REPORT

OF THE

State Librarian of New Jersey

CONCERNING

Traveling Libraries.

TO THE LEGISLATURE—SESSION OF 1900.

TRENTON, N. J.:
MacCrellish & Quigley, Current Printers.
1900.
REPORT.

Hon. Foster M. Voorhees, Governor of New Jersey:

Dear Sir—Concerning the traveling libraries created under the authority of the act of April 20th, 1898, the following is submitted for the information of the Legislature:

Since the date of the annual report of the State Librarian, twenty-eight of the traveling libraries provided by the Commissioners of the State Library have been made up, and twenty-seven of them have been sent out to towns and villages whose residents first made application and complied with the requirements of the Commissioners. The twenty-eighth has been retained to facilitate the making of exchanges, in order that there may be no delays when a library is returned.

With the appropriation of $1,500 made by the Legislature last year, 1,345 volumes were purchased for the libraries, at a cost of $1,166.29. Besides these, there were contributed 52 volumes on kindergarten work by Miss Mary McKeen, of Camden, on behalf of the New Jersey State Federation of Women's Clubs; twelve volumes by Mrs. Washington A. Roebling, of Trenton, and Mrs. Charles B. Yardley, of East Orange, on behalf of the New Jersey State Board of Lady Managers of the World's Columbian Exposition; two volumes by Mrs. Roebling, and seventeen volumes of the "Famous Tales" series, by the Isaac H. Blanchard Company, of New York; making in all 1,428 volumes. Each of the libraries made up contains fifty volumes, and there remain on hand twenty-eight volumes.

The following statement will show how the appropriation has been expended:

For 1,345 books, .................... $1,166.29
Postage stamps, ..................... 10.00
Sample book-case, charging tray, etc., .......... 8.03
Cards and case for card catalogue, .............. 31.00
Accession book, labels and pockets, ............. 12.75
TRAVELING LIBRARIES.

There remains a balance of $89.63 of the appropriation, to be used for expressage, postage and other necessary expenses during the year. Besides this there is in hand the sum of $135 received as fees for the use of the libraries, and which, under the rules adopted by the Library Commissioners, may be used to replace books lost or damaged, any balance remaining at the end of the fiscal year to be turned over to the State Treasurer.

Twenty-seven book-cases, charging trays and outer packing-cases were furnished by the State House Commission, after the sample obtained from the University of the State of New York. This enabled the Committee on Traveling Libraries to furnish at least six more libraries than would otherwise have been possible, as from $300 to $135 was thereby saved for the purchase of books.

Libraries have been sent to the following towns: Freehold, Fair Haven and Eatontown, Monmouth county; Blairstown, Belvidere and Washington, Warren county; Branchville and Hamburg, Sussex county; Pompton and Bloomingdale, Passaic county; Belleville and Millburn, Essex county; Tuckahoe and Wildwood, Cape May county; Pensgrove and Woodstown, Salem county; Stockton and Rosemont, Hunterdon county; Bridgeport and Glassboro, Gloucester county; Port Oram, Morris county; Shiloh, Cumberland county; Pensaukin, Camden county; Pemberton, Burlington county; Millstone, Somerset county; River Vale, Bergen county; Lawrenceville, Mercer county. The counties not represented are Atlantic, Hudson, Middlesex, Ocean and Union. Six other applications for the libraries have been received from Manasquan, Monmouth county; Holly Beach, Cape May county; Bellemead, Somerset county; Three Bridges, Hunterdon county; Rochelle Park, Bergen county, and Asbury, Warren county. The applicants have been notified that no more libraries can be furnished until another appropriation is made by the Legislature for the purchase of books.

No attempt has been made to create a demand for the libraries, and from the inquiries received it is evident that the fact that there is a law creating the traveling libraries is not generally known in some of the counties. Circulars of information and blank applica-

Table of costs:

- Printing blanks, cards, book slips, shipping labels, circulars, etc. $2.00
- Printing 500 copies of each of 28 catalogues. 98.75
- Account book. 2.50
- Expressage for sending out libraries. 29.05

Total: $1,410.37

The ladies also volunteered to assist in preparing the books for circulation, but this was not necessary, all the work of entering, labeling, numbering, placing card-pockets and book-plates in the volumes, making the catalogues for the libraries, and a card catalogue of all the books, having been done by the regular force in the State Library, and without incurring extra expense.

