RULES FOR THE CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION

Rule 1. The officers of this Convention shall be the President, the First Vice President, the Second Vice President, and the Secretary. They shall be ex officio members without vote of all standing committees.

Rule 2. The President shall take the chair each day at the hour to which the Convention shall have adjourned. He shall call the Convention to order, and, except in the absence of a quorum, shall proceed to business in the manner prescribed by these rules.

Rule 3. The President shall possess the powers and perform the duties herein prescribed, viz.:

- A. He shall preserve order and decorum, and, in debate, shall prevent personal reflections, and confine members to the question under discussion. When 2 or more members arise at the same time, he shall name the one entitled to the floor.
- B. He shall decide all questions of order, subject to appeal to the Convention. On every appeal he shall have the right, in his place, to assign his reason for his decision. In case of such appeal no member shall speak more than once.
- C. He shall appoint all committees, except where the Convention shall otherwise order. These committees shall be as nearly bi-partisan as possible.

- D. He may substitute any member to perform the duties of the chair, but for no longer period than that day, except by special consent of the Convention.
- E. When the Convention shall be ready to go into Committee of the Whole, he shall name a Chairman to preside therein.
- F. When necessary or required, he shall, with the Secretary, certify all official acts and all vouchers for payment of expenditures of the Convention with the date thereof.
- G. He shall designate and assign to seats or authorize the designation, seating and movement of the persons who shall act as news media representatives within the Convention hall. Such news media representatives, so appointed, shall be entitled to such seats and shall have the right at any time to move from place to place on the Convention floor for the purpose of performing their duties provided such movements are made at a time and in a manner not inconsistent with the orderly conduct of Convention business. No such representative shall appear before any committee in advocacy of, or in opposition to, anything under consideration before such committee. A violation of this rule will be sufficient cause for the removal of such representative. Power of removal for this cause shall be vested in the President.
- H. He shall be a consulting member without vote in the several committees to which he is not specifically appointed.
- I. He shall declare the vote and announce the result according to the fact on all questions and divisions.

J. He shall not engage in any debate, or propose his opinion on any question, except the assigning of his reasons for his decision on appeal therefrom, without first calling some delegate to occupy the chair.

K. As a delegate, he shall have the right to vote on any matter coming before the Convention.

Rule 4. In the event of a vacancy in the office of President, by death, resignation or otherwise, the First Vice President shall succeed to the office of President. In the event of the continued absence or inability of the President to preside for more than 5 consecutive Convention days, the First Vice President shall serve as Acting President only during the absence or inability to preside on the part of the President. In the temporary absence of the President, or in the event of his temporary inability to preside, his duties shall devolve upon the First Vice President, or if he also be absent, upon the Second Vice President. For the purpose of this rule, the terms "temporary absence" and "temporary inability" shall mean an absence or inability not to exceed 5 consecutive Convention days.

Rule 5. In the event of a vacancy in the office of either Vice President by death, resignation or otherwise, the Convention shall by a vote of the delegates having not less than 57 votes, elect a new Vice President. In the temporary absence of both Vice Presidents, or in the event of the temporary inability on the part of both Vice Presidents to discharge the duties of their offices, the Convention shall have the power to designate and appoint some other delegate to discharge the duties of the office during such temporary absence, or temporary inability.

Rule 6. The Secretary shall keep a journal of the proceedings of the Convention and, under the direction of the President, shall prepare and place on the desk of the President each day a calendar of the business of the Convention as provided by these rules.

Rule 7. The Secretary shall prepare for printing all proposals and other documents which are required to be printed under these rules under the direction of the Committee on Printing and Authentication of Documents and shall see to it that they are properly and correctly printed.

Rule 8. The Secretary shall give to every proposal for revision, alteration or reformation of subject matter of the present Constitution, when introduced, a number and the numbers shall be in numerical order. When a Committee proposal is reported from a Committee, he shall give it a number, in separate series for each Committee, which shall be known as the Committee proposal number. He shall keep the several proposals on file in order by their numbers, unless otherwise ordered by the Convention.

Rule 9. He shall preserve all proposals, reports of Committees and all other records, books, documents and papers of the Convention and after the adjournment of the Convention shall deliver them to the Bureau of Archives and History in the State Department of Education or shall make such other disposal of them as the Convention shall direct.

