In the vicinity of the beautiful country town of Butler, N. J., there spread, in innumerable, most lovely, surroundings, by means of fine, gardens, orchards, and parks, the Health Resort of YUNGBORN. The establishment was called a Yungborn by reason of the reviving and strengthening effects of its Regeneration Cures. And indeed, the place is so situated that the guests arriving from many directions, even from abroad, find their particular gradations as required for the various diseases and conditions of weakness, are fully attended to in the case of those not suffering correspondingly.

The establishment is so called after its founder, the genial Johann Schroth, and the combined Yungborn-Regeneration Cures are the most peculiar and most intense forms of these Cures which are applied in their particular gradations as required for the various diseases and conditions of weakness, are fully attended to in the case of those not suffering correspondingly.

Yungborn’s ForeHt Chamber—A prominent writer likened Yungborn to a lovely legend of nature of peaceful retreat. For those inclined to exhilarating walks the nearby and farther mountain-woods stretch out for miles and miles, and you can stroll through them in every direction on convenient, dry trails.

Aid in Obsolete, Inveterate Cases—The Yungborn Regeneration Cures will help even the most deep-rooted and superannuated sufferers and conditions of weakness, where others cure failed, except in cases of organic new growth and destructions (like cancer and consumption) or malnutrition.

It need hardly be mentioned that not only those requiring cure, but also those in need of rest, the weakened and convalescent derive the best possible benefits of lasting effect from the sojourn at the Yungborn.

Falt, Spring and Winter Cures—We wish to call the reader’s attention particularly to the extensive fall treatments offered for a stay in autumn time. The most peculiar and most intense forms of these Cures are the Yungborn-Regeneration Cures and the Strengthening Cures are immensely successful in winter. In addition, the delightful, mild forest and mountain air, so rich in ozone and oxygen, is of extra-ordinary reviving, refreshing and strengthening effect upon the entire organism (which is true of every month).

Stillness of the Forest—In one minute’s time you find yourself in forest’s deepest peace. The mountain-woods stretch out for miles and miles, and you can stroll through them in every direction on convenient, dry trails.

Climate—The climate is extremely mild. A pure, clear air, free from dust and rich in ozone acts soothing and strengthening upon the nervous system and furthering upon the blood circulation.

Yungborn—A number of sanatoriums and villas stand ready to receive the guests in a most modern fashion, even from abroad. Very special attention is given to the development of humid warmth treatment, as one of the most important curative factors.

Water Treatments—Steam, electricity, bandaging, baths, etc., are resorted to individually. Furthermore, Fruit Cures, Herb Cures, Vegetable and Mixed Diet, Fasting Diet Cures in combination with Fruit Diets, and so forth.
