

Asbury Park: Ready For Summer 2014

Governor Christie has remained committed to rebuilding Asbury Park after the boardwalk alone suffered $3 million in damage after Superstorm Sandy. New Jerseyans came together to rebuild in the aftermath of the storm and welcomed visitors from across the country back to Asbury Park and the Jersey Shore last summer and are prepared to continue the momentum into the Summer of 2014.

FLASHBACK: Governor Christie And President Obama Tour The Asbury Park Boardwalk

BY THE NUMBERS: ASBURY PARK RECOVERY SINCE SANDY

$6,600,000

FEMA has obligated over $6.6 million in federal funds through the Public Assistance program to Asbury Park for eligible debris removal, emergency services and rebuilding activities.

$3,300,000

Asbury Park residents and businesses have received approximately $3.3 million in payouts from the National Flood Insurance Program.

$465,920

Asbury Park residents have received approximately $465,920 in FEMA Individual Assistance, which includes repair costs, replacement costs, rental assistance and other needs assistance.

$350,000

Asbury Park received an Essential Services grant of $350,000 through the Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) Program.

$199,611

EDA Stronger NJ Business Grant has approved 4 grants to Asbury Park businesses worth $199,611.

$9,192

Asbury Park City School District, received $9,192 in funding from the U.S. Department of Education's Project School Emergency Response to Violence grant program, which provides services designed to maintain safe learning environments for children. The program was made available to schools that were disrupted by the storm.