SUBCHAPTER 9. (RESERVED)

SUBCHAPTER 10. DISCOVERY

1:21-10.1 Discovery in trade secret cases

(a) When necessary to prevent the trade secret from being disclosed without authorization, the judge may order:

1. That the requested discovery not be had;
2. That the discovery may be had only on specified terms and conditions, including a designation of the time or place;
3. That the discovery may be had only by a method of discovery other than that selected by the party seeking discovery;
4. That certain matters not be inquired into, or that the scope of the discovery be limited to certain matters;
5. That discovery be conducted with no one present except persons designated by the judge;
6. That a deposition after being sealed be opened only by order of the judge;
7. That the parties simultaneously file specified documents or information enclosed in sealed envelopes to be opened as directed by the judge; or
8. Any other device which reasonably balances the discovery goal of minimizing surprise at hearings with the need to protect the trade secret from an unauthorized disclosure.

SUBCHAPTER 11. (RESERVED)

SUBCHAPTER 12. MOTIONS

1:21-12.1 Written motions

Written motions shall be made directly to the judge.

Amended by R.1992 d.213, effective May 18, 1992.

SUBCHAPTER 13. (RESERVED)

SUBCHAPTER 14. CONDUCT OF TRADE SECRET CASE

1:21-14.1 Sound recordings; safeguarding the case file and sound recordings; preparation of transcripts

(a) Court reporters will not be provided for trade secret hearings. A verbatim record will be maintained by sound recording.

(b) When not in use, all audio tapes and case files together with all evidence and other related case materials, including any transcripts, shall be locked in an Office of Administrative Law filing cabinet in a locked room, whether or not particular tapes, case files, evidence or related materials include secret testimony or argument. Access to the file cabinet shall be limited to judges and their secretaries. Access to the locked room shall be restricted to a person or persons designated by the Director in writing. A record of access to the file cabinet shall be maintained by the designated persons.

(c) No duplicates or copies of any portion of an audio tape containing secret information shall be permitted.

(d) Upon the request of a person who is authorized by the judge to receive a transcript, the judge's secretary shall prepare a transcript of that portion of the hearing dealing with the secret information. A transcribing firm may be authorized to prepare a transcript of that portion of the hearing not dealing with the secret information.

1:21-14.2 Sealing the record

(a) On the last day of the evidentiary hearing, the parties shall be given the opportunity to address the record sealing requirements of the case. The record shall be sealed by order attached to the initial decision in every trade secret case.