Rule 10. When necessary or required, he shall, with the President, certify all official acts and all vouchers for payment of expenditures of the Convention with the date thereof, and he shall perform such other duties as are required of him by these rules and as from time to time shall be required of him by the Convention.

Rule 11. The presence of delegates having at least 57 votes shall be necessary to constitute a quorum of the Convention but a lesser number may meet and adjourn the Convention from day to day when necessary.

Rule 12. A quorum being present shall be sufficient for the adoption of any motion or resolution or the taking of any action except where the affirmative vote of a greater number shall be required by law or by these rules.

Rule 13. The standing committees of the Convention shall be 9 in number. They shall be appointed by the President unless the Convention shall otherwise order. The person first named shall be the Chairman, and the person next named shall be the Vice-Chairman of the committee. the Convention and its committees through the medium of the press, radio, television, and such other facilities as may be available.

Rule 20. The Committee on Arrangement and Style shall examine and correct the proposals which are referred to it for the purpose of avoiding inaccuracies, repetitions and inconsistencies and shall arrange the same in the proper order in the proposed revisions and amendments to the Constitution to be submitted and shall report thereon to the Convention, but the Committee shall have no authority to change the sense or purpose of any proposal referred to it and if any 7 delegates shall object to any report of said Committee on the ground that such report has changed the sense or purpose of any such proposal, the proposal shall be referred to a special Committee on Arrangement and Style consisting of 12 delegates included in which shall be not less than 4 of the 7 delegates objecting to said report.

Rule 21. The Committee on Submission and Address to the People shall consider and make recommendations to the Convention as to the matters and things provided by these rules to be referred to it and as to such other matters and things as may be referred to it by order of the Convention.

Rule 23. The Committee on Credentials, Printing and Authentication of Documents shall supervise the preparation for printing and the printing of all proposals, Committee proposals, reports and other documents, with their amendments, ordered to be printed by the Convention, and shall ascertain that they are accurately and correctly printed. The Committee shall, subject to the approval of the Committee on Rules and Business Affairs of the Convention, contract for all printing for the Convention and supervise the carrying out of any contract so made and certify to the Committee on Rules and Business Affairs the correctness of all bills rendered for printing.

Rule 24. All resolutions for the printing of an extra number of documents shall be referred, as of course, to the Committee on Credentials, Print-

Rule 26. No Committee shall sit during the sessions of the Convention without special leave.

Rule 27. The report of a minority of any Committee shall be received and printed and on motion of any delegate, the Convention, by an affirmative vote of delegates having at least 57 votes, may substitute such minority report and any proposal submitted therewith for the majority report and for any proposal submitted therewith. In the event any Committee is evenly divided on any matter pending before it, the Chairman shall refer such matter back to the Convention with both recommendations.

Rule 28. Public hearings before each of the standing committees addressed to the subject matter, lying within its consideration in accordance with these rules or referred to it, shall be held as and when ordered by the Convention, by general or special order, and according to uniform rules to be made by the Committee on Rules and Business Affairs governing the notice to be given to the public of such hearings, and the method of conducting the same.

Rule 29. The Convention may upon motion resolve itself into a Committee of the Whole for the consideration of proposals for the revision and amendment of the subject matter of the present Constitution. In forming the Committee of the Whole, the President of the Convention shall appoint a chairman to preside.

Rule 30. Before a proposal shall be considered by the Committee of the Whole, any delegate (the Chairman of the standing committee in charge of the proposal having prior right) shall be privileged to move a limitation upon the time of debate and consideration by the Committee, and the Convention may fix in advance of consideration, a time for the Committee to rise and report.

Rule 31. Upon a proposal being submitted to the Committee of the Whole, the same shall be read by the Secretary and then read and debated as may be determined by the Committee. All amendments made to reports, resolutions and other matters submitted to the Committee of the Whole shall be noted and reported. After the report by the Committee of the Whole the proposal shall be subject to be debated and amended on the floor of the Convention.

Rule 32. The rules of the Convention shall be observed in the Committee of the Whole so far as they are applicable. Where there are no provisions, the proceedings shall be controlled by Cushing's Manual of Parliamentary Practice.

Rule 33. Delegates having 57 votes shall be a quorum for the Committee of the Whole to do business; and if the Committee finds itself without a quorum, the Chairman shall cause the roll of the Convention to be called and thereupon the Committee shall rise, the President resume the chair and the Chairman report to the Convention the cause of the rising of the Committee.

