

Case Notes

Requirement to make reparations not permitted as a condition of parole; restitution only is allowed by statute; prisoner not entitled to release pending Parole Board's appeal of Superior Court ruling striking down reparations requirement for parole. In re Trantino Parole Application, 177 N.J.Super. 499, 427 A.2d 91 (App.Div.1981), modified and remanded 89 N.J. 347, 446 A.2d 104 (1982).

10A:71-6.4 Conditions of parole

(a) The certificate of parole shall contain the following general conditions of parole:

1. You are required to obey all laws and ordinances.
2. You are to report in person to your District Parole Supervisor or his or her designated representative, or the designated representative of the Commission, immediately after you are released on parole from the institution, unless you have been given other written instructions by a designated representative of the Board, Bureau of Parole or Commission, and you are to report thereafter as instructed by the District Parole Supervisor or his or her designated representative, or the designated representative of the Commission.
3. You are to notify your parole officer immediately after any arrest, immediately after your being served with or receiving a complaint or summons and after accepting any pre-trial release including bail.
4. You are to immediately notify your parole officer upon the issuance by the appropriate court, pursuant to the Prevention of Domestic Violence Act of 1990, of an order granting emergency relief, a temporary or final restraining order or an order establishing conditions of release or bail in a criminal matter or offense arising out of a domestic violence situation. You are to comply with any condition established within the respective order until the order is dissolved by the appropriate court or until a condition is modified or discharged by the appropriate court.
5. You are to obtain approval of your parole officer:
 - i. For any change in your residence or employment location.
 - ii. Before leaving the state of your approved residence.
6. You are not to own or possess any firearm, as defined in N.J.S.A. 2C:39-1f, for any purpose.
7. You are not to own or possess any weapon enumerated in N.J.S.A. 2C:39-1r.
8. You are to refrain from the use, possession or distribution of a controlled dangerous substance, controlled substance analog or imitation controlled dangerous substance as defined in N.J.S.A. 2C:35-2 and N.J.S.A. 2C:35-11.
9. You are required to make payment to the Bureau of Parole or Commission, as appropriate, of any assessment, fine, penalty, lab fee or restitution imposed by the sentencing court.

(b) In the case of juvenile inmates, the certificate of parole shall contain the following general condition of parole, in addition to those conditions contained in (a) above.

1. You are required to attend school on a full-time basis if you are under 16 years of age.

(c) In the case of a county inmate, the performance of public service for the remainder of the term of the sentence shall be a required condition of parole where appropriate. The Chairperson shall be authorized to pursue a contract for services for the supervision by the appropriate county probation department for the performance of public service by county inmates.

(d) Additional special conditions may be imposed by the District Parole Supervisor when, in the opinion of the District Parole Supervisor, such conditions would reduce the likelihood of recurrence of criminal or delinquent behavior. The parolee shall be given written notice prior to and upon the imposition of such additional conditions.

(e) Additional special conditions may be imposed by the District Parole Supervisor, an Assistant District Parole Supervisor, the designated representative of the District Parole Supervisor or the designated representative of the Commission when, in the opinion of the District Parole Supervisor, an Assistant District Parole Supervisor, the designated representative of the District Parole Supervisor, or the designated representative of the Commission, such conditions would reduce the likelihood of recurrence of criminal or delinquent behavior. The parolee and the Board shall be given written notice upon the imposition of such additional conditions.

1. Upon notice being received by the Board, the appropriate Board panel or the Board shall review the parolee's case and determine whether to vacate, modify or affirm the additional special condition(s).

2. The Board panel or the Board shall notify the District Parole Supervisor or the designated representative of the Commission of its determination within 30 days of receipt of notice of the imposition of the additional special condition.

3. The District Parole Supervisor or the designated representative of the Commission shall notify the parolee in writing of the determination of the Board panel or Board and shall cause a written record of such notice to be made in the parole's case file.

(f) If a parolee owes an assessment, fine, penalty, lab fee or restitution, the District Parole Supervisor or the designated representative of the Commission, as appropriate, shall, unless otherwise ordered by the Board or members certifying parole release or the sentencing court, be responsible for specifying a reasonable schedule for payment of such assessment, fine, penalty, lab fee or restitution.

10A:71-6.5 Restitution

(a) If the Board members certifying parole release establish a special condition requiring full or partial restitution, the Board shall immediately request that the sentencing court set the amount of such restitution.

(b) The Board shall identify for the sentencing court the elements or factors to be considered in computing the amount of restitution and specify to the court the manner in which the following factors are to be applied.

1. Limitation of restriction to actual loss or damage caused by the crime. Damage may be limited to medical expenses and related costs, funeral expenses, specific personal property losses, other losses if clearly provable, and lost wages for limited periods of time which do not involve assessments of life expectancy.

2. Restitution is to be made to the persons most directly affected by the parolee's criminal acts.

3. Restitution must be related to the parolee's ability to pay and should not exceed an amount which would jeopardize its rehabilitative purpose.

4. Restitution must be directly related to the losses occurring as a result of the criminal act and to the attitude of the offender.

(c) Upon being notified by the sentencing court as to amount of restitution set, the Board shall notify the inmate, or, if released on parole, the parolee and the District Parole Supervisor or the designated representative of the Commission of the amount of restitution.

Amended by R.1985 d.213, effective May 6, 1985.

10A:71-6.6 Modification of conditions

(a) The certifying Board members or appropriate Board panel may modify a parolee's conditions of parole at any time for cause.

(b) Except as provided in N.J.A.C. 10A:71-6.4(e), a parolee or the parolee's parole officer may apply to the appropriate Board panel at any time for modification of the conditions of parole.

(c) Such application shall be submitted by the District Parole Supervisor or the designated representative of the Commission at the request of either the parolee or the parolee's parole officer and shall contain the recommendation of the officer and the District Parole Supervisor or the designated representative of the Commission, as appropriate, accompanied by supporting documentation.

(d) If the application is not submitted at the parolee's request, the parolee shall be notified in writing of the proposed modification prior to submission of the application to the Board panel.

(e) The parolee may submit written comments regarding the application to the Board panel; however, such comments must be received within 15 days of the application.

(f) The Board panel shall consider such application and notify the District Parole Supervisor or the designated representative of the Commission, as appropriate, in writing of the decision within 45 days of the receipt of the application.

(g) The District Parole Supervisor or the designated representative of the Commission, as appropriate, shall notify the parolee in writing of any modification of the conditions of parole and shall cause a written record of such modification to be made in the parolee's case file.

Amended by R.1985 d.213, effective May 6, 1985.