In making up the catalogues, not more than twenty-five works of fiction were placed in any library, the remaining volumes being of history, biography, science and other subjects. In purchasing the books an attempt was made to get all of those of some of the standard authors and series, in order to make the work of selection easier hereafter.

Annexed are copies of the twenty-eight catalogues, arranged alphabetically by authors, and which will show the character of the books purchased. By the arrangement made with the local book-seller who supplied the greater part of the books, it was possible to secure at moderate rates many high-priced volumes which otherwise it would have been impossible to obtain without reducing the number of the libraries made up.

The first of the libraries were sent out on December 15th, and the last on January 3d. Reports have been received from two of them, in connection with requests for additional supplies of catalogues and cards. At Shiloh, Cumberland county, there are fifty-eight readers, and there are seldom more than six or eight volumes in the library at a time. At Branchville, Sussex county, fifty-five persons are attempting to get books from the library of fifty volumes.
The New Jersey traveling libraries system is similar to those in operation in New York, Wisconsin and Michigan, the plan and blank forms having been adapted from copies of those in use in the States named. The main features of the system may be learned from the appended Circular of Information, a copy of which was sent to all who applied for the blank forms.

Respectfully submitted,

HENRY C. BUCHANAN,
State Librarian.

Trenton, N. J., February 6th, 1900.

Circular of Information.

By authority of the act of April 20th, 1898, the Commissioners of the New Jersey State Library have provided a number of small traveling libraries, each containing fifty volumes. These libraries are to be operated from the State Library, and will be loaned to municipalities that are too small to maintain a public library. Preference will be given to those which first make application and comply with the requirements. Blank applications will be furnished on request.

Printed catalogues, rules governing the operation of the traveling library system, a charging tray, cards, and instructions to the Trustee and Librarian, will be furnished without cost to those using the libraries. A fee of five dollars per year must be paid, in advance, to the State Librarian, to cover the cost of transportation and all other charges.

The charges for conveying the libraries to the express office or railroad station nearest their destination will be paid at the State Library; also the return charges. The cost for local cartage must be borne by those to whom the libraries are sent.

Traveling libraries will be loaned upon the application of twenty resident taxpayers, who must select a Trustee and a Librarian, who will become responsible for the proper usage and safe return of the cases and the books.

The library shall be kept in a place convenient for the residents of the community, and shall be kept open not less than one hour on each of two days in each week. A library may be kept in one locality not more than six months, when it shall be returned to the State Library, and another will be sent to replace it.

The expense for rent (if any), light and fuel for the room in which a traveling library is located, must be borne by the residents. In other States where the traveling libraries are in operation, it has been found that there are always dealers who are glad to have the libraries stationed in their stores or shops, and in many cases they are kept in private residences.
TRAVELING LIBRARIES.

In cases of loss or unreasonable damage to books, the advantages of the traveling library system will be denied to a community until payment has been made therefor to the State Librarian; and the local Librarian may refuse to lend books to a borrower who refuses to pay for the cost of a book lost or damaged while in his possession.

A fine of one cent a day may be levied on borrowers who retain a book more than two weeks without renewal. The revenue thus obtained is to be used for the incidental expenses of the local library.

The books are to be loaned without charge to any resident of the community over fourteen years of age who will sign an agreement to pay promptly any fines imposed for over-detention of books, or for unreasonable injury to a book while in his possession. Children under fourteen years of age may have the privileges of the libraries when their agreements are endorsed by the Trustee.

The intent of the traveling library system being the diffusion of good literature, it is desired that the books be circulated as widely as possible consistent with their safety. The libraries will be made up of standard and contemporary fiction, biography, history, and works on literature, scientific and other subjects. Not more than half of the books in any library will be of fiction, and the same percentage will be such as are likely to be read by young persons.