Rule 34. A motion for the rising of the Committee of the Whole shall always be in order unless a member of the Committee is speaking or a vote is being taken, and shall be decided without debate.

3. Committee Reports and Proposals reported from Committees.
4. Second reading and action on reports of the Committee on Arrangement and Style, as to arrangement and phraseology only.
5. Third reading and agreement.

If the matter is not considered in its order, it shall lose its precedence for the day, but shall appear on the calendar on the following day in its regular order. Any matter may be made a special order of business for any particular day or time by a majority vote of the delegates present.

Rule 37. Any subject matter having been made the special order for a particular day, and not having been reached on that day, shall be upon the order of "Unfinished Business" on the next succeeding Convention day.

Rule 38. Upon calls of the Convention, the names of the delegates shall be called alphabetically by county. In case of the absence of delegates, the delegates present shall take such measures as they shall deem necessary to secure the presence of absentees. Any delegate may explain his vote, for not exceeding 3 minutes; but nothing in this rule shall abridge the right of any delegate to record his vote on any question previous to the announcement of the result.

Rule 39. After a question has been stated by the President, and the calling of the roll has begun by the Secretary, the President shall not recognize a delegate for any purpose whatever until the call shall have been completed.

Rule 40. The vote upon any question shall be taken by the yeas and nays and entered upon the Journal of the Convention, on motion made and seconded before the question is put and upon the request of at least 20 delegates.

Rule 41. The rules of Parliamentary Practice comprised in Cushing's Manual of Parliamentary Practice shall govern in all cases in which they are not inconsistent with the standing rules and orders of the Convention.

Rule 42. Any rule of the Convention may be suspended or repealed, altered or amended by a vote of delegates having at least 57 votes and any amendment offered shall lie on the table one day before being voted upon.

Rule 43. When a motion is made it shall be stated by the President, or being in writing, it shall be handed to the Secretary and read aloud by him before being debated.

Rule 44. Every motion shall be reduced to writing if the President or any delegate shall request it and shall be entered upon the Journal, together with the name of the delegate making it, unless withdrawn or ruled out of order by the President before discussion.

Rule 45. After a motion has been stated by the President, or read by the Secretary and seconded by a delegate, it shall be deemed to be in the possession of the Convention, but may be withdrawn at any time before decision or amendment.

Rule 46. When a question is under consideration by the Convention only the following motions shall be received; which motions shall have precedence in the order stated, viz.:

Motions to, or for:

Calls for information, for reading a paper, for division of a divisible question for division of the house, for the yeas and nays, and a motion for reconsideration shall always be in order, but shall not be amendable or debatable.

An appeal from the decision of the chair may be taken at any stage of the proceedings.

Rule 47. The previous question shall be put in this form, "Shall the main question be now put?" It shall be admitted when demanded by a majority of the delegates present, a quorum being present, and its effects shall be, if decided affirmatively, to put an end to all debate and bring the Convention to a direct vote upon pending amendments, if any, to the main question, and then upon the main question, but if decided in the negative, to leave the main question and amendments, if any, under debate for the remainder of the sitting, unless sooner disposed of by taking the question, or in some other manner. All incidental questions of order arising after a motion is made for the previous question, and pending such motion, shall be decided, whether on appeal or otherwise, without debate.

Rule 48. A motion to reconsider any vote must be made before the end of the 2nd convention day after the day on which the vote proposed to be reconsidered was taken, and by a delegate who voted in the majority and the same majority shall be required to adopt a motion to reconsider as was required to take the action to be reconsidered. When a motion for reconsideration is decided, that decision shall not be reconsidered, and no question shall be twice reconsidered; nor shall any vote be reconsidered upon either of the following motions:

For the Previous Question.

Rule 49. Any delegate may call for the division of a question which is in its nature divisible. A motion to strike out and insert shall be deemed indivisible; but a motion to strike out being lost, shall neither preclude amendment nor a motion to strike out and insert.

Rule 50. No delegate shall speak more than 3 times on one question, or longer than 15 minutes the first, or longer than 5 minutes the second or 5 minutes the third time or more than once until other delegates who have not spoken shall speak if they so desire, without first obtaining leave of the Convention; and the mover of the proposition shall have the right to close the debate, provided that the person in charge of a proposal on third reading and final agreement shall have the right, if he desires, to close the debate and he may announce such desire at any time before the taking of the vote on the question.

