Trenton, NJ – Governor Chris Christie issued the following statement marking Veterans Day:

“Today we take time to honor and pay respect to the men and women who have served in our nation’s Armed Forces. Our veterans have made tremendous contributions and sacrifices while wearing our nation’s uniform. Their desire to serve our country has kept us safe at home and abroad and has helped to protect the values of our nation. Today serves as a reminder to thank our veterans, those currently serving in the military, and their families for their service, bravery and commitment to America.”

Governor Christie also proclaimed November 11, 2014 as “Veterans Day” throughout New Jersey.
