initial Decision (2007 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 575) accepted, which concluded that petitioner was not eligible for services because he was not substantially functionally limited in three of six major life areas as the result of his disability. As to "independent living," petitioner currently demonstrated many independent living skills, including the ability to shop, prepare simple meals, and maintain a reasonably clean home, and he had the capacity to learn job and money management skills; while petitioner might continue to require periodic assistance with tasks such as paying bills, the need for such assistance did not justify a finding of substantial functional limitations in this area in light of petitioner's capacity for acquiring other skills needed for independent living or economic self-sufficiency. M.R. v. Div. of Developmental Disabilities, OAL Dkt. No. HDD 04483-2006S, 2007 N.J. AGEN LEXIS 1010, Final Decision (November 5, 2007).

Applicant whose IQ exceeded cutoff level was ineligible for developmental disability services. R.S. v. Department of Human services, 96 N.J.A.R.2d (DDD) 66.

Profoundly retarded and multiply handicapped man whose day program placement was insufficient to meet his needs would be allowed to transfer to more suitable program. S.G. v. Division of Developmental Disabilities, 96 N.J.A.R.2d (DDD) 51.

Applicant for services qualified as developmentally disabled and thus was entitled to those services. J.D. v. Division of Developmental Disabilities, 96 N.J.A.R.2d (DDD) 32.

Profoundly retarded man could not change domicile. K.H. v. Division of Developmental Disabilities Department of Human Resources, 93 N.J.A.R.2d (DDD) 1.

SUBCHAPTER 2. ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

10:46-2.1 General eligibility

(a) An individual must be determined eligible for services under this chapter before the Division can provide services. In order to receive waiver services (a Federal Medicaid program), the individual and/or representative payee is responsible to make application for all benefits and comply with the requirements to continue eligibility for all benefits for which they are entitled, primarily the Medicaid DDD Community Care Waiver, Social Security and SCI. The individual is also responsible to maintain Medicaid eligibility by ensuring he or she has no more than $2,000 in cash assets.

(b) The individual is required to apply for these benefits, primarily the Medicaid DDD Community Care Waiver, Social Security and SSI and comply with all the requirements of those programs, for which he or she may be eligible. If the individual is denied benefits and can take no action to become eligible for those benefits, he or she shall provide documentation of the denial to the Division, which shall be part of the client record. Eligibility for waiver services shall not be denied under these instances, if the other eligibility criteria are met.

(c) Individuals must keep assets below $2,000 in order to remain eligible for waiver services. If eligibility is lost because assets are over $2,000, the individual or representative payee will be notified that they have 30 days to comply with the asset requirement, in order to continue in a waiver program. If the individual or representative payee does not comply, they will receive notification that they will no longer be eligible for waiver services if they do not reduce their assets below $2,000 within an additional 60 days. Loss of eligibility for the Medicaid DDD Community Care Waiver will mean the individual will be eligible for only those State-funded services that are available at that time. If at any time during this period, the individual reestablishes eligibility by lowering their assets, the individual will be able to remain in the waiver service.

(d) When an individual receives residential services from the Division, they are also required to contribute to the cost of care and maintenance. The requirements and financial ability of the individual and that of their legally responsible relatives to contribute to the cost of care and maintenance are set forth in N.J.A.C. 10:46D, Contributions for Care.

(e) With regard to a child, the substantial functional limitation(s) shall be evaluated according to expectations based upon the child's chronological age.

(f) With regard to an individual who has entitlements to a free public education pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:1-1 et seq., who is otherwise eligible, the expenses of educational and related services shall not be borne by the Division.

(g) If a determination has been made by a local district board of education or a court of competent jurisdiction that an individual's educational needs can only be appropriately served in a living situation other than the individual's home, then the expenses of that residential placement shall not be borne by the Division.

(h) For applicants who present documentation of mental retardation, the criteria for establishing the presence of mental retardation shall be an IQ score of less than 70, demonstrated as follows:

1. The person has an IQ score of 60 to 69; and

- i. There is an impairment in adaptive behavior; and/or

- ii. There is a chronic medical problem; and/or

- iii. There is an impairment in behavioral, sensory or motor function and in the ability to perform basic skills; or

2. The person has an IQ score of 59 or below.

See: 27 N.J.R. 2157(a), 27 N.J.R. 3606(a).

Amended by R.1998 d.468, effective September 8, 1998.

See: 30 N.J.R. 1737(a), 30 N.J.R. 3271(a).

In (a), added "contingent upon cooperation with the financial assessment investigation and payment of any fees assessed" at the end; and added (f) through (k).

Amended by R.2003 d.476, effective December 15, 2003.

1. A competent individual applying for eligibility shall be a resident of the State if he or she lives in the State as his or her primary residence.

2. For minors, who are under 18 years of age, the place where the parents or legal guardian live shall determine the residence of the minor.

3. For adults, who are 18 years and older, incapacitated and have a general guardianship, the incapacitated individual's residence will be that of the legal guardian unless the conditions listed in (a)3i below have been met. This paragraph also applies to persons placed as minors upon reaching 18 years of age.

i. For incapacitated individuals applying for services whose legal guardian lives outside New Jersey, the guardian shall document that the incapacitated individual has established residency by establishing:

more than two years, he or she expresses no plans to move from New Jersey);

(B) The incapacitated individual's financial or other connections to the locale (that is, the individual is employed locally, has local bank accounts, attends religious services); and

(C) The incapacitated individual's subjective attachment to his or her living arrangements (that is, friends in the area, use of community recreational facilities).

(b) If the incapacitated individual is admitted to services and the guardian moves out-of-State, the incapacitated individual may remain in Division services. Additionally, the legal guardian is free to request a discharge from services or an interstate transfer.

(c) If any individual has been placed in the State of New Jersey and that placement is funded totally or partially by a public or private agency in another state, that individual shall not be considered a resident of New Jersey.

(d) For persons applying for services whose legal guardian is in the U.S. military service, residency may be established when the guardian declares his or her home of record to be New Jersey.

(e) For individuals applying for services who are not U.S. citizens, the following must be satisfied to establish residency:

1. The individual must be a permanent alien resident, or his or her legal guardian must be a U.S. citizen or a permanent alien resident; and