Rule 51. No delegate rising to debate, to give a notice, make a motion, or present a paper of any kind, shall proceed until he shall have addressed the President and been recognized by him as entitled to the floor.

Rule 52. While the President is putting a question or a count is being had no delegate shall speak or leave his place; and while a member is speaking no delegate shall entertain any private discourse or pass between him and the chair.

Rule 53. When a motion to adjourn, or for recess, shall be carried, no delegate or officer shall leave his place until the adjournment or recess shall be declared by the President.

Rule 54. Any delegate may at any time rise and speak to a question of personal privilege. No delegate speaking to a question of personal privilege shall be subject to any rule of the Convention limiting the time a delegate may speak.

Rule 55. Each proposal shall receive 3 separate readings in the Convention previous to being agreed upon, but no proposal shall be read twice on the same day or be considered on third reading until after at least 48 hours notice, of the day upon which it is to be so considered, has been given by mail to each delegate or by announcement made in open session of the Convention.

All proposals may be read by their titles but no proposal shall be read the third time by its title unless copies thereof have been distributed and are on the delegates' desks before such reading. No amendment shall be received to any proposal on its third reading unless by consent of the delegates casting two-thirds of the votes.

All proposals shall, after the first reading, be printed for the use of the members. Printed copies of proposals shall be used on their second and third readings.

Rule 56. The regular order to be taken by proposals, introduced in the Convention and committee proposals reported to the Convention shall be as follows:

- B. Reference to a standing committee by the President and reported from that committee to the Organization and Operations Committee for the purpose of scheduling such report for presentation to the Convention.

Four Convention days after the filing of said Report, the Report shall be placed on the general orders.

- D. Second Reading: Consideration by the Convention and action on amendments offered by delegates to the Convention.

Rule 58. Each proposal shall be in quadruplicate, shall be typewritten with one original copy and 3 carbon copies thereof, or printed, shall be endorsed on the back with the caption and the signature of all delegates or of the Chairman of the standing Committee introducing or reporting it.

Rule 59. The caption of each proposal shall be “Constitutional Convention of New Jersey
of 1966
Proposal

Introduced by (Name of delegate or Chairman

Rule 60. Each proposal shall contain a short title stating concisely the general nature of its subject matter and it shall be indicated there in the Article, Section and paragraph of the present Constitution intended to be revised, altered or reformed thereby. Rule 61. Each proposal shall be in the form of a resolution as follows:

“RESOLVED, that the following be agreed upon as part of the proposed revised and amended State Constitution.”

At each Session of the Convention the Secretary shall read the number and title of each proposal so presented to him for introduction after the last Rule 65. After May 12, 1966, no proposal shall be introduced, except on the report or recommendation of a standing committee or such special committees as may be established, or by consent of the delegates casting 95 or more votes.

Rule 66. At such date as may be convenient and not later than May 19, 1966, or at such earlier time as may be directed by a vote of the delegates having not less than 57 votes, each standing committee shall submit to the Convention a report or reports in writing of the result of its deliberations in connection with the subject matters within its consideration under these rules and proposals referred to it.

Rule 67. Each Committee Report shall be accompanied by a Committee proposal containing a complete Article or other appropriate subdivision or group of Articles or subdivisions of the proposed Constitution recommended for consideration and agreement upon by the Convention and the Report shall state as to each Proposal referred to the Committee and relating to the subject matter of the Report and Committee Proposal, whether it (1) has been adopted in whole in the Committee Proposal, or (2) has been adopted in part in the Committee Proposal, or (3) has been disapproved, or (4) has been disposed of in such manner as may be indicated.

Rule 68. Each Standing Committee may originate and report without specific reference, any Committee proposal the subject matter of which properly falls within the consideration of such Committee under these rules.

Rule 69. The reports by any standing committee of committee proposals shall be taken as the first reading of such committee proposals and it shall be ordered to a second reading without reference. No proposals other than committee proposals shall have a second reading except by a vote of delegates having not less than 57 votes.

