

BE IT REMEMBERED, That I do acknowledge myself indebted to the State of New-Jersey, in the sum of one hundred dollars, and that we do each acknowledge ourselves indebted to the said state in the sum of fifty dollars each, to be levied on our respective goods and chattels, lands and tenements, for the use of the said state, if failure be made in the following condition:

The condition of this recognizance is such, That whereas the above bounden is licensed by the court to keep an inn and tavern, in the house where dwelleth, in the of in the county of for the space of one year next ensuing; if, therefore, the said during the continuance of the said license, shall not keep a disorderly inn or tavern, nor game nor suffer any person to game in house for money, or the value of money, nor violate the laws made concerning inns and taverns, but shall, during the said term, in all things respecting as an inn-holder and tavern-keeper, use and maintain good order and rule, and find and provide good, wholesome and sufficient lodging, diet and entertainment for man, stabling and provender for horse, and observe the directions of the law relating to inns and taverns, then this recognizance to be void, or else to remain in full force and virtue.
