

BASICNEEDS.NJ.GOV
Resources for College Students

This new site is in beta and is a work in progress. Feedback welcome here.

Search for Resources to Meet Basic Needs

Where can I find foo

Top Recommended Articles

Get Help with Essential Items for Children like Diapers and Clothes

Get help with essential items for children like diapers, wipes, strollers, clothes, and shoes. Many diaper banks are organized on a county (or even statewide) level, with distribution happening thr...

Get Help with Health Needs for Children

Last Updated: 07/01/2022

Below you will find support resources for children related to developmental delays, medical expenses, and caregivers: Early Intervention. This program includes evaluation, assessment, and Individua...

Get Transportation Help

Last Updated: 03/02/2023

Securing affordable and reliable transportation can be challenging to find as a student. Below, find some New Jersey programs and transportation options that may be useful. Key things to keep in mi...

Get Food This Week

Last Updated: 11/14/2023

Food pantries and soup kitchens are good options for anyone needing access to food quickly, this includes students and their family members. Eligibility for assistance differs depending on the loca...

Get Food Long-Term

Last Updated: 11/14/2023

Federal nutrition assistance programs are ideal for individuals and families, including college students and their dependents, who need help paying for groceries on a more ongoing basis. Programs a...

Get Housing This Week

Last Updated: 11/14/2023

In New Jersey, shelters can help different kinds of people, like pregnant women, those who left foster care, single folks, and veterans who may also be in college. If you're struggling with rent an...

Find Services by Type

Food and Nutrition

Housing Support
Parenting

Transportation

Health

Financial Aid

Legal Aid

Education-Related Resources

Tax Assistance

Learn more about this project.

 Open Public
Records Act