Rule 70. Each amendment offered to a proposal before being read, shall be presented to the Secretary, in quadruplicate, either typewritten, with one original and 3 carbon copies thereof, or printed, and shall be entered in the Journal. The Secretary shall forward the original to the printer for printing, shall retain one copy until the original is returned to him, one copy shall be made available to the Press and one copy shall be delivered to the Chairman of the Standing Committee in charge of the proposal intended to be amended. Rule 71. Any proposal which has passed its second reading together with all amendments thereto, shall be referred to the Committee on Arrangement and Style for consideration as provided by these rules and when reported by said Committee shall be subject to consideration and amendment as to arrangement and phraseology only and if any such amendment be adopted, shall be again referred to the Committee on Arrangement and Style for similar consideration and report thereof, and if said Committee's report shall be adopted, it shall be ordered to be printed and to third reading.

Rule 72. Proposals which have passed 2 readings together with all amendments thereto shall be prepared by the Secretary in proper form for printing for third reading and when the Secretary receives from the printer any proposal ordered to a third reading and the same shall be found correct, he shall affix an official stamp to each page of the copy to be used as the official copy.

Rule 73. All proposals agreed upon by the Convention shall be referred to the Committee on Submission and Address to the People and such Committee shall consider and report to the Convention recommending the method and manner of submitting them to the people in accordance with law.

Rule 74. When the Convention shall have agreed upon its proposals and the manner of their submission it shall refer to the Committee on Submission and Address to the People, and such committee shall consider and report to the Convention, in what manner the question or questions, to be placed upon the ballot submitting to the people the proposed revised and amended Constitution thereof agreed upon, shall be framed and whether it is deemed appropriate that an interpretative statement shall be placed thereon or should be dispensed with and in what form such interpretative statement, if so recommended, should be framed.

Rule 75. There shall also be referred to the Committee on Submission and Address to the People the preparation of an Address to the People consisting of a summary and explanation of the proposed revisions and amendments to the Constitution agreed upon and the making of such directions, if any, to officials and others for submission to the people of such proposals agreed upon and for notice and publication of the same and of the Address and for the distribution of copies thereof to such persons, places and institutions through the office of the Secretary of State or other persons and at such times and in such manner as may seem desirable and proper and the said committee shall prepare such an Address and report the same and shall report also as to the other matters so referred to it to the Convention for its action thereon.

Uniform Rules
Governing the Conduct of Public Hearings
by the Standing Committees
(pursuant to Rule 28)

1. The standing committees shall hold public hearings as and when ordered by the Convention, by general or special order, on the subject matter lying within its consideration in accordance with the Rules of the Convention or referred to it by the Convention.

2. The co-chairmen, or acting chairman, of the standing committees shall give public notice of each public hearing as far in advance as is practicable.

3. Said public notice shall be made by delivering a copy thereof to the Committee on Public Relations and Information and the Committee on Public Relations and Information shall deliver or forward immediately copies thereof to all members of the news media.

4. A copy of said public notice shall be posted prominently in the Convention chambers, in the State House, and forwarded to all County Clerks for posting in each County Court House.

5. Said public notice shall include the date, time and place of the public hearing and a concise description of the subject matter or proposal to be considered.

6. All persons wishing to testify before a standing committee shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity to do so and should notify Mrs. June Chase at either telephone: Area code, Charter 7-0001 or Area code 609, 292-4724 when Convention is not in session, of such intention.

7. Expert witnesses shall be invited to testify whenever the committee deems necessary or desirable.

8. Witnesses shall be requested, where practicable, to submit written statements of their testimony, but the lack of such written statements shall not be used to deny any witness the opportunity to testify.

9. Witnesses shall limit their oral testimony to 15 minutes, unless otherwise restricted or extended by the committee.

10. Prior to convening a public hearing authorized under these Convention rules, each committee conducting such hearing shall designate a member to sit as the Presiding Officer. If the Presiding Officer is not present at the public hearing the members attending shall designate a Presiding Officer. For the purpose of public hearings the members of the committee attending shall constitute a quorum.

In this capacity such member will maintain order and decorum and rule on all procedural questions arising during the course of the hearing. Rulings of the chair may be overruled by a majority vote of the committee members present. In the event a ruling of the chair is so appealed, the Presiding Officer shall vote only in the event of a tie.

11. All said public hearings shall be recorded and transcribed. Three hundred copies of the transcription of each public hearing, together with any exhibits and other related materials as the committee may direct, shall be made, and a copy thereof shall be made available to each delegate as soon as practicable.

12. Whenever practicable, said public hearings shall be held at Rutgers, the State University, New Brunswick, New Jersey.
